

A Disappointing Tour

Why Do They Hide So Much?

By MARILYN GORDON

After a disappointing tour of two of Florida's State Prisons with an FTU Criminology Class, I can only ask why they made such an effort to hide more than they allowed you to see.

Lake Butler is a classification center. All males convicted of felonies are sent to Lake Butler for classifying before processing to one of Florida's correctional institutions. Six hundred men a month are processed.

Should you be a convicted felon in Florida, what fate awaits you? The judge is no longer able to sentence you to a particular prison. You are taken by your county to Lake Butler in the far northern end of the state. Prisons are put in the boonocks because taxpayers do not want to be reminded of the criminal.

You are taken into a receiving area from a garage whose doors are controlled by the tower. There surrounded by bars and glass walls you will receive a thorough search or as the men refer to it, a shake-down. If you have any personal property with you it too will be searched, taken from you and you will be given a receipt. You are made to shower in an open area, shave and receive a haircut. Then you are given a number, seen by an admitting clerk, and a medical technician for preliminary physical examination. On the second day you are returned to the receiving center to be fingerprinted, photographed and given a thorough physical examination. On the third day your classification officer gives you a questionnaire to fill out. Questionnaires are then sent to former neighbors, employers, relatives, schools to verify what you have said. You are given psychological testing and vocational testing.

Dehumanizing Process

By now you have realized the dehumanizing process to which you are subjected. In all fairness, such dehumanization may be necessary for your mental survival.

You will spend six to eight weeks at Lake Butler. You will have little to occupy your mind when you are not being tested. There is an open area where prisoners congregate. Not much else to do except discuss crime with other inmates. Prisoners who are in the least way of learning better methods of committing a crime and, judging by the high rate of returns, I believe it.

Since the public group toured Raiford, let us send our imaginary felon there. You may be sent either to minimum security or maximum security. Minimum security will house you in a formidable building referred to as "The Rock." Should you have been sent to maximum security you would have a cell to yourself. Many men ask for maximum security because of homosexuality, a rampant problem causing violence, gang rapes and murder.

The tour included a visit to death row and the electric chair — still formidable looking in spite of the fact electrical unit has been removed at least for the time being while the question of capital punishment is debated in the courts. Just as disturbing was the sight of the witness chairs for the execution, which it was said are in such demand there is always a long waiting list of those wishing to observe the electric chair in action.

"THEY'RE AGAINST IT!" The people directly involved with the death house although they said they were not allowed to state their opinions on capital punishment made it clear that they were against it.

Our guide pointed out that usually the calmest one around at the time of execution is the one going to the chair. The classification officer told us 60 per cent of their admissions are drug-related. The warden at able to use the facilities. Everything has a long waiting list.

We were given a lengthy tour of greenhouses. I may not have seen much of the prison but did learn how to grow begonias.

When we asked why we were not allowed to see a cell block, we were informed of the danger. How could there be danger when the men are locked up? If the danger is so great, why were we allowed to walk among them on the grounds and the workhous?

At Lake Butler, the classification officer told us 60 per cent of their admissions are drug-related. The warden at Raiford told us 10 per cent. Somewhere between Lake Butler and Raiford 30 per cent were lost. We asked what was the percentage of blacks to white, and no one could even guess. Strange you should work in a place day after day and not notice, remark at Lake Butler.

ONLY 3 FOR STATE

There are five psychologists for the state. Three are at Lake Butler. One of them has a Bachelor's degree and the other has master's degrees. The psychology department at FTU was unaware you could call yourself a psychologist with a bachelor's degree. The psychologist we spoke with said with a caseload like that all they could do was listen or if a man got panicky, try to talk with him. That leaves two for the entire state. Now if Raiford alone has close to 3,000 men you figure how much rehabilitation a man will get.

Flim-Flam Operator Is At Work

By BILL SCOTT

Seminole County Det. Sgt. Tony Calangeo has arrested a county resident, principally elderly people, are being fleeced out of their savings by a flim-flam operator, who claims to be a bank examiner.

Det. Calangeo stated a Chuluota woman had her savings taken by the flim-flam artist, after she thought she was helping in the investigation of a supposedly crooked bank teller.

Calangeo stated the flim-flammer calls persons by phone telling them he is a bank examiner checking on a teller at one of the local banks, said to be stealing money from savings accounts.

Seeking help from his intended victims, the "examiner" asks that savings be withdrawn from the bank and tell no one.

When the unsuspecting person shows his money to the flim-flammer, he is told it must be checked for some reason at the office, leaving the owner waiting for his return.

The con-man never returns and the person has been swindled.

Robbers Bluffed By Store Manager

By BILL SCOTT

Two long-haired, would-be robbers got more than they bargained for Tuesday night when they tried to hold up a Handy food store at Upsala Road and SR 46 west of Sanford. Preston Sechrist, store manager, said he became angry when the pair came into the store and one drew a .38 caliber revolver and pointed it at him.

"Either shoot me or get out!" yelled Sechrist to the surprised pair. The two men chose to leave and, according to the storekeeper, they left on foot on SR 15 toward Lake Monroe.

County authorities were called but the pair had faded into the woods.

Sechrist told The Herald he "just got angry when I saw one of the men place his hand, with the pistol, on the counter and point. I might have been shot, but I just didn't think about that," Sechrist added.

The men were described as being about 23 years of age, both wearing blue jeans.

In other county crime news, Police Chief Walter J. Bachelor, of North Orlando, said his department is working to unravel the mystery of who entered the home of village Councilman Charles Rowell, Algiers Place, and removed cash and checks.

Chief Bachelor stated $65 in cash, $65 in coins and $1,500 in checks were stolen by someone who was familiar with the home.

Rowell discovered his loss when he came home from working at the Fiesta Cocktail Lounge.

Courthouse Project Aide Gets Pay Hike

By ANN SIECZKOWSKI

Richard N. Shea, county project representative (clerk of works) for the $4 million courthouse, was voted a $150-a-month increase in salary by County Commission Tuesday following a discussion with Richard Matz, architect.

Shea was being paid $850 plus eight per cent reserve for insurance and taxes. He is requesting an increase to $1,000 per month plus the eight per cent reserve, since it appears the court house contract will exceed the original time for completion by as much as five months.

Commissioner Sidney Vihlen said he "hates to see an employee of a private concern be given a bigger percentage raise than the county employees receive."

Commission Chairman Greg Drummond said "This man was less expendable — the county employees are, of course, valuable, but more expendable. If we have to get a different clerk of works, I will resign as project chairman of that mess out there," Drummond said.

Prisoner's Plaint Is Probed By State

O. H. (Bill) Eaton, assistant state's attorney, said today an investigation into accusations of "cruel and barbaric treatment" made by a prisoner while incarcerated in the county jail is underway by the state attorney's office but there are no present plans to call for a grand jury probe.

"Whether the grand jury will be called to investigate charges made by Thomas Todd, in a letter to the Supreme Court, will depend on what our investigation shows," Eaton added.

Meantime, Sheriff John Polk today advised the Herald he would welcome an investigation by the grand jury.

Todd, arrested on a rape charge, later dropped by the state, wrote to the Supreme Court, telling of his alleged mistreatment while incarcerated in the county jail's solitary confinement cell.

A copy of the letter was forwarded to Circuit Court Judge Dominic Salfi by the Court. Salfi Tuesday discussed the letter's contents with Todd, who is serving a sentence for aggravated assault.

Todd wrote there are no sanitary facilities in the cell and he was required to remain naked for several days. He was placed in the solitary cell after alleged misconduct with another prisoner.

When pressed for a specific charge of alleged brutality, Todd told Judge Salfi, "Well, we don't get fresh fruit, milk and vegetables."

Judge Salfi advised Todd the court would turn the matter over to the state attorney for possible investigation by the grand jury.

What's A Kid Supposed To Do?

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — Three teen-agers trying to make a little pocket money by mowing lawns after school now face 30 days in the pokey and criminal records because they failed to purchase city identification cards.

Next Monday Pershing "Kip" Williams Jr., Rick Sigler and Danny Walters are scheduled to appear in Hollywood Municipal Court for violating Hollywood's ID law. If convicted, each of the 17-year-old high schoolers can receive a maximum penalty of 30 days in jail and a $500 fine.

The boys, all from neighboring Miami, ran afoul with the law while ringing doorbells April 12. A police cruiser pulled up to their lawnmower laden auto and the officer asked if they had the necessary credentials which cost about $2.50.

"Kip" Williams replied, "We said 'No,' and he said 'You're under arrest.'"

"We couldn't help but smile because it was such a ridiculous thing," he said.

The smiles quickly disappeared as the officer ordered the teens to spread eagle against the car for frisking and then placed them in the cruiser while he searched their auto.

Later a tow truck hauled Williams' auto off to the pound while the young suspects were hustled off to jail.

