Sold United Technologies Sells Stromberg-Carlson Division

By MICHAEL BEHA
Herald Staff Writer

An English firm has purchased Stromberg-Carlson's central office telephone switching business for $57 million, a spokesman for United Technologies said today.

United Technologies, which bought the company in June, said the company has been sold to the Plessey Ltd. Co. of London, the largest maker of telephone equipment in Great Britain.

Stromberg-Carlson's Lake Mary facility, along with facilities in Rochester, N.Y., and Bartlesville, Okla., make up the central office switching division. About 2,700 employees are employed in the division.

Ron Jackson, a spokesman for the Lake Mary plant, said today there will be no changes in operations at the plant which employs about 2,000 people.

"The acquisition fits well within our plans to expand our public switching capacity outside the United Kingdom," said Peter I. Marshall, deputy executive officer with Plessey. "We are pleased with the opportunity to purchase a business with a fine reputation, outstanding products and excellent employees."

United Technologies will retain the private branch exchange unit which employs about 300 workers in Orlando along with the General Dynamics Communication Co., which were obtained, along with the switching operation, from General Dynamics Co. in June.

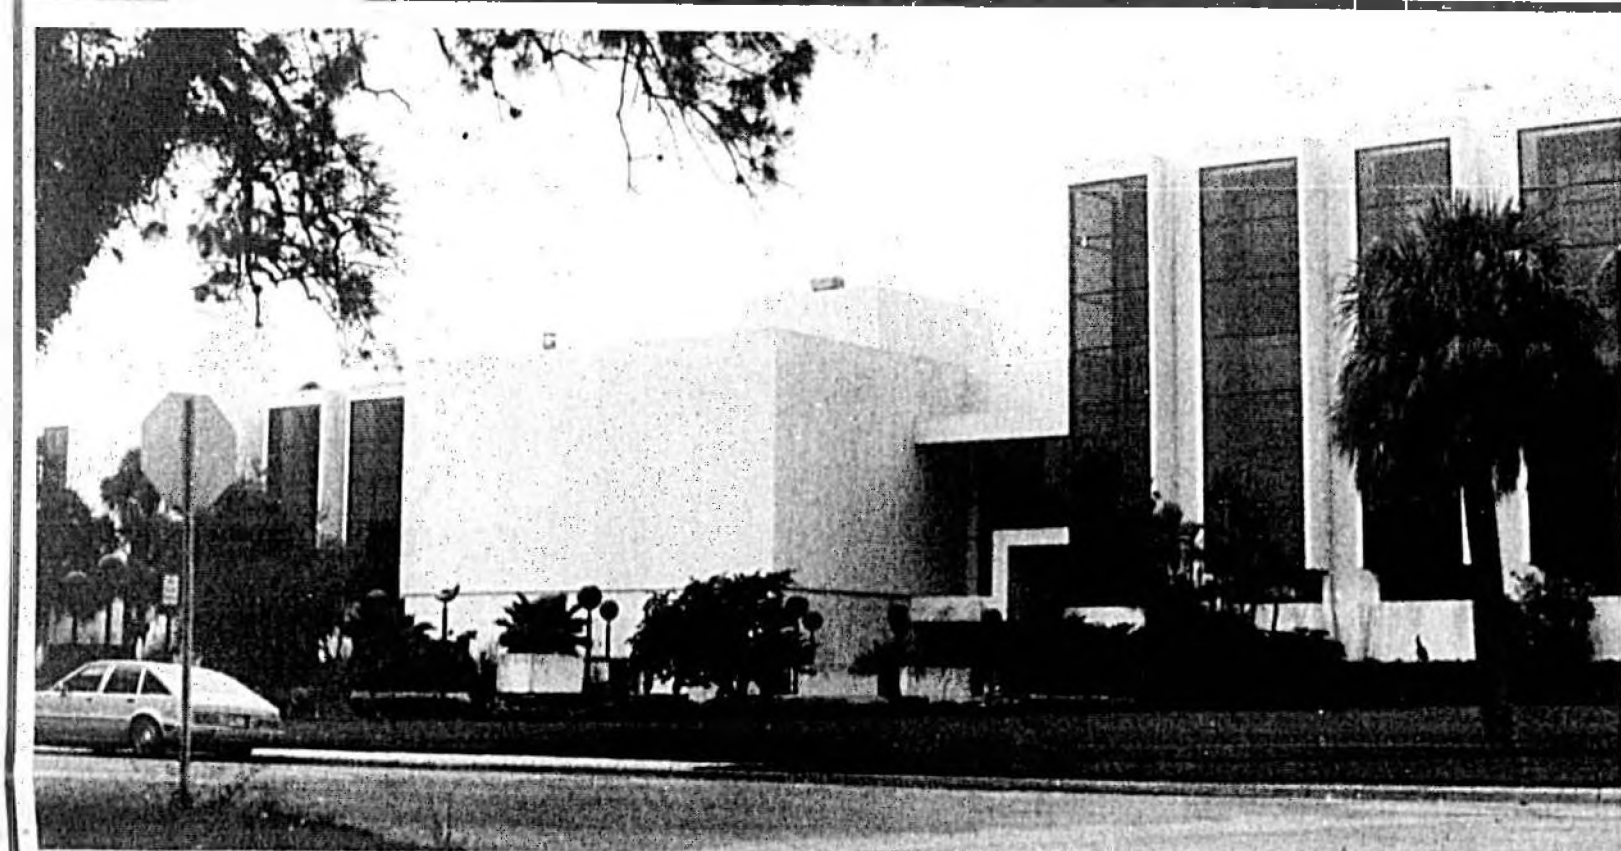

"The sale of Stromberg-Carlson's central office telephone switching business will enable United Technologies to focus its resources on the development of advanced business telecommunication systems and products for the United States and abroad," Hubert Faure, a UT vice president, said today.

Stromberg-Carlson was a pioneer in digital telecommunications equipment. A recently introduced digital central office and branch switching system and "Microwatt" system represent the latest advances by Stromberg-Carlson. The Microwatt system manages total environmental control of a building.

Overcrowding at the courthouse has forced Seminole County officials to take action on several fronts to meet office space needs. Commissioners are considering plans to construct two additional office buildings to the south and to the east (as shown here) of the building.

County May Lease Office Space In Sanford's City Hall

Seminole County officials are continuing talks with Sanford officials over a proposal to rent space in city hall for temporary county offices.

Public Services and Development Director John Percy said the county is getting estimates about the costs of renovating the space, which until a week ago was the temporary home of the Seminole County Library's Sanford branch, into offices.

Percy said he hopes to have enough information available to present a proposal to county commissioners at their Oct. 5 meeting.

The plan for use of the city hall space is part of larger plan to renovate the Masonic Building on Park Avenue in Sanford.

When the renovation is complete, the building is targeted for use by the public defender's office. That office currently uses a part of the building.

The city hall offices would become the temporary home of the county's manpower office and parole and probation unit which now share the Masonic Building on Park Avenue across from the courthouse with the public defender's office.

Meanwhile, commissioners are hoping they can get on with other decisions in their overall plan to provide expanded office space to meet the county's needs through the year 2000.

Bids are to be opened Oct. 27 on the old Seminole County Memorial Hospital. The hospital is the keystone to the county's plans. If a bid of $1.5 million or more is received, commissioners plan to sell the building and use the money for construction of office buildings adjacent to the courthouse. If it is not sold, the hospital building will be renovated for use as county offices.

An invitation for bids in July received no bids on the building but officials are hopeful improvements in the economy will change the situation this time.

Last week, commissioners endorsed a plan by consultant Walter H. Sobel of Chicago to construct office buildings to the south and east of the courthouse for use by the courts and constitutional officers.

At Tuesday's commission meeting, bids to repair fountains and pools beside the courthouse will be discussed. Percy said the county has received two bids on the project, both in the neighborhood of $45,000. A $50,000 pricetag was placed on the job earlier.

But there is no indication commissioners will go along with the plan to repair cracks and leaks in the pools which have forced them to be turned off since early this summer.

The fountains are used mainly for decorative purposes but Percy explained at a meeting this summer that they also help cool the building. Water from the pool evaporates into the air alongside the courthouse, reducing the need for air conditioning and cutting the utility bill by about 10 percent.

But the possibility that the leaks could return has led to consideration of a plan to fill in the pools with dirt and landscape them. The cost for that would probably be about the same, Percy said, although the cost of changing the drainage could be higher.

In another agenda item, commissioners are expected to hear an appeal of the license suspension of Lake Mary builder Irwin Peltzer. Peltzer's license was suspended by the county builders' licensing board after he failed to construct proper drainage swales in the yard of a Wekiva couple.

The board gave Peltzer 90 days to make the needed changes before suspending him.

For Sanford

$8.5 Million Budget Okay Seen Tonight

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

The Sanford City Commission will lead off its 7 p.m. meeting today with a public hearing on the proposed $8.5 million budget for fiscal 1982-83 with a tax rate of $4.37 per $1,000 assessed value.

The commission is expected to give final approval to match the preliminary approval given unanimously by the commissioners two weeks ago.

The new budget year will begin Friday. The commission also will talk about other financial problems, some related to the April 8 hail storm.

The problems involve: —The $90,450 in repairs to the civic center from the storm. While the city's insurance covered $54,703 of the damage, some $35,747 in unbudgeted funds were spent in the clean up and repair operation. And City Manager W.E. "Pete" Knowles wants to know whether the commissioners would like to review the use fees for the center on Sanford Avenue.

—Some $9,001.46 in hail storm damage of the newly purchased reflectors on the lights at the Sanford Stadium. The city bought the lights and was to be reimbursed through lease fees paid by Wes Rinker who operates the Florida Baseball School at the stadium.

Some 90 percent of the reflectors were damaged in the hail storm, causing loss of nearly 30 percent of the lighting. Rinker has said it will be difficult for him to pay the city $9,600 a year in lease payments and pick up the cost as well of repairing the reflectors. Knowles is recommending to the Commission that rather than a five year payback from Rinker for the lights, that the period be extended to eight years to reduce annual payments to $5,485.71.

The lights were not covered by insurance. Rinker also repaired a stadium wall blown down during the storm, removed the old press box and repaired the roof on the stands. He spent $4,800 to replace wiring for the field lights.

—The Industrial Action account of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce is over-expended due to unexpected costs of a new brochure. The group is asking the city to make up $609.40 so the chamber account can break even for the fiscal year. Knowles is recommending commission approval to take these funds from the city's contingency account.

—Repair work had to be halted on the roof of the eight year old police station, when it was determined that a whole re-roofing job had to be done. Knowles is recommending the Commission accept the low bid of $17,000, submitted by Loyal's Pierce Roofing Inc. of Orlando.

A total of 14 bids were received for the job. The highest bid came from William Evans Roofing Co. at $27,000.

—And, lastly an estimate of cost for new draperies and installation in the civic center annex is $2,101.50. Knowles is not recommending this improvement be made.

In other business, the commission will consider a recommendation from Knowles that it approve in concept the city's leasing of space on the ground floor at City Hall to the County Commission to relieve space problems at the courthouse.

Knowles said the lease being worked on would require a monthly fee from the county of $4.57 per square foot plus utilities either provided by the county or by the city with county paying the costs.

He Still Plans Life-Care Center

Feather: 'I Don't Have A Good Cash Flow'

County Commissioner Robert G. "Bud" Feather could be in trouble with the Sanford City Commission again.

It all depends on whether he can explain to the commissioners' satisfaction why a $9,751.05 lien has been filed by a Sanford architect against the 8¼-acre tract north of the Evening Herald along U.S. 17-92 facing Lake Monroe.

The lien was filed in Clerk of the Circuit Court Arthur H. Beckwith Jr.'s office by Sanford architect Eoghan N. Kelley on Sept. 16.

Feather said today his problem is with cash flow. "I don't have a good cash flow," he said.

"I'll discuss this with (Sanford City Manager W. E. "Pete") Knowles this afternoon. If he feels there's a necessity, I will appear before the City Commission tonight," Feather said.

The commission meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. He said, despite the lien, his plans to construct a $20 million life-care center on the parcel are still going forward.

Last week, a mortgage foreclosure suit was filed against Feather by Steven B. Clippinger of Fort Lauderdale.

Clippinger said Feather owes him $85,609 on a promissory note. Feather put four acres of property he owns along State Road 434 in southwest Seminole County up as collateral on the note.

The lien claim, filed by Kelley says he gave architectural services to Feather, including a review of Feather's proposed project, a project preliminary evaluation and budget requirements, produced program development phase schematic drawings and sketches and estimates of probable construction costs for the proposed life care center.

Kelley says he did the work for Feather on May 10 and July 16, this year.

The City Commission gave Feather the right to acquire the property from Tom Rucker of Altamonte Springs through an exchange of property in the Spring.

Rucker, who had originally bought the tract from the city for $130,000 was under a deadline of Aug. 1 to begin construction of an apartment complex he had planned.

The city retained its right with Rucker and subsequently with Feather to repurchase the property for $117,000 if Feather has not begun development of the proposed "Life Care Center" by March 1, 1983.

Knowles sent a letter to Feather a week ago, noting the city had been served with a copy of Kelley's lien claim.

Knowles told Feather in the letter: "Please provide the Sanford City Commission with an explanation or action to clear the title on this property in which the city holds the right to reclaim ownership... If we can not be assured of clarification prior to the 7 p.m. meeting (today), I suggest strongly that you appear before the City Commission..."

