Commission prepares profile while citizen group begins to narrow applicants

SANFORD — Today marks the end of phase one of Sanford's search for a new city manager — the collection of resumes.

At press deadline, 71 resumes, including 23 from Florida residents, had been received. In preparation for narrowing the field, Sanford City Commission developed a city manager profile during Monday's commission meeting.

The criteria discussed during the meeting will assist the Citizen's Advisory Committee, a group comprised of business leaders and active citizens, during its review of the applicants. After the screening and evaluation process, the committee will make its recommendations in the form of a short list to the commission.

"You are giving them direction on what to look for," said Joseph A. Denaro of Human Resources. "You're giving them some direction so they know what is important to you."

Once the commission receives the list, to include 10 names, it will conduct interviews with each candidate.

"This is an important decision," said District 12 Commissioner Velma H. Williams who was appointed vice mayor Monday by Mayor Brady Lessard. "The Commission needs to be involved."

Among the character traits the commission is looking are integrity, willingness to become active throughout the community, sensitivity and commitment to diversity, and the backbone to hold staff accountable.

A keen sense of negotiations, education and economic development is also important.

During the public forum, community members were also asked for their input regarding the characteristics they feel are important.

After listening to commission members, concerned citizen said, "In order to have all the qualities you are looking for, they would have to be tired or almost retired. They would have to have the talents and use the talents. Look for someone to finish."

According to Denaro, the committee will have the short list to commission by next Monday. See Manager, Page 6

Mowing contract approved to save money

By Jamie J. Anderson-Potter
Staff Writer

SANFORD — In an effort to reduce annual costs, the city of Sanford's Parks and Grounds Operations Division will outsource its mowing services to Bon Terre Group, Inc. of Holly Hill.

Sanford City Commission voted unanimously Monday to move forward with the contract. Services at the 26 sites will cost the division $56,750 for the remaining 22 weeks in the current fiscal year and $113,500 for the 2003-2004 fiscal year. Services could begin as early as next week.

"We were hoping to get them on board before now, but we are very excited about these next six months so we can gauge the amount of money we can save," said Marc A. Hultin, C.PRI, manager of Parks and Grounds Operations Division.

Under the new contract, Bon Terre Group, Inc. will mow, weed-eat, edge, pickup trash and disperse fire ant control on a weekly basis March 1 through Oct. 31. During the drier months, Nov. 1 through Feb. 28, the maintenance will be scaled back to bimonthly.

Weeding, mucking and pruning will occur as needed in select parks and round-up applications will happen quarterly.

According to Hultin, the cost savings will come into play when dealing with personnel and workman's comp fees, gas, oil, company vehicles and turf equipment costs.

As a result of this agreement, two vehicles will be available to surplus instead of replace, at savings of approximately $40,000. Also, several large turf mowers and other maintenance equipment will not need to be replaced, saving the city $20,000 to $30,000.

The city has two projects already under contract with Bon Terre Group, Inc. including Seminole Towne Center Mall right of ways with portions of State Road 46 at Seminole Crossings and Municipal Cemetery.

"We were looking for an opportunity to raise the bar and handle the increased demand on our employees," said Hultin. "This will allow us to provide a greater level of service for our sites."

Jean Norris shows off a daylily called regal majesty that grows in her Sanford garden. Norris, along with her husband, Bill, has been growing daylilies for more than 30 years.

Sanford couple prepare for Saturday's flower show

Hundreds of vibrant flowers will fill the Sanford Civic Center Saturday when the 23rd annual Daylily Show comes to town.

Hosted by the Sunbelt Daylily Chapter, more than 50 growers from Central Florida are expected to participate in this year's show. Judges from across the country will award ribbons in a dozen categories, including Best of Show.

Organized by charter members Bill and Jean Norris, the show has become a popular attraction for daylily growers, as well as the general public. The event is the one time of the year in Sanford when community members have the opportunity to buy daylilies at prices well below market value — ranging from $2 to $10.

