County Eyes Sanford Land For Future Office Space

By Donna Estes
Herald Staff Writer

By the year 2000 Seminole County will be short 27,000 square feet of office space and buildings and land in Sanford the county seat, will be selling at premium prices.

Planning for the future, county commissioners are looking at the possible purchase of the Masonic Temple on Park Avenue and the Kirk Plaza and the old Nash-Lafayette car dealership on Commercial Avenue.

Commissioners Monday unanimously authorized John Percy, director of public services, to get appraisals showing the market value of the three facilities.

At the same time the commissioners decided they are not interested in selling off any of their Sanford property.

The county owns the old Roumilat Building at First Street and Park Avenue and the former Seminole Memorial Hospital, now the County Services Building, and has converted both into office space.

The former jail behind the courthouse and the old health department building on French Avenue are being renovated into office space. Office space is being rented at the Sanford

City Hall, at the Masonic Temple and in other Sanford buildings.

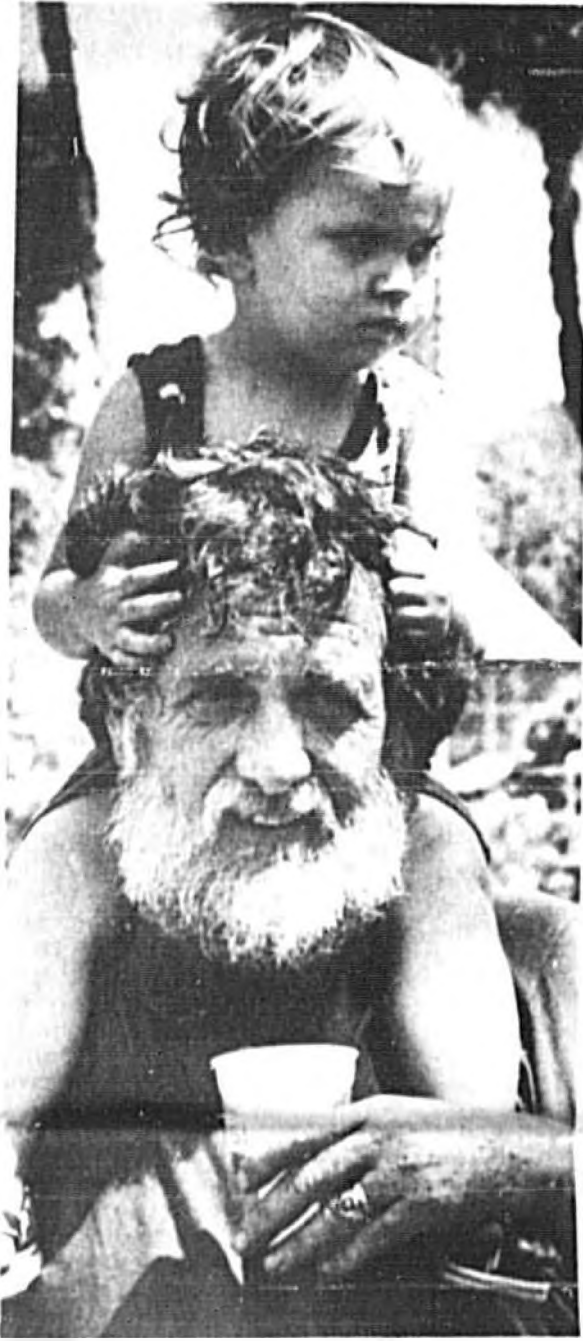

Percy said at his request the leadership of the Masonic Temple at 212 N. Park Ave. submitted a proposal to the county for the sale of their facility. The offers in the proposal are asking for $375,000 for the building plus a swap of four lots owned by the county near the County Services Building at First Street and Mellenville Avenue.

Commissioner Bill Kirchhoff said the county will need those lots for parking space. "We don't want to swap or give away any property nearby," Kirchhoff said.

Percy told commissioners the asking price of Kirk Plaza with its 7,000 square feet is $400,000 and an appraisal done in 1982 shows it was

Bi-Racial Panel Postponed

By Rick Brunson
Herald Staff Writer

The bi-racial committee proposed by city commissioner Bob Thomas to study race relations in Sanford was stalled Monday night when commissioners voted 3 to 1 that the idea needs more scrutiny.

Mayor Betty Smith and commissioners David Farr and Milton Smith voted for the postponement, saying the panel's size, membership and purpose needed further scrutiny. Thomas voted against postponement, commissioner John Mercer was absent.

Mayor Smith suggested the postponement be until the commission's workshop meeting next Monday, saying its proposed size of 17 members would make it too unwieldy. Farr and Milton Smith concurred. Smith adding that forthright was needed because the panel is so important to Sanford's future and Farr questioning the need

...there are a lot of white people who feel just as you (Farr) do; that we don't need to go any further... (But) there are a lot of subtle things that... we need to talk about.

—Bob Thomas

for such a committee altogether.

The move surprised Thomas and some of the people he had asked to be on the panel. About six of them showed up Monday night expecting to be appointed along with the others.

Last week, after chiding Thomas for not notifying them of his plans for a panel, Mayor Smith and the commissioners agreed to make the committee official at Monday's meeting. At that time Thomas said nine people — six blacks, including himself, and three whites — agreed to be on the panel and he was searching for three more to even its racial composition. When he offered his colleagues the chance to make their own appointments to the committee they declined, saying it wasn't necessary.

But at Monday's meeting Mayor Smith suggested each of the commissioners come to next Monday's workshop session with some names of suggested candidates for a steering committee that could set goals for the bi-racial committee.

Mrs. Smith said there is nothing "wrong" with the people Thomas picked, but more discussion about the panel is needed to ensure its success.

Sanford Delays Verdict On School Lot Rezoning

A decision on rezoning a 10-acre tract across from Sanford Middle School from residential to commercial, a move which would clear the way for the construction of a shopping center, has been put off until May 13.

The Sanford City Commission was scheduled to take up the issue at Monday's meeting but it honored a request by project engineer Mack LaZenby to postpone a decision on the matter.

The city's Planning and Zoning Commission recommended 6-3 earlier this month that the commission deny the rezoning request.

Orlando developer Donald Huber wants to build a 110,000-square-foot shopping center on the property but the project is vehemently opposed by nearby residents who cite potential traffic problems and the desire to keep the land a recreational area.

About 40 residents showed up at Monday's meeting to voice opposition to the rezoning. Some complained about the delay, but Mayor Betty Smith said however that postponing a hearing at a developer's request is a normal practice. She said she did not know why LaZenby wanted more time.

Sylvia Smith, a leader of the opposition to the rezoning, said residents have collected more than 400 signatures on a petition protesting the rezoning.

'Good Ole Boy' Memo Clarified

Stung by criticism from members of the city's Civil Service Board, Sanford City Manager Warren "Pete" Knowles says last week's memo concerning hiring qualifications was not meant to imply that the board has been hiring "good ole boys."

Some members of the board, particularly Dr. Luis Perez, said they were "insulted" by a memo from Knowles encouraging them to fill three positions — police chief, assistant city manager and city engineer — with qualified applicants and not "good ole boys."

The memo was sent to commissioners on Tuesday, the day they met to review applications for all three positions.

Perez said the memo was "an insult to my intelligence and my integrity" and that the board has never hired someone because they were "a good ole boy."

Knowles was in Tallahassee last week so he couldn't respond to the criticism. But he said Monday that he was not implying the board has hired unqualified "good ole boys" in the past or that there are such people in staff positions at city hall now.

He said the purpose of the memo was to make two new members of the board aware of the city commission's upgraded job qualifications adopted in recent years and to remind the board of the predicament the city is in.

Knowles' and Police Chief Ben Butler's retirements next Tuesday, along with Assistant City Manager Steve Harriett's move to the police department as acting chief, has left City Manager designate Frank Faison and city hall "behind the eight ball." Added to that the impending retirement of the city's executive secretary, Mary Harkey-Meyer. In July, the same month city department budgets are due, and you have problems, Knowles said.

Knowles sent a memo to Perez Monday trying to clarify what he meant. In it he said, "no city manager is paid to make recommendations, suggestions, and to give

Longwood Proposes To Hike Utility Taxes Cap

By Jane Casselberry
Herald Staff Writer

A proposal to raise a utility taxes cap to $5 for residential accounts and $10 for commercial is the topic of a public hearing set for May 13 in Longwood.

The Longwood City Commission unanimously voted preliminary approval for the increase at Monday night's meeting. The city has a 10 percent utility tax on electricity, metered or bottled gas, water service, telephone service and telegraph service within the city, but now has a $1 cap on the amount that can be taxed on each in one billing period.

Mayor Harvey Smerilson said the biggest increase for customers will be in their electric bill and most won't see any increase on their water bill. The tax on the telephone bill is based on the basic charge, which for most who own their equipment is $9.84.

Several residents in the audience said they did not object to the increase, but one objected to having the tax raised if it is to be used to build a new police building which has been moved twice by voters.

Also given preliminary approval was an ordinance prohibiting the use or operation of motor or engine powered boats on West Lake. A public hearing and a vote on final approval are scheduled for May 13.

The exception to the proposed ban would be use of such boats by the police, fire, or rescue services. Violation of the ordinance calls for a maximum fine of $500 or imprisonment for 60 days or both.

In other business, commissioners delayed action on a resolution requested by County Commissioner Sandra Glenn.

Mrs. Glenn asked for an interlocal agreement between the city and county with the city agreeing to notify the county whenever it receives an application for a building permit along county Road 427 between state Road 434 and Charlotte Street.

Mrs. Glenn wants Longwood to withhold any building permit until the applicant has paid a $60 per-front-foot fee and donated a 10-foot right-of-way.

Though agreeable, the commissioners delayed action on the resolution until the May 13 meeting the county officially adopts a similar resolution.

"Almost all of this section is within the city limits," Mrs. Glenn said, "and as property usage changes, applicants go to the city for building permits and are told they must get their curb cut permit from the county, which maintains the road and owns the right-of-way."

At present some people build first then come for a cut permit, she said. Some come for the cut first and then find out the county requires donation of a 10-foot right-of-way, plus a fee of $60 per front foot along county Road 427.

Mrs. Glenn said applicants are being asked to donate the impact fee instead of being required to pay for putting in center sections and turn lanes which are a lot of expense when the road is expected to be widened to five lanes in the next 2-3 years.

The Longwood commission also

- Named to the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board Tracy Helms, Dean Plato, Marita Newkirk, Peter Hoffman and Fred Eggerichs.

- Authorized an $2,720 expenditure for testing of the new effluent disposal ponds at the sewer plants.

- Approved a request by the Longwood Historical Commission to plant a tree at the Fire Station No. 1 on West Warren Avenue for Arbor Day this Friday at 10 a.m.

Ramps Workshop Tonite

Skateboard ramps, which have been the subject of controversy in recent city commission meetings in Longwood, will be discussed at a workshop at 7 p.m. today in the city hall at 175 W. Warren Ave.

A special meeting is scheduled for 9 p.m. to discuss the tennis court construction contract for Reiter Park.

Residents have objected to large skateboard ramps built near their homes, citing problems of noise, lack of privacy, litter, additional traffic, obscenity and nudity.

Ramp owners say skateboarding is a healthy sport that keeps kids off the street and out of trouble and that standards can be set up to make the ramps safe and eliminate problems.

The city has also been asked to build skateboard ramps in parks.

Jury Tampering Suspect Surrenders To Officials

A man wanted since November on a charge of tampering with a witness has surrendered to Seminole County authorities.

Billy Hilton Caulder, 58, of Keystone Heights, Fla., is accused of offering $50,000 to the mother of an 8-year-old girl who later testified against Caulder's son, Jeffrey Scott Caulder, 28, of 508 Elm Drive, Casselberry.

The younger Caulder was convicted following the girl's graphic testimony and faces a life sentence with no possibility of parole for 25 years. He has not been sentenced because his attorney is maintaining that 25 years for the sexual battery of a child is cruel and unusual punishment.

According to Assistant State Attorney Kurt Eriehbach, Seminole County investigators tapped the woman's phone after she began receiving calls from a man offering her money to keep her daughter from testifying.

At Caulder's trial, secretly taped conversation

Rawlings was near his apartment one day when a bike-riding security guard for the complex pedaled over to Rawlings and ran him down, or so he states a civil suit filed in Seminole Circuit Court Monday.

