Who Wears Black Hat In Poland?

Poland has internationalized its tragic history of Nazi and communist oppression in the person of its dictator, Gen. Wojciech Jaruzelski. Is the mysterious martinet, who controls both the military and the Communist Party, a Soviet puppet or a Polish patriot? He has played both roles.

The Solidarity movement bloomed for 18 months, bringing an unprecedented breath of freedom and anti-Soviet nationalism to Poland. This threatened the Polish communist puppets. It also threatened the Kremlin.

The Kremlin threatened to crush the uprising with Soviet troops. But Gen. Jaruzelski, head of the Polish army, took over the Polish government. Jaruzelski declared martial law, jailed Solidarity leaders and smashed the steel fist of repression on the Polish people. The Soviet invasion was forestalled, but at a terrible cost of suffering. The United States and the countries of Western Europe cut off loan guarantees and high-level diplomatic contact with Poland, isolating the regime from the West.

Having crushed Solidarity, Jaruzelski slowly began to loosen the grip of repression. He released some, but not all, of the Solidarity labor leaders. He maintained contact with the pope. And having prevented the threatened Soviet invasion, he strengthened his hand within Poland by saying the church and Solidarity were better protected under his rule than under a Russian puppet.

This argument seemed to be succeeding in the summer and early fall of this year. The Polish economy began to produce a little more than during the period of labor unrest.

The United States responded by removing about half the sanctions against Poland, reinstating fishing rights, charter flights and scientific exchanges. Suspension of most-favored-nation trading status and suspension of government loans and guaranteed credits to Poland remain in effect. Washington had been dangling these before the Jaruzelski regime as rewards if it further liberalized.

Then a tragic event occurred, with mysterious repercussions. Father Jerry Popieluszko, an outspoken Catholic priest who openly preached support of the Solidarity movement, was kidnapped and strangled to death. His driver, who survived, said members of the secret police were responsible for the killing. This triggered a new wave of mass demonstrations. But instead of covering up the murder, Gen. Jaruzelski condemned it and carried out a government investigation of the perpetrators. So far, only a few lowly agents have been arrested. But Poland is alive with rumors that the priest's killing was ordered by a faction of officials within the government who oppose Jaruzelski's letup of repression.

Whether the rumors are true or not, Jaruzelski released two more Solidarity leaders last weekend and has called a full party meeting to discuss the Popieluszko affair. But these gestures, as all other events in Poland, are wreathed so deeply in mystery that it is difficult to tell what is happening, or whose side Jaruzelski is on.

The United States should continue to ease up on the sanctions it imposed on Poland in 1981, as long as Poland keeps moving toward liberalization. But we should make it clear that our support is directed to helping the Polish people survive and not toward supporting the Jaruzelski government.

Whether Jaruzelski is working as a Soviet puppet or a misguided patriot, he remains the most recent dictator controlling the instruments of repression which Poles have known under Nazis, communists and czars. It is common for people held hostage by terrorists to identify with their captors. This is the tragic plight of the Polish people — forced by fate to look on the dictator who oppresses them as their patriotic liberator.

'Lucky' Makes White House Home

WASHINGTON (UPI) — "Lucky" the new puppy at the White House has won its way into the hearts of the President and Mrs. Reagan. The first lady was won over immediately by the 10-week-old black sheep dog, a gift from March of Dimes poster girl Kristen Ellis. The president appeared more wary of having a White House menagerie.

But Lucky, who may grow to be 140 pounds, is very much at home in the White House and there are lots of helpers to tend to his needs.

Gifts are pouring in for him like dog biscuits. There also are offers to train Lucky and to give him obedience lessons.

Lucky also enjoyed his first helicopter ride to Camp David, although he was reluctant at first. Mrs. Reagan had to pick him up in her arms and carry him to the chopper.

For Christmas, Lucky is wearing a red leash and a red bow. He made his formal debut at the unveiling of the Christmas decorations at the White House and according to all reports — so far — he is well behaved.

The White House Correspondents Association is soliciting the views of reporters for a report on covering the president and candidates in campaigns and whether security is used as a shield to protect them from questioning by the press.

The association said some reporters have cited "excessive use of force against reporters, glaring inconsistencies in security measures as applied to reporters, staff and the public as well as instances in which the Secret Service has been used to shield the president or the candidate from questioning by the press."

It expects to issue the report early next year.

President Reagan's armored limousine is now sporting the No. 1 commemorative red, blue and gold inaugural license plates and he accepted them in a ceremony recently.

Transportation Secretary Elizabeth Dole, however, has an official plate reading "Dot 1".

Others in the celebrity department who have received personalized plates include presidential press secretary James Brady, whose plate bears his nickname, "BEAR."

ABC's Barbara Walters has one reading: "Tell Me."

Presidential inaugural license plates were first issued to commemorate President Franklin D. Roosevelt's first inauguration on March 4, 1933. Since then they have been created for every inauguration, with the exception of 1945, during World War II.

The plates are valid on vehicles registered in all 50 states and may be officially displayed on automobiles from now on until March 15, 1985. Those who wish to display inaugural plates on a car will be required to complete a registration form.

To order the 50th Presidential Inaugural license plates, call 800-453-1908 or in Utah, 800-622-2500; or write to 50th American Presidential Inaugural Commemoratives, P.O. Box 19804, Washington, D.C. 20036.

Rise Of 'Cheap Hawks'

OREGON CITY, Ore. (NEA) — Rep. Denny Smith ought to be a staunch ally of the Defense Department. He's a conservative Republican, a former Air Force fighter pilot and an unabashed advocate of a powerful military establishment.

