In a thrilling 11-inning tussle the world's champion Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Washington Senators, 5 to 8, after coming from behind to the the accre in the ninth.

The president was forced to leave at the end of the tenth inning when the score was tied at 8 to 8, but Mrs. Hower, their son, Allan, and Mrs. Hower, their son, ir, remained to see the thrilling eleventh frame in which the A's all the members of the eablest except Attorney [General Mitsaell. Most of them were accompanied by their wives. In the near-capacity crowd of $2,000 were numerous senators, representatives, diplomate and dignitaries.

It was a perfect day for brockell with the sun as warm as it often is in mid-summes.

Starting off with a rush, the rival teams which finished first and second in the American League race last year both mored in the first inning. Then, with Lloyd Brown, allin Washington lettander out-pitching Rube Walberg, Philidelphia southpaw, and Reiding Connie Mack's sluggers in lives for seven straight Innings, the house team took the lead.

A double by Spencer followed by one by Myer accounted for the gallery:

The rolled his wrists, sold the adjustment that sent the Senators shead in the seventh.

Moore, a pinch-hitter for Walberg, lined out but Bishop winded Haas Houbled and Cochrane scored Hishop with a fly to Manuar in the ninth to the Use acore.

Here Walter Johnson sent in Marberry, big righthander, for Brown and on one pitched ball the side was retired, Simmons litting a fly to Sam Rice.

Bob Grove, southpaw fireball arrise, replaced Walberg and held the Senators hitlens in their half. In the tenth the A's scored again though an error by Sam Rice on Miller's hit to right, followed by Boley's single. The Senators came back, strong to tie it up with hits by Judge and Harry Rice and fly by Harris which scored Rice.

Maiberry had yielded to a pinch hitter, however, and in the next frame General Alvin Crowder who replaced him was unable to hold the big bats of Cochrane, Simmons and Foxx who drove out successive singles. Miller's fly scored.

Rut the shot did not satisty a member of the gallery:

The callers bringing Birthday greetings were served cake and soffee and hot chocolate by the hoatess and every one enjoyed the social features of the occasion as well as the delightful refreshments. The rooms at the beautiful parsonage were decorated with bouquets of lovely apring flowers for which the Ovicdo gardens are selebrated.

Mr. Mathison is concluding his lervice as paster of the Methodist Church with the close of this per and will be moved at the first conference session to some ther assignment. He and his wife will carry with them through the rest of lifes way the sincere friendship of the Ovicdo people. The greetings of the Birthday party of Friday were an index of the high regard in which they are held in the community.

PUIDE BEAUTY SALON

PRIDAY AND

A Radio Party is also a delightful way to announce a spring engagement. Send the invitations on radiogram forms—breathing no brint of the real purpose of the party of course. The new game "Radin" might be played instead of bridge for entertainment.

The secret is made known at the refreshment table, which should be covered with pink creep paper spread with tarlatan. In the content of the table have a pink heart shaped box with aliver ribbons running from under its lid to each eard. On top stand a cupid doll running from under its lid to each card. On top stand a cupid doll before a toy microphone. At each end of the table make a broadcasting spire of cardboard or with one of the toy construction sets and stretch several strings of light wire between them.

bors which are attached to pink cards, decorated with small cupids.
They begin, "Station LOVE—Dan Qupid broadcasting—" and then announce the happy news.

Serve cream cheese and nut andwiches cut with a doughnut cutter and garnish with pimento hearts; fruit saind, cherry gelatin garnished with whipped cream, heart shaped cakes and coffee.

Tomorrow: Party food on hand.
