

Reds Pass Milestone

United Press International
The Cincinnati Reds are pointing for their first National League pennant in two decades and they have the percentages to back them up.

Over 50 per cent of the NL championship since 1936 approached the July 4 milestone at the top of the standings and managed to retain their leads at the season's finish. Pittsburgh carried a 3 1/2 game margin at the half-way mark last year and won the pennant by seven.

True, the Reds don't have a Sanky Walker, Paul Derringer or Johnny Vandermeer on their pitching staff as they did in 1940, but the likes of Jim Maloney, Bob Purkey and Roy Jay have earned Cincinnati a two-game edge going into today's Independence Day doubleheader.

Maloney won his fifth game of the year Monday night when the Reds edged Pittsburgh, 4-3. The victory gave Cincinnati a .623 percentage compared to the .441 they took into the July 4 action of the 1961 championship season.

Second place Los Angeles topped Milwaukee, 2-3, in the only other National League game Monday night.

In the American League, Baltimore beat Cleveland, 6-0, on Milt Pappas' four hits, Washington trimmed Boston, 6-3, Bob Allison's grand slam homer brought Minnesota a 7-6 victory over Chicago and Los Angeles defeated Kansas City, 8-3.

Detroit and second place New York were idle but took up in a doubleheader today that could erase the Tigers' one game lead.

Cincinnati is not particular over which one cops the AL bunting. The Reds would like to avenge a 1950 World Series loss to the Yankees and figure they can repeat their 1960 triumph over the Tigers.

Wally Pate, with his ninth home run of the year, and Vada Pinson took home runs in two runs in Cincinnati's win over the Pirates. Hank Stuart and Bill Virden connected for Pittsburgh. Effective hitting work by Bill Henry and Jim Bowman in the ninth inning saved Maloney's victory.

Manly Koning beat the Braves for the first time this season, giving him a victory over every club in the NL for 1961. Koning, who won eight innings and struck out seven, won his 11th game, tops in the circuit.

Pappas, hamstrung by a sore arm earlier in the campaign, won his fourth straight with the help of Gus Triandos' home run and single that accounted for three runs.

Washington scored all its runs in the second inning on five hits and three walks that provided rookie Ed Hoag with his sixth triumph. Jim Faglar and Gary Geiger homered for the Red Sox.

Allison's grand slammer, his third of the year to tie him with Baltimore's Jim Gentile, capped a rally of four unearned runs. An error by Nellie Fox with two out enabled Allison to come to the plate and unload his 15th homer of the season.

Ken Hunt drove in two runs, one with his 18th homer, to pace the Angels to their fifth win in six games. Ronnie Kline was effective in relief of starter Ryne Duran, allowing only one run in seven innings to chalk up his second

Homers Being 'Whacked' All Over American Loop

NEW YORK (UPI)—Those explosions you're hearing today aren't all firecrackers.

They're detonations in American League ball parks where home runs are going up and out like Roman candles. The echo you hear is the pounding of pitchers' hearts every time they go to the mound.

For, due to expansion and the stretching thin of pitching staffs, home runs are being whacked at an overall pace never before seen in more than a half century of baseball.

Three records which seem certain to go in the American League are:

1. Most grand slam homers in a season.
2. Most total home runs for the league's season.
3. Most clubs hitting more than 100 homers in a season.

The American League record for grand slam homers is 37 and, with two extra clubs picking on the harried pitchers and each club playing eight additional games, the handwriting is large on the wall.

For already the AL had seen seven grand slam homers with the bases loaded. Jim Gentile of Baltimore and Bob Allison of Minnesota had three each while Roy Sievers of Chicago had a pair—and there were 18 others with the season not nearly half over.

The record for the most home runs for a league in a season is 1,263 by the National League in 1955 and 1,061 by the American League in 1959. Both are certain to go by the boards for the Americans already had belabored 726 blasts going into this week.

Every club in the American League previously has accounted for more than 100 homers in the same season. This may be a record akin to most assists by red-haired shortstop on Good Friday in the second game of a double header but you could almost say your brogans that the mark will go up to an even 10 in the expanded American League this season.

Yet it is in the individual department where the point is driven home solidly as to the manner in which the batsmen are bludgeoning the haunted hurlers.

Starting this week, both Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris still were running ahead of Babe Ruth's eye-popping 60 home runs he delivered his record 66 home runs back in 1927. This is not to say that either of these young gentlemen will surpass that historic record, yet both seem assured of bettering their own top marks.

Mantle hit 52 as his overall best effort and Maris has as his top mark 39. Risking redundancy, the season isn't even half over and both are well past their halfway stop.

Indicating the seven-vault tightness of the pitching are the figures of some of baseball's other batsmen not particularly noted for their long drives.

Moosa Skowron, who ranks as a hitter of note, still has an all-time top home run mark of 28. Going into this week's play he had 17. There are a number of other remarkably eye-opening comparisons.

Gene Green of Washington, with a career top of 13 in a season, already has nine. Willie Tasby of Washington has 15 and never before hit more than 13. Jim Landis of Chicago has 10 against a top of 15. Earl Averill of Los Angeles, with a top of 10 for one season, has 12 to date.

Bubba Phillips of Cleveland hit seven as his yearly best, but now has 12. Leon Wagner of Los Angeles, with a career top of 13, already has 17 and Billy Klaus of Washington hit seven as his best annual mark and already has six.

Then there's Jerry Adair of Baltimore. He hit one all of last season. At the moment he has seven —so it didn't have to come up July 4 to prove to the pitchers that the bombs are bursting in air.

Columbus Jets Pace IL Race

By United Press International
The Columbus Jets hit the Fourth of July milestone with a 4 1/2 game bulge over the second place Charleston Marines in the International League race.

The Jets warmed up for the holiday Monday night by downing Charleston, 9-3, behind the six-hit pitching of Jim Umbrecht. It was the tall right-hander's first triumph in a month and his first complete game victory since April 12.

Altman Given Award
CINCINNATI (UPI)—George Altman, an outfielder with the Chicago Cubs, has been named the National League's player-of-the-month for June. Altman batted .384 during June with 44 hits and 10 home runs to nose out Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants by just one vote.

U. S. Down To One At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI)—Karen Hantze of Chula Vista, Calif., carrying American prestige in the women's division of the Wimbledon tennis tournament, met Renee Schuurman of South Africa today in a battle for a berth in the semifinals.

The winner of this match will be pitted against the survivor of the quarterfinal duel between second-seeded Margaret Smith of Australia and sixth-seeded Christine Truman of England.

In the two other women's quarterfinals, top-seeded Sandra Reynolds of South Africa met fifth-seeded Yola Ramirez of Mexico, and seventh-seeded Angela Morriemer of England played Vera Suvova of Czechoslovakia.

The 18-year-old Miss Hantze, seeded eighth, sought to keep pace with Chuck McKinley of St. Ann, Mo., who reached the men's semifinals Monday with a 6-4, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4 victory over Bobby Wilson of England. McKinley plays Mike Sangster of England Wednesday.

Besides McKinley and Sangster, those who reached the men's semifinals Monday were second-seeded Rod Laver of Australia and seventh-seeded Ramanathan Krishnan of India. Laver and Krishnan also play Wednesday.

Laver, the tournament favorite, defeated sixth-seeded Luis Ayala of Chile, 6-1, 6-3, 6-2; Krishnan upset fourth-seeded Roy Emerson of Australia, 6-1, 6-4, 6-4; and Sangster beat Ivo Pimental of Venezuela, 6-2, 6-3, 6-4.

Hubbs Phillips of Cleveland hit seven as his yearly best, but now has 12. Leon Wagner of Los Angeles, with a career top of 13, already has 17 and Billy Klaus of Washington hit seven as his best annual mark and already has six.

Richards Not Apologizing For 'Stars'

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Manager Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles said today he was "not explaining nor apologizing" for some of the controversial selections he made for this year's American League All-Star team.

Richards by-passed five prominent players, including Jimmy Piersall of the Cleveland Indians, Monday in rounding out the 25-man AL squad for the first 1961 All-Star game at San Francisco, July 11.

"Somebody had to pick them," said Richards, who was named to replace retired Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees as the AL manager. "I'm not explaining nor apologizing. I'm just like the umpires—I don't explain, I just pick."

Piersall was one of five players who finished second in an earlier players' poll to be passed over by Richards. The others were Roy Sievers of the White Sox, Jerry Lumpe of the Athletics, Luis Aparicio of the White Sox, and Tito Francona of the Indians.

Piersall appeared unconcerned that he was ignored by Richards, although he finished as runner-up to Mickey Mantle in the AL voting for center fielders.

"I've been passed up before," Piersall said. "It doesn't bother me."

Richards picked Jackie Brandt of his own Orioles as the No. 3 center fielder. Brandt, currently hitting .300, has been battling Norm Cash of the Tigers for the AL batting lead. However, Piersall also is enjoying a great season with a .341 average.

As his reserve first baseman, Richards again went to his own team, picking Jim Gentile ahead of Sievers and Bill Skowron of the Yankees, both of whom finished ahead of Gentile in the players' poll.