Last July, the city of Sanford warned Feather to get a deed filed, showing he had gained control of the property from Rucker, or the city would reclaim ownership. The deed was filed by Feather and that problem was solved.

Over the past 10 years the city of Sanford has agreed to sell the property four times, including the Feather proposal. On these prospective sales, the city has received $30,000 to $35,000 and nothing yet has been built at the site.

Various city commissions over the years have stressed that the reason for selling the property is to get it on the tax roll.

Feather has said he plans to build a life-care facility at the site. The complex, he said, would contain between 350 and 400 one-bedroom apartments, all facing the lake, and a 120-bed nursing care facility, as well as a variety of recreational services and a cafeteria.

The theory behind such projects, according to Feather, is that they are rented to elderly persons either retired or near retirement. These persons develop a lifestyle, he said, that permits them to befriend others in the complex. Later, if they need nursing care, they don't have to move away to a nursing home.

The project is to include three main buildings, possibly 10 to 15 stores each. — DONNA ESTES

IN BRIEF

Murder Suspect Might Have Forced Showdown

WILKES BARRE, Pa. (UPI)—An apparently distraught prison guard being held today under a 24-hour watch in the slughters of 13 people—five of them his own children—probably would not have surrendered had he known all the youngsters were dead, a friend said.

"I believe if he knew they were all deceased, he would have forced the issue for police to kill him," said Robert Brunson who helped talk George Banks, 40, out of a house where he held police at bay for 3½ hours Saturday.

Clad in military style fatigues and wielding an AR 15 automatic weapon, Banks, a former convict turned prison guard, went on the killing spree early Saturday at a trailer park in Jenkins Township and a home in Wilkes Barre, police said.

Four girlfriends, seven children and a bystander died and a 14th person was wounded.

It was the second largest mass murder in a single day in American history.

Lung Transplant Successful

NEW YORK (UPI)—A Florida man who underwent a lung transplant to replace his own lungs which were destroyed by toxic fumes remained in critical condition today as doctors watched to see whether his body would reject the new organ.

Scott Wilson, 25, of Boca Raton, received a left lung during a six-hour operation Friday night and Saturday morning to replace his two lungs which were destroyed because he accidentally inhaled the herbicide paraquat.

Wilson, a landscaper working the Boca Raton area, was exposed to the toxic fumes Aug. 31 when a hose used in spraying the herbicide ruptured and sent a cloud of paraquat into the air.

Boy's Murder Preventable

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (UPI)—Vernal Walford, a Jamaican national who murdered a 9-year-old boy in a Florida motel room in 1974, may have tried to turn himself into immigration authorities as an illegal alien after his release from a state mental hospital, investigators have discovered.

A special state panel investigating the circumstances surrounding Walford's release and the murder of Arnold Zeleznik of Philadelphia will reconvene Oct. 4 to examine the new evidence.

Three weeks after his release from the hospital, where he was admitted as a dangerous person, Walford slashed young Zeleznik's throat in a case which drew national attention last year after a probe by CBS-TV's "60 Minutes."

Congress Faces Money Bills

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congress tackled a full plate of key government appropriation bills today aware that it will have to face in November the leftovers it fails to deal with this week.

The controversial social issues have been shelved for the year, but several special interest bills also remain on the calendar before the anticipated weekend recess to give members time for campaigning.

Thirteen regular appropriations bills are necessary to provide funds for government departments and agencies for fiscal year 1983 that begins Oct. 1. The House has passed only four of them and the Senate has not acted on any.

On top of the need to enact some of the appropriations measures this week, the Congress must send the president a continuing resolution to finance the government until it returns.

10.2 Million Persons Arrested in 1981

SOURCE: Federal Bureau of Investigation

NEA/Moffitt Cecil

Young adults account for a high proportion of crimes committed in the United States. The latest FBI report shows that of all persons arrested in 1981, 55 percent were 25 or younger; 20 percent of the total was under 18. Southern states had the highest record by geographical area.

New Poll Reveals

Despite Dip In Crime Rate, Most Floridians Still Afraid

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—A statewide poll taken for three Florida newspapers shows that while crime actually dipped four percent in Florida this year, four out of 10 residents of the sunshine state fear walking alone at night within a mile of their homes.

The poll, conducted this month by MGT of America, Inc., also showed that 80 percent of Florida residents fear crime in their community is increasing or at least not diminishing. Only 15 percent of Florida residents feel that crime is decreasing.

State figures show that serious crime was actually down 4.4 percent across Florida during the first six months of the year. Still, one of every 12 persons polled said they had been a victim of major crimes like rape, robbery or burglary during the last year.

The poll also revealed that nine out of 10 Floridians support a law that would require potential gun buyers to undergo a check of law enforcement records first. "A good case could be made that there is a very strong mandate by the people of Florida to place some restrictions on the sale of guns to people with records of criminal behavior or mental instability," the pollsters concluded.

Area leaders will meet in Orlando this week to talk about possible solutions to the state's crime problems. Page 8A.

Respondents were also quizzed about national and state political issues.

Among those findings: — Thirty-seven percent of those questioned said they were "not at all satisfied" with the economic, political and social climate in this country.

— Thirty-eight percent said they disapprove of the way President Reagan is handling his job—up from 33 percent last month.

— Fifty-five percent said they believe the state's economic conditions will be better in the coming months.

— If the gubernatorial election were held now, Gov. Bob Graham would beat Republican challenger Skip Bafalis by more than a 2 to 1 margin, even though Bafalis has increased his name recognition to 72 percent.

— A majority of Floridians believe the Social Security system won't be financially sound enough in the coming years to pay adequate retirement benefits. Even more disapprove of reducing benefits now.

— A majority favor state efforts to spray the herbicide paraquat on marijuana fields in the state.

The poll was taken of 652 adults in Florida between Sept. 13 and Sept. 20, and is accurate within 5 percentage points. It was funded by The Miami Herald, The Tampa Tribune and the Tallahassee Democrat.

Empty Safe Stolen

Mondays Are Bad Even For Burglars

By TENI YARBOROUGH
Herald Staff Writer

It hardly seemed worth the effort or risk. A burglar broke into a Winter Springs convenience store through a window at about 12:46 a.m. today, cut the store's drop safe out of the counter with a power saw only to find that it was empty, according to Seminole County sheriff's deputies.

Deputies said they received a call from Winter Springs police who had been alerted to a possible burglary at the Handy Way food store, at 107 County Road 419, by an audible burglar alarm.

When deputies and police responded to the scene they discovered the alarm had been activated when the burglar smashed a front window and entered the store. Once inside, the burglar removed the empty drop safe from the store counter using a power saw, deputies said.

Deputies said the burglar apparently fled shortly before police arrived, taking the safe with him.

The store manager told deputies she had emptied the safe prior to leaving the store Sunday night.

DRUG ARREST MADE
Terry Bridges of 801 Longdale Ave., Longwood, was arrested at his home Friday on charges of possession of a controlled substance, cultivation of marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Police reports said a marijuana plant 10 feet high was found growing in Bridges' yard.

CRIMEWATCH Seeks Longwood Case Clues

The date: June 3, 1982. The location: Parson's Road in Longwood—just off of Markham Woods Road. It was a quiet neighborhood—that is, until that Thursday morning at seven o'clock.

Twelve-year-old Russell Davidson, Jr., was just finishing breakfast. He had to hurry to get to school. With him was his father, Russell Davidson, Sr., who was known as "Rusty Day" when he played with the Cactus Band in the early 70s. Also in the house was Garth McRae, a friend who was visiting from Michigan.

One minute later—all three were dead. The young boy and his father were shot to death in the kitchen. The shots were fired through the rear glass door. Their friend, McRae, was found executed. He had been hiding in the boy's room in the closet. The weapon used—a machine gun.

Evidence of drugs was found in the house. If you know who wiped out this household, call CRIMEWATCH in Orlando. The number is 819-2482. The reward is up to $1,000. Persons may remain anonymous.

MAN HELD ON BURGLARY CHARGE

An 18-year-old Sanford man was being held in the Seminole County jail today on a burglary charge following his arrest at 2:38 a.m. Sunday.

Michael Lee King, of 1515 W. 16th St., was arrested after police observed a suspicious person inside a home at 1610 W. 16th St. and ordered the suspected burglar to come out of the house.

Bond was set at $8,000, jail officials said.

GUN TAKEN FROM CAR
Donald Brown, 1005 Grove Manor Drive, Sanford, told police his car was broken into late Thursday and a .22-caliber rifle, valued at $100, was taken.

MURDER SUSPECTS REMAIN IN JAIL
Two Seminole County residents remain in jail today without bond on charges of first-degree murder in connection with two separate killings Friday night.

Cornelius Silas, 27, of 789 E. Franklin St., Oviedo, was arrested by Oviedo police at 9:22 p.m. Friday and is charged with the shooting death of his live-in girlfriend, Jean Esther Smith, 20.

Police said Ms. Smith died of multiple gunshot wounds, but added that there is no indication of what may have led to the fatal shooting.

Also, Cora Louise Cannon, 45, of 55 10th St., Chuluota, is being held in the county jail today, following her arrest for the stabbing death of her husband, Lawrence Cannon Jr., 42.

Deputies said that Mrs. Cannon is accused of cutting her husband with a butcher knife during an argument after Cannon began hitting her.

DUI ARRESTS
The following people were arrested in Seminole County on a charge of driving under the influence (DUI) of alcoholic beverages:

- Bruce A. Maier, 19, Apopka, arrested 2:16 a.m. Saturday by Altamonte Springs police along State Road 434.
- Mark Keuppers, 20, Orlando, arrested 12:38 a.m. Saturday by Seminole County sheriff's deputies at State Road 436 and Red Bug Road, charged with DUI and operating a vehicle with unsafe equipment.
- Allen Hansbrough, 20, of 214 Cumberland Court, Longwood, was arrested by Longwood police at 1:15 a.m. along State Road 434.

Longwood Sets Final Budget Hearing Tonight

Longwood residents will have one final chance to address the city's proposed $1.95 million 1982-83 budget in a public hearing at 7:30 p.m. tonight in the commission chambers at City Hall, 301 W. Warren Ave.

The City Commission tentatively approved the budget at last week's meeting after hearing comments from only one resident.

If approved tonight, the new budget will provide for a decrease in the property tax rate of 29.3 percent, from $3.12 per $1,000 assessed property value to $2.21 per $1,000 assessed property value. According to City Clerk Don Terry, the proposed decrease was made possible because of funds the city will receive from the state's one-cent sales tax increase.

Terry said the proposed budget also provides for a 7-percent "across-the-board" raise for the city's 70 employees with about $1,500 in incentive raises. Terry said about $2,500 in incentive raises had been approved earlier this year for administrative personnel.

The new budget will, if approved, also provide for a new City Hall receptionist, four new firefighters and two new police vehicles.

Terry said that while the proposed spending plan could be amended tonight, the budget must be adopted by Sept. 30.

In addition, State Rep. Bobby Brantley (R-Longwood) is expected to present City Manager David Chacey with an award at tonight's meeting on behalf of Gov. Bob Graham.

According to Terry, Chacey will be presented with the pen Graham used to sign the gray-water treatment plan bill. The award is being made to Chacey for his efforts to make Longwood the first city in Florida to use such a treatment system.

The commission is also expected to present Brantley with an award commending him for his efforts in getting the gray-water treatment bill approved.

In other action, the city commission is expected to hold public hearings and review site plans for four new businesses.

Hearings will be held on a video entertainment center to be located in the new Township Plaza Shopping Center on State Road 434 and a conditional-use request for a retail boat dealership to be situated at Wilma Street and State Road 434.

Site plans for two warehouse offices will also be reviewed. If approved, one of the warehouse offices will be on 4.7 acres at Savage Court off State Road 434 and the other, on one acre at Baywood Avenue and County Road 427.

Major Fish Kill In Brevard County

COCOA (UPI)—A major catfish and perch kill was reported during the weekend on the St. Johns River in south Brevard County, and state biologists estimated some 45,000 fish have become victims.

"The buzzards are having a field day," said David Cox of the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission. "I could stoop down and pick up the catfish by hand. They were actually trying to swim out of the water and onto the bank."

Cox blamed the kill on agricultural operations that operate on the river with no government controls.

"We knew it would come to this when this type of water management is left in the hands of companies that do what is good for them," said Cox. "This isn't what you call a pollution kill, but a part of the mismanagement or lack of management of the river."

Cox also said the recent kill stems from the closing of a water gate on the St. Johns River at Brevard County's border with Indian River County.

—Matteo Mallo, 24, of 249 Oakwood Drive, Casselberry, was arrested by Fern Park police after his car struck a vehicle in the parking lot of a McDonald's restaurant.

—William Grajales, 22, of Maitland, arrested 1:37 a.m. today. Grajales was arrested after Altamonte Springs police responded to an auto accident at State Road 436 near Weathersfield Avenue and discovered Grajales' vehicle in a ditch, police said.

—Michael Batista, 28, of 108 Anderson Circle, Sanford, arrested 9:18 a.m. Saturday, charged with DUI, reckless driving and fleeing and attempting to elude a police officer. Batista was arrested by Sanford police at Garrison Road near Anderson Circle. Bond was set at $500.

—Mark James Ready, 26, of 2831 Red Lion Square, Winter Park, arrested 3:49 a.m. Sunday, charged with DUI and driving without a valid driver's license. Ready was arrested by police along Lake Howell Road near State Road 436 in Casselberry.