After being mugged and fingerprinted, the three were released on $55 bond. The parents were perplexed.

"I'm bewildered about the whole thing," said Pershing Williams Sr. "The police should have at least told them about the law and ordered them to beat it. Then, if they came back, okay, run them in. But to treat them like big-time criminals..."

Young Williams says he and his pals are considering retaining a lawyer to prevent a permanent police record.

"They've already got our fingerprints and photographs," the youth said. "That's not going to help us later on when we go looking for jobs. You just check the box which asks if you've ever been arrested and that's it. They don't even give you a chance to explain."

"We were just doing it for extra money because we didn't want to ask our parents for money," the Norland High senior explained.

Meanwhile, Hollywood police defended the ID law, noting, "door to door solicitation is an excellent cover for potential burglars."

THE CHANGING SCENE OF SANFORD

Sanford's "face" is slowly changing as some old buildings disappear and new ones arise. To the top left is the new Bram Tower apartments, slated to open in September. To the right center is the new Seminole County courthouse, also slated to open in September.

Just below the courthouse is the new breakwater installed at the entrance of the west basin of the marina. New docks are being installed in the west basin by the dredge shown.

Sheriff Appeals To Citizens Aid Asked To Halt Crime

Sheriff John Polk Tuesday called on citizens for help in stamping out the epidemic of burglaries that is rampant, primarily in the southern part of the county.

Speaking at the Sanford Optimist Club's luncheon as a part of "Respect the Law Week," Sheriff Polk disclosed there had been 29 break-ins during the past weekend.

"We're not proud of this but law enforcement also needs education programs and public involvement," he said.

Some of the break-ins could have been prevented if citizens would help, he added.

"If you see a strange car in a neighbor's yard, call us," Polk requested. He stated burglars are going into houses and driveways and citizens seeing these strange cars do not want to become involved.

"The apathy of the people toward law enforcement is helping to create this problem," Polk added.

Homeowners are paying large real estate taxes and the sheriff's department cannot afford to provide the same type of protection that is available in the city, he explained.

"If more than one call is received by the sheriff's dispatcher, the one considered most serious is handled first," the sheriff said.

Commenting on the expected effect that Article Five, state judicial reform measure approved in March by a vote of the people, will have on the Seminole county system, Polk stated he asked Gov. Reubin Askew to veto the measure of groups and schools.

"We'll be dead in this county come Jan. 1."

He explained there is only one county judge to handle the case load coming in from all the justices of the peace. "When you add the speedy trial requests, which require a person must be tried within 30 days, you can understand more the situation," he added.

The sheriff explained the court change will require all juvenile cases be handled by a circuit judge.

Commenting on the county drug problem, Polk said a move is underway to establish a county-wide drug council with representatives from civic groups and schools.

Still on the narcotic problem, the sheriff disclosed that a marijuana cigarette was found recently on the Pine Crest Elementary School grounds and "gentlemen, that is a school for grades first, second and third, which would indicate the seriousness of this problem."

Four Defendants Enter Guilty Plea

By MARION BETHEA

One of the defendants in the December drug "bust" shot at the K-Mart shopping center, pleaded guilty to a lesser offense before Circuit Judge Dominic Salfi yesterday.

Rickey LaValley, 21, Orlando, charged with being criminal offender having a firearm and aggravated assault, pleaded guilty to attempted aggravated assault, a lesser offense of the second count of the information.

LaValley was remanded to custody and will be sentenced on May 2. Judge Salfi said he would do a presentence investigation (PSI) himself.

Assistant State Attorney Newman Brock nolle prossed (dropped) the first count of the information.

In another "bust," one of the men arrested in connection with a large scale county-wide theft ring, which was broken in January, pleaded guilty as charged yesterday. The ring had been in operation for three years and specialized in robbery of homes, vehicles and business establishments.

James P. Spurlock, 33, of 304 Warren Street, Longwood, charged with buying, aiding, receiving, concealing stolen property, pleaded guilty on May 2. The defendant was remanded to custody and a PSI ordered. The state nolle prossed another case in which Spurlock faced the same charges because of the negotiated plea.

In other pleas entered before Judge Salfi, Steven Cox, charged with breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony, pleaded guilty to the lesser offense of breaking and entering with intent to commit a misdemeanor. A PSI was ordered and the defendant remanded to custody.

Wayne Jarvis, charged on a three-count information with breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony, grand larceny and auto theft, in a negotiated plea, pleaded guilty to count three, auto theft. The state nolle prossed the other two counts. Jarvis is under PSI and in custody.

Astronauts Shoot Pictures Of Moon

By HOWARD BENEDICT
SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — The Apollo 16 astronaut, firmly in the grip of lunar gravity, snapped pictures of their cratered target today and sped on toward an afternoon orbit of the moon.

The problems of flaking paint, a locked guidance system, plumbing troubles, a locking dock latch and a faulty radio antenna were behind them and their spaceship was running smoothly.

John W. Young, Charles M. Duke Jr. and Thomas K. Mattingly II awoke an hour early today to begin their own countdown for the engine-firing that would thrust them into orbit to start six days of scientific adventure in the vicinity of the moon.

Commiss Overrun Allies

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnam's three-week-old offensive scored today in coastal Binh Dinh Province east of the central highlands as Communist forces overran a South Vietnamese battalion headquarters and captured the nearby district town of Hoi An.

It was the first major success for the central command of the offensive, in which the North Vietnamese previously have taken a 10-mile strip below the demilitarized zone and captured two district towns near the Cambodian border north of Saigon.

The defender of Hoi An, 300 miles northeast of Saigon, and Landing Zone Orange is the 18th government military position given up. Landing Zone Pory, just south of Hoi An, was abandoned under pressure two days ago, field reports said.

Three American advisers were evacuated by helicopter from Hoi An and Orange. One of them was slightly wounded.

A battalion of South Vietnamese troops from the 22nd Division fled from Orange under heavy fire. "They broke up and ran," said one field report.

In the air war, meanwhile, U.S. fighter-bombers returned in force to North Vietnam's skies after a two-day curtailment and flew between 100 and 150 strikes against fuel and supply depots in the southern panhandle.

The planes stayed away from the Hanoi-Haiphong heartland for the third straight day. U.S. military sources said. Despite denials from Washington, sources in Saigon say President Nixon has put the area above the 20th parallel off limits to American bombers.

U.S. military sources said that Hanoi will wind down its offensive in the South.

In the central highlands to the west of Hoi An, North Vietnamese forces attacked two border ranger camps 7 miles from the Laotian frontier and 19 miles apart.

More than 300 rounds hit the Dak Pek camp, and the enemy followed up with a ground assault. Initial reports said more than 120 North Vietnamese troops died in the frontal assault, while four government defenders were killed.

There were no obvious signs of the attack against the second camp, Dak Seang.

Longwood Facing Water Rationing

By DONNA ESTES

LONGWOOD — Strict rules and regulations on water consumption will be set forth by the city council Thursday night to combat the current shortage being seen in the municipality.

City Supt. Ralph Fisher, Mayor Kenneth Brown and Councilman Eugene Jaques, William Kloky, Agnes Weber and E. E. Williamson. Toole said he foresaw no reason why the loan of some $300,000 for the improvement would be refused and promised a definite answer in time for Thursday night's council meeting.

The improvements recommended by Palm include ground storage and aeration, deep well, high service pump, equipment and pump building, and the main plant with additional ground storage and aeration.

The engineer estimated four months as the absolute minimum time needed to complete all the improvements.

Police Radar In Operation

NORTH ORLANDO — Police Chief Walter Bachelor has advised that city police will be operating radar units this week in the following locations: SR 434, which Chief Bachelor said is a continuing problem with motorists driving 75 mph; Sherry Avenue, North Fairview Avenue and South Cortez Avenue.

According to Chief Bachelor, the locations of the radar operations will be changed weekly, and citizens will be advised.

Chief Bachelor emphasized the police department will attempt to slow down speeders and is not operating speed traps.

Altamonte Flexing, Approves Annexing

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — The municipality is again extending its territorial limits with the approval by City Council yesterday, upon first reading, of an annexation ordinance, and authorization for the city attorney to prepare another.

Receiving the stamp of approval on the first reading is the annexation of the Lake Destiny tract located south of Spring Lake Hills, west of Wynmore Road. The property, being developed by Grand Hotel Company, Point Clear, Ala., is comprised of 21 acres.

City Attorney S. J. Davis was authorized to prepare an ordinance annexing 22 additional acres at Spanish Trace Apartments.

Developers have indicated they will apply for building permits within two months. Mayor Lawrence Swofford envisions no traffic problem, since the development is adjacent to the Matland Boulevard interchange.

Councilman Thomas Radloff quipped that Mayor Swofford had "pushed harder for the city hall since you became a full time mayor."