The Baltimore manager also selected Dick Howser of the A's, who finished third behind Tony Kubek of the Yankees and Aparicio in the players' poll, as the AL's reserve shortstop. This appeared to be a logical move, however, for Richards was forced to select at least one player from each team and Howser has been a standout for Kansas City this year.

Nellie Fox of the White Sox and Yogi Berra of the Yankees were the other players Richards strayed from the voting to select.

Berra was selected as an outfielder over Francona, but he also gives the AL another solid catcher. It was the 14th straight year that Berra was named to the All-Star squad but it was the first time he was designated as an outfielder.

Richards' fondness for Fox, dating back to his days as manager of the White Sox, probably played a part in his decision to add the peppery second baseman to his squad even though Lumpe and the Yankees' Bobby Richardson finished ahead of Fox in the earlier balloting.

The players selected for the July 11 game at San Francisco also will be members of the AL team for the second All-Star contest at Boston, July 31. However, Richards will be allowed to add three more players for the second game.

Burke Takes Buick Golf Play

GRAND BLAND, Mich. (UPI)—Jack Burke Jr. doesn't win many tournaments these days, but the 35-year-old former Masters and PGA champion from Kiamasha Lake, N. Y., picked the right spot to enter the winner's circle.

Burke fired a one-under-par 71 Monday to win the rich Buick Open title in a playoff with Bill Casper Jr. and Johnny Pott. His effort netted $9,000 for first place plus a $1,000 bonus for tournament MVP rights. That's one of the biggest payoffs on the summer tour.

"I win about one tournament every two years," Burke said as he studied his fat pay check. "Winning right now isn't the easiest thing to do."

He pointed out that the pro golf ranks are crowded with many players "physically able to win."

Casper and Pott, who like Burke were seeking their first tournament victory of 1961, wound up in a tie for second place and each earned $3,000.

The closing point of the playoff came at the 11th hole where Burke, long known as one of the top putters in the game, rolled in a 30-footer for a birdie.

Primary Plant Recommended By Engineers

Engineer William Leffler will ask the City Commission to set aside necessary funds to construct a primary sewerage treatment plant instead of a secondary plant.

Leffler today said that it would be more economically feasible to construct a primary plant and provide in the future for a complete treatment plant on the same site.

Three Injured In Road Mishaps Over Holiday Here

Two Navy men were hurt and a Casselberry resident hospitalized in two separate accidents in Seminole County over the Fourth of July, the Highway Patrol reported.

At 2 a. m. Tuesday, Leslie J. King, attached to VAH-3 at the navy base, apparently lost control of his vehicle (see picture) and ran off the road hitting a tree on the Old Orlando Highway three miles south of Sanford.

King and a passenger in the car, David Schulz, were taken to the MAB hospital and treated for cuts and bruises.

Trooper Jim Foster charged King with reckless driving. The car was declared a total loss.

John Hines of Casselberry was reported in "fair" condition today after he drove directly into the path of a car operated by Clayton Myers Tuesday night at Hwy. 17-92 and Dog Track Rd., Foster said.

Hines suffered lacerations and a possible concussion in the mishap. He was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

In another water accident Tuesday, Rodney Crawford, 15, of Washington, Pa., dove into the water off Clearwater Beach and failed to come up. He was pronounced dead on arrival at a hospital after being pulled from the water.

Police ruled his death an accidental drowning.

505 Die On Roads

By United Press International
The highway slaughter over the Fourth of July weekend soared past the 500 mark today in final tallies of the deadliest summer holiday in the nation's history.

The death count shattered the previous summer holiday record of 491 traffic fatalities in 1950 and a National Safety Council spokesman said, "It's only a question of how much over 500 it will go."

A United Press International count showed 505 pedestrian and motorist deaths in the 108-hour holiday period from 8 p. m. Friday to midnight Tuesday. During a comparable, non-holiday period, the council estimated, 370 highway deaths would be reported.

The breakdown of holiday accidental deaths:

Traffic 505; drownings 234; planes 9; fireworks 8; miscellaneous 127; total 878.

California traffic killed 48 persons, Texas counted 33 highway victims; Ohio, 28; New York, 24; Florida, 21; Arizona, 19; Illinois, 18; Missouri, 17; Alabama, North Carolina and South Carolina, each 16; and Minnesota, 15.

The record toll continued the deadly pattern that began a month ago with 462 traffic deaths over the Memorial Day weekend. The previous summer holiday record of 491 traffic fatalities was set on the Fourth of July weekend in 1950. The all-time high for a holiday weekend was set at Christmas-time, 1964, when 706 persons were killed in traffic.

Drownings more than doubled the Memorial Day weekend toll and fireworks were killers. At the Dallas, Ore., a fireworks bomb ignited by an Indian couple shot sideways into a car and killed the couple's 5-month-old son. A carload of fireworks exploded and killed a Grand Island, Neb., man.

Two riots stirred mass outbreaks. Rioters looted the storehouse boat Hudson Belle east 10 persons to the hospital in New York City and 400 to 500 youths milled about Bellefontaine, Ohio, streets hurling rocks and fireworks in the outbreak of unreported violence.

Dreamed Up Trade, Eichmann Says

JERUSALEM (UPI) — Adolf Eichmann asserted today that he dreamed up a plan to trade one million Jewish lives for 10,000 trucks because another Nazi official was hounding him on his Jewish emigration presave and anyhow "I had no work to do."

Spectators in the packed Jerusalem courtroom laughed heartily as Eichmann, rimming and gesturing, claimed his whole idea was to restore his own slipping standing with his Nazi bosses. The deal was approved, but never went through.

The man who is being tried as the master killer who sent six million Jews to their deaths depicted himself as a small-time Nazi official with no work to do and almost out of a job, who had to do something to boost his own position.

CONGRESSMAN SYD HERRLONG presented a new 50 star flag, which once flew over the capitol in Washington, D. C. to the Sanford USO. Taking part in the flag raising ceremony July 4 at the USO building are left to right, Rev. James N. Barnett, local USO chairman; Mrs. Carolyn Higgins, USO staff aide; ACS Donald G. Crosson, from the Naval Air Station Control Tower; Salvation Army Maj. Basil West, USO Secretary for the Central Florida area and PFC Lawrence W. # South Tyrol Looms As New European Trouble Spot

BOLEANO, South Tyrol, Italy (UPI)—The Alpine canyon roads of beautiful South Tyrol are alive day and night with armed Italian carabinieri as tensions mount in an area disputed between inhabitants of Italian and Austrian extraction.

Many of the Italian soldiers are in camouflage uniforms and helmets. They appear suddenly at the roadside from the heavy foliage, for quick inspection of passing trucks and cars. They are stationed in squad strength or greater at railroad bridges, highway undercrossings and at the many electric installations which convert the mountain torrents to power for the railroads and manufacturing cities of the plains.

Travelers arriving at this tourist center in the heart of the Dolomites from the Austrian side of the Brenner Pass and from the eastern gateway city of Innsbruck are met by road patrol at 24 armed riflemen to the mile.

The camouflaged soldiers move silently in and out of the trees between highway and railroad lines. Those in standard Alpine uniform with smartly feathered caps stand on guard at key points or march the roadways in pairs. The troopers, rifles at the ready, are in evidence day and night, regardless of frequent torrential downpours of almost cloudburst proportions.

Some of the tent sites of the Italian army units and some of the permanent concrete defense structures have been expertly camouflaged with paint.

Ostensible reason for the presence of the armed force, which apparently is being further increased in size by many personnel carriers and supply trucks along the mountain road systems, is to protect the rail, highway and electrical installations from further sabotage by the incensed German-speaking extremists of the area.

The Austrian side of the dispute is placed in evidence by slogans painted on walls of many of the towns and villages: "Self government of Sud Tirol" — "Sud Tirol calls in desperation to Berlin" — "Sud Tirol does not want to be a colony of Italy."

These slogans are painted out by the Italians apparently as fast as they are discovered. But in many cases the white covering paint merely emphasizes the original lettering by giving it a two-toned effect.

These slogans increase in number and indignation on the Austrian side of the Brenner Pass. Here the Italians cannot interfere with the sign painters or attempt to eradicate their work.

The increasing tensions throughout the area, the recent bombings by German-speaking partisans and the casualties resulting from soldiers firing on individuals who failed to identify themselves properly, have pretty well emptied Boleano of American tourists at this, the height of the season. German and British tourists, always in the majority, continue to flood in unperturbed, attracted by the scenery and the fame the area shares with Spain as the last spots where prices have not yet been materially affected by inflation.

The dispute over South Tyrol, a province of Austria until the end of World War I, dates from the De Gasperi-Gruber compact made in Paris in 1946, under which the South Tyrol was to enjoy a substantial measure of self government.

Since then tensions between the German and Italian-speaking population have steadily mounted. Three international conferences between Italy and Austria have failed to settle them; the last collapse occurred in Zurich in June.

The Austrians claim South Tyrol has no effective self government and is, in effect, a province of Italy because Austria, pledged to neutrality as the price of her freedom from the USSR, cannot be a member of NATO whereas Italy is; that therefore the Western majority bloc in the United Nations has to side with Italy in this territorial dispute despite the fact that Italy as well as Austria (at that time a captive part of Hitler Germany) was on the losing side of World War II.

