High Waters Result From Tropic Storm

Disturbance Strikes Near Fort Myers To Cross State In Region Of Okeechobee

Water Highest At Bonita Springs

Shipping Warned In Florida Straights And Off East Coast

JACKSONVILLE, June 15. (AP)—Residents of several South Florida towns were marooned today by high waters resulting from a tropical storm which crossed the state and went out into the Atlantic Ocean this morning. There was heavy rainfall during the night but no material wind damage was reported. Sheriff Bob King said he was informed by residents of Bonita Springs 20 miles south of here, that the waters there were the highest in about ten years. They were approximately two and a half feet above normal. The telephone line to Bonita Springs was cut today and King sent a deputy to the town to investigate conditions. There was no damage in Fort Myers although the highway south of the city was covered with water.

Fred A. Penders, the government weather observer at Moore Haven reported rainfall there in the 48 hours period prior to 3 A. M. today was 2.25 inches, the heaviest since the 1926 hurricane. Several small bridges were cut by the swollen water.

Storm surges were continued today from Titusville to Key West. They were most severe on the west coast at 11 A. M. The center of the tropical disturbance was reported very near Miami at 8:00 A. M. with barometric readings 30.20 and the wind velocity 35 miles an hour northeast.

RFC HEAD ESCAPES BURNING PLANE

Escaping uninjured when his plane caught on fire, Chairman Jesse Jones (top left) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation lauds the heroism of his co-pilot Eugene Schacher (top right) who, with pilot Ed Hickey, brought the burning ship to the ground near Ferris, Tex., without loss of life. Both pilots were severely burned, but passengers Jones, Joe Toomey, and former Texas Governor W. P. Hobby and Mrs. Hobby were only shaken up. Wreckage of the plane which skidded 150 yards, lost its motor, and burned is shown below. (AP Photos)

"Funie" Steed Will Discuss Townsend Plan

W. J. "Funie" Steed of Kissimmee, candidate for Congress from the newly created Fifth Congressional District, comes back to Sanford tonight for his final talk to Seminole County voters before the Democratic primary on June 23 which definitely decides the runoff between himself and "Little Joe" Hendricks. Mr. Steed, who announces that he will hold his meeting at 8 o'clock at the corner of Magnolia Avenue and First Street, or in case of rain at the Seminole County Court House, proposes tonight to discuss the Townsend Old Age Pension Plan and to tell the voters, where he personally stands on the question of old age pensions. One of nine men who offered for Democratic nomination to Congress in the first primary, Mr. Steed emerged from this contest as one of the two successful candidates who must run it off in a second primary on June 25. He received a fine vote in this county where he is well known having married the former Miss Katherine Ball, a daughter of Mrs. J. G. Ball and the late Mr. Ball.

Dawson Advises Local Dairymen To Fight Weeds

C. R. Dawson, county farm agent, today urged Seminole dairymen to begin an intensive campaign against pasture weeds. The agent particularly emphasized that the presence of hardy, overgrown bitter vegetation in pastures tends to give milk an unpleasant flavor. "Mowing machines and scythes are the best implements for destroying weeds," Mr. Dawson advised. "Sodium chlorate and other chemicals may be used as 'weed killers.'" The agent remarked further that applications of 400 pounds of super-phosphate to the acre has proven effective in reducing weed infestation on permanent pastures of Bermuda, carpet and centipede grasses. "Phosphate tends to correct soil conditions and also serves as a plant food to stimulate the spread and growth of sod grasses to the extent that they choke out weeds," he said. Mr. Dawson reported that financial assistance in making permanent pastures is possible under the new soil conservation act. Money may also be obtained for the purchase of phosphate and limestone to be applied to land. Interested dairymen should file work sheets in the county farm office, the agent concluded.

Adjournment Looms Before U.S. Congress

Law-Makers Resume Conferences After GOP Convention In Cleveland Closes

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP)—Congress hit the adjournment trail once more today after a week's layoff for the Republican convention. Its Republican members came back from the Cleveland committee seeking to reconcile House and Senate differences on the vital tax bill and waded into the most serious point of contention—proposed levies on undistributed corporate earnings. Conferees on the other major pre-adjournment measure, the deficiency appropriation bill carrying $1,425,000,000 for relief, had their first meeting but reported they considered no controversial matters before lunch. President Roosevelt returned to the capitol ending a 4,000 mile speaking trip through the West that began last Monday night. He covered a dozen states. Senator Adams of Colorado, head of the Senate conferees on the deficiency bill, said it was "among the possibilities" that an agreement might be reached this afternoon. He expressed a belief it was not vital whether the President or "someone working for him" administered the relief funds. The House put the Administration relief money in Hopkins' hands but the Senate placed this authority directly with the President. Adams said the reclamation appropriations included in the bill were not reached this morning. Also there has been no discussion yet of the Florida shipwreck.

