

Pick-The-Winner Fans Lose With Defeat Of Army

100 In Contest But Not One Succeeded In Guessing Right

Upsets in the nation's football week-end were costly to local pick-the-winner fans last week. Out of 100 selections not one single person picked a perfect week and consequently no Milanese tickets will be issued this Wednesday.

While games from coast to coast, in the North and in the South were among those selected, the Army-Mississippi state game, which was the big upset far as local fans were concerned. Out of the entire 100 selections turned in 62 were discredited because Mississippi State beat West Point. But for this week there might have been 62 losers.

Last week's result was quite a contrast to the week preceding when 16 fans handed in correct bets and received in return 32 passes to the Milane Theater. In tomorrow's Herald this week's pick-the-winner chart will be published and fans are again urged to send in their selections as to increase their chances to win. Only the first 10 correct selections will receive theater tickets. However, the sports editor calls attention to the fact that this does not mean that the first 10 charts submitted will win. Only correct lists will count in this first group.

Three fans picked "Sanford" to beat Santa Clara. Sanford did not play Santa Clara, but Stanford. This error would automatically disqualify the selection, but the one person missed on the Iowa-Indiana game, which was a tie. Two other fans made a mistake and sent their selections to the Milane Theater instead of the Herald and therefore did not reach the office before 5 o'clock yesterday. As the deadline is noon Saturday, naturally these were thrown out. Yet, both also lost on the Army-Mississippi State game.

Those who lost in the Army-Mississippi State upset were: Mrs. T. M. Hill, Joe Miss Jean Lane, H. R. Boland, Jack Morrison, R. F. Monsalvatge, Robert Fashburn, Miss Jane Lloyd, Douglas Stevenson, Eddie Rawson, T. L. O'Connor, Joseph O'Connor, Douglas Scott, Mrs. Douglas G. Scott, Frank Morrison, John Schirard, Jr., F. H. Cullum, Lena Harwick, William Jones, J. M. Stimpfhorst, Mrs. D. W. Johnson, R. W. Ware, Clifford Barfield, Mrs. Blanch Ware, M. E. Johnson, Lady Jane Emerson, S. C. Cameron, Mrs. John Schirard, Jr., Geo. A. Speer, Jr., Mrs. J. W. Childer, Randall Slaughter, Dick McLaughlin, Mrs. Homer Little.

Rollins Vs. Tampa On Orlando Field At 8:15 Tonight

String Of Victories Has Been Won By West Coast Squad

WINTER PARK, Nov. 4.—The Rollins Tars will once again essay the role of "giant killer" when they attempt to halt the victorious march of a highly regarded Tampa University football team at Tinker Field in Orlando tonight.

Coming to Orlando with decisive victories over South Georgia Teachers, Miami University and Newberry College, the invaders are heavy favorites to trounce the Tars. On the other hand, the Tars can not boast of an impressive record. They won over Newberry, then dropped a one sided battle to Southeastern Louisiana.

The game is called for 8:15. Several upsets were recorded on the football chart Saturday. Seven of the country's hitherto undefeated and untied teams fell by the wayside. Dartmouth shook the jinx that has followed it every time it went against Yale in more than a half a century, and Florida came near gaining a victory over Georgia.

In a melodramatic finish that has had few parallels in college football history, the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame snatched victory from apparent defeat and in the last few minutes of play defeated Ohio State 18 to 13. Out in California the Golden Bears upset the University of California in Los Angeles 14 to 2, and became the Pacific Coast's only undefeated and untied champion football eleven.

Marching along the undefeated trail with Notre Dame and California were North Carolina, Minnesota, Marquette, Texas Christian, Southern Methodist, Dartmouth, New York University, Princeton and Syracuse. Joining Ohio State and U. C. L. A. in the beaten class were Army, Temple, Catholic and Baylor while Iowa's Hawkeyes outplayed most of the way, were lucky to get a 6-6 draw with Indiana.