Swofford facetiously retorted, "Well, you don't talk to people about 125 million (in developments) in a rat hole."

The development, to be known as Lake Destiny

Apartments, will feature a $500,000 club house as well as dock facilities for residents of the 24-unit complex. The two-story buildings will be terraced since the land flows toward the lake.

While growing with annexations, city officials were also jubilant over the ground breaking yesterday for the new City Hall.

Councilman Thomas Radloff quipped that Mayor Swofford had "pushed harder for the city hall since you became a full time mayor."

Swofford facetiously retorted, "Well, you don't talk to people about 125 million (in developments) in a rat hole."

Drummond Attacks Pollution

Back from his trip to Washington last week, County Commission Chairman Greg Drummond attacked the problem of pollution control restrictions.

"We should address ourselves to more ecological control. We can't expect a guarantee against pollution. We are at the mercy of Mother Nature. It would behoove us to consider the standards dependent upon the end results desired."

County Engineer William Bush said there are about 200 miles of existing dirt roads in the county which need almost perpetual maintenance and these are greater problems than the construction problems.

Drummond said the design should be considered to prevent pollution, that the roads are not required to handle four to 4 1/2 inches of rain at a time. One solution could be consideration of ditches by the developers.

"Do we look for what is simplest or most convenient — or do we look for a reasonable method of solution — establish what constitutes a reasonable effort?" Drummond asked.

County Planner David Farr, Road Supt. J. C. Lavender, Pollution Control Officer J. Langley Adair, Bush and the Seminole Zoological Society, and Lonnie Ryder, administrative assistant in the State Division of Recreation and Parks, who came here through the efforts of State Rep. Eugene Moody.

After viewing the plans and touring the site, which has been designated for a county park, the state official said he was impressed and pleasantly surprised at the potential. He promised to take up the matter of state aid available with his staff on returning to Tallahassee.

According to Nelson, Ryder is of the opinion that as planned at least 80 per cent of the park should be eligible for state and federal funding, and possibly 100 per cent may qualify if the animal exhibit area is included.

Ryder offered to assist Nelson in filling out application forms for funding, and which if they are accepted there is a waiting period of 45-60 days before funds become available.

The funds would be available through the Land and Water Conservation Act which has made federal funds, matched locally, available for such things as dockage, picnic areas, water and sewer systems and educational centers.

Nelson said the Zoological Society will need at least $250,000 to begin the project with the approval by the County Board. At present $25,000 has been received in membership and donations and there is an additional special escrow by the city to aid with the move. The more money raised locally the more that can be done.

Some of the possible advantages of continuing under the old legislation, 59-1861, according to Marsee, are that it is arguably "but not conclusively so," more comprehensive than the new Florida statute 125.01 as to the types of districts which may be created.

The law lists among districts which may be created — sewer, community parks, community libraries. While F.S. 125.01 fails to list these districts, it does state that the county may "provide" libraries, parks, etc. Marsee remarked, "But, does 'provide' mean the county may create a district for the same? Are these services essentially their conclusions are not clear."

Adding to the confusion, 59-1861 provides the county may appoint "boards of trustees" to exercise authority in its behalf, while F.S. 125.01 requires that the Board of County Commissioners be the governing body of the newly created district. Thus, only an advisory board would be available under 125.01.

State, U. S. Port Purchases Sewer Package

By BILL SCOTT
Seminole County Port Authority (SCOPA) voted to spend $30,000 for the purchase of a package sewer disposal plant for the Port of Sanford's operation.

The action came after SCOPA members discussed the need for the sewer service in order to allow the port area to develop along an industrial corridor.

Another alternative to the proposed sewer disposal plant was to be used only for the specific purposes for which it was intended.

Matching funds from the state may be available for the proposed plant.

Plans for the zoo and possible financial aid were discussed by Clifford Nelson, president of the Seminole Zoological Society, and Lonnie Ryder, administrative assistant in the State Division of Recreation and Parks, who came here through the efforts of State Rep. Eugene Moody.

After viewing the plans and touring the site, which has been designated for a county park, the state official said he was impressed and pleasantly surprised at the potential. He promised to take up the matter of state aid available with his staff on returning to Tallahassee.

Nelson said the Zoological Society will need at least $250,000 to begin the project with the approval by the County Board. At present $25,000 has been received in membership and donations and there is an additional special escrow by the city to aid with the move. The more money raised locally the more that can be done.

Some of the possible advantages of continuing under the old legislation, 59-1861, according to Marsee, are that it is arguably "but not conclusively so," more comprehensive than the new Florida statute 125.01 as to the types of districts which may be created.

The law lists among districts which may be created — sewer, community parks, community libraries. While F.S. 125.01 fails to list these districts, it does state that the county may "provide" libraries, parks, etc. Marsee remarked, "But, does 'provide' mean the county may create a district for the same? Are these services essentially their conclusions are not clear."

Adding to the confusion, 59-1861 provides the county may appoint "boards of trustees" to exercise authority in its behalf, while F.S. 125.01 requires that the Board of County Commissioners be the governing body of the newly created district. Thus, only an advisory board would be available under 125.01.

Special District Act Eyed

By ANN SIECZKOWSKI
Creation of special purpose districts was the subject of discussion by the County Commission.

English Estates Association has requested that a lighting district be formed. The county attorney was instructed to investigate procedures and report to the board.

Howard Marsee, assistant county attorney, said there presently exists in Seminole County two enabling acts for the creation of special purpose districts — one being a general law, Florida Statutes 5, 125.01, and the other being special act 59-1861.

"The co-existence of two enabling acts creates a great deal of confusion, he said, and a more precise description, "Marsee said," especially as related to the exact power of the Board of County Commissioners and its relation to the establishment procedures."

"A careful consideration of the disadvantages and advantages of continuing under the old legislation, 59-1861, according to Marsee, are that it is arguably "but not conclusively so," more comprehensive than the new Florida statute 125.01 as to the types of districts which may be created.

The law lists among districts which may be created — sewer, community parks, community libraries. While F.S. 125.01 fails to list these districts, it does state that the county may "provide" libraries, parks, etc. Marsee remarked, "But, does 'provide' mean the county may create a district for the same? Port Purchases Sewer Package

M. L. Raborn Jr. moved to purchase the package plant and accepted the following amendments by James Wagner: County Commission to remove the port from the industrial operators at the port.

Another alternative to the proposed sewer disposal plant was to be used only for the specific purposes for which it was intended.

Matching funds from the state may be available for the proposed plant.

Plans for the zoo and possible financial aid were discussed by Clifford Nelson, president of the Seminole Zoological Society, and Lonnie Ryder, administrative assistant in the State Division of Recreation and Parks, who came here through the efforts of State Rep. Eugene Moody.

After viewing the plans and touring the site, which has been designated for a county park, the state official said he was impressed and pleasantly surprised at the potential. He promised to take up the matter of state aid available with his staff on returning to Tallahassee.

According to Nelson, Ryder is of the opinion that as planned at least 80 per cent of the park should be eligible for state and federal funding, and possibly 100 per cent may qualify if the animal exhibit area is included.

Ryder offered to assist Nelson in filling out application forms for funding, and which if they are accepted there is a waiting period of 45-60 days before funds become available.

The funds would be available through the Land and Water Conservation Act which has made federal funds, matched locally, available for such things as dockage, picnic areas, water and sewer systems and educational centers.

Nelson said the Zoological Society will need at least $250,000 to begin the project with the approval by the County Board. At present $25,000 has been received in membership and donations and there is an additional special escrow by the city to aid with the move. The more money raised locally the more that can be done.

Chiles - Askew: The New Democrats

It may not be as obvious as the nose on your face but it is as certain as the five o'clock shadow which creeps over your countenance as day ends that a truly new kind of Democrat is being born.

Out of the muck of smoke-filled rooms and into the light of the thousands of Main Streets which fill the cities and towns is coming this rebirth.

Right now the current fashion of "populism" may sort of take the fancy of political observers. And this is, from any viewpoint, a matter of political development which portends symptoms which threaten harm to both of the major political parties.

In this welcome unfolding there are two youngish Floridians who have played stellar roles. One, of course, is the informed and bold Gov. Reubin Askew. The other is United States Senator Lawton Chiles of Lakeland, whose person-to-person walking campaign sent him to Washington where already he has distinguished himself.

Both have come up through local political officeholding. Neither are carbon-copies of the other. But no fair-minded Floridian can fail to note that these two high officeholders have proven their devotion to the public good.

It is this common objective that makes what they have to say worthy of much more than passing notice. Neither is, happily, involved in seeking votes to retain his office in this presidential election year when personal animosity often blurs keen vision.

Last week over in Tampa the Democrats held a dinner. It was this event where what the two distinguished Floridians had to say provided some clues to the thinking of the new Democrat.

