

Longwood Track Furnishes Jobs To Sixty Local Men

Management Plans To Buy Most Of Supplies In Sanford

When the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club opens next Tuesday night, Dec. 27, for its annual 90-day racing season, it will mean jobs for more than 60 Seminole County men.

Already the county is beginning to feel the yearly influx of new money into mercantile channels; however, for the track is having all its printing done in Sanford, purchases all its paint, lumber and other supplies in the Celery City, and many of the officials and employees of the track have rented Sanford homes and apartments and hotel accommodations.

Lee Pratt, general manager of the plant said yesterday "most of our big weekly payroll will go directly into the till of Seminole County merchants."

Longwood has been a beehive of activity for the past month. The track is reported in great shape, after a summer of nursing by Johnny Riley, superintendent of the grounds.

Mr. Pratt said that "60 permanent residents of Seminole County are on our payroll, seven or eight employees of the track from the North have established their residence in the county for the winter. Thirty dog owners and 33 trainers are living in Seminole.

Features of the first night will be two races—the Inaugural and the Junior Welfare Handicap. The opening night's program of races is sponsored by the Junior Welfare Association of Orlando, a group of society girls who support a home for underprivileged children called Fair Oaks.

Top race of the night will be the Inaugural, the winner of which has always been one of the top dogs for the season at Longwood.

Three years ago Wild Penny crossed the line first. Then came the ill-fated Waltz King, a youngster who promised to be come a national champion. He won the Inaugural in 1936, went on thru eight consecutive races winning top money but then contracted distemper and died.

Last year's winner was Speedy Karl, out of Guy Males' kennel. Speedy, the son of Speedy Event and Al's Baby, came from behind to win and his schooling tries thus far this season indicate that he is again in shape for another dangerous contender to repeat.

Racing Secretary Bob Sherlock will name eight starters from the veterans of the track for this event and eight of the best youngsters for the Junior Welfare handicap. He has over 400 dogs from 33 kennels to choose from.

The photo finish system will again be used to decide close races and help Chief Judge Bob Kelly name the first three greyhounds.

Several innovations have been planned for this season. They include the quinelle system of betting, a $3 "across-the-board" combination ticket and hurdle races several times weekly.

There will also be a daily double every night of the week.

Races will be run this year out of the 3-16th of a mile box, the furlong box and the 5-16th box.

World Trade War Enters New Phase With U. S. In Lead

change. They won't have to make any old deal for exchange of goods.

In effect, you have in these credit arrangements the latest American answer to the German system of controlled trade. They are a logical sequel to the Hull program of reciprocal trade: an effort to lower tariff barriers along the line in all nations to revive world trade.

The root of the problem, financially, is the gold standard. About 10 years ago, gold began flying from capital to capital in flight, upsetting balances in the banks of the world. Until then the gold standard had been sufficient measure of value for international trade. But it fell under the strain of unpaid international debts and post-war confusion. Gold is no longer an absolute necessity in international trade.

The trade war would be a comparatively polite affair without serious casualties, if governments had not intervened to alter the free flow of trade.

All Tangled Up

One control called for another. Now it would be quite impossible for any government to extricate itself. The countries of the world are like kittens all tangled up in skeins of yarn.

Then there is the all important item of military and political advantage. Germany, Italy—even Japan are deficient in certain raw materials, particularly oil, wheat and cotton. In the event of war, and blockade, they would have to depend on stored supplies.

Therefore, they are trying to extend their domination of nearby states in order to guarantee those supplies. Germany is looking toward oil-filled Roumania, and the wheat-laden Ukraine. Italy is glancing toward Africa and Japan is conquering China.

This is economic warfare turning into military war and threats of war. The question is: How long can the world stand the strain?

item there, and then headed back toward Deland. The tragedy occurred just a few moments later.

Warrants for the arrest of the two men charged each with manslaughter on two counts, one for each of the girls. The date for a possible preliminary hearing remained undetermined.

