FREE WHEAT IS APPROVED FOR HUNGRY IN U. S.

Agricultural Committee Backs Measure To Donate 20,000,000 Bushels To Charity

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Relief legislation took a new turn in the Senate yesterday as its agricultural committee approved a measure to donate 20,000,000 bushels of farm board wheat to charitable organizations.

The bill would authorize the board to turn over the wheat to any agency selected by President Hoover to supervise the distribution. The farm board revolving fund would be credited with the average cost of the wheat.

Senator Caraway, (D Ark.) characterized the legislation as a direct appropriation of $15,000,000, which he estimated would be the cost of the wheat.

The bill originally provided for the distribution of 40,000,000 bushels, but the farm board reported not more than 20,000,000 could be used. The board's estimate holds more than 100,000,000 bushels as a result of its efforts to stabilize the price.

Senator Capper of Kansas, who introduced the bill, predicted its early approval by the Senate. The Senate committee also acted favorably yesterday on two other relief measures.

One of them, proposed by Senators Smith of South Carolina and George of Georgia, both Democrats, would provide a revolving fund for seed and food loans to farmers in Georgia, Florida, North and South Carolina, and other states.

Dr. McKim, being three subjects to the main theme, developed an address which drew the undivided attention of the large number of members and visitors, and was received with prolonged applause. Dr. McKim said "Rotary's idealism and activities constitute a recognized power in raising the moral and spiritual standard of boyhood through the world; that in casting a sympathetic, helpful service about the boy life of a community may mean the saving of a nation."

Visiting Rotarians included Harry Dickson, Orlando, Andy Evers, Melrose, Mass., Ed Rivers, Crescent City, Fla., Wm. Coulson, Cambridge, Mass., Wm. C. Warner, Newark, N. J., and David C. Howard, Buffalo, N. Y. Rotarian Ed Marshall had as his guest, Frank L. Ferguson, Orlando realtor.

Approximately 90 percent of the motorists purchased 1931 automobile license tags before 15 and as a result, the Vehicle Commission was $200,000 to the state treasury.

Member Of Wickersham's Commission Reveals Plan For Dry Law Modification

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Here is the gist of the plan for modification of the prohibition amendment proposed by Henry W. Anderson, and recommended for consideration by Law Enforcement Commissioners Kenyon, Loesch, Mackintosh, McCormick and Howard.

It is proposed that as soon as practicable, by appropriate action of Congress and of the states, the Eighteenth Amendment be modified or revised as follows:

"The Congress shall have power to regulate or to prohibit the manufacture, traffic in or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof, for beverage purposes.

This modification would bring the amendment into conformity with the traditional principles of our system of government. By conferring power upon Congress, it would give to the amendment the necessary flexibility. The power to prohibit should be given to the state and if the proposed modification is adopted the national prohibition act would continue in force throughout the United States.

POLICE BATTLE RED THROUGS SEEKING DOLE

Arrests, Dousings And Black-Jackings Are Features Of Meets In Heart Of Gotham

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Cops and communists fought again yesterday. It was in the shadow of the city hall where the communists had gone with no demands for a dole.

Some were arrested, some were doused with pails of water. There were instances in which officers and spectators were black-jacked. A mounted policeman was dragged from his horse.

An officer laid a hard punch on the jaw of a newspaper reporter and said: "Put that in your paper."

A woman communist attempted to climb to the safety of the Benjamin statue. Policeman dragged her down. She shouted "Damn you Cocks!" and tried to bite one of them on the leg.

The disorder continued for 20 minutes before mounted officers charged, driving the crowd down Park Row, through the Bowery and under the municipal building where the communists took their stand again. The second fight lasted only a few minutes.

F. G. Wiedemann presented the communists' demands at city hall for unemployment doles, free rent, free food and free clothing for the unemployed.

Charles Kerrigan, assistant to the mayor, explained that present laws made it impossible to accede to the communist demands. Wiedemann said that the laws of self-preservation should supersede man-made law.

A form of dole should be adopted whereby, there shall be appropriated to interest payments on loans and certificates of indebtedness (except for water bonds) a fixed percentage of all moneys received by the city from (Continued on Page 4)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Representative Tinkham announced yesterday he plans to reintroduce before the Senate campaign funds committee his fight to compel Bishop James Cannon, Jr., to explain how he spent $25,000 in the 1928 presidential election.

The Massachusetts Republican said he would renew charges he made before the Senate lobby committee in a speech in the House and to the attorney general.

