NO LIMIT ON FUTURE BOND ISSUES

Only Limit Is That No One Issue Shall Exceed in Amount Five Per Cent of total Tax Asses ment of the State at the Time of Issue

Palatka, Sept. 19.-Judge J. B. Gaines, of Leesburg, was asked by loc al taxpayers for an opinion on the amendment as to its provisions and prohibitions. Judge Gaines, who has been appointed assistant attorney general to Mr. Buford and is a recognized authority on constitutional law, says in part: "The provisions of this section prohibit the issuance of state bonds except for the purposes named but leave unlimited the power of the legislature to authorize the issuing of bonds for these purposes, since the only limitations on the power to provide for issuing bonds is contained in the proviso. In order to determine the amount of bonds that may be issued for such purpose it is necessary only to ascertain the meaning of the laneffect to every word and clause in the section, taking them in their ordinary and familiar acceptance in accordance wth thei established rules of construc-tion of statues and constitutions. Tested by these rules the meaning of the proposed amendment seems to me to be obvious certainly it is not ambigious or obscure so far as it relates to issuing bonds for the con-struction of roads and bridges. The power granted to the legislature to provide for issuing state bonds for such purposeis unlimited in every reet exceet that no one issue of such bonds shall execced in amount 5 per cent of the total tax assessment of the state at the time of issue. There is no limitation upon the number of such bonds nor upon the frequency with which one issue may follow anther nor upon the aggregate amount of bonds that may be issued or that may be outstanding at any time. Had the last five words of the proviso been ommitted the meaning of the proviso would not have been so clear. Seemingly these five words were added to emphasize the purpose of limiting on-ly the amount of bonds that might be issued at any one time, leaving unlimited the number of issues, their frequency and the aggregate amount thereof."

GENEVA BRIDGE CLOSED

The traveling public should be cautioned about traveling to Geneva vir the Geneva nenue bridg as the bridge is closed for repairs that are now being made. This notice was made by the county commissisenrs in the Herald inst week, but lest there are many who did not see it or have possibly forgotten it this notice is given. The Geneva bridge has been sagging it places for some time and the county commisisoners thought it good policy to close the bridge and make the repairs before the heavy travel of win. ter started and by making the repairs before any accidents happened much could be saved in money and life.

Their action is commendable and they assure the public that when the new timbers are put in place and the fill fixed up the road and bridge will be better than ever and safe for travel for a long time to come. The people going in this direction will save much time by heeding this notice about the Geneva bridge.

Dear Sir:

I have completed careful chemical analysis of the sample of water that you brought me early last week, anad have obtained the following results:

Color Chlorine 1.75 Oarts per million
Reaction Neutral Total solids 5.00 parts per million
Free Ammonia 00 parts per million Hardness 23.03 parts per million
Albuminoid Ammonia Trace The absence practically of free and albuminoid ammonia in this water and its very small amount of chlorine indicates its excellent quality for household purposes. In addition to the good quality characteristics of superior household water, it possesses special features of much value, especially those of excellent natura aeration and LOW degree of hardness.

The bacteriological analysis, resulting in an average total count, in four samples of the water, of 3 bacteria per cent.; and in finding no relean or other harmful bacteria, fully confirm its good quality indicated by the CHEMICAL

Of the many waters of this and other regions that I have analyzed, I have found none superior in all good qualities to that of the "Elder Water."

Yours very respectfully. (Signed) THOS. R. BAKER

UNIVERSAL TRACTOR

Does All Field Work-Including Cultivating—and Belt Work

Features You Want

- 1. Does all field work including cultivating-and belt work. Saves most horse keep.
- 2. One man handles both tractor and implement. You can farm more land alone.
- 3. Tractor and implement back up Easily handled in close places.
- 4. Operator sits on implement seat. Perfect control over whole
- 5. Operator's eye always on im-Better implement work, better
- 6. Tractive power ahead of work; operator behind it. Handles like horses

It takes good cultivation to raise good crops and you know the time and number of horses that requires. So a tractor that will do the cultivating, as well as all the other field work-and do belt work too-will save the most horses and be a better investment.

Maybe you don't think a tractor can be a really good investment like this all-work Moline-Universal. That reminds us of a story.

A very wise college professor once assigned a student to do a'certain work. The student said it couldn't be done. "Of course it can't be done," said the professor, "but if you and I don't look out some darn fool will come along and do it right before our eyes."

Doing the impossible has become a part of our day's work. Right now thousands of farmers are making the Moline-Universal pay-and pay big. So can you.

It's poor business to keep two sets of farm power when one is enough. You don't need to with the Moline-Universal-that's one of its great advantages. Then consider that only one man handles both the Moline-Universal and its implement, in every operation, and you see what it can save you in horse and man expense.

It is a good investment. All we ask is a chance to prove it to you.

ONE OF my Jobs. WAS TO keep a watch. FOR HOSTILE patrols. AND GAS attacks. AND LATE one night. STOOD by the door. OF ONE of the dugouts. AND THOUGHT I smelled gas. I SNIFFED and listened. AND HEARD groans. so PUT on my mask. AND WENT down to make sure AND FOUND a doughboy. TRYING TO smoke. A FRENCH cigar. AND I took it away. AND GAVE him one. OF MY own eigarettes. AND THE very next night.

I HAD to go down. INTO SEVENTEEN dugouts .. TO RESCUE doughboys. WHO WERE trying to smoke, FRENCH CIGARI. AND I may be a mark. BUT THERE'S a limit. ESPECIALLY WHEN. YOU'VE ONLY one pack. OF THE cigarettes. THAT SATISFY. I'M DARNED glad. I DIDN'T command. AN ARMY corps.

EVEN a cigar smoker takes to Chesterfields, because of their satisfying body. And yet they're mild, too. Their blend of best Turkish and Domestic can't be copied—and what a blend it is! No wonder Chesterfields "satisfy!"
