Sanford Pushes Over Couple In Seventh Stanza

Moore Fralick Gives But Four Bingles; Visitors Get Seven

By H. H. CULLUM

Having an uprising in the seventh inning that showed across the runs on three hits, three strikes and an error, Daytona Beach won over Sanford, 5 to 2, on the local lot yesterday.

The islander hurler, Moore Fralick, tossed hitless ball for the first four innings and not a single Lookout reached first.

Sanford came home tomorrow to play St. Augustine on the local ball yard. Being a local holiday, club officials are expecting one of the largest crowds of the year. Game time is 4 P. M. Today the Lookouts are playing in St. Augustine.

Construction Is Begun On $60,000 New Play Center

TAVARES, June 17.—Construction has been started on a $60,000 recreation center for Lake county located at the triangle where two state roads cross between Tavares, Elftia and Mount Dora.

The main building of the center is to be 100x100 feet and provides facilities for skating, dancing and dining. Also under the building are both houses with lockers, shower baths and facilities for sun bathing.

A white sand beach runs from the bath house down into cool, spring-fed Lake Woodward, which is three miles in circumference and has as much as forty feet in depth at places.

Docks, diving towers, spring-boards, boats, aqplanes, etc., are being provided. Free picnic grounds and bathing facilities are being developed by C. H. Roomfitt and J. C. Fretwell of Tavares.

Fourth Straight Game Dropped By Faltering G-Men

St. Augustine Takes 4 To 2 Victory Over Gainesville Outfit

GAINESVILLE, June 17.—Dropping their fourth consecutive game, the Gainesville G-Men lost a 4-2 decision to the St. Augustine Saints here yesterday afternoon.

The Saints opened the scoring in the first inning when they sent one run across the plate without a hit. Bonner took a free pass, went to second on McCowan's infield out, scampered to third as Fitzgerald rolled to Bevell and scored as Bevell threw the ball wildly to McMullen at first.

The Gainesville team took the lead in the third inning when they scored two runs on a trio of hits. After McDougal had grounded out, Padgett singled to center, took second on Adair's infield out, and scored as McMullen lined a single to center. McMullen went to second on a wild pitch by Bevell. Padgett pulled up on a wild pitch by Bevell. Padgett pulled up on a wild pitch by Bevell. Padgett pulled up on a wild pitch by Bevell.

Mako Is Defeated By G. R. B. Meredith

LONDON, June 17.—(AP)—Gene Mako of Los Angeles, a member of the unsuccessful United States Davis cup team, was eliminated yesterday in the second round of the Queens Club tennis tournament by G. R. B. Meredith, a Gloucester county player, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4.

Donald Budge, Mako's fellow-California and British partner, gained the third round with a 6-1, 6-0 victory over R. E. Williams-Thompson.

Tars Will Enter Evening Baseball Activity Tonight

JACKSONVILLE, June 17.—(AP)—Jacksonville will enter the night baseball field for the first time Friday.

Robert Fisher, general manager of the Tars, announced definitively last night after a test had been run on the new, powerful lighting plant, that Friday's game scheduled here with Savannah would start at 8:15.

The electrical equipment was turned on for the first time last night, and a large group of city officials and representatives of the Miller Electric Company, as well as baseball moguls, were on hand to pass judgment.

It is possible that more light will have to be turned upon the diamond before it is in the best possible condition. However, 216,000 watts were used last night and the present installation has a peak capacity of 240,000. Electricians worked late to get the proper focus from the eight big batteries.

Two towers have been erected on the grandstand and six poles are arranged on the field itself. Two poles are in foul territory, one behind third base and the other behind first. The other four are spaced in the outfield, none of them nearer to the plate than 350 feet. The other two are 375 feet away.

The two posts in foul territory bear batteries of 24 lamps each, and the other six towers carry 12-lamp batteries.

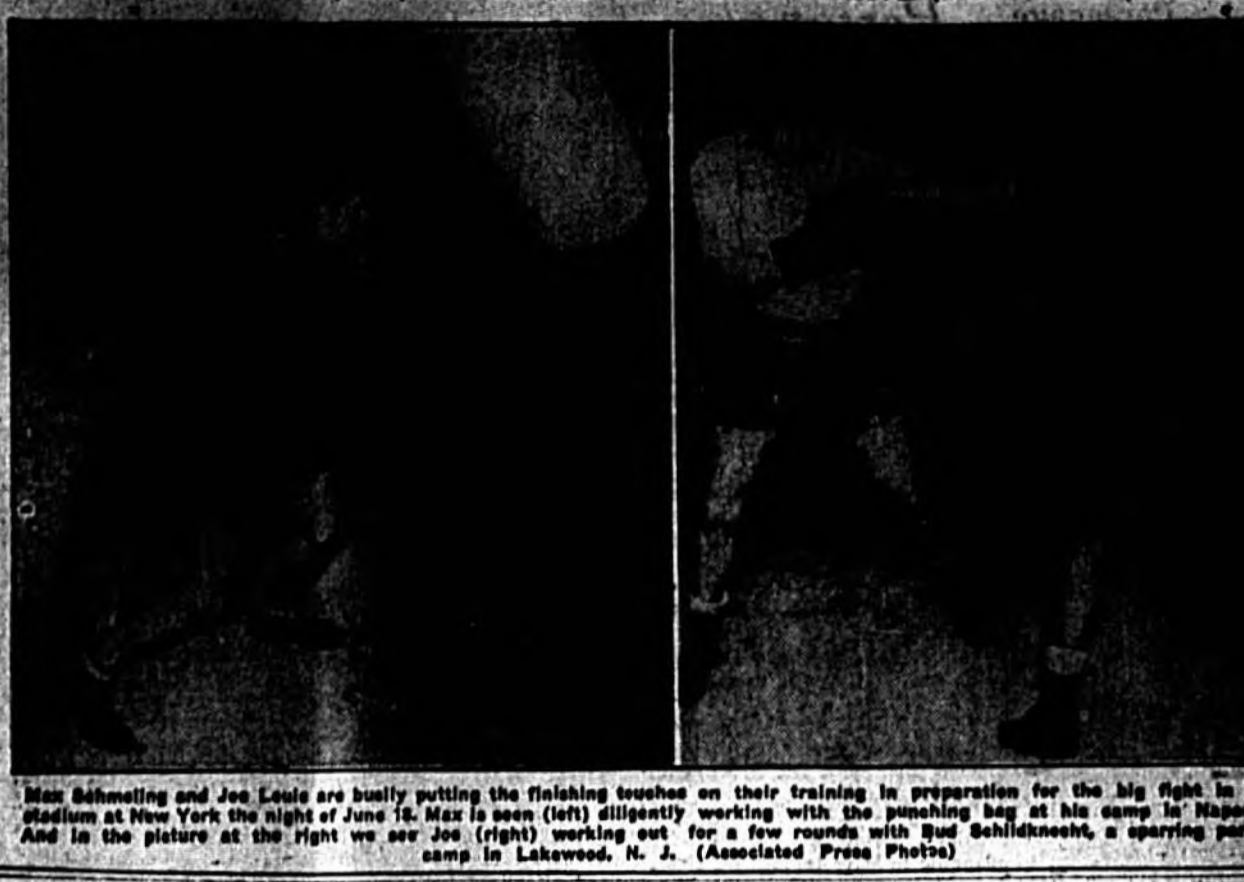

When the capacity of 240,000 watts is turned on, the Jacksonville Ball Park will have 80,000 watts more than either Augusta or Columbus. Savannah's power is not known.

Florida Golfer Leading Field In Dixie Match

Panama City Unknown Shatters Par While Stars Trail Behind

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 17.—(AP)—Stealing the show with the only sub-par shooting, a Spanish born Florida amateur set the pace for an all-star field in the first 18-hole round of qualifying for the Southern golf tournament yesterday.

The 20-year-old Panama City golfer, Henry Castello, unheralded in the field of 100 seeking the crown held by Bobby Rigel of Richmond, Va., scored the Memphis Country Club course in 80, one under par. He held a one-stroke lead.

With a chance to deadlock Castello for the halfway leadership, Tommy Walsh of Greenville, Miss., a former champion, barely missed an eight-foot putt on the home green for a 60. The ball rimmed the cup and left Walsh in the runner-up position with the only par 70.

Castillo shot the outward nine in even par and clipped a strike from standard figures on the inward course.

Twenty other Florida entrants finished in the 80's. Robert Doak, young Florida State champion from Bradenton, shot an 80, including a 43 ending home. Leo McFivaine, of Jacksonville, had an 82.

Maxie And Louis Lof As Stage Is Fixed For Battle

NAPANOCH, N. Y., June 17.—(AP)—Max Schmeling went through a light workout late yesterday for his match with Joe Louis and then settled down to await weighing-in ceremonies Thursday.

Max will do five miles of road work today and will leave for New York early Thursday.

All told the Teuton boxed 95 rounds during the long training grind. In marvelous condition, he expects to weigh about 192 pounds for the fight.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., June 17.—(AP)—Joe Louis wound up preparations Tuesday for Thursday's 15-round battle against Max Schmeling.

It had been planned to have the boxer box only a round or two. However, ideal weather and the unusually large week-day crowd of 1800 prompted his handlers to send Joe through five rounds.

Louis was "under wraps" but he cuffed his hired hands around at will.