It was found when the jury viewed the bodies of the girls that Miss Mercer apparently suffered a broken neck, but that Miss Machen died from drowning.

Weathers, manager of a Sanford store, told officers he was riding in the rear seat with Miss Mercer and that he was forced to smash a rear window to gain freedom from the submerged car. He said he tried to draw one of the girls to the surface but that he could not find them in the crushed machine, the top of which had been caved in by the impact.

Toucton, who recently graduated in pharmacy from the University of Florida, was reported driving the car owned by Weathered and accompanied on the front seat by Miss Machen.

There will also be a daily double every night of the week.

Italy Reported Massing Troops Near Somaliland

Fears Of Campaign On Djibouti Expressed By French Colonial Officials

Re-Inforcements Sent By France

Daladier Leaves Next Move In Issue Up To Premier Mussolini

PARIS, Dec. 27.—(AP)—
Dispatches from North Africa today reported that Italy is massing troops on the frontiers of French Somaliland. French colonial officials expressed fears that this might be the start of a campaign to threaten the port of Djibouti, the French Somaliland port on the Red Sea which is the only rail outlet for Italy's Meyer, second alternate.

Mr. Dawson reported today that travelers reaching Egypt from approximately $35,000 has been dispatched to the port to Seminole County fruit and French press, reported that the vegetable growers for compliance Governor of Djibouti had done with the requirements of the 1938 mandated and obtained troops and program. He declared that if reinforcements from growers participate in the special cereal acreage control program, disbursements to growers they are unable to confirm or in this county will be more than deny these reports. Italy has doubted for next year.

Foreign Office officials said grain, paid to cereal growers for any colonies.

France told Italy yesterday overplanting the crop goal set for that she accepted the Italian note on their farms, renouncing the 1935 Laval-Mur. The amount paid for planting oilseed territorial treaty but the other soil conserving cover crops must stand as the only has been reduced from $2 to $1.50 for negotiations between the two powers.

Thus, the next move in the colonial issue was put squarely up to Italy as Premier Daladier, despite Fascist cries of "provocation", disclosed plans to make his tour of Corse and Tunisia a mighty "hands off demonstration" to Premier Mussolini's legions.

Wheeler Takes Exception To Coughlin Ban

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—
Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, took sharp exception yesterday to a recent statement by Neville Miller, president of the National Association of Broadcasters, that radio could not tolerate "abuse" of freedom of speech.

"Who is Mr. Miller that he should set himself up to say when free speech should be denied to any citizen of the United States?" Wheeler asked.

"What special knowledge does he possess that he can judge me or anyone else abuses free speech?"

"In times of hysteria which sweep this country there are always those superlatives who believe they are destined to regulate the actions and the speech of their fellow men."

In an interview Wheeler disclosed that he did not agree with the political views of Father Charles E. Coughlin, for example, but said that "Father Coughlin is intolerant any radio station that would offend him from speaking because it disagreed with him would be equally intolerant."

Miller had declared that broadcasters "inciting racial and religious hatred" were as "well not to be tolerated." The Association of Broadcasters said Miller made his statement "in response to inquiries from member stations concerning the broadcasting of controversial radio talks by religious leaders."

Miller was unable to accept or decline an invitation prepared for the meeting "on the shoulders of another broadcaster," Miller said. "It is up to him to evaluate what is in and what is not in his interest."

Miller contended that opposition to continuation of Father Coughlin was a matter of "hysteria which, unfortunately, is very apt to mix with war with Germany and other totalitarian powers."

FDR Decides Upon Largest National Defense Program

Administration Contemplates Quadrupled U. S. Air Fleet

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—

President Roosevelt was reported authoritatively yesterday to have decided on a double barrelled recommendation to Congress for national defense reinforcements of unprecedented peace-time magnitude.

Persons close to the administration said the President intended to report, in the annual message he will deliver personally to a joint senate-house on Jan. 4, that the security of the nation and its neighbors was threatened by the armed might of aggressive dictator states.