Are they disregarding what the voters are saying in the primaries as Gov. George A. Wallace and Senator George McGovern keep rolling up sizeable pluralities and presenting to the nation the depth of the "protest" which exists? Not at all!

Governor Askew stated: "We must regard the coalition of protest not as a threat, but an opportunity — an opportunity for reform of the tired old system which for years has been thwarting everybody, regardless of color, class, party or persuasion."

With characteristic candor, Askew admitted

"Gaper" Roadblocks Everywhere

By F. RICHARD CICONE Associated Press Writer CHICAGO (AP) — A recent study showed the Chicago driver sits in traffic jams longer than motorists in any other city.

Besides the usual reason — red lights, accidents and bad weather — there are a number of phenomena that exist with increasing irritation on all expressways.

They include the gaper's block. This phenomenon occurs with frustrating frequency in Chicago. It usually occurs when the driver is already late for work or dinner but the lanes are open and traffic is slipping right along.

Suddenly, the lines begin to slow. The weather is perfect, the motorist reasons, and the road repairs were completed last year. It must be a bad accident or a temporary delay.

A half-hour and a quarter mile later, the motorist reaches a point where two cars with nicked fenders are parked on the apron. A police car is behind them and the blue light is attracting papers.

Sometimes, there is nothing. A quick glance at the traffic light shows the driver knows that the fender-bender occurred in the opposite lanes.

Then there is the crawling cop. The crawling cop usually drives in the center lane at 45 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

Only bold motorists positive their speedometers are accurate dare pass the patrol. For everyone who passes, three hesitate. Before long the lanes are backed up and somewhere a mile back and somewhere a mile back the traffic can be seen to be so bad at 10 p.m.

Finally, the crawling cop slips into an exit ramp and those bringing up the rear at 30 miles an hour never know why they were a half-hour late getting home.

Finally, there is the exact change toll booth dilemma. There is first of all the feeling of worthlessness that overwhelms the driver who pulls up to the exact change booth and discovers he has no exact change. This leads to his sheepish appearance in front of a line of glowing chrome grills as he walks across to the manned booths.

Secondly, there is the driver who didn't know he was heading for the exact change booth and makes a sudden 90-degree sweep across six lanes.

The most mind-boggling of the toll booth dilemmas is the driver who lets his child fling the change from the back window. Invariably he winds up crawling under the car looking for the dimes that didn't hit the basket.

Somebody had the idea these party leaders ought to pool their valuable lists of key workers and get these people working at full tilt for the Muskie slates with all those fancy names. There was quick agreement on pooling. But so far not a single list has come out of anybody's side pocket. With three or four guys running for governor next time, to give with the lists would be like the Dallas Cowboys handing the Miami Dolphins their game plan on Super Bowl Day.

One Bostonian Democrat thinks the pooling might have worked if the Muskie managers had asked that the crucial lists be given to an out-of-state Muskie man to hold in political escrow.

They could have told the guys here. Look, when it's over, you'll get your lists back. We'll send our man back to Nebraska, put him on a tractor, and you'll never hear of him again.

Since nothing so neat as that is happening, the big name types are bumping into each other. And saucy little rumors are afloat to the effect that the various gubernatorial aspirants may be telling people to cast a "bullet vote."

In this case, with most of the name candidates on the 20-member at-large slate, that could mean casting all 20 votes for one man instead of spreading votes across the whole list.

You can hear the aspirant now, whispering to the voter: "Cast 20 for me. Pay it on."

It should not be imagined, of course, that the big names won't do some very useful work for the Muskie slate, especially Mayor White, with his command of city payrollers. One comment:

"If, on election day, you look at city hall and see the lights going out first on the eighth floor, then the seventh, the sixth, the fifth and so on, and see people pouring into the streets, you'll know the McGovern slates here are in for a tough time."

of 77 per cent under the 1950 amendments after a long period during which only minor adjustments had been made.

"Reluctantly, however, Mr. Nixon approved both increases because Congress attached them as legislative riders to measures which Mr. Nixon favored — like tax legislation," Cruikshank said, adding, "The record shows that the federal debt ceiling the administration desperately needed."

"This is a very transparent attempt by Mr. Nixon to take credit for Social Security increases he originally objected to," Cruikshank said, adding, "The record shows that Mr. Nixon's position in Social Security has remained unchanged over the years. His present position is in line with his strong opposition to meaningful Social Security increases earlier in his administration."

"Nixon has made a balance of his paper budget by unbalancing the budgets of 20 million older people."

In opposing a Social Security boost of more than 5 per cent, the President has ignored the advice of Congressman Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the powerful, tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, and other experts who say a 20 per cent Social Security increase can be granted without raising the Social Security tax rate.

This is possible, Cruikshank said, because the prestigious Social Security Advisory Council has found that present Social Security financing has resulted in a substantial cash surplus that by rights should go to Social Security beneficiaries.

"The proposal in the President's message to make Social Security 'inflation-proof,' as Mr. Nixon puts it, by tying Social Security benefits to future increases of 3 per cent or more in living costs over a year's time, would doom millions of elderly to permanent poverty," the senior citizens' spokesman said.

WASHINGTON — An upcoming United Nations conference on the human environment has already generated a kind of paper pollution all its own.

The June 5-16 meeting in Stockholm will attract delegations from some 100 nations. These delegations have already received five-pound bundles of documents comprising 800 pages of background, guidance and proposals that are to be discussed at the sessions in Sweden.

The documents are a condensation of some 12,000 pages of preparatory material churned out by the conference secretariat.

American voters this year and they are looking for "new faces, for new styles for political leadership," asserted the "walking" senator whose own experience showed him and many others that the direct approach is indeed, greatly wanted and effective.

Thus the next months of campaigning — and it will take place at every level — opens wide the doors for this concept of new Democrat politics to walk right in. Of course, the question is whether they will do so and if they will do so at the local level where it can be seen and appreciated.

The consequences of all this in paper are immense. Says one Boston politician:

"If you've got this huge wall you've always wanted to do something with, this would be it. Or, if you could get it plastered, it would make a great poncho."

Then there are all these Democratic big shots running for delegate to the presidential nominating convention at Miami Beach on slates pledged to Sen. Edmund Muskie.

With rival Sen. George McGovern victorious in the Wisconsin primary and Muskie having trouble, things look a good deal tougher for the big shots than in earlier days when, in the words of an experienced Democrat, "Muskie was going through grandmother's meadow to pick mushrooms."

Their roster is long. It includes Boston Mayor Kevin White, Attorney General Robert Quinn, Michael Dukakis of several Democratic aspirants for governor in 1974, U.S. Congressman Edward Rostenkowski and Michael Harrington (bidding for alternate), state representatives, others.

Lately they've been having meetings to see what they could do to try to salvage the Muskie at-large and district delegate slates.

Mass. Primary Is A Mass Ballot

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

BOSTON (NEA)

Politics being what it is in Massachusetts, it shouldn't be surprising that the state's first real presidential primary has some curious aspects.

First, there's this ballot. With so many Democrats still running for the presidency, or trapped on the list because they withdrew too late, the names are a flood. With them, in some cases, go long slates of delegate candidates, district by district. And more names for the people running for ward committees.

The consequences of all this in paper are immense. Says one Boston politician:

Letters to the Editor A Carpenter Speaks Out

Editor, Herald: It was so very nice of you to publish in your newspaper, dated April 12th, contained news that no one in our Sanford Local knew anything about.

Quite obviously you have been to Cassadaga, and must have received your information there. No one in our Local at Sanford knows what requests will be made when our contract expires, until a Negotiation Committee is appointed and open discussion is held before the members of our Local.

It is quite obvious that there is a definite move to disgust the people of the area you cover with Organized Labor and what it is trying to do. This is a definite move to disgust the people of the area you cover with Organized Labor and what it is trying to do.

I believe you should be made aware of what a Union Carpenter is expected to know, and of course to the General Public there is no limit as to what is expected of him.

Through the joint efforts of the Federal, State and International Brotherhood of Carpenters, an apprenticeship program unparalleled in the history of this Country is being carried on without regard to race, color or creed. This is an evening course that takes 4 years to complete and goes from simple math to Geometry and Trig to reading blueprints and using the builders transit.

The scope of this training is staggering and is producing astonishing results.

In addition to this, add the advanced courses offered free of charge and intended to produce even better qualified mechanics.

There is much, much, more to be said about the carpenter and what is expected of him.

Sincerely, Edward DeLafolch 29 Shell Road DeBary, Fla.

P.S. — No offense intended good neighbor, but in the interest of fair play how about getting the facts straight before publishing same?

Ed Note — No offense, neighbor ... appreciate and welcome comments from all of our readers.

The man called, identified himself as an officer of the local and the information was based on the information which he submitted.

You're right ... a can of beans is almost as high as our Astronauts ... and the price of beef helps me to understand what was meant of the "cow flying over the moon."

