Pipeline Fight Nears Favorable End

The NAS jet fuel pipeline was on the verge today of becoming a certainty. Only a minor difference of opinion appeared in the way.

Arguments pro and con over the City Commission's 3-2 rejection of a request for an easement for the two-mile pipeline from the waterfront to the Naval Air Station reached Jacksonville this morning.

ACL President W. Thomas Rice was "informed of the situation here, along with the rough-house tactics" by Randall Chase, head of Chase & Co. Chase said he had telephoned the railroad head about the controversy and Rice agreed to confer with Capt. Robert Ware, commanding officer of the air base.

Captain Ware stated Rice did telephone him but that "Mr. Rice did not indicate his statements to me were for public consumption and I will not divulge them."

The Herald, in endeavoring to "get the whole picture," talked with Ray Bullard, ACL public relations representative at Jacksonville, asking for an official statement from the railroad officials about local ACL participation in the pipeline fight.

Bullard returned the call later with word that ACL traffic department officials in Jacksonville "know nothing about any pipeline controversy at Sanford." He promised, however, to continue "and I'll call you if anything develops."

The pipeline situation took on a brighter picture later in the morning when Commissioner J. H. Crapps informed The Herald that "I will change my vote if the Navy will forward a request to the City."

He added the Navy has never made such a request. In answer to this, Captain Ware read to The Herald a letter received by the then NAS commandant from the city and signed by City Manager W. E. Knowles in answer to a request by the Navy "for information" that the "city would make an easement available along Seminole Boulevard and Mellonville Avenue as a part of the present lease of city-owned ground for the NAS site."

Captain Ware's comment to this was: "The Navy has found private business is willing to do what the Navy wants done." He explained the easement question is between the city and private enterprise "and the Navy is not about to dictate to the city."

Recall Election Welcomed By Crapps, Wilson

A recall election was "welcomed" today by two City Commissioners in prepared statements supporting their stand in rejecting at last Monday's commission meeting a proposal for installation of a jet fuel pipeline from the waterfront to the Naval Air Station.

J. H. Crapps and A. L. Wilson joined with M. L. Raborn in rejecting the proposal. Raborn's statement was published in Wednesday's Herald. Following are statements by Crapps and Wilson:

"I don't think my vote, against further negotiations with a private enterprise, has any bearing whatsoever on the status of the Navy in Sanford. My vote against a $200,000 industry moving in to Sanford is ridiculous. The only accounting I have been able to get, which I understand is engineer's estimates, is approximately $40,000 for the pipeline laid and a like amount for storage."

"The rights-of-way of our streets are owned by the property owners of the City of Sanford with the City retaining easements for the purpose of public utilities."

"I was quite shocked to learn from the paper Tuesday night that by the action taken we had killed a $200,000 industry. The figures I had understood were some $40,000 for an installation on the lakefront, with perhaps a like amount for the pipeline. And that it would employ perhaps a couple of people."

"I have the highest possible regards for SNAS, its officers, other personnel and all their families. I have worked along with many others that I have served on the city commission in cooperation with our Navy people. SNAS is a most valued asset to our community. I want them here and will always work and cooperate with them in any way possible to help maintain SNAS in Sanford and help keep the friendly relations existing between the Navy and the City and its citizens."

"By the same token I have tried to fairly and impartially represent the citizens and taxpayers of the City as my first and foremost concern. This is as it should be. This I will continue to do as long as I am a city commissioner."

"Quite frankly I see no connection between the NAS staying in Sanford and a 'no' vote on the pipeline. As far as I know they have never officially made a request for one to the city. Captain Ware said it would provide some additional storage, but by law they had to buy from the lowest bidder. If the SNAS needs a pipeline to maintain its highest efficiency as a striking power in defense of our country, I think they should have it. And as has been mentioned, it could be provided east of the city."

"I still do not feel that easements along our city streets should be turned over to a private concern doing business in a competitive field and not being a 'public utility.' I believe in free enterprise—but not to the extent of helping one to the detriment of others, as far as the city is concerned."

"The 'No' vote referred to in Tuesday's paper was my own honest conviction as to the way I should vote in the best interest of the citizens and taxpayers who elected me. I did seek Divine guidance before the meeting. Thanks be to God for that privilege which to me is beyond prejudiced hindrance or vindictive retaliation."

"If I am wrong I'll stand correction. If your paper or anyone disagrees with me, I feel that certainly is your privilege and theirs. I also feel that I still have the privilege of voting my convictions. I am willing to go the last mile in order to try to uphold that privilege for all of us."

"Respectfully,
A. L. Wilson,
Sanford, Florida

"P. S. I read this morning in one of our papers that there were rumors of a recall election. If it takes that to clear up the controversy I think by all means that we should proceed along that line. However, it seems to me that a clarification of all the facts and figures would accomplish the same purpose."

Court Ready To Apportion

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Atty. Gen. Richard Ervin said today that a federal court in Miami is getting ready to enter an order reapportioning the Florida legislature.

This was the interpretation Ervin put on a directive from the court in Miami today asking for advice on whether additional parties are needed to enforce a court-ordered reapportionment.

Ervin said he will file an opinion with the federal court stating that no further parties are necessary and that Florida public officials will obey an order made by the court.

The attorney general said this was similar to a directive that preceded a court-ordered reapportionment in Alabama. In that state, county supervisors of registration were parties to the suit.

Representatives whose members were still reeling from a sudden state supreme court ruling that it could reapportion outside the limits of the present constitution.

JFK Would Up Farm Subsidies

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy sent Congress today a consumer-boosted farm message proposing federal subsidies to spur cotton sales and to encourage voluntary production curbs on feed grains and milk.

Kennedy said his program, including direct government payments to the cotton trade, cotton growers, and producers of milk and feed grains, would lead toward a stable farm economy and lower consumer prices.

An administration official estimated that the proposals could trim $200 million to $500 million off the taxpayers' outlay for farm supports and 10 cents a pound off the retail price of butter.

Air Force Jets Florida Bound

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Air Force announced Wednesday it is sending more swift F104 jets to Florida and Texas bases to strengthen southern air defenses.

The announcement came shortly after Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara told Congress that about 17,000 Soviet military personnel still remain in Cuba.

Expanded Sports Program Seen

An expanded program of "large bodies of water available for boating, fishing and duck hunting" was pictured this morning by John Krider in answer to a statement by S. B. (Jim) Crowe in Wednesday's Herald that the proposed St. Johns-Indian River canal project would greatly damage shad fishing.

