PRESIDENT WILSON WRITES GOVERNOR COX EXPRESSING CONFIDENCE

is the Democratic Standard
Bearer to the Fullest

HAS FOLLOWED HIM

IN ALL HIS CAMPAIGNS AND EXPRESSES HOPE THAT HE WILL WIN

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—President Wilson wrote Governor Cox today, expressing his confidence in the Democratic presidential nominee. He expressed hope that under Cox's leadership "We will carry the policy of our national government forward along the path of liberal legislation and human reform until the whole world again sees illustrations of the wholesome strength of democracy and the happy fruit of what the founders of the republic purposed when they set this great government up."
He said he had followed Cox's course throughout the campaign with "admiration" and expressed belief that the governor would receive the "emphatic endorsement" of voters of the country.

WEATHER AND CROP CONDI- TIONS IN FLORIDA FOR THE WEEK ENDING OCTOBER 26

(By The Associated Press.)
Temperature.—The week averaged 4 to 6 degrees warmer than usual for the period. Midday temperatures were well up in the 80's during much of the time.
Precipitation.—The week was generally drier than usual, except in sections west of the Apalachicola river and on the lower southeast coast, where rainfall was as much as 2 to 4 inches. Dry weather ruled, however, over most of the divisions, the deficiencies being quite an inch or more over much of the state.
Conditions of crops.—Practically all the cotton crop has been picked and ginned. The dry weather was favorable for haying, gathering the last of the corn crop, and for the maturing of velvet beans, but was unfavorable for cane, sweet potatoes, truck, and fall gardens; and the high temperature retarded the maturing of citrus fruit, which, however, is in good condition. The seeding of oats is, also, delayed, but the work is progressing. Much cane is being made into syrup. The peanut crop has been gathered to a great extent; the yield was fair to good. Cooler weather and moderate rains are needed in most sections.

ANTI-SUFFERS WILL NOT REGISTER TO VOTE IN GEORGIA

(By The Associated Press.)
MACON, Ga., Oct. 29.—Declaring their intention of continuing the fight against woman suffrage and expressing the belief that they can defeat, through the supreme court, the Susan B. Anthony amendment, prominent women of the Georgia association opposed to equal suffrage at a meeting here Wednesday, voted not to register.
In the resolutions adopted is an appeal to the teachers and preachers of Georgia to "explain to the public why we so bitterly oppose woman suffrage and we quote from the official manifesto of the communist party, knowing that Georgia men and women, black and white, can see the dangers ahead of the United States. Suffrage, or anti-suffrage, they will help us defeat these iniquitous schemes of Alice Paul and her crowd who intend to destroy the home life and moral uplift for which Christianity has been struggling for 2,000 years."

REPUBLICANS WILL WIN SAYS WILL HAYES

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Will Hayes, chairman of the Republican national committee, issued a statement today saying the official Republican survey indicates that Harding and Coolidge will receive the "largest popular majority ever cast" in the presidential election.

MEXICO ASKED TO GO AFTER MEN WHO KILLED AMERICANS

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 29.—Representations were made to the Mexican foreign office yesterday by Matthew E. Hanna, acting United States charge d'affaires here, relative to the deaths of two Americans, Arthur Mosley and Gustave Salazar, at the hands of several armed men near Tampico recently.
Mr. Hanna asked the Mexican government to apprehend and punish the criminals and, it is understood, claims for damages will be filed later.

ALABAMA COAL MINERS WILL STRIKE

IN SUPPORT OF MINE WORKERS WHO ARE NOW ON A STRIKE

(By The Associated Press.)
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 29.—A resolution calling for a general strike in Alabama in support of mine workers now on a strike was introduced at the convention of the State Federation of Labor and referred to a committee.

GEORGE WHITE SAYS DEMOCRATS WILL WIN EVERYWHERE

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The Democratic National chairman, George White, said the general political situation points unmistakably to Democratic success. He said "the Republicans are demoralized from the Canadian border to the Gulf and from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Their forces are in full retreat everywhere."

THIRTEEN ARE INDICTED IN BALL SCANDLE

GRAND JURY AFTER THE PRO-
PLE WHO THREW THE GAMES

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Indictments against thirteen persons were returned by the Grand jury in connection with the throwing of the 1919 world's series, the state's attorney's office announced today.

WEATHER

Fair tonight and Saturday except probably showers extreme south portion tonight; probably light frost extreme north portion tonight; slightly warmer Saturday, North and Central portion.

Secretary Paints A Great Wilson Picture

INNER SIDE OF WOODROW WIL-SON FROM TUMULTY'S
VIEWPOINT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—An intimate picture "of the manner of man" this "Woodrow Wilson really is" based on ten years as his private secretary, and touched here and there with hitherto unpublished incidents in the president's official life was drawn last night by Joseph P. Tumulty, speaking at a Democratic mass meeting, just over the line in Maryland.

Mr. Tumulty described the president "a man, as strangely misunderstood by some and as violently misrepresented by others, as any man in the whole history of American politics." He had long desired, he said, to tell the country what he knew of Mr. Wilson's character but had refrained in the knowledge that the president "who shrinks from self-exploitation would resent exploitation by his friends."
Among incidents on which he drew to illustrate his subject, Mr. (Continued on page four)

CITY COMMISSIONERS HOLD BUSY MEETING

WARRANTS APPROVED AND OTHER MATTERS IM IMPORT-ANCE TRANSACTED

Meeting called to order by H. R. Stevens, Mayor.

Present: H. R. Stevens, S. O. Chase, C. E. Henry, Commissioners; G. G. Herring, City Attorney, and C. J. Ryan, City Manager.

Minutes of last regular meeting and of special meeting, October 18, read and approved.

A committee from the Seminole County Fair Association came before the Commission and made application for a license to place Johnnie Jones' Carnival shows in the city limits; on motion by C. E. Henry, seconded by S. O. Chase and carried the City Solicitor was authorized to issue said licenses in accord with ordinance dated January 4, 1915.

Mr. W. J. Thigpin requested some concession on side-walk lien against Lot 2, block 10, Tr. 4; on motion of S. O. Chase, seconded by C. E. Henry, the city attorney was authorized to accept settlement on this lien upon payment of the face of the lien and costs, omitting the interest, providing payment be made at once.

McSweeney Mourn- ers In Trouble

WANTED BODY TAKEN THROUGH
DUBLIN AND OFFICIALS
WOULD NOT PERMIT

(By The Associated Press.)

HOLYHEAD, Wales, Oct. 29.—The shipment of Lord Mayor MacSweeney's body direct to Cork was preceded by violent scenes between officials and mourners who wanted the body taken through Dublin where a big demonstration was planned. After a fist fight officials got possession of the body and placed it aboard a steamer bound for Cork. Mourners refused to follow the body and went on to Dublin.

COCCHI KILLED RUTH CRUGER SAYS COUNSEL

(By The Associated Press.)

BOLOGNA, Italy, Oct. 29.—Counsel for Alfred Cocchi, who is charged with the murder of Ruth Cruger in New York City in 1917, admitted Cocchi killed the girl but contended he was crazed by domestic trouble and wine.