Divorce: Who Can Afford It?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — America's divorce rate has fallen slightly, perhaps, the experts say, because divorce is too expensive in a time of economic recession.

The number of divorces still is rising, but the divorce rate of 5.2 divorces per 1,000 people for the 12 months that ended with June was 2 percent lower than a year ago, the National Center for Health Statistics has reported.

According to Johns Hopkins University sociologist Andrew Cherlin, divorce rates plunged even more sharply during the Great Depression, when the shortage of jobs and high cost of housing made divorce a luxury.

"It wasn't that spouses were getting along better, but rather they couldn't afford to get divorced," he said, adding, "it's a reasonable possibility" the same thing is happening today. But some economists and sociologists predict the divorce rate never again will rise at the spectacular pace of a decade ago.

The divorce rate doubled between 1966 and 1976, rising from 2.5 to five divorces per 1,000 people, but the pace of increase has slowed since then. The June rate was 5.5 per 1,000, 2 percent below the 1981 rate.

In 1979, the last year for which final numbers are available, 1.1 million couples broke up.

"If the 1970s rate kept up, 110 percent of marriages would end in divorce in a few years," Cherlin said. "There's no way the rate could have kept up."

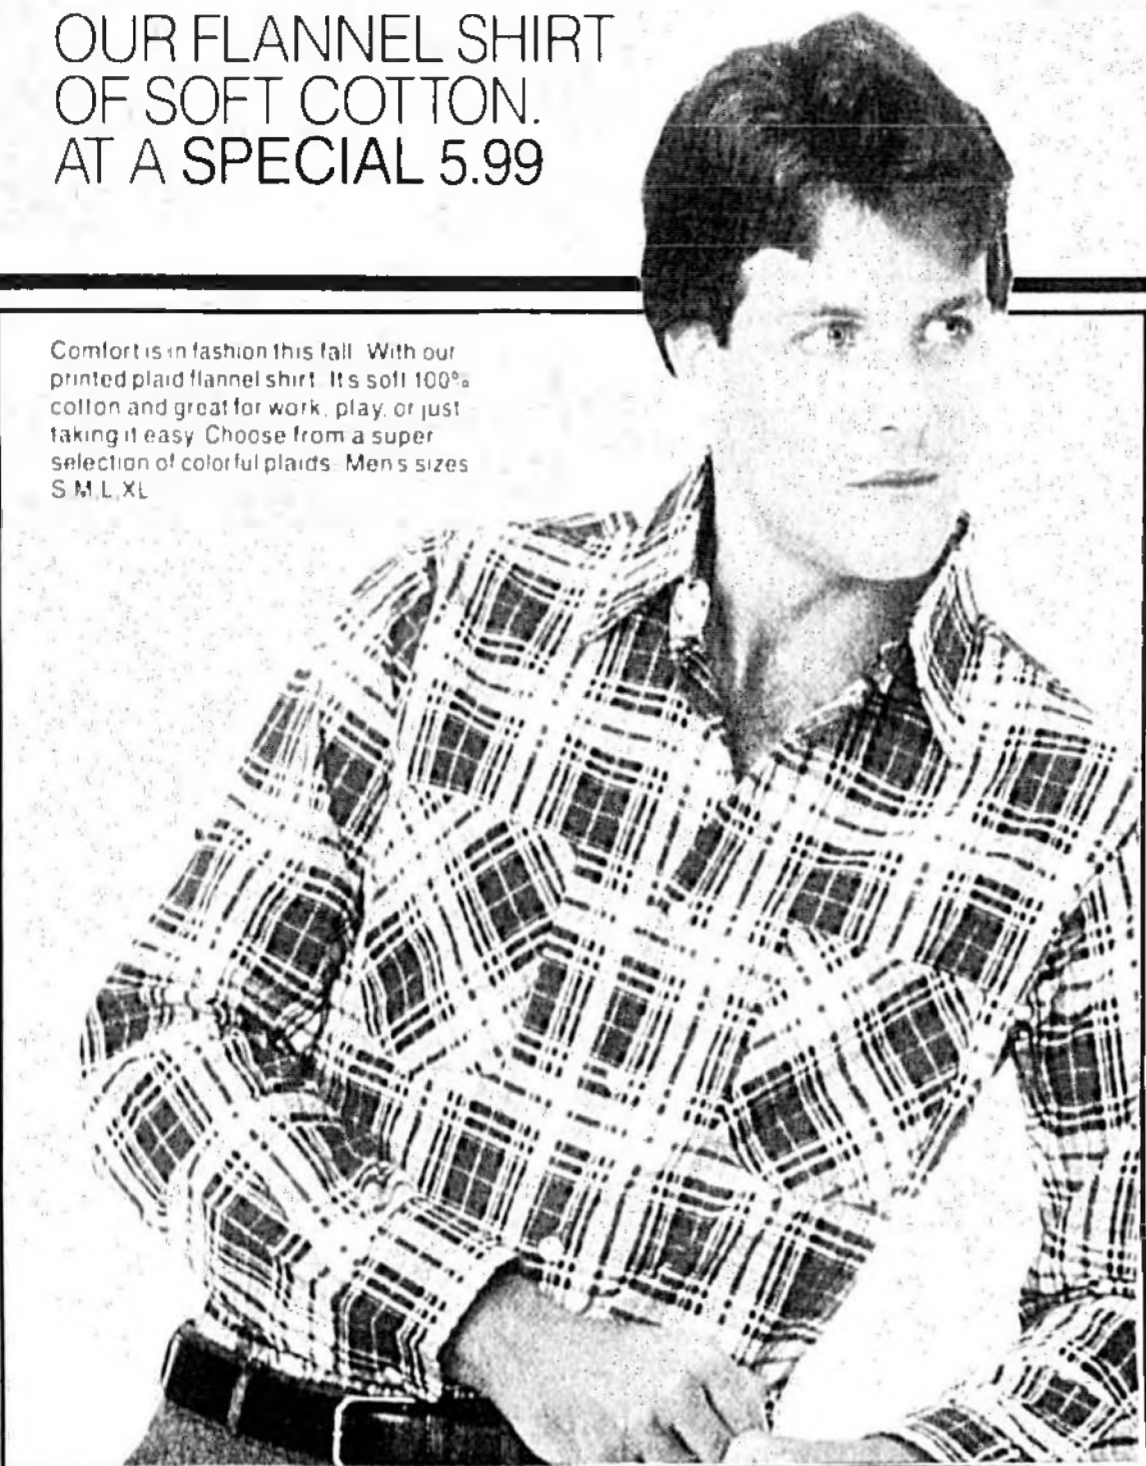

Gary Becker, a University of Chicago economist who has studied links between the economy and births, marriages and divorces, said "My impression is that divorces do move in stages with the business cycle. We would expect some decline."

Lebanon: The Turning Point

The cold-blooded murder of hundreds of Palestinians in west Beirut has become one of those terrible events that shatters the status quo and unexpectedly alters the course of history.

The president's recent decision to commit U.S. forces to Lebanon is only one of a chain of events ushered in by this tragedy.

With horror and revulsion, the world has learned that as many as 1,500 Palestinians, including women and children, were massacred by Lebanese Christian Phalangists during a three-day shoot-out. Thanks to the miracle of satellite communications, millions in every land are eyewitness to this monstrous crime and to the appalling spectacle of mass death. The enormity of the slaughter in the Sabra and Chatilla refugee camps has generated a global impact that is shaping events and turning the Middle East in a different direction.

First and foremost, this is an unmitigated disaster for Israel. Fierce disclaimers by Prime Minister Menachem Begin's government to the contrary, Israel is shamefully implicated. Despite the likelihood the Phalangists would seek vengeance on the Palestinians for the recent assassination of Bashir Gemayel, their leader and the president-elect of Lebanon, the Israeli military, in full control of west Beirut, passed the Phalangist militia through its lines into the Palestinian camps. According to reliable reports from Jerusalem, this was not merely a decision made in the field by some general; it had explicit approval of Israel's Cabinet. Even worse, the Israelis did nothing for 36 hours to stop the killing.

Thus Israel deliberately followed a policy calculated to shed Palestinian blood in direct contradiction of its rationale for invading west Beirut. The Israelis, remember, argued their recent escalation of fighting was to head off just such violent vengeance and maintain order. Their intelligence is too good for the Israelis not have known what they were doing. Whenever, one must ask, can the Israelis cleanse themselves of this blood?

In one insane excess, Israel, then, has forfeited its legendary moral authority and jeopardized much of what it could have expected to gain from its dazzling military victories over Soviet-backed Syria and the Palestine Liberation Organization.

Many Israelis, indeed, share the world's horror and, moreover, are weighed down by worry over their Lebanese liabilities that are piling up. Nowhere is the furor greater over this horror among press and protesters than in Israel.

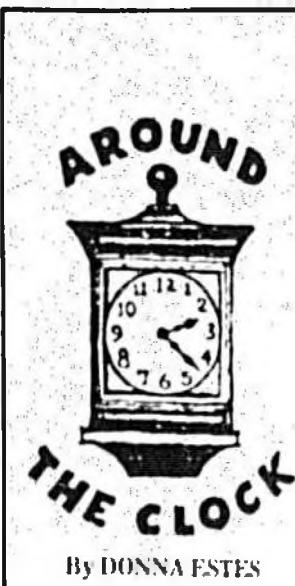

Immediate consequences can only add to the clamor in Israel that could bring down the Begin government. Egypt has summoned its ambassador home, in a rebuke that is just short of severing diplomatic relations. Leaders of Arab nations are conferring in outrage to consider what steps they should take. And Yasser Arafat, the bloodstained PLO guerrilla leader, is posturing as a martyr, commanding sympathy such as he has never known.

Meanwhile, the Lebanese parliament's election of Amin Gemayel, elder brother of the slain president-elect, moves Lebanon a little nearer to organizing its government. But how can the predominant Phalangists hope to lead the country after what their forces did in west Beirut?

President Reagan's decision to have U.S. troops join French and Italian peacekeeping forces in this morass could not have been easy, as it projects considerable risk. But the president had no real alternative unless the United States is to abdicate its role and influence in the Middle East.

Now, events have put the Lebanese crisis ahead of the West Bank, on the U.S. agenda, where it should have been all along. The U.S. aim is simplicity itself: To have Lebanese forces take over Beirut preparatory to exercising authority and restoring order throughout the country, this to be predicated on the withdrawal of all Syrian and Israeli forces. If Washington and the international community can pursue this aim with singleness of purpose, Lebanon could again become an independent nation.

BERRY'S WORLD

Six persons, whose names are familiar to Seminole counties, have had a part in developing the new Center for State and Local Government at the University of Central Florida.

The center was established through a $44,500 grant from the state university system's Institute for Government.

The center is designed to offer technical assistance and local government training courses in a variety of areas, said Jefferson S. Duffey, UCF professor directing the program.

Gary Gotwalt, the center's associate director, was elected to the Oviedo City Council early this month.

Members of the steering committee who assisted in the establishing the new UCF center are: Sanford City Manager W. E. "Pete" Knowles; County Administrator Roger Neiswender; Altamonte Springs City Manager Jeff Etchberger; Kissimmee City Manager Sam Ackley and Daytona Beach Assistant City Manager Richard F. Quigley.

Ackley and Quigley both began their careers in city management here in Sanford as assistants to Knowles. And Quigley was a police officer in Sanford before he became Knowles' assistant.

The center will provide support services to government. Technical assistance to be offered includes: management information system programs keyed to the specific local government, a future studies program and an elected officials' symposium to be held in December.

As part of the center's program, a series of one-hour video tapes on topics ranging from the budget process, through communications in government, leadership and supervision, decision-making and understanding the organization are to be developed.

Two additional projects — a survey of local governments and a series of discussion programs on Channel 24 featuring area public officials and UCF faculty members — are planned as part of the center's package of programs.

The center's program schedule for the year will go to participating cities and counties Friday.

Services from the center will be available to Seminole, Orange, Brevard, Volusia, Osceola, Marion, Lake, Sumter and Citrus counties.

The Challenger, official newspaper of the Republican Party in Florida, in its September edition has some interesting things to say about women in government.

They noted that women's role in government is still minimal but growing. In 1975 only 5,765 women held elected office and by 1980 that number had risen to 16,136.

Even though the number of women in elected office has doubled in five years, the percentages still aren't exciting.

Today, women constitute 4 percent of Congress; 12 percent of state legislatures and eight percent of the mayors.

Success Story In Denver

DENVER (NEA) — Volunteer organizations committed to aiding the elderly, handicapped and impoverished members of their communities abound throughout the country, but none is quite like Brothers Redevelopment, Inc. here.

"We don't fit any stereotype," says BRI Vice President Sharon Beyer. "It's extremely difficult to duplicate this model," adds Don Schierling, one of four men who founded BRI in 1973 and now an officer of a local bank.

In an organizational effort matched in few other cities, BRI has inspired many of the Denver area's banks, businesses, foundations, churches and thousands of local citizens to participate in a long-term campaign to improve housing for the city's low- and moderate-income residents.

The fact that BRI is still thriving and remains committed to its original goals more than a decade after it was founded is a notable accomplishment because community organizations in this country are notorious for their short life spans.

BRI not only has survived; it has successfully undertaken more than 1,500 home repair and renovation projects on Denver's Westside and in other deteriorating urban neighborhoods. Savings average $2,000 per household or more than $3 million citywide.

One of the organization's most visible efforts is its annual "Paint-a-Thon," which this year attracted 1,200 volunteers who painted 100 homes in the city and four surrounding counties.

