State makes changes in A+ Plan

By Bill Kerna
Staff Writer
TALLAHASSEE — Commissioner of Education Tom Gallagher announced several proposed changes to the method of grading schools during a press conference held Wednesday in Tallahassee.
Governor Jeb Bush's one-year-old A+ Plan calls for schools to receive letter grades based primarily on student scores on the Florida Comprehensive Education officials tweak school grading system in response to complaints Assessment Test (FCAT), which measures reading, writing and math skills. Other factors include suspension rates, attendance, and high school graduation rates.

The state Cabinet in December will review Gallagher's proposed changes.
Schools are awarded up to $100 per student for improvements and for grades of "A."
Facing complaints from school district administrators that the grading system failed to take student mobility into account, schools will now only be responsible for students enrolled during October and February enrollment surveys.

"We did take into consideration things like mobility, because we thought that was a fair complaint," Gallagher said.
However, the school district will still be responsible for the performance of all students, regardless of when they enroll in school.
The grades will be determined using increasingly more comprehensive testing

SANFORD - Some may think that Bruce Moncrief was born in a canoe. This is not true but he probably lived in one for half of his life.
Moncrief, 50, came out to Lake Carolla at Fort Mellon Park on Wednesday to cheer for his dad (Russ Moncrief)
and mom (Katie Moncrief)
as they in the Golden Age

Games

canoeing contests.

Local fire fighters win award

Altamonte Springs Fire Department earns Life
Safety Achievement Award

By Joe DeSantis
Staff Writer
ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — A continued
emphasis on public information and education combined with zero loss of life from residential fires during 1998 has led to a prestigious award for the Altamonte Springs fire department.
The Life Safety Achievement Award from the Residential Fire Safety Institute has been presented to the department, recognizing local fire prevention activities that contribute to reducing the number of lives lost in residential fires.
Altamonte Springs qualified for the award based on zero fire deaths in structures for the period.
Although residential fires account for only 20 percent of all fires, they are responsible for 80 percent of all fire deaths.
Residential Fire Safety Institute executive director Patrick Coughlin said, "Prevention and education are very cost effective compared to the tradi-

Bang the drum slowly for Captain Mellon

The story of Captain Charles Mellon has been told many times, many ways. Defending Camp Fanning against 400 Seminole braves, Mellon died on Feb. 8, 1837.

In honor of the courageous captain, Camp Fanning was renamed Fort Mellon.

Some insist that Capt. Mellon's blood flows today in Lake Carolla at Fort Mellon Park. On Wednesday, I went to the lake to see if this were true.

My timing couldn't have been better. There was a canoeing competition on Lake Carolla. Katie and Russ Moncrief had brought a half dozen handsome canoes from Katie's Landing.

"Are you in the event?" Katie asked.

"Well, I'm here to ... well, sure I'm in the event," I told her.

"Here," Russ Moncrief said, "why don't you try one of the canoes. It's windy. You may have trouble. Are you a good swimmer?"

Moments later, I was paddling on the lake in the park named for Capt. Charles Mellon.

In the back of my mind, I'm thinking of Capt. Mellon's last stand. Coacoochee was leading the Seminoles that day. Mellon and his men had no chance.

I looked back to see that Katie Moncrief had boarded a canoe and was into the water. Just the two of us on Lake Carolla. Katie's an experienced canoeer. One of the best.

This wasn't a particularly easy paddle for Katie nor for me. On our turnaround, we had to battle a brisk morning wind.

Somehow, I made it back. Katie needed help.

"That's it," one of the Golden Age Games officials said. "We better come back at 1:30 in the afternoon. The lake's a little rough right now."

Too bad, I'm thinking, that Capt. Mellon wasn't allowed to postpone his outing with the savages on Feb. 8, 1837. Take a three-hour break. C'mon, Coacoochee. We'll resume after lunch.

I liked what I saw Wednesday morning on the lake, and was determined to return. First, I traveled to the Capt. Mellon monument off N. Mellonville Ave. I had this urge to touch it just like Roger Clemens touched the Babe at Yankee Stadium. I'd pat Captain Courageous before going back to the lake in the park. And I did.

The afternoon was gorgeous. A great time for a canoe trip on Lake Carolla. Katie and Russ came back with their six canoes. A fire rescue truck pulled up on Seminole Blvd. Kay Thomson of Lake Mary prepared to win her umpteenth Golden Ages Games gold medal.

You're probably wondering how I fared in the competition. Perhaps, wondering if I capsized (as one poor chap did).

Let me say this, I fared better than Capt. Charles Mellon.

I'm also thinking to myself, that's maybe they better not take away this sweet little lake and the park named for Capt. Mellon. Bang the drum slowly.

Russ White's column appears Tuesday through Sunday in the Seminole Herald.

Acquiring title by adverse possession

Usually when someone thinks about acquiring title to real property they think about acquiring title through the purchase of the real property, by inheritance, or through foreclosure.

However, absentee owners and others beware. Title to real property may also be acquired through adverse possession.

Adverse possession can most simply be described as openly occupying land, without permission of the owner, for a continuous period of time set by statute.