Today will be a day of complete rest for the boxer. Early Thursday he will leave for New York.

Orlando Makes Bid For Soft Ball Play

ORLANDO, June 17.—(AP)—The Orlando Athletic Association has made a bid for the state diamond ball tournament to be held here this fall. C. L. Varner, city recreational director, laid yesterday.

Proceeds from above expense money will be turned into the treasury of the state association, Mr. Varner said. In case a team is sent to the national diamond ball tournament, this money will be used to finance the trip.

Slot Machine Is Denounced By Petteway

Tampa Judge Hits At Two Job Practice; Advocates Honest Voting, Counting

Full School Term Also Is Advocated

Jurist Flings Defense Against Allegations Of 'Controlled Man'

Judge Raleigh Petteway brought his gubernatorial campaign to Sanford yesterday afternoon and halted long enough to soundly denounce slot machines and the two-job-man practice, and the high cost of government as reflected in burdensome taxation.

His firm stand against "one arm bandits" and the practice of allowing a legislator to draw two governmental salaries, declaring that if elected governor he would exert his utmost powers to repeal the slot machine law to eliminate them permanently, and to abolish the two-jobbers.

Judge Petteway struck a ringing note in economy in state government and briefly outlined his views which include denunciation of a thorough analysis of public business in an effort to discover where salaries are high and other expenses might be lowered.

Anti-Lottery Law Here Provides For $200 Fine, Prison

Sanford Junior Chamber Commerce officials today pointed out the existence of a municipal ordinance which prohibits the possession or sale of any ticket, share or coupon in the City of Sanford, Fla., in any lottery for money.

The local law provides a maximum fine of $200, or 90 days in prison, or both for violators. Sentences are left to the discretion of the municipal judge, according to the ordinance.

For the public sale, or the offer to sell, "any ticket, share or coupon in the City of Sanford, Fla., in any lottery for money," the same maximum penalty is authorized. The ordinance against possession of a lottery ticket was amended in June, 1932, while the statute prohibiting lottery sales became effective in April of the same year, according to officials.

Sanford Veterans Holding Bonus Bonds For Interest

Sanford veterans apparently are not in immediate need of bonus money and will hold their bonds to take advantage of the three percent interest, according to indications seen today at the local post office.

Opening with boom-like activity on the first day when the bonds were available, the post department today is past the rush and finds that only 172 men here have converted some or all of their certificates into actual cash.

Post office figures show that approximately 400 veterans have claimed their bonds but 250 are holding them for the interest value or for cashing at a later date.

To the 172 men who cashed their bonds, a total of $64,400 was contributed. The bonds were mailed to Tampa and individual treasury checks are being returned for the face amount.

There are approximately 40 certificates of registration now on hand that have not been delivered, since the addressee could not be located. These slips will be held for 30 days and then returned to Atlanta, according to bonus distribution regulations. The ex-serviceman must then get his bonds from one of the mailing points, Atlanta or Washington.

Because the peak of bonus activities apparently is past, Postmaster R. J. Holly had discontinued holding the post office open at night, a service which was rendered to those employed in the day and could not leave their engagements.

Veterans who have not received their certificates of registration are advised to obtain them immediately, according to Sanford post office officials.

City Officials Urge Dog Vaccinations

City officials today urged Sanfordites to take advantage of services offered here by Dr. C. W. Baker, veterinarian, who is vaccinating local dogs against rabies.

Dr. Baker will be found at city hall where dog owners must first obtain a $1.25 license for their pet. The city stands expenses of vaccination, according to F. E. Lamson, city clerk.

Lake Monroe Rally Draws Large Crowd

Three Other Political Meetings Canceled With Consent Of County Candidates

Sixteen Seminole County office-seekers who will meet in the second primary election Tuesday addressed an audience of between 250 and 300 at Lake Monroe last night.

The following candidates spoke: For prosecuting attorney: Ernest F. Housholder and W. Herbert Messer.

For county judge: G. W. Spencer and R. W. Ware.

For sheriff: C. M. Hand and J. F. McClelland.

For county commissioner, district 1: Charles Dine and D. L. Thrasher; district 2: F. A. Dyson and Otto Schmebl; district 3: W. B. Ballard and C. B. Seary; district 4: W. G. Killie and S. F. Long.

For constable, district 4: Bob Dodson and W. A. McMillen.

Some personal attacks developed during the rally, although for the most part the candidates confined their talks to discussions of platforms and what they have proposed to accomplish in the event of election.

There were also denials on the part of some speakers who made efforts to correct statements made by their opponents.

Last night's rally was under the sponsorship of the Seminole County Democratic Committee which had scheduled three more, one each at Oviedo, Lyman School and Sanford.

However, after a vote was taken from the candidates, it was agreed to cancel the other meetings, since there was an apparent belief that more could be accomplished through personal solicitations.

One of the principal reasons given for the abandonment of the other rallies is that the office-seekers have already visited each section of the County through an invitation by the Parent-Teachers' Association.

The majority of those still in the political race were busy today making personal calls.

Talmadge Comes Back To Fold Of New Deal Party

ATLANTA, Ga., June 18.—(AP)—Eugene Talmadge, firebrand Georgia governor who once threatened to lead "2,000,000 discontented Dixie Democrats" out of the party, came back to the Democratic fold Wednesday night almost on the eve of the Philadelphia convention.

Shaking a graying forelock out of his eyes in an uproarious meeting of the Georgia State Executive Committee, Talmadge shouted that he still is a Democrat and will support his party's nominees and platform though he still maintains his embittered feud with the New Deal.

Republicans Declare Intent To Contest Senatorial Vacancies In November

Meeting Is Called To Pick Nominees

Walker Says Republicans Hope To Carry State For Landon

WINTER HAVEN, June 18. (AP)—Chairman Allen E. Walker said today that the state Republican Executive Committee will meet in Orlando on July 1 to nominate two candidates for the United States senatorial vacancies caused by the deaths of Senators Fletcher and Trammell.

They will lay their plans for a campaign through which, Walker said, the Republicans hope to carry Florida for Knox and Landon elect the senators and governor of this state.

E. E. Calloway, of Lakeland, has already been selected by the Republicans to contest with the Democratic nominee as selected in the June 23 primary for the office of governor of Florida. The decision to name two candidates for the vacancies in the United States Senate follows the death of Senator Park Trammell last month and the death of Senator Fletcher yesterday.

The Democratic nominee for the senatorial office will be selected in special primaries to be called some time this summer, according to J. B. Hodges, chairman of the state Democratic committee.

Celery Marketing Agreement Ousted By Cabinet Leader

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace today announced the abandonment of the tentative agreement for Florida celery, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Washington.

The development will have no effect on Seminole County celery producers since the agreement has not been in force for a year. C. R. Dawson, county farm agent, asserted this afternoon.

Mr. Dawson pointed out that the terms of the proposed plan set up a control committee which could direct the shipping and marketing of celery.

He said the agreement had died because local producers and shippers did not coincide with the stipulations it set forth. The program was in effect during the 1934-35 season here, the agent said, but was abandoned locally last year.

The Washington dispatch reported that the Agricultural Adjustment Administration will stand by to co-operate with celery producers if they desire any further assistance.

Senate Rejects Florida Canal; Relief Approved

WASHINGTON, June 18.—(AP)—Congress completed action today on the $2,375,000,000 relief deficiency appropriation bill and sent it to the White House.

Congressional action on the long-fought measure carrying $1,425,000,000 for relief was completed when the Senate agreed to the elimination of its amendment for reviving the Florida ship canal. The balance of the conference report on the big appropriation bill was approved by the Senate with little debate.

Final action on the relief measure left only the tax bill standing in the way of congressional adjournment Saturday night. Leaders long have planned to end the session when the relief and tax bills are passed.

The Senate quickly concurred in the House's refusal to accept the amendment for reviving the canal project. The death yesterday of Senator Fletcher removed the most vigorous supporter of the project which had been added to the bill by the Senate.

Fred Wilson Will Talk For Petteway

Fred Wilson, who has been a supporter of Judge Petteway in his campaign for governor from the time of his announcement, will deliver an address over radio station WDBO in Orlando tomorrow night in behalf of the Tampa jurist's candidacy. Mr. Wilson will go on the air at 7:30 o'clock and will talk for 15 minutes.

This is the second speech which Mr. Wilson has made for Judge Petteway over the Orlando station. Addressing the voters in behalf of his favorite candidate over WDBO, Mr. Wilson urged them to support Judge Petteway prior to the first primary.

Rain May Halt Bout In Stadium Tonight

NEW YORK, June 18.—(AP)—Adverse weather conditions this afternoon threatened to cause postponement of the 15-round heavyweight fight between Joe Louis and Max Baer to tonight in Yankee Stadium.

Rain was falling today and the weather bureau predicted more showers for tonight. Odds on Louis' winning this afternoon remained at 9 to 1.

School Officers Find Fault With Teacher Tenure

A proposed teachers' tenure law did not meet unanimous approval of the West Coast School Officials' Association in an informal convention at Bradenton yesterday, T. W. Lawton, Seminole County school superintendent, said today.

The would-be statute calls for establishment of conditions whereby a teacher, after having served satisfactorily for three years in one county is to receive a permanent appointment to teach in Florida educational institutions.

