

Russian Policy

tions now affiliated with the Marshall Plan need to do was to show steadfastness in opposing American slave loan conditions, and Americans would be faced with an economic crisis stemming from lack of demand abroad for their production.

Sounding a note of "no appeasement," Zhdanov declared that as the Munich policy in the past united Hitler's hands for aggression, so concessions to the new course of the United States and the imperialist camp can only make its inspirers more impudent and aggressive.

The Communist Party newspaper Pravda and the newspaper Culture and Life printed Zhdanov's speech to the conference, in which he said "Soviet foreign policy is oriented on the fact of the co-existence of two systems—the capitalist and the socialist—for a period of long duration."

Zhdanov was the Soviet delegate to the conference, which led to the establishment at Belgrade of a nine nation Communist Information Bureau.

(Zhdanov's appraisal of the international situation appeared at the same time in Communist newspapers of other countries represented at the Poland conference. Zhdanov often has been mentioned as a possible successor to Prime Minister Stalin.)

Zhdanov told the Poland conference the United States was trying to get out of wartime agreements in order to dominate other nations. He added:

"This expansionist program of the United States is reminiscent of the extraordinary and infamous defeated program of the Fascist aggressors.

"Like the Hitlerites, the contemporary ruling circles in the United States disguise their expansion program and even their offensive imperialist competitor Britain on the vital interests of the weak, with a so-called anti-Communist program."

This was his blueprint for Europe:

- 1. Cooperation among European nations regardless of their systems of government.
2. Development of trade among European countries on a reciprocal basis through treaties similar to those evolved for eastern Europe.
3. Adoption of a united front against attempts of the United States to impose "slave conditions."
4. The Communist parties should push this program in order to fight "against United States imperialism," but be willing to cooperate with any others who support the program.

Zhdanov told the nine nations that Soviet trade treaties with eastern European states were models of how Europe could reconstruct itself and retain independence from the United States.

He said Britain, too, could have had a trade treaty with Russia had it not been for the labor government which, under external influence, broke up an already marked-out agreement.

He described Russia as the base for "the anti-imperialist camp," adding that the Soviet Union's foreign policy stands for "lasting peace and cannot be interested in a new war." Of the United States he said:

"Before World War II, influential reactionary circles in the United States and American imperialism maintained an isolation policy, avoiding interference in the affairs of Europe and Asia. But in the new post-war period, Wall Street bosses launched a new policy. They put forward a program using all American military aid and economic might in order not only to hold on to but strengthen their foreign positions in the war period and to expand—replacing Germany and Japan with America in the world market. The United States set as its goal world domination by American imperialism."

"American reactionaries are alarmed with the successes of Socialism in the U. S. S. R.; with the successes of the new Democracy and the growth of workers' Democratic movements in all countries of the world after the war. They are taking upon themselves the job of 'rescuing' the capitalist system from Communism."

He said the United States now is "the principal leading force of the imperialist camp."

"Britain and France are in alliance with the United States," he said, and "the existence of the labor government in Britain and the Socialist government of Ramadier (Premier Paul Ramadier) in France do not hinder Britain and France from following the lead of the imperialist policy of the United States in most major issues."

"Such colonial states as Belgium and Holland support the imperialist camp; also such countries with reactionary regimes as Greece and Turkey—dependent upon the U. S. A. politically as well as economically—and the countries of the Near East, South America and China."

"The main objective of the imperialist camp is the building up of imperialism and preparing for a new imperialist war—a struggle with Socialism and Democracy—and the spirit of reaction and anti-Democratic Fascist regimes and movements everywhere."

War Mobilization

today an industrial mobilization plan for war which was shelved by the Roosevelt Administration after Pearl Harbor failed to take into account the extent to which "the entire economy must contribute to modern war."

Forrestal told the Senate War Investigating Committee that this was "an understandable shortcoming, since very few people prior to World War II did fully recognize this fact."

The Secretary was the first witness as the committee opened an inquiry into why the plan for rallying America's industrial might was discarded.

Forrestal's testimony was delayed nearly an hour by an argument between Chairman Brewster (R-Me.) and Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) over the committee's right to consider mobilization issues.

Pepper, who has contended that the hearing is aimed at smearing President Roosevelt, insisted the probe goes beyond the scope of the group's investigating powers.

But Brewster disputed this and said he wanted "to remove any political favor." He said the committee was empowered to investigate "inefficiency, mismanagement and waste" and would keep its study "at the highest level."

Forrestal told the committee a "lack of substantial interest in industrial preparedness for war was widespread and the blame, if there was any, must be regarded as equally widespread and largely attributable to national indifference on the subject of military preparedness."

He said that a series of mobilization plans, particularly a 1939 revision, "attempted to apply the lesson learned in the War Industries Board of World War I, as outlined by Mr. Bernard Baruch."

Forrestal described the plan as "too generalized" in many ways and said it was "deficient" in development of systems and procedures of control.

"Since it was a product of the Army and Navy," he said, it did not "give sufficient emphasis to civilian phases of a total war economy."

Looking to the future, Forrestal declared "it is essential that we recognize the necessity of maintaining adequate armed forces, both as a guaranty of peace and as a guaranty of our security." He added these general conclusions:

- 1. There should be recognition that in "an all out war our planning has to do with the entire economy."
2. Any organization set up "must be competent to make the proper allocation between military requirements and what is needed to keep the civilian economy in operation."
3. There should be, in peacetime, an organization specially designed to plan with industry for particular requirements of the military. This organization exists today in the form of the munitions board.
4. There should be a man selected in advance to head an agency similar to the Office of War Mobilization.

Dying War Veteran Wills Eyes To Bank

MIAMI, Oct. 22—(AP)—The corneas of a dead war veteran's eyes were flown to New York last night (by Eastern Air Lines) to be placed in an eye bank in accordance with the wishes of Lester H. Skipper, 40.

Skipper, ill in the Army's Pratt General Hospital in suburban Coral Gables, willed his eyes to someone who needed them and calmly waited for death, which came yesterday.

"When he died, a Miami eye specialist removed the corneas from both eyes and they were flown to New York by Capt. H. H. Higgins, the airline pilot, to be delivered to the eye bank."

Skipper had served as an airplane mechanic in the Army, his father, James A. Skipper, of Miami, said.

The imperialist camp is ready to lean on reactionary anti-Democratic forces in all countries and support yesterday's military foes against (yesterday's) military allies."

The Soviet Union is the base for the other camp, he said, and joining her are such countries as Romania, Hungary and Finland.

"Indonesia and Viet Nam (the Republic movement in French Indo-China) are joining the anti-imperialist camp," he added.

"India, Egypt and Syria are sympathetic with it."

He said Yugoslavia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Albania, Romania, Hungary, and partially Finland were members of the anti-Fascist front.

Zhdanov said the reception of the Truman Doctrine in Europe made the subsequent Marshall Plan necessary as "a more veiled effort at conducting the same expansionist policy." Zhdanov then laid down the policy of the Soviet Union on the Marshall Plan to aid European reconstruction: "The U. S. S. R. will not out all efforts in seeing that the Marshall Plan is not realized."

The 47 million persons employed in the United States in 1940 are estimated to have worked a smaller number of aggregate hours than the 37 million employed in 1910.

Pilot Club Members Type Envelopes For Christmas Seal Sale

A group of Pilot Club members met at the Vocational School last night to type envelopes for the Christmas Seal Sale which will officially open on Nov. 4. The mailing list was completed and a number of seals were folded also. Realizing the value of the Seminole County Tuberculosis and Health Association and its work in Seminole County, assisting with the Christmas Seal Sale has long been one of the Pilot Club's main projects.

Plans for a bigger and better seal sale and the part the club could play in it were discussed.

Senator Taft

about the Friday announcement, refusing to be stamped into breaking the deadline he has established. Following his address here, which was picketed by CIO union members who massed in front of the Miami Hotel, Taft conceded that anybody who said he would be a candidate was entitled to that observation but declared there would be no premature statement from him.

After marching with Mrs. Taft through a narrow lane of pickets, estimated by police at about 500, Taft grinned and said that he was not perturbed by "our usual reception. We would have mixed it up you know."

From the platform, he told his audience:

"The whole content of the world today is between liberty and Communism. The Communists have made their beliefs into a crusading religion. We could combat Communism abroad by setting forth Democracy as an opposing crusading religion."

He expressed the belief that the best way to combat Communism in America would be with the repeal of laws which he said encouraged Communism.

Taft declared that the quickest way to reduce prices at home would be to reduce credit-financed exports to foreign buyers and curtail national expenditures and taxes.

