

AMENDMENTS TO TREATY TURNED DOWN IN SENATE AND PARTY LINES DIVIDE

First Test of Strength Affecting the International Agreement

DRAW PARTY LINES

YAP TREATY SEEMS TO BE THE FIRST BOUT BETWEEN TWO PARTIES

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, March 1.—Dividing virtually on party lines, the senate refused to amend the Yap treaty yesterday in the first test of strength on any question affecting the international conventions negotiated during the Washington conference. The vote was 50 to 23.

Only two Republicans, Borah, of Idaho, and France, of Maryland, supported the proposal and only four Democrats, Underwood of Alabama; Pomeroy, of Ohio; Williams, of Mississippi and Myers of Montana, voted against it. It had been offered by Senator Pittman, Democrat, Nevada, and would have amplified the provision that existing treaty rights of the United States shall apply to the mandated islands of the Pacific.

Later, by a vote of 52 to 11, the senate also rejected a proposed amendment by Senator France to prevent manufacture or export of intoxicating liquors on the mandated islands. Eight democrats joined this time with the Republicans opposed to the amendment, while not a single other senator of his own party cast his vote with Mr. France.

Senators differed over the significance of the two roll calls as they hear on the general situation of the arms conference treaties, but the senate leaders declared the result had been to strengthen their expectation that all the covenants would be ratified by safe margins, even though there might be a considerable opposition on the Democratic side.

Just before adjournment another amendment was presented by Senator Pittman, stipulating that under the treaty the United States should be sole judge whether Japan is maintaining sufficient wireless facilities on Yap island, or whether the American right to install a wireless station there should be exercised. This and several other amendments and reservations are expected to come to a vote today, and under an agreement reached Monday a roll call on ratification is to be taken not later than 2 p. m. Thursday.

During yesterday's debate further attacks were made on the treaty by Senators France, Pittman, Borah and Reed, Democrat, Missouri; Mr. Reed again charging that the Republican leaders were attempting to force senate action before the country could realize what the arms conference agreements really embody. The all-day onslaught passed virtually without reply from the treaty's supporters.

NEW YORK NEWSPAPERS IN ABBREVIATED FORM ACCOUNT OF BIG STRIKE

Controversy Arising From Wage Arbitration Among the Pressmen

NEW YORK, March 1.—(By the Associated Press).—The morning newspapers here appeared in abbreviated form today on account of the controversy arising from the pressmen's wage arbitration award made February 22nd by Judge Martin Manton, of the United States Court of Appeals. The meeting of local pressmen's union called to order at eight o'clock last night did not adjourn until so late this morning the publishers were forced to print eight-page papers with the elimination of practically all advertising and special news features. The union agreed to abide by Manton's award but decided to appoint a committee to negotiate with the publishers in an effort to effect modification of some terms which were found objectionable.

NEW YORK, March 1.—Involuntary bankruptcy petitions were filed yesterday against four more New York brokerage houses, the latest being Howell & Wales, with estimated liabilities of 500,000 and assets of about 400,000, and Hall & Company whose liabilities were placed at $100,000 and assets at $25,000.

Earlier in the day petitions were filed against H. A. Cochrane & Co., with no estimate of liabilities or assets, and Morton Lachenbruch & Co., with liabilities estimated at $100,000 and assets at $75,000.

The day's failures brought the total since last November to 39. While these concerns were going to the wall, the federal grand jury handed up a presentment to Judge Mulqueen in general sessions, recommending legislation which would control brokers and securities offered for sale as carefully as banks and insurance companies are now regulated.

KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN IN DONATION TO "Y"

H. B. Schulte, one of the captains in the campaign to raise funds to carry on the work of the Y. M. C. A. in Volusia county, left the breakfast table at his home early Saturday morning to answer a ring of the door-bell.

Upon opening the door Mr. Schulte was accosted by a stranger, a man he had never seen before.

"Are you Mr. Schulte?" he asked.

Mr. Schulte replied in the affirmative. "I understand that you are one of the captains in the campaign to raise money for the Y. M. C. A. work," continued the stranger.

Mr. Schulte again replied that he was.

"Well," said the caller, "here is a fifty-dollar bill I was told to hand to you as a small contribution to the Y. M. C. A. fund from the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan."

