Double Assaults Probed

A reported rape of an Orlando woman by three men in Seminole County and the attempted attack on a Sanford woman by a masked intruder were listed as occurring during the weekend by county authorities and Sanford police.

Sheriff's department investigators are probing the assault upon an Orlando woman, which occurred in a wooded area near the Longwood-Markham Road, where the woman was left to wander to a nearby house after three men allegedly took turns assaulting her.

The middle-aged woman reported she was "picked up" by the men in a car at the Carter-Jordan Streets intersection in Orlando and driven to Seminole County where she was raped and finally released, according to a report by Sgt. George Myers, county deputy.

A Sanford woman's scream alerted her husband and daughter elsewhere in the house and prevented the attack on her person by a man who had entered her home wearing a stocking mask.

The woman was reportedly sitting on a couch in the living room when a man suddenly appeared apparently by the front door entrance.

"I'll get you," were the words reportedly mumbled by the masked male, before the woman screamed and fainted.

Both the husband and daughter reported seeing a masked figure leaning over the fainted woman's body when they reached the living room.

They reported the man appeared to be white, of medium build and wearing a long-sleeved shirt and trousers. He made his escape out the front door, according to the police report.

A guard was placed on the house by police after a second reported incident came to police a short time later. Police were called after someone attempted to open both front and rear doors to the house later Saturday night.

By FRED VAN PELT
 (Civics Bureau, county supervisor of elections, was at a loss for words this morning when requested to make a prediction on the voter turnout in Tuesday's election. "I am no longer making predictions," said Mrs. Bruce. "I have been overlooking the mark in recent years — the voters let me down. I would estimate a figure percentage-wise but the voters just didn't turn out."

In the 1966 election 66.7 per cent of the electorate cast ballots in Seminole County, including 414 absentee ballots. As of early this morning there were 679 absentee ballots returned out of 700 requests.

Mrs. Bruce said there are 28,034 registered voters in the county, of which 19,110 are Democrats, 8,283 are Republicans and the balance in other parties.

The county's 37 polling places will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. There are no changes in the locations of the polling places since the primaries.

Yellow Cabs will carry voters to and from the polling places and free of charge. Civic clubs have banded together and also are providing free transportation.

Three Die In Auto Accidents

Three persons were killed as the result of automobile accidents occurring in Seminole and Volusia Counties the past weekend.

Driving on the wrong side of 14 was blamed for the deaths of two persons in a head-on collision early Saturday, just south of Deltona.

According to the report of Florida Highway Patrol Troopers H. J. Daniels, of Daytona Beach, and R. B. Yates, of Deland, Garfield Douglas Jones, 31, Daytona Beach, and Frederick John Angelo, 55, Hallandale, were killed after the Jones car entered I-4 on an exit ramp at Deltona and traveled south in the north lane.

The car driven by Jones ultimately struck an auto operated by Henry Edward Mehlinger, 52, Hallandale, and containing Angelo, a passenger.

The resulting impact caused a wreck scene which required almost two hours to clear, according to the report. Mehlinger was removed by ambulance to Seminole Memorial Hospital after emergency crews worked to free the man from a twisted mass of metal.

He was reported in "fair" condition today by a hospital spokesman.

A Sunday car accident on SR 436 at Iris Road in Casselberry caused the death of Edgar A. Taylor, 28, Charleston, S. C.

Taylor died of head injuries which resulted when his car traveling west on SR 436 collided with an auto operated by Grace C. Green, 34, Regency Apartments.

Deputy W. H. Robbins reported the Green car leaving Regency Apartments made a left turn onto SR 436 and was struck by the Taylor vehicle. The collision caused Taylor's car to go out of control and

Alexander Endorses County Aide OKs Five Bond Issues

By MARION BETHA
 County Commission Chairman John Alexander strongly endorsed all five of the bond election items on Tuesday's ballot for county capital improvements program.

The bond election items that require the voters' approval are listed on the ballot in the following order:

Juvenile detention facility ($260,000). This is for a separate building to house juveniles in lieu of the jail.

Mental health and incompetency facility ($135,000). This is for construction of facilities to house incompetents pending legal hearings in lieu of detention in the jail, and also will provide clinic space for various mental health needs.

Agricultural center ($170,400). This will replace the present quarters in the run down former county home.

Branches court house ($291,250). This will provide adequate facilities in South Seminole County to conveniently obtain county services.

Land acquisition for park and recreation purpose ($1,050,750). This is for seven park sites totaling 2,122 acres for present and future needs.

It has been estimated that the cost to the taxpayer on this property tax bill would be as follows for each $1,000 of assessed value after homestead exemption for home owners: .081 cents for the juvenile detention facility; .101 cents for the mental health and incompetency facility; .263 cents for the agricultural center; .091 cents for the court house branch office, and .523 cents for the park acquisition. Total is .840 cents.

A further explanation, according to Alexander, is that on a home assessed at $15,000 valuation, after the $5,000 homestead exemption, the owner would pay on $10,000 and will have an increase in his tax bill of 81 cents on the $1,000 of assessed value, etc., for a total of $8.41 if all the issues pass.

Alexander stated that each bond item can be voted upon separately and will allow the voters to determine which of the capital improvement programs they support.

Indignant Calls Are Received

By JANE CASSELLBERRY
 Tax Assessor Guy Allen said today that he has received several indignant phone calls from taxpayers who had been notified by their mortgage companies that there would not be enough money in their escrow accounts to cover their tax bills this year.

Allen wants it known that county assessments have not gone up, as in this would indicate, but the bills to those living in the municipalities of Sanford, Longwood and Oviedo are higher because they now include the bills for the city ad valorem taxes as well as county.

This is in compliance with Florida House Bill 1082 which requires the billing for cities be done by the county in order to eliminate duplication and save the cities money.

Allen stated "You would think mortgage companies would have made necessary arrangements as we have known since last year that the law would require combining of the bills."

Altamonte Springs will not be included until next year as that city's fiscal year is not concurrent with that of the county. Casselberry and North Orlando residents are luckiest of all — there are no ad valorem taxes imposed by their local governments.

Clifton Overman Rites Wednesday

CASSELLBERRY — Funeral services for former Councilman Clifton (Clif) Longworth Overman, 51, of 1008 Crystal Bowl Circle, who died Saturday at Mercy Hospital, Orlando, will be held Wednesday at 3 p.m. in the Fairbaird Northside Chapel.

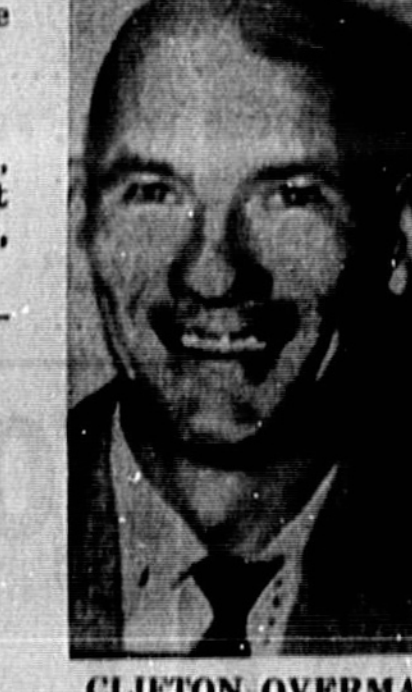

He suffered a heart attack last week while playing ball in Pine Hills. He also had served, in addition to four years on the council, as city and county building inspector.

A WWII veteran of the 8th Air Force, he was charter member of VFW Post 1050, American Legion Post 256, Land O' Lakes Country Club, Disabled American Veterans and a member of Military Order of the Cooties, Holy Trinity Pulpit S. Born in Grover Hill, Ohio, he came to Casselberry 17 years ago and was a carpenter by trade.

He is survived by his wife, Betty Jane Overman.

Chaplain Robert Dysert, of VFW Post 1050, will conduct the funeral service. The post also will conduct military services at the graveside in Casselberry Cemetery.

The widow requests that in lieu of flowers, contributions be made to any charitable organization.

Seminole Braced For Hippie Trek

By BILL SCOTT
 Seminole County and Sanford authorities braced Sunday for a possible invasion of hippies from Orange County.

County deputies and reserves were stationed at entrances to Sandaloo Springs, Big Tree and Mullet Lake parks to discourage a reported migration of long-haired young people who were prevented by Orange County authorities from entering their traditional haunts at Rock Springs and Wekiva Springs Parks.

Chief Deputy Duane Harrell said, "We have nothing for them here," when questioned today concerning the expected hippie onslaught.

The deputy further said he did not expect the displaced throng to move into Seminole County but after an alert from Orange County authorities both Seminole and Volusia County deputies were ready to handle the expected gatherings in the respective counties.

Sanford police were reported to be keeping watch over the city marina after receiving a report that an advance hippie van or car would be used to check the municipal facilities before giving word to the main bands of young people to move into the area.

A large group of young people was arrested yesterday while trying to invade the Cassadaga-Lake Helen Cemetery in Volusia County.

The action follows several reported incidents in New Smyrna Beach of desecration of graves but there is no indication the Sunday arrests had anything to do with other Volusia reports of cemetery invasions.

Responsibility Shifted To Users

By Dick Barnes

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the aftermath of the Wichita State football plane crash, the Federal Aviation Administration has moved to place more responsibility on the users—those who operate the planes—rather than on the manufacturer.

The FAA is concerned that such a firm may evade regulation as an aircraft operator. That task force, which also supplies the FAA with information on aircraft accidents, is now working on a proposed regulation which would require a firm to be certified as an aircraft operator. Sen. Ted Stevens of Alaska, Ralph S. Smith of Illinois and Charles E. Goodell of New York, defeat would put an abrupt end to their tenure. Thirty-five Senate seats are at stake in the election.

Stevens is running to complete the term expiring Jan. 3, 1975, of the late Democratic senator from Alaska, E. L. Bartlett, to whose seat he was appointed by former Gov. Walter Hickel, now secretary of interior.

Smith is seeking election for the balance of the term, expiring Jan. 2, 1975, of the late Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen. And Goodell is running both for a full six-year term and the remainder of the term, expiring Jan. 2, 1971, of the late Robert F. Kennedy.

 POLITICAL AD PAID FOR BY G. L. WHITE, CAMPAIGN TREASURER

Voters Are The Ones On Trial At The Polls

Now it is up to the voters! Now it is up to — specifically — the 2,787,000 registered voters in Florida to study the ballots, make up their own minds and during the hours when the polls are open tomorrow to fulfill their obligation as concerned citizens and vote.

With this in mind we would like to hold up a warning hand and voice some observations on this extraordinary 1970 general election in Florida.

If any voter has already secured a copy of the ballot, as printed in our newspaper or available elsewhere, looked it over, consulted responsible guides when needed and marked it prior to this past weekend, he should be congratulated.

