ROBIN IS STILL UP AFTER 387 HOURS IN SKY

St. Louis Fliers Are Beginning To Wear Out Crowds Awaiting To See Finish

LAMBERT FIELD, ST. LOUIS, July 29.—(INS)—Dust parched lips formed just one question today as necks creaked backward and bloodshot eyes peered into a blazing harvest sun.

"When are they coming down?"

The question of course applied to St. Louis' eternal endurance fliers who at 11:17 A. M. this morning had been fraternizing with the clouds continuously in their airplane, the St. Louis Robin, for 387 hours. At that time the pilots, Dale Jackson and Forrest O'Brien had started their seventeenth day in the air.

The endurance flight today had developed into a test for the fireproofings as much as for the two men of iron up above who are determined to outlast their steel and aluminum motor.

"How is the weather down there?" asked the others in a recent note. "Sure it is in 3,000 feet." The reporters and camera men and the crowd which average 15,000 during all of the hot saddle-wiped perspiring brows abashed for the altitude of an endurance flier.

Hot weather is still weather and the ideal flying conditions which many of the experts believe has had a major part in making possible the remarkable feat of the St. Louis Robin, continued to prevail. The heavens became overcast once in a while, but the constant flight in the east coast violent climax to the flight which would end with the plane being blown out of the skies by a terrific storm or even a tornado.

O. H. Parks, the field warden has issued a set of instructions in connection with the plane's landing which include the instructions of the police department for an escort for the fliers and the haste erection of a temporary fence around the now famous St. Louis Robin to save it from the fate of the "Spirit of St. Louis" Linus' sky horse which was torn at the hands of an enthusiastic crowd of souvenir seekers.

Senator Says U. S. Is On Way To World Supremacy In Air

WASHINGTON, July 29.—(INS)—The United States is on its way to world supremacy in aviation.

This was the view of Congressmen as a result of a fortnight of outstanding aerial achievements by American fliers. The landing of an army biplane on the Capitol Plaza here, the taking and landing of a naval plane on an aircraft carrier at night far out in the Pacific and series of remarkable nonstop endurance flights by aviation enthusiasts in all corners of the continent were seen as new gateposts marking the development of commercial aviation.

Senator Hiram W. Blitham (R) of Connecticut, World War aviator, praised the "Spirit of St. Louis" as "the greatest achievement of man since the flight of the Wrights." He said the leaders and pilots of the "Robin," as well as the pilots of a half dozen other endurance flights, were demonstrating to the world the supremacy of American aircraft manufacturers and American ingenuity.

Senator Charles S. Deneen (R) of Arizona, and Senator Harry Ashurst (D) of Arizona, joined with Blitham in lauding the individual efforts of aviation enthusiasts. They said the series of aerial achievements of the last few weeks had demonstrated the remarkable progress made by American aviation in carrying the United States to world supremacy in the air.

INVESTIGATE DEATH

DALTON, Ga., July 29.—(INS)—Authorities today were investigating the death of Robert Fisher, 24, baseball catcher for the McArthur community team, who was fatally injured when struck over the head with a bat during a contest here Saturday. William Smith, another player who is said to have wielded the bat, was going home.

Snook Becomes Ill In Course Of Trial

COURTROOM, COLUMBUS, Ga., July 29.—(INS)—Dr. James M. Snook, on trial for the slaying of Max Theon Dix, pretty much became ill in court today. His attorney requested a short recess in the afternoon which he did not get, but Judge Henry L. Semple overruled the request after he had had Snook examined by Dr. H. M. Brundage. "I do not think Dr. Snook's illness is serious enough to warrant a postponement of the trial but until tomorrow," said Judge Semple. "However, I shall grant half an hour recess at the afternoon session so that Dr. Snook may lie down. Snook's illness followed the tipping of his spine on Saturday by Dr. Brundage, a pathologist, who extracted fluid in making a physical test of the defendant at the request of lawyers for the defense."

POSSES SCOUR FOR CRIMINALS IN JAIL BREAK

Prison Rioting Ends In Two Deaths, Injuries To Several And Ruin By Fire Of Buildings

ATLANTA, Ga., July 29.—(INS)—With all of its buildings leveled by the rioting fire, Atlanta police presented the arrest of a wanted fugitive today in search of four desperate criminals who got away from the police strength after leading to an instant sentence jail break in the history of New York state.