As the general outlook for adjournment before the Democratic convention next week, Senator Robinson, Democratic leader, refused to make a definite prediction. "It all depends on the conference committees," he said. An uncertain element was proposed as a price-fixing substitute for the outlawed Guffey coal control law. It was approved with some modifications by the Senate interstate commerce committee and there was a possibility of House action on it during the day.

THE STORY OF SOLDIER BONUS—IN PICTURES!

The story of Joseph Ashl, Washington, D. C., is told in these pictures because it is typical of thousands of other World War veterans who will begin receiving their bonus bonds the night of June 15. In 1917 Ashl went to war as a private (upper left) and was wounded critically in a battle similar to the fighting shown in the United States signal corps picture at upper right. On the eve of the bonus payments, Ashl meets his postman (lower left) and rehearses the happy scene that will be duplicated many times all over the country when the mailman brings the bonds. In the meantime, Ashl and his wife (lower right) inspect their home with a view to repairing it with some of the bonus money. (AP Photos)

Seminole County Sanfordite Is Officer In Schools Achieve Accredited Lists

All Seminole County schools, both high and elementary, will be listed as accredited institutions during the 1936-37 term, according to the state school superintendent's bulletin received here today by T. W. Lawton, county school superintendent. One of the principal advantages of being an accredited institution is that graduates may enter higher schools without being compelled to take examinations, Mr. Lawton pointed out. Before a school is admitted to the select list, the following points are taken into consideration: grounds, building, heat, lighting, libraries, supplementary books, physical equipment, length of term, principal and teachers' rating and certification. Superintendent Lawton said Seminole County schools have attained 100 percent rating for several years, although with each succeeding year it is necessary to make improvements over the past term. Among the activities that become an annual necessity is constant planning by principals and teachers to meet new educational requirements, Mr. Lawton emphasized.

Distribution of bonus bonds was one of the most timely undertakings of the United States Postoffice Department, and the local postmaster, E. J. Holly, has requested the co-operation of recipients here to facilitate delivery. Mr. Holly said city mail delivery and rural mail delivery will be suspended today to facilitate the delivery of the bonds. Box owners will get their bonds through boxes. After obtaining the registry certificate, if it must be presented at a postoffice window where the actual bonds will be issued. Postmaster Holly said the department is establishing night office hours of 7 o'clock to 10 o'clock as a convenience to those who are engaged during the day and are not able to leave their employment. Cone Thinks $50 A Day Is Enough Wages For Labor

PALATKA, June 15.—Following a speech by a delegate to the laboring people of Columbia county and assured him of the entire organization's support. He told him of their attitude regarding his opponent whom they described as "Banker" Cone on one hand and "Candidate" Cone on the other. They agreed to furnish affidavits if necessary declaring that "Banker" Cone had appropriate relief officials numerous times within the last several years arguing that $5 to 75 cents a day was sufficient wages for labor. They pointed out that "Candidate" Cone was not taking the people that he favored organized labor and had always been a friend of the working man. E. E. Melton, editor of the Palatka County Gazette, has announced that his newspaper will editorially endorse Mr. Melton's declaration "Candidate" Cone should hold an honest election and that an honest vote of the people should be taken.

High Tariff

With the single exception of the World War, no other national development was so largely responsible for the economic dislocations...

Throughout the campaign of 1932 political spinners of the Democratic party fired their deadly shafts with telling effect at this Republican measure...

One of the first tasks of the New Deal was to overcome the impediments to foreign trade which resulted from this extreme tariff legislation...

Now comes Fred Cone, the Lake City banker, who is a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination of Florida...

That this is the traditional policy of the Republican party is too well known to deserve comment...

It is, of course, a popular thing to advocate higher and higher protection for your own constituents...

Why Newspapers Lead

Newspapers continued as "tops" in advertising media in 1935, and here is why, according to Prof. Thomas F. Barnhart...

