The Next War

Events in Spain offer the people of other countries a sample of some of the horror of the next war, when and if it comes. Revolutions have always been marked by their ferocity and savagery and in the present civil strife between factions of the Spanish people there has been no diminution in traditional cruelty.

The Alcazar Of Toledo

The siege of the Alcazar, historic fortress which dominates Toledo today as it did in Caesar's time, has developed into a situation that deserves a Homer to place its theme into an epic, thinks the New York Herald Tribune.

Donald Bishop Is Winner In Wert's Football Contest

Cody Prepares Backs For Next Season's Play Only 3 Carriers Graduate From Group Of Ball Loggers

GAINESVILLE, Sept. 21.—Out of a group of 14 of the most promising candidates for backfield positions on the University of Florida football team, only three are expected to finish their grid careers this fall. So while Jack Cody and his staff go about the immediate task of shaping an offense for the current season, they, too, have their eyes on the program that is the by-word in Gainesville—in a couple of years we ought to be going places.

Louis Hardage, who is back Cody's right hand man in whipping together the new Gator offense, has never seen any of the backfield men under actual game conditions. The scrimmage of last spring was the first look-in on the possibilities of the backs. It will be another week or ten days before any of the starters choose to comment on the personal talents and potentialities of the ball-carrying athletes.

Since now the coaches are conducting their intensive pre-season training of the squad, there was much ground work to do. Having been tutored in some of the details of backfield play by Coach Hardage, and with backfield and line backing advanced to a considerable state, the stage is being set to test out how well the boys can perform.

Because the coaching was uniformly inconsistent, and because the backs did not seem to possess special skills for avoiding the opposition, the Gators did not show a dependable running attack last year. There is a good chance that the ball-carrying brigade will get better results this season. Who are the standouts? Well, there are 14 backs on the top list just now, and each one of them is going to get his opportunity to be one of the better lads.

Louis Favored To Beat Ettore Tuesday Night Brown Bomber Seen As 3-1 Choice As Bout Draws Nearer

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Al Brown, Philadelphia's perennial double-banker, has been a close contender for his fight against the Brown Bomber's record yesterday as he wound up his training and acrobatic "I'll knock him out."

While workers at the Municipal Stadium prepared for a crowd of 30,000 to see the 15-round battle Tuesday night, just a day short or 10 years since Constantin Gene Tunney cut down the Brown Bomber, Jack Dempsey in the same ring, both fighters tapered off in their New Jersey training camps.

Co-promoter Herman Taylor, gloriously expectant of a glittering revival of local boxing interest which has lagged since "The Battle of the Rats" in 1929, figured a 3000,000 "take."

At Pompeon Lakes, the close-mouthed Louis drew the curtain on his training and said simply and quietly, "I'll win."

The boys on the street say so, currently 3 to 1.

Louis' record—24 knockouts, four decisions, and one defeat in 39 professional engagements—stands 11.

His battered sparring partners disagree only on the round. As Joe Banovic, one of them, said, "he's hitting better than he ever did in his life. He's the Louis of a year ago."

But down at Clementon, the blonde better cradled confidence and pointed to a record only slightly less impressive than his rival's.

Ettore has tagged the knock-out punch on 18 opponents, out-pointed 37, was held to two draws, lost six decisions, and was knocked out once, by Charley Retaliff in January, 1935, in two rounds. He'll be answering the bell for the sixty-fifth time in his professional career.

SPORT CHATS

What A Pleasure!
It is a most decided pleasure to walk around this fair city today, and see the looks of cheer on the faces of some of our city's master-mind football experts, many of whom are absolutely astounded by their selections turned in to The Herald as an entry in Charlie Wert's "pick-the-winner" contest.

Now, we believe that these fans will see how hard it really is to attempt to prognosticate the outcome of a football game in these days and times of triple and forward lateral, off-tackle reverses and around end fade-aways.

After all, the younger boys did quite well with their selections, since one of them took top honors and several others were high in the running.

But, there is that old proverb, "if at first you don't succeed, try, try again," so we'll be looking for a record number of entries in this week's contest, which is being sponsored by the Purcell Co.