Crowe's claim was that the proposed 11-mile canal site would practically wipe out the shad spawning grounds. Krider, chairman of the St. Johns-Indian River Navigation Committee, promoting the canal project, and manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, issued the following statement today:

"I was quite elated to read of the endorsement by Jim Crowe and others of a canal from the St. Johns to the Indian River. However, am rather confused by some of the statements pertaining to damage to shad fishing before anyone has the remotest idea where the channel would be constructed."

"On the surface it seems somewhat strange that almost complete disaster would result to shad fishing from any channel work other than Mr. Crowe's proposal. Since he is not an engineer nor an authority on shad habitat I would suggest he let these problems to those that are."

Rail Deadline Injunction Nears

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Attorneys for the Jacksonville Terminal Co. prepared to appeal to federal courts and the government today as the deadline neared for an injunction which could freeze rail traffic in most of Florida.

The injunction would force the terminal company, owned by the state's four big railroads, to take back 2,000 freight cars which the strike-killed Florida East Coast Railway claims are costing $6,400 a day.

The move was scheduled to go into effect at 1 p.m. EST today.

Union members who staged the walkout on the FEC last week say they will picket the terminal yards here if the cars are returned — and that workers on the Atlantic Coast Line, the Seaboard Air Line and Southern railroads will honor the pickets.

The injunction was issued at the request of the FEC by Federal Judge William A. McTear Jr., who said he hoped the terminal company would take "action as it considered necessary in the interests of the public."

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am being married for the second time. The wedding will take place in the minister's study with only a few guests present. I would like to wear a white silk cocktail suit. I have been told by several of my friends that I should not wear white because white stands for maidenhood. Of course I wouldn't wear a veil. I'd like your opinion.

DEAR PROPER LEE: The traditional white bridal gown originated in the early Saxon days, when the poorer brides wore plain white robes to indicate they had no wealth and were not responsible for their husbands' debts. The white bridal costume has more economic significance than moral. So wear the white silk suit, and better luck this time.

DEAR ABBY: Do all wives make themselves out to be housekeeping martyrs, or is my wife the exception? There are just the two of us, and our home is equipped with an electric washer, dryer, ironer, cooking range, blender, can opener, grinder, coffee-maker, floor polisher and every other work-saving device you can name. But my wife complains she is "overworked." We even have a maid to run these gadgets while my wife plays cards five afternoons a week. So what should I do?

EARL: DEAR EARL: Buy her an automatic card shuffler.

DEAR ABBY: About a month ago I was caught with cigarettes in my purse. I lied to my mother and told her they belonged to a friend of mine. She found out I lied and I was grounded for a month. I promised I would never smoke again. I was in the drug store with another girl and we were smoking. A friend of my mother's saw us and told my mother immediately. Now I am grounded for I don't know how long. The worst part of it is that now my mother has lost all trust in me. I don't really know why I smoked after I promised I wouldn't. I suppose I just wanted to feel big and bad. How can I get my mother to believe that I have learned my lesson and I will neither smoke nor lie again?

TRULY SORRY: DEAR SORRY: It will probably take a long time for your mother to regain confidence in you. There are no short-cuts. The only way you can build trust and confidence is by being completely honest in all things from now on.

Highlights TV Time Previews

7:30-8:30 p.m. NBC. Wide Country. "Speckle Bird." Title of this episode is the name of a fine bucking horse that Mitch and Andy (Earl Holliman and Andy Prince) don't want to see destroyed. A wealthy man (Forrest Tucker), following his son's paralysis after being thrown by the horse, buys the animal to kill it. After failing to dissuade the outraged man, Mitch and Andy kidnap the horse. Quite good is Chris Robinson as the paralyzed youth. Good action and an exciting chase scene make this worth while.

8:30 p.m. CBS. Perry Mason. "The Case of Constant Doyle." Bette Davis fills in for ailing Raymond Burr, not only doing her usual first-rate job, but doing it in the type of courtroom scene usually reserved for men. The story concerns a young man accused of murder during a factory robbery, and the personality conflict between him and lawyer Davis. Ready to decline the case, she takes it when she sees other activities involved besides mere murder. Star Raymond Burr is in one fleeting sequence. Featured are Michael Parks, Peggy Ann Garner, Neil Hamilton and regulars

Barbara Hale and William Lopper.

8:50-9:30 p.m. NBC. Dr. Kildare. "The Mosaic." This episode has one of those "personality through research" formats which this series does so well. The research tonight is due to a breakout of infectious hepatitis among Blair's student doctors—the cause of one death. Tom Tryon plays a city health official desperately trying and failing in his detailed investigation, although not in a notable acting job. Richard Chamberlain and Raymond Massey are starred. 9:10 p.m. CBS. Twilight Zone. "The Mute." Barbara Baxley and Frank Overton are the stars of this teleplay, but the acting honors should go to young Ann Jillian, playing a 12-year-old mute, and Irene Dailey as the teacher who discovers the cause of the child's affliction. The teacher is not the usual warm-hearted children's companion.

B. Jay Becker of New York has been one of the best players in the world for a long time and his brother, Skippy of Philadelphia, has not been far behind. Each has two bridge playing sons and while the second generation of Beckers has not yet threatened their parents, all four boys will be life masters soon and all will be real credits to the game just like their fathers.

Mike Becker, sitting North, felt that his single raise of clubs was a slight underbid. Hence after his brother, Steve, cue bid spades, Mike decided to cue bid in hearts and Steve went on to six

West opened the king of diamonds and shifted to a spade.

At this point it might appear that Steve was going down, but it did not look that way to Steve.

He won the spade, entered dummy with a club, ruffed a spade, entered dummy with another club, ruffed dummy's third spade and proceeded to run off the rest of his nine card club suit.

The last club squeezed West. He had to hang on to Jack of spades, because dummy held the ten spot in back of him. The only way he could do that was to blank his king of hearts. Now Steve discarded that ten of spades from dummy and made the last two tricks with the ace and queen of hearts.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

Americans, used to noise at night, can now get record from the moment they wake up in the morning until the broadcasting stations sign off ed noise to put them to sleep. For a mere $89.50 they can buy an electronic gadget.

The gadget will probably sell well. If there is anything that we have come to distrust it is silence.

At cocktail parties we gravitate to the room or the corner of the room where it is the hardest to hear each other, even when we shout. Many men turn on a ball game, not to watch or listen to, but to nap by. Turn it off and the napper will probably wake up and demand to know what's going on.

Many housewives find it hard to scrub or make beds if the television isn't blaring loud enough to be heard in every room of the house.

Today's children can't do their homework without having a radio or record player going. They claim they can't concentrate in a completely silent room.