Whether adverse possession will convey title to the occupant depends on what the occupant has done to the property or how he or she has used it. In turn, what the occupant must do to the property or how he or she may use it and successfully acquire title depends on whether the claim for possession is under "color of title" or "without color of title."

A claim for adverse possession under "color of title" means the claim is founded on a written instrument, decree, or judgment purporting to convey title. This may include a deed of any kind or a will regardless of its validity.

Conversely, a claim for adverse possession "without color of title" means the claim is not founded on a written instrument.

A claim for adverse possession under "color of title" in most circumstances requires that the written instrument upon which the claim of title is founded be recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county where the property is located.

If the written instrument is recorded the property may be deemed adversely possessed under the following circumstances (a) When the property has been usually cultivated or improved; (b) When the property has been protected by a substantial enclosure; or (c) When, although not enclosed, the property has been used for the supply of fuel or fencing timber for husbandry or for the ordinary use of the occupant.

On the other hand, a claim for adverse possession "without color of title" may succeed only when: (a) The property has been usually cultivated or improved; or (b) The property has been protected by substantial enclosure. Naturally, there is no recording requirement because there is no instrument to record.

However, in addition to the more limited circumstances under which a property may be deemed as possessed when the claim is without "color of title," in order to acquire title the person claiming adverse possession must make a return of the property by proper legal description to the property appraiser of the county where it is located within 1 year after entering into possession and must subsequently pay all taxes and matured installments of special improvement liens levied against the property by the state, county,

Regardless of whether the claim for adverse possession is under "color of title" or "without color of title," in order for a claim of adverse possession to stand, the occupant of the land must be in continuous possession of the property for seven years.

As noted above, title to real property may be acquired by adverse possession over a relatively short period of time. Therefore, land owners, particularly absentee land owners, should periodically check on their property. In the coming weeks we will discuss other aspects of adverse possession as well as other aspects of property law.

Wife isn't hot to play host for hubby's old flame

DEAR ABBY: My husband of 12 years has just informed me that he has invited his former girlfriend to our home for an upcoming weekend. He wants her to see our home and city. He says he just wants to talk with an old friend with whom he has a lot in common and has not seen for 15 years.

Abby, over the last two years, he has talked with this woman about once a month or so. It never occurred to me to be jealous or concerned because I trusted him and he's never given me any reason not to. He would tell me about their conversations if I wasn't in when she called. It was never an issue for me until he invited her to spend the weekend without consulting me.

When I told him I would feel uncomfortable having "Rene" stay with us, especially since she's not a mutual friend of ours, he accused me of being insecure, became extremely angry and was silent for several days. He also told me that if I don't agree to it, then he will see her in secret.

I was shocked and assumed he spoke out of anger. Now I'm not so sure. Have you any thoughts on this?

ERODED TRUST IN NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

DEAR ERODED TRUST: Many, if the situation were reversed and you informed your husband that an old boyfriend he had never met was coming to spend a weekend in your home, I'm sure he would have been shocked and angered that you had acted without first consulting him.

Ordinarily, I wouldn't advise giving in to blackmail. However, since he's threatening to "see her in secret" if you don't agree to accommodate her, put on your most charming face and play hostess of the year. And if you or any of your friends know an attractive, unattached bachelor, invite him over for a lovely family dinner.

DEAR ABBY: My parents did not need more "stuff" to mark their 50th anniversary. So we, their eight children, decided to include the following on the party invitation:

"In lieu of gifts, donations to Our Daily Bread, a non-discriminatory soup kitchen, will be accepted at the door. All donations will be forwarded to Our Daily Bread in the names of Bob and Mary Lou."

Abby, the 60 or so guests responded with donations amounting to more than $1,500. Our parents were overwhelmed, as was the director of the soup kitchen, at the generosity of their friends and family.

BOB AND MARY LOU FOLZENLOGEN'S CHILDREN, CINCINNATI

DEAR 'CHILDREN': My congratulations to your parents. They have a great deal of which to be proud, and the values of their children are only the beginning. Your idea is terrific.

DEAR ABBY: This may seem like a strange question, but I was trying to find out because this is kind of important. You see, I had my nipples pierced, and I am pregnant.

I was wondering if I took the rings out and they healed, would I be able to breast-feed?

CRYSTAL IN CONNECTICUT

DEAR CRYSTAL: I see no reason why you should not be able to. I checked with the La Leche League, and their representative told me there are no known cases where piercing the nipple interfered with nursing a baby.

For an excellent guide to becoming a better conversationalist and a more attractive person, order "How to Be Popular." ## Seminole Homecoming Court Seminole High School presented their homecoming court for Friday night's game against Winter Springs. Students will elect a homecoming queen and king from members of the court, which includes, left to right, (front) Winfred Clinton, Shayana Lemon, Shannon Maguire, Kara Markovitz, Sarah Garas, Christy Johnson, Cassia Brewer, Corin Pilong, Jessica Bass, Courtney Newman, (back) Ameen Baker, Mark Hughs, Mike Gagliano, Jesse Gurtis, Chase McMorrough, Paul Hughs, Julius Francis, Clarence Latimer, Garrett Goldsmith.

A+ Plan

 data. Using reading and math scores on the FCAT for the coming year as a base, individual student scores will be tracked from year-to-year.

