AT THE MILANE

Have you ever longed to go to California? Have you ever wished that you could get behind the scenes in the big motion picture studios in Hollywood and see how movies are made? Have you ever desired to meet some of the big screen stars?
 Well, if you have, here's your chance. Manager Brockmann of the Milane theatre has fixed it for you.

He invites you to take a trip to Hollywood comfortably seated in one of the chairs at the Milane tonight. Mr. Donald, the promoter, takes you such traveling companions as Bryant Washburn, J. Warren Kerrigan, Stuart Holmes, Douglas MacLean, Alec Francis, Louise Fazenda, David Butler, Richard Travers, Marion Mack, Francis McDonald, Creighton Hale, Johnnie Walker, Barbara Lamar, George O'Hara, Maurice Tourneur, Eva Novak, Estelle Taylor, Rosemary Theby, Bessie Love, Zasu Pitts, Carmel Myers, Malcolm MacGregor, J. Frank Glendon, Stuart Holmes, and other stars of the films too numerous to mention.

For you are personally conducted through Hollywood in the sensational F. B. O. production, "Mary of the Movies," in which the secrets of Hollywood are revealed, and which plays at the Milane theatre tonight—and all the stars you ever wanted to see in one picture appear in it!

Due to the absence of Mayor Laska who is in New York attending the Madison Square Garden Exhibit, the city is without an official holiday proclamation but George Washington's Birthday is being observed with exercises in practically every public school in Sanford and Seminole county. The banks are closed, and holiday hours are being observed by the post-office as well as by city and county officials. Elaborate programs were given in some of the city schools today and a half holiday is being enjoyed by the pupils.

O. L. Hill was in the city Thursday from Gainesville attending to business.

COMMISSION HAS ADOPTED ONLY 3 NEW TEXTBOOKS

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Feb. 22. Only three changes will be made in the textbooks used in Florida's primary schools as a result of the recent textbook adoption by the State School Book Commission. Announcement of the changes is expected within the next day or two as to the books that will be changed for an eight-year period beginning next July 1. It is known now, however, that the texts now in use on arithmetic, English and reading will be replaced by others deemed better adapted to educational needs.

In this connection, the State School Book Commission has issued a statement regarding the work of the body in connection with the changes. It follows:
 "By the text-book law of 1921, the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions is constituted a State Text-Book Commission and the following duties of said commission are prescribed:
 "1. To select and adopt a uniform series or system of school books for use in the public schools of the state.
 "2. To enter into contracts with publishers for furnishing said books at stipulated prices.
 "3. To enforce the use of said books.

"1. To see that all contracts are faithfully executed.
 "The last contracts for elementary books were made in 1919, the period covering five years. Under the new law the contract period is eight years; consequently, the contracts made with publishers of high school texts in 1922 will not expire until 1930. Changes in high school books can not be made before the last named date; neither can the prices on these books be increased. It is possible for the prices to be reduced during the period of the contract in the case of either high school books or elementary school books as will now be shown.
 "One section of the law reads in part: 'And each contract prepared and executed shall provide that when any book or books covered by any such contract shall thereafter, during the life of such contract, be contracted for in any other state of the United States at a lower contract retail price fixed by the publisher than is designated in such contract for such book or books, the same contract retail price fixed by the publisher shall immediately become the price of such book or books in the state of Florida.'

"Under the provisions of the section from which this quotation is taken, high school pupils in Florida pay $2.09 for Webster's High School Dictionary, although the price of this book as stipulated in the contract of 1922 is $2.25. Subsequent to the date of the contract with us, a contract was made by the publishers to sell the book elsewhere at $2.09 and Florida, therefore, received the benefit of such reduction made in another state.
 "The Recent Text Book Adoption "As this is the last school year during which publishers furnish books under the contracts of 1919, it became necessary to make new contracts and to complete the execution of the same before the first of March of this year. In accordance with this law, the state superintendent of Public Instruction submitted to the Text-Book Commission for approval a list of subjects upon which it was deemed desirable to adopt books. Upon nomination of the state superintendent the governor appointed a School Book Sub-Commission composed of seven prominent educators actually engaged in school work in the state.
 "As a result of advertisements, sealed bids were filed by about 30 publishers, each of the latter furnishing copies of books for examination.