The Austrians further claim that the population of the South Tyrol is German-speaking in the majority, despite heavy importation of factory workers from southern Italy; and that the German-speaking population is being denied self-government for linguistic areas by such devices as extending the region to include all Trentino with resultant increase in the Italian nose count.

Hoffa May Run Into Trouble At Teamster Meet

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—James R. Hoffa's multi-million-dollar dues increase proposals were expected to run into opposition today from delegates to the Teamsters convention.

The union president's attorneys advised him that his demand for a convention-ordered increase of at least $1 a month in every rank - and - the member's dues might violate the Landrum-Griffin law.

And many Teamsters officials among the 2,000 delegates complained privately that it would be difficult to explain the need for a sizeable dues increase to their members back home.

Hoffa, confident that he will be re-elected to head the nation's largest union for the next five years, decided to push for higher dues anyway with only a few concessions to his critics.

About 116 constitutional changes were to be voted on during the third day of the special convention at one of this resort city's swank hotels.

Hoffa's only announced opponent, Milton J. Lee of Newark, N. J., was prepared to press adoption of his demand that dues be chosen by all the rank-and-file members in a secret ballot referendum.

The present system of voting at the convention opposes delegates in regulars and does not reflect rank-and-file wishes, Lee contended.

Hoffa's revenue-raising proposals would provide the funds for his program to set up a top-grade lobbying and political division, raise strike benefits and organize non-union workers in every field.

He is also seeking to boost the share of each member's dues that is earmarked for national headquarters from 60 cents to $1 a month. Another proposed change would raise minimums to $3 a month with some exceptions.

Teamsters legal experts said these measures were in compliance with the new federal law governing union procedures.

But the compulsory $1 hike for all of the Teamsters' 1.7 million members might conflict with a federal ban on dues increases by federal unions without prior approval by a secret ballot, some lawyers said.

Others felt the procedure could be defended as a higher levy imposed by the international union and thus avoid the voting requirement.

Soldiers Of Fortune 'Ready' For Castro

MIAMI (UPI)—Joseph Patrick Hemming, who wears an Australian bush hat and stands 6-5, is a soldier of fortune who looks like one.

The Interpen force here and in the Everglades consists of 30 men, many of them former members of the Army Special Forces, Marine reconnaissance groups and paratroopers.

Interpen is the paratroop unit of the anti-Communist international brigade headed by Frank Fiorini, who fought with Castro but later defected.

Fiorini claims to have underwater demolition teams training in California, Virginia and New York.

Patrick and his troops live in a boarding house in a middle class Miami neighborhood. On a dresser beside his cot are the paperback novels entitled, "They Died With Their Boots On," and "Smoke in the Valley."

Six of the 180 paratroopers who participated in the ill-fated Bay of Pigs invasion last April took part in a parachute exercise near Fort Lauderdale this past weekend.

Patrick says his Interpen group is supported by small contributions from sympathizers and that they also get money by selling their blood.

"We get $7 a pint, $10 if we're lucky," he said. "But we can't sell so much because of our training schedule."

Typical of the Interpen troops is 31-year-old Joe Garman of Bowling Green, Ky., who attended Western Kentucky State Teachers College briefly. Asked why he joined Interpen, Garman said he "just liked to soldier."

Fiorini claims that an entire American Legion chapter in a North Florida city has offered to join. Patrick showed UPI a telegram from a Minneapolis man offering Interpen the use of 24 surplus amphibious landing craft (Ducks) for "excursion rides."

Interpen has very little equipment at present.

Patrick indicated the trainees were not using weapons while training in the United States because of possible violation of U. S. neutrality laws.

Jessel Says He's Not Mad At Anyone

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Comedian George Jessel, 66, and the 27-year-old woman who has filed a paternity suit against him said Tuesday they are not mad at each other.

Divorcee Joan Tyler's suit was disclosed Monday and asked $2,000 medical care, $750 monthly during the pregnancy period and $950 monthly after the baby is born.

"Joan is a nice girl and I believe we can work this out amicably," said Jessel. "I surely hope so. I don't have much money but I am willing to help her."

"George and I are not mad at each other," Miss Tyler said. "We are not going to fight this thing out tooth and nail. We have discussed it. We have discussed marriage."

"But George tells me he may want to sell his home here and live in Europe. I don't want to live there. I am sure George won't deny that we have had a love affair."

She said some of the language used in her suit was "just a matter of legal procedure."

An average of 50 thousand copies of the Bible, the world's best selling book, are sold every day.

Bacall, Robards Are Finally Wed

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—The third country proved the charm for actress Lauren Bacall and actor Jason Robards Jr.

Following futile attempts at matrimony in Vienna, Austria, and Las Vegas, Nev., Robards and Miss Bacall, the widow of actor Humphrey Bogart, were married Tuesday in Ensenada, Mexico.

The newlyweds returned to Hollywood, where Robards was to report today for continued work on his latest movie "Tender is the Night."

Robards, 39, tried to marry Miss Bacall, 35, two weeks ago in Vienna but they were turned down when they tried to obtain a license. Vienna authorities said it was because Robards' Mexican divorce from his previous wife was invalid, but representatives of the couple said it was because officials did not want Vienna to become a Hollywood marriage center.

The couple also was refused a license in Las Vegas last Saturday night because of Robards' "questionable" divorce. Robards signed an affidavit stating he was divorced from his wife, Rachel, on May 10, 1951.

Miss Bacall also filed a divorce suit in New York state in October of last year, charging him with adultery with Miss Bacall.

Miss Bacall has two children by Bogart, Stephen, 13, and Lee, 10.

Khrushchev Gay And Ebullient At Ambassador's Party

MOSCOW (UPI)—Seven-year-old Cheryl Thompson took Nikita S. Khrushchev by the hand and showed him the backyard vegetable garden.

That was one of the folksy touches that made Khrushchev's evening at U. S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson's mansion Tuesday a homey, Fourth of July affair.

It was Khrushchev's first visit to the U. S. Embassy in Moscow in three years and he did it up proper. He brought his wife, Nina, and a platoon of Kremlin officials and stayed a full 90 minutes.

Khrushchev was in a gay and ebullient mood. He repeatedly visited Thompson and his family to visit his dacha in suburban Moscow and see "my children, my corn, cows and pigs."

What Happened?

The Legislature — at least the majority bloc — and the Governor solemnly swore that there would be no more state taxes imposed upon the people during the biennium that opened Monday. Remember that fact?

And yet, when you take a look at the state budget you find this fact: As of May 1, 1961, the Budget Director has set the official estimate of the State's Resources for the next biennium at $784,500,000, but the Legislature passed an appropriations bill of $768 million.

It wound up then with the Budget Director revising his estimate of resources to provide a total of available funds of $779,500,000, or a total of $15,000,000 more than his first estimate.

Where did that $15 million plus come from?

It's simple—from new taxes. It came from taxes imposed by the Legislature in bills it passed and which were vetoed by the Governor.

If you send your son or daughter to a state junior college you'll be paying sales tax on his or her meals.

If you buy a driver's license in September, you will be paying another 25 cents towards driver education.

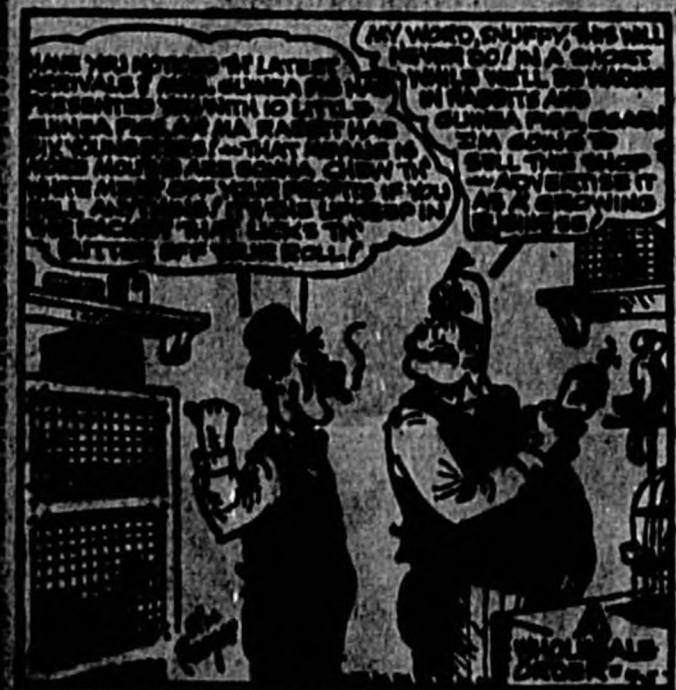

If you will buy a two year license this year, you will be paying $3 for it instead of the present $1.25.

These are just some of the many taxes you will be contributing to the "no new taxes" budget.

"It's Like Russian Roulette Except There Are No Empty Chambers"

From Rome

Henry McLemore

ROME, Italy—The Japanese delegation to the meeting of the International Olympic Committee in Athens has asked that judo be added to the program of the Games in Tokyo in 1964.

