

Blues In The News
By JIM MEYERS

Do you ever get the feeling that you want to do something different? Now you have just the chance and you'll have a lot of fun. Come to the All Soul's Catholic Church Bazaar. There'll be booths, entertainment, and Christmas articles, food all day long. Remember the date Saturday, Dec. 15, the place, Oak Avenue and Ninth Street.

There was much curiosity aroused and increasing interest expressed concerning the little red monoplane at NAAS. When the Navy came aboard the station, this 3-seat Stinson seemed a symbol of abandonment. It stood forgotten, with one flat tire, yet its color gave the only brightness in the grim deserted hangar. Now our little ghost plane is undergoing a complete overhaul which will lift her to new heights where she will play amid the clouds. Her proud owners, Bob Mather and Tom Hays, say that they expect to be flying sometime in March. Bob is a licensed aircraft and engine mechanic and Tom is an electronics technician in the FABRON electronics shop.

Although the plane was laid up for almost two years, Bob and Tom were really surprised to find that it was in such good condition. After they put new fabric on the wing and tail sections and finish overhauling the engine, they will keep it at Slade Ranch Airport near Sanlando Springs. Here they'll fly with a flying club which was organized on the base soon after the FABRON's arrival. In fact, this flying club made a grand entrance before the rest of the squadron had reported from Jax, Jack Horil and Ralph Delbene were circling in for a landing. It must have been a bit difficult for them to find the runway at that time since it was all overgrown with the miniature forest sprouting from every crack and crevice, and all the padeyes on the apron. But soon after they gracefully alighted and taxied to a halt, they spotted a jeep speeding out toward them. Much to their surprise they were greeted by the acting CO of NAAS, Sanford, who thinking they had made an emergency landing, offered them his kind and dutiful assistance. After a difficult explanation and some discussion, Jack and Ralph began to wonder where they would keep their 2-seat Fairchild-24 monoplane, since they were informed that they would be allowed to keep it there only if they could increase the number of members in the club.

There are only ten members in the club at present, but they're anxious to increase the number to a final goal of 15. Jack Horil, Ralph Delbene, Bob Wise, Larry Serpas, Ken Comrie, John Louree, Bill Metic, Jerry Embrey, Bill Ose, and Clayton Peters are all members. In its short existence the club has come a long way due to the enthusiastic work of the members. They've built their own T-hanger, refabricated the wing and tail surfaces, and are just about ready for their test hop. The plane has a 2-way radio, landing and navigation lights, and a full instrument panel which has been thoroughly serviced.

Twice a week he club has instructions which are given by Roy. Twice a week the club has instructions consist of pre-flight aerobics, including navigation and meteorology. Anyone can join the club and learn to fly cheap. The members are covered by insurance for public liability and property damage, which is already included in the club dues. Members can make cross country hops, too, but must give notice one week ahead.

It's been a long hard grind thus far but now because of the praiseworthy efforts of the present membership, the club has been whittled into fine shape. Anyone interested in joining this flying club can contact any one of the members, who all belong to the FABRON at NAAS.

The First Presbyterian Church at Third and Oak Avenue wants everyone at NAAS, including the wives and girl friends, of course, to know that they are cordially invited to attend the one hour, all music Christmas service at their church on next Sunday night at 7:30. That's Dec. 16. This is a packed-house service, we are told, because of the popularity built up in past years, so take a tip and get there early. The Chancel Choir of 25 voices will sing nine anthems and there will be some organ numbers played by Mrs. George Touhy, Minister of Music. The Rev. A. G. McInnis says to make it a date now.

To those of our readers who are going on leave and the kind people of Sanford who are "staying in" for the holidays, we wish a very Merry Christmas and a most Happy and Peaceful New Year.

Internal Revenue

"fair" inference that Grunewald once intimidated by Oliphant's influence extending into the White House itself. Kean said it looked that way to him. Oliphant denied it.

In a development outside the hearing, Chairman King (D-Calif.) had a conference at the White House with President Truman. Presumably it was concerned with Mr. Truman's intended actions in "clean house" in the government but neither King nor the White House would talk about it.

Grunewald is a man-about-town whose activities have become a matter of major interest to the House tax investigators. Just what he does is one of the matters of mystery. Sometimes he has been called an investigator and at other times a public relations man.

He lives in a swank apartment house and apparently has a large income. In any event, the Internal Revenue Bureau filed a tax lien against him today for $31,157.71 on his 1950 income.