He referred also to the rent control controversy, stating that the Republican party probably would not take an advance stand on this issue, deferring instead until an actual showdown arose in Congress.

Henry Wallace Says General Could Win

JERUSALEM, Oct. 22 (AP)—

Henry A. Wallace said today that if General Dwight Eisenhower ran on either the Republican or Democratic ticket, he would win hands-down in the 1948 presidential election.

"Eisenhower would be the Republican party's presidential candidate in all probability," he said, adding:

"A ticket of Eisenhower and Harold Stassen would carry all but the southern states overwhelmingly, running against Truman, I believe, they would even carry Missouri."

The former Vice President, on a writing tour of Palestine, spoke to the Jewish Journalists' Association and replied to questions.

"If the United Nations doesn't accept partition and Britain withdraws from Palestine, what would you say if the Jews set up their own government and asked for recognition?" he was asked.

"What else can you do?" Wallace rejoined. He commented "There can be no peace in the world without peace in Palestine. I know you want to live in peace with the Arabs. There are also among the Arabs many who share the same desire."

Labor Quotes Winnie On Lords' Powers

LONDON, Oct. 22 (AP)—Britain's Labor government, pressing its fight to trim the few remaining powers of the House of Lords, recalled today that Conservative leader Winston Churchill had plumped for curbing the authority of the peers as long ago as 1911.

Herbert Morrison, lord president of the routine served notice in the House of Commons that the government intended to make political capital of the former Prime Minister's record.

"It is curious how often the leader of the opposition is useful to the government," he said. "It is extraordinary that whatever issue we are debating in this House, whatever the line the government is taking, it is 1,000 to one that we can find something in the history of the leader of the opposition which justifies the attitude the government is taking."

Railroad Unions

take a bigger part in national politics next year than ever before. Lyon left no doubt that railroad unions—as a group—have the same intention. The CIO has its Political Action Committee (PAC). The AFL has decided to set up an organization to be known as—Labor's Educational and Political League (LEPL).

Some rail leaders have been talking about setting up an organization of their own. Others want to cooperate closely with the AFL.

Among the 20 unions represented in the Railway Labor Executives' Association, 16 are AFL affiliates. They include the switchmen, signalmen, boiler-makers, electricians, blacksmiths, telegraphers, and yardmasters. Four of the 20 are independent. They are the locomotive firemen, railway conductors, train dispatchers, and machinists.

One is a CIO union, the marine engineers, some of whose members work on ferries and lighters owned by railroads.

Two big independent Brotherhoods, the trainmen and the engineers, are not affiliated with the association. They engage in vigorous political activities of their own.

Up to now, rail unions haven't had a separate organization like the CIO-PAC, to coordinate their political activities. But, while they haven't made much noise about it, they have been active in elections for many years.

Alcohol Is Said Not Cause Of Alcoholism

CHICAGO, Oct. 22—(AP)—Alcohol is not the cause of alcoholism, says Selden Bacon, professor of sociology at Yale University. He told a lecture audience at Roosevelt College last night:

"If alcohol were the basic reason for making alcoholics, this country would have 55,000,000 alcoholics."

"It's as wrong to say that as it is to say that there are automobile accidents because there are automobiles or divorces because there are marriages."

He added: "Alcohol is not a cause, but simply a necessary condition to becoming an alcoholic." He said one of the universal symptoms of alcoholism is an antisocial tendency. Professor Bacon is chairman of the Connecticut Committee on Alcoholism.

U.S. Agent Assails Soviet Attempt To Curb 'Warmongers'

Austin Says Russian Resolution Would Shackles Brain And Put Gag In Mouth

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 23 (AP)—The United States today assailed Russia's attempt to curb alleged "warmongers" in this country as a move for "applying shackles to the minds of the American people. U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin declared that the Soviet resolution "would put shackles on the brain of man as well as a gag in his mouth."

Austin spoke before the 57-member political committee of the United Nations Assembly after Brig. General Carlos P. Romulo of the Philippines had called the Soviet anti-"warmonger" measure a "hydra-headed monster" inspired "by an angry and spiteful motive."

Austin replied to yesterday's attack by Andrei Y. Vuhinsky, Soviet Chief Delegate, against the resolution.

Germans Are Said Not Suffering Too Great Hardships

In spite of shortages of food and clothing the people of Germany are not suffering extreme hardships, according to Mrs. William O'Neill, former Sanford resident and wife of Lieut. William O'Neill, Co. K, 15th Infantry, U. S. Army, now stationed in Bad Nauheim, Germany, in a letter to Mrs. Lourine Beal, The People keep pretty busy, Mrs. O'Neill says, cleaning things up and repairing the bombed out areas.

Mrs. O'Neill recently went to Germany and joined her husband at Bad Nauheim after leaving at Bremerhaven. She described the trip over there as "wonderful experiences."

"The country is very beautiful," she stated. The people from Pennsylvania said it looked more like their state. The towns of course are pretty badly bombed out. Hannover, Kassel and Frankfurt are flat. In Frankfurt I didn't see much progress, but in other places the people keep busy repairing and cleaning things up.

All the houses over here are made of stone with a wooden base. When the Germans build a house they put a tree on the very top and it stays there until the house is finished. That is a superstition of theirs. They believe

Rep. Knutson Favors New Tax Cut Bill

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 (AP)—Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.) said today there isn't enough money in the federal till "to finance both the Marshall Plan and a $4,000,000,000 tax cut."

But the chairman of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee told a reporter he believes Congress will limit its aid-to-Europe contribution under the Marshall program next year to $1,000,000,000.

"It certainly should not exceed that amount," Knutson said, reiterating his determination to introduce a third tax cutting bill as soon as Congress reconvenes, whether in special or regular session.

The bill, he said, will be similar to the two President Truman signed earlier this year. Those measures would have trimmed levies by 30 per cent in low income brackets to 10.5 per cent in the top brackets. Each would have reduced taxes by a total of about $4,000,000,000 a year.

FDR Said To Know In 1938 War Coming

War Secretary Says He And Roosevelt Both Knew That We Couldn't Stay Out

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 (AP)—Louis C. Johnson, former assistant Secretary of War, said today that he and President Roosevelt knew as early as 1938 "that war was coming and we could not stay out of it."

Johnson, who served as Assistant Secretary from 1937 until 1940, testified before the Senate War Investigating Committee which is trying to learn why a detailed industrial mobilization plan was discarded after Pearl Harbor.

At first Johnson asked that his account of pre-war moves in connection with the late President be "off record," but Chairman Brewster (R-Me.) said the testimony should be open to the public.

Johnson said that his efforts to prepare this country for war were blocked by two former cabinet members—former Secretary of Labor Perkins and former Secretary of War Woodring—and General Brehon Somervell, wartime chief of the Army's Supply Service.

Johnson said that a detailed industrial mobilization plan "was ditched by brass hats because it did not suit the program of General Somervell."

He also said that Secretary of Defense Forrester had made "incorrect" and "inexact" statements.

Jaycees Announce Open Forum For City Candidates

The Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce will hold an evening dinner meeting next Thursday for the purpose of conducting an open forum for candidates for the City Commission. It was announced today at the noon luncheon of the trade organization.

The meeting next Thursday night will be held at the Mayfair Inn dining room and each candidate will have 15 minutes in which to express his views. The program will be broadcast over Station WTRR.

Miss Helen Welch spoke on behalf of the Civic Music membership drive and stated that there would be a concerted effort directed toward getting new members during a five day period next week. Miss Welch expressed confidence that the drive would be successful and that Sanford would have a better concert series for the coming season than the one presently in type.

The Art Harris type presented musical selections at the luncheon.

Gordon Bradley, secretary of the organization, gave a report on the board of directors' meeting last Tuesday night.

Truce Is Called In 9 Week Strike

GALION, O., Oct. 23 (AP)—A nine-week strike, climaxed by a 24 hour seizure of the block long plant of the North Electric Co., came to a strained truce early today and 350 supperless men and women went home.

The struggle over union recognition and 20 per cent wage increase demands, with a possible test of the Taft-Hartley Law involved, is to resume Monday in a meeting of officials of the Telephone Equipment Company and the United Automobile Workers (CIO).

But even while an automobile and motorcycle led the procession of cars out of the plant grounds to take the non-striking workers to their homes, under a union promise of safe conduct, company officials announced that they had agreed to nothing more than a "meeting."

WATER RISES
Sub-chaser 879 which docked at the Municipal Pier this week for Naval Reserve training use, appears much taller than when it was here before to many residents due to the high water of Lake Monroe.

