Now Hear This!

By JACKY FENWICK

Sorry I've been so sporadic about the hours for the swimming pool, but it's the way I receive the information myself, and I've been trying to get it into the paper as soon as possible. Consequently, I report one thing and the next day I discover it is not the complete story. The "word" now is that for the time being, when the pool opens today, it will be for the week-ends only, which means for the men only! If you will recall, that's one thing I did report, and kept straight!

Want to extend our congratulations to LTJG. Gerald Ryman, and LTJG. Dean Ortman, upon being named the youngest plane commanders in the Heavy Attack Program at S. N. A. S. Both men are pilots in V. A. H. 5, which makes them "Savage Sons" also. Perhaps this item means a little more to me than to some others, because there's something special about both of them. We've known Jerry longer than we've known just about anyone in "5", since my husband went through "N" school with him, in Norfolk, Virginia. And as of right now, Mr. Ortman is my husband's plane commander. Both of them are married, and we can well imagine how very proud their wives must be.

Thought I'd put this item in, even though my information, at present, is limited to the date, but the Medical Dept. of S. N. A. S. will be having a party on March 20. Those of you involved can look into this, and I'd appreciate any more details you can find out about it.

The "Chief's Club" will also be having a St. Patrick's Day Dance tonight. Sorry I wasn't informed about this sooner, so I could have let everyone know with a little more time to round up "babysitters", etc., but I can only write it when I get it!

Mrs. Rosemary Finnegan and Mrs. Betty O'Conner were co-hostesses, Wednesday Evening, at Mrs. Finnegan's home on W. 18th Street, for a Canasta Party. The guests, in addition to Mrs. Finnegan and Mrs. O'Conner, were Mrs. Irene Dulek, Mrs. Doris Shortland, Mrs. Adele Hietman, Mrs. Jimi Gold, Mrs. Joyce Williams, and yours truly. Contrary to what might be expected, we were all concentrating so hard on the card games that we hardly had any time to gossip! Winners for the evening were Mrs. O'Conner and Mrs. Shortland. Their prizes were adorable sugar and creamer sets, with matching salt and pepper shakers. Mrs. Dulek and Mrs. Hietman took the prizes for the low score, which were a set of matching vases. Rosemary served the most delicious home-made pound cake I've ever eaten. Someday, if I ever work up the courage to risk 10 eggs in a cake, I'm going to try and make one!

The enlisted wives of V. A. H. 7 had a meeting last Monday night at the U. S. O. Twenty-seven girls turned out for this meeting, much to the pleasant surprise of all concerned. Cdr. Blaine Libbey, commanding officer of V. A. H. 7, spoke to those present about past and present deployments. There were several guests attending, including Mrs. Dee Tapp, Mrs. Power, Mrs. Merriman Pulver, and Mrs. William G. Pulver. Quite a few new members joined up at the last meeting. They were as follows: Mrs. Frances Jones, Mrs. Nanette Jones, Mrs. Barbara Sowell, Mrs. Arlene Guernsey, Mrs. Margaret Rook, Mrs. Edna Collins, Mrs. Mary Carsons, Elizabeth Chinn, and Mrs. Edna Walsonski. I've been asked to include my phone number each day, so I will, gladly, if it means more news! The number is 1766-R.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Cunningham entertained with a dinner recently at their home in celebration of their daughter, Mrs. Ernest Denby, (Louise) of Oklawaha, birthday and honoring also Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ford, newlyweds of DeLand.

Guests enjoying this celebration were Mrs. F. M. Ford, Miss Emma Ford and Barbara Veach, Dr. and Mrs. Landon Smith and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ford of DeLand, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Hayman and Mrs. Norton of Orange City, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Ford of Orlando, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Denby of Oklawaha, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hayman, Miss Sylvia Hayman and Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, Ed Cunningham Jr., and Jean Marie Cunningham.

Robert Sellers celebrated his 10th birthday with the members of his cub scout den being special guests at a party given by his mother, Mrs. Kirby Sellers.

Games and contests were enjoyed, following the regular den meeting also, at his home. By the following guests, Dick Duvall, Danny Braddock, Corky Stowell, Ernest Watson, Howard Henderson, Johnny Brevette, Johnny Tatum and Happy Carlton.

Refreshments of cake, punch and ice cream were served late in the afternoon. The birthday cake was made by his mother in the shape of a ship, even with the sails and decorated beautifully for the occasion. Mrs. C. A. Henderson and Don Stowell assisted in caring for the guests.

Miss Carol Reale was the guest of honor at a surprise birthday party and wiener roast given by a group of teenagers at the Florida power clubhouse. Following the wiener roast dancing and games were enjoyed by the group.

Mrs. Grace Reale and Mrs. Aletha Evans chaperoned the group. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hiller and daughter Susan attended the program given by the Tarpon Club at the Women's Gym at Florida University, Tallahassee, Feb. 9, in which their daughter Miss Audrey Hiller took a very active part. One of the numbers, "When You Wish Upon a Star" was written and directed by her and she sang in two other numbers. Congratulations Audrey on your very fine work.

Marie Braddam runner up, entered the county-wide spelling contest, Wednesday evening at the Wisconsin Ave. School, sponsored by the Miami Herald. We are proud of our girls in the spelling contest.

It permits defending fighters to knock off the fastest enemy bomber, even miles away. At top, right, a Navy F4H-2N demon jet fighter, carries the "Sidewinder" beneath its fuselage. (1) The missile is launched and streaks for its target, 3,000 yards away (2) and (3) there's a bright flash as the weapon goes directly to its (drone) Helicot target. It is expected to revolutionize U.S. air defense. At bottom, right, a Navy cougar jet delivers a bomb in a specially-devised "over-the-shoulder" technique above the test range at China Lake, Calif. Plane and weapon are shown in climb just after the weapon's delivery technique used for the impact of high explosive bombs including the atomic warhead. The low approach is employed to avoid the radar net, and the release technique is used to escape the blast area.

In Case You Don't Know

Don't Go Scraping Along

Don't you hate it when food you're frying sticks maliciously to the pan? It's not greasing, says Crisco Kitchens. It's an annoyance easy to avoid. You just haven't used enough shortening. Remember that diagnosis next time and use enough Crisco so that when it's melted it covers the bottom of the pan. No more sticking!

Here's a Helpful Tip On Browning and Crisping

If your foods don't brown or are not crisp, it means your shortening was too cold when the food was added, says Crisco Kitchens. Make sure Crisco is thoroughly heated, but not smoking before adding food. Start with enough to do the cooking job. Cold shortening added after the cooking starts will prevent food from crisping.

Imagination Tastes Good, Too

It may sound high falutin', but you've a perfect right to consider yourself a creative artist when you're planning a meal... we are an artist's regard for color, shape and texture, as well as taste. Foods should look good as well as taste good to keep us mortals happy.

So, unleash your imagination. Be adventurous about your dishes and table linens. Kitchen bowls, if they're pretty, can come proudly to the table. Place mats or table cloths can be of bright gingham, denim or other washable material. Don't be afraid of the unconventional. It's fun to be traditional at times. And yet at times it's also fun to flout tradition!

Are You A Frosting Splatterer?

Some cake makers, even those who've been at it for years, leave a kitchen looking as if the plasterers had just been in. Others do a neat and tidy job of frosting their cakes, thanks to the clever advice of Crisco Kitchens. Here it is:

First, do the job right on the serving plate so you won't get nervous about having to transfer the cake later. Place two strips of wax paper on the serving plate, right angles to each other, and carefully deposit your cake on them. Then go ahead and frost. When you've finished, gently draw out the wax paper. Voilà! Not a bit of frosting to muss the plate.

Novel Bread Is Trump

Times do change! A few years ago no busy young homemaker would dream of taking time out from a busy morning for a little chat with her neighbor over a cup of coffee. Now, however, a late morning lull is a thing of the past. A few hands of bridge thrown in is a growing custom in small towns and cities. "Helps us relax," say these busy young homemakers. "Our husbands have their coffee breaks in the office. We like them too. Bridge? Well, once in a while if we have the time, it's fun and it changes our routine."

These late morning breakfasts feature fruit, a quick hot bread, preferably something novel and home made, and lots of coffee. And taking this cue, Crisco Kitchens developed a new recipe for a quick bread, light in texture because of the vegetable shortening used, and filled with cherries and spice. Try it hot. Try it cold. Try it with tea and with coffee. It's a winner.

