Parents and alumni have an extra special invitation to be guests at the Homecoming dance sponsored by the Student Council from 10 to 12:30 a.m. after the game Wednesday evening at SHS cafeteria. The "sensations" will play.

Have you paid your taxes for 1964? Better get with it if you want that four percent discount that is yours if you pay in November.

Have your civic club, Sunday School class, or other group told the Jaycees that you are entering a float in the Santa Claus parade? You can help make this popular affair a real thrill for just dozens of kids, young and old alike.

There will be many a college freshman and upper classman, too — who will cut a few classes to be here for the Homecoming Day celebration. Schoolmates and home-folks alike will be happy to see them. And wanna know something, the Old Clockwinder will give you odds that the young returnees will be even happier to see "the old home town" — and the folks that make it the hospitable spot that it is.

Another idea: the high school that was thought to be "the rock pile" now will look "mighty soft."

More stumbers: What word in the English language is pronounced the same but has four different meanings and spellings?

Then there's this one: One won one $1 prize.

Answer to the stumper: Wright can write the right rite. Right?

Some (not many) American flags were still flown at half-staff Friday.

Sanford-Seminole Jaycees still have some fertilizer for sale. Just call the Jaycee Booth and they'll deliver it to you.

Overheard: I was married for eight years before my wife knew I drank. She found out the night I made a mistake and went home sober.

Thirty-fifth annual barbecue of Judge R. W. Ware's Bible class of First Methodist Church will be held at 7 p.m. tonight at McKinley Hall. Judge Ware opened this class in 1929 and has been its only teacher.

Memo to Carroll Burke: Some people are wondering if proceeds from Christmas Seal sales in Seminole County are going to Orange County, since they were delivered in envelopes with Orlando return address and postmark.

Puzzlers: Pronounce Polish and polish; Job and job.

Dove hunting in Lettler Field on State Road 419 near Wagner has been closed because of the lack of doves. Unless more doves appear the site will be closed to hunters for the rest of the current season. This action was reported by Bob Johnson of the Fresh Water Fish and Game Commission.

Two separate notices on the same church bulletin board leaves the readers in a quandary. Reads one: "Strong drink is your worst enemy." Reads the other: "Make your worst enemy your best friend."

Just noticed that letters from the State Road Department are dated thusly: November 18, 19-Safety-4.

Goldwater supporters are a loyal lot... one such "never say die" individual living on Dodd Road, posted a sign on his property before the election reading: "This house is sold on Goldwater" and has now added the word "STILL."

Cape Kennedy Flooded With Heavy Rains

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — Heavy rain Monday night and early Tuesday flooded nearby low lying residential areas, blocked roads and slowed misable workers driving to work.

A spokesman at Patrick Air Force Base, about 12 miles south of the Cape, said 5.31 inches of rain was recorded during a 12-hour period on the Cape but only 0.39 inches were measured at the air base.

The Brevard County agricultural agent in nearby Cocoa on the mainland measured 7.7 inches on rain, 0.8 inch short of the record set in 1888.

Several side streets in the City of Cape Canaveral were blocked by water six inches deep and more than a dozen houses in low lying areas were surrounded by rain water.

COLD WEATHER SWEEPS NORTH

Heavy rain swept in off the Pacific Ocean on gusty winds today, drenching coastal cities in the northwest with an inch of moisture. Showers also soaked parts of the South Atlantic and eastern Gulf states.

Fair skies covered most of the nation. A slow moving cold front edged southward across the upper Great Lakes and a warm front pushed up the Florida peninsula.

Temperatures at 2 a. m. ranged from six degrees above zero at Limestone, Maine, to 78 degrees at Key West, Fla. Seasonably cool temperatures were the rule elsewhere.

Cold weather Monday set records from Arkansas to New England.

The mercury dipped to 17 degrees at Little Rock, Ark., 19 at Memphis, Tenn., 25 at Jackson, Miss., 27 at Atlanta, Ga., and 14 at Charleston, W. Va.

Rain - But More Needed Locally

You can't buy the stuff Sanford got yesterday but it's free. Only there wasn't enough of it.

Parts of the Sanford area were pelted by two afternoon rainstorms while many nearby areas failed to record any precipitation.

The weatherman promised, however, more rain will fall in scattered showers today.

Yesterday's storms could be seen approaching from the east and ample warning was given to seek cover. They crossed the city in a south westerly direction and soaked much of the area in doing it.

Agricultural interests hailed the rainfall as almost desperately needed and added much more is necessary to prevent a loss of crops.

Dr. Frank Darby, of the Central Florida Experiment Station, said this morning his station recorded .29 of an inch of rain yesterday.

He added the humidity had held throughout the night at 100 per cent and with this morning's cloud cover it all helped the parched earth.

"With the clouds," he said, "we usually get some rain and that will be a big help."

Dr. Darby said the area could use about six inches stretched over a period of a week.

County Agricultural Agent Cecil A. Tucker also pointed to the urgent need for more rain to prevent a serious loss of citrus. He said leaf curl is being noticed on the trees and a fruit drop can be expected unless the area gets some more relief.

Would-Be Thief

A would-be thief was frightened away Monday afternoon after he ripped a screen and tried to open a window at the home occupied by Maybelle Oliver at 1000 West 12th Street, police reported today.

City Digs Up $100 To Pay School Guards

City fathers Monday voted to dig up another $100 or so to continue paying temporary police guards at school crossings until school is out for the Christmas holidays.

The city has been paying out $50.39 a week in salaries to three part-time guards to get children across street safely at West Side, Southside, Sanford Junior High and Crooms High Schools.

Commissioners have appealed to the School Board for help with the school crossings and other problems but as of Monday night had received no answer from school officials.

In a letter to the School Board dated Nov. 10, the city requested the co-operation and assistance of the School Board in four matters including (besides the cross guard problem): The matter of a sidewalk on Celery Avenue from Sanford Avenue to Mellonville Avenue;

A pedestrian cross walk at Sanford Junior High School over French Avenue, at an estimated cost of $16,000, pending approval of the State Road Department;

Activation of the traffic light at Third Street and French Avenue at an estimated cost of $2,600.

The city's letter asked that a meeting be set up to discuss these items and bring them to a conclusion.

A $135,000 expansion of the Geneva central office of Southern Bell Telephone, due to growth of that area, will be commenced Dec. 1, Manager Robert Shelden said today. A $30,000 building, with $105,000 in new equipment, will be installed adjacent to the present office. Service will be inaugurated June 27.

County Deputies Win Praise For LBJ Visit Duty

Seminole County Sheriff's Department has received a "public service award" from Orlando for the part deputies and auxiliary members played when President Johnson visited Central Florida last month.

The citation, framed and signed by Mayor Robert Carr of Orlando, praised the "outstanding public service and co-operation" given the city police.

All available deputies and auxiliary members were on duty in Orlando during the visit of the President. They were given strategic assignments along with other members of other police departments on hand for the visit.

The award reads: "In recognition of outstanding public service and co-operation extended the city of Orlando Police Department in preparation and performance of measures necessary for the safety of Lyndon B. Johnson, president of the United States, on his visit to Orlando, Florida.

Traffic Signal At 436, I-4 Poses Puzzle

By Julian Stetrom Associate Editor

Who's responsible for paying the estimated $1,800 annual power bill for operating the new traffic signals at I-4 and SR 436 posed a question this morning for the Board of Seminole County Commissioners.

Last week it came to the attention of the State Road Department that a blind intersection at the interchange had been the cause for numerous accidents.

The department immediately installed traffic signals and has asked Seminole County to pay the power bill since there are no providing funds in the SRD budget for such expenditures.

Commission Chairman James Avery this morning countered with the observation, "We don't have any funds budgeted for such expenditures, either," and added that "it isn't the county's fault that the interchange is faulty in design."

Avery declared, "It's a design problem and it looks from here that the State Road Department must assume the responsibility. Since it involves a federal highway and a primary state road it certainly doesn't involve Seminole County."

Avery agreed to pay $1,800 a year for the rest of our lives I think the SRD ought to consider rebuilding the interchange. Somebody really dropped the ball, and it wasn't Seminole County."

The chairman also said that he understood that the federal highway people noted the faulty design and had informed the State Road Department.

A motion by Commissioner John Alexander to set up a meeting with the State Road Department before the Commission took any action was adopted by the county board. "Under any circumstances," said Alexander, "we must cooperate with the SRD until the interchange can be redesigned."

City Postpones Action On TV Cable Requests

Snowed under with a small avalanche of applications to permit installation of community television cables here, City Commissioners Monday night listened to representatives of four companies and then voted to table the whole matter for further study and research.

Commissioners were advised by City Manager W. E. Knowles to "move very slowly on this matter." Knowles was announced by all of the cable company representatives for his comprehensive research into the matter which he presented to the commissioners in a memorandum prior to appeals from the companies.

Knowles suggested that the city officials meet and study the matter, draw up their own franchise regulations and send it to the various companies indicating what the city would accept in a franchise and what they would not accept.

"Then we'll see how many are still interested," said Knowles.

100 Flown To Safety

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI) — With a wild burst of gunfire, Congo rebels massacred at least 50 white hostages in a Stanleyville street while Belgian paratroops and American planes carried out a spectacular rescue mission.

The shooting took place within sight of Belgian paratroops rushing to liberate the white hostages.

The daring airlift was partly successful, ferrying 100 hostages to Leopoldville in the first flight. About 30 of those saved on the first rescue plane were wounded.

The shooting of the hostages followed a night of rape and terror for Stanleyville's 1,000 whites, including 29 Americans.

Details of the wanton shooting by the rebels, were disclosed by refugees reaching Leopoldville.

The U.S. Embassy in Leopoldville reported that it understood Dr. Paul Carlson was among a large group of Americans and Belgians shot in Lumumba Square — named for the late Premier Patrice Lumumba, a leftist leader who was murdered after the Congo won independence.

Conservation Tab Of $2,048 Paid By City

By a 3-1 vote Monday, City Commissioners voted to pick up the tab for the Sanford Chamber of Commerce of $2,048.51 worth of bills accrued in connection with the recent Conservation Week exhibition.

Commissioner Earl Higginsbotham voted a loud "no" after he failed in an attempt to amend the motion to say that the city would pay the tab only if the Sanford Chamber of Commerce would agree to join the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

"We simply cannot continue to support two chambers and I'm not going to vote to give them one more penny," he vowed.

Commissioner Joe Baker said he felt that the city should try to support any project whereby the city receives favorable publicity.