And how often do you hear a woman whose children are grown and gone from home complain that what really gets her down is how QUIET the house seems?

Why most of us have grown to be so afraid of silence, I don't really know. But we needn't fear, now that we can have all the noise we want while we sleep—as well as during our waking hours.

Rustling - - Modern Way

Millions of automobiles change hands in the United States each year. Not a small proportion of these exchanges come as startling shocks to their former owners - through theft.

10 percent that disappear amount to millions upon millions of dollars. According to the bureau, most of the unrecovered cars are stolen by professional car theft rings, which dismantle them and sell them piecemeal.

Let Hogs Lie

Science, which has done so much to enrich our lives, has the annoying habit of demolishing cherished myths.

One that has been attacked over the years is the ability of the ground hog, or woodchuck, to predict the weather. An everyone knows on Ground Hog Day, Feb. 2, all good ground hogs emerge from their underground dens and search about for their shadows.

If they see them, they go back inside to sleep out the remaining six weeks of winter. But if there is no sun to cast a shadow, the animals know that spring has arrived and stay outside.

Now, with the great day approaching once again, another scientific casts cold water on the ground hog; - which at this time of year is a pretty mean thing to do.

Naturalist Garret F. VanWart of Milton, Mass., maintains that the ground hog is a true hibernator that is probably still in deep sleep in February and won't awaken until the middle of March.

On top of this, the ground hog is sluggish and slow-moving and has poor eyesight. To avoid making a meal for foxes and hawks and others, he never stays outside his home for long in any case.

These allegations notwithstanding, this year's observance of Ground Hog Day promises to be as widely observed and believed in as ever - for man does not live by scientific facts alone.

Rugged Foe Of Program

WASHINGTON (UPI) - There will be no greater firepower leveled against President Kennedy's new budget than the statement of a powerful member of the President's own party, Chairman Clarence Cannon, (D-Mo.), of the House Appropriations Committee.

Cannon's remarks and circulated them to the millions of voters. What Cannon had to say is in the Jan. 17 Congressional Record.

Since that date, the U. S. gold board has shrunk to just under $16 billion, a loss of about $7 billion. The United States is required by law to maintain a 25 per cent gold backing for its currency and deposits.

Barbs

An Indiana woman sued her maid for stealing her husband. It isn't safe to leave some things around the house.

With postage rates up, college students will continue not writing home often enough.

A husband may be able to read his wife like a book and yet not be able to shut her up.

Some people never seem to get sick, at least they don't talk constantly about it.

Foreigners possess dollars and other claims against the United States aggregating more than $21 billion. Through foreign central banks, these claims can be exchanged for U. S. gold. Since Dec. 31, 1957, when the U.S. gold board amounted to $22.9 billion, foreigners have been cashing their assets for U. S. gold. The balance of international payments thus has been against the United States.

On the basis of the budget as presented, plus a statement by Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon, Cannon foresees three more successive budget deficits in fiscal years 1964, '65 and '66. He has no confidence in an end to deficit financing in fiscal 1967 or soon thereafter.

You can profitably employ some logical arguments, too, but logic alone will seldom banish an emotional habit that has developed.

But logic alone will seldom banish an emotional habit that has developed.

It is also a protective blanket which permits many small animals to feed in peace and quiet.

"How can we banish Terry's extreme fear of the dark?"

The dark also quiets birds and other noisy creatures that would otherwise keep us awake and make our sleep more fitful.

There are no such things as ghosts, but many ignorant people still get scared of such imaginary terrors.

"But whatever can be learned, can also be unlearned."

So Terry's parents should simply try to rebuild a new outlook concerning the dark.

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The most complete overhaul of United States tax rates in 20 years, just proposed to Congress by President Kennedy, is an apparent effort to give some relief to every bracket of taxpayers.

Details of the new program are so complex that any attempt to review or even list all the changes in this limited space would be futile.

In summary, tax savings would be 40 per cent for people with adjusted gross income below $3,000, falling by a graduated scale to 10 per cent for incomes over $30,000.

Whether the program will do all the things the President says it will is open to question.

That should be about May 15. Allow three months for Senate action and couple of weeks for Senate-House conferences to iron out differences and it is close to Sept. 1.

Whether the program will do all the things the President says it will is open to question.

The President's message calls for part of the tax reduction to be made retroactively effective as of Jan. 1, 1963.

The President again puts tax reduction as the most important business before the new Congress.

Another step in the reduction program would be made effective Jan. 1, 1964.

Included at this time would be 31 structural tax reforms of an extremely technical nature.

There is bound to be considerable tax confusion in this period, with rates changing every year.

There is bound to be considerable tax confusion in this period, with rates changing every year.

There is bound to be considerable tax confusion in this period, with rates changing every year.

Whether tax reduction alone will step up economic growth and the output of goods and services by several times the amount of the tax cut—$13.6 billion over three years—will have to be demonstrated.

Tax cuts alone can hardly cure unemployment nor guarantee full employment. Tax reduction does not necessarily mean that there will be price stability, an end to inflation and permanent solution of the international balance-of-payments gap.

From many places will be heard demands that government spending must be cut, too, for fiscal responsibility.

HAPPILY DISPLAYING their big catch of shad, with three specks and two herring, taken over last weekend in the Crowe's Camp area are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reel, of Delaware.

By Bill Vincent Jr.
Well, howdy again, and it sure was a dreary weekend. But in spite of the rain the shad fishing was good all around Sanford.
There was one real nice catch brought in at Jim Crowe's, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reel of Delaware brought in 23 shad plus three specks and two herring.
Jim tells me that a lot of nice shad catches have been made in the area between his camp and Marina Isle in the government cut.
While I was out at Jim's there were four good catches brought in within the hour, ranging from six to 10 shad per party.

Decision Week In Cage Ratings

NEW YORK (UPI)—This could be the week of decision for Grambling College of Louisiana, the nation's second-ranked small college basketball team, which is making a strong move to replace Wilt Chamberlain as the UPI ratings.
Wittenberg, beaten only once in 13 games, was the No. 1 choice of 23 of the 35 coaches who comprise the UPI rating board in this week's ratings. While Grambling, which has lost only one game in 17 starts, was chosen first by six coaches.
However, Grambling closed the gap between first and second place to only 55 points. This Saturday, the Louisiana Tigers play Prairie View A & M, tied for sixth place with Westminster, in their most difficult test of the season thus far. The Wittenberg Tigers meanwhile, have an easier test in Baldwin-Wallace.