FACTS REGARDING THE SCHOOL BUS SITUATION

1st.—That patrons were assured free transportation, when their children were first taken from the rural to town schools.

2nd.—That in the Sanford district, the district school-bond issue reaches to all parts of the section covered by the busses. And that proceeds of said bonds have gone to build and equip the schools of Sanford.

3rd.—That on Sept. 25th rural patrons were notified through the Sanford Herald that the District School Board had passed a resolution, that all rural patrons would have to pay $1 per month per child to ride on the school busses.

4th.—That on Monday, Sept. 27th, the county superintendent was presented with a statement signed by nearly all the patrons on Elder Springs route, refusing to pay the one dollar charge.

5th.—That on October 12th the last day that a name could be gotten on the official ballot) by order of the superintendent and secretary of the local board, that some thirty children were refused transportation on said busses.

6th.—That on the same day, the matter was taken up with the county superintendent and secretary of the local board and they invited patrons to meet with them Wednesday night to hear protests and to come to some understanding.

7th.—That on Wednesday night, October 13th, a large number of patrons did meet with said board.

8th.—That Superintendent Lawton did, through his influence, get the county board to meet and pass the same resolution, making it reach to all busses in the county thereby taking the matter out of the hands of the local board and forestalling any chance of reconciliation with that board.

9th.—That on meeting with the Board Wednesday night said superintendent did read in the beginning of the meeting said resolution. And patrons were informed that they were wasting their time in further protest.

10th.—That said boards and superintendent were requested to give, by what law, right, or privilege that they made such demands. And patrons were told to employ their own counsel.

11th.—That said boards and superintendent were there and then requested to rescind their action, and if in financial difficulties call on said patrons for a contribution, with the assurance that they would possibly receive double the amount demanded, with the statement that we are men, not mules, to be driven.

12th.—That it was shown that it was costing the county about $14.00 to transport a child, for the year, on the East Side and about $34.00 on the South and West side.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING INTERESTING, INSTRUCTIVE WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

BALLOT BOXES TO CONTAIN 150 TONS

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—By night-fall next Tuesday, election day, 150 tons of ballots will have been stuffed into the ballot boxes of New York City. This estimate was made today by the board of elections, which announced that 6,500,000 ballots or three for each of the 1,367,335 qualified voters, have been printed at a cost, for printing alone of $200,000.

Farmer's Conference Is Resolute

URGE THAT ALL CROPS BE MARKETED AS DEMAND
REQUIRES

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The farmers conference here today adopted resolutions urging that all crops be marketed as demand requires and congress conduct investigations in the interest rates charged by the banks. All farmers urged joint marketing organizations and congress asked to give the federal farm loan board authority to issue and sell in open market short term securities based on warehouse receipts.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT APPOINTED FOR SPEC- IAL INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Attorney General Palmer appointed Joseph Kaufmann, special assistant to the New York district attorney to conduct the federal investigation into the alleged combinations in the building materials market there.

Literature-Music Department

Another fine program was rendered on Wednesday afternoon at the Woman's Club, on the occasion of the Literature-Music Department meeting, Mrs. Duncan Kelly, chairman of the Literature department gracefully presiding. There was a good attendance and with each recurring meeting of the various departments the officers feel much encouraged over the renewal of interest and the better attendance which greatly exceeds that of several years.

The program on Wednesday opened with a very delightful piano solo, Grand Valse de Concert rendered by Miss Julia Loring, who ranks among the best of the girl musicians in the town and who is very popular with the club membership, her numbers always giving pleasure. For unavoidable reasons, the papers which were programmed for the Literature department contribution to the meeting were omitted, and will be presented later in the season, in lieu of which Mrs. H. H. Chappell gave an interesting and at times, humorous reading from Barbon's Impressions of Florida, in which Mrs. Chappell cleverly compared the Florida of 1870-1880 with the progressive Florida of today. In passing, the author paid his compliments to Sanford "the commodious and elegant Sanford House not excelled in the state," the "beautiful Episcopal church, the gift of Mrs. Sanford," the very excellent weekly paper edited by Messrs. Way and Osborn and the "mosquitoes, which were no worse than those of other sections" found a place in his recital with other interesting landmarks, and events in the early history of Sanford. To our own Mrs. A. E. Phillips belongs the credit for naming the town after its founder, General Sanford.

Mrs. Vance Douglas rendered two charming vocal selections that were much appreciated "A Little Pink Rose" (Carrie Jacob Bond) and Neldlinger's "Serenade." Mrs. Douglas has the gift of a sweet voice that invariably charms her audience.

The pleasing program concluded with "Vacation Echoes" given by Mrs. D. A. Kelly. A most unique synopsis of her trip to the west as presented in "daily bulletins to her Sunday school class." Mrs. Kelly has a delightful sense of humor and a fascinating way of describing the beautiful scenes through which passed that made her contribution to the program most interesting.

STOLE MILLIONS FROM EXPRESS COMPANIES

MACON, Oct. 29.—Indictments charging conspiracy to purloin and embezzle property of the United States, conspiracy to embezzle interstate express shipments and conspiracy to defraud the United States were returned by the Federal grand jury here yesterday, against sixty-four express messengers, express agents, railroad conductors and others.

The American Railway Company presented evidence to the grand jury showing that for the first six months of this year property stolen from the express company in Southern states amounted to $1,018,722.94.

The articles alleged to have been stolen range from furs, silk shirts, pocket knives and guns to hogs, chickens, fish and eggs.

THE TRAINED NURSE.

The trained nurse is a ministering angel who is hired to let other people sleep.

There are two people who have proven that the world would be better off if sleep had never been invented. One of them is Thomas A. Edison and the other is the bright-eyed trained nurse who can sit up all night for a week and look as fresh as a plate of home-grown lettuce. Mr. Edison has not used any sleep to speak of in his business for years, and his close friends and associates say that when he feels any coming his way he holds his head under the cold water faucet until the attack passes.

When a nervous, high-strung business man comes down with an ulcerated tooth which hangs on like a one-armed man at a club dance he refuses to allow any sleep to enter the house, thus making it necessary to engage a trained nurse who is accustomed to sit bolt upright for weeks at a stretch without uttering a blink of any kind. There is nothing more soothing than the entrance of a graduate nurse and her soft-roll shirt waist into a home from which sleep has been banished by an able-bodied husband who has the galloping toothache and wants everybody in the block to know it. This enables a wearied wife to drop at full length into a leather chair and sleep until she has a crick in the neck which follows her around for several days. The trained nurse is obliged to obey the doctor's orders and feed the patent medicine and run a spirit thermometer down his throat at regular intervals. As the average patient, particularly of the male sex, soon develops a temper that would raise blisters on a tin roof, she is obliged to mix tact with the medicine and sometimes a little brute force. It must be admitted that the trained nurse earns her money and gets it.

"A nervous, highstrung business man with an ulcerated tooth which hangs on like a one-armed man at a club dance."