Sanford Chamber President A. B. Peterson Jr. and Manager Jim Talmadge made an indication to city commissioners whether they would consider the Seminole Chamber's invitation to join but retain their own status as a division.

'HUMANITARIAN' OPERATION

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The joint U.S.-Belgian decision to send troops on a rescue mission into rebel-held areas of the Congo was taken only when all other measures had failed.

In announcing the action early today, the State Department emphasized that the operation was "humanitarian—not military." It said the Belgian troops and U.S. planes would be pulled out as soon as the rescue mission was accomplished.

American officials said the decision to undertake the rescue operation came after a conference Monday in Nairobi, Kenya, between William Attwood, the U.S. ambassador to Kenya, and rebel "foreign minister" Thomas Kenia.

Three Missing

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — An explosion cleaved a three-story apartment building in half early today near the downtown hub, injuring at least 15 persons. Three others were missing and feared dead.

The three—two children and an elderly man—were in first floor apartments that were buried in wreckage.

Merchants Plan Discussion Meet

Representative merchants from the "downtown" area of Sanford and the South Sanford business area will meet at noon Wednesday at the Capri Restaurant for discussion of problems of the two areas in an attempt to co-ordinate efforts for promotion and beautification.

Representing the South Sanford business men will be George Mills, Robert Yentach and Art Brown. Meeting with them will be John Krider, Seminole County Chamber of Commerce manager; B. L. Perkins Jr., president of the Sanford Merchants Association, and other members of the Chamber board of directors.

'Enemy' Takes Marines

Marines of Marine Barracks, Sanford Naval Air Station, today began a two-day field training exercise called Operation "Catch."

Purpose of the exercise is to train the Marines in the code of conduct for U. S. servicemen, prisoner-of-war life and interrogation methods, a d escape and evasion techniques.

Commencing the exercise was this existing problem situation: A large enemy force has landed on the Florida East Coast and is advancing toward the Sanford Naval Air Station and other military bases in Central Florida. A reconnaissance foot patrol has been sent from Marine Barracks to locate the enemy force, their directions of march, logical avenues of approach and other intelligence information which can be passed on to the Marine and Army units rapidly moving down from the North to meet the enemy threat.

During the patrol the Marines met a large enemy unit which cut off the withdrawal routes and captured most of the patrol. The Marines were marched to the rear and confined in an enemy prisoner-of-war stockade. Here the Marines will remain for the next two days unless they can manage to escape and make their way back to Marine Barracks.

The POW stockade was constructed under the supervision of S/Sgt. V. C. Lawson, the Barracks training NCO, who is "a camp commandant" and "chief interrogator."

During the exercise the men will be questioned by the "enemy" in an attempt to gain military information about the Naval Air Station and its aircraft and other items which may aid their campaign. Men refusing to cooperate will be subjected to "the treatment" in an attempt to break their will to resist interrogation and reveal information.

During the course of the exercise an alert Marine may find the opportunity to escape, evade the enemy forces, and return to his unit. A stimulating escape factor might be the limited food supply of rice and fish for the POWs which has been reported by the assistant camp commandant, "Comrade" E. B. Smith.

The Marine Barracks commanding officer, Maj. B. T. Chen, commented that "in all wars, some fighting men have become prisoners of their enemy. We always hope, of course, that this will not happen, but we want to make sure that the unfortunate few who are captured are aware of their responsibilities to their country and service and know what they have to face as a prisoner.

"A POW's main responsibility is not to reveal, at any cost, information of any nature which may aid the enemy. He then must continually strive to escape and rejoin his unit so he may again become an effective fighting man. This awareness and training we hope to accomplish during this exercise."

MARINE "POW" is given the "torture barrel" treatment in "Operation Catch" exercises of the Marine Barracks at SNAS. The "prisoner" is Lance Cpl. J. H. Luellen and the "enemy guard" is Pfc. Harold A. Miles.

BIGGEST EVENT in Navy circles this week is the Navy-Army football game, Saturday and of course, everyone will be watching, as it is to be televised.

RVAH-3 Officers Wives have joined with their husbands in planning some exciting pre-game activities.

Wednesday at 4 p. m., the Wives will invade the Afterburner for a Navy pep rally, with some of the "most attractive" cheerleaders you ever saw.

Helping to get everyone in the spirit will be "Wally" the goat, who has been "rented" for the occasion from Mrs. Raymond Schaal of Cameron (See photo)

All squadrons are invited to attend the pep rally and also the "watching" party which is slated for Saturday afternoon at the BOQ's on their color television set.

An amusing anecdote was related by the wives who were in charge of the goat.

They told us that "Wally" the goat is a little hard of hearing, but reads lips pretty well.

Mrs. H. J. Bakke, Mrs. William Bolle, and Mrs. Craig Moore are the "goat girls."

Cheerleaders will be LA, Gerald Coffee and LA, Craig Moore. These two are busy practicing their cheers and there will be plenty of refreshments on hand to help soothe any hoarse throats.

Leadr. Dick Johnson, who is in charge of the Afterburner is working with the wives on planning the pep rally.

So remember, it doesn't matter what squadron you belong to, you are invited to join the pep rally and the watch party. Go, Navy!

SEVENTEEN, the Enlisted Wives club of RVAH-7 were guests recently of Mrs. B. B. Brown, wife of the commanding officer of Seven, at Mrs. Kenneth Enny, wife of Seven's executive officer.

The group held election of officers and Mrs. Roy Pounds was re-elected to her post as leader. Others who were elected at this time include Mrs. James Brewer, vice president; Mrs. Ira Sewell, secretary; Mrs. James Bussard, treasurer and Mrs. Charles Stone, chaplain.

These new officers will be installed December 18 at the Lake Monroe Inn at 7 p. m. Mrs. Brown officiated at the election.

Mrs. Pounds appointed the following Seventeen's to do the decorating for Seven's All Hands party, scheduled for December 4th at the Ballroom:

Mrs. C. Stringer will be chairman, assisted by Mrs. Bussard, Mrs. Brewer, Mrs. A. Surbrack, Mrs. J. Coombs, Mrs. C. Johnson, Mrs. C. Stone and Mrs. J. Pappas.

Mrs. Brown was given a fond farewell from the club and was presented with a gift from the group.

Three new members welcomed to the club included Mrs. Otis Berry, Mrs. William Johnson Jr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Widman. Mrs. Coombs, mother-in-law of Mrs. Jack Coombs was a guest at the meeting.

Mrs. Pounds announced that a board meeting will be held at her home, December 15th at 9:30 a. m. The next regular meeting will be held in the conference room, January 19th at 7:30 p. m.

ACEY DEUCY Wives Club is sponsoring a Harvest Dance at the Acey Deucy Club Friday from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. with the music of the Vigilantes combo.

This will be a costume party says Conda Sampson with prizes for the best costumes. There will also be a floor show, she says.

Sunday, November 29th is Amateur Night and everyone is invited to bring their instruments or brush up on their act, as all will be given a chance to perform.

NOW IS THE TIME to plant those pansy plants for blooming flowers in your garden and home next spring.

You can get some lovely giant deluxe pansy seedlings at a very good price from the officer's wives of RVAH-13, Det. B. Betty Catron is in charge of the pansy sales committee. You can call her or President Sue Kennedy, to place your order. All proceeds, of course, go to the club's charities.

WE'VE HEARD all kinds of comments about what a good time everyone had at the Harvest Ball, Saturday night at the Ballroom.

There have been raves about the "terrific" decorations, the "delicious" food, the "real treat" orchestra and everyone seems to have thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Over 200 attended this seasonal night-time function, sponsored by the NOWC, with Vice President Jo Maloney as overall chairman of the whole event.

Much credit must go, too, to Marcia Foy, who was in charge of the decorating crew from RVAH-7. These gals really came up with some wonderful ideas. At the entrance they had a scarecrow in a flight suit, keeping company with a "pumpkin-faced doll."

The entire ballroom was spiced and fragrant with fresh greenery, real trees, hay, autumn leaves, and looked just like autumn in the out of doors.

The tables were cleverly decorated with greenery, dried arrangements and candles, with the lighted candles and all the other decorations casting a festive glow overall.

Centered amidst the sumptuous buffet supper, (catered by the Tradewinds Cafeteria) were over-flowing cornucopias, filled with harvest fruits.

Providing the music entertainment for dancing and listening was the keynotes combo, who kept everyone's feet tapping all evening.

NOWC will have a board meeting December 1st at the home of Betty Stokes at 1 p. m.

Longwood Rally Scheduled Today

Longwood's annual political rally sponsored by the Longwood Volunteer Fire Department will be held at 8 p. m. today in City Park. Candidates each will be given five minutes to state their qualifications and platforms.

A question and answer period will follow. R. T. Milwee will serve as moderator.

Refreshments of doughnuts and coffee will be served by the fire department.

Candidates appearing will be Mayor A. R. Lormann, incumbent, and his opponent, David Westworth; Councilman R. C. Carlson, incumbent, and Jim Reiter, William Baumholser, Donald Smith, Percy White and Leroy "Jerry" Riley; City Clerk Onnie R. Shomate, incumbent, and Mrs. B. R. Gray and Tax Collector Roy Shymate, incumbent, and B. R. Gray.

Young boys were blamed this morning for vandalism at the Wilson School in Paola, according to Deputy Fred Kelly. He said paper was scattered around the rooms.

UF Drive Closes Here Nov. 30

Nov. 30 has been set as the extension deadline of the United Fund campaign window and Chairman Troy Ray is urging that all "Red Feather" bearers get their reports in as soon as possible.

Largest group contribution to date was received from the Navy Base and Wing, with a grand total of $4,635. Largest single contribution is from the Chase and Company officers and employees in the sum of $2,369.

Gold Awards for 100 per cent participation have gone to Southern Bell business office, First Federal, Sanford Police Department, South Seminole Bank, City Street Department, City Fire Department, Seminole Memorial Hospital, City Utilities Department, Central Florida Experiment Station, Cowan's Department Store, Wall Plumbing and Heating, McCroly's, Royal Castle, Rinker Materials of Longwood and Hopper Elementary School.

Total contribution to date toward the $40,000 goal is $28,244 or 70 per cent of the total goal. Mrs. Margaret Gant, executive secretary, reported.

Hazardous SR 431 Protested

By Maryann Miles
Move seeking the elimination of a traffic hazard on State Road 431 by the State Road Department has been launched by business and civic leaders in the Forest City area.

The roadway in question is a sharp, narrow S-curve, including a narrow bridge, between State Road 436 and Oakland Estates.