At the moment, Grunewald is in a hospital. He was located there, suffering from what his physician has diagnosed as nervous tension, when committee aides were looking for him with a subpoena to testify at the House hearings.

Grunewald's name has run all through the hearings. Oliphant has told of Grunewald taking an interest in the tax case of Abraham Teitelbaum, the wealthy Chicago attorney who contends he was the target of an attempted $500,000 "tax fix" shakedown.

There has been testimony, too, that Caudle once "surmised" a guttural voice which Teitelbaum said called him in connection with the alleged extortion attempt might have been the voice of Grunewald.

The matter of whether Grunewald claimed influence at the White House came up when Oliphant testified that Grunewald was interested in trying to get him (Oliphant) a salary raise in 1949.

The secretary of the Treasury sought recrimination of Oliphant's job to lift the pay from $10,330 to $15,000 a year.

Oliphant said Grunewald talked to him about it—"a friendly concern, that is all"—but that he had no impression that Grunewald said he could be of help.

Rep. Kean said: "Mr. Grunewald knew the secretary of the Treasury already wanted you to have higher pay. The only place he could have put influence was on the White House. That's the only inference." Oliphant said he did not think that a proper inference, and added: "My whole conception of this

U.S. Alerts Sweden Two Other Nations For Korean Teams

WASHINGTON—The United States has alerted three nations—Sweden, Norway and Switzerland—that they may be proposed as members of "non-belligerent" inspection teams in event of an armistice in Korea.

The proposed teams would maintain a check on whether the Communists, on the one hand, and the United Nations forces, on the other were abiding by the armistice terms.

The approach to the three nations was made through their ambassadors here Thursday by John D. Hickerson, assistant secretary of state for United Nations affairs.

Hickerson, it was learned, told the ambassadors the United States would like to know whether their governments had any objections to participation on an inspection commission.

They were told that in principle the United Nations Korean Command probably could accept the armistice inspection idea.

The Communists have referred to this idea as inspection by "neutrals."

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

Some cruel nations have been destroyed and their proud capitals have returned to the desert wastes. He is a strong advocate of the Lord, and a controversy with the nations, he will plead with all flesh.—Je. 26:31.

The Florida Safety Council sends out a Christmas card which says: "Don't make an ash of yourself by smoking in bed." That's worth remembering, you bed-smokers.

Drew Pearson who has been called a liar, and more different kinds of a liar, by more people than anyone else in the world, was handed kindly and considerably by Rep. Sam Rayburn the other day after the columnist said Rayburn had urged the President to clean house. "It was all a figment of somebody's imagination," Rayburn said.

Down in Tampa we notice they are discussing the advisability of adding fluorine to the city water supplies as protection for children's teeth. "It is," says Dr. A. P. Black, head of the chemistry department of the University of Florida, "the greatest advance in public health not only in this generation but in this century." Some day Sanford is going to have fluorine added to its water.

Dan McCarty, candidate for governor, who ran Fuller Warren a close second in 1948, breezed through Sanford the other day on a quick tour of the state before he starts his regular schedule of campaign speaking. He seemed confident that he is out in front and will get a good vote in Seminole County although recognizing the handicap he is under here with a home town boy in the race.

The great Tallulah Bankhead is dragged into court to testify against her former maid for hiking checks, is smeared with mud; the beautiful Joan Bennett is embarrassed by her husband's shooting of her alleged lover; Senator Bridges is linked with the Internal Revenue scandals which have disgraced too many of our government officials. We would not like to be a celebrity. They seem to have so much trouble.

A new magazine comes in our desk in the form of "Suntime", a weekly survey of Florida, edited by Harris Powers, former editor of the Ocala Banner, grandson of Frank Harris who ran the same paper for 62 years, and before his death was known as the dean of Florida journalism. Among the first contributors to the magazine is Martin Andersen, publisher of the Orlando Sentinel, who tells his favorite Florida story.

An interesting story about the east coast of Florida, sometimes called "the Gold Coast", from Miami to Miami Beach, is detailed in the current issue of Suntime magazine. Pictures are included and will prove interesting to those who want to know what is going on in this very important corner of our state. Thousands of people who do not know what they now find on the coast are moving to Florida which is getting to be more and more like the South of France of old days.