The final days of almost any political campaign historically is that time when smears are attempted and false-hopes are raised by the irresponsibilities and the heated emotions of the political fray.

This year the Florida voter has had to endure a political season which slumbered through the summer prior to the First Primary. Then most of the conversation was between politicians, the voter not to be bothered while fish were biting, vacations were in order and issues were hazy enough to be forgotten.

Thus when the First Primary, Sept. 8, resulted in the emergence among the Republicans of a sharp split between those who rallied behind Gov. Claude R. Kirk, Jr. and U.S. Senator Ed Gurney and pushed former federal judge Harold Carswell as GOP nominee for the U.S. Senate and those long-time Republicans who had pledged and kept their party loyalty firmly behind U.S. Representative Bill Cramer the split widened.

This was further deepened when Cramer swamped the politically inexperienced Judge. Then the GOP was exhibiting a growing dissatisfaction with the Kirk record and saw successful drug store operator Jack Eckerd challenge Kirk so that the incumbent governor was forced into a Second Primary on Sept. 29 where, even then, his win was inconclusive.

Democrats, in the meanwhile had seen the emergence of two youthful state senators — Lawton Chiles of Lakeland and Reubin Askew of Pensacola — as successful challengers of the old-line Democratic powerhouse and able to win nominations for the U.S. Senate and the governorship without causing any fracturing of party strength.

This battle on the state level has so awakened the slumbering Democrats — they have a state-wide enrollment of 2,024,887 to the GOP's 711,090 — and so challenged the recently acquired vigor of the Republicans that a much higher percentage of voters are expected to cast ballots tomorrow.

Stir into this political brew the exciting ingredient of national politics — the visits of President Nixon, Vice President Agnew, Attorney General Mitchell (with Martha) — and it would be hard to find a more exhilarating brew for voters to savor.

Yet — and this must be remembered — it is the voter who must decide. If he doesn't, then the non-voter who must decide. If he doesn't, then the non-voter who must decide. If he doesn't, then the non-voter who must decide.

Let this not happen. Let Nov. 3, 1970 stand as the day when Florida voters — especially in Seminole County — recognized the great privilege of the intelligence needed to show dis-believers (and there are many) that democracy does and can function with knowledgeable strength!

A First Step

How can the present forms of government at every level be up-dated, stream-lined and made effective to cope with the needs of the public in these times?

This is a question which has challenged the very best thinking by political science experts. It has been focussed on the maze of overlapping, inefficient and extravagant bureaucracies in Washington.

From time to time, the urgencies of crisis conditions, have forced such studies by such metropolitan regions as that which hinges on a line from Boston to Baltimore.

Adjacent border lines, inherited rivalries, vested interests have made all such studies difficult to make and almost impossible to enact.

Thus when the growth state of Florida went into the study of government to take care of the rapidly enlarging areas which have stemmed out from Miami in the south and Jacksonville in the north, the results have caught national attention.

Miami's attempt at "metro" government has produced more critics than boosters. However the road taken by Greater Jacksonville to form and operate a city-county form of government has, in two years of operation, opened eyes all around.

Now the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce has performed a needed service in inviting Claude J. Yates, a distinguished executive of the Southern Bell Telephone Company whose retirement allowed him to put his years of successful executive experience at the service of his Jacksonville home, to talk about the Jacksonville consolidation with Duval County.

When representatives of all the incorporated cities in Seminole listened to the Yates account, the subject was brought into the spotlight. Consolidation, however, was not the prime emphasis of the Yates talk.

This voice of experience made sure that all there would understand that a first step must be a responsible study of government needs as they exist in the area under consideration.

This would not focus on consolidation, regional or any specific form which the study might finally decide was the best for Seminole. Far from it! The first need is a study of government, a study by experts who would consult office-holders but not include those whose position would be under scrutiny. A first step which we endorse and look forward to seeing taken!

Bridging The Town-Gown Gap

By DAVID POLING, President of the 88 college and university newspapers argue the validity and truthfulness of the grand jury report on Kent State. For what happened at Kent State University is part of the tragedy and sorrow that is cutting America in two. The wounds have not healed and the separations between town and gown were never so bitter and divisive.

I was waiting for an evening fight at the airport nearest to Kent State a few weeks ago. The plane was late and the terminal filled with friends and relatives. Most of these present were young married couples, middle-aged farmers and salesmen, generally representative of Ohio citizenry. Babies were rucked and kids played tag around the Coke machine.

Suddenly conversation stopped and people started. Into the airport lobby walked five college students. Two were barefoot. Several had hair at shoulder-length. A white girl was walking along with a tall black. They were all laughing and kidding among themselves but it did not fill the room with mirth. The great (silent?) majority of those present were angered SIMPLY by the presence of these college kids. You could feel hate and abuse rising up from the crowd. Town and gown don't mix any better in airports or campus or police stations. Issues and ages have

Did You Say "This Is Martha?"

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — It is 2 a.m. The night stillness is rent by overhead jangling. I set up in a somnolent fog, trying to identify the intruding sound. It is the telephone in my upstairs bathroom.

I lurch from the bed, slide my feet into the pair of old bowling shoes that serve as my bedroom slippers and make my way up the stairs, being careful to bang my right knee on the antique milking stool that my wife keeps on the landing for just such purposes.

"Hello." My voice has the approximate consistency of leftover pubium.

"Well, why didn't you call from the top of the Washington Monument?"

"I don't want John to hear."

"Heli. The response has a brightness that belies the hour. This is Martha."

"Martha! I rub sleepy dust from my eyes. Where are you calling from?"

"I'm calling from the top of the Washington Monument."

"Holy oheh! How did you get up there?"

"One of my suction pairs of sling pumps has 800 cups on the soles."

"But it's two o'clock in the morning. How could you climb the monument in the dark?"

"I had another pair of shoes with miners' lamps on the buckles."

"By this time I am wide awake. "Why are you calling from the top of the Washington Monument?"

"I don't want John to hear."

When two laughing young men emerged from a hijacked Soviet aircraft and announced they could "no longer live in the stranglehold regime" of the Soviet Union, to the Soviets it could be no more than a momentary embarrassment.

To be sure, it was the second hijacking to be suffered by the Russians in less than two weeks and it also was true that until the first hijacked aircraft put down its wheels in Turkey, they had taken a detour from the entire city and aimed especially at high school and college age students.

When he denounced Stalin as a murderer, an ignorant and a bungler, he cast doubt upon the infallibility of the Communist party, a doubt compounded by his own overthrow in 1964.

Further influencing substance events was the character of the collective leadership which followed him, composed of party leader Leonid Brezhnev, Premier Alexei Kosygin and President Nikolai Podgorniy, a leadership pledged against a return of one-man rule, its action limited to compromise.

Khrushchev sought to remove the excesses of Stalinism, and proclaimed coexistence as a foundation stone of Soviet foreign policy.

It was to be a coexistence of economic competition and not to include a co-existence of ideologies.

But the door had been opened, and among intellectuals, first the student and writers and more lately the scientists, there arose increasingly outspoken demands for reform within the party leadership there was obvious indecision as to how best to deal with it.

Hal Boyle Says:

Adults Ask: "What's The Hurry?"

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — One of the things adults can't understand about children is why they are in such a hurry to grow up.

To a child growing up it is the all-important goal in life. If you ask him why he is so impatient to achieve this aim, he is likely to reply:

"Because nobody can tell a grown-up what to do. He can stay up late if he wants to, and doesn't have to eat everything that everybody tells him he has to. He can do anything he wants to all the time."

It is only after the child has been grown up a while that it dawns on him that he has merely gone from a small prison to a larger one, and that his expected greater freedom is a fraud. Then he wonders, too late, why he was so desperate to become an adult.

He looks back with yearning on the days before, and these are a few of the things he misses from his vanished childhood:

Asking a little girl friend if she'd like to play house. "You be the door, Marie, and I'll slam you in, ha, ha."

Fighting, leaden-eyed, a falling fight to stay up on Christmas Eve and watch Santa Claus slide down the chimney.

Making ice cream out of snow and frozen cream on a windy day.

Skinny dipping in the old swimming hole and holding your breath under water when the afternoon train went by.

"Who cares about the issues—I'm voting for the candidate with the slickest TV commercials!"

Hippie Feeds Multitudes At Miami

By CHRIS MACGILL
Associated Press Writer
MIAMI — (AP) — Every afternoon at 5:30 a fire is lit by the water's edge in a park in Miami's Coconut Grove section. Dave—who doesn't give his last name—is in a picnic shelter cutting up vegetables and preparing rice to go into two big pots. He's been feeding the hungry every night since June, selling underground newspapers to help meet expenses.

Why?

"How can you express in words the high you get out of doing something like this?"

But 23-year-old Dave and his helpers say the food is the least of it.

"Why we're trying to do is change things," says Al. Her name "is short for beatitudes—in the Bible, you know?"

One part of the beatitudes says, "Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy."

The shady green park slopes down to Biscayne Bay. Some places become a mecca for footloose wanderers. This is one of them.

"There are a lot of lost people," says Jim, another of Dave's helpers. "And not just because they're hungry. The food and the cooking is just the gathering point. We're into a revolution of destroying our egos and doing for others."

It's dark now and the simmering pots are almost ready. People are sitting on the grass waiting. Some are barefoot, most are long-haired. One boy has a flute tucked in a back pocket. Two are seamy-faced oldsters. They might have been lifted from any soup line at any rescue mission.

If the police or narcotics agents who might be expected to keep an eye on such a gathering are here, they're not in evidence.

On November 3rd, the citizens of Florida will have an opportunity to demonstrate that they want their state government to be made better and more effective—that they want to take politics out of government and instead put leadership in. Reubin Askew in this campaign has demonstrated that he understands how to give this kind of leadership to Florida government. His campaign has been on issues, not on personalities. Instead of politically inspired charges and accusations, Reubin Askew has offered a positive program to make state government do its job in such a way as to benefit every Floridian. Askew is the candidate who has faced up to the imperative need of putting Florida taxes on a real, fair share program with corporations paying a fair share of the tax burden out of the profits they make by doing business with you. (This can be done by a referendum of the people.) At the same time, Askew is unambiguously opposed to any personal income tax and has pledged he will oppose any such attempt and veto any such bill, just as he is totally against any sales tax on groceries and medicines. Askew is the candidate who has discussed the issues—who recognizes that state government must build roads and schools, fight crime and drug abuse, serve the needs of both our older and younger citizens, preserve our environment and do all of the other jobs for which all of us must depend on state government. Askew is the candidate who has a positive program—and who will supply the kind of leadership in the Governor's office to make that program work to benefit you. Every citizen has only one vote—but the way you use that vote can make a real difference in the way your government works. To make Florida government work better and more effectively for you in the next four years, cast your vote on November 3rd for Reubin Askew for Governor.