The water rose a bit following showers on Tuesday and Wednesday, and flooding of East Seminole Boulevard continues. The yacht basin east of the pier is again jammed with water hyacinths, and some over the sea wall and on the grass strip.

Plastic Surgeons Tell How To Grow Ears On Earless Persons

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23 (AP)—An ingenious method of growing ears on earless persons, one of the most difficult feats in plastic surgery, was reported today by two specialists in plastic surgery, Dr. Lyndon A. Peier of Newark, N. J., and Dr. Gustave Auflicht of New York City.

The structural part of the ear is made out of rib cartilage chopped into small pieces like hamburger. It is packed into a plastic mould to give it the contours of a human ear and the whole thing, somewhat larger than a cigarette lighter, is planted in the abdomen, under the skin.

The plastic mould is full of little holes through which "transplanted" cartilage cells from the abdomen can find their way to the cartilage mass. These young cells knit the cartilage pieces into a unit which serves as a foundation for the new ear.

The cartilage unit is removed from the abdomen and from the mould as soon as it is well knit together and planted in place on the side of the head.

In this planting operation the skin over the mastoid bone just back of the ear is lifted and folded forward to a point just in front of the ear canal. The cartilage is placed under it and pushed back over it and sutured down. This completely covers the

FIRE-FIGHTERS WORK TO CHECK FLAMES AT NORTH WATERBORO

NORTH READING, Mass., Oct. 23 (AP)—A fast-spreading forest fire today menaced a state tuberculosis sanitarium here and authorities informed state police they were planning to evacuate the patients.

PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 23 (AP)—Flames swept the million dollar Maine state pier here today, causing damage estimated at more than a million dollars before fire Chief Oliver Sanborn reported the blaze under control.

One fireman was injured when he was knocked from a platform by water being poured onto the flames from a fireboat. Only one boat was tied at the pier—the Coast Guard cutter Achuelnet.

Mayfair Inn Sold To Theo. R. Moss; Weber To Remain

Theodore R. Moss, Chicago realtor, has purchased the Mayfair Inn from the Lauderdale Biltmore Corporation. It was announced today by Lind Weber, who will continue in his capacity as manager of the hotel.

Mr. Moss, who first came here on June 18 to look over the hotel with the idea of purchasing it for a client, was so impressed with its beauty and possibilities, he said this afternoon, that he decided to purchase it himself and bring his wife and five daughters down here to live.

In Chicago, he was original chairman of the board of directors of the Southmore Bank, and resigned to re-enter real estate work. Mr. Moss after visiting here returned to Chicago and in August motored back here with his wife and five daughters.

He stated that his brother in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Levan, of Charleston, S. C., the former a retired Naval officer of 40 years experience, will assist him at the hotel.

"I want to work for the welfare of the community," he declared, "and take an interest in civic matters as well as the hotel."

He predicted the hotel will be operated at capacity. He said that he was much impressed with the residential and business possibilities of Sanford.

Freighter Train

A gray jeep, traveling at high speed, yesterday raced a train to the crossing at Sanford Avenue and Eighteenth Street, a nearby resident reported today to the Police Department. The car, driven by a youth and containing a load of girls who were screaming at the top of their voices, barely missed hitting the train, the resident stated. The incident was reported at 12:33 P. M. Where the jeep again emerged from Glenway drive, skid marks of 90 feet were noted by police.

Sewage, Industrial Waste Disposal Urged

TAMPA, Oct. 23 (AP)—Industrial waste disposal is "cooperative responsibility of industry and local government," Morris M. Cohn, sanitary engineer of Schenectady, N. Y., told members of the Florida Public Health Association at its 19th annual convention today.

"The problem of eliminating present causes of pollution of water sources and preventing future degradation is one of 'good ethics and good business,'" he said.

The municipality has as much responsibility to dispose adequately of its sewage as to dispose of its garbage, and this responsibility is as great as that of industry to care for the residue of its processing, Cohn said.

Clean streams are invaluable both to industry and the public, he said. "Industry, which depends on clean water for wet processing, cannot successfully exist if pollution holds it away," he explained, and for reasons of health, pleasure and community attractiveness the municipality needs clear water courses.

Chilean Government Decrees Martial Law

SANTIAGO, Chile Oct. 23 (AP)—Military law—already in operation over Chile's strike-bound coal fields—was extended by government decree today to include portions of four nitrate and copper producing provinces in what was described as a move to block a "Communist strike plan."

The decree, which enables the government to take action under extraordinary powers voted by Congress in August, was announced last night—24 hours after Chile broke diplomatic relations with Russia and Czechoslovakia.

Under the edict, sections of Tarapaca, Antofagasta and Atacama in northern Chile and O'Higgins in central Chile were classified as emergency zones.

Police continued a wholesale roundup of Communist leaders throughout Chile, with the announcement that 200 already have been seized and that warrants have been issued for 300 more charged with instigating a "rebellion among Chilean coal miners."

Freighter Burns

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—Coast Guard headquarters said today that the 483-ton freighter Koert was "abandoned by all hands" at 8:15 A. M. after the vessel caught afire about 15 miles off Port Au Prince, Haiti.

Montgomery Testifies There Aren't Many But They Create Much Disturbance

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 (AP)—Three Hollywood stars told Congress members today that Communists are active in the film capital, but accomplish little except to create disturbances.

Actor Robert Montgomery called the Communists "a small minority" who have never succeeded in dominating the actors. But they create disturbances far greater than their numbers, he said.

Actor George Murphy had much the same story for the House Committee on Un-American Activities, now in its fourth day of hearings on Communism in Hollywood. He estimated "less than one percent" of the "Screen Actors Guild are Communists, but they cause constant irritation."

Ronald Reagan agreed. He said the Communists have tried to "muscle in" on the movie industry and disrupt it but have not succeeded.

Selling Activity At State Market Is In Full Swing

Selling activity is now in full swing at the Sanford State Farmers Market with snap beans and citrus fruits as the leading items for sale.

Produce men are a bit puzzled concerning the drop in bean prices this week, as it is believed that plantings of 8,000 to 7,000 acres of south Florida beans have been severely damaged, if not destroyed, according to estimates of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

In addition, they report that heavy rains have damaged the crop of this vegetable in North and South Carolina.

Beans which earlier in the week sold for more than $1.00 are now selling at 60¢ to 65¢ a bushel. Market growers in the Sanford area report an unusually fine crop. Rain during the past two days has hindered picking. This morning there were more than 200 pickers busy on the Thurston farms where 25 acres of beans have been planted.

A few customers from the Wauchoke section are selling at $1.50 to $1.60 a bushel. The oranges at the packing house are as green as beans when they enter, but after waxing and coloring have a fine, natural appearance. Eating quality and sugar content seems to be good. Demand is rather poor.

Girl Beaten

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23 (AP)—A pretty 17-year-old high school girl was run down by a motorist, beaten with a tire iron and driven along lonely back roads for several hours, before she was released, state police reported early today.

State Policeman Maurice Wilber said dark-haired Alice Sanchez, a student at West Chester, Pa., high school, was managed to stagger to her home at nearby Milltown where her parents rushed her to Chester County Hospital.

Increase In British Exports Is Expected From Trade Agreement

GENEVA Oct. 23 (AP)—Immediate effect of the Anglo-American agreement to reduce tariffs should be to increase the movement of goods from the United Kingdom to the United States, in the opinion of British and American trade negotiators here.

"When the British tariffs are put into effect (tentatively set for Jan. 1, 1948), there probably will be no effect on the volume

Reporter Reveals American Prestige Is High In Europe

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Dan De Luce, back from a long look behind Winston Churchill's iron curtain, finds American prestige still is high in European countries within the Soviet sphere.

"Two years aren't enough for a man to learn to shut his mind completely," said De Luce, veteran Associated Press foreign correspondent.

"In any sort of open competition for the friendship of these people, the odds would be five-to-one in our favor—except in Yugoslavia."

De Luce returned this week from a four-month tour through Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Yugoslavia and Greece—countries that have been part of his news beat since 1939. He talked to hundreds of people in all classes of life, and reached this conclusion:

"We hold the top cards, and if we play them properly there is no reason for alarm or despondency. We still represent in the minds of most people throughout the world the place where human freedom has the best chance to endure."

"The American citizen acts, thinks and moves about more freely than the citizen of any other country wherever he goes."

Just as the American civilian soldier was our best ambassador during the war, De Luce believes now that our best diplomat in these countries is the peacetime American visitor. Therefore he thinks it important that they be kept open to American travel.

"That gives the people of those lands a chance to see that we aren't wall street devils who ride over starving children in our limousines—as their controlled press would have them believe," he said.