Removal of the permanent appointees could be effected only as a result of incompetency, unprofessional spirit, ill health or immorality, according to Superintendent Lawton.

The Seminole County school head said the chief objection to the proposed act lay in the fact that the responsibility of regulation and maintenance of standards would rest with the state school board, stripping the county boards of their regulatory powers.

Superintendent Lawton added that the west coast group would approve the tenure bill if certain modifications were made.

Discussion of the tenure proposal occupied the major portion of the program which was designed to bring out points for the advancement of a more stabilized school system in Florida.

Prof. Tom Alexander of Haines City made one of the principal addresses of the day. Those attending the meet were guests of Jessie N. Miller, Bradenton school superintendent, at a picnic dinner.

Attending from Seminole County, other than Superintendent Lawton, was Fred T. Williams, chairman of the county school board.

Hendricks To Talk In Sanford Friday

Joe Hendricks, DeLand attorney and candidate for Congress from the fifth congressional district, will speak at First Street and Magnolia Avenue at 8 P. M. Friday, it was announced today. The candidate, opposed by W. J. "Funks" Steed of Kissimmee, plans to cover the County tomorrow. He speaks in Oviedo at 1 P. M., Chuluota at 2:15 P. M., and Geneva at 3:30 P. M. Hendricks is supporting the Townsend Plan.

Senator's Body Will Rest In State In City Where He Once Served As Mayor

WASHINGTON, June 18. (AP)—Saddened legislators prepared today to accompany the body of their colleague, Senator Duncan U. Fletcher, to Jacksonville for funeral services Sunday. Preceding the exercises, which probably will be held at the city hall.

The body will lie in state in the City Hall where he first served as mayor in 1903.

Accompanied by a delegation of senators and representatives the body will be taken to Jacksonville Saturday afternoon.

Named by Vice President Garner to represent the Senate in the funeral party were Senators Loftin of Florida, Smith of South Carolina, Glass of Virginia, Buckley of Ohio, Chaves of New Mexico and Townsend of Delaware.

The House Committee is composed of the five Florida representatives, W. J. Sears of Jacksonville, R. A. Green of Starke, Harold Pearson of Lakeland, Millard Caldwell of Milton, and J. Mark Wilcox of West Palm Beach.

Local Delegation Hears Cone Talk In Orlando Park

More than 100 Seminole County people joined a motored to Orlando last night and attended the huge Cone rally held at Eola Park.

Headed by I. A. Brumley, president of the Seminole County "Cone for Governor" club the group was composed of many women as well as men.

Mr. Cone's address was interrupted several times by enthusiastic cheering of his audience. He told his audience that he was the victim of many untrue statements in the closing hours of the campaign, prominent among them being the erroneous statement made by his opponent concerning his stand on labor and wages.

Mr. Cone stated emphatically that he has been and is now a strong supporter of the working man and the man on a small salary, as is attested, he said, by the support being given him by organized labor.

Seminole County supporters expressed regret that all of the candidate's address was not broadcast. Only the first portion reached the air, and the latter part was well received by those in the immediate audience.

Mr. Cone is speaking in Lake and Marion counties today, and many of his boosters accompanied him to further assist his campaign.

How many veterans will leave this bonus money in three per cent government bonds?

You wouldn't pick a banker for president of the United States, would you? Why pick a banker for governor of Florida, even a good banker?

Supporters of our two candidates for governor are having an awful time trying to decide which is the reactionary and which is the radical.

The senatorial election, with two racemias for candidates is going to be about as interesting and as exciting, as the governor's race.

Somehow County veterans will receive $390,000 in bonus money during the next few days. Hang on to your cash, boys! Everyone else will be trying to get it away from you.

Could you get Petteway in the Miami Herald, as well as the Mi-

Petteway is winning votes on the strength of his record on the

Senator Fletcher

The death of Senator Fletcher comes as a great shock to his colleagues who knew him best in Washington, as well as to his constituents who rarely saw him but who had come to love and respect him as a man who ranked high in his chosen line of activity and who was constantly devoting his energies to what he believed to be for the best interests of his state.

Few men in the capital had more influence with the White House or had more power in the Senate. Only Senator Borah of Idaho had served in the Senate for a longer period of time. Senator Fletcher, not only because of his seniority, but also because of his standing with the party in power, his reputation for unimpeachable integrity, and his courage and forthrightness, was without a peer in the Senate.

It is unfortunate that the last great battle of his life should have been for a lost cause and for a misguided project. Whatever strange influence it was that convinced Senator Fletcher that the cross state canal was a worthwhile undertaking, it goes without saying that he was sincere in his convictions that it should be dug. His labors in its behalf were all that carried it to the very precipice of completion.

By some strange quirk of fate, Senator Fletcher died on the very morning that his pet project was to come before the House for a final vote. And only a few short hours after his death, attributed by some to the unusual efforts he put forth for the canal, this project which was to be the grand climax of his political life, was voted down in the House.

But, however ill advised some of us may think Senator Fletcher's work for the canal was, it cannot be denied that he was still "Florida's grand old man," that his 27 years of service in the Senate was characterized by an unalloyed devotion to his constituents, and that throughout this long period of time, in boom times or in bad, throughout Republican administrations, or Democratic, the name of Senator Fletcher was always one to reflect credit upon the great State of Florida.

Petteway's Campaign

Prefacing his remarks to a large and sympathetic audience in Sanford yesterday with the assertion that he is not making any promises in this campaign, except that "the people will keep faith with them," Judge Raleigh Petteway of Tampa nevertheless outlined a number of worthwhile accomplishments which he hoped to see materialize and to have a part personally in bringing to a successful conclusion if he is given the opportunity by the people of this state.

He expressed himself strongly as being in favor of economy in government and pointed out how hundreds of thousands of dollars could be saved to the taxpayers of this state by the elimination of numerous fat jobs on the public payrolls which are not essential in any sense of the word but are mere sinecures provided for the express purpose of rewarding political favorites. He said that these jobs, as well as many bureaus and commissions, and the high costs of many other offices, could be eliminated without sacrificing in the slightest degree the services of the government to the people.

As he has in every other speech he has made from the time when he first announced for the office of governor, Judge Petteway again flayed the slot machines and the Sholtz sponsored law enacted in the last Legislature which legalized these "one-armed bandits." Uncompromisingly he denounced such schemes of raising public revenues and insisted that the law should be repealed and slot machines abolished forever in this state. It was easy to see from his remarks on this subject why the slot machine interests are fighting his candidacy.

Judge Petteway also denounced the Sholtz-inspired method of controlling the last Legislature, a scheme which has become known throughout Florida as the "two-job practice." His outspoken criticism of this practice, as well as his opposition to the slot machines, both policies of the Sholtz administration, definitely disassociate the Tampa candidate, it seems to us, from any connection with the Tallahassee machine.

And Judge Petteway has been consistent in his public speeches throughout the campaign he has been making for the office of governor. He was against the two-job practice before the first primary, and he is against it now. He is against the slot machines now and he has been against them from the very first. He is not changing his position on any matter of public consequence either in order to get votes, or to satisfy the whims of political rings, or special interests.

As much can hardly be said for his opponent. Silent on the all-important subject of slot machines, the Lake City candidate did not awaken to the fact that the "one armed bandits" are a live issue in this campaign until after the first primary, and not then until he reached the lower East Coast where to obtain the support of any but the lawless element he was forced to take a stand against them. And, most vociferous in his support of the Townsend Plan before the first primary when he needed the support of this pension group in order to get into the runoff, he has not been so enthusiastic about it since he discovered that the old folks alone are not enough to elect a man governor.

Judge Petteway, on the other hand, has stated from the first that he believes in an adequate old age pension system and that "I am in complete sympathy with the principles of the Townsend movement." That is his attitude today. He has not changed it one iota. Townsendites, and anti-Townsendites, will have to take him or leave him on that basis. But they can be assured of one thing, that Judge Petteway will be the same man after election that he is during the campaign.

The people can well trust him to keep faith with them.

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

The marriage of Miss Ethel Factor of Sanford and Mr. Harry Ryland of Deland took place at the office of Judge Herring Saturday at high noon. The bride was very attractive in a suit of white embroidered voile with hat to match. The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. W. Foster of Sanford. After the ceremony the happy couple left for the home of Mrs. G. R. Ward, sister of the bride, of Ocala, where a reception is being given. The groom is a member of the local business community.

FRANK KNOX: Republican No. 2 Man

KNOX UNANIMOUS CHOICE OF G. O. P. FOR VICE PRESIDENCY

Crusades carried on by speech and editorial have marked Frank Knox's career since his return from the Spanish-American War. As with his publishing interests and loves the press even long ago as 1910 (left) he had risen to power in the Republican though his work in the present campaign takes him far afield.

Old Bull Moose Out To Ram The New Deal

By AURELIUS KINSEY
 CHICAGO, June 18.—(AP)—A political reporter who saw himself become page 1 political news, Frank Knox staked the Republican nomination for vice president not alone by 35 years of editorial crusading.

Parallel to his newspaper career runs a political career, equally vigorous and, except for one apostasy, steadfastly Republican.

The exception was his ardent support of Theodore Roosevelt; his Rough Rider commander, in the Bull Moose revolt of 1912. "This will be a Republican newspaper," the first edition of his San Francisco Journal had announced, "in an intelligent and discriminating manner... no personal quarrels... no favoritism."

