Jupiter Pluvius Dampens Florida

Although two inches of rain fell on Seminole County Monday, there is need for more precipitation, in the opinion of David DeVoll, extension agent-vegetables for Seminole and Volusia Counties. There was sufficient rain Monday for crops for the next two weeks but more is needed to recharge ground water.

"Monday's rain was especially beneficial for citrus and lawns," said DeVoll. "since vegetable crops are irrigated."

DeVoll said Monday's precipitation brought the total to 3.5 inches for the year, far less than the 8.5-inch average for the first quarter. Rainfall for the first three months of 1970 was 16 inches. Rain that sprinkled South Florida Monday subdued fires that have blackened thousands of acres in the Everglades.

Ironically, the rain also grounded federal rain-making scientists who are trying to alleviate a seven-month drought.

Monday was "a naturally rainy day, and under those circumstances it's best to leave nature alone," said a spokesman for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

NOAA scientists hope to seed clouds with dry ice and cause heavy rains to drop on an area north of Lake Okechobee. This rainwater, they hope, will be funneled into the lake.

2 Wounded In Shootout Four Held In Robbery

VICTIM TURNS TABLES

Four bandits were captured yesterday afternoon in Goldsboro following a daring daylight robbery at Wheatland's Grocery on SR 415, just off SR 46, four miles west of Sanford.

The Seminole County Sheriff's Department, the Sanford Police Department and the Florida Highway Patrol combined efforts in a chase that ended with the capture of two wounded bandits in a marshy swamp located between Bell and Lake Avenues, near Goldsboro Elementary in Sanford.

The robbery occurred at 5:19 p.m. yesterday. P. W. Wheatland, owner of the store, called the Sheriff's Department, who in turn notified the Sanford Police and the suspects headed off SR 46 onto Upsala Road.

Sheriff's Deputy Sgt. Tony Calangulo chased the get-away car, a light-colored Rambler, down Upsala and onto Country Club Road into the city limits, where the Police Department joined the chase. When Calangulo took up the chase, he was greeted by four bullets, striking his car, inches from the windshield.

When the suspects fled down Bell Avenue, adjacent to the Goldsboro School, they were met head-on by Sanford Police Sgt. Eddie Hughes.

The two vehicles crashed head-on, and the suspects tried to push the police cruiser out of their way. Failing in the attempt, three fled from the car. Hughes captured John Ashford in the car.

As they attempted to flee, Calangulo fired a single shot from his shotgun, injuring two. Lt. Mike Rutledge and officer Gary Swaim of the Sanford Police Department, along with trooper C. E. DePay Jr. of the Florida Highway Patrol, played key roles in the actual capture of the bandits in the swamps. Officer Walter Jones of the police force was also in the chase. Curtis E. Campbell and Thelias Jerome Griffin, the two who were wounded, were treated and released from the Seminole Memorial Hospital and are in the county jail. The fourth gunman, Jesse James Jones, was apprehended when he tried to claim the car, saying it was stolen. He allegedly was the driver during the robbery. All four are in custody at the Seminole County Sheriff's Department without bond.

Trial Set May 3 Not Guilty Plea By Blackburn

By MARION BETHEA

Harlan Blackburn, reputed Central Florida bolita kingpin, entered a plea of not guilty to two counts of conducting a lottery at arraignment in Circuit Court this morning before Judge Dominick Salfi.

The charges arose from a raid which was undertaken by Orange and Seminole Counties in May 1970. Charges were filed in Seminole County after charges in Orange County were dropped in order to keep Blackburn from going to trial on April 19 in Key West. Blackburn had been granted a change of venue to Monroe County in January.

Orange County Solicitor Rom Powell contended that the state could not receive a fair trial in Key West due to the fact that public opinion in that area views bolita as an innocuous recreation. Following the charges being dropped by Powell, they were refilled in Seminole County by State Attorney Abbott Herring.

Orlando Attorney Edward Hanlon, representing Blackburn, told the court that he had received information of the hearing verbally only yesterday, to which Judge Salfi apologized for the state and said that he was "disturbed at the state not giving proper notice." Assistant State Attorney Fred Leone said that notice had been mailed to the bondsman on March 31.

Hanlon gave the court a resume of the situation stating that Judge Roger Turner had granted the change of venue to Monroe County, and that as of 4 p.m. yesterday the matter was still pending.

Hanlon cited that facts in (Continued on Pg. 12A Col. 5)

Casselberry Votes Support For Calley

By KATHY NIBLACK

CASSELBERRY — The city council voted last night to draft a resolution to the President expressing its indignation at the results of the trial of Lt. William Calley. The decision came after a suggestion by Mayor Curtis Blow, who called such a resolution the council's duty as "elected representatives of the people."