Lunar modules that have been deliberately crashed on the moon's surface to set off artificial earthquakes have given scientists more puzzling information about that puzzling body.
On earth, compressional waves from earthquakes travel through surface rocks at four miles a second or faster. Seismometers left by astronauts on the moon recorded a wave speed of only about a mile a second.
Two geophysicists at Columbia University's Lamont-Doherty Geological Observatory decided to experiment with compressional waves on two samples of moon rock and a variety of terrestrial substances. The search was aided, they said, "by considerations of much earlier speculations concerning the nature of the moon."

One moon rock sample gave a reading of 0.78 and the other 1.4 miles a second. The terrestrial materials gave readings from 0.97 to 1.21. They were 1.5 grams and Ementaler from Switzerland, Gjetost from Norway, Provolsone from Italy, Cheddar from Vermont and Muenster from Wisconsin.
All are cheeses.
"It is seen that these materials exhibit compressional velocities that are in consonance with those measured for the lunar rocks," reported the scientists, "which leads us to suspect that perhaps old hypotheses are best, after all, and should not be lightly discarded."

Welfare Rolls Rise 20 Per Cent

By G. C. THELEN Jr., Associated Press Writer. WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's welfare rolls have ballooned 20 per cent in the past year to a record 12.2 million persons, the government's latest statistics show.

The increase of two million welfare recipients from June 1969 to June 1970 is causing a severe tax squeeze at all levels of government, and cutbacks in some welfare service and payments.

Federal officials say President Nixon's current $6.7 billion welfare budget may have to be boosted by as much as $1 billion to cover the unexpected new costs.

Government experts cite three factors in the welfare surge: The lagging economy and attendant unemployment, recent court rulings and administrative decisions loosening welfare eligibility requirements, and a new willingness among the poor to apply for welfare following publicity campaigns by antipoverty organizations.

The federal government pays about 62 per cent of the nation's welfare bill for dependent children and their mothers, the poor to apply for welfare following publicity campaigns by antipoverty organizations.

LOVE AND WAR—Occasionally you find a husband who sneezes just to keep his wife awake. Or so contends a New York medical fellow. He cites the case of an English professor who admits he wasn't sure his wife loved him. Said professor sneezed considerably. It was determined. But after his divorce and subsequent remarriage to a more affectionate sort of girlfriend, the sneezing dropped off. It is the doctor's claim the professor sneezed during his first marriage with a vengeance.

Which incidentally calls to mind the tale about the lady golfer who wildly hooked a tee shot into a cow. Shook up somewhat, said sport ran to the farmer and said, "I'm so sorry, I guess I've killed your cow. Can I replace her?" The farmer shook his head doubtfully and said, "I don't know. How many gallons a day do you give? Enough of that?"

'Secret Weapons' Antihijacking Plan Tests

NEW YORK (AP) — Eastern Airlines plans to test two new "secret weapons" for its pilots to use in a "last-ditch sort of situation" against hijackers.

The company, while declining to give details of the weapons, says one is an electronic device that apparently would stun a hijacker, while the other is a type of gun or similar device that would fire an unspecified missile.

An Eastern spokesman said: "Our primary effort will continue to be deterring hijackers on the ground. Whenever possible, our policy is to avoid violence altogether."

Eastern was the first airline to install an antihijack system developed by the Federal Aviation Administration incorporating both thermal-sensing weapons detectors and a psychological screening process to single out possible hijackers.

Until last year it had more planes hijacked to Cuba than any other airline. In the first nine months of last year, 10 of its jets were commandeered but since then only one has been.

Yet the law which gave them the ballot, the federal Voting Rights Act of 1970, remains in question. The Supreme Court has heard arguments but not yet ruled on its constitutionality. Val, who has been in Sanford for 12 years, hails from Ohio and is a member of Holy Cross Episcopal Church.

Self-employed as an accountant, she was one of the original four to form the local organization, SISTER, and for you who don't know this is a group of lively gals who call themselves Sanborn's Interested Sisters to Encourage Rejuvenation.

Taking an avid interest not only in her "SISTERS," Val has also taken to the "wilds" in attempts to locate a new home for more friends... the animals at Sanford Zoo. She is currently secretary of the Zoo Committee.

Civic-minded Val also belongs to "Sister Business and Professional Women's Club where she has held almost every office, including president for two terms. She is presently assistant District Director of District V (RPW).

Back to PETER NERO and the concert... KAY BAGGOTT of Seminole High School, was scheduled to interview Mr. Nero the morning following the concert, for the school yearbook.

She was unable to meet the appointment due to emergency hospitalization. When the returned, Mr. Nero learned of Kay's misfortune, he sent her flowers.

The gesture was indeed gallant and beautiful and just know Kay is over ten feet tall these days.

Speaking of the concert... DR. JOHN JOHNSON really did enjoy the talented pianist. He applauded loudly and sincerely before each number ended... It was later I learned the handsome doctor also plays the piano and appreciates great artists.

For those of you who have time hanging heavy on your hands... and don't suppose many fall into this category... start dreaming about what you'll wear to the Champagne Ball, which is scheduled Dec. 5, at Sanford Civic Center.

ELIZABETH AND FRANK MEBANE are this year's chairman and are changing the format slightly. The Renegade Brass Band will furnish the music for dancing again this year.

Tomorrow a great "happening" is scheduled... however it's rated "B" for restricted... only registered voters are eligible to participate.

It just happens to be voting day... so everybody who is registered, please vote... that way, you'll have the moral right to ripe when the time comes.

Miss Best attended schools in Sanford and Lake Mary and is a 1966 graduate of Seminole High School, where she was a member of Latin Club and Paramed. Club. She also attended Florida Technological University and Seminole Junior College of Practical Nursing.

Mr. Offenberg was born in Newton, Iowa and attended schools in Miami and Orlando. He is a 1966 graduate of St. John Vianney, Miami, and attended FTU and Seminole Junior College. He is currently employed at Bill Baker Volkswagen, Sanford.

The wedding will be an event of Saturday, Nov. 7, at 10 a.m. at St. Charles Cathedral, Orlando.

Next week his divorce will be final, after which he will be married. (His wife still can't understand what she did wrong, although he has tried for 15 years to tell her.)

So tell that lady to put the dinner in the warming oven, and the coffee on "simmer," and do give that man of hers a welcome-home kiss that will land them both on the moon.

Perhaps some other woman will be the recipient of his affection, after you are divorced. Then you can relax, unsmiled in your blessed singleness, and he will be your problem.

On the other hand, if you've inhibited him sufficiently to

Our marriage is being held together "because of the children." Tell "Tired" to thank her lucky stars that she is married to such a marvelous romantic louse who wants to rush her into the bedroom the minute he gets home. And if she's "too tired," she should take a nap before he comes home and be prepared.

I am a lousy cook and a worse housekeeper, but I don't dare to give her husband a warm welcome when he comes home with only dinner on his mind. And he doesn't think of anything else afterwards, either.

That lady should thank her lucky stars her husband still has a yen for her. Tell her she's lucky to have him. I'll be happy to trade with her.

Oswald: "There are experts who never open four-card major suits and others who open them rather indiscriminately. We favor the five-cardists but we don't go all the way. We open a four-card spade suit once or twice a year and a four-card heart suit, somewhat more frequently, but we want our partners to treat our major suit openings as five-carders."

Jim: "Today's hand illustrates a four-card major suit opening bid in Jacoby Modern. We don't like to open bid three-card diamonds, or any two-card club suit, so we fall back on a four-card spade suit this time."

Worry Clinic By Dr. Crane

By GEORGE W. CRANE, Ph. D., M. D.

CASE 0-573: Mill J., aged 28, is a Chicago civics teacher.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "how can we make our politicians inject more efficiency into government?"

"I've already written three letters to Senator Percy with regard to your right."

"But such residents of non-taxable 'reservations' would not be locked into lifelong residence there!"

No, indeed, for if and when they developed a trade or the ambition and greed to support themselves, they would be free to return to our productive society.

But as long as you hard working tax payers must support them, then why not do it economically?

Besides, the Indians have been on similar reservations for generations!

So why show prejudice by preventing the poor whites and blacks from enjoying a similar warm southern climate, close to nature?

Well, I haven't the space to outline Mill's 4 other ideas, yet they are equally challenging!

But if you wish to be sure to catch the eye of your elected officials with your personal letter, use this strategy:

(1) Just write a snappy letter of 200 to 300 words to your local newspaper, outlining your suggestion.

When the editor then prints your letter, clip it out and paste it on the front of your envelope. Always include the newspaper's masthead (name) and date, too!

You may then enclose a longer personal letter inside, if you wish.

But politicians will wake up when they see your printed letter on the outside of the envelope, for then they know it has already been read by tens of thousands of voters!

"Men wearing ties," wrote Williams Shakespeare, "are mightier than the sword!" Which means the pen is afraid of those quills. So are politicians!

Send for my booklet "How to Write Salable Copy," enclosing a long stamped return envelope, plus 20¢, for it has a section on letter writing.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper; not clothing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20¢ to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

TUESDAY, NOV. 8, 1970

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Use good judgment today and avoid those pending arguments that could put you behind the eight-ball. Walk or drive carefully so potential accidents do not take place. Sit back and observe what others are doing and you are able to get considerable wisdom and understanding.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Try not to take any chances where credit is concerned; that could make high-overhead disapproval of you. Do things that stamp you as an outstanding citizen. Obey all rules and regulations that apply to you.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Better stick with what has proven profitable and satisfactory or you could go off on business tangents that are no good at all. Showing others that you are wise saves you much trouble in the future. Happiness is a matter of right thinking.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You are tempted to go off on a tangent and leave important work which would be unwise. Doing something special for your associate brings great results. Avoid extravagance.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 22) Avoid any kind of argument with partners now, and try to be more cooperative instead. Any problems which may crop up should be studied carefully. Don't jump to conclusions immediately.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Show that you are willing to make certain concessions at home so that there can be more tranquility there in the future. Find out what is causing the main trouble. Do your utmost to eliminate it.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Plan how to improve your daily routine, but don't disturb an associate who likes to do things the same old way. Good day for correspondence, but be careful of what you write. Be polite to all.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You want to add to present income but it is important that you are not forceful with others. Find out what your true position is. It may be that you are not putting certain assets to work. Show wisdom.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Get busy working on important projects instead of criticizing others. Make your appearance more charming.

