Ponzi Must Get Out of U.S. Says Johnson

BOSTON, Nov. 29.—Charles Ponzi, promoter of get rich quick schemes for four years ago which attracted the investments of many millions, was arrested early today by immigration authorities on a warrant charging that he is in this country illegally.

Deportation proceedings will begin immediately said immigration commissioner, John P. Johnson.

Whether deportation will be to Canada or to Italy in the event the charges against Ponzi are sustained can be decided only by secretary of labor.

Ponzi came to this country from Canada after being convicted of banking irregularities at Montreal.

If Canada objects to having him deported to the Dominion officials of this country may order him sent to Italy, where he is still considered a citizen.

PERSHING SAYS COAST DEFENSE MUST BE KEPT

Retired Chief of Staff in His Last Report Stressed Importance of Big Navy and Seacoast Defense Plan

Believes In Value Air Fighting Force

But Does Not Think That General Coast Defense Should Be Disregarded

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—War experience and peace time tests thus far made do not "altogether warrant" conclusions that either seacoast defenses or battleship protection can be dispensed with, General John J. Pershing finds in his last annual report as Chief of Staff of the Army, made public Saturday at the War Department.

Summing up both actual experience with airplane bombing results in the world and subsequent bombing tests against capital ships, the former commander of the American Expeditionary Forces said:

"Of course, some damage was done by aircraft bombing, and it would doubtless be somewhat greater in another war, but until it becomes vastly more probable than at present demonstrated, then it cannot be said that we are in a position to abandon past experience in warfare."

General Pershing declares, however, that the most vital present need of the army is an increase in the air service and gradual development of its personnel and equipment. Especially because of its ability to observe enemy movement, he declared, the air service is essential to armies in the field, although the infantry is still "the backbone of the attack and the role of other arms is to help it reach the enemy."

"The idea that the principles of warfare have changed and that war contests will be settled in any other way than by the use of arms in our experience to warrant serious consideration," General Pershing said.

Discussing the army air program, the report said:

"Our experience in the World War as to airplane production and the training of personnel should be continuously borne in mind by all who appreciate the role of aviation in modern warfare. Early in 1917, it will be recalled, an appropriation of $200,000,000 was hastily made with what seemed to be an effort to overcome previous inexcusable neglect to make provision even for experimental investigation, to say nothing of preparation for manufacture of airplanes. The voice of criticism for previous inaction was apparently stifled, for the time being, by the loudly heralded purposes to send 50,000 airplanes to the Western front without delay—a declaration that later brought about an embarrassing moment to those of us abroad who knew how hopeless and baneful such claims were."

"It is a matter of record that even the type of plane to be put in production was not decided upon until several months after we entered the war, and that no American plane was flown in battle until August, 1918, and only some 600 planes had been sent to the front before the Armistice."

"The Air Service has become an essential aid to the armies in the field, especially because of its ability to observe and obtain valuable information as to the immediate enemy battlefield. It is now possible for observers to direct the fire of our artillery from the air, and thus aviation has risen to a very great importance as an auxiliary arm."

"Enthusiasm often forgets the obligations of military aviation to other troops, and sometimes credit that service with ability to achieve results in war that have not received practical demonstration. Take, for example, the bombing tests last year in the Chesapeake. The maneuvers showed that under the most favorable circumstances bombs of destructive size could be dropped with considerable precision. In these exercises, the vessel was at anchor in quiet waters; there was no opposing aviation, nor was there any anti-aircraft used against the bombing planes."

"I Christen Thee Los Angeles"

The ZR-3 is no more. It is the Los Angeles now. Re-christening of America's biggest dirigible and its dedication as a ship of peace is over. Pulling a silken ribbon that released a trap door and let loose a flock of carrier pigeons, Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, wife of the President, formally bestowed upon the Levianton of the skies its new name. Here Mrs. Coolidge, the President, and Captain Adolphus Andrews, the President's naval aide, are seen arriving at Bolling Field, Washington, for the ceremonies.

CITIZENS OF CITY URGED TO VOTE IN COMING ELECTION

Full Vote of Citizens As A Manifestation Of Their Interest in City Affairs Urged By City Commission

Although Mayor Forrest Lake is unopposed in his race for reelection to the City Commission, there will be steps taken to have a large vote cast in the municipal election to be held on Tuesday of next week, it is understood.

By virtue of being the only candidate for the office of commissioner, the mayor's election is a foregone conclusion, it is declared but the three members of the commission are anxious to have a record vote polled next Tuesday as an expression of the citizen's interest in the affairs of the city government.

This sentiment was expressed in a statement given by Commissioner, C. J. Marshall to a representative of The Herald. He said, "As a commissioner I am gratified that Mayor Lake is running for reelection. He is, above all others, for Sanford first. He has the spirit for boosting the community. He has been with the city in an official capacity longer than any one else and is preeminently fitted for the position."

