DeGaulle Fails In Peace Plea To N. Viet Nam

United States cannot accept a timetable for pulling U.S. forces out of South Viet Nam without a corresponding timetable for ending North Viet Nam's drive against the South. And French President Charles de Gaulle has apparently failed to get any sign from Hanoi that she would quit her southward

This assessment has been reached in Washington after all reading of the full text of the speech De Gaulle delivered in Cambodia Thursday stating his views on how to ry to bring peace to Southeast Asia. The French president was regarded here as having added nothing to his previous policy statements except perhaps in injecting a time element in advocating a U.S. pullout from Viet Nam. De Gaulle said peace negotiations would have to depend on an advance U.S. commitment to bring home American troops "within a suitable and definite time limit." This proposal was branded here as unrealistic and unacceptable because De Gaulle did not apply it to North Viet Nam,

And since De Gaulle said the time is not ripe now for such an cess in offering to mediate a the time, it was believed here that he had found that Hanoi is sticking to a tough line. De Gaulle made his Phnom Penh speech, highlighting account of this meeting has yet reached Washington.

AN ETERNAL FORCE

It is invisible - you can neither see nor touch. it. And yet it will carry a sail-

But whereas the wind may die and leave you drifting aimlessly and helplessly

It is through the Church that man is given understanding of this Power. For by worshipping God he can acquire the spiritual insight which gives fuel to his soul boat skimming across the waves with all the beauty and grace and freedom of a sea-

The wind is like the power of God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of charac-ter and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They arc: (1) For his own sake. (2) For is children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) for the sake of the Church itself.

which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regu-