The First National Bank of Denver joined BRI as the principal co-sponsor of the event, with volunteers and supplies provided by Allstate Insurance, Amoco Oil, Atlantic Richfield, Superior Oil, Rockwell International and other corporations.

Additional assistance came from local supermarkets, beer breweries, paint companies, radio and television stations, church groups, restaurants and utility companies.

In contrast with that intensive one-day effort, BRI operates a year-round rehabilitation and renovation program which last year channeled 22,000 hours of volunteer labor into 375 projects involving both occupied and vacant dilapidated homes.

In the city's heavily Hispanic Baker neighborhood, BRI undertook a two-year campaign to upgrade 144 housing units in an 18-block target area of low- and moderate-income families.

Beginning with a $640,000 grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, BRI developed a financial plan that produced a $3.7 million investment in the neighborhood, including $180,000 worth of volunteer services.

During the past summer, BRI hired and trained 17 low-income young people to rehabilitate an abandoned house. "They got it done faster than we expected so they went on to another one," says BRI President Joe Giron.

Another BRI operation, which provides home counseling services, placed 180 families in their first homes during the last two years and currently is assisting hundreds of homeowners in default on their mortgage payments in an effort to prevent those delinquencies from becoming foreclosures.

Begin Plans S. Lebanon Annexation?

WASHINGTON — White House suspicion of Israel has become so intense that President Reagan's top advisers are now wondering whether Prime Minister Menachem Begin is planning the eventual annexation of southern Lebanon.

Secret reports shown to my associates Dale Van Atta and Ron McRae indicate why the White House is disturbed.

One secret State Department report, for example, had this to say on Sept. 15, as the Israeli invasion of West Beirut was proceeding apace: There is a danger that Israel's "logistical operations will evolve into permanent administrative agencies."

In other words, the suspicion is that Israel is in the process of building a military-civilian government for Israeli-occupied Lebanon.

The same pattern of Israeli infiltration that has been seen in the West Bank territories seems to be evolving in Lebanon. The ultranationalist extremist group, Gush Emunim, is planning to put Israeli settlements in southern Lebanon, according to U.S. reports. If Begin follows his past action, he will not

JEFFREY HART

About Princess Grace

The sudden death of Grace Kelly Grimaldi shocked us all, those who knew her and those who did not, because, as often is the case with public figures, she had a mythological dimension.

In an oddity of perception, Grace Kelly seemed to be a real princess when she was a Hollywood star. But when she married Prince Rainier and became, in fact, a real princess, the impression was that the whole thing was somehow fictitious. Hollywood has more authority, is more "real," than Monaco. It matters only in personal terms that her post-Hollywood life seems to have been real indeed, a good marriage, and not much more than the usual turbulence with the children.

As it happens, I had an opportunity to reflect a bit on the meaning of Grace Kelly as Hollywood princess during the 1950s when I was writing my new book, "When the Going Was Good: America Life in the Fifties." She was important, she summed up a lot, and she is essential to any understanding of that complex and interesting decade.

Think, for a moment, of four big new female stars of the period.

Both Audrey Hepburn and Grace Kelly embodied a widespread Fifties' desire for elegance.

That was a powerful emotion, across the board. Hepburn was a brunette, Kelly a blonde — but the stylistic meanings were similar: beauty equals refinement.

In a feature article on Grace Kelly in 1955, Time magazine published a sentence worthy of F. Scott Fitzgerald: "For in her low-heeled shoes, and horn-rimmed spectacles, actress Grace Kelly is all but indistinguishable from any other well-scrubbed young woman of the station-wagon set, armored in good manners, a cool expression and the secure knowledge that whatever happens, Daddy can pay." But on the screen, with her blonde hair, blue eyes, and refined Philadelphia diction, Grace Kelly was not to be confused with anyone else.

At the same time, and this is why I deal with her as a significant figure in my Fifties book, Hepburn and Kelly were complemented by Marilyn Monroe and Brigitte Bardot, both of whom broadcast an entirely different message, and were just as powerful at the box office.

My point is that this tells us something about the 1950s that is quite different from the stereotype of that decade. I put it as well as I can the first time I wrote it, for the book.

"But Monroe and Bardot were as powerful at the box office as Hepburn and Kelly, and they expressed another and opposite aspect of the culture of the Fifties. Both combined a sense of innocence at the core with a blatant child-worship sex appeal that represented something genuinely new on the screen — Monroe was the Himalayas of sex appeal, while Bardot, with her baby face, large pouting lips, and tousled blonde hair, represented some ideal dream of French eroticism. Nor was there any hint in their wriggling, jiggling comportment that one lover would be enough."

Not at all surprisingly, Alfred Kinsey's 1953 "Sexual Behavior in the Human Female" indicated in a poll-taking way that what Monroe and Bardot expressed was surprisingly widespread in the general population.

The Fifties were a fascinating period, not at all like the denigratory stereotype.

They were alive with energy in politics and the arts, in sports and the theater, and in popular music, embracing Rodgers and Hammerstein at the beginning and Elvis and the Beatles at the end.

But Grace Kelly was very much a part of that decade and its dreams. In her life as a princess of Hollywood, she summed up what millions of people desired, even though they desired other things as well.

Business Split On Tax Issue

WASHINGTON (NEA) — If there has been one constant in Washington's ever-changing political scene, it has been the unified stance of business on various issues. However, this has been an odd year in politics, with Republicans supporting tax increases and downplaying the importance of deficits, while Democrats argue in opposition. And in this climate, it might not be so surprising that the unified business front has come unglued.

This split was made evident recently in what might qualify as the most startling sight of a topsy-turvy political season. The occasion was a U.S. Chamber of Commerce briefing on the tax-increase package for which the administration was so diligently fighting. In conducting the briefing, Richard Leshner, the chamber's outspoken president, declared that his organization was unequivocally opposed to the $98 billion tax package because "business is 10 to 1 against it."

As reporters emerged from the chamber's headquarters across from the White House, a representative of the National Association of Manufacturers greeted them with fliers stating that "the vast majority of business leaders favor passage of the tax bill as quickly as possible."

Most reporters were unable to remember the last time the chamber and the NAM were on opposite sides of an issue. In the past, the chamber, the NAM and the other major business voices in town — including the Business Roundtable (made up of the chief executive officers of major corporations) and the American Business Conference — could be counted on to lobby together on almost every issue. But the tax issue has split the lockstep.

The source of much of the problem is within the chamber: The chamber's professional staff, led by Leshner, is at sharp odds with its elected board, which changes annually and which this year is headed by I.T.V. Chairman Paul Thayer.

Many business interests, including the NAM, the Roundtable and those in the housing and real-estate industries, are most concerned with the effects of high interest rates and, in turn, the effect of deficits on interest rates. They are willing to accept higher taxes over the near term in the hope that deficits can be reduced, bringing down interest rates.

Leshner, however, is absolutely committed to supply-side economics, which centers on economic expansion through lowered business and personal taxes. He and the chamber's professional staff have lobbied hard for tax cuts, and, in the case of this year's tax package, against the White House. This has concerned many of the corporate leaders who make up the chamber's board — especially those who depend heavily on government contracts, since their companies want to stay in the administration's good graces.

All of this has raised the question of exactly who sets chamber policy: its elected board or Leshner and the staff. A recent board meeting reportedly was called to settle that question and to try to keep the split between Thayer and Leshner from deepening.

In a formal statement, the chamber said that the meeting had resulted in "a more clear-cut, definite working relationship between the chairman and the president."

Lebanon was ripe for the picking.

"The only thing that's necessary is to find an officer, even just a major," Dayan said, according to the account. "We would either win his heart or buy him with money, to make his agree to declare himself the savior of the Maronite (Christian) population."

"Then the Israeli Army will enter Lebanon, will occupy the necessary territory and will create a Christian regime which will ally itself with Israel," Dayan reportedly continued. "The territory from the Litani (River) southward will be totally annexed by Israel and everything will be all right."

The Dayan scenario was followed to the letter — even to the choice of the cooperative Christian leader's military rank. Maj. Saad Haddad, a cashiered Lebanese officer, has been acting as Israel's puppet warlord in the Litani River area for years.

The secret Sept. 15 report predicted that Israel would try to bestow legitimacy on Haddad, possibly by insisting that he be included in any future Lebanese regime. His role in the massacres at the Palestinian refugee camps in West Beirut may have destroyed his chances, however.

Israel's covetous designs on southern Lebanon are explained in a top-secret CIA report, which states: "Hardliners in Israel have for years pointed out that Israel, by seizing territory up to the Litani River, would gain a more defensive border and a greater supply of water." In fact, Israeli engineers are already working at the Litani, exploring its potential for irrigation.

At the start of the West Beirut invasion, Begin assured Reagan in a private message that Israel "did not covet one inch of Lebanese territory." In early June, he had publicly declared in the Knesset that Israel didn't want "one square millimeter of Lebanese territory."

The White House no longer has faith in these assurances.

Footnote: An official of the Israeli Embassy said that Israel has "no intention of annexing any part of Lebanon or setting up any settlements."

Nonconference Foes Tough On Five Star

Friday, Sept. 24 will not go down in the annals of Five Star Conference football as a night to be remembered. Seminole, Lyman, Lake Brantley, Lake Howell and Apopka all lost nonconference football games. DeLand whipped Mainland on Thursday and Spruce Creek nudged Seabreeze Friday. All are conference members, although Seabreeze doesn't figure in the standings since it is 3A. The rival Metro Conference, in four of the five games, was the biggest culprit. In most cases the Five Star teams were blown away. In the three Metro-Seminole County clashes, the point total was 83-27.

Boone hammered Lake Brantley, 27-0. Edgewater clobbered Seminole, 36-14. Winter Park, fielding one of its better squads, however, just did get by Lyman, 20-13. Apopka, picked for fourth in the Five Star, lost to Colonial, 14-6. Lake Howell took on 3A Titusville Astronaut and lost, 28-10.

Boone-Lake Brantley. No one could have envisioned this massacre. Boone was murdered by Lyman, 28-6, just two weeks ago. The Braves will probably occupy the cellar again this year in the Metro. It's inconceivable they'll beat anyone this bad again.

Seminole-Edgewater. Eagle coach Bob Dolce is an "undercover crier." He doesn't moan a la Apopka's Chip Gierke. He just kind of tells you how young he is and how the redistricting took all his players. Well, it didn't take Rodney Long, Marvin Zander or Ken Jones from his district. That trio had no trouble ripping up the 'Noles.

Lyman-Winter Park. This was a good one. The Greyhounds could have won if their offense had showed up for the second half. The Wildcats' ball-control crew had a lot to do with this, though. Running backs Dennis Gareau and Darryl Ferguson ate up chunks of yardage which didn't allow Lyman the ball. The 'Hounds ran just nine offensive plays in the second half. More remarkably, the county's best pass catcher, Todd Marriott, didn't touch the ball. He didn't even smell it. When a guy is averaging 23 yards a catch, you don't have to get him the ball too many times for a touchdown.

Lake Howell and Lyman resume the conference race this Friday while Seminole takes an evening off before hosting Apopka Oct. 8.

Lake Brantley finally comes home after three on the road to entertain the Silver Hawks. The Patriots still haven't scored and don't figure to against Howell. Lyman goes to unpredictable DeLand. The Bulldogs upset conference favorite Mainland, 14-7, last Thursday.

It now appears that Mainland was fortunate to beat Lyman. The conference race should come down to Lyman, Lake Howell and Apopka. The 'Hounds play Howell on Oct. 29. One week earlier Lyman hosts Apopka. The Hawks don't travel to Apopka until Nov. 12. That could turn into a big game. Mainland plays Apopka this Friday. A loss by the Bucs dooms them.

A big question mark concerning the Greyhounds is running back Vince Presley. The 6-1, 190-pounder didn't show any hesitancy Friday, ramming his helmet into a couple Wildcats. He gained 20 yards on four carries.

Lyman coach Bill Scott, however, is still taking things step-by-step with his flashy running back. "We're still trying to bring him around slowly," said Big Bill. "It's still a lot of little things. We don't want to rush him back before he's completely recovered."

Presley suffered a bone spur, according to Lyman trainer Roger Thomas. "If the spur would have matured," pointed out Thomas, it could have been removed. Since it didn't it couldn't be cut off."

A healthy Presley would give Lyman a leg up in the Five Star race.

Price Of Humiliation

VMI 69, Schedule Maker 0, UCF $20,000

Is it worth $20,000 to be humiliated? Apparently the schedule makers at the University of Central Florida feel so.

Coach Sam Weir's Knights traveled to Lexington, Va., Saturday to take on Division I-AA Virginia Military Institute and returned to Orlando with a 69-0 spanking.

"We were humiliated," said Weir Sunday about the Knights third straight setback. "It was a very sad day in the history of our young program."

While it was a sad day on the gridiron, it was a happy day at the bank. UCF will add $20,000 to its coffers because Dr. Cal Miller, UCF dean of education, felt "it was an offer too good to refuse," said a source close to the situation.

Miller, who was interim athletic director before President Dr. Trevor Colbourn tabbed ex-Florida State coach Bill Peterson last May, is responsible for the VMI-UCF matchup, according to Bill Goldsby, athletic business manager for UCF.

Efforts to reach, now dean of education, Miller for comments were unsuccessful.

Despite the offense's usual shortcomings, you can't put the blame of this debacle on the quarterbacks, halfbacks and linemen this time.