Wherever he traveled he found

Among the people a great interest in American affairs and an admiration for her production techniques. One Russian engineer said: "We'd like to come over and study how you do it."

De Luce said the Soviet campaign to convince the satellite people within her sphere that the United States was a power-hungry nation of warmongers was counterbalanced by their realization it was Russia herself who had endangered her borders at the expense of European neighbors.

"We have more blood ties with these countries than the Soviet Union," he pointed out. "There are more Yugoslavs in San Pedro, Calif., than there are in Moscow."

De Luce's views are those of a biased, impartial observer, skillful in political reporting.

Athos, Greece Is Not Disturbed By World's Alarms

By DANIEL DE LUCE
ATHOS, Greece (AP)—All the squalls, tremors and alarms fail to disturb ancient Athos, a land where men wear skirts and women are forbidden to exist.

On a narrow, mountainous peninsula, jutting 30 miles into the Aegean Sea, which Parnassus Xerxes once tried to cut through with a canal for his war fleet, 3,000 bearded monks of four nations live serenely in 20 fortress-monasteries.

For 16 centuries, Athos has been a center of Christian devotion. Conquests by Arabs, Turks and Germans did not silence its prayers.

It is basic law that all of female sex are barred from Athos' soil. And a deep peace rests over the forested mountains that rise sharply from the sea.

Rare in Greece today, there is no conflict here between Royalist troops and Communist rebels. Certainly the happiest man in the Greek army is young Sergeant, Theophanis Halemis, who has been on Athos two and a half years, never fired a shot in anger, and says he doesn't care when, if ever, he gets his first furlough.

In Vatopedion, most accessible of the monasteries, 70 black-robed brothers welcome the alien pilgrim, regardless of his creed.

Frank Noel in a caique, unannounced from Thrace, and the great iron gate was already open when we had climbed up the rocks from the beach.

The elders received us in a blue-and-white chamber, offered Turkish coffee, smilingly tried our American cigarettes, and invited us to stay as long as we liked.

Later we dined on tomato and salt-fish salad, beans and octopus stew, fried eggplant and spring water. It was not a day for the monks to hunt, but there would be fresh meat, they said, on the morrow.

Recalling the German occupation, they said it had not been hard. Many German professors, scientists and students had visited Athos during the war years.

A small Wehrmacht outpost confiscated all the monks' radios and never returned them. But the Germans shamefacedly brought back to Vatopedion the monastery's electric-power generator which they had intended to ship to the Reich.

The generator, however, doesn't operate now because of a shortage of fuel and Vatopedion is lighted at night with medieval oil lamps.

The un plundered monastery library is a bibliophile's dream. Among 1,600 ancient books, hand-illuminated on parchment, is an 11th century geography by Ptolemy of Claudius. Eleven hundred books are from the first years after the invention of the printing press. Any would fetch a lavish price in the world market but they are not for sale.

Elsewhere on Athos are Serbian, Russian and Bulgarian monks, all at Vatopedion, as well.

Their spiritual head is the Orthodox Patriarch Ikonenkos, at Istanbul.

At the height of its influence, long before Columbus discovered America, Vatopedion had 9,000 religious inhabitants. Behind its high walls, there still is a profusion of chapels and dormitories in the architecture of Byzantium, medieval France and renaissance Italy. But 70 monks now hardly stir an echo in the peaceful corridors.

At least for the first hour on Athos, a visitor tends to keep remarking to himself on the strangeness of a land where no women are seen or children's voices heard.

Plastic Ears

new cartilage, leaving no opening; only a large bump where the ear is to be.

As the cartilage grows fast to the flesh next to the skull, the outer skin flap attaches itself to the cartilage, following the contours of the new ear and forming what is to be the skin lining of the inside of the new ear.

To bring the ear out a little from the side of the head, the skin just back of the new member is cut and an incision is made between the cartilage and the skull. This enables the surgeon to bend the ear outward. The flesh exposed by this last operation is covered with skin taken from elsewhere on the body.

Dr. Peer and Dr. Aufrecht reported their work to the American Society of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery. The first such operation was performed by Dr. Peer about five years ago. Some of the ears constructed since then were shown by the specialists.

Surgical construction of ears is difficult because there is no place on the body from which a single piece of cartilage large enough to form the hearing member can be taken. The pieces used by Dr. Peer and Dr. Aufrecht come from the ends of ribs near the breast bone.

The specialists said that while the operation produces a permanent ear, it cannot compare in appearance with artificial ears made from plastic.

There are relatively few cases of totally useless persons among war casualties. Most of the cases coming to surgeons, they said, are children born without ears.

6 1/2 Inches Of Rain

charge of the U. S. corps of engineers sub-station at Clewiston, said the heavy rainfall extended over a "very limited" area in and around Clewiston, and constituted in itself no new flood threat.

On the east shore of Lake Okechobee, however, where the floods of the last two months have caused the greatest loss, conditions were reported a little worse today after an inch and a half of rain fell in the Canal Point.

Additional rainfall was reported in the Pahokee area.

In some sections of Martin county and this water, moving down its natural drainage course, is expected to create new hazards at Canal Point, many of whose residents were forced to evacuate their homes early last Sunday when a community dike failed.

The Palm Beach Canal at the intersection of Route 15 and Conners Highway at Canal Point was still rising after overflowing the canal banks, and water was lapping at a sandbag dike protecting the intersection.

Residents of the Canal Point, Pahokee area said flood conditions were generally a little worse because of new rains, and Bradford after a tour which took him from Clewiston around the south and east sides of the lake, including the Conners Highway that the tree will keep the house from ever catching on fire. The homes are not pretty at all on the outside, but the inside is something again.

Their plumbing is very good and they are modern people. I have two stoves, gas and electric. Everyone does because of the shortage of coal or the other at different times.

The people themselves seem to be doing O. K. as far as I can see. Their clothes are few and most men wear short pants or whatever they can get. Their shoes have wooden soles and they get one pair a year. The German children go to their own schools. They have books for them now to learn, and anything that would remind a person of Hitler is removed.

She then related of how she saw ex-world champion Max Schmeling fight in Frankfurt, and that about 50,000 attended, mostly Germans.

The area of the Great Lakes roughly equals that of New York and Pennsylvania combined.

area, said they were "certainly no better."

The downpour at Clewiston yesterday caused schools there to observe a single long session. School authorities, however, reported classes were underway as usual today.

Crooms Academy To Play Bartow-Gridders

The Crooms Academy High School Panthers will play their first home game of the year tomorrow afternoon with the Union Academy team from Bartow at 4:00 o'clock. The contest will be played on the Crooms Athletic Field on the school campus.

The Panthers have won contests from the Lake County Training school and New Smyrna thus far this year and have three more contests left to play on the home field.

J. N. Crooms, principal of Crooms Academy, has made an appeal for a large attendance to see the game so that the school can use the proceeds to secure a permanent place to play the Crooms Academy football games.

Pier Destroyed

which joined with three other Coast Guard boats in fighting the blaze after being moved to safe place.

A cargo of expensive book paper valued at $300,000 was believed destroyed along with several cars of paper towels and at least one carload of sardines. Damage to the pier itself was estimated unofficially at $250,000.

Strong winds fanned huge fires at Waterboro and on Mount Desert Island out of control again today and hundreds of weary firefighters sought to check the flames at the edge of north Waterboro village.

Most of New England's other drought-induced forest fires which have caused two deaths and more than $2,500,000 in property damage were under control, however, as thousands of firemen and volunteers continued their efforts to check the blazes completely.

No end of the prolonged drought was seen but the U. S. Weather Bureau said scattered showers possible tomorrow in Maine, where approximately 400 homes, barns, and farm buildings and more than 30,000 acres of woods, fields have been blackened with an estimated loss of $3,000,000.

In Schenectady, N. Y., Rain-maker Vincent J. Schaefer said today "all we can do is pray" for rains sufficiently heavy to relieve the forest fire in New York and New England.

The General Electric scientist who has experimented in producing man-made rain by dropping dry-ice pellets through the clouds, said high, supercooled cumulus clouds were needed for the dry-ice treatment.

"Look at the skies and the weather and you won't find a suitable rain cloud east of the Rockies," Schaefer said. "All we can do is to pray for it. We need about two days of steady downpour."

Schaefer said forest fires would require rain over a large area and "so far we can make rain only locally."

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

YOU ARE MAKING DECISIONS FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS AS WELL AS FOR YOURSELF. IF YOU WANT YOUR CHILDREN TO SERVE THE LORD BETTER SET A GOOD EXAMPLE. As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord. —Josh. 24:15.