Starting in the 2000-2001 school year, student reading and math skills will be measured in grades 3-10. Writing skills will still be measured in grades 4, 8, and 10.

The following year, in the 2001-2002 school year, five percent of teachers' salaries will be based upon student gains in reading and math scores. Teachers will be graded on the classes they teach, not based on an entire school's scores.

"How well the students do will reflect on how well the teachers are teaching," Gallagher said.

To receive grades of "A" and "B," schools will be required to show improved reading scores for all tested students, including the lower 25 percent of scores for students at the school. In addition, the percent of students absent more than 20 days must be below the state average.

"Our goal is to grade schools based on learning gains by students," Gallagher said. "This year will be the base year, and then next year we'll be able to make comparisons."

At the middle and high school level, out-of-school suspensions must be below the state average for a school to receive a grade of "A" or "B."

"We did not back off on that," Gallagher said.

Seminole County and other school districts are asking the state Legislature to eliminate out-of-school suspensions as a factor in calculating grades under the A+ Plan.

At the high school level, the dropout rate must be below the state average, and the cohort graduate rate must be higher than the state average, for any school to receive an "A" or "B."

In addition, any school with less than 90 percent of the standard curriculum students tested will be given a grade of incomplete. During the first year of grading, the recommended standard was 80 percent. For "A" and "B" schools, 95 percent of the standard curriculum students must be tested.

No adjustment is recommended in the method of grading schools with a large percentage of special education students. Likewise, there is no adjustment for the grading of schools with a large percentage of students from a lower economic status.

"We realize that people would like us to dumb down school grades to account for students in a lower economic status," Gallagher said. "We think that would be a disservice to them."

The state awarded $27.6 million in awards to 323 schools this past year. The recognition program, which began in 1998, is designed to reward schools that demonstrate sustained high or significantly improved student performance.

The grading system is part of the same education reform package that created a plan for parents in schools receiving an "F" twice in four years to receive vouchers for private schools.

No changes are recommended in the criteria for a school to receive an "F." Schools with an "F" have reading, writing and math scores below the state's minimum standards.

Meanwhile, the Seminole County School Board is appealing restrictions placed on spending the $1.9 million in state funds for the 14 schools with "A's" in the state's accountability report.

No Seminole County school received an "F," although six schools received grades of "D."

The Florida Department of Education only allows school-districts to spend the funding on facilities. None of the funding can be spent on hiring new staff.

Because several schools receiving "A's" were planning to spend part of the funding on hiring new staff, the Board is appealing the restriction to the Attorney General's Office.

Seminole County's 14 top performing schools reaped $1.9 million in awards from the state's A+ Plan.

In addition, Seminole County is asking that all of Florida's students in schools that accept vouchers, as well as home school students take the Florida Comprehensive Assessment Test (FCAT), which is critical factor in determining a school's grade. Gallagher's proposal does not address this request.

Seminole County's 14 schools with "A's" on the accountability report will receive $1.91 million in awards. Only three school districts will receive more in awards: Dade County with $2.13 million, and Palm Beach and Broward counties with $1.95 million each.

The top two schools receiving awards in Seminole County are Oviedo High School with $274,020, and Lake Mary High School with $258,732. Only Winter Park High School in Orange County, with $316,364, is receiving a larger award.

According to state law, individual schools will choose how to spend the awards.

Award

 tional approach of relying on fire suppression. The Life Achievement Safety Award recognizes fire departments for their fire prevention efforts and encourages them to continually improve those efforts."

Alan Harris, the department's public information officer said rank and file at Altamonte Springs fire department were pleased with the award.

"One of our main priorities has been to prevent, rather than respond to emergency situations," said Harris.

"That has been our philosophy from day one."

The Altamonte Springs fire department offers information and education on more than a dozen issues related to fire safety in particular and public safety in general. They include traditional handout materials such as pamphlets and brochures, to fire evaluation drills, general fire safety lectures and classes, and a number of fire prevention and education programs directed at children.

"Information and education is a key part of the fire department's mission," said Harris. "You are seeing more and more fire departments hire public information and public education officers to help remedy the situation by educating the communities they serve before an emergency response is necessary."

The Residential Fire Safety Institute is a public interest group whose principal program, Operation Life Safety, assists fire departments with implementing residential sprinkler/smoke alarm systems. The RFSI's membership includes the United States Fire Administration, the National Association of State Fire Marshalls, the International Association of Fire Chiefs, as well as private industry associations with an interest in residential fire safety.

Residents

 residents along Warren Avenue, complaining that the city has failed to address their grievances over the closing of Warren Avenue and Wilma for two days during the festival.

The suit contends the property owners are inconvenienced and denied reasonable access and egress to their properties and that crowds and litter have become a continuing problem. Portions of the suit are also asking for $15,000 in damages and claim the city has entered into an illegal agreement with the Central Florida Society for Historical Preservation to conduct the festival.

City officials have met once with the plaintiffs in an unsuccessful effort to reach a compromise. The plaintiffs were invited to a special meeting last week with the Longwood City Commission but declined to attend.

The city contends it has a legal right to close the two streets for the festival and that reasonable accommodations have been offered to the homeowners.

