British Ship Is Torpedoed, Nazis Report

"Some Damage" To Warship In Submarine Attack Is Admitted By Admiralty

Russians Bomb Finn Railways

Little Nation's Success In Regulating Invasion Continues

Soviet warplanes struck anew today at Finnish railway junctions in southern coastal cities while Germany reported a new blow to the British sea power.

The German supreme command announced a British battleship, the Queen Elizabeth class, had been torpedoed by a German submarine west of Scotland.

Upon receipt of the German announcement, the British Admiralty said a German submarine had attacked a battleship, killing three and doing "some damage."

Neither disclosed when the attack occurred.

The Germans added nothing further about the ship's fate, or the precise identity.

There are five ships in the Queen Elizabeth class, vessels of 30,000 to 31,000 tons, constructed before the World War. Eight 15-inch guns are mounted on each.

Finland's rail centers, and coastal towns suffered new air attacks after the official Finnish reports said flights by five German bombers.

Continued success in holding back the Russian invasion is reported by the Finns who have carried the war to Russian soil on the eastern front, where six patrols are striking toward the Murmansk railway.

Russia is reported reliably to have changed the military commander in charge of the Finnish campaign.

General Bern, a Soviet hero of the war against Japan, was said to be the new commander.

Disqualified by the treatment of Russian-Finnish news by the British, French and American press, Russia is reported to have imposed censorship on dispatches before transmission.

Wintry weather, the major factor in the Russian-Finnish war, blanketed the western European front.

Germany said the front was quiet except for "minor artillery fire."

French reports said a few patrol actions east of the Meuse.

HELSINKI, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Finnish troops were reported to be pressing toward the Soviet's important Repola base while Russian planes bombed many Russian cities in midnight bombing attacks.

An official military communication last night said fighting on the Finnish front was continuing in a quiet way in the Eastern front.

On the Eastern front, two companies of Red troops were said to have been "wiped out" in fierce hand-to-hand combat that left the loss of Lt. Laska, Saranta, and many Russian dead.

Unconfirmed reports said the Finns were about to enter deep into Russian territory to reach the city of Leningrad.

FINNS PUSHING RUSSIANS BACK

Arms upraised, a Russian soldier surrenders to two Finnish soldiers on the arctic front where little Finland has been steadily forcing the huge Red fighting machine back.

Sheriff Seeks Repair Of Road In Death Valley

Residents Should Demand Action To End Mishaps, Hand Says

Following another fatal traffic accident in what has become known as "death valley" of Sanford on State Road No. 2, Sheriff Hand today urged the residents of Seminola County to demand proper steps be taken to eliminate the hazards of this strip of highway about six miles south of Sanford.

The road bed is narrow, to say the least, the sheriff pointed out, and that a driver running at a high rate of speed is not expecting the dangerous swells in the road when he strikes this particular stretch.

Another bridge near Fern Park has also been the scene of many accidents, Sheriff Hand said, and that one, too, should be widened, he said.

For the safety of the residents of Sanford and Seminola County, something should be done to eliminate these hazards "before the ghosts of more of our residents haunt it," the Sheriff said.

Clerk To Receive Applications Jan. 20

County Clerk O. P. Herndon said today that his office will be in a position to receive applications for the purchase of property taken over by the State under the provisions of the Murphy Act after Jan. 20.

Although partial instructions have been received, Mr. Herndon said that the details of the proceeding will be worked out at a meeting of the court clerks of Florida in Tampa about Jan. 12.

Meeting with the clerks will be the transfer of the Internal Improvement Fund who are in charge of the sale of the property.

Quints Will Lose Dafoe As Guardian

Famous Doctor Wants Merely To Remain As Personal Physician To Children

MIAMI BEACH, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Arthur Flaht, personal attorney for Dr. Allen Roy Dafoe, said the famous little doctor will retire from guardianship of the Dionne quintuplets, but will continue as their personal physician.

Callender, Ont., Dafoe commented last night "I cannot say anything until I become official."

He declared Saturday he had been seeking two years to be relieved of his duties as one of the three guardians named by the state. He said he preferred to be free to work for the hospital and not be bothered by business arrangements.