Our Growing Sweet Tooth

Public Paying Highest Price for Sugar Since Days Following Civil War

The public is paying the highest price asked in this country for sugar since the days following the Civil war. There are reports from that time of sugar selling as high as 50 cents a pound, and that, of course, for an article much inferior in grade to what some persons have been paying 24 cents a pound for within recent weeks. But there is this notable difference: In Civil war times the high price of sugar caused a noticeable diminution in its use; now, with the price four-fold what most persons consider to be normal, we are using five times as much sugar for each person as we were in the year after the Civil war. That year, the per capita use of sugar was 18 pounds. In the decade from 1895 to 1875 the price materially improved, and in response the use of sugar doubled to 35 pounds a person. From 1876 to 1885 it had increased to 42 pounds. In the decade from 1886 to 1895 the price of sugar went as low, probably, as at any time in our history, and for the excellently refined article. Then we were using it at the rate of 57 pounds a person each year. Steadily the use of it increased in the following decade, despite a somewhat rising price, to 67 pounds.

Election day always brings a frost.
But this is fine lettuce weather.
And worth thousands of dollars to our growers.
We should worry about the election if the lettuce will head properly.

This is the weather for business and the merchants should be taking time by the bald head and advertising sales to a fare you well.

The Republican party has spent almost four million dollars up to date according to a dispatch yesterday and they are calling on the big corporations to come across with the mazzina.

The Daily Herald will have election returns on Wednesday by bulletins, if possible, and unless there is a big landslide one way or the other on election day we will not know anything before Wednesday.

And having a daily paper in your midst puts you wise to all these important happenings just about five hours before you could get it from any other source. There is more importance attached to a daily paper than the average person thinks. Have you a little Daily Herald in your home? Eventually nothing. Take it now.

Sanford's White Way will soon be lining the streets and what a difference it will make in the appearance of our streets. There is nothing quite so great as a well lighted city and certainly nothing quite as beautiful as a good White Way. Let everybody take a light or two. The Southern Utilities Co. can guarantee service from this time forward.

BE CAREFUL OF AUTOMOBILES.

The State Board of Health gives the following good advice:

With the influx of winter visitors into the state of Florida, many of whom are making the trip from their home state in automobiles, others purchasing cars on their arrival here and even the railway travelers increasing the automobile traffic by the use of "for hire" cars, another note of warning is sounded to autoists and pedestrians. Acting on the convincing evidence of the vital records of the state which testify that automobile accidents are more frequent during the winter months, due undoubtedly to the increase in traffic, state officials are appealing to visitors and citizens alike to strictly adhere to traffic rules in driving and to use care and common sense in walking and driving.

Last year the highest number of deaths caused by automobile accidents occurred in January. This being the peak of the tourist season goes to prove that the increase in population tends to increase the number of deaths in the state caused by carelessness either on the part of drivers or pedestrians. During the entire year 57 deaths resulted from automobile accidents, according to statistics from the State Board of Health. Of this number 45 were men and all but ten were white. Twenty per cent of the victims were children under ten years of age and a large per cent of the total number occurred during the tourist months, when traffic is most congested.

Figures for 1919 are indicative of conditions in preceding years. They impress upon the public the necessity of better observance of traffic rules both in towns and cities and on the open road. Unfamiliarity with local traffic rules is believed to be the cause of a number of accidents, a condition which should be overcome by devising some means of putting the rules before the traveling public before or on their arrival in the state, say officials.

HOME MERCHANTS HAVE THE PRICES

The home merchants are the ones that should be patronized every time and when it looks like an outsider has a better price and when you get ready to patronize him because he seems to have a better price, right then is the time to get down to cases and compare prices.

For instance, there was a car load of apples in town this week. The man comes in and pays no license, pays no store rent, pays no light and water bill, buys nothing here at all and yet he gets the trade for apples because presumably he is selling cheaper—but is he? We looked at his prices and looked at the local grocers and L. P. McCuller, for instance, was advertising better apples on the same day at the same price and delivering them to your home and probably letting his bill ride for thirty days. The man on the tracks was getting cash, was selling an inferior apple and was doing nothing for the town while here. He is not and never will be a resident for he is here to-day and gone tomorrow.

Some times and only a few times in this world do the home merchants charge more for a certain article than the outside man and then if you will look over the list you will find that he makes it up on something else. There may be times when the home merchant is out of a certain article, he may not have as large a stock to select from as the big city store and there may be other extenuating circumstances that would induce you to buy something away from home—but hardly ever. If we would all stick to the home boys and keep our money at home we would have a much greater, a much wealthier and a much better town in many, many ways. And this is a lesson that all of us can well afford to learn.

UPSALA AND GRAPEVILLE

Mrs. Neil Swanson and Mrs. E. W. Lundquist were visitors in Grapeville Thursday.

Mrs. Albert Cruse was a caller at the home of Mrs. Campbell Monday afternoon.

Norman Swanson was a visitor at the home of his parents Sunday.

Mrs. Dryden, the mother of Miss Mac, is also spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mealer, coming last Sunday.

We forgot to mention that Albert Cruse took a day off while his brother Lee was here last week and they both spent a day at New Smyrna, before the latter left to take up a position.

T. O. Tyner and son Elmer were among the Modern Woodmen going down to Orlando to attend lodge on Thursday evening.

Mrs. A. F. Westerlick had a little quilting bee at her home on the 21st to which she invited Mrs. V. C. Collier of Sanford, and her sister, Mrs. Jennie Gleason of Canton, N. Y., and Mrs. Barney Beck to spend the day. Mrs. Volle Williams and the writer were also in a little while.

Mrs. Anna DeForest has returned from her northern trip much improved in health. She is stopping at the hotel in Sanford.

George Ballinger has some fine Japan persimmons for sale but can not carry them to his customers, this year as he has been in the habit of doing.

A fine baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mealer on Monday, the 25th.

It is planned to hold a rally day service, November 7th at the Upsala church. Rev. Albertson, of DeLand, our Sunday school missionary is back of it and desires to have us all get together for an all day service with a basket dinner at noon on the grounds. He will bring with him his wife who will take part by reciting in her own way and also Dr. Conway, of Orange City, a well known divine, who has preached in the Sanford churches. Dr. Conway will have charge of the morning service and Rev. Albertson, of the music. After the basket dinner, for which all come prepared, Rev. R. W. Edwards, of Jacksonville, who has ministered to us so long and well and needs no praise from us, will give us one of his thoughtful discourses. All told it should be a day long to be remembered and a blessing. Bear the date in mind and remember a welcome awaits you. Perhaps we shall have more to tell about it next week. Sunday school was extra well attended last week. It is so encouraging to our good superintendent and teachers.

Six Kinds of Safety

Have you every paused to consider the safety of the bank where you deposit your money?

The first consideration is the capital, which should be ample to meet the requirements of the community the bank is to serve.

The next question to consider is the officers in charge. They should be men of experience, high character and successful. Without men of ability no institution can succeed.

Then there is the question of confidence. The public should have confidence in the officers and in the bank.

These three principles determine the success of a bank. We adopted these principles in the outset of our career and we expect to live up to this high standard and increase our usefulness to the community as the years go by.