The Society contends altering the layout of the festival and opening the two streets would bring an end to the two-day affair.

Friday's hearing will center around a request by the homeowners for a temporary injunction forcing the city to keep Warren and Wilma open for the festival, scheduled for the week-end of November 20-21.

Lake Mary lifts water restrictions

The Lake Mary City Commission has lifted mandatory water restrictions placed into effect in April 1999.

However, the City will continue to follow the Water Conservation Rule stipulated by the St. Johns River Water Management District. Adopted by the WMD in 1991, the Water Conservation Rule allows outdoor irrigation before 10 a.m. and after 4 p.m. daily. The rule is in effect year-round.

Citizens may resume vehicle and pressure washing activities, but should keep in mind that water is still a precious commodity.

The picture of the 1922 graduating class of Seminole High School was found in the estate of Miss Madeline Mallem. Her brother, William Mallem, is in the picture. None of the people were identified, but from looking at the pictures in the 1922 Salmagundi, I can at least identify the faculty on the back row. They are: Miss Sara Muel (in hat), Mrs. Glenn McKay, Mr. Glenn McKay (principal), Miss Ida May Gray, unknown and Mrs. R.C. Maxwell. The only graduate that I can identify with certainty is Margaret Zachary (later Mrs. James Wright who still lives in Sanford), the fifth person from the left on the second row. Also in this class was Miss Zillah Welsh, my first-grade teacher, but I can't pick her out. Here is a listing of the other members of the class, some are not pictured: Mary Belle Allen, Harold Christensen, Anna Dubose (vice president), Frances Dutton, Margaret Ericson, William Fitts, Margaret Gallagher, Marion Hand, Edward Henderson (treasurer), Florence Henry (president), Esther Hughey, Alma Lohnes, Fay Lossing, Willard Lunley, Pattye Lyles, Nellie Messenger, Dorothea Mickey, Arthur Moore, Lyle Murrell, Virginia Neely, Florence Price, Fedric Rines, Cora Rutherford, Bertram Shepherd, Lillian Sheinholser, Carolyn Stanley, Robert Thrasher, Lyle Tapp. If you can put a name with a face, please contact Grace Marie Stineciper at 322-4381. If living, these people would be about 95 years old!

Moneriefs

"I haven't canoeed as much as some may think," Bruce Monerief said. "I began during a Boy Scout camp. When my dad bought the landing 25 years ago, I'd only go out on the river two maybe three times a year. I'm just an average canoeist at best."

His biggest jolt of the day, Bruce Monerief said, was realizing he was 50 years old and eligible to compete in the Golden Age Games. "I never gave much thought to being 50," he said. "I like to think of myself as a kid."

William Shackelford won gold medals in the men's 65- to 69-year old men's division. His sprint time of 1:09.41 was enough to upset Nick "The Paddle" Pfeiffaut, a former gold medal winner, TV newsman and newspaper reporter.

Cornelis Feenstra defeated Russ Monerief in the 75-79 men's sprint when Monerief went off course. He was last seen drifting toward Kate's Landing.

Kay Thomson of Lake Mary won a gold medal for women's (75-79) sprint and a silver in the obstacle. Celia Kimball won the gold in obstacle and silver in sprint.

Today's Golden Age Games events include shuffleboard, table tennis, bridge, billiards, swimming and bench pressing. There's a hobby and photography show at Sanford City Hall and A Talent Contest in the evening at the Sanford Civic Center.

The talent contest is more Lawrence Welk in nature than Laurence of Arabia. This year's lineup includes a chorus line known as the Floradorables, the best aged legs in the state and ten singing acts. Harriett Boyd of Lake Mary won a gold medal for comedy one year when she vacuumed her cat.

Talent Show emcee Lisa Jones advises everyone to arrive early. "This is a show you don't want to miss," Jones said.

Richard and Kyle Petty to preside at Homestead

Special to the Herald

HOMESTEAD - Three generations of NASCAR's most famous racing family will be in the spotlight at the Nov. 13 HotWheels.com 300 at Homestead-Miami Speedway, the 1999 NASCAR Busch Series finale.

Seven-time Winston Cup champion Richard Petty will be the Grand Marshal for the event, while his son, Winston Cup driver Kyle Petty, will wave the green flag as the race's Honorary Starter.

Running in the event will be Adam Petty, Kyle's son and NASCAR's first fourth-generation driver.

Kyle Petty will drive the Hot Wheels Pontiac Grand Prix the following day in the inaugural Pennzoil 400 presented by Kmart, the debut of NASCAR Winston Cup racing in South Florida.

When Richard Petty began NASCAR racing in 1959, he had to follow in the footsteps of his father, three-time champion Lee Petty. Richard Petty went on to establish NASCAR standards of 200 victories - including seven triumphs in the Daytona 500.

Kyle Petty won his very first race - the 1979 ARCA 200 at Daytona - and has won eight races and over $10 million in his Winston Cup career.

Adam Petty has already taken the Petty name to victory lane, winning a 1998 ASA race. Running his first full NASCAR season, he's currently 20th in the 1999 Busch Series standings, with two top-five and three top-20 finishes.

Adam Petty opened the season with a solid sixth place finish in the NAPA Auto Parts 300 at Daytona, and went on to finish fourth in the Auto Club 300 at the California Speedway.