- 1-Newspaper reading is a universal habit. Newspaper advertising, therefore, reaches virtually all who read and buy.
2-A newspaper advertisement can always be seen by the reader.
3-The newspaper advertisement, as part of the complete paper goes into the home as a welcome guest.

Roosevelt Asks Aid In Lengthy Recovery Plan

President Uses Act Of Clark To Defend New Deal Policies

VINCENNES, Ind., June 14.—President Roosevelt, before a backdrop of history and rallies, Sunday called upon the nation to help him in his long-range program for social and economic betterment.

His immediate address was more than 50,000 cheering citizens of Indiana, massed in the park adjoining the memorial to George Rogers Clark...

Under the blazing sun, he dedicated a $2,500,000 memorial to Clark, the young Revolutionary War hero, who saved the Northwest for the United States...

"We do not change our form of free government when we arm ourselves with new weapons against new devices of crime and evil," he said, defending his liberal interpretation of the Constitution.

"In his day among the pioneers there were jumpers of land claims and those who sought to swindle their neighbors, though they were poor in this world's goods and lived in sparsely settled communities...

"Who, among them, vindicated the day the sun would be darkened as far east as the waters of the Atlantic by great clouds of top soil borne by the wind from what had been grassy and apparently imperishable prairie?"

At this point he observed that because man did not have the knowledge in those days, "we have waded nature and nature has taken revenge."

The President also dwelt at length on the need for conservation of natural resources, embracing features of the New Deal such as reforestation and flood control...

He said it was the task of the living to restore to nature many of the riches we have taken from her in order that she may smile once more on those who come after us."

"Who," he asked, "were among the second and third generations of settlers of this virgin land who headed to the future, results that attended the cutting of the timber which denuded the greater part of the wilderness?"

"Who, among them, had ever heard the term 'sub-marginal land' or worried about what would happen when the original soil played out or ran off to the ocean?"

"Who, among them, were concerned if the market price for livestock for the moment justified the over-grazing of pastures, to a temporary boom in the price of cotton or corn supplied them to forget that rotation of crops was a farming maximum as far back as the days of ancient Babylon?"

"Who, among them, regarded floods as preventable?"

"Who, among them, thought of the use of coal, or oil, or gas, or falling water as the means of turning their wheels and lighting their homes?"

"Who, among them, visualized the day the sun would be darkened as far east as the waters of the Atlantic by great clouds of top soil borne by the wind from what had been grassy and apparently imperishable prairie?"

At this point he observed that because man did not have the knowledge in those days, "we have waded nature and nature has taken revenge."

The President also dwelt at length on the need for conservation of natural resources, embracing features of the New Deal such as reforestation and flood control.

San Farley Calls Landon 'Synthetic' G. O. P. Candidate

NEW YORK, June 14.—(AP)—Turning Gov. Alf Landon a synthetic candidate for president, postmaster General James A. Farley, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, issued a statement Saturday calling the Republican selection "the weakest ticket ever nominated in the history of the party."

"The Republicans," his statement said, "should adopt 'one with Landon' as their campaign slogan."

His (Landon's) nomination is a confession of guilt on the part of a bankrupt Republican party. In effect, the American people are asked to reform the dangerous experiment of turning over the reins of government to a man whose record has been cancelled whose views are a mystery, and whose career in public life is without a single achievement to indicate that he is equipped for the leading duties of the White House.

Norris Advocates Second Term For Democratic Chief

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP)—Senator George W. Norris (R., Neb.), advised Republicans Sunday night that the best way to achieve the objectives outlined by Senator Frederick Steiwer (R., Ore.), is to re-elect President Roosevelt.

Steiwer, in striking the G. O. P. convention keynote, spoke of the need for re-employment, prosperity, and increased living standards.

The eminent Nebraskan, who still wears the Republican label although he parted company with G. O. P. leaders in 1928 to support Alfred E. Smith against Herbert Hoover, said in an address that the party convention at Cleveland demonstrated it believes in "Hoover principles of government."

"If they had the courage of their convictions," he said, "they would have nominated Mr. Hoover for president."

Referring continually to actions of the convention as the work of "some eminent gentlemen behind a smoke screen," Norris added:

"The American people have not forgotten the dreary picture of the Hoover administration . . . As the smoke screen at Cleveland gradually arises, the American people will realize that though the voice of the convention is Jacob's voice the hands are the hands of Esau."