After pushing through his "clean-up" campaign in local politics of rough-and-tumble Sault Ste. Marie, Knox carried to success in 1909 a drive for adoption of the primary system in Michigan.

The prominence thus gained won him the state Republican chairmanship in 1910. The following year President Taft called him to Washington to discuss strategy for 1912.

Knox led Taft that his first loyalty lay with "T. R." and became manager of the Bull Moose western campaign headquarters at Chicago.

He was back with the Republicans in 1920 as chairman of the New Hampshire delegation of the national convention and floor manager of General Wood's unsuccessful fight for the presidential nomination.

Four years later Knox ran unsuccessfully for governor of New Hampshire, the only time before his nomination at Cleveland he had been a candidate for elective office.

In 1931 he served as national chairman of the drive against gold hoarding.

When Franklin D. Roosevelt took office as President in 1933, Knox made it plain he liked the Democratic program for its "boldness and direct attack on national problems."

But as the New Deal took shape, Knox issued warnings. Vigorously he criticized such "radical policies" as price fixing and blanket codes. Particularly he hit the NRA newspaper code.

Soon Knox's suggestions became forthright blows.

With the 1936 campaign just in the offing, Knox took to the road in a speech-making circuit that carried him 25,000 miles around the country as a "Republican salesman."

He had become a definite presidential prospect, if not an assured candidate. The flap step was taken when Knox finally announced he would be a candidate if Illinois Republicans wanted him. He was entered in the Illinois primary and bested Senator Borah in a two-man race.

Governor Landon's sweep at Cleveland, and Senator Vandenberg's refusal to be considered for the vice-presidency left Knox an open field to the No. 2 place on the ticket.

Tomorrow—Knox keeps fit.

Petteway Our Choice

COLUMBIA GAZETTE (LAKE CITY)

We are for Judge Raleigh Petteway for governor.

We would have been for him in the first primary, but did not get acquainted with him and his record in time.

We are for him because he is the only candidate for governor in the race today that can be depended upon to deal with an iron hand with the vote buyers and election manipulators that have made North Florida stench in the nostrils of the good people of the state.

We are for him because he helped clean up Tampa so that in the recent primary there were not half dozen "hot voters." This includes Your City, mind you. Also, mind you, he carried Tampa by a large vote, all clean, free and un-bought votes.

Can Lake City and Columbia county votes stand this comparison, by the way?

We are for him because every man, woman and child that knows him or has lived in his town, whether living in Lakeland now or not, are for him without exception so far as we have met them.

We are for Raleigh Petteway because even crooks admit he is honest—some say "too honest," but it is high time we had an honest man in the governor's chair.

We are for him because he is an able executive, has a good head and warm heart, and has a life record of help and sympathy for the laboring man and the under-dog.

We are for him because he is personally clean and decent, but is not intolerant to the little failings of others.

We are for him because he is against the infamous slot machines.

We are for him because he is honestly for the Eldest Exemption law and for extending it to all homes and for full exemption.

We are for him because he is not dependent upon big special interests to finance his campaign.

—Columbia Gazette, Lake City, Fla. (Fred P. Cone's home town paper).

SANFORD

SANFORD FORUM

Sanford, Fla.
 June 17, 1936.

The Editor,
 Sanford Herald.

Could we have conceived the naivete with which the editor of the Sanford Herald swallowed hook, line and sinker of the Funtie Steed negro brain storm, we should have added somewhat to our letter yesterday.

The editorial gives somewhat the impression that every negro in the country is to be handed $200 a month under the Townsend Recovery Plan. Such is not the case. It is every bona fide citizen of the United States over sixty years of age without criminal record.

Now, only a short while back the Sanford Herald published a speech by the Hon. Judge Clifford Smith and which seemed to have the approval of The Herald, that "there was hardly a negro in the country without a criminal record." That they or most of them had jail records. We hardly think this is correct—but if the Hon. Judge says so it seems to us that The Herald and Mr. Steed were barking up the wrong tree, because this would eliminate most of the colored aged would it not?

The only thing that will happen will be that the delinquent aged people over sixty will be tributed, and will be obliged to abide by the conditions attached to said pension. In other words they cannot do as they like with it. These are little things that opponents of the Townsend Plan always forget to tell the people. Pensioning the aged over sixty eliminates them from competing for jobs of which we have not enough for the younger workers. "Anything wrong with this?"

Talmadge Comes Back To Fold Of New Deal Party

Philadelphia," said Talmadge. "My heart and prayers go to hope I can agree with the platform adopted there."

"My flight has been within the Democratic party and it will remain with the party. I will support whatever candidates and platform are endorsed at Philadelphia."

It was an unbelievably direct pledge from the Georgia dictator who only last February was cheered by his "Jeffersonian Democrats" at a Macon "grass roots" convention where he was endorsed for the presidency.

The pledge came in a wild verbal battle with Judge Newt Morris, a leader of Roosevelt regulars in Georgia, who sought to read the "wild man from Sugar Creek" out of the party just as Talmadge had sought to read out President Roosevelt and the New Dealers.

Morris had offered a resolution, charging the duPonts financed the Macon convention and demanding that Talmadge "get in line and openly announce loyalty to the President or tender his resignation" as National Democratic Committeeman for Georgia.

That resolution never came to the floor of the committee meeting as Georgia's 24 convention votes were pledged to the President and a list of 84 delegates was certified. But the Talmadge-controlled committee shouting "No more duPonts" boos, voted to send with the Georgia delegation to Philadelphia, a resolution praising Talmadge.

The Woodmen's Circle, Grove Number 267, will meet Friday night in the Woodman Hall to discuss plans for the district meeting in Lakeland on June 25. Mrs. C. C. Collins, club official, said today. Miss Mildred Wheeler, district manager, is expected to be present.

TO GIVE WEDDING
The Sanford WPA Nursery School for colored children will present a "Tom Thumb Wedding" Monday evening, June 22, at St. James A. M. E. Church, corner Cypress Avenue and Ninth Street. The proceeds will be used for playground equipment. The general public is cordially invited to attend.

he already has experience in economy in public office, declaring that he voluntarily took a 20 percent cut in his salary as judge so that the county budget might be balanced, and that he is not receiving pay for the time he is campaigning.

Bringing out that proper administration and strict enforcement of the law are among the things needed in this state, Judge Petteway declared himself a strong advocate of honest elections.

"I shall do all in my power to see that every citizen votes once, but only once," he asserted. "Similarly, I shall exert the same effort to see that every citizen's ballot is counted once, but only once."

Further, he aligned himself with a policy of recommending that election returns be available in a reasonable length of time after the polls have closed.

The candidate expressed himself as a solid proponent of full nine-month school terms and a policy that would give teachers their rightful monthly salary.

Judge Petteway concluded with a declaration that he is not a "controlled" man of any political machine or selfish interest. An effort had been made, he said, to alienate him with the present governor, but in proof of the fact that he does not have the support of Tallahassee machine, he pointed to the support he is receiving from B. F. Paty and Peter Tomassello—both of whom were Gov. Sholtz's bitterest critics during the first part of his administration prior to the June 2nd primary.

Maxim Gorky, Famed Russian Writer, Dies

MOSCOW, June 18.—(AP)—Maxim Gorky, 68, most famous of contemporary Russian writers, died here today.

Gorky was a novelist and chief of the Soviet propagandists. He was a revolutionist from his early years, his revolt being attributed to the bitterness in which his early life was spent.

The writer reached the supreme heights only after he had worked as a ragpicker, apprentice to a mechanical draughtsman, assistant cook on Volga River steamer, a clerk, lawyer, tramp on the steppes and a day laborer.

HOW FRED CONE STANDS WITH HIS PEOPLE AT HOME

Here is the vote of Fred P. Cone on June 2, 1936, in Columbia County, and that of his opponent:

Columbia County 14 precincts
Fred P. Cone 2,309 votes
His opponent 156 votes

Fred P. Cone carried his county on a basis of 85 per cent which was greater than any other candidate in his home county by a substantial majority.

Fred Cone stands for:

1. LOWERING the State budget to balance taxes instead of RAISING taxes to balance the budget. Rigid economy in all branches of State government.
2. Real and sufficient money for the education of your children. Nine months' term for all schools.
3. ADEQUATE Old Age Pensions IMMEDIATELY.
4. A State fund to advertise nationally our citrus and other industries as well as the beauty and charm of Florida.
5. Five-dollar license tags for all pleasure automobiles. Reduction of gasoline tax.
6. Fred Cone when in the state Senate passed laws beneficial to and has always stood one hundred per cent for organized labor. See Act of Legislature, 1913, now Section 7053, P. G. L. Acts of Legislature, 1913, now section 7053 R. G. L. and Chapter 5519, page 380, Acts of the Legislature, 1913. Also Chapter 5519, page 380, Act of Legislature, 1913. Also Chapter 5521, page 383, Acts of Legislature, 1913.
7. Fred Cone favors liberal pay for common labor, sufficient to support his family—has always paid this amount to his employees. THERE IS NO TRUTH IN THE STATEMENT THAT HE FAVORS PAYMENT OF FIFTY CENTS A DAY FOR COMMON LABOR AND IT IS CIRCULATED FOR THE PURPOSE OF TURNING THESE VOTERS AGAINST HIM. HE COMES FROM THE SOIL AND KNOWS WHAT IT IS TO CUT CROSS TIES, CUT TURPENTINE BOXES, AND DIP GUM. FRED CONE PAID HIS WAY THROUGH SCHOOL BY COMMON LABOR.