Placing the bill in the hand of Mr. Schulte, the man turned and walked rapidly to a car standing in front of the house and drove away.

"I had never seen the man before in my life," said Mr. Schulte in reporting the contribution, "and it all happened so quickly I hardly had time to thank him. However, the donation is greatly appreciated and I hope it will be given publicity so the organization may know it has so heartiest congratulations for its interest in and support of the Y. M. C. A. work in Volusia county."—Daytona Gazette.

CASH FEATURE ELIMINATED IN SOLDIERS' BONUS BILL AGREED UPON IN MEETING

Daughter of King Weds a Commoner in World Parlane

Princess Mary Became Wife of Vis- count Lascelles Yesterday

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, March 1.—King George yesterday gave his only daughter, Princess Mary, in marriage to Viscount Lascelles. It was a great national event which will live long in the memories of vast throngs whose unrestrained plaudits greeted England's princess as she passed through festive streets to the altar in tastefully old Westminster Abbey to become the bride of an English commoner.

A bridal march within the walls rich in royal associations and a ritual witnessed by a grand assemblage and attended by the traditional splendors that mark state occasions were the more superficial features of the day's proceedings. That which captivated an empire's imagination was the realization of a dream much older than empires—the marriage of a beautiful girl of exalted rank to a man of more humble station, but of proven gallantry.

Testimony of genealogists that through King Henry VII the bride and bridegroom are both descended from William the Conqueror in no way minimized this Romantic aspect of the affair.

In the joyous faces of those crowding either side of the gay route from the palace to the sanctuary and in their tumultuous and prolonged outbursts of cheering and applause, the good will and approval of a pageant-loving people, anxious to share in the happiness of this notable day, were vividly displayed. Another source of the nation's felicitations was reflected in the daily press, which exulted that "this wedding does not link us with a foreign alliance that might prove in future years unpopular."

This feeling was expressed in various other forms—"today our princess marries not a foreign princeling, but an English gentleman" and "hers is no diplomatic alliance—the future of Europe involved in a union contracted for reasons of state."

The solitary exception to the editorial approval was the reminder of the laborite Daily Herald that "beneath the surface of life in merry England today lies a mass of misery and suffering" and "England is not all like the streets of Westminster—there are slums under the very palace walls."

But it was from the slums, wherever they exist in London that a large proportion of yesterday's cheering throngs poured to acclaim the princess and her husband. Among the richly garbed wedding guests in the abbey were half a dozen representatives of organized labor and their wives, hidden at the instance of the king.

The scenes of regal pomp which gave the ceremony its theatrical excellence were the most magnificent London has seen since the war and the first since that catastrophe wholly unmarred with some tinge of tragedy.

The happiness everywhere evident among the street throngs was quite as apparent in the abbey. It is doubtful whether in its centuries that edifice ever contained a more cheerful gathering. The guests, however, were obliged to confine their approbation to welcoming smiles, as the bride in silver with long flowing veil; and train held by two of her attendants passed gracefully down the scarlet carpeted aisle on the arm of the king.

Awaiting them inside in the railing of the sacrarium were daughter Queen Alexandra, Queen Mary, the bride's brothers, the Duke of York, Prince Henry and Prince George and other members of the royal family. The king wore the resplendent scarlet and gold uniform of the grandeur guards, in compliment to the wartime service unit of Lascelles. This uniform was also worn by the bridegroom.

The contrasting colorings of Prince George's naval uniform and the royal air force regalia of Prince Henry and the richly embroidered red cloak-like vestments of the clergy far outshone in brilliancy the cream and gold brocade of Queen Mary's gown and the more subdued shades of Alex-

TO WORK OUT PLAN NOT TO EN- TAIL ANY LARGE DRAFT ON THE TREASURY

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, March 1.—Elimination of the cash feature of the soldiers' bonus bill was virtually agreed upon today by the Republican members of the House Ways and Means Committee. Chairman Fordney announced the special sub-committee of six named by unanimous agreement to work out a plan that would not entail any large drafts on the federal treasury within the next two years. Such a plan would make unnecessary any immediate bonus financing and would remove cause of controversy in the house over the bill.