"Even though the plant sale doesn't begin until 9 a.m., we've had people lined up outside the door as early as 8 a.m. in previous years," Jean said. "You would say we've built up a loyal clientele through the years."

Jail escape thwarted by authorities

From Staff Reports

SANFORD — Deputies quickly tuned a missing prisoner Monday evening after finding him hiding in the ceiling crawl space outside his cell.

The prisoner, Jason Adam Miller, was charged with escape, but Miller claims he was looking for a different view.

Miller

Miller was discovered missing about 6:30 p.m. Monday. Deputies quickly established a perimeter outside John E. Polk Correctional Facility. The K-9 unit and the Sheriff's Department's bomb squad were called to assist in the search.

Miller, however, never made it outside the jail. David Stead, a corrections deputy at the jail, found the prisoner hiding in the ceiling crawl space between rooms MC3 and MC4. With the assistance of Sgt. Larry Thomas,

Joe Saunders named state's top counselor

SANFORD — His office is filled with military paraphernalia. GI boxes line the top shelf and pictures of the Parachute Golden Knights line the walls.

This office belongs to Joe Saunders, Seminoles Community College Veteran Counselor who was recently named the best in his field for the state by Florida Leader's magazine.

Saunders has worked for SCV for the past 12 years in veterans affairs and helps more than 100 veterans. A veteran is classified as a person in the military who has been on active duty for six months and 42 SCV veterans are currently overseas.

School Board honors seventh-grader who likes to write with all his might

By Jamie J. Anderson-Potter

SEMINOLE COUNTY — The Seminole County School Board recently honored Iotno Nana Yaw Clark, Jr., a seventh grade student at Juskawilla Middle School, for his poem, "A Tribute to Dr. Seuss."

Iotno, along with three other students from Juskawilla, were chosen to submit writing samples to the 2003 Writing Awards Program sponsored by Seminole County teachers of English.

"He is somebody who likes to write and has a lot of imagination," his mom, Mercy, said. "I'm surprised at how he puts things together. His father and I are very proud of him."

The competition, which included poems and short stories, was open to middle and high school students throughout Seminole County. In total, 90 students entered the writing competition.

Iotno has a lot of ability and is a gifted writer," said Dottie Poole, Iotno's English teacher. "His poem is a fabulous and very clever little poem."

"It was a tremendous honor for him to be selected to read his poem before the school board," she added.

According to 13-year-old Iotno, he drafted three other poems before submitting "A Tribute to Dr. Seuss," which discusses the life and work of the beloved author of children's books.

"I didn't like them much," he said. "Then, one night I was reading my little brother a story, One Fish Two Fish Red Fish Blue Fish and it gave me the idea to write about Dr. Seuss."

Iotno, who is enrolled in gifted classes at Juskawilla, is no stranger to the world of Dr. Seuss.

"I read Dr. Seuss to him every night," said Mercy. "By the time he went to kindergarten he was already reading."

In fact, according to his mother, the first book Iotno read on his own was a Dr. Seuss book. Now, he reads to his younger brother each night.

According to Iotno, he has almost every Dr. Seuss book available. He attributes his love of reading and writing to Dr. Seuss books and "his early education in Germany where his father's home was stationed in the military."

"Because of our travels he has tasted a lot of different cultures," said Mercy. "I believe that has been a growing experience for him."

The Clark family agrees that the school system in the United States is different from that abroad. Iotno admits he sometimes is a bit challenged by U.S. class work.

"I think that in other countries the school systems are a bit more

 Out of 71, only 18 or 20 are relevant to what we're looking for," said Sandy Jones, District 3 commissioner. "The others don't have a clue."

Out of the 71 applicants, 24 hold a top administrative position in the community, 52 have prior city or county experience, eight held leadership positions in the military, 10 are self-employed, 18 earned undergraduate degrees, and 51 earned advanced degrees including four with doctorate degrees.