The Rawlings filed suit against Consolidated Capital Equities Corporation of Colorado, owner of the apartment complex. They are each suing for an unspecified amount of damages in excess of $5,000. The incident occurred Aug. 19, 1983.

Rawlings said he was injured, suffered pain, physical handicap and medical expenses because of the incident. He said his working ability was impaired.

Mrs. Rawlings is suing for loss of her husband's services, companionship and consortium.

They ask for a trial by jury.

IN BRIEF

Reagan, Congress Head For Showdown On Contra Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan sought a compromise with Senate Democrats on aid to Nicaraguan rebels before a Senate foreign policy showdown today but steeled himself for the expected rejection of his policy in the House.

Daylong White House talks brought Reagan and Senate Republicans and Democrats closer on the aid proposal but no agreement was reached.

Reagan's request for $14 million in military aid for the rebels is virtually certain to fail in the House and in danger of failing in the Senate in crucial votes today on Reagan's policies in Central America.

The Senate planned up to 10 hours of debate before voting. The House had up to 14 hours booked for debate.

The Contras are fighting to overthrow Managua's leftist Sandinista government. Among the sticking points in Senate-White House negotiations was whether Nicaragua should talk about peace with the Contras, as Reagan has suggested, or whether the United States should talk with Nicaragua about improving relations if the warring sides call a cease-fire, as Senate Democrats have proposed.

Hundreds Of Protesters Arrested

By United Press International

Demonstrators outside the White House and on college campuses across the nation rallied against South Africa's system of racial segregation known as apartheid. More than 575 protesters were arrested.

Police at Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y., Monday night arrested 211 people who refused to leave the main administration building.

Several students camped overnight in a shantytown of cardboard and garbage bags. They said the shantytown represents the living conditions of many blacks in South Africa.

Students vowed to continue their protests at Cornell to persuade the university to divest its $120 million in companies doing business in South Africa.

Kohl Urged To Cut Bitburg Trip

WASHINGTON (UPI) — American Jewish leaders, finding President Reagan is standing firm, are pressuring West German Chancellor Helmut Kohl to cancel the president's controversial visit next month to a German war cemetery.

In a telegram, the B'nai B'rith International urged Kohl to ask Reagan to drop his visit from the Bitburg cemetery, where at least 47 Nazi Waffen SS troops are buried, and instead hold a ceremony honoring the late Konrad Adenauer, a former West German chancellor who "embodies the spirit of reconciliation."

The Jewish group made the request to Kohl as controversy still swirled around Reagan's planned Bitburg visit, with one prominent Jewish official suggesting the handling of the incident raises questions about how the White House would react to a "real crisis, such as a nuclear attack."

March Inflation Rate Worst In Over A Year

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A sharp turnaround in gasoline prices helped drive up the March consumer inflation rate by an unusually strong 0.5 percent — the worst month in more than a year, the government said today.

The Labor Department said its Consumer Price Index, which has risen only 3.7 percent in the last year, would be running at 5.8 percent if all 12 months were the same as March.

Motor fuel prices jumped 3.8 percent, a change that had an especially severe effect on the index because the month before prices were down 2.6 percent. Gasoline alone was up 3.6 percent yet was still cheaper than at the beginning of 1985.

The one-year moratorium on fee increases many doctors had pledged ran out in March and medical expenses rose a hefty 0.8 percent, the most since November 1982. But fees will probably not keep increasing at that rate, analysts said.

"The 0.5 percent increase is larger than we've had but it's not that unusual," Labor Department economist Patrick Jackman said. "We do not see anything turning around that much."

Most analysts expect the 1985 inflation rate to be little changed from 1984's 4 percent.

Prices for new cars were up 0.5 percent and used car prices surged a substantial 1 percent. But forecasts are assuming that the new import competition from Japan, now that the Japanese are no longer observing voluntary restraints on auto imports, will hold car prices from any big jumps this year.

One reflection of interest rate drops has been the large declines in the cost of auto loans, down 0.9 percent in March, the fourth consecutive month of improvement.

The bubble of inflation in March was anticipated by the Commerce Department last week. In its report on a weak first quarter gross national product the department measured inflation throughout the economy, not just for consumers, at 5.3 percent for January through March, the worst quarter since the spring of 1982.

Although the next several months look like a continuation of exceptional stability for prices, forecasters are watching the weakening dollar closely, aware that in the long run it could boost prices of imports and allow more room for domestic price increases as well.

Prison Term Thrown Out In Sex Assault On Teen; New Trial Set For June

A 7½-year prison sentence given to a Longwood man for lewdly assaulting a teenage girl has been thrown out of court because the man was charged incorrectly.

The state has recharged Paul Craig Chambers, 53, of 141 Sunset Drive, Longwood, and lawyers expect to reach another plea agreement, according to the assistant state attorney now on the case, Kurt Erlenbach.

Chambers, originally arrested and charged with nine felonies and a misdemeanor, including sexual battery and incest, pleaded guilty to the lesser charge of lewd and lascivious assault. The assaults reportedly occurred between May, 1983 and Feb. 10, 1984.

The state accepted the plea because the victim, now 18 years old, is unable to testify because of psychological problems. Chambers was sentenced April 12 by Seminole Circuit Judge C. Vernon Mize Jr., who gave Chambers the maximum sentence allowed under the state's sentencing guidelines.

Mize cited the emotional trauma to the victim as his reason for issuing the maximum sentence.

The case was thrown into limbo when Chamber's attorney noticed that his client pleaded guilty to an assault on a girl under 14. However, the incidents reportedly occurred when the girl was 17 years old. A lewd assault on a 17-year-old is not as serious a crime as an assault on a girl under 14, according to state statutes. Although the age of the victim was mentioned at a hearing the discrepancy was not noticed, Erlenbach said.

Mize vacated the sentence Monday and a June trial date set. However, a second plea is expected before then.

If Chambers pleads guilty again, that is to a lewd assault on a girl under the age of 18 but older than 14, he faces up to a year in the county jail. If he had been convicted as originally charged, he could have been sentenced to more than 171 years.

Bank Robber Gets Over $1,000; Eludes FBI

The FBI and Casselberry police were continuing their search today for a bandit who held up a Casselberry bank Monday and escaped with more than $1,000.

FBI agent Steve Salmieri said the robber walked into the Florida National Bank, state Road 436, at about 2:45 p.m. and handed a teller a note claiming he had a gun.

"We're not sure if he was armed," Salmieri said.

About five tellers and three customers were in the bank during the robbery, police said.

The bandit, who is in his early 20s, fled with the cash in a bank bag.

A police dog followed the suspect's trail to Sundance Apartments across the highway, but lost it, police said.

FBI and police are "still pursuing leads from witnesses," Salmieri said.

DOG FIGHTER?

Although no charges have been filed in connection with an alleged pit bulldog fight in Sanford, a suspect wanted for questioning in the case has been charged with obstructing justice and resisting arrest after allegedly running from a lawman.

A Seminole County sheriff's deputy responded to a complaint call about the alleged dog fight on Sipes Avenue, Sanford, at about 8 a.m. Thursday. The deputy spotted a suspect he wanted to question and reported the man's pit bulldog had minor injuries to its neck. The deputy asked the man to come to his patrol car for questioning, but he refused and ran, a sheriff's report said.

At about 9 a.m. Friday the deputy was driving in front of the suspect's house and the man's mother stopped the deputy and called her son to the car, where he was arrested, an arrest report said.

Floyd Bernard Byrd, 21, of 2370 Grandby St., Sanford, has been released on $500 bond.

Long Meetings Pain Seat Of Government

By Rick Brunson
Herald Staff Writer

Tired of meetings that drag on until midnight, Lake Mary City Commissioner Burt Perinchief submitted a proposal Thursday that he hopes will help get his colleagues and residents out of city hall at a decent hour.

A bleary-eyed Perinchief passed out copies of his proposal at a commission meeting at about 10:30 p.m., which is a normal hour for the commission to be conducting business. In recent months, the meetings have lasted until about midnight. The longest, in February, went on until after 2 a.m.

The meetings have been generally well attended by the public. Issues such as pay hikes, vacating alleys and the proposed construction of a convenience store in the heart of town have filled city hall. But after these topics are addressed, the place usually empties out. By 11:30 p.m. the red-eyed commissioners are talking among themselves, still hammering away at sewer agreements. The audience is down to two or three people — a couple of squirming reporters and the city treasurer or building inspector who are hanging around the coffee pot in the back of the room.

Perinchief is tired of the whole situation.

'...the mind can only absorb what the seat can endure.'

"I truly believe, incidentally, that the 'mind can only absorb what the seat can endure.' I am finding it increasingly difficult to absorb or to endure," Perinchief states in his memo.

He suggests that the commission establish a monthly workshop to discuss the details of upcoming topics on the agenda so that time isn't wasted on trivialities during a regular meeting.

Perinchief also says the city could save time by correcting the minutes before regular meetings instead of using debate time to delve into misspellings and commas-placers.

"Full-blown discussion" of staff reports should occur before or after meetings, unless the subject is of public interest.

But the practice that gets Perinchief's goat is repetitious discussion among the commissioners and the citizens. At Thursday's meeting he chided Commissioner Russ Megonegal for giving "20 minute answers" to questions he was asked about a salary report.

"Repetitious discussion should be kept to an absolute minimum and controlled from the (mayor's) chair. When an individual begins a statement with 'Again, ... or, 'As I said before, ...' it is time to pull the plug," Perinchief wrote in the memo.

Mayor Dick Fess said Friday he plans to implement most of Perinchief's suggestions but he said he doesn't want to see the commissioners "riffle" through topics. Neither, he said, should concern for brevity squelch the public's questions or input at meetings.

"We want to streamline them as much as possible, but we don't want to stymie the input," Fess said.

Lake Mary Commissioner Burt Perinchief peruses paperwork at a meeting dragging into late evening.

Dr. Catherine Cornelius

Former SCC Instructor To Address SCC Graduates

Dr. Catherine P. Cornelius, president of South Florida Community College, Thursday is scheduled to address the 18th annual graduation class of Seminole Community College.

Dr. Cornelius served at SCC from 1967 through 1978 as an instructor, and as director of Cooperative and Career Education. She accepted an appointment as director of the Division of Arts at Daytona Beach Community College, and in 1979 was elevated to the post of Vice President, Academic Affairs and Institutional Planning. She was appointed to her present post in 1984.

Dr. Cornelius received her undergraduate degree at Rollins College. She earned her master's degree at Rollins, and in 1978 was awarded her doctorate in education at the University of Florida.

Program To Aid Cancer Patients

Special To The Herald

"With hope, something wonderful happens... life."

Stressing the positive, Central Florida Regional Hospital, in cooperation with the Sanford-Lake Mary Unit of the American Cancer Society, is again offering "I Can Cope."

This special, free program for cancer patients and their families will be held weekly from 2 to 4 p.m. beginning Wednesday and continuing through June 12, in the hospital dining room.

"I Can Cope" has three main objectives: to increase knowledge, to increase control, and to decrease anxiety.

The course covers up-to-date knowledge of cancer and its treatment, how to deal with daily health problems, and how to increase communication effectiveness, both with caregivers and on a personal basis.

Opportunities to discuss sexuality and interpersonal relationships, with suggestions of ways to love up to total potential are provided.

Pre-registration is required, with enrollment limited. Participants are encouraged to attend all eight sessions. To register or for additional information, contact the Social Services Department at the hospital, 321-4500 or 668-4441.

BUILDING PERMITS

The following building permits were issued by the Lake Mary building department to:

- Arthur Tomarin, 332 Evansdale, for addition, $28,000.
- Derrel Brown, 410 Cardinal Oaks Court, for swimming pool, $8,000.
- Herry Beckman, 115 Sheeley Road, for porch addition, $4,300.
- Ken Chapman, 413 N. Nibrick Lane, for roof extension, $3,000.
- Peter Joseph, 362 Bush Hill Court, for swimming pool, $5,600.
- Energy Builders, 684 Keeneland Pike, for single family home, $80,000.
- Sutton and Sons, 363 Seminole Ave., for single family home, $45,000.
- Sutton and Sons, 378 Seminole Ave., for single family home, $45,000.

The 1980's Bank ShakeUp: How's It Going To Shake Out?