Pointing to two recent accidents on the 431 highway in which a woman motorist was fatally injured and a tractor-trailer overturned, the Forest City residents have petitioned County Commissioner-elect W. Lawrence Swofford for action. He has promised that, when seated on the county board in January, he will request the matter be referred to Richey Green, SRD district engineer at DeLand.

Mrs. Betty MacGeen, president of the Forest City Merchants Association, who resides on 431 near the dangerous group of curves, claims she has had a number of narrow escapes from collisions with cars traveling at too high rates of speed and "hugging" the middle of the road. She added the roadway is slippery when wet and advocated more caution signs and more police patrolling, especially at night. She also feels the bridge is too narrow.

John Bethea, president of the Forest City Community Association, who lives in the middle of the curves and who "lost" two acres of his land and nearly his home when the SRD improved the road in 1946, feels the biggest problem is the speeders. He believes the present 35-mile-per-hour speed limit should be enforced.

Allan Forward, active in community affairs and a leading merchant, believes that "until this dangerous curve is straightened out a great big-big warning sign should be posted."

Mrs. Ernestine Forward commented the road is especially dangerous when there is fog. She said the highway really is a blind curve and the bridge is too narrow.

Other local residents commented that on the dangerous SR 431:

Mrs. Mary Williamson — feels something must be done to caution drivers about the curves, adding many times she has been forced to the side of the road by uncoming cars proceeding too fast. It is treacherous for folks not familiar with the many curves and sharp turns.

Mrs. Beverly Lashley — a very dangerous road and even blinkers would not be enough warning; somehow there must be a way to give drivers a strong warning.

Richard Ostrander — possibly barricades at the sides of the road would help the situation; there must be something to lessen this dangerous curve and warn drivers.

Mrs. Blackie Herota — it is not dangerous if one is going at the correct rate of speed, but this is not guaranteed from the driver coming the other way; feels there is not much warning given for the group of curves on this spot.

Mrs. Sue Gates — feels the bridge is too narrow, more warning is needed and the road should be straightened.

Mrs. Jo Mayo — this road has had some "pretty bad" accidents and feels there should be more warning signals; too many drivers "hug" the road around the curves.

Wayne Norris — needs to be straightened out; definitely is a hazardous group of curves; commented his 15-year-old son, Mike, "sure hates these curves, they scare him."

Luther Miles — one of the most dangerous roads he has had to travel in this part of the country; just not enough warning for the amount of curves ahead; could stand a bit of straightening out.

Sydney Miles — lives right in the middle of these curves and says they are nothing but a trap — it is outrageous for the State Road Department to have a road like this.

Mrs. Jeri Hightshoe — a hole appears by the bridge; the road department fills it up, and the hole soon appears again. The bridge is too narrow, and is one-way when a truck approaches.

Paul Millisage — at the bridge there is a sinkhole; as it is filled up, it reappears very soon. Says he stops his car by the bridge whenever a truck is crossing as there is not enough room

IMPROVEMENT OF SR 431 between SR 436 and Oakland Estates is being sought by residents of the Forest City area, protesting the road is too narrow and there are too many curves, plus a narrow bridge.

Barracks 2898 Auxiliary, Elect New Officers

By Donna Estes
Nominations and election of officers was conducted at the regular meeting of Altamonte Springs Barracks and Auxiliary 2898, Veterans of World War I, held last Thursday at the Community House.

New officers named were Joseph Keller, commander; Brooks Combs, senior vice commander; Roger Miller, junior vice commander; Ralph Peter, chaplain; William Milligan, quartermaster; LeRoy Stover, judge advocate and Otto Baumgartner, Ben Evans and Bertie Ryan, trustees.

Elected for the auxiliary were Mrs. Grace Lash, president; Mrs. Gertrude Fitzpatrick, vice president; Mrs. Ethel Schuette, treasurer; Mrs. Nellie Miller, conductor; Mrs. Bessie Ryan, chaplain, and Mrs. Ethel Wentworth, Mrs. Edith Hodges and Mrs. Connie Baumgartner, trustees.

A Christmas Party and Installation luncheon is planned for the next regular meeting scheduled for Dec. 17 at 1 p.m. at the Community House. The Barracks will furnish the turkey for the luncheon. Members are requested to bring a covered dish, their own table service and a 50-cent gift labeled for "man" or "woman" to be exchanged.

G. S. Tomlinson Funeral Today

Funeral services for Gifford Sidney Tomlinson, 63, of Paola, who died Saturday, were held at 10:30 a. m. today at the Paola Church of Christ with Rev. Joe Douthitt officiating. Burial was in Sylvan Lake Cemetery.

Born in Green Cove Springs, he had been a resident of Paola for the past 15 years. He was a member of Green Cove Springs First Baptist Church.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Carolyn Tomlinson, of Paola, and a sister, Mrs. Ella Bentley, of Green Cove Springs.

Federal Agency Returns Finding For Chase Firm

ATLANTA (SpI) — The U. S. Department of Agriculture reports that Basil M. Todd, doing business as the Todd Company of Pahokee, has failed to pay a reparation award issued under the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act.

Chase and Company, Sanford, complained to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service that Todd had failed to pay $2,206 for produce received in interstate commerce.

Todd was advised of the complaint, but did not answer the charges, the Agricultural Marketing Service said. USDA then ordered payment of the full amount claimed due, plus interest, through default proceedings.

The Agricultural Marketing Service said that Todd is not entitled to conduct business subject to the PAC Act until the reparation award is satisfied. Further, he cannot be employed by another PACA licensee without approval of the Agricultural Marketing Service.

The PAC Act is a federal statute which establishes a code of good business conduct for the produce industry. As a means of enforcing that code, the act requires that interstate traders in fresh and frozen fruits and vegetables be licensed. The law authorizes the Agricultural Marketing Service to revoke a trader's license for violating the act.

TIMELY TIPS on boning and rolling a turkey were given by E. H. Stewart, of Orlando, before the Seminole County School Food Service Association. Mrs. Charlotte Whitmore is county school lunch director.

Tips On Turkey Told Schools Food Workers

The advantages of boned and rolled turkeys were explained to lunchroom managers and workers of the Seminole County School Food Service Association at South Seminole Junior High School at Casselberry.

E. H. Stewart, of Orlando, demonstrated the technique of boning and rolling the Thanksgiving bird so that it will take less storage space and serve more easily. Ralph Jewell, also was a guest of the association.

Later in the evening those attending were given an opportunity to try their hand at working on one of the turkeys available.

They should have plenty of chance to practice their new skill, according to Mrs. Charlotte Whitmore, County School Lunch Director, as the USDA has donated 130 20-pound turkeys, enough to feed the average of 10,000 school children who eat in the school lunchrooms of the county for three meals.

Each of the 21 county schools planned to serve a turkey dinner with all the trimmings one day this week, an event the students all look forward to with anticipation. Sixty-nine per cent of the students take advantage of the nutritious lunches prepared in the lunchroom, and there has been an increase in the daily average for September and October over the same time last year. In 1963, the average was 7,434 per day and this year, 10,074.

The schools make their own bread and desserts, using 1,000 pounds of USDA contributed flour each day in Seminole.

By no means is all the food provided under the government surplus program as during the first two months of school alone county schools have purchased $96,000 worth of food through local sources, according to Mrs. Whitmore, South Seminole Junior High lunchroom manager. Mrs. Chloé Butts and her assistants, who were host to members of the association, served pumpkin pie topped with whipped cream and iced tea to those attending.

Scholarship Fund Plan Eyed By Solons

By Barbara Frye

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Nothing that Florida's public colleges and universities are packed to the hilt, two legislative subcommittees came up with unique scholarship proposals for state high school graduates.

While the two groups vary slightly in their plans, both would uniquely provide funds for public and private-college-bound students.

And the scholarships, even would be paid for by the taxpayers. They would provide annual grants for students ranging from $200 to $1,000.

By pushing for some scholarship aid that would help students attend private colleges, the committees are trying to save money on having to expand capital facilities at state universities in order to take care of more and more students.

to study the matter further and try to compromise on a single proposal to bring back to the full committee.

Whitaker's group proposed a straight scholarship available to the top five per cent of Florida high school graduates and awarded strictly on a basis of merit with no regard to the financial need of the student.

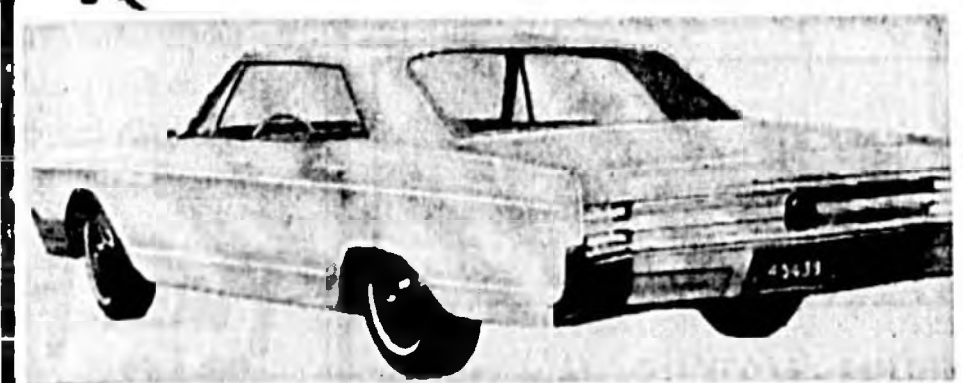

Mrs. Johnson's committee wanted the program available to the top 10 per cent of high school graduates and based both on academic merit and need.

Whitaker noted in his report that 18,000 Florida students are now attending out-of-state colleges "and we suspect that some of them are among our very brightest youngsters."

Legion Unit 256 Sets Date For Sewing Meet

By Jane Casselberry
A special meeting of American Legion Auxiliary Unit 256 of Casselberry to sew comfort articles for hospitalized veterans is planned for Wednesday, Dec. 2, at 1 p. m. at the Woman's Club on Overbrook Dr. according to Mrs. Katherine Corwin, chairman of the Rehabilitation Committee.

Members of Old Glory Post Auxiliary Unit 183 of Altamonte Springs have been invited to participate. Mrs. Kay Burkhardt is Rehabilitation Chairman for Unit 183.

Any women who care to help sew are invited to attend, particularly those who are eligible to become members. It would be advisable for those coming to sew to bring scissors, needle, and thread. Portable sewing machines also are needed.

Following the sewing, members of the unit who have not been initiated as yet will be inducted by the president, Mrs. Della Kryder.