That's How It Began!
Chris Von der Ahe, St. Louis saloonkeeper, who turned baseball magnate in the 90's, gave a World Series party in 1933 unlike any that baseball has ever known.

Chris' team, the "Saint Louis Prowns," as he called them in his rich dialect, won the American Association flag that year, with the Giants winning the National League honors. Chris challenged the Giants for a series to determine which club was better. The result was agreement upon a 10-game series, first four in New York, next in Brooklyn, a sixth in Philadelphia, and the final four in St. Louis.

A post-season series was not a new idea, even then. The play-off plan started in 1884, when the Providence Nationals won three out of five from the Metropolitans of the American Association. —1885, the Chicago Nationals and Von der Ahe's "Prowns" played seven games, each winning 3, the other being a tie, with no playoff.

In 1887, the victorious Detroit Nationals, and the same "Prowns," went barnstorming in a 15-game tussle. Detroit won 10; the "Prowns" 5. The Nationals, as a result boasted considerably over the supremacy of play in the National League, and when the "Prowns" topped their A. A. circuit again in

Sanford Youth Ekes Out Win By One Point Margin

Galloway, Borland, Cox, Altman, McLucas And Edenfield Receive Theater Tickets In Pick-Winner Game

Donald "Buddy" Bishop was today adjudged winner of The Herald "pick-the-winner" contest, which was sponsored by Wert the Jeweler. More than 35 contestants entered selections in the contest, which concluded with the playing of football games over the nation last Saturday.

Bishop will receive the $25 diamond ring offered by Mr. Wert as the first prize, and the remaining six winners will receive theater tickets to the Ritz Theater. Following Bishop as winners of tickets were: H. R. Borland, J. L. Galloway, C. C. Cox, Danny Altman, Coach Leonard McLucas, and Loftin Edenfield.

Winners were picked according to the number of teams picked as winners in the top column, with the difference in the score of the Duke-Davidson game being subtracted from the possible 50 points and added to the number of points received by correct picking in the top column.

The first-place winner had a perfect score of 10 correct winners in the top column, and guessed the Duke-Davidson score as 13 to 6, missing it by only six points. Therefore, he had a perfect percentage of 50 in the top column and a score of 44 in the lower column, giving him a 94 for the show.

All winners are requested to call at the Herald Office for their prizes as soon as possible. Theater ticket winners will receive passes to the Wednesday-Thursday show.

Question About Cardui

HOW IT HELPS WOMEN "Who takes Cardui?" Women who are run-down, weakened, nervous, from not getting sufficient strength from the food they eat—Thousands and thousands have found that Cardui increased their appetite, improved their digestion, thereby promoting better nourishment and the consequent strengthening of the whole system.

And women who have suffered from functional pains of menstruation have found that, by taking Cardui just before and during the periods this purely vegetable sedative and anti-spasmodic seemed to save them much discomfort. This action of Cardui is highly esteemed because the relief credited to it comes in an entirely beneficial way. Cardui is purely vegetable; nothing in it to be afraid of.—Adv.

Airmail Stop Fight Revived In New Plan

St. Pete-Jacksonville Route Contractor Willing To Halt Planes in Sanford

WILL TAKE IDEA TO WASHINGTON

Sentiment Of Lead- ing Business Inter- ests Sought

By PAT PATTERSON

Undaunted by a letter of discouragement from the Postoffice Department, Sanford aviation interests today moved again toward the establishment of an airmail stop at the local airport.

Latest developments in the fight for faster mail service is the City Commission's support of Volie Williams in a drive to obtain letters of sentiment from the City's leading business firms.

Mr. Williams expressed a belief that proper authorities in Washington would reconsider the Sanford bid for airmail if a sufficient number of local commercial interests will show their constructive benefits to be derived from airmail service.

In explaining the situation before the Commission last night, Mr. Williams pointed out that the contractor who operates the St. Petersburg-Jacksonville line, the route on which this city is located, looks toward a stop here.

One of the objections raised by the Postoffice Department was that by placing airmail on the air schedule, flying "fast" would be "highly unprofitable."

Jay-Cees Endorse Commission Action For Greater Safety

The Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce last night went on record as endorsing movements by the City Commission toward improving traffic conditions in the City and especially on Park Avenue.