Capt.
(From The Poets' Log Book)
She would never net the trout
Asleep in their golden stream.
She freed the little red fox,
To hush his child-like scream.
All the caged, yellow birds
Laughed till they shook the stars.
Because her small white hands
Dropped their prison bars.
But why does she braid a green cord
For a small, white, silken goat.
And hang it, always full,
Around his tender young throat?
—ELEANOR SANDS SMITH.

Everybody is against the United States, says Andrei Zhdanov, who some well informed persons believe will be Stalin's successor, but it is Soviet Russia which has to resort to the veto in the Security Council to block the will of the majority. And when the vote was taken in the General Assembly on the Greek question, the final count was 40 to 6, not for Russia, but for the United States.

If you do not agree with us that people are inclined to overeat especially the American people read that news dispatch from Lansing, Kas. There a young man, serving a five year term in prison complained of a stomach ache. An operation was decided upon and in the due course of time, two safety razors, five metal washers, 401 nails, a three-inch screw and other odds and ends too numerous to mention, but amounting to some three and one-half pounds in weight, were removed. Well, are we right?

We shed copious tears over the plight of syphilitics and spend millions of dollars of public funds to cure them of the results of their wrong-doing, but heart disease is the No. 1 killer of all Americans and virtually nothing is being done about that, according to Dr. John R. Steelman. We know little or nothing about how to cure heart disease, though we have learned to get along with it, how to prolong life by using a crutch, as it were. Some day it may be cured, or completely as VD is cured now, simply by taking a shot.

Did you know that with every one complaining about the high cost of living and even with the government apparently trying to do something about it, the Department of Agriculture has on hand some 200,000,000 dozen eggs purchased last spring for the express purpose of keeping up the price of eggs. The government will not sell these eggs to consumers now for fear the price of eggs will go down. Other price support policies are no less ridiculous in the light of present conditions. And yet nothing is being done about abandoning them.

Admiral Halsey's new book on the Pacific war has something to say about Admiral Kimmel of Pearl Harbor fame, among many other interesting observations. "I know of no officer," says Halsey, "who could have done more than Kimmel did. . . The attack succeeded because Kimmel and Short could not give Pearl Harbor adequate protection. They could not because they did not have it to give. They did not have it because Congress would not authorize it. Congress is elected by the American people. And the blame for Pearl Harbor rests squarely on the American people and nowhere else." These words are worth remembering as Communist agitators and their unthinking partisans try to make us unprepared again.

Taft And Reuther

"For President, Robert A. Taft. For Vice President, alter P. Reuther." This ticket, according to Drew Pearson, columnist and radio commentator, is a possibility for 1948. The news comes as a surprise to Reuther, and probably to Taft also. Reuther, the head of the CIO automobile workers' union, says that he is putting in all his time in trying to beat the Taft-Hartley labor law and defeat its supporters. The last thing he would do is to help Taft become presi-

The proposed ticket sounds somewhat fantastic, yet nominations nearly as startling have been made. A classic example occurred in 1924, when the Democrats nominated President John W. Davis, an attorney for J. P. Morgan & Company. To run with him they chose Gov. Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska, brother and political manager of William Jennings Bryan, whose political life had been a fight with the Morgan interests.

The idea obviously was to head off what would otherwise have been William J. Bryan's certain opposition to a ticket led by a Morgan lawyer. In this device succeeded. William J. Bryan supported the party. That Davis was beaten was due more to the party quarrels that preceded his nomination than to his incongruous running mate. The precedent is not necessarily discouraging.

What about Stassen and Reuther? That might be something. But could the Conservatives swallow it?

When It's Smart To Be Lazy

A man I once knew was asked to describe a perfect life. With a twinkle in his eye he replied, "A woman too lazy to quarrel, too selfish to carry a grudge, and too egotistical to be jealous."

I was a very young wife when I heard him say that, and the wisdom of it stayed with me to such an extent that I have not only tried to practice it, but I've advised it hundreds of times in my work as newspaper columnist and pundit.

We're all lazy about something or other. Why not be so lazy to quarrel? Or to fight? Or to squabble? Why not let some of our laziness pay good dividends?

We're all a little selfish. Why not be selfish enough to know that carrying a grudge hurts you more than it does anyone else? You carry the grudge in your heart, and your heart grows heavy with it. You carry it in your face, and our face droops with the weight of it. You carry it on your tongue, and your tongue becomes sharp with the bitterness of it.

Be too egotistical to be jealous. Egotism, of a kind, is something every woman should cultivate. I taught that, deliberately, to my daughter and to hundreds of other women, young and old. It is basic.

The woman who is sure of herself has no fears that she will lose her man. She depends on her charm, her intelligence, and her inner resources to hold him as long as she wants to hold him. His concern then is not whether she will be jealous, but of holding her interest. When husband and wife both have this self-confident attitude, then both have their hands happily full.

So when some siren casts an eye at papa, let her cast Papa belongs to you, you lazy, selfish, egotistical woman, and for the nicest, and the strongest of all reasons. He wants to! — Chester Holt Fulmer in Your Life.

Problem Of Outlawing Communists Presents Many Unique Difficulties

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 (AP)—The Constitution guarantees the right of free speech.

Washington, Oct. 23 (AP)—The Constitution guarantees the right of free speech. The witness said that's how to get rid of Communism in this country.

All around the big hearing room people—but not all people nod their heads yes, yes. For two days it's been like that in the un-American Activities Committee hearing on whether there's Communist influence in Hollywood.

One witness after another has climbed up on the stand, talked about Communism, and then said: "Outlaw the party." It's easier to talk of outlawing the party than it is to do it. Outlaw it how?

Looking for a definite answer to that question, this writer called a number of lawyers here and in New York, lawyers inside and outside the government. They are men who are specialists in civil rights and liberties.

Bunched together, their answer was "that's a $64 question." They didn't agree on how it could be done. They all pointed out that the Supreme Court might throw out a law banning the party.

The answers of these lawyers, some of whom admitted they are puzzled about the whole business of outlawing the Communist Party, are given here.

1. Congress might try to pass a law not only banning the party but making membership in it a crime.

2. The individual states might try to crush the party by outlawing it and making membership in it a crime.

3. The states might claim they had a constitutional right to decide what political parties can operate in their territory.

4. Or the states might try to do this way: by forbidding the Communist Party to appear on election ballots unless it had previously won, say, 50,000 votes in a past election.

(The Communist Party has never won 50,000 votes in any state. Total membership in the party is probably not more than 100,000. Although many more people than that, in sympathy with Communists, might vote for their candidates.)

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Soviet Russia has touched a new high in her aggression against democracy by boldly biasing to the world a scheme whereby the Communists argue that an economic crisis can be precipitated in the United States—an interesting corollary to the persistent predictions in the Red capital that America is headed for a great depression.

The general idea is that if all European nations now affiliated with the Marshall Plan will gang up with the Soviet bloc, and be steadfast in "opposing American slave loan conditions," Americans will be faced with an economic crisis stemming from lack of foreign demand for their production. Then, so this extraordinary proposal goes, anti-capitalist Russia can cooperate with capitalistic European countries indefinitely on the basis of "reciprocity and mutual fulfillment of obligations."

This fresh method of attack on the U. S. A. was detailed in a speech by Andrei Zhdanov—one of Bolshevism's top figures—at the recent conference in Poland among representatives of Russia and her satellite countries of eastern Europe. The conference, with Zhdanov manipulating the strings of the marionette states—set up the so-called nine-nation Communist Information Bureau which is functioning in Belgrade, Yugoslavia. That's what they call the committee, but observers generally hold that it has taken over many of the functions of the supposedly abolished Comintern, which long was the general staff for the conduct of Communist world revolution.

The conference in Poland was held some weeks ago, but it was only yesterday that Moscow released Zhdanov's speech to the press. It's a highly interesting circumstance that this release comes on top of General Charles De Gaulle's sensational political comeback in the French country-wide municipal elections. De Gaulle, fiercely anti-Communist, achieved his victory by calling on the public to follow him in a crusade to defeat Communism and rehabilitate the economically harassed nation. It strikes me that this threat from De Gaulle likely is what impelled Moscow to make public the Zhdanov effort to consolidate as much of Europe as possible against the "imperialistic camp" of which he declared the United States is "the principal leading force."

Well now, what Zhdanov labels as an "imperialistic camp" includes the Democracies of Europe plus the entire Western Hemisphere. And while his plot for a concerted effort to create an economic crisis in the United States is now, it's no news either to the United States or the other Democracies that Moscow has been doing its utmost to create chaos within their borders by the employment of Russian agents and with the assistance of fifth columnists and fellow travelers.