We Offer You:

- 1ST: LARGE CAPITAL AND WORKING RESERVE.
- 2ND: TRAINED MEN IN CHARGE—MEN OF SEVERAL YEARS EXPERIENCE.
- 3RD: THE CONFIDENCE OF THE PUBLIC, WHICH IS PROVEN BY THE DAILY ADDITION TO OUR LINE OF DEPOSITORS.
- 4TH: PROTECTION BY TWO EXAMINATIONS EACH YEAR BY THE STATE BANKING DEPARTMENT, TWO AUDITS EACH YEAR BY AN INDEPENDENT RECOGNIZED PUBLIC AUDIT COMPANY AND TWO SWORN STATEMENTS SUBMITTED TO THE STATE COMPTROLLER BY THE CASHIER, GIVING THE BANK'S CONDITION IN DETAIL, ALL OF WHICH INSURES REGULAR, SYSTEMATIC AND THOROUGH OPERATION OF THE BANK.
- 5TH: THE ADVICE OF A COMPETENT BOARD OF DIRECTORS, WHO MEET WITH THE OFFICERS REGULARLY EACH MONTH AND ADVISE THEM AS TO THE OPERATION OF THE BANK.
- 6TH: INSURANCE OF ALL DEPOSITS EVERY DAY OF THE YEAR, THIS IS A PROTECTION NOT COMMONLY FOUND IN BANKS AND IS AN ABSOLUTE PROTECTION FOR YOUR FUNDS, IN ADDITION TO ALL THE OTHER USUAL SAFEGUARDS.

THESE ARE REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD DO BUSINESS WITH US, AND WE BELIEVE THAT NO BANK CAN OFFER BETTER INDUCEMENTS.

SAILORS SEE BIG LEAGUE GAMES

Baseball fans throughout the country are always interested in big league baseball, but perhaps they are no more so than the sailormen of the American Navy. The great ships of the Atlantic Fleet are now laying in the North River right close to the Polo Grounds, where the world's most famous battles of the diamond are fought.

Whenever the fleet is in New York the owners of the big league teams supply thousands of free tickets to the men. Friday is generally termed "Navy Day" at New York, and the big teams are anxious to display their wares to the sailormen—they are splendid rooters.

The above picture shows an exciting moment on the diamond at the Polo Grounds, where America's favorite pastime is daily indulged in. The man at first has just attempted to steal, and the catcher is about to "peg" him out at second.

Rev. Brownlee will preach at Moore's Station church at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 31.

Rev. Geo. Hyman gave a short talk last Sunday afternoon and made it very interesting and realistic.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Corley arranged a very pleasant birthday outing for their son Joe's 14th anniversary. An automobile trip to Daytona Beach and a fine picnic dinner including ice cream. Helen and Carl Chorpene were invited to share the day's pleasures. It was altogether a perfect day.

Mr. and Mrs. Langford, driving through from Watertown, N. Y., to New Smyrna for the winter, were callers at Dressor's Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Stenson have arrived from Charlotte, N. C., and taken possession of their new home, the A. R. Chappell 10-acre farm and bungalow on Celery avenue. Mrs. Stenson is Mr. Brown Miller's sister. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Polk and little twin sons have returned to their home in Mecca hammock to live again after residing in Jacksonville for some time and two different periods of living in Longwood.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dressor arrived from Watertown, N. Y., on Saturday to remain for the winter with their nephew, W. W. Dressor and family at their home on Lake Golden.

G. L. Bledsoe was the man who bought the J. F. Hickson place on Celery avenue instead of John Russell as it was reported when the place changed hands a year or so ago. Mr. Bledsoe has adopted the name "Fairview Farm" and erected an attractive sign to that effect and will have all of his produce packages stamped with the same name when ready for shipment.

J. F. Hickson has the position as inspector for the whole Sanford section for the Sanford Truck Growers, Inc. Mr. Whitcomb, who recently moved over to Sanford from Geneva, will serve as inspector on the West Side under Mr. Hickson. Mr. Hickson will go to Manatee, Bradentown, Palmetto and other west coast towns this week in the interests of the S. T. G., Inc.

Frank Cowan has killed four rattlesnakes recently, three were of the ground rattler variety and the fourth one was a 6-ft. diamond back, all at his place on South Cameron ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Hunter have added a front porch to their house which adds much to its appearance.

It was reported that a 6-ft. diamond back rattler was seen crossing Beardall avenue by a colored man, near the entrance to the Hayden farm. The snake went into the grass and was lost. Too bad to let it get away.

CHICKEN SUPPER

Be sure and come to the Presbyterian chicken supper on Saturday night in the room recently occupied by the City Market next door to Fleetwood's on First street. Serving supper will begin at 5:30, giving everyone a chance to get supper and especially the busy business men and women. 176-3tc

"Friendship"

They say that friendship knows no geographical limits.

So far as the officers and directors of this bank are concerned, we know this is true, for the friendly interest manifested towards our friends and customers extends throughout this entire community.

The bond of friendship which exists between this institution and its customers makes us ever alert to assist, to serve and to accommodate in every way we can.

SOCIAL CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK.

Friday—
T. N. T. with Mrs. Sherman Lloyd.
Hallowe'en dance, with the Misses Howard.
Hallowe'en dance with Miss Julia Laing.

ST. AGNES GUILD
The St. Agnes Guild met with Mrs. Sherman Lloyd Monday afternoon. Plans were discussed for the bazaar and it was decided to serve coffee and sandwiches to the men at their business meetings once each month.

HALLOWE'EN SOCIAL
The Catholic Rectory was the scene last evening of a very jolly party. The Hallowe'en decorations of orange and black were most attractive.

During the evening all the good old Hallowe'en games of ducking for apples, carrying peanuts and fortune telling were enjoyed.

Five hundred was played. Mrs. Tackash winning a handkerchief, the ladies' prize and Father Farley a pair of socks, the gentlemen's prize. Mrs. O'Connor gave a picture to be auctioned off which Mr. Clarence Mahoney bid highest for and presented to Father Farley.

Appropriate refreshments of pumpkin, doughnuts and coffee were served.

EVERY-WEEK BRIDGE
The Every Week Bridge Club was entertained by Miss Wilkey. The decorations and refreshments were suggestive of Hallowe'en. For high score an orange crepe bridge set was won by Mrs. Schultz. Those present were: Mrs. R. S. Keeler, Mrs. W. E. Watson, Mrs. Forest Lake, Mrs. Margaret Barnes, Mrs. C. M. Vorce, Mrs. W. J. Thigpen, Mrs. A. R. Key and Mrs. Julius Schultz was the guest for the afternoon.

Miss Mable Bowler has returned from a visit in Jacksonville.

Hal Wight is in Hopkins, Florida, on a business trip.

Miss Eddie and Mr. Eddie were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wight Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kirtley came from Harlan, Iowa, Sunday to spend the winter in Sanford. They will be with Mrs. Henry Wight for a short time and expect to go to housekeeping as soon as possible.

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Langley had as their dinner guests last evening and Monday evening, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shell of Laurens, S. C., who are at the Valdez for several days.