Premier Mitchell Hepburn, said he had no information that an agreement had been reached between Dafoe and Oliver Dionne, the Quints' father. Some reports said Dafoe would resign as guardian on the understanding that Dionne stop court action against the doctor in connection with contracts allegedly involving the Quintuplets' names.

Hepburn said retirement as guardian was up to Dafoe, but that as long as the present government is in office, he would like to see the Quints under the care of the Quints' father. He said the Quints would not leave their nursery to go back to live with their parents unless Dafoe recommends.

Papworth Urges Re-Election Of Higgins As Mayor

In an open letter to the City Commission, J. M. Papworth, pioneer Sanford resident, called upon the Commissioners for a unanimous vote for the re-election of Edward Higgins for another year as mayor of the City of Sanford, a position which he has held during his fifth three year term of office.

Mr. Papworth's letter is as follows: "I hope that you will not consider this a liberty, coming from one of Sanford's oldest citizens and proud of the office of city commissioner (1890-1891), but I am reasonably sure that my idea generally prevails among the citizens of Sanford and our request is for another term."

Edward Higgins for another term, a position which he has held during his fifth three year term of office.

"I hope that you will not consider this a liberty, coming from one of Sanford's oldest citizens and proud of the office of city commissioner (1890-1891), but I am reasonably sure that my idea generally prevails among the citizens of Sanford and our request is for another term."

"The wonderful work he has done in the past year, particularly in the 'trade-at-home' campaign, must appeal to everybody. We do hope you can give him a unanimous vote for re-election."

"Our prospects for the coming year are exceptionally bright and we feel that 'rock the boat' will probably get somewhere."

Respectfully submitted, H. M. Papworth.

Grand Jury To Probe Sabotage, Espionage Cases

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Attorney General Murphy disclosed yesterday that a special grand jury would convene here Jan. 2 to investigate espionage and sabotage, and also announced that the Justice Department had undertaken a broad inquiry into anti-Semitic activities.

He told a press conference that the latter investigation "may be the beginning of something that may mean a great deal to orderliness in a democracy."

Questioned as to how the department would try to prosecute anti-Semitic organizations, the Attorney General said that he would use the income tax, passport and foreign agent laws.

Murphy said that the department had sent "for certain preliminary" in connection with the investigation, most of which would be carried on in New York by District Attorney John C. Dewey.

Previously, the Attorney General had said that his men were keeping watch on 700 or 800 organizations whose objectives were infernal to the civil rights of some minorities.

Murphy said that the grand jury convened here Jan. 2 would investigate espionage and sabotage, and also announced that the Justice Department had undertaken a broad inquiry into anti-Semitic activities.

There had been reports, he said, of sabotage in the automobile, airplane and munition industries, and the investigation would extend to "both cases." Some of the information gathered by the grand jury here will be sent to some other grand jury.

Death Toll From Quakes In Turkey May Reach 50,000

Starvation, Cold, Disease Create Additional Perils For Survivors

Relief Trains Rush To Scene

Catastrophe Ranks With Greatest In Modern History

ANKARA, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Mounting death toll in Anatolia led officials to estimate that the total might reach 50,000 as starvation, cold and disease created new perils for survivors.

Relief trains from Lankara rushed food and medical supplies to the shattered quake zone, but wrecked communication facilities and a raging blizzard made it seem that additional thousands would die of hunger and exposure before help could reach them.

Fears of new tremors, predicted by Turkish seismologists, added to the terror.

The catastrophic ranks with the greatest in modern times. It was said that hundreds thousands of people were killed in the earthquake, and that the survivors were in a pitiful condition in the mountains and by roads.

Rev. McInerney Is Killed In Auto Accident

Former Sanford Pastor Crashes Into Concrete Bridge

"Death Valley" claimed another victim last night with the almost instantaneous death of the Rev. J. J. McInerney of East, formerly of Sanford, when his car struck the concrete abutment of the bridge over Saylor Creek on the Orlando Highway about six miles south of Sanford.

The accident occurred about 7:30 A. M. as the Rev. McInerney, who was driving a car, evidently traveling south, apparently left the road on the right side, taking the wrong guard railing, and then careening sharply to the opposite side of the highway, crashing into the abutment of the bridge.