Tinkham's principal point of criticism of Bishop Cannon has been the latter's refusal to account for $25,000 contributed by anti-South Democrats during the presidential election. He has accused the bishop of a "shameless violation of the corrupt practices act."

Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 9:00 o'clock at the All Souls Catholic Church, with the Rev. J. McInerney officiating. The body will be taken to Louisville, Ky. Mr. Lake's former home, where burial will be made.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Emma Lake, of Lake Montross; his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Lake, four children, Mrs. Thelma McMurray, Katherine Lake, Bernard Lake, and Doris Lake, all of Sanford; one sister, Mrs. Thomas Coxon, of Madison, Wis., and one brother, Harry Lake, Louisville, Ky.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The growing tumult of discussion, debate and speculation over the Wickersham prohibition report centered today around two salient queries: How far did the commission mean to go toward recommending a revision of the Eighteenth Amendment and what will be the political effect of President Hoover's opposition to such a step?

So aroused were commission members over reports that the President had intervened to forestall an unequivocal modification of the proposal that the following statement was issued by Chairman Wickersham: "The statement issued this morning in the Washington Herald that the President intervened this commission to abandon a tentative recommendation in favor of revision of the Eighteenth Amendment is absolutely untrue and without foundation."

Neither the chairman nor any member of the commission was willing to tell the full story of the weeks of discussion within the commission or to explain how or when the decision against outward revision of the proposal was reached.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Max Schmeling, German boxer, called for New York today aboard the Europa. Commission Urges Public To Co-operate In Carrying Out Details Of Agreement

Immediately following the meeting this afternoon, Mayor Dumas gave to The Herald the following statement, prepared by the City Commission as a whole and concurred in by Kenneth M. Kerfs, chairman of the Bondholders' Protective Committee, and C. A. Mitchell, a member of that committee:

The agreement reached between the members of the Bondholders' Protective Committee and the City Commissioners this morning is of unquestionable value to every citizen and taxpayer of this community.

Necessarily, points were considered by the Commission and certain points to the City. The meeting was most harmonious, and all the Commissioners expressed themselves as being satisfied that the final outcome will set at rest all misunderstandings and doubts which may have existed in the minds of (Continued on page four)

Modification Of Supreme Court's Mandamus Seen As Result Of Agreement

Climaxing a series of conferences between the City Commission and the Bondholders' Protective Committee, which began with the issuance of a writ of mandamus by the Supreme Court ordering the levy of approximately 100 mills in taxes, agreement was reached in the City Hall this afternoon which sets the tax rate at 80 for the fiscal year of 1930-31, with its possible extension for another year and terminates the suits which the city instituted in federal court some time ago by the Commission.

The 16-point plan adopted yesterday is substantially the same as the 18-point plan published in the Herald with the caption of Point No. 4 which provides that the $25,000 fund may be retained by the City until its payment can be made without jeopardizing operating funds and Point No. 7 providing that the Commission will do what is toward the passing of legislation enforcing tax collection.

Point No. 15 providing that year's arrangement will be extended over next year if the legislation is passed. Point No. 12 and 18 were amended entirely, and Points No. 8 and 11 were changed but slightly.

The City's special counsel, D. Landis, together with T. J. Dumas, acted as legal advisers for the city in the matter.

The main points under discussion centered upon the willingness of the Commission to agree to the City's proposal concerning the repayment of the "loan" of approximately $72,000 which has been made from the 1930 surplus to operate the City, and the Commission's proposition concerning the passage of legislation which provides for a change in the method of enforcing tax collections.

Point No. 4 in the Commission's 18-point proposal was concerned with certain funds which the City had used and would be allowed to use for operating expenses.

Miller alleged that Mix had agreed to travel with his ranch shows on the circuit circuit in 1931, but had failed to fulfill his agreement, had libeled him in public by denying the tentative contract, and had thus damaged Miller's reputation as a showman in the sum of $25,000.

The crux of the libel action was based on an alleged interview given by Mix in Arkansas City, Kansas, in which he was quoted as saying:

"I never considered going with the 101 show. That was just a nightmare of each."

Chancellor Cutler, in denying the suit, held that these words did not constitute libel.

The chancellor dismissed a cross bill filed by Mix alleging he had been damaged in the extent of $150,000 by Miller's published statements.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Thomas A. Edison was in the opinion of the showmen impossible to return whatever surplus general revenue fund that is in the hands of the City.

LETTERS SEEN AS POSSIBLE CLUE IN JOHNSON KILLING

TAMPA, Jan. 21.—A batch of letters, the nature of which was not revealed, fell yesterday into the hands of Sheriff Johnson and led to the belief that they might point to the identity of the assassin who shot down Joe B. Johnson, Tampa business man, Sunday night.