Nonetheless ... $8 an hour for a carpenter is as bad as $14 an hour for a plumber, and I could add a few more.

Inflation starts with you and me, neighbor.

Thank You

Editor, Herald: Thank you ever so much for publishing the enclosed Thank You.

So many people in Seminole County and the surrounding area have been so marvelous that we know we have missed thanking them and maybe this will do it. I hope so, because without them, I am afraid we would have been lost entirely.

Tom and Gail Hobbs and their family wish to thank everyone for their thoughts and deeds when tragedy struck us in January. Without the many prayers and blessings, it would have been most difficult. God has blessed us in many ways, especially for all you did.

Thank you, sincerely, Gail Hobbs

Askew Says: Drop Fight

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Saying "there is no time to look back," Gov. Reubin Askew has urged his education study committee to drop plans of reviving a scuttled school restructuring plan.

"Pass up the temptation to rehash that which you've already done," he told the blue-ribbon committee Tuesday.

The committee earlier in the week voted to take another look at the restructuring question, agreeing not to be daunted by the Legislature's refusal to go along with its call for an appointed Commissioner and Board of Education. Askew told the committee he shared their disappointment over the Legislature's actions, "but this part of your task is, for the most part, behind you. Your job is only half done. There is no time to look back."

Committee chairman Fred Schultz said Askew's remarks were more of a "pep talk to the committee" than any specific guidelines.

"The governor has promised me he won't try to dictate to this committee what to do," said the former House speaker. Schultz said he has no intention of abandoning plans for submitting a new reorganization proposal in the committee's final report, due in 1973.

While Askew and members of the committee were in Tallahassee exchanging condolences over the Legislature's action, Education Commissioner Floyd Christian was in St. Petersburg praising it.

Split Vote On School Program

School Supt. John Angel's school housing committee has recommended by a four-three vote that county schools be placed on the 45-15 plan and year school plan beginning July, 1973.

John Y. Mercer made the motion, which was seconded by Joanne Miles, with affirmation by Dr. Robert McFadden and Mrs. George Brenner.

Voting in opposition were Rev. J. E. Conley, John Carl and Mrs. Robert Poole. Angel expressed appreciation to the committee for its many hours of work. He stated it was important that the public be informed about 45-15 plan

J. Moore Captures Contest

By MARVA V. HAWKINS 222-4418

Les Bon Amies Club presented the "Miss Black Sanford" pageant last Friday evening to an audience of great number.

Squire Wright and Sonja Cherry were master and mistress of ceremonies. The Wynore Tech Dynamics was the guest band, with its first selection being the ever popular "Shakti" and many other well remembered selections of the day.

The judges for the evening were introduced along with the winners.

Contestants presented their talent, as follows: Benita Tillman, recited as she pained "Save the Children"; Jacquelyn Moore played and sang, "Let It Be Me"; Karen Sanders sang, "Let There Be Peace on Earth"; These contestants were not judged on talent but by the highest amount of money raised while the judges were making ready the final selections. We were entertained with many more "soul selections" by the Wynore Tech Dynamics.

Words of inspiration were given to the contestants by "Miss Black Eatonville," Miss Debra Williams.

The long awaited moment arrived, announcement of winners. Miss Sanders was second runnerup Miss Tillman was first runnerup.

"Miss Black Sanford" for 1972 was crowned by Squire Wright. Miss Moore will reign for the year 1972. The Les Bon Amies Club wishes to thank all sponsors and well wishers for helping to make this program successful. Organist was John Howard Ligon. Usherettes were Miss Delores Mickens, Miss Sharyle Kinderick and Miss LaJuliette Smith.

The money raised in this contest will go to furnish a two-bed room at the new Good Samaritan Home.

Get your red dresses ready. The date of the Red Dress Ball has arrived. Friday night at Club 48, Altamonte Springs. Men get your dark suits and dinner jackets ready. There will be no hot pants or pants suits. Just red! red! red! dresses. And yes, men. Mrs. Dorothy Daniels is president of the Merry 30 Club.

Village 'Saturated' With Annexed Land

By MARION BETHA
NORTH ORLANDO — How much is too much? Apparently the village feels it has reached the saturation point in annexing new land. This outlook by Village Council was illustrated when Mayor Granville Kelly remarked he has been approached by a developer requesting annexation of 120 acres south of Winter Springs.

Mayor Brown said the developer plans single family homes for this area but he advised Winter Springs developer William Goodman would have to provide the water and sewers from his new plant. This, Mayor Brown said, will not be completed for "a couple of years." Further, Brown disclosed, Goodman would have to agree to provide the utilities.

Former Councilman Charles Kelley remarked that council previously had stated it would not approve any further annexation until the village boundaries are straightened. Mayor Brown said he would inform the developer "we've got enough" (annexations) and Councilman Troy Piland injected, "We're too big now."

In another matter, Council adopted on first reading an ordinance increasing the expense allowance of the mayor's office to $100 monthly. The increase was granted due to "increased responsibilities of the office" and "inadequate" allocation of expenses. The increase is effective March 1. Brown formerly received $8.

Council also adopted a resolution lauding former Councilman Winton Hurt and Kelly for their services to the village. Hurt was not present. Mayor Brown read Kelly's "citation" concerning his services as Zoning Board chairman and councilman as being a dedicated public servant. Council expressed "thanks for outstanding service and regret for losing a man of such high esteem." Kelly said that it had been a pleasure to serve, and recommended that all councilmen should realize that all "developers have hired attorneys to detect loopholes in the village ordinance." Kelley suggested that the village hire a "Junior attorney" to prevent such action by research of the ordinance.

'Wild West' Recreated Criminal Trials Slated

By MARION BETHA
Arraignments Tuesday before Circuit Judge Dominick Salt were a melange of human drama. The days of the old "wild west" were recreated when two defendants appeared charged with horse theft. Trial is set for the week of May 15 for "Pete Pearson, who pleaded not guilty to the charges, and arraignment was continued until April 25 in the case of Hugh Braddy for retaining counsel.

In an unusual aspect, Asberry Hughes, charged with uttering a forged check, appeared without counsel, told the court, "I don't know whether I'm guilty or not," and continued that "all I did was put an X on a check." Hughes said someone made him sign the check. Judge Salt continued the arraignment until April 25 in order that the defendant might retain counsel.

Another deferral of trial until July 15 because of school attendance was given by the court to Mitchell Harrow, charged with possession of dangerous drugs. Harrow pleaded not guilty and requested the delay because he is attending Winter Park High School. Harrow was attired in a school jersey indicating he is a member of the high school swim team. Lastly, running the gamut of human emotions, was the arraignment of a voluptuous blonde, who was the subject of much scrutiny by court spectators, and who is a dancer at an Orlando night spot.

Mary Ann McCarthy, charged on a two-count information with sale and possession of a marijuanna, pleaded not guilty. Trial is set for the week of May 15. Other trials set for the week of May 15 include Amos Williams, Edward Brown and Ted Jackson, all charged with breaking and entering a vehicle and grand larceny; James Erhardt, charged with buying, receiving and concealing stolen property. All pleaded not guilty. Ronald Tanner, charged with rape, is docked for trial the week of May 8. Tanner pleaded not guilty. Frederick Clarke, charged with possession of dangerous weapons, is scheduled for trial the week of May 22. Clarke pleaded not guilty.

Bureaucrats Grow Hostile Toward Press-Publisher

By STERLING F. GREEN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A "growing climate of hostility" in government toward the press was reported to the American Society of Newspaper Editors today by its Freedom of Information Committee. "Government officials from the lowest levels of bureaucracy to the vice president of the United States himself now often make frontal attacks against the press," said the report for the opening session of ASNE's 1972 convention.

"Meanwhile," it said, "there is secrecy in government, perhaps more than ever before." The report was presented to more than 800 editors and guests by Robert M. White II, editor and publisher of a Mexico, Mo. Ledger. It cited ASNE's participation in recent controversies including publication of the Pentagon Papers and the unsuccessful attempt in the House of Representatives to subpoena Columbia Broadcasting System records on the documentary, "The Selling of Pentagon."

"There is," it said, "a growing, insidious infiltration of secrecy in the very courthouses of the nation." The White report noted the continuing use of court subpoenas to attempt to compel the disclosure of news sources.

Worry Clinic

By George W. Crane, Ph.D., M.D.
Howard has changed from a good-natured mate into a family member who grows and criticizes. But that is due to one of the two semi-castrating influences that are zooming our American divorce rate. Take heed!

Case T-557: Howard R., aged 38, has upset his family. "Dr. Crane," his wife began, "we used to be a very happy family. But now Howard is as grouchy as a bear most of the time!"