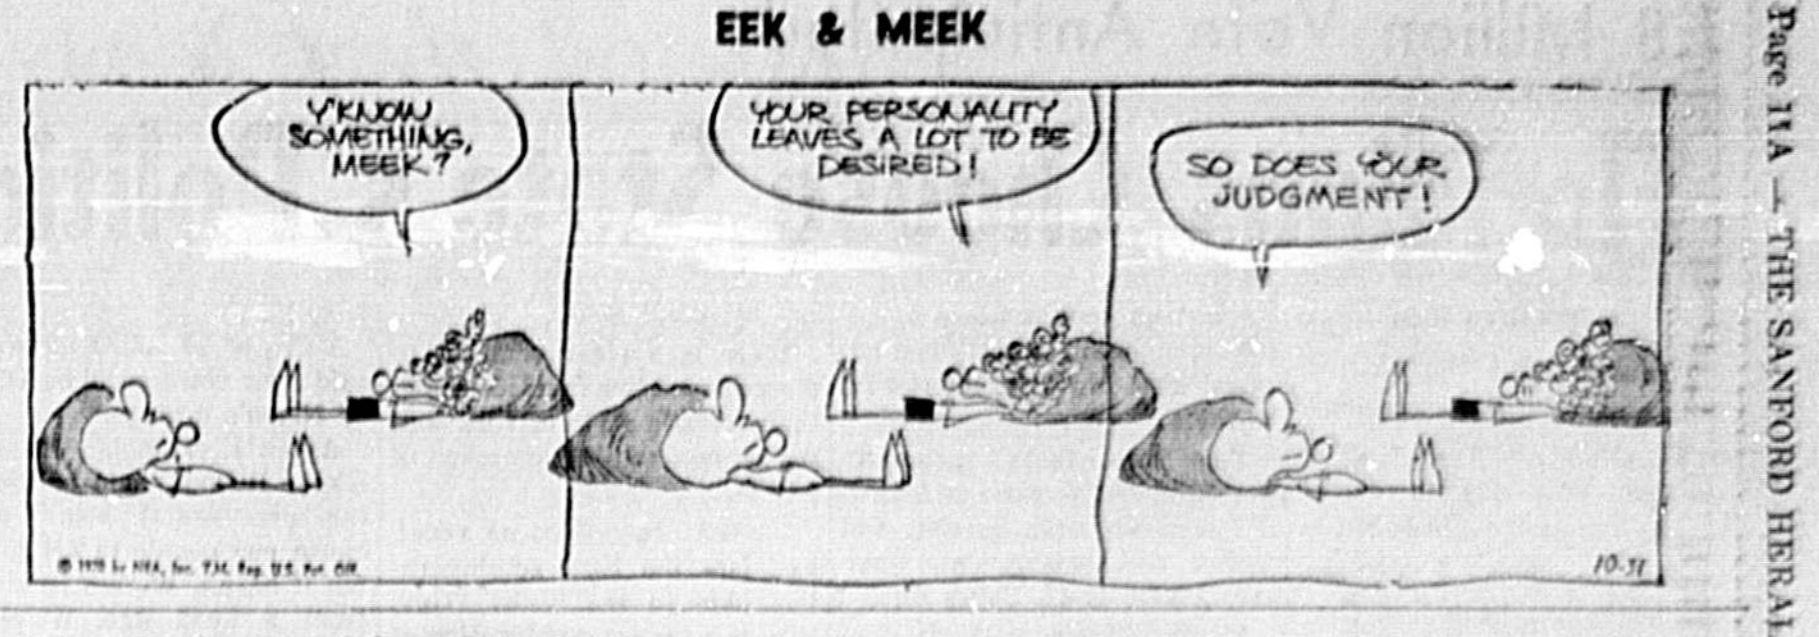

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Take care you do not permit others to talk you into a situation that is not good for getting yourself off the hook. Take time to assist persons who are in trouble.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You have some ideas that should be studied well before you venture to put them into action. Steer clear of social events this evening. These could lead to some trouble.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those young people who is always present where there is some sort of trouble brewing. Therefore, any profession such as detective, police, nursing, medicine, etc., would be fine, especially law. Teach early not to start arguments just for the love of fighting and excitement. Give the benefit of sports to take up the most creative energy and include the finest education possible.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Highlights

7:30-8:30 CBS GUNSMOKE Morgan Woodward should be given a contract as a semi-regular on this series. This must be his 50th appearance, and he's also one that gives him a good chance at emulating. He's a wounded outlaw who has come to Dodge City for dual purposes. One is in hopes Doc can help him, which he can't. The other is to find the daughter he abandoned 14 years ago and wants to see before he dies. A sentimental saga that Woodward brings off as well as possible.

8:30-9:00 ABC THE SILENT FORCE One of the better action series is its effort to put the spotlight on the more mundane daily operations of the underworld, like a takeover of a non-glamorous, but high-income business such as dry-cleaning. The mob is slowly forcing small operators out of business so that the small businessman who is left wants to stay in and the general public will have to use the service of major plants. When one such operator refuses both to quit and to join, his life is imminently endangered. Tom Rowley is featured.

9:11 NBC MONDAY NIGHT AT THE MOVIES "Berlin Affair" Darren McGavin, Fritz Weaver, Brian Kelly and Claude Dauphin star in the "World Premiere" TV film, a spy saga that pits friendship against professionalism. It has all the usual pop gimmicks of the typical private eye novel, with McGavin as the old pro given the enormous job of bringing in an old friend and business associate who has gone astray. To get to his man, he takes up with his former buddy's former girl friend, hoping she will bring the two together. Instead, he falls in love with the lady and finds his problems doubled. And that's just the beginning.

9:30 conclusion ABC NFL MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL Terry Bradshaw star rookie quarterback of the Pittsburgh Pirates lines up against the Cincinnati Bengals at Pittsburgh. Keith Jackson calls the action with Howard Cosell and Don Meredith supplying the color.

Politics Should Be Clean, Nixon Tells Audience

By NORMAN KEMPTER SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (UPI)—President Nixon Friday called on the nation to cleanse its political process of "violence and terrorism by the radical, anti-democratic elements in our society."

The President, who was the target of a barrage of rocks, bottles and eggs thrown by demonstrators Thursday night in San Jose, promised to deliver, at an evening Republican rally, a "gloves off" talk about political terrorism.

"Freedom of speech and freedom of assembly cannot exist when people who peacefully attend rallies are attacked with flying rocks," the President said in a statement read to newsmen by White House staff members.

"The time has come to take the gloves off and speak to this kind of behavior in a forthright way," he said.

"The crowd that cursed and attempted to stone Nixon in San Jose was the noisiest and most violent he has faced since he has been in the White House. A long time staff member compared it to the Communist mob which attacked Nixon in Caracas, when the then vice president visited the Venezuelan capital in 1958.

None of the missiles struck Nixon although White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said a small rock narrowly missed the President's head.

"The violence underscored one of the points Nixon made in almost every speech this week during his 4,500-mile campaign swing on behalf of Republican candidates in key states from Florida to California.

"I want to tell you that these radical few are not the majority of American youth and they will not be the leaders of the future," he said to cheers at rally after rally.

Tanks In Europe Are A Big Secret

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and its NATO allies have about 5,000 more tanks in Europe than top-level Pentagon officials knew about, The Washington Post says.

Existence of the tanks was discovered by the Pentagon during an administrative review of NATO security during the past four weeks, the Post said in a story in Friday's newspaper.

The tanks include about 1,200 modern American M48s, equaling modern German Leopards and British Centurions and about 800 older U.S. M24s and M48s, the Post said.

The Post said the tanks had been designated as reserves in case of an attack and were parked along the autobahn in West Germany.

It said there are not enough standby crews to man the armored force and the tanks are highly vulnerable to air attack in their present position.

The Post said disclosure of the number of tanks actually in Europe reportedly stunned civilian and military officials in the highest levels.

The Post said the Pentagon previously had estimated the NATO armored force in Europe at about 6,000 tanks. Op-

Gls Supplied Black Mart, Probe Shows

By JIM ADAMS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army investigators have confirmed that GI's diverted drugs and PX goods into Thailand's black market as well as doctoring pay records and promotions. A House committee says.

According to the House military operations subcommittee, the investigators found the illegal activities occurred in Bangkok and at two U.S. bases in Thailand.

The inquiry was prompted by two Army enlisted men who told the Associated Press and the subcommittee they had been involved in thefts and illicit pay record changes before leaving Thailand a year ago.

"You could sell anything you wanted to," said one soldier. He stated he made about $300 a day over a three month period by diverting medical supplies into the Thai black market.

He said shipments of drugs and other medical items, intended for service hospitals were diverted to the black market by falsifying shipping records.

The second soldier said clerks in a finance detachment had devised a scheme under which they paid soldiers advances on their paychecks without noting the transactions in the official records. The men receiving the advances then split part of their advance pay with the clerks, the soldier said.

Although the Army investigators confirmed such happenings, the committee said, the people, the size of the thefts and the amount of money have not been determined.

The subcommittee quoted the Army as saying the partial pay operation involved a "small ring" of enlisted men at a finance detachment at the Korat Air Base.

The subcommittee also reported Army investigators said truckloads of Post Exchange merchandise were diverted into the black market, usually by Thai drivers, sometimes but not always with the cooperation of GIs.

The Army also reported some promotions records were falsified in Thailand so the soldier involved could collect "money owed" at the higher pay grade when he returned to the United States, the subcommittee said.

The Army keeps central promotion records, the subcommittee said, but promotions to corporal and back sergeant can be arranged within a battalion where false promotion orders can be mimeographed.

Law Officers Unhappy

New Crime Computer Doesn't Always Work

By JIM PURKS
Associated Press Writer

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — "CC down."

Some law enforcement officials have claimed they're getting this code message too often when applying to Florida's four-month old Crime Information Computer Center in Tallahassee for information.

The code message, when it comes, means that the computer for some reason or other isn't functioning. It could be a breakdown, a power fluctuation, or "bug" in the system.

Whenever the reason, it had become apparent the FCIC system, which will cost $2.6 million when fully operational, will present plenty of headaches for state officials here, and law of officials elsewhere, during its embryonic stage.

"We could have settled for a model T. It's the difference between the horse and buggy and automobiles," said a spokesman in the Department of Law Enforcement, explaining the center's equipment problems and the new concept. It entails.

The computer center "works real good when it works," complained one critic, Leon County Sheriff Raymond Hamlin.

"It takes them a week to find out if a car is stolen," said Indian Harbour Beach Police Chief Rich Whelan.

Brevard County Sheriff Leigh Wilson complained, "I've got 30 messages stacked up which I haven't been able to get through."

Objectives of the computer network is to tie every police department and sheriff's office in the state into a statewide crime information network that has direct links with the FBI Information Center in Washington.

It's hoped that eventually a policeman on the beat can radio in a request for information on a possible stolen car, suspect or arrested person, and get back the information he requested in less than one minute.

The computer center is now

Television Preoccupied With Weekend Politics

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Television was thoroughly preoccupied with politics over the weekend.

Television news departments — network as well as local stations — have the form and the handling of political public affairs shows down cold. There is not much that can be done beyond debates, interviews and discussions, but they are done smoothly. The commercial-makers specializing in selling candidates are specialists.

There is also the governor of "The Governor and J. J." up for re-election, and Oliver and Lisa Douglas of "Green Acres" are opposing each other in a local mayoralty race. Both of these are just for laughs.