And despite giving up 69 points, the blame shouldn't be shouldered by the defense.

The coaches? Not much they can do when the other team is 69 points bigger, stronger, better and more physical. No, the blame for this one goes to Cal Miller.

"They manhandled us," said linebacker Billy Giovanetti about the mismatch.

"When Billy Giovanetti says something like that, he knows," said Weir. "He's been a starter here for four years and he's seen a lot of football teams."

Manhandle is probably what the UCF defense would like to do to Miller after Saturday's debacle. VMI is a solid division I-AA school which finished second in the Southern Conference last season.

The Knights are in their first season of Division II football after mediocre records against Division III and Division II competition. There are plenty of Division II schools around to play. Enough to fill a schedule. There is no need to play a tough Division I-AA school.

Peterson is fond of saying the "Knights will be playing Florida, Florida State and Miami in 10 years."

That sounds nice, but if the Knights continue to over-schedule like Saturday, they might not make it to 1992.

What's worse, three more teams on the schedule loom as good as VMI. Eastern Kentucky, a card-carrying member of the I-AA playoff, Nichols State and Alabama A&M are future opponents. And don't forget Bethune-Cookman. B-C will have fire in its eyes after last year's narrow win.

What good does a 69-0 licking do?

"We didn't gain a thing," said Weir. "We're pretty bruised up, but thank God we don't have any broken bones."

A fumble and a blocked punt put the Knights in a 14-0 hole right away. At the end of the quarter it was 28-0. The first half finally came with the Keydets on top, 42-0.

"It (the game) probably could have gone either way," said Goldsby referring to the Knights' rough start. "VMI was up tremendously for this game. They had a couple of extra incentives going for them and all the advantages going their way."

Goldsby said two Keydets were killed in a car crash and VMI dedicated the game to them. Also, it was homecoming.

Still, the question remains, why play VMI in the first place?

"I don't know if he (Cal Miller) called them (VMI) or they called him," said Goldsby about the pairing.

The Knights hope next time Miller gets a busy signal.

Miller could not be reached for comment.

Major Sweep

Gators, Seminoles, Hurricanes Claim Football Victories

GAINESVILLE (UPI) — Sophomore Lorenzo Hampton ran for three touchdowns, including a 69-yarder, and seventh-ranked Florida turned a fumble and a pass interference penalty into scores Saturday to roll to a 27-17 win over 17th-ranked Mississippi State.

Florida, 3-0, trailed 3-0 at halftime in the opening Southeastern Conference game for both teams, but came alive in the third quarter when freshman John L. Williams came off the bench and ran for 36 yards and a 3-yard touchdown with 4:56 left in the period.

The 42-yard, four-play drive was set up when Mississippi State was called for pass interference on the Bulldog 10. Three plays later, Williams went in for the score.

The Gators' next score came when Hampton, who finished with 109 yards, took the ball in from two yards out to cap an 87-yard, 10-play drive with 11:18 remaining in the fourth quarter for a 14-3 lead.

Hampton's other touchdowns came on a 2-yard run with 9:31 left in the fourth quarter that gave the Gators a 21-3 lead and two minutes later on a 69-yard sprint down the right side for a 27-10 advantage.

Hampton's second touchdown was set up when Mississippi State quarterback John Bond pitched out to Jerry Price, who fumbled the ball at the Bulldogs' 6-yard line. Florida recovered and Hampton scored four plays later.

Mississippi State, 3-1, opened the scoring on a 37-yard field goal by Dana Moore with 1:56 left in the first quarter, capping a 61-yard, 11-play drive.

The Bulldogs' two touchdowns came in the fourth quarter, both on long passes by Bond to end Danny Knight. The first covered 44 yards with 7:52 left in the quarter and the other, an 80-yarder, was at the two-minute mark.

Florida attempted a 59-yard desperation field goal with three seconds left in the first half, played in heavy intermittent rain showers, but Jim Gainey's kick was wide to the right.

The Gators had an opportunity to score late in the second quarter when a Florida punt glanced off Mississippi State's Lawrence Evans at the 11-yard line. Florida's Spencer Jackson jumped on the ball at the five and knocked it into the end zone, but State's Leon Cannon recovered for a touchback.

The Gators rushed for 258 yards — their highest total in six years — in a 27-17 victory over 17th-ranked Mississippi State.

"We wanted to get the running game going in the second half," quarterback Wayne Peace said. "Those three or four drives in the second half were exceptional."

Florida safety Tony Lilly said winning the third quarter 7-0 was the big difference in the game.

College Football

"We just knew we couldn't come out in the second half the way we did in our first two games," Lilly said. "We had had third quarters and let the other teams score in both games. We knew we couldn't let that happen this time. If they got a touchdown right off, that would have put us in a tough position."

Florida Coach Charley Pell still wasn't completely satisfied, however.

"We're still not a good football team when we get on top. That upsets me. I can't explain that," Pell said.

The Gators, now 3-0, play LSU at home Saturday.

In other games last Saturday, Miami scored in the last two minutes to escape Michigan State 25-22; Florida State (2-1) downed Southern Mississippi, 24-17; Grambling defeated Florida A&M, 43-21, for Coach Eddie Robinson's 300th win; Bethune-Cookman (3-1), stopped North Carolina A&T, 38-23; and Central Florida took a 69-0 licking at VMI.

Next week, Miami (3-1) is at Louisville, Florida State plays at Ohio State, Florida A&M (3-1) plays Howard in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville; Bethune-Cookman is at Delaware State and Central Florida (0-3) remains on the road to Valdosta State.

The Miami Hurricanes won without quarterback Jim Kelly, out for the season with a shoulder separation, but senior replacement Mark Richt completed 22 of 41 passes for 200 yards.

"This team came of age in a lot of respects, and with Richt at quarterback, this marks the beginning of a new phase at the University of Miami," Coach Howard Schnellenberger said.

At Florida State, the decision still hasn't been made on who is the quarterback, despite Kelly Lowery's full game performance at Southern Miss.

"Blair Williams has had one game, Kelly has had one and they've split one," Seminole Coach Bobby Bowden said. "But the quarterback battle isn't over. By the end of the season, we'll have a good quarterback. I just don't know who it will be."

GRAMBLING, La. (UPI) — Grambling Coach Eddie Robinson stayed close to the phone this weekend as well wishers, including President Reagan, congratulated him on becoming the fourth coach in college football history to capture 300 victories.

Grambling raised its record to 3-0 Saturday, with a victory over Florida A&M in Tallahassee. The 63-year-old Robinson now has a career record of 300-98-13, compiled during a 40-year reign at the small north Louisiana school.

Only Alabama's Bear Bryant, with 318 wins, has more victories among active coaches.

Hundreds of well wishers, including President Reagan, called Robinson Sunday to congratulate him on the achievement.

"I've said this so many times that maybe I sound like a broken record, but I don't feel this honor can belong only to Eddie Robinson," he said.

"Really, I haven't done that much. It's the people around me. They're the ones who have done it. I can't claim it by myself, because I owe so much to so many people."

The coach said he was emotionally drained from the build-up over one of college football's greatest moments.

"For the first time in my coaching career I couldn't say a thing to my players after the game," he said. "It was too emotional. All I could think of to tell them was 'Thank you.'"

In other games involving top-10 teams, No. 3 Washington defeated Oregon 37-21, fourth-ranked Alabama edged Vanderbilt 24-21, No. 6 Georgia downed South Carolina 34-18, seventh-ranked Florida beat No. 17 Mississippi State 27-17, eighth-ranked SMU nipped TCU 16-13, No. 9 Arkansas topped Mississippi 14-12, and 10th-ranked North Carolina bombed the Army 62-8.

Bachrach, White Boot Pine Hills; Sanford 480 Drops Downtown, 3-1

Jan Bachrach booted two goals and David White kicked in one as the Sanford 800 eight-year-olds successfully opened the soccer season Saturday with a 3-1 victory over Pine Hills.

Sanford, coached by Gene Williams, jumped to a 2-0 first-half lead en route to the win.

Bachrach and White were cited for their offensive showing while goalies Matt Lovering and Tony Schanel held Pine Hills to a second-half goal. Chad Bass and Jason Kaiser turned in solid defensive efforts.

This Saturday, 800, 1-0, takes on Maitland 801 at Lake Sybelia at 1 p.m.

In 10 and under Division B-1 play, Pine Hills blanked Sanford 0-1, 2-0. Coach Clark Adams was pleased with Raymond Tossi's defensive work despite the loss.

0-1, 0-1, plays Orlando at Memorial Field Saturday at 1:10 p.m.

In another under 10 game, College Park 480 rebounded with three second-half goals to tie Sanford 7-0, 3-3.

Coach Tom Ferguson's booters posted a 1-0 first-half lead but College Park broke loose in the second half.

Jon Williams, Josh Letchworth and Matt Teague had goals for 780. Paul Gaurino and Jason Walraven turned in good defensive performances.

Sanford 780, 0-0-1, travels to Pine Hills Saturday for an 11:20 a.m. match.

In under 12 action, Winter Park 261 rolled to four first-half goals en route to a 7-2 victory over coach Wayne Albert's Sanford 280 squad.

Nick Pastis scored for 280 on a penalty kick and then assisted Tim Walsanen on the second Sanford goal. Mitch Albert and Wynn Hodgins joined Pastis and Walsanen as offensive standouts. Corey Stickney, Brent Posey, Jason Kaiser and Phillip Perez were cited for their defensive efforts.

Next Saturday, 280 plays Downtown Orlando at the Memorial Field at the 33rd Street exit.

Winter Park 182 also dealt Sanford 180 a setback at the under 11 division, 6-2.

Matt Williams had both Sanford goals. He was joined by Adrian Beckhorn and Shane Temperly as offensive stars. Jay Feuerhahn, Scottie Burton and Jennifer Benge turned in strong defensive efforts.

180, 0-1, plays F.C. United 180 Saturday at Red Bug Park beginning at 10:30 a.m.

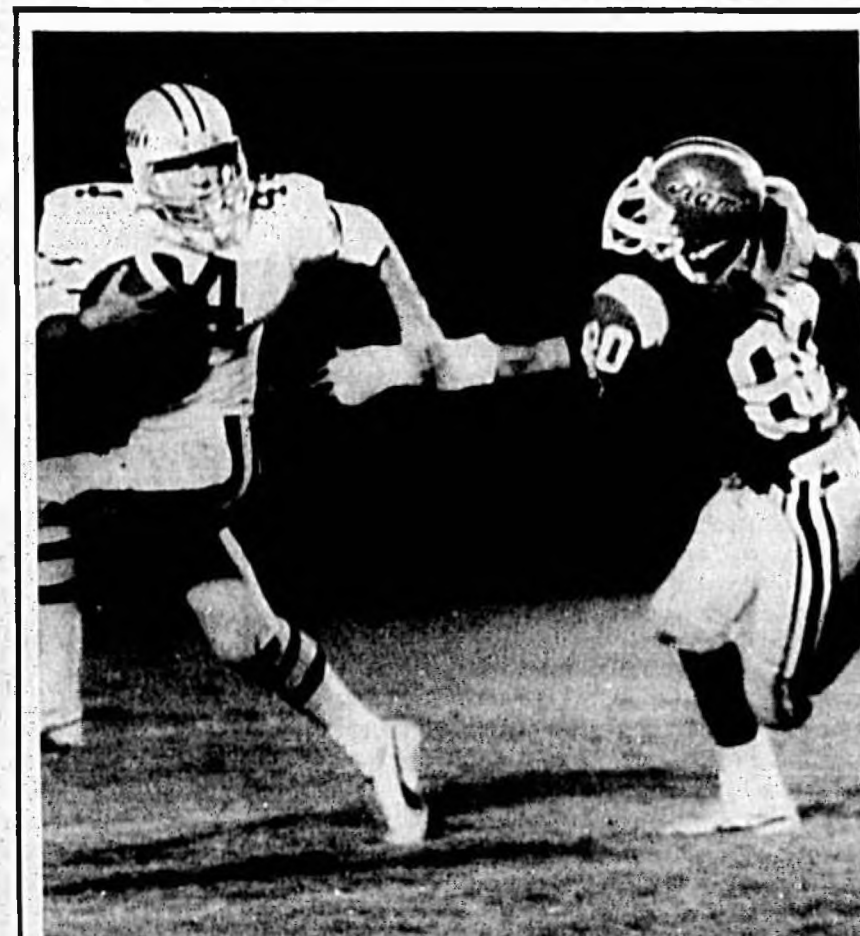

In under 14 action, Sanford 480 used two goals each Alex Piquer and Matt Albert to drop Downtown Orlando 4-1, 3-1.

Jon Stuart got 480 off on the right foot with a first-half goal assisted by Steve McCormich for a 1-0 lead. Stuart also turned in a shutout performance in the net during the second half.

In the second half, Albert fed Piquer for a goal and Piquer returned the favor later in the half for the final 3-1 victory.

Tim Deppen and Sherrie Rumler joined Stuart as defensive standouts. Stuart, Piquer and Albert led the offense. David Farr and Joe Barrett were also cited by coach Suzie Reno for "strong mid-field performances."

Sanford 480, 1-0, travels to the Central Florida Fairgrounds for a match with Pine Hills 482 Saturday.

STAPP(ING) OUT

Bishop Moore running back Pete Stapp shrugs off Lake Mary's Don Meyer en route to a six-yard run Friday. The Hornets handed the Rams their third straight loss, 25-7. Lake Mary plays Wymore Tech at home Friday.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Bucs Rout Steelers, 12-0; Wildcats, Bulldogs Triumph

The Bucs scored all their points in the first half Saturday en route to a 12-0 win over the Steelers in the Midget Division of the Sanford Flag Football League.