Blow also suggested the drafting of a letter, stating, "It is due time for as many government agencies as possible to draft a letter asking the President and Congress 'What is their national attitude? Is it to fight without the intention of winning? Up until lately, we have always won.' All members of the council concurred on the need for both the Calley resolution and the Mayor's suggested letter.

Lester Mandell, president of Greater Construction, was on hand last night to speak in favor of the resolution, and to show the council plans for the proposed shopping center which (Continued on Page 2A, Col. 1)

Claims R. D. Wesley: 'You Can't Hypnotize An Idiot!'

By CHARNER LEONE

"You can't hypnotize an idiot!"

"Despite current misconceptions," says R. D. Wesley, Seminole County's only licensed ethical professional hypnotist, "the person with the strong will or the strong mind is an easy person to hypnotize, providing, of course, that it is their desire to be hypnotized. There is no surrendering of your mind or your will during hypnosis! Just the opposite is true—it is a dual cooperative effort between the hypnotist and the person being hypnotized."

R. D. WESLEY
Ethical, Professional Hypnotist

"A person who can enter the hypnotic state has every reason to be proud of his ability to respond intelligently to ideas and suggestions," explained Wesley. Through the power of their own subconscious mind they can literally make things happen!

"Hypnotizability" means that a person has the ability to focus his complete attention on an idea or a suggestion. This, the old saying: "You can't hypnotize an idiot!"

An idiot would not have the attention span that would enable him to be hypnotized!

You can enter the state of hypnosis at any time and for any reason of their own accord. "You cannot be hypnotized, or kept hypnotized, unless you are willing," elaborated Wesley carefully.

"That none should have any apprehension about being hypnotized, as long as it is done by a licensed, professional ethical hypnotist."

"It's a never ending source of amusement to me how in this so called age of enlightenment how so many people have gotten so much misinformation about the use of hypnosis," said Wesley seriously.

"I do not wear a turban! I have no pot of incense burning as some people seem to exaggerate. He spoke lightly, with a smile in his eye, but his intent was earnest.

"When a client comes for consultation (the first is free) I first fill out a data sheet for future use. I ask them how they think they'll feel while they are in a hypnotic trance. Some of the answers are really wild! And then I tell them that they are in a hypnotic trance at least twice a day, every day of their lives!

"If you want to know how or when call Wesley for an appointment. Call 322-5758.

"Everyone should become more and more acquainted with the uses of hypnosis," said Wesley. "The increasing demands and pressures that are being placed on people these days are creating more and more psychomatic illnesses—that is an illness that has no organic origin."

Just ask any doctor how many of his patients are suffering from a psychomatic illness. The figure is probably close to 70 per cent, claims Wesley. And these people are suffering just as much as if they had an illness or organic origin.

"A man with a psychomatic gastro-intestinal disorder is suffering just as much as a man who has organically induced ulcer. The woman with the psychomatic headache (migraine) is just as real as if it were caused by an organic reason," said Wesley.

"This is why so many of your forward-thinking doctors today are referring this type of patient to the licensed ethical hypnotist for relief."

Wesley can help relieve many psychomatic disorders such as menstrual cramps, asthma, neuritis, insomnia, arthritis pain. The pain level can be raised to a point where it doesn't hurt so badly through the careful use of hypnosis. The list goes on, indefinitely.

Smokers and would-be dieters frequently make use of hypnosis will find that he literally has a new lease on life.

Wesley has a lecture that is given free to any interested group: "Fact and Fantasy, Use and Abuse of Hypnosis."

As a licensed ethical hypnotist Wesley is a member of the National Association to Advise Ethical Hypnotists and is a member of the International Society for Professional Hypnotists.

Make This Summer Comfortable

By CHARNER LEONE

It was 10 years ago this week that Southern Air was founded in Sanford. The neophyte business opened in a small office in downtown Sanford. And recently they have moved to more spacious quarters at 100 North Maple.

The move covered the span of only a few blocks. But in every other way, Southern Air of Sanford, Inc. has come a long way indeed.

For the past decade, Southern Air, under the skillful guidance of President George Mills, has brought to the area the finest service available in the heating, air conditioning and refrigeration business.

Mills seems to have some "secret formula" that has insured success in his business.

But it's not hard to guess the primary ingredients: top quality products, first rate service and fair prices. And mixed in, in generous amounts are: a rigid code of standards and ethics, a desire to please, and a guarantee to stand behind his goods and services.

And with this "secret formula" there's little doubt that Mills and Southern Air will be around to celebrate a 20th anniversary!

Mills is an expert in all phases of the heating and air conditioning business. For 20 years before the opening of Southern Air, Mills was both a mechanical and a chemical engineer. He is fully qualified to do all of the planning necessary to install any type of equipment.