Cherry Crumb Cake
(Makes one 9" x 5" x 3" loaf)
2 cups sifted enriched flour 1/3 cup Crisco 1 egg
2 teaspoons baking powder 1/2 cup sugar 2/3 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Blend Crisco, sugar and egg until fluffy. Stir in milk alternately with flour mixture; beat until smooth.

Filling:
1 #2 can pitted red sour cherries 1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup brown sugar, packed 2 tablespoons flour
1/2 cup brown sugar, packed 2 tablespoons melted Crisco
Drain cherries well. Mix brown sugar, cinnamon, flour and melted Crisco until crumbly.
Spread half of batter in greased 1-1/2" deep 9" layer pan. Top with half of cherries, then half of brown sugar mixture. Repeat. Bake in 400° F. oven 30 minutes, or until it tests done.

Southern Bell Official Tells Of Big Spending Program In Florida

Top News In Brief

Munich, Germany — U.S. Army Sp3 Ronald F. Montge, of Hialeah, was shot and killed on a downtown street early Saturday, the Army said today. German police are holding Ludwig Schwarzbauer, a 31-year old engineer, and private detective, who admits shooting Montge but who said he did it in self-defense.

WASHINGTON — Rep. Bob Bikes said today efforts are in progress to bring relief to West Florida and other southern states from the "degradations" of the imported fire ant which he said is rapidly infesting the area. "These pests started their activity in Alabama near Mobile and have spread to Northwest Florida," Bikes said. "If allowed to continue their migration the ultimate cost for eradication would be prohibitive."

WASHINGTON — Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-NY) said today he was concerned about who was "minding the store" while top administration officials were out of the country last week. Celler said he would introduce a resolution this week expressing the will of Congress that the President, vice president and secretary of state should never be out of the country at the same time.

"We like to think of the word progress being synonymous with Sanford", Mayor David Gatchel told a group of about 100 Sanford citizens following a tour of the Sanford Dial Telephone Exchange Friday night.

"Progress is the real reason for being here tonight," he said, "and I know that Southern Bell Telephone Company is proud of their new dial exchange."

The Mayor climaxed his talk with "We like to think that the progress of Sanford has made the new dial exchange necessary."

The dinner, attended by Claude J. Yates, vice president and general manager of Southern Bell Telephone Company, as well as many other top officials of the Florida division of the telephone organization, was held at the Mayfair Inn. Gordon Rothermel, group manager of the Sanford DeLand area during the process of constructing the new building and installing the equipment, was the toastmaster for the occasion.

Senator Douglas Stenstrom spoke briefly as he emphasized that "We are proud of the accomplishments here of Southern Bell Telephone Company."

"Little did I dream that Southern Bell would spend a million and a half dollars in Sanford," said the Senator, "Southern Bell, however, is a company with a heart. We like to feel that Sanford is a growing city and growth is an indication as to what's going to happen here in the future."

Claude J. Yates pointed to the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company organization in Florida as a "specially trained group of Florida citizens who know the know-how."

Yates said that there are 12,000 (Continued On Page Ten)

Funeral Services For Prof. Crooms Set Thursday

Funeral services for Prof. J. N. Crooms, 74, who died Thursday have been set for 1:30 Thursday afternoon from St. Paul's Baptist Church, Ninth St. and E. Pine Ave.

The body will lie in state at the residence, 812 Sanford Ave., from 10 a.m. Wednesday to 10 a.m. Thursday and at the church from 10:30 a.m. to time of the funeral.

Professor Crooms, who came to Sanford to teach in 1906 and served as principal of Crooms Academy from its construction until the time of his retirement in June 1953, has lived at his Sanford Ave. address since 1922.

He received his Masters degree from Florida A&M in 1949. A doctorate degree of Honorarium was conferred upon him by Edward Waters College.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Wealthy Mabel Crooms; a daughter, Nathalie Mabel Crooms; two foster sons, Howard A. Roberts and C. Joel Hurston; one brother, Moses Crooms; two sisters, Mrs. Mamie C. Maxey and Mrs. Virginia C. Howard; a son-in-law, Cornelius W. Jenkins; five sisters-in-law, Annie H. Lester, Ruth L. Miller, and Willie Candia Roberts; two brothers-in-law, Hiram Lester and Israel S. Richardson; three nieces, Daphne A. Duvall, Alfreda C. McGee and Edith Crooms; one nephew, Theodore S. Crooms; and a number of great nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

SHS Band Gets 14 Superior Ratings At District Contest

The Seminole High School Band appearing in the District band contests in Apopka Friday received 14 superior ratings out of 20 events entered.

The band was rated excellent in concert, superior in sight reading and superior in drill. Members rating superior in their solos were: Tommy Bowser, flute; Pauline Rans, clarinet; Bill Chisolm, bassoon; Wally Pope, baritone saxophone; Tommy Williams, trombone; Sidney Vihlen, cornet; J. D. Stone, student conducting and piano solo.

Receiving superior in ensemble were: The Clarinet quartet consisting of Pauline Rans, Irma Corley, Sue Ann Toney, and Bill Chisolm; the saxophone quartet consisting of: Dickie Rountree, Harrison Smith, Wally Pope, and Berry St. John; the brass sextette including: Sidney Vihlen, Vivian Farrell, Cletus Geiger, Billy Bishop, Tommy Williams and Leslie Smith; and the majorette corps consisting of: Carol Nutt, Pat Harrington, Ann Davis, Mary Grace Hobby, Delores Jones, June Jennings, Nancy Richards, Linda Smith, Dottie Williams, Betty Lynn Selvidge, Evie Krazert, and Judy Herron.

Berry St. John, tenor saxophone solo; Margaret Benham, Tympani solo; and Sue Ann Toney, clarinet solo received an excellent rating and a rating of good was awarded Harrison Smith, alto sax solo; and Henry Russell, drum solo.

Ernest Cowley, bandmaster said this morning "I am proud of the band in the overall contest. I think they did a wonderful job."

Senator To Urge Change In Primary Election Date

TALLAHASSEE — Sen. Ted Cabot of Fort Lauderdale says he will urge the Legislature to change Florida's primary elections from May to September.

Cabot said the new strength of the Republican Party makes it impractical to have primaries five months before the November general election.

Prior to 1952, when the GOP made its first strong showing in the state since Reconstruction days, the May Democratic primaries settled the election outcome and winners with Republican opposition did not bother to campaign actively.

Cabot pointed out that the resurgence of the Republican means that candidates now have to campaign about nine months of the year.

"WE ARE GRATEFUL FOR the trust and faith of our investors and we are proud of the opportunity to deliver the finest telephone facilities," said Southern Bell Telephone Company's Vice President and General Manager Claude J. Yates as he speaks before a group of 100 citizens Friday night. (Staff Photo)

Engineers Recommend Building Of Canal

State Prison's Chief Clerk Will Retire April 1

TALLAHASSEE — S. L. Walters, chief clerk of the state prison division, will retire April 1 after 36 years with the state.

Commissioner of Agriculture Nathan Mayo announced today.

Mayo said Walters, who works under the Department of Agriculture, will be succeeded by Mrs. W. Perry Neel, Walters' assistant for the past 14 years.

In his letter of retirement, Walters said he felt the Florida prison system has improved considerably, but "I am in hope that the next Legislature will provide funds for construction of at least one new prison as well as needed additions to the prison at Ralston."

Sanford Bankers To Attend 3-Day State Convention

Leaders in Florida banking, numbering almost 1,000, which will include T. E. Tucker, president of the Florida Bank and Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Mann of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank will tax the capacity of the Hollywood Beach Hotel, in Hollywood, when they meet there for their 63rd Annual Convention Mar. 28-30.

An advance program for the three-day state-wide meeting was announced by G. R. Griffin, President of the Florida Bankers Association and President of the Exchange National Bank, Tampa.

The three days will be devoted to meetings of committees and other working groups of the Association as well as to two general business sessions. Among guest speakers who will address the Convention will be Dr. R. C. "Scottie" Young, formerly with the State College of Business Administration, Atlanta, and currently from Gainesville, Ohio; Ren H. Wooten, President First National Bank, Dallas, Texas; and Ray E. Green, Florida Banking Commissioner, Tallahassee. FBA President G. R. Griffin will also make his annual report to bankers of the state and will present plaques to several bankers who have been engaged in banking in Florida for forty years or more. Officials greeting to the Convention will be extended by Robert Anderson, President Bank of Hollywood, Hollywood, who is General Chairman of the event.