"The Senator segment of NBC's 'The Bold Ones,' however, takes politics seriously—grimly really—and came on very strong Sunday night with a tough-talking drama about cynical men and practical men and the buying and selling of public office. It carried special impact with its look behind the smoke-filled room.

The series-within-a-series, which stars Hal Holbrook as the high-minded and determined U.S. senator, shapes up as the most adult and interesting of the trio of series that make up the programs.

The senator on Sunday night was tangling with his state party chairman to prevent the nomination of a rich party benefactor for a vacant congressional seat for which he was thoroughly unqualified. The senator, determined to pass a vital educational bill, was threatened with loss of needed party support if he did not go along with the nomination.

There was little action and lots of talk during the hour, but it still managed to be exciting and illuminating. And, naturally, the good guys won.

When CBS decided to star Glen Campbell in a variety hour several seasons back, Tom Smothers—who owned an important portion of the show—decided that since Campbell was not well known, the show needed more than the singer's name in the title. Thus it became "The Glen Campbell Goodtime Hour."

Campbell is certainly well known today. His is the strongest show in CBS's Sunday night lineup. And one of the really distinguishing marks of the program is that Glen and his guests really do seem to be having a good time.

Too Close To Call

Political Races Narrow

By RICH OPEL
Associated Press Writer

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — After four years of Republican gains, political indicators in Florida's Nov. 3 general election campaign point to a moderate Democratic resurgence but with the races for governor and U.S. Senate suddenly much tighter.

Democrat Reubin Askew no longer seems a strong favorite to defeat incumbent Republican Claude Kirk in the governor's race, and the contest may have moved into the "too close to call" category.

Republican U.S. Senate nominee Bill Cramer, a tough, veteran campaigner, also seems to have made inroads into Democrat Lawton Chiles' lead, but indications are that he remains at least a slight underdog to the 49-year-old Lakeland attorney.

With only hours remaining before an expected 1,818,000 voters head for their polling places, best available signs show that Democrats probably will retain control of all six seats of the elective state cabinet, although some of the most invective-filled campaigning of the Florida election year in the treasurer-insurance commissioner's race leaves that contest in question.

—There is little likelihood that the 93 Democratic hold on the state's congressional delegation will change.

In the Legislature, the Democrats' 24-11 margin probably will not shift, although Democrats stand to gain up to seven seats in the House to improve on their current 73-22 margin and thus, secure the two-thirds majority in each chamber needed to override a vote if strict party-line voting prevails.

There have been no recent statewide polls, but a mixture of tangible and intangible evidence shows the race for governor is ripe for an upset, with Kirk pulling off a last minute victory.

The hard evidence: The St. Petersburg Times' respected pollster, Richard Funck conducted a poll of Pinellas County voters last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. While Askew led 57-43 and 56-44 per cent with undecided distributed proportionately on the first two days, the contest leveled off at 50-50 on Thursday.

President Nixon's visit to Florida covered the first two days of the poll, and this would suggest that Nixon's stumping was indeed, a significant asset to GOP campaigns.

Kirk's camp makes the claim, generally conceded by Askew backers, that the incumbent governor has corralled the bulk of a quite large undecided vote which was known to exist in Duval County earlier in the campaign.

Kirk drew enthusiastic crowds during his last week of campaigning when his carefully paced strategy turned to basic reliance on what he regards as his strongest virtue—the "Kirk Courage" image.

Meanwhile, Askew's campaign appeared to decelerate, which would not be unusual at this stage in the effort of a candidate who regards himself as ahead.

Then, too, is a sign that Kirk is experiencing a political renaissance of sorts in parts of North Florida where he counted great strength in 1966.

Everett Willard, the Florida reporter, remarked on a recent 19-county Democratic rally in Lake City, that:

"... A substantial number of those attending the rally are going to vote a Kirk-Chiles ticket. A South Florida reporter who conducted a private poll was surprised to find the first five people he contacted following that line-up."

The increasing willingness of political reporters who have traveled with the gubernatorial candidates to venture prediction of an "upset win" for Kirk:

Soviets Close Sub Base

MIAMI — (AP) — Republican Senate candidate Rep. William C. Cramer said Sunday President Nixon told him the Soviets have stopped building a submarine base in Cuba and have recalled their ships.

"I... President assured me that following a strong warning from the nation, construction has been halted," Cramer said at a news conference. "The Soviet vessels have been removed."

Cramer said he delayed releasing the information due to "my clearing this completely with the Defense Department and the White House."

At the Western White House in San Clemente, Calif., a spokesman for Nixon said Sunday he had nothing to add to the Defense Department statement.

The St. Petersburg, Fla., congressman said Nixon revealed that the Soviets had stopped work on the submarine base at Cienfuegos, Cuba, during his political swing through Florida last week.

The Defense Department said Sept. 25 that the Soviets were apparently intending to achieve the capacity for sustained naval operations on the Communist island and were possibly constructing a sub haven at Cienfuegos.

At the time, the Defense Department said, "We do not know exactly what the facilities are intended to be, nor whether they are intended to be based. We are not sure that they are building a submarine support facility."

The Soviet Union denied its intentions involved military installations in Cuba, but Cramer said "That's their motto — do it and deny it."

Cramer said three Soviet fleets have visited the island 90 miles south of Florida three times in the past 15 months with nuclear submarines, destroyers and missile-carrying cruisers included in the fleet.

Cramer's disclosure brought an immediate charge from his Democratic opponent, U.S. Sen. Lawton Chiles, that Nixon was playing politics with national security.

Chiles said he wondered why Nixon had not released the information himself when the President made his campaign appearance in Florida.

Chat With The Mayor

By CHARNER LEONE

"The City Commission is going to vote so we can go to the contract," he poked. He settled to a more serious tone as he called his predictions for Tuesday. Note: Moore is a registered Democrat.

"I think Askew and Chiles will take it. Incidentally, my niece, Susan Carr, is married to one of Chiles' law partners."

He continued, "I think Bill Chappell will make it, at least I hope so. His opponent, Leonard Wood is a good man, but..."

Concerning the state legislature Moore opines: "I'm about half and half here (Republican and Democratic). Gorman and Fullard are the only two I'm voting for in this race that were in last time."

And on the local level he had but one comment: "There has never been a Kick appointee in this county that has been re-elected except for County Judge Wallace Hall. I kinda look for the Democrats to go back in."

The local bond issues concern the Mayor: "I am voting for the parks and recreation, the juvenile detention center, and the mental health and incompetency facilities. But, sure about what to do about the agricultural center, but I do feel that the county branch office could lease a facility that is already available. I feel that it should be leased," he added, emphasizing the should.

The City of Sanford has pumped out the docks on the east end of Pier A, twice, the last time only last week. This was done following an inquiry by Carl Deeter, V.P. of Cobia Boats, as to what the city intends to do about the docks that appear to be sinking.

Meanwhile the City is involved in a law suit with Monroe Harbour to determine the responsibility for the damage to docks on the west side of the harbor that now rest at the bottom of Lake Monroe.

"The city doesn't want to jeopardize the case in court, and cannot say what will be done," explained the mayor.

The pumping, the cost of which is minimal, is done as a "stop gap" measure. "This can be kept up indefinitely," the mayor concluded.

"I don't think that's being unreasonable. I just can't believe that these people are not going to honor their contract. It's not like we stuffed it down their throats."

Moore spoke calmly about the contract with Page Airways which has not been honored in many respects. A meeting was held with the officials of the company from Rochester, New York, and the local commission two weeks ago, on Oct. 16.

"The Rochester people didn't realize just how bad the situation is. They seemed surprised at all meetings as the problems were revealed." Another meeting is set for Wed., Nov. 4 in the City Commission Room in the Sanford City Hall at 10 a.m.

Moore expects that at that time Page will pledge to honor the contract.

The contract, signed by the City of Sanford with Page Airways for general aviation services is based on what Page said they would be willing to do. The contract, of course, follows the Federal Aviation Authority guidelines.

Areas of the contract that have not been honored include promotional work, air taxi services, charter plane, and instructional facilities.

"About all they do is to provide a place to get the planes out of the sunshine. And they gas up the planes. They don't even do their own mechanical servicing. Rather they arrange to have it done by another company."

"Another aviation outfit, Sanford Aviation, has applied for the contract," said Moore without threat, in the event that Page doesn't fulfill the contract.

"I don't think we're being unreasonable in expecting fulfillment of a contract designed by Page itself!" he concluded.

Moore chuckled as he was asked to make predictions on Tuesday's election results. "I

Senator Contests 'Dirty'

By JOHN STOWELL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Formal charges of dirty campaigning in U.S. Senate contests more than doubled this year, reflecting the intense battle being fought over control of that chamber, according to the head of the Fair Campaign Practices Committee.

Samuel J. Archibald, executive director of the committee, said Senate candidates have registered 19 complaints compared with nine each in 1968 and 1969.

"It could reflect the importance the White House has attached to the Senate races," he said, "and perhaps the greater interest in Senate races."

Yet, the 36 complaints received from the total 35 Senate, 425 House and 25 governor's races in Tuesday's election is a marked decrease from the 68 complaints in 1966 and 67 in 1968, Archibald said in an interview.

"Maybe with professional campaign managers getting into it more and more, the answers are more subtle and make it difficult to get your finger on it."

"The only other reason I can figure out in the whole problem of voter apathy, voters aren't interested in this particular election and that may have led to the fewer number of complaints."

Chamber Of Commerce Meets At SJC

Seminole Junior College was host recently to meetings of both the 1970 and 1971 boards of directors of Matland South Seminole Chamber of Commerce. The incoming board met to elect officers for the coming year.

Those elected were Richard F. Smith, Central Purchasing, Inc., president; Don W. Tausch, Commercial Bank, first vice president; W. J. Howell, Florida Power Corp., second vice president; Donald C. Rogers, First National Bank of Matland, treasurer; and Priscilla Green, secretary and executive director.

The Board of Directors recently re-affirmed its stand in support of the much needed I-4 interchange for Matland and voted to indicate support of the Department of Transportation's decision as to the location of the interchange and the connecting road as far east as 17-92.

A petition is available in the office in Matland.

Dramatic Reduction Of Mercury Reported

ATLANTA (UPI)—A "dramatic" reduction in mercury concentrations found in fish caught in the Brunswick estuary was reported Friday by the State Water Quality Control board.

The report said tests were conducted Oct. 7, two days before a 45-day ban on all crabbing in the estuary ran out, and many fish specimens were found to have less than the 5 parts per million limit recommended by the Federal Food and Drug Administration.

The report, which compared mercury concentrations with those found in tests run in June and July, credited Allied Chemical Co. of Brunswick with the "substantial decrease of mercury levels."

The company was discharged 3.5 pounds of mercury per day into the estuary last May but had cut that discharge, at the request of the board, to 165 pounds a day.

