Sanford men indicted for killing Longwood clerk

A Seminole County grand jury handed down an indictment Tuesday charging Tindall Jason Williams, 28, formerly of 3930 S. Sanford Ave. in Sanford, with first-degree murder, attempted robbery with a deadly weapon, armed burglary and possession of a firearm by a convicted felon.

The charges are in connection with the June 23 slaying of Anthony Cruz Francis, 31, who was working as a convenience store clerk at the Longwood Kwik Korner Cigo.

Longwood police arrested Williams on June 23 and he remains in the John E. Polk Correctional Facility where he is held without bond.

The grand jury heard from three witnesses — a medical examiner, the lead detective on the case from the Longwood Police Department and a civilian witness, said Assistant State Attorney Tom Hastings.

The Seminole County State Attorney's Office will seek the death penalty in the case, Hastings said.

City gives church $50,000 for repairs

By Jamie J. Anderson-Potter
Staff Writer

Estimates put cost at $42,000, church will keep any remaining funds

SANFORD — Sanford commissioners gave $50,000 to Victory Temple of God Monday to repair damages caused when a city stormwater pipe burst last year.

The church, located at 601 Pine Ave., in Sanford, was damaged after a corrugated metal pipe — which was installed 50 to 60 years ago — broke, sending rushing water throughout the surrounding area. The city spent about $700,000 from reserves to fix the pipe.

According to Commission, by allocating the money to the church, the city is not taking responsibility for the damages. In fact, according to the city's attorney, the city would likely prevail if the case were tried in court.

"We are assuming moral responsibility," said Commissioner Art Woodruff, who later voted against the deal due to details requested by Bishop R.L. Hillery of Victory Temple of God. "The right thing would be to help them out."

The attorney also advised commissioners that by giving the money to "fulfill a moral obligation" would in no way set a precedent for others to come to the city for funds if this should happen again in the future.

"There is a fine line between neglect and an unfortunate accident," said Commissioner Randy Jones, who also voted against the deal. "If we are going out on a limb like this, which I'm not a big supporter of, we need to know what is happening."

In the settlement, the city's staff was prepared to oversee the repair project, and in effect, manage the

Commuter rail is a step closer

Mica secures an additional $5 million for demo project

By Jamie J. Anderson-Potter
Staff Writer

WINTER PARK — Seminole County could be linked to its neighboring communities by way of a commuter rail system as soon as 2005.

According to U.S. Rep. John Mica, R-Winter Park, the U.S. House of Representatives' transportation appropriations subcommittee approved $5 million Friday to be used toward the commuter rail system. The funding, a part of the most recent federal budget bill, must still be approved by the House and Senate.

"We are several steps closer to making commuter rail a reality in Central Florida," said Mica during a press conference Monday at the Winter Park Amtrak station.

If approved, this money will join $4 million in federal funds Mica secured last year. The money would be used to purchase self-propelled diesel passenger train cars for a demonstration program sponsored by the Federal Railroad Administration.

According to Mike

Congressman John Mica secured funds to purchase a Colorado Railcar, above, as part of a commuter rail demonstration project. At right, Mica talks with local business owners about the project during a Town Hall meeting in Lake Mary. Photos submitted to the Herald

Snyder, district secretary of the Florida Department of Transportation, additional funding of $4 million will be allocated by the FDOT.

"We are keeping the process moving forward so we don't miss an opportunity to bring a commuter rail system to the area," said Snyder. "This is a great opportunity for us."

According to Snyder, FDOT would purchase the commuter rail prototype manufactured by Colorado Railcar and the testing would be completed by Tri-Rail of South Florida. If the trial is successful, the train would be brought back to Central Florida for use.

This plan, however, is contingent on the success-

State offers plea deal, drops charges against club's owner

Special to the Herald

Two corporations that hold the licenses and operate two Rachel's Men's Clubs in Orlando and Casselberry have pled guilty to racketeering and, in a settlement agreement with the Office of Statewide Prosecution, are required to pay $620,000 in fines, forfeitures and costs.

The two corporations, Bee Line Entertainment Partners, Ltd., and Seminole Entertainment, Inc., have agreed to cooperate fully and to support unannounced law enforcement inspections of the clubs, including inspections by narcotics detection canines. The alcoholic beverage license at each club will also be suspended for one week. The corporations were also placed on six years of probation.

The Casselberry club was closed from 2001 until this year as a result of the City of Casselberry's two-year suspension of the club's adult entertainment license based on facts that came to light in this investigation.

The charges resulted from a seven-month investigation between January and July 2000 by the Metropolitan Bureau of Investigation in Orange County, and by the City County Investigative Bureau in Seminole County, into allegations that the clubs were providing prostitution and narcotics to customers. The two clubs are located at 401 North Semoran Boulevard in Casselberry (Seminole County) and 8701 South Orange Avenue in Orlando (Orange County).