GEORGE AND SHIRLEY MILLS
President and Secretary-Treasurer of Southern Air.

Another "secret" to his outstanding success is Shirley Mills! She serves (very attractively, incidentally) as secretary and treasurer of Southern Air. To serve their community well, the Mills' have kept abreast of the changing trends in heating, refrigeration, and air conditioning. Their customers are thus assured of getting the most modern, efficient services and products available on the market whether it's for a new home or commercial building or for the modernization of an old one.

And they handle the well-known, reputable Carrier, Chrysler, and Bard lines.

Isn't this the perfect time for you to call Southern Air (322-8321)—before those long, hot days of summer are here?

"This is a very good time to install air conditioning," noted Mills, "before the heat begins to build to an intolerable level. "And wouldn't it be nice to be prepared for the summer before it's actually upon us!"

Call Mills soon—it may be the coolest thing you've ever done. He'll be happy to give you a free estimate of your needs.

And you'll agree, too, Southern Air has come a long way—right to your door!

Charlie Lewis Mower: Have Picture Pretty Lawn

By CHARNER LEONE

Spring has sprung! And with it, the grass has too. The industrious types have even mowed their lawns for the first time (but not the last) this season!

Now if a lawn that looks more like a velvet carpet than an unkempt field is your thing, a visit to Charlie Lewis should be in order soon. Very soon. The rain we've had this week is doing wonders for our lawns.

For 12 years Charlie Lewis Sales and Service at 2317 Country Club Road in Sanford (322-7928) has sold the famous Yazoo and Ariens mowers. Incidentally, his shop is just east of the Country Club Road.

Charlie knows what he's doing.

For 22 years he served in the U. S. Navy as a jet engine specialist and aviation machinist.

From tinkering with motors, lawn mowers and such, in his spare time as a hobby after his retirement from the Navy, Charlie has turned his avocation into a flourishing business.

He sells all types of new and used mowers. And he is well qualified to repair all types of mowers and small engines. And to assist him and assure you of prompt service when you need it, he has factory trained, qualified personnel.

Charlie offers a substantial discount on the mowers this time of year, "especially on the riding mowers," he said enthusiastically.

Your old mower (practically an antique, you say?) will be accepted on a generous trade-in allowance. And, again for your convenience, Charlie will accept Master Charge and BankAmericard. And he will pick up and deliver.

Charlie's pride is the Ariens Emperor riding mower. The agile maneuvering of the electric or recoil mower with its seven horsepower Tecumseh engine and 30 inch cutting edge will certainly make lawn mowing the most fun "chore" at your home.

So picture yourself in care-free comfort on a riding mower that will sweep a tall tangle of grass with effortless ease... a riding mower from Charlie Lewis, of course!

Consumers' Interest Rates Are Stabilized

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Will consumer interest rates come down even more? Many bankers are inclined to believe that the trend is over and that rates will remain stabilized until later this year.

That may be a broadly held opinion, but there is some reason to suspect that some minor reductions still might be wrung from the trend before it runs out of energy completely.

The reason? Borrowing is decidedly below the rates desired by banks. Consumers remain reluctant, despite much easier terms and rates since last fall.

Apathy may be too extreme a term to use in labeling the situation, but the fact is that the

His shop is located in Sanford just east of the corner of Grapeville and Country Club Road. Miss Susan L. Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Jackson, Lake Mary, became the bride of Carl W. Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ray, Goldenrod Rd., Orlando, March 6 at 1:30 p. m. at the home of the bride's parents, 218 Broadwood Drive, Lake Mary.

Rev. A. F. Stevens was officiating minister at the double ring home ceremony.

The entrance to the home was decorated with a cupid of yellow and white daisies. The couple exchanged vows before a fireplace flanked on either side by two large urns with arrangements of all white mums, carnations, gladiol and baby's breath. Orange blossoms and lady's breath were entwined in ferns across the front of the fireplace.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown fashioned of white sparkle crepe, Empire style featuring sheer organza sleeves and fastened at the wrists with rhinestone buttons. Her finger tip veil of silk illusion was attached to a rhinestone headpiece and she carried a nosegay of white rose buds, baby's breath and a white orchid set in a white imported lace holder with white satin streamers. Tiny white pearls and lilies-of-the-valley were entwined throughout the bouquet.

Maid of honor, Miss Cheryl Scudder, wore an Empire style dress of deep yellow and carried a nosegay of white daisies and baby's breath with yellow ribbon streamers.

Bridesmaid Miss Cathy Jackson, sister of the bride, wore an Empire style navy yellow dress and carried a nosegay of white daisies with yellow ribbon streamers.