I am sure that the IOC will look upon this request with favor, for it is an unwritten rule of the Games that the best nation be allowed to teach on a sport at which their athletes excel. With judo on the agenda the Japanese, of world fame only in swimming and gymnastics of the normal Olympic events, will be guaranteed quite a number of gold medals.

It was over this. Last year, here in Rome, the Italians were off to a flying start because they had had the foresight to increase the number of bicycling events, a sport at which the Italians have no superiors. I don't remember what the Australians used to do to fortify their chances in 1956 in Melbourne — kangaroo wrestling perhaps—but I do recall the Germans elevating rubber boat paddling to an international sport when the Games were in Berlin.

Mass Germany was practically the only nation which owned a rubber boat, and certainly the only nation whose athletes had been practicing in rubber boats. German rubber-boaters were themselves a household of medals.

If the Games are ever held in Tokyo, you may be sure that the throwing of golden darts by gymnasts will be on the program, and that smoking will have a place in Pittsburgh is over the side.

The Japanese caused a few lit- of eyebrows when they suggested that judo be added, but I can't understand why. Judo certainly has as much right to a place as rope climbing (it was once a highlight), or shooting, which still holds a place of honor. Judo is a sport which teaches

Peter Edson's Political Notebook

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Rapid reading courses are all the rage in Washington these days. Central Intelligence Agency got into the act first, some years ago, by making speed reading compulsory for its researchers and situation evaluators.

Pentagon has a night course in the basement for officers wanting to get ahead by speeding up their perception and comprehension. And there are other groups on Capitol Hill, at Department of Agriculture and in private classes slaving away two hours a night several times a week.

The reason for this craze, is that the government printing mills all over town are daily and gaily grinding out many times more material than anyone can possibly read in 24 hours.

Every official's desk in Washington is stacked high enough to hide the Washington monument unless all his papers are classified and have to be hidden from him by his secretaries. So the problem is, how do you lick the system?

Since the Kennedy administration came to town the flood of this material has been higher than ever. This is what drives people to rapid reading. It's no longer fun.

But events of recent days have given several clues that being able to scan a page in nothing flat and then being able to remember what was on it is not enough. For even the graduate rapid readers have been swamped.

So an idea has been growing that the way to beat this rap is not to learn to read faster, but to teach those who do the writing to say what they have to say in fewer words, which others would have time to read slowly.

This was impressed on Washington by the flood of decisions handed down by the Supreme Court before the honorable justices took off on three months vacation—to recover from their own wordiness, no doubt.

The decision left the legal profession completely confounded and confused. And they started more arguments than they stopped. Most of this was done by 5-to-4 decisions, which indicates the justices weren't too sure of what they were doing themselves.

Justice Brennan's 55,000-word decision supposed to decide whether due process is a union by workers in a closed shop could be used for political purposes to which the members object may be impossible to enforce. The decision was handed down on the court's final Monday.

day. The AFL-CIO executive heard not in Washington a week later. But in that week's time its counsel had not been able to figure out what the unions will have to do to comply with the decision.

It took the Supreme Court 10 years to decide that it is a crime to be a member of the Communist party in the United States, and that the party would have to register as a tool of the Soviet Union. Justice Frankfurter's 110-page majority opinion is practically unintelligible even to lawyers.

Communist counsel, after studying it for a few days, apparently advised the party leaders not to comply. There are still so many loopholes that every attempt at enforcement by Department of Justice will be challenged in the courts. It may be another 10 years before the matter can be resolved.

In another 60-page decision by Justice Frankfurter on the admissibility as evidence of a confession in a Connecticut murder case, he traced the history of the problem for centuries.

This was so confusing that even Justice Earl Warren, who concurred with the opinion in principle observed that, "It had not been the custom of the court to write lengthy and abstract dissertations."

Fay Henle's Your Pocketbook

Worried about your financial 500 or more; 31 per cent have mortgages with an average of $1,800 left to be paid; 54 per cent have noninstallment debts.

These are the latest findings of George Katona of the University of Michigan, who has just issued a "1960 Survey of Consumer Finances."

Professor Katona also details the pattern of the more affluent. One family in 10 has total assets of more than $25,000. An additional one family in five owns assets worth between $10,000 and $25,000.

Proof of how our affluence has grown is illustrated by the gain in home values. In the past dozen years, the average market value of new home mortgages has increased nearly 50 per cent from $9,100 to $13,400. The number of home owners now is about 60 per cent of the population.

—One family in three today has limited financial assets, meaning no more than about $1,000 invested in savings, government bonds, corporate stock, real estate, a farm or a business.

—Most families with small or modest assets have not diversified; their savings are in one or at the most, two, types of assets.

—Low income families spend a larger share of total income for cars and home appliances than the wealthy.

Leading 'Mixing' Director Released From State Prison

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — The national director of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) was released Tuesday from the Mississippi state penitentiary after 40 days behind bars as an arrested "Freedom Rider."

James Farmer, 41, posted bond and about 12 hours later called a press conference to report on his confinement. He said murderers appear to be receiving better treatment than are the jailed anti-segregationists.

"My three weeks at the penitentiary tried my faith in human nature," Farmer said. The Negro leader, one of CORE's founders 19 years ago, said the riders' treatment at the penitentiary in Parchman amounted to "psychological cruelty."

Fred Jones, superintendent at the institution, later denied "Freedom Riders" were being mistreated. Jones said the group was rowdy and jailers occasionally had to punish them to maintain "order and discipline."

Farmer, who later returned to his home in New York, said Mississippi's treatment of the riders is aimed at "turning them into animals."

He said some were forced to sleep for three nights "on hard, cold steel floors" with fans "going full blast to freeze us out."

Then, he said, "the fans were turned completely off for three days, making the heat unbearable... it was difficult to breathe."

Farmer was among the first of 169 "Freedom Riders" jailed here since the anti-segregation campaign began on May 24.

Gunman Tricks Vacationers; Kidnaps Teenager

MOAB, Utah (UPI) — A gunman tricked three Connecticut vacationers into stopping their car in the Utah Badlands Tuesday night, then fatally shot a woman, wounded a man and kidnaped a 14-year-old girl.

Roadblocks were thrown up around the area in an effort to catch the slayer.

Dead on arrival at Moab, 19 miles from the shooting scene was Jeanette Sullivan, 41, Rockville, Conn. Taken to J. W. Allen Hospital with 22 caliber bullet wounds in the head and hands was Charles Boothroyd, 65, also of Rockville.

Dennis Sullivan, 14, daughter of the woman, was reported to have been kidnaped by the man, who also robbed all three. The girl, according to the Grand County sheriff's office, made a futile attempt to drive away in their small foreign car but was run off the road and dragged from the vehicle after her mother and Boothroyd were shot.

The seriously hurt Boothroyd told deputies the man flagged the car down and asked for assistance. Then he brandished the .22 rifle. When Boothroyd got out of the car the bandit demanded money, then shot the elderly man in the face as he tried to protect himself with his hands. Seconds later he shot Mrs. Sullivan once in the head. The girl tried to drive away but the man ran her off the road with his tan 1964 Ford.

MacArthur Enjoys 'Touching' Reunion

MANILA (UPI) — General of the Army Douglas MacArthur and his wife nostalgically sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" today at a touching reunion with 3,000 combat veterans who served with the wartime commander of Pacific forces.

MacArthur, on a sentimental return to the Philippines, stood with his arm around his wife's shoulders while the throng of old soldiers, some of them disabled and on crutches, lifted their voices in song.

The 61-year-old retired general opened his speech by saying, "When you sang that song, I was afraid you might take my wife away."

His voice trembling with emotion, the old soldier told the men he once commanded: "On such an occasion as this, my thoughts go back to those men who went with us to their last campaign. I do not know the dignity of their birth, but I do know the glory of their death."

The meeting between MacArthur and his comrades was held in the swank Manila Hotel, itself once a battlefield where Americans and Japanese fought room-by-room when the city was liberated during World War II.

Jay, Lary Keeping Bengels, Cinci Up

United Press International
The Detroit Tigers and Cincinnati Reds, a pair of pre-season 50 to 1 shots, passed the July 4th milestone with a fervent hope that their prize pitching "stars" will stay healthy all the way to the World Series.

Frank Lary is the boy the Tigers are rooting for to remain safe and healthy.

As for the Reds, they're urging the very Jay to stay out of drafts. Lary landed home the winning run in the 10th inning Tuesday while pitching the Tigers to a 4-3 nightcap victory over the New York Yankees. The triumph enabled the Tigers to maintain their one game American League lead over the Yankees, who won the opener, 6-2, on Whitey Ford's five-hitter.

Jay pitched a three-hitter for his second straight shutout as the Reds defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 2-0, and preserved their two-game National League lead over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Dodgers scored six runs in the first inning and hung on for a 6-5 win over the Milwaukee Braves; the San Francisco Giants clubbed the Chicago Cubs, 19-3, then lost the nightcap, 3-2; and the Philadelphia Phils won the second game of a twin bill with the St. Louis Cardinals, 10-4, after losing the opener, 10-7.