MURDERER BREEN IS A CONSTITUTIONAL INFERIOR SAYS DOCTOR

(By The Associated Press) MIAMI, Mich. 1.—Charles Breen accused of the murder last August 4 of J. E. Foster during an argument at the latter's lunch stand here, took the stand yesterday and declared that he does not recall any incident relating to the alleged crime.

Dr. C. H. Bennett, neurologist, for the defense, characterized Breen as a "constitutional inferior," asserting the defendant has no power over his emotions.

The state began its rebuttal yesterday afternoon, and the case is expected to go to the jury today.

POLICE RECOVER GUN AND CHARM, BURGLARS HOOTY

Officers Gordon and Pierce, who are working on the recent burglar case in Orlando, made a flying trip to Sanford yesterday and returned with a shotgun and a valuable charm which had been stolen in Orlando and which it developed, were sold by the thieves arrested here Saturday to a party in Sanford.

The charm, set in diamonds and rubies and valued at about $75 to $100, was the property of Mrs. T. W. Graves, who yesterday recovered a brooch valued at nearly $1,000. It is thought that the shotgun belonged to Fred Willis who recently died very suddenly in Orlando.

The detectives left this afternoon on another excursion to Sanford to recover a valuable watch which was sold there by the same thieves.

There is still quite a lot of cheap jewelry and clothing in the office of Chief Vestal in the city hall which thought that it may be the rightful property of the two negroes arrested Saturday evening, although some of it too may have been stolen.—Florida Post.

TIN CANNERS MEET AT GAINESVILLE

(By The Associated Press) GAINESVILLE, Mich. 1.—The spring jubilee of the Tin Can Tourists of the World opened here Monday to continue two weeks, with the winter visitors who came to Florida in their automobiles this season on hand from all parts of the state. The spring meeting last year brought 4,000 motor visitors here and it is expected an equal, if not greater number will register before the present meeting is ended.

Andra's dress. Both queens were aglitter with diamonds. Queen Mary wearing a great V-shaped corsage set with dozens of gems. The king and queens, the duke of York and Viscount Lascelles each wore the blue sash of the Order of the Garter, the bridegroom having received that honor from the king on Sunday.

Within the sacrarium, the predominant scarlet of the men's court dress among the guests in the nave blazed forth amidst the subtler hues of the women's apparel.

IS THERE A REAL JAPANESE PERIL? SEE "FACE TO FACE WITH JAPAN" THURSDAY

Will there be war between Japan and the United States? Nearly everybody you meet says "yes—some day." But when asked for the facts they cannot give any. These pictures will help you determine the answer.

The crying need for accurate pictorial and statistical information about Japan today, its adoption of modern methods of civilization, its Army, its Navy, and its industries, has been filled by the most colossal news reel "bent" ever recorded.

For centuries Japan remained closed to all foreigners.

In 1853 Commodore Perry with a U. S. Naval Squadron, arranged with Japan for a treaty guaranteeing protection to American entering the country.

Since then Japan has slowly but surely, for 70 years, climbed up to a place in the front rank of world powers. However, its mystery never has been lifted.

It remained for Fox News, the official motion picture news reel of Fox Film Corporation, to lift the pictorial veil and show modern Japan as she really is.

At enormous expense Al Breik, New York staff cameraman for Fox News, was sent to obtain the true story in motion pictures.

The highest officials in Japan opened the doors of mystery, lifted the curtain of secrecy and allowed him to film Japanese conditions of progress which up to this time have been jealously guarded.

You will have to concede that it is the most astounding and colossal motion picture news reel enterprise ever recorded. This great picture will be shown at the Star Theatre, Thursday, March 2nd.

The closest game of the season, in fact the closest game ever played on the Parrish House Alleys was the game last night between the Mens Club and the Kiwanis Club.

Bower rolled high score with Betts a close second. All members of both teams rolled good scores that will have some effect on the individual averages that will be published next week.

Wednesday night the Rotary Club meets the fast Congregational Club, and as Rotary is tired of losing and will put all effort possible towards winning, this promises to be a good game.

Intrastate Trade is Dependent On All CANT... DISCRIMINATE INTERSTATE BUSINESS

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Declaring that "commerce is a unit and does not regard state lines" the supreme court yesterday, through Chief Justice Taft, and without dissent handed down a decision upholding the authority of the Interstate Commerce Commission, under the transportation act of 1920 to fix state railroad passenger fares when necessary to remove "undue, unreasonable and unjust discrimination against interstate commerce."