The investigation revealed that several of the managers at each club had received money for assisting in these crimes and were laundering or processing money for narcotics and prostitution through credit card transactions at the clubs. Several of the club managers were previously charged and pled guilty to racketeering charges.

Because corporations can be held criminally liable for SANFORD — Officials at Orlando Sanford International Airport are hoping new flight service to Las Vegas will pay-off big as they continue to attract more travelers to resume flying.

Airport administrators announced that TransMeridian Airlines (TMA) will offer non-stop service from Sanford to McCarran International Airport in Las Vegas beginning August 28.

This is an exciting new service for us," said Larry Gouldthorpe, president of TBI Airport Management's Sanford operations.

The Las Vegas service will be on 200-seat Boeing 737-200ER jets with 10 first-class seats available. "Red-eye" flights are scheduled to leave from Las Vegas on Thursdays and Sundays at 12:05 a.m. Pacific Time and arrive in Orlando about four hours later at 7:15 a.m. Eastern Time. "The Thursday/Sunday flights offers a nice choice," Gouldthorpe said.

Regular price for the flights is $99 each way, but for a limited time, TMA will provide a $10 discount. Upgrades to first-class is $75. Reservations can be

County picks up seat on MPO board

By Dan Ping
Editor

SANFORD — Seminole County gained an additional seat on an important regional transportation planning committee.

Larry Dale, president of the Sanford Airport Authority, announced Tuesday morning that Gov. Jeb Bush had signed legislation that would allow the Orlando

Sanford Mayor Brady Lessard — walked out of a board meeting two months ago when fellow MPO members failed to grant the Sanford Airport Authority (SAA) voting-member status to the committee. The Seminole delegation argued that the West Orange Airport Authority should not have been granted an MPO seat because that board does not have an airport. The SAA operates the Orlando Sanford International Airport to become a voting member of MetroPlan Orlando (MPO). The MPO board identifies, evaluates and ranks transportation needs in the Central Florida, which allows the region to present a united front when lobbying for state and federal funding.

Three MPO board members from Seminole County — county commissioners Dick Van der Weide and Daryl McLain, along with International Airport which was ranked as the fastest growing North American airport in 2000 and 2001 by the Airports Council International.

"MPO deals with a lot of issues that relate to airports, whether it be ground transportation to get to the airports or grants specifically to enhance operations at airports," Dale said.

A GLANCE AROUND OUR COUNTY

Mom's second pregnancy is not up to expectation

DEAR ABBY: I am 27 years old and pregnant with my second child. I remarried one year ago and couldn't wait to have my new husband's first baby. My problem is, I am not as excited about having this child as I was my first. Don't get me wrong, I love this baby, but I expected to be more "thrilled" and I'm not.

Dear Abby

I also feel I am all alone in this pregnancy. Although he hasn't said it, I suspect my husband is repulsed by the amount of weight I have gained. (I am in my seventh month.) I am embarrassed to talk to my doctor about this for fear he will think I am a bad person.

Is there something wrong with me? Help!
WORRIED MOM
IN SOUTH CAROLINA

DEAR WORRIED MOM: Needing support is not being a bad person. Your problem is that you have clamored up at the very time you should be speaking out. It is normal for a pregnant woman to have insecurities. It also is not uncommon for someone who has already had one pregnancy to feel less excited about her second. You should discuss these feelings with both your husband and your doctor. Please don't worry. You will love your children in different ways — but equally.

DEAR ABBY: I am 25 and a registered nurse. For three years I've been in a live-in relationship with "Herb." He is 10 years my senior.

I have a history of depression, anxiety and binge drinking. I turned to alcohol when I got depressed over my father's death from a massive heart attack five years ago. I also drink because of lack of love and companionship from my mate.

Herb is unemployed and spends most of his time in front of the computer. It bothers me so much as a cocktail to wind down after a 12-hour shift. He withholds affection. I feel isolated. I'm afraid he will become angry if I stop for a drink with my colleagues after work.

Herb never asks me how my day was. I know I have problems, but it would be nice to feel supported. He has been physically abusive on multiple occasions. Is there any hope for me, Abby?

DOWN IN THE DEPTHS
IN COLORADO

DEAR DOWN IN THE DEPTHS: Yes, there is. But first you must accept that you have a drinking problem and seek other avenues for resolving your depression. Speak to your doctor and get a referral for treatment.

That said, your drinking is no excuse for Herb to abuse you. Your life will improve as soon as you rid yourself of him.

DEAR ABBY: I am 21 and recently had a baby with "Danny," a guy I've never exactly dated, yet we continue to sleep together. He's gone through two girlfriends since I've known him, but he always comes back to me.