By Oscar Fraley
MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — It was a mockery of a legend.
The old Sugar man — Ray Robinson—at 42 won a split decision over little Ralph Dupas of New Orleans in Miami Beach Auditorium Wednesday night.
He looked much like the old Sugar Ray who had won 152 of 166 bouts and held six world championships. There was the old lighthouseness of form, the sarcastic eye and the familiar stand-up style with the once-explosive fists cocked and ready.
But this was not the man out of the storied past.
He had a 12½-pound weight advantage; he was facing a man who couldn't knock off your hat with a baseball bat, and he stole it.

Joe Louis, Willie Pep and King Levinsky—three former greats—might have been the chief mourners at a funeral when they climbed into the ring before the bout for an introduction.
And it almost was just that.
Dupas, the 27-year-old welterweight who pitted his 14½ pounds against Robinson's 162, swarmed all over the Sugar man. He dismained the punch which had flattened 97 rivals in a career which carried Robinson to five middleweight titles in 23 years of boxing.
And he was the victim of one of the neatest bits of thievery since the great mail robbery. Robinson was a 2½ to 1 underdog before 5,500 fans who were predominantly and lustily in his corner. But, as it developed, it should have been no worse than 8 to 5 and take your pick because Dupas treated him like a preliminary boy and Robinson fought a defensive fight.

The New Orleans fencing master waded in, trading Robby shot for shot, and usually it was the Sugar man who gave ground.
For the reflexes of old were gone and so, too, was the lethal punch.
Sugar Ray called this "an important step" in what he characterized as a time table member of the club.

E. J. (Buzzy) Havasi, who revealed that both players received $10,000 raises, also announced the signing of outfielder Willie Davis and infielder Ron Fairly.

Drysdale, Davis Ink Pacts

United Press International
Don Drysdale and Tommy Davis, who wound up the 1962 baseball season with plenty of individual glory, now have the gold to do with it.
The Los Angeles Dodgers said "thanks" to their 23-game winner and 346-hitter Wednesday with some pretty fancy figures for their own: $10,000 salary increases for both stars.
Drysdale's raise lifted him into the $45,000 class, making him the highest-paid pitcher and second highest-paid player in club history, while Davis' increase placed him in the $25,000 bracket. Roy Campanella, who was paid $48,000 in 1962 after being named the National League's most valuable player for a third time, is the only Dodger who ever was paid more than Drysdale.
Drysdale compiled a 25-9 record and 2.84 earned run average in 314 innings to win the Cy Young award as the year's outstanding major league pitcher. Davis, 24, collected 230 hits and led the majors with 153 runs batted in in one of the best all-round seasons ever enjoyed by a

United Press International
The University of Cincinnati, moving methodically toward its first unbeaten basketball season in 55 years and an unprecedented third straight NCAA championship, will be out to claim its 34th straight victim when it plays host to Drake tonight.
Second-ranked Loyola of Chicago, boasting a 19-0 record and leading for a possible shut-down with top-ranked Cincinnati in the post-season tournament, also is at home against Washington University of St. Louis.
Despite an awesome 15-0 start this season, Cincinnati still has a long haul to clinch the Missouri Valley Conference championship and thereby earn an automatic bid to compete in the NCAA tourney, which it has won the last two years.

Uria, Manuel Pace Jai-Alai

Uria and Manuel walked away with the big 11th game Wednesday night when they vanquished the first five teams to face them and got off to a flying five point start.
On the second time around they banished two more and the game was over before the lineup knew what had happened.
It was a sterling performance by the winning duo that seemed to stun the opposition.
Uria turned in a masterful performance in the front court using a full repertoire of angleshots and clever placements that not even the agile Gastin could cope with.
Jacin won the American Legion trophy, donated by the Casselberry Post, with a brilliant display of virtuosity in the eighth game, coming from far back in the field to win.

The Chicago White Sox increased their list of satisfied players to 26 with the signing of first baseman Joe Cunningham and outfielder Mike Hershberger. Cunningham batted .295 and drove in 76 runs last season while Hershberger batted .260 with four homers.
Veteran outfielder Wally Post became the 11th member of the Cincinnati Reds to agree to terms when he accepted a pact for about $9,000. Post, 33, hit .263 with 17 homers and 62 runs batted in last season. He has a lifetime major league total of 208 homers.
The Pittsburgh Pirates announced the signing of coaches Gene Baker and Virgil Trucks while the Cubs reported a financial loss of $239,944 in 1962 most of which they blamed on declining television contracts.
Opposing this stretch driver will be four two-time winners, namely Bonnie Abbe, Duke Drake, O. B.'s Deacon and Technique Tip. Both victories of Bonnie Abbe, Duke Drake and O. B.'s Deacon have been in Grade A contests.
Three one-time winners complete the field. They are Joe Luck, Sarasota Egg King and Ed's Money Lender.

once hypnotized a reluctant heavyweight but then forgot to unhypnotize him and the friendly warrior was knocked out with the first punch of the fight.
Dupas was extremely aggravated over the loss, as most of those in attendance thought he should have been, and demanded:
"What do you have to do to win a fight in Miami Beach? This is the third time I've been robbed here."
But actually it was the money-hungry Robinson who was robbed. Beaten, he might have packed it in. He should. The Tiger from Nigeria will chew him into little pieces.

Fathom Top SOKC Choice

The first Friday matinee of the season is on tap at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club starting at 2 p.m. Orville Moses' Fathom, winner of the Racing King Stakes last February, will probably rate as the favorite in the ninth race, the daylight feature.
But it's a closely matched contest and rounding out the octet will be Sock Fray, shooting for his fourth win; Mona Means, New Hit, Carmellette, Chief Pattie, Marlow Brandy and Reine.
C. H. Scott's Memberly, who romped through Grades C, B and A with three wins in a row, shoots for a fourth victory in tonight's featured ninth. In his four starts he has been dead last leaving the box, then comes on like a whirlwind as the pack nears the finish.
Opposing this stretch driver will be four two-time winners, namely Bonnie Abbe, Duke Drake, O. B.'s Deacon and Technique Tip. Both victories of Bonnie Abbe, Duke Drake and O. B.'s Deacon have been in Grade A contests.
Three one-time winners complete the field. They are Joe Luck, Sarasota Egg King and Ed's Money Lender.

By Linda Smithson

Mrs. Joe R. Battle, of Oviedo, is planning to hold a card party on Feb. 14, at 7:30 p. m. at her home for the benefit of the Oviedo Woman's Club building fund.

Those who would like to attend are requested to make up a table and let Mrs. Battle know how many to prepare for.