Approval followed an address by Judge Frank Miller who spoke on plans for the City's program designed to produce more safe driving within the City limits.

Officers announced a Jay-Cee social event to be held in the near future, although no definite date was pronounced.

The body discussed the necessity of providing a park for the entertainment of tourists during the winter season and indicated its support to any such project.

Originality is the key-note of knock-knock, being submitted in the Ritz Theater knock-knock contest, Joe L. Marquette, manager of the playhouse, said today.

The best knock-knock received at the theater's box office will be used in a local stage show Friday night featuring Elmer West and his popular orchestra.

County To Discuss Bond Refund Plans

County Commissioners will convene tomorrow in the Court House for a discussion of the proposed bonds so far on the $3,225,000 bond refunding program authorized recently.

The E. E. Cramer Company of Orlando and Chicago was awarded the refund contract, a document which stipulates the refunding operation shall cover a period of 60 years.

Lloyd Boyle Is Re-Elected Legion Head

Rev. Root, Branan Also Re-Named To Post For Another Year Of Service

Lloyd F. Boyle, Sanford attorney, last night was re-elected for a second term as commander of the local American Legion Post, H. E. Coleman was selected as first vice-president.

C. E. Lee of Oviedo was the Post's choice for second vice-commander, while J. C. Mose of Lake Monroe received the call to fill the position of third vice-commander.

Arthur Branan was re-named as the organization's finance officer. The Rev. J. R. Root also was re-elected Post chaplain. Historical duties will be filled by George Weinstein, J. O. Huff was chosen service officer, while Guy Stafford of Lake Monroe was given the post of sergeant-at-arms.

An executive committee was composed of H. W. Kueker, Hayward Walker and Jack Kessler, the latter of Oviedo.

Commander Boyle re-appointed C. E. Rawson as athletic officer, Perry Hro as chairman of the Boys' Work Committee, and R. W. Deane as adjutant.

In re-electing Commander Boyle, Legionnaires pointed out that it was under his administration the Post had enjoyed its largest membership in 12 years. At present 236 members are affiliated.

A report from Mr. Hro on the activities of the Sons of the Legion brought plans for a program to secure a Junior drum and bugle corps. He also reviewed activities of the youth organization, remarking on the progress of the rifle team.

Mr. Rawson made an annual report on the performance of the Junior American Legion Baseball Team and indicated that next year's rise may be assisted financially by the Chattanooga Lookouts.

It was announced that installation of officers will be held Oct. 19. At their next meeting, Legionnaires will begin a program of activities for the coming year.

Twenty-Four Defendants Tried In Municipal Court

Negro Held For Murder, Is Released To Volusia County Authorities; Ten Cases Are Continued

Twenty-four defendants yesterday marched through the Municipal court of Judge Miller who handed down decisions on a score of cases ranging from murder to minor traffic violations.

Lesson Patterson, a Deland negro arrested by local authorities yesterday, was turned over to Volusia county officers who wanted the prisoner on charges of murder.

Three counts against Leroy Ward, negro, charged with threats, being drunk and disorderly, and with discharging firearms, drew a 30-day prison sentence with the alternative of paying a $50 fine.

A 60-day suspended sentence was meted to R. A. Edwards of Altamonte, alleged to have been intoxicated on the streets. A drunkenness charge against Henry White, negro, resulted in a $15 fine or 30-day jail term.

Said to have been drunk and disorderly, David White, a negro, was fined $15 or remanded to prison for 30 days. Judge Miller dismissed charges of resisting against the defendant.

Frank Bell, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, drew a fine of $20 or 60 days. Similar allegations against R. A. Herring produced a fine of $10 or a 20-day term. Five dollars of the fine was suspended.

Bruce Laney and Olden Brayton, the latter colored, both charged with speeding, drew $3 or six days, both being suspended. Nathaniel Holmes was fined $5 or jailed for ten days for disorderly conduct allegations.

Two negroes, Albert Pitts, charged with assault, and James Casan, charged with disorderly conduct, were dismissed. Cases against Clara Ahin, A. J. Steinmeyer, A. K. Serjannar, Willis James, Isaac Dover, Victoria Jenkins, Nettie Williams, Paul Blake, Peter James and J. C. Robinson were continued.