Two cases were presented to the court. One was brought by the railroad commission of Wisconsin and others against the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad seeking an injunction to prevent the railroads of the state from putting into effect on state passenger traffic the rate of 3.6 cents per mile allowed by the government on interstate travel. The other was brought by the state of New York against the federal government, the interstate Commerce Commission and certain railroads of that state on the ground that the three cent fare fixed by the public utilities commission produced reasonable returns to the railroads upon their state traffic. In both states freight rates had been advanced to interstate level without objection from the states.

"Congress in its control of its interstate commerce system is seeking in the transportation act to make the system adequate to the needs of the country by securing for it a reasonable compensatory return for all the work it does," chief justice stated in the opinion. The states are seeking to use that same system for intrastate traffic. That entails large duties and expenditures on the interstate commerce system which may burden it unless compensation is received for the intrastate business. Congress as the dominant controller of interstate business may therefore, restrain undue limitation of the earning power of the interstate commerce system in doing state work. "It can impose any reasonable condition on a states use of interstate carriers for intrastate commerce it deems necessary and desirable. This is because of the supremacy of the national power in this field."

ANNOUNCE GLASS CO.'S PERSONNEL

The personnel of the officers and directors of the Tidewater Glass Manufacturing Company, Jacksonville's newest big industry which expects to begin operations soon, was announced Tuesday.

Frank C. Groover, the vice-president, who is president of the Groover-Stewart Drug Company and one of the city's most successful business men, has accepted the chairmanship of the executive committee of the board of directors.

The company is headed by Harry A. Neff, of Bellaire, O., as president, with R. B. Kessler, former secretary of the chamber of commerce, as secretary. They with vice-president Groover form the executive committee. An advisory board of directors of 14 business men of Florida is now being selected from different parts of the state.

C. H. Dankworth, of Bellaire, is vice-president and treasurer; F. W. Stewart, of Pittsburgh, Pa., superintendent; J. O. Eskine, of Jacksonville and J. D. Ingram, of St. Augustine, directors. H. C. S. Perry is assistant to the treasurer.

President Neff is an experienced glass manufacturer of Ohio who has made a careful investigation of conditions for the manufacture of glass in Florida. He is also president of the Belmont Tumbler Co.; general manager of the Belmont Casket Co.; and a director of the Dollar Savings & Trust Co., all of Bellaire.

Mr. Groover, is a director of the Barnett National Bank. He stated that he had carefully examined the plans for the installation of the glass plant before becoming interested personally in the project and feels that thousands of dollars worth of fruit that now rots in Florida will be saved through the manufacture of glass containers, and will be another step in the advancement of Florida toward industrial success. Mr. Groover said that it is handled in a conservative manner and all unnecessary overhead expenses are eliminated.

Mr. Dankworth is owner of the Dankworth Drug Company and a director of the Buckeye Savings and Loan Co., of Bellaire and also a director of the Champion Collieries Co., of Pittsburgh.

Superintendent Stewart has been mechanical engineer for the Phoenix Glass Company of Pittsburgh, Mr. Eskine, now of Jacksonville, was formerly with the Jefferson Glass Company of Follansbee, W. Va., and the Erskine Glass and Manufacturing Company of Wellburg, W. Va., Mr. Ingraham is with the Model Land Company, (Flagler System) of St. Augustine.

The company has temporary offices in the Bisbee building.

Operation of the plant will be in charge and under the direction of Mr. Stewart, who is conceded to be one of the best posted men in the manufacture of glass in the United States. The manufacture of glass of the company will be an entirely mechanical process. From the time the melted glass flows from the tank until the finished product is in the hands of the packers it will not be touched by a human hand. The blowing, pressing, annealing, etc., will be done by machines.

The initial output of the first unit of the plant will be 50 tons of manufactured glass daily. It is said that at the present time there is a daily demand in the Southern states alone for more than 200 tons of glass.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

Beautiful Halway in Picture

An exceedingly beautiful halway was designed for the new George Fitzmaurice Paramount production, "Three Live Ghosts," which will be the feature at the Star Theatre Thursday. The walls are entirely of ivory, rough cast, with a deep moulding after a design from the Pantheon frieze. The floor is paved with black and white tiles and the classic idea is carried out in every item of the decoration, such as the low stone seats, the bronze doorway and the chandeliers and flowerstand of delicate wrought iron.