The United States authorities are moving energetically to eliminate the Red menace in America. And other countries of this hemisphere are house-cleaning. Canada has smashed a big hole in the Russian spy ring whose ramifications extended throughout the Dominion and the United States. On top of this come sensational moves by Brazil and Chile. The Brazilian government has severed diplomatic relations with Moscow on the ground that there has been "outrageous and even calumnious" Russian press criticism of Brazil's President Eurico Gaspar Dutra and her army. That is the ostensible cause of the break, but many observers believe that Red activities in Brazil itself provided another reason. At the same time Chile severed diplomatic and consular relations not only with Russia but with Czechoslovakia because of "instigations of international Communists," and began a roundup of Communist leaders.

So the Soviet scheme for creation of economic chaos finds strong resistance moving in both the Western Hemisphere and among democracies like France and Britain.

The amount of water required by the different plants to produce a pound of dry matter varies from 270 pounds to 876 pounds.

Mail Xmas Overseas Parcels By Nov. 15

Nov. 15 is the deadline for mailing Christmas parcels to members of the armed forces overseas, according to the Post Office department.

The permissible size is up to 100 inches in length and girth combined, and the weight limit is 70 pounds. No request is required for Christmas parcels. All articles for overseas shipment should be packed in metal, wood, solid or strong double faced corrugated fiberboard boxes testing at least 200 pounds to survive the handling and storage they must undergo. Valuable articles should be registered or insured and perishable matter will not be accepted.

Prohibited articles include: intoxicants, inflammable materials, and poisons. Cigarettes and tobacco products are prohibited to APO's in Germany, France and Austria, and also Navy Numbers 913 and 903 in Germany. It is preferable that addresses be hand-printed on the wrapper rather than using gummed labels pasted onto the wrapper. Addresses should be legible in typewriting or ink, and should be complete showing rank, serial number, APO number and branch of service, etc.

States is now, it's no news either to the United States or the other Democracies that Moscow has been doing its utmost to create chaos within their borders by the employment of Russian agents and with the assistance of fifth columnists and fellow travelers.

No garden green to till,
And so he works the hot-house plan
Upon his window sill.

A safety hint: The ground has parasites as well as dirt. Gardeners should wear gloves. One pair of the washable sheepskin gloves will out last four or five pairs of cotton gloves, which are usually too large for the women. Size eight is about right so as not to be so snug that the hands are hindered.

Princess Calls Upon Women To Be Women

DURHAM, England, Oct. 23.—Princess Elizabeth, soon to be married, championed femininity and homemaking today.

"We must not forget that before all else we are women," she said in a short speech prepared for delivery after she set the foundation stone for a new $600,000 women's college building at the University of Durham.

Women "can prove that there need be no conflict between the party they want to play in the world and their traditional duties in the home," declared the Princess, who on Nov. 20 will wed Lieut. Philip Mountbatten.

The Lieutenant, the British Press Association reported, twisted a knee and was shaken up in an automobile accident near Cirencester Tuesday night. The report said he was driving from London to his base, Corsham Naval Station, when his car skidded on a curve and hit a hedge.

His injury did not interfere with his navy duties, the agency said. In her talk, the Princess said, "Women have moved far in this century. They have asserted many rights and they have established many claims. But if we are to maintain his high tradition we must not forget that before all else we are women."

"If we have established our rights, we have in so doing multiplied our duties."

Grocer Is Held In Wife Slaying

FORT LAUDERDALE, Oct. 23 (AP)—J. H. Williams, 37, operator of a grocery and service station at Hammondville, is held in jail without charge pending a complete investigation of the death of his wife, Delmarie, 25, Monday night, Deputy Sheriff Virgil Wright said today.

Wright said that Williams stated he was awakened by someone trying to remove a screen outside their window and that he fired a 22 rifle.

He said he discovered that his wife was outside without his knowledge and apparently was trying to remove the screen when he shot her. The bullet struck the woman in the heart and she apparently was killed instantly, Wright said.

"Take Pen in Hand"

This column has been running for so long that its readers, in towns like ours, will over the country, are beginning to "take pen in hand" and write us what they think.

Some of them take me over the coals for what I say—like the column I ran on planting alfalfa. Others write, "I liked your column yesterday, but..." All of them have different points of view.

From where I sit, that's the way it should be. Everybody's entitled to an opinion—and it's those very differences, and friendly criticism,

Marshall Declares Time Has Come In U. S. For Action

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—Declaring that America cannot stand indifferent to the fate of war-ravaged countries "who are looking to us for assistance," Secretary of State George C. Marshall said last night that the time for action on European aid was now at hand.

He made his statement at the closing session of the 16th annual Herald Tribune Forum in which President Truman sent a message reaffirming America's aspirations for a peaceful and stable world.

The President's letter to Mr. Ogden Reid, president of the New York Herald Tribune, Inc., said that on the decisions of the coming weeks "will depend in large measure the future pattern of our relations with Europe and indeed with the world at large."

"But we must be very careful to see that the steps we take will really serve the end we have in view," the President added. "We must face the fact that we alone cannot rehabilitate Europe and that our efforts will be useful only if they are intended to supplement a sincere and effective effort of the Europeans to help themselves."

"We must be sure, moreover, that what we are undertaking to do is within the limits of our own strength and does not run counter to the health of our economic life."

Marshall told the forum that he did not consider it a matter for argument any longer that Europe's need of assistance was "real and urgent."

"There has been constant reference to a Marshall Plan," the Secretary said. "The reference to me personally was unfortunate but the reference to a plan was definitely misleading. There was no plan. There was a suggestion. Now we are in the process of drafting a plan as a proposal of the Congress of the United States. That is the situation at the moment."

"The period of study and preparation is thus drawing to a close. The time of action is at hand."

Harold E. Stassen told the forum that President Truman at his news conference today announced the calling of a special session of Congress to deal with the problem of aid to Europe.

"Much more is involved than the question of whether the emergency funds of various kinds can last until Jan. 1 or Feb. 1," he said.

Soviets Assailed

"The danger of investing magistrates with autocratic power of deciding what is war-propaganda is illustrated by Mr. Vishinsky's attack on Mr. Justice Byrnes," Austin declared.

"If he had the power to jail Mr. Justice Byrnes, no doubt he would do that. In any case, he wants to gag him and others like him," Austin said.

"This most fundamental freedom—of free speech which is necessary for the maintenance of good government, would wither in the presence of the power of men to put shackles on the minds and tongues on the lips of such great statesmen as James F. Byrnes."

Austin assailed the Soviet resolution as a violation of the United Nations charter and declared: "It seeks to nullify and make meaningless our pledge to respect human rights and fundamental freedoms."

He departed from his prepared text to defend John Foster Dulles, a U. S. delegate to the assembly who was named by Vishinsky last month as a "warmonger."

"Do you want men such as Byrnes and Dulles gagged in your country?" Austin asked the 27 national delegations who listened attentively around the huge oval committee table.

The battle over the "warmonger" charges developed at the outset of a morning and afternoon double-session debate in the political committee.

Meanwhile, the Soviet bloc continued its boycott of a U. N. sub-committee working on Secretary of State Marshall's plan for a year-around meeting of the 57 nations in a so-called "Little Assembly."

At the same time two 9-nation sub-groups began work on details of two alternative solutions to the Palestine problem. The rival sub-committees, one favoring partition of the Holy Land and the other favoring Arab domination for a single independent country, met separately in the almost identical chambers of the Security Council and the Economic and Social Council. They must make their reports to the main Palestine committee by Oct. 31.

"WE ARE SURE TO GO DOWN TO THE CITY HALL TO REGISTER FOR THE COMING CITY ELECTION. THEN VOTE AS YOU SEE FIT."

Roosevelt Knew

(Continued from Page One) ments about the reason for shelving the program. At one time, Johnson testified, Somervell "even planned to get rid of General Marshall." He referred to George Marshall, then Army Chief of Staff and the now Secretary of State.

Johnson, a Clarkburg, W. Va., lawyer and former American Legion commander, related that as Assistant Secretary of War he "had confidential information that war was inevitable."

He related that "one can travel out of town in Folk county on almost any highway and see huge quantities of Florida's golden fruit piled in cow pastures, surrounded by contented steers leisurely grazing themselves on grapefruit that started out to be sold at 10 cents apiece."