Dartmouth dragged out the obituary of the "blue jinx" and tied it about 45,000 spectators as the Hanover Indians scored their first football victory over Yale in more than half a century. The score was 14 to 6.

The Gators put up a stubborn defense in the game with Georgia in Jacksonville, but Georgia managed to squeak out a 7 to 6 victory over Florida. A trio of clean-cut victories featured by Mississippi State's jarring 18 to 7 win over the hitherto undefeated Army eleven gave the Southeastern Conference a clean sweep of its inter-sectional gridiron warfare this week-end.

A last minute pass spelled the margin by which the Delta Staters whipped the Cadets at West Point, while Tulane administered a 14 to 6 beating to Colgate's Red Raiders at New Orleans. The third inter-sectional victory

Mighty Was Help Tackles Gave In Winning Contest

Warner And Stapler Opened Holes And Backs Crossed Line

By HENRY SLAUGHTER
The Seminole Celery Feds scored what might be called a mild upset in the Northeastern Conference when they won a hard fought game from the Ocala Bulldogs last Friday night. The Ocala team was one of the unbeaten teams in the conference and the Celery Feds had not won a game this season, even though they had credit for winning the Lake City game that they lost by a score of 13-0.

In the first victory for the Celery Feds there was one group of players who made it possible for Wright to cross the Ocala goal line—Franz Warner and Jim Stapler. These two tackles are in there at all times giving the backs the necessary interference and opening holes in the opponent's line. Too much credit can not be given these two boys who go on fighting, blocking, tackling, and opening holes so that the backs may cross the goal line.

Franz Warner, a 170-pound junior tackle, was new to the gridiron this season, but he has shown that it doesn't take a player long to learn and he has been playing a good game at tackle all season. It is well known that not many yards have been gained by the opponents over Franz this season. He will be back out there again next season to show the local fans that Seminole High can win football games.

Jim Stapler, another junior tackle weighing 185 pounds, has not been up to standard, and therefore he did not see much service until last Friday night in Ocala and he tried to show that he deserved more than a seat on the bench. Jim is a newcomer to Seminole High and is trying to make good.

Edwin Humphries, 165 pound sophomore, has been used as the first string tackle all season and played a good game, but injuries received in the earlier games kept him out of most of the game last week. Humphries is only a sophomore and by the time he is a senior he should be one of the best tackles that Seminole High has had in the past few years.

D. H. Hodges, a 165 pound junior, and John Mauser, 165 pound senior, are the tackle reserves, and they both may see lots of service in these last few weeks of the season.

Governor Joins University Head In Defending Present Coaching System

Governor Dave Sholtz said he stands squarely behind President John J. Tigert in his defense of the University of Florida's coaching system and the football team.

Florida's Chief Executive declared "The Gator team is an amateur team and is doing well as could be expected. The university has a policy of employing alumni to coach this team. The alumni coaches are not paid large salaries and they are not coaching professional players."

Dr. Tigert in an address urged Florida boosters to be more tolerant in their attitude toward the Gators. He charged that Florida's football squad is being "persecuted" and its coaching staff is being undermined.

In thousands of cases where Cardui has been taken to help women overcome monthly discomfort it has been reported to have been of valuable assistance. "Before I began using Cardui, I was so weak that when I closed my eyes I felt like I was going to fall," writes Mrs. J. W. Harris, of Peter, S. C. "I was very nervous and had a pain in my side. At times, I would have to go to bed. This made me very nervous as I had six children and there is always work on a farm. My mother had taken Cardui and told me to try it. I took six bottles, after which I was up and able to do all my work. Nothing but Cardui has helped me. I have nothing but praise for Cardui. If you are in need of relief, do not hesitate to try it. Consult a physician."

Seminole County Produces More Fruits And Vegetables Than Any Similar Area In America

Rivers Remain Closed To Any Seine Fishing

County Commission Stands Pat On Its Former Action And Magruder Approves

315 Signed Plea To Open Streams

Opposing Petition Bore Signatures Of Close To 1000

Streams in Seminole County will remain closed to the fishing, the Board of County Commissioners voted this morning, and its recommendation will be approved by C. C. Magruder, state fish and game commissioner, the latter declared at the public meeting.