Mrs. Corwin reports that letters of application and acknowledgement have been received from Lake City, Coral Gables and Ray Pines Veterans' Hospitals for the 43 gifts sent from the members of the auxiliary for the Joy Shops where patients may select gifts to send their loved ones at home for Christmas.

Puppy days will be observed by the unit on May 21 and 22 and Mrs. Emily Green is Pappy Chairman.

Publisher To Talk

The role of the press in a conservative cause will be discussed by Duncan Sowler, publisher of the Winter Park Sun Herald, at 7 p.m. today at a meeting of the Seminole County Young Republican Club across from the Altamonte Springs post office.

CLAUDETTE Behrens, sponsored by the Hi-Nooners League, was crowned Queen of the Bowling League at the Harvest Ball of the Sanford Women's Bowling Association at Melodee Skating Rink. Runners-up were Mrs. Eleanor Anderson, first, and Mrs. Elizabeth Klein, second. These and seven other Queen candidates raised $450 for the Victory League benefit of the Association. (Herald Photo)

'Shocked, Sickened,' LBJ Told Probers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In the first few hours after the assassination of John F. Kennedy, President Johnson—like millions of others the world over—found the news hard to believe.

His most immediate concern was Jacqueline Kennedy and he ignored the advice of his Secret Service agents and delayed the departure of his plane from Dallas until she could get aboard with her husband's body.

The Chief Executive set forth his recollection of the tragic events of Nov. 22, 1963, in a statement to the Warren Commission.

"It was Ken O'Donnell (White House aide Kenneth P. O'Donnell) who, at about 1:20 p. m., told us that the President had died. I think his precise words were, 'he's gone.' O'Donnell said that we should return to Washington and that we should take the President's plane for this purpose.

"I found it hard to believe that this had happened. The whole thing seemed unbelievable. A few hours earlier, I had breakfast with John Kennedy; he was alive, strong, vigorous. I could not believe now that he was dead. I was shocked and sickened."

Despite the urgings of the Secret Service and other White House aides, who feared a plot to assassinate all of the nation's top leaders, Johnson refused to return to Washington until Mrs. Kennedy was ready to come with him.

"I did not want to go and leave Mrs. Kennedy in this situation," he said. "I said so, but I agreed that we would board the airplane (Air Force One), which was at Love Field and wait until Mrs. Kennedy and the President's body were brought aboard the plane. . . . I suppose, actually, that the only outlet for the grief that shock had submerged was our sharp, painful, and bitter concern and solicitude for Mrs. Kennedy."

"Despite my awareness of the reasons for Mr. O'Donnell's insistence — in which I think he was joined by one or more of the Secret Service agents—that we board the airplane, leave Dallas, and go to Washington without delay, I was determined that we would not return until Mrs. Kennedy was ready, and that we would carry the President's body back with us if she wanted."

Retarded Children Week

Nov. 18 to 25 has been proclaimed by Gov. Farris Bryant as Retarded Children's Week. Jim Hunt is president of the Seminole County Retarded Children's Association.

The Governor's proclamation noted that 80 of every 1,000 children and adults in the United States are mentally retarded and that, there is a vital need for intensive research to uncover the causes and preventive measures of mental retardation.

"This success of this effort will substantially benefit the health and strength of the nation by making possible better educational rehabilitation services and accelerated research toward the prevention of mental retardation," the Governor stated in his proclamation.

He urged that the many units of the Florida Association for Retarded Children promote a better understanding among the people of Florida and urged that Florida citizens give full support to this effort in behalf of the mentally retarded and their families in the community.

The Herald recalls that the local organization was formed in 1959, by a small group of mothers who conducted a kindergarten for retarded children in the Christian Alliance Church.

The movement grew and attracted the attention of local civic groups, clubs and organizations and that of individuals and in 1960 the county school board gave the group the use of a former school building at Sixth and Palmetto. This was renamed the Little Red Schoolhouse, (although it is painted white).

Through the years the Sanford Civitan Club has been the largest financial contributor to the school for retarded children, selling fruitcake and candy to raise several thousand dollars for the support of the school and the salary of a teacher, and at times a helper.

Other organizations who have contributed a great deal of money, time, material supplies and hard work have been the Elks Club, the Jaycee Wives, numerous Navy Wives clubs, the IOOF, the Future Farmers of America, the chapters of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority and other sororities, church groups and many other organizations as well as many individuals who have given both time and money.

Because of the nature of the work with the mentally retarded, classes have been limited to eight, with a single teacher and 10 or 12, if a helper is available. First teacher was Mrs. Anne Myers. Later, Mrs. Ada Sires took over for several years, but had to resign to care for her own new baby. Mrs. Jerri Keeth taught last year until Mrs. Emmaline Best took over. Now Mrs. Sires is back on the job again. She expects to have an aide in the near future.

One of the prime financial supporters of the Little Red Schoolhouse for the past three years has been the annual Merry-Go-Round, a community-wide talent show, sponsored by the Seminole County Retarded Children's Association and the parents of the children. Chief director of the show was Mrs. Mallie Barlow, a Navy wife, whose husband, LeDr. John Barlow has now been transferred to another Navy post.

First president of the organization was Mrs. Dave Lande. When the Lande's moved Kenneth McIntosh was elected president and served in this capacity for three years until Jim Hunt took over two years ago.

Approximately 20 children have been served by the school, which accepts what psychologists call "educable" children and attempts to install in them as much basic education as they can absorb, helping to make the children as self-sufficient as possible. The age group is from six to 14 years of age.

Mrs. Sires pointed out that one of the greatest needs is for what is called "a sheltered workshop" for teenage mentally retarded youngsters. This is a workshop where older retarded children can be taught some simple hand-craft or trade by which they might earn a portion of their own support.

A few teaching units for mentally retarded children under the Exceptional Child Program of the State Department of Education are available in Florida but for the past several years no new units have been added by the Legislature and the available units have all been assigned.

This means that all financial aid and support of the local school continues to come from charitable organizations, individual donations and fund-raising ventures of the council.

Thought For Today

But he answered. It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.—Matthew 4:4

The best things are nearest: breath in your nostrils, light in your eyes, flowers at your feet, duties at your hand, the path of Right just before you. Then do not grasp at the stars, but do life's plain, common work as it comes, certain that daily duties and daily bread are the sweetest things of life.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Helen Fuller Says

GOP Due For Fight

By Helen Fuller
Herald Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Barry Goldwater has returned from his Caribbean vacation to face, among other realities, the question of his future role in the Republican Party.

A surprisingly large number of GOP notables have declared themselves against continuation of Goldwater control of the national party machinery. To make their position clear, those who feel this way are getting together in opposition to Dean Burch, the Arizona whom Goldwater installed as Chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Goldwater's loyal followers naturally see no reason to relinquish the state and national party posts they have attained in the course of the campaign. Although their man did not make it to the White House, Burch and other Goldwater supporters were elected as National Committeemen and Committeewomen for four-year terms. Legally, they are entitled to occupy the GOP premises until 1968.

But in strictly political terms there is some doubt that the Goldwater group has the muscle to exercise their legal right to party power. Chairman Burch was recognizing that possibility when he announced last week that he would consider stepping down from the leadership if a majority of the National Committee at the meeting scheduled with him to do so. Senator Goldwater, according to close friends, is also likely to adopt a reasonable attitude on the whole question of party personnel on his return to active political duty.

Other Goldwater backers will not be so ready to seek accommodation within the GOP and some anti-Goldwater Republicans may be so rough in seeking to unseat the defeated candidate that they will file him to fight back.

Republican leaders in the five Southern states that Goldwater carried on November 3 are dedicated to keeping the party in the party saddle. The men who head the GOP in South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi and Louisiana will fight before they switch their allegiance to another candidate.

The group of bright young reactionaries who brain-trusted the Goldwater campaign are already looking around for another new, non-shopworn standard bearer. But they too will fight to keep the party machinery in Goldwater hands as preparation for another attempt to capture the White House in 1968.

Anti-Goldwater Republicans as they were in the convention and in the campaign, are less dedicated and more divided than the Goldwater camp. This can mean that they will fail to win control in January as they did in July. Governors Romney, Scranton and Rockefeller — and Richard Nixon — have yet to prove that they can agree on an alternative to Goldwater leadership of their party.

In all the squabbling ahead over that leadership, it should be remembered that the really effective control of the party-out-of-power in the United States lies in the Minority leadership of the Congress. If they retain control of the National Committee, Goldwater & Company can continue to speak for the GOP, but it will be Senator Dirksen and Representative Heflitz, the Republican leaders in Congress, who will act for it in the next four years.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The official was tired. He had been working nights and weekends on Viet Nam and now there was this Red Chinese bomb and what to do about it.

As this man described them, the behind-closed-door arguments now going on in the U. S. government on whether or not to destroy Communist China's atomic plants turn you back in history to the agonizing discussions three decades ago on whether—to prevent World War II—we should stop Hitler from rearming Nazi Germany.

Here, then, are some of today's arguments on China as this official put them:

"We couldn't just go in and bomb Communist China's nuclear plants without provocation, even though if we did people all around the world would probably go to be that night saying 'Thank God.'"

"An unprovoked bombing by America could lead to other countries also taking things into their own hands. Nasser could say it was necessary to take out Palestine's airfields now. Brezhnev could say it was necessary to bomb out West Germany's arms factories or De Gaulle's nuclear plants. So it could go. Where would it stop?

"So there would have to be some new open Communist Chinese aggression before we could act."

"If Mao Tse-tung put Chinese troops into Viet Nam; if Red Chinese bombers hit a South Viet Nam airfield, city or barracks; if China-based fighters attacked American bombers over North Viet Nam or U. S. warships in the Tonkin Gulf, that could do it."

"If Red China attacked Quemoy or Matsu off the China coast opposite Formosa or began another invasion attack on India, either of these also could be adequate provocation."

"But no decision has been made on what we would do. And I don't know what we would do. I won't say we would act. I won't say we wouldn't. We've got some hard thinking to do. We're not going to act hastily or recklessly."

"If we knocked out Red China's nuclear plants, the Chinese could build them again. That would take time. Time is valuable in the kind of a world situation we have today.

"Meanwhile, the possibility of U. S. bombings must cause Mao to think, too. He must be leery of giving us cause to knock out his nuclear plants. This probably won't likely stop him from subversion. But one would think it would cause him to hesitate before open aggression."

"Thus these nuclear plants and Mao's undoubted desire to preserve them from attack should give us a freer hand to act in North Viet Nam with less worry of large open Communist Chinese reprisals."

