FOR MRS. MERO

Mrs. Percy Mero, a recent bride, was the charming honoree, at a lovely reception yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Meisch, on West First street, the hostesses being the members of the "Idlers Club."

Quantities of cut flowers, vines and ferns were used in charming profusion in the various rooms, which were opened ensuite, the living rooms were brightened with masses of bignonia vines gracefully draped over mantles, windows, doors and cabinets, and in the dining room exquisite calla lilies, roses and ferns formed the artistic decorations.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. C. R. Kirtley, who wore a most becoming frock of white taffeta, Mrs. W. T. Langley, then introduced the guests to the receiving line. Mrs. Langley was attired in an imported model of black net and jet over black satin with American beauty corsage.

In the dining room, the lace covered refreshment table was centered with a crystal vase of Calla Lillies and ferns, and placed about were cut glass compotes, which held yellow and green mints. The coffee urn was graciously presided over by Mrs. Flor, while Miss Marie Teague poured tea, and was assisted in serving block ice cream in yellow and white, cakes and candies by members of the younger set. Misses Esther Miller, Florence and Mamye Mero and Mrs. Dick Brown.

Mr. Williams is a young business man of Orlando who by his uprightness and geniality has made many friends in Sanford on his frequent visits here.

GROVE ROBBERS GET THEIRS

MIAMI, Jan. 18.—The county commissioners have placed a price of $25 per head on grove robbers of Dade county.

Commissioner E. B. Lackman in offering a resolution that a reward of that amount be offered by the commission for the arrest and conviction of any person raiding fruit groves, which was adopted, said the growers were suffering a loss of thousands of dollars annually through this practice. He was of the understanding that some of the robbers had entered the profession on such a large scale that they offered their ill-acquired produce in the markets in competition to legitimate tradesmen.

The county commission's activities are not to be confined to the professionals alone, it was said, but will also take in the grove-raiding picnickers.

STAGE PLAYS FOR REAL MONEY

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 18.—The fine county school is being developed historic ability of students of Pinellas county schools is being developed to overcome a shortage in school funds, according to C. C. Carr, chairman of the county school board. Mr. Carr who was speaking before the local Rotary club, said that although revenues for school purposes will fall short by approximately $40,000 of this year's requirements, there is no likelihood that the schools will be closed.

The cost of maintaining the county schools this year, he said, would total $235,000 while the revenue yield would be only $195,000. To make up the deficit, he said, the schools were staging amateur theatricals, entertainments and other expedients were being resorted to. A campaign for public subscriptions would be he said, rather than let the schools close.

Mr. Carr expression the opinion that public schools would continue to face financial problems unless the proposed 10 mill levy for school districts is affirmed in November, when an election will be held on proposed constitutional amendments.

NET EARNINGS OF MUNICIPAL PLANTS MAKE VERY FINE SHOWING

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 18.—Not earnings of $407,727.27 were returned by the local municipally owned electric plant for the year 1921, according to figures made public by City Auditor John E. Pace. This amount was a substantial increase over the previous year, according to Mr. Pace, and was a continuation of the increased earnings returned annually since the plant began operating expenses for the year totaled approximately $580,504, the gross earnings amounting to more than a million dollars.

The charge to the consumer for light is seven cents per k. w. k., and the power rate is 20 cents per k. w. k.

MUNICIPALLY OWNED STREET CARS

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 18.—Nearly three million persons rode in the municipally owned street cars of St. Petersburg during 1921 according to a statement by Director of Public Utilities Ludwig, whose annual report also showed a substantial gain in the business of the city owned gas and water plants. The exact number of street railway passengers, 2,867,317 compared with 2,162,010 for 1920. The gas added 2,012 additional customers to its list during the year, while the water plant business shows an increase of 38 per cent over the preceding year.

ONE MAN STREET CAR

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 18.—A new one-man street car is expected to be added to the equipment of the local municipally owned street railway system as the result of the action of the city commission in authorizing the expenditure. The accepted bid for the new car was $6,300, said to be a lower figure than paid for the cars now in use.

NEW CHURCH FOR ST. PETE

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 18.—A building permit has been issued for the erection of a new Trinity Lutheran church building at the corner of Fifth and Fourth Avenue here. The edifice when completed will cost approximately $90,000.