"I'm counted among the strongest supporters of the administration's program to field a national defense that's second to none," says Smith, who recently was elected to a third term representing a congressional district which spans Oregon's Willamette Valley.

But the Pentagon isn't very happy with Smith because he's one of a new breed of military reformers in Congress who have become outspoken critics of incompetent management, profligate spending, defective weapons and chronic cost overruns.

Complaints from liberals and Democrats about scandalous military procurement practices long have been shrugged off by defense officials who insist that their critics on the left are at best misguided and at worst unpatriotic.

But the Pentagon is experiencing considerable difficulty in coping with a relatively new phenomenon — the relatively small but highly visible band of "cheap hawks" who hold impeccable credentials as proponents of a strong national defense.

The unofficial leader of the "cheap hawks" is Sen. Charles E. Grassley, R-Iowa, whose tough-minded critiques of Pentagon waste and corruption have been a major factor in establishing him as the Hawkeye State's most popular politician.

Grassley's Republican allies include Sens. William V. Roth Jr. of Delaware, Mark Andrews of North Dakota and Nancy Landon Kassebaum of Kansas. Earlier this year, Grassley and Smith informed other members of Congress of a Defense Department inspector general's report on the Pentagon's purchase of $190 million worth of hand tools and portable power tools each year. The report concluded that the military's lack of control over these purchases provides widespread "opportunities for waste and abuse."

Mrs. Kassebaum, Grassley and other "cheap hawks" also have assumed the role of protectors of the Pentagon "whistle blowers" who often are threatened with loss of their jobs after they disclose wrongdoing.

CIA Accused Of Drug Trafficking

WASHINGTON — A former CIA agent, who is under indictment for fraud and perjury, claims a superior asked him to take part in a CIA-sponsored drug-smuggling operation. The ex-agent, Ronald Ray Rewald, told confidants that when he declined, the CIA dropped the matter.

Rewald's charge is the latest in a spate of reports dating back to the 1970s that the CIA has been involved in international drug trafficking. It also raised new questions about an Australian bank scandal four years ago that cost investors millions of dollars.

The Australian bank, Nugan Hand Ltd., was run by former CIA and U.S. military officers. It served as a "laundry" for illicit heroin and arms syndicates, which it also helped to finance. The bank collapsed following the apparent suicide of its co-founder, Australian entrepreneur Frank Nugan in January 1980.

Rewald's accusation of CIA drug trafficking turned up in the course of an investigation by my associates Dale Van Atta and Indy Badhwar into the Hawaiian investment firm that Rewald headed — Bishop, Permanent Minority?

Columnist Tom Wicker of The New York Times has had that rare thing, a genuinely new idea. In the wake of President Reagan's 49 state electoral victory, Mr. Wicker thinks that the Democratic Party, on a national basis, might well be a permanent minority party, seldom able to command a national majority, but serve a useful function as a "party of access."

Mr. Wicker has a clear view of the political realities. One "of the Democrats' principal concerns is racial. Their party has been steadily losing support among white voters and, in the South and some cities, is in danger of becoming mostly a black, hence a minority party."

Mr. Wicker takes account of those Democrats who want to recover the party's status as a majority party. "Bert Lance, the Georgia chairman, has said repeatedly, for example, that the Democrats must stop going 'in the opposite direction' from the voters. But which voters does he mean? The blacks, who gave Walter Mondale overwhelming support? No, Mr. Lance obviously means white voters. But how can the Democratic Party maintain the general support of blacks, both a political and an ethical necessity, and at the same time appeal to whites strongly enough to win them back from conservative Republicanism?"

His conclusion is that the Democrats cannot do so, and should reconcile themselves to being a permanent national electoral minority party. In it, the "voiceless" themselves would "find a voice."

may be that in their openness to minorities and to all sorts of ethnic, economic, social and cultural interests, the Democrats have become — and will remain for the foreseeable future — a party of access, in which the voiceless find a voice." The Republicans will remain "a party of government."

If, in Wicker's formulation, the Republicans become the "party of government," while the Democrats are a party of "access," will not ambitious men and women move naturally into the party of government?

The enormous problem here concerns the blacks, and, secondarily, other minorities like militant women, Hispanics, gays, and so forth.

It is possible that the Democrats are fated to follow Mr. Wicker's prescription, and become an organ not of assimilation into the American mainstream but of solidified minority groups who are rewarded precisely as minorities. That, of course, is the goal of Jesse Jackson, Gloria Steinem, and the Gay spokesmen. The process is far advanced.

But there are people like Bill Bradley, Gary Hart, Bruce Babbitt and others who have no intention of becoming residents of a political ghetto.

It is possible that somewhere down the road we will see a Jackson-Steinem Democratic Party, and in consequence the creation of a new second major party that will compete in the political mainstream.

SCIENCE WORLD

Clues On Nuclear Winter

By Elizabeth Pennell
UPI Science Writer

NEW YORK (UPI) — Scientists believe much of the Earth would be left in darkness and cold after a nuclear war, but these predicted after-effects cannot be studied directly.

So many researchers are drawing on what they know about other disasters to predict the nuclear winter's weather. Among them is meteorologist Alan Robock, whose studies have been based on the effects of dust from volcanoes.

As in a nuclear war, volcanic eruptions send clouds of particles into the upper atmosphere, where they dissipate very slowly. Those particles shade the earth by reflecting sunlight, said the University of Maryland associate professor of meteorology in an interview.

According to Robock's calculations, high-flying volcanic dust can cool the Northern Hemisphere by about 1 degree. Its effects would be greatest two or three years after eruption. Records from the past century confirm this, said Robock.

After a nuclear war this cooling could snowball, especially in the polar regions, he added. That first winter, there would be more snow and sea ice because of the low temperatures.

Snow reflects sunlight more than bare ground.