In the American League, the Baltimore Orioles beat the Cleveland Indians, 5-1; the Washington Senators trounced the Boston Red Sox, 7-3; the Los Angeles Angels climbed out of the cellar by sweeping a doubleheader from the Kansas City Athletics, 12-5 and 7-5; and the Minnesota Twins beat the Chicago White Sox twice, 6-4 and 4-2.

Yanks, Tigers Pack 'Em In

By United Press International
The New York Yankees and Detroit Tigers, battling for the American League lead, attracted more fans for their Independence Day doubleheader than all eight teams in the National League.

A near record turnout of 74,300 watched the Yankees and the Tigers split a pair at Yankee Stadium while the total National League attendance tumbled to 66,134 compared to last year's holiday turnout of 118,117.

Although the Cincinnati Reds are holding down first place in the National League, they drew only 11,300 — the day's smallest crowd — for their stage game against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The total American League attendance was 168,700 — almost double last year's figure of 80,000 when the A.L. had only eight teams. The major league grand total for the holiday soared to 225,000 compared to last year's turnout of 204,000.

Sarasota Gains Double FSL Win

By United Press International
Sarasota missed good pitching with plenty of hitting power Tuesday night for a double victory over Daytona Beach that stretched its Florida State League lead to two games.

Fischer Rapert Topping gave up only one hit in Sarasota's 6-1 victory in the opener. Sarasota scored twice in the second inning on three singles and a sacrifice fly by catcher John Stutz. Two more runs in the sixth were unearned.

The Sun Sox continued to four games in the opening inning in the doubleheader, winning the first 5-1. A single by Jim East, the first of two trips by Perry McWhorter, set up a walk and a pitcher's ball provided the big inning for Sarasota.

Second-place Leesburg scored a 6-0 victory over Tampa. The Orioles won 11 to the seventh inning in the seventh game of the doubleheader. Manager Cal Ripken singled home Jim Rupp, but two home runs in the ninth topped the show. Jack McQuinn hit a solo blast and Reddy Hineson was given a two-run homer when the ball landed under a fence and the pitcher couldn't retrieve it.

In a doubleheader, Palm Bay defeated Ft. Pierce, 5-4, in the first game. The second game was a 10-0 rout by Palm Bay.

Orlando, Kissimmee and Ocala also won their doubleheaders.

his 11th against four defeats. Gene Fosse hit a fifth-inning homer off Pittsburgh's Earl Francis and Gus Bell drove in the Reds' other run in the sixth with a sacrifice fly.

Charley Neal's three-run double was the big blow in the Dodgers' six-run first-inning explosion. Dick Farrell relieved starter Stan Williams in the sixth as the Dodgers extended their winning streak to five games. Hank Aaron homered for Milwaukee in the seventh.

Orlando Cepeda drove in eight runs with a homer, triple, two doubles and a single in the Giants' rout of the Cubs. Billy O'Dell pitched two-hit shutout relief ball for nine innings after the first of Ed Fisher on George Altman's homer. O'Dell struck out 13 batters. In the nightcap, Ron Santo's eighth-inning homer furnished the Cubs' margin of victory and made Jack Curtis the winner.

Stan Musial drove in four runs with a homer and triple in the Cards' win over the Phils. In the nightcap, Charlie Smith knocked in four Philadelphia runs with a homer and a double, and Jim Cofer contributed a three-run homer.

Antonelli Returns 'Home'

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Johnny Antonelli returned today to the Milwaukee Braves — the organization with which he broke into baseball.

The Braves purchased the 31-year-old southpaw Tuesday night from the Cleveland Indians in a waiver transaction for an estimated $200,000. Cleveland had obtained Antonelli and Willie Kirtland from the San Francisco Giants last December in a trade for Harvey Kuiper.

Antonelli, whose major league career has been sometimes brilliant but more often turbulent, commanded a $65,000 bonus from the old Boston Braves when he signed in 1948. He spent one year in Milwaukee in 1953, the year the Braves switched their franchise, and completed a 12-12 record.

Johnny was traded to the then New York Giants in 1954, winning 21 games that year and 20 in 1956. He had a 19-10 record in San Francisco in 1959, but was only 6-7 last year.

Antonelli had been used sparingly by Cleveland and had an 8-4 record and a 6.56 earned run average.

Tom Cheney, a National League castoff, made his first American League start a winning one for Washington, although he needed ninth-inning relief from John Gabel. Gene Woodling, Gene Green and Willie Tashy hit homers.

George Thomas and Lee Thomas each hit a three-run homer for the Angels in their first game win over Kansas City. Ted Kluszewski and Ken Hunt contributed baseless empty bluffs as Los Angeles sent bonus baby Lew Kuzay down to his third straight defeat. In the nightcap, Rocky Bridges hit his first homer since 1950 to help the Angels make it a clean sweep.

Julie Bequer hit a pinch grand slam homer in the ninth to give Minnesota its first-game victory over Chicago. Harmon Killebrew hit a three-run homer in the night cap and Jack Kralchick scattered 10 hits in pitching the distance.

Jay's victory for Cincinnati was

ST. ANDREW'S, Scotland (UPI) — Arnold Palmer waited a year to get his revenge on the famed "road hole" — the 17th — at St. Andrew's old course, but it was worth it.

The husky shotmaker from Latrobe, Pa., got an eagle three on his line hole Tuesday that helped him to a five-stroke victory over Gary Player of South Africa in a $10,000 television match. Palmer wound up with a three-under-par 70.

Wins Twice

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Seymour Cromwell of Cambridge, Mass., former Princeton University swimmer, was the 200-meter champion race of the annual Independence Day regatta on the Schuylkill River Tuesday. Cromwell also captured the quarter mile dash for singles, establishing himself as the top candidate for the U.S. singles scull title.

CINCINNATI'S BOOMING

Pearson Takes 'Firecracker' Race

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Young David Pearson headed home today with about $8,000 first-place money, an impressive new record for Daytona Speedway's annual Fourth of July "Firecracker" 250-mile race, and a firm foothold in the "big time."

Smooth, calculating driving, plus a bad break for runnerup Fred Lorenzen of Elmhurst, Ill., paid off in Tuesday's race for Pearson, a 24-year-old Spartanburg, S. C., driver.

Pearson's average time for the 100-lap event was 154.294 miles per hour, whacking betterment of the mark set by last year's "ES" winner, Jack Smith of Spartanburg. Smith finished third Tuesday.

Pearson piloted a 1961 Pontiac over the two and one-half mile track.

Lorenzen seemed to have the race in the bag until Pearson made his move on the 90th lap — two laps from the finish.

Striking past the stragglers, Pearson ran bumper to bumper with Lorenzen, then posed into the lead on the final lap.

Lorenzen still was in the running until he found himself bunched up with other cars and forced to slow down for a few precious seconds.

Baylor Signs Lakers Pact

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Elgin Baylor, considered by many to be the finest basketball player in the world, signed a five-year contract Tuesday with the Los Angeles Lakers at a salary hinted at about $50,000 a year.

Club President Robert E. Short, a Minneapolis trucking executive, made the announcement.

"So far as we know, this is the longest-term contract ever given to a professional athlete," Short said. "It indicates our faith in the continued ability of the man we feel is the greatest basketball player in the history of the game."

Short said he had made a special trip from Minneapolis to discuss the pact with the former Seattle U. star, who still had a year left on his old contract.

Oviedo Couple Exchange Wedding Vows In Ceremony At First Baptist Church

By MARIAN E. JONES

Miss Peggy O'Neal Fleming and William Keith Malcolm exchanged wedding vows before a large group of relatives and friends July 5 at 9 a. m. at the First Baptist Church in Oviedo.

Rev. Jack T. Bryant, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elsie Fleming and the late Mr. Wm. Fleming and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Malcolm, all of Oviedo.

The church was artistically decorated for the ceremony by Mrs. Jimmy Jones. Large baskets of white gladioli and pink carnations were placed at vantage points and fringed candelabra held burning tapers. Fewer were tied with ribbon and a white altar cloth was used.

William H. Martin, organist, presented a program of musical music and accompanied Morris Haley, soloist.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, E. L. Ward, the bride was radiant in her formal gown of pure silk organza over satin. She pointed basque bodice featured a group neckline with appliqued 34-embroidered Alencon lace and short sleeves.

The very full skirt had floating panels using the same lace motifs and terminated in a chapel train. A scalloped crown of lace outlined and embroidered with pearls and sequins, held her hair in a veil of pure silk tulle. She carried a white prayer book, topped with a white orchid and satin ribbon streamers.

Miss June Fleming was her sister's maid of honor and Miss Beulah Fleming, another sister, and Miss Nola Williams of Monticello, a college roommate of the bride, served as bridesmaids.

They wore identical ballroom length gowns of ice pink organza over tulle, with fitted bodice, long necklines and brief sleeves. Fringed cummerbunds of deep sea blue were fastened in the back with self roses and streamers.

They wore matching headpieces and circular veils of silk tulle. The maid of honor carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations and the attendants carried nosegays of pink carnations.