South Carolina Supreme Court has upheld the right of voters and citizens generally to elect public officials or to elect for public office. When a candidate for public office or a candidate for public office is elected, he is elected by the people. I see where one editor claims we didn't show Frances Elizabeth the proper hospitality in Washington, says we should have given her a "key to the city." I don't agree with him. Mister Editor, in the first place, judging from the way people been carrying stuff off up there, I don't think they're getting anything locked up. I accept those records the investigators are trying to get. In the second place, I don't think the President would have been left over if he did have a key to the city. I don't think the world's biggest lie is that the President would have been left over if he did have a key to the city. I don't think the world's biggest lie is that the President would have been left over if he did have a key to the city.

Safest Time Of Life

Life in the United States is safest at ages nine and ten, according to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, and less safe during the first year than at any age to and including 85. This is based upon an analysis by the company of mortality data for the general population in 1949, as reported by the National Office of Vital Statistics.

An all-time high of 67.6 years in expectation of life at birth registered during the year represents a gain of fully 4 years since 1940, the Metropolitan notes, and a gain of 18 1/2 years since the start of the century.

Our greatest gains in life expectation, it is pointed out, have been at the early ages. At birth the gain in life expectation for males during the decade has been more than three years, whereas at age 40 the increase was less than a year.

"This reflects the strides made in the control of the infections of early life," the company explains, "in contrast to the limited progress which has been made in the control of the chronic diseases of middle and later life. Then, too, with an unchanged life span limit of about 100 years, the closer that limit is reached the smaller is the margin left for gain."

The extent to which women live longer than men is greater than ever before. According to mortality conditions prevailing in 1949, women outlive men by an average of 5.6 years, as compared with 4.5 years at the beginning of the decade.

Even if there should be no further improvement in mortality, most people now living in the United States can expect to live beyond the biblical three score and ten years.

The Uses Of Bail

When four of the notorious eleven Communist leaders jumped their bail bonds after being convicted of conspiracy to teach and advocate the overthrow of the government, they set off a chain reaction of attacks on the uses of the right of bail. Many Americans had argued that they should not have been free on bail anyway, with the opportunity to go on with the activities which were the basis of the charges against them. The fact of the four brought demands that higher bail be set for Communists and that they be prohibited from furnishing their own bail money, which they apparently do not hesitate to forfeit as an expense of the Party.

The Supreme Court has now handed down a partial affirmation of the criticism of the Communist uses of bail. It refused to review the cases of three bondsmen for the fugitives, failed for refusing to give the court information which might have helped to locate the four. The ruling substantiates the opinion that those who furnish bail for a prisoner have an obligation to produce him in court.

The opinion is important to the issue of the Communist uses of bail. They were using this ancient right as a legal means to evade justice, to enable a criminal to escape under a subterfuge, leaving only his forfeited bail to satisfy the claims of society against him. Bail is not for such a purpose. It is an instrument to assure justice, not to defeat it; it is intended to enable a prisoner to remain at liberty while the courts determine whether or not he has been guilty of a crime. That right is guaranteed in the Constitution. The courts have a right and a duty to protect bail by trying to prevent misuse and abuse of it.

The Family Doctor

Dr. A. C. Yoder, an 84-year-old physician of Goshen, Ind., has been named "Family Doctor of 1951" by the American Medical Association. The award honors his 50 years of devoted service to medicine and indirectly honors all those doctors who spend their lives ministering to the sick with little public notice.

A man can earn the title of doctor by graduating from a medical school and meeting the other requirements necessary for his acceptance into the profession. This is not an onerous matter for the requirements are demanding and difficult. But there is much more to earning the title of family doctor.

A physician becomes a family doctor only after many phone calls which take him from his dinner or his bed. He learns to be friend and advisor to his patients, rejoicing with them in joy of every birth, and sharing in their sorrow when his skill and knowledge cannot defeat the inevitability of death. But after all this he is too often taken for granted.

Dr. Yoder is doubtless pleased that after fifty years his efforts to heal the sick have been recognized in this way. But great as the honor is it probably pleases the old doctor no more than his first realization that his patients considered him their "family doctor."

This And That

President Truman was telling reporters in Key West the other day about a joke he played on his grandmother 40 years ago. He said he dressed up in a Yankee uniform and went to see his grandmother, who was a hot-headed Confederate. He told the reporters that she ran him plum out of the house and off the farm. I was just thinking how nice it would be if the Democrats in 1952 could do as well as grandma.

Pepper Prices Reach Peak At Pompano State Farmers Market

WINTER HAVEN—(Special)—Pepper prices reached the season's peak last Friday on the Pompano State Farmers' Market according to G. B. Hogan, Market Manager, when one lot sold for $20.50 per bushel basket. Several lots sold from $18.00 to $19.00 per bushel.