American officials aren't certain what the Soviet Union would do if the United States did carry out bombing raids in Communist China.

U. S. officials I've talked to in the past few days think the Soviet Union couldn't afford to act against a fellow Communist country. They think the Russians would be secretly happy to have the United States cut back Red China's nuclear capability and publicly glad of the chance to denounce us as "imperialist aggressors."

To The Editor

Editor, The Herald:

We at the Humane Society had our meeting last night. We had a nice crowd; over 25 new members joined us.

Would like to thank the captain of the Salvation Army for leading us in prayer.

Our congratulations go out for our police department for putting on a nice police dog show. Thanks to City Manager Pete Knowles and Chief Williams for their co-operation. Thanks also to the officers and their dogs. The group had a nice time watching them.

We want to thank Paul Jenkins for bringing his pet dog. He is one of our charter members.

One of our speakers was the president of the Daytona Beach Humane Society. We all enjoyed his talk on the operation of our new Humane Society in Sanford.

I want to thank the staff of The Herald for its fine co-operation. Especially Mr. Stenstrom, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Vincent. They have been with us 100 per cent.

Donald Wilson, of the police department in North Orlando, was very co-operative. Thanks.

Every day we have calls from people who have animal problems. We appreciate their calls and we help them. Also, they are animal lovers and they also join our society.

I want to thank The Herald again for the wonderful cooperation for this very worthy cause.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Among Linda's group of young dental wives were a dozen who would have attended patients the first time they would have died in public in the community where their doctor-husbands would start in practice. For wives can hamper the best doctors or else double his practice by their own tact and gracious personalities.

CASE U-38: Linda Griffin, aged 29, is the pretty wife of a dental student.

She had asked me to tell her club of other wives of dental students just how they could be of most help to their husbands.

Since it was a banquet affair at an attractive Indianapolis restaurant, the waitresses asked the wives if they wished an alcoholic drink prior to dinner.

And probably a dozen thus ordered martinis or other highballs.

Moreover, most of these same highball users were smoking cigarettes.

So I pointed out the salient fact that the use of liquor or alcohol by the wife of a doctor (whether M. D. or D. S.) will cost him many patients.

Such a wife, despite her other charms, may actually alienate dozens of patients, and during a doctor's first year in practice he needs every new patient he can attract.

"In the usual community," I warned these dental wives, "over 60% of the women do NOT smoke or use alcohol."

"So when they see you wives lighting cigarettes or ordering highballs, they will boycott your husbands, even though they haven't yet met those doctors."

"For these women usually have children and they definitely do not like to trust their youngsters to any surgeon who may have his judgment beclouded by liquor."

"If your husband were a lawyer or engineer, etc., your use of liquor and tobacco would not be such a serious threat, for mothers don't send their children to lawyers and engineers."

"But doctors are viewed much in the same class as clergymen and are expected to practice their science even in their social life."

Then I presented some of the data from a lengthy survey I had made of patients of dental surgeons.

And one of the chief reasons why adult patients quit one dentist and consulted another, was due to tobacco.

"I don't use cigarettes myself," was the common retort of such adult dental patients.

"That means I don't even relish first-hand cigarette smoke, not to mention the stale second-hand cigarette halitosis of a smoking dentist."

So the conscientious doctor just starting into private practice may be struggling to attract his first 25 or 30 patients, yet his smoking or drinking wife may be alienating them faster than he can win them.

And the usual young wife doesn't even dream that she is costing her husband from $1,000 to $5,000 that first year!

Even though a man may smoke or drink himself, he usually dislikes having his children doctored by such victims of those nuisance habits.

For the D.D.S. and the M.D. often must perform very delicate surgery and the usual parent knows it takes a steady hand to prevent untoward surgical accidents.

In our Scientific Marriage Foundation, too, we have thus far had only ONE man who ever asked us to introduce him to a woman who smoked and drank!

Thousands of men, though addicts themselves, have warned us:

"Don't waste my time introducing me to a woman who smokes or drinks!"

So wives of doctors who wish to attract, instead of repel, new patients should not violate the customs of the usual community!

Editor, Herald:

I have been reading with interest the proposed plan to beautify our city, which I think is wonderful. Sanford with its beautiful lake should have been the City Beautiful all these years and should have grown into a city, rather than Orlando. However for some strange reason, we have in the past had leaders who wanted us to remain a small country town, did not wish tourists and did not wish trees.

I can't help but wonder, however, if there isn't just something wrong with us still.

The city put in the beautiful little mall behind the Valdez Hotel, the walkway from First Street to Commercial, which is certainly a great convenience for everyone and planted trees and shrubs. What happened? It immediately became full of trash.

It is really a sickening disgrace. All that money, effort and beauty wasted. Some of the shrubs are dying for lack of pruning, which I suppose is the responsibility of the city, but what about all the trash thrown so carelessly among the plants?

With $100 fine signs on all the highways, anyone would hesitate to throw garbage on the highways, but what about the litterbugs in our city? Let's make it a city ordinance that even one burned match stick draws a $5 fine, with newspapers, paper boxes, etc. at least $50.00.

Greyhounds, Seminoles To Wind Up Season

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

Seminole High's athletic director, Fred Gasse, is looking for the biggest crowd of the season Wednesday night when SHS hosts the DeLand Bulldogs in the Tribe's annual homecoming tilt.

When Gasse says crowd, he really means the gate. And when he says gate, he really means about 100,000. And who can blame him. Football pays its own way and for most of the other sports at SHS.

We understand the reason we've heard little from Butch Riser at Florida State this season is that he was red-shirted this year. This means Butch will have three more years of varsity eligibility and that actually he can get his masters during his final year of football.

The Ellsworth (Me.) basketball club — state champs and runner-up for the all-New England title last season — which will play the Oviedo Lions in a two-game set during the Christmas holidays, is being brought to this area by Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Cochran who are now residing in their winter home in East Oviedo.

The only five to whip them last season was the Concord, N. H. quintet in the all-New England tournament final.

It'll be interesting, to say the least, to see what the Lions can do with this ball club.

The only thing that bothers us is that this club will play at least one of the two games in Oviedo's bandbox gymnasium which was outdated the day it was built. If you've ever seen it you'll realize what we mean.

They're trying to arrange for another game to be played in Sanford or possibly Lyman.

We had never seen the Oviedo gym until the other afternoon when we were taken through the Oviedo plant. No wonder the Lions have difficulty in getting cage opponents.

We still can't get over the way Lyman exploded in the final period last Friday night to come from a 20 to 6 deficit and post a 26 to 20 win over Lakeview's Red Devils.

And the Lyman folks can't get over it either.

We're still not going to pick Lyman to whip the "untouchables" of Willwood Wednesday night but if the spirit and attitude of the Greyhounds and their backers can last another 24 hours or so the Wildcats will know they've been run to death by a pack of speedy 'Hounds.

From here and there:

Fish hatchery personnel of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission stocked 687, 330 bluegill, shelleracker and channel catfish in 81 bodies of water during October. . . Commission director, A. D. Aldrich, says a free roaming hog may be wild but it's not necessarily a game animal and hunters should use caution. Wild hogs, he said, may be taken as game animals only during the open season designated for such hunting. . . Just about every grid fans agrees the Alabama-Texas battle in the Orange Bowl

LYMAN HALFBACK LARRY LOTT (31) comes in low to bring down Winter Garden Lakeview's Ray Reaves (32) during the Greyhound's 26 to 20 homecoming win Friday night at Lyman Field in Longwood.

Jai-Alai Records Pep Rally Will Open SHS Homecoming

A $1,332 "Perfecta," the second largest ever recorded at any Jai-Alai Fronton in the state of Florida was the payoff in the 11th game of Saturday's matinee at the Orlando/Seminole Fronton.

Winners were Astiga and Pradera who went in on the long odds in post three and walked home handily to pay $16,20 in the straight mutuel. Gasti and Everado were second in post 6 paying $7.20 to place.

The Orlando/Seminole Fronton now claims the distinction of having the two largest "Perfectas" in Florida. On March 16, 1964, the 17-92 Fronton had a $1,360 payoff that also came during a matinee performance. Three of the players who participated in that recorded payoff are back again this year, the winners Ernu and Muruzza and the first half of the second team Jacin.

Indians Face DeLand For Homecoming

By Julian Stenstrom

Two more Seminole County eleven's will wind up their regular season this week — both of them Wednesday night — when the Lyman High Greyhounds travel to Willwood for an Orange Belt Conference engagement with the unbeaten Wildcats and the SHS Seminoles move into Sanford's Memorial Stadium for their annual homecoming game, this time against the DeLand High Bulldogs.

The Seminoles, with a record of six wins, two ties and a single loss in nine previous games, will be seeking to post win No. 7 before meeting the Lonsburg Yellow Jackets Dec. 5th in the Elks Bowl at Lonsburg.

The Greyhounds, a club that's been improving all season, finally put their potentially fine offense into high gear last Friday night and scored three times in the final period to come from behind 20 to 6 and post a 26 to 20 victory over Lakeview's Red Devils from Winter Garden, will take on the Orange Belt Conference champions in Willwood.

The Seminoles will be favored to take the Bulldogs tomorrow evening but the Greyhounds will portray the role of the underdogs against Willwood.

"DeLand," says Head Coach Jim Piggott, "always poses a problem for us." However, Jim and his aides, Jim McCoy and Dick Williams, have been sharpening up the Tribe's offensive as well as defensive maneuvers for this affair.

The Seminoles have been a slightly erratic ball club this season. They've looked like champions at times and then there were moments — even entire quarters — when they appeared as though they couldn't break their way out of a paper bag.

Their final affair was a good example. Against Oak Ridge they couldn't do anything right during the first half. During the second half, they could do nothing wrong.

Against DeLand, however, a club that knocked off Titusville 28 to 13 the Tribe will have to be on its toes. Sanford was lucky to get a 13-13 tie with Titusville earlier in the season during one of their "bad nights."

That was before Piggott scouted DeLand at Titusville and after the game he said, "It looks like we'll have a good game come Wednesday."

A capacity crowd is expected to turn out with many alumni and service men home for the Thanksgiving holidays to help swell the attendance. DeLand usually carries a large number of fans with them to out of town games, but when they come to Sanford they turn out as if it were a home game.

Rose Bowl Game Still A Tossup

By United Press

With all but two major bowl berths wrapped up, it's only fitting that first-ranked Notre Dame, declining an invitation itself, should be the determining factor for what team gets the remaining Rose Bowl opening.