Mrs. Langley and Miss Marie Tigue with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shell motored to Orlando Thursday.

The citizens of Sanford are surely doing their utmost to make the celebration a huge success and their co-operation leaves nothing to be desired.

The Legion wishes to express its appreciation to the dollar donation towards the expenses of the day by Mr. F. P. Forster. It is such sincere good will on the part of our public-spirited citizens that gives us the desire to make Armistice day a howling success.

The Butlers Were Great at the Temple

WERE FIRST OF SEVERAL FINE ATTRACTIONS THAT WILL BE HERE THIS SEASON

Dr. Hyman and the Temple Music Committee of the Baptist church deserve great credit for having in our midst for two nights of this week two such noted singers as Charlie Butler and Mrs. Charlie Butler who gave two entertainments at the Baptist Temple on Wednesday and Thursday nights respectively.

Charlie Butler, for many years was the leader of songs for Billy Sunday and his wife is famous as a singer and entertainer and both of them won a large place in the hearts of Sanford people here this week. Mr. Butler also gave the school children an impromptu entertainment before school Thursday morning and his dialect stuff was greatly enjoyed by the boys and girls.

The Temple was crowded to capacity both nights and the S. R. O. sign was necessary last night. Mr. and Mrs. Butler gave many excellent selections and they were accompanied in their songs by Mrs. Schelle Maines of this city.

This is the first of the entertainments that will be given to the people of Sanford this winter in the excellent lecture course that Dr. Hyman has arranged. Among the notable that he will have here are Rabbi Wise, Billy Sunday, Russell Conwell and many others—some of them the highest priced entertainers in the country. The people appreciate the efforts of Dr. Hyman in his endeavor to give them the best by attending the entertainments and they expect to guarantee his advance sales by purchasing tickets when it is a paid attraction. The Butlers were not a paid number and only a free will offering was taken to pay the current expense of the entertainment.

STATE AUTO ASSOCIATION AT ARCADIA TODAY

Will Discuss Bonding Amendment—Also Other Matters—To Be Entertained at Carlstrom Field

ARCADIA, Oct. 29.—The Florida State Automobile Association will hold its second triannual meeting on October 29 at the court house in Arcadia. The first of these meetings was absorbed by the constitutional amendment convention in St. Augustine, July 29-30. There are two triannual meetings and one annual convention each year. The annual meeting goes to Cocoa the latter part of February.

The Arcadia meeting on the 29th will be the most important, and the last big rally in favor of the good roads bonding amendment before election day, November 2. At this meeting will be gathered not only those members of the association who can attend, but also many others who wish to get 11th-hour information on the amendment.

Also an important matter to be taken up at this convention will be the program of statewide signposting, already actually underway. One of the biggest and best benefits ever undertaken by any organization for the state is this work which the Florida State Automobile Association is carrying on solely with the annual dues of its members. These metal "duplex" signs will be erected at "doubtful" points on the highways all over the state.

M. M. Smith, who is still president of the state association, following action of the executive committee refusing to accept his resignation "because of criticism of his dual capacity on state association and state road department" will preside. The Arcadia Commercial Club has appointed Messrs. A. Roe, Louis Morgan and C. C. Jones as a committee on entertainment to welcome delegates.

The meeting was called to order at 9:30 a. m. and the business session lasted until noon. After dinner a special aviation program was staged at Carlstrom field for the benefit of the visitors to this good roads convention.

Commanding Officer Boyce at Carlstrom flying field, at the request of the Arcadia Commercial Club, has agreed to have his lieutenants pull some flying stunts for the automobile association meeting that will long be remembered.

Tumulty recalled the reaction on the president to the applause, which greeted the delivery of his war message to congress on April 6, 1917. "On that fateful day," Secretary Tumulty said, "I rode with him back from the capitol to the white house, the echo of the applause still ringing in my ears. For a while he sat silent and pale in the cabinet room. At last he said: 'Think what it was they were applauding. It means death for our young men. How strange it seems to applaud that.'"

"That simple remark," Secretary Tumulty continued, "is one key to an understanding of Woodrow Wilson," who, he said, hated and dreaded war "with all of the fibres of his human soul."

Secretary Tumulty recalled Mr. Wilson's determination to ride in the funeral procession of the marines and sailors killed at Vera Cruz when the bodies were brought to New York. Disquieting rumors that an attack was planned on his life had reached secret service men, Mr. Tumulty said, and "one undertook to argue with him saying: 'You will show all proper respect by appearing in the reviewing stand. The country cannot afford to lose its president.'"

"His reply was: 'The country cannot afford to have a coward for president.' This was his brief and final answer. He rode in the procession."

The sternness of President Wilson, has secretary declared was "just the reverse side of his humane nature,"

U. S. NAVY

Tin Smith School.

Some U. S. sailors are shown here making plain and fancy stovepipes at a Navy training school.

The gentle art of tin smithing as taught in the U. S. Navy schools fits a man for a rating aboard a man o' war. There his work is confined to his specialty and his ability should increase throughout his enlistment.

There is no excuse for a man not becoming an expert by the end of his third or fourth year. He may then return to civil life entirely qualified in a profitable trade or continue in the service at the advanced pay allowed for re-enlistments.

Besides the tin smith school there are schools for every other trade used in the Navy. Carpenters, blacksmiths, plumbers, electricians, bakers, pharmacists, and a dozen other specialties are taught to the young recruits. If a young man has a hobby and wishes to perfect himself in some trade that he is fitted for, he may receive expert training by joining the Navy and applying for entrance to some trade school.

Mrs. Mary Higgins has returned home after a pleasant visit with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Dickson, in Orlando.

One woman of discrimination will find the hat she wants, moderately priced at the Quality Shop. 177-2tc

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Hart and little daughter, Georgina, leave today for Madison, Wis., to accompany the remains of Mrs. Hart's mother, Mrs. Curtice.

Mrs. Geiger left today for her home in Atlanta after spending the past three weeks here with her sister, Mrs. George D. Hart and was present at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Curtice, when she died.

Everywoman, the day will come when thou shalt know that Nobody is thy friend. See Everywoman at the Star today and Saturday.

Everywoman, Youth, Beauty, Modesty, Conscience, Truth, Vice, Wealth, Love, Passion, Nobody, Flattery, Bluff, Age, Time and Dissipation will all be in Everywoman at the Star Theatre today and Saturday.

Mrs. T. C. King is at the Mayo Bros., Sanitarium in Rochester, Minn., where her daughter recently had an operation for the removal of one of her kidneys. The operation was successful and the patient is recovering. Mr. King is at Osteen at present with the Long Lumber Co., but the family are residing here at their home on Oak avenue.

You have crowned me Queen of Revels. But it is a more precious crown I seek—that of Love. See Everywoman at the Star Today and Tomorrow.

Among the visitors to the city yesterday was C. E. Howard, of Orlando, who is the secretary of the Sub-Tropical Mid-Winter Fair Association and for many years was engaged in the newspaper business in Orlando, but retired several years ago. Mr. Howard is well known here and his many friends were glad to see him again. He was making arrangements for the Seminole county exhibit at the fair.