"I would urge that everyone get out and vote to show confidence that M. Lake will fulfill his duties, as he has in the past, and also to express confidence in the policy of building up Sanford."

"Even though he is the only candidate and a few votes will elect him, the people should come out and show their appreciation. All those who are for a greater Sanford should cast their ballots."

"The present commissioners have worked in absolute harmony and because of this spirit of cooperation, they have been able to accomplish more than if discord had been prevalent."

"The commissioners are anxious to know how the citizens feel toward the policies which they have championed and the best way to express that feeling is to vote in Tuesday's election."

Efforts were made to get a statement from Commissioner S. O. Chase, but he is said to be out of the city. He is expected to return this evening.

City Clerk Phillips states that there are about 1,600 names on the voters' lists for the election, and anticipates a large vote being cast.

"We should at least have a universal language in which to say, 'Gotta match?'—Vancouver Sun."

Two Shot To Death By Unknown Man

SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 29.—Miss Myrtle Oden, young business college student, and J. J. NEW COMMUNITY HALL PRESENTED TO ALTAMONTE

Mayor and Mrs. Maltbie Give Handsome New Building to Town; George DeCottes Is Main Speaker at Exercises

Altamonte's new Community House, the gift of Mayor and Mrs. Maltbie, was formally presented to the town at a meeting held Friday night in the recently completed building.

The gathering was attended by a large number of representative citizens from not only Altamonte but other neighboring places including Orlando, Sanford, Winter Park and Longwood.

After A. E. Cline, city treasurer, had formally accepted the gift in behalf of the town and had expressed thanks and appreciation of the public spiritedness of Mayor and Mrs. Maltbie, George A. DeCottes, city attorney of Sanford, made the principal address of the evening.

In his first remarks, Mr. DeCottes praised Mr. and Mrs. Maltbie for their generosity and characterized their gift as a lasting tribute to one who had worked hard to build up their community.

He spoke of the advantages of Altamonte and pointed to the unique provision in its charter which allows all property holders to vote in municipal elections. Northern people, he declared, will continue to flock to Florida and predict that Altamonte would get its share of the visitors.

Mr. DeCottes took occasion to praise the people of this state for their action recently in voting against levying inheritance tax in this state forever.

He further urged the hearty cooperation of all Altamonte citizens in pushing the town to the front and making it a place of progressiveness in all undertakings. The growth of any town, he declared, depends entirely upon its citizens. As an example of rapid growth of a city he cited Sanford, "The City Substantial," which he said, had grown despite many handicaps because of the progressive spirit of cooperation existing between its citizens.

Senator M. O. Overstreet, Orlando, commended Mayor and Mrs. Maltbie for their generous gift and praised their spirit of progressiveness. He enlarged on the gift of the Community House as an achievement of the progressive spirit of the town.

J. E. Triplett, manager of the Florida Newspaperman's Home, addressing the gathering said: "This building is a gift that all will appreciate. Mayor Maltbie has a fine spirit of progressiveness which has culminated in his making this magnificent gift to the city."

He invited the citizens to make use of the theatre that is on the grounds of the Newspaperman's Home at any time they wished, for whatever purpose they wished.

Frank Hailbeck, one of the developers of Altamonte, stated that Altamonte was being advertised all over the globe, by radio, Friday night, and that the city's name would be before thousands that perhaps would never have heard of it.

The following artists gave an excellent musical program: Misses H. Maltbie and Mrs. H. H. Bundy, piano Duet. Mrs. Emma A. Lyman solo, Mr. M. McPherson, solo.

Sanford Business Men Announce Purchase Valuable Ingram Tract

Located South of Mayfair Subdivision; Purchase Price Is Reported at $75,000

Big Subdivision Development Plan

Group of Purchasers Includes Men Prominent In This City

GENEVA, Nov. 29.—Five hours' bitter debate Friday upon the American proposals that the opium conference control production and distribution of raw opium resulted in an adjournment until Monday.

Senator Porter and Bishop Brent, of the American delegation, clashed with Clayton and Campbell, Indian delegates, who declared that India's honor was involved. Campbell charged that the Americans in seeking to establish the competence of the conference, as it appears in the American program, would impose one nation's interpretation of the League opium agreement upon the 52 signatories. They declared the league intentionally left out the question of controlling production because it would wreck the conference.

"Such a position as the United States takes endangers the very existence of the league whose object was to concentrate on agreements, and not to magnify differences," said Campbell.

Nothing Sacred Says Porter

Senator Porter replied that there was nothing sacred about the league's opium agenda, and said he had perfect confidence in the league's approval of the American principles, which it had advocated repeatedly.