"I want them [the Citizen's Advisory Committee] to listen to what we're collectively looking for," said Lessard. "It really is absolutely essential that we hire the right person."

 The sale will last until the last plant sells, Jean said. With prices so low, however, the show may be sold out in a matter of hours. "We try to sell the daylilies as inexpensively as we can," Jean said. "We try to make it as desirable as possible."

Saunders has more than 420 hours using their educational benefits through the military, which means the military will pay for two years of school, and the number continues to rise. He does his own veterans paperwork to make sure they get vacated since last year will not be filled. One current employee will be upgraded to become a contract coordinator, overseeing the quality of workmanship exhibited by Bon Terre Group, Inc. "We will still remain involved in the overall upkeep of the sites," assures Hultin.

In my mind, a $200 to $300 daylily can die just as easy as those that you pay $25 for," Jean said. "But, it's all a matter of what you want. What makes people want to buy a fancy car? It's the same thing with daylilies."

At the same time, a hybridizer in Eustis also created a new daylily and called his pink bloom Bill Norris. Since two different flowers can not be registered with the same name, however, it was changed to William Austin Norris.

After decades of serving on numerous boards, entering dozens of shows and growing hundreds of daylilies, the Sanford couple has decided to slow down — just a little bit. While spending days organizing this year's show, Bill plans to enter only a few plants for judging. In previous years, it wasn't uncommon for him to showcase more than 50 plants during one show.

The couple's practical nature hasn't stopped them from receiving honors, awards and accolades in the daylily world. Both Jean and Bill have served in various offices of the American Hemerocallis Society (AMS), the highly acclaimed non-profit organization for daylily enthusiasts. After Bill chaired the 1994 AMS national convention, he was honored by having two daylilies named after him — the golden Bill Norris and the pink William Austin Norris.

As chairman, they wanted to wait for someone to create a flower for her — she created her own. Using techniques used by all hybridizers, she has registered several new variations of daylilies, including Sister Sidney. "I named it after a friend," Jean said. "I was an only child, and she was an only child, and we were

While taking it a bit easier, neither Jean nor Bill plans on quitting the show or growing daylilies anytime soon. "We started in the '60s, and it is something we have thoroughly enjoyed," Jean said. "We just love it."

 advance and ahead of the school system in the United States," Totiro said. "When I came to the states I was way ahead of my other classmates. The curriculum there is more in depth."

"When I'm feeling bored with the work, I will go and draw or write something just for fun," he added.

Totiro and the other writers will be recognized during a ceremony at Winter Springs High School at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday. The competition winners will be announced during the ceremony and receive prizes, including a writing journal, a pen and a thesaurus.

Sue Dessert, curriculum specialist for language arts, reading and social studies at Seminole County Public Schools, is in contact with Seminole Community College in hopes of offering a creative writing scholarship for a summer college course to the top winners in each of the four categories.

Although Totiro continues to write for fun, he doesn't believe he will pursue it as a career. "I'm sort of in dispute about what I want to be when I grow up," he said. "I really wanted to be a Web designer or a networking engineer. I was reading articles lately that they are replacing those jobs with foreigners because they will work for less money. I'm looking at my other options. I'm looking into real estate."

A tribute to...
Dr. Seuss
 By Totiro Nana-Yaw Clark, Jr.

Dear Dr. Seuss,
 Are you in heaven somewhere?
 Are you gone forever, or do you still linger there?
 With the cat in the hat,
 His thing one and thing two,
 A red fish, A blue fish,
 And a long necked Balloof
 Are there creatures with two feet,
 Eight and twenty-two,
 The wump of Gump and a nook cook too?
 Are there sleepwalking sheep?
 Going from near to far,
 A zand that opens cans,
 And occasionally a jar,
 A gox who can box like nothing you've seen?
 Do you ever take a shower and sing with a ying?
 Is there a yink who winks every now and then?
 A thing that hops here then back again,
 Do you like to fly kites while still in bed?
 Do you sometimes fancy balancing ten cats on your head?
 Are there zeds growing hair that is out every day?
 Is there a house with a mouse?
 And somewhere out back,
 Do you play a game called ring the yick?
 I really don't know,
 Perhaps there just may,
 Sadly we may never know
 Our lives are very blue,
 So in our great appreciation we give much thanks to you,
 From there to here,
 From here to there,
 Your words have brought joy Everywhere.

