

Rollins Will Stage Hygiene Conference

WINTER PARK, Jan. 15. (Special)—Teachers in Florida schools will convene here on Saturday, Jan. 17, for a Florida Conference on Mental Hygiene held under the auspices of Rollins College. The conference, which has been made possible through a grant to Rollins by the George Davis Bivin Foundation, will be the first ever held in the state on this subject. Invitations to the meeting have been issued to all teachers in the colleges, high schools and secondary schools of Florida, according to an announcement by Dr. R. W. France, professor of economics at Rollins and conference chairman. The sessions will be open to the general public without charge. The conference opens at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning in the Annie Russell Theater with an address on "Mental Hygiene and the School" by Dr. Alexander Waite, associate professor of psychology.

U. Of F. Plans New Physical Program

GAINESVILLE, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Although football and other intercollegiate competitions are not slated for abandonment at the University of Florida, President John J. Tigert Tuesday said the University will spare no available resources or energies in providing a complete program of physical education and hygiene for each of the 5000 students. He announced the program would begin as soon as the University can complete plans and organize for the extensive undertakings. Three towns in the United States are named Swiss.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

THERE IS GREAT DANGER IN VENTURING BUT THEY WHO LACK THE COURAGE NEVER ARRIVE AT A HAPPY DESTINATION. COLOSSIANS AND FAITH AND COURAGE RELATE: And they launched forth.—Luke 8:22

NO FINAL DEATH

This too, will pass. Have you forgotten how the cherry learned to the winter wind, its master. Where now the nesting birds make merry in branches cupped with a baster? This is the oldest legend told: That all things sleep to wake again; See how the evening's transient gold moves westward round the world to Spain. And brightens on Atlantic rim From Holyland to Hateras; And birds fly upward in a stream From the cold spangles in the grass. This too, will pass. The tyrant goes to his repose; The traitor and his minions Shall be a byword on men's lips, Gone with the echo of the guns, And men shall see in heaven burning. Naught but the westward wheeling stars; And in the loam their ploughs upturning. The rusty relics of old wars. Then earth will glide from her long dark to the tree to wear again Beauty as leaves and her bright are. Shall curve in color in the rim. Spring with her struts and bells and grass. Shall mark each battle-mound serene. To set in fields where valor was, Her mantle of renaissance green. This too, will pass! LELA JONES.

OF COURSE ALL IN THE WORLD

Of course all in the world that the public has got to do in order to prevent inflation is to quit buying.

Fort Myers reports registrations with the Chamber of Commerce indicate a good tourist year at hand.

One fellow says if any automobile crisis becomes any more acute, we may have to win this war in a walk.

The Germans are launching their assault on Malta and North Africa even before the retreat from Russia is over.

Donald Nelson has been named the new production czar. His job is to make two tanks grow where one grew before.

We see where Kit Carson has led the Marines. Now the same will learn something. He's grandson of the famous scout.

Sanford has some new ordinances prohibiting the stealing automobile tires. That offense is becoming increasingly serious.

One good thing about the shortage of automobiles is that 1942 will have fewer traffic deaths—Key West Citizen.

An American tanker has been sunk 60 miles outside New York Harbor Bay, where it is said that this country was intended to attack.

They say that if you get into a blackout, so you can't see through last night's test goggles on a car, but the lights still left us coming in the dark.

LOCALITY: A southern derby was held when an ax, a chicken, a pig and a turkey were used as prizes. The winner was a chicken.

Children And The War

The attitude of children toward air raids, as with adults, varies all the way from that expressed by one youngster who, when told of last night's blackout, exclaimed, "Hot dog! This is just like war!" to that of another who went through a frightful nightmare dreaming that a dreadful looking Japanese soldier was trying to take away his little brother's piece of stick candy. Normal children who play a lot and do not frighten easily, who eat well and sleep well and who live in a wholesome environment, are apt to take the war pretty much in their stride, but children who are nervous anyway, who are subject to bad dreams in ordinary times and are apt to give way to fits of tantrums or spells of melancholy, are of course made only worse by the conditions under which we live today.

But there is a great deal which parents and other adults can do to lighten the ordeal even for the most sensitive and emotionally unstable children. For such children especially a difficult road lies ahead and it behooves everyone to study their problem sympathetically and try as hard as possible to help them overcome their fears. In the final analysis a faulty attitude on the part of the child can be blamed upon no one but his parents and the other adults with whom he associates.