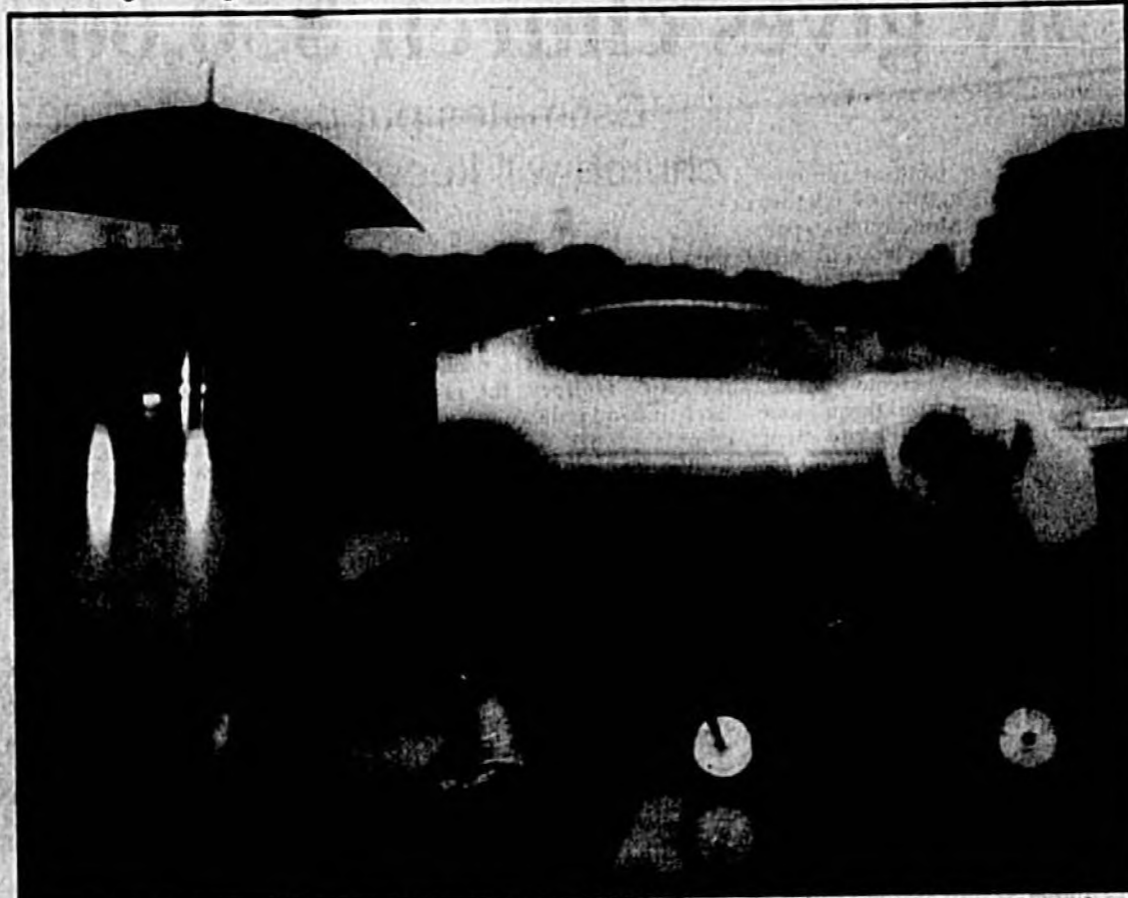

I love Danny, but I know the feeling is not mutual. Should I try to get over him and move on, or should I hang in with the man I love?

WISHING AND HOPING
IN DELAWARE

DEAR WISHING AND HOPING: Please see a counselor. You need to explore why you have allowed yourself to be treated so poorly. Since Danny has never given you any reason to think you are anything more than a nocturnal convenience, it is best that you move on. However, before you do so, consult a lawyer about establishing child support and visitation because Danny does not appear to be a person who will shoulder his obligations willingly.

Sobik's ready to open in downtown

Historic Downtown Sanford is no longer just the home for antique shops, thrift stores and mom and pop restaurants. With the opening of Sobik's Subs, the first of many chain operations on the horizon.

Sobik's Franchisee Tony Martin, a 32-year-old former McDonald's and Subway manager, said the Sanford store is the "crown jewel" and the first of many Sobik's locations he plans to open throughout Central Florida.

"We are going to be multi-unit operators," Martin said.

"This is just the beginning. The store is located at 105 E. First Street, right in the middle of downtown. Sanford is growing. With the new Riverwalk project opening soon, I see unlimited potential for this location."

Dan Patterson, President of Sobik's International Franchising, Inc. said, "With his two partners, Tony wants to become an area developer and eventually open Sobik's Subs throughout the area, particularly in Volusia County."

James Emerson, Director of Marketing for Sobik's said, "The store interior is unique with all the new design elements from our remodel package but features furniture with a "forties diner look" to help the store blend in with historical Downtown Sanford. This, I hope, will become a marquee store. We need more highly-visible locations in this market and Tony's store will certainly be one of those."

Jo Alaniz, Executive Director of Sanford Main Street, said she looks forward to Sobik's being a strong anchor for local business and an encouragement for outside investors to recognize historical downtown Sanford as an untapped resource.