The auto was almost completely demolished by the force of the impact.

For three days a coroner took possession of the wrecked car, but the investigation which had been started by the coroner had not been completed when the car was removed.

Rev. McInerney was a former pastor of the All Saints Catholic Church here. It was his first pastorate after he was ordained at Immaculate Conception in April, 1929. He was pastor of the local church from October, 1932 to October, 1933.

He has served a constant position in the Holy Cross Catholic Church in East, for some time. He was born in County Clare, Ireland, on Aug. 1, 1891.

Funeral services will be held at the Holy Cross Episcopal Church at 2:30 P. M. Saturday with the Rev. Martin J. Baras officiating.

The pallbearers are John L. Smith, Archie L. Betty, Frank C. V. Mckley.

It was unique as a beauty contest, for there were no bathing suit parades. The judges made their selection from photographs of the contestants in evening gowns.

Miss Norris will preside during three days of festivities, will ride on a throne in the Orange Bowl parade Saturday night, and will present the game football to captains of the Missouri and Georgia Tech teams New Year's Day.

Courtesy Contest

The most common complaint made against Sanford stores by local consumers who like to trade out of town is the lack of courtesy shown by local clerks and sales people who wait on the public. The complaint is directed not against all clerks and all stores, but always against a comparatively few of them, but with sufficient frequency to warrant something being done about it.

When people speak of a lack of courtesy on the part of local clerks, we do not believe they mean exactly that the clerks are discourteous towards them, but rather that they show a distinct indifference toward waiting on them. In other words, when the customer walked into the store, the clerk went right on "whittling" just as if nothing had happened, or perhaps he glanced on with an expression on his face which said, "What the hell do you want?"

Perhaps it is salesmanship which the public is thinking of more often when it speaks of a lack of courtesy on the part of certain local clerks. The consumer entering a store likes to be noticed immediately. He likes to have the proprietor, or a clerk, come up to him at once, with a pleasant smile and a "Good morning" on his lips, and a welcome in his eyes which seems to say, "Glad you are here. What can I do for you?"

This sort of salesmanship can be made the biggest item of success in any business. We have all seen stores which seemed to have everything else, good location, good stocks of merchandise, good prices, go to the wall for the sole reason that the owner and his employees did not know how to greet the public. And we have seen other stores with little else succeed because they had this one attribute of proper salesmanship.

In an effort to satisfy this oft-repeated complaint of the public, and with the complete co-operation of the merchants themselves, Mayor Higgins, as a second phase of his "Trade At Home" campaign, has inaugurated a two weeks "courtesy contest" to put all clerks in Sanford on their mettle and to give the public a chance to name the "most courteous and efficient" clerk in Sanford. The contest begins Jan. 2 and lasts until Jan. 13.

There will be three prizes aggregating $30 in cash. A secret committee of 20 shoppers will be named to canvass all the stores in Sanford during this period and make individual reports to three secret judges naming the most courteous clerks and offering constructive criticism of the various stores. These reports will not be made public but they will be submitted to the merchants concerned for their own guidance.

The general public will also have a voice in selecting Sanford's most courteous clerk. At the close of the contest a ballot will be published one time in The Herald and every resident of Sanford will be entitled to one vote for the clerk who he considers has been the most courteous and efficient during the two weeks' period. These ballots are to be turned in at The Herald Office where they will be counted and submitted to the judges.

There is an infinite amount of good, it seems to us, which can come out of this contest. At the very least it should serve to emphasize to merchants and employees alike the importance of treating customers pleasantly and serving them efficiently. At best it might result in a complete renaissance in methods of salesmanship in local stores which might produce lasting effects in the drive to encourage trading at home.

Grounds For Divorce

Poor little Ruby Keeler, the movie actress, is getting a divorce from her husband, famous "mammy singer" Al Jolson. It seems Al who is about 20 years older than his wife used to go off to bed at 9:00 or 10:00 o'clock in the evening and leave her to entertain their guests all by herself in the living room.