In the Junior Division, the Wildcats scored a touchdown and extra point late in the game to nip the Cowboys 7-6, while the Bulldogs blanked the Rams 13-0.

Midway through the first half, Albert Anderson romped 12 yards for the first Bucs touchdown. The extra-point attempt failed and the Bucs led 6-0.

A little over one minute later the Bucs scored again. Ray Adcock picked up a fumble and returned it 25 yards to the one-yard line, setting up a one-yard touchdown run by Bucs quarterback Calvin Donaldson. The extra point try again failed.

After a scoreless first half, Johnny Law connected with Troy Rollins on a 35-yard touchdown pass to give the Cowboys a 6-0 lead. A pass interception stymied the PAT try.

Gerald Morris intercepted a Cowboy pass at the one-yard line to shut down a Wildcat scoring threat with six minutes left in the game, but a minute later Kerry Wiggins intercepted at the four-yard line for the Wildcats.

Wildcat quarterback Patrick Dougherty tossed a touchdown pass to Howard Marquis to tie the score and then ran for the extra point.

Bobby Coffield scored the first touchdown for the Bulldogs on a 20-yard run and George Edwards ran for the extra point.

In the second half, Coffield passed to Willie McCloud for 15 yards and a touchdown. When the PAT try failed, it was 13-0 and that is the way the game ended.

Season Tickets Available

Coach Jerry Posey's Seminole High football team takes a breather this Friday, but season tickets are still available for the remaining home games.

For $12, a fan can get a choice seat for the Apopka (Oct. 8), DeLand (Oct. 15) and Mainland (Nov. 12) encounters.

Interested parties should call 322-4352 and ask for athletics.

Advance tickets for the remaining games are on sale at the following outlets: Croon's High, Sanford and Lakeview middle schools, Sweeney's Office Supply, the Flagship Bank in Sanford Plaza and Seminole High School.

Advance tickets are $2.25 while tickets at the gate are $3.

Bahia Schedules Golf

The Bahia Shrine Golf Unit will be sponsoring the 1st Annual Bahia Shrine Open Golf Tournament at Mount Plymouth Golf Course on Saturday, Oct. 16, at 11:30 a.m.

The tournament is being held for charity with the proceeds going to Shrine Crippled Children and Burns Hospitals.

For more details contact Earl Fisher at 331-8439.

Red Lobster Run Oct. 16

The Red Lobster 15-kilometer and two-mile run, with all proceeds going toward the support of the Orlando Regional Medical Center Pediatric Fund, will be held on Saturday, Oct. 16 at Wekiva Elementary School in Longwood.

The 15-kilometer event, scheduled over an asphalt-based course of rolling hills around Wekiva Elementary, will get under way at 8 a.m. The two-mile run will begin at 10 a.m.

Entry fee for each runner is $5 in advance or $7 after the October 10 early entry cutoff date. The 15-kilometer run includes 13 age divisions including a wheelchair division. The two-mile run will have 10 age groups and a wheelchair division.

Cage Registration Opens

The South Seminole and Tuskawilla Middle Schools will each attempt to put three SYSA basketball teams on the courts this coming season and boys and girls interested in playing have the opportunity to register for the season at an upcoming clinic.

Both schools will have boys and girls team for sixth-eighth grades.

The Lake Howell boys and girls teams will conduct a clinic for South Seminole and Tuskawilla students Sunday, Oct. 17 at the Lake Howell gymnasium from 12-2 p.m. There is no charge.

Rain Washes Out Races

NEW SMYRNA BEACH — On Saturday night at New Smyrna Speedway, continuous, torrential rain forced track officials to postpone the End of the Month Championship events for all divisions.

All extra-distance-extra cash Championship races for the late models, thunder cars and four cylinders, plus the fourth Annual 100-lap Street Stock Championship of Florida have been slated for this coming Saturday night (Oct. 2nd), with time trials starting at 7:15 and race time set for 8:00 sharp.

Previous Street Stock State Tittlists were colorful Gary English in 1979 and Wild Bill Kinley in 1980. Last year, young Lance Smith took the third annual Florida State Championship, with defending champion Kinley finishing in the runner-up spot.

In 1980, after apparent winner Lance Smith and other top finishers were disqualified for using non-stock engine parts, fire dept. battalion chief Bill Kinley of Forest City was declared the winner. Defending state tittlist Gary English's bid for a repeat ended with a broken axle on lap 17.

Driving the Big Wheel Bike and Mower shop 390 cu. in. 1968 Cougar, Kinley, running on used tires, drove a heady race, pitting only once for gas on a caution.

Far from being boring like those long distance events sometimes are, the race surprisingly was almost crash-free.

In 1981, second generation race driver Lance Smith, who lost the title on a technicality the year before, won the 100-lap Street Stock Championship of Florida here at New Smyrna Speedway. Lance's father and sponsor Dumont Smith was the Florida State Late Model Champion in 1967.

Lake Brantley Girls Put Act Together, Capture Invitational

By CHRIS FISTER
Herald Sports Writer

Lake Brantley's girls cross country team picked the right day of the season to turn in its best performance.

Not only were the Lady Patriots trying to prove their fourth place preseason ranking was no fluke, but coach Jim Marshall's girls were also hosting Saturday's meet.

With Kathryn Hayward, Joanne Hayward, Ellen Stern and Dana Miller posting Top 15 times, Brantley ran away with the Patriot Invitational at Seminole Community College by 17 points.

"The difference was having Ellen (Stern) with us," said Marshall about the victory. Stern, a top runner, last year, had missed several meets because of injuries. "We had three in the top 10 and our 11th spot Dana Miller ran a super race too."

"That was also the first time Joanne Hayward (sixth) had beaten Kim Averill (seventh)," he added.

But so far in '82, the Lyman girls have been a step ahead of Brantley and were favored going into Saturday's meet. The Greyhounds finished a distant third (99) behind Brantley (47) and Lake Howell (64). Trinity Prep finished fifth, Lake Mary was sixth and Seminole was 10th.

Lyman's effort was hampered by Schowonda Williams, who holds the second best time in the county, not running. Williams arrived late due to some electrical problems at her house.

"We're not using that as an excuse though," said coach Joe Laughlin. "I've been picking Lake Brantley all year. They've had some bad luck. They finally put it together."

Gardner Tops Girls

Spruce Creek's cross country marvel, Carmen Gardner, easily won the individual battle, running the two-mile SCC course in 11:24, nearly a minute ahead of K. Hayward who finished second at 12:12.

Lake Howell's Kerry Hyter clocked in at 12:38 for fourth place, Trinity's Adrienne Poltowicz improved on her time, finishing fifth (12:39), J. Hayward was sixth (12:47), Lake Mary's Kim Averill equalled her best time of 12:55 for seventh place, Stern was eighth at 13:00, Lyman's Cindy Gaskill was ninth (13:01) and Miller was 11th at 13:21.

For Lake Howell, it was the first time coach Tom Hammontree's girls had beaten the 'Hounds this year. Hammontree pointed to having his five runners finish in the top 17 as the key ingredient.

"Our senior (Hyter and Shelley Carlson) was unreal," said Hammontree. "They talked to each other throughout the race and helped pull the others through."

In the girls junior varsity, Lake Brantley's Beth Glasbrenner won the individual race with a time of 14:42 and with help from Kim Pacetelli (4th, 15:27) and Melissa Meghdadi

Cross Country

(6th, 15-48) the Patriots also won the JV team meet.

In the boys event, Rockledge's powerful squad won both the varsity and JV team races while two Seminole County runners won the individual three-mile runs.

Rockledge (36), easily won the varsity meet over second place Lyman (94) while Seminole finished fifth, Lake Howell sixth, Trinity Prep seventh and Lake Mary was eighth.

Cheeseman Leads Boys

In the individual run, Lake Howell's Kenny Cheeseman crossed the finish line first at 15:49, just two seconds ahead of Rockledge's Bill Trainer.

Lyman's Doug McBroom was third (16:05), Lake Mary's Derek Tangeman finished seventh (16:24) and Lyman's Brian Hunter was ninth (16:28).

In the JV run, Lyman wrestling standout Pat Bell was triumphant with an 18:05, seven seconds ahead of second place finished Mark Smith of Rockledge.

The JV team meet wound up with Rockledge first (22) followed by Lyman (39).

TED
...happy
with record

For Ted Tombros' JV Seminole boys, Billy Penick, a freshman at Croon's, set a new ninth grade record by running a 19:05 for three miles. The old mark was 19:09 by Rodney Long.

The junior varsity race was 425-430 yards long, according to Marshall, because a gate at SCC was closed. "I thought about leaving it closed to give Kim Averill an advantage in the varsity race," he laughed. "But I decided to open it."

Last week, Averill jumped a fence to set a new record for Lake Mary.

Next on the cross country agenda is the Freshman-Sophomore Meet Thursday at Lyman at 4 p.m. "It's a chance for the younger runners to shine," said Hammontree. "It should be a very interesting meet. Lake Mary has a predominately young team and Trinity Prep does too."

The next varsity meet is Saturday at Daytona Beach in the Seabreeze Invitational Beach Run.

Clampett, Sheehan Post Golf Wins

Pro Golf

COLUMBUS, Ga. (UPI) — Bobby Clampett tugged at his gray knickers and softly described the joy of his first PGA tournament win — the Southern Open.

The blond, 22-year-old Californian had experienced a flurry of occasions where he had chances to win, only to come up short.

Hurting as much as anything was the memory of last July's British Open, where Clampett had blown a five stroke lead by going 11-over par for the last two rounds and finishing in a tie for 10th. He had finished second in five other tournaments and third in three others.

KENT, Wash. (UPI) — Patty Sheehan made her wishes clear on Saturday.

"I'd love to beat JoAnne Carner — she has won so many tournaments, it's time for some new blood," she said, a determined glint in her blue eyes.

After Sheehan had done just that Sunday, edging Carner in a golfing duel that wasn't settled until the final hole in the LPGA's 33rd tournament of the year, the 25-year-old winner heaped praise on the 43-year-old veteran.

Even though she finished second, Carner's $17,150 paycheck boosted her season winnings to $309,000 — making her the first LPGA player ever to win more than $300,000 in one year.

Garvey — Non Offer, Donlan — Optimistic

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. (UPI) — Judging by their reactions, it's hard to believe Ed Garvey and Jack Donlan were at the same meeting.

Following the first bargaining session since the NFL players' strike began seven days ago, Donlan, chief negotiator for the NFL Management Council, expressed optimism Sunday. However, Garvey, executive director of the Players Association, called the owners' new proposal a "non-offer."

The Management Council's attempt to settle the strike centered around its guarantee of a $1.6 billion package to go to the striking players over the next five years. The union, in the first regular-season strike in the NFL's 63-year history, wasn't impressed by the offer.

"We made a move today and we're hopeful and optimistic," Donlan said. "Today we guaranteed the union $1.6 billion over five years. If we didn't spend all that money we would create a fund to disperse the remaining amount."

"All they said is what was on the table Sept. 8," Garvey countered. "There is no new offer. They want to leave the money to the clubs and have them spend it the way they want to."

"As far as responding to the offer we put on the table (Sept. 17), they didn't. I'm annoyed that they didn't put something on the table to entice the players. They are so predictable."

On Sept. 17, the players dropped their previous demand for 55 percent of the owners' gross revenues. The union's new proposal called for 50 percent of the revenues from the league's new television contract.

Dennis Martinez Shows Heart, Pitches Orioles Past Brewers, 5-2

By United Press International
On a day when it counted so much for himself and his team, Dennis Martinez showed his heart.

Martinez, returning from Nicaragua and the funeral of his father, hurled Baltimore to a 7-2 victory over the Brewers, pulling the Orioles within two games of first-place Milwaukee in the American League East.

"I said I know I can't think about it," Martinez said of the auto-bus accident that claimed his father's life. "I've got to go out and just do it for him (his dad)."

Martinez, 15-12, held the Brewers to three hits through seven innings before needing relief help in the eighth. Mike Caldwell, 17-12, took the loss after winning his previous seven starts.

"Dennis is the type of guy to respond like this," said Baltimore manager Earl Weaver. "He's a bulldog. He puts his heart into every game."

Eddie Murray drove in two runs, one with his 31st home run, and Rich Dauer and Dan Ford rapped three hits each. The clubs have seven games left, including a four-game, season-ending set at Baltimore, beginning Friday night.

Gorman Thomas slammed his major league-leading 39th homer to stake Milwaukee to a 1-0 lead in the second but Murray blasted a 1-2 pitch into the left field bleachers to tie the score 1-1.

The Orioles pulled ahead in the fifth on a leadoff single by Rick Dempsey, a one-out single by Dauer and an RBI single by Cal Ripken.

Baltimore added a run in the eighth on Benny Ayala's double, a single by Dan Ford and Dempsey's sacrifice fly to take a 3-1 lead before the Brewers chased Dennis Martinez in the eighth — not until he had done the job.

"I'm a professional," said Martinez. "I know what I have to do."

The Brewers rallied to cut their deficit to 3-2 in the eighth. Charlie Moore led off with a single and pinch hitter Bob Skube also singled. An error by right fielder Ford allowed Moore to take third on Skube's hit and Paul Molitor sacrificed.