An extensive entertainment program has been arranged for the visiting bankers and their wives. Climax of the Convention will come on the last night with a Banquet, followed by installation of new officers of the Association for the coming year, presentation of golf awards, and entertainment.

Sees Show While On Cruise

ABOARD EISENHOWER ESCORT SHIP — President Eisenhower saw supersonic Terrier missiles from the cruiser Canberra knock down a high-flying drone target plane off the Bahamas today.

The President was given the demonstration of America's guided missile might as the Canberra took him on a leisurely get-well cruise in tropical waters prior to his Bermuda conference later this week with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

The Canberra fired two of its 27-foot Terriers at a Grumman Hellcat fighter piloted by remote control. The target plane was directed by three escorting control planes from the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba.

The cruiser and escorting destroyers Wood and Barton remained in Exuma Sound in Bahama waters for the firing exercise. The practice shoot was originally scheduled as a regular training operation last week but was delayed, the Navy said, by preparations for the presidential voyage.

Mr. Eisenhower and members of his staff watched the firing from a small deck area near huge radar direction finders which control movements of the missiles.

The President was about 75 feet from the missile launchers. The first of the sleek, gray Terriers exploded prematurely short of its target. But the second, detonated by electronic control, went off 50 feet from the drone, which gunners officers said was well within lethal range.

Cutover To Dial System Is Completed Sunday

Sanford area telephone subscribers heard dial tones instead of "number please" at exactly one minute past two yesterday morning when an operator utilizing less than 60 seconds completed the cutover from a manually operated telephone exchange to the new dial exchange.

Four telephone operators in the old exchange on First St. over the Hollywood Shop and Penney's Store handled the "switchboard" and the last calls to be put up while four members of the plant department stood by to pull the "heat coils" in the final switch from one location to another.

In the old Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. exchange, other than the four operators and four plant men, were the local manager, Earl Turner and C. R. Lovorn, district traffic manager.

Contact between the two buildings was maintained through an installed PBX board on which the departments, two in the old building and the two in the new building were talking simultaneously.

The First St. office of Southern Bell, in Sanford, has been maintained in the same location for at least 37 years. Manager Earl Turner said Saturday night that the local office has been "located here, to my knowledge for 37 years."

Officials Continue Working To Help Keep Base Here

Additional contribution to the fund being raised for the "effort to retain the Naval Air Station in Seminole County" have boosted the total to $11,482, according to the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

Contributions received from Claude H. Wolfe Co., A. O. Stoffer, and W. Hugh Duncan this morning brought the total to a new high.

Senator George Smathers, in a letter to The Sanford Herald said "You may be assured of my continuing efforts up here."

Congressman A. S. "Syd" Herlong Jr., in a letter to The Sanford Herald said "I'm doing everything I can to help, and I will keep right on doing so."

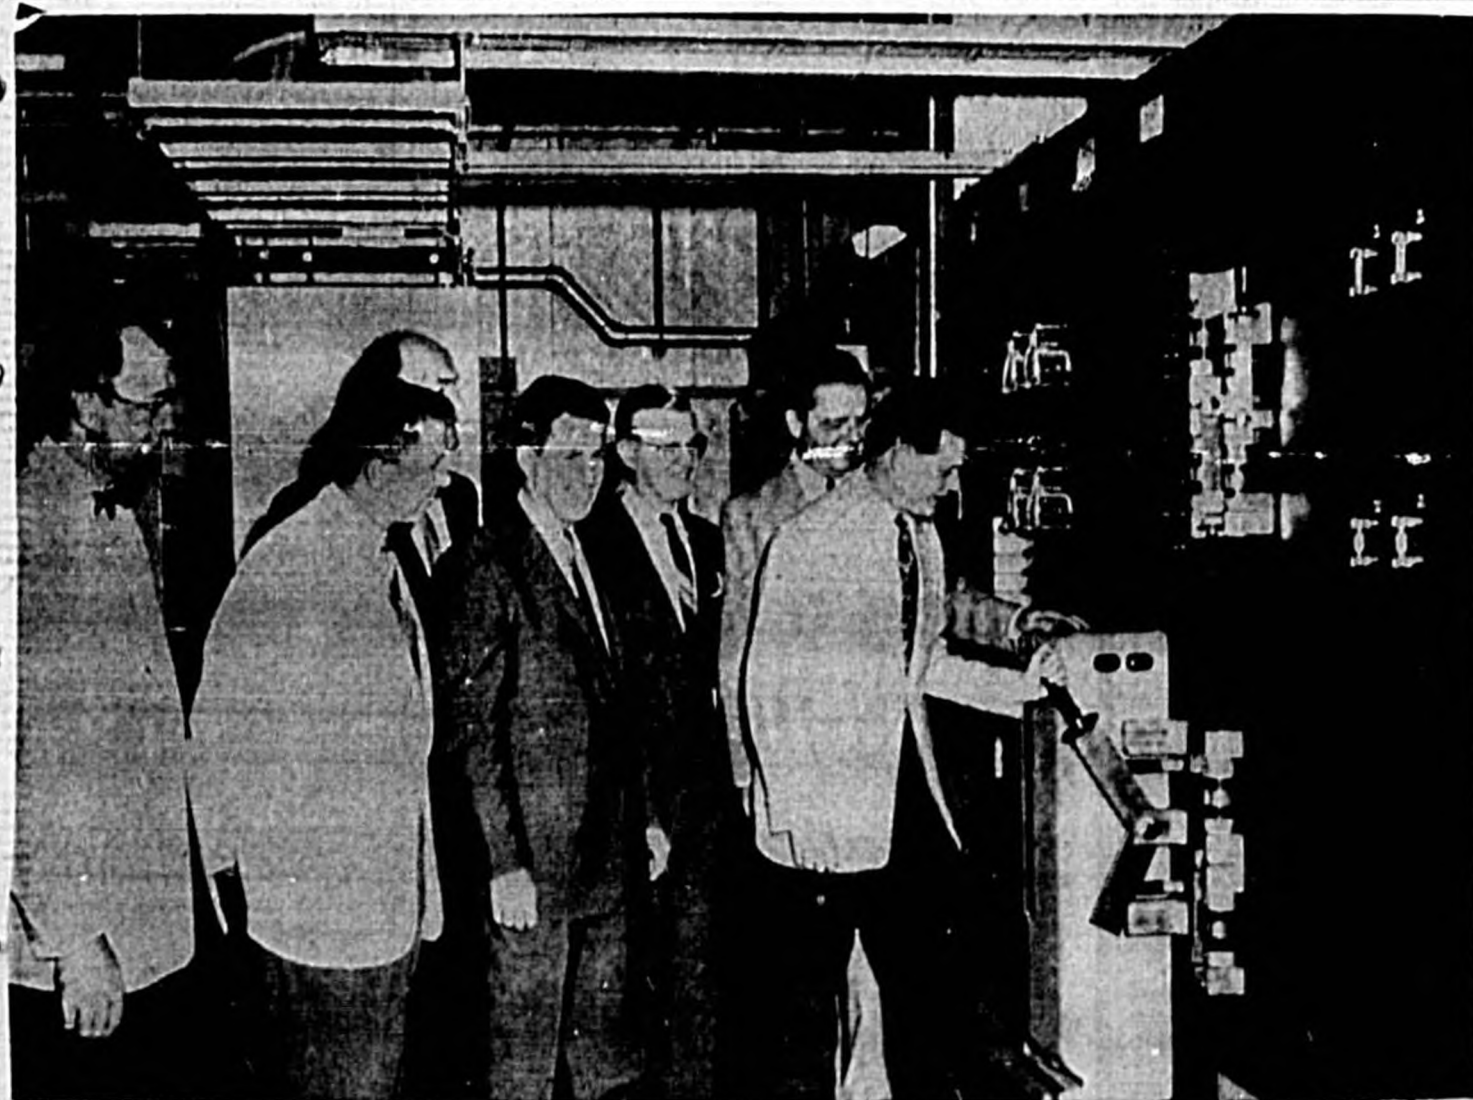

A high Navy official, writing to The Sanford Herald stated "I cannot over-emphasize the great value which the Navy places on the outstanding relations which exist with the citizens of Sanford and Seminole County, and we (Continued On Page Ten)

Sheriff Confiscates 25 Gallons Of 'Shine'

Sheriff Luther Hobby, this morning said that 25 gallons of illegal moonshine whiskey were found and brought in Saturday morning from the same Chulucota area in which 10-gallons of moonshine were confiscated Friday morning.