Children invariably reflect the attitudes of their parents. If you yourself are worried about the war and manifestly show your concern in the presence of your children by constantly talking about it, by walking up and down and wringing your hands, and by giving way to tears at the least provocation, you can reasonably expect your children to be upset by it too. You cannot expect more of your child in the matter of self-control and self-discipline than you are able to demonstrate yourself.

As a general rule the less said about the war in the presence of children the better. Certainly this is so of children six years of age and younger. As they grow older and begin to read for themselves and listen to the news, it is pretty difficult, if not impossible, to keep the news of the war from them. And in such cases it may even be better not to try. Certainly you do not want your child to get the idea that he is not being let in on some big family secret and thus unduly arouse his curiosity and perhaps his resentment.

Take the war, and try to get your children to take it, as a matter of course. When you talk about it, talk about the brighter, more cheerful aspects of the war, of the heroism of certain air men, of the gallant defense of Wake Island by the Marines, of MacArthur's defense of Luzon. When children ask questions, answer them fully and candidly. Tell them, if necessary, that people get killed in air raids, but be sure to explain the chances for any one individual are about one in a million.

Above all, do not use the war as an easy means of making children mind. Don't try to frighten children into being good. Don't tell your little 10-year-old girl that the Japs will get her if she doesn't wash the dishes. Don't tell your little boy that Hitler is going to round up all the bad little boys in the world and put them in a great big concentration camp. Such methods may get immediate results but they will pile up trouble for the future.

During blackouts, air raids, or other periods of emergency, keep your children busy. Give them something to do and keep their minds occupied. Make one of them the air raid warden for your particular house and let it be his duty to see that all the lights are properly turned off. Make another the fire warden and let him see to the bucket of sand, the condition of the hose and fill the tub full of water. Such little chores make them feel that they have a part in the great scheme of national defense and help to keep their minds free from worry.

There is no reason at all a child should not take this war as calmly and as coolly as the bravest soldier. If yours is beginning to show signs of concern, do something about it before it is too late.

Acres Of Diamonds

Pointing out that in times like these, Florida farmers like northern industrialists, have "acres of diamonds" all around them, the Florida Grower says that about the only difference is that the farmer so seldom realizes his opportunities—both for helping himself and aiding his country.

In a situation like this "one job of the modern agricultural research laboratory is to take farm products and show industry how to use them," says Dr. Henry G. Knigh, Bureau of Agricultural Chemistry and Engineering, at Washington. War makes many things difficult to get. Good substitutes are needed.

"Among those already developed from farm sources," the Grower continues, "are nitrocellulose (gun-cotton), using ordinary cotton fiber; rot-resistant cotton sandbags in place of jute bags; fire hose of cotton lined with resin instead of rubber; sweetpotato starch to replace tropical starch. Found also are better quality dehydrated vegetables; new domestic tanning materials; nicotine acid from tobacco; vegetable proteins to replace industrial casings.

"It looks to us like it would be good business for farmers everywhere to ask for a list of farm products needed by industry. Probably many of them either already are, or can be, produced in Florida."

YOUR FEDERAL INCOME TAX

COMPUTATION OF TAX ON INDIVIDUALS

NO. 16

The normal tax and the surtax on individuals for 1941 are computed on their normal tax net income and surtax net income, respectively.

The following example will show how to compute the normal tax and surtax on a net income of $8,500, all of which represents earned net income, the taxpayer being single and without dependents.

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes Normal tax, Surtax, Earned income credit, and Net income subject to normal tax.

Normal tax $1,125.00. Surtax upon the surtax net income of $8,500 $800.00. Earned income credit $500.00. Net income subject to normal tax $3,500.00.

All the instructions accompanying the income-tax forms before preparing their returns. If they need any help they can get it without cost by consulting the nearest collector of internal revenue, deputy collector, or internal revenue agent.

EARNED INCOME CREDIT

NO. 17

The law allows in computing the normal tax of an individual an earned income credit of 10 percent of the earned net income, but not in excess of 10 percent of the net income. "Earned income" is defined in the law as wages, salaries, professional fees, and other amounts received as compensation for personal services actually rendered. Where a taxpayer is engaged in a trade or business in which both personal services and capital are material in the production of income, reasonable allowance as compensation for personal services actually rendered by the taxpayer is included in the earned net income.

to claim $200 credit for the dependent child—that is, one-half of $400. The same rule applies to other dependents where a change of status occurs during the taxable year.