A total of 2,076 bushels averaged $14.05. Volume is light but showing some increase though supplies are expected to be light until about February 1st. The supply of beans has increased considerably during the past week, 60 cars moving out on Monday, Dec. 10. A total of 121,177 crates averaged $2.35 per hamper for the week. The heavy bean volume on this market with a heavy movement from Everglades area, has increased the market considerably and several cars are going to canners daily at very low prices.

Squash are in good supply at low average prices with 14,256 hamper averages $3.60 for the week. Other items moving out of this market last week were very light supplies of hot pepper, averaging $3.80; Lima, $3.60; Field peas, $2.95; Okra, $19.80; A total of 5,935 eggplant averaged, $4.75; 4,027 bushels Cucumbers at $9.45.

THE WORLD TODAY
 By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON—(AP)—So far the Congressional investigation of tax scandals has been a one-way street, even though it performed a public service with its disclosures.

The investigators—members of a House Ways and Means Subcommittee—have taken a lot of trouble checking up on employees of the executive branch of the government and on civilians who have been linked with tax cases.

And the committee has forced testimony to appear before it to answer questions in public hearings. But the committee did not do the same kind of job when members of Congress were involved.

At least two House members, both Democrats, have been mentioned as either interfering in the tax fraud prosecutions or taking an unusual interest in them. But the committee did not force them to testify before it.

And the committee gave its own chairman, Rep. King, California's Democrat, special treatment when there were rumors he had interfered in a tax case in his own state.

He demanded his committee investigate. It did. It held hearings for three days and then gave King a clean bill of health. But the hearing was secret, held behind closed doors.

So far as is known this committee has closed up shop on the present phase of its inquiries. It goes to San Francisco next month for an investigation out there. It may resume Washington hearings some months from now, possibly in a different field from the one it's been pursuing for the past few weeks.

Special treatment for Congressmen is not unusual. The rule when the rule is used in a case like the tax scandals the public gets less than a full investigation.

In falling to be just as relentless with fellow members of Congress as they are with outsiders, Congressmen, simply follow a practice known pleasantly as Congressional courtesy.

This is another way of saying members of Congress don't very often embarrass their members of Congress or make trouble for them.

The Reader And His Paper
 Birmingham News

Every regular reader of a newspaper has—should have—a far closer relation to it than is involved simply in casual reading. A steadfast and studious study of the news of public affairs is basic in effective functioning as a citizen. That is how newspaper reading should be primarily regarded. That is a citizen's necessary task as distinguished from superficial skimming for diversion or entertainment.

But there is more involved than in this earnest reading. Our government functions primarily through public opinion. Not only does the good newspaper inform its reader so he can make an intelligent contribution in public opinion, it is also a medium through which he can express his opinion, helping to advance communication between the people now but growers are getting ready for the spring crop and a good acreage is expected. 3,200 packages brought gross returns of $23,588.88 last week with pepper leading in volume and price, averaging $14.19 for 1,016 bushels. Light supplies of cucumbers averaged $6.50, eggplant $1.07, yellow squash $2.58, white squash $2.05, beans $3.60 and 967 bushels of tomatoes averaged $5.80.

Manager Sanny Anderson of the Sanford State Farmers Market reports the outlook for this week is a good volume of cabbage, celery, beans, iceberg lettuce, English peas, escaroles, radishes and a light supply of corn, green onions, parsley, squash and eggplant plus a heavy volume of all varieties of citrus fruit. A lot of 28 varieties of produce and fruit totaling 25,620 units sold for $77,768.16. Beans led in volume and averaged $3.15, celery $3.35, escarole $2.25 and cabbage $3.15.

"Pean sales continue on the Bonifay State Farmers Market with 16,951 pounds returning $3,047.25. Stewart's brought 20% and seedlings 1 1/2 according to Manager D. D. Coleman."

"Born Yesterday" had the sixth longest run play in New York, theatrical history had 1,643 performances. It closed on Dec. 31, 1949.

Ray Fox Training At Corpus Christ

PENSACOLA (Special)—Naval Aviation Cadet Raymond C. Fox Jr. of the United States Navy took off and landed his SNJ "Texan" trainer six successive times recently aboard the USS Monterey, cruising in the Gulf of Mexico, to complete his aircraft carrier qualifications.

Cadet Fox, son of Mrs. R. G. Fox Sr. of 1920 Magnolia Avenue, Sanford, attended Alabama Polytechnic Institute before entering the Naval Aviation Flight Training Program. He reported to Pensacola, "The Annapolis of the Air" in March of 1951 and has completed a strenuous schedule in military, academic, physical and flight training.