Campbell then charged the Americans had agreed in secret committee to the Indians' viewpoint, which Bishop Brent heatedly denied saying:

"The question of national and personal honor has been raised on the matter of the interpretation. The Americans fail to understand India's position. My word is as good as my bond and so is my country's. Had such an agreement been made in committee I should have refused to sign it and my government would have repudiated the delegation."

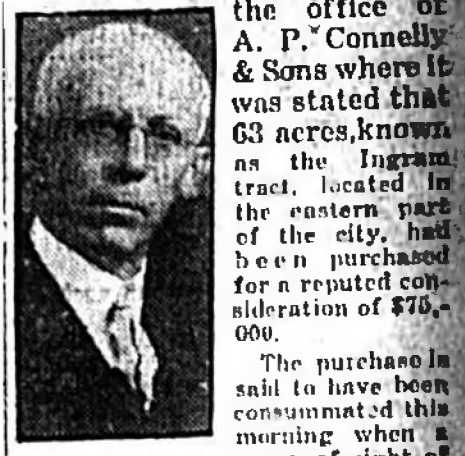

Bishop Asks Honest Treatment

Bishop Brent in appealing for honest treatment, said the American delegation would not listen to the timid voice of the vested interests of bureaucracy.

"The world of thinking humanity will be the jury," Bishop Brent said. "America will not retreat, will not equivocate, and the delegation will be heard."

The delegates cheered the Americans and were silent toward the British. The league officials were plainly worried and accepted Cuba's motion for adjournment.

Senator Porter said afterwards that the fiscal of the conference to accept the American principles would not cause withdrawal but that they will still fight along other lines for strict suppression of opium production to one-tenth of the present production.

An announcement, which is said to be of more than usual interest to readers of The Sanford Herald, was made this morning in the office of A. P. Connelly & Sons where it was stated that 63 acres, known as the Ingram tract, located in the eastern part of the city, had been purchased for a reputed consideration of $75,000.

The purchase is said to have been consummated this morning when a group of eight of the leading business men of Sanford decided to form a corporation for the purchase of the property and for its immediate and extensive development. Adjoining Mayfair on the south and extending for about 1200 feet along Mellonville Avenue, and then east about a half mile, the new tract is so located as to become one of the most desirable residential sections in Sanford, it is said, and the new owners plan to develop it into one of the city's show places.

According to A. P. Connelly no time will be lost in having the property surveyed, platted and cleared, and streets, and sidewalks constructed. Other improvements are to be begun as soon as possible, and within the next few weeks it is hoped to begin the sale of the lots, which in the opinion of many realty experts, are as good as any in the city.

"The rapid growth made by Sanford during the past two years has convinced us that an era of unprecedented prosperity is about to dawn for this city and that the years of labor and worry which we have endured in building up Sanford and this community, are about to be rewarded," Mr. Connelly stated this morning. "Firm in the belief that nothing is too good for Sanford, and that attractiveness is a supreme quality in selling our city to northern tourists, we are determined to put before the people of this community an ideal subdivision, hitherto unsurpassed in beauty, and perfectly located for select and high class residences."

All high land, overlooking Lake Monroe, the Ingram tract is said to be an ideal site to make a most desirable subdivision for those wanting exclusive sites for attractive homes, and according to authentic reports no expense will be spared in making it an excellent, high class development.

A. P. Connelly, C. J. Marshall, R. L. Dean, B. F. Whitner, Sr., W. M. Scott, R. H. Herg, W. T. Langley and E. L. Markell compose the syndicate of local business men which has purchased the property.

Prominent Men Of Mobile Are Named In Whiskey Charge

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 29.—Confirming rumors which had prevailed since adjournment of the federal grand jury Wednesday, it developed Friday that indictments growing out of alleged "whiskey ring" activities were returned against a number of well known Mobileans, among them Alfred L. Staples, former president of a bank here and past president of the Alabama Bankers' Association, Robert L. Holcombe, ice manufacturer and brother of William H. Holcombe, Jr., ex-sheriff and legislator, is another of those indicted.

First capias in indictments were served during the day and several persons had furnished bond Friday night. It was learned there are yet several capias to be served.

Conspiracy to bribe a federal officer is one of the charges against Staples and certain others indicted by the grand jury. Information was obtained from reliable sources to the effect that H. T. Gonzallias, former general prohibition agent, known as the "Lone Wolf" who figured prominently in the "under cover" investigation which preceded the volume of indictments here last year, is the individual the defendants are alleged to have conspired to bribe.

Names of those who had furnished bond to indictments Thursday night, the charges against them and the amount of the bonds follow:

Alfred L. Staples, conspiracy to violate the prohibition law, conspiracy to violate the tariff act by smuggling liquors and conspiracy to bribe a federal officer. He furnished bond of $15,000.