If the tax is computed at the optional rates with the use of the simplified Form 1040A, the taxpayer's status on the last day of the taxable year governs the determination of whether a person is living with husband or wife, is the head of a family, or is a dependent.

Citrus Commission Cautions Growers

LAKEFLAND, Jan. 16.—(Special)—The Florida Citrus Commission today cautioned citrus fruit growers of the state to demand proper proof of responsibility when selling oranges, grapefruit or tangerines to buying buyers or so-called "bird dogs."

The commission pointed out that under the bond and license law of the state, buyers, packers, shippers and canners are required to obtain proper licenses and to post bonds which are guarantees that the growers will be paid. Buyers employed by packing houses, shippers and others properly licensed by the State department of Agriculture are required to carry proper cards or other credentials, but in each instance it is the direct responsibility of the grower to make certain that the buyer is a legitimate operator or representative of the commission.

Kilvert Speaks At Fine Arts Meeting

Maxwell A. Kilvert, a representative of the Hispanic Institute of Florida, was the guest speaker at the program of the Fine Arts Department of the Woman's Club, held on Wednesday afternoon at the club.

Mr. Kilvert is a former engineer and now makes his home at Winter Park. He spent a good many years in Mexico and South America and the theme of his talk was the fact that "We in North America think of our country as a democracy and therefore the only kind of democracy—but there are other democracies in other countries that are also proving successful."

"We must not try to change these countries," stated Mr. Kilvert, "but rather, we must try to learn their ways and try to understand them. He declared that the South American countries are more cultured than the people of North America, as a result of studying poetry, literature and the fine things of life. "They think of the North American inhabitants as being cold and haughty," he spoke.

Mr. Kilvert explained that in Mexico there are now more Indians than ever before, disrupting the theory of long standing that the Indian race is a vanishing race. He used maps to illustrate his talk, pointing out the places of interest in the countries in which he traveled. He told of the vastness of South America and of the parts of it where no white man has ever been.

Stressing the importance of understanding the people of South America, Mr. Kilvert urged the teaching of Spanish in all schools for the younger people and for all others. He suggested that they take up the study of Spanish, in order to be able to understand better their ways of living. "We must pay more attention to these people, and the only way to do this is to learn to speak their language."

Mrs. W. L. Cooper, sponsor of the program, introduced the speaker, who quoted "The Song of Mary," by Rudyard Kipling, as a prologue to his talk. At the conclusion of the talk by Mr. Kilvert, Fred Fields gave the piano selection, "Malaguena" by Ernesto Le Cuona. Miss Lillian Dunlap and Miss S. D. Highman, chairman, presiding. Those elected are as follows: Mrs. E. E. True, chairman; Mrs. R. W. Ruprecht, chairman of the literature department; Mrs. George B. M. Scott, art; Mrs. W. A. Leavitt, secretary; Mrs. Frank Evans, finance chairman; Mrs. F. S. Lamson, membership; Mrs. James Moughton, program chairman.

Mrs. J. C. Bills of Geneva, representative of the County Defense Council, urged all members to purchase defense bonds as a means of "winning the war."

P. T. A. Addressed By Judge R.W. Ware

Judge R. W. Ware spoke on "Training the Child for National Defense" at the meeting of the Grammar School Parent Teacher Association on Thursday afternoon at the school auditorium.

The speaker was introduced by Prof. E. E. Kipp, in the absence of the program chairman, Mrs. H. A. Appley. Three pupils entertained the group with songs. Anna Corley sang "The Boys in the Army," and Herbert Stanstrom and Wade Garner sang "Any Bonds Today."

The short business meeting was presided over by Mrs. W. S. Brubaker and reports of the various chairmen were given. Mrs. L. I. Frazier, in charge of the defense saving stamp sale at the school, thanked the parents for their "splendid" cooperation in the sale of stamps, both at school on Mondays and those given for Christmas presents.

WASH., Jan. 16.—(AP) George H. Hall, secretary to Rep. Hamilton Fish (R., N. Y.), was convicted of perjury in a federal court here today. The conviction was based on his testimony before a grand jury in New York in the case of the late Senator Charles McNary, who was accused of having received a bribe from the Japanese government to influence the outcome of the 1908 election for the U. Celery Feds Lose Unusual Cage Contest To Ocala By 28 To 18

"I think we'll beat them when they come here," H. E. Morris, temporary coach of the Celery Fed cage squad said last night after returning from Ocala where the Feds were taken for a queer ride by the Wildcats, 28 to 18.