The vote was taken after a lengthy argument participated in by a number of interested persons who attended the board meeting, following the presentation of more petitions asking that the streams be opened to seine fishing. Commissioner Charles Dunn made the motion, and it was passed by unanimous vote.

The Commission about a month ago voted to recommend opening the streams to seine fishing. Then a petition signed by 998 persons was presented asking that the question be reconsidered, and the board thereupon voted to recommend that the streams be closed. Before any action was taken by the State Fish and Game Commission on this recommendation from Seminole County, petitions were again circulated asking that seine fishing be allowed, and it was these petitions that the commissioners rejected today. Three hundred and fifteen signatures were added to the latest petitions, 138 residents of the Geneva and Ocala sections, 115 by children, and 62 in total.

Report Attempt Made On Life Of Haile Selassie

ROME, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Asmara, correspondent of the newspaper La Tribuna, reported today that an attempt had been made on the life of Emperor Haile Selassie.

Train, mud and the need for roads, halted the Italian offensive against Makala in Northern Ethiopia today. From the East African field headquarters at Asmara in Eritrea came orders for a two day halt in the drive outward. Engineers rushed to work pushing road construction.

In their drive through mud and water the Italian columns had reached the heights about Agula, commanding the approach to Makala, caravan center strategically important in the Italian advance into the Ethiopian interior. Agula is 15 miles north and slightly east of Makala. From all indications Makala will fall into the hands of the invaders without battle.

George II of Greece, (above) living in exile the last three years, issued a proclamation in London last night announcing his imminent return to the throne as a result of a 45-to-1 vote of Greece on Sunday for restoration of the monarchy. George Komninos, fiery monarchist leader (below) engineered the coup a few weeks ago which resulted in the resignation of the president of Greece and the vote to ask King George to return.

Boys' Club Spends $1299. But Is $100 In Debt As Result

During the 16 months it has been in existence, the Seminole Boys' Athletic Club has expended $1299.60 in "actual good work," according to the annual report issued today by Judge S. A. B. Wilkinson, sponsor of the club. Much of the expenditure was in the distribution of donated merchandise, bread, etc., as the boys have spent less than one-half that amount on their own organization.

Goods, Bread, Etc., To Value Of $981 Has Been Distributed

Judge Wilkinson's report shows that in the 16 months the sum of $1299.60 represents the cash receipts and the disbursements amount to $554.63. Some of this money was expended for club equipment, such as gloves, canvas, lumber, etc., but much of it went for the purchase of school lunches and clothing for needy children and in providing them with drug and medical attention.

Since the organization has paid out $554 and has taken in only $428 it is considerably more than $100 "in the red."

Field Piece Is Offered Legion By Government

$150 Needed To Pay For Transporting It And Preparing Cement Foundation

Sanford can acquire the last available heavy field piece built for the Army during the World War if friends of the Campbell-Loring post of the American Legion will help the veterans' organization raise something like $150 to pay for transporting the heavy piece of artillery to this city and for building a concrete foundation to support it, Commander I. F. Boyle so reported at the Post meeting last night.

The big gun was located after months of correspondence with United States senators and United States Army officers, and it is said to be the last cannon of the kind the government has to give away. It is now at the Army Proving Grounds in Aberdeen, Md. It is 25 feet long and weighs 7,420 pounds. It is a 4.7 field piece, heavy artillery.

Commander Boyle has a price of $122 from the Merchants & Minors Steamship Line to transport the field piece from Aberdeen to Jacksonville, and Otto Caldwell, local agent for the St. Johns River Line has offered to transport it free of charge from Jacksonville to Sanford. Because of its weight a concrete base for the big gun must be built, the commander stated. It is planned to place it in front of the Legion Hall on Lake Front Boulevard.