In five years of deregulation, we've seen more changes in the American financial system than in all the other years put together.

Today, banks offer discounts on commissions when you trade stocks and bonds. Stock brokers offer services that seem like bank accounts.

S&Ls no longer have their legal "4% edge" in interest rates. On the other hand, they can offer more kinds of loans.

Even department stores and insurance companies can get in the act. Now, most places are going to "wait and see" before they make a move; but, at NCNB, we're not.

We'll keep working to deliver the best possible service. It may not always mean the lowest price, but we'll work to see that it means the best value. For example:

More For Less.

Lots of places offer you money market rates, but only one offers them along with other bank services at special rates or no charge.

We call it Deluxe Banking[®] and we've made it easier to get. Now you can qualify by depositing just $1000; keep a $15,000 balance and there's no charge.

High Rates For More People.

Maybe you've thought about investing in Certificates, but you haven't wanted to commit a $2500 lump sum. Now you can invest in any certificate we offer with a minimum deposit of only $1000.

Until this year, you've had to deposit $2500 in an account to earn money market rates. Now, on personal accounts, we've cut our minimum deposit to just $1000.

More IRA Flexibility.

A lot of people like the IRA idea, but would like more control over their investment situation.

That's what our new Investor Option IRA is all about. It lets you combine fixed-rate certificates, a money market account, stocks, and bonds—whatever works for you. So come in and let's talk it over.

More Retirement Benefits.

If you're retired with pension and/or Social Security payments, have them deposited direct with us. We'll give you free regular checking, free personalized wallet checks, a free 24-hour banking card and a free 2x5 safe deposit box for a year.

NCNB Extra Checking[®]: some places offer some of these things, some offer others, but no place that we know of offers all of them.

A Changing Neighborhood.

What you see here is just the beginning. We'll keep working on better ways to handle your money.

So, if you're not sure where your bank, broker or S&L is shaking out, come see us.

This year, next year, and long after the dust has settled in the shakeup of 1985, we'll still be here working harder than ever to be the best bank in the neighborhood.

Preserving The Family

Sen. Daniel Patrick Moynihan has renewed the call he made 20 years ago for a national policy to preserve the traditional family structure. Yet the New York Democrat conveniently ignores the fact that two decades of counter-productive federal welfare policies have undermined thousands of American families, particularly black families.

In 1965, as Assistant Secretary of Labor, Mr. Moynihan caused a furor by concluding that the breakdown in black families was a principal cause of poverty among black Americans. Indeed, his controversial report, "The Negro Family: The Case for National Action," was assailed by civil rights leaders who charged that he was blaming the victims of discrimination for their distress.

During last May's Black Family Summit meeting in Nashville, Tenn., however, numerous black leaders concluded that the number of single black mothers has reached crisis proportions. But these leaders are understandably wary of a federal remedy in the wake of the ill-fated War on Poverty.

Little wonder. When Lyndon Johnson left office in 1968, approximately 12 percent of Americans were poor, according to the official definition. During the next 12 years, in constant dollars, federal spending on all welfare programs quadrupled. Yet despite the vast expenditures of public money and the best of government intentions, the poverty rate in 1980 was 13 percent. And many of the poor are worse off today because these programs have undermined values, institutions and ambitions.

Aid to Families with Dependent Children, for example, discourages couples from marrying. By making the mother's fecundity the main source of income, this program encourages childbearing out of wedlock and also leaves the father with little incentive to take a low-paying job that adds only marginally to the family's income. Yet that job could lead the family out of poverty.

The AFDC encouragement to illegitimacy has been staggering: In 1950, 17 percent of all births among blacks were illegitimate; today it is 56 percent. White illegitimate rates have increased from 2 percent to 11 percent during that same time.

Today, nearly three out of every five black children are being raised by a single parent. In fact, the level of dependency on public assistance for basic economic survival has doubled since 1964. Approximately one half of all black children are supported in part by transfer payments from state and federal governments.

Ironically, this cycle of dependency has increased during a time when many black Americans have made enormous economic gains.

At the other end of the economic spectrum, however, there remains an underclass of black families that is perpetuated by the very programs designed to help them. This isn't to suggest that welfare is primarily what motivates young women to become pregnant. But the reality of a baby born out of wedlock is softened somewhat by the knowledge that the state will pick up part of the cost of raising the child. Worse still, welfare programs have eroded the extended black family that formerly provided some measure of stability in urban areas.

During last spring's summit meeting, several prominent black leaders emphasized the need for more self-help. In his opening address, National Urban League President John Jacob said: "In concentrating on the wrongs of discrimination and poverty we may have neglected the fact that there is a lot we can do about our own problems ourselves. Government and private sector action is a necessity, but so are the services and concern black organizations can provide."

Mr. Jacob's prudent recommendation is being tried in New York City where 11 Family Redirection centers help poor teenage parents. Specifically, older women serve as role models by helping young mothers care for their babies, get back into school and find jobs.

Clearly, such community efforts are a modest beginning in strengthening the traditional family structure. But they are certainly preferable to yet another costly federal program that perpetuates the destructive cycle of welfare dependence.

Business-Aid Plan Gets Out Of Hand

WASHINGTON — After nearly 15 years of noncompetitive government contracts, Univox, Inc., a Los Angeles-based electronics company, graduated this month from the Small Business Administration's minority assistance program. Shortly before leaving the program, however, the firm received a $25 million going-away present in the form of another noncompetitive contract.

The whole idea behind SBA's 8(a) program for small "socially and economically disadvantaged" firms is to help them get started with some federal assistance and then wean them away from the government's life-support system as quickly as possible. However, hundreds of 8(a) companies, like Univox, have stayed on for years, reaping the benefits of big, noncompetitive "sole-source" contracts.

Univox, for example, joined the 8(a) program in 1970. Glenn Constantino, an SBA business-development specialist responsible for Univox, says the firm's initial contracts had a relatively small margin of profit. A General Accounting Office audit revealed that the company had shown a profit only once between 1973 and 1978, despite increased sales.

According to GAO, an investigation of Univox by a SBA district office in Los Angeles discovered some questionable financial practices during this period, including large salaries and bonuses paid to the owner, John Grayson, and to a onetime partner. Because of these financial practices and Univox's business performance after nine years in the program, SBA district officials recommended in 1979 that it be dropped from 8(a) participation. However, when Grayson appealed, SBA's San Francisco regional office overruled the decision, and Univox remained in the program. Rarely had SBA dismissed businesses from its 8(a) program.

Grayson knew that to turn his company around, he had to find a new line of business. Soon after learning that the Army was planning to issue contracts for the purchase of water-purification units, he began to lobby the Army to reserve a contract for the 8(a) program.

Although Univox won the Army contract, which totaled more than $56 million, a GAO report later quoted one SBA official as saying that "if the decision had been up to him, he would not have recommended the firm for the procurement."

In April 1981, not long after Grayson won the contract, the GAO issued a report titled "A Promise Unfulfilled," which was sharply critical of SBA's entire 8(a) program. The GAO discovered, among other things, that "few 8(a) firms have graduated as competitive businesses." It also reported that "many firms have not built up commercial sales, rely on 8(a) contracts, and view the program as an end in itself." Fewer than 4 percent of the 600 firms then in the program had actually graduated as competitive, self-sufficient businesses, auditors found.

In 1982, Congress responded by limiting the time in which a company could stay in the program to five years.

Under a grandfather clause for those already in the program, this would have meant no more than a one-year extension—for companies like Univox, but somehow the firm managed to obtain a two-year reprieve. By this time, with the help of big government contracts and a major overhaul of its finances by SBA advisers, Univox had pulled itself back from its precarious position — with sales now running about $35 million a year.

Then, nine months before Univox was to leave the program and stand on its own two feet, it received what some SBA officials call a "graduation present" — a $25 million cut from the Army.

For some, the going-away gifts are a bonanza. One California company, SBA officials told us, "loaded up" with a $56.5 million 8(a) graduation contract, then used the contract as a major asset to sell the company immediately upon leaving the program.

Meanwhile, with some 2,500 companies still getting noncompetitive 8(a) contracts, GAO auditors say that a lot of serious problems remain. Among them: $300 million yearly in excess procurement costs.

Second Chance Budget

The Reagan administration's original budget proposal for fiscal year 1986, sent to Congress in the first week of February, was quickly shot down in flames. Or, more precisely, certain aspects of it were shot down.

The President had proposed a budget featuring outlays of $973 billion with a projected deficit of $180 billion. That deficit, however, would reflect spending cuts of $51 billion, a modest enough goal. To achieve it while spending a 6 percent increase in defense spending after adjusting for inflation, and keeping his campaign pledge not to touch Social Security, the President went after domestic programs with a vengeance — or so it seemed to the defenders of those programs targeted for reductions.

Naturally, the Congress froze at the notion of increased defense spending accompanied by cuts in nearly everything else. Since then, the White House and the Senate Budget and Finance Committees have produced a plan that achieves basically the same goal — $52 billion in savings next year, and a projected $295.5 billion by 1988.

The plan represents serious backpedaling on national defense, but worthwhile advances elsewhere. Mr. Reagan originally insisted that Social Security be left sacrosanct. He now accepts a modified freeze that will leave basic benefits in place, but raise levels only 2 percent — about half the increase allowed by law — unless the inflation rate exceeds 4 percent.

In the face of stern political realities, the Administration agrees to restore about $14 billion in farm credit and price support programs cut from the February plan. The President had slashed subsidies 37 percent, from the $20 billion spent in 1985 to $12.6 billion, a slash well-deserved. The White House also finally, and one hopes, reluctantly, surrendered $9.9 billion in defense spending to opponents of the defense budget, led by unlikely heroes Senators Barry Goldwater and Charles Grassley of Iowa, both of the President's party.

The new budget, known also in some circles as the "deficit reduction plan" is a polite request by the Administration for a second chance, as it faces a buzzsaw of protest. But this budget is at least a forward step.

'Reinsurance' Coverage Crippling FCIC

WASHINGTON — Like a steward rearranging deck chairs on the sinking Titanic, the manager of the federal government's crop-reinsurance program is eagerly making changes that haven't a prayer of saving the bankrupt agency.

In fact, some critics believe the changes propelled the agency into the financial iceberg in the first place.

In a past column, we recounted the series of fiscal crises that have forced the Federal Crop Insurance Corp. to seek one bailout after another from other federal agencies. After more than 40 years of black-ink operation, the FCIC has run itself $861 million into the red over the last five years.

FCIC manager Merritt Sprague pins the blame for the agency's

The Japanese Ways

A Japanese friend some time ago told me of a minor family dispute.

His daughter had demanded that he change his brand of beer. She had recently gone to work for one of Japan's huge business combines and wanted only its beer in the house, although her own job had nothing to do with brewing or selling the stuff.

Company loyalty is taken seriously in Japan.

My friend said he resolved the matter — to his if not her satisfaction — by agreeing to switch, provided she paid for the beer. Loyalty lessened a bit.

In its very small way, the incident is revealing of one aspect of the Japanese trade problem.

A few great conglomerates dominate the Japanese economy — producing or importing raw materials, manufacturing products and marketing them to consumers. Mitsubishi, for example, mines coal, makes autos, builds ships, operates retail stores and owns banks.

It is a complex and in most cases enormously profitable production and distribution system that in the United States would run afoul of the antitrust laws. It is not only legal in Japan, it is the accepted way of doing business.

But it makes it difficult for foreigners to do business in Japan. It can be extremely difficult to break into the production-distribution chain, especially with a competitive product.

This is one contributing factor to the swelling American trade deficit with Japan. It has nothing to do with tariffs, restrictive product quotas or Japanese government policy, things that account for most of the criticism from our side. The government probably would be unable to change the system — at least not without a lengthy and bruising political battle — if it tried.

But there is another factor that is the government's doing. It is the Ministry of International Trade and Industry — MITI, for short.

Where it has been most effective, in respect to the overall well-being of the economy, has been in overseeing the orderly withdrawal from industries in which Japan has lost the competitive edge. Resources are redirected to areas of growth.

Which suggests that MITI may be one Japanese product that is not for export.

The American way has been to protect the dying industry no matter what the cost to the economy — and judging from the protectionist sounds coming out of Congress, it still is.