Fred Cone is not backed by any ring, clique or faction, but is represented by the common people of Florida, of which Fred Cone is one.

Louis Is 8-1 Favorite Over German In Tonight's Tiff.

Wisecraces Pick Joe To Give Max Sleeping Powder

Million Dollar Gate Unattainable Even With Loud Ballyhoo

NEW YORK, June 18.—(AP)—They'll offer up another sacrifice to the dynamite-laden fists of young Joe Louis at the Yankee Stadium tonight with Max Schmeling of Germany as the victim.

The fight is billed for 15 rounds, but the sensational "Brown Bomber" from Detroit is an odds-on favorite to polish off the German as easily and perhaps speedier than he attended to Primo Carnera and Max Baer in the same arena last year.

NEW YORK, June 18.—(AP)—Details of the Louis Schmeling fight tonight will be distributed by the combined WEA-FWJ-NBC starting at 8 o'clock. Clem McCarthy and Ed Hill comprise the announcing team.

All hope of another million dollar gate has been abandoned. Mike Jacobs, the promoter, still will bet the show nets $300,000, but last minute estimates are that the gallery will total no more than 60,000 and that the pay-off will be on $700,000.

New loans may be set both in betting and in ticket scalping.

There is virtually no Schmeling money at odds of 8 to 1. What little wagering is being done in the Broadway books is that Louis will score a kayo in four rounds at even money; that Schmeling doesn't come up for the sixth beat at 8 to 8; that the bout doesn't go 10 rounds at 20 to 1; and that Louis wins by a sleep producer at 5 to 1.

Although 10 special trains from Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Washington and Baltimore rolled into New York yesterday the ticket brokers were fearful they would not break even unless there is an unexpected and unprecedented last minute rush today.

Experts ascribe the failure to do a million dollar business can be attributed to three reasons: (1) an anti-Nazi boycott of Schmeling; (2) the belief that Schmeling is not a fit opponent for the hard-hitting, fast-climbing Louis; and (3) that the top price of $40 is too high.

There isn't a Schmeling believer among the 800 newspaper men who will cover the event. Most of them flure the colored lid can knock the Teuton out whenever the idea occurs to him or he gets the "go" sign from his corner.

The consensus among the writers is Louis by a knockout in four rounds.

Schmeling's on asset is his confidence and physical condition. He has trained hard for a month. But he has slumped up his punches have lost their steam of five years ago and even his sparring partners predict he'll be a soft touch for Louis.

The Bomber, on the other hand, is the same sleek, well-trained fighting machine that belted Carnera and Baer back into the ranks of the also rans.

The gloomy stories emanating from his training camp to the contrary, Joe is as nearly perfect physically and mentally as it is possible for a fighter to be. His punches carry poison, he collects dirty blows from his sparring mates without blinking an eye and his boxing is better.

Joe's handlers share the belief of the man in the street that he can name his own round and his own punch.

It promises to be a battle of corners as well as of warriers. Both camps have been blasting each other with charges of "crickery." Joe Jacobs, Schmeling's plot and Jack Blackham, party old trainer of Louis, will be watching the battle ready to fill their heads off at the first suspicion of anything questionable.

Jacobs was curiously turned down yesterday when he asked the New York Athletic Commission to be the referee's backer. It is understood in the ring instead of the dressing rooms.

It is believed that in some of the early rounds, Louis will have more than 200 more lbs. than Schmeling.

Lookouts Score Trio Of Markers In Fourth Frame

Saints Use One Run In Sixth Inning To Insure Win Margin

A spirited band of Sanford Lookouts in St. Augustine yesterday tried valiantly to find the punch that would give them just one or two more runs than the Saints had managed to tally, but falling were forced to leave the field defeated, 4 to 3.

Playing their first game on the road under the new manager, IPI Rogers, the locals staged a battling spree in the fourth, which netted three runs. Beyond that, it was impossible for them to get a man around the bases.

The Lookouts had one consolation—they outbit the Saints by ten to seven, although the bingles were not placed properly to convert them into runs.

Clay, Bistrif, Cates and Swindell accounted for eight of Sanford's ten hits, each man lifting out two that went down by the scorekeeper's book to boost the batting average. Overstreet and Powell were the other locals who connected for safeties.

Hayes gave up three hits and three runs in three and one-third innings on the mound. Sweeney was touched for four blows and a run in four and two-thirds stanzas.

The Saints come here today for a return game which is billed to begin at 4 P. M. Half-holiday attendance should swell the attendance, officials said.

DeLand Annexes 12 To 5 Victory Over Islanders

Heavy Hitting Stands Out In Palatka's Defeat Of G-Men

DAYTONA BEACH, June 17.—Scoring seven runs in a wild second inning, DeLand's Reds scored a 12 to 5 victory over the league-leading Islanders yesterday.

Al Hubbling, playing his last game for the Reds before returning to Macon in the Bally League, led the 15-hit attack on Kinsel and Gornicki, rapping off a double and three singles in five times at bat. He drove in three runs.

Kinsel started for the Islanders but was taken out in the second frame with none out, after giving up four hits. Hank Gornicki, who relieved him, was rapped for 11 more safeties before the game was over.

Dopey Dean started for the Reds but was taken out in the first with none out when the first two men walked and the second two got hits.

McGloin limited the Islanders to six hits in the nine innings he pitched.

The Reds score came in the second, came on six hits, including a triple by McFarlane and a double by Holdstock, plus two bases on balls.

Jack Morton led the Islanders with a homer in the seventh with none on and two doubles in five times at bat.

McGloin struck out seven men and walked four. Gornicki fanned five and issued five free passes.

GAINEVILLE, June 18.—In an exciting game held with heavy hitting, the Palatka Azaleas defeated the Gainesville G-Men, 10-0, here yesterday. The loss marked the fifth straight loss for the faltering G-Men.

The Gainesville team fell one run short of evening the game at 10-10 in the ninth when Adair was caught between third and home after two runners had crossed the plate.

The Gainesville outfit outbit the winners, 18-11, but the Azaleas matched their base blows with three pass balls and four errors for their total score.

Andrew's homer over the right field barrier in the seventh inning with one rider on the bases gave the Azaleas the necessary marker to win.

Guerra, the mite third baseman of the Palatka team, was the leading hitter of the game with a triple and three singles in five trips to the plate.

Pittman, Bray, Buck and McDougal led the Gainesville hitters with three hits each. Out of Pittman's was a double, and a pair of McDougal's went for two bases.

Three hurriers were used by the G-men while the Azaleas were sending four into the fray. Three of this four appeared in the ninth inning to stop the last minute onslaught of the Gainesville nine.

Three passed balls by Milton McDougal, Gainesville receiver, gave the Azaleas two unearned runs in the first inning.

Russell, his sensational fielding, handled several hard chances in fielding gems in the outfield were pulled by Pfeifer and Andrews.

Sweeney's Hits off Weigel's and 2 runs in 4 innings off homeplate. Hayes and 3 runs in 3-1/4 innings off Weigel's and 3 runs in 4-1/4 innings. Weigel pitched 6-1/2 innings. Leading pitcher, Sweeney pitched 6-1/2 innings and 3-1/2.

America Produces Supreme Crop Of Olympic Jumpers

England Only Country In Timber-Topping To Give U. S. Worry

BERLIN, June 18.—(AP)—European jealousy of America's athletic supremacy, demonstrated in one Olympiad after another, reaches the boiling point at Uncle Sam's ability to produce champion hurdlers, high-jumpers and pole-vaulters.

Only England, with its Lord Burghley, has been able to give America's timber-toppers a run for their money in the past, and no European nation has yet developed any high-jumpers of value, or worth their salt. They haven't a hope of offering the American stars any real opposition in these events in the coming Olympic Games at Berlin.

All other branches of track and field they can learn, but something about vaulting, jumping and hurdling escapes them. Probably the secret lies in the lack of shoe coaching. Whatever it is, a 12-foot-6-inch vaulter can't get almost any meet he enters in England, and so can a 5-foot-6-inch jumper. They are but little better of the continent.

The best high-jumper the Americans will have to beat at Berlin appears to be Kurt Lindqvist, of Sweden, whose best recorded effort is 6 feet 4 inches. That isn't high enough. Neither is the 12-foot-7-inch vault, likewise credited to a Swede, Bo Ljungberg.

When it comes to hurdling, the Spanish European threat in the 400 meters is believed to be Ernst Laitner, an Austrian, whose best time and national record is 54.8 seconds. Glenn Harter, set an Olympic mark of 55 1/2 in the Los Angeles Games. Erikus Lidman of Sweden, with a recorded time of 1.6 seconds in the 110-meter hurdle, is a Swedish performer and the only European candidate likely to give the Americans a touch of worry.

With the awarding to Montreal, also of the Canadian Olympic boxing and wrestling team trials to be staged in July, Quebec officials are preparing to send modest sports fans from all over Canada and the United States. Canada will again get the pole-vaulter, who is the walking scoring hero on the walking

Financial Sheet Shows Condition Of Lookout Club

Wright Records $528 Cash In Bank At End Of May Period

Sanford's baseball club had exactly $528.27 in the bank on May 30, according to reports released today by J. A. Wright, secretary and treasurer of the outfit.