Robert L. Holcombe, conspiracy to violate the prohibition law, conspiracy to violate the tariff act by smuggling liquors and conspiracy to bribe a federal officer. He made bond of $3,500 in each case.

The funeral services at the church was conducted by Rev. F. D. King, pastor of the church. Special music was rendered by the choir. A duet, "Face to Face" was rendered by Mrs. A. M. Phillips and Mrs. R. L. Glenn and a solo by Mrs. Celcough.

Services at the cemetery, were in charge of the Campbell-Lossing Post American Legion. Post Commander A. P. Haggard was in charge of the service, at the conclusion of which "Taps" were sounded.

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen attended the last rites of their comrade as a body.

Mah Jongg Suppers

With the coming of the cooler days of Fall, comes an interest in "evenings at home," entertaining friends in one way or another, and in the serving of something different, especially if the evening is cool, and the guests stay late, they will need and enjoy something substantial to eat.

Why not surprise them with a Mah Jongg Supper? As the popularity of this fascinating game is spreading rapidly from Fifth Avenue to Main Street, and we are all anxious to learn to "pung" and "chow," and to tell the difference between the Dragons and the East Winds, why not learn something about Chinese cookery too, so that we may have refreshments in keeping with the spirit of the game.

Whenever we think of Chinese food, we usually think of "Chop Suey." It is the general impression that we get this dish from China. It is really a Chinese dish, but the story goes that it was invented in this country by Chinese chefs and later introduced in China by Chinese students returning there from America. Whether this is actually true or not, the fact remains that Chop Suey is equally popular in American countries as well as in China.

Judging from the way people patronize the Chinese restaurants especially for this dish, proves its popularity, without a doubt. Many housewives now make it at home for occasional variety.

There are a number of varieties of chop suey which may be served at the Mah Jongg supper, either plain or made with chicken or shrimp, or mushrooms, and with or without the bean sprouts.

With Chop Suey, rice—plain boiled or steamed—is served. Some like hot rolls in addition to the rice, although the rice takes the place of bread quite nicely.

Or, instead of Chop Suey, you can serve Chow Mein, which means fried noodles.

And tea, of course. No tea seems quite so delicious as the tea which is served at the Chinese restaurants. They use the best teas, of course. If you would like something especially nice you can get an exquisitely flavored tea made from jasmine flowers, at most Chinese or Oriental shops.

Now as to the dessert to serve with your Mah Jongg supper, while you can do quite nicely without any, as few desserts are used by the Chinese, yet small cakes are popular. If you make them at home, you can bake a plain cake in a large sheet, and cut it into squares or in diamond shapes, then use different frostings and decorations to furnish variety. Make the cakes small, however, as most of your guests will probably not care for a large piece of cake after eating a substantial supper of Chop Suey.

Chop Suey
2 pounds bean sprouts,
2 cups finely cut celery,
1 to 2 cups onions cut into threads, salt to taste,
1 cup soup stock or water,
1 tablespoon cornstarch,
1 tablespoon Molasses,
2 tablespoons bacon or beef dripping.
1 can mushrooms, if desired.
Cut meat into cubes, about one-fourth to one-half inches thick. Put the bacon or beef drippings into a deep sauce pan or a large skillet. When hot add the meat and onions and fry for about ten minutes. Then add the chopped celery, sprouts, stock or water, seasonings, and cook about 15 minutes. Add the molasses. Mix cornstarch with a little cold water and stir into the boiling stock or water until it thickens. It is then ready to serve.

Chicken and shrimp chop suey are prepared in much the same way, except that only about half as many onions are used.

Almond Cakes
4 cups sifted flour; 1 level teaspoon Calumet Baking Powder; 1 cup sugar; 5 eggs; 1 cup lard; Almonds; one-half teaspoon almond extract.

Sift the flour, sugar and baking powder together three times. Add the lard and mix until meal-like, then add the slightly beaten eggs and flavoring. Turn onto a board and shape into small round cakes, about an inch and a half in diameter. Sprinkle with coarsely chopped almonds, and bake in a moderately hot oven, until nicely browned.

AIR MAIL SERVICE

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—A weekly zeppelin mail service between the United States and Europe will soon be started, Dr. Hugo Eckener, Director of Zeppelin Company, who has had charge of the ZR's trans-Atlantic flight, said today. The Zeppelin Goodyear combination does not intend to establish passenger service for present, he indicated, but believes one Zeppelin in each way carrying 500,000 letters at 25 cents per letter, would be a business success.

Post-War Boundaries Create Much Discard

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Nov. 28.—The confusion of the frontiers of the Balkans and Central Europe, as an outcome of the war, has not been settled by any means, although little is heard of the doubtful state of affairs outside of the immediate regions affected.