DODGE TO PACE THE NASCAR RACES AT HOMESTEAD-MIAMI SPEEDWAY

HOMESTEAD - A new Dodge Intrepid ES will lead the 43-car NASCAR Winston Cup field to the green flag for the November 14 Pennzoil 400 Presented by Kmart at Homestead-Miami Speedway.

The Speedway has announced that Dodge will be the Official Pace Car for all NASCAR races at the 1.5-mile Speedway for the next four years.

The Pennzoil 400 Presented by Kmart will be the debut of the Dodge Intrepid ES in the NASCAR Winston Cup competition in South Florida. Homestead-Miami Speedway also annually hosts the NASCAR Busch Series finale, the November 13 HotWheels.com 300 at Miami, and the NASCAR Craftsman Truck Series in the Florida Dodge Dealers 400.

The Dodge Intrepid ES will be featured as the Speedway's official pace car. The redesigned Intrepid features the revolutionary cab-forward concept, which gives the roomy sedan the look, feel and spirit of a nimble sports car.

Tickets are still available for the November 11-14 weekend, with two-day tickets for the Pennzoil 400 Presented by Kmart and HotWheels.com 300 at Miami starting at $75. For additional information, call (305) 230-RACE or the Speedway's web site at www.homesteadmiamispeedway.com.

Prep football teams find themselves in must-win situations

By Dean Smith
SPORTS EDITOR

SANFORD - When Winter Springs left the Don T. Reynolds Stadium field on September 17th after suffering their third straight lopsided loss and their starting quarterback in the hospital with a season-ending knee injury, no one gave the Bears a chance to make the playoffs.

But now, with four straight wins under its belt, including three district victories, Winter Springs (4-4 overall, 3-2 in district) stands just an upset away from being the Class 5A-District 4 runner-up and in the playoffs.

But to do that, the Bears will have to beat a very strong Seminole High School team on its home field on Homecoming night.

Winter Springs has won some very close games of late behind the play of new quarterback Ramone Raines and the running of junior Johnnie Blake and sophomore Chauncey Hampton.

That trio will have to be at their best, and probably even better, if the Bears want to defeat the Fighting Seminoles (7-2 overall and 4-1 in 5A-4), who are coming off a huge win over a powerful Merritt Island squad and still smarting from a loss to district champion Spruce Creek.

Seminole will rely on a very good backfield trio of its own in senior quarterback Garrett Smith and senior running back Clarence Latimer, both of whom will play their final regular season home game, and junior running back Willie Bennett, who has been fighting ankle problems all season.

A win by Seminole ends all doubt, while a Winter Springs loss would leave the Bears in a must-win situation.

Please see Football, Page 3B

Raiders romp on the road

By Dean Smith
SPORTS EDITOR

FT. PIERCE - The Seminole Community College women's basketball team fired a shot heard around Florida Wednesday night as it crushed Indian River Community College, 94-62, in its season opener at Ft. Pierce.

The Raiders of head coach Ken Patrick, whom many have said is the best female team SCC has ever put on the court, got off to a slow start, only leading 42-31 at halftime.

But the Raiders got its game in gear in the second half, exploding for 52 second half points, while holding the Pioneers to another 31.

While SCC was probably expected to win the game, the margin of victory is significant because over the years the Indian River gymnasium has been one of the toughest for the local team to play on and more-often-than-not has resulted in a defeat.

While the victory looks good, it was not perfect, as the Raiders only hit 14 of 34 free throw tries despite hitting over 50-percent from the floor (37-for-76). SCC also turned the ball over 22 times.

All 10 Raider players got into the scoring column and also had at least one steal, of which SCC had 33.

Leading the way was sophomore Satu Raimela from Finland, who scored a game-high 26 points on 11-of-15 shooting from the floor. The 6-foot-1 guard/forward also hit all four of her free throw tries and had five rebounds, four steals and four assists.

Another sophomore, point guard Mevett Wooley from Illinois, hit 5-of-10 shots from the floor and all three free throws to finish with 11 points. She also had four steals, three assists and three rebounds.

Also scoring in double figures was freshman Yamil Cordero from West Orange High School. The shooting guard tallied 11 points on 2-of-5 shooting, both baskets coming on four three-point tries, and hitting her only free throw try. She also had a team-high six steals to go with three assists and two rebounds.

Also contributing for the Raiders were 6-foot-2 freshman Kristi Jones (nine points, six rebounds, three steals, one assist), sophomore Keicia Smith (eight points, six steals, five assists, two rebounds), 6-foot-4 sophomore Kaisa Tuure (seven points, six rebounds, one steal, one assist), Seminole High School graduate Shemeika Stokes (six points, six rebounds, two steals, one assist), freshman Kiki Kindred (four points, four rebounds, four steals, three assists), sophomore Kristen Smithers (four steals, two rebounds, one assist, one steal), sophomore Shernel Donovan (two points, three rebounds, one steal) and 6-foot-9 freshman Sue Gyrfas (two points, two rebounds, one steal).

S. Ljivandi scored 18 points to lead the Pioneers attack, while N. Harris chipped in with 13 points, J. Hardy added 12 points, and P. Wright was also in double figures with 10 points.