In order to get the field piece the local American Legion post had to obtain the approval of the State Department of the Legion, of Lt. Col. J. R. Spengler, United States property and disbursement officer at the State Arsenal in St. Augustine, and of Major General W. H. Tachapet, chief of command. Boyle expressed the belief that as the field piece will not only be a fitting monument in honor of World War veterans (Continued From Page Two)

Foreign War Vets Install Officers At Deland Meeting

Officers of Seminole Post No. 3292, Veterans of Foreign Wars, were installed in Deland last night in a joint ceremony with the Deland post. Ira C. Hopper of Lakeland, state commander, was the installing officer, assisted by H. J. Byrns of Orlando, quartermaster of the state department.

The new officers of the V. F. W. Post in this city are Harry Kent, commander; Chas. S. Still, senior vice commander; Robert Q. Gray, junior vice commander; W. W. Goetsch, adjutant; Wm. O'Barr, quartermaster; Wm. F. Schmidt, officer of the day; Leon G. Pickering, chaplain, and Dr. W. Theodore Langley, post surgeon.

State Commander Hopper delivered a stirring address, after the installation ceremony, in which he stressed the points of service the V. F. W. was sponsored, and obtained for disabled veterans and their dependents. He pledged a continual fight for legislation to restore full benefits to all disabled veterans of all wars.

Seventeen members of the local organization of veterans who saw service under the U. S. flag in foreign lands accompanied the new officers to Deland for the installation ceremony.

Chattanooga Accepts Sanford's Offer; Ball Club Will Train Here Next Spring

Chattanooga's professional baseball club will train in Sanford next spring, Chairman Arthur Branan of the baseball committee composed of representatives of all civic organizations, was advised today.

The information comes direct from President Joe Engel of the baseball club who called Mr. Branan over the long distance telephone. Engel said it would be impossible for him to come to Sanford before the first of December, but as he is satisfied that a few minor details can be worked out he is going ahead with arrangements to bring his team here. He also told Mr. Branan that he is trying to schedule 11 games during the short spring training season. The club will arrive on Mar. 9 and leave on Mar. 30.

The spring training schedule of all baseball clubs is to be arranged at a meeting in Dayton, Ohio, on Nov. 24, and Engel plans to attend this meeting, he told Mr. Branan.

Clark Griffith owns both the Washington Senators, who train in Orlando, and the Chattanooga club, and therefore it is hoped that several games will be arranged between a Major League club and the Southern League club.

South Coast District Late Yesterday By 'Yankee Hurricane'

Black Off Bermuda

Citrus, Tomato Crops Harmed

Fields Suffer Loss Estimated At More Than Half Million

MIAMI, Nov. 5.—(AP)—In the bright sunlight Miami rolled up their shirt sleeves today and began clearing away the wreckage left by the hurricane late yesterday afternoon that caused four deaths and heavy property damage. Thankful that the post-season blow was no worse.

The storm, a "Yankee hurricane" that off Bermuda to north-northeast to the south, lashed Miami with winds that were recorded at 100 miles an hour and blew across extreme southern Florida into the Gulf of Mexico.

The Jacksonville Weather Bureau advised at 5:30 A. M. that the storm was central about 400 miles northwest of Key West, with shifting gusts and winds of hurricane force over a small area. The rate of movement was increased, indicating a possible change in direction.

The fall in Miami's four known levees, five reported missing and property damage over the greater Miami area estimated at between one and two million dollars.

The fall levees have Property damage set at $200,000 in Hollywood, just north of Miami, and one injured. Fifty percent damage in Little Dixie, where several were hurt, considerable loss in Fair Lakesdale, and other nearby communities. Estimated $200,000 damage to citrus crops and $500,000 to the tomato crop in the Redlands district.

Sanford reported five fishing boats missing.

Another boom within the next two years—that prophecy is being almost stereotyped among business men who have traveled into all parts of the United States and claim to note the trend of things.

Ban The "Big Shots"

Also viewing the attempt to prevent transients from making their way into this state as a radical departure from the time honored American system by which all citizens, whether rich or poor, were to be treated alike...