Best man was Phillip Ray, Orlando, brother of the groom and another brother, Michael Ray served as usher.

The bride's mother chose a two piece beige knit with bead trim, matching accessories and a lavender orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore an ice blue brocade ensemble, beige accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

Mrs. George Beckhorn, grand mother of the bride, wore a two piece beige ensemble, matching accessories and a white rose bud corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Jackson home. Refreshments of cake, punch, minis and mas were served to those attending. The refreshment table, over laid with a white cloth was centered with a three tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom and surrounded with fern interspersed with daisies.

Mrs. William Yelink cut and served the cake. Mrs. M. J. Governale poured the punch. Miss Maria Abel kept the guest book and hosted hostesses were Mrs. Hilda Kibbee and Mrs. Faye Jones.

For her going-away outfit, Mrs. Ray chose a navy blue pants suit, white accessories and the archaic corsage from her wedding bouquet. The couple left for a wedding trip down the West Coast to Miami.

New Mayor Takes Office New Broom Sweeps . . .

By MARION BETHIA
NORTH ORLANDO — Analogous to the windup evening, Granville Brown returned to office as mayor last night and initiated many innovations. The first was an announcement that the Village Bank is expanding to $30,000 yearly and the council cannot "handle" this tremendous growth in 24 hours a month. Therefore, Mayor Brown set forth an additional monthly meeting of council, which will now meet on the first and third Mondays. Council was amenable, also stipulating that work sessions be undertaken. Next on the list of "sweeping" changes was the transfer of Village funds from the South Seminole Bank to the First National Bank of Maitland. Mayor Brown said that the latter offered no service charge, whereas the charge at the former has been degrading the road and bridge fund. Village Attorney Thomas Freeman concurred, noting that relations with the South Seminole Bank have "been much less than cordial."

Oviedo Names Colbert Judge

By LIZ MATHIEUX
OVIEDO — City Council voted to call William L. Colbert to preside as a special municipal judge for the city court. His salary was discussed but will be voted upon at a not too distant date. The council is affiliated with the law firm of Stenstrom, Davis and McInish. Prior to the appointment of Colbert, Mayor C. D. Thompson served as judge and also issued warrants.

CHARTER CHANGE
Much talk revision to the present city charter was discussed and the council recommended that the city attorney study the charter further and report to council at the next meeting on April 19 the feasibility of changing from the present Mayor controlled form of city government to a Mayor-City Council type. City election is scheduled for the first Tuesday in September at which time all qualified free holders would be eligible to vote on the issue provided they were registered and duly qualified.

ANNEXATION
S. Joseph Davis, the city attorney, was instructed by the council to prepare the necessary documents for the annexation of two parcels of land by petition and a third parcel by referendum. All of the annexation will of course be subject to approval by the vote of the free holders of the city of Oviedo. The purpose of the request for annexation is to provide city services to the areas to be annexed at the request of the property owners.

TAX REPEALED
A resolution was adopted pertaining to the proposed water main system policy. It was explained that the proposed eight-inch pipeline in the water main extension included in the future expansion of the water department would encompass 400 feet west of Lake Jessup Avenue and will cost approximately $200,000. The water main extension included in the future expansion of the water department would encompass 400 feet west of Lake Jessup Avenue and will cost approximately $200,000.

Blackburn Pleads Not Guilty

That case were identical to the information filed in Seminole County and that the rights of the accused, guaranteed under the state constitution, sets forth that where there is a conjunctive charge in which two counties are involved, the defendant has the right to elect in which county he will be tried. Hanlon said that the defense is ready to try on the Orange County docket, going to trial in Key West on April 16. Hanlon said that the move by Powell was an "obvious attempt to circumvent the law," in which the sollicitor had no authority to waive the order moving the trial to Key West. Hanlon concluded that since the information in both counties were "couched" in the same terms with the same crime, facts and date, and that since the defendant had the right to elect in which county he will be tried, that Blackburn chose to be tried in Orange County. Hanlon was reluctant to enter a plea on behalf of his client until Judge Saffi had ruled on motions however Judge Saffi said that he would not rule without hearing both sides of the argument, for which the state was