New boundary lines have been run through towns and villages in various countries and even across the farms of peasants themselves. In many instances it is reported that the individuals whose property is concerned do not know to this day to which state they should pay taxes. Estimates have been made by investigators that it will require ten years or even longer to get the boundary lines straightened out, and conditions amicably settled for many thousands of persons.

ELECTRIC SIGNS FOR ROADS INTO SANFORD IS PLAN

Fla., was read by the secretary, in which she expressed the appreciation of the family for the kind expressions as extended to her family during her recent bereavement.

A. P. Connelly, Arthur Yowell and George D. Bishop were named as a committee to draft a resolution of sympathy and condolence to the family of the late Schelle Maines.

Efforts will be made to secure electric signs for each entrance to the city. The matter will be investigated and action may be taken at the next meeting. The cost of the signs, according to Mayor Lake would be about $400 and the cost of maintenance would be about $5 a month.

Mayor Lake announced under the heading of new enterprises in the city, the coming to Sanford of "The Sanford Signal," a semi-weekly newspaper. He stated that the publishers expected to issue a morning daily paper after the first of the year.

Mayor Lake stated that offers had again been made to Smith Brothers for their property, at the end of First Street, and that no arrangements have been made for the purchase of the property.

He stated that another effort would be made and, if no arrangement was arrived at, the city would have to start condemnation proceedings against the owners. He said he did not want to see the matter end in this manner and expected that the owners would see the matter in the same light as the City Planning Commission.

Manila Shelters Few Russian Monarchists Exiled From Country

MANILA, Nov. 28.—The Illa Morometz, one of the Russian vessels which arrived in Manila Bay a year and a half ago under Admiral Stark, has been sold to a local transportation company, leaving only two out of the 11 vessels in the original fleet which came from Vladivostok, with more than 300 Russian refugees.

The others have been sold to concerns here or in China. The company will use the Illa Morometz, which is a high powered tug, in towing work in Philippine waters. Only 40 of the original 300 refugees who came with the fleet remain in the Philippines, the other including Admiral Stark, have departed for various countries. Some 600 were taken to the United States on the army transport Merritt more than a year ago, and others from time to time have gone to Shanghai. Admiral Stark left only a few days ago, for France where he expects to make his home and possibly enter business. He and his followers belong to the old monarchial regime, and at present are not welcome in their native land.

Horse That Could Not Be Sold Causes Upset On German Race Track
BERLIN, Nov. 28.—Thousands of spectators were "absolutely stunned and numerous bookmakers sent into a state of confusion," to quote Berlin sport writers, when Pan Robert, "dark horse" from Austria at the fashionable Grunewald track, won by a length from a field of 12, most of which were "favorites," at 2,248 gold marks to 10. Herman Roller, the owner, for months, has had Pan Robert up for sale at 3,000 marks, but there were no takers.

The race was the windup of the fall season and all the prize money had been entered. There were no bets on Pan Robert the owner himself being dubious of his horse's performance. The bets all told amounted to but 310 gold marks and were divided among the "small fry" in five and ten mark bets. It was the first race that Alfred Bleuler, who rode Pan Robert, had won this season.

Great Crops Great Nation No League Nonsense Let Us Be Thankful. BY ARTHUR BRISBANE (Copyright 1924)

MUCH TO BE thankful for this year, fine crops, fine weather, most of the gold in the world, 112,000,000 people, more than 99 per cent of them honest and well meaning.

IN THE White House there is a man honest and capable, with no thought except to serve the people and make a good reputation.

We have 48 nations united in one union, free trade among ourselves, with protection for workmen and business men against the outside world.

NOW IF we have brains enough to build the flying machines needed to make this country safe against attack, and if we then go ahead minding our own business, leaving Europeans to mind their business, we shall have every reason to be thankful.

EGYPT DECLARES that she is independent, and appeals to the League of Nations against England's attitude and commands. This country will study at a distance, with calm interest, the working of the great League of Nations in questions affecting a small country against the greatest Power in the League.

And let's be thankful that we haven't got to rely on the League of Nations for protection, or go to the League of Nations for orders.

BROKERS WENT home quite happy, and their customers also. The "call money" with which men speculate was a little dearer, but prices continued upward. Steel common going to 118-14.

ADMIRERS OF the late Theodore Roosevelt will be interested in the statement, made by authority of the family, that a newcomer from the mysterious realm of the infinite is expected in the Longworth family.

Mrs. Longworth was Miss Alice Roosevelt. Those who have read Galton's Heredity know that the greatness of the father is handed down through the daughter, not through the son.

ENGLAND DECIDES that this country ought not to get any share of the German reparations and, specifically, nothing for our expenses in sending an army of occupation to parade in Germany after peace was declared, eating up the scanty supplies of food.