Besides, the old man, when he was on a business trip to New York or Chicago, would send for her to join him, and then three or four days after she had gotten there, he would seem to get tired of her and wish she hadn't come. Also, she says, in spite of his age, and his propensity for the arms of Morpheus, he used to sit up all night on the edge of her bed calling her names.

So apparently that was the limit and now she is getting a divorce. Presumably she has tried every way she could to adjust herself to conditions which she must have recognized at the time she married him. Presumably she has been perfectly willing to forego certain selfish pleasures of her own for the sake of her husband and their little adopted son.

We may presume, because may be she hasn't. May be this man for easy and quick divorce has gone so far that a man's headache, even though it may be comparatively infrequent and only after a strenuous season in entertaining his wife's friends, has become adequate grounds for divorce. May be the time has come when it is easier to get a divorce than it is to overlook an occasional grouch.

If it has, we suppose it is equally true that grounds for divorce will sooner or later be expanded to cover a multitude of other sins such as an occasional burning of the biscuits, a domestic shortage of eggs or bacon at a man's breakfast, or the failure to return the "family" razor to its proper resting place after the blade has been sharpened over the sewing basket.

Of course there are instances when divorce is the preferable choice among mayhem and murder, but the Ruby Keelers of the country will find that while they may get rid of one headache by a hurried trip to Reno, there is no permanent cure for that recurrent pain in the neck commonly known as the "homo sapiens" and that the best thing to do in most cases is to grin and bear it.

MARKET TOWN NEWS

By BRUCE TUCKER
Sanford State Farmers Market

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL - mentioned to a friend of mine that I would not bother to get any news from the Market this week, and he said to me, Oh! you're getting lazy, eh? anyway here it goes, but don't think that there is going to be much, as did not spend very much time getting the news as usual. Seems as though either I had a let down or the market did. After the little item that was written about Virginia Williams last week being very much in love, the guess was right, as now she is wearing a beautiful ring, and the lucky guy is Bob Goggin from Roanoke, Va. Virginia says the wedding will not be until after school. W. M. Jones from South Boston, Va. is in and trying to get a load of fruit. Seems as though fruit is scarce over at the Sanford Fruit Company. Gus Hrenzel didn't have much to do Thursday, had the jitters too, so went out to his car, and worked up a sweet talking the ole lisle. Jack Flynn and Henry Longwell have gone down the state for produce. Hugh Tills had open house last Saturday afternoon, and did the crowd enjoy it? Good old Hugh! Mabel was kinder in the dumps Tuesday, but is in a better humor now. Marvin Mason and "Hot" Hump from Stateville, N. C. were in West Monday. "Duke" brought his little girl with him this trip. Marvin was getting over the Christmas celebration. Had to have a shave and manage to feel better, but thought he would recover. Leon Sikes made a call at the Market last Friday. He spent the holidays in Colleton. Walter Orrell made a daring trip through the Market Friday, all loaded and ready to go. The market is providing a new shed for the scale house, for the purpose of having related help whenever the dealers or farmers need extra help to cut cabbage, etc. Business during holiday week at the market was better and the largest of any holiday season for quite some time. Usual lot of trucks in for new fruit and produce. The Toots Company will take possession of the gas station next Monday, Jan. 1, 1940 and many improvements will be made. Pat says he is going to take over at one minute after twelve, so lets all be there to wish him well. Also a Happy New Year. Mr. Elmer Haymen, Field Man for the Sanford Fruit Company, is making his first trip to see the dogs run Thursday night, and is he dressed

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29. - (AP) - The health and disease-control methods employed in the CCC camps, could easily prove the most valuable contribution of this agency.

On a strictly voluntary basis, two new vaccines have been tried out on CCC enrollees, one for pneumonia and one for typhoid. That does not mean the enrollees were used as human guinea-pigs as were the heroic soldiers who helped Dr. Reed stamp out yellow fever. But in test cases they have given the medical world a big field for statistical observation.

The annual report of the War Department on its participation in CCC work tells part of the story. Lt. Col. Charles E. Souder, in charge of the CCC Medical Service, supplemented this for us with much background.

Pneumonia is not one of the most prevalent diseases. It has an exceptionally high death rate among its victims. During the past fiscal year, however, the pneumonia death rate even in the comparatively healthy CCC camps was cut to one-third of the rate for the past five years.