Altamonte Personals

By Louise Simms

Ten-year-old Bonnie Stuart of Altamonte Springs is home after spending last weekend in the Florida Sanitarium and Hospital with a compound fracture of her left arm. Bonnie and several friends were playing around some large cable spools when she accidentally fell and fractured the arm. She is up and active with her arm in a cast which her mother, Allamonte Elementary fifth grade teacher, says will not interfere with her schoolwork.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Marsh, former residents of Altamonte Springs who now live in Pennsylvania, have written friends here that the report was false that their two older daughters, Ellen and Donna, had been fatally injured in an automobile accident some time ago.

Both girls and their younger sisters, Cynthia, Pam and Kristie, are well and happy although they write that they still miss their friends here very much.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hearn Sr. of Geneva Drive have very much enjoyed a 10-day visit from their daughter-in-law, Mrs. George Hearn Jr., and their three-month-old grandson, David, who were here from Memphis, Tenn., in time to enjoy the recent warm weather.

Personals

William Birkemeyer and sister, Miss Mary Birkemeyer, Country Club Road, had as their recent house guests their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oanen, of Raymond, Minn. The Oanens enjoyed their extended visit touring the state and were particularly impressed with the Sanford area. They plan future visits and may some day make their home here as did the Birkmeyers.

Homemakers

Hells! Hope this had weather didn't get you out of the cooking mood for we have received some nice recipes that I want to share. Have had some calls already on the Red Velvet Cake in last week's column. It was made with success by those who have tried it. Do you know that it would make a pretty Valentine cake because it is red?

Here is the Million Dollar Cake from Mrs. Fort Poole.

Beat and combine:
3 egg whites
1/2 tsp. salt
1 1/2 cups sugar
Place in refrigerator.
Melt and cool 2 squares chocolate. Cream:
5 tbsps. butter
1 1/2 cups sugar
3 egg yolks

Add to cream mixture alternately:
2 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 1/2 cups sweet milk

Add 1 tsp. vanilla to melted chocolate. Sprinkle 2 tbsps. baking powder over egg whites. Fold egg white mixture into batter. Bake in three 9 inch layers in 350 degree oven, 25 to 30 minutes.

Toppling
1 box confectioners sugar
1 stick butter
1/2 cup warm milk
1 tsp. vanilla
1 square melted chocolate
Cream sugar and butter, add other ingredients. Reserve enough of this to frost sides of cake.

Then add to remaining icing 1 cup broken nut meats and 1 cup grated coconut and frost layers and top.

And now Grasshopper Pie. Yes, you read right. It was given to me by Naomi Sapp of Monroe. She said it was sent to her.

Officers Wives Of VAH-1 Meet For Luncheon
The Imperial House was the setting for a VAH-1 officers' wives luncheon recently. Mrs. Charles Lipford and Mrs. Patrick O'Gara were hostesses for the event.

Thirty-one VAH-1 wives enjoyed the steak luncheon, which was followed by a brief business meeting.

Mrs. Edward Fritsch and Mrs. Alex Malkoff were presented with going away gifts, as their husbands will soon be leaving the Titer squadron for other stations.

Mrs. Keith Journey won the door prize with the lucky number 13.

The VAH-1 ladies were pleased to have Mrs. Scheldler of Cincinnati, Ohio, enjoying the luncheon with them. Mrs. Scheldler is the mother of Mrs. George Klett.

Personals

Friends of Clay Williams will be glad to know that he has returned to his home on Iroquois Ave. from the Florida Sanatorium and Hospital. He is reported to be improving but will not be able to be out for awhile.

Sprinkle lightly with chocolate shavings before refrigerating for a decorative top ping.

This doesn't sound bad after you read it through, but before it did I guess it was the name.

Florida limes give a delicious lift to family meals and can be used in many ways at meal time and in between meals too. Try them in the following ways:

—A wedge of lime to squeeze into iced or hot tea.

—Lime wedges served with any seafood, to be squeezed over the food before eating.

—Lime juice and cooking oil in equal parts are a "natural" for basting chicken, steaks or ribs, as they cook over glowing coals or in the oven.

—Use lime juice in liberal amounts in your favorite barbecue sauce recipe.

—Squeeze lime juice over chopped apples to keep them from darkening. This also adds zest to the salad or fruit cup. The fruits are used in at meal time.

Try this Limeade Punch at your next party.

8 cups water
1 tsp. whole cloves
1 1/2 inch stick cinnamon
1 tbsp. instant tea
4 cans frozen limeade concentrate (4 or 8 oz cans)
Combine 2 cups water, cloves and cinnamon in saucepan; simmer 10 minutes. Strain over tea in large bowl. Reconstitute limeade with remaining 6 cups water. Add tea base; chill. To serve, pour into punch bowl, add ice cubes. Garnish with Mint sprigs and thin slices of lime. Yield: 22 1/2-cup servings.

How does this sound? Lime Pudding (You bake this). Pudding makes its own sauce.

1 cup sugar
3 tbsps. flour
3 tbsps. butter
1 tsp. grated lime rind
1 cup milk
2 eggs
3 tbsps. lime juice
Combine sugar and flour and three meals, 1. sirloin chops and scissors.

2. center cut leg roast and 3. boneless lamb for stew or grinding. From a smoked ham there is a variety of ways to use this cut of meat.

Dr. Reddish said to get the most from meat to select it wisely, care for it properly, and cook it correctly.

He gave each one present a booklet on the cuts of meat and how to identify them. For those who wish this booklet, go to the county agent's office and ask for bulletin No. 7. If you will find illustrations on every cut of meat there is from beef, pork, lamb and veal.

Dr. Reddish also showed the correct way to sharpen knives.

South Seminole Junior High PTA Holds Business Meeting

By Jane Casselberry
The monthly business meeting of the South Seminole Junior High PTA was held Tuesday night following the program presented by a panel from the County Juvenile Council.

Mrs. Charles Dome, president, presided at the meeting which opened with prayer led by Elton P. Richards.

The PTA is sponsoring a benefit card party at the American Legion Home on Prairie Lake on Thursday, Feb. 14, at 8 p. m. There will be prizes and refreshments.

Mrs. Dome reported on another fund raising project, the jackets and sweaters that are being sold in school colors by the PTA. A total of $140 was sold on the first order with $200 on the second. A few of the garments are still available for those who failed to place their orders in advance.

Saturday, Feb. 16, has been designated as "Planting Day" at the school and parents are asked to come out with their shovels and hoes to help beautify the grounds. Donations of hardy, freeze-resistant plants and trees are needed.

It was announced that the Lyman High PTA has issued an invitation for the group to attend a program on "Marriage and Family Living" which will be conducted by Dr. Douglas Brown of Florida State University on March 20 in the Lyman Auditorium.