"So the ground gets colder and you get more snow," he said. More snow means Earth will be warmed less by incoming sunlight, which translates to even more snow, prolonging the initial cooling.

"The use of a model which includes snow and ice feedbacks and ocean response shows that the effects can be large even one year after the war begins," Robock wrote in the British scientific journal Nature.

Using a computer model to predict global climatic changes, he found that the temperature in northern Canada and Alaska could drop 50 degrees below normal. Those lows might last two months.

A nuclear war during the winter might not result in such drastic changes, said Robock, since the warming effects of the sun are felt less then.

"But if the smoke lasted until the next summer, it would make the temperature about eight degrees colder, which would make it very difficult to grow crops," he added in an interview.

He could not predict how long the clouds would linger.

DRINKING AND DRIVING CAN KILL A FRIENDSHIP

Senkarik Glass & Paint Co., Sanford's headquarters for glass, mirrors and paints.

Another Year Of Service At Senkarik Glass & Paint

It's been a banner year and a busy Christmas season for Senkarik Glass and Paint Company and owners, Jerry and Eddie Senkarik want to thank their many loyal customers for making it possible and they wish everyone a happy, healthy and prosperous new year in 1985.

Newcomers are learning what old-timers have known for more than 35 years, that you can depend on Senkarik's friendly reliable service and quality products.

Located at 210 Magnolia Ave., Sanford, Senkarik is small enough to give you individualized service, but big enough to meet your needs whether it is for paint products, glass work, wallpaper, framing or art supplies.

Senkarik does quality residential and commercial glass and mirror work. No job is too large or too small.

They specialize in all types of glass including desk and table tops, custom residential glazing, glass replacement, shower doors, storefront commercial and auto glass replacement.

For a beautiful decorating touch, Senkarik has customized mirrors for walls and ceilings. They also stock Plexiglas in four thicknesses.

Of course, Senkarik is also headquarters for your other re-decorating needs— you need not look any further for paints, varnishes, stains, wallcoverings and custom frames.

Senkarik carries a full line of nationally famous Sanford-manufactured Pen Paints and Benjamin Moore Paints for interior and exterior paint jobs as well as types of painting supplies, brushes and rollers.

For any exterior wood exposed to the elements, Jerry and Eddie recommend McCloskey's Man o' War Ultra Spar Marine Varnish. They have been carrying on the family tradition of friendly service started by their father. They are always glad to give you advice on painting and will even go out to your house to discuss special paint problems and give you an overall estimate of materials you will need for the job.

They have the necessary products to help do-it-yourselfers do a professional looking job on restoring old furniture, antiques, and picture frames as well as tips on eliminating some of the tedious work required in the past.

Lacquer, varnish or shellac can all be removed with the Hope two-step method of instant refinishing. Hope's refinisher removes old finish with no stripping, paint brushes or sandpaper. Follow this up with a finish coat of Hope's Tung Oil and your furniture will be ready for use the same day.

Senkarik carries a large selection of wallpaper designs including photo murals and grass stock from which to choose.

Senkarik also has art supplies for beginners and professionals. They carry such quality name brands as Grumbacher, Delta, Winsor-Newton and Liquitex. If you don't find what you want in stock, they will be glad to special order it for you.

To frame your work of art, Senkarik has a large selection of frames with more than 350 custom moldings from which to choose.

Call on Senkarik at 322-4622 for all of your paint and glass needs.

Mexico Making Loan Payment

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mexico has informed its international banks that it is increasing to $1.2 billion the principal it will prepay a $5 billion loan signed in 1983, bankers said Thursday.

Finance Minister Jesus Silva Herzog informed the banks of the decision in a telex that went out earlier this week. "As a gesture of good faith," Silva Herzog told the bankers Mexico would prepay $250 million on Jan. 3.

Mexico agreed as part of a multi-year refinancing plan signed Sept. 9 with the bank committee to prepay $1 billion on the principal of the $5 billion loan before year-end 1984 and make "its best efforts" to pay an additional $500 million.

The $1 billion payment was conditioned on the refinancing being completed this year.

But sources close to the 13-bank steering committee said documentation on the complicated package had proved more difficult than anticipated and that the package has not even gone out to Mexico's banks yet for approval.

Bankers noted that the package "is blazing new trails" in several ways. One banker said the mechanics of the "currency conversion option" in the refinancing, under which a certain percentage of Mexico's debt can be changed from dollar denomination into other major currencies has been one factor delaying the package.

In his telex to the banks, Silva Herzog said that once the package is approved and signed, Mexico will pay an additional $950 million on the loan, for total prepayments of $1.2 billion. He said Mexico "has set aside funds" for the prepayment.

The remainder of the $5 billion loan was to be refinanced under the same terms as a $3.8 billion loan that covered Mexico's 1984 needs.

Mexico did not seek any new money in its latest refinancing, which covers roughly $50 billion in debt maturities out to 1990.

In a prospectus sent to the banks in September, Silva Herzog said Mexico "appreciated the cooperation of the banking community."

Cook Of The Week

Happy New Year...Speer Style

By Brenda Lowe
Herald Correspondent

Family and tradition are important to this week's cook, Patty Speer. As 1984 draws to a close, Patty shares family recipes to ring in the New Year and become classics in recipe files.

Patty was born in Palatka, but moved to Sanford when she was 9. Her father, Leon Walker, was in the restaurant business and owned several eateries at different times in Sanford. Patty says that she really regrets now that no one wrote down some of her dad's recipes. She says the main thing she remembers about her father's cooking is the great hushpuppies he made. He added the chopped tops of spring onions to the batter, which added a lot of extra flavor. Patty's mother, "Boots" Walker, was the librarian at the Sanford

Library for many years. She also recalls that her grandmother, who grew up on a ranch in Kansas, always told marvelous stories to all the grandchildren. Her grandfather was there when the Wright brothers had their first flight at Kitty Hawk, N.C. in 1903.