"I'm excited that Sobik's has chosen my town to launch this creative spin on your ordinary sub shop," said Alaniz, whose office is down the street from Sobik's.

Sobik's International Franchising, Inc. has been in the submarine sandwich business for over 30 years in Central Florida. Sobik's parent company, Ultimate Franchise Systems, Inc. (OTC BB: UFSY), currently has investments in approximately 440 franchised restaurants in 30 states throughout the United States. These brands include Gator's Dockside Restaurants, Jreck Subs, Inc., Central Park Hamburgers, Li'l Dino's Deli and Grille, Sobik's Subs and NY Burrito.

Announcing the Opening of:

Changez

A Salon

Dear Friends,

I am very excited to announce that I am opening a salon. The name of the salon is Changez. A name I picked for many reasons. As most of you know, I moved to Sanford last July, and I have to say its been the greatest thing ever. This is such a wonderful old city, and there are so many great things happening here. My neighbors and the businesses around the area have been very supportive, and I hope to meet some of the locals when you visit. The salon is in an old 30's Deco building with an awesome layout and covered parking. I'm making a lot of changes to the interior and plan to have a large portion done by July 22nd, which will be my first day of appointments.

I must say that my years at Beau Monde are the foundation for this next venture in my life, I will miss being there. However, doing your own thing is pretty cool, too!

My last day at Beau Monde will be July 19th, and my first day at Changez will be July 22nd. Beginning July 8th, I will have a receptionist answering the phone and booking appointments at the new salon.

The number is (407) 322-5742.

Located at 2nd and Park in Downtown Sanford.

 money being spent. Hillery, however, did not agree.
 "I'm pleased about the city giving us the money," said Hillery. "But, I'm not pleased about being micro-managed by the city of Sanford. We put our trust into the city every day to do the right thing and I would expect them to allow us to do the same thing by allowing us to manage this project. We haven't come this far by having the city manage us."

According to Johns Eastern Company, Inc., the city's third party administrator for insurance claims, the cost for the repairs should be $40,844.59. This estimate includes $33,650 for repairs to the church and $7,200 to shore up the church.

The city opted, in a 3-2 vote, to respect Hillery's wishes and turn the money over to the church and allow them to manage the project. The city awarded $50,000 in order to give a cushion in case the project cost more than the estimate. Any funds left over from the project will not be returned to the city.

According to Kevin L. Smith, the city's finance director, the funds will be budgeted from the general fund reserves.

In other city news, Commission:

- Postponed review of the Historic Preservation Board's (HPB) request to remove board member Stephanie Powers until the city attorney can determine the appropriate process to follow. However, commissioners did decide not to replace board member Marveen Kelly, who resigned last month, in order to reduce the board's size through attrition.

- Approved the first of two readings to replace the existing HPB Schedule S with a revised version.

- Decided to continue with United Healthcare insurance coverage for city employees. The city will contribute $299.01 per month for 486 employees, a total cost of approximately $1.74 million.

- Postponed a decision on whether to purchase property located at 2313 S. Sanford

Ave., until staff reviews the site. The cost for the parcel running east-west along the north side of 2313 S. Sanford Ave. would be $7,500.

The legislation signed by Bush requires that members of MPO must perform "transportation functions," which would eliminate the West Orange Airport Authority.

"You can't just form a committee and expect a seat at the table because you may one day have an airport," Dale said.

In addition to gaining a fourth seat for Seminole County, Dale said it is important for the Sanford airport to be represented at MPO for two reasons.

"More and more, airport related grants, both state and federally, are first going to MPO," Dale said. "The other reason is that GOAA (Greater Orlando Airport Authority) is represented on MPO. While we have a much better relationship with GOAA than we once did, they are still a competitor. We want to make sure our views are represented before the MPO, not just GOAA's."

During Tuesday's regular Sanford Airport Authority meeting, board members appointed Dale to be the authority's representative.

Charges against a leading stockholder in the two corporations, Paul James Veige, were dropped pursuant to the settlement just reached. The prosecutions were handled by the Office of Statewide Prosecution and the State Attorneys' Offices in Orange and Seminole counties.

ful negotiations with CSX Transportation for use of its freight rails.

According to Mica, the rails could be used for both commercial freights and commuter rail with very few modifications.

The state has opened the lines of communication with CSX, but no negotiations will be initiated until the end of the year, once a $3-million study is complete. The study, overseen by Snyder, will illustrate the general costs and prospect of bringing commuter rail to the area.

According to Snyder, the study will assist the state when it applies for the demonstration project by the July 31 deadline.

"We are confident Florida will be very successful [with its bid]," said Snyder.

According to Mica, if everything falls into place the commuter service could be in place as early as the fall of 2005. The initial $50-million system would include three to four units running in the peak morning and evening hours from DeLand to downtown Orlando.