One of the boys reported that anything went during the game, including plenty of rough stuff, lax refereeing and slightly unusual antics during the B squad game. Both games were played in the afternoon.

Ocala's fast team ran up a 12 to 0 advantage at the half, and increased the tempo during the final quarters. Center Williams, who also performed in the B game, led the Wildcats with 10 points. High man for Sanford was Billy Fleming, ace center with six markers. Largely because of the work of Williams, Ocala's B team, with two other A squad members assisting, trampled the Fed B, 44 to 11.

Sanford has a game scheduled with Orlando Tuesday, but it has been reported that steps have been taken to cancel the contest. It seems that Seminole High has been dropped from the Orlando grid slate, and Coach McLucas is said to feel that the Feds shouldn't schedule the Tigers in basketball. A date with Leesburg here next Thursday may be shifted there as the date conflicts with another entertainment supposed to be held at the high school auditorium. Coach McLucas is expected to return to school Monday.

The line ups: Ocala Daniels (3) F. Musseau (3) Herring (3) F. Robbins (2) Fleming (3) C. Williams (10) Brnson (3) G. Walker (2) Lee (2) G. Shandy (2) Sub scoring: Hasty (1); Oliver (2), Farnell (2).

Nelson Takes Lead In Oakland Tourney

OAKLAND, Calif., Jan. 16.—(AP)—Eytan Nelson, Toledo, Ohio, shot a three-under-par 67 yesterday to lead the field at the end of the first round of the $5,000, 72-hole Oakland open golf tournament. The former U. S. open and P. G. A. champion posted a 33-34.

The two-time national golf champion, never a winner on the California leg of the winter tournament, led the pack for the 144 starters. Pat for the Sequoyah course is 35-35-70.

Zivic Will Fight Robinson Tonight

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Joe Louis is in the Army now and out of the headlines for a while, so the secret can come out that Fritz Zivic and Ray Robinson will take pot-shots at each other for 12 rounds to-night in Madison Square Garden for a crack at Red Cochrane's welterweight title.

Although this return match has been on the books for weeks, the hullabaloo over Louis' defeat of Buddy Baer and his joining up to do his fighting for Uncle Sam left tomorrow's issue a somewhat mysterious meeting.

Hauser May Become Minnesota Mentor

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 16.—(AP)—The heir apparently to Bernie Bierman's coaching throne for the duration is big, smiling, six-foot-ten George Hauser, a six-tenths of a century ago when Dr. H. L. Williams' Minnesota shift pulverized the boys.

Bierman has been called for Marine Corps duty. George Hauser—Dr. George Hauser, please, in view of his M. D.—is the heir apparent because University of Minnesota officials, football players and fans consider him a natural.

Above all, Hauser is Bierman's choice. When Bierman came back to his alma mater 10 years ago to become head coach, he picked George Hauser as his line coach.

The lines Hauser has turned out at Minnesota during the ensuing years when Minnesota paced the nation's gridiron teams have been the talk of the platoon world. One of his greatest line-coaching feats came last fall when his forward wall carried a crippled backfield through some of the toughest games of the season.

The battleship can deliver the hardest blow and take more punishment than any other type of ship.

Flat on his back with his feet still in mid-air is the way Buddy Baer's quest for Joe Louis' heavyweight title ended—and it was in the first round. The unbeatable Brown Bamber toppled the young California giant about $70,000—and two minutes fifty-six seconds of his time.

1942 Rookies In National League Under Pressure

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—(Special)—The rookies of 1942 in the National League already hold a record. No freshman class before them, in war or peace, ever had as tough a target to shoot at in the way of achievements by their immediate predecessors.

Reduced to plain talk, this year's rookies have to produce the league's batting champion, its No. 1 pitcher in both win-loss percentage and earned-run average, its No. 3 pitcher in both these departments, the base-stealing champion and two long shooters who will be the only sluggers in the league to hit homers in every park in the league.

Such was the 1941 scroll of honor. That's the assignment for the freshman stars of this year—some of them, like Stan Musial, Howard Pollet, Hank Sauer, Babe Berna, Emil Kush, Johnny Schmitz, Ray Starr, Dave Koslo, Vince Smith, Culey Rikard, Whitey Kurovski and half a dozen more—already introduced to their home fans last September; and about four dozen more still to crash their first big league box scores.