Here are some other statistics which the financial document revealed:

Equipment, $150; cash in change deposit, $34.62; deposit with the National Association of Baseball Clubs, $500; meter deposits, $16. All these figures were listed under assets which totaled $1987.89.

In the expense department Wright set forth these numbers: Home games, $345.95; league assessment, $170; miscellaneous, $267.41; office (books and stationery), $19.70; players' salaries, $1703.78; team travel expenses, $268.25; training, $393.63; and visiting clubs' shares in local gate receipts, $398.39. Total expenses amount to $3,337.10.

Receipts include: Donations, $1167.50; fence and uniforms, $100; gate receipts, $1200; gate receipts, $2000; gate receipts, $2000; gate receipts, $2000.

Wright pointed out that the club is now receiving some assistance from the mother club, Chattahoochee, and that it was only fair that the locals should do their part in showing appreciation for the interest being shown in their welfare.

Baseball fans, Wright said, could show their loyalty and high regard for Chattahoochee's gesture by attending as many home games as possible.

Today Sanford was scheduled to play St. Augustine here today in a half-holiday, officials expect a large turnout.

Has Is Medalist In Dixie Golfers' Meet At Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 18.—(AP)—Stazine, a record-breaking exhibition of superb golf, young Freddie Has, Jr. of Baton Rouge, La., a former champion, struck his way to medalist honors yesterday with a sensational 139 in the 36-hole qualifying for the Southern amateur golf tournament.

The slender Southern intercollegiate champion set a new qualifying score in the thirty-fourth renewal of the ancient tournament and established a record for the Memphis Country Club course.

Has, winner of the 1934 tournament at New Orleans, led the field by two strokes and climaxed his excellent assault on par with a 65, four under regulation figure, on the final round for the course record. He had six birdies, five of which he collected on the 81 score on the final nine holes.

Trailing Has at stroke the finish green by two strokes was Harry Coston, 66-year-old Hammond, who led from Fenwick City, 774, which set him on the first round.

Events will start at 7 o'clock at the country club. The American Amateur Golf Association, which is the governing body of the Southern Amateur, will be in charge of the tournament.

State Loop Will Discuss Leader's Threat To Quit

Gilliland Calls For League Meeting To Probe Palatka Act

DELAND, June 18.—Directors of the Florida State League will meet at Palatka Sunday, June 21. It was announced yesterday by President G. E. Gilliland. Notices sent out set the time of the session for 10 o'clock in the morning.

Developments at the meeting, the attitude of the Palatka club and instructions from Judge W. G. Brantman, head of organized minor leagues, will decide whether or not President Gilliland will tender his resignation as league head, he said Wednesday.

The friction between President Gilliland and the Palatka baseball club developed when Umpire H. M. Sheffield was arrested there a week ago on a tag violation charge. He was fined for the offense at Palatka last Saturday.

President Gilliland declares the arrest was the result of ill feeling towards the arbiter for his disciplinary action on Manager Jett Emerson and George Andrews. He says he has evidence to show that the arrest was instigated by Palatka club officials.

Officials of the Palatka club, however, contend they had nothing to do with the case. The entire matter has been taken over by Judge Brantman who has already written two players blistering letters with reference to their attitude toward umpires.

ASCOT, Eng., June 18.—(AP)—William Woodward's Omaha, great-hearted son of Gallant Fox, today will bid for the Ascot gold cup, a turf will the wisp no American-owned thoroughbred ever has won.

Despite the failure of all earlier investors, including Eight Count in 1929, in this particular class, Woodward's 4-year-old tonight was an odds-on favorite to outrun the field over the course of two and a half miles, a half mile more than the big chestnut ever has been asked to negotiate.

Reports that Omaha had shown a phenomenal burst of speed in a final workout made the 1935 American 3-year-old king more pronounced a choice than ever for the purse of 5000 pounds (about $25,000).

Rarely in the 120-year-old history of the race has any favorite been held at a shorter price than even money.

Several British experts, pointing out that Omaha's forebears were not voted for stamina, suggested he might waver in the stretch, especially since he never has been raced at so long a distance.

Jethro Wood, who invented the plow in 1814, made a miniature model out of a potato. He whittled away bushels of potatoes before he had one that suited him.

Senator's Body Will Rest In State In City Where He Once Served As Mayor

Jacksonville will be members of the Fletcher family. W. L. Hill, secretary of the Senator, and others.
Senator Loftis, who succeeded Senator Trammell, officially announced the death to the Senate and with breaking voice added that he was "truly known as Florida's grand old man."
Loftis disclosed that he had tried to persuade Senator Fletcher, Monday, to go home because he did not seem physically able to work, but the veteran legislator refused and "remained steadfastly performing his duty to the hilt."
"In my judgment," Loftis added, "he died as he wanted to die—in harness."
"I have always admired and esteemed Senator Fletcher, but in the last three weeks it has been my privilege to be associated with him in the deliberations of the Senate. Our relations were most pleasant and cordial. His passing is a distinct personal loss to me."
Other eulogies were in similar vein. Senator Borah of Idaho, said that "if ever a man sacrificed his life to his duties, it was Senator Fletcher."
"God knows we need more men like Senator Fletcher in the Senate," Senator Norris of Nebraska said.

Parley's Approval Written On Plans For Demo Session

PHILADELPHIA, June 18.—Chairman Parley of the Democratic national committee came to town Wednesday bearing his approval of arrangements for the national convention.
He was as broadly confident as ever of President Roosevelt's re-election prospects, though there would be little difficulty over the abrogation of the two-thirds nominating rule, and disclosed that Senator Wagner (D. N. Y.), was already at work assembling platform suggestions.
The city was already dressed up for the convention. Flags and bunting lined the streets, "Welcome Democrats" signs were in every store window. There was, however, a single discordant note, and that less than a block from the Democratic national committee's headquarters.
The Union League Club, traditional home of Philadelphia Republicanism, was dressed up for the Democratic show, too. The feature of its decoration was a big electric sign, "Landon and Knox, 1936, love of country leads."
Parley, stopping off en route to New York "to attend to some political matters" and to see the Louis-Schmeling fight tonight, received newsmen at the committee's headquarters.
"I am fully confident," he said, that the electorate will give complete approval of the Roosevelt Administration by the re-election of President Roosevelt in the same substantial manner as in 1932."
It was his "belief" he added, that the two-thirds rule would be abrogated.
Asked whether there might be some objection from the South, which traditionally has guarded the rule as an important protection for its interests, he replied:
"I am sure that it will be no easy task to fill the place held by Senator Fletcher, either in the affections of his people or in the councils of the nation."

HERE'S HOW TO GET YOUR BONUS BONDS CONVERTED INTO CASH

For the benefit of war veterans who plan to convert their bonus bonds into cash, these typical pictures tell how. First, a veteran who happens to be John M. Thackston (right in picture at upper left) takes his bonds to Joseph Donovan, attaché of the postoffice in Washington, who witnesses the request for payment. Of course Thackston must be identified properly, and so at the upper right we see Paul H. Griffiths (center), business manager of the Washington post of the American Legion, introducing Thackston to Donovan. Then Thackston signs his name to the request for payment on the back of the bond (lower left) and receives a receipt. And before long a check on the treasury of the United States comes to Thackston who is shown (lower right) availing himself of the happiness of veterans far and wide. These pictures are good, of course, but just apply them to your home town. (Associated Press Photos)

House Overrides President's Plan For State Canal

Short Debate Only Is Needed To Arrive At Final Decision

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The Administration effort to give new life to the Florida Canal project was defeated, 198 to 82, Wednesday by the House.
The standing vote on the issue, which the Senate took two days to debate, came after argument that lasted only 45 minutes.
Immediately, the House passed the rest of the amended definition bill, virtually closing the door to any further allocation by President Roosevelt for a continuation of the $116,000,000 water way.
The bill carries an amendment prohibiting the allocation of relief funds except for projects which can be completed within the year's allotment. That Amendment leaves a good amount left for the Florida canal.
The House vote came within a few hours after the death of Senator Daniel U. Fletcher of Florida, who successfully introduced the definition bill amendment through a later fight in the Senate two weeks ago.
The House debate followed a motion by Acting Majority Leader O'Connor of New York to suspend the Senate's amendment.
Pending for the project, started by the New Deal with relief funds, O'Connor insisted it deserved House approval.
"Keep this project going," he urged. "Leave it in the hands of the President."
The majority leader asserted of facts had been made repeatedly by newspapers and others to kill the canal through ridicule. He did not say whether his active support of the amendment was at the instance of President Roosevelt.
Opposing it, Representative Bacon (R. N. Y.), said it was bad pol-

SOP Must Produce Drama, Wooing Of The East', If November Election Is Won

CLEVELAND, June 18.—(P)—The one lingering impression of the big Republican show at Cleveland has to do with the constant, insistent pressure of the party leaders to turn eastward from the party leaders away from traditions they have cherished for years.

In terms of the drama, the party could well be entitled "The Wooing of the East." Its action centered completely the picture which had become more or less standard over a period of a generation.