The moonshine was found in five-gallon cans, said the Sheriff, and was within a 50-yard area when the two five-gallon jugs were confiscated as they were being loaded on a truck.

"We left the five-gallon cans of whiskey," said Sheriff Hobby, "in the hopes that someone would come and try to pick them up. They must have gotten jittery," said the Sheriff.

THE BLONDE DIED DANCING

by KELLEY ROOS

CHAPTER 23

LEONE seemed surprised at my approaching her at the reception desk.

"Leone," I said, "I've got to speak to you."

She didn't answer for a moment. Her guard went up. Then she said, "What do you want to speak to me about?"

"I think you know."

"I know?"

"What was that you hit me with, Leone? Honestly, sneaking up behind a girl like that! What would Mr. Bell think of such uncouth behavior?"

"All right," she said. "But this is a busy day."

"Why can't you arrange to have lunch when I do?"

"I don't ordinarily have lunch."

She stopped talking. She was looking beyond me and I turned to see what was so intriguing. Immediately, I turned back. Detective Bolling and Hankins were coming down a corridor toward us. They started across the reception room to catch an impatient elevator. I was glad to see them go. Leone didn't seem to mind them either, but I didn't discuss it with her.

"I said, 'Leone, stretch a point today and have some lunch. I'm sure if Mr. Bell knew about your uncouth behavior...'"

"All right."

We made a date for lunch.

The hour that Leone arranged for us was late; the small restaurant on Forty-sixth off Madison was nearly empty. Leone told the waiter she wasn't hungry, that she would just have a Dubonnet cocktail. I didn't feel in the mood for food either, but I ordered milk and a sandwich. I had a lunch that I should keep my strength at its maximum.

The waiter went away.

Leone said, "Why did you get a job at the school?"

"That doesn't matter."

"Is Hester Frost your real name?"

"Leone, I'm not going to answer any of your questions. I'm not really tough, but I'm going to pretend I am. Call this any nasty word you like, but if you don't tell me the truth about what I want to know, I'm going to talk to Mr. Bell. About you, Leone."

"What makes you think he'd care?"

"Because... as of now... he's going to marry you."

Her eyes behind the stylish spectacles opened wide. Her surprise was genuine. That meant Bell had not yet told her about my conference with him. Perhaps he hadn't the opportunity, perhaps he meant not to tell her at all. At any rate, it gave me a chance to shock her some more, and I used that chance.

"I know all about it, Leone. From his proposal to you last New Year's Eve... by telephone... to your plans to be married this one. I know you don't even

"I want to wait these few weeks, you want to get married now, right away?"

"My God," she said. "Where did you learn all this? Nobody knows!"

"Listen some more, Leone..."

"Are you with the police..."

"No, you'd tell me if you were."

"I'll tell you this much about me before we get on about you. I'm in much worse trouble than you are. That's why I'm behaving in such a... shall we say, an un lady-like way? Now, it was you who knocked me out last night to keep me from seeing you."

"You don't know that, you're bluffing."

"You didn't want me to see you because you had found something in Anita's apartment..."

"Some tape recordings hidden in a lamp base. But you didn't get them all, Leone, did you know that? There were some more in another lamp. I got those."

"All the fight was out of Leone now. She was no longer the cool, calm, girl-executive. She was a frightened, appealing young lady in trouble. She sat looking at me, waiting. I let her wait while I lit a cigarette. I didn't want, I hoped, she'd get a little more frightened."

"Leone," I said, "I want the tapes you have."

"I don't have them anymore. I burned them."

"Or? Really?"

"Yes," she said, her voice low, vehement. "Yes, really. You didn't think I'd keep those horrible things. You know what was on them. Anita Farrell was a blackmailer. She was dreadful, evil... I didn't even play all the tapes I found. I burned them all."

"You just played them until you found the one you wanted? Then destroyed them all?"

"Yes."

"I don't think you should have done that... burned them. Maybe one of those blackmail victims of Anita's killed her."

"Do you expect me to care who killed Anita? I don't want to see that person caught, punished..."

She broke off as the waiter approached with our orders. He did his job and scamped back to his own interrupted lunch. Leone drank half of her Dubonnet in one gulp.

"She said, 'I wish that were a double martini.'"

"I'll buy you one."

"No, thanks. Hester... or whatever your name is..."

"Call me Hester."

"You're either trying to find out who killed Anita or else..."

She paused and her eyes narrowed as she appraised me. "Or else that's just what you want me to believe. Was Anita blackmailing you?"

"I didn't answer her."

"No, of course you wouldn't admit it. But, believe me, Hester, if you were involved in any of the recordings I played before I found the one I wanted, I'm

Painful Thoughts

NEW YORK — Painful thoughts from all over:

What price aspiration? The Nepalese government has decided to charge $500 for the privilege of climbing Mt. Everest. It has fixed climbing royalties for all Himalayan peaks, according to height.

Why this ski pole tax? Mounting overhead, probably. The high things in life certainly come good and expensive nowadays.

Expeditions will have to pay up before going up—or else drive a pretty Sherpa bargain. Why do people climb a mountain? Because it's there—and the price is right.

In London, the Sunday Graphic reported that 18 men and women smokers underwent remote-control hypnosis and that after three 14-minute sessions, seven had stopped smoking completely.

The group sat before a giant picture of the hypnotist while a phonograph played his commands to stop smoking, presumably putting a lot of can't in their trance.

The hypnotist plans soon to issue records for slimming and stopping drinking—which will give him a wide opening to advertise that he practices hypnosis and diplomacy.

At the 33rd annual dinner of the New York Explorers' Club next Friday, a staple of the menu will be fried termites' eggs. The egg of a fried termite probably is fine eating, but how do they get the beetles fried before they start laying eggs? Let 'em eat wormwood! Oh, let's knock this stuff off.

The finest of all zany conversations occur in the Automat. The other morning at breakfast time, a dignified gentleman arrived at the steam counter and ordered one poached egg on toast.

The lady looked at him and, without aye, yes, whatfor, or how-aya, said: "Champagne is the product of Italy, and wine is the product of Spain."

And she handed him two poached eggs on toast.

"I ordered one poached egg and you're crazy," said the man in a flat voice. "Champagne is the product of France. And he took his two eggs and sat down. Quiz fever is high nowadays."

Experts' Outlook On U. S. Nuclear Power Optimistic

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two atomic experts have predicted that nuclear power in the United States will be competitive with other kinds by 1980, except in a few places "with very low fuel costs."

They conceded their forecast "may appear optimistic" in this time of "some discouragement" over the cost of building and running atomic power reactors.

The experts are W. Kenneth Davis, director, and Louis H. Rodis Jr., deputy director, of the Atomic Energy Commission's reactor development division. They presented a paper at a conference on atomic energy in industry.

Davis and Rodis said nuclear plants going into service between 1965 and 1967 should be able to get operating costs down to the point where they can compete with conventional plants "in at least some parts of the United States."

They offered this projection: Experimental Period: Ten experimental plants will be generating 130,000 kilowatts of nuclear power by the end of 1959. Costs will range from 20 to 60 mills per kilowatt-hour, compared with conventional costs of 4.5 to 9 mills.

First Industrial Period: The years 1960-64 will bring "the first generation of true industrial nuclear power plants." They may get costs down to 10 to 13 mills per kilowatt-hour. Experience gained from building plants for foreign purchase will help U. S. manufacturers cut costs.

Second Generation: Plants going into service between 1965 and 1967 will "approach a competitive level" with early costs in the range of 9 to 11 mills.

Expansion Phase: From 1967 atomic power capacity should expand until 1980 "two-thirds of all added capacity will be nuclear." In 1960, with costs down to 6 to 7 mills per kilowatt-hour, nuclear plants will have a capacity of 22.2 million kilowatts which will be 32.5 per cent of the total.