SECOND HAND CARS ARE MERCHANDISE

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 18.—The time worn argument advanced by some of the proud possessors of new automobiles that the owners of second hand machines are not real automobile dealers has been given weight by the ruling of County Judge Bird here that a man who buys and sells the second hand contrivances is not necessarily an automobile dealer.

A local merchant appeared before Judge Bird on a charge of not having a license as an automobile dealer, notwithstanding that he traded in the used car market. The man had a merchant's license and Judge Bird held that he sold second hand cars as he would any other merchandise.

DEMOCRATS AIDED BY REPUBLICAN IN ANTI-LYNCH FIGHT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Democratic members of the House were aided today in their fight against the Dyer anti-lynching bill by Representative Reavis, Republican, Nebraska, who during debate on the measure declared it was evident that some members of congress sworn to uphold the constitution were ready to "ravish" it. With emphasis he urged defeat of the bill, asserting its passage would be unconstitutional usurpation of power by the Federal Government.

All afternoon the bill, carrying heavy penalties for persons participating in lynchings and for officials who fail through negligence of duty to prevent them, was alternately commended and flayed.

Representative Burton, Republican, Ohio, declared that lynching was the darkest blot on an otherwise splendid civilization, and asserted there was only one crime to which it could be compared—cannibalism. In seventeen states, he said, the lives taken by lynching have been more than those under the direction of the courts.

After Representative Sanders, Republican, Indiana, had declared there was no question as to the authority of congress to deal with the question, Representative Montague, Democrat, Virginia, attacked the bill on constitutional grounds.

Later Representative Ballinger, Republican, Massachusetts, advocating enactment of a drastic anti-lynching bill, said he could not understand why members of congress, so sure that the supreme court would immediately declare the Dyer measure, if enacted, unconstitutional, were waging such a determined fight against it.

"Why don't you pass it and let the supreme court knock it out if you are sure it is unconstitutional?" he asked.

The fog lifted on a beautiful day.

Just another sign that behind the clouds the sun is still shining.

Well, it takes a bright sun to make one get up in the morning—there is so much to keep you awake at night.

Our celebrated band will play at Central Park tonight, three games of basketball at the Parish House, two games at Leesburg, good picture at the Star and half a dozen other affairs. Some city, some city.

We want to congratulate the Sanford merchants for their wonderful support of their little Daily Herald. They are coming across with the big sales and the regular advertising and we appreciate it more than words can tell. Daily advertising will certainly make Sanford great.

LEES' BIRTHDAY

Today we honor the memory of Gen. Robert E. Lee, this being his birthday. Aside from the banks closing there is but little respect shown the birthday of one of the greatest generals in American history. All critics agree that Robert E. Lee, commander-in-chief of the armies of the Confederacy, was one of the greatest generals many believe him to have been the greatest. But so beautiful was his personal character that the fame which has grown steadily since his death has taken as much notice of that of his military achievements in the face of the most heart-breaking difficulties. Ideal soldier, he was, but a perfect man no less, one writer has declared. And the north against which he fought with all the energy of his nature now holds him in as loving remembrance as does the South which he served.

Born in Stratford, Westmoreland county, Virginia, January 19, 1807, he grew up with a passionate devotion to his native state. Sent to the military academy at West Point he passed his four years without a demerit or even a reprimand. He served in the Mexican war with distinction and although he was opposed to slavery and had several years before given his slaves their freedom he was loyal to his native state and the South and he refused the command of the United States army when it was given to him and cast his lot with the South. His service, his fortitude, his self-sacrifices in that great struggle are too well known to all the students of history to be repeated.

After the war, broken in health and with but little of this world's goods, General Lee accepted the position of president of Washington College at Lexington, Va., afterward Washington and Lee University. He accepted because as he said to "educate the Southern youth into a spirit of loyalty to the new conditions" and he devoted the few remaining years of his life to this work. One of his sayings that can well be memorized by the youth of today, was:

"Remember, we are one country now. Dismiss from your minds all sectional feeling and bring up your children to be above all, Americans." The United Daughters of the Confederacy are devoting their lives toward keeping alive for posterity the memories and the deeds of those great men of the '60's when history was being made as it is being made today. It is hoped that January 19th will be observed hereafter in Sanford as more than a mere bank holiday. It should be one of the greatest days in the Southern history and the people of the north and south are coming to know and to love the memory and the deeds of Lee in peace greater than he was in war.