The Cotton Bowl has nailed down third-ranked Arkansas and fourth-ranked Nebraska; the Orange Bowl will feature second-ranked Alabama and fifth-place Texas; and the Sugar Bowl has landed eighth-ranked Louisiana State and ninth-ranked Syracuse.

Florida State is still looking for an opponent in the Gator Bowl, however.

Michigan must wait for the outcome of the Notre Dame Southern California game before it knows which team it will face in the Rose Bowl. Oregon State and Southern Cal are tied for first place in the Pacific Eight Conference, but the Trojans would be almost sure to play against the six-ranked Wolverines if they win this weekend.

Kelso Renamed U. S. Champion

NEW YORK (UPI) — Kelso was hailed as the "American champion" for the fifth consecutive year today by the Thoroughbred Racing Association.

The 7-year-old gelding owned by Mrs. Richard C. DuPont was the overwhelming choice of the 31 racing secretaries at the 30 tracks although scattered votes were cast for Gun-Bow, Bold Lad, Northern Dancer and Tosmah.

The world's leading money winner with earnings of $1,893,362 also was voted the best handicap horse in the country while Mrs. Theodora A. Randolph's Bon Nouvel was chosen as the season's top steeplechase horse.

Major Hoople Offers 2 Juicy Gridiron Upsets

By Major Hoople
 Egad, friends, Thursday we celebrate Thanksgiving Day, which usually means two painful experiences for your correspondent.
 First, I always eat too much of Martha's delectable turkey stuffing. Secondly, the football season is drawing to a close.
 As a fitting climax to a season marked by many sensational upsets I have two juicy ones for you on this week's card.

Winners of last weekend's Pick-the-Winner football will not be announced since several games listed on the slate will not be played until this week. Some will be played Thanksgiving Day and the remainder on Saturday. This means, says Contest Director Roy Green, that there will be two sets of winners announced a week from today.

On Turkey Day, the Auburn Tigers will claw their way past Alabama's Crimson Tide to register a 22-18 victory! Amazing isn't it? And on Saturday, the oft-defeated Miami Hurricanes will shock the legion of Florida University by routing the 'Gators 35-14!

Out on the West Coast, Ara Parseghian will write final to Notre Dame's finest season since 1949 with a smashing 35-10 conquest of the Trojans of Southern California — harumph!

A happy Thanksgiving to you all, and watch for my predictions on the important Bowl Games.

Now on with the forecast:
GAMES OF NOV. 28
 Alabama 15, Auburn 22
 Texas 21, Texas A & M 8
 Tulsa 35, Wichita 7
 Virginia Tech 25, V M I 11
 Richmond 20, William & Mary, 16
 Colorado State U. 22, Texas Western 15
GAMES OF NOV. 29
 Arizona State 21, Arizona 7
 Navy 26, Army 17
 Rice 19, Baylor 7
 Boston College 17, Holy Cross 11
 Clemson 21, So. Carolina 18
 Miami (Fla.) 25, Florida 14
 Georgia 19, Georgia Tech 17
 Houston 10, Cincinnati 6

All-Ivy Fullback Receives Honors

PRINCETON, N. J. (UPI)—Princeton University's All-Ivy fullback, Cosmo Iacavazzi, was named by the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Thursday as 1964 scholar-athlete at large.
 Iacavazzi, captain of the unbeaten Tigers, is an aeronautical engineering major. He has maintained a B-plus average while taking such courses as aircraft and missile performance and thermodynamics.

Grey Cup On TV

TORONTO (UPI)—The professional football championship Grey Cup game from Toronto's National Exhibition Stadium next Saturday will be televised on an expanded ABC-TV Wide World of Sports program on Nov. 28.

GREYHOUND QUARTERBACK Jack Blanton (12) picks up an important first down for Lyman during its come-from-behind 26 to 20 Orange Belt Conference triumph over the Lakeview Red Devils of Winter Garden.

Mickey Wright Top Winner

BILOXI, Miss. (UPI)—Mickey Wright—whose ambition is to be the greatest woman golfer of them all—today ranked as all-time money winner of the women pros with nearly $177,000 in official loot during her spectacular 10-year career.

The 39-year-old Dallas blonde, leading money winner for the past four years in the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA), won the Mary Mills Invitational tournament here Sunday to move ahead of veteran Betsy Rawls in overall earnings.

She did it the hard way—overcoming bitter cold and a brisk wind to a one-under-par 70 on the final round after a double bogie left her two over at the turn.

Sports Summary For Weekend
 Saturday
 NEW YORK (UPI)—Floyd Patterson and George Chuvalo were matched for a 12-round bout at Madison Square Garden on Jan. 29.

ALBANY, N. Y. (UPI)—New York state extended the large and small game hunting season in parts of the southern zone of the state until Dec. 6.

MANILA (UPI)—Flash Florde, the world junior lightweight boxing champion, out-punited Sub Kang II of South Korea in a 12-round bout.

LAFAYETTE, La. (UPI)—Miller Barber of San Antonio, Tex., won the $25,000 Cajun Classic golf tournament with a total of 277.

BILOXI, Miss. (UPI)—Mickey Wright raised her lifetime golf earnings to a record $176,994 when she won the Mary Mills Invitational golf tournament.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Former middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson arrived in New York to make final preparations for his Friday night Madison Square Garden fight with Jose Torres of Puerto Rico.

Worst earthquake ever to hit the United States was that at San Francisco, Calif., on April 18, 1906.

'Canes Practice For Slavia Tilt

By Jim Bacchus
 Herald Sports Writer

Cocher Dave Miller of South Seminoles is looking forward to another successful basketball season. His Hurricanes have begun practice for their first encounter on the schedule — a game with Slavia Nov. 25. Among other opponents on their schedule this year are the Sanford Junior High Braves, who defeated them for the county championship last February, the Lion Cubs of Oviedo Junior High, and the Dons from Mary Help of Christians School in Tampa.

One of several bright spots in the 'Canes' lineup is the return of two starters from last year's quintet—4.3 center Bruce "Red" Stuart and guard Jim Lucas. Both were among the regular cast last winter as eighth graders and are expected to provide the winning spark of experience for SSJH.

Stuart averaged nearly 10 points a game, during last season's campaign and was the 'big man' under the boards for the Hurricanes. Lucas has established himself as a fine ball handler and court commander and will be expected to demonstrate his skill again.

Joining the varsity cast for the first time are the members of last season's off-victorious JayVee squad. Chief among them are Brant Rose, 6-1 and a constant scoring threat, Mike Hargis, a steady performer at forward, and Matt Hiekk, a good backcourt man. Others in the running for starting positions are Ron Tulbert, Rif West, Dave Drueding, Steve Shepherd, Mike Rickett, Bob Means and Jim Kennedy.

Frank Rice Wins Honors With 533

Frank Rice took high series honors last week in the DeBarry Social League bowling activity when he posted a 533. Whitley Hall came up with a 523 and Bill Miller posted a 512. Alfred Faron had a 510 and Ellsworth Ogden a 508.

Rice also had the high single game, a 210. Francis Pechold posted a 206 and Martin Yost a 202. Faron Builders leads the circuit with a record of 29 games won and 11 losses.

Pre-Nuptial Party Fetes Miss Clark

By Mrs. Clarence Snyder
Miss Regina Clark, lovely bride-elect of Charles Parker of Oviedo, was honor guest of a kitchen shower when her grandmother, Mrs. Guy Beall, and Mrs. Eva Williams entertained at the Beall home.

The guests played the game of bride with prizes going to Mrs. Lola Brooks, Mrs. P. T. Piety and Mrs. Eva Williams before the bride-to-be opened her many lovely gifts.

The refreshment table was overlaid with lace and centered with an arrangement of white gladiol and mums. Mrs. Williams served punch from the cut glass punch bowl which was complemented with open faced sandwiches, individual cakes topped with a wedding bell, candies and nuts.

Attending or sending gifts were the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Kenneth Clark; the prospective groom's mother, Mrs. S. E. Parker; Mrs. Lola Brooks, Mrs. P. T. Piety, Mrs. Clarence Snyder, Mrs. Eva Williams, Mrs. Frank George, Mrs. Joe Masters and Miss Jean Masters.

Linda Hittell Hosts Meeting Of Phi Gamma Eta

Linda Hittell was recently hostess for Phi Gamma Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. Goods were collected from the members for the annual Thanksgiving basket, which will be taken to the Good Samaritan Home.

The chapter discussed deeply and voted to participate with the other local chapters in the Valentine Ball to be planned for the chapter Valentine Girls in February.

Ceramic ashtrays are still being made by the chapter. Other Beta Sigma Phi members are welcome to order them from Phi Gamma Eta.

A Christmas gift has been sent to the chapter foster child in Viet Nam, and sport shirts and undershirts have been sent to the State Mental Hospital.

Refreshments of Waldorf Red Cake and Cokes were served to the following members: June Warner, Linda Reck, Shirley Stump, Mary Sharp, Joan Brooks, Jan Vihlen, Jean Gonzalez, Leslie Best, Peggy Crever, Linda Hittell and Mrs. Glenn McCall, advisor.

Bridal Shower Honors Miss Dreier

Miss Jennifer Lynn Dreier, lovely bride-elect, was honor guest recently of a miscellaneous bridal shower at the DeBary Fire Hall given by her aunts, Mrs. Esther Justinger, Mrs. Edward Wood, Mrs. Henry Thurstam and Mrs. H. O. Johnson of Titusville.

The guests participated in bridal games and contests, with prizes awarded the winners. Highlight of the evening was the opening of the many lovely gifts the bride-elect received.

The refreshment table, centered with a low arrangement of assorted pink and white blossoms and accented with tall pink tapers in crystal holders, was covered in sheer pink linen. A crystal punch bowl contained refreshing pink fruit punch. Complementing the punch and tea was an assortment of petit fours, slipper mints, brandied nuts and individual cakes.

Guests included Mrs. Shirley Dreier, mother of the bride-elect, and the Meses. H. Fielder, P. Masma, O. P. Ferguson, J. A. Johnson, James Pelow, J. H. Scott, H. C. Thurstam, C. Urban, William Wankosky, Clarence Miller and Hazel Coffin.

Also the Meses. William Burbank, Vivian Dennis, E. Wood, Larry F. Jackson, Bert Gould, George Dove, J. Justinger, P. Davis and William Hennegen.

Also the Meses Pamela Massie, Holly Ann Johnson, Pearl Smith, Vicki Ferguson, Cathy Jo Johnson and Barbara Kanner.