As much as 50 percent of the funding could come from the federal government, leaving 25 percent each for state and local governments to pick up. Last year, Seminole County became the first county in Central Florida to officially support Mica's plan for a Central Florida commuter rail system.

The Las Vegas route is one of three services TMA will begin on August 28. The airline will also offer flight service to Toledo, Ohio, and Rockford, Ill. Flights to those destinations will be offered every day except Tuesday. TransMeridian Airlines is already offering six flights per week to San Juan, Puerto Rico, and Syracuse, N.Y.

TransMeridian's aggressive pace in securing flights out of Sanford is one sign that domestic air travel is in the early stages of recovery following the sharp declines after the terrorist attacks on Sept. 11, 2001. Gouldthorpe said passenger numbers at the Orlando Sanford airport are steadily increasing, particularly on the international side. In June, 122,093 passengers traveled through the airport.

"We are much improved in our (United Kingdom) numbers from a year ago," Gouldthorpe said. "We're up 14 percent year-to-date. We have almost made a complete recovery after losing Vacation Express."

Domestic numbers are still down, about 4 percent in June. Gouldthorpe expects those to improve as more destinations, and possibly more airlines, are added. "We're seeing positive gains," Gouldthorpe said.

Orlando turns to Gruden to lead Preds

Special to the Herald

As expected, the Orlando Predators turned to a known commodity when it came time to name a new head coach. On Monday, the Arena Football League team said that former head coach-turned-quarterback Jay Gruden would once again patrol the sidelines.

Gruden will replace Fran Papasidero, who was tragically killed in a traffic accident on July 19. Papasidero took over the Predators reins in 2002, when Gruden decided to return to the playing field. In two seasons as head coach, Papasidero went 22-13 and guided the Predators into the semifinals in each of his two seasons.

In making the announcement, Predators President Brett Bouchy did not rule out the possibility of Gruden playing again next season. An AFL rule currently prevents an athlete from being a player/coach, but Orlando may seek an exemption. "Basically, we're asking the league to allow us to keep our options open," Bouchy said. "Jay's original intention was to play next year but that was before Fran's accident and his surgery. If he recovers enough from the surgery and still wants to play, we want to give him that option as either a player/coach or just a player. But for now, Jay is our head coach and will handle those duties."

The Arena Football League has already granted an exemption that will allow Jay to switch from the head coaching role to quarterback without sitting out the mandatory one-year period. The Predators were also given the option of petitioning the league to change its rules to allow for a person to be both a player and the head coach.

One of the most successful quarterbacks in Arena Football League history, Gruden led the Tampa Bay Storm to four championships in six seasons from 1991-96. He stepped away from the game after winning back-to-back titles to become offensive coordinator of the Nashville Kats in 1997. After helping that team to a then-expansion record 10 wins, Gruden was named Head Coach and Director of Football Operations of the Orlando Predators.

In his first season, Gruden went 9-5 before guiding the Predators to three consecutive wins in the playoffs as Orlando won their first ArenaBowl championship. The season culminated with a shocking 62-31 road win over 17-point favorite Tampa Bay in ArenaBowl XII.

In 1999, the Predators made AFL history by becoming the first number eight seed to make it

"These top 20 brands reflect only the largest boats owned by our members," said Sciuella, noting that the average BoatU.S. member owned 1.8 boats and that many of the boats owned by BoatU.S. members are built by small, independent boat builders.

NEW STUDY PINPOINTS CAUSES OF BOAT FIRES

As the boating season gets into full swing, a new study released by BoatU.S. Marine Insurance indicates that the leading causes of fires aboard vessels are AC & DC wiring problems, engine and transmission overheating.

McLeod gets 50th Super Late Model win at SpeedWorld

From Staff Reports

Mother Nature may have won the night on Saturday, but Friday night was a go at Orlando Speed World.

There were many highs and lows for racers and fans as they saw two red flags during the feature events which is something no one wants to see and all watched as B.J. McLeod won his 50th Super Late Model win and cut off Ace, one of B.J.'s crew members, handlebar mustache in front of the crowd.

Along time ago Ace told B.J. when he won his 50th Super Late Model race, he could cut off his handlebar mustache in front of the crowd and that is exactly what happened last night. Way to go B.J. and Ace.

Chad Atkins lead the Bandolero Bandits from green to checked in their feature event. These guys are gearing up for a National event to take place at SpeedWorld on Saturday, July 26. Josh Williams followed Atkins on the green followed by Matt Bowers, Gerald White, Jr., and Matthew Jarrett.

Bowers took over second putting Williams third with Derrick Wood coming from the rear and taking over fifth than fourth. Akins took the checkered followed by Matt Bowers, Josh Williams, Derrick Wood, and Gerald White, Jr.

Chad Atkins took the heat win.