At Pensacola, he has been sent to advanced training at Corpus Christi, Tex. This will be a four month syllabus in combat type aircraft. Graduation from advanced training will win him the coveted Navy wings of gold.

The White House and Eisenhower's headquarters denied the Krock story.

U. S. News & World Report says it has "come to the conclusion, from information obtainable in Washington and New York" that Associate Justice William O. Douglas of the Supreme Court was Krock's source.

Krock, who has refused to disclose the identity of his informant, declined to comment on that or any other phase of the magazine's report. Douglas was unavailable for comment.

Today's magazine article reports that Douglas and other justices visited the White House in the afternoon after the Truman-Eisenhower luncheon. The article says it is "understood" that none of the other justices heard Mr. Truman make any mention of the subject matter of the Krock dispatch.

"Some doubt now has arisen as to whether Justice Douglas actually got the information direct from the President or whether it came from someone else," the article says. "It could have been a misunderstanding as to sources."

"But the mystery grows as to why Mr. Krock's informant was so untruthful in attributing his statement to the President."

When asked about the stand taken by Hendrix, the Attorney General retorted back to his recent opinion.

The question of enforcement of the new election law is still up in the air in the Capitol. Although Secretary of State R. A. Gray handles the filing of the required reports, he has taken the position the law gives him no enforcement authority.

The Attorney General's office says it will answer questions concerning legal interpretation of the election law but has no enforcement authority.

The very nature of singing is harmony. The singing together is a harmonious effort that should bring a better feeling into the world and make it once more the peaceful place that the Prince of Peace intended that it should be. Singing His songs will surely help. Let's everyone join in this great effort," Mr. Palmer concluded.

Tax Frauds

He wouldn't comment specifically on that, but it was during questioning about it that Dunlap said the problems were tough.

Dunlap also was asked whether former Revenue Commissioner Joseph Numan, Jr., figured in the New York investigation.

It was then he spoke of the inquiry as very broad.

In none of the three cases did Dunlap either rule out or confirm that the three former high officials were under investigation.

Dunlap announced the appointment of Frank W. Lohn as Chief of the Internal Revenue Bureau's Intelligence Division—the top investigative job in the tax service.

Lohn, a revenue agent since 1927, will succeed William H. Woolf, who is retiring after more than 40 years of service.

Dunlap praised Woolf as "a man of great loyalty, with a high sense of honor and integrity." He emphasized that Woolf's retirement did not stem in any way from the inquiries into alleged irregularities in the tax service.

On Friday evening of last week, these babies appeared at a Christmas entertainment sponsored by the DelRay Civic Association and held in the Enterprise School Auditorium, and charmed the audience. The association is certainly grateful to them and their teachers for having trained them.

Their first excursion was to the Sanford Zoo, which they enjoyed immensely. After the holidays they plan to make many such field trips. On some Saturday in January they will sing on Station WTR on the Children's Talent Program.

At present their greatest need is for a piano so that their musical program may be widened in scope to include singing, dancing and a rhythmic band. Some one has offered to give them instruction if the piano can be secured.

Everybody concerned with this project is to be congratulated, for it is not merely a successful "experiment" but rather it is an accomplishment of which all can be proud.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Wason of Greenwich, Conn. have been staying at the Mansion while having the landscaping done on their home on DeBarry Drive. Mr. Wason has been associated with the Ernest Simon Manufacturing Co. for more than 30 years and is now President of that Company. He is also accountant for the Aortic Co., both of Greenwich.

The Wasons hope to wind up their business in the north this spring and make their permanent home here then. By the way you will notice the beautiful boy William Hughes is making of our shopping center since he spent up his branch store of the Mann nursery there? He is landscaping for the Wasons. Talking of our shopping center the Irishman have put some of these delicious candies made by the Taylor Candy Co. of Davenport, Va with Florida products. But good, here goes my diet.

The Saturday Night Dance Club held a Poverty Party last week with Mrs. J. N. Cole as hostess. There was a good attendance and some very good home made coffee cake for refreshments. It did not look like poverty to me. The only thing they were short of was breathers from doing the fast Paul Jones and Polkas. A committee was appointed to arrange for a Christmas party for the Saturday before Christmas. All the clubs are sending help to decorate the Club rooms for the holidays. It looks like a gala season, there are four parties scheduled already. We will decorate Friday, Dec. 14.