"We wonder," says the Banner, "if there aren't plenty of big-shot criminals—men who travel down in luxury and commit high-powered crimes—who come into Florida without a question, and play more havoc than all the little fellows put together, bilking our people for thousands of dollars, working big-time gambling rackets, and even committing crimes. Hadn't we better try to put a stop to them, too, as well as those pitiful little fellows who don't know where they can get their next bite to eat?"

It seems to us that the Star is exactly right about this matter and that there could be a great deal more danger to Florida's peace and security from a handful of New York and Chicago racketeers than from a whole army of ordinary unemployed. The average transient, hitch-hiker, or whatever you may call him, is coming to Florida because he has heard of the warm, comfortable climate during the winter months, and he has found that sleeping in Northern parks when the thermometer is hovering around zero is not conducive to the best health.

But the Johnny Torrios, the "Lucky" Lucianis, and the henchmen of the Purple Gang are moving in because they see in Florida a rich harvest for their various gambling, dope, and liquor rackets. They come down here primarily to prey upon Florida's winter visitors, but gravitating to them are always a motley crew of burglars, pickpockets, wire tappers and highway bandits who do not hesitate to stick up or fleece the home folks if they get a chance.

The really "big shots" do not travel via the hitch-hiking route, or under freight trains. They ride in expensive automobiles and are prepared to buy their way in if necessary. Keeping them out is far more important and presents a more difficult problem than providing for ordinary transients.

Trans-Pacific Air Lines

The new trans-Pacific flying clippers will enable American business men to get a substantial share of the annual five billion dollars in trade available in the Orient, says W. I. Van Dusen and Daniel Sayre in the December Cosmopolitan.

"Today's trade stake in the Orient," they write, "is five billion dollars each year. Double that in 'normal times.' For a greater share of this plum, every industrial nation in the world is clamoring. These teeming Far East markets, since the days of the hard-sailing Yankee Clippers, have been nearer to Europe than to America. Distance, interpreted in terms of weeks in transit for men, mail and merchandise, is the barrier. Now that barrier is to be swept away for America's commerce. Foreign markets are to be foreign in nationality only no longer in time.

"With the new wings for our commerce, American style goods will be displayed in Oriental shops the same day they appear on Fifth Avenue. Flowers and baby chicks may be profitably marketed. Salesmen will speed from Occident to Orient almost as simply as they are now routed from state to state. Blueprints, samples, estimates, orders will speed between the hemispheres by air mail. Shipments will follow direct from factory to customer by air express delivery.

"Heretofore there has been no express shipping service for foreign trade. Light weight merchandise, small lots, small mail order articles—the bulk of our great domestic sales products were economically barred. Now, the railroads have allied with the airlines within the United States to complete the links in this great trade route, and 20,000 offices of Railway Express Agency and the domestic air lines will act as depots for Oriental commerce."

Pan American Airways expects to launch its clipper ships late in November on regular schedules of four and a half days, sixty-five actual flying hours to China. Later they hope to cut the time to three days. New economic processes will be created by this revolution in transportation affecting financial transactions, credit and exchange. Then there will be three-day drafts in place of thirty-day drafts, twenty-seven days of interest saved out of each thirty. And with quicker exchange, capital can be kept producing.

Planes will start from San Francisco stopping at Honolulu, Midway Islands, Wake Islands, Guam and Manila. Then Hong Kong and Macao, a port near Canton.

Coach Trying To Perfect Team's Passing Attack

Colbert, Purdon And Waits Are End Men On Sanford Squad

By HENRY BLAUGHTER

Coach McLucas has been trying to get his pass attack started for several weeks, but this can be done only if he can develop his ends. The first part of the season Coach McLucas concentrated upon teaching his inexperienced ends to block and get under punts. Now that they have mastered that he is putting them through long pass drills. The coach sees that his only hope of even a fair season is to win the remainder of his games on passes.