Dr. Leonard was quoted from his position last week, "I am not surprised that the statements at the time we broke in they went about as far as they could go."

Roy and his wife, living high on the hog, were not surprised and have no reason to think themselves "the last ones to leave," he declared. "We may believe, as some have charged, in a single standard of morality for men and women, but I do believe that a man in ordinary relations and contacts in life has as much right to do certain things thinking as anyone else."

"If you believe in it, do not let the youth of today in a period of our civilization you should want to get a more or less soulful difference from that which you and I receive."

"We shall agree that they will be better off if we bring them to a relatively immature maturity earlier, or that they may think, for themselves. When young men and women are brought with us, society, whose they believe themselves adults, and there is no other way to treat them all in an overwhelming manner, the law will still go on," he said.

WALKOUT BEGINS IN ENGLAND WITH SERIOUS OMENS

Grave Labor Troubles Are Compared With Great Strike Of '26

MANCHESTER, Eng., July 29.—(INS)—The most serious labor walkout since the disastrous general strike of 1926 occurred today when 500,000 Lancashire textile operators refused to go to work under new wage schedules representing reductions of 15.2 per cent.

A total of 1,500 cotton mills in Manchester and vicinity were made idle today in a protest against the entire Lancashire mill industry. Only a handful of mill owners, by failing to enforce the new wage schedules, were able to keep their plants in operation.

The walkout follows the almost complete failure of mediation attempted by Miss Margaret Bondfield, minister of labor. No industrial crisis of such magnitude has faced Britain since the general strike and as a result of arbitration have failed, the length of time the walkout is likely to last remained indefinite today.

"Losses that the walkout will occasion reach staggering figures. The workers themselves will lose nearly $5,000,000 weekly," Mr. H. Johnson, head of the advisory board said.

"This department is anxious to see no repeat of the financial interests of this country and country. It frequently a problem arising which our friends' knowledge of the next in the section. We believe that these problems can best be met by a committee composed of practical men, and for this reason we have a few these gentlemen to serve on the board."

Advisory Board To Help Department Of Sanford School

An advisory board, approved both by the school board and the County Commissioners, has been appointed to assist the Vocational Agricultural Department of the high school in carrying on a sound agricultural program.

The board, composed of a group of prominent farmers from the various sections of the County, includes J. A. Bestine of Eastwood, W. M. Haynes and H. E. Winter Jr. of Sanford, R. E. Williams of Lakeland, and G. W. Johnson, head of the advisory board.

ODD FELLOWS DIES

JAMMONTON, N. J., July 29.—(INS)—William Beddoe, 30 years old and the oldest member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows lost in point of age and length of membership was dead here today. He had been a member of the order for 22 years.

From demonstrations staged in the vicinity of the principal units today, it was apparent that the 10,000 members of the organization had decided to remain from work until the fall after such terrific losses that the owners will be forced to rejoin the reduction.

Industries operating parallel the streets at Bolton declaring in the letter to the paper, "There were they would fight the mid owners.

Stage Is Set For "After Supper Sale" To Be Staged By Sanford Merchants

With plans for Sanford's first city-wide "After Supper Sale" revealing final today this morning, the stage is all set for Wednesday evening, when shoppers and visitors from all over the county are expected to take advantage of low prices which will be featured in practically every line of merchandise and enjoy the fun, entertainment and prizes which will be features of the event.

Major Nelson Gray has issued a proclamation calling upon all business institutions to keep open houses for visitors and shoppers Wednesday evening and urging Sanford people to support the event and join in the movement to make it an outstanding success.

An intensive advertising campaign in Lake, Volusia, Orange and Seminole Counties is being conducted, thousands of circulars being used to inform the people of various bargains and entertainments which will be available. Wednesday evening in Sanford, in addition to the circulants, The Herald is issuing a special edition of bargains tomorrow afternoon, of which a number of extra copies will be distributed outside the regular trade territory in an effort to swell the attendance. The event is also being advertised on the screens of both the Princess and Milne Theatres.

Features of the evening will be the awarding of 50 free tickets to the Milne Theatre, unusual bargains in practically every store.

The still-discussed visit of Mrs. Oscar DePriest in the White House received another element for discussion today when negroes were arguing the criticism of Rev.

John W. Ham, evangelist of Atlanta whose sermon here attacked members of the negro race who are attempting to make political capital of the incident.