Tribe Destroys Cocoa Tigers, 53-7

It was Homecoming for Seminoles High at Sanford Municipal Stadium Friday night. But the Tribe turned it into nothing more than a workout as they prepared for what should be the "game of the season," this Friday night at Lyman High School. Seminoles totally destroyed the Cocoa Tigers 53-7.

It was a rainy night, typical of the last few Homecomings, but the Fighting Seminoles kept the crowd on their feet and cheering, forgetting about the weather.

Sanford started the game in an unusual fashion; they won the toss. Then they took the ball and drove to the five yard line, where the offensive attack went on the "warpath." Howells again got the call again as he barreled across from the one-yard line. Spolaki converted to make the score 14-7.

Then Tommy Whigham went wild, scoring three touchdowns in succession. The first on a 42-yard run. There was less than four minutes on the clock. Spolaki's kick again split the uprights. The next one Whigham got his hands on the ball he carried in from the 10-yard line. The PAT attempt by Spolaki was blocked. Before the first half could end, Whigham broke loose for 35 yards. The PAT was off target and the score stood 33-7 at the half.

Tommy Baris went in the air in the third quarter, hurling a pair of six-pointers. The first was a 31-yard aerial to Johnny Holt, and the second was to Billy Jimenez from the five. The PAT by Spolaki was right on target for the first time. The Seminoles' defense was over-powering as they held Cocoa to 48 yards on air and four first downs. Cocoa compiled only two passes, though

'Bethune-Cookman Wins Central Florida Classic

By GARY TAYLOR
 Herald Sports Editor

ORLANDO — Nearly 10,000 football fans packed into the Tangerine Bowl Saturday for the Second Annual Central Florida Classic. The final score saw the Bethune-Cookman Wildcats come out on top of South Carolina State, 21-17.

From the very first play from scrimmage, the fans knew what the game was going to be like. The Wildcats had the ball on the 22-yard line. Quarterback Anthony Penn went back to pass, scrambled and then found some daylight. Heavens, Alfred Heywood had broken into the clear, with no defender anywhere near. Penn hit with the pass, and Heywood raced down the side line, completing the 68-yard scoring play. Clarence Robinson converted and the score stood 7-0.

There is some doubt though as to whether or not the pass was a legal one. According to films of the game taken by WESH-TV cameraman Charlie Eby, Penn was over the line of scrimmage when he released the ball. Later in the game, Penn was penalized for this same violation.

Dennis Bailey put the Bulldogs on the scoreboard for the first time when he booted a 36-yard field goal. This made the score 7-5, midway during the first period of play.

Bethune-Cookman got the ball back, and Penn went right to work. He hit Heywood on a sideline pass and it looked like nothing could stop him, when he accidentally hit the chalk line, stepping out of bounds. The play covered 35 yards. After the offensive attack stalled, Heywood attempted a field goal, but it was off target.

South Carolina was on the move after they received a ball, and two consecutive personal fouls moved the ball to the seven yard line, first down and goal to go. Hurt Benjamin, an Orlandoan who shared the signal-calling for SC State, threw the ball into the end zone. It was deflected by the would-be receiver, and John Osborne grabbed the interception and raced 101 yards for a touchdown. Robinson again converted, and the score at the end of the first quarter saw the Wildcats in front, 14-0.

Interceptions, fumbles and penalties was the story of the second quarter, as neither team was able to score. Bethune-Cookman went to the dressing room leading 14-3.

Gregory Dolson caught a 19-yard pass from Penn early in the third quarter, as the Wildcats upped their lead to 21-3. The big play of the drive was a 23-yard carry by Heywood, who was tackled by the 33-yard line, across the midfield stripe to the 44-yard line.

Later in the same quarter, the two teams exchanged back-to-back pass interceptions. A roughing the passer penalty gave South Carolina the ball on the 21-yard line. John Haynesworth found daylight right up the middle and went all the way for the score. Bailey's PAT attempt was wide, and the score stood 21-3 with 15 seconds remaining in the third period.

South Carolina got a chance to come right back when they blocked a punt and took over on the 26-yard line. But with the ball down inside the five-yard line, Benjamin fumbled into the end zone and Nathaniel Ross recovered.

Fumbles and interceptions were plentiful as both teams kept turning the ball over. South Carolina capitalized on one of these turnovers, and took the ball in good field position. Benjamin Samuels hit Alfred Young on a 30 yard scoring play. Benjamin held for the conversion, but got up and scampered around the end for two points.

This left the score at 21-17. With just a few minutes left, the Wildcats received the kickoff. They couldn't keep the ball, and had to turn it over to SC State. But the Bulldogs' effort failed. When the game ended, the Wildcats were trying desperately to cross the goal line again. The final score saw the Wildcats on top, 21-17.

Fishing Club Meets

The monthly meeting of the DeBarry Fishing Club will be held Wednesday, Nov. 4, at 7:30 p.m. at the Community Center of DeBarry. New residents of DeBarry and surrounding communities are invited to attend this meeting.

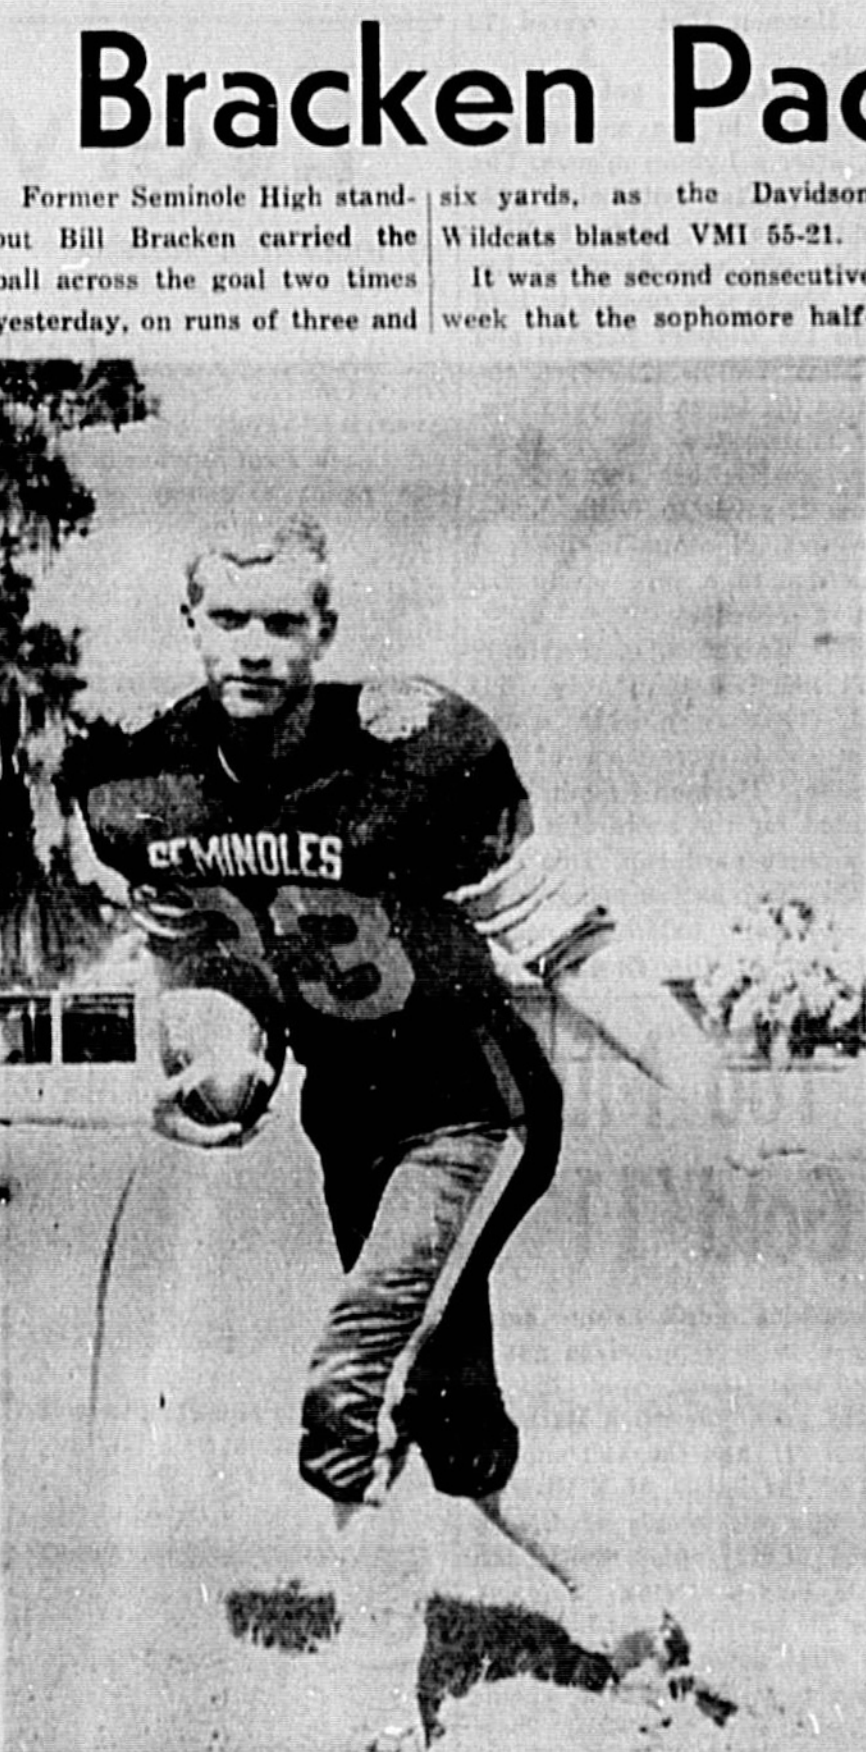

Joe Pierce will speak to the group about the laws enforced by the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission. Two interesting color movies will be shown and refreshments will be served.

The club members will hold a picnic Tuesday, Nov. 10 beginning at 10 a.m. at the Hontoon Island State Park. Guests are invited. This park is a beautiful place, equipped with all modern facilities, including a restaurant serving food and drinks.

A ferry boat will take the visitors from the mainland to Hontoon Island for a small charge. This rate will be reduced if the passengers are in groups of ten.

Here is a description of how to get to the park: from highway 17-92 turn west on Highway 15A; at the next traffic light turn to Highway 44 and follow to the DeLand Railroad Station where you are on Hontoon Road, which leads to the Riverside Road and the landing pier of the ferry boat.

Former SHS Standout

Bracken Paces Davidson

Former Seminoles High standout Bill Bracken carried the ball across the goal two times yesterday, on runs of three and six yards, as the Davidson Wildcats blasted VMJ 45-21.

It was the second consecutive week that the sophomore half-back has scored twice. Last week he scored a pair of TDs against Wofford as Davidson fell 35-13.