Robin Yount singled home Moore to make the score 3-2 but rookie center fielder John Shelby threw out Skube at the plate attempting to score on Cecil again," said Milwaukee manager Harvey Kuenn.

The Orioles added two runs in the ninth on a triple by Dauer, a sacrifice fly by Murray, walks to Ripken and Gary Roenicke and Ford's third single of the game.

Rangers 7, Angels 5

At Arlington, Texas, Larry Parrish hit a three-run homer and George Wright collected three hits and scored two runs to back the five-hit pitching of Charlie Hough and lead the Rangers. The loss left the first-place Angels 3½ games ahead of Kansas City in the West. Ken Forsch, 13-11, took the loss.

A's 5, Royals 1

At Oakland, Calif., Mike Heath drilled a two-out, RBI single in the eighth, preventing Kansas City from gaining ground. The loss was the eighth in the last nine games for the Royals. Dan Quisenberry, 8-7, surrendered three straight two-out singles Dave Beard, 10-8, who relieved in the eighth, was the winner.

Indians 4, Tigers 3

At Detroit, Len Barker struck out nine in seven innings to notch his 14th victory and center fielder Rick Manning made a game-saving catch for the last out of the game, leading the Indians.

Twins 2, White Sox 1

At Chicago, Gary Gaetti hit a home run and Bobby Castillo scattered five hits to lead the Twins. Gaetti opened the second with his 25th homer to break a 1-1 tie and pin the loss on Richard Dotson, 11-14, who allowed nine hits in going the distance.

Red Sox 5, Yankees 2

At Boston, Jim Rice's seventh-inning triple scored Jerry Remy and lifted the Red Sox. With the score tied 2-2, Remy singled and one out later, Rice lined a pitch from starter Ron Gaudry, 14-8, off the center-field wall to score Remy with the tie-breaking run.

Blue Jays 6, Mariners 2

At Seattle, Dave Stieb, 16-14, hurled his AL-leading 18th complete game and batterymate Buck Martinez drove in two runs with a solo home run and a single to spark Toronto.

Magnificent 7

Dodgers, Braves, Giants Within 1

By United Press International

Call it "The Magnificent Seven."

The last seven days of the regular baseball season have evolved into a dramatic scenario in the National League West. Three teams are separated by only one game and all are scheduled to meet each other at least twice during the final week.

The San Francisco Giants, a team many baseball observers felt would be lucky to finish at .500 in the beginning of the season, turned the division race into a three-team dogfight Sunday by completing a three-game sweep of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

San Francisco's 3-2 victory enabled the Giants to move into a second place tie with Atlanta, only one game behind the Dodgers. San Francisco will meet Atlanta twice and Los Angeles three times in the last week of the season. Atlanta also will meet Los Angeles twice.

"It looks like it will go down to the last day of the season," said Atlanta veteran Chris Chambliss.

The hottest team in the division right now is San Francisco, which has won five in a row and seven of its last eight. The Dodgers, on the other hand, have dropped five in a row, including four straight by one run.

Darrell Evans' two-run homer highlighted a three-run rally in the fifth inning that carried San Francisco to victory.

"This is what we had to do," said Evans. "Now we've got it in our hands, and we can win it by ourselves."

Fred Breining, 11-5, scattered six hits in 5-3 innings to gain the victory, with Al Holland allowing only two hits over the final 3-2-3 innings to notch his fifth save.

In the fifth, Joe Morgan walked with one out, stole second and scored on Jack Clark's double off loser Burt Hooton, 3-7. Evans then hit a 1-1 pitch for his 16th homer.

The Dodgers cut the lead in the sixth when Dusty Baker walked, moved to second on a single by Pedro Guerrero and scored on Steve Garvey's single. The Dodgers added another run in the seventh when Bill Russell walked, reached third on pinch hitter Ron Roenicke's single and scored when Baker grounded into a fielder's choice.

Cubs 6, Cardinals 1
At St. Louis, pitcher Ferguson Jenkins singled home two runs in a five-run first inning and tossed a seven-hitter over

Saudi Sheik May Buy Ailing Woolco Stores

MIAMI (UPI) — Sheik Mohammed al Fassi, the Saudi billionaire who has made a name for himself with both charitable donations and bad checks for vast sums, announced he will send one of his attorneys to New York today to negotiate the purchase of the Woolco Division of F.W. Woolworth Co.

Woolworth officials Friday said they were closing all 336 Woolco discount stores by early next year. The announcement meant that 25,000 employees across the country — and 1,100 in south Florida — would lose their jobs.

John Derdrien, a spokesman for the sheik, said the sheik gave his attorney an Oct. 5 deadline to close the deal and that the requisite funds would be transferred from Saudi Arabia by Oct. 2.

Burger Battle Begins

MIAMI (UPI) — Phase one of "Operation Bob" — the battle of the burgers as Burger King executives call it — has been launched.

Viewers of the CBS television program "One Day At a Time" Sunday night tasted the first salvo of Burger King's new ad campaign, a little girl telling the audience that McDonald's hamburgers are 20 percent smaller than Burger King's.

McDonald's executives are not amused. Today they will seek to block further play for the commercial in the courtroom of U.S. District Judge Eugene Spellman, claiming Burger King's $20 million advertising campaign is "false and misleading."

McDonald's officials contend that when price is considered it is misleading to say their burgers are 20 percent smaller. They also want to block other ads in which Miami-based Burger King will claim their burgers are tastier than the competitors' and that their burgers are broiled while the others are fried.

On Friday McDonald's filed a $20 million lawsuit to back up those gripes.

Jurist Caught In Pot Bust

FORT PIERCE (UPI) — Five fishermen and boat crew members accused of conspiring with a former Florida Supreme Court Justice to smuggle marijuana into the United States are expected to surrender in the next few days, police in Cameron Parish, La. said.

The men were indicted along with ex-Justice David L. McCain, 51, who was free Sunday on $200,000 bond after his arrest on drug smuggling conspiracy charges Saturday in Fort Pierce.

McCain and the other defendants are accused of attempting to import "more than 10,000 pounds of marijuana" between May and October 1981, according to the indictment issued Friday.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Israelis Finally Promise To Leave War-Torn Beirut

United Press International

Israel promised its army will leave west Beirut by Wednesday and end a standoff with the United States that has delayed for several days deployment of the trilateral, peace-keeping force in the Lebanese capital.

A 520-man Italian force was to land in Beirut today, joining other Italian and French troops already there. Some 1,800 U.S. Marines — 800 of whom may go ashore Tuesday or Wednesday and take control of Beirut airport — were anchored offshore.

The deployment of the peace keeping forces has been delayed since last week by the continued Israeli presence in the Lebanese capital.

Brezhnev On The Road

MOSCOW (UPI) — President Leonid Brezhnev delivered a general foreign policy speech but what puzzled Western diplomats was not what he said but where he said it — 1,250 miles from Moscow.

Some analysts suggested it was possible the aging Brezhnev traveled such a great distance to deliver a rather minor address to dispel doubts that his ailments had hampered his ability to rule.

Midway Open House

Midway Elementary School will hold an open house for parents Tuesday beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Assistant Principal Claudia Dill said parents will be able to visit their children's classes from 7:30 to 8 p.m. An organizational meeting of the PTA will follow.

Cooperative Effort To Save Money

A cooperative plan between the city of Altamonte Springs and Seminole County, which calls for relocation of fire stations and construction of two new public safety complexes, will save the taxpayers money and mean better protection in some areas of southwest Seminole County, according to Altamonte Springs City Manager Jeff Etchberger.

The Altamonte Springs City Commission has approved the purchase of a 2.94-acre site between Douglas Avenue and Interstate 4 at Westmonte Drive for $275,000 as the site for a $300,000 (excluding cost of land) police and fire complex.

The new location is expected to provide better response time for emergency vehicles answering calls on the west side of the city, Etchberger said.

The county is planning to construct a $400,000 public safety building of identical design north of State Road 434 in Sabal Point. By using the same design and going out for bids jointly, Etchberger said it will mean an approximate $1 million joint savings for the city and county.

The plan also includes closing the county's Montgomery Road station and Sanlando site. By coordinating their efforts, the two governments will each avoid building, equipping and staffing another station, Etchberger added.

POLITICAL PLAUDITS

In this political season, everyone has their supporters. And Fifth U.S. Congressional District candidates Dick Batchelor D-Orlando (left) and incumbent Bill McCollum, R-Altamonte Springs, are no different. Batchelor recently received a certificate of appreciation from the State Legislative Committee of the American Association of Retired Persons for his work on behalf of senior citizens. The award was presented by Harold Zeimer, president of the South Seminole AARP. McCollum was one of 45 Senators and 165 Representatives to receive the "Golden Bulldog Award" for their voting records of "fiscal responsibility" in government during the 1981-82 session of Congress. McCollum is congratulated by Robert Schaeberle, chairman of Nabisco, a sponsor of Watchdogs of the Treasury which makes the award.

Area Leaders Discuss Crime Problem

More than 115 area business, government and community leaders will meet in Orlando Thursday and Friday to brainstorm solutions to Florida's crime problems.

At the invitation of Gov. Bob Graham, the group will convene at Expo Centre for the two-day regional Governor's Challenge Conference.

Participants will represent a cross-section of leadership from Brevard, Lake, Orange, Osceola, Seminole and Volusia counties. They will be joined by 20 youth delegates from Central Florida high schools, including members of the Mayor's Youth Advisory Council, City of Orlando.

Seminole County participants will include Vic Arnett, a Sanford insurance account executive; Louise T. Crawford of Seminole Community Action; Jeff Etchberger, Altamonte Springs city manager; Alvin N. Gamson of Jewish Family Services; James T. Golden, a Sanford attorney; June Gordon of Seminole Community College; Winter Springs Police Chief John Govorukh; Willie V. Graham, Credit Union board member; Gretchen Gross, coordinator, 18th Judicial Circuit Court; Altamonte Springs Police Chief William A. Liquori; and Claude W. Orr, retired U.S. Air Force major.

Orlando Mayor Bill Frederick will open the conference Thursday at 9 a.m. with welcoming remarks. The group will break up into small working committees for much of the remainder of the meeting.

Prior to attending the Governor's Challenge Conference, participants are required to read a selected list of writings on crime and to complete written assignments. Committee sessions can then be based on a common core of knowledge about crime and the corrections system.

During the course of the conference, committees will pinpoint major obstacles to crime prevention and control, and develop creative approaches to overcoming them. At the final session, crime control strategy will be planned and recommendations formulated. These recommendations will form the basis of the 5-year plan for the Orlando Crime Prevention Commission. At a statewide meeting in Tallahassee Oct. 26-27, delegates will select the best recommendations from this and the eight other regional conferences for presentation to Governor Graham.

Governor Graham not only anticipates that the conference will generate meaningful public policy proposals, but has said that "increased public awareness and interaction with policy issues dealing with criminal justice will produce a citizenry more capable of joining in the solutions to the underlying causes of criminality, such as child abuse, drug and alcohol abuse, and economic deprivation."

The Central Florida regional conference is being co-sponsored by the Orlando Crime Prevention Commission; University of Central Florida; the Children and Youth Network; Junior League of Orlando-Winter Park, Florida, Inc.; League of Women Voters of Orange County; Metropolitan Orlando Urban League; and the Orlando Area Chamber of Commerce. It is funded by a grant from the Florida Endowment for the Humanities through the Florida Leadership Forum.

The New Right Battered And Bruised

SEN. JESSE HELMS
...I've had my shot'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — On the crisp, sunny day when Ronald Reagan was inaugurated in January 1980, surrounded by Republicans in control of the Senate for the first time in 25 years, prospects were bright for the New Right's social agenda.

Today it is in tatters, with not one goal achieved nor one piece of hoped-for legislation enacted, and with its leader, Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C., admitting: "I've had my shot at it. I did the best I could."

The bill to outlaw busing for desegregating public schools was passed by the Senate but bottled up in the House. Bills to permanently prohibit federal financial aid for abortions or to allow voluntary prayer in public schools, and a constitutional amendment to permit the states and Congress to pass anti-abortion laws, are dead.

And the constitutional amendment requiring a balanced budget except in time of war — one major goal of the New Right that was shared by many others — also passed the Senate but never was brought to a vote in the House.

Liberal filibusters that could not be broken in the Senate killed abortion and school prayer bills and delayed the anti-busing legislation so long that House opponents were able to prevent action.

The issues, espoused by millions, are not dead but will be much harder to enact next year if, as expected, the Democrats pick up seats in November.

So what caused collapse of the New Right's bright hopes?

Some members argue that the so-called New Right — also called the Radical Right or the Religious Right — always was more vocal than strong and frightened more people than it converted.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN ALAN CRAMP

Sheri Delk, John Cramp Repeat Vows

Sheri Lynn Delk and John Alan Cramp are announcing their marriage today. They were married July 17, at 11 a.m. in a double ring ceremony at Pinecrest Baptist Church, Sanford, by the Rev. Mark Weaver.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hatcher of Sanford, and Mrs. Felton Delk of Sarasota. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Nina E. Peel, Orlando.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle David Beard Karen Jennings was the maid of honor.

Mike Delk attended the bridegroom as best man. Ushergrooms were Larry Delk, Greg Delk, Bob Wright and Steve Polk.

Following a reception in the church social hall, the newlyweds departed on a wedding cruise to Jamaica. They are making their home at Cape Canaveral where the bridegroom is an electronic calibration technician at Kennedy Space Center and the bride is employed by Electronic Systems Products.