Sorority Hears Dr. Perez

Members and guests of the Gamma Omega chapter of Epilon Sigma Alpha met recently at the First Federal Building Caucus Room to participate in an informative educational program. Dr. Luis Perez, the guest speaker, was introduced by the president, Mrs. Kathy (Henry) Tooke. Dr. Perez presented an effective program on Communism. His speech stimulated an active question-answer period in which the audience received suggestions for personal responsibility in developing a stronger Democracy and thus combating Communism.

This program was one of the highlights of a series of programs the chapter is presenting in an effort to be better informed. Dr. Perez gave many ideas on how members can truly "Wake Up and Participate" which is this year's educational theme. The discussion was continued into the coffee hour which followed the program. The social portion of the evening was under the direction of Mrs. Pat (Terry) Smith.

Creating Novel Bird Cages Fascinates Azalea Members

The Dempsey Carnes guest house at Lemon Bluff was the scene of the dinner meeting of Azalea Club, recently. Guests gathered at 6:30 p.m. and dinner was served at 7. Mrs. Carnes and her co-hostesses, Mrs. J. L. Clark, Mrs. James H. Coon, Mrs. Frank Thomas, chose a rustic motif with earthen crocks holding arrangements of dried wheat, sage and seed pods brightened by clumps of Bitter-sweet.

Mrs. Henry Russell presided at the after-dinner meeting and appointed Mrs. Roy Tillis and Mrs. Lee A. Wheeler to plan the pre-Christmas meeting for the evening of Dec. 10. Mrs. Porter Lansing, club treasurer, gave the financial report. Courtesy chairman, Mrs. Roy Boyd, thanked Mrs. Carnes and her committee who provided the beautiful and sumptuous meal.

Miss Ella Lee Kirchhoff, garden therapy chairman, thanked Mrs. R. F. Steele for toys donated to the "Little Red School House."

Several sets of nested cans painted in varied bright colors were displayed. These were prepared by Mrs. J. P. Cullen, Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Russell. Miss Kirchhoff said that the children would enjoy them in their sand box, or stacking and nesting them. The youngsters appreciate having something to take home, such as little bunches of flowers or plants, and they are real happy that the Civilians are going to make their little school house truly "RED."

Program chairman, Mrs. C. P. Harkey announced hostesses for the remainder of the club year and thanked members for being so gracious and willing to entertain the group.

She introduced Mrs. Metta Starke who conducted a workshop. The mammoth dining table was cleared and converted into a work bench. Red, gold, green and black coat hangers (under Mrs. Starke's supervision) were turned into novelty bird cages. These when decorated with plastic flowers and ribbons, also a bird, made very pretty wall decoration. Eight were completed and displayed on a wall. Others were brought home for a "little touching up." Mrs. Starke remained serenely pleasant as she helped and directed.

Everyone left Lemon Bluff quite pleased with their efforts, appreciative of Mrs. Starke's program and the Carnes' hospitality.

TALENTED DUO, Miss Jeri Wheatland and Miss Debbie Dalton, sang and danced their way into the hearts of local Shriners Thursday night at the club's dinner. Here the cute pair strike one of the poses in their dance numbers.

Longwood Mayor, Councilman Seeking Re-Election Dec. 1

By Donna Estes
Incumbent Mayor A. R. Lormann and Council Chairman R. C. Carlson of Longwood are seeking re-election to their respective posts in Dec. 1 municipal elections. Campaign platforms have been released to The Herald by both candidates.

The six planks in Lormann's platform are (1) to continue to work for the orderly economic growth of Longwood; (2) to continue to dispense justice, tempered with leniency in all municipal court proceedings; (3) to continue to counsel teenagers and parents with problems for the purpose of creating better citizens; (4) to continue to insist on well equipped, efficient, highly trained police and fire departments; (5) as in the past, represent the citizens of Longwood with dignity and (6) to continue to work harmoniously and cooperatively with city council as well as with those of the county and surrounding communities.

He states he is seeking re-election because he "wants to see the city continue to progress in an orderly manner, to become a better, safer place in which to live and own a business and to continue to be a city with low taxes."

Lormann, a realtor with offices in Casselberry and Fort Myers, is married and has one son and two daughters attending Lyman High School. He is president of the Seminole County Board of Realtors, president of the Lyman High PTA and a director of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

Carlson, a resident of the city for 20 years, has many years experience in municipal and school board administration in his home town in Illinois as well as in the Longwood city government.

He states he is available at all times to assist in the affairs of the city and, if re-elected, it shall be his sincere purpose to continue serving citizens of the community to the best of his ability as he has tried to do in the past.

He advises "he believes in orderly progress that will not place a heavy burden upon taxpayers of the community. He is married, has one son and four grandchildren, all living in the area.

630 Attend First Camporee To Be Held At Camp Howard

By Jane Casselberry
An awards ceremony Sunday afternoon marked the end of a successful three day Fall Camporee for 630 Boy Scouts, Explorers and their leaders, of the Wekiwa District. This was the first camporee ever held at Camp Howard on Markham Road and only the second in Seminole County for the past several years and 30 area troops participated.

The theme of the camporee was "Our Proud Heritage" and units gave their campsites the names of historic towns or places, such as "The Alamo" or "Valley Forge."

Chief Tomahawk Bob Voke of Maitland was in charge of the meet. Chosen as the most outstanding troops participating were Troop 239, sponsored by the Orlando Air Force Base, first place; Troop 341, sponsored by the Casselberry Community Methodist Church, second, and Troop 202, sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Union Park, third.

High point patrols were Titan Patrol, Troop 39, first; Eagle Patrol, Troop 30, second, and Raccoon Patrol, Troop 64, third.

Special awards went to Troop 212 for the cleanest campsite; 219 for lean-to's made from native material; 35, best town name sign; 61, color guard and bugler; 61, new leadership; 114, good turn; 205, moving in formation, and 39, 211, and 64 for signaling proficiency.

Kaliga Chapter of the Order of the Arrow presented a plaque for distinguished service to chapter member J. B. Greenman of Winter Park for his 48 years in Scouting.

The chapter's tapping out ceremony was a highlight of the council fire program Saturday night. Songs, skits, and an impressive burning of worn out flags were also included.

Scoutmaster Ed Granberry of Winter Park was chosen to be the new Chief Tomahawk to head planning for the Wekiwa District Spring Camporee at a Crackerbarrel Session of adult scouters Saturday night. In addition to Casselberry, county troops represented were Troops 38 and 114 of Altamonte Springs and Explorer Ship 230, and Troop 230 of Bear Lake.

Fire Auxiliary Hears Report On Officers

Nominating committee reports for new officers of the DeBarry Volunteer Fire Department Auxiliary were given at the group's November meeting by committee chairman, Mrs. Charles Schneider.

Named were Francanna Howard, president; Mabel West, vice president; Mrs. T. Cully, treasurer; Mrs. P. Froetscher, secretary; Mrs. H. Vilt, corresponding secretary and Mrs. M. Phillips, three year director.

Other business on the agenda included discussion and plans for a Christmas Party for members of the department and auxiliary. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. P. Little and other members of her committee.

United Press International
Rheumatic disease cost Americans more than $2.5 billion last year, more than three quarters of which resulted from wages and salaries lost due to crippling arthritis and rheumatism, according to Life and Health magazine.

VFW Auxiliary Welcomes Six New Members

Six new members were welcomed at the November meeting of DeBarry's VFW Auxiliary Unit 9003 by the president, Mrs. Myrtle Hill, who spoke on behalf of the entire organization.

In the new group are Mrs. Irene Terbell, re-instated, and Mrs. Essie Batson of DeBarry; Mrs. Edith Ramp, a gold star mother and transferee from Unit 2269 of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Julia Armstrong and Mrs. Josephine Weeks, all of Deltona and Mrs. Ethel Perlick of Unit 1808, Bayside, Long Island, N. Y., transferee.

In other business, Mrs. Ann Morrison was elected as chaplain and installation was by Mrs. Ruth LaChat, past president. Reports on past projects were heard and donations were received for VFW National Christmas Seals and the Florida Cottage at Eaton Rapids, Mich., home for orphans and widows.

The next meeting was announced for 7:30 p.m., Dec. 15 at the Fire Hall when a Christmas Party and exchange of gifts will be enjoyed.

During the social hour following the meeting, refreshments of pumpkin pie and coffee were served and all attending sang "Happy Birthday" to Mrs. Hill.

Two Attend Conference

By Jane Casselberry
Two members of the Senior MYF of Casselberry Community Methodist Church attended the Conference on Church Vocations held Friday through Sunday at the Methodist Youth Camp near Leesburg. They were Valoria Shea, program chairman and Dan Casselberry, president.

Miss Eleanor Zukowski, a member of the older youth group who is attending Florida Southern College, also was at the conference.

SPEAKER for Wednesday's 7:30 p.m. special program at Sanford Free Methodist Church, 510 West Fourth Street, will be Rev. Merlin Bidwell, Free Methodist missionary to the Philippines. The public is invited.

Churchill At 90

'Man Of World' To Be Honored

By Tom A. Cullen
LONDON (NEA) — Britons will honor a legend on Nov. 30, when Sir Winston Churchill celebrates his 90th birthday. For Churchill is no longer regarded here as a mere man. He has become something larger than life and monumental.

How does one pay homage to a living monument? Lay wreaths at its feet? This year, for the first time, the nation feels keenly the inadequacy of the public tributes planned for its hero and the world's greatest living statesman.

This year, too, has seen great changes in Britain. On Nov. 30 there will be no members of Parliament to jump to their feet and to wave their order papers as usually happens when Churchill enters the House of Commons on his birthday. He will not be there. The Grand Old Man of British politics retired as a member of Parliament earlier this year.

Churchill's seat on the Conservative front bench in the Commons is now empty. No longer do the eyes of spectators stray to the gnome-like figure cupping his ear to catch snippets of "question time" in the Commons, the sharp thrust and parry of debate. Even his opponents admit that the House of Commons is a lesser place for Churchill's absence.

One wonders what he would have made of the present Labor government with its razor-edge majority of five votes. With his memories of Ramsey MacDonald and Clement Attlee, formed Labor premier, would he dismiss the present crew as "sputtering craters from extinct volcanoes?"

One reason why Churchill is now regarded as a legend, and as such is held in awe, is that his life covers such a tremendous span. When Winston Churchill was born in 1874, Queen Victoria had been on the throne for 37 years, and the exotic Disraeli with his black curls was her prime minister.