JEFFREY HART

1960s Newsreel Rerun

This columnist is one of the few conservatives who have had a good word to say for Senator Gary Hart over the years. I even permitted his organization to use a favorable column of mine in his campaign literature during his most recent senatorial campaign in Colorado. Since he was re-elected by three votes, the column may have made the difference. But now the jig is up and I may change my name to Hartpence to avoid even the slightest suspicion that we are related.

Senator Hart has some good ideas about military reform. It may be true, however, as his critics argue, that while he wants to make the military more effective he would never as a Vietnam-era isolationist use it anywhere beyond Montauk point.

The senator is a witty and friendly man, and something of a card; he has just co-authored a spy novel. He is well-educated and very good company.

But the widespread suspicion is that if you scratch Gary Hart you will find the 1960s just beneath the surface, and that he was not George McGovern's campaign manager for nothing.

And this view of Gary Hart has just been reinforced by his gratuitous and irresponsible support for the current student protest at Columbia.

"I commend the students of Columbia University," announced the senator, "on your bold and creative contribution to the struggle against apartheid."

"Bold"? Is that so. "Creative"? Migod, the protest outside Columbia's Hamilton Hall is about the most imitative exercise imaginable, the re-run of a '60s newsreel. Bold? Those students know that they will be handled with kid gloves.

Columbia University is fortunate that these problems have attracted no mass support. In 1968 the riots came close to destroying a great university. Indeed, it took about 10 years for morale to be restored to Columbia academic enterprise.

These campus demonstrations are morally vile. They have nothing to do with the reasons for the existence of a university, and those employing these methods have no place in a community of learning. Any university that respected its own academic mission would expel them and prosecute them. Senator Gary Hart should be ashamed of himself.

deal for the insurance companies, but a bad deal for the FCIC.

Recognizing a good thing when they see it, the private insurers have rushed to sign up new customers — and protected themselves with FCIC reinsurance. From 1981 until now, the amount of reinsurance coverage has grown from 3 percent of the FCIC operation to nearly 80 percent.

Noting that this is precisely when the agency suffered its biggest losses, investigators for the General Accounting Office urged the FCIC to "moderate further expansion of the reinsurance program until the current program's operation can be evaluated to assure that it is cost-effective for both the government and the insurance companies."

But Sprague is going in just the opposite direction. In a "Dear Employee" letter last month, he said the FCIC was considering dropping direct crop insurance entirely and "converting to strictly a reinsurance operation."

The reason he wrote the employees, of course, is that conversion to reinsurance would allow the FCIC to get along with far less staff.

Employees were stunned by the letter. They can't understand his reasoning when he said contemplated conversion is intended "to assure the highest possible return on every federal dollar spent."

"Ever since they started going away from the government program (of direct group insurance) they have not had a profitable year," said one incredulous employee.

Whether the connection is causal or casual is a matter of dispute.

Maiolini Named Mat Coach

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor
Glenn Maiolini, a 33-year-old Lake Howell High School football assistant with extensive wrestling experience, was named as coach of the Seminole High wrestling team, Seminole Principal Wayne Epps said Monday. Maiolini, an All-America wrestler at San Francisco State College during his collegiate days, has been working with Lake Howell's offensive line the past four years. During that time, he drew raves from head coach Mike Bisceglia. "Glenn will definitely be missed. He did a great job with our line," said Bisceglia. "But his first love is wrestling and when nothing opened up here, he made the move."

Maiolini, who teaches science and physical education, will also be assistant football coach for Dave Mosure's Fighting Seminoles. He worked with Bisceglia (Hialeah) and coached against Mosure previously before coming to Lake Howell in 1981. He will begin his football duties this spring with the Seminoles. For Epps, it is the fourth coaching change this year at Seminole. Jerry Posey resigned as football coach, Ron Merthie resigned as girls basketball coach and Chris Marlette was not rehired as boys basketball coach. Maiolini will replace Roger Beathard who expressed a desire to discontinue with the wrestling program earlier this year. "Dave (Mosure) recommended Glenn very highly," said Epps about his new coach who has his master's degree from Nova. "Glenn has got a history of really building programs. The principals of the last two schools at which he coached wrestling recommended him very highly." Maiolini coached wrestling one year at Southwest High. The three years prior to that he was head coach at Hialeah. At both stops, he also handled the offensive line in football. He also coached at Jefferson High School in Daly City, Calif., where he was a football and track coach.

During his collegiate days, he placed two years with College Division. He was Far Western Conference champion three straight years. He was an All-America captain as a senior and a four-year varsity performer. Maiolini qualified and went to the Olympic camp in 1975-76. He also started on the football team for three years and made the All-Conference team his senior year. For his splendid wrestling career, he was inducted into the San Francisco State College Hall of Fame in 1975. "I'm really looking forward to the opportunity," said Maiolini. "Coach Beathard left me a good foundation (state place winners Troy and Tony Turner and Sheraton Mays) and we should be able to develop a good program." Maiolini and his wife, Jill, live in Winter Park. They have three girls: Erin, 7, Christine, 5, and Michelle who will be 4 on Friday.

Poindexter Finds Home As A Hornet

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor
Jeff Poindexter has found a home as a Bishop Moore Hornet. Poindexter, a 17-year-old Mattland resident, played baseball at Lake Howell High School as a freshman and a sophomore. He played it well, too. After prepping in the Seminole Pony Baseball Program, Poindexter moved right in as the Silver Hawks' shortstop. The next year, he switched to second baseman where he became an All-County and All-Conference first-team performer. Poindexter batted .305 and a ninth grader followed it up with a .355 clip his sophomore season. One could only estimate that the young slash hitter could put at least 100 more points on his batting average by the time he was done with the Blue and Silver.

But all wasn't well. Poindexter's grade point average wasn't keeping pace with his batting average. "My grades weren't as good as they should have been at Lake Howell," said Jeff. "I thought a change might be good."

So did his father, Bill, a close observer throughout his son's career. Both knew of a neighbor who attended Bishop Moore. One day the neighbor and Jeff's paths crossed. "A friend of mine from down the street went to Bishop Moore," Jeff said. "He told me about coach (Mike) Smith and how good the program was. I decided that's where I would go."

It was a good decision. It didn't take long for the batting average to acquire those 100 points or the grade point average to creep up to the B range. Poindexter, back at his more familiar shortstop for the Hornets, was hitting the ball at a .450 clip until he tailed off the past two weeks to finish at .406.

"Jeff had a good shot at .450 but he hit a bit of a slump lately," said Bill. "I'm hoping he can find his stroke again for the district tournament and finish strong."

Along with his .400-plus batting average, Poindexter is excelling in other aspects of the game, too. A sagacious base runner, he has 22 steals. He has scored 23 runs. Poindexter has five doubles and three triples. His two homers came against St. Cloud, the No. 1 2A team in the state. Defensively, Poindexter made just seven errors and turned in a couple of major league plays in the recent Colonial Classic.

The Hornets, too, have benefited. They wrested the Orange Belt Conference title away from Oviedo for the first time in three years this spring. Their 9-1 record easily won the conference. They are 16-9 overall and the first team listed among the honorable mention choices in the state (3A) poll.

"And the nucleus of the team is juniors. I'm really happy here," said Jeff. "Coach Smith is really a fundamentalist. He really stresses team play here."

Poindexter said he would like to play major-college baseball after he graduates next year. "I want to go to a name school," he said. "But junior college wouldn't be bad either. You get to play a lot of games and a lot of the major colleges take their middle infielders from the JCs."

ORANGE BELTS — Coach Howard Mable and his Oviedo Lions will open district baseball play Wednesday at home against Jones at 4 p.m. A victory against the hapless Tigers will send the Lions against Bishop Moore Thursday at 6 p.m. at Leesburg. Osceola and Leesburg play the 8 p.m. game Thursday. The final will be Friday at 8 p.m. at Leesburg.

"Bishop Moore is definitely the team to beat," said Mable Monday night. "We'll send Bill McCurdy against Jones and hopefully come back with Craig Duncan against Bishop Moore."

Mable's squad has been decimated by injuries, intelligibility and early retirements. "We lost five starters since the first of the year," Mable said. "That certainly changes your team."

The Lions lost three-year starting shortstop Dave Wood when he decided he didn't want to play anymore. Third baseman Tony Bellow, second baseman Jimmy Barrett and pitcher-outfielder Larry Grayson were academic casualties. Outfielder Lester Cabrera separated his shoulder.

Seminole Seeks Odd Occurrence Against DeLand

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor
Bobby Lundquist, who preceded current Seminole baseball coach Mike Ferrell, never tired of telling his favorite district baseball story. It had kind of an odd flavor to it. Lundquist would reason since it was an odd-numbered year, Seminole should win the district baseball title. He had the facts to back it up. Seminole won the district in 1977 with you know who, 1979 and 1981. The last one was a complete surprise and one of the most satisfying for Lundquist.

The coach, ran out of stories in 1983, however. Lundquist mentioned the odd-year coincidence but then didn't win. End of coincidence.

Well, as the district tournament opens for Seminole tonight at DeLand's Conrad Park, it is once again an odd-numbered year. Ferrell, who took over for Lundquist this year, isn't worried about odds or events, though.

He's concerned with DeLand, tonight's 7:30 first-round opponent. With good reason. The last time Seminole and DeLand met at Conrad Park, the Tribe came away a little shellshocked, not to mention hurt from a 15-0 licking. That was just 10 days ago so the sting is still there. "I've never seen so many shots," said Ferrell about the Bulldogs' attack. "They were knocking the crud out of the ball."

Ferrell would like a reversal of that outcome tonight. The DeLand-Sanford clash is the final game of a quadruple-header which constitutes the tournament's first round. Lake Mary played Spruce Creek at 11:30 a.m., Apopka and Lake Brantley meet at 2 p.m. and Lyman takes on Lake Howell at 4:30 p.m. Spruce Creek eliminated Mainland, 11-3, Monday to earn the right to meet Lake Mary.

Ferrell said he is undecided as to whom to pitch against DeLand. Brian Sheffield was roughed up in the last meeting and DeLand beat James Hersey the first time around.

Sheffield throws knuckleballs and Hersey throws seeds, so Ferrell has two different ways to go. "I might not decide until right before the game," he said. "I have to worry about our outfield defense, too. With Sheffield pitching and Hersey in center field, we're much better defensively."

If Sheffield hurls, Hersey will be flanked by speedy Larry Thomas in right and Tracy Turner in left. Turner has been hitting some shots of his own the past two weeks which have won him a starting berth.

The infield will have another freshman — Jeff Blake — at shortstop with Gary Derr at third and David Rape at second. Tony Cox, who lead the Tribe in just about every offensive category, will play first base. Roy Jensen will catch.

"We need to play our best game of the season," emphasized Ferrell. "But we have nothing to lose. We're building for the future. We're just going to go out and play hard." Whether it's odd or even.

Cloud Of Doom Encircles Gunslingers

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI) — There will be brighter afternoons for Jim Bates, but most likely they will not be as head coach of the U.S. Football League's San Antonio Gunslingers.

Bates' squad tallied from a flurry of first-half mistakes Monday, only to come up short as the Oakland Invaders topped the Gunslingers, 27-20, in the USFL's Monday night contest.

"I'm glad to get out of here," the dejected Gunslingers' coach said. "We gave the game away in the first half."

There is a cloud of gloom — or maybe that should be doom — that surrounds Bates and his team. With little success on the field and uncertain payroll checks off it, the future of the Gunslingers is less than encouraging.

Across the way, Invaders head coach Charlie Sumner had reason to smile. His team had broken a two-game losing streak with the victory and with a 5-3-1 record found themselves only a half game behind Western Conference co-leaders Houston and Denver.

However, Sumner wasn't entirely happy with his team's performance.

"We went out there with more intensity tonight, but we had a letdown in the second half," he said. "I'm not happy with the way we won." Oakland cashed in on three first-quarter turnovers by San Antonio quarterback Rich Neuheisel to lead 17-0. Neuheisel's first turnover came on the Gunslingers' second possession. He was hit by blitzing David Shaw and fumbled. Ray Bentley recovered on the 1. One play later, Eric Jordan crashed over for a TD.

Poor 1st-Inning Dooms Tribe; Lake Howell Grabs 20th Win

By Chris Flater
Herald Sports Writer
A two-run double off the bat of Kim Averill and Laurie Leiffer's two-run triple highlighted a five-run first inning Monday as Lake Mary's Lady Rams avenged an early defeat by upending Sanford's Lady Seminoles, 6-2, in the regular season finale at Lake Mary High.