3 Machines Stolen From Rosenwald

By GARY TAYLOR
Seminole County sheriff's detective John Wright Jr. is investigating a break-in at the Rosenwald Elementary School. The school was entered through a fence on the north side and, according to authorities, a knife or sharp object was used to push the door lock away from the catch. Two 16 mm projectors, one valued at $407 and the other at $475, and a record player, valued at $87.80, were taken. Several carport robberies were reported, with all three cars had been spread around the early hours before dawn. David Smith reported a 1976 Yamaha 175 was stolen from his carport at 121 Alhambra Avenue in Lake Harriet Estates. Joseph Surran, of 3027 Lake Howell Road, reported a tool box and tools, valued at $50, missing from a car parked in his driveway. J. B. Wall, 3013 West Clemens Drive, reported that thieves had removed the starter from the engine compartment of a 1965 Ford Falcon sitting in his driveway. Vandals entered a house under construction and caused about $25 damage. Gregg Hicks of Ward Hicks, Inc., 7320 Alma Avenue, reported that joint compound had been spread around three rooms of the house and a five-inch hole knocked in one wall. D. L. Ringer, of Titusville, was involved in a car versus hall accident Monday afternoon on 17-62 near Jack Prosser Ford. Cows had first been reported loose in that area at 12:24 a.m. Monday.

2 Robbers Get Away With Cash

Two males, armed with what the victim described as a 22 caliber revolver, held up a beverage truck driver Monday noon and made off with $600-700 Sanford police reported. Sam Slich, a driver for Granular Distributing Company, of 27 Ernestine Drive in Orlando, was approached as he returned to his truck from a Ninth Street Tavern. The men took the company billfold containing the cash and checks and then forced the driver to get under the truck while they took off on foot. One was described by Slich as being 6-foot-6 and wearing a red bandana. The other, about the same height, was wearing a yellow sweater. Tom Gibson, Fifth Street and Cypress Avenue, told the police that he saw two men fitting this description at Ninth and Pine enter a blue Ford Mustang with an out of county license plate. A small sneaker print was found outside the Phillips 66 station at Ninth and French yesterday after a break-in was reported. Police reported the "haul" to be $2 in quarters and 50 cents in pennies.

ZONING CHANGE
The zoning committee will also be meeting before April 1 meeting to discuss the rezoning of the Marion Estes property. Kirby Bucklew, chairman of the council read a letter asking the city to take some stand in behalf of L. Calley. The matter was discussed with no official action being taken. Several group insurances were submitted to the council for their approval; said plans to cover the current city employees. Mrs. Cox was instructed to deliver into these policies and report her results to the council.

GIs Pull Out Of Khe Sanh; Commies Keep Pressure

By MICHAEL PUTZEL
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The last American troops pulled out of Khe Sanh today, abandoning the old Marine base near the Laotian frontier for the second time in three years and leaving nothing behind for the enemy. To the south along the border, the North Vietnamese kept up their pressure on government outposts in South Vietnam's central highlands and reportedly moved a fresh regiment to the region. The enemy shelled a South Vietnamese command post, and two small ground clashes were reported. Khe Sanh, which withstood a 77-day siege in 1968, was then abandoned by the Army on Jan. 30 as a forward support base for the South Vietnamese invasion of Laos. The sprawling base and airstrip atop a long plateau was shelled frequently and attacked often by snipers, but the Army troops experienced nothing like the punishment the Marines took during the siege. Students Arriving Spring Now Here

By DAVID L. LANGFORD
DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—The beachside arcades display "out of order" signs on their restroom doors and order extra stools of beer. The motels are booked solid while beds up police patrol prowled "the world's most famous beach" keeping watch on the rising tide of college students. Some predict that by Easter Sunday as many as 175,000 will be stretched out on the sands here, while tens of thousands of others will be in Fort Lauderdale, scene of student rioting in years past. "I think it's going to be a quiet spring," said 23-year-old Dick Smith, a hairy engineering student from the University of Buffalo. "The activists have

