

Television Gets "Green Light" From Commission

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Television is back in stride again. How far it goes depends on many possibilities. National defense requirements on the radio industry will be a factor.

But in coming back it has a new status—commercial instead of experimental. It has been given a full "green light" by revised Federal Communication Commission regulations.

New York, as the present center of activity, with Los Angeles about next in line, has taken the reintroduction without much delay. Programs were resumed on a regular schedule after nearly a year's lapse taken up in settling differences over operating standards.

The NBC station, now WNBC and on the air as W2XBS since April, 1939, with public programs was first to get a commercial license. The CBS transmitter WCBW, under construction an experiment for two years started its schedule under authorization calling for a 30-day period of tests.

Otherwise throughout the country there are nearly 29 additional stations in various stages of preparation looking to commercial licenses.

Metamorphosis From Civilian To Army Told

CAMP BLANDING, Dec. 3.—(Special)—The Reception Center at Camp Blanding boasts the only government mess hall operated cafeteria style in Camp. Here the new, slightly apprehensive selectee soon learns how wholesomely the Army feeds its men, and with the serving of his first Army chow—not unlike a home-cooked meal—the selectee relaxes and begins to feel at home.

The metamorphosis from civilian to soldier is perhaps one of the busiest days in the selectee's entire tour of service. On his arrival at the Reception Center, commanded by Lt. Col. Ira E. Ryder, he is assigned to his quarters and given his first instruction in the care of his tent.

He then becomes a member of a group of about 80 men and is marched to the "processing" building where he is given an intelligence test which, lasting an hour, gives first hand information on the man's abilities and intelligence.

The man then is sent through the medical section where he is vaccinated against small-pox and eleven tetanus and typhoid inoculations.

Then he gets his equipment—over 80 articles—and returns to his tent to solidify his briefly-made acquaintances, to scribble first impressions on a note headed for home and finally to feel the first tingle of pride that comes to a man in the uniform of a soldier of the United States.

Since the establishments of Camp Blanding, one of the nation's largest military contingents and Florida's fifth "city" some 16,000 potential military leaders have gone through the Reception Center and been assigned to posts all over the United States.

Eyes IN DEFENSE!

Good sight is helping to make our national defense machinery hum—putting us far ahead of our 1918 efforts.

Keener eyes are now trained on targets, landing fields, lakes, microscopes and other defense tools.

Better light is one answer. For with better light comes better sight. And during these last few years we've been kinder to our eyes—used a correct amount, right size bulbs. Ask mother, she knows.

Let's continue the good work. Keep right size lamps in the sockets—and modernize old-fashioned lamps with inexpensive equipment.

We'll be saving sight and money for defense.

60,000 Germans Knocked Out Of Action By Reds

Russians Take Four Villages And An Important Town Beyond Taganrog

Hitler's Forces Lose Much Ground

Nazis Suffer Chaotic Retreat As They Are Driven Back

(By Associated Press) On the Russian front, the Soviets declared the German Ukrainian armies had been driven in chaotic retreat beyond Taganrog, 40 miles west of Rostov, with 60,000 Germans knocked out of action.

In the Moscow campaign, the Russians declared they had thrown back the Germans 16 to 31 miles in the Stalino sector, 130 miles southeast of Moscow, and recaptured an important town and four villages.

The German radio, as heard in the United States by N. B. C. attributed the Nazi disaster in the Rostov area to "a change in the weather which rendered useless the mechanized might of the German Army" and to "the Russian inability to understand that they were defeated."

Russian Cossack cavalry and motorized units chased Axis troops along the Sea of Azov, along the roads of death and devastation marked with German tanks and the wreckage of planes.

A London broadcast heard in New York quoted a Stockholm report that Marshal Wilhelm von Brauner, commander in chief of the German army, had been ordered to "leave off a Nazi 'catastrophe'."

Another powerful Red Army offensive on the Moscow front was said to have hurled back Germany's ace Panzer Army 12 to 31 miles in the Tula sector, anchoring the southern end of the defense area before the capital.

Two Big League Deals Are Made At Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 4.—(AP) Two big league deals were announced early today, the Chicago Cubs and Philadelphia Phillies have agreed to trade for pitcher Bob Bowman and an unnamed sum of cash, and the Cincinnati Reds bought catcher Rolfe Hemming from the Cleveland Indians in a straight cash deal.

Meanwhile rumors rebounded through the crowded hotel lobbies as the major league clubs tried to complete some sort of a trade to justify the presence at the convention of the minor leagues here.

One of the hottest tidbits was that the St. Louis Cardinals might acquire outfielder Dick Padgett from the Cubs. Another was that the Chicago White Sox would give outfielder Mike Krehbiel to the Washington Senators for Doc Cramer.

Understandably, there were some speculations that were very close to being deals, but whether they might be closed before the managers move to Chicago for the big league meetings next week was open to question.

British Tanks Will Attempt Knockout Blow

English Battle With Two German Panzer Divisions Is Near In Rezegh Section

LONDON, Dec. 4.—(AP)—The House of Commons gave general approval to Prime Minister Churchill's plan for maximum mobilization of men and materiel by a 225 to 19 vote, after putting down an insurgent laborite amendment which also would have conscripted wealth.