Mexico Hopes To Keep Farm Workers At Home

By DON BIGGS
United Press Staff Correspondent
MEXICO CITY — Mexican officials say a two-year extension of the Migrant Worker Pact with the United States is "highly beneficial." But they would like to see more Mexicans staying on this side of the border.

Most Mexicans feel it would be more patriotic for migrant workers to devote their labors to Mexico than to seek employment outside.

While no one has been able to stop the exodus, the government has inaugurated irrigation and public works programs, and many organizations have offered their own pet plans to keep the "braceros" home.

Last year 428,116 migrant workers contracted to work on American farms and in food-processing plants in Texas, California, Arkansas, New Mexico, and Arizona. Uncounted others swam the muddy Rio Grande or bought forged papers to enter the United States.

Barbado Quintela, heading a group of Mexican professional leaders, said they will offer the government a program to provide employment for more "braceros" through greater use of hand labor on Mexico's huge public works program.

He said greater income for the now unemployed would raise living standards, distribute more wealth to the working class, and encourage more workers to serve Mexico.

Others say the program would actually reduce jobs and benefit to the people from public works since projects would have to be curtailed.

President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines hopes Mexico's dramatic "March To The Sea" port and road rehabilitation program will employ many who would otherwise seek seasonal jobs on American farms.

But agronomists say the only way to solve the farmer's problem is "to tackle it head-on."

They are encouraged by "the government's energetic efforts to alleviate the drought situation we face in the north."

Agriculture Secretary Gilberto Flores Munoz said recently that 500,000 acres of land will be irrigated in northern cotton-producing areas during the coming planting season. He said the additional irrigated land will present "a considerable increase" in this year's cotton crop.

Companies affiliated with the National Cotton Growers' Association have agreed to spend $1,220,000 to drill 100 wells. The government is already drilling 279 wells at a cost of $6,000,000.

Another program calls for the diversion of the San Lorenzo and other rivers flowing into the Pacific basin of the Texas River.

Engineers expect to drill huge tunnels, some more than 100 miles long, to irrigate now unused land on the eastern side of the Sierra Madre.

"However, irrigation is but one step along the road toward putting Mexico's farmers on their feet," say farm confederation officials.

U. S. Wage Attracts
The association recently received a report from economist Salvador Camelo Solar, stating that "many farmers cannot make enough from their small land grant farms to earn a decent living."

He said more than 51 per cent of the nation's sugar crop comes from farms smaller than six acres.

Texas growers point out that Mexican pickers were being paid 50 cents a hundred at a time when U. S. pickers earned $2.50 even though Mexican growers were getting about two-thirds of the price paid to American farmers.

One Rio Grande Valley farmer says low prices paid for picking in Mexico "are a direct incentive for packers to risk their very lives in the dangerous river crossings to pick at higher prices."

Farmers complain, "everyone tells us to be patriotic and stay in Mexico; but no one tells us

Modern Dial Exchange Center Is Another Step Towards County Growth

Unfortunately, we cannot duplicate—in words—the sound most folks are hearing today as they use telephones in the Sanford area.

It is the "dial tone" which must be established before attempting to dial the number desired to be reached.

To be sure, the use of the dial telephone, to most Sanford citizens, is a unique experience—for both old and young. It is an experience to which we have been looking forward with much anticipation and a lot of curiosity.

Producing the tone to which you listen each time your phone is picked up has taken a building and equipment valued at much more than a million dollars.

Training the personnel to handle the equipment has taken thousands of hours. The investment has been a tremendous one.

The voice of the telephone operator may have disappeared from hearing distance but there's a staff of well-trained, efficient, courteous employees behind every call that you dial.

Technical personnel continually watching the make of wires, motors, tubes, gadgets and other paraphernalia are on hand in Sanford's Telephone Exchange to assure you that the number you dial will be reached in the shortest possible time.

When you try to reach an out-of-town number, the same courteous and efficient telephone operator who has served you admirably for so long, will answer your dial request for long distance and place your call for you.

Insufficient equipment has been replaced with the most modern communication paraphernalia available today and as of 2 a. m. yesterday morning it has been in constant use and serving the Sanford area.

In addition to the building and equipment constructed and installed in Sanford, Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company has a Dial Exchange building in De Bary which serves that community through the Sanford office.

Local telephone users can be proud of the facilities provided for them. They are the most modern of the day.

In order that communications facilities can keep parallel with the growth of Sanford and Seminole County, Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company has also provided for expansion. The present building, according to officials, has been constructed with a foundation on which additional floors may be added, or the building may be added to the south. An area has also been provided for the construction of a new Commercial Office.

Southern Bell is cognizant of Sanford and Seminole County's potential and has made plans to increase the growth of the telephone and communication facilities along with the community's.

Another notch has been added to the belt of Sanford's growing and sound economy—a Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company modern dial exchange center.

Surplus Of Farmers

Wheat, milk and other agricultural products are not the only farm surplus. There is also, in a manner of speaking, a surplus of farmers.

The Department of Agriculture reports that 40 per cent of the young men who grew up on farms are now finding jobs in town. The main reason for this seems to be that improved farming methods, including a heavy use of machinery, makes it increasingly possible to produce more food and fibre with less manpower.

The farm population has been declining during the past 45 years, and especially within the last decade. At the same time, farms have been growing in size. The average farm in one of our States, for example, is 20 acres bigger than it was 25 years ago. The difference in size of Florida farms would be greater.

During that period, about 1,600,000 commercial farms—that is, those on which the main source of income is from farming—have been eliminated. Even so, the Department of Agriculture figures that a third of the nation's family farms are too small to provide full-time work for even one man using modern farming methods to best advantage. That is a big reason for the continuing departure of farm boys.

It is encouraging to note, however, that these youths are not being deprived of work by this dislocation. Many of them, having graduated from agricultural schools, are going into conservation, research, farm services and other kinds of employment related to farming. Even for those without college training, there are farm-related jobs in such things as the repair and servicing of farm machinery, crop spraying and trucking.

This is characteristic of America's rich and diverse economy. Those displayed by advancing technology in one field can almost always find satisfying work in another.

That is this country's great economic strength.

Fishing Popular

Why do such eminent statesmen as presidents and prime ministers like to fish? An answer is at hand from no less an authority than Herbert Hoover, who was one of our fishingest presidents.

The reason, he thinks, is "that the public only yields privacy to officials of that kind in fishing and in prayer—and they can't pray all the time."

The Hoover theory may be correct, but another idea is worth considering. It just might be that prime ministers and presidents, being sensible men, go fishing because they like to fish.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has left no room for doubt about United States policy toward Communist China.

There has been speculation, off and on, for a long time on the possibility that the United States might soften its attitude toward the Red government of Peking.

But Dulles, in a statement to members of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, now meeting in Australia, said emphatically:

The United States means to continue its recognition of the Chinese Nationalist government in Formosa.

It will not recognize the Communist government.

It will continue to oppose the admission of the Chinese Red regime to the United Nations.

Dulles' statement seemed to be a carefully considered pronouncement of a policy which will continue for the foreseeable future.

The Reason Why
One reason for the statement probably was that Red China shares the embarrassment of Soviet Russia over the way the demotion of Josef Stalin from Communist sainthood got out of hand.

Dulles apparently felt that this was no time to do any favors to one of the two great Communist powers.

But his blast against the Chinese Reds marked a definite hardening of policy.

It has been more than seven years since the Communists overran China and sent Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek to seek refuge in Formosa.

There also has been talk of an international agreement under which there might be "two Chinas." This somewhat nebulous idea would imply that both Nationalist China and Communist China might be recognized and that both might be members of the U.N.

In addition, there is the question of Japan's future relations with Red China. Japan so far, under successive premiers, has adhered to a pro-American policy, and has refused to recognize the Peking government. But China, offering unlimited possibilities of trade, is Japan's next door neighbor, and Japan needs foreign trade. The day must come when Japanese-Chinese relations are closer.

But there hardly can be much effective criticism of Dulles' statement of policy. The cold war is on again. The Moscow and Peking governments are enemies of everything the United States stands for.

Demo Election Autopsy Circulating

By RAYMOND LANE
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (U-P)—The Democratic National Committee is circulating a 1954 election autopsy calculated to scare any Democrats who think their candidacies should be shoo-las in future elections.

This document is one symptom of the soul-searching now going on among both Republicans and Democrats about how to approach elections in which the name of Dwight D. Eisenhower will not appear on the ballot.

Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler told Baltimore Democrats last weekend that their party cannot assume it will win in 1954 just because Mr. Eisenhower will not be a candidate.

The same warning was contained in Democratic Sen. John F. Kennedy's Life magazine article, in which the Massachusetts senator said the Democrats need new ideas and new faces.

Can't Project Popularity
On the other side of the political fence, Sen. George D. Aiken

(R-Vt.) said in a New York speech Tuesday that the GOP must remember it is "a Republican Party, not an Eisenhower Party."

Aiken said Mr. Eisenhower was elected because of personal popularity and faith among the voters that he could best provide leadership for peace. But Aiken added Mr. Eisenhower could not translate that popularity into victory for other Republican candidates.

The Vermont senator suggested his party needs better public relations and a generally smarter operation at national, state and local levels.

Plan Regional Meetings
The GOP national organization decided this week to hold regional conferences this spring to seek out "grass roots opinions on political issues." This program was intended to provide an early start for the 1954 congressional campaign.

It notes the Democratic congressional victory in 1946 has been interpreted as a sign of superior "basic party strength."

But it warns of signs the party is losing strength.

The current soul-searching indicates neither party is taking much for granted in preparing for 1954 and 1956.

Kennedy's and Aiken's prescriptions probably will be followed by many other proposals for remodeling the two parties for the political contests ahead.

The past weekend was very busy for the Sanford social set and their navy friends. Friday night the forces of VALL-9 gathered at the B. O. Q. for an evening of laughter, singing, and barbequed chicken and ribs. The girls showed off their new spring party dresses, and I assume the men wore last year's sport shirts, although I am not informed on this matter. Attending were John and Janie Miller, Bill and Betty Hazlett, Ruth and Frank Murphey, Skip and Ernie Horrell, Betty and Al Hillner, Ruth and Bill Barron, Mary and Charles Carman, Betty and Chuck McBratline, George Humphries, Mary and Jim Nelson, Jack and Marcia Cousins, Helen and Bob Punch, Jean and Dick Fowler, Dornell and Tom Killeline, Fran and Dick Murray, Nita and Hank White, P. L. and Ruth Chaffee, Ben and Kay Kink, Shirley and Jim Ross, Flora and Bill Winton, C. J. and Mary Jane McCarthy, H. W. Schmidt, Abe and Margaret Fennell, Leta and Jim Petersen, T. H. Guttery, and Pauline and Paul Byus. Chuck McBratline was presented with a birthday gift, the skipper officiating. The package revealed a bottle of Seretan, and I hope the investigator was under twenty-five. Mr. go was married on Saturday in Kansas City, and will soon be returning to Sanford with his bride, Jeanie. The McGulires will live in Delbart. Then, after a few short months they will go to Monterey, California for P. G. school. Dusty Rhodes is another who has been chosen for this honor. Hate to see these two go.

The Parker Ranch on Lake Mary was gay Friday night as Judy Smith and Louise collaborated on a wonderful bring your own steak affair. Judy made the salad dressing from scratch, although the recipe is Fran Murray's and delicious. Will have to put that one in the column. The occasion, of course, was the presence of Pete and Saralee Peters, who are staying with Jack and Judy Smith. We were all in fine voice that night, and sang every thing from "Blue Hawaii" to "Follow the Fold". But prominently missing were Cy and Jean Fitton, who went to Fort Lauderdale for the weekend. Jean's parents are taking care of the children. Included in the party were Ruth Jean and Harry Robison, Betty and Jim Guy, Jean and John Dooley, Betty and Bill Lemos, Tom Blackburn, Janie and Johnny Miller, and Bob and Ginny Conn. Jack Smith and Jim Parker did an excellent job of directing traffic and cooking steaks.

Lou and Cy Johnson had a bridge party Friday night, but today is too beautiful for anyone else to stay indoors, so no results as yet.

MRS. JAMES G. MOORE JR.

Barbara Chapman Becomes Bride Of James G. Moore Jr. Saturday

Nuptials held March 16 in the First Methodist Church of Sanford, united in marriage Miss Barbara Lee Chapman and James G. Moore Jr. of DeLand and Daytona Beach. Miss Chapman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Edgar Chapman and Mr. Moore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gates Moore of Daytona Beach.

The Rev. Milton H. Wyatt officiated in the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with white pom-poms and white gladioli, with inverted u-shaped arches of candelabra placed between the baskets of flowers. The altar rail was entwined with gladioli horseties.

Mrs. Frances Hickson played traditional wedding music and accompanied Roger Harris when he sang the "Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length dress of imported chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. Lace fashioned the scooped neckline, long tapered sleeves and fitted bodice. Tiers of ruffles and pleated lace accented the bouffant skirt. Her finger tip veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of lace outlined with tiny seed pearls. A prayer book topped with a white orchid completed the ensemble.

Mrs. J. Alvin Kilpatrick, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a floor length gown of aqua crystal tulle fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and cap sleeves and a matching headband of velvet leaves, with veil. She carried a basket of spring flowers and daisy pom-poms.

Edward A. Moore, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were, Alvin Kilpatrick of Madeira Beach, George Chapman of New Orleans, La., Frederick Treger of Daytona Beach and Lt. (jg) Edward Uguhart of Jacksonville.

Mrs. Chapman chose for her daughter's wedding a street length dress of slate blue, Peau De Sol with matching accessories. Her hat was of tiny blue and slate petals with ostrich feather trim. The corsage was sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Moore's ensemble consisted of a pale green, pure silk, shantung jacket dress with matching accessories and a hat of tiny green ostrich feathers. Her corsage was of tallman roses.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the Sanford Woman's Club. Arrangements of white gladioli, pom-poms and candles decorated the building and provided a lovely background for the bride's table. A three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom was played on a white satin cloth.

Mrs. T. Yaston Edmonson of Auburn, Ala., Mrs. Clarence Powell and Mrs. James Ekern served at the bride's table. Greeting guests were, Mrs. George Touhy, Mrs. George Wells and Mrs. Raymond Ball. Others assisting at the reception, Mrs. E. C. Williams, Mrs. George Chapman of

Rehearsal Party Given Friday By E. C. Williams

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Williams of 206 Holly Ave. entertained with a buffet supper Friday evening in their home.

The supper was in honor of the rehearsal party of Miss Barbara Chapman and James G. Moore Jr. whose wedding was solemnized Saturday at the First Methodist Church. Arrangements of spring flowers decorated the house.

Approximately thirty people attended; they included the wedding party and members of the immediate families.

NEW YORK — Bill Moose Skowron may be another Lou Gehrig but fate seems determined today not to let him be another "iron horse."

Ever since the former Purdue football star came up to the New York Yankees in 1954 they have been touting him as the "new Gehrig." He had the build and the power which after 16 years indicated that the long Yankee quest for a first base successor to Gehrig had ended.

But now, for the second time, injuries have removed the Moose from the iron man category of the Yankee immortal who played 2,130 consecutive games.

Sidelined For Weeks

This time it is a broken thumb and smashed forefinger, suffered when Skowron was struck by a Jack Sanford pitch in an exhibition game against the Phillies. The medical report is that the Moose will be on the sidelines "four or five weeks."

It is the second time within three years that the muscular Skowron has been struck down in the spring. The last time was in late April of 1955 just as he was living up to that "new Gehrig" billing.

On that occasion, the 200-pound Skowron was blasting the ball at

I will not be responsible for any debts incurred by any other than myself after March 1st, 1957.

Richard B. Ransbottom

When it seemed that the Dallas Eagles were inexorably behind in a lost cause, the high flying Eagles battery moved into the top of the ninth inning, three runs behind. Dick McCovey started a rally with his second home run of the day, followed by Bobby Prescott, who tapped for another homer and made a five run rally that made it seem that the AA Dallas team was about to topple AAA Minneapolis. But Jim Brugler saved the day for Minneapolis in the bottom of the ninth by finding the center field wall with two on and the final score was a thrilling 11-10 in favor of Dallas.

First baseman McCovey won a special place in the eyes of the Sanford fans as he was the outstanding feature of the game. He tapped two homers, out of three times at bat, and on his other trip to the plate rapped a long fly into centerfield that sent in a run.

The top notch Minneapolis Millers moved to a swift lead in the second inning and held it until the fifth when McCovey lashed his first one across the fence.