McLucas Will Talk Before Local Lions

Leonard McLucas, athletic director of Seminole High School, will deliver a football address Wednesday night before the Lions Club meeting in the Valdez Hotel at 7 o'clock.

Officers of the club today urged that all members make arrangements to attend the regular session.

Catchel Will Erect $6,000 Brick Store

Building Will Incorporate New Features In Commercial Structures

Forrest Catchel, Sanford merchant, today obtained a building permit for the erection of a $6,000 commercial building on the southwest corner at the intersections of Fourth and Sanford Avenue.

J. T. Pope was awarded the contract for construction work. G. P. Paxton, City building inspector, said the permit was the largest granted for private enterprise in Sanford for several years.

Workers already have begun demolishing the old two-story wooden structure now standing on the site where the new one-story brick and tile edifice will be erected.

Mr. Catchel estimated that wrecking crews will consume one week in demolition work, and that the new structure will have been completed within 60 to 70 days, after actual construction operations begin.

The brick and tile enclosure will be something new in grocery stores, the merchant explained. It is to be of an open front type, that is, boasting folding doors and no glass windows.

Mr. Catchel said a few of the new-type stores are in existence in Miami. He plans to inspect one of them before constructing work begins on his building.

One of the features of the new structure, which will be 45 feet by 100 feet, is built-in refrigeration. The cooling plant, Mr. Catchel said, will consist of three distinct compartments: a cooling room, a freezing room and a vegetable room.

Some of the refrigeration equipment now being used in Mr. Catchel's present store will be employed, but some new apparatus will be required, he stated.

The merchant said that while the original building will be but one story high, provisions are made for the addition of another story in case of need.

1,200 Are Qualified To Cast Ballots In December Elections

Nearly 1,200 persons are qualified to vote in the municipal elections scheduled for December, it was announced today from City Hall where registration books opened yesterday.

In Sanford, a city falling below the 20,000 population mark, only one registration in a lifetime is required of a voter if he remains in the city. In cities over 20,000 one is required to register every two years.

City Commission Approached For Athletic Monies

The City Commission today stood with both hands filled by an application for financial aid to athletic projects.

Sanford's Baseball Association sought the largest amount, $2,000 to be included in the 1936-37 budget for emergencies. High school interests asked for a lesser but undetermined sum to erect lights for night football playing at the High School athletic field.

In a letter from the Baseball Association, presented by Henry Watson and Jimmie Wright, it was pointed out that the sum desired was asked more as a reserve to be fallen back upon in event unforeseen financial difficulties arise during the next baseball season.

The communication asserted that the Chattanooga Baseball Association had contributed $2,000 toward next year's Sanford team and that gate receipts could be depended upon to produce approximately $6,000. Further, it was stated, the Chamber of Commerce is expected to assist in some measure.

Hitler Shows German Might In Maneuvers

Exhibition Declared Most Spectacular Since Pre-War Day Of Kaiser Wilhelm

Autumn maneuvers, the greatest since pre-war days, saw the first large scale demonstrations of the army and air force, in cooperation with new artillery units and new tanks.

Paper details for mobilization of Germany's entire man power in time of war were worked out with many former soldiers carrying in their pockets precise instructions for emergency.

On the motion picture front, patriotic films were driving home to the civilian population the idea that martial virtues are indispensable for national defense.

Secret orders have been received by millions of Germans between the ages of 25 and 45 telling them when and where they must report in the event of war.

German citizens carry little sheets of blue paper in their vest pockets. Outwardly they discuss the order enthusiastically but in private and confidential conversations to take part in war.

All Germans were warned to use the greatest care to keep military secrets from foreigners.

Sheriff Receives Executions For Delinquent Tax

29 Papers Prepared At Direction Of County Collector

A consignment of executions for the seizure and sale of personal property on which taxes are delinquent for 1935 were in the hands of Sheriff McClelland today and ready for service, J. D. Jenkins, Seminole County tax collector, announced.