CAIRO, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Reserve British tanks swept onto the main Libyan battlefield around Sidi Rezegh Wednesday and another attempt to deliver the knockout blow to two German panzer divisions was believed imminent.

(The Stockholm newspaper, Dagens Nyheter, said in a Berlin dispatch, the Germans had rushed reinforcements to Libya from the Ukraine sector of Russia, and that this might be one reason for the Russian victory at Rostov.)

Thrown off their schedule by the furious German tank charge which recaptured Sidi Rezegh and the nearby stronghold of Bir El Hamed, the British were massing at new strategic points for a counter-assault while their mobile patrols cleared the battlefield, according to the communiqué.

Freeholders will vote on the issuance of $80,000 worth of bonds for the construction of a hospital for Seminole County in a special County election which was called by the County Commission in a meeting Tuesday.

A $70,000 bond issue already has been approved by freeholders, and these bonds have been sold, but not sold at the time of the issue, it was believed that Federal aid would be forthcoming, but the national defense program knocked out the opportunity of receiving such aid, Mr. Housholder stated.

80,000 Serbs Swear To Destroy Enemy By Guerilla Warfare In Balkans

Fighting Tempo Is Increasing

Nazis Have Launched General Offensive Near Morava River

(By Associated Press) Hard-fought German armies are reported in a new fight today to suppress Serb guerrillas and a Serb communiqué issued in Cairo, announced that Germans had launched "what appears to be a general offensive" against the position held by uncommitted guerrilla forces in the valley of the western Morava River.

This German offensive is being successfully although in the sector of Yugoslavia, tank attacks obliging one of our units to withdraw. The communiqué added: "German troops in Yugoslavia are estimated at about 75,000 men, while the Yugoslav Serb Communists are estimated to have 80,000 soldiers sworn to wipe out Nazi conquerors."

Military experts referred to the campaign as the opening of a "third front" which compelled the Germans to fight again in the Balkans at a time when they were hard pressed both in Russia and Libya.

The communiqué was the second from the Yugoslav headquarters regarding the Serb campaign of resistance to German occupation troops. Fighting, which began in guerrilla fashion, has steadily increased in tempo since the invasion was started. Fully equipped Serb troops units, commanded by former Yugoslav Army officers, were known to be operating over most of the occupied country, but the communiqué put the campaign in the category of a full scale war.

Secret Service Provides Best Of Protection For President

By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—(AP)—The U. S. Secret Service is now tightening the net of protection around President Roosevelt as America becomes more and more involved in the tragic world situation.

The latest development is the fingerprinting of all the hired help at every banquet or public gathering the President attends. First hint of the new order came when the President made his Harry Day speech at the Mayflower Hotel. A week before Col. Edmund W. Starling, chief of the White House Secret Service detail, and his staff moved in to give the employees a thorough going-over, including questioning and fingerprinting.

This not only applied to the hotel's regular help but all the "specials" called in for the big banquet.

A week later, when the President accepted his annual invitation to the National Press Club President's dinner, the Secret Service showed up immediately to fingerprint the entire staff and made arrangements to have all extra waiters, bus-boys, and employees appear for the routine several days before the party comes off.

Even now, the Secret Service will not discuss this latest development in guarding the President, but it is known that among themselves they are pretty pleased with the results.

In a world at war, the business of guarding the President has become one of the most harrowing assignments in Washington—not entirely because of increasing threats of danger—but because President Roosevelt is one of the most informal Presidents of modern times. He abhors the idea of being a prisoner of the Secret Service. He likes to come and go as he pleases, to see whom he wishes to see and without leaving his callers subjected to a thorough going-over before they are admitted to his office.

Thus many weekends when the President goes to Hyde Park for the only rest and relaxation he gets these days; these occasional junkets to defense centers; and even the across-town trips to banquets call for elaborate preparations. It isn't that any one really fears that some attack might be made on the President or that some embarrassing situation might arise. It's just that precautions have to be taken to see these things are practically impossible.

Camp Blanding Has Safe Target Range

CAMP BLANDING, Dec. 2.—(AP)—When the 155 mm guns bust their 98-pound shells over the Florida scrub in target practice at Camp Blanding, it is executed over one of the finest, safest ranges in the entire country.

And with the completion of its 12,000-yard railway "tank killing" range, the camp adds a finishing touch to the already outstanding small arms and artillery ranges systems.

The artillery range covers 20,000 acres between the south side of the camp's building area to within two miles of the town of Keystone and is surrounded by wire fencing, the gates of which are chained and locked. Further safety precaution is taken by target, or impact, area into which all fire is aimed.

Since it is rarely the case that gunners can see their target, almost all fire is conducted either from the four concrete dugouts or regulated from the seven 50-foot observation towers.

Scientists And Farmers Aid In Present Crisis

By JOHN GROVER
WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (AP)—When they pass out the medals after this emergency, some U. S. farmers and scientists who never heard a gun should get a hatpin.

