Road repairs underway

SANFORD — Seminole County Traffic Engineer Steve Decker has announced that there will be two work projects in the area that may cause some inconvenience to motorists for the remainder of this week.

Due to what is called a milling project, traffic will have to exercise caution when traveling on a portion of 25th Street, between Highway 17-92 and Old Lake Mary Road. Crews will be applying new asphalt and putting in new striping markings in this area, which will require one way traffic at times for the next few days. They expect this inconvenience will last until approximately 5 p.m. Friday afternoon.

That portion of 25th Street, which is currently set for 4 lanes of traffic will eventually be made into 3 lanes, with the center lane for left turn only, although all three will be wider than they are at present.

Thursday and Friday, there will be another problem area, as the CSX Railway crews do some maintenance near Old Lake Mary Road in the vicinity of the Rinker Concrete building.

Decker expects traffic will be allowed to drive through both areas during the construction work, but there may be times when only one lane of traffic at a time will be used. He recommends taking alternate routes for travel if at all possible.

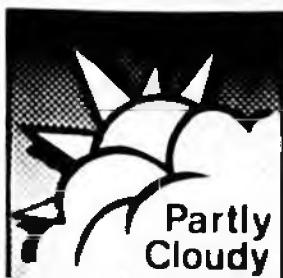

Traffic will be returning to normal at both locations by this weekend.

School all year grows

By LAURA L. SULLIVAN

SANFORD — School officials are considering all Seminole County elementary schools, excluding those involved in rezoning, as candidates to experiment with year round education beginning next year.

Ken Bovio, one of the school district's directors of elementary school education, said today the district is considering implementing year round programs at between three and six elementary schools in 1992. The selection of schools will be announced in late March, he said.

Lawton Elementary School in Oviedo was selected last year as the first Seminole County school to test the program. The school will begin year round education July 22.

—Ken Bovio, school administrator area, are not candidates for the year round program to begin next year because all will be affected by rezoning now being planned, Bovio said. Woodlands, Stenstrom and Red Bug elementary schools will be excluded from consideration because they are also being rezoned, he said.

"They have enough to deal with as it is," Bovio said.

The remaining 18 elementary schools in the district will be considered for the year round program, Bovio said.

School officials will be meeting with PTA and LSAC groups and school faculty to discuss the plan, Bovio said. Those groups' feelings about year round education will be considered when schools are selected, he said.

The year round calendar contains the same number of school days as the traditional school calendar, although breaks are shorter and more frequent, said Robert O'Dell, coordinator of year round education for the school district. The year round calendar can accommodate up to 25 percent more students in one school by separating students into tracks that alternate breaks over a 225-day period, he said.

The calendar would greatly relieve overcrowded schools, Bovio said.

"If we can't have new schools, we have to do something," he said.

Two new elementary schools are under construction.

Waterway speed limits met with united opposition

From staff and wire reports

TALLAHASSEE — Opposition from the marine industry and rural legislators combined to defeat legislation imposing speed limits on most Florida waterways.

However, marina and fish camp operators in the Sanford and Lake Mary area have mixed feelings about it, cancellation.

Bobby Parker, manager of the Marina Isle Fish Camp on State Road 46, east of Sanford said he had been hoping the measure would be approved. "We need something like that on the St. Johns," he said. "This river is much too narrow for safe boating at high speeds." He said that during the time he has been at Marina Isle, there have been six accidents, five of which were in bass boats, one in a larger craft, that could have been prevented with a slower speed limit. "You've got to remember," he added, "those small boats don't have any brakes."

Charles Volk, at the Monroe Harbour Marina at the lakefront in Downtown Sanford said he is pleased that the law failed to pass. "I think the majority of boat owners don't want a speed limit," he commented. "We already have enough speed limit areas that are well marked, as well as the signs for certain restrictions in the marina."

Jailed mom's baby headed for safety?

By VICKI DeSORMIER

SANFORD — A Winter Park attorney who was sure to dot all his "i's" and cross all his "t's" may be getting a baby for the clients he represents despite a dubious start to the little girl's life earlier this week.

The as-yet unnamed girl was born on Sunday at the John E. Polk Correctional Facility. Her mother, Violet Petralia, was arrested Valentine's Day on warrants for charges of third degree grand theft in Seminole and Volusia counties and a prostitution charge from Hillsborough County.