Jessica Murphy sat on the pole for the Bandolero Young Guns but before a lap was down. Murphy and Troy Atkins tangle and spin in turns 1 and 2. A total restart was in order with Murphy taking the point followed by Kevin Henry, Brandon Thompson, Troy Atkins and Scott Jarrett.

Henry takes over the point putting Murphy second. Troy Atkins brought out the yellow when he spun in turn 4. Henry holds the lead on the restart and takes the checkered followed by Jessica Murphy, Brandon Thompson, Troy Atkins, and Scott Jarrett. Jessica Murphy took the heat win.

Gary Kelly of Del Rio, Tennessee had the pole for the Classic Auto Racing Series feature event. Twenty one Classics filled the field and put on a great show.

On lap one, Patrick "Bam Bam" Sanders spun on the frontstretch on the start which realigned the Classics for a second start. Kelly jumped to the lead on the green and never really looked back winning from green to checkered.

Following Kelly was Brian Ball, Wayne Ashton, Patrick Sanders, and Jim Rahman. Ben Booth brought out the yellow when he spun in turns 1 and 2. Kelly holds the point on the restart followed by Ball, Ashton, Sanders, Rahman, Conrad, Hagan, Yates, Posey and Spawer.

The red flag came out when Bud Spencer somehow ended up on top of Al Hagan in turns 1 and 2. The cars were wedged pretty good together but neither driver was hurt. Just before the race Al Hagan said, "my luck has not been the best thus far this year but hopefully tonight will be the start of better luck." But that did not happen. The Classics race at Desoto Speedway Saturday night, July 12, and hopefully Hagan and Spencer will be able to repair their cars for that event but they were done at SpeedWorld.

Kelly holds the point on the restart followed by Bell, Rahman, Sanders, and Posey. Ben Booth was able to take fifth away from Posey putting Posey sixth. Keith Biaga did a great job right before the finish of saving a squirrelly car without bringing out the caution.

Kelly takes the checkered followed by Brian Bell, Jim Rahman, Patrick Sanders, Ben Booth, Bill Posey, Daryl Grief, Frank Conrad, Keith Biaga, and George Hall III.

Gary Kelly and Wayne Ashton took the heat wins. Bob Beiler with his "Banana Boat" had the pole for the Super Stock feature and took the lead on the green followed by Wally Semrow, Bob Wines, Cory Freed, and Coy Riddle. Ron Whaley took over fifth from Riddle and proceeded to take fourth then third.

Coy Riddle brought out the only yellow in the 15 lap feature when he spun in turn 4. Beiler held the point on the restart followed by Semrow, Whaley, Freed, and Andy Nichols. Semrow looked high and low and found a way to pass Beiler for the lead. Beiler slide back to third with Whaley in second.

Wally Semrow took the checkered followed by Ron Whaley, Bob Beiler, Cory Freed, and Andy Nichols.

Ron Whaley and Cory Freed took the heat wins. Shane Held had the pole for the Open Wheel Modifieds but it was Jason Boyd who jumped to the lead and never looked back followed by Held, Matthew Wheeler, Lynn Dicandio, and Glen Bradley.

Chris Gillespie brought out the yellow when he spun in turns 3 and 4. Boyd held the point on the restart and took the checkered followed by Shane Held, Lynn Dicandio, Matthew Wheeler, and Glen Bradley.

Jason Boyd took the heat win. B.J. McLeod had the pole for the Super Late Model feature and won from green to checkered. On the green, McLeod was followed by Eric Deffendall, Ronnie Roach, Bo Jackson, and Ricky Wood.

The red flag came out when Scott McKinley and Bobby Lyons got together on the frontstretch with Lyons hard into the frontstretch wall. McKinley was fine but County Paramedics were called in for Lyons as he was out when the safety crew got to him. Lyons was awake when they took him to the hospital and no word has been received but will be posted as soon as possible.

Bobby Lyons has been a long time racer of Orlando SpeedWorld and the fans and drivers have him in their prayers.

The race went back green with McLeod in the lead followed by Ronnie Roach, Eric Deffendall, Ricky Wood and Jason Boyd. Boyd passes Wood taking over fourth putting Wood fifth.

Cayle Halvris brought out the yellow when he spun in turn 2. McLeod holds the point on the restart and takes the checkered followed by Ronnie Roach, Eric Deffendall, Jason Boyd, and Ricky Wood.

Rusty Ebersole and B.J. McLeod took the heat wins.

Mike Williams had the pole for the Mini Stock feature but it was Charlie Brown who jumped to the lead on the green followed by Williams, Sean Bass, Tim "Missileman" McPhail and Rex "Boneman" Hollinger.

Williams brought out the yellow when he spun in turn 2. Williams goes to the rear of the field for the restart with Brown still in the lead. With no more cautions, it was Charlie Brown taking the checkered for his first win at Orlando SpeedWorld. Following Brown was Sean Bass, Tim "Missileman" McPhail, Rex "Boneman" Hollinger, and R.J. Arnone. Tim "Missileman" McPhail and Charlie Brown took the heat wins.