The Lady Rams ended the regular season with a 14-11 record. Lake Mary goes to Lake Howell Wednesday for the first round of the 4A-9 District Tournament. Seminole, which fell to 6-14, travels to Port Orange today for a 4 p.m. game against Spruce Creek. The winner today will play top-seeded Apopka Wednesday at Apopka.

A pair of Seminole errors enabled Liz Stone and Karen DeShetler to reach to start off the bottom of the first for Lake Mary. Beth Watkins then singled to load the bases and Averill followed with her double to score Stone and DeShetler. With one out, Leiffer unloaded a triple to drive in Watkins and Averill for a 4-0 lead. With two outs, Valerie Smith singled in Leiffer to make it 5-0.

The Lady Rams added one more run in the fourth when Lisa Santulli, who reached on an error, scored when DeShetler got on via another Tribe miscue.

Seminole finally got on the board in the top of the sixth. Laura Burke and Alycia "Fat" Dixon hit consecutive singles and Sheri Peterson followed with a base rap to score Burke. With one out, Jackie Farr singled in Dixon with Peterson going to third. Seminole had a chance to pull within 6-3 on Janet Hauck's fly ball, but Peterson didn't tag up on the play and had to hold at third. Watkins, Lake Mary's pitcher, then struck out the next hitter to end the inning. Peterson led the 13-hit Seminole attack with a 3 for 3 performance while Hauck and Burke had two hits each.

Smith was 3 for 3 to lead the Lady Rams at the plate while Averill went 2 for 3. LADY RAMS TRIM LYMAN, 4-1

Lake Howell's Lady Silver Hawks ran their record to 20-6 Monday with a 4-1 victory over Lyman's Lady Greyhounds at Lyman High. It was the third straight win for Lake Howell and the fourth straight loss for Lyman.

Lake Howell scored two runs each in the first and sixth innings Monday while Lyman failed to take advantage of its big opportunities as it left 11 runners on base.

The Lady Hawks took a 2-0 lead in the top of the first. Grace Ley reached on an error to lead off and Christy Tibbitts, who has been tearing the cover off the ball lately, followed with a single. Sandy Gillies grounded out but Ley scored on the play. Eileen Thiebauth followed with a single to score Tibbitts for a 2-0 lead.

Lyman had three hits in the bottom of the first but could not push across a run. Kristie Kaiser led off with a single but Mary Ryan then hit into a double play with Gillies, the second baseman, tagging out Kaiser and throwing to first. Both Valerie Price and Denise Stevens followed with singles but Lori Helms flew out to end the inning.

Lyman's Denise Stevens, left, won the county home run title and also led in triples while teammate Kristie Kaiser finished second in batting average.

Tibbitts, who has raised her average about 50 points the past two weeks, was 3 for 4 to lead Lake Howell at the plate. Thiebauth sewed up the county batting crown by going 2 for 4.

Price was 3 for 3 to lead the way for Lyman while Kaiser, Stevens and Vickery added two hits each.

THIEBAUTH WINS BATTING TITLE
Thiebauth, a senior, finished the regular season with a .533 average to win the batting title over Lyman's Kaiser who was red hot the past two weeks and finished at .522.

Thiebauth also had one RBI Monday to tie Oviedo's Mikki Eby for the lead in runs batted in with 32. Oviedo's Dee Dee Beasley, who had nine ribbies last week, finished with 31.

Lyman's Stevens, a junior, led the county in home runs and triples with four each. Lake Howell's Gillies and Oviedo's Caroline Chavis tied for the lead in runs scored with 29.

Oviedo Girls Begin Quest

Oviedo's Lady Lions begin their quest for the 3A-8 District title Wednesday at Thacker Field in Kissimmee. The Lady Lions, 15-7 in the regular season, are seeded number one and will play the winner of Tuesday's opening round game between Jones and Bishop Moore.

Oviedo's game Wednesday will be played at 3 p.m. Wednesday's second game, scheduled for 4:30, pits Osceola Kissimmee's Kowgirls against Leesburg. Thursday's final will be played at 4 p.m.

Thacker Field is located off U.S. Highway 192 on Thacker Road in Kissimmee.

The Lady Lions enter the tournament with an eight-game winning streak. Their only loss to a district team in the regular season was a 3-0 setback to Osceola. Oviedo came back to rope the Kowgirls, 20-7, in their last meeting.

Oviedo has four players hitting over .400 led by sophomores Mikki Eby (.462) and Caroline Chavis (.452), senior Fran Foster (.413) and sophomore Cathy Bergman (.404). The Lions also have four players with 20 or more runs batted in including Eby (32), Dee Dee Beasley (31), Chavis (23) and Jodie Switzer (20). Jessica Bradley has three homers and 19 RBIs. — Chris Flater

Connection, Kitner Set Stage For Wednesday Night's Battle

The stage is set for Wednesday's first-place encounter. The Tim Raines Connection, perennial champion of the Sanford Men's Softball League under one sponsor or another, will battle Kitner Surverring Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. at Pinchurst Field.

The Connection (7-0) posted its seventh straight win Monday with an 8-4 decision over S&H Fabricating. Kitner Surverring (6-1) kept pace with a 13-6 triumph over Sunnland Corp. In the other game, Brown Boveri slipped past winless Mobilite, 6-3.

Charles Reynolds socked two homers and "Easy Ed" Jackson drilled one for the Connection. Sam and Ned Raines and Ernest Shuler had triples while Lloyd Wall had an RBI single. Howard Brooks tripled home two runs for the losers.

Kitner, meanwhile, used a double, triple and home run by Terrel Ervin and three hits each by Jay Payne and John Ellis to trim Sunnland. Bobby Ripley, Greg Latour and Tony Dunkinson collected two hits apiece. Clyde Morgan had three hits for the losers while Nick Mergo and Bob Roesch, Felix Smith and Tom Moore had two each. Mergo had two ribbles.

In Brown Boveri's win, B. Kunkel doubled home two runs in the first. Russ Holloman had RBI singles in the first, fourth and sixth innings. Robbie Hanrahan doubled and scored three times. Isabel Vantigo had two hits for the losers.

Chip Rupp Signs With Vandy

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UPI) — Chip Rupp, grandson of legendary Kentucky coach Adolph Rupp and the son of a 1962 player, announced Monday he would break with tradition and play his college basketball at Vanderbilt.

Adolph Frederick Rupp III's grandfather coached at UK for more than 40 years. His father, Adolph Frederick Rupp Jr. or Herky, played at Kentucky.

"They contacted me in February and talked to my dad and then they never furthered their contact after Coach (Joe) B. Hall retired," said Chip. "And so at that point I decided to eliminate them."

Herky Rupp, who lettered on UK's 1962 team, said his son chose Vanderbilt for two reasons.

"I think there are two reasons," said Herky. "Initially Chip wanted to do his own thing on his own. He doesn't want to be in the shadow or compared to what's been in the past."

The other reason is that... Chip was really not recruited by the University of Kentucky."

A 6-foot-6 forward projected as a college guard, Rupp becomes the third Kentucky prep star this year to sign with C.M. Newton's Commodores.

Tulsa Selects Barnett As Coach

TULSA, Okla. (UPI) — The University of Tulsa, a national basketball power under Nolan Richardson, has a new coach in J.D. Barnett of Virginia Commonwealth.

"Tulsa University has some very fine players and a tremendous program that Nolan Richardson has built," said Barnett, named Monday to succeed Richardson, who resigned April 9 to coach Arkansas.

"It will be a challenge for me to try maintaining and improving on his work. I feel the nucleus of a championship team is already here and a top level team might be one or two players away."

His appointment was announced by Tulsa president J. Paschal Twymon at a news conference before the university's athletic awards banquet.

Barnett had a 132-48 record in six seasons at Virginia Commonwealth, with five NCAA Tournament appearances. Barnett, 41, preaches discipline and defense, employing a complex system in which flashcards from the sidelines alert players on what plays will be used.

Seminole AAU Sets Registration

Seminole AAU Girls Basketball Club will have registration Thursday, April 25 at 7 p.m. at the Lake Mary High School gym. Lake Mary girls coach Bill Moore announced Tuesday.

Players will be broken into four age groups: 12 and under, 14 and under, 16 and under and 18 and under. Practice and game sessions for 16-18 and under Thursday, May 2. The same will begin for the younger groups on Sunday, May 5.

Registration fee is $15 which includes national AAU membership, insurance and tee-shirt. Teams will be selected from each age group to play in the state tournament. For further information, contact Moore at 323-2110, ext. 211.

Funderburk's Blast Lifts O-Twins

Mark Funderburk slugged his sixth homer as the Orlando Twins dropped Knoxville, 9-3, in Southern League baseball Monday. Funderburk's blast snapped a 3-3 tie in the sixth inning.

The O-Twins, 5-7 and three games back in the East Division, play at Charlotte tonight.

Oscola's Astros, who led the Florida State League's Central Division, trimmed Clearwater, 6-1. Monday night at Kissimmee, Bobby Parker singled and scored a run.

Oscola hosts Fort Myers tonight.

Perce Sparks Rotary 080's Win

Shawn Perce fired in two goals as Sanford 080 Rotary won its first game of the season, 3-0, over Matiland 004 in Sanford Soccer Club Under 10 action. Rotary improved to 1-1-1 with the victory.

Ryan Reynolds scored the third goal for Sanford on an assist from Jack Whigam. Defensive leaders for Rotary, coached by Roger Stewart, included Steve Kyle, Meta Williams and Shawn Stewart.

Seminole Continues Schooling

CASSELBERRY — Schooling continues at the Super Seminole Greyhound Park tonight at 8 and will run through next Tuesday, according to Happy Icon, Super Seminole publicist.

Super Seminole will open its third season Friday, May 3 with an evening performance. Super Seminole is located at 2000 Seminola Blvd., three miles east of U.S. Highway 17-92.

Elementary Track Set For Friday

The 1985 Seminole County Elementary Track Meet will be held Friday morning at Lake Mary High. Field events begin at 8:30 a.m., followed by running events at 9. Defending champion Goldsboro Elementary is again the favorite to win the meet.

For more information, contact Mike Gibson at Lake Mary High, 323-2110.

Unlucky 4-Leaf?

Rogers Discards Clover, Repairs Spindle, Wins Race

NEW SMYRNA BEACH — When David Rogers was at another speedway to compete in twin 125-lap events on April 13, the president of the Jody Ridley fan club gave him a four-leaf clover.

Rogers then taped the good luck charm inside of his race car, but that night, on lap one, a competitor's blown engine caused Rogers to crash.

Then, this past Saturday night, while flying low around New Smyrna Speedway's high banked, paved half-mile, warming up for the regular program, another car spun right in front of him, causing Rogers to hit the wall and inflict heavy damage to the right front suspension of his Wayne Densch Budweiser Firebird.

At that point, the frustrated Rogers tore the four-leaf plant off his race car and promptly gave it to somebody he didn't like.

After many phone calls, a right front spindle was located at Bobby Thinkham's B and G Enterprises shop in DeLand, and the car was repaired just in time for Rogers to move in to the last starting spot at feature time. The event turned out to be the best so far this season and Rogers won.

Auto Racing

Lee Faulk, in the potent Elite Racing Enterprises Firebird, jumped in he lead on lap one and stayed on the point for the first fifteen times around.

Meanwhile, Rogers and LeRoy Porter were going at it tooth and nail in a crowd-pleasing wheel-to-wheel duel.

Moving up to the high groove, Rogers powered around Faulk on lap 16 and went on to win. Second to fifth were Faulk, Porter, Joe Middleton and Mark Gibson.

Another driver who badly needs to change his luck is 1982 Florida state thundercar champion Kenny Copley. Once again, Copley was leading the feature with three laps to go when he crashed.

Edwards Blanks Moose

Baseball

Sammy Edwards hurled a five-hitter and pitched his way out of two major jams Monday as Kiwanis blanked Moose, 3-0, in Sanford Junior League action at Chase Park.

Kiwanis moved back into second place with the win as it improved to 4-2. Moose now stands at 4-3. Ball Motor Line leads the league with a 5-1 record.