Total amount represented by the 29 papers prepared at the direction of the collector's office was less than $1,000, considerably under the sums of past years.

Mr. Jenkins said the executions covered personal property such as stock in stores and shops, farm animals, farm equipment and other classes of commodities, which under the Florida law may be sold for the satisfaction of personal assessments.

The collector explained the sheriff is required to post a notice of sale in three different places in the county. These notices are to remain in public for two weeks, then the property described in them may be sold at public auction.

In last-minute rushes prior to the Sept. 15 deadline for the payment of delinquencies, Mr. Jenkins' office handled a lively business as property owners remitted with frequency in an effort to save their effects.

Slightly more than $1,000 was collected for personal belongings on which assessments had been declared in arrears. Nearly $500 of the amount was received in a single day.

Little Hurricane Turns From Coast

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Meteorologists said this morning a "small tropical hurricane" in the Atlantic Ocean 500 to 600 miles east of Florida apparently has changed its course from northeast to northwest, thus pointing it away from the mainland of the United States.

At Trafford has just returned from a brief business trip to Jacksonville where he attended a banquet given by the Aluminum Company of America.

Rebels Command Important Roads In Spanish War

Sanford Receives Front Page Space From California

Sanford's name was published widely recently in every newspaper in California carrying the Associated Press service.

The event was a result of a news story about an ill Seminole County resident, who, ordered on a diet of citrus juices, purchased a can which was grown and packed in California.

From California to the Chamber of Commerce today came a clipping of the story and a few words of indignation from Mrs. Truetta F. Fox, a former resident of Florida.

Yesterday the Women's Civic Committee of the Chamber launched a "buy Florida produce" movement designed to use only Florida produce when it is available.

The Chamber canvassed local stores and found Florida-packed and grown citrus juices are on sale in each establishment.

Lehman To Decline Job On Marketing Committee For City

H. J. Lehman, representative from Seminole County, will not be able to accept his City appointment on the advisory committee of the State Farmers' Marketing Board, the City Commission last night.

Mr. Lehman explained that because of the nature of other duties, which will require his entire time, he is forced to decline the honor.

He was named with Commissioner W. A. Leffler on the advisory committee. The Commission delayed making another appointment to fill Mr. Lehman's place.

Commissioners received a petition from D. L. Harper, Mrs. T. E. King and Lewis Nader asking that a stable at 805 East Second Street be declared a public nuisance and condemned. The establishment is located only 35 feet from a residence of one of the petitioners.

The body accepted the petition and indicated they would act after an investigation had been made.

Major vonBehren Inspects Sanford Guardsmen Units

Three units of the Sanford National Guard last night stood semi-annual inspection by Maj. W. H. vonBehren, West Palms Beach, commandant of the first battalion of the 124th infantry.

The inspecting officer indicated his pleasure at the progress made by the local military groups.

Approximately 80 men and five officers participated in the event.

Capt. C. H. Washburn, acting commandant of the Guard here, said Maj. vonBehren was highly satisfied with the new armory into which guardsmen will move Saturday.

Capt. Washburn said an elaborate ceremony and service are planned to observe the formal opening late in October.

'Anything Can Happen,' Insurgent Generals Assert; Madrid Near Fall

RELIEF FORCES MOVE ON TOLEDO

Thousands Reported Slain In Battle Before Masqueta

Insurgent armies, commanding most of the important cross roads in Spain, drove toward Toledo and their besieged comrades of the Alcazar today and declared Madrid virtually won at their mercy.

"Anything may happen now," the Fascist high command said.

From Maqueta, some 40 miles southwest of Madrid and 80 miles northwest of Toledo, insurgents have wide roads which lead to their goals. Conservative Fascists, pointing out the government's concentrating desperate defense forces on the Masqueta-to-Madrid highway, said untrained defense forces must be reckoned with but they believed they would be beaten soon.

Dispatches from the front, reaching Lisbon today, and insurgents already are pushing on the way to Toledo.

Masqueta fell after "thousands" of government defenders had been killed, these dispatches said.

Despite the advance in Madrid and Toledo vicinities, insurgents admitted their march on Bilbao on the Bay of Biscay is being blocked by determined Government resistance.
