Catts Consigns Florida Editors To A Hot Domicile

Moore Haven, April 24-Gov Catts who has been assailing the Catholic religion in other parts of the state, changed his political tactics when he camd to Moore Haven Thursday. Previous to his altdress in the evening he accepted hospitality at the home of Capt, and Mrs. J. J. O'Brien, and invited Capt. O'Brien, who is a devout Catholic to sit on the platform with him and to make a speech for him.

The speaking was opened by a Baptist minister, Rev. Mr. Walden, who had a few things to say about Catholicism. Capt. O'Brien, who introduced the governor, sld his hearers that he was not ashamed of the Seminole County, Fir., to-wit: Begin the center line of the Sanford & Miami this week for a visit. They he favored Catts because he believed Everglades Branch of the Atlantic are en route to Detriot, Mich., for the governor could get the waterways that Moore Haven needs.

Gov. Catts kept away from religiou ous issues in his address, and signal-Wallace Bell is driving a new led out Florida newspapers for a bitter attack. #### In Sanford

They told us we would not like to live In this city by the lake; We wish to say to our Tampa friends That they made a big mistake. It's been altogether pleasant here. The folks are social and kind, And give you a cordial welcome To their progressive little town Sanford.

You can see the flowers blooming, And watch the green grass grow, Hear the mocking-birds sweet song And see the deep wells flow. We have celery, tomatoes, carrots and beets, All growing in the ground: Potatoes, cabbage, pepers and beans, And sell them by the pound. In Sanford

We have hotels, schools and churches And places to fish for brim: You can rile a few miles out To enjoy a delightful swim. We play base-ball, basket -ball and tennis. Have parties by the score, And many happy carefree youngfolks Who always like to go. In Sanford

The surrounding country is pictures-

And Leautiful, I am toll, Where Tourists always like to come To avoid the sleet and cold. There are orange groves and celery

The land is valuable, 'tis true: It costs five thousand dellars To buy a home for two, In Sanford.

The fire-fly tries to do his duty In lighting up the town You see him on tree and grass, And sometimes on the ground. The little creature seems to understand Flitters and flits about, Trying to dispel the darkness While the electric lights are out In Sanford

We have sulphur water and gas To use for cooking food. This, tends to keep the house-wife In a very pleasant mood. You can ride in boats and autos

And use a telephone, These things are all convenient When you build your home In Sanford.

With long moss hanging down, Which gives the children lots of shade,

And beautifies the town.

There are pretty lakes and rivers Flowing through the land. Oh! I forget to tell you, that We have a fine brass band In Sanford.

We haear the whippoorwill warble at

Sometimes the whole night long; name of Unknown. He seems contented and happy In singing to you his song. You smell the odor of orange blosoms

And pluck the roses too. There is no exaggeration All this is very true Of Sanford.

STRENUOUS TIMES FOR THE PRESS OF FLORIDA

It is a piebald press that comes to our exchange table in these days from the various centers of culture and influence in the state of Florida. The shortage of newsprint is reflected in some way in almost every sheet that comes to our notice. There are the papers and blue papers, papers printed on poster sheets, and papers printed on expensive calendared book paper. It is a motley lot, and tells a woeful tale if the discouragements and disabilities which the publishers of Florida have to face, but it also tells of their invincible determination to do their duty by the public, and keep the old press running so long as a rag of paper that will take printer's ink can be secured. Advertisements that mean real money are being turned down in favor of news that their patrons demand, and depend upon them to furnish. The sheets vary as much in size as they do in color. Sometimes they have five columns to the page, and sometimes seven, as the exicencles of the times and the re-l

SANFORD GRABS 1ST 2 GAMES

LOSE PRETTY ONE TO OR-LANDO WEDNESDAY

The Clery Feds started the old ball rolling in the right direction Monday and Tuesday when they grabbed off a pair of nice ones from the Bartow lot Monday and Tuesday. They lived right up to what we have been saying about them, that we have talked about and the fans are now convinced that we have a mappy, scrappy and plugging bunch of hall players that will come pretty near bringing home that 1920 dag holding it so high in the air that we won't be told this time "maybe you won it, but you can't have it." as it happened once before.