ORLANDO'S SUB-TROPICAL FAIR.

It seems hardly more than a few days since we were hearing of the wonderful success of the last Sub-Tropical Mid-Winter Fair at Orlando; and here it is almost time for it to open its doors again!

The thirteenth annual exposition of this five-county association will open February 14, and for one week will be the center of interest to residents and visitors of a large party of the state. Its premium lists are being distributed and show a fine attention to detail in the matter of recognizing worth in many places in each department hitherto overlooked or ignored by other fair associations.

The 1922-Orlando Fair, for that is what everybody will call it despite its well-known honorable name, has every indication of being the most successful yet held by the organization. The officers and directors have given hard work and much time to building up a strong exhibition this year; and that they have succeeded is beyond doubt.

The men who are at the head of the association are those whose very names spell success. The president is Hon. W. R. O'Neal; C. E. Howard, is the secretary and Hon. J. L. Giles is the treasurer. With these men a strong board of managing directors, and, under them, department superintendents of known ability and long experience.

The man or woman in reach of Orlando on St. Valentine's day who does not attend the opening of the Sub-Tropical Mid-Winter, five-county fair, and who does not spend that week, or most of it, inside the grounds, will miss a great opportunity to know what Central Florida is like, and what it is doing every year.—Tampa Tribune.

GRAND OPERA HUNGER

The Palatka Daily News sagely remarks, "It may be that America's small cities hunger for grand opera, but as we remember it the old time medicine show didn't need to be subsidized." The medicine show gave the people just what they wanted; grand opera gives them what they think they ought to want. Ninety per cent of the popularity of grand opera even in big cities is pure affection. The American people are not musically educated, and without an adequate knowledge of musical technique, and the ability to understand readily the language in which the opera is sung, the person who is perfectly honest with himself is bound to confess that Parsifal and Il Trovatore are not for him. He gets some enjoyment, of course, from certain popular passages, but the real purpose of the composer remains an impenetrable secret to him. He prefers "Turkey in the Straw."

RUNNING AT A LOSS

There are many exaggerated stories about prices charged at the big hotels. A friend of mine lately had occasion to engage quarters for a gentleman and his wife who are coming February 1. He made arrangements for them at the best hotel in Miami at $13 a day each a big room with two beds and bath, and well located. The rate includes meals. . . . It costs a good deal of money to operate this hotel. The other day squabs were served at dinner. Practically every guest ordered a squab, and they cost 84 cents each, at wholesale. The big hotels of Florida are operated by the railroad company, and I doubt if they pay expenses; they are only useful in encouraging travel. People also roar at the prices charged on dining cars. I was talking recently with a man who is vice-president of a railroad company. He told me that last year the dining car service made a net loss of a quarter of a million dollars.—Notes of an observing visitor in Miami Herald.

The foregoing is reprinted, not only because it displays the ivory-headedness of big business, but because it illustrates an argument which the Telegram has several times attempted to make.

Of course the big railroad hotels and dining cars are run at a loss. It would be amazing if they were not. And the reason, succinctly stated, is that they can only be patronized at a loss.

Railroads have always been obsessed with the rule of "all the traffic will bear." That rule, however, implies that there is a point where the traffic will cease to "bear." It is possible to establish rates at a point where the minimum volume at the maximum rate will pay a profit on the investment.

TRUCK

They have a Coca-Cola band in Orlando and will have Saliva play next week. Suppose they will be all "Balled" up the week after.

We don't like the new commander of the Department of the Philippines, Major General Wright. Picture shows him with his hat strap hanging just below his mouth. He ought to get sixty days for that.

Trotzky predicts a failure of the conference unless the United States uses the heavy hand. Trotzky ought to know something about the heavy hand of the United States and something about failure.

We know what makes the weather here so chilly. United States is taking a hand in the Chile-Peru dispute.

All the world hates a piker. Chicago judge sentenced two men to the pen for ten years for stealing $3.23. The big ones go free.

Those church elders who drank varnish, thinking it was communion wine, are quite incomprehensive to a lot of citizens who drink wood alcohol and fusel oil thinking it's whiskey.

Beauty and the Ballot

Someone who is running for office in Missouri has announced that he's going after the feminine vote by handing out jars of cold cream.