Edwards ran into trouble in the top of the first inning as, with two outs, Harry Chibberton and Jimmy Murphy hit back-to-back singles to put runners on the corners. On the first pitch to the next hitter, Murphy stole second but Edwards reached back and struck out Arthur Bradford to end the inning.

Edwards' counterpart on the mound, Mike Merthie, got out of a jam in the bottom of the first. Merthie walked Kiwanis' lead off man, Ruben Blake, but picked him off for the first out. Merthie walked Anthony Harris who then stole second and went to third on a passed ball.

Harris tried to score on another passed ball but was cut down at the plate. Edwards then coaxed a walk out of Merthie and stole second and third but he was stranded as Merthie struck out Bernard Mitchell to end the inning.

Moose threatened again in the top of the third when it loaded the bases with just one out. Edwards then got Murphy. Moose's cleanup hitter, to pop up to the mound and got Bradford to ground out to second for the third out.

Moose didn't threaten again after the third inning and Kiwanis scored once in the fourth and twice in the fifth to sew up the win. In the fourth, Julius Bennett singled, stole second and third and scored on Leonard Richardson's single. In the fifth, Harris doubled and scored on an error and Edwards, who reached on the error, scored on a single off the bat of Mitchell.

For the game, Edwards struck out six and walked only one. Merthie allowed four hits, struck out 11 and walked seven.

ELKS OUTLASTS ROTARY

Monday night as it dropped its eighth straight game, 14-12, to Elks in the second game at Chase Park. While Rotary fell to 0-8, Elks stayed in contention with a 4-3 mark.

Rotary had built a 7-0 lead going into the bottom of the third but Elks scored three times in the third and exploded for 10 runs in the fourth. Von Eric Small had an RBI double in the third and a two-run double in the fourth to lead the way. Elks had just five hits in the game off George Gordon but took advantage of nine walks and 11 errors.

Rotary had five hits in the game, two by Gordon, Robert Whitaker added a two-run triple in the sixth inning as Rotary pulled within two runs. But the time limit ran out on Rotary before the top of the seventh started.

SUN BANK IMPROVES TO 5-0

Sun Bank continued its dominance of the Sanford Little American League Monday with a 22-3 record Atlantic Bank at Fort Mellon Park. Sun Bank ran its record to 5-0 with the win while Atlantic Bank fell to 3-3.

An 11-run second inning paved the way for Sun Bank which had 13 hits in the game. Leading the offensive attack was Derrick Taylor with three hits while James Jackson, Keith Armond and Jeffrey Ingram added two hit each.

Jackson also went the distance on the mound for Sun Bank, allowing six hits, and displayed excellent control, striking out six and walking none. Johnell Brewington's two-run homer in the top of the first gave Atlantic Bank a short-lived lead.

Jets Face Key Test

United Press International

At the start of the Stanley Cup playoffs a Winnipeg-Edmonton matchup would have been a tough one to call. The Jets ended the regular season as one of the hottest teams in the league and had defeated the defending Stanley Cup champions the last three times.

That was before Dale Hawerchuk went down with a rib injury in the first-round series against Calgary. Hawerchuk, who scored 53 goals this season, has missed the first two games of the quarterfinal series against Edmonton and the Jets have lost both. He may return for Game 3 tonight in Winnipeg with the help of a flak jacket.

Nordiques-Canadiens

Nordiques left wing Michel Goulet is the leading goal scorer in the playoffs with eight. Quebec meets the Montreal Canadiens in Game 3 of the Adams Division final with the series tied 1-1. Three of the four Quebec goals Sunday were on power plays.

"We have to work on killing Quebec's power play," Montreal coach Jacques Lemaire said. "We haven't got much time."

Inlanders-Flyers

The Flyers lead the series 2-0 and are hoping not to go the way of the Washington Capitals. The Capitals were leading the opening-round series 2-0 but New York won the next three games.

"I watched just about every game they played with Washington so I know what they can do," said Philadelphia defenseman Mark Howe. "They're the best hockey team I've ever seen. Some people think we have them, but there's no way. We have a lot of respect for their hockey team."

North Stars-Black Hawks

The series is tied 1-1 following Chicago's 6-2 victory Sunday.

"It's a little slap in the face," Minnesota wing Willi Plett said. "Maybe this will bring us down to earth on Tuesday."

Murphy Hits No. 7, Braves Lose Again

United Press International
After a few rough spots Monday night, it was smooth sailing for Andy Hawkins and Rich Gossage.

Hawkins yielded three hits in the first inning, including a three-run homer to Dale Murphy and a lead-off triple to Terry Harper in the second inning. Then he and Gossage combined to set down the next 24 batters to lift the Padres to a 5-3 victory over the Atlanta Braves.

Hawkins, 3-0, the bullpen stopper for San Diego in the playoffs and World Series last season, said experience has made him a better pitcher this year.

"That made a world of difference for me," said Hawkins of the 1984 post season. "It was such a big confidence factor. Now I know what I've got to do in certain situations, and I'm confident I can do it."
Hawkins retired the last 18 batters faced before Gossage relieved in the eighth. The 25-year-old right-hander allowed Atlanta's four hits, while Gossage finished for his second save.

Rookie left-hander Zane Smith, who replaced starter Steve Bedrosian with two out in the fifth inning, took the loss and fell to 1-1.

Tony Gwynn and Steve Garvey stroked RBI singles to break a 3-3 tie in the seventh inning for the Padres.

In the seventh, Carmelo Martinez walked and was sacrificed to second by Garry Templeton. Pinch-hitter Kurt Bevacqua was walked intentionally and after Alan Wiggins fled out, Gwynn and Garvey delivered their run-scoring singles.

Atlanta took a 3-0 lead when Claudiell Washington opened the game with a double and Rafael Ramirez singled. After a force play at home, Murphy launched his seventh homer of the year for the early lead.

"I've had four strikeouts in the last two games, so I'm not hitting everything," said Murphy. "I don't like to think home run. If you hit a home run, it's not that you're trying to hit it, it's taking a good swing."

"I just try to think the same way every time at-bat, I'm just trying to hit the ball where it's pitched more."
The Padres got within 3-2 in the first when Gwynn singled and Terry Kennedy hit his fourth home run of the season. They tied the score in the second when Graig Nettles opened with a walk, moved to third on a double by Martinez and scored on Templeton's groundout.

Garvey appeared in his 2,000th game.
Dodgers 3, Giants 2, 10 innings

At San Francisco, Pedro Guerrero's two-out, two-run homer in the ninth inning tied the score and Dave Anderson slashed a solo shot in the 10th inning to lift Los Angeles. Dave LaPoint, 0-3, had a one-hit, 2-0 shutout with two out in the ninth but yielded Guerrero's blast and eventually Anderson's game winner.

Metas 7, Cardinals 6

At St. Louis, Darryl Strawberry and George Foster homered for New York to help Calvin Schiraldi to his first major league victory. John Tudor lasted three innings and took the loss.

Phillies 9, Expos 1

At Montreal, Von Hayes drove

Dale Murphy launches No. 7. Despite Murphy's first-inning blast, the Braves could do nothing thereafter and lost to San Diego, 5-3.

in four runs. Gary Maddox added three RBI and Juan Samuel scored three times to lead Philadelphia. Shane Rawley, 2-0, went 5 2-3 innings for the victory. Rookie Joe Hesketh, 1-1, took the loss.

Tim Raines singled twice in five at-bats.

Astros 4, Reds 1

At Houston, Mike Scott spread five hits over 1 2/3 innings and Kevin Bass hit Houston's first home run in the Astro Dome this year. The decision snapped Cincinnati's seven-game winning streak and was the third straight victory for the Astros.

Pirates 5, Cubs 3

At Pittsburgh, Steve Kemp hit a two-run single and three Pittsburgh pitchers combined on a seven-inning to snip a five game losing streak. Larry McWilliams,

1-1, gave up three runs on seven hits in 7 1/3 innings for the victory.

HOLLAND TESTIFIES

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Al Holland, the Pittsburgh Pirates' newly acquired relief pitcher, testified Monday before a grand jury investigating cocaine trafficking.

San Francisco Giants outfielder Jeff Leonard also testified before the panel in Pittsburgh. So far this year, the grand jury has called at least nine other National League players to testify.

Holland refused to speak with reporters following his testimony.

"We won't say anything," said his attorney, Diane Van Hammen.

Stieb's No-Hit 'Stuff' Not Enough For Win

United Press International

This season is supposed to be Dave Stieb's best ever — but it hasn't started that way.

The Blue Jays' right-hander led the American League in innings pitched and the opposition batted just .221 against him last year, but Stieb recorded only 16 victories while other potential triumphs were frittered away by the Toronto bullpen.

During the off-season, the club went out and acquired relievers Bill Caudill and Gary Lavelle to lend a hand, but now Stieb is being betrayed by the Toronto offense.

"We were hitting the ball right at people," Stieb said Monday night after the Blue Jays were limited to five hits in a 2-0 loss to Kansas City. "They say it evens up, but I'm still waiting."

Stieb's record fell to 1-2. His other defeat was a 2-1 loss to the Royals on Opening Day. In that one, he allowed six hits.

Kansas City right-hander Charlie Leibrandt, who failed to go the distance in 23 starts in 1984, notched his second complete game in three starts in blanketing the Blue Jays.

"In my eyes he pitched a one-hitter," said Kansas City manager Dick Howser. "Five base hits and four of them off players' gloves. That's the closest you're going to see to a no-hitter. That's no-hitter stuff."

Steve Ballboner honored in the fourth and Darryl Motley added another solo shot in the eighth for the game's only runs.

Rangers 6, Orioles 1

At Arlington, Texas, Gary Ward drove in two runs and Larry Parrish and Pete O'Brien cracked homers to support the two-hit pitching of Charlie

A.L. Baseball

Hough in the Rangers' fourth straight triumph. Hough, 1-0, struck out eight and retired the last 19 batters he faced.

Twins 9, Mariners 5

At Minneapolis, Kirby Puckett belted his first major-league homer, a three-run shot, and Gary Gaetti smacked a two-run blast to spark the Twins. Ken Schrom, 1-2, pitched 7 2/3 innings for the victory and Matt Young, 1-2, took the loss. Gorman Thomas clubbed his sixth homer of the year for Seattle.

Brewers 4, White Sox 2

At Chicago, Bill Schroeder's two-run homer with one out in the eighth snapped a 2-2 tie and lifted Milwaukee. Danny Darwin, 2-0, pitched the first seven innings for the victory and Rollie Fingers hurled two innings for his second save.

Angels 6, A's 1

At Anaheim, Calif., Juan Beniquez and Doug DeCinces homered, and Jim Slaton, 2-0, hurled a three-hitter over eight innings to power California. Don Sutton, 2-1, took the loss and failed to tie Jim Kaat for the 22nd place on the all-time victory list. Sutton has 282 lifetime triumphs.

Indians 6, Tigers 4

At Cleveland, rookie third baseman Chris Pittaro's fourth-inning error led to three unearned runs and helped the Indians to their fifth triumph in the last seven games. Don Schulze, 1-0, pitched seven innings and scattered seven hits for the victory.

Nuggets Need To Cool Off Gervin

United Press International

George Gervin did little more than show up in Game 1 of San Antonio's playoff opener when the Spurs were humiliated by the Denver Nuggets 141-111. The All-Star guard not only showed up for Saturday night's Game 2, he was the entire show.

After going scoreless in the first half and finishing with only 15 points, Gervin struck for 41 points to help the Spurs to their first victory in Denver this year and even the series at 1-1. Game 3 is tonight in San Antonio.

"The idea was to get me involved in the offense as early as possible and hopefully go on from there," Gervin said. "That's the way it worked out."

It worked so well it was probably a good thing Gervin had his badly burned right hand bandaged. He was red hot, shooting 16-of-25 from the floor and 9-of-11 from the line in the 113-111 triumph.

Lakers-Suns

After twice beating the decimated Suns by a combined 45 points, the Lakers are prepared to administer what might best be called a mercy killing at Phoenix for Game 3 tonight.

The Lakers set an NBA playoff record with 142 points Thursday night in Game 1 of the series, then broke that mark with 147 points in Game 2 Saturday.

Celtics-Cavaliers

The Cavaliers have played two games against the defending champs — losing Game 1 by 3 points and Game 2 by 2 points. Injuries, however, may finally shake them from their dreamlike season tonight at Richfield Coliseum.