SEMINOLE SUMMARY

A GLANCE AROUND OUR COUNTY

Prince charming battles past abuse to win lady's heart

DEAR ABBY: I've been going out with an extraordinarily attractive woman I'll call Alice. We love spending time together. However, she has some issues I don't know how to handle. Alice

..... was abused by several ex-boyfriends and her self-esteem is zero. She is intelligent, witty, caring — but doesn't believe a word I say because of the mind games she has been subjected to. I'm one of those "knight in shining armor" types who is faithful, doesn't throw temper tantrums, remembers to put the toilet seat down, gives my lady fresh flowers, etc. — but whenever we talk about our future, she ends up in tears. She tells me she doesn't deserve to be treated so nicely and runs away because everything I am is so foreign to her. It's as though she's waiting for the other shoe to drop — a shoe I don't have in my hand.

I want Alice to know she is a valuable person and worthy of the love I want to give her. Have any of your female readers been abused by an old boyfriend, met a nice guy, and then were able to have a normal relationship?

ANONYMOUS IN ANCHORAGE

DEAR ANONYMOUS: The answer to your question is an emphatic YES. Read on — the following letter arrived the same day as yours.

DEAR ABBY: I have been in several abusive relationships in the past. Not just physical, but mental and verbal as well. I have kissed a lot of frogs who ended up being toads instead of princes — so I finally quit looking. The barrage of abuse to which I had been subjected left me with self-esteem so low I wondered why any man would want to be with me.

My last boyfriend tried to have me arrested after he hid a bunch of his stuff and said I stole it. After a long investigation by the police, they realized he was lying. The guy left owing me a large sum of money, and the only thing I can say is that it was the best loss I ever took.

Last fall, after things quieted down, I found a better job. I quit looking for the frog who would turn into a prince, and met a man who adores me. He thinks I am pretty. I cried the first time he said it to me. I had never heard it from anyone before. When we talk on the phone, I hear "I love you" no less than a dozen times. This has helped me greatly and my self-esteem is slowly rebuilding.

I'd like to say to all the women who read your column that if I can break the cycle of abuse, anyone can. It may take time to find the person God intended you to be with, but you will.

FINALLY HAPPY IN OKLAHOMA

DEAR FINALLY HAPPY: Congratulations on your healing. After any trauma, it takes time to recover. That is why it's so important to proceed slowly, and not jump from the frying pan into the fire.

Learning to trust your own judgment, act on your instincts and not compromise your ideals is a process. Counseling can speed it up.

DEAR ABBY: Here is a true "he never says he loves me" story. On a beautiful moonlit night in August of 1935, my future husband, Bill, and I were on our first date. We went swimming in a small lake with a dance pavilion on the shore. From the beach, Bill and I could hear the orchestra.

Suddenly, we both got very quiet, listening to a beautiful melody. When the song ended, Bill said, "Gee, that's a pretty song — do you know the name of it?" I answered, "Love Me Forever." Bill took my hand and said, "Well, that's a long time, but I'd sure like to try."

Over the years, whenever I told the story about "our song," I liked to tease Bill with, "That was the first and last romantic thing you ever said to me. Not the truth, of course, but it made a good story."

I am now an 86-year-old widow. My Bill died in 1971 — and the "forever" feels as true today as it did that summer night.

VIRGINIA "TOOTS" WEITZEL, OLEAN, N.Y.