The Millers moved back ahead of the scrappy Eagles who were putting special efforts in an attempt to make the high class Millers bite the dust.

The most notable feature of the game other than the personnel was the keenness of the competition, apparent for the first time this short exhibition season.

Those who returned to watch the exhibition games yesterday were amply rewarded with the tight competition and close rivalry of the two top teams of the fabulous New York Giants farm system.

Dallas partisans were thrilled with the first showing of the battery strength of the Eagles. For the first time this season they showed a powerful battery crew and rapped 13 hits off Minneapolis hurlers, one better than the Miller's effort.

Minneapolis took the five run spree in the top of the ninth in their strides, however, and showed that they could fight through when the chips were down—a mark of championship.

Dallas had 10 runs, 13 hits, and two errors. Minneapolis had 11 runs, 12 hits, and no errors.

a 452 clip, with 23 hits in 31 times at bat, when in a game at Chicago he pulled a thigh muscle running out a triple. That time he was out five weeks and, when he returned, his batting average started to slide until at season's end he was batting only .319.

Potential Batting Champ

With most players you wouldn't say "only" .319. But Skowron always has hit for high averages and has been rated for several years as the potential American League batting champion.

He batted a rousing .340 in 47 games in 1954, his first year at New York and the Yankees began to think that at long last the first base problem which had bothered them since Gehrig stepped down in 1938 was settled.

The 6-foot Skowron got away winging in 1955 and was clubbing the ball at that rousing .451 clip when his leg troubles started. Last season, playing 134 games at first and third base under Casey Stengel's platoon system, he fell to .308.

Powells Leading League

Three teams took over in last Thursday night's bowling action of the Mixed League, winning all three games. Clyde's Grill took all three from Semite Dry Cleaners, Sanford Bowling Alley took all three games from Harvey's Plumbing Co. and unbeaten Powell's Office Supply took three games from Wieboldt Camera Shop.

Standings are still very close and Powell's are still in first place with 21 wins against nine losses. Sanford Bowling Alley broke the tie with Harvey's and are now in undisputed second place with 19 won and 11 lost, while Harvey's dropped to fourth place with a 16-14 record and Clyde's moved to third place with an 18-12. Wieboldt Camera Shop kept their position of fifth place with 13-17 and Semite Dry Cleaners hold sixth with 6-21.

Semite Dry Cleaners had a new team with the exception of S.E. Anderson who isn't about to doff the slick soled shoes. The team shows good form and bowled without a handicap. Sara and Tommy Suggs, V. Butler, T. Oreski and the new team members.

Last week high game was bowled by F. Senn—205, and high had high Alley. Other James single games were 194—E. Gill, 184—Brown, 193 series of 543 for Sanford Bowling Chambliss; 173, E. Gill and Tom and Sara Suggs tied for 173, while Austin rolled 159.

Individual high three games were rolled by Brown, 523; Doe Chambliss, 489; E. Gill, 493; T. Suggs, 456; J. Corron, 413. And Bernidene Clancy bowled high game in the women's bracket with a 185. Ellen Betts had high series with 480.

Lillian Donat still holds high game on the League with a 224. Jim Maloney had a 578 high series. Brown has high average of 172 for his six games. Sanford Bowling Alley has team high single with 848 and Powell's has Team High Three with 2330.

P. Belz To Give Tennis Exhibition Friday At Stetson

Championship tennis will be seen on the campus of Stetson University Friday, March 22, when Pauline Betz gives an exhibition of both singles and doubles at a clinic sponsored by the Women's Physical Education Departments.

The exhibition will be part of Miss Betz' training to defend her Women's World Professional Title in Cleveland April 10, 11, and 12. She will appear here with and against nationally-ranked players. She is currently training in Orlean.

Pauline was four times United States Women's Amateur Singles Champion and former Wimbledon champion. She won her present title in 1953 from Mary Hardwick and has successfully defended it against such players as Madge Rurac and Doris Hart.

The public is invited to attend the clinic which is scheduled to start at 3 p.m. at the Cummings Gym Courts on the Stetson campus.

Millers Take On Rochester, Eagles Vs. Omaha Tuesday

After a thrilling showing yesterday afternoon in Memorial Stadium, Minneapolis takes on Rochester tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 in Sanford while the fighting Eagles go to Daytona to take on Omaha.

Spring Exhibition took on a new aspect yesterday that promised to pack the home stands when the two teams, Dallas vs. Minneapolis, face each other again in what shaped into much more than close competition.

The two top teams of the New York Giants Farm System, Minneapolis AAA, and Dallas just one step below at AA, took on a keen rivalry yesterday in an 11-10 contest that indicated that it would be a seasonal thing.

Dallas and Minneapolis will face each other in Memorial Stadium Thursday and Friday this week in free exhibition games.

The Sanford Seminoles began a running high for the season opener tomorrow night. The Seminoles, who have only three veterans from action last year, but they are important. On the mound and at third base is Eddie Barbour. In left field is veteran and captain of this year's team, Brantley Schirard, and in the short stop slot is Ronnie Russi with a lot of speed and a strong arm.

Two hurlers, Ken McMurray and Eddie Barbour, will see mound action tomorrow night with Barbour taking over the starting duties.

Game insurance from the mound will come from McMurray, a cool headed junior who can handle himself in a pinch, and the fast ball will be the first attraction from strong-armed Barbour.

This is to be a building year for the Seminoles, but optimism is running high for the season opener tomorrow night. Now Hear This!

By JACKY FENWICK

Bride-Elect Feted With Many Parties

And a belated "Happy St. Patrick's Day" to all my readers! Somehow forgot to get that in on Friday! Going to change the way I've been doing it, and get my phone number in at the beginning today. Since it is a brand new one, I want to make sure everyone sees it, so they won't have an excuse for not calling me! It's now Fairfax 2-2371. I think it's a fairly easy one to remember, so I hope everyone will try to!

This is the last chance I'll have to remind all the members of the Enlisted Men's Wives Club that tonight is the night. The Membership Drive Buffet Supper will get under way at 8:00 P. M. and we hope everyone will show up, and bring at least one new member. Now for those girls who do not belong, and would like to, only don't know anyone to come with, please don't let that stop you! The doors are open to all, and there will be hostesses there to greet you, introduce you to the girls, and try to make you "feel at home". In addition to the buffet supper, there will be games, entertainment, and prizes galore. As I said in one of my previous columns, an alarm clock will be set to go off every few minutes, and each time it does, there will be a drawing for a lovely door prize. We'll be trying in every way to make it a memorable evening for everyone, so come, come all, and join in the fun!

Seems like I'm full of appeals this week! But I'm always willing to report anything that is worthy of the space, so don't hesitate to call on me if you have one of your own. This one is in behalf of the U.S.O. They are badly in need of Junior Hostesses. Anyone, (providing she's a female), and over 18, can qualify. They have weekly dance nights for the fellows down there, but it does make for an awkward situation when they can't provide the girls for the boys to dance with! You don't have to be young, beautiful, and unmarried; (though I'm sure the boys would prefer it this way!) You just have to be willing to give a little of your time to help the fellows feel a little less lonesome in their "off hours". If you're interested in helping out, see Mrs. Kuhn at the U. S. O. on the corner of First St. and Sanford Ave. I'll bet if you do, you'll really enjoy it yourself!

You are invited to attend the BOMBARDIER'S BUST Date: Wednesday, March 13, 1937 Place: Sink's, 17-02 Time: As soon after work as you can "back" it

In celebration of the heretofore unattainable feat (by Kretschmann anyway), to wit: A BULLSEYE Said lucky "shack" having occurred Jan. 7, 1937 and you can drink, a little within the limit of the host's wallet. Your benefactor graciously accepts all shuffleboard challenges!

This was the cute invitation extended to the bombadiers in V.A.H. 5 by Kretschmann, in celebration of his "Bullseye"! He can well be proud of it, as I understand it is quite a feat. (And besides, what an excuse for a party!) The guest list included L.T.J.G.'s Gerald Flynn, Dean Ortman, Paul O'Dea, Arthur McAdams, William Martin, Robert Blackwood, and Gordon Jacobson. Ensign's Edward Williams and Donald Franz, William Foulk, AOC, Elliot Fenwick, AOC, James Greenwood, AOC, Edward Barron, AOC, Paul Stokes, AOC, on Good Friday, AOC, and Jack Enloe, AOC. Needless to say, a good time was had by all, and I should know! I almost missed a good party because of it!

