

Florida - Oregon, Georgia And Tech Games Feature Saturday Menu In South

By Gordon Pulliam International News Service Staff Correspondent. ATLANTA, Dec. 4.—Although the Green Wave of Tulane has the championship tucked safely away and has closed its campaign for the year, the Southland will be treated to a variegated gridiron menu Saturday as the curtain is rung down on the 1929 season.

COAST LINE BOYS DROP ONE-SIDED CONTEST, 24 TO 8

Epps Stars For Professional Men With Four Circuit Clouts before a bunch of empty bleacher seats which were rocked by a cold wind from across the lake, and with a fire on both sides to keep the players warm, the Professional men took the Atlantic Coast Line into camp last night by the score of 24 to 8. This was the legning of the second half schedule.

The Professional Men led from the very start and were never in danger, as Rucke, kept the Coast Line's eleven hits well scattered, while his teammates were collecting a total of 26 singles off Standifer.

Another record was broken when Epps for the Professional Men, banged out four home runs out of five times at bat. M. Moye was the home-run hitter for the Atlantic Coast Line with two circuit smashes.

Boyle furnished a bit of comedy when he hit a three bagger and had so much steam by the time he reached third that he was unable to stop until half of the wire screen on the side lines and was tagged before he could get back to the bag.

Neither side could muster a full team. BOX SCORE. PROFESSIONAL MEN AB R H E. Spencer, CF 6 2 2 3. Buidick, 3B 5 3 2 2. Watson, C 6 3 3 2. Cantwell, LS 6 5 4 4. Epps, 1B 5 4 4 4. Boyd, RS 6 0 2 2. Gardner, RS 6 2 2 2. Nick, LF 5 3 3 3. Rucker, P 5 2 2 2.

FASHIONS for the SMART WOMAN. We are all great ladies in these days of formal elegance for evening. The moire frock on the left exhibits the new—decadent—fashion—white treatment, the high waistline, with soft draping above, and the uncut hemline, which has reached new lengths and ripples gracefully. As the hemlines of our frocks descend, wrap become briefer. On the right is a wrap in the new approved length, with fan-shaped shirring. House Guests Are Entertained Monday

Entertaining in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Blount and Mrs. Jack Hewitt of Waynesboro, Ga., who are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Purden at their home on the Paola Road, Mr. and Mrs. George Weinstein were host at a dance given on Monday evening at the Legion Hut, on the Lake Front.

Dancing was enjoyed by the guests until a late hour when refreshments were served. Music was furnished by the "Three Black Crows." The rooms used for dancing were decorated for the occasion in a red and green color scheme.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John A. Blount, and Mrs. Jack Hewitt, honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wight, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rawson, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Purden, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Scott, Mrs. R. E. Tolar, John A. Blount Jr., and J. Hugh Tillis.

Society Is Wearing

Miss Margaret Dunne, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dunne, made her recent bow to society at the dance given for her by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Garvan at the Ritz.

Miss Dunne had probably one of the largest coming-out parties of the season, the number of the guests running over a thousand.

Like all of the girls in her set, Miss Dunne is busy with parties at the moment. She comes of an literary family, both her brilliant father and one of her talented brothers writing. One wonders if she will make a mark in the group.

Margaret Dunne is tall and slender enough to wear successfully the skirts of new length. Witness the accompanying picture. The light coat of shorter length offers an interesting contrast to her dark frock.

Mrs. Thrasher Gives Party On Wednesday

The members of the Fortnightly Club and those of the Afternoon Tea Duplicate Club were complimented with a bridge party given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. D. L. Thrasher at her home on Grandview Avenue.

After several hours of play, which concluded with scores of prizes, handmade tea aprons, were presented to Mrs. T. L. Damas and Mrs. H. M. Papworth, members of the Afternoon Tea Duplicate Club, and Mrs. W. J. Thompson and Mrs. H. B. Lewis, members of the Fortnightly Club.

Yellow and green were the predominating colors used for decorating the rooms where the tables were spread for play. Quantities of Chinese snowflakes, white star jasmine and stollia were arranged in baskets in various places about the room to develop the chosen color motif.

Late in the afternoon a salacourse was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. E. Brouse, Mrs. J. C. Benson, Mrs. R. A. Newman and Mrs. F. E. Rouchillat. Those present were: Mrs. H. M. Pap-particular venire to be deposited in small amounts which they had forgotten, and which we could not recall to their mind. In this state of the circumstances, we were forced to call the receivers of the various banks, as witnesses, and to take testimony, oral and documentary (consisting of the loose-leaf individual depositor records in most cases), showing that particular jurors were depositors and therefore disqualified. We were also forced to introduce similar testimony to show that Highlands Bank and Trust Company was indebted to other banks, and that such other banks were indebted to other banks, and so on almost indefinitely. As an example of the practical absurdity of the procedure, take certain accounts introduced, one juror had a deposit of 3 cents in Highlands Bank & Trust Company, which had been carried on a current deposit since July 1934; another juror had 6 cents for a similar period; another 29 cents, another 31 cents, another 92 cents, and many others between those figures, those being some that I can recall now; we must have introduced twenty such exhibits, and on one of the exhibits, numerous names had been furnished. We were forced to examine the records of the bank as to Customers Drafts, Cashiers Checks, Christmas Savings Accounts, Savings Accounts, Individual deposits, salaries due, and in fact, were required to analyze as to each tentative juror, the liabilities of each bank involved.