The first string ends for Seminole High are Billy Colbert, 150 pound junior; Jack Purdon, 150 pound junior and Sam Waits, 160 pound freshman.

Billy Colbert came out for football for the first time this season and soon showed that he was a promising player. Coach McLucas has done well with Billy and has been repaid for his pains in the past few games when Colbert would break away the entire interference of the opposing team so one of his team mates could bring down the ball carrier for no gain, or on several occasions for a loss. Colbert is a good end and will show up better in the remaining games this season. He will be out again next year with a season of experience behind him, and it would not be much of a surprise if he is chosen as an All-conference player in his senior year.

Jack Purdon, a long 6-footer, will be with Colbert when the Seminole backs start pulling those long and short passes in the rest of the games. Purdon was used as a regular. He is a good defensive end, and there are not many ends in the conference who play as good a game on the offense. Jack is always used to run interference when the play comes his way, and it is seldom that he does not have the way cleared. Jack's height will be to his advantage when it is necessary for him to take a high pass over the head of some Orlando or Landon back.

Sam Waits has not seen as much service as the other ends, but those times he has been in the game he has shown that he is making a bid for a regular position even though he is only a freshman. Sam has the height and weight that will be required to take Orlando into camp when the Celery Feds meet them in Orlando on Armistice Day.

Angus Harriett a 145 pound junior, is used as a reserve end and has been in a few games. Angus seems to lack that pep that he should have, but he is fast, and a good blocker. His weight is not much of a handicap, but it has kept him from making much of a showing this season. Angus was used as an utility player last season and it was thought that he would make a good player this season. He has another season to prove his worth, and it is hoped that he will show much improvement.

Stetson Eleven Is Looked After By 'Mom' Leary

DELAND, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Mary Leary, prominent DeLand club woman, is being hailed as beloved "mom" of the Stetson University football team.

A writer in The Stetson Reporter, university weekly newspaper, recalls that "Mom," as Mrs. Leary is known to her boys, has been looking after the physical needs of the university's outstanding athletes for ten years. As proprietor of a dining hall, she provides food for the half-backs and linemen — but this is not all. Whether it be a dose of castor oil or a button to be sewed on an old shirt, "Mom" Leary is always at the service of her boys and has won their undying love and gratitude.

For many years Mrs. Leary has been prominent in Parent-Teachers Association work of which she was state president in 1925. She is active in every good work in the Stetson-DeLand community. Her connection with educational institutions is hereditary since her ancestors include the founders of Dartmouth College and Yale University.

New Street Labels Figured On Being Help To Strangers

Names of streets and avenues are to be painted on the curbs at every intersection in the City of Sanford where there is a curb, Street Superintendent James Moughton announced today. Many complaints have been received from strangers in the City who were unable to find their way about, and it is hoped the new signs will be an aid to these newcomers to Sanford.

Four men are working on the street sign painting job and have completed the lettering on Sanford and French Avenues between First and Thirteenth Streets. The lettering will next be done on the other north-and-south avenues, and then on the east-and-west streets, Mr. Moughton said.

Eight Dead In Storm's Wake; Five In Miami

Hurricane Is Moving Out Through Gulf Of Mexico, Though Danger Is Not Past

Miami Sends Out Plea For Funds

Resort City Will Be Ready For Tourists Middle Of Month

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 6. (AP)—Leaving eight dead in its wake, the past season hurricane moved ominously through the Gulf of Mexico today, apparently in a broad recurve. Disturbed by the leisurely pace of the disturbance, Weather Bureau observers hung storm warnings along Florida's gulf coast from Cedar Key to Carrabelle.

At 9:30 A. M. the New Orleans Weather Bureau located the center of the dangerous winds about 275 miles southeast of Port Eads, Louisiana. Gordon E. Dunn, meteorologist at the Weather Bureau here, said the position was about 300 miles west northwest of Key West and 280 miles southwest of Tampa.

The retarded movement, Dunn said, might be indicative of a sharper curve that would endanger the western part of Florida. He said storm warnings were displayed principally as a caution to small fishing boats.