And the play is ended. This is the cue for Nobody to bid adieu. But first he will ask you in the author's name, Be merciful, be just, be fair. To Everywoman, everywhere; Her faults are many. Nobody's the blame. See everywoman at the Star tonight and Saturday.

The Weekly Herald goes out today with sixteen pages of good reading matter, the practice ballot in it, the registered voters in it, and all the news that is fit to print in it and the advertiser who is not represented in the Weekly Herald these days is losing money and trade. More than 2,000 subscribers to this big weekly paper every week and the list is growing all the time. The Weekly Herald is the family paper for Seminole and adjoining counties.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

The four chapters of the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew are prospering in every way, in numbers, in attendance, in work and in athletics. Steady advance is made in the completion of the interior of the new Brotherhood House, making provision for showers, baths and other accommodations. Through the generosity of the Elks Club, a new and especially fine billiard table has been added to the social part of the House. Increased interest is shown with the coming of cooler weather in bowling in the Brotherhood alleys—the only bowling alleys in the city. The two senior chapters have organized for this year, from Saint Andrew's Day, 1920, to Saint Andrew's Day, 1921, as follows: Tuesday night Seniors: (business men)—Director, Mr. Rush J. Murphy; V. Director, Mr. William H. Holden; Treasurer, Mr. Chris. L. Matthews; Secretary, Mr. Barclay. Tuesday night Seniors (High School students)—Director, Mr. Bertram Shepherd; V. Director, Mr. James A. Stone; Secretary, Mr. Leonard McLucas; Treasurer, Mr. Victor McLaulin.

COOKED FOOD SALE

The Pipe Organ Club will have a cooked food sale at Deane Turner's Grocery tomorrow afternoon. Lots of good things to eat.

WALTHALL & ESTRIDGE TAKE DAIRY OUTPUT

The enterprising firm of Walthall & Estridge have contracted for the entire output of the Pinehurst Dairy and hereafter will have entire charge of the distribution of the Pinehurst milk and cream. Mr. Keely found that he could not give all of his time and attention to his fine dairy herd by dividing the time with the difficult task of distribution. He was neither keeping up with his dairy at home or with the proper distribution of the product and he sold the contract for distribution to Walthall & Estridge the latter firm taking over the delivery car and everything pertaining to the selling end of the business. This will give Mr. Keely a chance to improve his herd of fine cows by the purchase of many more and looking after the important details connected with the dairy. He expects to increase the herd and increase the output of milk and Walthall & Estridge can be depended upon to increase the sales for they have that reputation and are full of the stuff that makes a success of any business. See the advertisement in this issue about this important change.

NOTICE, FARMERS—I am offering about 300 yards of seed bed covers 9 feet wide, any length wanted in fine condition, used only one season; price one-half of present cost of cloth.—J. R. Davis Farms, Bartow, Fla. 177-8tp of this statement and afterwards use

AMONG OUR ADVERTISERS

Among our Daily advertisers today that deserve special mention are Woodruff & Watson, who have a quarter page advertisement announcing a Real Reduction Sale of clothing just as the cold wave strikes the boys who are still wearing that summer suit. The Woodruff & Watson store have a fine line of clothing, hats and shoes and when they advertise a sale it brings the customers on the run and they are assured of a big business tomorrow as soon as the advertisement can be read and the prices noted.

Mrs. G. C. Cates wants to get rid of a bunch of stuff in the grocery and feed line and takes this opportunity to tell all her old and new customers about it in the Daily Herald. Mrs. Cates has the best of standard brands of canned goods and meats, etc., and feed stuffs and this sale is put on simply to make room for other goods coming in by every train. The prices will sell these goods and if you will read them carefully you will see the point. You will pay cash and carry them home and save.

All of our regular advertisers are in with store news announcing big savings and a careful perusal of the columns of the Daily Herald will convince you that Sanford is the greatest trading center in Florida. You can get what you want if you will only watch the Daily Herald and keep posted on what is transpiring in the local stores each day.

BONDING THE STATE

On the bottom of the official ballot next Tuesday the voter will see a brief synopsis of a proposed amendment to the constitution of the state, giving the legislature the right to bond the state "for not exceeding 5 per cent at any one time" for the purpose of building hard roads. There will be two lines, the first for the amendment, and the second against the amendment.

The News is opposed to the amendment.

Because we believe the right to bond for any purpose should be left in the hands of the people and not be placed in the hands of 100 members of the legislature. We would not give any board the right to mortgage our own property, nor would we grant this right to mortgage all the property of the state. If the people want to mortgage the state, they should have all authority as to the amount and the exact purpose for which the funds are to be spent.

Because our own county has already bonded for a million and a quarter with which to build roads, and we can see no reason why we should place a second mortgage for the purpose of building roads in other counties which have refused to mortgage their own property for this purpose.

Because we believe more roads can be built within ten to twenty years by the present tax of 2 mills, auto licenses and state convicts than can be built by issuing twenty or more million dollars of bonds and allowing any state board to blow it in within a couple of years.

Because no fund has been provided for the care of the roads after they have been built, and we know by actual experience that road maintenance is an expensive proposition.

Because no limit has been placed by the state on the load which may be carried over state or county roads, and we do not believe in building roads for the use of destructive freight trucks.

Because no effort is made to keep the roads for the use of the sane, reasonable driver, and a system of roads seem to invite speed demons and death, accident and mayhem.

We will do all we can to build roads, but we will vote against any proposition to create a political-finan-

RALLY DAY

Saturday, October 30th, 1920

At the City Park on Park Avenue, all day, the ladies of Sanford and Seminole County will gather together, some to teach, others to learn just what they are to do at the polls on Election day. ### The Logical Treatment "ENERGIZER"

For Many Human Ills. A prominent business-man woke up last Monday with a real case of Sciatic Rheumatism. He was "Energized" twice and on Thursday he was found "cleaning-house" at his store. Ask him. A younger well-known man came in Friday with an immovable stiff Neck—Neuritis, probably—and in 20 minutes he went out with his neck O. K., and feeling better ALL OVER. BUT—why wait till it strikes you? Surely there is enough PROOF all around us that "a stitch in time" is much more intelligent than any other way.

OLD LETTERS REVEAL LOST CHAPTER IN WORLD HISTORY

Lava preserved the secrets of Roman civilization in Pompeii; tombs protected the records of ancient Egypt's culture; and now there is prospect that some long neglected letters may reveal one of the most fascinating chapters in the historic trail of the Jewish people, and incidentally show that Africa loomed larger in the middle ages than modern historians have realized.

Hitherto Africa has figured not at all in medieval history. It still was a "dark continent" when Stanley and Livingstone penetrated it less than a century ago. Yet, in view of a remarkable documentary discovery made by Charles de la Ronciere, librarian of the national library in France, it would seem Jews of the fifteenth century had trading posts in northwest Africa, and carried on a vast commerce with the natives from the Sahara to the Atlantic and from Algeria to the Niger.