Florida's orange market, he said, is "unsteady" even with only 127 cars moved last week. "Buyers report California oranges are giving better satisfaction than Florida's while we were able to sell oranges at $3.50 FOB Monday, today finds shippers quoting $3 and we do not know what tomorrow will bring."

Johnson replied that the information came "from many sources" including reports of military attaches in Russia, Germany and other nations of Europe.

The witness said that he and President Roosevelt discussed these matters and he was urged to revise the industrial mobilization plan. He said that eventually all the key points of the plan were put into operation and "this was the program that won the war."

"Another source of the impending war," Johnson said, "were American business men with factories and interests abroad. They were not spies. They were good American businessmen. They understood what they saw and reported everything that was unfriendly to this country."

Senator Pepper (D-Fla) broke in to say that Mr. Roosevelt was right then in "trying to warn this country that war was coming."

"Use and Leven went further than he did in my speeches," Johnson said.

Forrestal testified yesterday that the long-studied program for mustering America's industrial might was "too generalized."

Answering this, Johnson told the committee: "That is not alone an ineffectual statement, but an incorrect statement."

Before the hearing opened, there was another exchange between Senator Brewster (R-ME) and Senator Pepper (D-Fla) who have clashed repeatedly over the current inquiry.

Brewster suggested in an interview it would be good idea for Congress to draw up mobilization laws in peacetime in order to be well prepared for any new conflict.

But Senator Pepper denounced the proposal, saying: "We are trying to keep the peace."

Brewster is chairman and Pepper is a member of the committee. They have differed over

20% Of Florida Fruit Thrown Away

LAKELAND, Oct. 23 (AP)—Almost 20 per cent of the first 250,000 boxes of fruit picked in Florida this season has failed to pass the state's maturity requirements and was thrown away, said W. C. Federsan, president of the Waverly Growers Cooperative, today.

Writing in his weekly newsletter Federsan estimated that 140,000 boxes—or 18 1/2 per cent—of early fruit "was not permitted to be shipped or canned."

He related that "one can travel out of town in Folk county on almost any highway and see huge quantities of Florida's golden fruit piled in cow pastures, surrounded by contented steers leisurely grazing themselves on grapefruit that started out to be sold at 10 cents apiece."

Florida's orange market, he said, is "unsteady" even with only 127 cars moved last week. "Buyers report California oranges are giving better satisfaction than Florida's while we were able to sell oranges at $3.50 FOB Monday, today finds shippers quoting $3 and we do not know what tomorrow will bring."

British Economy

"Can we discipline ourselves to the task before us or are we going to invite the harsh discipline of events to impose some tragic solution upon us?"

"We have stopped all purchases of U. S. tobacco until further decision," the economic minister said.

"This will save about 5,000,000 pounds ($20,000,000) on this year's allocation, and before the tobacco sales start next summer we shall be able to decide whether and how far we are able to enter the market."

Trade sources said Britain has enough tobacco on hand for two years' consumption at the present rate.

Sir Stafford said Britain's dollar crisis was due not to inability to manufacture enough goods, but to inability to sell goods for dollars.

"The implementation of the Marshall Plan would be of the greatest help to us over the next few years, but we are bound to proceed on the basis that we must help ourselves to the utmost, whatever others may do or not do," he added.

Cripps said Britain aimed to export 45,000,000 pounds $180,000,000 worth of goods to dollar markets next year over and above the target laid down last August. In addition, he said, Britain will reduce raw materials imports from dollar areas by $100,000,000 a year.

Whether the committee has the right to look into mobilization issues, Brewster says yes, Pepper says no.

Hollywood Stars

Montgomery put it this way: "We have had in the Screen Actors Guild a very militant, very small minority, well organized, well disciplined."

A big sigh went up from a jam-packed audience, largely feminine, when Montgomery took the stand. He wore a brownish-gray striped suit, a white shirt and a gray pin-striped tie.

"How much success have the Communists had in dominating the guild," Robert E. Stripling, chief committee investigator, asked him.

"Never, never under any circumstances," have they the actor replied.

Montgomery followed two screen writers to the stand, Fred Niblo, Jr., and Richard MacCauley who both testified they believe communistic influence exists among the writing profession in Hollywood.

Niblo, 44-year-old veteran writer, described the Screen Writers Guild as "the sparkling and the spearhead of the Communist movement" in Hollywood.

MacCauley listed a number of writers he said he believes are among "the Communists and the boys who play along with them."

They included: Alvah Bessie, Gordon Kahn, Lester Cole, Ring Lardner, Jr., John Howard Lawson, Marian Spitzer, Saul Ziviers, Maurice Raff, John Wesley, William Pomranck, Melvin Levy, Clifford Odets, Michael Blankfort, Howard Koch, Albert Maltz, Dalton Trumbo and Donald Ogden Stewart.

When Montgomery took the stand he identified himself as an actor and director and said he was born in 1904. Alluding to his wartime service in the Navy, he told the committee:

"In common with many other men, I gave up my job to fight against a totalitarian government called Fascism. And I'm quite willing to give it up again to fight against a totalitarian government called Communism."

Montgomery said followers of Communism are often referred to as the "lonatic fringe, and I agree with this."

"However, I don't think any of them would be crazy enough to try to inject any of it into a picture I am directing," he added.

Montgomery said it is his "personal opinion" that the Communist party is not a political party but "a subversive group."

"Character assassination," he said, is one of its most-used weapons.

Montgomery was on the stand only about 10 minutes. He concluded with a voluntary statement he said was designed to correct an impression that "there is a small minority" in Hollywood fighting Communism and Fascism.

"The reverse is true," he added. At one point Montgomery said that although Hollywood Communists are few, they manage to create disturbances far greater than their numbers.

Billion Dollar Cotton Crop For 1947 Predicted

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 (AP)—Market for cotton, both at home and abroad, will be smaller crop year than last, the Agriculture Department predicted today. But, the 1947 crop may be just $2,000,000,000—one since 1919.

The department forecast domestic consumption for the year ending Aug. 1, 1948, at about 8,750,000 bales. Consumption during the year totaled 10,000,000 bales, wartime record.

The department estimated exports may be about 2,000,000 bales, compared with 3,500,000 bales the past season. It said a supply of dollar exchange will be the amount of unused credits available to foreign countries for purchase of cotton is much less than a year ago.

United States supplies of cotton for the current season are expected to be about 14 percent smaller than those of the past season.

The department said that if prices received for cotton lint this season are about the same as the September average, the income farmers would receive from the 1947 cotton crop would be about one-third more than from the 1946 crop.

In other words, the 1947 crop would be the first $2,000,000,000 cotton crop since 1919.

This year's crop is about 33 percent larger than last year's, usually small one. But it seems unlikely, the department said, that many farmers will increase next year's cotton acreage in the face of sagging cotton prices.

Prices for seed cotton and for lint and livestock and livestock products.

For example, the price of lint received by farmers on Sept. 5 was 12 percent less than it was at the same time a year ago and four percent below the 1946 season average.

In the same period, corn prices rose 39 percent, wheat 35 percent, beef cattle 48 percent, and

TODAY'S GARDEN GRAPH

Strawberry Plants Still Need Attention

By DEAN HALLIDAY
Distributed by Central Press Association

IF YOU WOULD enjoy the quality home-grown strawberries next spring, do not neglect them now just because autumn days are here. Although not all gardeners practice it, shallow cultivation and hand-hoeing of the strawberry plants should be continued until freezing weather actually sets in.

A winter overcoat of straw should be put around the plants right after the first hard freeze. Mulching with straw, as illustrated in the accompanying Garden-Graph, protects the plants from winter injury. It also retards time of blossoming in the spring, thus protecting the plants against injury from a late spring freeze. For mulching purposes, one can use wheat, oat or rye straw that is free from grain or weed seed. Cover the plants to a depth of three or four inches.

Open the mulch over the plants as soon as growth starts in the spring. If it is too thick to allow the plants to come through, remove surplus straw and tramp it into the alleys between the rows. Tuck this mulch down under the leaves and around the plants. It will help to hold moisture and it will also keep the fruit from becoming mud-spattered from rain.

Spring cultivating of the strawberry rows will be necessary if no winter mulch is used.

Michigan-Minnesota To Clash In "Little Brown Jug" Contest

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 23 (AP)—A Michigan football juggernaut that hasn't really been tested in four runaway victories this season, will be at top strength for Saturday's "Little Brown Jug" clash with Minnesota—just in case.