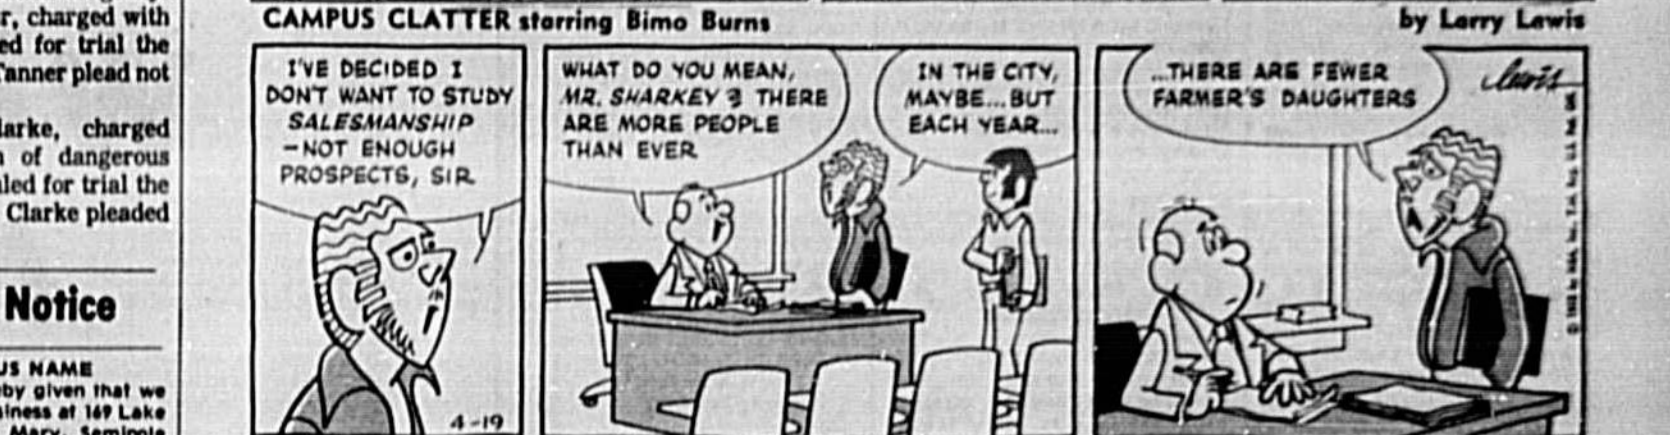

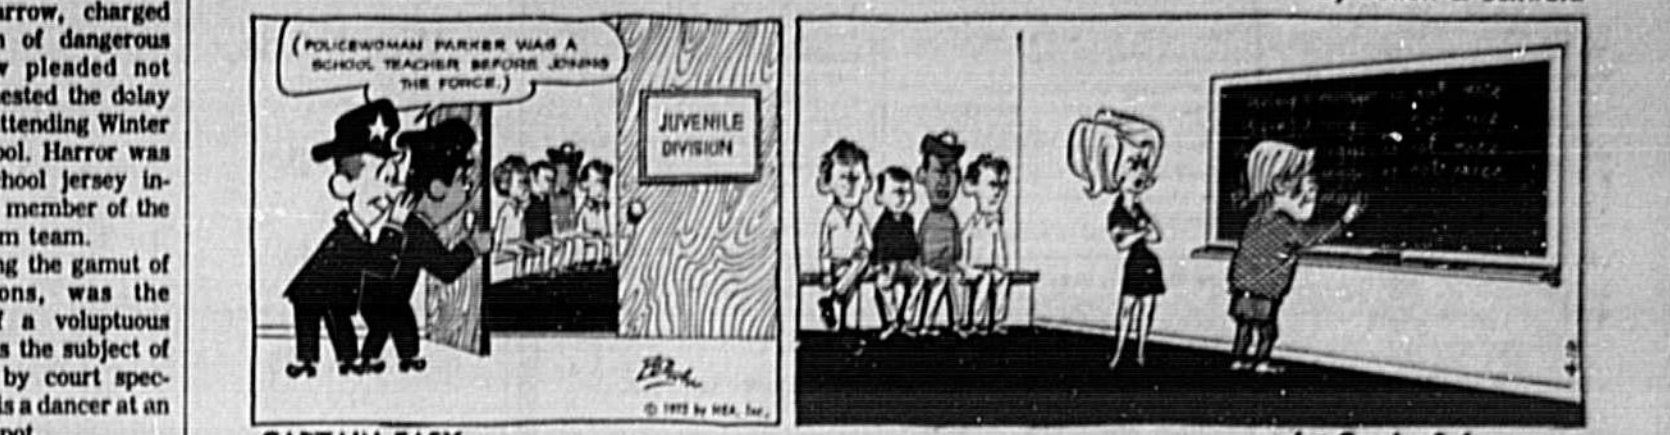

"He yells at the children and growls at me over very trivial things. And he now demands twin beds. For he says he doesn't love me anymore. He is so caustic and critical of my housekeeping, too, that I am in tears almost every night."

"But this isn't the way he used to be, even up to a year or so ago. What is wrong?"
HOWARD'S CONFESSION
When a man is irritable at himself, he tries to pass the buck and blame somebody else. This is a standard technique of husbands. Sometimes the wife is entirely innocent of any significant faults, but her husband will still be sarcastic and hypercritical, anyway.

Many men thus keep up with their nagging, till their frustrated wives break into tears. Tears usually mollify a man. Why? Because they intimate that the man is superior. And it is usually his basic inferiority complex that goaded him into being a caustic mate.

"But why should Howard feel inferior?" you may inquire.
Well, his original weight of 165 pounds on his wedding day, has now zoomed to 208. So that extra 43 pounds of blubber he carries all day long, has fatigued him unduly.

After a hectic day at the office, he is thus too tired at night that he has lost most of his libido. And this reduction in their erotic progress scares men

County Board Seeks Policy On Petitioners.

By ANN SIECKOWSKI
A move to curtail repeated appearances before the Board of Adjustments by petitioners was attempted Tuesday.

Abolition of Court Will Be Discussed

Sanford city officials will meet with three court judges in the county to discuss the possible abolition of the city's municipal court, thereby allowing the county to acquire another judge to resolve the heavy court case load in accord with the recently passed Article Five, which changes the state's judicial system.

Circuit Judge Salfi Addresses DeBaryites

By ALAN R. EDWARDS
The April meeting of the DeBary Civic Association was well attended with one of the largest audiences of recent years. This is an indication that residents of DeBary are taking an increasing interest in affairs and happenings in the Central Florida Area and the Community of DeBary in particular.

County Commissioners and presented a request from the Board of Adjustments that, on a policy basis, this board would refuse to reconsider any denied items for a six-month period. This procedure has been utilized by the Planning and Zoning Commission for a number of years. Brown requested support from the Commissioners in this ruling.

William Pinch, informed the Board of Commissioners that he had received an application from the City of Maitland requesting utility board approval to transfer the Indian Hills Utilities Corporation certified area to the City of Maitland.

He asked that all residents write their state senators and representatives asking for stiffer jail sentences including the death penalty for conviction on sale of dangerous drugs in the State of Florida. The change in judicial system in Florida will make the matter even worse as there will be, after Jan. 1, an acute shortage of judges to handle the heavy workload in the Florida area.

stallation of fire hydrants in all new subdivisions. Unless otherwise directed by the utility board, developers may be required to install fire hydrants in existing subdivisions and apartment complexes if their building permits were issued after March 11, 1971.

In other action, Administrative Assistant Rodney Lauer reported he had received a call from a property owner requesting a work session to determine why he cannot develop his property on the Wekiva River by land filling with dirt available at this time.

Spanish Goodies Simple

By THE BASCOMES Copy News Service

MARSELLA, Spain — The Costa del Sol lies peacefully between the Mediterranean and the Sierra Morena mountains in this beautiful country.

Blending most suitably with its natural surroundings here is a new resort hotel — the Andalus Plaza. In architectural design it is reminiscent of classical Spanish 18th Century buildings. Its four pavilions leading from the hotel to the garden are faithful reproductions of those of the majestic Plaza buildings of Seville.

The Andalus Plaza's interior design, like its architecture, is scrupulously Spanish in its use of earthy colors, hand-tooled leather work and antique furniture reproductions. Fountains and greenery are everywhere giving a feeling of lightness and space.

The hotel has two dining rooms. One, the Rodegón de Sancho Panza, serves authentic Spanish specialties in equally authentic surroundings.

GAZPACHO
1 1/2 lbs. fresh tomatoes, peeled and coarsely chopped
1 large onion, peeled and chopped
1 medium to large cucumber, peeled and chopped
1 medium green pepper, deribbed, seeded and chopped
2 tps. chopped fresh garlic
1/4 cup red wine vinegar
2 tps. salt
4 tps. olive oil
Mix all ingredients in a bowl, about two cups at a time. Put into blender and mix at high speed about two minutes. Repeat until all the mixture is pureed. Taste, add salt if necessary and water if you prefer a thinner soup. It can be strained, which means you can avoid peeling the tomatoes at the beginning.