Petralia, 25, of 2615 1/2 Palmetto Ave. in Sanford, is under investigation for allegedly duping more than 15 couples into paying her living expenses since last July in exchange for adoption rights for the baby, according to law enforcement officials.

It appeared today, however, that only attorney Sam Weiss of Winter Park had complied with all the regulations set by the department of Health and Rehabilitative Services (HRS) for adoption of a baby.

The couple he represents has been interviewed and approved by HRS. Weiss has obtained releases from both Petralia and the natural father, signed after the youngster was born Sunday morning and he has a legal contract consummating the adoption. DHAHRAN, Saudi Arabia — Diplomatic efforts redoubled today in a final bid to avert a land war's carnage, but the search for a settlement in the Persian Gulf War brought no break in allied preparations for a ground assault.

President Bush has indicated a Soviet peace plan put forth this week is unsatisfactory, but Italy, which is part of the allied coalition confronting Iraq, endorsed the proposal today and disclosed some of its details.

The Soviets asked that the plan remain private until Foreign Minister Tariq Aziz of Iraq delivered his government's response.

A senior Italian official said the plan calls for Iraq to begin withdrawing a day after a cease-fire goes into effect.

It also pledges Iraqi troops would not be attacked during their withdrawal from Kuwait, said the official, Nino Cristofori, who is a top

Man arrested for fighting

Donnie Andrew Rash, 21, of 180 Clear Lake Dr. in Sanford, was arrested on Saturday and charged with disorderly conduct. According to the arrest report, the management of the Barn on U.S. Highway 17-92 in Sanford, reported that Rash allegedly involved in a fight at their establishment.

Battery, assault charged

Ossie Lee Faison, 18, of 99 Castle Brewer Ct. in Sanford was arrested Monday and charged with aggravated assault and aggravated battery.

Faison allegedly fired two shots from a small calibre handgun at a car in which Walter Knight and Regina Bailey of Sanford were riding. One shot struck the right rear tire, the second shot allegedly went through the passenger door and struck Bailey's hip, causing only a bruise.

Both Knight and Bailey stated in the report that they allegedly recognized Faison when he stepped from a small crowd and fired at their car as they drove down the 1500 block of West 13th Street.

Faison was arrested and transported to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility where he was held on $4,000 bond.

Man arrested on warrant

Shawn Lamar James, 20, of 18 Cowan Moughtin Terrace in Sanford was arrested on Monday on an outstanding warrant for violation of his parole on charges of possession of a controlled substance.

He was arrested at his home by Sanford Police Department officers.

He is being held at the John E. Polk Correctional Facility without bond.

Man turns self in

Virgil Eugene DeBose, 26 of 1023 W. 12th St. in Sanford was arrested for violation of his parole when he turned himself in to officials at the John E. Polk Correctional Facility on Monday.

Arrested earlier on charges of trespassing on an occupied conveyance, DeBose was wanted on charges that he had violated his parole on those charges.

He was booked into the jail. No bond was set. It will not be set until after his first appearance in court later this month.

Revoked license brings arrest

Guy Timothy LaLonde, 39, of 146 Burns Ave. in Longwood, was arrested on Tuesday and charged with driving with a revoked drivers license.

When police officers pulled LaLonde over on 25th Street in Sanford he was allegedly traveling 57 miles per hour in a 40 mile per hour zone.

He allegedly told police that he could not find his drivers license.

A computer check of his name and address showed that his drivers license had been revoked on Jan. 24 for driving under the influence of alcohol and that it had also been revoked twice on Jan. 3 for failure to pay fines on previous traffic violations.

He was arrested and taken to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility where he was held on $100 bond.

Committee advises against takeover

By LAURA L. SULLIVAN
Herald staff writer

SANFORD — A county utilities steering committee Tuesday recommended against a takeover of Longwood's wastewater system by the county.

Longwood had asked the county to take over the financially ailing system. The 600-customer system lost $855,000 in 1989 and cost the city's general operating fund $600,000 last year.

Gary Cinder, county director of environmental services, said the committee's studies show that the county could not take over the system without passing on a rate increase to its 20,000 customers. For the average residential customer, he said, such an increase would amount to about 25 cents each month under the best case scenario in the committee's study.