Antonio Malfante, a Genoese citizen, traversed this region and wrote his descriptive letters, in 1447, from Timbuktu and Touat. Timbuktu was the Chicago of the west African plains; and Touat the center of the camel caravan traffic that exchanged the wheat and barley of Egypt for the powdered gold of Timbuktu and the precious salt from Teghazza.

All the places visited by Malfante were so well known to the Jews of his time that they were listed in a Catalan atlas prepared three-quarters of a century earlier for Charles V, according to M. Ronciere. But shortly after Malfante's visit the Jews were driven out of Spain, and since the Jews were the only ones in Europe who knew of the Nigeria country and apparently permitted no Christian to enter there except Malfante the Jewish knowledge was lost in Europe. Not until Dr. Gerhard Rohlfs began his explorations in Algeria and Morocco in 1860 did the rest of the world again form a contact with the extensive regions of Malfante's travels.

Landing at a point west of Algiers, Malfante worked his way south to Touat, which Rohlfs believed himself to have been the first European to visit. Yet Malfante dated his first letter from there four centuries earlier.

Touat was an oasis, containing from 150 to 200 villages, which together formed a vast commercial center. Each had a chief. Travelers became the guests of these chiefs and Malfante reported their protection superior to that in states like Tiemen and Tunis. One of these towns was Tamett, now a decayed village, whose people still recall the Jewish epoch. Arabian invaders earlier had routed the Jews, who were masters of the Sahara and whose empire extended south to the Niger. Tamett, Malfante wrote, sheltered both Jews and Mohammedans, who lived in harmony. The native negroes valued copper highly, Malfante stated, and used it for money. Profiteering, apparently, is not a modern vice, Malfante complained. "The people here do not want to transact any business if they do not make a commission of 100 per cent." And their business was on a big scale, at that. Half a million head of cattle, to mention but one item, were brought to market in the caravan season.

Pushing on to Timbuktu, Malfante's host was the brother of a captain of desert industry, a man of great wealth and possessed of trade information concerning all of north Africa. From him Malfante learned of such flourishing places as Teghazza, famous for its salt mines and unique for its architecture. The houses were made of rock salt. Malfante noted that it never rained there, or the houses would have melted away.

EARTHQUAKE PLAYED PING-PONG WITH MAN-OF-WAR

Earthquakes play queer pranks. Recent seismic disturbances in Italy have attracted renewed attention to this phenomenon, and recall an amazing incident in the annals of the American navy in which a United States man-of-war was carried on the crest of a tidal wave three miles up the coast, two miles inland, and set down, entirely unharmed, within a hundred feet of the Andes.

This thrilling incident is recounted in a communication to the National Geographic society by one of the participants, Rear Admiral L. G. Billings, U. S. N., retired, as follows:

"In 1868 I was attached to the U. S. S. Waterlee, then on duty in the South Pacific—one of a class of boats built at the close of the Civil war to ascend the narrow, tortuous rivers of the South; she was termed a 'double ender,' having a rudder at each end, and was quite flat-bottomed, a conformation which, while it did not add to her sea-going worthiness, enabled her to carry a large battery and crew, and eventually saved our lives in the catastrophe which was soon to come upon us.

"August, 1868, found us quietly at anchor off the pretty Peruvian town of Arica, whither we had towed the old United States storeship Fredonia to escape the ravages of yellow fever, then desolating Callao and Lima.

"It was August 8 that the awful calamity came upon us, like a storm from a cloudless sky, overwhelming us all in one common ruin.

"I was sitting in the cabin with our commanding officer, about 4 p. m., when we were startled by a violent trembling of the ship, similar to the effect produced by letting go the anchor. Knowing it could not be that, we ran on deck. Looking shoreward, our attention was instantly arrested by a great cloud of dust rapidly approaching from the southeast, while a terrible rumbling grew in intensity, and before our astonished eyes the hills seemed to nod, and the ground swayed like the short, choppy waves of a troubled sea.

"The clouds enveloped Arica. Instantly through its impenetrable veil arose the cries for help, the crash of falling houses and the thousand mingled noises of a great calamity, while the ship was shaken as if grasped by a giant hand; then the cloud passed on.

"But our troubles then commenced. We were startled by a terrible noise on shore, as of a tremendous roar of musketry, lasting several minutes. Again the trembling earth waved to and fro, and this time the sea receded until the shipping was left stranded, while as far to seaward as our vision could reach, we saw the rocky bottom of the sea, never before exposed to human gaze, with struggling fish and monsters of the deep left high and dry. The round-bottomed ships keeled over on their beam ends, while the Waterlee rested easily on her floor like bottom; and when the returning sea, not like a wave, but rather an enormous tide, came sweeping back, rolling our unfortunate companion ships over and over, leaving some bottom up and others masses of wreckage, the Waterlee rose easily over the tossing waters, unharmed.

"From this moment the sea seemed to defy the laws of nature. Currents ran in contrary directions, and we were borne here and there with a speed we could not have equaled had we been steaming for our lives. At irregular intervals the earthquake shocks recurred, but none of them so violent or long continued as the first.

"About 8:30 p. m. the lookout hailed the deck and reported a breaker approaching. Looking seaward, we saw, first, a thin line of phosphorescent light, which loomed higher and higher until it seemed to touch the sky; its crest, crowned with the death light of phosphorescent glow, showing the sullen masses of water below.

"With a crash our gallant ship was overwhelmed and buried deep beneath a semi-solid mass of sand and water. For a breathless eternity we were submerged, floating in every timber, the stanch old Waterlee struggled again to the surface, with her gasping crew still clinging to the life-lines—some few seriously wounded, bruised and battered; none killed; not one even missing. A miracle it seemed to us then, and as I look back through the years it seems doubly miraculous now.

"The morning sun broke on a scene of desolation seldom witnessed. We found ourselves high and dry in a little cove, or rather indentation, in the coast line. We had been carried some three miles up the coast and nearly two miles inland. The wave had carried us over the sand dunes bordering the ocean, across a valley and over the railroad track, leaving us at the foot of the sea-coast range of the Andes. On the nearly perpendicular front of the mountain our navigator discovered the marks of the tidal wave, and, by measurements, found it to have been 47 feet high, not including the comb. Had the wave carried us 200 feet farther we would inevitably have been dashed to pieces against the mountainside."

Potatoes on the Half-Shell.
Take six good-sized, smooth potatoes, bake about an hour. When done, cut in two, lengthwise, and with a spoon carefully scoop out the potato into a bowl. Mash fine, adding butter and half a cupful of hot milk, salt and pepper to taste. Beat very light; add the well-beaten whites of two eggs, fold in and fill the shells with the potato. Brush with the egg yolk, and bake 15 minutes in a hot oven.

Orange Pie.
Take one cupful of sugar, four table-spoonfuls of melted butter, one egg and the yolks of two, one cupful of milk, one teaspoonful of soda and two teaspoonfuls of cream of tartar, the juice of one orange, three cupfuls of flour. Bake in layers and put together with whipped cream, sweetened and flavored with orange.