Norris, like Democratic National Chairman James A. Farley, criticized the G. O. P. platform. Yesterday Farley described the Republican platform as composed of "counterfeit New Deal" plans.

"If they had the courage of their convictions," he said, "they would have nominated Mr. Hoover for president."

Norris said, "Some things in it are absolutely unworkable, and many things in it are deceptive of almost any construction."

ENJOY PICNIC

The members of the Junior Division of the First Baptist Sunday School were entertained with a picnic and swimming party given last Thursday afternoon at Palm Springs near Longwood. A large number of children were in attendance.

The contest must be taken to B. D. Harris, chairman of the Festival, at this store in Leesburg.

Liquor Is Fought By Mexican President

MEXICO CITY, June 15.—(AP)—President Lazaro Cardenas has not forgotten one of his campaign promises—to fight the "vice of alcohol" in Mexico.

Quietly his administration has gone about the business of inducing Mexicans to forewear the pulque and tequila, products of the ubiquitous maguay, they have been drinking since pre-conquest days.

Further, the postmaster said the identification of the recipient must be made before receiving his negotiable certificates.

Persons not needing their bonds immediately will greatly assist the postoffice by waiting a few days before collecting, Mr. Holly declared.

The Associated Press, in a Washington dispatch, said bonds worth $3,000,000 had been placed in the mails for veterans all over the country.

Mailing the paper marked the end of a 17-year fight on the part of ex-soldiers and ex-sailors who sought immediate payment of the adjusted service certificates, the Associated Press said.

Thirty-eight "million" individual bonds were required to meet the situation, according to statistics released by the treasury department.

One Dies, Couple Missing As Coast Guard Ship Falls

ST. PETERSBURG, June 15.—(AP)—A Coast Guard amphibian plane on storm patrol duty plunged into Tampa bay near here today. The body of Lieutenant Charles Martin Ferrott was found jammed in the wreckage but divers saw no trace of Radioman Walter O. Morris and Aviation Mechanic William D. Hubanks who it was believed, may have been thrown clear. Little hope prevailed they may have saved themselves.

Coast Guard crew found their grasping equipment essential in the task of raising plane from fourteen feet of water as they awaited the arrival of a motor crane.

'Raw Meat' Rogers Arrives To Take Over Lookouts

DeLand Sustains 6 To 4 Defeat By Local Club

Swindell Laces Ball Over Barrier For Round Trip Ticket

"Raw Meat" Bill Rogers today pitched his tent on Sanford camping grounds, and took over the reins of the local ball club.

Stuffy McCrone, former manager and first baseman, had not decided this morning whether he will remain to hold down the initial sack, although he has been offered a playing contract.

The Lookouts—who play Daytona Beach here tomorrow, were scheduled to play the Islanders at the beach yesterday. City Island, however, would accommodate nothing but boats so the fracas was postponed.

In DeLand Saturday the locals handed McCrone a 6 to 4 victory as his parting gift. Swindell took it upon himself to make it a personal party by handing the stocky little first sacker a four base rap as his contribution.

The Lookouts chalked up one run in the first and three in the third, thereby assuring themselves at least of a tie, since the Reds could muster no more than four tallies.

Again in the fifth and once in the eighth a Sanford man managed to circle the bases which ended the locals' scoring.

DeLand pushed over one tally in the fifth and a pair of markers in the following stanza. They added one more in the eighth but failed to show the punch in their half of the ninth to overcome

Gallegos Socks Homerun To Take Palatka, 1 To 0

Sparkman Allows Five Hits As McGloin Is Reached For Six

PALATKA, June 15.—Teen Gallegos, manager of the Azaleas part of the 1935 season, provided the needed punch to give DeLand a 1-0 victory over his former mates here yesterday afternoon when he hit for the circuit over the left field barrier in the ninth inning.

The clout provided the climax to a sterling pitchers' battle between Jim McGloin and Joe Sparkman, both southpaws. McGloin, on the mound for the Reds, was nicked for a half dozen blows while Sparkman was touched for five hits including Gallegos' homer. The Red hurler struck out five and walked four while Sparkman fanned eight and walked a like number.

Tip to the ninth inning DeLand had pushed a runner as far as third base in the fifth and seventh chapters while the Azaleas duplicated the performance in the first and fifth frames. However, neither team could exhibit the necessary punch to tally.