SCC will stay on the road to play a major early-season game against Tallahassee Community College at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday, before returning to Sanford for its home opener next Tuesday against St. Petersburg Community College. Please see SCC, Page 2B

SANFORD - Duke Roberts' two-run home run capped a five-run seventh inning as Wilson-Eichelberger Funeral Home topped Vivona's 15-11 in a battle for first place in the City of Sanford Recreation and Parks Department Men's Fall Wednesday Night Slow Pitch Softball League at Pinehurst Park.

Steve Dykes' two-run home run in the bottom of the fifth inning highlighted a five-run fifth inning as Vivona's tied the game at 9-9. Both teams then scored single runs in the sixth inning and the game went to the seventh inning tied at 10-10.

With one out, Governale hit a solo home run to put Wilson-Eichelberger Funeral Home ahead for good. Dana Nock followed with a single and Dale Peters and Keith Denton hit back-to-back doubles with Denton getting two of his five RBI for the game.

Roberts then blasted his home run to cap the big inning and Vivona's was only able to answer with a single run in the bottom of the seventh inning.

In the other games: Wells Contracting moved into a tie for second place, erasing a 21-20 deficit by scoring six runs in the top of the seventh inning to pull out a 26-21 victory over Brian's Lawn Maintenance.

The big hits in the inning for Wells Contracting was a two-run double by Chris Bryson, his third double and fourth RBI of the game, and a two-run double by Chris Wargo, who scored five runs and drove in seven in the game.

The opening game of the evening also featured a lot of runs as Beer :30 scored nine runs in the top of the first inning, with Dean Parmer driving in three with a triple and Mickey Cogburn doubling in two, and then playing six more runs in the second inning to build a 15-4 advantage before cruising to a 23-9, five-inning victory over

I.F.I.

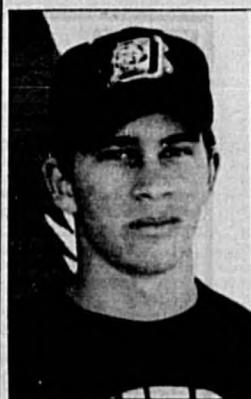

Wilson-Eichelberger Funeral Home is now 6-1 on the season and leads Vivona's and Wells Contracting (both 5-2) by a game.

Completing the standings are Beer :30 (4-3), Brian's Lawn Maintenance (1-6) and I.F.I. (0-7).

Next Wednesday night at Pinehurst Park, Vivona's battles Wells Contracting at 6:30 p.m.; I.F.I. challenges Wilson-Eichelberger Funeral Home at 7:30 p.m.; and Brian's Lawn Maintenance tackles Beer :30 at 8:30 p.m.

Cardinals back in Senior Baseball title hunt

From Staff Reports

WINTER PARK - Just when it looked as if the Cardinals were going to fade from the championship picture they rose like the phoenix from the flames, scoring back-to-back come-from-behind victories over the other two teams fighting for the title in the Orlando Senior Baseball Association Fall League at Showalter Field.

The Cardinals were struggling after dropping back-to-back games to the Codgers and Yankees, but after being rained out of a game with the Marlins, the former champions got themselves going in the right direction, beating the Codgers 5-2 two weeks ago and then rallying for a 10-2 victory over the Yankees last Saturday.

Heading into Wednesday night, the Codgers and Yankees were scheduled to play, the Cardinals and Codgers were tied for the league lead with 5-2 records, while the Yankees are 4-3. The Marlins (0-7) are still looking for that elusive first victory.

The Marlins and Cardinals will meet tonight at 7 p.m. at Showalter Field before several of the top players in the Over-40 league head to Ft. Myers to take part in the Roy Hobbs World Series.

For the first time, the league will send an Over-40 team to play next week, while the Over-48 team, the defending World Series Champions, will play the following week.

The Codgers had taken a 1-0 lead in a masterful pitchers duel between the Codgers' Dave Swann and the Cardinals' Nick Brady when Swann led off the second inning with a double and came around to score on a pair of grounders to second by Roy Hadden and Steve Fillmore.

The Cardinals finally got on the board in fourth inning. Bill Gracey walked and stole second before scoring on a single by Robert Smith. Smith then stole second and went to third on an error, from where scored two outs later when Mike Markham reached on an error.

The Cardinals added a pair of insurance runs against reliever Gary Ward in the fifth inning as Richard Capozzola and Chris Gagliano walked and scored on an RBI single by Gracey and an RBI double by Smith.

The Codgers closed to within 4-2 on an unearned run off of reliever Dan Stevenson as Hadden singled with two out, went to second on an error and scored as the throw from the catcher while he was stealing third sailed into left field.

The Cardinals scored their final run in the seventh inning when Gagliano, who had walked, scored on a bases loaded walk to Mike Joiner.