Danny Shearer had the pole for the Sportsman feature but before a lap was down, Justin Hall brought out the yellow as he spun in turn 4. A complete restart was in order with Donnie Smith taking the point over Shearer, Richard Hight, Michael Albert, and Robert Hight.

Glen Castro took over fifth from Hight but coming up behind him was Rob Kayse who was looking for green. Kayse made the pass and took over fifth with Castro sliding back to seventh.

Richard Hight took the checkered followed by Donnie Smith, Danny Shearer, Michael Albert and Rob Kayse.

Donnie Smith and Danny Shearer took the heat wins.

Strictly Stocks saw Russ Noyes on the pole for their feature event but it was Eric Hodge who jumped to the lead on the green followed by Noyes, Jim Leslie, Donald Springer, and Richie Laszlo.

Laszlo ran a very smooth race and slowly worked his way up towards the front. Noyes brought out the yellow when it looked like something on his car broke or a tire went down putting him straight into the turn 3 wall. Noyes was fine but had a very sore arm.

Hodge held the point on the restart but right behind him was Richie Laszlo.

Laszlo passed Hodge for the lead with Jim Leslie following Laszlo taking over second and putting Hodge third. Leslie spun and pitted with Hodge taking second back over.

Richie Laszlo took the checkered for his "FIRST"

Strictly Stock win. A very happy Laszlo made donuts in the dirt accidentally getting dirt in the dune buggy driver's eye. Laszlo promised no more donuts in the dirt. Following Laszlo was Eric Hodge, Bobby Crites, Donald Springer, and Jake Holand.

Eric Hodge won the heat race.

This Friday (July 18) the Goodyear Challenge Late Model series 100 lap race with Legends and all FASCAR divisions of Bandolero Bandits and Young Guns, Open Wheel Modified, Sportsman, Super Stock, Mini Stock and Strictly Stock. No Super Late Models this week.

Grandstands open at 6 p.m. with qualifying for the Goodyear Challenge at 6:30 p.m. depending on car count. Racing starts at 8 p.m.

The oval will also be busy tonight (Wednesday) with FASCAR holding its weekly Test and Tune session from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. at Orlando SpeedWorld.

Cost is $20 for the racecar and three persons. Each additional person is $5 each.

It is beginning to look like a bad rainy season for Florida racetracks. Since Hurricane Season started June 1, there have been more rainouts than racing and this past Saturday night just added to that list.

The Sportsman 50 lapper that was to be held at New Smyrna Speedway has been rescheduled for this Saturday night (July 19th). It was not known yet if the 911 Racing cops will make Saturday's event but hopefully they will.

Also racing will be the Super Late Models, Late Models, Open Wheel Modifieds, Super Stock, Mini Stock and Strictly Stock.

New Smyrna Speedway is located in Samsula at the intersection of SR44 and SR415 between I-4 and I-95, eight miles west of New Smyrna Beach. Grandstands open at 6 p.m. with racing action slated for 7:30 p.m.

Volusia Speedway Park in Barberville also felt Nature's wrath as it lost its Saturday night card when the dirt track turned to mud.

This Saturday (July 19) the track will hold heats and features in the weekly classes of Late Model, Hobby Stock, Mini-Stock, Street Stock and Pure Stock.

Grandstands open at 5 p.m. and racing starts at 7:30 p.m.

For more information call 386-985-4402 or visit the web at <http://www.volusia-speedwaypark.com>.

Volusia Speedway Park is located just 15 miles west of Ormond Beach. From I-95, take exit 88 west on State Road 40. From Highway 17, turn left on SR 40. The facility is five miles east of Barberville.

This week's action kicks off tonight (Wednesday) with Orlando SpeedWorld Dragway holding the first of its two nights of "Street Drags" from 6 p.m. until 10:30 p.m.

and fuel leaks. "Unlike a house fire, boaters generally have no where to go but in the water once a fire breaks out, so understanding how fires start, and what can be done to prevent them, is even more important," said Chuck Fort, Seaworthy associate editor.

The study, which analyzed hundreds of fire claim files over two years and focused on fires originating aboard vessels (marina fires excluded) is highlighted in the July issue of the BoatUS publication, Seaworthy, the nation's only damage avoidance magazine for boat owners and the marine insurance industry.

Leading the pack, "AC & DC wiring/appliances" accounted for a whopping 55% of fires. The report further detailed the electrical sources into subcategories such as DC shorts/wiring (30%), DC engine regulator (12%), shore power (4%) and other causes. "Wire chafe is the biggest problem we see," adds Fort. "Electrical fires can also re-ignite even after an extinguisher has been emptied, so it's also important to have a main battery switch and/or AC breaker to stop the ignition source."