CARTER NOT TO RESUME WORK ON TOMB UNTIL APOLOGY MADE

CAIRO, Egypt, Feb. 22.—Replying to the telegram from the Egyptian Minister of Public Works, giving him 48 hours in which to resume work in the tomb of Tut-anh-amen, Howard Carter wired the Minister Tuesday that he was ready to take up the work again provided he received an apology from the Director of Antiquities and an understanding from the Minister of Public Works that no vexatious interference would occur and no difficulties be placed in the way of the further progress of the task. Otherwise he would take proceedings against the government.
 "Nation Aroused.
 LONDON, Feb. 22.—The Egyptian government has made all preparations to take over the tomb of Tut-anh-amen and complete the research work under the direction of its own staff of trained archaeologists, which is almost entirely British, if Howard Carter should fail to bow to the demand of the government regarding the reopening of the tomb, according to Aziz Izzet Pasha, the newly-appointed Egyptian Minister to London.
 Universal indignation has been aroused in Egypt over Mr. Carter's closing of the tomb on so trivial a pretext as the non-admission of the wives of the foreign excavators before even the newspaper men had been admitted to see Tut-anh-amen's golden mummy case, the Minister declared today.

Throughout the controversy with Mr. Carter, according to the Minister the Egyptian government has carried out to the fullest detail the signed agreement which permitted Mr. Carter to admit whom he pleased, as well as vesting him with the exclusive rights to the photographs and descriptive matter concerning the burial chamber and its contents.
 The Minister described Mr. Carter's action in closing the tomb as high-handed, and his attitude toward the Egyptian government as discourteous, expressing the view that it was the British expert's temperament which was the whole cause of the tomb controversy.
 Under the new terms laid down to Mr. Carter, which the Egyptian government will insist be carried out, the press of the world will be given free access to the mortuary chamber, as well as the fullest reports and photographs through the Egyptian press bureau. Izzet expressed himself as much concerned as to American opinion regarding the action of his government and as anxious to get the Egyptian case clearly before the people of the United States.

Office of R. C. HUNTER & BRO. Architects.
 (House A-51.)
 — A BIG SMALL HOUSE —

Here is a charming little house that can be built for about $5,000 and one that will provide a real home which is within the means of almost everyone.
 Inexpensive to build and it requires but little housework, a good cozy home to be proud of—a possession that will certainly give more lasting satisfaction than a bunch of rent receipts.
 The architects have worked out a very simple and economical plan and have combined with it an attractive exterior. Most houses of this very modest size look like "packing boxes" for want of proper roof treatment. This little cottage will hold its own among the most pretentious.
 The rooms are comfortable, livable rooms and not mere nooks.
 As no one enters the front door the house appears large; the fireplace, stairs and bookcases all count in the scheme, yet the arrangement is most economical.
 The stairs are very compact.
 The two nice bed rooms are much larger than one would expect to find, they have cross ventilation and good closets. The bath is well arranged and there is not an inch of waste space. Note that the only hall in the entire house (halls are of little value as living spaces) is the very small pass at the second floor. This is what makes the house a big one in everything but cost.
 The laundry, heater, etc., are in the cellar.
 The foundation is of concrete, the upper walls are frame finished with wide white shingles. The house has steam heat, modern plumbing and electric wiring.
 Complete working plans and specifications of this house may be obtained for a nominal sum from the Building Editor. Refer to house A-51.

EDWIN MARKHAM TO LECTURE HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY

Dean of American Poets Will Talk On His Poems With Glints of Gravity and Gavety.