A week later, under present arrangements, a special message will present detailed recommendations for an army air force of some 10,000 planes and numerous other measures.

Thus, the administration contemplated a quadrupled military air fleet of at least 10,000 aircraft, including the minimum of 3000 congress authorized for the year in this year's million-dollar fleet expansion act.

Warning the vandals that any repetition of such an offense might result in serious consequences, Mr. Fort declared he had been promised the co-operation of the Sheriff's office where it was stated that a radio car would be available on an instant's notice.

Funeral services were held today at 2 P. M. at the Erickson Funeral Home, the Rev. Dr. E. D. Brownlee officiating. Interment will be in Evergreen Cemetery.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH

Friends of Mrs. R. F. Crenshaw will regret to learn of the death of her 16 year old nephew, John Everett Williams, of Alexander City, Ala. yesterday by an accidental discharge of a gun which he was preparing for a hunting trip.

All social security and unemployment insurance returns must be filed with the collector during the month of January, he said, adding that those liable for unemployment tax must pay the same on time in order to claim credit on the Federal returns.

City's Power To Adjust Old Taxes To End

Officials Say No Further Reductions In Assessments To Be Made After Dec. 31

City officials today reminded owners of property in Sanford on which taxes and assessments are delinquent that the authority of the City Commission as a Delinquent Tax Adjustment Board expires on Dec. 31 of this year and that all delinquent assessments of the City which have not been adjusted must be paid in full after that date.

At the last session of the legislature, the Commission was granted the authority to act as an adjustment board in the settlement of delinquent taxes and special assessments, and since that time thousands of dollars in delinquent city taxes have been settled at the full adjustment permitted under the authority of the special act.

Warning property owners that the only recourse of the City will be to foreclose on all property on which taxes are delinquent if no attempt at settlement has been made, Mayor Edward Higgins stated that this ultimate is the last adjustment of these claims which will be granted by the City.

"The City will oppose any further plan to adjust delinquent assessments," Mayor Higgins said, adding that every assessment is now being offered the taxpayer to settle these past due obligations.

City officials also pointed out that the authority permitting the seven-year installment plan for payment of past due taxes also expires on Dec. 31 and that those who wish to pay their past due assessments or arrangements for an army air force of approximately 10,000 planes and numerous other measures.

Thus, the administration contemplated a quadrupled military air fleet of at least 10,000 aircraft, including the minimum of 3000 congress authorized for the year in this year's million-dollar fleet expansion act.

The magnitude of the proposed plan for payment of past due taxes must be made without penalties of taxes for subsequent years.

For unimproved property, the taxes and penalties for 1933 and prior are cancelled in full but payment is required on taxes for subsequent years. In adjusting special assessments, all interest is cancelled and 90 percent of the principal.

These remarks were made about the time of the signing of the Munich four-power accord. Whether implications of that accord and the post-Munich events abroad have now changed Arnold's mind is not known. He could not be reached for comment last night.

There have been reports that some other high officers of the army could not see eye to eye with the administration on defense plans. These were denied by General Craig, chief of staff, who said:

"The administration and the war department have been working in intimate accord on a program regarding which absolutely no decision has yet been finally made."

Alfred Richards, 38, of St. Albans, Vt., a war veteran, owed his life to two railroad men who stopped their train and snatched him, unconscious, from another track a bare three minutes before the Boston to Portland express roared past.

At the Boston hospital, Richards told doctors he had not eaten for three days, since he came to Boston to "see about" a war pension.

He had started to walk the tracks back to Vermont and apparently fainted from fatigue and cold.

Fireman Roy Christianson and Engineer Ralph V. Sawyer saw him on the track and stopped their local train in time to pull him from the path of the express.

Severe Cold Wave Sweeps Across U.S.

Sub-Freezing Temperatures Are Forecast For Florida Tonight, Wednesday

Storm Warnings Are Displayed

Snow, Sleet Follow Mild Holiday In Northern States

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The Weather Bureau said today a cold wave which is spreading eastward across this country from western Canada would bring freezing temperatures to North Florida and much cooler weather to all parts of the peninsula within 24 hours.