After reading them closely, the sheriff said his men to bring in a number of persons for questioning, and then detailed a deputy to make a search elsewhere for the letters. Ford advised in which the assassin escaped from the rear of the Central apartment as Johnson's assailant, was calling attention for help.

So convinced that he was on the right trail, Johnson early in the day offered a personal reward of $500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the assassin.

Mr. Green said he submitted a report to the sheriff and that the Sheriff Cotton Company had made no response to the plan.

"They assume the attitude that there is nothing to be done," Mr. Green said. "They insist on the workers making an unconditional surrender. This is unjust and unfair. For that reason the strikers have determined to continue the strike until a fair proposal of arbitration is accepted by the management of the corporation."

Mr. Green said there was need of help and assistance for the strikers.

ARBITRATION OF VIRGINIA STRIKE URGED BY A. F. L.

MIAMI, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The executive council of the American Federation of Labor yesterday issued an appeal to the management of the Dan River Cotton Company Danville, Va., to accept arbitration as a means of settlement of the strike situation prevailing there.

William Green, president of the federation, explaining the action of the council in executive session said the strike had been in effect for 10 weeks with more than 4000 workers and their families involuntarily unemployed.

Mr. Green said he submitted a report to the sheriff and that the Sheriff Cotton Company had made no response to the plan.

Difficulties Told In Bringing About Disarmament In Air

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The difficulties standing in the way of an effective agreement for airplane disarmament were outlined yesterday by the 600 women conferring here on the cause and cure of war.

All the Hague rules against aerial bombardment, he said, are as yet not ratified by enough nations to make them effective.

He pronounced "of almost greater" the possibility of civil airships as a means of putting military armaments. Yet the new rules worked out in three years study by an international commission on this subject, he said, "broke down of their own weight."

Cost Of Living Shows Decrease Over 1930

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The cost of living in representative cities of the United States in December was estimated by the labor department today to have been 8.5 percent lower than during the same month last year.

A composite calculation dealing with all items consumed by the average family showed decreases in food prices, the most notable being in more than 7 percent for eggs, while house furnishings and clothing came down 10 percent.

KEARNS DESERTS IDEA OF SHARKEY, WALKER BATTLE

Money Stipulation Is Snag Met In Negotiations For Fight

By DAMON RUNYON

MIAMI, Jan. 20.—After several days of hard speech, and furious posturing, the ubiquitous Dr. J. Leo McKernan, otherwise Jack Kearns, has shaken the sands of Miami Beach from his sport shoes, and headed north.

He came here to see about a fight between his middleweight champion, Mickey Walker, and Jack Sharkey. The latter had been interrogated about meeting Walker by Mr. G. R. K. Carter, Miami Beach sportsman, and had replied that he would be pleased to take on Mickey for $100,000, the said familiar Sharkey figure.

Mr. Dr. Kearns hastened to Miami to see if he could locate the hundred G's. A mere rumor of half that much will take the doctor to Greenland nowadays, things not being what they used to be. He seemed to have an idea that Mr. Carter might put up the small deposit required by Sharkey, but Mr. Carter quickly abandoned the doctor's idea on that thought.

Mr. Carter has a nice dog track on Miami Beach built by himself and the late George Tex Rickard. It was Mr. Carter, in fact, who first brought Rickard into Florida. Mr. Carter told the doctor that the dog track was at his disposal, and that the doctor could go ahead and promote his fight there on practically any terms he desired as far as Mr. Carter was concerned, but as for putting up a hundred G's, or any part thereof—well, no, not this week, anyway.

When it dawned on the doctor that there was an impression that he might put up the money himself, he shuddered slightly, and complained of the cold, although it was very warm. Then he grabbed his hat, and a train almost simultaneously, and fled, chattering to himself as he departed. He said he was going to Chicago. He said he has been informed that South Bend, Ind., bunch that once gave Ol' Har' Willis, the brown panther of New Orleans, $50,000 as evidence of good faith when he was trying to promote a Dempsey-Willis fight, will put up the hundred G's, for Sharkey and Mickey, the Sharkey-Walker fight in Chicago.

One thing about the doctor, he can always think of something new. He mutters something about the possibility of his return to Miami with Walker and Johnny Rika, and with Jackie Fields, and Al Fay, and other members of his stable establishment on the same card, but I am inclined to doubt that the doctor will ever again poke his nose into Florida. When you suggest, even in a roundabout way, to the doctor that he put up any money, you practically insult him.