Bracken is termed the "best runner" on a team that relies mainly on an aerial attack. He has been starting at the left halfback slot since the season opener, but only got the chance because of an injury to the left halfback. Now he is there to stay.

In six games thus far this season, Bracken has carried the ball 78 times, compiling 278 yards in rushing and has scored five touchdowns. His 30-point makes him the highest scorer on the team.

He has also hauled in seven passes for a total of 49 yards. In addition to his chores as halfback, Bracken has been on the kickoff return teams. Thus far he has returned the ball six times for 97 yards. This is nearly 15 yards per return.

Last year Bracken was the leading rusher for the Freshman team which compiled a 4-1 record. He looks to play a key role in the future of the Wildcats for the remainder of this season and the next two points makes him the highest

Harmon Shines With Three TDs

Lyman Greyhounds Hit Hapless Trojans

By CLAY HARTSOE
Herald Sports Staff

The Lyman Greyhounds handed the Evans Trojans their seventh straight loss, beating them 35-12.

It is understandable why Evans has lost seven in a row, as poorly as their field is lit, they probably haven't been able to see any of their opponents. As one of the Lyman coaches said, "I've seen cow pastures that I'd rather play on."

One thing that the Trojans couldn't see, or if they could, they couldn't stop, was Lyman's backfield. Bruce Rose, who was held scoreless last week, returned to form and scored three touchdowns against Evans, the last coming on a 65 yard run just as the game ended.

Lyman depended more on a bruising running game rather than the pass. The Greyhounds scored once in the third period on a seven yard keeper by Rose, and then scored in the fourth on Harmon's 65 yard run.

Evans was able to score in the fourth period on another still, but it was a consolation score covering six yards.

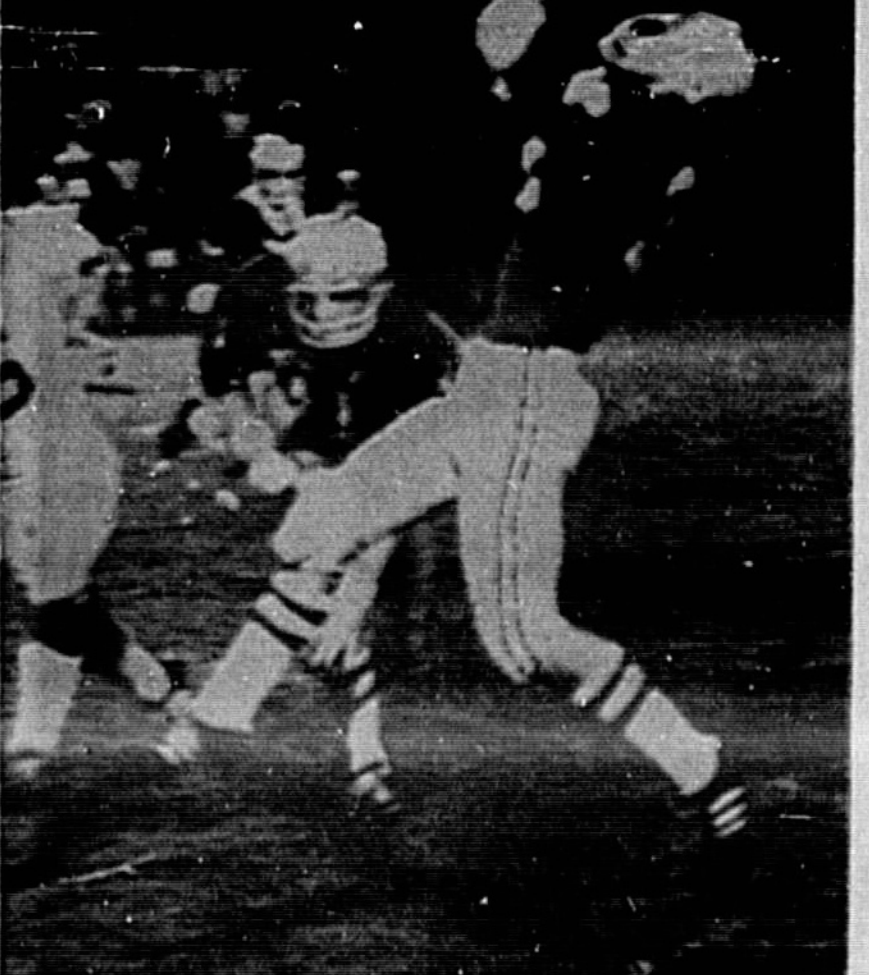

Lyman has now increased their record to six wins and only one loss. Their last two Impressive wins would indicate that they are ready for next week's big game. They meet cross-county rival Seminole High, who is currently undefeated.

With 1:08 to play and on the field, the Chiefs were facing a 4th and goal situation. The Chiefs leading 17-14 on a Len Dawson sprinted 19 yards to the Oakland 28—and was smacked by big Ben Davidson after the play.

Evans finally got on the scoreboard in the second period, after a Lyman miscue. The Trojans, after not being able to move, ball punted to Billy Meeks, who was deep for Lyman. Meeks was unable to hold on to the slippery pigskin and an alert Trojan recovered the ball on the Lyman 42 yard line. The Trojans took two plays to score, quarterback Jeff Stillwell threw 27 yards to Willie Jones, who was all alone in the end zone to score.

The Chiefs then punted and Daryle Lamonica, racing the clock, drove Oakland yardage to set up Blanda's tying three-pointer.

Coach Says Girl Umpire Is Doing Fantastic Job

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Ever feel like kissing an umpire? You might if you played in the Central East Tulsa Baseball league where cute, curly-haired Connie Rice is the first female umpire.

Connie, 24, applied when Vice-Chief, director of umpires for the group, asked for volunteers. Children were reluctant to take on a three-year-old girl who would like to have "a few more like her."

"They're more dependable," he said. "She's doing a fantastic job."

Connie grew up with athletics. "I have always been athletic," she said. "I'm interested in all kinds of sports and have played on basketball and softball teams." She and her younger brother, Don, play football and a sort of ice hockey with sticks on basketball and softball courts.

Homeruns Are Thrill

NEW YORK (AP) — Joan Hodges, wife of New York Mets manager Gil Hodges, says one of her big thrills in baseball was the time her husband "hit four home runs off four different pitchers in one game."

The pitchers were Warren Spahn, Norm Roy, Bob Hall and John Antonelli of the Boston Braves. The homers were hit in Braves Field in Boston. Hodges also had a single that day to set a major league record of 17 to 14 bases in one game.

The date was Aug. 31, 1950.

Batting Lead

Rico Carly of the Atlanta Braves led both leagues in hitting last season with a .366 batting average. He finished 14 points ahead of four-time National League champion Roberto Clemente of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Disaster Strikes Oviedo Lions, 7-0

By LARRY NEELY

OOOEE-It was a bad night for football here and a particularly bad night for the Oviedo Lions as the Oviedo Cardinals slipped by Oviedo 7-0. The Lions lost more than just the game as three key players were injured in the final quarter of the slippery action. Quarterback Lynn Burch is apparently out for the remainder of the season with a broken leg and David Jackson suffered a back injury while David Bishop injured his shoulder.

The Cardinals Timmy Brown picked up a Lyn Burch fumble and dodged 45 yards in the end zone when Burch fumbled and was forced to punt. Late in the half Burch grabbed his second interception of the night when he baulked in a Charlie Brown punt and was hit hard while attempting to pass and Tom Winstead came up with an interception to crush any hopes the Lions had for salvation. After the play was over came the rainstorm that Burch was down and couldn't get up.

The loss leaves Oviedo 2-4 for the season.

Coach Doug Dickey resolutely turned his attention ahead to today and hoped his Florida football squad follows suit.

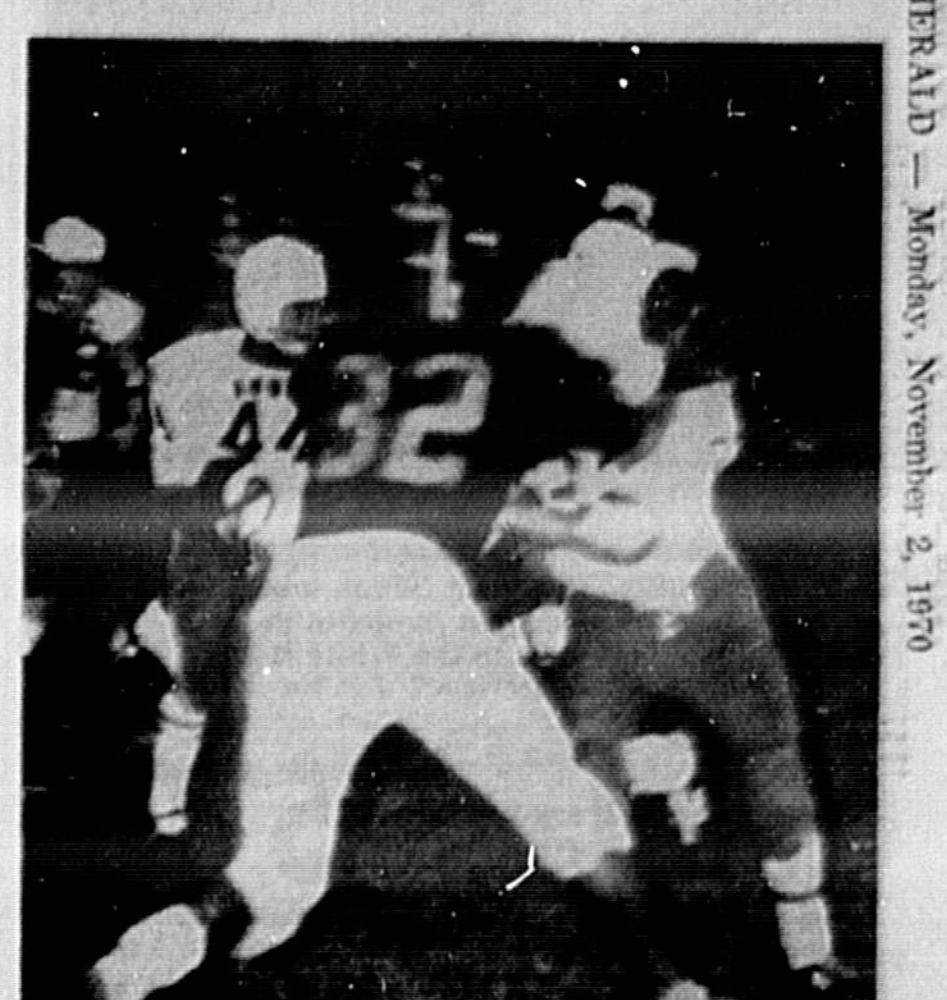

"Whether you are winning or losing, you have to look ahead," he said. "If you don't, you can go from good to bad or bad to worse."

The humiliating 63-14 loss to Auburn on top of the previous week's 38-7 defeat by Tennessee were new experiences for him.