After her graduation from high school, Patty worked as the city editor for The Sanford Herald. She lived in Atlanta for awhile where she was involved in banking. Then it was back to Sanford and marriage to husband attorney Tom Speer.

Patty and Tom have two children, Syd and Rose. Syd is a freshman at Washington and Lee University in Lexington, Va. Syd's father and grandfather graduated from there. When he comes home for the holidays, Syd plans to bring an exchange student from Holland as his guest. Rose is a sophomore at Seminole High School and is a cheerleader.

Patty says that she has always been involved in the children's school activities and found it to be gratifying and rewarding. Even three trips to the Kennedy Space Center didn't dampen her enthusiasm for field trips. As she puts it, "The Kennedy Space Center is great, but once really is enough!"

When she can find the time, Patty says that she likes to read historical novels. But between playing tennis and doing aerobic dancing at a local fitness center, it isn't always easy to find that quiet time. She says the family also enjoys going to the beach and traveling. She and Tom have been to Tahiti, San Francisco, and most recently to Acapulco with friends. Patty says the most memorable trip they took with the children was a tour out West about five years ago.

One of the family traditions that Patty, Tom and children especially enjoy is going to C.S. Lee's ranch for Thanksgiving. See COOK, 2B

Disease Sends Men Running

DEAR ABBY: I've got herpes — the genital kind. Now what? The fellow who gave it to me never told me and I'm mad! Big deal. A lot of good that does me. So what should I do when I start a new relationship? Do I say, "Hi, nice to meet you. I've got herpes" — then watch the man run? Or do I date him for a while, and then just before we sleep together mention it — and watch him run?

I'm young and pretty and I am not promiscuous, but I'm not dead either. A lot of men are interested in me, but I don't for one minute forget that I have herpes. I really don't want to be treated like a leper either.

What should I do? Rather than tell somebody I have herpes, I just don't date.

I wish you'd write an article about herpes, Abby. Is it possible to get it off a toilet seat?

THE GIRL NEXT DOOR

DEAR GIRL: Yes. The herpes virus can live as long as five hours in warm, moist areas, such as the tiles and plastic-coated benches that often surround a swimming pool, hot tub and the steam room of a health club. Though it's very unlikely that you'll pick up the germ from one of these places, "It's wise," says the American Medical Association, "to always sit on a clean towel to be on the safe side — especially if you're bare-bottomed."

You need not feel like a "leper." But never withhold the fact that you have herpes from anyone who risks contracting it from you.

DEAR ABBY: Thank you for telling "Mother of Two" not to let her 16-year-old daughter and 15-year-old son share the same bedroom. I also had parents who thought there was no problem putting me and my brother in the same bedroom. They were wrong. I became pregnant by my 16-year-old brother when I was 13. I was too frightened and ashamed to tell my mother, so she didn't know it until she saw me getting bigger and bigger. I did a lot of dumb things to try to get rid of it, but a baby girl was born to me. She was blind and brain-damaged, and died before she was 3 months old.

I still love my parents, but have very little respect for their judgment. That terrible experience left me with emotional scars that took many years of therapy to heal.

Abby, please tell your readers that although incest is not openly discussed, it's not all that uncommon. Keep on telling parents that they have a responsibility to protect their children from this terrible experience.

Thank you for letting me say this.

VICTIM IN TACOMA

DEAR VICTIM: Thanks for writing. Many others wrote to say that they, too, had been victims of incest — something they had never disclosed before.

However, several readers wrote to tell me off in protest of my "ill-considered" warning. A sample:

DEAR ABBY: I wish you and your so-called sex experts would get your minds out of the gutter and realize that a brother and sister can realize that a brother and sister can share the same sleeping quarters without having it turn into incest.

My folks were poor. There were three boys and two girls in our family, and all us kids slept in one bed — the boys on one end and the girls on the other. I know for a fact there was no sex going on. I was 17 before I had a room to myself, and I had to have it because they thought I had TB.

It's my belief that the less you say about sex in the early years, the less stirred up the kids will get. Today everybody is so crazy, I am 80 now, and I am sick and tired of the subject.

Microwave Magic

You Received A New Oven For Christmas

Some of you probably received a microwave oven as a Christmas gift and are in a quandry about its use. First, read the manual that came with your oven.

Start out following the recipes that came with the equipment, measure amounts of ingredients accurately and follow microwave times and standing time to the seconds. I have found it is best to use minimum times then increase the times if the product is not done.

Become familiar with microwave cooking terms such as stirring, rotating, turning the food over and types of covers used in microwaving; sort out containers and utensils that can be safely used in the microwave oven.

Midge Mycoff

Home Economist
Seminole
Community College

If you wish to test the dishes you already have before purchasing new containers this can be done simply. Place the empty dish in the oven. Place a glass measuring cup filled with 1 cup of water on the dish.

Program the microwave oven for 2-3 minutes on 100% power. At the end of that period, if the water is hot, the water is absorbing all the microwave energy and your dish is "microwave safe." If the water is warm and the questionable dish is warm, you can safely use your dish for short cooking periods. If the dish is hot and the water cool, the dish is absorbing too much of the microwave energy and should not be used, even for short cooking.

Remember, too, that microwave safe dishes will become warm or hot when the food transfers heat to the dish during the cooking period. (I hope this explanation does not confuse you.)

After some experimenting on your oven you may want to take some basic microwave classes. Some manufacturers offer these classes as does Seminole Community College. A new class will begin on Wednesday, Jan. 9 at 6 p.m. Call 323-1450, ext. 460 for more information.