The Glee Club met on Wednesday with their usual good attendance and are all set for their next week.

We have been getting letters, telephone calls and telegrams from the Groves and Munros and they all insist they cannot wait until they get back but it seems to me they are having a wonderful time in New York together. They met Captain Groves and had lunch with him on the R. S. Excelsior, the day it docked, they are all going to attend Andrew Munros wedding on Saturday, Dec. 15.

Jim and I had been invited to the Groves for Christmas dinner and Teresa tells me that the Captain is skipping this trip to sea and will have dinner here with us. Their son, Lt. Comdr. S. Norman Jr. is living jets over the Pacific and will not be with them but I know that Duke, who sailed on the Excelsior for five years before coming here to live will be happy to see his mother. The Munros have sold their home in the north and are coming down before the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. James Glenoy had a party of eight at their home on Thursday night and it was filled to the gun of Samba. The luscious refreshments were baked by Annette's sister Veronica. She is doing very well with her new baking venture and we predict a good future. It would not be the first time a business started in a woman's kitchen.

The Geneva Garden Club held its annual Christmas party Wednesday evening, Dec. 16, at Community House. There were 50 members and visitors present, including husbands. Mrs. John Thomas, who with her husband and son, spent two years in Hawaii, gave a short and very interesting talk about the islands, and showed two of the costumes worn there.

The costume modeled by Mrs. Lulu Moran was a loose "Mother Hubbard" wrapper. The misadventure influence said Mrs. Thomas and with it she wore a straw hat with fringed edges and a pair of soft cloth shoes with the big toe section divided Japanese fashion.

The other costume modeled by Mrs. Ethel Beech, was a fitted gown with a long train, worn on formal occasions. Mrs. Thomas told of having been invited by a florist to gather all the orchids he wanted. She learned that the orchids are grown in fern roots and that the best ferns for this purpose are imported from Florida.

Following Mrs. Thomas' talk movies of the islands were shown, comprising a regular travelogue. Included were some really striking shots of a volcano at night, showing the bright red molten lava. Several views of the same scene in summer then in winter dress were very striking, as were the pictures in gorgeous autumn colors. The sugar maple and flowering hawthorn were especially lovely. We owe thanks to Mr. Edson Guit who had kindly brought his projector and did the manual labor involved.

26 Seminole High Football Players Win Letter Honor

Ed Gordon Winner Of Peter Schaal Trophy As "Most Valuable" Player

Twenty-six members of Seminole High School's 1951 football team were awarded letters or sweaters and signal-calling full-back Ed Gordon won the coveted Peter Schaal trophy at the annual Tri-Hi-Y football banquet at the high school Friday night.

J. H. Howell and Junior Metts were winners of their trophies for the Kader Award for the "Most Improved" player of the year while Guard Mike Wheelchel was awarded the Loh's trophy as the team's "Best Blocker" and His-Hannum was named the "Most Promising" player for the Jim Robinson award.

Seminole's Tri-Hi-Y girls service organization was host at the banquet for the football team, their dads, faculty members, cheer leaders and other guests including Superintendent W. W. Lawson, Seminole Principal Herman Morris and donors of the various awards.

Mike Wheelchel, who was presented with the Loh's award as the team's outstanding blocker by Henry Witte, was given the 1950 "Most Valuable" player trophy which he won last year by an unanimous vote at the banquet. Ed Gordon, an 11th winner of the trophy since it was presented to Lofton Edfield in 1928.

Schaal, then sports editor of The Sanford Herald, but now advertising director for Florida's Silver Springs, announced in the fall of 1928 that from seven to nine local sports fans would act as judges annually in an effort to select the "most valuable" player.

The award was intended as an incentive for players on a team that had apparently given up new low in spirit and ability to win games, and Schaal recalled Friday night the Seminole High coach since 1928 had all members of the trophy had played a considerable part in the development of not only the eventual winner, but others who had competed for it.

While he has yet to be called upon to "deliver," Schaal reminded the players that he would have the entire "A" squad as his guest at an Orange Bowl game on New Year's Day, on the squad and their dates at a Gator Bowl game in Jacksonville, any year they finished a regular season undefeated. The offer has stood since 1928, he recalled.