Few who saw the Gophers tumble in a 40 to 13 licking last week at the hands of Illinois believe that Minnesota has the depth to press the Michigan steamroller, but the Wolverines won't be caught napping midway of their drive for an undisputed Big Nine title—something they haven't

W. M. Scott Dies

(Continued from Page One) came state entomologist in Georgia for five years, then for 14 years he was plant pathologist with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. In this capacity he solved some of the most difficult problems connected with the fruit industry, including treatment of brown rot for peaches and bitter rot of apples.

He next became specialist in the research department of the General Chemical Co. of Baltimore, Md. After four years he was again called to the Department of Agriculture as specialist in the Bureau of Agriculture Economics and had charge of Food Products Inspection Service, and to large extent—responsible for the standardization of grades for apples and other fruits and vegetables. He is author of several important bulletins published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture on fruit diseases and fruit marketing.

In 1919 the American Fruit Growers Inc. was organized and Mr. Scott was selected to be assistant production manager, having charge of large apple orchards, orange groves and vegetable holdings from coast to coast. In 1921 he was transferred to Sanford and took direct charge of the operations in the southeast. Since then he has been active in the production and marketing of celery, and other vegetable crops throughout Florida, Georgia and the Carolinas.

He was an associate member of the American Association for Advancement of Science, a life member of the American Phytopathological Society, a member of the American Botanical Society and the American Entomological Society. He was a Shriner and life member of Morocco Temple. For four years he was associate editor of the magazine, "Phytopathology."

He won Herbert O. (Fritz) Cramer first cash to Michigan as head coach in 1938.

Three deep in talented material at every backfield post, Michigan has powered its way to 223 points in its four topheavy triumphs over Michigan State, Stanford, Pitt and Northwestern, scoring no fewer than 47 points any time out yet.

The Gophers are hoping for more football-like weather here than they had last week at Champaign when the big Minnesota forward wall wilted in the heat of the last half against Illinois after Larry Moss had passed them in the first two periods.

Turkey Charges Reds With Aggressive Aims

Russian Press Is Accused Of Trying To Incite Turkish People Against U. S.

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 24 (AP)—Turkey formally accused Russia today of "psychological aggression," "nefarious propaganda," "wasmongering" and "interfering in Turkish internal affairs."
Turkey charged also that Russia was trying to turn the Turkish people against the United States by spreading reports that American forces were taking over military bases in Turkey under the Truman aid program.
The Turk charges were made by Chief Delegate Selim Sarpar in United Nations debate of Russia's anti-war monger measures.
The Soviet Ukraine accused the United States of carrying on "an economic and political war for capitalist domination."
The Ukraine asserted that the United States was "trying to impoverish the world" but that the eastern European democracies are fighting against this expansion.
"In the name of the Turkish people I hereby make complaint to the United Nations against the Soviet press and radio," Sarpar said.
"I complain they tried to incite (Continued on Page Six)

35 Crew Members Of Tanker Saved By Coast Guard

MONTEREY, Calif., Oct. 24 (AP)—Thirty-five crew members of the burning, crash-damaged tanker Sparrow's Point were rescued from life boats by the Coast Guard cutter Minnetonka early today. Four other crew members still are missing but the rescued Captain said they may still be aboard the 6,093-ton vessel.

The Minnetonka, in a message to the Coast Guard, shore station here, said the 35 were taken from two life boats. One lifeboat with 14 men was picked up by the cutter with 20 crewmen and the Captain, who asked to be returned to his ship.

Kennedy Pessimistic Over Marshall Plan

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 24 (AP)—Joseph P. Kennedy, former ambassador to Great Britain, says he supports the Marshall Plan—but only for one year and only to the extent of $5,000,000,000 or $5,000,000,000.
"I opposed bitterly the Truman Plan," Kennedy told the Cambridge Knights of Columbus last night. "I thought it was a horrible waste of money, with no definite plan behind it, and like pouring money down a rat hole."
Kennedy said "in spite of the money sent to Greece and Turkey, they are a long way from doing anything they hoped to do."
After his speech, the former ambassador told reporters he was "very pessimistic about the outcome of the Marshall Plan."

DIPLOMATIC BRIEF

LONDON, Oct. 24 (AP)—The Moscow radio announced today that Nikolai V. Novikov had been relieved of his duties as Russian ambassador to the United States and would be succeeded by Alexander B. Panyushkin.
Novikov took over the top Soviet diplomatic post in Washington last year, succeeding Andrei Gromyko, who was named permanent Russian delegate to the United Nations.
PHILSEN, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 24 (AP)—A woman in burning clothes ran into a room of the Tyle Chemical Company where workmen were making Christmas firecrackers, causing an explosion which killed her and 18 other persons. The plant was destroyed.
Authorities said she had arrived early to work and that her clothing blazed up while she huddled near a small open fire.

American Newspapers Commend Calling Of Special Session

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—The first open criticism of President Truman's call for a special session of Congress Nov. 17 came today from Rep. Halleck (R-Ind.), who said the Chief Executive broke faith with congressional leaders by not consulting them before acting. The Indiana, who in House majority leader, spoke out as Mr. Truman worked at the White House on a report he will broadcast to the nation tonight outlining his "compelling reasons" for ordering the early session to cope with problems of inflation at home and emergency aid abroad. The President is scheduled to speak over all national radio networks at 10 o'clock (EST) tonight.

The first American newspapers to comment editorially on President Truman's call for a special session of Congress generally expressed hearty approval of the move, although some said the step should have been taken sooner.
"President Truman is to be congratulated on moving boldly to meet the domestic and foreign crisis," said the Richmond Times Dispatch. "The situation is deteriorating both at home and abroad and there is no possible sense in following a policy of drift any longer."
The New York Times said that although the action "comes none too soon," it assumes that it "does not come too late," either. "For, having been taken after consultation with the leaders of Congress, which should guarantee early action, the call for a special session is in itself a token of both America's earnestness to fulfill the promises made in the Marshall declaration and of our determination to meet the Communist challenge with more substantial measures than mere slogans."
Said the Atlanta Constitution: "It is not only our duty to humanity, but also the best possible strategy to preserve our way of life to give as much aid as we can where it can do the most good. The question is not a political one. Congress should act speedily without attempting to make a partisan capital of it."
The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette said the President "has finally faced up to urgent needs at home and abroad. It is a decision that should have been made weeks ago but however late is no less welcome. We hope the leaders will hold Congress on course and that the mavericks won't do anything off in such directions as tax reduction and increased federal spending for domestic post-war projects."

Taft's long-expected formal entry was contained in a letter to Fred H. Johnson, chairman of the Ohio Republican State Committee. The committee and other Ohio GOP groups had urged him to make the race last July 31.
The letter was written before President Truman's announcement to Taft and other congressional (Continued on Page Six)

Baruch Insists Ignoring Plan Proved Costly

Presidential Assistant Says Mobilization Was Needlessly Slow, Fumbling

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (AP)—Bernard M. Baruch declared today "thousands of lives, extra billions of dollars and months of time were lost in World War II because the government repeated the mobilization errors of World War I."
The 77-year-old adviser to President Truman told the Senate War Investigating Committee the armed services had a Mobilization-Day plan "which would have saved precious lives and the wasted wealth, but they were not permitted to put it into effect."
"We were told this was a different kind of war," Baruch said in his prepared testimony, "and none of that 'old War Stuff' was wanted."
The committee is trying to learn why a 1939 industrial mobilization plan was discarded by the Roosevelt administration.

2 Candidates For City Commission Heard By Lions

Opinions of two candidates for the City Commission, Fred Williams of Group No. 1 and Randall Chase of Group No. 2, concerning improvements such as a new swimming pool and a sewage disposal system, were today given to members of Lions Club at the Tourist Center. The candidates were introduced by Jack Morrison.
Mr. Chase declared that it seemed to him that a swimming pool could be built with funds now available in existing rooms and buildings were eliminated from the plan. Then when conditions justified, the buildings could be added from time to time.
In answer to Harry Robinson's query as to which was the most important, a new swimming pool or a sewage disposal system, Mr. Williams said that it was not a question of choosing between the two projects and that they should be put into two separate categories as funds have already been allocated for the pool.
He stated in regard to a sewage disposal system that the first of Smith and Gillespie had been directed by the City to make a survey of this, and suggested that taxpayers be not bonded for such (Continued on Page Six)

British Demand Early German Government

LONDON, Oct. 24 (AP)—A special House of Commons committee urged today formation of a "pro-tem" German government and called for a "firm" British stand on the length of occupation.
The bi-partisan committee asserted in a formal report to the House that the Germans "should be given as soon as possible complete responsibility for balancing their own economy."
The group acknowledged, however, that "at the moment it is not possible to put this burden squarely on German shoulders because Germany cannot buy food and raw material for herself."