Hubert Priest, a classmate of the groom, was best man and serving as usher were Kenneth and Joe Malcolm, brothers of the groom, Ferdinand Duda and Johnny Jones.

Little Diane Duda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Duda, Belle Glade, and piece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of pink lace embroidery fashioned with a fitted bodice and short puffed sleeves. She carried rose petals in a basket trimmed with pink satin bows.

Danny Duda, nephew of the bride and Diane's brother, was ring bearer and carried the two rings on the traditional satin pillow.

Mrs. Fleming chose for her daughter's wedding a street length dress of gray lace over rose tulle, with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

The groom's mother chose a street length dress of lavender linen, black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the educational building of the church, with Mrs. Joe I. Bessley in charge of arrangements.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. E. L. Ward and Miss Mary Ann Jenkins. The refreshment table was overlaid with a white linen cloth and centered with a large wedding cake. Fern and pink roses surrounded the cake and two crystal punch bowls were at either end of the table.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Milton Gore, Mrs. Jim Weston, Mrs. Betty Brown, Mrs. Felton Lavender, Mrs. Kenneth Malcolm, and Mrs. Hubert Priest. Mrs. Jack Dodd kept the bride's book.

Background music was presented during the evening by Miss Julie Gore, Miss Linda Harris and Mrs. John Courier Jr.

Flourishing hostesses included Misses Carol, Jan and Rose Marie Bessley, Beverly Cauthan, Diane Aulin, Jan May, Miriam Wheeler, Linda Ray and Anne Sivik.

For traveling Mrs. Malcolm chose a navy blue suit with white collar, white accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple left for a honeymoon to Kentucky. They will return in August and make their home in Titusville where the groom will be employed by the board of education as a teacher.

Andersons Conclude Very Busy Week

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Anderson of Lake Mary find that the marriage of a granddaughter can keep them pretty busy. Last week's activities began with the "Open House" they attended Wednesday evening at the Orlando home of the F. D. Anderson Jr.

This was to introduce their daughter to the parents of her husband's fiancé, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Higgins of Franklin, Tenn. She also gave the friends a chance to view the wedding presents.

Thursday Mrs. Anderson was hostess at the bridesmaid luncheon at the Barbizon Restaurant in Winter Park.

During the luncheon, Miss Mona Anderson, bride elect, presented gold hearts with the name of each bridesmaid engraved on bracelet charms to the Misses Sally Crowning of Winter Park, Carol Ann Dohi, Orlando, Elaine Hudson, sister of the groom, Frank, Tenn., Elizabeth Wynne and Anna Clark of Valdosta, Ga.

Other guests were Mrs. Ward Higgins, mother of the groom and Mrs. F. D. Anderson Jr., mother of the bride.

Friday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. K. Brewer and children, Nancy

A Good Fit Gives Professional Look To Home Sewing

Half the style of a smart dress or suit is in the way it fits. If you make your own clothes, skill in fitting is insurance against a homemade look.

Bulges, wrinkles and excess fullness disturb the planned effect of a stylish silhouette.

Clothes fit when they correspond in size and shape to a person's figure without spoiling the proportion of the design and without restricting the wearer's movement.

Unless the garment is a very simple one, it should be fitted on the figure before it is permanently stitched along important basic lines. Since darts very often need changing, it is best to have them based in for first fitting.

Whatever type of foundation garment and other undergarments will be worn with the dress should be worn for the fitting. If possible, fit before a full length mirror or a long triple mirror.

Still in fitting comes with practice. In order to be successful one must learn the essentials of good fit and be willing to work.

More Vitamin C Needed By Most Families

Now to step up the vitamin C in your diet is very important. The health of many home-makers depends on the essential vitamin, needed every day, in order to be in good health. One family in every five was not getting enough vitamin C, according to a national consumption survey conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Knowing which foods are high in this vitamin is very important. Most people know that citrus fruits are rich in vitamin C. An orange or a half grapefruit a day can supply the full daily quota.

Many green leafy vegetables contain large amounts of Vitamin C, especially the deep green spinach, chard, kale and collards. It is present in cauliflower, broccoli and tomato juice. The vitamin is also found in the following: green peas, lima beans, kidney beans, chickpeas, lentils, and soybeans.

It is also found in the following: strawberries, raspberries, blueberries, blackberries, and currants.

It is also found in the following: guava, kiwifruit, and acerola.

It is also found in the following: rose hips, sea buckthorn, and elderberry.

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES

No other wagon can match Ford's features (or popularity!)

There's a whole wagonload of Ford features that only America's station wagon specialists can bring you.

First, there's more room. Ford's extended load deck is the longest and widest in its field. The tailgate opening is seven inches wider than last year, too.

There's more convenience. You can have an electrically controlled roll-down rear window in any Ford wagon . . . it's standard in all Country Squire and 9-Passenger Country Sedans. In their field, only Ford wagons have all seats facing forward.

There's more distinction. The Country Squire (shown above) is the one and only wagon in its field with body panels that look like mahogany, wear like steel.

There are more savings, too. Ford's Ranch Wagon is America's lowest-priced,* full-size wagon. And like all Fords, every Ford wagon is built to be more service-free: goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications, 4,000 miles between oil changes, makes adjustments automatically, mufflers are made to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers, and the Squire never needs waxing.

STOP putting off that station wagon you've always wanted. SWAP for a '61 Ford wagon now while your Ford Dealer's celebrating record-breaking sales. SAVE with the wagon America loves most . . . made by FORD . . . America's station wagon specialists for 33 years!

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law must have a hundred pictures in her living room. She has them perched on every table, on top of the television, and her walls are covered with them. They are all pictures of her children when they were babies. All her children are married now, and she hasn't room for any of the recent pictures we give her because her house is cluttered with this ancient collection. Do you think I should tell her that no one cares to see a baby picture of her 38-year-old son (my husband) naked on a fur rug? She has another one of him on a rented pony, and he looks like a moron. Don't tell me not to visit her because my husband is one of those devoted sons who always drags me there with him. Any suggestions? CITY GIRL

DEAR GIRL: Your mother-in-law obviously like to surround herself with this "ancient" collection. It's HER home. If you don't like it, keep your eyes closed. And your mouth, too.

DEAR ABBY: We are both under the legal age to be married in this state. Can we get married if we have friends who are over 21 sign for us? We both have parents living, but they would not sign for us, and we have to get married soon. UNDER AGE

DEAR UNDER: You need your parents' (or a guardian's) signatures. Talk this over with your parents NOW.

DEAR ABBY: I have gone with this man for over 12 years. I am 14 years older than he is, but he has always said that age doesn't make any difference.

He makes good money and has no family obligations. I get the idea as time passes that he would be happier with a younger, prettier woman. He is tall and handsome and, when we are together, I know some people think I am his mother. When I tell him I will give him up any time he says the word, he says he needs me like he needs his right arm. (He is left-handed.) Can this love last? OLDER THAN HIM

DEAR OLDER: It can, if you don't keep reminding him that he is left-handed.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

I came across a phrase the other day that seems to sum up rather well the kind of impression it is important for a woman to make on others. The phrase is "Good-naturedly sure of herself."

This describes the people we like on first acquaintance and are always pleased to see. The ones who are good-naturedly sure of themselves:

- Not arrogantly sure.
Not snobbishly sure.
Not belligerently sure.
Not holier-than-thou sure.
But good-naturedly sure.

That is the kind of sureness that comes from a combination of worth-while assets. It is accepting yourself as you are and expecting others to accept you without apologies.

It is the sureness that isn't built on feelings of superiority, but that is built of adequacy. It doesn't say in effect: "I'm better than everyone else."

It does say "I'm as good as the next person."

It is also the kind of sureness that lets its owner laugh at life and even at herself occasionally. It is the kind of sureness that keeps the person who has it from being afraid to take chances or tackle a hard job.

It's the "I'll do my best" kind of assurance. Not expecting to fail, not always certain that the best will be enough, but willing to try.

It is the kind of self-assurance that makes its owner friendly and outgoing, ready to take the first step toward friendship and to keep old friendships alive.

"Good - natured assurance." That's a fine quality for a woman to keep in mind and to strive to acquire.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

When should you consider a trump opening? The answer is, "Any time you hold a trump."

When should you actually make the trump opening? This is the big question. If you can answer it, you can win at bridge in any company.

The trump lead usually gives declarer the initiative, but it also can start to eliminate dummy's ruffing power.

West has an ideal hand for a trump opening against South's two spade bid. He is pretty sure that North will eventually be able to ruff some suit and the trump opening will kill one ruff immediately. South won the trump lead in with the jack in order to lead a second trump. Now West won the next heart and played his third and last trump, whereupon declarer was left with two losing hearts and no place to get rid of them. All he could make were five trumps and two diamonds. He was down one. Suppose West had made his alternate opening of the diamond queen. South would win and lead a heart. Now the defenders could play another diamond, shift to a trump or whistle a merry tune. It would not make any difference. South would be able to ruff at least one heart in dummy and would make his part score instead of going down.

Bridge hand diagram showing North, South, West, and East hands with card counts and suits.