Radicals Seek Control Of Berkley, California

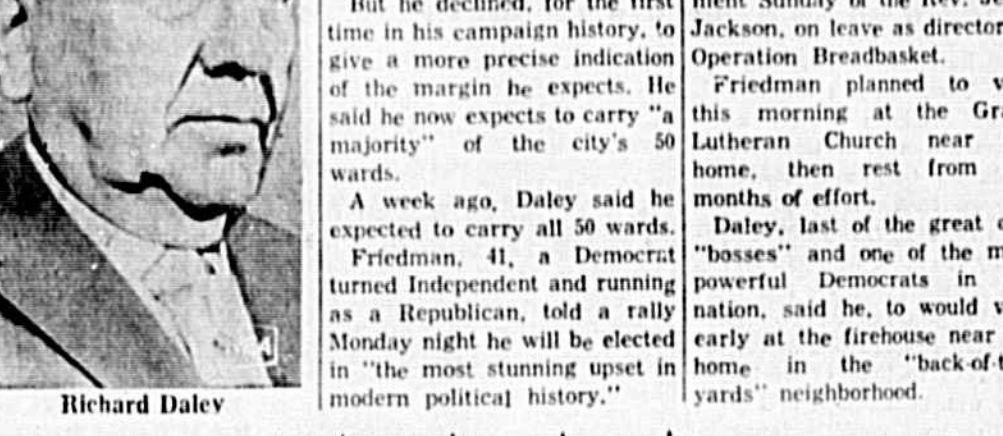

By JAMES O. CLIFFORD
BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI)—A coalition of radicals, activists and liberals attempted to take over the city government today in "revolution" by ballot. Retiring Mayor Wallace Johnson warned that the radical group "in one swoop could make the first revolutionary government in America." In addition to seeking control of the City Council, the "April Coalition" backs a ballot proposition that would create three autonomous police departments for whites, students and blacks—along lines conceived by Black Panther leader Bobby Seale, who is on trial for murder and conspiracy. Because of Berkeley's reputation as the birthplace of the campus revolution, today's election drew the attention of other communities across the nation. "After eight years as mayor, I've learned that Berkeley is a barometer for the nation," Johnson said. The coalition must win all four seats open on the nine-man council and fill a fifth seat vacated in the mayor's race in order to get control. Its platform calls for city-operated day care centers, tax reforms aimed at the wealthy and low-cost housing. Gov. Ronald Reagan has taken the coalition seriously enough to remark, "It can happen here."

Schools $ Fight On Tap

By WILLIAM F. ARHOGAST
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A $728.6 million amendment package laid the groundwork today for another bruising battle between President Nixon and Congress over federal aid for schools. The bundle of proposals put together by Sen. William D. Hathaway, D-Maine, would boost the $5.49 billion Office of Education appropriation bill now before the House and called for a vote Wednesday. Backers claim the bill, as it stands, would provide less than 50 percent of the amount authorized for major school programs in fiscal 1972 by previous congressional action. The amendment package that support also has the backing of many members of the Democratic Study Group and a number of labor unions. "Twice before, Congress and the President have battled heads over funding education programs."

Daley's Followers Getting Out The Vote In Chicago Election

By RICHARD J. RICHARDSON
CHICAGO (UPI)—Richard J. Daley's faded political organization took to the streets today, trying to get out the voters that would give their leader a record fifth term as Chicago's mayor. Daley's precinct workers prepared for their day's work, his opponent, Richard E. Friedman, was still on the go, winding up a 40-hour campaign marathon that began Sunday. Friedman's energetic campaigning spurred Daley to the most active political efforts of his campaign since he took office Monday night. Daley said he was confident of "a very substantial victory." He declined, for the first time in his campaign history, to give a more precise indication of the margin he expects. He said he now expects to carry "a majority" of the city's 50 wards. A week ago, Daley said he expected to carry all 50 wards. Friedman, 41, a Democrat turned Independent and running as a Republican, told a rally Monday night he will be elected in "the most stunning upset in modern political history."

HHH Playing Like Demo Candidate

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey is inching closer to Democratic presidential candidacy, says a crowded field may prove next year's primaries indecisive—a situation likely to benefit the Minnesota senator. Humphrey, narrowly defeated by President Nixon in the 1968 race, also says he will decide near the end of the year to enter the primary competition. "I'm not going to say what will happen until I know what I'm going to do," Humphrey said. "I'll decide about the end of this year. I would have to take a look then at what, if any, primaries I would enter." Humphrey bypassed the primaries in winning, as vice president, the Democratic presidential nomination in 1968. He said it is possible, but only "an outside possibility," that a Democrat who does not enter presidential primaries could emerge with the 1972 nomination. He said he is in no hurry to make a decision about candidacy. Even after deciding, Humphrey said, he may not declare his intentions for a while. Humphrey said he will see how he is received around the country, analyze the polls, and decide a political course at the turn of the year. "This 1972 business got started too soon from the viewpoint of the Democrats anyhow," he said. The polls now show Humphrey moving up among the prospects for 1972 nomination. The list still is headed in most samples by Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine. Humphrey said he doesn't know what makes the polls move. "I haven't been doing much," he said. He said he has de-

Railpax System Plans Will Remain Unchanged

By CARL C. CRAFT
WASHINGTON (AP) — The head of the nation's new Railpax system says he has no intention of backing away from the extensive changes planned for passenger train service in spite of the uproar from areas cut from the network. According to David W. Kendall, Railpax board chairman, "The country favors the new system. I've got a sort of gut feeling that people want the thing to work," he said before his scheduled appearance today at a Senate appropriations subcommittee. Kendall contended the system of 181 trains connecting 114 cities with at least 100,000 passengers represents a solid base for future expansion in both quantity and quality of service. The Railpax system, which starts operating May 1, was based on current ridership figures, the adequacy of other means of travel, total population along the route, and the physical status of track and equipment. Home Buyers Trouble