Previous winners were: Edfield in 1928 and 1929; George Mays in 1930; John Gator, 1931; Hendrix Lyles, 1932; Quillian Jordan, 1933; George McClinton, 1934; Elwyn Squires, 1935; Leland McClinton, 1936; Robert Stinson, 1937; Darrell Hester, 1938; Woodrow River, 1939; Billy Anderson, 1940; Levi Warren, 1941; Billy Fleming (now co-coach of the team) in 1942 and 1943; Bill Brunley, 1944; Willie Anderson in 1946 and 1947; Wally Tyler, 1947; Richard Hass, 1948; Charles Anderson, 1949.

Jim Robinson made the presentation of his award to the "Most Promising" squad to Ross Hannum and William E. Kader was on hand to present the twin trophies to blocking back F. H. Howell and Tailback Junior Metts as the most improved players of the year.

In congratulating the team for their successful season, Schaal cited the work of several players. Ganas congratulated Mike Wheelchel on his blocking award and said that he was the best defensive man he had seen in the Conference. Fleming, in presenting back Stan Oglesby with his letter called him the "biggest little man we saw around here."

St. John's Meets Kentucky Quintet In Top Cage Game

By WILL GRIMSLEY
NEW YORK (AP)—The top attraction of the young cage basketball season is the clash at Lexington's Coliseum tonight when Kentucky and St. John's of Brooklyn clash in a game matching the nation's no. 1 and no. 2 ranked teams.

The event headlines a full slate of pre-Christmas activity featuring another game between leaders of the Associated Press' top ten. The St. Louis Billikens, fourth-ranked, are host Wednesday night to Washington, no. 6.

Things are not as rosy with Adolph Rupp's national champions at Kentucky as a year ago when the Wildcats beat St. John's at Madison Square Garden, 43-37.

The Wildcats, who rarely lose, have dropped one decision already, a 61-57 loss to Minnesota last week.

Besides the team's seven-foot pivot star, Bill Spivey, is on the ailing list and a New York assistant district attorney is in Lexington hunting for new scandal exposes. Nobody has named names.

Rupp's mountain marksmen probably will have to have their sights razor sharp if they are to avoid a second setback.

St. John's has a fast, smart team built around big Bob Zawoluk. It has won five straight games. Zawoluk is one of three returning regulars from the squad good enough to hang up a 22.3 record in regular season play last season. The others are Jack McMahon, a crack set shot, and Ronnie McGivray, a speedy floorman.

Kentucky won't be suffering from lack of experience. Five lettermen are back from last year's championship team but the loss of Spivey has weakened its backboard strength.

Kentucky plays DePaul Thursday at St. John's has a Saturday date in New York with Vanderhill. Washington has a rough week after playing St. Louis Wednesday, the huskies take on Minnesota on Friday and Saturday nights.

Illinois no. 3, plays Oklahoma, North Carolina and DePaul. Kansas State, no. 5, is at Hamilton Monday and then meets Indiana in a top game Saturday.

Seton Hall, no. 7, takes on Temple State Wednesday and Seranton Saturday. Duke, no. 8, is at Wake Forest but North Carolina State, no. 10, meets George Washington Tuesday and Manhattan Thursday.

The defeat of Columbia, unbeaten in regular season play last year, featured the nearly 200 major games Saturday night. The Lions were beaten by Pittsburgh in a rousing game, 65-64, at dedication of Pitt's new gymnasium.

St. John's and Seton Hall won a doubleheader at New York's Madison Square Garden. St. John's prevailed over the island State, 62-62, while Seton Hall beat the Cats, 70-60.

A mild surprise was St. Joseph's take the measure of Texas Tech, which had previously surprised North Carolina State, 62-58, at Philadelphia Convention Hall.

New York University won its ninth straight game rallying to red Cornell, 58-52. Ohio State won given a big score by Butler but won 75-74, on Paul Ebert's last-minute foul shot.

Mexico's youngest and most active volcano is El Paricutin, southwest of Mexico City. It erupted first on Feb. 19, 1943.

All-Americans To Play In Blue-Gray Football Contest

MONTGOMERY, Ala.—Two All-America performers and 46 other brilliant gamesters roll into this city this week to get ready for the fanciest Blue-Gray game in history.

When workouts start Saturday, rival coaches will have just seven days to whip their squads into shape for the Dec. 29 encounter.

Even the taxpayers have kicked in with $20,000 to help make it the kind of show Promoter Champ Pickens has dreamed of since he originated the North-South "friendship" classic 13 years ago.

The legislature appropriated the money to advertise the game and to dramatize it with a pageant symbolizing the friendly competition between the gray-clad Rebels and their once-hostile Yankee neighbors.