HURRICANE WRECKS MIAMI CITY YACHT BASIN

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 6.—A destructive, freakish, out-of-season hurricane, sweeping in on Miami from the northeast, did property damage set as high as $1,000,000 in Dade (Miami) county and directly or indirectly caused four deaths. Here is what the storm left of the Miami city yacht basin, headquarters for "the world's largest fishing fleet." (Associated Press Photo)

Seaboard Railway Would Publicize Seminole County

Requests Literature And Photographs Of Sanford Section

Sanford and Seminole County will be given further wide publicity through the facilities of the Seaboard Air Line Railway which has requested of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce any literature and pictures that would be of interest to organized parties on tours and would comply with requests from University libraries.

The request came from Paul J. Byrne, advertising agent of the Seaboard with headquarters in Norfolk, Va., and as much of the desired material the railroad wants that Acting Secretary Bagwell of the Chamber of Commerce was able to assemble, was mailed to him today in his letter to the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Byrne stated:

"We are almost continuously receiving requests for attractive photographs of your city and section, which are of far reaching interest."

Celery Prorate Is Voted In California

J. B. Cozburn, of the Standard Growers, has received a California newspaper in which it is reported that the Sacramento-San Joaquin celery growers, meeting in Stockton, Cal., on Oct. 23 voted in favor of the celery prorate. It was reported growers controlling 60 percent of the acreage in the district were in favor of the prorate set up last year under the California Prorate Act.

Last year celery shipments were prorated during part of the season and it was said prorate would be put into effect this year, when and if necessary. The celery shipping season in the Sacramento-San Joaquin delta district is just getting started and prospects are for a satisfactory season.

Vote Of Thanks To Senators On Canal Withheld

County Board Files Proposal It Praise Fletcher, Trammell

Seminole County Commissioners were not in a thankful mood yesterday afternoon when a letter from the Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners was read, suggesting that the local body pass resolutions of thanks to U. S. Senators Duncan U. Fletcher and Park Trammell for their work in behalf of a long set of resolutions commending the senators in the Seminole County Commission, and the local board ordered both the letter and resolutions filed.

Another letter from another Board of County Commissioners was read, and also filed. It was from the Highland County Board asking this county to join in defraying the cost of hiring attorneys to defend the several counties in the railroad assessment protest.

Among other communications read at the afternoon session of the Board was one from Peter Schaal asking the Commission to endorse him for the position of secretary of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, to succeed Karl Lehmann, resigned. The County Board took the action requested by Mr. Schaal.

Jacksonville Votes Bonds For Bridge

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 6.—If the financial arrangement can be worked out between Duval county, the State Road Department and a federal lending agency, a highway bridge will soon span the St. Johns River from the foot of Main Street to Gibson Street, on the Southside.

Duval county's voters went to their 51 election precinct polling places yesterday and by an overwhelming majority of almost six to one approved the bridge plan.

Busy Year Is Programmed By Young Farmers

Higher Marks Is Aim Of Local Chapter, Fathers Attending Banquet Are Told

Outlining a program of varied activity, climaxed by a proposed trip to the Yellowstone National Park, President Clifford Gustafson of Seminole Chapter of the Future Farmers of America told at last night's Fathers' and Sons' banquet of the organization and aims which the local chapter hopes to attain this school year.

It was the seventh annual banquet of the chapter, to which mothers as well as fathers were invited this time, and was attended by nearly every member of the chapter and by at least one of the parents of nearly every boy. The boys bought the articles of food served and the meal was prepared in the kitchen of the High School cafeteria where the dinner was served.