Serve very cold in chilled bowls. Garnish with crostons.

HEARTS OF ARTICHOKES ROMANA
6-12 artichoke hearts
Flour
Olive oil
Salt
Pepper
Roll the artichoke hearts in the flour. Heat a thin layer of olive oil in a frying pan (medium heat). Fry until the hearts become golden brown. Lower heat if they turn too fast. Do not overload frying pan or they will stick together. Salt and pepper to taste.

MERLUZA A LA VASCA
(for two people)
About 1/2 lb. hake (or cod) in slices
About 20 tiny clams
About 10 small shrimp (peeled and cleaned)
2 tps. baby green peas
2 tps. olive oil
1 large garlic clove, finely chopped
1 tsp. chopped parsley
1 hard-boiled egg
1 red sweet pepper
4 asparagus tips
Salt
Water

Lightly flour the hake. Heat olive oil in frying pan, sauté hake for about two minutes on each side. Take out hake and put in heat-resistant casserole. In the same oil, add the garlic, parsley, clams, shrimp, and fry over medium heat for about two minutes.

Add all this and any juice on top of the hake. Spread the peas around the casserole. Chop up the hard-boiled egg and sprinkle over top of dish. Slice the sweet pepper and arrange in strips alternating with the asparagus tips.

Put some crosswise slices of lemon on top (this prevents drying and adds flavor). Add water so that it just covers the lemon. It may be cooked in oven (very hot) or on the open flame. When the liquid boils, (time: 5 minutes).

PRICES MAY GO DOWN... BUT NO MEAT OR GROCERY PRICES WILL GO UP DURING THE MONTH OF APRIL!

Winn-Dixie responded to consumers' growing alarm over rising prices by putting a price freeze on all meat and grocery items.

We'd like to thank the many suppliers who have joined us in our fight, promising not to raise prices to us.

Over the past 20 years, the cost of living has gone up tremendously. Rent has increased 57%; medical care 128%; clothing has gone up 58%.

The cost of food has increased too; in fact 43%, but not nearly as much as these other things. In fact, 20 years ago, 23% of your total income was spent for food. Today it's only 16 1/2% and food is better packaged, better quality, and there is a greater variety. Food is still a good buy and Winn-Dixie's pledge is to keep it a good buy.

Greek Cooking Dazzling

By TOM HOGUE Associated Press Writer

To most Greeks, eating is a celebration to be savored with each new day, since Greek food offers a tantalizing array of delights from creamy cheeses to tangy eggplant delicacies.

Many Greeks precede their evening meal with a series of delicacies which would serve as the main course in America. They include such rib-sticking dishes as rice-stuffed tomatoes and grape leaves and marinated eggplant.

At Christmas time in Greece, housewives spend hours baking special holiday breads. One favorite is Vasilopita, which is decorated with nuts and usually served on the stroke of midnight New Year's eve. A coin is placed inside each loaf to bring good luck to the finder in the ensuing year.

Greeks use a good deal of olive oil in their cooking, but in America they have shifted to butter for pastries, leaving the oil for meat and vegetables.

A distinctive thing about Greek pastry is the honey syrup with which the flaky crust is soaked. These snacks are usually served with the thick, strong, sweet coffee popular in Greece.

One of the best moussaka offerings I have tasted in New York is served at the Mykonos, a New York restaurant that specializes in Greek delicacies. Moussaka and a glass of native wine at Mykonos is the next best thing to a tour of the Greek islands.

Here is a recipe for moussaka offered by New York hostess Noni Kantarakis. 1 large eggplant, 2 1/2 cups tomato paste, 2 medium onions chopped, bouquet garni — cinnamon stick, cloves, celery, carrots, 2 tps. tomato paste, 1/2 tsp. chopped parsley, 1/2 tsp. nutmeg, 7 eggs, 1 lb. milk, 1/2 cup parmesan cheese, 2 cups flour, salt and pepper.

Clean eggplant and slice thin, brown in butter and onion (tomato paste, bouquet garni about 20 minutes. Add nutmeg, parsley and raw egg to mixture, blend and set aside.

Add flour to melted butter and saute. Slowly add milk and remaining 4 eggs. Add parmesan and salt to taste. Saute until cream sauce is thickened.

Place eggplant in a pan one layer thick. Add chopped meat mix to cover layer. Cover mix with rest of eggplant. Top with cream sauce. Bake 10 minutes till brown.

All There Is To Know About Hungarian Cooking

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor

Hungarian-born George Lang, now an American citizen, has written a fascinating book called "The Cuisine of Hungary" (Atheneum). Not only are there hundreds of recipes in this beautifully illustrated volume, but there are also five chapters devoted to the history of Hungarian cuisine and five gastronomic profiles of the Hungarian regions.

"The Cuisine of Hungary" displays the author's extraordinary erudition. That is because George Lang is a restaurant and hotel consultant who has traveled the world and uncovered a vast amount of culinary research about his native country. The book is so authentic that it is scheduled for translation and publication in Hungary.

Here is a delectable recipe from "The Cuisine of Hungary":

WALNUT CREAM FILLING
1/4 cup sugar
1-inch piece vanilla bean
3/4 cup ground walnuts

2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 cup sweet butter
Bring milk, sugar and vanilla bean to a boil; do not let the mixture boil over. Reduce heat. Stir in the ground walnuts and lemon juice. Let the filling simmer until thickened. Shut off heat and let the filling cool. Discard vanilla bean. After filling is completely cooled, whip the butter in a separate bowl till it is foamy. Then whip in the walnut filling.

GEORGE LANG'S WALNUT COOKIES
1 1/2 cups flour, approximately
1 cup sweet butter
1/2 cup confectioners' sugar
2/3 cup ground walnuts
1/4 teaspoon salt
Walnut Cream Filling, below
Vanilla sugar

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Mix flour and butter until the mixture forms crumbs. Add sugar, walnuts and salt. Knead well. You may have to add about 1/4 cup flour so the dough will not feel sticky. It will help to put the dough in the refrigerator for 30 minutes before rolling, particularly if you are not used to pastry work.

Cut the dough into halves. Roll out each half between sheets of wax paper to 1/4-inch thickness.

Cut dough with a 1-inch round cutter. Place rounds on a baking sheet, and bake in the preheated oven for 12 minutes. Cookies should be only lightly browned around the edges. Cool.

1 envelope (1 1/2 ounces) seasoning mix for Sloppy Joes
3/4 cup finely chopped celery
1/2 cup finely chopped green pepper
2 teaspoons instant minced onion
2 pounds fish fillets
Salt

In a saucepan combine all the ingredients except the fish and salt. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Sprinkle fillets with salt, arrange in layers in a buttered 2-quart casserole, spooning sauce over fish layers. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven 40 to 50 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

SKILLET ASPARAGUS
The easiest way of all to cook asparagus and have them tender-crisp.
2 pounds asparagus
1 cup boiling water
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons (or more) butter
Break or cut off tough whitish ends from asparagus and discard. With serrated blade vegetable peeler, remove fibrous outer covering from asparagus spears up to buds. Wash thoroughly in cold water. Arrange spears in a 10-inch skillet having half the buds at one side of skillet and half at other side. Add water and salt. Bring to a boil. Cover tightly and boil rapidly, lifting cover several times to keep asparagus green, until tender-crisp — about 7 minutes. Drain off any water. Slather with butter and serve at once. Makes 6 servings.

1/4 cup salad oil
3 tablespoons flour
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) beef broth
1/2 cup instant minced onion
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
2 tablespoons tomato paste
1 cup commercial sour cream
Trim and cut meat into strips 2 inches long and 1/4 inch thick. In Dutch oven or heavy saucepan heat oil. Add meat and brown well on all sides — about 10 minutes. Stir in flour, cook and stir 2 minutes longer. Stir in broth, water, mushrooms, onion, Worcestershire and tomato paste. Cover, reduce heat and simmer until meat is tender — about 1 hour. Stir in sour cream; heat but do not boil. Makes 8 servings.

This Quick Bread Has An Apple - Orange Flavor

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor
Something new has happened to apple quick bread. We've just tested a delightful recipe that adds silvored orange rind to the loaf and it's a great addition. Another feature of this bread cooks will like — it's flat on top with only a few slight cracks. We like this bread spread with cream cheese but you may want to serve it with butter or even plain. APPLE ORANGE BREAD

2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup butter or margarine
3/4 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
3 eggs
2 tablespoons milk
1 cup finely diced pared cooking apple
1/4 cup lightly packed silvored orange rind, see note below
On wax paper stiff together the flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt, cinnamon and nutmeg.

In a large mixing bowl cream butter and sugar. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add milk and stir in apple. Blend in flour mixture. Stir in silvored orange rind. Mixture will be on the stiff side. Turn into a greased loaf pan (9 by 5 by 3 inches) and spread evenly.

Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until a cake tester inserted in center comes out clean — about 1 hour. Place pan on a wire rack to cool for 10 minutes; turn out pan onto wire rack; turn right side up. Cool completely.

Note: To prepare silvored orange rind, remove outer rind in thin strips with a vegetable peeler; cut into slivers with scissors or knife.

PEANUT BUTTER CAKE
1 (18 1/2-ounce) package yellow cake mix
2 eggs
1 cup water
1/2 cup creamy or chunky-style peanut butter
1 recipe Creamy Peanut Butter Frosting (recipe below)

Mix together cake mix, eggs, water and peanut butter in large bowl of electric mixer 5 minutes. Turn into ungreased 9x13-inch tube-grease oven 50 to 55 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes on wire cake rack, then remove from pan. Cool completely. Frost with Creamy Peanut Butter Frosting. Makes 9-inch cake.

A recipe that offers variety is always welcome when there are children with hearty appetites around the house. A Peanut Butter Cake concoction also takes well in cupcake tins and makes good individual dessert treats for youngsters to take school or on fun trips with friends.

CREAMY PEANUT BUTTER FROSTING
1 (15.4-ounce) package creamy white frosting mix
1/2 cup creamy peanut butter
1/2 cup hot water

Mix together frosting mix, peanut butter and 1/2-cup of the hot water in large mixing bowl until blended. Add remaining 1/2-cup hot water and beat until smooth.

Note: Cake also can be baked in 2 waxpaper-lined 9x13-inch layer cake pans 35 minutes; 1 waxpaper-lined 9x13-inch pan 35 to 40 minutes or 36 (2 1/2-inch) cupcake pans lined with cupcake liners 25 minutes.

WALNUT HONEY SAVARIN
3/4 cup California walnuts
1 (13 1/2-ounce) package hot roll mix
1/2 cup warm water
1/2 cup milk
3 tablespoons butter
2 eggs
1/4 cup granulated sugar
1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
1/2 cup honey
1/2 cup apricot nectar
1/4 cup brandy or equivalent brandy-flavoring

Drop walnuts into rapidly boiling water and boil 3 minutes. Drain well. Spread in shallow pan; toast at 300 degrees for 5 minutes. Chop coarsely. Dissolve yeast in packet from hot roll mix in warm water. Beat eggs with sugar. Add yeast mixture, milk and lemon peel. Gradually blend in flour, beating well. Stir in walnuts. Spoon into well-greased 6-cup ring mold. Let rise in warm place about 1 hour, until almost doubled in bulk. Bake at 350 degrees about 40 minutes, until baked through, and nicely browned. Let stand 5 minutes, then turn out onto deep plate. Combine honey, nectar, brandy, walnuts and warm water. Prick Savarin (cake) with a long-tined fork or skewer. Slowly spoon the honey mixture over Savarin, adding more as first is absorbed. Makes about 8 servings.

Savarin is a magic name in the world of good eating. A Walnut Honey Savarin meets the high standard of flavor identified with the late chef and chronicler of cuisine. This delicious cake-bread is dotted with lemon peel and an ambrosial mixture of honey, apricot nectar and brandy. Crunchy walnuts heighten this specialty to eat for breakfast, brunch or as a snack. Save time by using a hot roll mix.

Crunchy Fried Foods

By AHEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

Stir-frying is a very quick way to prepare vegetables, meat or fish in the Oriental manner and cut down on calories. Since the food is cooked quickly with a minimum use of oil, it retains most of its nutrients and absorbs little fat-producing oil. Stir-frying actually is quite simple. The secret is to prepare all items beforehand and simply add them to the skillet or wok as called for in the recipe. Do not try to cut or break up meats and vegetables while adding one at a time to the skillet. This takes more time than you would think and defeats the purpose of stir-frying.

STIR-FRIED VEGETABLES

- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 2 teaspoons lemon juice
- 2 teaspoons soy sauce
- 2 tablespoons corn oil
- 1 cup diagonally sliced celery
- 1 (4-ounce) can sliced mushrooms
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 4 cups spinach pieces

Mix together sugar, lemon juice and soy sauce in a small cup; set aside. Pour corn oil into a 10-inch skillet or wok (Chinese fry pan). Heat over high heat about 1 minute. Add celery, mushrooms and onion; stir 2 or 3 times, turning vegetables over and over. Add spinach and soy "sauce" mixture; cook, stirring quickly, about 2 minutes or until vegetables are tender-crisp and spinach is limp. Do not overcook. Serve hot. Makes 4 (1/2 cup) servings.

Regional Cookery

If you're interested in regional cookery, a dessert called Maid of Honor may appeal to you. These delicious little tarts come from Southern cuisine and their antecedent is a British recipe said to have been favored by King Henry VIII. The following recipe for Maid of Honor was inspired by one in a delightful cookbook called "Maryland's Way, The Hammond-Harwood House Cook Book." Hammond-Harwood House is in Annapolis and has been designated a National Historic Landmark.

British recipes for the tarts vary; sometimes they call for a cheese filling, sometimes they call for jam. This Maryland recipe follows the latter practice using a simple but rich pastry that's pressed into small muffin-pail cups as a base.

MAIDS OF HONOR
1 1/4 cups unbleached flour, stir to aerate before measuring
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter
3 tablespoons sugar
1 egg
1 cup strawberry preserves
1/2 cup chopped (medium line) walnuts or pecans

On wax paper thoroughly stir together the flour, baking powder and salt.
In a medium mixing bowl cream butter and sugar; beat in egg. Stir in flour mixture until blended.

Form pastry into small balls using 2 level teaspoonsful for each. Place each ball in a small muffin-pail cup (about 1 1/4 by 1 inch). Press pastry over bottom and sides (up to top) of each cup.
Mix together strawberry preserves and chopped nuts. Spoon 2 teaspoonsful of mixture into each tart shell.

Bake in a preheated 425-degree oven until pastry is browned — about 15 minutes. Let stand on wire rack about 2 minutes, then lift each tart from cup by inserting tip of a small knife at outside edge of tart and lifting slightly so tart can be removed with fingers. Cool on rack. Serve plain or topped with a little whipped cream.

Makes about 2 dozen.
Note: Tarts are best eaten the same day they are made. Store at room temperature covered lightly with wax paper.

Recipe From Sicily

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor
Caponata, sold in small cans in supermarkets, makes a marvelous first course. There are other uses for it, too; we like to serve it with scrambled eggs or tuna fish for lunch. And it's a delightful topping for a green salad.

Why not make your own Caponata? If you follow this excellent recipe you'll have 1 1/2 quarts so you don't have to be stingy with it as when you use it from small cans.

According to Waverley Root, author of the recently published "The Food of Italy" (Atheneum), Caponata (sometimes called Caponatina) originated in Sicily where it's made a number of ways. The version that follows is the combination best-known in this country.

CAPONATA
1 large eggplant, 1 3/4 pounds
Salt
Olive oil
1 medium onion, coarsely chopped
1 clove garlic, minced
1 can (16 ounces) tomato puree
1/2 cup water
1/2 teaspoon dried crushed oregano
1/2 teaspoon dried crushed basil
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 cup sliced celery, about 1/4-inch thick
1 1/4 cups pimiento-stuffed green olives, halved
2 tablespoons drained capers
1 tablespoon sugar
2 teaspoons red wine vinegar
2 tablespoons minced parsley

Wash and dry eggplant; leave unpeeled; cut into 1-inch cubes; sprinkle with salt.
In a 12-inch skillet heat 2/3 cup oil; add eggplant and cook over moderate heat, stirring often, until browned and almost tender; drain on paper towels.

To same skillet, add 2 tablespoons oil; add onion and garlic; cook gently, stirring often, until onion is golden. Stir in tomato puree, water, oregano, basil, pepper and celery; cover and simmer 30 minutes.

Add eggplant, olives, capers, sugar, vinegar and parsley; mix well. Cover and simmer until skin on eggplant is very tender — 15 to 30 minutes.
Cool; cover tightly and refrigerate. Serve as a first course with crackers or Italian bread.

Makes about 1 1/2 quarts.
Note: If you haven't the 12-inch skillet called for in this recipe, use a large 4- or 5-quart saucetpan and cook the eggplant in two batches using 1/2 cup oil for each. Proceed as recipe directs.

34 YEARS ON ROUTE

CHICAGO HEIGHTS, Ill. (AP) — Although blind, Gene Thibodeau, 68, has walked his newspaper route every morning for 34 years delivering papers to 92 homes in Holbrook.

A slope in the street and a sewer cover are clues that his measured steps are taking him along his route. There is no guide dog or human friend to lead him.

Thibodeau lost his sight in an accident when he was 4. He learned to be self-sufficient in the Illinois School for the Visually Handicapped in Jacksonville, Ill.