Father Of Radio Dies At 87

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Funeral services were to be held today for Dr. Lee De Forest, 87, the "father of radio" who patented more than 300 inventions in radio, television and related fields.

De Forest died at his home here Friday night.

De Forest invented the audion vacuum tube in the early 1900s, which gave rise to the multibillion-dollar electronics industry.

He never benefited much from his numerous branchchildren. He spent much money and time fighting over patent rights in courts and in the filed a bankruptcy petition. He lost four fortunes in his lifetime.

Among his inventions were the electron tube, the long distance and transoceanic telephone, sound movies, the cyclotron and guided missiles.

Brando Admits Marriage To Mexican Movie Star

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI) — Actor Marlon Brando admitted in Superior Court Thursday he is married to Mexican movie star Movita and has a son by her.

Brando appeared in court for another in a long series of battles with ex-wife Anna Kashfi over visitation rights to their 3-year-old son, Christian Devi.

Miss Kashfi's attorney, Paul Caruso, drew the admission of the Movita marriage from Brando, questioning him about an April 10 telephone conversation with his former wife.

Asked if Miss Kashfi, 35, was upset during the conversation, Brando said, "Yes, she was jealous of a woman to whom I am married."

"Who was that?" asked Caruso. "Mrs. Brando," answered the actor.

Brando answered, "Castenada."

Movita's real name is Maria Castenada.

"Sooner or later this marriage I was in for more than a year would be found out," Brando said.

The admission confirmed Miss Kashfi's testimony last April that Brando and Movita were married. According to her testimony at that time, the son by Movita would be 11 months old now.

Acting Superior Judge Eric Ansbach succeeded in getting Brando and his ex-wife to drop their contempt citations against each other and abide by child visitation rights.

Brando was permitted to visit his son last night in his Hollywood Hills home.

SINGER ABBE Lane strikes a pretty pose in New York before boarding a plane for Miami. After a short rest in the sun, Abbe will depart for Monaco to attend a gala ball given by Prince Rainier and Princess Grace.

TV Key Previews

Wednesday's top television shows as previewed and selected by TV Key's staff of experts who attend rehearsals, watch screenings, and analyze scripts in New York and Hollywood: Hong Kong—"The Freebooter." (Repeat). Arch Johnson and Beverly Garland do such a nice job as a soldier of fortune and his devoted wife that this tale manages to sustain interest even though it's not overloaded with action. There's the usual array of shady orientals plus the inevitable unnamed country, but it's all very well done. 7:30 p. m. (ABC). Danger Man—"Position of Trust." There's an excellent performance by Donald Pleasance as a pompous little man that adds a bit of spice to an unbelievable, but clever little tale about narcotics smuggling in the Middle East. Forget the tiresome, melodramatic opening scene, and you'll be chuckling over the rest. 8:30 p. m. (CBS). Jack Paar Show—Host Sam Levenson has an interesting group of companions along to while away the evening, as violinist Isaac Stern, actor Walter Blinn, and writer Betty Rollin join him for a chat. Also, Carmel Quinn as singer of the evening. (Color) 11:15 p. m. (NBC). Bark, a waste product of the lumber industry, is now being converted into an unusually effective soil builder.

Tito Seeks Way To Avert War

TITOVO UZICE, Yugoslavia (UPI) — President Tito of Yugoslavia said today the world's uncommitted nations would meet in September in an attempt to avert the "biggest catastrophe of all."

Tito, in a 10,000-word major policy speech to 300,000 Yugoslavs, also charged that Communist Chinese and Albanian leaders were pursuing "the sharpest cold war" against Yugoslavia.

But he said Yugoslavia's "peaceful coexistence" policy was leading "expression" in relations with the United States, Britain and other Western nations.

The marking the 50th anniversary of the Yugoslav revolution, and the forthcoming summit meeting of uncommitted nations in Belgrade resulted from the need of "united, vigorous action" by smaller countries "to prevent the worst, in order to find a way out of the present stalemate."

He said the smaller nations were united to establish constructive international cooperation and to "avoid the biggest catastrophe of all which has ever befallen people on our planet."

Joint Orange - Seminole Howell Project Starts

The Joint Seminole - Orange County project of widening Howell Creek started this morning, County Engineer Carlton Blais reported.

Blais said that the cost of the project has been estimated at $100,000 with the funds to be supplied from Civil Defense.

The widening job, according to Blais, will stop any waters of Orange County from flooding that part of Seminole north of Red Bug Rd.

Reds Charge U. S. 'Buzzed' Russian Ships

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union charged today that American planes buzzed Russian ships 300 times in the last six months in acts of "high seas piracy."

The official Soviet trade union newspaper Trud said several of these incidents took place near Cuba and charged that "nearly all Soviet ships off Cuban shores are subjected to such provocations."

Trud said the "pirate sorties" are made from bases located outside the United States, including those in Spain, Italy, Greece and Turkey.

The newspaper said the Soviet ship Grusia was "repeatedly buzzed" recently while taking young Cuban farmers to the Soviet Union.

Their actions "are manifestly friendly," it said. "The bombers and fighters flew right over the deck just above the masts. Planes buzzed the Grusia at night, too, with their headlights switched on."

Among the few details Trud offered was that an American hydroplane carrying the number O144 circled over the Soviet ship I. Sechenov near Havana, a U. S. destroyer numbered 887 came "incomprehensibly close" to the ship, and another hydroplane numbered 122887 dived at its deck at 4 a. m. on July 2.

U. S. To Recognize Red Mongolia?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Kennedy administration was reported today to be ready to leave the wrath of Nationalist China and establish diplomatic relations with the Soviet-sponsored Mongolian People's Republic.

Official sources said preparations were being made to send a U. S. mission to the capital city of Ulan Bator to agree on the level of representation in each country.

The U. S. decision is expected to spark strong criticism from some congressmen, who back Nationalist China's contention that Communist Outer Mongolia is not an independent country but a Russian satellite or territory rightly belonging to the Chinese.

The U. S. ambassador to Nationalist China, Everett Drumright, who is coming home this week for "routine consultations," has reportedly urged the State Department to delay action.

He has reported that his relations with President Chiang Kai-shek have become almost impossible because of tension on the Mongolian issue and Nationalist resentment at the possibility of Red China being admitted to the United Nations.

The question of possible U. S. relations with Outer Mongolia stems from Russia's refusal at the last UN General Assembly to admit the new African nation of Mauritania unless Outer Mongolia also was admitted.

The U. S. ambassador to Nationalist China, Everett Drumright, who is coming home this week for "routine consultations," has reportedly urged the State Department to delay action.

Orlando Youth Escapes Injury In Car Mishap

An 18-year-old Orlando youth was charged with reckless driving after he lost control of his car on Dean Rd. and SR 408 Wednesday night, the Highway Patrol reported.

Trooper Jim Foster said that Charles Mitchell Williams caused serious injury to the mishap. Foster said he apparently lost control of his car while traveling at a high rate of speed. The car turned over and was a total wreck, Foster added.

French Soldiers Use Tear Gas At Moslem Rites

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI) — French soldiers and police used tear gas today to head off trouble before it got started at a funeral for Moslems killed in rioting Wednesday.

The funeral throng of 300 Moslem men, women and children was milling about at nearby Koles and a demonstration seemed imminent with many carrying green and white Algerian rebel flags and wailing.

Police and soldiers fired their tear gas grenades as a precautionary move. The fumes drifted through the crowd which dispersed.

Later, police used tear gas again to keep Europeans and Moslems apart at Constantine, where 20,000 Moslems turned out peacefully for the funeral of two persons killed in the demonstrations.

Elsewhere, most of Algeria was calm today in the wake of Wednesday's bloody street battling that resulted in 90 Moslems killed and 256 wounded. In addition, 18 French soldiers were killed and 50 wounded when rebel commandos attacked army posts guarding the east Algerian port of Djidjelli.

Ready

Cassellberry's first city directory is completed and ready for distribution. Plans Chief Paul Bates advised today.

The book, compiled and published under sponsorship of the Cassellberry Volunteer Fire Dept., consists of 38 pages printed on 70-pound enamel paper. The attractive white Krome-Kote cover has the title and other lettering in fire-red ink.

Listings include 828 homes and businesses and, on the basis of the last census an estimated 1,892 residents are covered.

The directory also includes a names of present town officials, a street map with indexed key and a separate street listing with all homes and building numbers of each and their occupants.

Leading business firms of the county which serve Cassellberry residents also are prominently advertised in the directory.

Firemen will stage an unveiling of the new book at Monday's Board of Aldermen meeting in the Town Hall after which distribution will immediately get underway.

Kansas City Hit By Winds, Rains

By United Press International
Wild winds and flooding rains swept Kansas City, Mo., today along a storm line stretching all the way from the wheat belt to Maryland.

At the eastern edge of the storm system, a Trailways bus skidded out of control in the rain and careened into a tree near Centerville, Va.

4th Celebrations Termed Success

Officials of the sponsoring organizations for Fourth of July celebrations in Longwood and North Orlando report that participation and attendance at each event was "far greater than expected."