Last Friday, March 15, was a "good day for the Irish", and all the others who attended the St. Patrick's Day Dance at the E.M. Club. I know it was the biggest crowd I've ever seen there, and the club manager estimated the number to be about 2000! The band was wonderful, and the free drinks and "snacks" disappeared as if by magic! I'm so glad that so many are getting around to using their club. A big factor I know, is the new layout; and you must admit it makes for a much "cozier" atmosphere. Hope we can look forward to the same kind of crowd at coming events.

Charles Meads, ADC, has received advance orders to Patuxent River, Md. The Meads don't expect to leave until late May, and hope it won't be sooner, what with a child in school, etc. No matter how you look at it, it's always hard to leave your home, and a town you like. Remember, it's now FA 2-2371, for all news!

ETNA KITT

WOW! ISN'T DEBBY'S DAD A DOLL? GUESS WHAT HE GAVE HER!

SHE ALREADY HAS HER OWN CAR AND HER OWN PRIVATE PHONE! SHE'S SPOILED!

THIS IS DIFF!

IT'S FREE! GEE, DAD? THIS DOESN'T COST YOU EVEN ONE LITTLE PENNY! GIVE ME ONE, TOO PLEASE!

CAN I HAVE A CHARGE ACCOUNT OF MY VERY OWN?

SAFE AS AMERICA

U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

My Neighbors

"Maybe money can't make you happy—but it can make you more comfortable when you're not!"

"Can't afford the 'Business Man's Lunch.' Couldn't you fix me up with a 'Taxpayer's Salad'?"

THE PHANTOM

YOU WILL NEVER KILL PHANTOM-GHOST WHO WALKS!

STOP THAT CRAZY TALK, WAMBOT!

WELL?

FINISHED!

THE LION TOOK HIM OFF INTO THE BUSH. IT WAS A WHOPPER BROKE THE POST TAKING HIM!

STILL THINK YOUR GHOST IS COMING BACK, WAMBOT?

WILSON MOODY 3-16

THE GHOST WHO WALKS CANNOT BE DEAD.

THE LION WHO TOOK HIM OFF THAT POST CAN'T GET FAT ON GHOSTS.

THE PHANTOM IS THE MAN WHO CANNOT DIE. ALL THE JUNGLE KNOWS THAT.

YOU'LL SEE HE WILL RETURN.

HE LEFT HIS MARK WHEN HE WAS HERE BEFORE—YOU WILL SEE HIS MARK AGAIN!

NOT IN THIS WORLD, JUNGLE BOY.

IF YOU HADN'T BEEN SUCH A CRYBABY YOUR FRIEND WOULD STILL BE ALIVE.

WHERE CAN I GO NOW?

WILSON MOODY 3-17

BEETLE BAILEY

THIS IS A HECK OF A PLACE TO LEAVE US (STRANGERS)!

I'D LIKE TO GIVE SARGE A PIECE OF MY MIND!

WHY DOES HE DO THINGS LIKE THIS TO US?

OH, HE WAS JUST BORN MEAN, I GUESS!

TRAVEL! GO SOUTH!

KEEP BUSY! GET ALL YOUR EQUIPMENT IN GOOD REPAIR!

MENDING YOUR PAJAMAS, BEETLE?

YEAH, I DON'T KNOW MUCH ABOUT SEWING, I HOPE I DO IT RIGHT!

BUT SARGE! I'M JUST SEEING HOW THEY WORK!

FLASH GORDON

ZARKOV! HEAR THAT! THE ALIEN'S HOME BASE BEACASTING! HE WAS SENT OUT TO SCOUT FOR A PLANET FOR INVASION!

THEN WE'VE GOT MORE THAN OUR OWN HECK TO CARE FOR!

AT ALL COST WE'VE GOT TO KEEP HIM ON THIS SATELLITE! IF HE GETS TO MONGLO...

ZARKOV! FLASH! THE DUST-DEVL THE ALIEN!

WHAT'S HE UP TO? HE'S HEADING RIGHT FOR US!

—AND OUR RAYGUNS CAN'T HARM HIM! GUN FLASH!

THE ALIEN—IT'S HEADING RIGHT FOR US! DUCK, ZARKOV!

FLASH, IT'S AFTER ZARKOV! WH-WHAT'S IT GOING TO DO?

IT'S GOING TO DESTROY YOU, MEDDLERS.

GREAT SCOTT! IT'S POSSESSED HIM!

PLUTO

I WISH CLARABELLE WOULDN'T ASK ME TO LOOK AFTER HER STORE! IT MAKES ME NERVOUS!

PLUTO! NO...

GEE ME CUS OF THIS!

NOW FOR A NICE SLEEP WITH MY NEW MASK AND BAR PLUSS!

BOY... THAT WAS A SWEET SLEEP! NOW FOR SOME BREAKFAST!

DINNER PARTY? THAT ISN'T TILL MONDAY... TWO NIGHTS FROM NOW!

THIS IS MONDAY NIGHT!

BLONDIE

ANOTHER NEW HAT!! IT'S AN OUTRAGE!

DAGWOOD—YOU SHOUTED AT ME, AND ALL HAVE IN HERE IS MY KNITTING!

BOO-HOO—YOU SHOUTED AT ME!

DON'T CRY DEAR—IF YOU WANT A NEW HAT GO RIGHT OUT AND BUY ONE!

HELLO TOOTSIE... WORKED!

THESE BILLS ARE TERRIBLE!

DAGWOOD, DON'T BE SO CALABERATIC!

THERE'S NO SUCH WORD IN THE DICTIONARY AS CALABERATIC!

ANYBODY CAN USE WORDS IN THE DICTIONARY. IT TAKES BRAINS TO THINK UP NEW WORDS!

THE LONE RANGER

THEN IT'S A DEAL! I'LL SEE THAT YOU TWO GET OUT OF HERE TONIGHT.

HISTER DOW SUSPECTED THOSE TWO ARE THE CHIEFS WHO ROBBED HIS BANK. HE WANTED TO TALK TO THEM TO MAKE SURE.

I WAS MISTAKEN, SHERIFF. THANKS FOR LETTING ME TALK TO THE PRISONERS.

I WONDER WHY DOW REALLY WANTED TO TALK TO THEM.

THE LONE RANGER SAID I'LL TAKE TWO DAYS TO REACH THE PLACE WHERE DAD FOUND GOLD, MOM, SO I'LL BE BACK BY THE END OF THE WEEK.

BE CAREFUL, BOB!

DON'T WORRY!

I'LL COME BACK RICH!

GRANDMA

GEE, THERE GOES GRANDMA BACK HOME ON TH' RUN!

I GUESS SHE'S JUST GETTIN' IN CONDITION...

...FOR TH' ANNUAL HOUSE-CLEANIN' AN' LAWN-CUTTIN' SEASON!!

GRANDMA, DID YOU EVER FIND YOUR LOST LITTLE POTTED CACTUS PLANT?

OH, YES, I FOUND IT THIS MORNING IN MY FAVORITE OVERSTUFFED ARMCHAIR!

NOW YOU YOUNGSTERS COME SIT AT 'T' TABLE AN' EAT YOUR LUNCH...

...AN' I'LL HAVE MINE OVER HERE ON TH' MANTEL!!

OZARK LIKE

THIS WHAP SHO IS WEARIN' ME DOWN!

AND TH' RUG, TOO, HONEY?

ARE YUH SHO 'O' FRIENDS A-GONNA COME BACK HERE AFTER HE FINDS OUT WHAR SLEDGE HAMKIN WENT?

ALL I KNOW IS WHAT HE TOLD ME, OZARK!

KNOCK KNOCK

THAT MUST BE HIM!

THAT MUST BE HIM NOW!

KNOCK KNOCK

HE MUST'VE BROUGHT SLEDGE HAMKIN'S BACK WITH HIM!

PERT! WHAT HAPPENED TO YOU?

(MOAN) I FOLLOWED FELLY THAT YOU SAID—BUT HE HAD SPOTTED ME.

AS I CAME AROUND A CORNER—WHAR! THAT'S ALL I REMEMBER!

(GROAN) NOW HOW DO WE FIND HIM?