They are loaded with dynamite, these 1942 rookies, plenty of power-hitters, but is there another Reiser there? Two-Gun Pete was the first freshman ever to lead the National League in batting his first full year in the majors. It could happen two years straight! But what a story!

Only about 100 Californians are known to exist.

Japanese Forces At Luzon Claim New Victories

U.S. War Department States Enemy Attacks Are Stubbornly Contested

Tokyo Declares U.S. Defenders Are Falling Back

British Prime Minister Winston Churchill issued today at Plymouth after his return from the United States.

The White House said today that President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill had reached "complete understanding" in the joint planning for present and future military and naval operations during the British leader's visit of little more than three weeks in this country.

A Tokyo broadcast, quoting dispatches dated Jan. 15, with the Japanese forces on the Bataan peninsula, Luzon Island, declared U. S. Army defenders of the Philippines are in a general retreat toward the coast of Manila Bay, apparently hoping to find shelter on Corregidor Island.

The War Department at Washington gave no indication of responsibility to bear for the reported American threat and said it was not aware of any Japanese numbers being established.

From Chungking, a Chinese army commander declared all American missionaries on Hainan Island, off the south coast of China, have been slain by Japanese forces after the outbreak of war in the Pacific.

Tokyo propaganda broadcasts claimed that one corner of Gen. MacArthur's lines has been broken by enemy forces. But Tokyo conceded the strength of the American-Philippine lines which were said to be reorganized "in a new manner."

The Japanese also claimed that landings on the southern flank of Gen. MacArthur's lines from the rear.

The communiques also said that "many reports reaching Gen. MacArthur's headquarters from his occupied areas indicate the enemy is systematically looting and devastating the entire countryside."

The prospect that these reported raids on both Amboina and Balikh Papua were the forerunners of new invasions was met last on the Dutch East Indies, where it has been said that 800 miles above the island of Ternate, a Japanese heavy cruiser and other ships were observed by Dutch bombers.

Auto Industry Gets Huge U. S. Contracts

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—The War Department announced Friday night it had entered contracts with the automobile industry for $1,500,000,000 worth of military supplies since the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7, 1941.

Production already has been started on many of the orders placed, according to an announcement by Robert P. Patterson, Under secretary of War.

Dealers Building Up Used Car, Service Departments

Local dealers in the sale of automobiles are "making the best" of the situation on sales of new cars by building up the service and used car departments, according to statements made by four men connected with the industry upon being interviewed today by a Herald reporter.

W. A. Morrison, vice-president and manager of Strickland Motor Co., stated that his firm which bought the first 1942 dealer tag in Seminole County, has faith in the automobile business in Sanford and that its service department is "well-stocked with auto parts."

"We have hired additional mechanics to work on cars and keep them in top shape," he continued. "Our used car lot is also well-stocked and we are working in accordance with the local reconditioning board."

"It is tough on dealers in one respect," said George Altman of the Altman Chevrolet Co., "but we are willing to do anything to help win the war. When the war is over, our company will still be in business, serving the Sanford public. Our mechanics are well trained and experienced in their field."

Floyd A. Palmer, sales manager of Wright Bros. Co., believes that "now more than ever people must take care of their cars. Particular attention should be paid when getting the usual check-up with gasoline purchases. Our mechanics are prepared to keep automobiles mechanically in working order and good shape. Let's keep the old cars rolling to keep out our flying."

"Used cars will become the business of our company," promised C. H. Winn, salesman of the Sanford Truck Co. "Service departments of the various companies are prepared to re-condition old cars in compliance with all national rules and regulations."

Reds Say Nazis Are Bleeding To Death In Russia

The Red army is reported widening the breach between German lines on the Moscow front despite heavy German counter-attacks, the southern front, the Soviets reported direct action against the defense forces at Tanager and Kharkov.

Farmers are moving back into the captured territory to make ready for spring planting. Russian dispatches said last night that the Imperialist Nazi front was bleeding to death in the snowy vastness of Russia, under the hammer of specially equipped Siberian "ghost troops" attacking its flanks, and that the German southern strongholds of Kharkov and Tanager were under point-blank Red artillery fire.

"The German armies are now in exactly the same position the Russians were last fall," one military commentator said. "They are on the defensive, trying to protect a 1,000 mile front until Spring."

"The Russians, holding the initiative, can now hit them where they choose."

"These ghost troops trail ski-mounted cannon, mine-thrusters, and supplies, and are only part of a great reservoir of troops trained for just what they have been doing—"entireling and annihilating"—the Russians said.