Longwood Fire Chief Claude Lyle, though unable to give a complete financial report so soon after the event, did estimate that profits would be in the neighborhood of $100.

As for the attendance, Lyle said that a deputy from Sheriff J. L. Hobby's office called in to help with traffic during the evening estimated that at least 2,000 cars jammed the parking area. Traffic at one time, he said, was backed

The County Commission plans to open bids on repairing the roof of the courthouse on July 23. Look out for an angry blast from one of the commissioners on undertaking any major repairs to the 40-year-old structure. The discussion will be thick and heavy at Tuesday's meeting when courthouse officials meet with the board to plan needs of the courthouse for the next 10 years.

Next Tuesday will also be the day the county board starts talking over the budget. We hear that just about every department under the board jurisdiction is asking for an increase of funds but the word is that appropriation increases will be far and in-between.

All this talk about a sewerage treatment plant has brought many persons wondering if the property around the proposed plant—N. Seminole Blvd. will decrease, because of any odors. City Manager W. E. Knowles, however, has set the record straight. No odors expected to come from the plant.

The Civitan Club has started work on constructing a Navy Pick-up station on Fifth and Park Ave. for servicemen needing a lift back to the Navy base after a visit in town.

You might be interested in knowing that the downtown city streets remained open Wednesday afternoon for business this year.

Speaking of Knowles, as we did earlier, the city manager says that the reason there was no flag up by City Hall Tuesday was that the City Commission ruled that the flag should be flown by the Bandshell on special holidays.

Longwood Asks For Road Fund

The Longwood Council will meet today at 8 p. m. in the City Hall for the regular July business session.

Last week on Thursday night, the council met in a called session to frame a request to the County Commission asking that Orange Ave. paving funds, placed in escrow at the Citizens Bank of Oviedo, be released.

This was done, according to Longwood Mayor A. R. Lormann, because the county had asked the city to put up another $1,000 in addition to the $7,500 already on hand. Investigation revealed that the additional sum would be used for work outside the city limits and Council Attorney Webber Halasek advised that such action by the city would be illegal, Lormann said.

He added that members of the council voted last week to go ahead with plans for the long-awaited paving and that area contractors already have been notified of Longwood's intent to accept bids.

County Planning Meet On Administrative Aid

The County Commission plans to hold a special session with the Alachua County Administrative Assistant within the next 14 days to discuss the job classification and duties of a special assistant to the Seminole Board.

County Commission Vice Chairman James P. Avery said this morning that on a recent trip to Tallahassee, he met with Howard Western, Alachua administrative assistant to the board and discussed with him a joint meeting with the Seminole board to explain the duties of the job.

Earlier this year, District 5 County Commissioner John Fitzpatrick recommended that the board study the possibility of hiring an administrative assistant to take some of the work load off the commission.

However, action was tabled on any decision. Avery today emphasized that an administrative assistant should not be confused with a county manager. "He would have no policy making authority whatsoever," Avery advised.

Avery explained that Alachua County has had an administrative assistant for three years and "it has worked out fine for all concerned."

"He has been well worth the money he was paid," Avery said.

The commissioner pointed out that he hopes the meeting will take place within the next 14 days "while we are in the midst of budget hearings."

Turnpike Board Hopes To Complete Report Soon

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The State Turnpike Authority hopes to complete feasibility studies in time to announce in Orlando Friday the route of a proposed northward extension of the Sunshine State Parkway.

Authority Chairman John Hammer told Gov. Farris Bryant Wednesday if the studies are finished by Friday, the Authority wants to announce the route at 6 p. m. meeting.

Bryant said previously his administration definitely would be able to extend the toll road as far north as Orlando, and possibly as far as a point south of Ocala.

Bryant wants to extend the road to Jacksonville eventually, but said there is little chance of doing this right away.

Authority members will be in Orlando Friday to take part in dedication of a segment of interstate highway with the Road Board, the governor, Federal Highway Administrator Rex Whitton and Congressman James A. Haley of Sarasota.

The ceremonies will officially open a 31-mile stretch of Interstate Route 4 between America St. in Orlando and U. S. Highway 27 in Polk County.

Rusk Plans Last Ditch Aid Plea

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk went before Congress today to make a last-ditch plea for President Kennedy's beleaguered $4.8 billion foreign aid request.

Rusk was scheduled for a closed-door meeting this morning with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, which has been considering the measure off-and-on since its public hearings ended two weeks ago.

Rusk's appearance before the committee was his third since the group formally opened hearings last month. He made the administration's opening appeal and later met with the committee again after his return from Europe with Kennedy.

WORKERS TODAY started clearing away shrubbery from the east section of Seminole Memorial Hospital to start the first phase for a $5 bed hospital addition. The actual construction, to be done by the Jennings Construction Co., Orlando will start next Monday. (Herald Photo)

FBI Raids Miami Linen Stores

MIAMI (UPI) — Federal agents raided 10 Miami-area linen shops Wednesday, seized alleged Communist-made linens and charged the notorious "Crying Admi" merchants with conspiracy to smuggle Chinese Communist goods into the United States.

A treasury agent said the linens trade between Red China and Miami may amount to $500,000.

Leon Admi, leader of the "Crying Admi" clan and his two sons, Charles and Joseph, were charged with conspiracy to trade with the enemy and conspiracy to smuggle goods into the United States.

Joseph Admi also was charged with violation of the federal law forbidding trade with an enemy nation. He was fined $25,000 and his brother on $12,000 bond. The father could not be located.

E. E. Minickoff, chief enforcement officer of the Treasury Department's Foreign Assets Control Division, said the Admis began the Red Chinese trade in 1948. Minickoff said Joseph and Leon went to Hong Kong and set up a trading account with the Shantung Trading Union to purchase embroidered linens produced in Tientsin, Communist China.

"Shantung would ship the goods to a firm in London," Minickoff said, "which would then transship them to an Admi agent in Toronto, Canada. Payments were made by the same route." He said he did not know how the goods got here from Toronto.

Minickoff argued before Commissioner Roger Edward Davis that Charles and Leon should be placed under $500,000 bond. The brothers said they were already under a $10,000 federal bond on small fraud charges and $20,000 state bond.

The state bond covers appeal of a five-year jail term for swindling Mrs. Genevra McAllister, widow of a Philadelphia automobile agency owner, out of $1 million in a fantastic scheme whereby Mrs. McAllister married Emilio Helton, an Admi agent.

Minickoff said the linen shops were not all Admi-owned. He said other shops in the area may have taken Red Chinese goods in good faith and he said no charges would be placed against the owners.

The Admis got their nickname from their sales technique of crying and begging to prospective buyers, mostly tourists, that they were on the edge of poverty and desperately needed the sale.

Kuwait Asks Arabs To Send Troops

KUWAIT (UPI) — Kuwait invited other Arab nations today to send troops to defend this oil-rich little sheikhdom against a possible attack by Iraq.

With the United Arab Republic demanding withdrawal of British troops from here, the deputy chief ruler, Abdullah al-Mubarrak al-Sabah, said Kuwait was "ready to receive any proposal from any Arab country to participate in Kuwait's defense."

The only country that has sent troops so far, besides Britain, is Saudi Arabia.

About 4,000 British soldiers have dug in along the northern border with Iraq, in addition to South Arabian and Kuwaiti troops.

Despite a stream of demands by the Baghdad press and radio, the British military commander Eric Durrant Huxford said he believed Iraqi forces were planning an attack.

So far the battle has been one of words. King Faisal bin Abdul Karim Khudair had led them in this desert land which has on a great lake of oil. Kuwait has rejected the claims and has ordered support from other Arab nations.

Reds Sign Pact With North Korea

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev today announced the signing of a pact of mutual assistance, friendship and cooperation with North Korea.

Khrushchev spoke in the Kremlin at a "friendship rally" in the honor of visiting North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung.

He said that the pact provides for mutual military assistance in case a third party attacks one of the contracting powers.

"We are against military pacts but we were compelled to sign one today because the United States, Japan and other countries have rejected all our efforts to reach agreement in the Far East," Khrushchev said.

and reported that people already are talking about "what we'll do next year."

He said that in addition to providing a "safe, stay-at-home holiday" for area residents, the undertaking proved rewarding to the city itself since it brought such a feeling of closeness and cooperation to the merchants, businessmen and residents and to the civic, church and social groups all working together to make the celebration such a big event.

In North Orlando, the afternoon and evening observances drew an estimated 400 people.

Here all sorts of games and contests provided entertainment for the whole family. After a free supper was served, four-year-old Laurie Anne Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder, was crowned "Little Miss North Orlando" from among 21 entries in the contest.

Attendees were Laureen Murphy, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Murphy, who was first maid and Susan Lorraine Rhodes, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rhodes, second maid.

Contest judges were Stewart Helmly, Mrs. William MacKintosh and Elliott Smith.

Here, too, a fireworks display of more than an hour's time concluded the celebration, first over to be staged by the Village.

A potential display of the Independence Day celebration in Longwood and North Orlando is shown on page 13 of today's Herald.

Longwood Mayor A. R. Lormann, asked for comment, was out of phone for all concerned.