These recipes will give you some experience with your microwave oven and some interesting foods for New Year.

HOT CURRY DIP I

1 teaspoon butter
1 teaspoon curry powder
1 (8 ounce) container of sour cream
1/2 package Lipton Onion Soup Mix

1 (8 ounce) container of cream cheese and chives
In a 4-cup glass measure, melt butter on 100% power for 10-15 seconds. Stir in curry and microwave 20 seconds. Blend in other ingredients evenly.

Good served as a dip for shrimp or chips.
This hot dip is simple and nice to serve with assorted crackers.

HOT ARTICHOKE DIP

1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 cup Parmesan Cheese
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon onion, minced
1 (8 ounce) can Artichoke Hearts (water packed), drained and mashed Mix thoroughly all the ingredients in a blender or food processor. Spread evenly in a 6" square casserole. Microwave on 100% power for 4-5 minutes, stirring after 2 minutes.

This dip recipe will serve many. A taco type chip is good accompaniment.

CHEESY TOMATO DIP

1 small onion, finely minced
1 1/2 pounds Velveeta cheese
1 Italian Tomatoes (1 pound can), drain

1 (4 ounce) can green chilies, drained; finely chopped

In a casserole melt cheese on 50% power for 6-8 minutes. Stirring after 3 minutes. Add onion, then stir in tomatoes. Heat for 2-3 minutes on 50% power, or until bubbly. Serve in a chafing dish to keep warm. If the dip becomes too firm it can be reheated for 3-4 minutes on 50% power.

Curry blends for good flavor in many dishes.

HOT CURRIED CRAB DIP

1 (3 ounce) package cream cheese
2 (6 1/2 ounce) cans white crab meat, drained and pressed to remove moisture.

1 teaspoon curry powder
1/2 cup cooking sherry
Juices of 3 lemons

Place cream cheese in a 1 quart casserole. Microwave on 100% power 15 seconds, blend until creamy with crab meat, sherry and lemon juice. Stir in 1 teaspoon curry powder. Blend well.

Microwave on 50% power 2-5 minutes, or until bubbly, stir after 1 minute. Allow to cool and thicken slightly before serving on Melba Toast Rounds.

MICRO/Heat: Place 1 lemon in microwave for 30 seconds on 100% power. This will draw or release the juice and will produce more juice when the lemon is cut.

This is the last column for this year. Hope you have enjoyed the recipes as much as I have enjoyed writing this column. Happy times, see you in January.

Soup With Spanish Accent

Everybody welcomes a big bowl of soup when the weather turns chilly, especially if it's a soup you can really get your teeth into.

Big pieces of chicken, California ripe olives and rice give each chunky mouthful something to chew on. Stewed tomatoes, garlic, pimiento and seasonings bring ut full-bodied flavor.

OLIVE ARROZ CON POLLO SOUP

1 cup pitted California ripe olives
2 1/2 pounds frying chicken pieces
3/4 cup chopped onion
3 large cloves garlic, minced
1 1/4 teaspoons salt
1 quart water
1 (8 ounce) can stewed tomatoes
1/2 cup regular uncooked rice
2 tablespoons pimiento pieces
1 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon turmeric
1/2 cup frozen peas
Drain ripe olives; cut in wedges. Put chicken, onion, garlic, salt and water into a large Dutch oven. Bring to a boil, turn heat low, cover and simmer 30 minutes. Set aside to cool slightly. Remove chicken from bones in large pieces. Skim fat from broth if necessary. Measure roth to make 5 cups, adding water if necessary. Return broth, chicken meat, olives and all remaining ingredients except peas to Dutch oven. Bring to a boil, turn heat low, cover and simmer 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add peas and simmer 5 minutes longer. Makes about 2 quarts soup.

An Effortless Entertaining Experience

Festive dining calls for a creative approach to family meals and entertaining. Whether you're cooking for four or 24, a delicious meal can be prepared with some careful planning, leaving plenty of time to spend cherished moments with loved ones.

Remember that special occasions mean there are often those who wish to share in meal preparation. Why not share the glory and allow others to help in the kitchen?

Welch Foods has a few tasty suggestions for easy entertaining that are perfect for gourmet chefs or novice kitchen assistants. These dishes will grace the dinner or buffet table with stylish elegance and can easily be prepared while the turkey roasts. You can say goodbye to the all-night kitchen ritual that usually precedes a feast. The dishes are natural, flavorful and particularly appealing since they include the added zest of Welch's Orchard 100% natural juices.

Special Occasion Punch is a perfect complement to any meal and can be easily doubled or tripled to accommodate those surprise guests who may stop by at the last minute. Served hot, the fruity beverage is a delicious way to ward off winter chills. Sweet Potato and Apple Bake is a flavorful side dish — one that can easily be prepared by adventurous guests, under your careful guidance, of course. Luscious Grape Cream Pie is also appetizing and helps round out the meal, since no red-letter day table is complete without a mouth-watering dessert. And for the main course, why not carve into Turkey with Sausage Stuffing that has been delicately basted and flavored with Welch's Orchard Harvest Juice Blend, a bountiful mixture of apple, white grape, lemon and pear juices.

Within a few hours, dinner is fully prepared! In addition to a tasty meal, everyone has shared in the preparation and can thus participate in the conversation and camaraderie shared by family and good friends — with plenty of time remaining for extra servings!