Doing the damage for the Cardinals were Robert Smith (2-for-3, double, run, two RBI), Bill Gracey (single, run, RBI), Chris Please see Baseball, Page 3B

The files (a) containing each of the above-listed application(s) are available for inspection Monday through Friday except for legal holidays, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at the St. Johns River Water Management District Headquarters or the appropriate Service Center. The District will take action on each permit application listed above unless a petition for an administrative proceeding (hearing) is filed pursuant to the provisions of Sections 120.569 and 120.57, Florida Statutes Chapter 28-106 and 40C-1.1007, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.). A person whose substantial interests are affected by any of the Districts proposed permitting decisions identified above may petition for administrative hearing in accordance with Sections 120.569 and 120.57 or all parties may reach a written agreement on mediation as an alternative remedy under Section 120.573. Choosing mediation will not adversely affect the right to a hearing if mediation does not result in a settlement. The procedures for pursuing mediation are set forth in Section 120.573, F.S., and Rules 28-106.111 and 28-106.401-405 F.A.C. Failure to file a petition within the time period shall constitute a waiver of any right such person may have to request an administrative determination (hearing) under Sections 120.569 and 120.57, F.S., concerning the subject permit application. Petitions which are not filed in accordance with the above provisions are subject to dismissal. Because the administrative hearing process is designed to formulate final agency action, the filing of a petition means that the District's final action may be different from the position taken by it in the notice of intent. Persons whose substantial interests will be affected by any such final decision of the District on the application have the right to become a party to the proceeding, in accordance with the requirements set forth above.

will be reserved for the regular classes this Friday at Orlando Speed World as heat and feature action in all divisions will be run.

Gates open a 6 p.m. and racing begins at 8 p.m. every Friday night at the track located 17 miles east of Orlando between Orlando and Titusville on Highway 50 at the 520 Cocoa Cutoff.

Tickets are $12 for adults at the front gate and kids 11 and under free.

Also, trackside parking is offered along turns 1 and 2. The first 25 cars or vans (no motor homes, please) will receive free admission for their cars (drivers and passengers pay regular price). Tailgate parties welcomed and encouraged.

In racing action from October 29th:

Late Model - The Late Model 25 lapper was more of the same as the leader Eddie King and second running Larry Osteen made contact with just two laps to go and found themselves at the rear of the field.

Rookie Travis Kittleson inherited the top spot and drove to his first career win which was especially sweet because it was his first race for his new sponsor, Bob Steele Chevrolet of Cocoa.

Following Kittleson to the finish were Justin Drawdy, Osteen, Wendell Overstreet and Jeff Emery.

Limited Late Model - All the action took place in the heat race for the Limited Late Models as a massive backstretch crash sent much of the field to the pits and put pre-race favorite Mike Murphy up for the evening.

Jimbo Bjorkland patched up his Monte Carlo and ran off from the field as the 15-lap feature ran without a caution. Timmy Todd, Doug Baldwin, Tommy Johnson and Ian Hoffman completed the top five, and the field for the race.

Modified - The 50 lap End of the Month championship for Modifieds looked like it would be a shoot out between Chuck Burkhalter and Tom Root.

With fast qualifier Bill Gunn out after a first lap crash, Burkhalter quickly set sail from his pole starting spot with Root quickly moving to second.

The two ran nose to tail for many laps in between the numerous caution flags that slowed the action.

Coming off turn two on lap 35, Burkhalter spun, Root was close behind and it was determined he was involved so both cars went to the rear putting third place runner Tank Tucker in the lead.

Tucker was able to stay out front the remainder of the way holding off a late charge from David Hartin to claim the victory. Jason Boyd did the passing job of the night coming from the middle of the 19 car field to finish third. Shain Held was fourth and Gary English fifth.

Sportman - Glen Carter made it two in a row in the Sportman class outgunning Andy Nichols, Jeff Wright, Shawn Gourley and Mike Carr for the win.

Mini-Stock - Pedie Allison took advantage of a poor restart by leader Kelly Jarrett to claim yet another Mini Stock win.

Jarrett came back to get second ahead of Burt Morse, Jim West and Jamie Dixon. Last week's winner Tim Clark was unhurt when his car blew an engine and hit the wall on lap two.

Bomber - Make it four in a row for Duane Freed but Rich Clouser made him work for this win!

Gary Cuddy, Bob Wines and Steve Hagy completed the top five.

win ties the two teams, and the first tie-breaker is head-to-head competition. A possible monkey wrench in the mix would be Mainland upsetting Spruce Creek Friday and Winter Springs topping Seminole, forcing a three-team playoff for the runner-up spot.

Lake Brantley (6-2 overall, 4-1 in district) will also find itself in a must-win situation when it takes to the Spec Martin Stadium turf in DeLand.

Not many thought the Bulldogs would be in the mix either when it lost its first four games of the season. But after five straight wins, four against Class 6A-District 2 foes, DeLand, whose only district loss is to district champion Lake Mary, finds itself tied with the Patriots, who have also lost just to Lake Mary, thereby assuring the winner of this game of a spot in the playoffs.

In other games this Friday, Lake Mary will be at Lyman in a non-district encounter, while Lake Howell will be at Pine Ridge and Apopka at Oviedo for district meetings.

All games are set to begin at 7:30 p.m.

