Record Hervest May Be Produced Despite Acreage WASHINGTON (UP) - The

A record winter wheat crop and nation's farms may produce a record 1966 harvest despite the smallest planted acreage in 40 The Agriculture Department's

The Agriculture Department's first big 1968 production estimate said the total crep this year "now appears likely" to equal the rectord crops of 1967, 1966 and 1968. A department statistician said with continued good growing conditions the 1968 hervest easily could top those of earlier record years.

A record winter wheat crop and a well above aveage corn crop were the chief factors in the prospective record farm outturn.

The planted acreage this year was 350 million acres, the smallest in 40 years covered by comparable records. There were sharp acreage reductions in secglums, cate, cotten, flanced and hay crope. Sharp increases were made in wheat and smaller increases in corn, rice, dry beans, potatoes, sugar cane and sugar bests. Moderate in small decreases occurred in barley, tobucco, peas, sweet potatoes and peanuts.

The department estimated that

Perhaps the Sanford-Titusville Canal will open up new channels for political thinkople themselves to get what they believe ing and around this one project the storm winds of a political campaign will center.

At least it will give the people an opportunity to know who stands for what, and whether or not Central Florida will receive the benefits that are just and deserving.

For over a hundred years this project has been the dream of forward-thinking, aggressive, progressive people. And now, after this century has passed, we believe that the time has come for the realization of plans and dreams. Choice In Shapes

Choice In Shapes displaying their fall and winter collections Monday, opening day of "Press Week," the semi-annual event held by the couture group of the New York Dress Institute.

Designer Pauline Trigere gave women a choice of four major shapes—the wedge, the curtain raiser, the dauphine, and the swizzle stick.

The wedge hinted of the higher, empire waist, but seaming detail and bias cut narrowed the dress, like a wedge, to the hemline. The natural waistline is loose. The curtain raiser is a hemline treatment for slim, tunic-like dresses. The center front is raised, like a theater curtain going up. Her dauphine silhouette features opulently full skirts; and the swissle stick is straight and narrow from shoulder to knee, with huge pours of fabric at the hem breaking the severe line.

Silhouettes Vary
"This is a most interesting and exasperating fashion season," Harbert said a spokesman for Herbert Sondheim, which decided on the "empire chemise" as its number one silhouette. This design fits through the bust, has the high waist, is slightly fitted at the natural waist, and ends in a slim It's the revival of the empire

Napoleon wild."

Three experts in suit design showed three different shapes for fall. Davidow, eslebrating its 50th year in the casual clothes field, clung to the classic, chanel-type. Monte - Sane and Purzan put jacket belts to new highs, some of them right across the bustline. And Paul Parnes featured the "t" line, with the shape widening from a narrow skirt to broaden-ed shoulders.

THE CARD OF THANKS Very often a Card of Thanks in The Sanford Heraid meets a seed which is difficult to fill in any other way. Not easy to it gracious empression of gratitude to those who have cont final tributes but also courteously acknowledges the services and the nesses of the many to whom a personal note of thanks cannot well be mailed.

Newspaper Cards of Thanks are accepted as socially correct.
Emily Pest, the noted authority on etiquette, feels they serve many There is no prescribed form for a Card of Thanks, it can be de-brief or as detailed as you desire. When the occasion somes we will find a sympathetically understanding member of our staff in

Rasist you THE "IN MEMORIUM" NOTICE It is the custom of many families in this country to commono-rate a hereavement by an "In Memorium" notice in newscaped classified columns. They find a real solace therein. Properties of selection of a suitable verse brings back to them tender, pleased recollections. As Elisa Cook, the English poet has so beautifully expressed it:

"How ernelly sweet are the school that start

that start

What memory plays an old tune
on the heart."

Most frequently an in Memorium is inserted on the annions sary of death. However, other dates, which it is falt are appropriate or meaningful are also selected. The birthday of the deported, the wedding anniversary, Memorial Day, even Christmas are among other significant occasions chosen.

If you are healtant to express your tender thoughts in posts form, you may avail yourself of the Herald's collection of crisical verses. These express in posts beauty the emotions of the heart strings. Among them are verses appropriate to any diversebane.

The RATE

Cards of Thanks and in Memerium notices, due to the fact than may run to considerable length, are billed at $1.00 per column men.
