ROOSEVELT HAS HOPE RIFT HAS ENDED WITH AL

Looks To His Address
In St. Paul As Writing Last Chapter To Their Recent Rows

ST. PAUL, Apr. 19.—(A.P.)— Hope for the re-establishment of peaceful relationship with Alfred Smith was expressed today by Governor Roosevelt, New York, as he started homeward after his first address in the Middle West since he became a formal candidate for the Democratic nomination for president.

In his address, a reply to references to Smith's recent attack at the Jefferson Day dinner, will be the final chapter in the recent estrange between the two men who for many years were close political friends, the governor hoped.

In his address, which the governor frankly labelled privately as "my answer to Smith," the New York executive referred only once directly to the standard-bearer of the Democratic party in 1928, and then in a complimentary manner. But he defended his address of two weeks ago which Smith attacked at Washington last Thursday as "setting class against class and rich against poor," in detail and in one particular took pains to assure clarity.

"I am pleading," Governor Roosevelt said in doing this, for a policy broad enough to include every part of our economic structure. A policy that seeks to help all simultaneously, that shows no discrimination of the fact that here are millions of our people who can not be helped by merely helping their employers because they are not employed in the strict sense of the word—the farmers, the small business man, the professional people."

"Help for them means a greater consumption out of luxuries but of the necessities of life and this means more factory wheels turning in the cities, more employment for the strictly industrial population, for the railroad worker and for the distributor. That kind of buying power makes itself felt much quickly than any other."

Governor Smith in his Jefferson day address said: "I protest against the endeavor to delude the poor people of this country to their ruin by trying to make them believe they can get employment before the people who would ordinarily employ them are again restored to conditions of normal prosperity."

Proceeding with enlargement of his original theme, Governor Roosevelt asserted that "not only among the sections of this country, but among its economic units there must be common participation, planned on the basis of a shared common life. In much of our present plans there is too much disposition to mistake the part for the whole, the head for the body. I plead not for a class control but for a true concert of interests."

Much of his address, made at a delayed observation of Jefferson day, the governor devoted to outlining his position on national water power and to a recommendation that in his opinion a proper tariff policy "must be a complete reversal of the methods of the present administration."

He enlarged Jefferson as having had "an appreciation of the universality of interest" provided by the population of the nation. This, Governor Roosevelt said, was likewise "the vision before Benjamin Franklin, Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt and Andrew Jackson."

On water power, the governor repeated previous declarations that "it is a problem national in its scope and can be solved only by the firm establishment of national control."

"The same broad national view must direct our dealing with the tariff," Governor Roosevelt said. "The Republican administration has greatly intensified the depression by its tariff policy. The Hawley-Smith tariff law of 1929 was a dead weight on the tariff upward. The measures were political favors. The high schedules caused European nations to raise their own tariff walls. The result has been the value of goods exchanged internationally in the

England Takes Hope As Business Jumps

LONDON, Apr. 19.—(A.P.)— Revival of trade and employment in the past few months gives Great Britain reason to hope that the worst of her economic depression is over. Chancellor Chamberlain, of the Exchequer, told Parliament today. He expressed this hope in his budget speech in the House of Commons.

ENFORCEMENT OF LIQUOR LAW TO GET MILLION CUT

Johnson Proposal To Slash $5,000,000.00 Defeated 42 To 17

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—(A.P.)—The Senate yesterday almost unanimously approved a million dollar cut in the $11,000,000 prohibition fund but the prohibitors rallied to overwhelm two proposals for deeper reductions.

Senator Johnson, Republican, California, stirred up the first prohibition battle of the session with a proposal to cut the enforcement fund to $5,000,000 "in the interest of economy." Dry leaders defeated the motion, 42 to 17.

Senator Tydings, Democrat, Maryland, then moved a two million dollar reduction. This was defeated, 43 to 18.

The million dollar slash then was approved with two opposing votes. Costigan, Democrat, Collier, and Howell, Republican, Nebraska.

"We must face the reality," Johnson told the Senate, "and we all know the kind of prohibition enforcement we get today can be obtained in ample quantity for $5,000,000. This cut will make

Bonus Counter Plan Is Offered By Solon

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—(A.P.)—National unemployment insurance was offered today by Representative LaGuardia, Republican, New York, as a counter proposal to the cash payment of the two billion dollar soldier bonus.

LaGuardia, himself, a veteran, aired his views as opposed to full payment of the bonus before the House Ways and Means Committee. Under his plan an unemployment commission would be created to maintain an unemployment insurance fund by a welfare tax on employers and employees including a special tax on all incomes.

The Bingham bill to legalize four percent beer was adversely reported by the Senate Finance Committee by a vote of seven to four. The Inland Oil Producers protested before the Senate Finance Committee a proposed eight percent pipeline tax saying it will "put many out of business."

Carload Of Farm Board Wheat Has Been Ordered By Local Red Cross

Some time within 60 days, needy families of this county will be supplied with free flour made from surplus wheat over the nation, and turned over to the National Red Cross council by the Federal Farm Board, under authority of the Congress of the United States.

This announcement was made today by Mrs. S. O. Chase, Jr., chairman of the Seminole County Chapter of the Red Cross, just after she had ordered a solid car load of flour.