Extreme Northeast Florida was warned to expect temperatures of from 24 to 28 degrees tonight.

The frost warning service of the Weather Bureau at Lakeland said the temperature probably would drop to about 30 degrees in the Lake City area tomorrow morning. The Bureau forecast readings of 24 degrees for Stark, Lakeland, Tavares, Trenton and Hastings; 21 for Ocala and Burnside; 18 for Williston, Citra, Wimauma, New Smyrna Beach and Melbourne and upward for the Orlando and Homosassa districts of Southwest Florida.

The moderate cold wind may keep away frost tomorrow morning but probably would not do so Thursday morning.

Small craft were warned to keep near shore along the Gulf coast from Miami City, Fla., to Carrabelle, Fla.

Baffling winds, varying through the day were calculated, although extreme gales, gales, gales, occurred behind the low pressure area. The severe gales and continuing winds to follow would be from the northwest, north and northeast.

On the gulf side of the peninsula, the second half of the nation advanced into the north.

Temperature, ranging down to 40 below zero, prevailed from the Pacific Northwest to the Great Lakes region as the frigid blast was on board.

Temperature, still below freezing, was available in the continent after a comparatively mild Christmas holiday.

Weather observers predicted the full force of the cold wave would reach the Atlantic seaboard to night or tomorrow and that the latter cold weather would stay for several days.

The Arctic air, which accompanied the Arctic wind into the middle and northern U. S. cold dropped into Oklahoma and Kansas, and forecasters said it would be felt as far south as Florida.

Such a temperature plagued the Duluth, Minnesota, Milwaukee and Wyoming with lower temperatures in prospect. Snow, sleet and 60 winds heralded the approach of the cold wave in the East.

Strong warnings were displayed on Lake Michigan and from Cape Cod to Nantucket, Me., on the Atlantic coast. Many highways were clogged with snow drifts in the Northwest and middle West.

A windstorm in western Pennsylvania and southwest Virginia unrooted buildings, uprooted trees and disrupted power and communication lines. Several inches of snow fell in western North Carolina and southwest Virginia. Snow also fell from Ohio eastward to New York.

Italian Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano by Andre Francais-Poncelet, French Ambassador to Rome. It answered Italy's note which declared nullified the 1933 pact.

The pact gave more than 11,000 square miles of territory to Italian Libya and Italian Somaliland at the expense of Tunisia and French Somaliland.

Daladier arranged to travel by ship and to review huge parades in Corsica, France's Mediterranean island department, and Tunisia, her North African protectorate, in a tour of military fare.

Both territories have been prominent in the Fascist territorial claim raised in the Italian chamber of deputies last Nov. 30 and given official encouragement by the Italian government's renunciation of the 1933 treaty which also assured citizenship rights of Italian subjects in Tunisia until 1965.

The Italian press continued the anti-French campaign, charging Daladier was attempting to sabotage the appeasement efforts of British Prime Minister Chamberlain when he goes to Rome next Jan. 11.

Local Cage Men Get Well-Earned Rest This Week

Darrell Ferguson, Art Williams Are Re-Instated On The Squad By McLucas

BY JULIAN STENSTROM
Herald Sports Editor

The Seminole High School basketball team aspirants finished practices last week with a bang and will not return to the court until next Tuesday for finishing touches before the opener Jan. 13 against a quintet from Ocala.

It was understood unofficially today that Darrell Ferguson and Art Williams have returned to the squad and will participate in the season's games.

These two men are valuable assets to the outfit and, with them in the line-up, McLucas may have a chance to win the Northeast Florida crown for the second consecutive time.

Williamson, an outstanding forward, has seen varsity action for the past two seasons and Ferguson is also a veteran of two years. A possible first string for the Celery Feds may be composed of Williams and Epps at stars, Wade Wansley at center and Darrell and Bucky Ferguson at the guard positions.