By G. DAVID WALLACE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Future home-buyers may find themselves hamstringed by a proposed federal form for home loan contracts tailor-made to lenders' specifications, say Ralph Nader and Sen. William Proxmire. The proposed form was drafted, with advice from lenders only, by two government-sponsored corporations, the Federal National Mortgage Association and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation. If adopted it likely would become standard for all home mortgages. Spokesmen for lenders decried the proposals at a public hearing Monday as necessary to protect their interests and assure an adequate supply of home loan money. Proxmire, D-Wis., said the forms would "severely cripple the legal rights of the American homebuyer. One provision would permit mortgage holders to start foreclosure proceedings without notice if a homebuyer fell 30 days behind on a payment. Proxmire said.

She's Pregnant, Trapped Runaway Lives In Despair

Oh God, if you are there, please let someone take this crying baby off my hands.

And let my first and only son live.

I am so old. I was never young.

—Teenage Lament by Nancy Curtis

By TOM TREDE

NEWARK, N. J. (NEA) — At her request the girl here will be called Janice. "Don't say I'm Jane Doe," she asks. "I'm not really dead. I only wish I was."

Janice is 18, blonde, short, pudgy.

Until last year, Janice was like a good many of the kids in large cities and small—"liberalized" is the word most commonly used. Long hair which her mother didn't like; old clothes which her father couldn't stand; bare feet, some times which elicited excitement from the principal of her school. Not a bad kid, a grown-upness and a lot of work in which she had come up much too fast.

"I don't like school. I didn't like home. I didn't like this way. I mean, everything was a drag. I remember once my father asked me to wash his car. I mean he told me, I got mad and said I wouldn't. He went out and filled a bucket with soapy water and said I would. I don't know why but I threw the bucket in the living room. Some things broke and it almost ruined the sofa. I'll never forget my dad then. He just walked out. He couldn't hit me, he couldn't yell any more, he couldn't do anything. So the poor old guy, he just walked out."

A few months after, Janice walked out, too. She joined what she calls the street scene, gave up school, took up pot and drugs (pot and pills) and became infatuated with a boy on a red motorcycle who worked nights in a supermarket.

Now, half a year later, Janice wishes she were dead. She's pregnant. She's trapped. She lives in a two-room, lousy apartment on Webster street, her boyfriend earns at the supermarket. At 18 years old she sits daily in an ancient chair next to a television set and wonders how the hell she had this cigarette in her mouth. I didn't have anything in common with her, you know? It was awful to admit."

"I always figured my marriage would be different (Janice refers to her situation, inaccurately, as marriage). I mean, Larry always made me feel like I was living in a world, the more I saw of him, the more I wanted to get married. The more I hated school, the more I wanted to leave home. Like, it got to be the only thing I wanted in the world, to be married to Larry."

To Janice, her courtship seemed a long time. Actually it was less than three months. The couple then decided that they would "do it the right way." Live together. Like married. Only not really. No hangers, no formalities, no hassles. "You know, I thought I'd never have the guts to leave home and live with him. Only I got pregnant, and there was no choice. (She says she usually gets TV dinners, so it wasn't bad. For a while at least.)

"I don't know what happened. When you're pregnant, after a while you can't have any sex. Maybe that was it. Anyway, Larry started acting different. We started arguing. I couldn't go out because he was angry and I was afraid of falling. I got into a wreck with the bike and we had to sell it. He got more doctor bills and some

Ruling Hits School $ $

By TOM RAUM
Associated Press Writer

TALLAHASSEE Fla. (AP)—Every county in the state will be affected by Monday's circuit court ruling overturning the 1970 Howe and Associates' ratio study.

The ruling, by Circuit Judge Ben Willis, said the study cannot be used as the basis for distributing school funds. Since the Howe survey was supposed to apply to both the current fiscal year and the 1971-72 year, that means counties with poor assessment levels will be let off the hook—at least until the 1972-73 year. And counties with good levels won't get additional funds they had been promised.

But legislators say the ruling will also have a big impact on state financing.

As a result of the decree, the governor's already out-of-balance budget proposal will be $25 million more out of whack, says Appropriations Committee Chairman Rep. Marshall Harris, D-Miami.

The governor had called for elimination of the so-called Pourover Fund in the proposed 1971-72 budget. Since the fund would have been largely made up of money withheld from counties with low assessments—which now, under the ruling, must be paid back—the result will be an unanticipated deficit.

"This will probably mean we won't be able to fund any more outlay programs," said Rep. Terrell Sessums, D-Tampa, chairman of the House Education Committee. "If we still intend to stay pretty close to the governor's budget."