In the ninth chapter Sparkman walked Bolling to start the canto but Rubeling was caught at first after a sacrifice. An Bolling was tagged after over-running second to make two outs. Gallegos followed with his four-ply clout.

Palatka loaded the cushions in the last of the ninth on a single, infield out and pair of walks, one of the intentional variety, but could not score when Pinch Hitter Slauslein grounded to Bolling for the third out.

The two-run lead established by the Cronemen.

Extra-base hits were not infrequent. Both Swindell and Bolling cracked homers. Barnes and Rubeling rapped out triples. Didrikson, unch and Rubeling failed to be content with one double each.

Bunch, on the ant hill for the Reds, turned loose nine hits, whiffed three and gave two free passes. Sweeney was nicked for one less than a dozen safeties, struck out four hitters and received errorless support.

The box score:

AB	R	H	E	A
DeLand	6	10	1	0
Palatka	1	5	0	0

Schmeling-Louis Upset Is Unlikely Despite Age Gap

Maxie Viewed As Old Dempsey Stylist, Taking Two Punches In Return For Landing Single Blow

NEW YORK, June 15.—(AP)—Herr Max Schmeling, the man who walks alone, can become the greatest "gig crasher" in all ring history Thursday night when he tangles with Brown Bomber Joe Louis at Yankee Stadium.

The new era of the million dollar gates, built by the pulling power of the sensational, 22-year-old Detroit negro, would crash should the Teuton Schlager whip over a knockout punch, or even win a clear decision over the Bomber. A heavyweight champion match between James J. Braddock and Schmeling with Louis eliminated, would have difficulty in reaching a half million dollar goal.

Promoter Mike Jacobs, who holds the valuable contract on Louis' services through 1940, would even risk his present dictatorship over the heavyweight boxing industry as ring history books are choked with startling upsets, topped probably by Braddock's victory over Max Baer, but a close study of Schmeling and Louis only widens the chasm between their abilities in ring warfare.

Schmeling, even at his best, was an easy target, especially for a right. He's a fighter who likes to take two punches to get in one good one. Those tactics certainly won't get him anywhere against Louis, who can flatten his foe with either hand. The negro's trainer Jack Blackburn, rates Joe as probably the hard-

Chapman Traded To Senators For Alvin J. Powell

Yankees, Washington Make Transaction As Deadline Falls

NEW YORK, June 15.—(AP)—Getting under the trading wire just before the June 15 deadline, the Yankees yesterday gave the Washington Senators Outfielder Ben Chapman in return for Alvin (Jake) Powell, also an outer gardener, in a straight player transaction.

Chapman, long known as one of the fastest men on the base paths in the big leagues has been with the Yankees since 1930. Previously he was with Asheville and St. Paul, as an infielder.

Powell, a right-handed batter, has played regularly with Washington only during the last two years, although he saw a short stretch of action with the Senators back in 1930.

Powell's batting average last season, and so far in the current campaign, compares favorably with Chapman's. He hit .312 to .289 for Chapman in 1935, and his present average is .293, while Chapman's record shows .266.

Since today is the final day for all major league trades, the Yankees, leading the American League, will have to stand pat on the bench today.

Swindell's homer in the third was a mighty blow over the right field wall. He connected with one of Bunch's losses.

Daytona Beach and Sanford will tangle here tomorrow at 4 P. M. St. Augustine plays here Thursday and Palatka visits Friday.

Krider won his only start of the week in Gainesville Wednesday.

Harden lost both of his starts. Averages released Sunday show Joe Bistruf, Lookout catcher, well up among the leading hitters, being in third place with .343.

Bill Cates, in fourth place is stepping right on Joe's heels with an average of .341.

'Much Relieved,' Says Lady After Taking CARDUI

Although they may be very active and apparently in good health, many women, at certain times will do well to take Cardui. It may relieve some of the nagging symptoms that are so annoying every month.

Mrs. F. T. Foster, of Greensburg, Ky., writes that she has "derived great benefit" from Cardui. "Before taking Cardui, I was weak and extremely nervous, and suffered from sleeplessness. This made me tired and worn in daytime. My back ached continually. Being an active woman, I did not want to continue in this condition. Having heard a great deal about Cardui, I found, after just a few bottles, I was much relieved. I continued taking Cardui and was so much helped. Of course, if Cardui does not benefit YOU, consult a physician."