The order was based on a thorough survey of the county and its conditions, and to accord with an official ruling that "the maximum quantity of flour that may be requested as an initial shipment is a supply sufficient to cover the needs of the needy and distressed people" for a period not exceeding 60 days from the date of application.

At the same time, Mrs. Chase announced she had written the following letter to all civic clubs, churches, and other organizations for a very early reply:

FLETCHER HAS BILL TO MAKE DOLLAR STABLE

Urge Expansion Of Credit And Stabilization Of Dollar On Basis Of '26 Value

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—(A.P.)—A bill to erect the Federal Reserve Board to stabilize the dollar on a basis of its 1926 value was introduced today by Senator Fletcher, of Florida. He called attention in House hearings on a similar bill by Representative Goldsborough, Maryland. "It is well to define a national policy and make it the duty of government agencies to carry it out," Fletcher said, urging expansion of credit and stabilization of the dollar.

Immediate retirement from the Navy of the airship Los Angeles was recommended in report to the House by the appropriations committee, it said that since the new Akron, sister ship of the Akron, will be completed by January, the Los Angeles should be decommissioned permanently. A closely packed supply bill providing $25,340,000 for naval establishment in the coming fiscal year also was reported. The bill was $1,000,000 below the budget estimate recommended by the President.

Congress adjourned yesterday and left at government cost after laying the groundwork for further cuts from the budget estimated to be made by President Hoover for 1933.

In its thus far successful drive to reduce annual supply bills it had 10 percent to help balance the budget, the Senate received strong support in the Democratic House led by Speaker Garner.

It then passed a resolution to give the President his requested joint commission to find more ways within the department to save money.

Invoking drastic procedure in the House, Speaker Garner succeeded by a vote of 86 to 42 in having that house accept Senate amendments reducing the Interior Department supply bill from $60,160,000 to $45,000,000.

The Texas Democrat announced that the bill was deposited at the White House for President Hoover.

Final Rites Paid To Harry James Tiller

Funeral services for Harry James Tiller, 16, Paula boy who died at the Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital last night after a brief illness, were held at the Sylvan Lake cemetery this afternoon at 4:00 o'clock with the Rev. Wm. P. Brooks, Jr., of the First Baptist Church officiating.

The boy was born in Asheville, N. C., July 27, 1915, but had lived at Paula for several years. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Tiller, a sister, Peggy Marie Tiller, three brothers, Timmy and Williams, of Paula, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Tiller, of Paula.

Frank J. Wideman Visits Sanford To Discuss Candidacy

Frank J. Wideman, West Palm Beach attorney, and a candidate for the office of delegate to the National Democratic convention at Chicago in June, was in Sanford yesterday renewing old acquaintances and discussing his campaign.

Mr. Wideman sees the time as ripe for a change of administration in Washington and declares the United Democratic party can win in the November election.

He is of the opinion that it will get personal victories of candidates for the nomination and other personal distinctions settled before the convention opens, however.

"In my opinion the convention should nominate the strongest candidate, a top concise platform language that can be understood with skill with ability to win in the general election. Also, he has shown far greater strength than the others. If elected as delegate, I shall support and vote for Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Mr. Wideman was the first man to announce for delegate to the convention, having declared his intention on Feb. 16. He was born in Alachua County, attended the public schools and the Academic and Law departments of Stetson University and the Law School of the University of Michigan.

He served from the beginning to the end of the war in the Army and now holds commission as major in the Reserve Corps. He has been active and held various offices in the American Legion. From 1920 to 1924 he served as State Attorney of the Fourth Judicial Circuit.

He is a member of various Masonic bodies and of Moose Temple of the Shrine, and resides at West Palm Beach as a member of the law firm of Wideman, Wideman and Wardlaw.

Contact With Kidnappers Not Made Yet, Says Lindy In Appeal For Secrecy

SENATOR HARRIS NOTED GEORGIAN DIES OF ILLNESS

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—(A.P.)— Death ends long political career that began in work as a secretary to the late Senator A. S. Clay and led him up to a Senator in his own right ended in the death yesterday of William J. Harris, of Georgia.

His heart weakened by the long strain of several weeks of illness from a bladder ailment and intestinal trouble failed him yesterday afternoon with his immediate family at his bedside. He was 64.

Word spread quickly through the Senate and in a few minutes that chamber adjourned as a token of respect. Entitles were quick in coming from leaders of both parties, while his colleague, Senator George, termed his death "a great loss to the people of Georgia and of the country."

Meanwhile, Governor Russell in Atlanta prepared to fill the vacant seat by appointment to hold until the general election in November.

Congress adjourned a sharp economy act yesterday and slacked right and left at government cost, after laying the groundwork for further cuts from the budget estimated to be made by President Hoover for 1933.

In its thus far successful drive to reduce annual supply bills it had 10 percent to help balance the budget, the Senate received strong support in the Democratic House led by Speaker Garner.