At a long succession of such gatherings, the big question had been how to propitiate the western organization men, in firm control of the conventions but fearful of election repercussions in the plains states, had figured that concessions must be made to the Dollivers, the LaFollettes, the Morrises.

This time, the westerners, who marched on the convention under the banner of Alf M. Landon, had a similar problem about the east. Even before the party hosts assembled at Cleveland, the western leaders began to look forward to national leadership and the steps accordingly.

They sent emissaries eastward, the burden of their representations was that in 1936 the west meant to take command, but had no intention of being bull-headed about it. They asked what it was necessary to do, so that a western nominee might have the most possible chance to carry the hat in November.

They found the easterners receptive. For months it had been agreed among the top men of the party that a western man must be the candidate. The way they put it was this:

First of all, you must give us convincing evidence what candidate from its own section the west prefers. Then you must give us assurances, written in the party platform, that western leadership will not run wild if it is put at the party throttle.

At Cleveland the Landonites set out definitely to meet both of these requests. They pressed the case for their candidate on the Pacific coast trail over which it is found that he suited the west will be possible to ride horseback or shown by the character of his or bike 2,500 continuous miles on western support. They undertook high mountain trails from Canada to write a platform which would neither alienate that support nor offend the east.

That, in brief, tells the story of Cleveland. The general theme was echoed in convention details, from the day the convention began.

Some were surprised, for instance, at the number of old-line easterners delegated by a Landon-controlled resolutions committee which wrote the platform.

The answer was that the western leadership was anxious to avoid any appearance of ignoring the east.

For the future, the trend at Cleveland is most significant. It means that the new western leadership is counting on the west as the November nest egg, and means to do what it can to annex the additional needed votes in the east; a process quite contrary to that prevailing in past years.

It means that the east is to be made a real campaign battle ground—from now on.

Thomas Edward Duke Died In Waycross

WAYCROSS, Ga., June 18.—Thomas Edward Duke, 41, well known conductor for the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, resident of Tampa, died Tuesday night at a local hospital, following a brief illness.

Mr. Duke had been a conductor for the last 15 years, was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, a Mason, and a member of the Baptist Church in Kissimmee, Fla.

He is survived by two brothers, William Duke of Holopaw, Pa., and Halsey Duke of Kissimmee, Fla.; also six sisters, Mrs. B. G. Methvin of Sanford Fla., Mrs. J. J. Overstreet of Palmetto, Fla., Mrs. Guy Strope of Kissimmee, Mrs. Ual Johnson of Holopaw, Mrs. William McGee of Kissimmee and Mrs. Charles Lowe of St. Cloud, Fla.

The body will be sent to Kissimmee, final rites to be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Baptist Church of that city, with burial in a Kissimmee cemetery.

Minimum Wages Paid By Ford's Farms In Britain

Worker Able To Earn $5 A Day Through Co-Operative Effort

BOREHAM, England, June 18.—(P)—As high as $5 a day is being earned by farm workers operating a co-operative agricultural experiment here on about 2,000 acres of Essex land.

The experiment, called "Fordson Co-operators," was launched two years ago by backers including Henry Ford, American motor-car magnate, and Sir Percival Perry, chairman of Ford's British company, to show that there is scope on the land both for more men and higher incomes.

Workers are formed into three co-operative societies, each running a farm. Seventy-three permanently employed men rent and work the land through the societies.

Sir Percival Perry, who was director of food production for the British government during the war, has stated that the men probably are the highest paid agricultural workers in the world.

Two societies, working 1,229 acres, Sir Percival said, made a profit of more than $14,000 last year, the average income of many of the men being above $1,000, or about $20 a week. The highest wage averaged $32.50 a week.

These figures compare with the legal minimum wage in the district of $7.75 a week.

The third farm, however, operated at a loss, thought due to a nevertheless were paid the society's standard rate, 25 per cent above the district minimum.

Sir Percival thinks the experiment shows the value of new methods, and is an important development in British agriculture. The farmers concentrate on growing food while the selling and organization work is left to experts in these fields. The scheme is being studied by officials concerned with Britain's unemployment and farm problems.

Aaron Takes Bride For Company Down Life's Last Miles

Aaron Jenkins decided he'd rather not take the trek alone down the last miles of life.

Aaron is an 82-year-old negro who appeared yesterday in Judge Sharon's office and applied for a marriage license. His bride gave her age as 44 and was named Viola Dennis.

Viola, when asked if she'd ever been married before, answered in the affirmative, adding that she was divorced by God. The marriage license clerk assumed from the answer that her former husband had died.

Building Permits Issued Total $190

Building permits totalling $190 were issued yesterday afternoon from City Hall, according to municipal records.

R. L. Caldwell obtained permission to erect a $140 frame garage on Third Street. The structure is to be 20 feet square. Mrs. R. Wilcox, Holly Avenue, drew a permit for repairs to a frame edifice.

SPENCER TRIES TO DRAG LEGION INTO POLITICS!

Spencer's Letter

BEWARE OF WARE HE OPPOSES THE PRINCIPLES OF THE LEGION.
READ THE FOLLOWING AFFIDAVIT. THE ORIGINAL IS IN SPENCER'S OFFICE FOR INSPECTION BY ANYONE.
AFFIDAVIT OF E. A. TIPPENS

STATE OF FLORIDA,
COUNTY OF SEMINOLE:
I HEREBY CERTIFY that on this day personally appeared E. A. TIPPENS, who being by me first duly sworn deposes and says that in January, 1936, while the question of the soldier's bonus was being debated in the House and Senate, R. W. Ware did in the presence of Rube Willis, Joe Tatem, D. L. Duncan and affiant make the statement that the bonus money was not due until 1945 and for his part he would like to see the veterans wait until that time to receive said bonus.

(signed) E. A. TIPPENS

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 11th. day of June, A. D. 1936.
A. F. Collum
Notary Public, State of Florida
My commission expires: June 14, 1937.

WAKE UP LEGIONAIRES AND LETS ELECT A MAN COUNTY JUDGE OF SEMINOLE COUNTY WHO IS A LEGIONAIRE AND WHO FOUGHT THE BATTLES WITH HIS BUDDIES.
NOW IS THE TIME TO STAND BY G. W. SPENCER, ONE OF OUR OWN BUDDIES.

LET'S ELECT DOBBIE OUR COUNTY JUDGE AND SHOW R. W. WARE THAT THE LEGION STANDS TOGETHER AND WILL NOT SUPPORT A MAN WHO OPENLY FIGHTS AGAINST THE PRINCIPLES THAT THE LEGION STANDS FOR.

FIGHT FOR YOUR BUDDIE NOW AS HE FOUGHT WITH YOU IN 1918.
Sincerely,
G. W. SPENCER
Candidate for County Judge of Seminole County.

Here Are The Facts

Judge Ware made no effort whatsoever to prevent the passage of the bonus bill. In making the remarks attributed to him by "E. A. Tippens," he was merely expressing his honest conviction, a conviction which was shared by the President of the United States who vetoed the bill.

When G. W. Spencer was "fighting the battles with his buddies," he was in reality attending school in South Carolina. His "war record" was confined to the Presbyterian College at Clinton, S. C., where he served one month in the Students' Army Training Corps before the Armistice.

Judge Ware has numerous friends among the Legionnaires, many of whom are supporting his candidacy for county judge, and all of whom join with me in regretting this ill-advised attempt on the part of Mr. Spencer to drag the Legion into politics.

Three Billion To Be Spent By President

Congress Makes Plan To Study Extended Relief Program To Rid Unemployment

Marine Subsidies Being Considered

Law Makers Impatient To Adjourn For Demo Convention

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—President Roosevelt and his aides will have $3,271,000 dollars for relief and public works on the fiscal year beginning July 1. The sum is estimated to be sufficient to provide jobs for more than 8,000,000 on the basis of present relief costs. The deficiency relief bill now pending in the House is expected to become a law. Legislative work on new bills is being pushed forward rapidly. The Senate passed and sent to the House a resolution calling for the national commission to recommend future policies on unemployment. Labor regulations for government contractors and an outright subsidy for the American merchant marine were shown into the current surging toward the adjournment of Congress by Saturday night. Whether they would be swept to enactment by the time the lawmakers finish their work on the vital tax bill was doubtful. Congress is expected to adjourn in mid-July. The House has passed a bill for the relief of the unemployed. This comprehensive relief bill is being carried by President Roosevelt's suggestion for levies on un-distributed corporate income, was in the hands of legislative drafters. Both Franklin D. Roosevelt and Al. M. Landon were mentioned in the House debate as the "next president of the United States." The Democracy and Republicans applauded vigorously in turn.

Heat Blazes Trail Over Central U. S.

Northwest Relieved

THE PACIFIC northwest and adjacent suffering southeastern states were relieved by rain today but showers drenched the domain of heat over the middle plains. New records for June high temperatures were marked up in sections but spots in the central region where the mercury rose to a maximum degree fell at a moderate level. Farmers turned their attention to the problem of grasshoppers and other pests which are being pressed for control.