OTHER NATIONS have been paid their hundreds of millions for occupation armies. They collect of the money at the time, but the United States demand for seven hundred millions is rejected enthusiastically by the Allies.

IT SEEMS a little ungrateful, perhaps, especially as we are lending the money to get Germany started on the reparations road.

THE NAVY learned, in recent experiments that the Panama Canal is not safe against attack. An enemy fleet with sixteen-inch guns and good flying machines could destroy the locks and make the canal useless.

HE ASKED FOR BREAD AND THEY GAVE HIM A STONE

JUST IN PASSING

By R. J. HOLLY

Laying the cornerstones for a new municipal building and a fine Masonic building all in one afternoon is going some even for Sanford.

Big business is being attracted to Sanford and in the next few weeks there will be some interesting stories to tell in the real estate game.

Last week almost half a million dollars worth of real estate changed hands in Sanford.

The more I see of Florida the more I become enamored of the entire state and in the next ten years there will be the greatest orgy of realty buying that the world has ever known.

Keep on talking about that canal and deeper water in the St. Johns river and never let up until these big things are put over. It means so much to Sanford in the future.

A new man recently located in a neighboring city and purchased 200,000 worth of property. Said he had travelled all over the state and was attracted to said city by its progressive and congenial citizens.

Just as the writer of this column of stuff and nonsense said many moons ago when you raise the price of your property here you will sell it twice as fast and you are doing that little thing right now.

Everywhere you go in the state of Florida you hear about Sanford and it is the same story over and over. That Sanford is on a solid footing and is substantial in every respect.

Wild boar parties some day get the whole push in bad since reason flies out of the windows when boozers come in and but people know what they are doing and care less when they are filled up on the kind of booze obtainable now.

The University of Florida will soon be the largest and best school in the southeast. And as loyal Floridians we should all lend our aid in helping to make Florida great.

Some one told me the other day that you could drive to Gainesville without making a detour. I said I would give 500 simoleans to anyone showing me such a route.

The vote has been tabulated at Tallahassee and it has been discovered that Colledge is elected no doubt. If Tallahassee has any other inside information on the late election we will pass it up for four more years.

Col. Bob Davis, the Grand Old Man of the Gainesville Sun never wrote a line for a newspaper until he was seventy years of age.

Everything points to a fine holiday trade in Sanford this year and it all depends on quality of advertising the local merchants will do.

Now that Calvin Colledge and Forest Lake have officially declared Thanksgiving as coming in November we can await the decision of La Follette as to when election day will be a holiday and Liberty Bonds will be legal tender.

There are some nice bachelors left over in Sanford and the Herald will call attention to them before the first of the year.

Things to worry about: Would Dad Gandy have built the Gandy bridge if he had no whiskers—and is this an age of clean shaven faces?

Sanford should have a big sign on the Mt. Dora road when it turns to come into Sorrento and Sanford.

All cities nowadays have big arches at the entrance to the city limits calling attention to the city that you are entering and at night these arches are lighted and look like big city lights.

FOREIGN LOANS

INDIANA NEWS

For the third time within a year a foreign loan of $100,000,000 or more has been provided by the United States.

While popular attention has been riveted on these negotiations there have been many smaller financial transactions with overseas countries, in which governments have not been concerned.

The result is a total in foreign loans thus far in 1924 of $1,136,506,100. America has become a participant in world finance as never before.

Private banking facilities have been relied on in each transaction, but the influence on the government's attitude in international affairs is certain to be felt.

Should the United States continue in this prominent financial role, the problem of the great amount of surplus gold now on hand will be much less difficult of solution.

Of the $2,000,000,000 of the metal in existence, America has about 54 per cent. So great is the stock that the margin of safety in the way of reserve to redeem paper currency is twice the requirement of the federal reserve act.

Rather than a cause for congratulation, the excess has been a continuing source of worry to well-informed government officials, financiers and business men.

Should the surplus were not kept out of use in domestic affairs, a period of dangerous inflation was regarded as unavoidable.

But idle capital, bringing in interest and thus doing nothing in industry, commerce and recovery of nations demoralized war.

For a considerable period international demoralization was great as to make foreign banks, the more recent attitude banking indicates that the danger is not entirely past.

As the greatest reservoir of capital in the world, the United States is bound to have a prominent part in the international rebuilding process.

A wise meeting of the responsibility means a restored circle of trade, the breaking of accounts for much of the industry and agricultural difficulty experienced in this country in recent years.

THE HUNTER'S REWARD

DELAND NEWS

"Many hunters returned unsuccessful," says a news report, commenting on the hunting season.

The true sportsman delights in the game rather than the full creel or a well-filled bag.

No real hunter ever is "unsuccessful." He may not bring game back to the city, but he returns a better man physically for his outing.