Dickey is a little puzzled about how he would mentally prepare the Gators for Georgia this week and Kentucky and Miami in the remaining games.

When sports writers asked how he would approach this situation, he replied: "I'm open to suggestions."

"We'll make an effort to come up with a game plan to get something done against Georgia," he vowed. "This squad wants to do things very

Doug Dickey Says: 'Don't Look Back'

Dickey and just about every one else said the biggest difference between Auburn and Florida was speed. Auburn had plenty; Florida had little, particularly in the secondary defense with the two fastest men sidelined by injuries.

Harris Clark says come back this week but Ted Fager brought looking beyond this season. Dickey anticipates added speed from the outstanding freshman team and future recruits.

"We are going to have the players do more running before next fall," he said, "and try to improve their speed."

"We've got a long way to go," he said, "but our objective is to get something done against Georgia." He vowed. "This squad wants to do things very badly. Unfortunately, that's not quite good enough. They have to execute them, and we are having a terrible time converting third down situations in the clutch."

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Babe Hiskey, an obscure, 31-year-old golfer, ended five years of troubles, struggles and bitter frustration when he won the $100,000 Sahara Invitational golf tournament.

"It's been a struggle," the 31-year-old Hiskey said Sunday after scoring by a single shot. "All my life it's been a struggle. Not just golf, everything. Finishing college, everything. I've had it over and over since, it had over 150,000 miles on it, and we burned it out last week."

American Humane Association Classifies Movies

By GEV E HANDSAKER
Associated Press Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The American Humane Association has classified eight movies including "Soldier Blue" and "Patton" as unacceptable because of the treatment of animals used in them.

Other films rated unacceptable Thursday in the first list issued since the association's recent announcement of its rating system are "El Condor," "Macho Callahan," "Mondo Cane," "Valdez Is Coming," "Trail of the Hunter" and "The Outbreakmen."

"The constant abuse, mistreatment and cruelty to animals in foreign productions and by some producers in the United States is what necessitated a rating system," said Harold Meiniker, director of the association's Hollywood office.

"The films objected to were produced chiefly in Spain or Mexico," Meiniker said.

"In 'Soldier Blue,'" he told a reporter, "we feel horses were mistreated, particularly in a frightful scene of an attack on an Indian village by the U.S. cavalry at the end of the picture. You see horses going down on their heads with what seems to be great likelihood of injury."

"In 'Patton,'" he went on,

Test Tube Baby

DETROIT (AP) — An English scientist says he plans to plant an embryo created under laboratory conditions into the womb of an infertile woman in the hope it will develop into a normal baby.

The embryo would be formed by mixing a husband's sperm with an egg removed from his wife's ovary. Dr. Robert G. Edwards of Cambridge University said Thursday.

He said such early embryos already had been developed outside the mother's body in experiments at Cambridge.

Edwards addressed a symposium on the Biology of Fertilization and Implantation, sponsored by the Wayne State University School of Medicine.

He declined to say when the attempt to produce a human baby from a test tube embryo would begin, but said similar experiments with rabbits and mice had resulted in normal births.

Edwards said one purpose of the experiments would be to give childless women the chance to have their own babies. Often the Fallopian tubes of such women are blocked, preventing passage of eggs into the womb for fertilization.

Dr. Benjamin G. Brackett, a veterinarian and biochemist at the University of Pennsylvania, described similar work at his university, but declared, "We would never think of doing this in a human being" until research is more complete.

He said science could be set back if a child produced in such an experiment was not normal.

Rededicated

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — An island in southeast Kentucky which is the site of General Burnside State Park has been rededicated in honor of former Gov. A. B. Chandler.

The land now is known as "Chandler Island," courtesy of Gov. Louie B. Nunn. That was its original name during Chandler's tenure in 1853, but the plaque was removed in subsequent unfriendly administrations.

formed that two donkeys were given lethal injections and killed for the bridge-crossing scene. This is unconscionable. There are so many ways such action can be simulated."

Meiniker said it's "quite obvious" the "Secrets of Jim" "Cowboy" used invisible wires to trip running horses—so-called "running W" device discontinued since the association's recent announcement of its rating system.

Home Stripped Of Furnishings

By BILL SCOTT

Three burglaries including two thefts of cash totaling $900 from South Seminole businesses and the wholesale removal of household furnishings from an Altamonte Springs residence highlighted the sheriff's department investigations today.

The cash losses occurred at Club 436 at Altamonte and at a Fern Park service station, according to sheriff's reports.

Between $450-$500 was removed along with a .38 caliber pistol at 436 Club, according to Clayton Thomas, who reported a hap was removed from the door leading to his room.

In another robbery, the Cligo Service Station, on SR 436 next to Zayres, was looted of $400 in cash, according to a complaint by Bill Mandeshall, station operator. The money was removed from a file drawer during the night.

In the residential burglary, a couple, who left their Altamonte home on a four-month visit last July, returned Monday to find the contents of their Spring Street home removed.

Among the items reported taken from the William Hall home were a color TV, small TV, stereo set, refrigerator, freezer, tables, chairs, lamps and household furnishings, including clothing.

Deputy Jay Leman conducted the preliminary investigation.

Ordinances Pondered By Casselberry Board

By KATHY NIBLACK

CASSELBERRY — Last night was a night of revisions as the City Council met in a work session to suggest and consider changes in several city ordinances, some of which are now in effect and some which haven't yet been adopted. Among those considered were the zoning ordinance, the sanitation ordinance and the subdivision ordinance.

An amendment to the zoning ordinance is being prepared concerning commercial signs, since several problems have come up in this area. Lester Mandell, of Greater Construction Corporation, and Robert Robinson, of

Bids Asked From Three Firms

Ambulance Service Is Sought

By MARION BETHEA

It was the consensus of the Board of County Commissioners this morning to obtain proposals from at least three companies relative to providing ambulance service for the county. The county has been assured by Herndon Ambulance Service, with whom it presently has a contract, that there will be no interruption of service in the interim.

The problem has arisen since county records do not reflect that the agreement expired on an annual basis. The present agreement with Herndon expired on Nov. 1 and was subsidized by the county in the amount of $35,000.

During budget hearings, the county budgeted $20,000 for this service. Commissioner Sidney Viblen Jr. questioned as to whether the $20,000 figure was satisfactory to Herndon and received a negative reply from Commission Chairman John Alexander.

Alexander went on to report that Herndon is not pushing the subject and that there would be no lapse of coverage and if the county secured other proposals it would be amendable.

ON NEXT WEEK'S AGENDA
Commissioners agreed to place the matter on next week's agenda. Commissioner Greg Drummond said that the county owed it to the taxpayers to utilize the coming seven days to ascertain other services and went on to say that in the future the county should pursue the matter with hospital trustees 45 days prior to the budget hearing.

Drummond requested any concern which is receptive to an agreement with the county to provide the ambulance service to contact the board. Viblen questioned whether Herndon refused to negotiate for the $20,000 subsidy. Alexander replied negatively that Herndon officials advised that they could not enter into a one-year contract without the $25,000 necessary to continue the service.

REVIEW IMMINENT
However, he said that they would review the matter in the amount of $22,500 in a two-year contract and stated that they would be happy to appear to discuss details of this service as regards to accounts payable and so forth. Viblen also injected that it would be difficult for another service such as Beacon Ambulance to compete with Herndon since they are based immediately across the county line.

Employees Renamed At Oviedo

By LIZ MATHIEUX

OVIDEO — City employees were reappointed to office last night by the City Council, as follows:

Ken Triplett, chief of police; Wesley Place, assistant chief; Steven Gatter, patrolman; Nancy Cox, city clerk; Shirley Slayton, assistant city clerk and court clerk; Emmett Kealey, fire chief; A. M. Jones, water superintendent, and I. O. (Bud) Claxton, building inspector.

Committee appointments for the 1970-71 year included: Personnel, Ben Ward, chairman; Jim Pearson and Ray Beasley; finance, Pearson, chairman, Ward, C. K. Bucklelow, Edward Kasell and Beasley; utilities, Ward, chairman, Kasell, Beasley, Rex Clonts and W. H. Martin; police committee, Beasley; fire committee, Kasell; building and sanitation, Pearson, chairman, Kasell and Beasley; public works, Beasley, chairman, and Ward; civic committee, Mayor C. D. Thompson and reelection, Beasley and Kasell.

Two resolutions were read, one honoring the past council president, W. H. Martin, who served the Oviedo City Council for more than 10 years. Council indicated that he was instrumental in bringing such of the recent progress to the city the water system in particular. Former City Attorney G. Algeron Speer Jr. received a resolution thanking him for his help and guidance throughout the years. Speer was not reappointed.

Ward presented a plan for approval for a new subdivision he is planning to develop called "Grove Hill" on the corner of Broadway and South Jessup for homes in the $20-50,000 class. It was accepted and approved.

In new business, council transferred a beer license from Jesse Smith to Bostie Mae Broady and Willie Mae Broady at a business formerly known as "Smitty's Minute Market."

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE TO 'SOUND OFF'

OPEN VOTING MACHINE was awaiting the electors at 7 this morning in state and county balloting. Late morning reports indicate a better-than-normal turnout of voters in Seminole County where there are more than 28,000 registered electors.

The weatherman co-operated with "Florida sunshine." There also were a few reports of temporary voting machine breakdowns. Polls will close at 7 p.m. tonight.

Sanford Election Slated On Dec. 8

Sanford voters trooping to the polls today with the rest of the state, to elect state and county officials and approve or turn down bond issues and constitutional amendments, may not be aware that in just five weeks they will return to the voting booths to select a city commissioner and vote their feelings concerning the creation of an authority to operate the Sanford airport.

While the commission re-

Sanford architect Eoghan Kelley offered some time ago to work on a plan for the new airport but has not yet completed his design, which would incorporate several attractions on the zoo site, including an amphitheater.

The relocation of the municipal zoo is still unsettled; despite the commission's approval of a site to move the animal attraction. There is a movement among a few to bring the matter directly to the people by asking the citizens to vote on themselves enough millage to pay the costs of constructing a suitable zoo complex on a 12-acre site adjacent to the Sanford Herald building.

A. B. Peterson Jr., member of the city's zoo committee, said today there is still enough time left to get the proposal before the people in time to be advertised for 30 days before the Dec. 8 vote date.

Peterson said he believed that the moving could be done for $100,000, which was originally set some time ago as the goal needed for the relocation and construction of new facilities to house the zoo.

In a "straw ballot" a year ago, the city residents gave the commission their approval to do just about anything with the zoo but there was no levy of millage attached to the straw vote. Now, comes the proposal by Peterson for the referendum to levy enough millage

Gordon Meyer, city commissioner and chairman of the zoo committee, said he didn't like the idea and wanted to see what could be accomplished without the referendum.

Meyer said he thought Kelley would have plans to show next week with projected costs.