HOROSCOPES

Stronger bonds than ever could be forged in the year ahead with long-standing alliances that will serve to increase benefits for all who meet this test.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) A painful lesson may have to be repeated again today. Because you failed to learn from an old past mistake when you were confronted with it, learn from it this time. Astro-Graph year ahead predictions make great Christmas stocking stuffers for all signs of the Zodiac. Mail $2 for each to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 1758, Murray Hill Station, New York, NY 10158. Be sure to state the Zodiac signs you desire.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) By mixing with the wrong group of people or crowd today, you'll spoil what otherwise should have been a fun day. Be very selective in your choices of companions.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) This is an excellent day to assess your values and convert any ill thinking into solid responsible behavior. It could save you from finding yourself out on a limb later on.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) It's so unlike you not to go along with the will of the majority, so don't start today. You, better than most signs, understands the value of a cooperative, collective spirit.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Ask lots of questions of those with whom you get involved commercially today to make certain they are as ethical and sincere about things as you are. A shady person could be lurking.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Watch out today that you're not too complacent about a partnership arrangement where each may think the other is attending to something important that both are neglecting.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) If you think being nice to someone today in order to get special treatment back in return will fool anybody, you're mistaken. Manipulative behavior will be recognized.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) There is nothing damaging to playing second fiddle to someone who is upstaging everybody, so don't react today as if it is. It'll be you who'll do yourself in at this time.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Being too possessive of others today will evoke the exact opposite of that which you desire. People try to run and escape from those who hold them in bondage.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Any challenging comments you make today are apt to be quickly disputed by your listeners, so be prepared to back up what you say with irrefutable proof or you could end up looking foolish.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Think twice today before engaging in betting or gambling, or getting involved in a chancy endeavor. This is the wrong day to put additional strains on your resources.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) If you take it upon yourself to speak for your mate, partner or cohort today, you may not only have to retract what you said, but apologize to all parties as well.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Wrong contract, right play

By Phillip Alder

If you are always in the best contract, your declarer-play skills won't be tested that often. It is when the wheels come off that you need to show your stuff. In today's deal, for example, seven diamonds is simple to make, given the 3-2 trump split. Yet seven hearts is much more challenging. How would you plan the play after West leads a trump?

The bidding features an agreement you might not have seen before (and isn't used by everyone!). After a strong, artificial and forcing two-club opening and a two-diamond response, a jump to three of a major guarantees a solid suit and asks partner to cue-bid an ace. So, four diamonds just shows that ace. (Without an ace, North either bids three no-trump with at least one king, or raises partner's suit to deny an ace or a king.) South's leap to seven hearts is required by the column!

At first glance, you need the spade finesse to work. Yet there is another possibility that should be checked out first: a 4-4 club split. After winning trick one in the dummy, ruff a club high. Return to dummy with a trump and ruff another club. Cash the diamond king, then lead the diamond nine to dummy's jack, noting the 3-2 break. After ruffing a third club, play the diamond queen and overtake with dummy's ace. Ruff a fourth club, then return to the dummy by leading the carefully preserved diamond five to dummy's seven. Were the clubs 4-4? If so, discard the spade queen on the established club 10. If not, take the spade finesse.

Watch those entries and spots.

ASK DR. GOTT

Breath-analysis tests are sensitive

DEAR DR. GOTT: What medicines and/or foods may cause a false reading on a Breathalyzer test?

DEAR READER: Tests that measure the amount of alcohol in the breath are quite reliable. So reliable, in fact that they will measure alcohol in the mouth, as well as alcohol vapor expelled from the lungs. Therefore, if a person has just used an alcohol-based mouthwash, taken an alcohol-containing cough syrup or administered an asthma inhaler (if the propellant contains alcohol), he or she will show up positive on a breath-analysis test.

In order to avoid such false positives, most police officers will wait about 15 minutes before giving the test. This also allows the officers to inspect and observe the suspect for visible signs of intoxication. By the end of this period, any trivial alcohol vapors in the mouth should have dissipated.

DEAR DR. GOTT: How toxic is newspaper? I used to rub my eyes in the morning while reading my newspaper and my vision started to fail. Now that I am more careful, my sight has improved.

DEAR READER: Newsprint is not toxic. Casual contact with newspaper readers is ordinarily harmless. Nonetheless, some people appear to be allergic to the dyes used in the ink. If the material gets near the eyes, redness, itching, swelling and blurred vision can occur. If your vision improved since you changed your reading habits, you may have a low-grade allergy to ink.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Is it true that every time you sneeze, your heart skips a beat?

DEAR READER: False. Sneezing is a reflex involving several actions, including a sudden contraction of the diaphragm. The heart is not affected.

Nonetheless, the vagus nerve — which slows the heart rate — can be stimulated by sneezing, coughing or straining. Therefore, a person with an over-sensitive vagus nerve might detect a slowing of the pulse after repeated sneezes.

DEAR DR. GOTT: What causes hiccups?

DEAR READER: Hiccups are due to periodic spasms of the flat diaphragm muscle, which controls

DR. GOTT

respiration. This can result from irritation of the muscle itself or of the nerves that feed it. Some cases of hiccups are associated with metabolic disturbances or lung tumors. However, more often than not, doctors are unable to identify the precise cause of this common phenomenon; the hiccups just come and go.

Several medical writers have described a surefire way to cure hiccups: Quickly swallow one or two teaspoonfuls of dry table sugar, with no liquid. No one knows why this is effective.