There is more to hunting than the killing of game, just as there is more in fishing than catching fish.

Of course, these are pot-hunters and fishermen whose hog-hunt practices bar them from the ranks of decent sportsmen.

Miss Kathryn Wilkey Has Taken Charge Of Herald's Social Page

The Herald is pleased to announce that beginning with today's issue, Miss Kathryn Wilkey of this city has taken charge of the Society Department of the paper and in the future will serve as Society Editor.

Miss Wilkey needs no introduction to the people of Sanford as she has been prominent in social affairs of this city for several years, during which time she has been living with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thigpen at 801 Park Avenue.

Miss Wilkey has had previous experience in handling the society department of a newspaper, having been Society Editor of The Herald under the editorship of R. J. Holly.

Before coming to Sanford on her present visit, Miss Wilkey was engaged in school settlement work in Brooklyn, N. Y., having for a time been assistant head of a large settlement house in that city for some time.

The Herald feels that it is fortunate in securing Miss Wilkey to assume charge of the social department of the paper and believes that with her coming, the social page will be materially improved.

In making this announcement, The Herald desires to stress the need of co-operation of the people of Sanford in making the society page a success. Miss Wilkey will be pleased to take any social news of interest at any time, either at her home or at this office and The Herald will appreciate any aid that can be given her in the conduct of this department.

ARMY AND NAVY PRIMED FOR BIG BATTLE TODAY

Ancient Rivals Meet in Grid Game Which is Expected to Of Games Played This Year Is One of Most Thrilling Army Mule Rules As A General Favorite Navy Despite Five Defeats Will Put Up Hard Battle Against West Point Team

