Origin Of Christmas

(Continued from previous page) side and out, is still a part of the ritual of holidays and seems to become more elaborate and universal with each Christmas sea-

The miracle of Christmas is again in evidence, in a day when miracles are said to be no more; and the Spirm of Christmas, as new as when the three wise men followed the star in the East pervades the earth with its message of "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men.'

With the coming of another iwakene t civic e macamar esa, with the present nation-wide desire for beauty, there should come a still broader thought this Christmas. a thought for the whole community and Just what part our own house is playing.

Are we making our house part of this Christmas spirit? Is it doing its share in making a little touch of happiness come to front door bear a teribboned wreath which says to the world —"Inside is Christmas cheer. which all our friends are invited to share."

ing spirit we impart to the inside. Do we you and I, make of our home a center of neighborly kindness, of tolerance of others' faults, of broadminded helpful-

Do we realize that our greatest Christmas wift this year can be a determination to beautify our homes without and within, so that these homes may, not only at Christman time, but throughout each day of the year, spread a dens, individually concentrating rations, perhaps you would be infeeling of contentment and rest need of this?

A simple gift, this, but one that can never be lost, but that will apread far beyond our vision, and one that will have made the world a little brighter because we have passed this way, "Whatever good therefore we can do. let us do it now, for we shall not pass this way again."