Deputy Mayor Gary Hefter yesterday argued that the county, with a wider rate base, could more easily absorb losses from the utility than the city could.

"This small base cannot support the system without a tremendous increase in fees — and our fees are already higher than most systems in the area," Hefter said.

"Longwood residents also pay Seminole County taxes. While the short term may provide some economic loss to Seminole County, the long term would provide a strong base for your developing regional system," Hefter said.

If the county refuses to take the system from the city, Hefter said, Longwood will explore other alternatives, including a similar request of Altamonte Springs.

"If this doesn't come about, then we may very well have to take our losses and get rid of the system entirely," he said.

About 2,700 Longwood homes have septic tanks, Hefter said.

Door hinges jeopardize shuttle flight

By MARCIA BURN
AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE CANAVERAL — NASA's first shuttle flight of the year, a March military mission, could be delayed up to a month because of cracked door hinges that may also affect the two other spaceships, officials said Tuesday.

A quick check of the other shuttles uncovered chipped paint on the hinges but no cracks, said launch director Bob Slick. Those shuttles will be examined more thoroughly and their inspection records will be reviewed, he said.

Cracks were discovered in Discovery at the launch pad on each of the four metal hinges on two flap doors. The doors on the belly of the shuttle are supposed to close once the big external fuel tank drops off shortly after liftoff.

Two of Discovery's cracks are 2 inches long and about one-eighth of an inch wide. The other two are much smaller and may penetrate only a layer of anti-corrosive paint, said Lisa Malone, spokeswoman.

'Lambs' lead at box office

LOS ANGELES — The crime thriller "Silence of the Lambs" took the lion's share of tickets in its premiere weekend, collecting a strong $13.8 million to sew up first place on the box-office charts.

The movie, in which Jodie Foster plays an FBI trainee who enlists a diabolical murderer to track down another serial killer, grossed $9,196 per screen, according to figures released Tuesday by Exhibitor Relations Co. Inc.

Close behind was Julia Roberts playing an abused wife trying to start life anew in "Sleeping With the Enemy," which pulled in $12.8 million over the four-day holiday weekend.

In third place was the new comedy "King Ralph," starring John Goodman as a lounge lizard adapting to the English throne, with $6.3 million. The combative child comedy "Home Alone" made $7.4 million to earn fourth place.

Boosted by its leading 12 Academy Award nominations, the Western "Dances With Wolves" moved up to fifth place and $6.2 million, up from $3.9 million a week ago.

Anti-recession plan revealed

By MARTIN CRUTSINGER
AP Economics Writer

WASHINGTON — Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan faces the daunting task of developing a rescue plan for a U.S. economy beset by recession, war, bank failures and record federal budget deficits.

After trying and failing to engineer a "soft landing" in which inflation was to have been controlled without causing an economic downturn, Greenspan now must explain to Congress his plans for lifting the country out of its first recession since 1982.

Greenspan was preparing to reveal in testimony today the Fed's latest economic outlook and its revised monetary targets for the year.

The presentation, which by law Greenspan must make every six months, is eagerly awaited by financial markets for the information it provides on changes in the central bank's interest rate strategy.

If the economy keeps declining, the Fed will have to ease again. And we expect that to happen.

—Allen Sinai, economist

With Congress and the administration hamstrung by an expected record $318 billion deficit for this year, many believe the Fed and its interest rate policies offer the only tools available to the government to fight the recession.

In the past three months, the central bank has moved aggressively to push interest rates lower. And in advance of Greenspan's testimony today many private economists believed Greenspan would signal the Fed's continuing willingness to ease credit if the economy shows no signs of reviving.

"The Fed has been loosening; there is a recession going on and they are going to continue to loosen," said David Wynn, an economist with DRI-McGraw Hill.

While the Fed has moved a number of times to lower interest rates beginning in late October, Bush administration officials and various members of Congress have complained that Greenspan waited too long.

Some critics charge that Greenspan is partly to blame for killing the longest peacetime expansion in U.S. history by worrying too much about inflation and failing to respond quickly enough to growing signs of economic weakness last year.

White House Budget Director Richard Darman, writing in the administration's new budget, blamed Fed policy along with a slowdown in bank lending and Saddam Hussein's invasion of Kuwait as the factors leading to the recession.