Winston was still a schoolboy at Harrow when Queen Victoria celebrated her Golden Jubilee. When he entered the army at the age of 21, Gladstone had just retired from politics, and Gladstone had heard the guns saluting the Duke of Wellington's victory over Napoleon at Waterloo.

How will Britain honor the man on whom the world has already heaped its highest honors? Perhaps the most fitting tribute to Churchill on his 90th birthday would be a and Kings depart: Still that written by one of his fellow countrymen, Rudyard Kipling: "The tumult and the

County Pushes For College

Consideration Requested Of State Board

By Julian Stenstrom
The Seminole County Board of Commissioners Tuesday adopted a resolution calling for the State Junior College Board to give favorable consideration to a request for a community college facility for Seminole County.

Seminole County Judge Vernon Mize and County Supt. of Public Instruction R. T. Milwee appeared before the commission and requested the county board's assistance. They represented the long range planning committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce which is co-operating with the Board of Public Instruction in trying to obtain the school for this area.

Milwee told the commission that such a school could be financed by the State of Florida with Seminole County's share amounting to five per cent of its Minimum Foundation funds—or about $25,000 annually.

County Offices Add Services

All Seminole County residents now may communicate toll free with the offices of the Seminole County Engineer and the County Road Department.

The two county departments have installed telephones off the Winter Park Telephone Company exchange so that residents in the southern section of the county may have toll free phone service.

The same number, 514-2125, will permit callers to contact either office which is located in the same building adjacent to the former county home on U. S. 17-92.

Troopers Crush Round Of Riots

SAIGON, South Viet Nam—(UPI)—South Vietnamese paratroopers smashed through a 15-foot-high wall of flame on a downtown Saigon street today to crush a new round of anti-government riots.

William O'Dwyer Dies Of Attack

NEW YORK (UPI)—Tributes continued to pour in today for William O'Dwyer, the Irish immigrant, who rose from food carrier to mayor of the nation's largest city. O'Dwyer, 74, died Tuesday of a heart attack.

Americans Ready To Give Thanks

By United Press
In the hallowed tradition of the forefathers, Americans prepared today to give thanks and enjoy a long Thanksgiving weekend.

There was last minute shopping for turkeys, cranberries and pumpkins. For many, there was preparation for a trip home from college or for a drive to visit relatives or friends.

The National Safety Council does not keep records of the number of persons killed in traffic during a Thanksgiving day weekend. But the council said that during an equal 102-hour non-holiday period in November, 1963, from 6 p. m. Wednesday until midnight Sunday, 682 persons died in traffic accidents.

Heavy rain fell in the Southeast today, Thanksgiving eve. Cold and snow pushed into Montana and North Dakota.

Between one and two inches of rain fell at Pensacola, Fla., Anniston, Ala., Chattanooga, Tenn., and Huntsville and Montgomery, Ala.

One inch of snow fell at Great Falls and Lewiston in central Montana. Cold wave warnings were posted.

Nearly one inch of rain fell at Walla Walla, Wash. Snow was predicted from northern Minnesota to Arizona, with heavy snow in Idaho's mountains.

War On Poverty To Be Launched In December

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (UPI)—Sargent Shriver, head man in the war on poverty, conferred with President Johnson Tuesday and then announced a $35 million "first major assault on ignorance, want, and deprivation."

He said the domestic Peace Corps will start training before the end of next month. Shriver unveiled a list of 79 projects after a two-hour conference with the President at the LBJ Ranch.

Another 41 projects—youth job training camps—will use $15 million in federal grants and bring the number of individual programs to 120.

Shriver said the government would bear the major cost of the programs, $32 million of the $35 million total, but the plans will be administered by state and local officials.

The largest single grant was $2.8 million, which went to Detroit for a community action program by the total action against poverty organization.

Shriver said the grants were made on the basis of applications from individual communities.

Jack Conway, head of the Community Action Program, said he sought variety for this first major list of projects.

County Chamber Elects Directors

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce has elected directors for the next three years, according to the ballot canvassing committee headed by Robert Shelden.

Named by the Chamber membership were: Districts 1, 2 and 3—John Alexander, Joe B. Baker, Arthur H. Beckwith Jr., Bob Crumley, S. J. Davis Jr., Walter Gielow, Howard W. Holmes, Harold H. Kastner, Clifford McKibbin, H. L. Perkins Jr., Carl Schilke and A. K. Shoemaker Jr.

District 3—James P. Avery Jr. and Byron L. Kimball. District 4—George Means and Julian Stenstrom.

Serving with Shelden in canvassing the ballot were Robert Murray, Mrs. Joan Ludwig, Mrs. Martha Raborn, Scott Burns and James Grant.

Reliable reports reaching Vienna said the students broke through police lines, smashed windows and shouted "Yankee go home."

Drive Under Way To Save 350

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—Government troops swarmed into Congo jungles today in a desperate drive to save more than 350 hostages at the mercy of kill-crazed rebels. Fifteen Americans were reported in rebel hands. At least 17 hostages, including two Americans, were slaughtered Tuesday before help could reach them. They were cut down in the streets of Stanleyville just as Belgian paratroopers dropped in to the city from U. S. Air Force planes in the first phase of a massive rescue operation.

Other reports said the death toll was as high as 35. The slain Americans were Paul Carlson, 38-year-old missionary doctor from Culver City, Calif., and Miss Phyllis Rine, 25, Mount Vernon, Ohio, a school teacher.

The 25 Americans included 17 U. S. citizens and four citizens of Belgium. In Washington, Undersecretary of State George Ball said the rebel leaders would be tracked down and accountable for the massacre.

"They will be run down," Ball said, adding that this job had been undertaken by the Congolese army.

Stanleyville, the last major rebel stronghold, was firmly in government hands today. A Congolese army column, led by white mercenaries, pushed into the city almost simultaneously with the Belgian air-drop.

Seminoles Cry Scalp DeLand

Former County Commissioner Vernon Dunn has urged the present Commission to give favorable consideration to a State Road Department plan to eliminate parking on U. S. 17-92. Dunn said he could not pinpoint any hazards on the east side of the highway and stressed that several businesses in the Fern Park area depend upon parking. But he did say that there were several hazards on the west side of the highway, particularly in the area of Ridge Road and South Street.

The county's building code provides that swimming pools in residential areas must have a minimum four-foot high fence around them. But what about portable pools? County Zoning Director Bob Brown told the County Commission and Mrs. Lanna Parker of West Altamonte Heights that portable pools do not require fences.

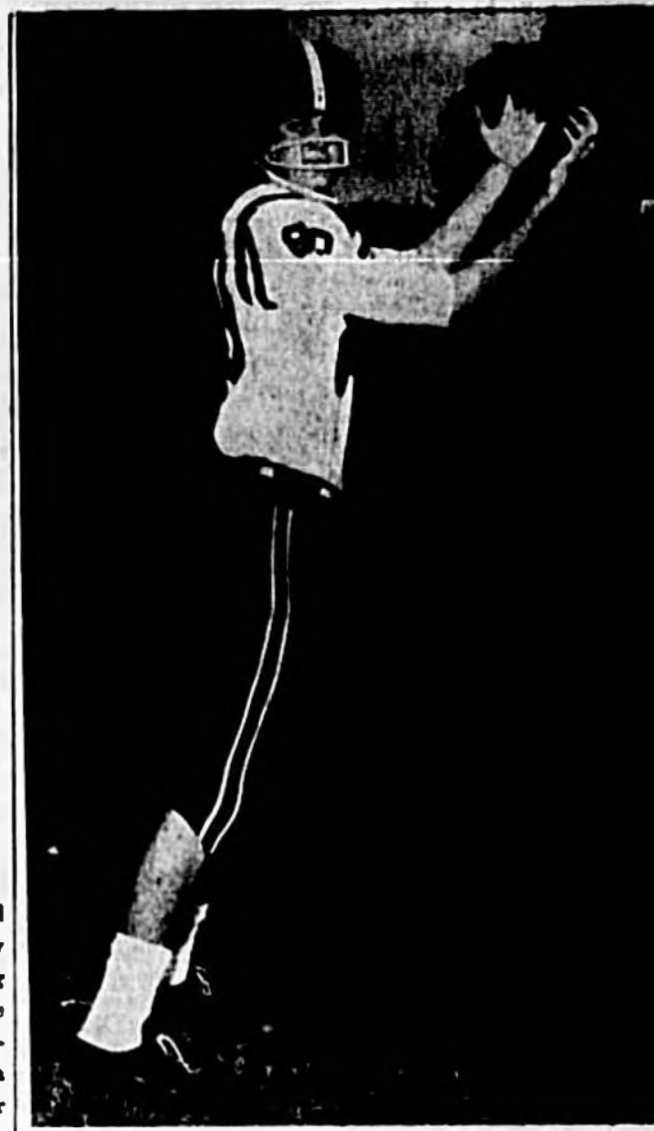

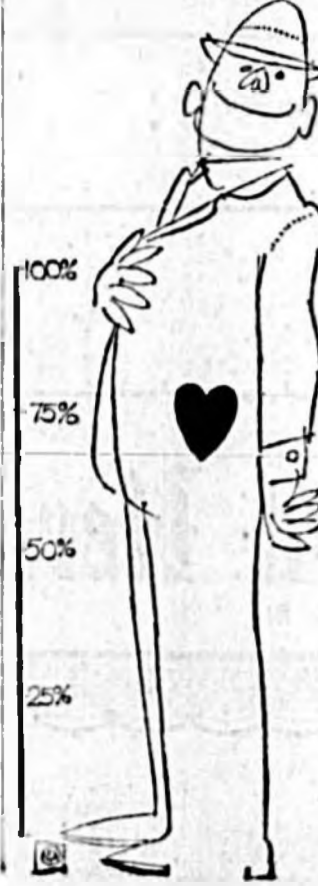

Remember the clock paragraph the other day about the word "right"? Once upon a time the teacher asked a little fellow to use the word "right" in a sentence. Little Lester scratched his head and then in his best Southern drawl blurted out, "Mama shouted to me, 'Come home, rat now!'"

If the "M & M" combination of the long range planning committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce is as effective as baseball's "M & M" combination of Mantle and Maris, Seminole will have a community college facility in the not too distant future. Appearing before the County Commission Tuesday were Judge Vernon Mize and School Supt. R. T. Milwee.

Will the person who made a friendly wager with County Attorney Harold Johnson on the outcome of the Florida-FSU football game, please stand up? Johnson said he "bet" on FSU but can't remember with whom he made the wager.