Principal John Angel introduced the new member of the faculty, Larry Frye, seventh grade English teacher, who already is planning to help the students publish a school newspaper.

Angel announced that there will be no school for children on Friday as it is Conference Day. Parents whose children are having problems in school have been especially urged to come to the school to confer with the teachers.

R. T. Milwee, county school superintendent, announced that he will be present at the March meeting of the PTA and will bring with him W. A. Teague, head of the finance department; Stewart Gatchel, director of instruction; W. H. DeShazo, superintendent of secondary education, and W. W. Wharton, coordinator of guidance and the exceptional child program.

Parents are encouraged to attend and ask any questions concerning the school system.

Henry Duncan, chairman of the South Seminole Athletic Assn., announced that the group will sponsor a chicken dinner on Saturday, Feb. 9, at the Longwood Elementary School starting at 5 p. m.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served by ninth grade mothers following the meeting.

Demonstration Held For Ceramics Group

By Mrs. Adam Muller
The Ceramic Group of the DeBary Arts and Crafts Club was presented a demonstration on the making of clay flowers at last Wednesday's meeting at the DeBary Mansion House.

The demonstration, given by Mrs. Margaret Cunningham who uses the clay without molds for this type of flowers, consisted of instruction on making daffodils, violets and the Rose of Sharon. Each, when glazed, adds to any piece when used.

The demonstration was of particular interest to the group since it varies from the method used by most artists.

Homage To Cordell

Four copies of J. Edgar Hoover's new book, "A Study of Communism" were presented to the library of Seminole High School recently by Mrs. D. M. Ladd of Geneva. The books were presented in memory of Capt. Terry Cordell, a graduate of Seminole High School, a member of the famed Rangers, the "Men in the Green Beret," who was shot down by Communist guerillas over Viet-Nam in Oct., 1962.

One of the books was sent to Hoover, famous FBI head, and he autographed it, "In Memory of Capt. Terry Cordell." Hoover is well-known for his first book on communism in this country entitled, "Masters of Deceit."

COUNTY NEWS

THE WARM UP — Trotters and pacers have been working-out for weeks and preparing for the 52 nights of racing. These highly trained horses are here from 18 states and Canada.

'Fastest Horses' Will Run Here

For two weeks horse vans have been streaming into Seminole Park in anticipation of the grand opening Friday night.

From North, South, East and West they have come, bringing with them what has been described as "the world's fastest horses" the quarter horses. Named for their ability to run a quarter-mile faster than any other breed, this stocky, rugged little horse is as American as Indians.

In appearance, the quarter horse takes a bit of getting used to. Short-coupled, heavily muscled, they look like what they are, a tough, durable working horse. Their most outstanding quality is their versatility. They are equally at home whether on the range working cattle, in the show ring, as a pleasure mount, in timed competitive events such as barrel racing, rodeo exhibitions or, finally, in their most glamorous role, as a race horse.

Their racing history began several generations ago when pioneer ranchers got together on Sunday afternoons to match their favorite horses in races down country roads. Rivalry became high and the sport spread. Interest in quarter horses is now at an all-time high and they are to be found in every state in the Union. Last Labor Day the All-American Quarter Horse Futurity held at Ruidoso Downs, New Mexico, paid a purse of $222,000, the third richest race ever to be run in this country.

In recent years, several tracks have been built in the western states to cater to this type of racing. One reason for its increasing popularity is that the entire race takes place in front of the grandstand where the spectators can see all the action. Florida is one of the few states east of the Mississippi to recognize the potential of quarter horse racing. When it gets underway, Seminole Park Raceway will be the only active quarter horse meet in the southeast permitting pari-mutuel betting.

Cliff Lambert, quarter horse racing secretary, says of the forthcoming program, "We are looking forward to a good meet. There are a lot of horses here and enthusiasm is high among the horsemen."

SEMINOLE RACEWAYS' President Clyde Hart (left) talks with John Saub, Sanford, chief inspector of the Florida Racing Commission, on final details for Friday evening's grand opening.

Million-Dollar Facility To Offer Horse Racing

Central Florida's latest attraction for the sports lovers will open its doors Friday evening when the Seminole Park Raceway opens its 52-night racing meet.

The million-dollar facility will offer two types of horse racing nightly, alternating between quarter horse and harness racing.

When asked the cost of the latest of five horse tracks to offer pari-mutuel betting in Florida, President Clyde Hart, New Smyrna cattle rancher, responded with a question. "Do you mean in dollars—or in blood and sweat?"

Actually there are two racing tracks — a five-eighths-mile track for the harness racing and a mile-long track for quarter horse sprints. The smaller track lays within the longer oval.

Long a winter training ground for racing, Seminole Park has added a 2,500-seat grandstand, with a covered area for another 6,000 persons.

The novelty of this type of racing for Central Floridians is pointed in the fact that the nearest trotting tracks permitting betting are in the North and the nearest quarter horse track is in New Mexico.

Other Florida tracks permitting pari-mutuel betting are in Dade and Hillsborough Counties.

The Seminole meet will continue nightly except Sunday through April 2. Post time is 8 p. m. with nine races each night.

Directors of the Seminole track are Hart, president; Fred Nelson, Daytona Beach, vice president; Raymond Tucker, Bunnell, secretary; Alfred Tucker, Bunnell; Edward L. Partin, Kissimmee; W. J. Grande, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.; A. L. Bullis, St. Cloud; Dr. H. M. Zwieg, Nassau, N. Y. and Hudson Garren, Maitland.

Seminole Park will offer 32 night of harness and quarter horse racing, with pari-mutuel betting, a daily double and quinella.

It is claimed this is the first time quarter horse racing has been offered east of the Mississippi River. Harness racing will include trotters and pacers.

Bear Lake PTA Sets Meeting

By Shirley Wentworth

The Bear Lake Elementary PTA meeting will be held next Tuesday at the school opening with a social and refreshment period at 7:30 p. m. followed by the business meeting and program at 8 p. m.

Third grade mothers will be hostesses for the refreshment period.

Installed were William F. Bries, commander; Louis Kenyon, senior vice commander; Albert Pys, junior vice commander; Eldin Bendick, quartermaster; Ralph Combs, chaplain; Fred Kammerer, judge advocate and Kress Walter, three year trustee.

Appointments made by the new commander were William T. Joyce, publicity; John Ebetsch, adjutant; William Denning, sergeant at arms; Chauncey King, historian; Ralph Combs, welfare and James Oddy, legislative chairman.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by members of the Barracks Auxiliary.