TURKEY WITH SAUSAGE STUFFING

- 1 turkey, 10-12 pounds
- 1 pound sausage*
- 1 tablespoon oil
- 1 15-ounce package bread stuffing cubes
- 1 cup chopped onion
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1 tablespoon poultry seasoning

- 1 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1 cup raisins
- 1 40-ounce bottle Welch's Orchard Harvest Juice Blend
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1/2 teaspoon ground allspice
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch

Remove giblets and neck from turkey. Wash cavity and pat dry. In medium skillet, cook sausage in oil until brown; drain well. In large bowl, combine cooked sausage, stuffing cubes, onion, celery, poultry seasoning, garlic powder, raisins, 2 1/2 cups harvest juice blend and eggs. Blend well. Spoon mixture into turkey and secure with skewers. Tie legs together and place bird breast-side down on rack in roasting pan. Bake at 350° F. for 15 minutes per pound.

In small saucepan, combine two cups harvest juice blend, allspice and one tablespoon cornstarch. Bring to a boil. Brush on turkey several times during last half hour roasting time.

After removing turkey from roasting pan, mix remaining 1/2 cup harvest juice blend with pan drippings. Bring to a boil. Stirring constantly, add cornstarch to desired consistency for gravy. Serve warm with turkey and stuffing. Ten servings.

*If using link sausage, remove from casing before browning.

Note: If wing tips or drumstick ends brown too quickly during roasting, tent with foil.

SWEET POTATO AND APPLE BAKE

- 3 medium sweet potatoes, peeled and sliced
- 3 medium baking apples, cored and sliced
- 1 cup pecan halves
- 1/2 cup orchard apple-grape juice concentrate, thawed
- 1 1/2 cups water
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon

In medium saucepan, boil sweet potatoes until tender. Arrange sweet potato slices and apples alternately in 9-inch baking dish. Top with pecan halves.

In small bowl, combine apple-grape juice concentrate, water, cinnamon and cornstarch. Pour mixture over sweet potatoes and apples. Bake at 350° F. for 25 minutes. Serve warm. Nine servings.

LUSCIOUS GRAPE CREAM PIE

- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1/2 cup orchard grape OR apple-grape juice concentrate, thawed
- 1 1/2 cups water
- 2 cups whipped cream OR whipped topping
- 1 (9-inch) baked pie shell

In medium bowl, mix unflavored gelatin and sugar. Heat grape juice concentrate and water until boiling; stir into gelatin mixture until gelatin is completely dissolved. Chill until mixture has reached the consistency of unbeaten egg whites. Gently fold in one cup whipped cream. Pour into prepared pie shell. Chill until firm, about two hours. Top with remaining whipped cream and garnish with holiday fruits. Six to eight servings.

SPECIAL OCCASION PUNCH

- 1 40-ounce bottle orchard harvest juice blend, apple-grape juice blend, OR vineyard juice blend
- 2 1/2 cups water
- 3 tea bags
- 2 cinnamon sticks
- 5 whole cloves
- 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg

In large saucepan bring juice and water to boil. Add tea bags, cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg. Lower heat and simmer for 15-20 minutes. Remove tea bags and spices. Serve in punch bowl or in mugs garnished with cinnamon sticks. Twelve servings.

Breakfast Served At Sundown Meal

When sunrise is too early for a hearty breakfast — too hectic, too time-consuming, too many different schedules — try breakfast at sundown. Serve Scrumptious Supper Egg Dish, a quick turn-around meal that makes a delicious change-of-pace dinner. Complement its souffle-like texture with crusty breadsticks and a colorful arrangement of crisp vegetables; cauliflower, radishes and zucchini strips.

Scrumptious Supper Egg Dish is prepared with carefree ease and the convenience of imitation bacon. Simply layer the ingredients and bake. Then relax and watch the evening news while the savory smell of breakfast at sundown whets your hearty appetite.

SCRUMPTIOUS SUPPER EGG DISH

- 2 cups unseasoned croutons
- 1 1/2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese (6 ounces)
- 1 can (4 ounces) mushroom stems and pieces, drained
- 1/2 cup imitation bacon

2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
1 tablespoon margarine or butter
2 cups milk
1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
5 eggs
Heat oven to 325°. Toss croutons and 1 cup of the cheese in ungreased square baking dish, 8x8x2"; spread evenly. Top with mushrooms and imitation bacon.
Cook and stir green pepper and onion in margarine over medium heat until onion is tender. Beat milk, mustard, pepper, garlic powder and eggs in medium bowl with wire whisk or hand beater. Mix in green pepper mixture. Pour into dish. Bake uncovered until center is set, 45-50 minutes. Sprinkle remaining cheese around edge of dish; cool 10 minutes on wire rack. Garnish with parsley sprigs if desired.
Four to six servings.

Serve savory Turkey With Sausage Stuffing that has been delicately flavored and basted with a bountiful mixture of apple, white grape, lemon and pear juices. Add Sweet Potato And Apple Bake, Luscious Grape Cream Pie and Special Occasion Punch to come up with a red-letter day party.

Special Super Sunday Snacks

While the two top Super Bowl Championship contenders prepare for this season's showdown, some 40 million cooks in American homes will be setting up their own game plan to feed the 110 million TV viewers expected to watch the big event.

Super Bowl Sunday, considered the biggest party day of the year, has taken a few sophisticated steps forward from its past image as just another "beer bash for the boys."

Recent studies indicate that 39 percent of the Super Bowl television viewers are women. Perhaps the excitement of the game has finally ignited women's competitive spirit, or maybe former "sports-widows" have decided, if you can't beat 'em, join 'em.

Preparing easy, ready-to-serve snacks such as those tested in the Kraft Kitchens will help even out the score between hostess and fan. This delectable combination of cheddar spread, party mix, tuna dip, nachos and hot cocoa offers something for everyone.

So whether the party is for the husband and his pals, couples, kids or just the gals, try these new food ideas from Kraft...and "Kick-Off the New Year Right."