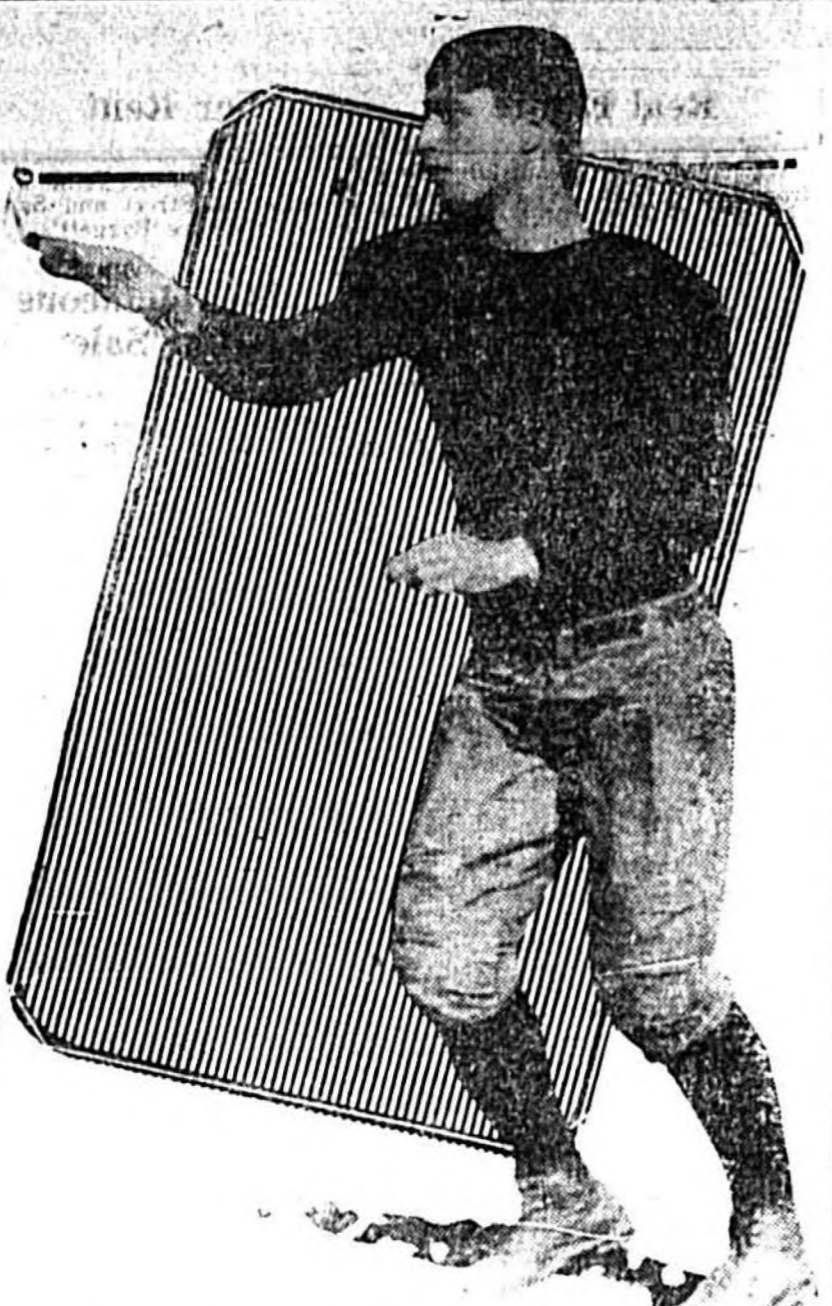

BALTIMORE, Nov. 23.—The Army and the Navy are primed and ready for their annual gridiron tug of war. Saturday, the rival service eleven will battle for football supremacy with the odds of victory favoring West Point, but with all indications also pointing to the likelihood of a spectacular and closely fought game.

With its scene laid in Baltimore for the first time since this gridiron classic was inaugurated in 1890, the twenty-seventh game of the long series will be fought out before the greatest crowd that ever saw the cadets and midshipmen come to grips—a vast assemblage of 78,000 including President and Mrs. Coolidge and a host of other notables, that promises to rival in spirit and color any of the gatherings that annually have made this game the most picturesque of all.

Banked around the wide-flung horseshoe-shaped Baltimore stadium, whose capacity nearly has been doubled for the battle, this throng expects a brilliant game, with the Navy, despite a previously disastrous season, rallying its forces in a final drive against an army team which on earlier form is admittedly superior with one of the greatest individual stars of the game in Harry Wilson, former Penn. State and All-American half back.

There will be an added incentive for triumph Saturday, if any were required, in the desire of both West Point and Annapolis to break the deadlock in their long series, which now stands at twelve victories apiece with two tie games recorded.

Star Passer of the West

The west has a habit of producing star forward passers. Some years back Notre Dame had Johnny Mohr, one of the greatest passers of all time. California had Fred Miller, who could throw a ball as far as most players can kick. Ohio State had Hoge Workman, a truck and accurate passer. Now Michigan comes to the front with Benny Friedman, whose passes lifted him to the top rank for the season of 1924.

Expected to display a formidable attack, but the Navy, despite the loss of five games in seven starts, has pointed its preparations for this main objective and will go into the fray Saturday for it and confident.

Elaborate preparation was made for the reception and entertainment of the President and Mrs. Coolidge, who will motor from Washington in the morning and be the guests of the city at a luncheon in the banquet hall of the stadium building at 12:30 o'clock.

Many Attend Football Game in Gainesville

"Dad's Day" and the Florida-Drake football game combined to make a gala day in Gainesville Thursday. A few of the parties who motored over for the day from Sanford were:

Judge and Mrs. J. G. Sharon and Miss Gladys Crawford, Judge and Mrs. E. F. Householder, Mrs. Forrest Lake, Miss Serita Lake, Miss Emily Rainer of St. Augustine, "Doc" Hardy and Stansil Taylor of Gainesville, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holly, Miss Mildred Holly and R. L. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Newman, Miss Olive Newman, Miss Mary Elizabeth Puleston, John Meisch and G. W. Spencer, Jr., TELEGRAM, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1924.

New Smelting Plans Attract Ore Experts

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 23.—A new method of extracting steel and iron ore, eliminating the blast furnace, as well as the pig iron stage in reduction, and lowering the cost of production by 50 per cent, has been evolved and is now being perfected by the Swedish engineer G. H. Flodin, who is connected with the Hagfors Iron Works, a subsidiary of the Uddeholm Works, which rank among the largest in Sweden.

While the method has been tried out experimentally and with success on a small industrial scale, no detailed information concerning its exact nature is given out by the inventor, pending practical tests on a larger scale. Iron and steel experts in Sweden agree that a successful adoption of the process would give Sweden unusual competitive power in the world's iron markets, because the Flodin method involves the use of electricity, which Sweden can generate at low cost.

Alleged Embezzler Will Face Charges

HALIFAX, Nov. 23.—Leo Koretz, arrested here Sunday charged with swindling, will leave this morning for Chicago to face trial on the same charge. Koretz will travel in a steamer to New York with a Nova Scotia deputy, three Chicago attorneys, and five Chicago newspaper men.

King of Lion Killers French Mannequins Dies In South Africa

CAIETOWN, Nov. 23.—"Yank" Allen, the terror of South African lions, has died here but only after he accounted for 258 of the beasts. Allen, who was a native of Texas, came to South Africa 17 years ago to aid the British South African Company's ranches of lions. So well did he do his work that for the last ten years lions in the company's district became about as abundant as lichen on the American prairie, and he eventually cut himself out of a job. His bag of lions was a record, even for South Africa.

Allen's description of a lion was predicted, with possible rain, and that it was safest not to touch, hopes were held out for a few days until the animal was with clear sky by game time.