Personally, I would consider Sharkey dead cheap at $100,000 to fight Mickey Walker anywhere in the east, assuming that Kearns would be willing to take a gamble for his end. It is a great match. But you couldn't pay that kind of money for the same match in Florida this season, and I doubt if you could pay it anywhere else, and hope to make any profit.

Survey Made Following Statement of Georgia Tech Coach

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 20.—(AP)—The News Leader, reporting results of a survey, says campus politics, or intervention of fraternities and clubs into election of athletic leaders is a serious matter in only a few Southern colleges and universities.

The survey was conducted following publication of the statement of Coach W. A. Alexander of Georgia Tech in which he attributed decadence of sports at the Atlanta institution to campus politics.

A few schools, principally in Virginia and Georgia, the paper finds, are taking emphatic steps to keep politics out of sports.

Washington and Lee University announced through R. A. Smith, graduate manager of athletics, that no captain of any sport would be elected in the future until the end of the season and at the same time it was disclosed that no captain has been named for basketball or baseball this year.

Mr. Smith said it had been concluded that captains are unnecessary "due to the fact that the coach can now give different members of the team a chance to assume this responsibility."

"We have had quite a bit of campus politics here in the last couple of years," he said, adding that the action now "takes away from fraternities and clubs" before which they seek rather than the individual.

At the University of Richmond, an instructor told the News Leader in a roundabout way that the election of captain of the football team is now made by the faculty.

At the University of North Carolina, the News Leader learned that the election of captain of the football team is now made by the faculty.

Way, they agreed on one point, however, and that was that the shot was not fired with robbery as a motive. Putting little bits of information together, they also agreed that Johnson was shot by a man with a vicious personal grudge.

Some after he was taken to the hospital, Johnson, in full possession of his faculties, was questioned closely by Dr. W. J. Lancaster, his physician and friend, who wanted to know if he had any idea as to who might have shot him or why.

In a weak voice, Johnson replied: "I haven't the slightest idea. I never saw the man before. He was medium tall and chunky."

Again the physician probed his patient closely. Dr. Lancaster was satisfied that Johnson did not know who shot him and seemed to be wondering as he lay there, why he was being asked any questions at all, or why he was being asked if he had any idea as to who might have shot him or why.

Chairman Nye of the Campaign Funds Investigating Committee said last night he would make no further investigation until specific complaints or charges are made to the committee.

Nye moved yesterday to block any destruction of ballots cast in the late Senatorial race in Alabama where his committee is preparing to investigate. HUTCHINSON SAYS BIG GOLF BALL IS JUST ABOUT O. K.

Sees No Difference At All In Sphere's Actions Upon Greens

By REX SAFFER

MIAMI, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Take it from an old timer who learned his golf in the high winds on the other side of the ocean, the new large ball is "just about right."

The old timer is Jack Hutchinson, sporting the Winter slinks of the Nassau County Club for the eighth year, but known more familiarly to the sisters of the Winter golf caravan as the "perennial runner-up" of Florida tournaments.

Jack talked about the new golf ball, its game, and golf in general before he started from here to take up the work that he alternates with his Chicago job as professional. He has been at the Glenview Club there for 17 years.

"You might think the new ball would worry some of us older golfers," the Jack said. "Well, it doesn't. You see we learned to use our wood and long iron clubs in the face of high winds in Scotland and England. Naturally we learned to use a flat swing that sent the ball skimming just barely over the grass tops."

The Hutch has always made his fairways shots after this manner. Now, he said, he finds his style of swing an advantage in putting distance behind the large balls in the face of a high wind.

"How much difference do you find on the green between the old and the new ball?" the interviewer asked.

"None at all, and the less said about my tournament putting this year, the better," the Scot declared flatly.

He was asked if he thinks his game is up to a standard this year.

"I can't tell yet. I won second place in the Miami open so many times the boys began to call me a perennial runner-up. Then this year, I dropped into third place in the Miami open and a tie for third in the Fort Lauderdale open," Hutchinson responded.

"If there's anything in the feel of your game, though, mine ought to be right pretty shortly."

The Hutch gets along well on the fairway and on his approach shots, he said, but he allowed earlier comment to stand for his opinion of his putts.

He will return briefly to American soil in March for competition in the international ball matches at Miami and the $15,000 La Gorce open at Miami Beach. He said he wouldn't try to make the Persacola open.