Tough On Rurals - Pneumonia doesn't play square with country boys. It hits them harder and more often than city boys. The reason is not exactly known but widely suspected. Medical men believe that city boys, because of constant public contacts, develop greater immunity to pneumonia than country boys. This is true also for diphtheria.

New England's CCC enrollees, largely from cities, have a minimum of pneumonia despite the rigorous climate. Most pneumonia was among CCC groups in the South. There a larger portion of both negro and white enrollees are from rural areas. Negroes seem especially susceptible to the disease, either from an hereditary characteristic or less resistance due to other causes. Evidence of the vaccine's benefit to them was less certain. But the vaccine worked especially well with southern whites.

Holland Announces Ralph Davis Will Direct Publicity

BARTOW, Dec. 29. - Spessard L. Holland of Bartow, candidate for governor, this week announced the appointment of Ralph Davis, former Polk county newspaperman and deputy insurance commissioner under State Treasurer W. V. Knott for the past two years, as the man to head up the campaign office.

Headquarters to the Polk senator will be located in the Record building in Bartow. The office will be in regional headquarters opened in various sections of the state.

Davis, a graduate of the University of Florida, handled the county seat bureau of the Lakeland Ledger and Star-Telegram for several years. Coming with Treasurer Knott in 1935, Davis has been head of the casualty division of the insurance department for two years. He has been in direct charge of workmen's compensation insurance as to rates and classifications. This is the largest single casualty line written in Florida.

Davis has been active in Kiwanis circles, having served as secretary of both the Bartow and Tallahassee clubs. He also has taken a prominent part in the University of Florida alumni work.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29. - (AP) - The health and disease-control methods employed in the CCC camps, could easily prove the most valuable contribution of this agency.

On a strictly voluntary basis, two new vaccines have been tried out on CCC enrollees, one for pneumonia and one for typhoid. That does not mean the enrollees were used as human guinea-pigs as were the heroic soldiers who helped Dr. Reed stamp out yellow fever. But in test cases they have given the medical world a big field for statistical observation.

The annual report of the War Department on its participation in CCC work tells part of the story. Lt. Col. Charles E. Souder, in charge of the CCC Medical Service, supplemented this for us with much background.

Pneumonia is not one of the most prevalent diseases. It has an exceptionally high death rate among its victims. During the past fiscal year, however, the pneumonia death rate even in the comparatively healthy CCC camps was cut to one-third of the rate for the past five years.

Tough On Rurals - Pneumonia doesn't play square with country boys. It hits them harder and more often than city boys. The reason is not exactly known but widely suspected. Medical men believe that city boys, because of constant public contacts, develop greater immunity to pneumonia than country boys. This is true also for diphtheria.

New England's CCC enrollees, largely from cities, have a minimum of pneumonia despite the rigorous climate. Most pneumonia was among CCC groups in the South. There a larger portion of both negro and white enrollees are from rural areas. Negroes seem especially susceptible to the disease, either from an hereditary characteristic or less resistance due to other causes. Evidence of the vaccine's benefit to them was less certain. But the vaccine worked especially well with southern whites.

Holland Announces Ralph Davis Will Direct Publicity

BARTOW, Dec. 29. - Spessard L. Holland of Bartow, candidate for governor, this week announced the appointment of Ralph Davis, former Polk county newspaperman and deputy insurance commissioner under State Treasurer W. V. Knott for the past two years, as the man to head up the campaign office.

Headquarters to the Polk senator will be located in the Record building in Bartow. The office will be in regional headquarters opened in various sections of the state.

Davis, a graduate of the University of Florida, handled the county seat bureau of the Lakeland Ledger and Star-Telegram for several years. Coming with Treasurer Knott in 1935, Davis has been head of the casualty division of the insurance department for two years. He has been in direct charge of workmen's compensation insurance as to rates and classifications. This is the largest single casualty line written in Florida.

Davis has been active in Kiwanis circles, having served as secretary of both the Bartow and Tallahassee clubs. He also has taken a prominent part in the University of Florida alumni work.