Ousted Dean, Who Let His Students Smoke, Defends American Modern Youths

ASHVILLE, N. C., July 29.—(INS)—"Flaming youth is not peculiar to modern civilization, and if they want to smoke, why not?"

This is the view of Dr. Henry Davis, formerly acting dean of the Asheville City College here, as expressed today in an exclusive interview with International News Service.

Dr. Leonard was quoted from his position last week, "I am not surprised that the newest students at the University of North Carolina are smoking, as they went about as far as they could go."

Roy and his wife, living high on the hog, were not surprised and have no reason to think themselves "the last ones to leave," he declared. "We may believe, as some have charged, in a single standard of morality for men and women, but I do believe that a man in ordinary relations and contacts in life has as much right to do certain things thinking as anyone else."

JURY CHOSEN IN LIBEL SUIT AGAINST PAPER

lawyer at one time. None of them knew personally either of the publishers of The Herald but two said they had met Mr. Dean and Mr. Berg.

None of the jurors said they had any prejudices against a newspaper and none of them professed knowledge of anything that would hinder or embarrass them in rendering a fair and impartial verdict."

Mr. Carson addressed this question to each of the jurors "Would the fact that the plain tiff brought suit when someone talked about him, instead of doing something else, prevent you from rendering a fair verdict in this case?" They all answered in the negative.

The name of Frank Evans county commissioner, was injected in the proceedings by counsel for Mr. DeCotes, who asked each of the talesmen if he had ever discussed the case with Mr. Evans, or was under any obligation to Mr. Evans. Steven, answering this question, said he was under no "financial obligation to anyone in the world."

The court interrupted to remark that he thought "that ought to go in the record," the fact that there is one man who is under no financial obligation to anyone. This brought a laugh from lawyers and spectators alike.

When examined, Peters said he had heard the case discussed but had not taken the trouble to find out anything about it." Questioned by Mr. Carson, he said, he has employed Mr. DeCotes at various times as his attorney.

"Would you bring in a verdict against this defendant and go home as your lawyer?" then asked Mr. Carson. The talesman said he didn't know. Whereupon Peters was excused by the defense.

Following swearing of the jury, each side announced its witness as follows:

Plaintiff: C. M. Hand, William Henry, E. F. Housholder, S. O. Chase, Frank L. Miller, Miss Velma Shipp, Emory Spear, James H. Lee and the managers of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph.

Defendant: D. J. Thrasher, E. V. Douglass, Paul Shoemaker, J. E. Ritchie, T. R. Higgins, the Rev. A. S. Peck, R. W. Dean, H. Ashcraft, J. M. Wallace, Fred W. Ball, F. S. Lamson and Frank Armstrong.

Court recessed at 11:50 while the prison staff were hard pressed to prevent a general riot until state troopers, armed with machine guns, rifles, pistols and riot guns, arrived on the scene to help hold the criminals at bay.

But in spite of these reinforcements, augmented hourly as troopers arrived from more distant stations, the riot lasted for five hours, the movements of the criminals being hidden by the heavy pall of smoke thrown up from the burning buildings.

Virtually every structure on the prison grounds with the exception of the main sleeping quarters of the men and women prisoners, was razed to the ground. Preliminary estimates of the material damaged exceeded the quarter million dollar mark and in addition virtually all the prison records, including billion cards and finger prints, were lost in the blaze.

Three Are Wounded As Result Of Feud

GRANTVILLE, Ga., July 29.—(UPI)—Thirty members of one family were wounded, one fatally, rear here today in what is believed the culmination of a feud of long standing over ownership of a piece of land.

Mr. DeCotes came into court with his right arm in a cast, following an accident Saturday afternoon when he sustained a broken bone in a fall from a porch. The mishap occurred in Orlando. The injured member was incurred in a sling of black material.

Paul Bradberry, 27, was shot and later died. His sister, Irene Bradberry, received wounds from which she was not expected to recover, and their brother, Levi, 22, was also seriously wounded.

After the shooting, Ben Stephens, 52 year old farmer surrendered to authorities and was held pending investigation. Although the details of the affair were not given it was reported, above, Stephen surrendered that he went to the Bradberry farm to discuss some land over which a rights-of-way was to be taken.

The case attracted few spectators, most of those in the courtroom when the trial got under way, being those summoned for jury service or witnesses in the case. Only a handful remained when talesmen were dismissed until Thursday morning and witnesses were asked to leave the courtroom during progress of the trial.