That's what we call flirting with disaster. No man who undertakes to win an election on a platform of wrinkle eradication—and fails to make good—need ever show himself in public again.

And it's in Missouri, too, where they have to be shown! That boy's due for some other kind of jars—besides cold cream ones.

He'd better be pretty sure of the stuff before he starts passing it around. We hope he has a wife or something he can try it out on.

A campaign cigar never won an election and it never lost one. The worst it can do is to cause a decent citizen a half hour's annoyance. But when a woman gets cold cream she expects results.

A man who promises to beautify a city can forget all about it after he gets in office, but a man who promises to beautify a citizenette has got to watch his step.

Standing on a platform of "no wrinkles; no double-chins, and no obesity," he's got to make good; otherwise the dear girls will put a crimp in him, the double-chins will decide they have been double-crossed, and the fat—figuratively speaking—will be in the fire.

Let's not start this business of mixing beauty and politics.

Otherwise we may wind up with a president of the United States who delivers massages instead of messages.

But when that point is passed, volume reduces faster than rates can be increased.

When that occurs, the first impulse of greedy stupidity is to still further increase rates to make up for the reduction in volume. That is exactly what the railroad hotel and dining car managers have done. And now, having been caught in their own trap, they are helpless as a bird in a cage. "How can we reduce rates when we are not making a profit on present rates?" they ask.

A bootblack, if he can't get business at ten cents a shine, cuts it to five. Eventually, if the railroad magnates remain wedded to their delusions, the bootblacks will get able to buy what's left of the road property. Then, perhaps, the experiment of making it possible to patronize railroad hotels and dining cars will be tried.—Lakeland Telegram.

ENTERPRISE ETCHINGS

On Friday evening L. R. Reynolds, of Daytona, the county Y. M. C. A. secretary lectured at the school building under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association, his subject for the evening was "The Rights of a Child." The principal points of his lecture were the rights of a child to (1) a good birth; (2) a normal play life; (3) an education and (4) a normal religious life. It was indeed a profitable lecture and the regret of the association was the weather turned off so cold that so few of the citizens availed themselves of the opportunity of hearing Mr. Reynolds. Mrs. F. A. Rowe and Mrs. L. P. Wilson rendered several musical selections.

W. T. Rencher, of Apopka, Fla., was here Sunday to conduct services in the evening and Dr. Fowles conducted the morning services.

Mr. Wooley, of New Smyrna, and a friend from Palm Beach, were dinner guests of Henry Murray one day last week.

Mr. Calkins, of Virginia, stopped over here on Sunday for a visit with Master A. J. Wade at the Orphanage. A. J. Wade and Guy Oglesbee accompanied him to Sanford in the afternoon.

John W. Padgett left on Sunday for Detroit, Mich., where he will be located for some time.

A. DeBary and family arrived last night and will spend some time at their estate west of Enterprise.

The ferry boat "Sanford" has changed schedule in order to give the people from here a more convenient time to be in Sanford. The boat also makes the regular three trips on Sunday.

Mrs. Eunice H. Grey and little daughter of DeLand, are here on a visit with Mrs. Grey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hayman.

The friends of Jewett Horton are glad to see him out again after several days illness.

Mr. Gleason, of Sanford, was here Sunday visiting his daughter, Mary, at the orphanage.

Leon M. Wright returned here to spend the week end with his family.

THE WEATHER AND CROPS

Weather and crop conditions in the county for the week ending January 18, 1922.

Temperature: The week averaged 62.5 degrees, which is about 1.5 degrees below the normal, except in the west and extreme south, where the temperature was generally low from about the 13th to the 15th, the minima being 32 or below as far south as interior parts of Dade County. There was a return to normal as the week progressed.

Condition: Rain occurred during the week, and on the last days of the week, locally heavy in the peninsula where it was of much benefit on the crops. The week's total exceeded normal at several stations, the highest total reported being 2.40 inches at Key West. There was much sunshine during the mid week period.

Cultivation of Crops: Until the middle of the week the weather was colder on the 13th the weather was very favorable for farm work and growth of all truck; shipments of beans, cabbage, celery, lettuce, some tomatoes and other truck were unabated, but the unusually low temperature did serious damage, locally, to truck—some being killed and much cut down. White potatoes in the lower districts. Strawberrybloom was damaged in some localities, and seed cane still standing suffered to some extent. Citrus fruits and trees were not damaged. Oats made fair progress and are in good condition.