SNEAK PLAY NACHO PLATTER
 1 lb. pasteurized process cheese spread, cubed
 1/4 cup picante sauce
 1 tablespoon margarine
 Tortilla chips
 1 cup chopped tomatoes
 1/4 cup pitted ripe olive slices
 Combine process cheese spread, sauce and margarine; stir over low heat until process cheese spread is melted. Arrange chips on serving platter; top with sauce, tomatoes and olives. Six to eight servings.

TOUCHDOWN TUNA DIP
 1/2 cup mayonnaise-type salad dressing
 1 8-oz. pkg. cream cheese, softened
 1 6 1/2 oz. can tuna, drained, flaked
 2 tablespoons sweet pickle relish
 Gradually add salad dressing to cream cheese, mixing until well blended. Add remaining ingredients; mix well. Chill. Serve with crackers, bread rounds or vegetable dippers. Two cups.

HALF-TIME CHEDDAR SPREAD
 2 cups (8 ozs.) shredded sharp natural cheddar cheese
 1/4 cup margarine
 1 tablespoon milk
 4 crisply cooked bacon slices, crumbled
 Combine cheese, margarine and milk, mixing at med speed on electric mixer until well blended. Stir in bacon. One and one-fourth cups.

QUICK PASS PARTY MIX
 1/2 cup margarine, melted
 1 teaspoon soy sauce
 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
 2 cups bite-size crispy rice squares
 2 cups bite-size crispy wheat squares
 2 cups chow mein noodles
 1 cup peanuts
 1 3/2 oz. jar macadamia nuts
 1/2 cup raisins
 Combine margarine, soy sauce and seasonings. Pour over combined remaining ingredients; toss lightly. Spread on 13x10x1-inch jelly roll pan. Bake at 250 degrees, 1 hour, stirring occasionally. Two quarts.

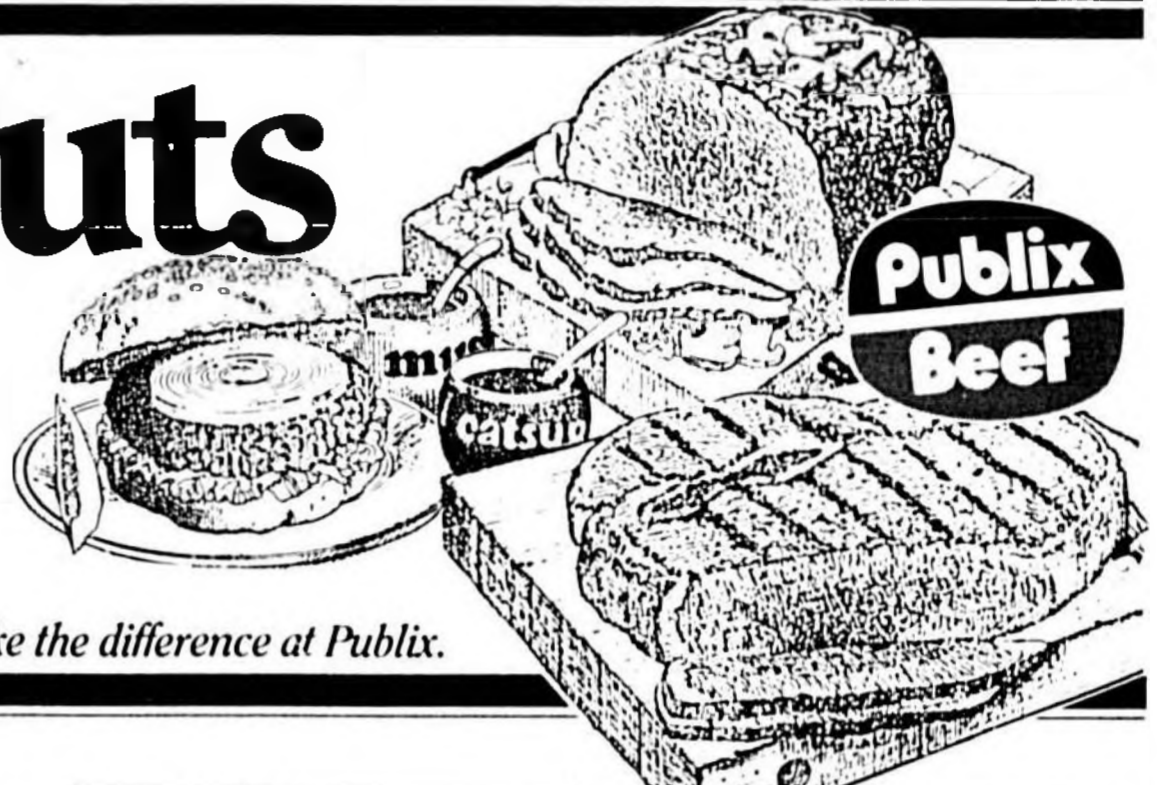

Variation: Substitute 1 cup almonds for macadamia nuts.
COCOA BLITZ
 1/4 cup cocoa
 1/4 cup sugar
 Dash of salt
 1/4 cup coffee
 1 8 oz. container (3 cups) whipped topping with real cream, thawed
 3 cups milk
 Ground cinnamon
 Combine cocoa, sugar and salt in saucepan; stir in coffee. Cook over medium heat until mixture boils; continue cooking 2 minutes. Add 2 cups whipped topping; stir until melted. Gradually stir in milk; continue cooking until thoroughly heated. Top with remaining whipped topping; sprinkle with cinnamon. Serve with cinnamon stick, if desired. Four 1-cup servings.

Sneak Play Nacho Platter stars at Super Sunday festivities.