Seminole Chapter has eight main aims this year, Young Gustafson told the assembly. These aims he listed as follows: (1) Supervised practice program; (2) Co-operative activities including co-operative buying, butchering, curing and marketing of meat; (3) Community service, including soil testing for the farmers, home beautification and preparation of meat exhibits for the Orlando and Tampa fairs; (4) Leadership activities, including participation in school, district and state contests and the putting on of a George Washington program in the High School; (5) Earnings and savings, with an increase of 25 percent in the chapter's investment in farming and the establishment, by every member of a savings account; (6) Meetings every second week with an attendance of not less than 90 percent of the members; (7) A list of 5 percent in all school subjects by every member; (8) Recreation, including a fathers' and mothers' banquet, two parties, chapter fishing and camping trips, trips to the Tampa fair and the state convention of the F. F. A. boxing, basketball, swimming, half project tours, chapter play, half band and finally a trip by the chapter to the Yellowstone National Park.

$18,000 Should Have Been Allocated In Opinion Of Lawton As Given To Board

Seminole County Schools will receive only $634.91 during the month of November from the state, the Seminole County School board was advised today, but the schools should have received approximately $18,000, Superintendent T. W. Lawton advised the body.

The unexpected low allocation of funds to this county was called "disastrous" by Fred T. Williams, chairman of the board. The chairman expressed the hope that a larger allocation will be made when automobile tax moneys come in, but unless additional funds come from some source "we will just have to carry on the best we can for as long as we can," he said.

Differences Settled
PARIS, Nov. 6. (AP)—Mussolini and Great Britain, Paris diplomatic circles said today, have settled their differences in the Mediterranean as a result of Premier Pierre Laval of France has renewed his efforts for a peace settlement to end the Italian invasion in East Africa. A statement that would be acceptable to the League of Nations and Ethiopia as well as Italy.

Peace of settlement apparently was this. Mussolini will reduce his forces in Libya, bordering Egypt on the west, to normal strength. In return the British fleet in the Mediterranean will be reduced. Another condition to the settlement, as reported in Paris, was an end to anti-British propaganda.

Republicans Gain In New York In Tuesday Primary

By The Associated Press
Tearing the sweetness of victory scored in assembly elections of the Empire State, Republican leaders said today they saw a turn in the tide for 1936 but Democratic chiefs sharply disputed this.

The party that failed to elect Hoover in 1932 topped its scattered victories in state and municipal elections yesterday by regaining control of the Assembly in President Roosevelt's home state of New York. It also elected mayors in Philadelphia and Cleveland, increased its majority in the New Jersey Assembly and retained control of the state senate there.

On the other hand, Democrats retained two seats in Congress from New Jersey, won overwhelming approval of Democratic Governor Herbert Lehman's $25,000,000 state relief bond issue in New York and looked toward Kentucky today to count the Democratic gubernatorial nominee winner.

From the Kentucky Primary
Fists scattered returns from Kentucky primary gave Lieutenant Governor A. B. Chandler, the Democrat a slight lead over Kine Roper, Republican, but were insufficient to establish the trend. Ten precincts gave Chandler 1128, and Roper 999.

Republicans elected 11 of New York State Assembly's 140 and changed the Democratic margin of four into Republican majority of 14.

Business Group Favors Tourist Park In Sanford

Following the presentation of an optimistic report, the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Sanford voted to present to the City Commission its plan for building a tourist park in this City. The report was filed by Earl Varn who stated he had investigated possibilities and had received from business interests much comment favorable to the proposition.

As explained by Mr. Varn the proposed park will not be for "tin can" tourists, but will be for the accommodation of wealthy visitors who come to Florida for the winter, traveling in camp trailers. The park would have to be equipped with lights, water and toilet facilities, the committee stated.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce has taken another step toward making a visit to Sanford more pleasant by making arrangements for guides for fishermen. Hugh Traub reported he had contacted a number of persons interested in fishing, and that guides and equipment will be available at any time for visitors desiring to engage in the sport.

The organization of younger business men held their meeting in the Mayfair Hotel, the first of a series of evening dinner meetings to be held during the winter. The attendance was 25 percent above that recorded at previous meetings of the association. In the absence of M. L. Babson, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the meeting was presided over by A. M. Carraway, vice president.

At the close of the business session a lengthy address was delivered by Arthur A. Kirshoff, recently arriving from New York.