ROSE IS AGAIN CHOSEN TO HEAD FLORIDA LEAGUE

Walter W. Rose of Orlando was re-elected president of the Florida State Baseball League at the organization's annual meeting here last night. The vote was five to one, Lakeland opposing the decision. Mr. Rose stated that he wanted two or three days in which to decide if he would accept.

The six clubs which comprised the league in 1921 will all retain their franchises. An application for franchise was received from Miami, but it was refused on the ground that the southern city is situated too far distant from the present members.

April 3 was selected as a tentative opening date of the forthcoming season, but the closing date was not determined.

There was considerable discussion over a proposal of President Rose that the forfeiture bond be raised to $1500 from the present figure of $800. Mr. Rose pointed out that since the forfeiture was intended for use in supporting any club that might become defunct in the course of a season, until its franchise could be disposed of, the amount should be sufficient to guarantee the carrying out of this purpose. No action was taken, however on this proposal.

Heads of the various clubs agreed to keep strictly within the salary limit of $2400 per month for players and manager and decided that no profit sharing plan under which either players or manager would receive a share of the club's receipts would be allowed.

The following representatives were present at the meeting:

Marcus Conant, Jacksonville, E. H. Armstrong, Daytona, S. B. Denton, Tampa, C. Henley, Lakeland, Rod Carroll, St. Petersburg, and Franklin O. King, Orlando. Orlando Sentinel.

THE MEN'S CLUB OF THE HOLY CROSS PARISH DEFEATED THE ROTARY CLUB

The Men's Club of the Holy Parish defeated the Rotary Club in the first match of the season last night at the Parish House alleys by the margin of 170 points. The Rotary boys show a lack of practice but with a little more bowling this club will make some of the others in the league sit up and take notice.

With such players as George W. Knight, Judge Housholder, Charlie Britt and Charlie Henry and Bob Holly, Joe Ball and Sid Chase as substitutes, this team is bound to win some games.

It was rumored last night that Archie Betts had sold out for a fabulous sum to the Rotary Club and judging from his score there may be some truth in this.

Below is the line-up and score:

THE GREATEST PICTURE OF THE AGES COMING

TO THE STAR THEATRE TOMORROW AND SATURDAY "THE BIRTH OF A NATION"

"The Birth of a Nation," D. W. Griffith's message spectacle is coming to the Star Theatre Friday and Saturday of this week and is the largest and most important production of the decade, yet not a word is spoken throughout the performance of nearly three hours. Music supplies the absence of speech, mechanical effects and realism, whilst the wizard of the screen, David W. Griffith, unfolds in 12,000 feet of film the thrilling romance of the War between the states and the reconstruction of the Southland. Some idea of its magnitude may be had from the fact that 18,000 actors and 3,000 horses took part and that the staging of this great "outdoor" drama cost half a million dollars.

Several of the actors are of Southern lineage. Henry Walthall, who plays the heroic role of the little Confederate Colonel, is a member of the well-known Walthall family of Alabama. Miriam Cooper, who appears as Margaret Cameron, is a direct descendant of Charles Carroll, the Maryland signer of the Declaration of Independence. Mr. Griffith is the son of a Brigadier General of the Confederate army.

For every character, however small, Mr. Griffith has found just the personality needed. After that his masterly direction made each one give a perfect characterization of the widely varying roles. The result was not acting but life itself. Such realism is never seen on the old-fashioned stage. The limitations of the theatre was swept away for nature was Mr. Griffith's stage.

DEATHS

DEATH OF J. N. NEELEY

Word was received here today of the death of J. N. Neeley, at Ocala. Mr. Neeley's death was not unexpected as he has been hovering between life and death for many weeks having been ill here and while attending a meeting in Atlanta taking a bad spell of sickness necessitating his removal to the old home at Ocala where he has been ever since. No details of the funeral have been learned as the family are at Ocala. Mr. Neeley was well known here where he resided so many years and was in the life insurance business. He was a devout

Christian and member of the Presbyterian church. He leaves a wife, two daughters, and one son to mourn the loss of husband and father. The sympathy of the many friends is extended to them in their hour of sorrow.