Eggs in Curry Sauce.
Cook four eggs by dropping them into boiling water, using two quarts and covering tightly; set them on the back of the stove where they will keep hot but not boil, for 30 minutes. Remove the shells and slice the eggs into a buttered baking dish. Melt a table-spoonful of butter in a saucepan, add a teaspoonful of chopped onion and cook in the butter until a golden brown; add one and one-half table-spoonfuls of flour, a little salt and pepper and a half table-spoonful of curry powder. When smooth add one cupful of milk and cook until smooth and free from all taste of raw starch. Pour this sauce over the eggs, cover with a layer of buttered crumbs. Brown in a hot oven and serve hot.

NURSING SERVICE IS RAPIDLY EXPANDING

This American Red Cross Work Flourishing in Small Towns Throughout Country.

More than 37,000 graduate nurses have been enrolled in the American Red Cross to date and its department of nursing is daily increasing this enrollment.

The department of nursing has been authorized to maintain an adequate reserve of nurses for the army and navy. It will continue to supply the needs of the United States Public Health Service to which it has assigned more than 1,000 nurses in the last year.

It will assist in establishing proper nursing service in foreign countries where the American Red Cross has organized hospitals, dispensaries and schools for nurses. Courses in home hygiene and care of the sick have been started for thousands of women who have never received any education in this direction. Rural nursing which was in its infancy a short while ago has been put ahead at least a decade through the work of the department of nursing and local Red Cross chapters.

Public health nursing has been extended to many rural communities and now flourishes actively in hundreds of small towns and counties. Nearly a thousand efficient nurses have already been assigned to this kind of work.

The department of nursing is uniting with other organizations in a year's campaign in recruiting nurses for training schools, in educating the general public as to standards of nursing education and in showing communities their responsibility toward schools of nursing. It will endeavor to meet all these needs as well as to continue the enrollment of dietitians who will be utilized as instructors in home dietetics, in developing nutritional clinics, and in supplying dietitians for the United States Public Health Service and the civilian hospitals.

The Nursing Service will continue to offer to women and young girls the opportunity of securing instruction in home hygiene and care of the sick in every community in the country. This instruction has not only laid the foundation for public health but in some places has given impetus to the establishment of hospitals and community school houses.

"As a community profits by the work of the nurse," says Miss Clara D. Noyes, director of the department of nursing, "it is logical that the community should be aroused to its responsibility. The American Red Cross stands ready to help in a general campaign of recruiting and must have the support, sympathy and understanding of the medical profession as well as the intelligent co-operation of the people at large."

Discloses Amazing Facts--Information Worth Dollars

GETS DOWN TO CLEAN FACTS AND ENLIGHTENS CITIZENS ON MANY PERTINENT ITEMS.—SAYS FIGURES DON'T LIE.

No matter how you vote! Eliminate entirely the question of Politics, Creed or Party, I am going to ask you for your own good, for your own information and as a Bonafide citizen of Seminole county, to read every word of this statement and afterwards use your own judgment.

When Seminole County was created in 1913 a Fine and Forfeiture Fund was transferred from Orange County amounting to $3,538.00.

After forty-two (42) months of C. M. Hand's administration I entered upon my duty as Sheriff of Seminole County and found only a balance of $16.69 in this fund.

I worked about three (3) months as Sheriff before any money was paid me because other county obligations had precedence over mine.

On July 1, 1920, after forty-two (42) months of my administration there is a balance in the Fine and Forfeiture Fund of $7,419.41. Bear in mind I had turned over to me only $16.69.

OTHER SALIENT FACTS

CONVICTIONS UNDER HAND'S ADMINISTRATION

Violation of Prohibition Laws.....	56
Violation of Gambling Laws.....	61
Violation of Vagrancy Laws.....	3
Violation of Other Laws.....	374

CONVICTIONS UNDER BRADY'S ADMINISTRATION

Violation of Prohibition Laws.....	98
Violation of Gambling Laws.....	181
Violation of Vagrancy Laws.....	71
Violation of Other Laws.....	332

Total number of convictions under Hand 494. Under Brady 732.

238 CONVICTIONS TO BRADY'S CREDIT, for the same length of time in office.

$33,511.97 was the total amount of Fines assessed by the Courts during Hand's administration. $21,898.44 was the total amount of Fines assessed by the Courts during Brady's information.

For your information the Fine and Forfeiture Fund is the Fund out of which a Sheriff is paid for his services in Criminal cases.

A Fine and Forfeiture Fund is maintained by fines and costs assessed by the courts and by a Millage out of the general taxes if necessary.

When I entered upon my duty as Sheriff of Seminole County in January, 1917, there was not enough money accruing from the Fine and Forfeiture Fund to meet necessity and Two Mills were being used from the General Taxes.

The first year of my administration a reduction was made from Two (2) to One (1) mill.

IN 1919 THE MILLEAGE FROM GENERAL TAXES WAS ERASED ENTIRELY AND TODAY THE FINE AND FORFEITURE FUND IS SELF-SUSTAINING AND SHOWS A GOOD BALANCE.

Now, ladies and gentlemen; voters of Seminole County, in casting your vote, you become automatically, a stockholder in your county and of your county, and the vote you cast, is your expression as to whether you employ or not employ any certain man or woman for the filling of any one office in that county. Therefore, it is sound good business on your part to pay your money for SERVICE rather than POLITICS. A merchant does not ask the clerk he is about to hire whether he is Democrat, Republican or Independent, nor to what church he belongs—he only asks "CAN YOU PRODUCE." If after a trial that employee proves progressive, efficient and renders dividends in work to his employer, that employer protects and appreciates him as a valuable asset and continues to retain his services.

Therefore, if you ever expect competency, efficiency and justice from those you elect to office, you must base your actions at the coming polls according to performances of the past, and FIGURES DON'T LIE. The records of Seminole County carry the individual records and figures that I have presented in this statement, won't you, at least, for your own information verify them.

From the two records, if I am worthy of my hire, wont you express it by your vote?

Sincerely,

E. E. BRADY.

Who shall know the workings of a woman's heart?

Who shall fathom the dreams of a young girl as she first looks out on life.

"Standing with reluctant feet, Where the brook and river meet, Wemanhood and Childhood fleet."

She starts fortified by all the beneficent attributes—youth, beauty, modesty, truth and good conscience; but near her are Ambition and pride beckoning her on; passion with pleasant exterior; vice in attractive form; wealth ready to smooth all paths; while love, compassion and devotion seem but dull company.

Everywoman must choose which of These shall be her companions. Beauty cannot flirt with Dissipation, nor abide with Passion; Youth cannot sport with Vice; Truth will be estranged by Ambition; and Conscience be stilled by Pride. Only Infinite Love, perfect devotion, divine compassion will cleave through all vicissitudes, ready in the hour of direst need to rally round her, when Nobody cares. Everywoman meets these characters daily. They bear ordinary normal names, but she knows to which group each belongs, whether they are a force for Good or for Evil, whether they should enter the inner circle of her Friends, or be passed by and forgotten. Will she pursue Ambition? Content with Vanity and Pride? Indulge in Dissipation and Vice? Or, in the path of simple standards, and quiet modest ways be content to live her life in companionship with womanly virtue, believing that if she pursues Truth alone, then Love, which she so earnestly desires, will be her reward?