A large crowd of Sanford fans motored to Bartow to witness the opening game, the majority of them staying over for Tuesdey's game. They were not disappointed in what they saw as Sanford made a hard fight for both games and kept right on fighting after the games had been [ ] III

Monday's Game

The park at Bartow was packed to a acity Menday. The attendance was one of the largest ever witnessing a game on Bartow's field and it was such a shame that those naughty Celery Feds had to go to work and spoil the whole day for them bey rempning all xver their crack team and star twilers. The game itself was a "wee" bit ragged in spots but those bats of the Feds were working overtime. The score keeper must have had a hard time keeping up with the hits and runs made by the Sanford players because we know of fifteen hits but when the final count was taken he overlooked them all but in' However we got credit for all the runs we made and after all that was what counted mest, especially ! when we were piling up nine while they were making six. The very, ver, har, part of the whole day for Barton was the fact that their starpioler Henry was driven so far back an hg : the trees in the second when they made five runs, that it was a have job to find him in time touse tan jeb to find him in time to use him against Daytona Wednesday

His Umps, Mr. Monohan, felt that the youngster that relieved Heary, due to his age and inexperibe anowed to step or tango all about the pitchers box instead of having to stand up to it like a teal ball player. Jimmy Burns however could not see it that way and asked Mr. Umpps to settle him news, Mr. Ups did not feel indimed to do it and several times. Jimmy called his attention to it. Menahan, feeling that if Burns was not put out of the way he would be tome convinced that Burns was right and he therefore benched Jimmy in the seventh inning.

"Biddy" Burdick came in from right field to relieve Jimmy and the way that he fielded that position. the way he grabbed the high ones and got those hard-to-get kind made one think that this particular second base was made to order for

Tuesday's Game

Tuesday Bartow tightened up considerable and played good ball telind Johnson. It was a hard fight. for Sanford all the way but it is those kind of games that the Feds like, the kind that takes fight to put it over.

Bartow took the lead in the fifth when they pushed over three runs on two hits and an error. Richmond working for Sanford and he held them at his mercy all the way with the exception of that one bad inning. This three run lead failed to take the starch out of our bunch but made them work the harder and by consistent plugging managed to tie the score up in time to push it into an extra inning game.

In the tenth inning Sanford won after two men were down and two strikes on the batter. Johnson who had been showing signs of weakness was relieved by Richards who started off like a house afire. Burdick, first man to face him took the breeze man to face him took the breeze route. Lutz followed him with three more slashes at the air. It looked

Players Will Travel By Ralf

Bids have been submitted by various bus lines running to and through Sanford as well as by automobile men of this City but after considering the matter very carefully the directors have decided to transport the players by rail. The jumps in som cases are very long and it would mean the players would have to sit up all night and then prehaps not be in shape to play when arriving at their destination if they traveled in a bus. It may be remembered that one night last year Bradentown player came to Sanford by bus and had but little time to rest before the game and-well the score at that game was 8 to 1 in favor of Sanford. The Sanford Clubistaking procautions against anything like this happening to the Celery Fields.

At the same time, when the team plays anyways within several hours ride of Sanford if there are any of the Sanford fans going to the gamef and have room for any of the players the club will appreciate it if they will take as many with them as possible as this will cut down the cost just that much and through out the seaon will save quite a bit of money Any time you are headed that way and can take any players with you let Manager Burns know about it

Returns By Innings From All Over the Circuit

We have endeavored to keep the fan posted right up to the minute with all the Florida State League dope and we are going to give an even greater service this year. Every day we shall see that the returns from all the four games are received by inning and posted in front of our place with the exception of the days that Sanford plays at home and then we will get the results of each game after the games are over. And while we are giving this one little piece of service we wish to remind you that at our place we