'Bintel Brief' 1909 Shades Of Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: The reader signed "Better Dead Than Red," who complained that because he was a redhead he "can't get a girl and felt like a freak," might be pleased to know that he was not the first young man to write to someone such as yourself with this problem.

Seventy years ago, Jewish immigrants often wrote to the Yiddish daily The Forward for help with their problems. Their letters were printed in a column called "Bintel Brief" (a bundle of letters). One letter, written in 1909, read as follows:

"I am a young man of 22 and have every reason to be happy, but I am unhappy because nature saw fit to give me red hair. Because of the color of my hair, I endure many insults in the shop and on the street. When I hear someone say to me, 'Hello, Red!' I am hurt and offended. I am unhappy and lonely and I've even consulted doctors about it. One of them advised me to dye my hair. Another told me not to do it because first of all it has a bad effect on the scalp and, second, the color would not be natural."

"I would be very happy if you could advise me. Respectfully, Unhappy".

The editor answered Unhappy: "A person is not valued by the hair on his head, but by what is in his head."

Abby, you might be pleased to know that today when teachers of history, such as myself, want to describe

Dear Abby

"Bintel Brief" to someone who has never heard of it, we say, "It was sort of the original 'Dear Abby.'" PROF. DEBORAH E. LIPSTADT, UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, LOS ANGELES

DEAR ABBY: When I read in your column that a transvestite stole women's clothing because he was too embarrassed to buy feminine apparel from a salesperson, my heart ached for him.

I am a transvestite, and I have no trouble buying whatever I want, but there are a few rules to follow: Go shopping, when the stores are not crowded. You'll find the clerks happy to wait on you. They'll even let you try things on. I've bought everything from lingerie to shoes to dresses with no problem. I even bought a bridal gown and went back for two fittings!

Be neat, clean, discreet, inconspicuous and quiet. Never go shopping to "look" — go only when you are in a position to buy, and you will be greeted with courtesy and open arms.

Sertoma Works On Restoring Park

The Winter Springs Sertoma Club members have been busy as bees trying to refurbish Sunshine Park. When it is completed the park will contain a picnic area, nature trails, ball fields and play areas. Their latest project is a restroom facility.

The name Sertoma is a contraction of the words Service to Mankind. Some of the club's projects in this area are to select a non-Sertoman annually, to receive a Service to Mankind Award for exemplary citizenship activities, conduct freedom programs in the area fifth grade classes, give Christmas baskets to the needy in Winter Springs, annually contribute to the cost of establishing and maintaining Sertoma hearing and speech centers, which provide testing and therapy to people at every level and contribute to Camp Endeavor, a non-profit summer camp, serving the hearing impaired. The list goes on.

Vice president Bill Daucher says the club would like new members to join. Meetings are each Tuesday at 7:30 a.m. for breakfast at the Big Cypress Golf Club.

Sept. 28 is the date set for the annual PTA open house-general meeting at Red Bug Elementary. The open house is from 6:30-7:15 p.m., and parents will have the opportunity to meet your child's teacher.

From 7:30-8:15 p.m. there will be a budget approval, introduction of teachers and staff and an explanation of new report cards by Jim Neville.

The fifth grade will hold a bake sale and proceeds will go to that pod.

Did you know there is a contest for your child to enter at Red Bug? It is the annual Poster Board Contest for National School Lunch Week.

This year's theme is "Eat Well — Your Body Can Tell." All K-5 youngsters are encouraged to participate. All entries must be turned in to the Food Service Manager or principal by Sept. 28. First prize will be $5; second prize, $3, and third prize will be an awards certificate.

Sterling Park Elementary will conduct PTA open house slightly different than the other schools. On Sept. 28 the kindergarten, first, second and special education classes will have their open house at 7 p.m. They will meet in the media center. Then at 7:30 p.m. there will be a general PTA meeting. On Sept. 29, grades 3, 4 and 5 will have their open house at 7:30 p.m.

The PTA will sponsor a Shaky Pizza Night on Sept. 30, from 6 p.m., at 111 Seminole Blvd. in Casselberry. The PTA will receive 25 percent of the sales.

Jackson Heights Middle School will conduct its open house on Sept. 28, at 7 p.m., for parents only.

The Hacienda Village Women's Club will hold a pot luck luncheon at Noon on Sept. 28.

Seminole County ACLD met on Oct. 18 at Winter Springs Elementary for the general meeting. Besides the regular meeting, several candidates for the Seminole County School Board attended the meeting to state their views on special education. Those attending were Jean Bryant, Ken Patrick, Pat Telson and Roland Williams.

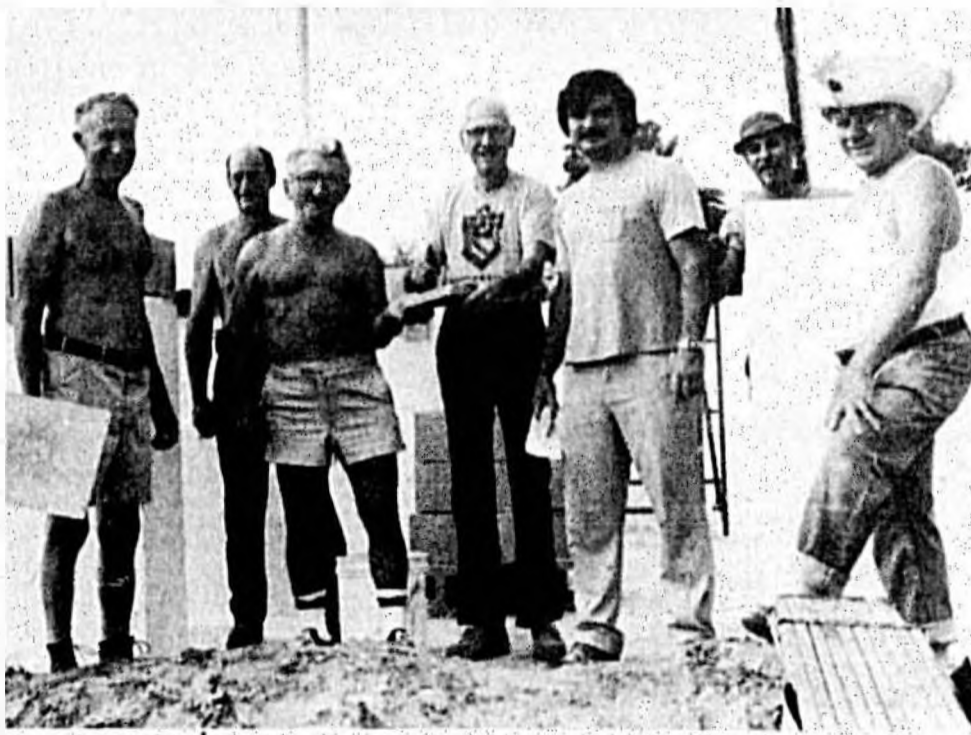

School pictures will be taken on Sept. 29 and 30 at Winter Springs Elementary.

The school wants to remind the citizens that the school is a voting precinct and voting will be on Oct. 5.

The Longwood-Winter Springs Chamber of Commerce met today at noon. The guest speaker was Charlie Reese from the Orlando Sentinel.

The chamber is honoring Ms. Sherry Marsell as Business Person of the month of September. Sherry is the owner-operator of Something Special by Sherris in Winter Springs. She is a graduate of Eastus High School and is the mother of two children, a son who is a fern grower in Costa Rica, and a daughter who is a lead guitarist with the band group "Passenger."

Happy 12th birthday to Kevin Moore, who's birthday was Sept. 19.

Beta Sigma Phi

Luncheon Begins Season

Lesia Wright will represent Xi Beta Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi as Valentine Girl for 1982-83. She has been a Beta Sigma Phi member for eight years.

"Beginning Day" luncheon was held at H.P. Cassidy's, Altamonte Springs, when members gathered to hear the president's message by Kathy Wallace as well as receive the new yearbook. Mrs. Wallace also presided over the first meeting of the year held in her home Tuesday.

The meeting was opened with a poem on "Friendship." Announcement was made that the "Fall Witchery" will be held at the Americana Beach Lodge, Daytona Beach, Oct. 30. Reservations are $10 and deadline is Oct. 22.

Zeta Xi Chapter celebrates its silver anniversary this year and the chapter has invited all past members to celebrate with them at a barbecue Oct. 23 at Lake Golden.

The All-Chapter luncheon will be held Nov. 6 at Maison et Jardin Restaurant. Each committee made a brief report and the chapter voted to raise city council dues to $2 a year retroactive. City Council is also asking the chapters to assist in raising funds by selling cookbooks.

Following a brief outline of the program book for the year, "The Modern World," refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Seminole Jr. Miss Pageant Set

Claudia Colburn, chairman of the Seminole County Miss Pageant announced today that Rick Saylor, Morning Man of WHLY-y106 will be the master of ceremonies for the pageant.

The Seminole County Junior Miss Competition will be held at Lake Mary High School on Oct. 2, at 8 p.m. The admission is $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for students and children.

The American Junior Miss and the local programs are geared for and around youth, to recognize and assist the young women who participate by giving them the opportunity to express themselves and to broaden their skills and personalities.

Seminole County Junior Miss Pageant has Young Women representing all the high schools in Seminole County, and is sponsored by the Altamonte-South Seminole Jayceettes.

For additional information contact Claudia Colburn at 327-2391 or Cathy Cold at 834-1078.

From Defense Contracts

Some States To Gain, But Florida Is Not One

United Press International

Virginia and South Carolina will gain the most revenue from defense contracts in the Southeast in fiscal 1983, while Tennessee will lose the most.

In addition to Virginia and South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi will gain from defense contracts. Florida and North Carolina join Tennessee in the loss column.

Virginia will gain a whopping $8.120 billion. South Carolina will be second with additional revenues of $1.256 billion, followed by Mississippi with $807 million, Georgia with $418 million and Alabama with $378 million.

Tennessee will be the Southeast's biggest loser, with taxpayers kicking in $1.506 billion to pay for defense contracts. North Carolina will be second with a $694 million loss, followed by Florida with $483 million in losses.

The figures come from a new study released Sunday by the Employment Research Associates of Lansing, Mich. The study, "Bankrupting American Cities," examines the impact of Pentagon spending on 266 major urban areas.

By states, the figures (rounded to millions) for Southeastern cities included in the study are:

ALABAMA — Anniston: $267 million in contracts, $82 million in taxes, $185 million net gain; Birmingham: $257 million in contracts, $763 million in taxes, $506 million net loss; Florence: $12 million in contracts, $97 million in taxes, $85 million net loss; Gadsden: $10 million in contracts, $70 million in taxes, $30 million net loss; Huntsville: $814 million in contracts, $232 million in taxes, $582 million net gain; Mobile: $333 million in contracts, $324 million in taxes, $29 million net gain; Montgomery: $527 million in contracts, $212 million in taxes, $314 million net gain; Tuscaloosa: $32 million in contracts, $93 million in taxes, $61 million net loss;

FLORIDA — Bradenton: $24 million in contracts, $108 million in taxes, $84 million net loss; Daytona Beach: $125 million in contracts, $177 million in taxes, $52 million net loss; Fort Lauderdale: $161 million in contracts, $976 million in taxes, $815 million net loss; Fort Myers: $43 million in contracts, $138 million in taxes, $94 million net loss; Gainesville: $37 million in contracts, $95 million in taxes, $58 million net loss; Jacksonville: $1,103 billion in contracts, $609 million in taxes, $494 million net gain; Lakeland: $44 million in contracts, $221 million in taxes, $177 million net loss; Melbourne: $752 million in contracts, $199 million in taxes, $553 million net gain; Miami: $451 million in contracts, $1.623 billion in taxes, $1.172 billion net loss; Orlando: $1.254 billion in contracts, $519 million in taxes, $735 billion net gain; Panama City: $273 million in contracts, $62 million in taxes, $210 million net gain; Pensacola: $701 million in contracts, $190 million in taxes, $511 million net gain; Tallahassee: $68 million in contracts, $98 million in taxes, $30 million net loss; Tampa: $1.077 billion in contracts, $1.288 billion in taxes, $152 million net loss; West Palm Beach: $658 million in contracts, $92 million in taxes, $566 million net gain;

The Aim Is Early Disease Detection

DEAR DR. LAMB - Our company requires all employees to have an annual medical examination...

DEAR READER - As much as possible the real goal is to take care of people so they won't be sick in the first place.

Horoscope For Tuesday, September 28, 1982

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL For Tuesday, September 28, 1982

YOUR BIRTHDAY September 28, 1982 This coming year will be a very busy and important one...

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Be appreciative of what others do for you today without trying to do twice as much for them in return.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Be careful today not to swing too quickly into action based upon your initial observations.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Even though your better judgment may dictate otherwise, there is a possibility you could do something foolish today...

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) If you hope to make today count for something, it's important to keep your priorities in order.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) When probing for information today, don't get hung up on insignificant factors to the point that you may obscure the major premise.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Though it may cause you some inconvenience, take pains to dig out all the facts before making an important decision today.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Subdue temptations to share too liberally confidential information today.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You'll know what types of productive things you should be doing today, but lazy urges may tempt you to postpone them.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) A deal which you put together today will contain promise, but perhaps not on as grand a scale as you envision.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Material conditions tend to favor you today, but your gains might not be up to your expectations.

By Oswald Jacoby and Alan Sontag is likely not to bother thinking at all this time the game was duplicate and it is important to try to save overtricks.