Explorers Have Bad Weekend

By Louise Simunek

Altamonte Explorer Post 36 had a disappointing camping trip to New Smyrna Beach last weekend due to the steady rain which began sometime around 4 a. m. Saturday morning and continued through the entire day.

Planned by leader Donald MacLeod and assistant leader Paul French as a pleasure trip, there were no special projects scheduled and fishing and loafing were to have comprised the entire weekend.

The boys did manage to prepare a hearty breakfast on a camp stove under a tarpaulin, all the while hoping that the rain soon would stop. However, after waiting it out the better part of the day, they came on home, arriving wet and down-hearted.

Those making the trip were Patrick Shea, Kent Fuller, Mike Sewell, Roger Landerville, Cory McBride and Ken Ament. Invited guests were Joseph Simunek and sons, Jack and Jim, and Jeff MacLeod.

DeBary Legion Presents Plaque

By Mrs. Adam Muller

DeBary's American Legion Herbert D. Gibb Post 259 has presented a gold finished, hand-engraved plaque to the Lake City Veterans Hospital to be installed on a TV set which the post presented as a gift to the hospital last year.

Memorial inscriptions were made for past members of the post, Clarence M. Carpenter, Benjamin Gilbert and John G. Klipfel.

Parent Night

Parent Night at the Lake Mary Elementary School will be held Thursday beginning at 7:30 p. m. in the auditorium. Room visitation has been scheduled to follow the program.

VFW Auxiliary Has Social

By Donna Estes

South Seminole VFW Auxiliary 8207 held a social meeting at the newly purchased VFW property site on the Old Dixie Hwy. last Thursday evening.

The members who celebrated birthdays in January, Mrs. Walter Stewart and Mrs. Edna Norman, were guests of honor.

A beautiful birthday cake with white frosting, decorated in yellow and blue, had "Happy Birthday Girls in January" written across the top.

The ladies played canasta and bingo and were served birthday cake and coffee.

Special guest was Mrs. Dan Jarrv, past district eight president of Eli, Minn.

Record Number At Enterprise PTC Meeting

The Enterprise PTC meeting was held Jan. 19 in the school cafeteria with the largest attendance recorded for any meeting this year.

Edwin Braddock, coach of the Biddy Basketball Team, presented his boys and told of the training program, explaining that although this team and the Junior Team coached by Forrest Nutt use the court at the school for practice, they are not school sponsored teams.

The basketball teams are a community project with financial aid coming from parents and friends of the players. Braddock reported that the Biddy Team must pay $25 for conference fees and asked those wishing to make a donation to contact him or his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Nutt or Miss Helen Snodgrass.

The Biddy Team has won all of its games and the Junior Team has only one loss.

A room visitation and refreshment period followed the PTC meeting.

Lake Mary Fire Groups Call Special Meeting

Members of the Lake Mary Volunteer Fire Dept. and of the Auxiliary have called a special meeting for 7:30 p. m. Saturday at the Fire Hall.

Purpose of the meeting will be to consult with the dinner committee and ticket sales chairman in order to make further plans for the Chicken Barbecue to be sponsored by the groups on Feb. 9 from 5 p. m. until 7 p. m. at the Hall.

Tickets are available to the public from any member of either organization or from Mrs. Ed Zimmerman, ticket chairman. Nominal prices have been set for adults and for children under 12 years of age.

Lake Mary Elementary School Principal Floyd Richards this week released a bulletin for parents announcing upcoming events and holidays of the school.

First on the agenda is the Parents Night meeting to be held at 7:30 p. m. today in the school auditorium with room visitation scheduled after the program.

Children will not attend school Friday and the day has been set aside for parent-teacher conferences which may be requested by the teacher or the parent with appointments to be set between the hours of 9:15 a. m. and 2:15 p. m.

School holidays were announced for March 11 and 15 and for April 11, April 12 and April 15.

Richards also reported that the recent Winter Festival netted a profit of more than $1,200. Plans call for $700 of this amount to be used for the purchase of library books; $200 for putting a hard surface on the basketball court; $80 for filmstrips and $60 for a bicycle rack which is presently being assembled by school custodians. Remainder of the fund is being used for the Christmas Party and Play Day for the children and as a starter fund for next year's Festival.

EDITORIAL COMMENT Meet The Challenge

North Orlando, it seems, makes the newspaper headlines more than most communities in the area. Many times these reports read of confusion and misunderstanding but behind the dark words is the real story of a progressive and rapidly growing community.

There is an awareness of a great future for the people in the village and surrounding area with perhaps the most talked of "future project" that of Seminole College and the prosperity it promises.

North Orlando has conducted a successful Civil Defense program and its 4-H Club, Girl Scouts, Brownies, Garden Club and Little League also have been successfully organized and remain active. The Civic Assn., although many times lacking a quorum, has held itself together knowing that the future looks brighter each day.

True, residents have misunderstandings and differences in political matters but the village often has shown that an overall, congenial nature prevails and that, regardless of opinion, those same residents can gather together for a friendly evening of fun.

All the ups and downs of North Orlando can make it a better place to live in the future. The way of knowledge is often paved with mistakes and to understand, one must inquire.

Although it has much to learn about building a new city and living by a new charter, North Orlando definitely has shown that it has the spirit to meet the challenge.

North Orlando Residents Talk Election

Three Statements Released To Press

By Mona Grinstead
Next Tuesday the North Orlando Village Council will meet to plan voter registration and the coming March election when three councilmen will be replaced.

Around the village, residents are discussing the present existing situation due to disagreements between the three council members appointed by the North Orlando Co. and the two officials elected last year. Signed statements have been released for publication by three citizens of the community.

Arthur D. Rhodes says, "I am very concerned, as are most residents, with the constant bickering and unfavorable publicity that North Orlando seems to attract. In my opinion city government and city activities should be kept on an impersonal level."

"Most public meetings in this community are attended by only a handful of interested persons. If more people would attend, voice their opinions, vote and then abide by the MAJORITY decision, I am convinced we can have a smooth running and prosperous community — with more families moving in instead of out!"

Auxiliary Gets New Member

By Mrs. Adam Muller
Mrs. Laura Arrington was installed as a new member of the Ladies Auxiliary to DeBary VFW Post 8093 at last week's meeting of the group held in the Recreation Hall of the Fire Station.

Presiding at the meeting was Mrs. Sally Perallo, president. Initiating officers were Mrs. Francanna Howard, Mrs. Frank Hill, Mrs. John Strang, Mrs. Joseph Santillo and Mrs. Robert Morrison. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

DeBary Girl On Dean's List

By Mrs. Adam Muller
Word has been received in DeBary that Miss Carol Lederhaus of Plantation Rd., student in the Freshmen Class of the University of Florida, ranks among the top five per cent of her class and has made the Dean's list. Carol, a math major, has been invited to join Alpha Lambda Delta, national scholastic honorary society for Freshmen women.