PROTECTORATE OVER EGYPT HAS BEEN ABOLISHED

LLOYD GEORGE SAYS EGYPT IS NOW FREE TO WORK OUT HER DESTINY.

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Feb. 28.—Premier Lloyd George announced in the House of Commons today that the British protectorate over Egypt has been terminated and that Egypt was free to work out such national institutions as might be suited to aspirations of her people.

BIDS ADVERTISED FOR NEW ROAD TO SEMINOLE LINE

In another column of the Reporter-Star today appears the advertisement for bids for the construction of the Orange county road from Orlando to the Seminole county line.

This is the road known as the Orlando-Winter Park road. Major C. A. Browne, the constructing engineer, explained this morning that the present Orlando-Winter Park road will be widened to twenty-four feet, and beyond Winter Park to sixteen feet.

Major Browne asserted that the new road will be built in three sections, and that if present plans were followed, construction would begin on the Winter Park end of the highway.

The road will be thus divided, the Major explained to prevent any longer detours than necessary. According to the plan outlined, detours will be necessary only over a third of the distance at a time.—Reporter-Star.

COULDN'T EAT THIS BUN.

The Britisher's failure to understand American slang is a difficulty which faces picture production in England. Leslie Hiscott, assistant director to George Fitzmaurice, Paramount producer, was looking over the script of "Three Live Ghosts" which will be shown at the Star Theatre Thursday, with a view of giving the property-man his instructions when he came upon the direction, "enter Old Sweetheart with a beautiful bun."

Hiscott made a note of the item with the result that on the following morning a particularly fine sample of the confectioner's art was prominently featured amongst the day's "props." Mr. Fitzmaurice's amazement on being unexpectedly confronted with a display of cream buns was so genuine his assistant was not slow in grasping that there had been some mistake. Then it was explained to him, that in America there were buns and buns, and that bun in the script was not the kind you eat.

BIG DEBATE ON BONUS BILL, NOTHING DONE

FORDNEY ANNOUNCES NOTHING BUT HOT AIR

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, March 1.—House Ways and Means Committee Republicans spent three hours trying to reconcile their differences over the soldiers' bonus, but without success. After they had adjourned until today, Chairman Fordney announced that he had been "authorized to say that the committee has arrived at no conclusion."

It was understood that there was a general discussion of the whole question of finances, acrimonious at times, and that at the finish the situation was just where it was before the special subcommittee tentatively agreed upon a special tax program which subsequently was disapproved by President Harding.

The discussion yesterday was reported to have revolved largely around the proposition to write into the bill some kind of a financing provision that would meet the President's views at least half way. The sales tax suggested by the president and rejected by the special committee last week by an overwhelming vote was not pressed particularly, it was said, and the impression went out that some members had in mind a special tax program.

Hanford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion, and John Thomas Taylor, vice-chairman of the legislative committee of the Legion, discussed the bonus situation with President Harding at the White House yesterday. They said afterwards that they were "perfectly satisfied" with the results of the conference and expressed confidence that there would be no delay in the enactment of the adjusted compensation legislation. They added that the President was "heart and soul" with the Legion and understood its position fully.

PAINTED BY GREAT ARTISTS

The startling signs that have so long offended the eye on the tops of buildings ultimately will be removed simply for the reason of public safety.

Man diligently advertised his wares even before the day of the freecred goat over the Pompeian dairy. But in those old days the desire for custom was tempered by a zest for art.

In days gone by artists of note did not scorn to try a prettier hand on such signs. The "Mule and Muleteer," an early work of Correggio, was originally painted for an inn.

ADVANTAGE IN "AUBURN" HAIR

If you are a girl and have red hair, pay no attention to those who nickname you "Carrots."

An eminent doctor has just expressed the opinion that the red-haired woman has a distinct advantage over all others in the matrimonial race.

To complete the conquest, a butter-milk complexion must be added. If you do not possess one naturally, there may be hope for you if you give up flesh food and become a vegetarian.