Nelson Doesn't Know Amount Of Salary

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Donald M. Nelson, a chairman of the new War Production Board, took on the second most important job in the country—topped only by President Roosevelt—and forgot to ask about salary.

He resigned Friday as executive vice president of Sears, Roebuck, surrendering a 970,000-a-year income. Asked what his pay would be in the new job, Mr. Nelson was stumped. "I forgot to ask," he confessed.

At the White House, officials said they presumed he would draw about $10,000 a year. It was expected the President would write Nelson a letter formally notifying him of his appointment and specifying his salary.

In this way, the council will attempt to cut the links in the county blackout setup. Mr. Peterson added. He added, "It has been indicated that the next blackout here will come as a surprise in order to test further the arrangements made by the local council as to the success or failure of the test."

The Medical Department of the Navy Hospital Center, San Francisco, California, is being transferred to the new hospital building at this time.

Sanford Man In Hawaii Says Fliers Are Amused By Japanese Broadcast

"Our principal amusement is listening to the incredible propaganda broadcast by the Japanese radio to their people," wrote Jennings Hurt from Hickam Field, Hawaii, in a recent letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hurt. Included in the letter which was sent by clipper was a clipping from a Honolulu paper that the United States Post Office was making a special rate for clipper mail to men in the armed services.

Of the short war broadcasts which the fliers "pick up" in their barracks the Sanford boy wrote, "One commentator said 'Soldiers in Hawaii are being principally on Pineapple. It is impossible for the United States to get food to them.' We chuckled when we heard this because we fellows just got a new Pineapple cook and the food is better than ever."

The clipping concerning mail made by the Post Office ruling permit the personnel of armed services to send clipper letters to the mainland for six cents a half-ounce instead of the 50 cents rate. Clipper letters from the mainland addressed in armed service personnel may carry the same special effective of one-cent. Albert T. Line, postmaster.

Nations Are Asked To Cut Axis Ties

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Columbia, Mexico and Venezuela Friday formally asked the Pan-American nations to cut their diplomatic ties with the Axis to bolster the allied States' war effort, and there were indications that reluctant Argentina may swing into line.

Aside from Argentina's opposition to any "non-belligerent" action, the other obstacles to complete accord in the foreign ministers' conference here appeared to have been removed.

Tokyo Asserts Troops Are Only 50 Miles Away From Stronghold After Attack

70 Nippon Planes Raid Malaya Base

Invaders Strike At Burma; American Pilots Fight Back

An official Tokyo broadcast today asserted Japan's invasion armies had broken through the Australian lines in the Batu-Pahat sector, only 50 miles northwest of Singapore. It was apparent that a crisis is near in the fate of Britain's $100,000,000 stronghold.

A major battle for Singapore is developing as the British and Japanese forces have gained a foothold on the south bank of the Muar River, 200 miles north of Johore Strait. The POW mall line has been reinforced by Singapore.

Other Nipponese planes are striking into British-occupied Malaya and British troops are meeting the invaders at Malacca, 145 miles north of Bangkok. A shipment of 400 prisoners arrived at Calcutta today.

Sixty enemy planes raided Singapore, leaving about 150 dead.

The Japanese still had superiority in tanks and aircraft, it was said, though there were signs that the British were averting a complete measure of air support.

British bombers struck hard against the Japanese operations at base at Malacca, Malacca, on the peninsula of Kedah state, and heavily assaulted and sank a number of invading barges at Sumatran Lingat, 20 miles north of the town of Malacca.

This morning the aerial combat was extended with an attack by British warplanes in "large force"—this was the term used by the British command staff on Japanese transport and rolling stock in the Tampun area in the northeast of Malacca.

The British line across southern Malaya is now only 100 miles long, and it was pointed out in Singapore that the defenders still had more men than were able to send, being patrols in the front lines.

This alone a circumstance that followed weeks of defensive withdrawals, indicated a "turning of the tide" in the Malayan campaign.

Camellia Show Will Be Staged Sunday, Monday

A bronze medal will be awarded to the amateur receiving the largest number of points and, likewise, a bronze medal to the commercial grower receiving the largest number of points.

This Camellia Show is the first of several flower shows to be sponsored by the Mead Botanical Garden during the present season. There will be an Amaryllis Show, a Hemerocallis Show, and the Florida State Flower Show, the latter being held early in March.