World B. Free has an injured groin and Phil Hubbard a sore left knee. Coach George Karl believes the contested loss in Game 1 hurt the most.

"I won't get specific, but there were mitigating factors that helped us to defeat," said Karl of the 126-123 defeat Thursday, a game many Cleveland players felt was poorly officiated. "We must remember that that one really was ours."

Trail Blazers-Mavericks

When Blazer guard Jim Paxson dislocated his finger late in the season, he was displaced from the starting lineup. But he scored 18 points off the bench Saturday to lead Portland to a 124-121 overtime victory, evening the series with Dallas at 1-1.

"I was so upset watching the game that I was mad when I got in there," Paxson said. "We couldn't get a call early in the game and a lot of things weren't going right."

IN BRIEF

Senate Panel Would Deny Draft Dodgers College Money

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Senate Education committee has voted unanimously to withhold state financial aid from young male college students who cannot prove they have registered for the draft.

After Monday's vote, Sen. Bill Grant, D-Madison, said Selective Service officials asked him to introduce the bill (SB 659), which would apply to recipients of state aid the same requirements that hold for federal financial aid.

Last July, the U.S. Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of the federal law requiring all recipients of federal financial aid — men and women alike — to prove they have registered or are not required to. Women and men born before Dec. 31, 1959, are exempt from draft registration.

"The intention here is not to punish a student for not registering but to make the student aware of the law and comply with the law," Grant said. "A lot of kids are just not aware you have to register for selective service."

Psychiatrists Differ On Bombings

PENSACOLA (UPI) — A prosecution psychiatrist, disagreeing with the evaluation of a doctor for the defense, said he could find nothing to indicate two abortion clinic bombing suspects suffered a severe mental ailment.

The bombings trial resumes today with defense attorneys cross-examining a Mobile, Ala., psychiatrist. U.S. District Judge Roger Vinson said it appeared the jury would get the case today.

In testimony late Monday, Dr. Daniel Dansak, a psychiatrist from the University of South Alabama, told U.S. Attorney Tom Dillard he was "quite certain" neither James Simmons, 21, nor his wife, Kathy Simmons, 19, had any mental disorder before or during the Christmas morning bombings.

The Simmons couple, along with Matthew Goldsby, 21, and his fiancée, Kaye Wiggins, 19, are accused of bombing three clinics in the pre-dawn hours. Their trial on conspiracy and explosives charges began April 15.

Separate Cell For White Supremacist

FORT SMITH, Ark. (UPI) — Federal agents will return some weapons to a white supremacist group, and its leader will be jailed in a private cell in a deal that ended a four-day standoff at the paramilitary organization's remote base camp in the Ozarks, group leaders say.

James Ellison, head of the Covenant, the Sword and the Arm of the Lord, surrendered peacefully Monday and was arraigned on arson and illegal weapons charges in U.S. District Court.

Concerning the private cell, CSA elder Kerry Noble said, "Can you imagine what would happen to him if he got in a cell with six or seven blacks? Especially with what he believes."

Ellison declared God instructed him to surrender to refute the charges "because they are not true." A hearing was scheduled today to determine bond for Ellison.

Four others arrested with

Ellison were being held in Fort Smith for arraignment today.

Noble said the surrender followed a truce agreement between federal officials and CSA members and was initiated by U.S. Attorney Asa Hutchinson of Little Rock.

"They bent over backward for us," Noble said.

The government had no comment on the pact Monday night.

The agreement states that CSA members will not be charged with harboring fugitives, Noble said. It also states the government will break off surveillance of the camp, all legal weapons will be returned and Ellison will be given his own cell while incarcerated, he said.

The CSA cites biblical references to support doctrines similar to such militant racist groups as the Ku Klux Klan.

Two of Ellison's followers who surrendered, Randall Evans and Thomas Bentley, were wanted in Seattle.

Job Center For Disabled Opens

A private organization that trains disabled people for jobs has opened its doors in Sanford. Wil-Win, Inc. has set up shop at 406 Sanford Ave. and plans to open two adjacent buildings next month.

The non-profit organization trains physically, mentally and socially disabled people in "true-to-life situations," according to Executive Director Vernon Drumheller. He and Projects Director Elaine Wilson run Wil-Win along with a 10-member board of directors.

The organization will be the second workshop program for the disabled in Sanford. The other, the Seminole Work Opportunity Program (SWOP), works with emotionally and psychologically handicapped clients. A third, the Oasis Workshop, is closing Thursday.

Wil-Win's program is limited to a thrift shop but it will soon have about 18 workshops training people in furniture and appliance repair, as well as other trades, Drumheller said. He said the thrift shop sells clothing, appliances and other home furnishings repaired and renovated by its workers. All money from the store's sales go back into the program, he said.

Disabled persons must be referred to Wil-Win by local job and social agencies such as the Job Service of Florida, Private Industry Council and the Seminole County Mental Health Association.

Drumheller said clients pay nothing and are given a marketable skill to take with them into the marketplace.

"If a guy has one arm he can still type. But someone has to give him an opportunity to develop that skill so he can compete in the workforce," he said.

Clients are also paid minimum wage for their work while at Wil-Win. Ms. Wilson said.

"If a person is not making minimum wage that only cuts down their self-worth," she said.

As of today there were only two clients in the program but Drumheller envisions having 100-150 within a year, with at least 75 percent of those people eventually placed in jobs.

To reach this goal, he said Wil-Win plans to open two more buildings next to the thrift shop May 1 for training the disabled. He also said the organization is trying to buy a tract of land to headquarter its operations. He would not say where, only that it is "a prominent location in Sanford."

The program will also include classes on personal finance, insurance and consumer affairs.

Ms. Wilson said the organization will be able to help many people because it doesn't isolate them by "type" of disability.

Drumheller, who said he has a bachelor's degree in business administration, said Wil-Win was partially inspired by President Reagan's call to put welfare assistance into the hands of the private sector.

"We want Uncle Sam off our backs as much as anyone else," he said.

It will be a year before the organization breaks even, Drumheller said. But after that, sales from the clients' products will help keep it afloat, he predicted.

Until then, Wil-Win has filed for private grants and plans fundraising projects to underwrite the cost of running the program.

A "May Queen Dance and Box Social" is planned for May 25 at the Sanford Civic Center. Local churches and civic organizations are sponsoring queens and raising money to cast "votes" for them. The one with the most votes, or dollars, wins a cruise to the Bahamas and 10 percent of the contest money. The rest of the money goes to Wil-Win.

Women who come to the social may prepare a dinner for two in a decorated box. The boxes will be auctioned off to the men, who will in turn share the dinner with the person who prepared it, Ms. Wilson said.

The auction will begin at 6:30 p.m. with the crowning of the queen at 8 p.m.

Wil-Win is also planning a 5 kilometer run at the Central Florida Zoo on June 22 called "A Run With the Monkeys." The run is sponsored by Cardinal Industries and the Track Shack of Orlando. Entry fees are $6 for children and $8 for adults.

...Bi-Racial

Milton Smith said the commission needs to be sure there are "people with the proper attitude" who are "unbiased" on the committee.

After the meeting, Thomas said he was "devaluated" by the move, especially what he perceived to be an implication that the people who volunteered to serve were not capable.

"We don't have hoodlums. We have good people on it (the committee)," Thomas said.

Mayor Smith said if the committee is to succeed "it must be done right." She said its goals, duties and activities must be "clearly spelled out."

She also said she didn't agree with the name "bi-racial" because it excludes those residents who are not black or white. She would prefer on committee on "inter-cultural relations," she said.

Thomas said the committee was large because "it is a monumental effort we are undertaking."

He apologized to the people who came to the meeting expecting to be appointed and defended them as "intelligent" and "articulate" individuals who would serve well on the panel.

Farr said he was "unclear" as to the panel's purpose and added, "I'm not convinced this committee is needed."

Thomas said, "I thought that ... I was hoping I wouldn't have to get to this, but there are a lot of white people who feel just as you do; that we don't need to go any further. By the same token there are a lot of black people who feel we have arrived. (But) there are a lot of subtle things that need to be attacked, that we need to talk about."

But Farr said racial attitudes cannot be changed by a committee.

Before the vote, Gury Wiley, one of the 17 who agreed to serve on the panel, suggested the commission allow it to meet on a trial basis to set its own goals and to determine if it is needed or not.

Richard Hathaway, of 3510 S. Park Ave., Sanford, drew applause from the audience when he asked the commission, "What's wrong with his (Thomas') idea just the way you have it?"

After the vote, near the end of the meeting, Dr. Velma Williams, a Seminole Community College counselor on Thomas' list of appointees, said she was "extremely disappointed" at the commission's action. She said the delay was a reverse of progressive "new direction" the commission has been taking in recent months and a negative signal to Sanford's black community.

"Your failure to support commissioner Thomas in this endeavor, in my opinion, is a failure to support the black community," she said.

Ms. Williams also said Farr's question of the need of the committee showed that "insensitivity" on racial matters still exists.

But Farr said his reluctance should not be construed "as a racial thing" but added people should not need a committee to help them get along with each other.

"I resent anyone who tries to force down my throat — be they purple, black or white — any committee to tell me what I must do in my community. I will not stand for that," Farr said.

But he invited her to the workshop to "tell us what the need is, what the value is. Maybe it is needed."

Milton Smith told Ms. Williams "we are 100 percent behind" Thomas, but if the commission doesn't carefully plan the committee it could cause racial problems rather than solve them.

But another member of the audience praised the commission's actions. Alfred DeLaubaudiere, a black Seminole County building inspector, said race relations have improved "98 percent" since he came to Sanford more than 20 years ago. Alluding to Thomas, he also said commissioners should not be allowed to act alone and set up their own committees.

"I don't see the need for that committee — we're doing fine without it," he said.

worth $488,000 then. Its assessed value for tax purposes is $174,870.

Meanwhile, he said the 9,000 square foot Masonic Temple was appraised in 1981 at $340,960 and its assessed value for tax purposes is $180,860.

Commissioners some time ago decided to acquire office space in Sanford to keep as many of the county's offices in the city as possible rather than scattering them all over the county.

There are no funds budgeted in this fiscal year to acquire buildings, Percy said, but the money could be taken out of the contingency fund.

advice that he feels will best serve the city and the municipal organization. This is not the easiest position; nor is it a popularity contest. It is what I am paid to do; exercising my best judgement for the city. The Civil Service Board is not required to follow any bit of this."

But he also said in the memo that the board's complaint contradicted its actions. He cited the board's discussion about requesting the commission to waive the requirement of a bachelor's degree in criminology or police administration in the case of Capt. Charles Fagan, an applicant for police chief with 26 years of police experience but only a two-year degree.

Board member Gordon Frederick said he knew Fagan for over 20 years and believed the requirement should be waived. But Perez said the board would be overstepping its authority by trying to get the requirement changed so the matter was dropped.

The Dunns Observe 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dunn, who were married on April 7, 1935, were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house tea at the Sanford home of their daughter, Susan Rogers.

The couple's five other children sharing in the golden anniversary celebration are: Sandra Parker, Orlando; Pat Phillips, Geneva; Margo Austin, Jacksonville; and Sammy Dunn and William Dunn, Sanford.

The attractively appointed refreshment table featured a three-tiered anniversary cake enhanced with gold accents. The centerpiece, a silk arrangement, was presented to the honored couple along with numerous gifts from family and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn also received a month's second honeymoon trip to New Smyrna Beach from their children.

Out-of-town guests came from Jacksonville, Orlando, St. Augustine and Port Orange.

The Dunns were married in Sanford and have made their lifelong home in Sanford where he was a building contractor. Mrs. Dunn is a member of the Garden Club of Sanford Inc. and her hobby is plants. They both enjoy fishing, according to Mrs. Rogers.

Alice and Sam Dunn cut anniversary cake.

Forty-Niners Entertained

The newly formed "Forty-niners," the over-50 group of the First Presbyterian Church of Sanford, were entertained at their April meeting in Fellowship Hall by three members of the Lake Mary High School Band. The LMHS band was one of the special bands participating in the 1984 Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.

The saxophone trio from the band consisting of Randy Kelly, Sharon Reid and Mark Tebault, played for their audience the selections that had won them a superior rating at the recent District Contest, a rating which makes them eligible to participate in the upcoming state competition. Randy Kelly also played two piano solos.