The #2 cause, "engine/transmission overheating," had 24% of the claims. Obstructed intake or exhaust cooling water passages are the main cause for hose or impeller melt-downs, which lead to overheating. Keeping these clear, especially exhaust manifolds and risers, as well as regular replacement of pump impellers, would have prevented most of these fires.

"Fuel leaks," the #3 cause, came in with 8% of claims. Typical problem areas are fuel lines, fuel connections on the engine itself, and leaking tanks.

TOWN HALL MEETINGS SET FOR INTRACOASTAL WATERWAY

The Boat Owners Association of the United States (BoatUS) and the Atlantic Intracoastal Waterway Association are sponsoring a series of town hall-style meetings this summer to invite public comment on future plans for the Intracoastal Waterway (ICW). Representatives from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and U.S. Coast Guard have been invited to speak and answer questions. The first meeting will be held at the Francis Marion Hotel in Charleston, SC on Wednesday, July 16 from 9 a.m.-12 a.m., and a second will be held July 30 in Wilmington NC, from 9 a.m.-12 a.m., at the Wilmington Hilton.

"The ICW is at a crossroads," says BoatUS Assistant Vice President Ryck Lydecker. "It's a vital artery for recreational and commercial vessel traffic and many waterfront communities rely on it for their livelihood, yet waterway maintenance falls further behind each year as budgets are cut for dredging and repairs. Anyone who uses the ICW knows the situation is deplorable," he said, adding, "but we want to get beyond today's problems to develop a vision for the future of the waterway from the perspective of those who use it, those who depend on it."

Federally maintained, the authorized depth of the 1,100-mile ICW is between 10 and 12 feet. However, shoaling and silting have reduced controlling depths in some spots to as little as five feet. Tow boats and barges touch bottom or run aground almost daily while recreational boaters report frequent damage from navigation hazards since nautical charts can't keep up with actual conditions. Both types of vessels are increasingly apt to run aground in the open ocean rather than chance damage using the inland route.

To generate support at the grassroots level, Lydecker said the public is invited to take part in the discussions. "It's very important that stakeholders such as recreational boaters, commercial vessel operators and other waterway users have their voices heard," he noted.

Other ICW Town Hall meetings will be held on August 14 in Miami FL at a soon-to-be-announced location. The date and location of a fourth meeting in Savannah GA, will be posted on <http://www.atlintra-coastal.org>.

BoatUS - Boat Owners Association of the United States - is the nation's leading advocate for recreational boaters and provides its 540,000 members with a wide array of consumer services including a group-rate marine insurance program that provides over $7 billion in hull coverage; the largest fleet of more than 400 towing assistance vessels; discounts on fuel, slips, and repairs at over 700 marinas; boat financing; and a subscription to BoatUS Magazine, the most widely read boating publication in the U.S. For membership information visit <http://www.boatus.com> or call 800-395-2628.

to a championship game. An injury-plagued Orlando team limped into the playoffs, needing a victory in Week 14 to sneak into the post-season with a 7-7 record. From there, Gruden led the Predators to unlikely road upsets over #1 seeded Tampa Bay (41-9) and #2 seeded Iowa (48-40), before falling to #3 Albany in ArenaBowl XIII.

Gruden's third season saw the Predators race out to a 7-0 record and finish at 11-3. From there, Orlando swept three straight playoff games and won a second ArenaBowl title with a 34-31 win over Nashville in the championship game.

Orlando went 8-6 during Gruden's fourth season with the Predators. But following a disappointing 46-21 loss to Chicago in the playoffs, where starting quarterback Craig Whelhan blew out his knee, Gruden surprised league insiders by resigning as head coach and announcing his intention to return to the playing field. He would sign a two-year contract to play for Orlando.

With Gruden at quarterback, the Predators got off to a 1-4 start before winning six of their last nine. Orlando would record two playoff wins, including a road upset of fourth seeded New Jersey, before falling to eventual league champion San Jose in the semifinals. This past season, Gruden directed the Predators to a 4-0 record, before severely injuring his ankle against Carolina on Feb. 21.

Orlando would lose four of the next six with Gruden out of the line-up. When Jay returned on Apr. 11, the Predators went 6-0 to finish the season and secure a top four seeding for the playoffs. Gruden completed 183 of 295 passes (62%) for 2,334 yards, 49 touchdowns and just two interceptions in recording a 10-0 mark as a starting quarterback during the 2004 regular season. Gruden led the Predators to a quarterfinal win over New York, before the team bowed out to eventual league champion Tampa Bay in the semifinals.

As a Head Coach, Gruden's four-year totals as Orlando's head coach include a 43-23-0 (.651) record, two championships, and three championship appearances. He was 10-5-0 as an offensive coordinator at Nashville and 85-26-0 (.766) as a starting quarterback in the AFL with four more titles.

"This is not how I envisioned coming back as a head coach," Gruden said. "Fran was doing a great job and came extremely close to winning titles in each of the last two seasons. Hopefully I will be able to come in and build on what he has already put in place."