Scientists are doing the quarantining and farmers are carrying the ball in this food-for-defense program. The goal is the greatest production of farm products in U. S. history in 1942. It will keep America and Britain eating at par next year if it's successful.

The 1942 quota pile a back-breaking job on American farmers. They're asked to produce double normal harvests of some commodities. To make it harder, the metals and chemicals shortages threaten supplies of farm machinery and fertilizers. There's already a shortage of farm labor in some districts.

To top it off, they've got to abandon familiar, overproduced crops to grow unfamiliar temperamental groceries. Farmers who have devoted their lives to raising cotton may change to soybean production. That's like asking a lifelong plumber to do a masonry job of bricklaying tomorrow.

Official Asserts Railroad Credit Needs Confidence

HOLLYWOOD RFACE, Dec. 4 (AP)—A "dangerous lack of confidence" in railroad credit was reported Tuesday to the Investment Bankers Association of America, with the assertion that this condition carried a threat against continued private ownership.

Railroads Will Have Commission Hearing

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 4 (AP)—An Interstate Commerce Commission hearing on reorganizations of the Seaboard Air Line and the Georgia, Florida and Alabama Railways for permission to abandon lines from Tallahassee to Carrabelle and Quincy to Havana will be held here Dec. 10. The railroads contend they are operating them at a loss.

An I. C. C. representative will conduct hearings at Leesburg, Dec. 12 and 13, on applications of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, for permission to abandon its lines from Altoona to Astor and from Valhalla to a point near Bloomfield. The railroad commission also is opposing those applications.

Phillip J. Ward
 Arrested, Phillip J. Ward leaves Sanford police court where he was charged with murder of two persons. Ward is accused of the Armistead shooting in which he ran north through the streets, firing a machine gun from his car. Seven persons were shot, two fatally, before he was captured.

That a general railway strike set for Dec. 7, had been averted, the I. B. A.'s Railroad Securities Committee said today. The committee said the railroad industry is earning more money than in any year since 1930, were operating without real credit.

The committee chairman, John S. Loomis, of the Illinois company of Chicago, asserted before a board of governors that "the continued lack of confidence in the railroad outlook on the part of investors is dangerous."

"The railroads," he added, "cannot continue permanently under private ownership unless they can regain the confidence of private capital."

Signal flags used by ships in the U. S. Navy are the result of the developments of several years ago. Signal flags and their use are restricted to those only distinguishable. At first the national flag of the ship was used. Later the flag of foreign countries were adopted. The use of foreign flags is particularly in emergency of war, as in the case of the American and British Navies during the American Revolution. The signal flags were simple and each had a name. The red flag was used to signal for battle and the blue flag of the navy.

Celery Feds Will End Football Season At St. Augustine Friday

Seven men, every one of them on the first string eleven, will play their last game for Seminole High, when the Feds run into the classy St. Augustine Mulletts in the Ancient City Friday night.

Closing their careers for the Celery boys will be three backs, McKay Truluck, Bill Branan and Mack Cleveland; two ends, Jack Herring and Taylor Brown; and two guards, Glenn Odham and Junior Brown. The loss of these stars dim the possibilities of next year's outfit.

St. Augustine, featuring the double and even triple reverses, rate the favored role over the local eleven. However, the Feds are hoping, and would seem to have a chance to surprise.

The local team practiced through light scrimmages Tuesday and yesterday and are in good physical condition. Bill Branan, star back, has recovered from the bad charleyhorse received against New Smyrna, and which severely limited his playing time against Leesburg.

Leonard (Whitey) McLucas, newly-wed Fed coach, intimated his lads might surprise the Mulletts but admitted the St. Augustine bunch rated the favored position. The team will leave here early Friday afternoon.

High School Teams Will Perform In St. Petersburg Kumquat Bowl

By John Lodwick
ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 4.—(Special)—Old man football will not make his final exit off the sports stage until New Year's Day when bowl games will hold the attention of fans the country over. There will be plenty bowl attractions for outstanding college and university eleven but the only intercollegiate classic booked for the holiday week is scheduled for the Sunshine City "Kumquat Bowl" where two brilliant high school eleven, one composed of all stars, the pick of 52 schools within the greater Cleveland area, will be pitted against the strong and powerful St. Petersburg Green Devils on Christmas afternoon.

Tommy Hudson, St. Petersburg's crack halfback, a good bet for selection upon the Florida State scholastic all star eleven, will play in his final game for the Green Devils. Tommy was St. Petersburg's greatest ground runner through the season. He averaged 97 yards a game from scrimmage.

Four games have been played in the annual north-south intercollegiate holiday classics. Two games were won by the Buckeyes, one by Florida and there was one scoreless tie.

The Christmas Day game is the only football event on Florida's calendar for that holiday. Cleveland's squad of all stars will leave from the Buckeye metropolis, Dec. 17, by chartered motor bus. Enroute, they will go through signal practice, taking plenty of time to cut down through Kentucky, Tennessee and Georgia. In Florida, they will visit as many places of interest as is possible before knocking down to final practice sessions before the big game.

The Australian bird, look-alike, is popularly called "the laughing jackass."