Yogurt: A Creamy Way To Celebrate

French Yogurt Toast has a flavorful twist.

Strike up the band! It's a parade of recipes to enjoy at home while watching the Tournament of Roses Parade and championship football games on New Year's Day.

One of the many spectacular entries in the upcoming televised parade will be the float pictured here, themed "Mardi Gras." With its marvelous food traditions and merry carnival atmosphere, Mardi Gras also becomes a great theme for a New Year's party.

Your home mirrors the French Quarter when you add Dixieland music and gay streamers in traditional Mardi Gras colors of green, gold and purple. For the party menu, these festive recipes fit right into the mood, whether you're planning a brunch feast, a grand buffet or supper snacks.

All feature yogurt for a unique flavor twist, a creamy smooth texture and always ... delightful versatility.

FRENCH TOAST WITH YOGURT SAUCE

The French created the toast, and they popularized yogurt in Europe. But you can take credit for pairing these foods in this appetizing brunch dish. It's perfect for the New Year's festivities or any week-end brunch year-around.

1/2 cup milk
1 tablespoon granulated sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
4 eggs
1/4 cup vegetable oil
12 slices day-old French bread, 3/4-inch thick
Powdered sugar

2 cups sliced fresh or frozen (thawed) strawberries
Yogurt sauce (below)

Beat milk, granulated sugar, salt and eggs with fork until smooth. Heat two tablespoons of the oil in 10-inch skillet over medium heat until hot. Dip bread into egg mixture; cook six slices at a time until golden brown, about four minutes on each side. Repeat with remaining oil and bread slices. Sprinkle with powdered sugar. Top with sliced strawberries. Serve with Yogurt Sauce. Six servings.

YOGURT SAUCE

2 cartons (6 ounces each) strawberry or raspberry yogurt or Custard Style strawberry or raspberry yogurt from Yoplait
1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon almond extract

Heat all ingredients over low heat until warm.

YOGURT FLOATS

What better way to watch the Tournament of Roses Parade than with a float of your own. This one is made with yogurt and frozen whipped topping for a uniquely refreshing taste and creamy smooth texture.

Fold four cartons (6 ounces each) yogurt (any fruit flavor) or Custard Style yogurt or Breakfast Yogurt from Yoplait (any fruit flavor) into four cups frozen (thawed) whipped topping. Pour into square baking dish, 8x8x2". Cover and freeze until firm, at least four hours.

Before serving, remove from freezer and let stand 15 minutes. Scoop into six tall glasses; fill glasses with sparkling water. Serve immediately. Six servings.

YOGURT POUND CAKE

This colorful cake is reminiscent of the ring-shaped King's Cake, a specialty of the Mardi Gras Carnival season. Tiny party favors are tied to narrow ribbon streamers, which are tucked securely under the cake, creating a dessert center-piece that is as charming as it is delicious.

1/2 cup sliced almonds
2 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
2 cups sugar
3 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 cartons (6 ounces each) yogurt (any fruit flavor) or Custard Style yogurt or Breakfast Yogurt from Yoplait (any fruit flavor)
1 cup margarine or butter, softened
2 teaspoons vanilla
4 eggs

Heat oven to 350°. Grease and flour 12-cup bundt cake pan. Sprinkle almonds over bottom of pan. Mix remaining ingredients in large bowl on low speed, scraping bowl constantly, 30 seconds. Beat on medium speed, scraping bowl occasionally, two minutes. Pour into pan. Bake until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean, 55-65 minutes. Cool 10 minutes. Invert on wire rack or heatproof serving plate. Remove pan; cool cake completely.

Chicken Dish Is Ideal For Health-Conscious Diners

Create your own convenient, frozen food entries with the added plus of low salt and low fat content. Tucked in your freezer for those busy days, Pineapple Chicken and Rice is the perfect choice for health-conscious cooks.

An easy marinade, which contains low sodium soy sauce, is the basis for this intriguing dish. Very time efficient, the chicken thighs marinate while brown rice is prepared. To decrease fat content, the chicken thighs are broiled before combining with rice.

The finished entrée is wrapped in individual heavy duty aluminum foil bundles for freezing.

PINEAPPLE CHICKEN AND RICE

- 1/2 cup low sodium soy sauce
 - 1/4 cup red wine vinegar
 - 1/4 cup honey
 - 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
 - 12 chicken thighs, skin removed
 - 5 cups cooked brown rice
 - 1 can (20 oz.) pineapple chunks, drained
 - 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- Combine marinade ingredients in 13x9x2" glass baking dish. Add chicken thighs, turning to coat with marinade. Cover with Reynolds Plastic Wrap. Marinate 15 minutes; turn chicken and marinate an additional 15 minutes. While chicken is marinating, prepare rice according to package directions. Line a baking pan with Heavy Duty Reynolds Wrap aluminum foil. Place marinated chicken in pan; brush with additional marinade. Place six inches from heat source and broil 10 minutes. Turn; brush with marinade and broil an additional 10 minutes. Turn and spoon remaining marinade over chicken. Broil until lightly browned and tender. Reserve pan juices. Combine cooked rice with pineapple and green pepper.

To freeze, tear off six 14-inch squares of Heavy Duty Reynolds Wrap aluminum foil. Place on cup rice mixture on each square. Top with two chicken thighs and 1 1/2 tablespoons reserved pan juices. Bundle wrap by bringing four corners of foil up together in a pyramid shape. Fold open edges together in locked folds, pressing air out, until foil is tight against food. Label, date and freeze on a baking sheet. When frozen, remove baking sheet. To serve, preheat oven to 375°F. Place frozen bundle on baking sheet. Bake 55 minutes or until heated through. Makes six servings.
