Five Centuries Of Christmas Timing Chronicled

- A portable sundial! Now you progress to the Sixteenth Century, A Yuletide gift might have been a clock if you before the pendulum was introduced, and you would have needed a sundial along with it to keep the clock reasonably on

The first watch was also ine vented in the Sixteenth Century. It was not exactly a watch as you know it today. Referred to as a Musk-Ball the watch of the 1500s was spherical in and shape, awkwardly large, and pierced to give off the scent of perfumed musk which was carried in the case. The noblemen and dandies of that era, who could afford watches, wore them on chains around their necks and apparently liked the idea of perfume. If Musk-Balls were still in vogue, you could prob-

Two Midway residents, a 21-year-old man and a 16-year-old youth, are being held by Sanford police after a Thanksgiving Day robbery of Western Union office, 123 West First Street.

Thomas Deppen, city detective, said Curtis George Stuart, 21, of 2281 Sipes Avenue, and a juvenile were arrested yesterday afternoon on armed robbery charges after two men took an undetermined amount of money from Ida Fakess, telegraph operator.

The woman telephoned police minutes after the 10:30 a.m. robbery and reported she was held up by two men, one holding a pistol. Police located a taxi driver, who reportedly drove in men answereast of Sanford and out of the city. Detective Chief J. Q. Galloway, county investigator, assisted police in the investigation and later brought Stuart to the city jail, where he was identified by the telegraph operator as one of two robbers. The juvenile was later located with assistance of December 2nd Show-Down Day For Sanford! Every election is important if the citizens of the United States care enough to become informed on the issues, acquainted with the character and record of the candidates and then cast ballots. Here in Sanford such an event is just around the corner with the mayor-commissioner election taking place on Dec. 2. We have commented on this editorially, We have printed the news stories on the campaign as they have projected themselves.

Today we would like to emphasize two facts: One: We are not endorsing any of the five candiadates. Two: We are emphatically in favor of "urban renewal" and urge that the vote on this be unmistakable and overwhelmingly affirmative. It is also important that our readers perform !

Message was received from City Commissioner Vincent Roberts that he was unhappy with us last week. Quoted now that he "never makes deals and makes his own decisions." Word has been that Roberts wanted to run for the new post of mayor-commissioner of Sanford and was "talking around" to others, like Lee Moore, Earl Higginbotham and A. L. Wilson, all incumbents and, now, all three candidates in Tuesday's municipal election.

The message was that Roberts decided to bow out and "persuaded" a reluctant Moore to run; that he "told Higginbotham and Wilson if he did run for mayor he would resign his present seat as commissioner, making a 'fair deal' for them to each run for separate commissioner posts." No deals - just "fair deals."

The Bennetts live bere. That's Grandmother Bennett's Bible on the window sill, and the whole family goes to the church across the smore covered field.

John Bennett works in the local bank. Martha, his wife, is president of the PIA, and they have three lovely children. Grandmother Bennett has been living with them for the past couple of years, since she broke her bit. She can't always get to church in wintertime and that's why she calls this her window. When she can't be in church, it belys to be able to see it.

upon her happiness, in times of joy. Most important of all, whatever the occasion, whatever the crisis . . . the Church has always been there.

To Grandmother Bennett, the most comforting thing in the world is knowing that it always will

To ber, the church steeple represents a great many things, and brings back many memories. Her son was married in that church. Her bushand was buried from it. Her grandcaldren were christened in it. The Church has belped her to bear grief, in hours of sorrow; and it has seemed to put a benediction

4 Elections Set Tuesday

By FRED VAN PELT Voters in four of Seminole County's six municipalities will go to the polls on Tuesday to select afficers for their respective cities. Bars and package stores will be closed in all four cities until 7 p.m. Polls will be open in all four cities between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Altamonte Springs electors will choose between John E. Falkingham Jr. and W. Lawrence Swofford for mayor and between Keith L. Nixon and Kenneth H. Plank for councilman, district 1. Helen E. Keyser is unopposed for councilman, district 2. Polling place will be the Altamonte Community House. Casselberry voters will choose between Curtis F. Blow, Arthur N. Lego and Raymond Morris for mayor. Also, for councilman, they will choose two from among Edith L. Duerr, Bill

B. Grier, William W. Meyerhofer and Stuart J. Thompson. Polling place will be the Casselberry Woman's Club. Longwood electors will choose three for City Council among B. H. Ferrell, Hubert F. Gipson, B. L. Helms, Robert Kalinoski, Charles LaFoe, J. Henry Lyons, Sandra Thompson, Sylvia Underwood and E. E. Williamson. Polling place will be Longwood City Hall. Sanford voters will choose between Earl Higginbotham, Lee P. Moore and Harry Skop for mayor-commissioner and between Gordon Meyer and A. L. Wilson for commissioner. They also will vote on urban renewal for the city. Electors also will indicate in a straw ballot their desires on a second sewage disposal plant, sewer system and the Sanford Zoo. Polling place will be the Sanford Civic Center.