Under the direction of the Sanford Kiwanis Club, arrangements are being perfected for the appearance in this city Wednesday, Feb. 27, of Edwin Markham, noted poet and lecturer. Indications point to a crowded house when Mr. Markham appears at the Sanford High school and lectures on "Readings from his own poems with glints of gravity and gavety."
 As author of "The Man With the Hoe," "Lincoln," "The Shoes of Happiness," "The Gates of Paradise" and many other poems and productions, Mr. Markham is a name known to America's most famous living poet. He is considered the dean of American poets, authors, philosophers, humanitarian leader and enchanting lecturer.

Few communities are favored with an opportunity of hearing this well-known poet, and much favorable comment is being heard regarding his appearance in this city.

Edwin Markham is a native of Oregon and a graduate of two western colleges. He began writing verse in his early boyhood days, and in early life worked at farming, blacksmithing, ranching and school teaching. Prominently a man of the people, he is today a foremost exponent of all that is highest and noblest in the domain of literature.

In keeping with the spirit of his verse, Mr. Markham has been conspicuously identified with some of the most notable movements for the relief of the downtrodden and oppressed, including the suppression of the child labor evil. No writer of the present day has a more comprehensive understanding of the many intricate social problems which are affecting the lives of men and women as the result of new conditions and rapid evolution.

Not only is Mr. Markham a brilliant writer, but he is also well known as a lecturer. Unlike many geniuses he does not speak above the heads of his audiences, but whether he discusses poetry or great social questions, he is always clear, always interesting and makes a direct appeal.
 The lecture at the Sanford High school will begin at 8:30 Wednesday night.

 SHOP AND YARD: 801 N. W. 1ST ST.

J. H. Colclough, the director of the choir, has been giving special attention during recent rehearsals to the music to be used during Dr. Garland's engagement in Sanford. The music committee greatly appreciate the cooperation of members of other choirs. If there are those in the city who sing, and who at present are not connected with any other church choirs, Mrs. Colclough would be glad to have their names.
 The orchestra under the direction of Mr. Joe Reizenstein has added much recently to the Sunday school music. The orchestra will be heard frequently during the two weeks.

 Beginning tomorrow morning it is hoped that the audience will be greeted by a large choir, and at present it appears that the choir gallery will not be sufficiently large. More space can be provided, however, for a growing choir.

And She Wants to Be Taller!

Usually girls who dance on the stage like to be small. But Alina McGill (above), a perfect blonde who dances in "Lollipop," the Broadway play, is almost six feet and she dresses to accentuate rather than decrease her height.

CHOIR ENJOY SUPPER

The members of the choir of the Baptist Church and a few friends who assisted them during their meetings were delightfully entertained at supper, Friday evening at the church parlors, given by the music committee.

One long table was placed in the parlor, centered with a miniature cherry tree and tiny hatchet, symbolic of Washington's birthday. At either end were large crystal chandeliers filled with red roses. At six o'clock, a delicious four course supper was served. Talks and toasts were given during the supper, and the evening was delightful in every way. Covers were laid for twenty-eight.

JUNIOR G. F. S.

The Junior G. F. S. held an enjoyable meeting Friday afternoon at the home of their associate, W. Gwynn Fox on French Avenue. The meeting was opened with the song, "America" followed by the regular G. F. S. service. Some fine prints of George Washington, Mt. Vernon, and its interior and views of the capitol were shown. Little souvenir hatchet with invitations to the party next week, which will be a benefit for the gift to the church building fund were given out.

"Take George Washington's hatchet and go out and earn a neat sum of money, rebuild the church that did burn."

On every fifth Friday Junior Girls celebrate, so bring in your money to Mrs. Fox—on that date.

HONORING VISITORS.

The spacious home of Mrs. W. A. Fitts was the scene of a very pretty party Friday afternoon when Mrs. W. A. Fitts and Mrs. Hal Wight entertained at bridge, honoring Mrs. R. S. Keelor of New Jersey and Miss Hood of Commerce, Ga., there being five tables of players.