DEAR "TOOTS": It may have been a first date, but your Bill knew a good thing when he saw one — and how to close a sale. Your letter touched me. Thank you for sharing your love story.

Sanford police chief honors department's 12 COP volunteers

From Staff Reports

SANFORD — Police Chief Brian F. Tooley celebrated National Volunteer Appreciation Week by honoring Sanford Police Department volunteers for their outstanding contribution to the community by hosting a volunteer breakfast last week.

The Sanford Police Department Citizens on Patrol (COP) program's main focus is the partnership between the citizens of Sanford and law enforcement officials. Currently, there are 12 active COPs who work in collaboration with the police department to reduce and prevent crime. COP members patrol neighborhoods in visibly marked units and aid officers in their duties.

We are grateful for these dedicated volunteers in our communities, said Tooley. The COPs provide the extra eyes and ears for our officers and serve as a strong deterrent against unlawful actions.

To be eligible for the COP program, volunteers must attend class to learn the proper techniques on such topics as CPR, defensive driving, traffic control and direction, use of flares, patrol techniques, communications, first aid and limitations of authority.

A new COP class will begin this spring. If you are interested in becoming a member, call Mike Bormusky at 407-323-3130.

SCC technology group selected for national board iTEC, the Information Technology Education Center in Florida, recently announced it has been selected as a participant in the Information Technology and Communications Voluntary Partnership of the National Skills Standards Board (NSSB). This partnership further strengthens iTEC's role in preparing Florida's information technology (IT) workforce to operate in today's high performance work environment. iTEC is a partnership between Daytona Beach Community College and Seminole Community College with major funding from the National Science Foundation.

The NSSB was created by Congress to enhance the competitiveness of U.S. businesses and promote greater economic security for American workers through the development of a voluntary national system of skill standards, assessments and certifications. Nowhere is the need greater for this system than in the information technology and telecommunications industry. To address this need, the NSSB has partnered with the Computing Technology Industry Association (CompTIA) to provide leadership and coordination of an effort to help shape a national policy. With this announcement, iTEC becomes a key player in this national initiative.

iTEC began working to address the information technology (IT) workforce shortage in 2000 and since then has delivered professional development workshops to more than 200 college faculty impacting more than 12,000 students, said Bob Williams, iTEC's executive director.

Utilizing its Collaborative Industry Training Model, iTEC is working with colleges throughout Florida to facilitate the mobilization of the extensive resources of Florida's community college system to address the critical education needs of the IT workforce. The Florida High Tech Corridor Council has been a key partner with iTEC on this initiative.

The Council has played a leading role in facilitating the ability of Central Florida's colleges and universities to quickly respond to the rapidly changing skills upgrades needed by the region's high tech workforce.

With the announcement, iTEC positions Florida to become a national leader in high tech, high skilled workforce development. Working together with its partner institutions and with the Florida High Tech Corridor Council, iTEC intends to integrate the Council's pioneering regional industry needs assessment model with the national model established by the NSSB. This integration will enable institutions in the region and ultimately throughout Florida to leverage best-in-breed IT workforce development resources from across the nation to solve our local needs.

It is expected that the success of this initiative will have broad national appeal and will be replicated by other states to support their IT workforce development needs.

Seminole County students get a glimpse into film making

Lake Howell High School and Winter Springs High School students recently visited Pamplin Film Company, based at Universal Studios, to learn about the day-to-day aspects of the film industry. The half-day experience was part of Junior Achievement (JA) of Central Florida's 2003 Groundhog Job Shadow program.

"I spent years in Los Angeles trying to see the inside of a studio, and I think it's a great opportunity that you get to open up a business to students that usually shun outsiders," said Rick Pamplin, owner of Pamplin Film Company. "We were able to show them that the film making business is not all glamour. It is a business, with paperwork, C.P.S., and attorneys. Although the students learned the business is not all glamour, they were able to see Tiger Woods shooting a commercial for Nike and Tom the Universal Studios backdrop, which is set up as a New York street scene for an upcoming film. They also found Century Three, the largest post production site in the U.S. outside of New York.