FESLER EXPECTS GRID EXPERIENCE TO BE BIG HELP

Believes Football Is Incentive To Study For Higher Marks

COLUMBIA, Ohio, Jan. 20.—(AP)—When he leaves school after completing a commerce course and goes into business, Walter Fesler, all-American football player at Ohio State university, expects his football training to help him a lot in meeting the problems of life.

Fesler has found football an incentive study. He modestly admitted that he had "made" all his work at Ohio State. He confessed further that his general average in class work was a "little above B," which means that he is just a shade below the highest average obtainable in scholastic endeavors.

"What if I hadn't studied and made good grades?" he asked. "Folks would say 'now there's Fesler, for example, how a football player—be omitted the adjectives good, excellent, outstanding, any of which might apply to a student who doesn't study.'"

Football he's falling down in his classwork, I'd rather they wouldn't say that, so I've found that I can play football, basketball and baseball and still keep up in my classes.

"Why," he continued, "I believe that my football training gave me the will-power to get good grades in my classes. As soon as you find it is easy to accomplish the really hard things football aspects of you, it's not hard to buckle down and get the most out of studies."

Fesler doesn't appeal to Was as a business. He has scouted all suggestions that he turn professional.

"I don't want to coach," he said. "That is, I don't care for coaching as a life work. I expect to go into business as soon as I finish school, and I'm going to stay right here in Columbus."

However, he expects to serve in an assistant coaching capacity for his alma mater next fall, while he is finishing his course in the college of commerce, to which he switched after starting engineering.

Auction Of Planes Monday Results In Bargain Purchase

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., Jan. 20.—(AP)—It was bargain day in airplanes and accessories here yesterday when the holdings of Charles A. Levine, mining aviator enthusiast and first transatlantic air passenger, were sold to the highest bidder to satisfy a rent claim.

The highest bidder was Paul Ollierpe, an employee of Roosevelt Field, who obtained three airplanes and equipment said to have cost approximately $325,000 on his bid of $3,000.

The sale was held by Roosevelt Field, Inc., which had the property seized by the sheriff on the claim that Levine owed $3,200 for 12 months' larger rent.

Individual bids were first obtained from the small group which had assembled, but those brought only $750 for the all-metal monoplanes "Jackie Bee," which Levine had built at a cost of $250,000 for a projected flight around the world, and $200 each for two biplanes.

In accordance with the law, the purchaser then called for bids on the other two airplanes and accessories. The highest bid was $2,000 for the biplane and $1,000 for the accessories.

He Was Almost A Nervous Wreck

My nervous system was almost a total wreck before I took Sargon," declared Nicolas Fernandez, 2301 5th ave., Tampa.

The stomach was terribly acid and every time I ate I'd suffer with mental trembling, spells and heart palpitation. I also had severe headaches and a pain in my right side. Sargon cured these troubles completely and I feel strong and full of energy all the time now. The Sargon Pills did their part by getting rid of the chronic acid of my stomach. My whole system is in fine condition. Sold by Sargon Drug Store.

tion of the Robinson-Black proposal until February 5. This was ruled out of order on a point raised by Senator Norris (R. Neb.). Reed then moved to make the funds available only if the Red Cross failed to reach its goal. This was rejected 53 to 30.

The issue will now be up to the House and Republican leaders there were dubious of ability to uphold the hand of the President. They are looking for compromise.

Speaker Longworth said a compromise had been suggested to permit the government to match on a 50-50 basis the amount contributed to the Red Cross by individuals.

He said it might be possible to authorize $25,000,000, the treasury to furnish $12,500,000.

When the House voted upon the $15,000,000 Senate proposal for human food on the fourth day, Mr. Reed said, it had not been admitted that such a distinction would be made. He added that many members who had opposed an earlier vote had now changed their minds and were even might support the present plan.

Senator Robinson has warned he is willing to kill the Interior department appropriation bill, in which the fund for the Red Cross was included, if necessary to obtain action by Congress. This would force an extra session.

The Senate vote yesterday showed a wide agreement in principle, a vote were taken, but the House can leaders believed if that session were protracted they could weaken them.

The appropriation passed part of 20 Republican members, Democratic Majority in House, the majority being the House of Representatives. The Senate vote was 53 to 30.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The government has filed an appeal from Judge Clark's ruling on the constitutionality of the Eighteenth Amendment, the government yesterday filed with the Supreme Court its appeal from the decision of Judge Clark of New York in holding the amendment invalid.

He is not associated with the case for William H. Sprague, whose truck load of beer began the controversy, but was permitted to file the brief.

Solicitors General Thayer will present the government's contention. It will not need that much time. The government is confident the court will sustain its position.