Gorbachev's resignation asked

MOSCOW — The main Communist Party newspaper today accused Russian President Boris Yeltsin of worsening the Soviet Union's political crisis by calling for the first time for Mikhail Gorbachev to resign.

Yeltsin — leader of the largest, richest and most populous republic — made the appeal in a nationally televised interview Tuesday. He said the Soviet president was sacrificing reform to gain personal power and establish a dictatorship.

The Communist daily Pravda said it was a case of the pot calling the kettle black, that it was Yeltsin who was seeking power and glory.

El Salvador reaches crossroads

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador — El Salvador's 12-year-old civil war has lost the limelight to the far-off conflict in the Persian Gulf, but in recent weeks the country has quietly reached a critical point of reckoning.

On March 10, voters will choose 84 legislators for the single-chamber parliament and mayors for the 262 municipalities, and unlike in previous elections rebel leaders have said they won't call for a boycott.

Government and guerrilla peace negotiators meeting secretly, meanwhile, are reported "closer than ever to a cease-fire formula. Another three-day round began Tuesday in San Jose, Costa Rica.

But there are still fears the tentative steps toward democracy may be too few to prevent a slide back to the terror that Salvadorans hoped was a thing of the past.

Ed Sullivan, 60 Minutes' boost CBS

DEBORAH HASTINGS

LOS ANGELES — CBS catapulted into first place in the weekly television ratings race on the strength of an Ed Sullivan retrospective and "60 Minutes."

The CBS weekly newsmagazine was the most watched show last week, while Sunday's 90-minute special "The Very Best of the Ed Sullivan Show" was No. 2, according to figures released Tuesday by the A.C. Nielsen Co.

"60 Minutes" stands only two-tenths of a ratings point behind NBC's "Cheers," as the No. 1 show of the 1990-91 season.

CBS won last week's overall network race with a 12.9 average, followed by NBC with 12.8 and ABC with 11.8.

Each ratings point represents 931,000 homes.

NBC's overall rating was its strongest in a month, but not enough to pull the usually first place network out of a recent slump. For the last five weeks, NBC has had three last-place finishes and two second-place finishes.

"Cheers," on NBC, was the No. 3 show last week, followed by ABC's Friday night hit "Full House."

ABC's "Roseanne" was fifth, CBS' "Murder, She Wrote" was sixth, followed by the network's "Murphy Brown."

NBC's "A Different World" and ABC's "Family Matters" finished in a tie for eighth place. NBC's "Empty Nest" was 10th.

The network news battle was won again by Peter Jennings and ABC with a 12.3 average. NBC and Tom Brokaw were second with 10.2 and CBS and Dan Rather were third with 10.1.

Rap group joins Irish rocker on Grammy sideline

By LARRY MOHANE
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK — Rappers Public Enemy have joined Sinead O'Connor in boycotting tonight's Grammy Awards, but for a different reason: they say racism is keeping a rap award off prime-time television.

The band, nominated for best rap performance by a duo or group for its album "Fear of a Black Planet," said Tuesday it was angered that only the major Grammys will be presented during the three-hour ceremony televised tonight on CBS.

"I suspect there is some person who has something to do with this who is a racist," said group spokesman Harry Allen.

Grammys spokeswoman Sheryl Feuerstein dismissed the allegation, noting that the award for best rap solo performance would be televised during the show at Radio City Music Hall. Four of the five rappers nominated in that category are black, including M.C. Hammer.

Public Enemy was the second nominated act to announce it would not attend the 33rd annual ceremony. O'Connor, a nominee in four categories, said she was staying home because the Grammys honored commercial success rather than artistic merit.

Martha would have welcomed microwave

Martha Washington certainly would have welcomed the modern American kitchen, complete with dishwashers, bread makers, and microwave ovens. With a microwave, Martha could have served up our first President's favorite foods (mutton, shad, shrimp, oysters, corncakes and tea) in no time at all. She might even have alaahed the coats of the elaborate meals for the constant stream of dinner guests at Mount Vernon. For even in those times before our country had time to create inflation, food bills at the Washingtons' table mounted to $165 weekly, paid for by the General himself. To celebrate George Washington's birthday prepare some cherry dessert using your microwave.