The business aspects of the industry were also revealed as students learned about the paperwork and technology involved as well as marketing opportunities and job requirements. Students also learned about entertainment law from Bill Williams. He was the attorney for the marketing, production and distribution of The Blair Witch Project.

Students from Seminole, Orange, Osceola and Volusia counties are participating in JA of Central Florida's Job Shadow program, which kicked off January 28, 2003 at the Orlando Science Center. The program is part of a national effort coordinated by Junior Achievement.

America's Promise, the U.S. Department of Labor and the U.S. Department of Education. Monster.com is the national sponsor of the initiative, designed to give students the opportunity to "shadow" a workplace mentor and make a connection between their academic studies and preparing for a career in the "real world."

CAL RIPKEN LEAGUE

Here's a recap of the City of Sanford Recreation and Parks Department Cal Ripken Baseball League games at Civic Park on Saturday April 26th.

MAJOR LEAGUE (11 and 12 year olds)

Field # 3 - Game between the Magic Lodge Angels (12-1) and the Gibson Truck World Braves (7-6) was canceled due to the fields being too wet to play on.

Field # 1 - The Volvo Store Red Sox (6-7) got a scare from the Railroader Cubs (2-11) but eventually won the game, 13-10.

Dustin Lee led off the game with a towering three-run home run over the centerfield fence. Lee also lashed out a single later in the game. Tyler Fevery also stroked a double and two singles, drove in a run and came in to relieve pitch and picked up the win for the Sox.

Mike Owens had a big night as well by hitting two doubles and driving in a run. TJ Morales also stroked two singles, while Isiah Santiago and Andrew Aguirre added singles.

The Cubbies' Mike Radzak kept the Red Sox off balance all night until he ran out of gas in the sixth inning. Radzak helped his own cause with two base hits with one being a double and a RBI.

MINOR LEAGUE (9 and 10 year olds)

Field # 2 - Game between the Sanford Ace Hardware Angels (10-1) and the Knights of Columbus Cardinals (3-8) was also canceled.

Faine goes in NFL first round to Browns

From Staff Reports

CLEVELAND, OH. — The Cleveland Browns got their man in Notre Dame center and Sanford resident Jeff Faine.

using pick 21 of the first round on a physically dominating player head coach Butch Davis and Company hope will be a long-term anchor. They like his attitude, his hands, and his explosion.

The 6-foot-3, 303-pound Faine racked up a team-high 88 key blocks/knockdowns and did not allow a quarterback sack for the Fighting Irish last season and was named a first-team All-America selection by The NFL Draft Report, ESPN.com and The Sporting News in addition to being a finalist for the Rimington Award (nation's top center) and semi-finalist for the Lombardi Award (nation's top lineman).

Last fall, Florida State Head Coach Bobby Bowden called Faine "the best opposing center we've seen."

Faine, 22, will graduate from Notre Dame in two weeks with a degree in film and theater. He's expected to arrive at Browns Headquarters in Berea late Saturday for formal introductions.

"I know (Cleveland) is a great football town and the fans are passionate about the team," Faine said. "And I know there's a lot of tradition there,

Seminole High School graduate Jeff Faine (blocking above) turned an All-American junior season at the University of Notre Dame into a first round pick during Saturday's 2003 NFL Draft. The 6-foot-3, 303-pound center was taken with the 21st pick by the Cleveland Browns. He was also just the third offensive lineman selected behind No. 8 pick Jordan Gross (6-5, 300 from Utah) by the Carolina Panthers and No. 20 selection George Foster (6-5, 338 from Georgia) by the Denver Broncos. Many thought the Browns would take a linebacker or offensive tackle with their first round selection, center isn't normally a position that carries such high value.