SHORT SELLING DEFENDED BY HEAD OF MART

Says Exchange Would Have Had To Close If Operations Had Not Been Permitted

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19.—(A.P.)— Testimony that the New York stock market would have been forced to close when Englehardt went off the gold standard if short selling had not been prohibited temporarily was given to the Senate Banking Committee yesterday by Richard Whitney, president of the Exchange.

"We are extremely anxious to re-establish contact with the kidnappers that began in work as a secretary to the late Senator A. S. Clay and led him up to a Senator in his own right ended in the death yesterday of William J. Harris, of Georgia.

NORTH CAROLINA JOINS KANSAS IN DIGEST'S VOTING AFFAIRS IS BEGUN

Tar Heel State Votes Dry By Majority Of 81 Votes To Date

North Carolina joins Kansas in voting an outright majority for continuance of the Eighteenth Amendment in the semi-final returns of The Literary Digest's nation-wide Prohibition Poll as announced tomorrow in issue of the magazine.

North Carolina goes bone dry by a majority of 81 votes out of 6,463 reported returns from the "Tar Heel" state and in Kansas, the drys have a lead of 573 votes from a total of 7,778 polled.

A total of 4,229,416 ballots are reported in the semi-final returns of which 1,127,287, or 26.27 per cent, vote for continuance of the Prohibition Amendment and 3,192,129, or 73.72 per cent, register their sentiments in favor of repeal.

The dry vote shows a seventh consecutive gain during the poll rising from 15.85 per cent of the total vote of the initial returns in this "straw" referendum.

Nevada casts a vote of over 7 to 3 wet.

The returns from Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York and New Jersey show a majority of over 8 to 1 for repeal in each of these states.

Illinois, Louisiana and Montana each show a sentiment of more than 4 to 1 wet.

Nine other states are voting better than 3 to 1 for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and 16 more states show a vote of 2 to 1 or more wet making a total of 33 out of the 48 states in which the wet vote is more than double the dry vote.

The District of Columbia is polling a vote for repeal of more than 14 to 1 over that for continuance.

The geographical section showing the heaviest wet vote is the Middle Atlantic states of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania which show a combined percentage of 80.73 for repeal and the driest section of states is the East South Central group of Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, and Mississippi where the combined dry vote is 40.77 per cent of the total for the four states.

The states nearest approximating a dry majority include Tennessee with 48.88 per cent of its ballots for continuance; Arkansas with 47.54 per cent for continuance; and Oklahoma with 45.23 per cent of its total vote dry.

Newspaper check-up polls conducted independently in several sections of the country show a close parallel of The Literary Digest return in each given locality. Magazine announcements.

"Once more out of a clear sky," The Literary Digest will state in its issue tomorrow, "emerges a wide-spread demand of facts to vindicate the 20,000,000 ballot referendum."

"Facta all the more impressive because not always, perhaps, from approving sources.

In some cases, for instance, they have been gathered by newspapermen in politically dry territory publications of The Literary Digest itself.

Local polls, launched by such newspapers in different parts of the country, have been going on for days, hours for weeks, but results to date have been a striking corroboration of our poll figures.

"In no case has a local poll recovered a dry majority where The Digest sets down a wet one. All are wet so far and the degree of wetness corresponds remarkably with those indicated in The Digest's tabulations."

"In some cases a local poll runs slightly less wet than our poll—9 or 10 per cent."

On the other hand at Richmond, Virginia, the local poll at this writing is about 18 per cent drier than The Digest's figure.

The ninth report in the 1930 Literary Digest poll giving three options on the ballot instead of two showed a total tabulation of 4,000,761 votes of which 3,866,818, or 96.23 per cent, voted for strict enforcement while 1,240,441, or 3.76 per cent, voted for modification to admit light wines and beers, and 1,26,154, or 0.31 per cent, voted in favor of an outright repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

"Disorderly Conduct" At Milane Two Days

Taking characters from real life is a certain way of putting realism into a screen story.

This, according to William Anthony McGuire, noted playwright and screen dramatist, accounts for much of the discussion that has arisen over the gripping story of "Disorderly Conduct," the Fox Film sensation coming to the Mi-

Theatre Wednesday and Thursday with Sally Elers, Spencer Tracy and El Brendel in the leading roles.

"Practically the entire plot of the picture is based on actual happenings," McGuire said recently. "I won't say where it all occurred, because most of the characters involved are still alive, but I was in a position to observe the whole affair, and very little changing was necessary in writing the story for film production."

Rollator REFRIGERATION

THE ROLLATOR • A roller rolls and there's big . . . big . . . Norge refrigeration is as simple as that. It has but three moving parts . . . is almost everlasting.

With new features of convenience and advanced methods of food preservation, Norge today offers even greater value than ever before.

Among the latest Norge advancements are the Icevoir, for making quick and easy-to-remove ice bars, the Watervoir that keeps a gallon of cold water on top, and the Preservo for extra cold storage.

With these and many other original advantages, and with the simple, sturdy, powerful, almost everlasting Rollator mechanism, it is no wonder all who see the new Norge are enthusiastic about Rollator Refrigeration.

Before you invest in Electric Refrigeration, by all means see the Norge.

Norge is manufactured by Norge Corporation, Division of Borg-Warner Corporation, one of the world's largest makers of precision parts, including automobile parts.