R. S. Webster had this to say: "I think possibly that most of our troubles will be straightened out when the people of this community elect a full council and have full control of all the community business."

ARTHUR RHODES

R. S. WEBSTER

ART FERRIN

Art Ferrin, pointing out that this village charter was unacceptable in its original form to Seminole County Commissioners, went on at length to criticize the document recalling the annexation issue which occurred without being put to a referendum vote of the residents involved.

Ferrin said, "When you force people to do something against their will, you will always create conflict and friction. This conflict and friction will continue until the wrong forced upon the people is righted. To force the will of a few on many, is in fact, depriving the majority of rights and liberties which are spelled out in the Constitution of the United States."

"All of the present dissension and friction in the Village of North Orlando obviously stems from the 'unusual' charter by which it is governed."

Ferrin continues by stating that "inequities in the charter are apparent in that they strongly support, protect and provide for the North Orlando Development Co. and do very little for the homeowners of the community."

"Without this charter the present dissension and conflict between the council members could not exist. . . . Without this charter there would be no picture of an old fire engine in the press with said picture emphasizing criticism of a councilman who has done nothing but good for the community since he bought his home here."

"We need a charter designed for and written by the people of North Orlando and only then will we have peace!"

Juvenile Council Gives Junior High Program

By Jane Casselberry
The South Seminole Junior High School PTA heard a panel discussion Tuesday night by members of the County Juvenile Council moderated by school principal and council president, John Angel.

The panel consisted of Judge Vernon Mize, C. E. McCord, county juvenile counselor of Sanford, and Mrs. Daniel Blacksmith of Casselberry.

The Council was organized in 1959 to assist the Juvenile Court by working with dependent, delinquent children. There were 210 members throughout the county last year functioning under a board of directors. A total of 276 youngsters was handled officially by the court during 1962; 100 of which were judged to be delinquent, 63 were traffic offenders and 113 were dependent children. In addition, there were 240 cases of a less serious nature settled without going through the courts.

This was a decrease in total cases of 244 from the previous year which Mize credited to the hiring of a fulltime counselor.

There are 20 Seminole County juveniles presently confined in State Institutions. There is no parole system for juveniles in the State of Florida and the Aftercare Committee of the council uses special volunteer probation officers to rehabilitate the wayward youths after their release.

The Juvenile Court Committee works between the court and the council and maintains a list of foster homes to receive and care for dependents.

Mrs. Blacksmith, who served last year as chairman of the Detention Committee, told of its work in providing needed items for juveniles neglected by their families while in detention at the county jail. As a preventive measure the council hopes to see a broader set up of vocational training in county schools to train the youngster who is not academically inclined and who finds it difficult to obtain a job when he leaves school. Many times these dropouts find themselves in trouble with the law.

R. T. Milwee, county school superintendent, who was in the audience, stated that vocational education is a part of the growing national problem and that the local school board hopes to be able to provide training for these students in the near future.

Aster 4-H Club Plans Exhibit At County Fair

By Shirley Wentworth
The Aster 4-H Girls Club of Weatherfield will exhibit a booth on safety at the Seminole County Fair which opens next Monday at the American Legion Grounds just south of Sanford.

Each member of the club is making a different display to be shown in the exhibit.

On Valentine's Day the girls are planning a get-together to be held at the Altamonte Springs Elementary School for their parents and friends. At this time awards will be presented by Mrs. John Groves, leader, to the girls who entered exhibits at the Fair and a run-down of final activities for the second half of the club year will be announced.

Refreshments will be in keeping with the Valentine theme.

Announcement was made that tickets for the Skate City Benefit for the Sorepta Nursing Home to be held next Thursday from 7:30 until 10:30 p. m. may be obtained from any member of the 4-H Club or by contacting Paty Groves, 1203 Notre Dame St. in Weatherfield or Susette Berg, 116 York Way in Maitland.

One important reason new industries choose locations served by FPC — Dependable Electric Service!

"The electric power network helped clinch the deal!"

Recently, when a bright, clean, new industry came investigating one of the communities in our service area, local government officials gave them the "Grand Tour." They showed them schools, churches, hospitals, recreational facilities, residential areas . . . they talked taxes and skilled labor supply . . . covered everything that makes establishing a plant in Florida attractive. And when it came to the question of electric power, our representative explained how the investor owned electric companies have interconnected their lines here in Florida and far beyond state lines to assure dependable service to industrial, commercial and residential users. His promise of dependable, abundant electric power helped to clinch the deal. Yes, investor owned electric power companies, like ours, can provide all the power a growing community, state or nation can use.

*Experts from our Industrial Development Department, in cooperation with Chambers of Commerce and other local agencies, help tell your community's story to prospective industry. We're happy to help.

School Children Have Program For Arbor Day

By Louise Simunek

A group of second and third grade students at the Allamonte Elementary School took part in an Arbor Day program last week to plant a camphor tree and four Juniper bushes purchased for the occasion by the Parent-Teacher Assn.

Principal Frank Gore gave a short talk prior to the planting, explaining that Arbor Day was started in Nebraska in the 1800's to emphasize the importance of forest conservation.

The tree and bushes were planted in an attractive plot on the front lawn. Children helped in shoveling the dirt around the tree and in the process the principal was almost planted along with the tree.

Lyman Band Boosters Net $440 On Dinner

By Jane Casselberry
The Lyman Band Boosters chicken dinner held last Saturday night in the school cafeteria was termed a complete success netting the band approximately $440 for uniforms and instruments.

Chefs Burbon Ferrell and Henry Duncan, along with their able assistants, were kept busy frying chickens to serve the more than 580 persons who turned out in spite of inclement weather.

A white elephant sale and baked goods auction were held in conjunction with the dinner.

Band Booster Larry Chunst acted as auctioneer. Fred Erwin of Lockhart was the winner of a night table donated by Williams Furniture Mart of Casselberry.

The Lyman Band, under direction of Bandmaster Michael Fisher, entertained the diners with many delightful numbers from their repertoire. Musical highlight of the evening was a trumpet solo, "Carnival of Venice," played by Patrick McGlaughlin who displayed a remarkable talent for triple-tonguing.

Guest conductor was Roy Talman, director of the Leesburg Marching Band, who led the Greyhounds in playing one of the numbers which the band will play in a district competition.

Mrs. Pat House, Band Boosters president, has stated her appreciation to all those who cooperated to make the dinner such a success.