Exquisite sweet peas, amarillias and radianse roses and maiden hair ferns were lavishly used in the rooms where the card tables were placed.

Of exceptional interest was the game of bridge played during the afternoon. The prize for high score, a luncheon set, was won by Mrs. Claude Howard, while the low score prize, a red hatchet covered with cherries and sweet peas, fell to Mrs. W. C. Hill. The honorees, Mrs. Keelor and Miss Hood were presented dainty guest towels as mementos of the occasion.

Following the awarding of the prize, the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. E. L. Perkins, Mrs. Ralph Wight and Mrs. Claude Howard served creamed tuna fish and mushrooms in timbales, rolled cheese delights, olives, potato chips and coffee. On each plate were favors of sprigs of cherries and foliage.

Those enjoying the cordial hospitality of these two hostesses were Mrs. R. S. Keelor, Miss Hood, Miss Annie Hawkins, Mrs. W. E. Watson, Mrs. B. L. Perkins, Mrs. M. S. Wiggins, Mrs. W. C. Hill, Mrs. G. D. Bishop, Mrs. James G. Sharon, and Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Harry Papworth, Mrs. T. L. Du-

Sweet peas and ferns decorated the tables, which were arranged in a hollow square. Places were laid for seventy guests.

A delightful banquet was served by the following waiters and waitresses, with Mrs. Greene in charge: Misses Gussie Hinton, Mrs. Evelyn Williams, Mildred Kelly, Grace Gilson, Jean and Betty, Gayle Marshall, Genevieve Lehman, Laura Lehman, Gertrude Kurge, and Messrs. Ted Runge, Frank Dutton and Cloyd Kusa...

The following numbers were interspersed in the courses: Reading by Jean Maxwell; solos by Mrs. Herbert Russell and Miss Mildred Kelly; C. E. songs by the whole assembly.

After the banquet the purpose and plan of the Alumni Association was explained by various speakers and the following officers of a local Alumni Council were elected: President D. L. Thrasher; Secretary, Mrs. G. P. Paxton.

THIRTEEN BRIDGE CLUB

Quintessence of sweet peas, and snap dragons, in baskets and vases were used in decorating for the lovely bridge party given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. C. Hill at her home on Fourth Street, when she entertained members of the Thirteen Bridge Club.

The hours passed quickly in the interesting game of bridge played, and the prize for high score among the club members, a hand-made guest towel, was won by Mrs. M. S. Wiggins, while the guest prize, perfume, went to Mrs. J. B. Coleman.

At the conclusion of the card game, the hostess served a tempting salad course.

All Great Cities ARE BUILT ON HIGHWAYS OF TRAVEL

What would Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland, St. Louis, Chicago and Cincinnati be without their harbors on bays, inlets, rivers and lakes? What would these Cities be without railroad transportation and motor highways leading to and from.

In buying real estate consider carefully the value of water frontage, railroad facilities and automobile highways.

COMPARE RIO VISTA WITH ALL OTHER DEVELOPMENTS IN THE STATE OF FLORIDA

And ask yourself these questions. What does four thousand feet of beautiful river frontage mean to the future of Rio Vista? In years to come what will the Dixie Highway mean to these persons living in Rio Vista? What would Rio Vista or any other city on the East Coast of Florida amount to without the Florida East Coast Railroad? One can picture cities on deserts but no city can grow and prosper without highways for transportation.

Rio Vista has the necessary requirements of a great city besides all the natural advantages that make for ideal home surroundings.

The Rio Vista Service Force will be pleased to give you facts and figures to prove that the largest profits in real estate are made where the natural advantages are greatest and where large amounts of money are expended in improvements.

Unimproved residential lots are the poorest kind of an investment. More money has been lost in Florida on lots costing less than Two Hundred Dollars than on any other kind of real estate. BUY QUALITY in lots and you will reap a substantial profit. Rio Vista offers you the highest quality.
