The exciting Haltian inspired print is fashioned in soft, silky texture-set Enkalure nylon, the fiber that travels light, packs tight and comes out looking fresh and ready to wear. A great look for spring and summer wardobes.

THE LONG TENT TAKES a split to form a wide-legged flowing culotte. The masterful tailering owes its shape to Guy D who styled this fluid look in texture-set Enkalure nylon by American Enka. Enkalure is soft and silky and feels luxurious next to the skin. The three jet ball buttons at the rounded jewel meckline release an inverted pleat which almost conceals the shape of the wide pants legs.