Members present for the afternoon enjoyed a variety of games, entertainment and refreshments. The most popular games were bingo and uno although scrabble and rummy-cube were a close second.

The next meeting at 2 p.m.

Thursday, May 2, will be informative as well as entertaining. Plans for that meeting include a talk by Ouida Stacey Barrineau, family nurse practitioner, and nurse educator at the Central Florida Community Clinic where she provides educational services for both patients and staff. She will discuss Community Health Care Services.

Representatives from two home Health Care Agencies will also be present to detail services available.

GARDEN CIRCLES

MAGNOLIA CIRCLE
Members of Magnolia Circle of the Garden Club of Sanford held their April meeting at the Garden Center.

President Abbie Owen conducted the business meeting.

Discussion was held on the forthcoming Flower Show to be held April 26, 27 and 28.

The Flower Show is open to the public to enter artistic designs and horticulture.

For information, call Mrs. Owen, 322-3445, or Mary Tillis, 322-1234.

Following the meeting, members departed on an outing to Lake Buena Vista highlighted by luncheon aboard the Empress Lily.

Expert Gives Valuable Egg Information

DEAR ABBY: You gave the erroneous impression that hard-cooked eggs (especially those that have been colored) are unsafe to eat after one day. As the test kitchen supervisor of the American Egg Board, I hasten to inform you that properly cooked, cooled and stored hard-cooked eggs are quite safe to eat for at least a week.

Certainly, cracked eggs, or eggs that have been out of refrigeration for up to 24 hours even under the best of conditions, should not be eaten if the weather is very hot, the time element should probably be shortened. In a home situation, colored eggs that have been kept refrigerated as much as possible following the coloring, dyeing and hunting processes should also be safe for up to one week.

Easter egg hunts conducted by park districts or community groups pose a more hazardous risk because unless eggs are properly refrigerated, there can be considerable risk. A food poisoning outbreak at Modesto, Calif., egg hunt last year received considerable press coverage, but in that case, the hundreds of eggs involved were not properly handled, so the results were not surprising.

I am enclosing a pamphlet containing some valuable information about the incredible edible egg, along with the five basic methods of egg cooking.

KAY ENGELHARDT, AMERICAN EGG BOARD

Dear Abby

can Egg Board, 1460 Renaissance, Park Ridge, Ill. 60068.

It's free, but please enclose a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

DEAR ABBY: It's high time this subject had a good airing. I refer to fragrance pollution!

Now that men as well as women are using perfume and cologne, the comingling of fragrances in enclosed places such as elevators and offices can be nauseating.

Years ago, a lady applied a little dab of perfume behind each ear, and as she passed, the subtle scent of gardenia, orange blossom or lilac followed her. Today, fragrances are about as subtle as a meat cleaver. They're heavy, overpowering, and frequently used in suffocating quantities.

The first perfumer who comes out with fragrance that smells like good old-fashioned soap and water is going to get my business.

ALL CHOKED UP

DEAR ABBY: Voter registration may not be necessary in North Dakota, but there are valid reasons why registration is important in other states.

In Ohio, we have 7.8 million people of voting age—that's 15 times the number in North Dakota.

In our state, registration is necessary to prevent voting fraud and maintain an orderly electoral system. We have a long record of fair and efficient elections. In Ohio, citizens can register everywhere from state park campgrounds to fast-food restaurants! Our system works for us.

Obviously, states with large populations have to take precautions that smaller states may not need. Doesn't that seem logical, Abby?

Search Is On For Outstanding Mom

May 12 is Mother's Day. We, at The Herald, are searching for the annual "Outstanding Mom" in the community, but we need the help of readers to find this special woman.

The "Outstanding Mom" will be selected from letters of nomination. To make sure your favorite mom gets the proper recognition, follow the simple instructions: First, write your full name, full address including city and state, and your telephone number at the top of the page. Underneath, add the name, full address and telephone number of the mom you are nominating. Next, write us a letter telling us in your own words why this mom is so outstanding. Please type or clearly print your letter.

Submit letters to PEOPLE Editor Doris Dietrich, P.O. Box 1657 (300 N. French Ave.), Sanford, FL 32771 no later than Friday, April 26, the deadline for judging.

Winners will be announced in The Herald on Mother's Day.

Bath Genie Magic Gives New Finish To Old Tubs

You no longer have to replace that old worn out bathtub that causes you so much work and aggravation thanks to a fantastic new process, according to Vernon Cravero of Bath Genie. Cravero says that Bath Genie can apply a new surface to that worn out tub that will make it as easy to maintain and last as long or longer than a brand new one.

Using space age technology Bath Genie developed a coating that is synthetic porcelain. Cravero who is the Bath Genie dealer for this area, says the company has a network of more than 30 franchises nationwide resurfacing thousands of tubs each year.

The work is done in your home and Cravero can match any standard plumbing fixture color and refinished sinks and tile as well. Some of the jobs Bath Genie has done are for the Winter Park Hospital, the Navy Base, hotels and numerous individual homes. Bath Genie will have a booth at the Home Show at the Orlando Expo Centre May 16-18, stop by and meet Cravero and learn more about this exciting new process or call (305) 295-1044.

In this day of inflated costs and environmental concerns, resurfacing is a very economical alternative to replacement and eliminates all the pollution and high energy consumption involved in manufacturing a new tub.

The formula can be used on cast iron, porcelain, modern fiberglass or acrylic tubs.

Operating out of Orlando, Cravero who joined the company a year ago, is the firm's only representative in the state. A Miami native, he came to Orlando in 1979 as a builder. He said "I feel this is a coming thing in services and is needed in this area."

Bath Genie was originally franchised in Marlboro, Mass., by John J. Foley, who first created the patented synthetic porcelain process as a durable surface for his race car before discovering its usefulness for refinishing bathtubs.

The resurfacing takes three to five hours and the tub can be used again in 48 hours. The process is guaranteed against flaking and peeling for one year and has a life expectancy of 10-15 years.

Steve Blair, office manager for Blair Insurance Agency.

Blair Insurance Agency For Personalized Service

Steve Blair, office manager of the Blair Insurance Agency, says the agency's business philosophy goes out on every letter — "Personalized service is our business."

"Our clients are like a family to us," Blair says. That personal touch, combined with the agency's 30 years of experience is what makes the Blair Agency a solid insurance agency its customers can depend on.

Blair has 18 different companies they deal with, he said, enabling the agency to shop around for the best deals, tailored to the needs of their customers.

The agency was founded by Blair's mother, Genie Blair, in Sanford 27 years ago and she remains actively involved in all aspects of its operation. Considered an expert in the insurance field, Mrs. Blair was for a time the only woman licensed in both real estate and insurance in the state early in her career in Sanford.

The Blair Agency offices at 2510A Oak Ave., Sanford, sells personal injury protection insurance, but recommends liability insurance as well.

Blair said PIP, as it is commonly called, is cheaper insurance but is "self-centered protection which provides nothing for your fellow man."

Liability, which he said provides better coverage for all concerned in an accident situation, is made more affordable at the Blair Agency.

Blair said he also specializes in helping drivers who have trouble getting insurance due to too many tickets or accidents.

"Let me have all the bad drivers in Sanford," he says. "I will help them out."

But drivers with tough records aren't the only ones who will benefit from Blair Agency services. Drivers with stainless histories will like the services and the savings they get at the agency, Blair said.

They will like dealing with the Blair Agency staff, which is trained and educated to give their clients the best service. And because the agency isn't a high volume agency, Blair says it treats each customer in a special way.

"If I service my accounts honestly and properly, I don't have to worry about money. Being honest is my profit in the community. You're not going to find anybody more honest from 9 to 5 than right here," he says.

Call Blair at 323-7710 or 323-3866 and compare.

If Soft Drinks Are Risky What About Alcohol?

Dr. Gott

We Americans have become healthfully concerned about pure food and drink. It's about time.

In a nation characterized by concerns, this particular devotion is valid and appropriate. We simply no longer wish to ingest unnecessary chemicals that could harm us. Decent food — uncontaminated by the drug industry — and potable water are becoming a right, on a par with public education and voting enfranchisement.

However, our efforts aren't always successful. In particular, we aren't entirely consistent. Take, for example, diet cola and ethyl alcohol.

The other day, I noticed on a can of diet soda the presence of a remarkable printed warning that said, in effect, that this beverage may be harmful to health because it contains saccharine. Years ago, some studies using rodents reportedly showed bladder cancer in animals that were fed this artificial sweetener. If you examine the data in the reports, you will be struck by the amount of saccharine the poor mice were force-fed. The quantities were enormous and far exceeded the level any person could consume, even if he were to drink several six-packs of diet soda a day. However, soft-drink companies are required by law to inform the public of this unlikely health hazard.

So far so good...but what happens to alcoholic beverages? I don't see any disclaimers on liquor bottles or beer cans. In spite of the perfectly valid observations that juvenile drinking is a health menace and that alcoholism itself is a national epidemic, we continue to fail in our efforts to educate ourselves.

We have "happy hours." When it's time to "relax," we reach for a beer or two, not a good book or a chess set. The wine industry, both here and abroad, is a multibillion-dollar industry, complete with its own quasi-religious rituals involving fasters and connoisseurs.

About the only useful information on booze bottles describes the contents: V.S.O.P., aged 12 years, estate bottled, premium brew.

Perhaps the moment is ripe to pay homage to intoxicants. If I'm going to be warned about the risks of consuming an occasional diet soda, I sure as heck have the right to hear some sort of warning from brewers, distillers and wine merchants.

If disclaimers help, I'm all for them. I suggest the following information be printed on every alcoholic-beverage container: "Warning: This beverage contains alcohol, an addictive and dangerous substance that can result in physical disability, brain deterioration and death... Now, that tells it as it is."

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby

Was it dangerous for South to jump right to three no-trump when the opening weak two-spade bid was passed around to him? What if North had no high cards and East was lying in wait in the bushes?

That could not be helped. South knew that if he doubled, he would bid three no-trump anyway over his partner's response, and he certainly did not want to suggest a possible four-heart contract.

If I were West, I would have led a spade, but he got off to the nine of hearts. South won with the queen and played the spade queen. West won and played a second heart. Declarer won that and played the spade jack.

West took the ace and returned a low diamond. The six was played from dummy. East cleverly played the queen, and South won the diamond ace.

Declarer now had eight tricks and various options for finding the ninth. Perhaps the clubs would behave. If declarer cashed three clubs ending in his hand and the jack did not fall, he might lead a diamond to the 10, playing West the jack in that suit.

There was an easier solution. He simply played his third heart. East won the jack and king, but now had the choice of leading into dummy's K-10 of diamonds or Q-10 of clubs.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring...

YOUR BIRTHDAY
APRIL 24, 1985

In the year ahead there will be several possibilities for you to develop a second source of income. Stay on your toes and be alert for any opportunities that might come your way.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Material gains are possible today but you may have to tie two loose ends together to bring them about. Look for dangling threads. Major changes are in store for Taurus in the year ahead. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today. Mail #1 to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You seem to generate a lot of action wherever you go today, so it shouldn't surprise you when you turn around and see a parade of pals following you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Sherlock Holmes has nothing on you today. Should you decide to pick up your magnifying glass and investigate a matter, nothing will escape your detection.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Your instincts are strong today but because they seem to come in duplicates, you might constantly find yourself choosing which to follow.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) There's a spring in your step and a song in your heart today, so avoid the company of stuffy old fogies. Why let them dampen your spirits?

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You shouldn't have too much trouble meeting with success today because if faith bars one door, she'll open a second.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Be a good listener today because there is a lot of loose information floating around in the wind that could be extremely useful to you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Sherlock Holmes has nothing on you today. Should you decide to pick up your magnifying glass and investigate a matter, nothing will escape your detection.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec.

21) Don't take anything at face value today. It's to your advantage to turn the coin over and evaluate both sides before making any decisions as to its worth.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) This is an excellent day to get all of your mental tasks accomplished. Your mind is especially fluid, enabling you to work fast and efficiently.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Whether at work, home or on the road, somehow everything will seem like play today. It won't be just happenstance. It's your friendly demeanor that brings it about.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) First thing this morning, pick up around the house and make sure everything is in apple-pie order. Chances are you could have some drop-in company.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) When planning your day today, try to outline a variety of activities. Chances are good that you'll be too restless to concentrate only on one lengthy project.