However, no one will know the starters until game time Jan. 13. Lessburg, strong conference tow-last year has lost games to Mount Dora and Bushnell already this season which makes the locals feel much better.

McLucas is tutoring his youths on the same style of play used during the past year.

The boys will use the same uniforms as they used last year and everything is in readiness to start the season. Officials are this year hoping for larger attendance at the games and sever-

Altman, Higgs Get Posts On All-Star Team

Local Youths Chosen On Mythical Semi-Pro Baseball Nine

According to an announcement from the National Semi-Pro Baseball Congress offices in Wichita, Kan., Byrl Higgs and J. W. Altman, local youths were named on the Florida-Georgia Regional All-Star team.

Higgs, a pitcher for the Sanford Semi-Pro team which was managed by W. R. McCracken, was named third on a list of five hurlers while Altman was named first utility infielder.

The Sanford team entered the state tournament held in Daytona Beach last summer but were beaten out by the Daytona Beach stars who claimed the Florida championship.

It was also announced that more than 1000 new semi-pro leagues will be organized during the coming year and more than 30,000 teams will participate in nation-wide tournaments next summer. The state district tournaments, the state tournament, the regional tournament and the final national tournament will furnish the action.

Al plans are underway for special programs to increase basketball interest among the citizens of Sanford.

Blocking, Tackling Stressed During Initial Workout

MIAMI, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Under a blistering summer sun that brought praise and perspiration, the University of Tennessee's cold-ridden football team arrived yesterday and took a "workout" on blocking and tackling.

Meanwhile their Orange bowl opponents, the Sooners of Oklahoma university were enroute here by train. They will arrive today.

Coach Robert R. Neyland brought 200 gallons of drinking water and 41 players from Knoxville and gloomily announced that 40 of them had colds.

"Who's the one without a cold?" he was asked.

"Oh, that's Melton, substitute tackle. He's got a broken thumb," the Major replied.

"Kidding aside though," he added, "about half a dozen of our players have been away from practice one to three days on account of colds. They're improving now, and the problem is to get over the after-effects."

The undefeated and untied champions of the Southeastern conference were met at the train by the Orange bowl committee and a crowd of about 300. Two busses took them to their hotel and they donned orange jerseys and reported immediately to the practice field.

The most beautiful and charming girls of Florida's vast citrus empire will compete again for the coveted title of "Queen of the Florida Orange Festival".

THE MECHANICAL MAN will be on display in the foyer of the Ritz Theater Tuesday and Wednesday. A free ticket will be given to anyone making him smile and ten dollars in cash to anyone making him laugh.

Cuba Sellers Draw Fines In Police Court

The trials of the Cuban defendants in the trial against Cuban sellers in Sanford opened in the afternoon of Dec. 22, before Judge Frank L. Miller in a session of the Municipal court at the Police Station yesterday afternoon.

Nine of those charged with violation of the city's gambling ordinance were sentenced by the Municipal judge to pay fines of $35 each plus costs in jail.

Although some of the defendants entered into a contention plea to the charges of participation in the gambling activities, all paid the fines without the usual legal skirmishes which had been expected by Chief of Police Roy G. Williams, who had member of the Police Department in the raid.

We had some trenchal cases, Chief Williams stated today adding that he not only had the tickets as evidence against the alleged sellers of Cuba tickets but also had reliable witnesses to testify that the sales were made.

This was the trial extended by the Police Department on the racket in Sanford and the grand jury made its report to Judge Millard H. Smith on charging law in enforcing the gambling laws.

Those who were arraigned before Judge Miller and who paid their fines were A. D. Rosier, James Harris, F. W. Kidney, Chris London, W. H. Walker, E. Newsom, Garfield Johnson, Homer Little, and Benjamin Lee. The case against Herman Belo, Willie Reed, and Charlie Sheetz were continued.

As the result of yesterday's large court docket, Chief Williams reported that more than $100,000 was turned over to the City in fines.