Here's how the Howe survey would have affected school financing—both in the remaining three months of this fiscal year, and next year:

Under a recent law linking distribution of the state's Miami Foundation Program funds with assessment levels, all counties assessing at less than 100 per cent full market value are penalized proportionately.

The levels were to be taken directly from the Howe survey, a professional appraisal firm based in Tampa.

The withdrawn money was to be put in a Pourover Fund, and then redistributed to counties on a per-teaching unit basis.

Therefore, counties with high assessment levels stood to gain far more than they lost, and the reverse was true of counties with poor assessment levels—including the eight which filed the suit against the study.

Now, with the ruling, school districts will be funded as if the ratio survey did not exist, and as if they had been assessing at 100 per cent market value.

Pinellas County, which Howe said was assessing at 69 per cent—would have lost the most, and now stands to gain the most under the court order: $1.43 million.

But counties with high assessment levels—such as Hillsborough and Duval—with low anticipated money from the

Orlando Teenager Bid To Red China

ORLANDO (AP)—A 17-year-old Orlando girl will be among members of the U.S. table tennis team visiting Communist China next week, her father said today.

Olsa Soltesz called her father, Paul, from Nagoya, Japan, early today to ask his permission after the Communists invited the U.S. team for "friendly matches."

The Americans are in Nagoya for the 31st world table tennis championships which end today.

The invitation from Red China to an American team is the first since the Communists ousted the Nationalist regime in 1949. The Americans plan to leave for China around April 15 after touring Japan.

"She is so excited," said Soltesz, a table tennis champion himself in his native Hungary in the 1940s. He coaches Olsa.

"Sport is sport," he said. "Sporting people forget politics."

Olsa, a senior at Boone High School in Orlando, is a member of the Orlando Table Tennis Club. "I think she really loves the sport," Soltesz said. "She works hard. She practices every day, hours and hours."

How does Olsa's mother feel about the China trip? "She doesn't know yet. She sleeps," said Soltesz during an early morning telephone conversation.

It's had enough when April 15th rolls around and we all have more than a little bit of flu, what really makes the temperature rise is knowing that last year there were 56 persons who paid no federal tax on adjusted gross incomes of more than $1 million.

Now bear in mind . . . they didn't cheat . . . just took advantage of every possible tax loophole.

And if that's not bad enough, there were 201 persons with incomes in excess of $200,000 who DIDN'T PAY ANY INCOME TAX IN 1969.

According to our information, that's twice as many as were reported back in 1967 . . . seems like it's getting worse than better.

Fifth Man In Holdup Thief Suspect Hunted

By GARY TAYLOR

A fifth suspect in a Monday afternoon robbery at Wheatland's Army in Lake Monroe is still at large, Sheriff John Polk told The Herald today.

Polk also revealed that at least two guns and all the money taken in the daring daylight robbery are still missing.

Only one gun has been recovered, with witnesses reporting three guns used in the actual holdup. The money taken, believed to be around $80, according to Polk, has not been located. Authorities searched the area around Goldsboro School, where four of the suspected robbers were captured but found nothing.

Detective Johnny Wright and Sgt. Tony Calangelo are running down several leads at this time. According to Polk, the fifth suspect is a colored male, approximately 6-foot-1, 215-220 pounds. He is light-skinned and, according to Polk, one of the four suspects captured said his name is "Willie."

Polk told The Herald that at first it appeared that all involved in the holdup had been captured. But then Sgt. Eddie Hughes of the Sanford police department stated that four subjects had fled the car, while he captured one in the car.

The four captured, Curtis E. Campbell, Thelma Jerome Griffin, Jesse James Jones and John Ashford, were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Robert Carroll yesterday at 12:30 p.m. on charges of armed robbery. The bond was set at $15,000 each. Three hours later, the four were again brought before Judge Carroll, this time on charges of assault with intent to commit murder. They were each set at $25,000, bringing a total bond of $40,000 on each of the four.

Polk told The Herald that he feels the fifth subject is still in the area. He also stated that the department has some good leads.

County Opens Billboard Fight

By MARION BETHA

County Attorney Harold Johnson told County Commissioners yesterday that he will file a mandatory injunction against Tri State Signs, Inc. pursuant to its erection of billboard poles adjacent to I-4.

Johnson told the board that he had advised the firm to remove the signs, but that they are still there in violation.

Johnson said the firm had contacted County Prosecuting Attorney Kenneth McIntosh relative to the matter. Johnson said he will file the suit through the firm's Tampa agent. The matter remains from the concern erecting the poles without a permit.

In another matter, Johnson gave a report upon the designation schedule for the bond fund depository. Chairman Greg Drummond said that he hoped the salary schedule could be instituted by Oct. 1 so that the group could study the salary system as opposed to the fee system, considering additional changes.