With a record of only four wins in 12 previous appearances, it's a bit difficult to see how the yards could be optimistic unless you consider:

1. A defensive line averaging 218 pounds and featuring All-American Pat O'Donohue from Wisconsin; Little All-America line-backer Tito Carlini from Xavier of Ohio and tackle George Young of Bucknell; and three bruisers from Michigan State, second ranking team in the nation.
2. Two of the top 20 passers for 1951—Don Leahy of Marquette, no. 3, and Bob Westwick of Pitt, no. 14—plus the country's eighth best rushing star, John Kastan of Boston '7.
3. The Southerners aren't exactly operating from hunger either—not with guys like All-America guard Joe Palumbo from Virginia; Herschel Forester, Southern Methodist's All-Southwestern guard; Louisiana State's tough center George Taylor.

In the backfield, they can count on help from the sensational Steve Wadick, an Enright product; Gil Beckell of Washington and Lee; Andy Davis of George Washington and Wofford's classy Jack Heeler.

Blue-Gray sponsors are looking for a full house of 22,500.

Mississippi And Auburn Leading SEC Cage Teams

Florida Hoopsters Win Three But No Conference Tilts

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Making merry while favored Vanderbilt and Kentucky are sticking to outside foes, darkhorses Mississippi State and Auburn are co-leaders in the Southeastern Conference basketball race.

Paul Gregory's Mississippi State outfit, seldom a conference cage power, held a surprising 7-0 record today and were 2-0 in the SEC. During the week the maroons drubbed Tulane, 68-00; Florida State 75-47; and Arkansas 76-39. They meet Arkansas State tonight and are then idle until the Georgia game Jan. 1.

Auburn's young and talented team, also holder of a 7-0 record, bounced Birmingham Southern 74-44 in its only appearance of the week. The Plainsmen get their co-leader status by virtue of an earlier victory over the cellar-dwelling Georgia Bulldogs.

Louisiana State, beaten only by Mississippi State, remained a contender by clipping Mississippi 81-69 as phenomenal Bob Pettit bagged 40 points in the only appearance of the week. The Tigers mark foot, nine-inch sophomore, netted 37 points in two games last week to run his total to 150 in six outings.

Pettit's one-man show against Mississippi equaled the one-game conference scoring mark posted by Bill Spivey of Kentucky against Georgia Tech in 1950 and bettered Spivey's old record of 16 field goals by bagging 19.

The week's biggest upset, of course, was Mississippi's 61-57 victory over Kentucky. The Wildcats, number one team in the Associated Press National Poll, get a chance to regain some prestige tonight when they host St. John's of New York at Lexington.

Adolph Rupp's floor-masters are still playing without their indispensible center, Spivey. In St. John's, they face a taller team with better reserves.

Only seven National League games are scheduled by SEC teams this week but only two are intra-conference affairs. Alabama is at Mississippi tonight, Wednesday.

Florida has played no SEC games. Otherwise she has won three and lost one for a perfect average.

The first clash between Italian and Ethiopian soldiers occurred at or near Wai Wai on the disputed frontier of Italian Somaliland Dec. 9, 1950.

Ollie Matson Wins Football Scoring

NEW YORK (AP)—In one of the closest finishes in history, Ollie Matson of San Francisco edged Hugh McElhenny of Washington by one point to win the individual scoring crown for the 1951 college football season.

Final statistics released today by the NCAA service bureau show Matson on top with 120 points on 21 touchdowns in McElhenny's 125 tallies on 17 TD's and 23 extra points.

Matson, who was All-America on the Associated Press' first defensive team, produced a six-pointer in every game as he paced the Don's to their first undefeated, untied season. He also led the nation in rushing.

Tulahoma's All-America line-backer, Les Richter, kicked the most extra points, 40.

Pat Summerall of Arkansas won the field goal kicking over Ohio State's Vic Janowicz, four to three.

Musial Wins Second League Bating Title

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Stan Musial has a new silver bat for his trophy case.

The St. Louis Cardinal outfielder won the National League batting crown for 1951—the second consecutive year he's been the top hitter in the senior circuit.

Others who also managed to win the crown two years running since Rogers Hornsby made a habit of it with the Cardinals from 1920 through 1925.

Official National League batting statistics released yesterday show Musial atop the list with a .355 average.

Only seven National League players have won the crown in two consecutive years with Dan Brouthers of Buffalo first turning the trick in 1882-83.

The 1951 championship is the fifth award won by Musial. The other four were won in 1943 (.357), 1946 (.363), 1948 (.367) and 1950 (.346).