"You take the best player available," Davis said. "You can't pass on a guy who's just a total dominating player at his particular position."

"I think when you identify traits and qualities of a guy that can get you to the next level, if you like guys that are football junkies and absolutely love the game and have passion about it and are tough and nasty and love getting muddy and bloody and stuff. How can you not love a guy like that for the Cleveland Browns?"

LONGWOOD — If the Seminole Athletic Conference Track Championships were any indication, the District Meets are going to be quite a shootout.

Last Thursday at Lyman's Carlton D. Henley Sports Complex, the host Greyhound boys ran past Oviedo and Seminole, while the powerful Winter Springs girls and the same thing, easing past Oviedo, Lake Mary and Seminole.

Trinity Prep got the postseason started early, and in grand fashion, as both the boys and girls swept the Class A District titles at the Payne Stewart Athletic Complex at First Academy last Monday.

Crooms Academy also gave a good showing of itself, as the Panthers finished sixth in both the boys and girls, but more importantly qualified several athletes for this Thursday, Class A Region 2 Meet back at First Academy.

The big schools get into postseason action tomorrow (Thursday) with Seminole hosting the Class 3A District 2 Meet starting at 1 p.m. on the Buddy Lawson Memorial Track at Thomas I. Wingham Stadium.

The Class 3A District 7 Meet will also be in county as Lyman will host the event starting at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

County squads close in on state

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS The weekend proved to be a good one for several local teams as they went after regional titles.

After getting rained out on Friday, the three tennis teams left all earned spots in this week's State Championships with victories Saturday.

The Trinity Prep boys and girls teams had little trouble in advancing to the Class A State Meet as the boys defeated Gainesville (Ch. Hall, 5-2) and the girls romped over Ocala (Trinity Catholic, 6-1).

The most exciting matchup was in Gainesville, where the Lake Brantley girls bounced back from a 2-0 deficit to win four of the last five matches to edge home-standing Buchholz, 4-3.

The Bobcats won the first two singles matches but the Patriots rallied to win the final three singles matches and take the lead.

The hosts tied the match by winning the No. 1 doubles, but the team of Liz Voth and Anita Puskas won by straight sets, 6-3 and 6-1 over Christa Calfee and Jacyl Hines to clinch a state bid.

Lake Brantley will have the opportunity to play at home as the Patriots' home courts at Sandalwood Park will serve as the sites for the Class A State Finals today (Wednesday) through Friday.

Trinity Prep already has a travel to Tallahassee to play the Class A Meet at FSU's Scott Speicher Tennis Center and Tom Brown Park.

The Rams' Ladies' volleyball will play the Ocala (11-1) at Northeast (21-1) at Fairbanks, Fla. The Rams' Aquinas (15-9) will play the Seminoles and Ocala in the Match will be played on Saturday.

Lake Mary, which defeated Oviedo, 15-12, in the semifinals, took on longtime rival Seminole (12-16) which knocked out Lyman, 15-9 and 15-6, in the Championship Game and it ended up being a classic battle.

The Rams, who had won several district championships by winning their own Volleyfest over the years, appeared to be headed to their easy win when the Seminoles

TERRORISM FORCES US TO MAKE A CHOICE. WE CAN BE AFRAID.
OR WE CAN BE READY.

- Lui Sun Ye, Office of Emergency Management

Next time there's a terrorist alert, you can feel helpless or you can feel prepared. It's up to you. The steps to readiness are not difficult. First, make an emergency supply kit for yourself and your family. Set aside supplies to survive three days at home. Water, food, first-aid supplies, clothing, a flashlight and a battery-powered radio. Next, develop a family communications plan so your family can stay in touch during an emergency. Third, learn how to respond to the different types of terrorist threats, such as biological, chemical and radiological.

That information, along with details about kits and plans, is available at www.ready.gov. Or, call 1-800-BE-READY (1-800-237-3239) for a free brochure, "Preparing Makes Sense. Get Ready Now."