Politics, Food Attract 5000 To Leesburg Rally

Pettway, Cone Seem On Same Platform; Queen Is Crowned

Sanford supporters of both gubernatorial candidates, Judge Raleigh Pettway and Fred F. Cone, received the opportunity yesterday to hear and see their men speak from the same platform at the Leesburg watermelon show. About 5,000 people gathered at the watermelon show to hear the candidates and to see the watermelon queen crowned. Judge Pettway reiterated a statement in the address he made here this week, declaring that he is wholeheartedly in favor of honest election and honest counting of ballots. Mr. Cone also did some re-iterating, asserting that he had made definite plans to smash the political machine which now has a grip on the state. W. J. (Funtle) Stead, congressional candidate, asked support in his race on grounds that his opponent, Joe Hendricks, is backed by Townsends who are out of favor with the Roosevelt Administration. In return, Hendricks scoffed at the idea, declaring himself a born Democrat which he said he plans to remain. Cella Englin, and W. E. Carter, in the race for state school superintendent, each spoke in behalf of his candidacy. The political aspect of the meeting faded into insignificance during a beauty contest in which Miss Elmore Burton of Leesburg was crowned queen. A watermelon feast and barbecue dinner assisted in cooling the political heat of the day.

JayCeas Ask Police To Aid Lottery Fight

Need Public Support To Crush Gambling Here, Chief Tells Chamber Delegates

The Junior Chamber of Commerce's efforts to curb lotteries in Sanford today uncovered the fact that Chief of Police Roy Williams long ago had taken the initiative and had broken up five "Borgia" houses. Expressing himself as being opposed to gaming, the chief asserted that "Cuba" could be broken up here within 30 days if members of some organization—the Junior Chamber for instance—would make "bure" of tickets and obtain warrants for arrests of the sellers. Chief Williams said he had evidence on several houses which had operated lotteries, and that it is at the disposal of anyone who wishes to see it. The officer enumerated three things which must be had before lotteries are smashed: (1) public support, (2) stiff penalty, and (3) a new law. He pointed out the difficulty in obtaining a conviction in a lottery arrest, since an officer must prove a lottery is such, and that it is "bure" that is, pertains to some future drawing. Andrew Caraway, president of the Junior Chamber, and D. K. Mott, this morning, informed Chief Williams of the organization's campaign. The young men announced tentative plans to seek the aid of all other law enforcement bodies in stamping the drawing form of gambling. Junior Chamber members said they had been informed that literally thousands of dollars are spent on "Cuba" here each week, a part of the money coming from out-of-town gamblers, according to the members' statements. An open meeting is scheduled for Monday, June 22, when the chamber invites the public to an open forum discussion on lotteries.

New Star Rushes Into Milky Way Constellations

Astronomers Trek To Russia For Study Of Broad Eclipse

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 19.—(AP)—Astronomers in many parts of the world reported discovery of a new star today. Harvard astronomers made hurried observations and said it is apparently moving a thousand kilometers a second. The star appears in the Milky Way in the constellation of Cepheus. To the naked eye, it seemed of medium brightness but astronomers ranked it as of the third magnitude. Scientists in the Far East studied secrets of the sun during a brief eclipse which threw a shadow from the Mediterranean to the Sea of Japan. Most of the scientific expeditions set up instruments in Russia. Some took pictures, while others made various kinds of scientific observations from which the world of science hopes to gain important information.

Sanford Future Farmers Win Honors In Gainesville

Four First Places Rank Among Long String Of Awards Taken By Local Youths At Gainesville Convention

Sanford's unit of the Future Farmers of America covered itself with glory at the state convention this week, winning four first places, one second, one fourth and one sixth in state wide competition against 81 other chapters. The club too, was presented with a $100 silver cup for having been the best chapter in the state last year. First place in the state string band contest went to the following Sanford musicians: William Burnett, Dave Shannon, Henry Jamison, Clifford Gustafson, Edward Hawke and Harry Benkarik. Shannon, accompanied by Gustafson, took first honors in the fiddling competition. John Jones was adjudged best in the state truck crop contest and took a $15 cash prize. He also won third in the district essay contest, carrying with it a $7.50 cash award, and fourth

Lindbergh Code Extracts Initial Penalty Of Death

Oklahoma 'Snatcher' Dies On Scaffold; Officer Is Injured

MCALESTER, Oklahoma, June 19.—(AP)—Arthur Gooch, 27, convicted kidnaper of two Texas officers was hanged in the state prison at McAlester today on six minutes after five this morning, the first person executed for kidnaping under the federal Lindbergh law. Gooch was sentenced a year ago for abducting Texas officers and bringing them into Oklahoma. One officer was injured in a scuffle making the death penalty applicable. President Roosevelt yesterday declined to intercede for a second time, saying "the use of the executive power to modify the sentence imposed would be in order to render nugatory a law carefully considered by the Congress and designed to meet a national need."

English Labor Leaders Plan Wide Protest

Proposal To Abolish Italian Sanctions Arouses Sentiment Against Baldwin

Italy Lauds Eden For Frank Decision

French Cabinet Makes Move To Coincide With English Plan

LONDON, June 19.—(AP)—British labor leaders, indignant at the Baldwin government's decision to wipe out sanctions against Italy today planned to organize a national popular protest. But in Italy, where during the Ethiopian war the name of Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden was anathema to the authoritative press, the decision was "frankness and implicit decision." The French cabinet decided in session to support the League of Nations' cancellation. Laborites vehemently attacking the government, charged it has destroyed the League of Nations and David Lloyd George's World War premier, said Eden was going to Geneva to smash the League. He thundered: "There is nothing but anarchy as an alternative. There will be international anarchy the moment this is known!" Eden, visibly angered by the position heeking, retorted: "The honorable members are making cheap gibes." Both Eden and Baldwin warned peace may be lost and nothing could be gained if the old policy at Geneva is maintained. Baldwin said: "I do not believe it necessarily a mark of weakness to take the action we have will be repugnant to large sections of our people." "We take it because of the present state of Europe. We honestly believe it is the wisest of two courses and the one most conducive to peace." Eden said: "If we cling to a course after the object has become unobtainable we may have the greater end for which we are working, the greater end, and having to keep the peace. If it means admitting failure, it has got to be faced." Labor will move for a vote at (Continued on Page Four)

Deadline Falls For Absentee Voting As 147 Demand Tickets

County records today revealed that 147 applications have been made by Seminole County residents now out of the state but who are voting in the Tuesday elections. Deadline for receiving ballots fell at the close of the county judge's office yesterday. Several more applications were received this morning but cannot be processed because of the time limit having passed. Judge Shannon's records further show that 135 Seminole County citizens, now in the state but out of the county, also will cast their ballot Friday in the deadline for receiving this type of ticket.

Woodmen To Fete Oldest Member In June 9 Ceremonies

Sanford Woodmen of the World last night laid plans for presenting the lodge's oldest member with an emblem which would acknowledge his long affiliation with the fraternity. The man chosen for the honor is Joe Cameron who has worn the button of the Sanford Woodmen's organization for 42 years. He is between 75 and 80 years old, according to fellow members. It was pointed out that a number of the affiliates here had been lodge members for nearly 40 years. Plans were also made last night for a social program on the night of July 9, when Mr. Cameron will receive his emblem. The event will be open to the public. Old-fashioned and modern dancing will be afforded. T. A. Best and E. Fox were given the honorary degree by Capt. G. Caraway's team. Other participants, O. B. Brown, John Brown and E. M. Brown, were thanked to have given them membership but were unavailably to attend and will participate next meeting.

Guards Shoot 14 Trying To Break Strike In Factory

KENT, Ohio, June 19.—At least 14 men fell in a six-hour pitched battle between union pickets and strikebreakers at the Black & Decker Tool Co. plant yesterday. Hundreds of shots were fired. Rifles, shotguns and tear gas were used. Two men were reported dying. The fighting was precipitated when two truck loads of armed strikebreakers took the pickets by surprise early yesterday. A guard leaped from the first truck. "If you're hurt, we'll let you have it," he shouted to the pickets. Two dozen men piled from the trucks, brandishing shotguns and tear gas bombs. They swung the gates of the plant open. "Think you're afraid, huh," challenged a picket, "Come on boys, let's start 'em!" The pickets pressed forward and the guards and strikebreakers fired a hail of bullets into their crowded ranks. Seven union men and the pickets seized guns and ran into the plant. Seven strikebreakers were hit and were dragged along by their fellows.

Marcus Fagg Seeks Home For Youths Desiring Training

Homes for 14 homeless boys now in the Children's Home Society of Florida are needed at once, according to a bulletin received here today from Marcus Fagg, superintendent. Mr. Fagg said he hopes the youths can be placed on farms or in cities where they will be given the opportunity of being taught to work at some profession through which they may gain their livelihood. "This particular group of boys is not interested much in school," Mr. Fagg said. "They want to get out where they can learn some trade." A reasonable amount of board will be paid by the society for training the youths, it was said. The boys in the present group range from 13 to 17 years of age, according to Mr. Fagg's statement.

'Unlucky' Luciano Gets Long Sentence

NEW YORK, June 19.—(AP)—Charles "Lucky" Luciano, described by Prosecutor Thomas E. Dewey as the head of a vice syndicate with a $12,000,000 a year income, was sentenced yesterday to 30 to 50 years in prison. Eight others convicted with Luciano on 62 counts of an indictment charging compulsory prostitution and four who pleaded guilty also were sentenced by Supreme Court Justice Philip J. McCook. The convicted men had faced a monthly maximum sentence of 1-30 years imprisonment. The verdict was returned June 7.