Issue On Wagner Act May Fail To Rise In Campaign

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Democratic leaders, hoping to eliminate the Wagner Act as an issue in the 1940 presidential campaign, will present to President Roosevelt within the next few days concrete suggestions for amending that much criticized law.

Informed sources said yesterday that leading advocates of revision were among those working with the party leadership to speed efforts to present a better bill that might possibly be carried into the party's summer convention.

The concrete suggestions, they said, would be presented before the Chief Executive at a conference with various lawmakers concerned with the statute.

One of the first major legislative conferences dealing with the Congressional session starting Jan. 3, will be held today when Speaker Rankin has lunch with Mr. Roosevelt. They are expected to discuss the Wagner Act and the suggested program, including demands for organized industry and labor major elements of organized labor.

This and other conferences planned for the near future are expected to have a bearing on what the Chief Executive puts into his annual message to Congress. Legislators probably will discuss with the President the possibility of a shake-up in personnel of the National Labor Relations Board and the suggested substitution of a new five-man board for the present three-man board.

Planning strongly in effect of the Wagner Act, the party's platform, a set of economic amendments to the proposal of Representative Rankin, that the Wagner law be amended to include the proposed changes.

The South group of the party, led by Representative Rankin, is expected to be a strong force in the party's platform, a set of economic amendments to the proposal of Representative Rankin, that the Wagner law be amended to include the proposed changes.

Sanford - Orlando Kennel Club Begins Season Of 90 Days

Before the largest opening night throng in history the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club inaugurated its 90-day greyhound racing meeting at the Longwood oval last night with a spectacular program that saw Big Lek, an old favorite, capture the thrilling feature event, the inaugural handicap in a camera finish.

Ed Willard's crack young dog, Glenford Red, will go to the post in the ninth and featured race to night as a favorite in a field of eight fast greyhounds.

Glenford Red, beginning her first full season of racing, is regarded as one of the country's top performers.

Willard has entered his speedy two-year old in the Florida Futurity, to be held in March at Miami which is considered the nation's biggest race for greyhound lassies.

Although a favorite, Glenford Red will have plenty of stiff competition from the other seven speedy entries in this feature race.

Court Action, another sensational hot-box favorite, from the Ard Na Loch Kennels at Daytona Beach, Frank "Butch" Pasley's Ambrose, one of last season's best dogs, and other threatening entries round out the field for the top-future battle.

The 11 races tonight, beginning at 8:15 o'clock, mark the second night of racing at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club.

The crowd, estimated at approximately 3,000 filled every corner of the spacious grandstand last night while the railbirds stood five deep as they feverishly yelled encouragement to their canine selections. It was a colorful gathering that witnessed the 11-race program that was completed without a hitch.

Racing Secretary E. M. (Pat) Meete performed in great style in bracketing his entries since every race was well-matched. No less than four events were decided by the camera, an unusual feat in early running of the dogs when it is difficult at times to get a real slant on their ability under fire.

Smoky Hanger, Gerald Pasley's two-year-old brindle pup, went to post a 6 to 5 favorite in the feature inaugural feature with Big Lek being quoted at 4 to 1 odds. Hanger had the No. 7 box with Lek going from the five hole. But the fight developed between Frank Pasley's Jappy and Lek. Jappy started at the Central Florida track last year but was not considered a top-bracketed hound.

He got away on top from the No. 9 slot and ran up a five-length lead on the back stretch but Lek began to turn on the heat coming home. He closed in on Jappy with a burst of speed and won the silver loving cup by a nose in a camera finish over Jappy. The time was 29 and four-fifths seconds.

The opening of the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club for its 90-day season will provide many persons with different types of entertainment than they are able to get nine months of the year.

90-days isn't such a long time, especially to the fixed-in-the-wood-fans. . . Better make the best of it while you have time. . . Understand the best array of puppies ever to be brought together on the local track will greatly enhance the sport of picking 'em. . . Sid Hindson was named by the Sporting News this week as one of the minor leaguers on the Little All-Americans baseball team. . . Showing with what esteem the slim hurler is held by the "experts". . . In another month Sid should be dropping in on his friends to be back for the Washington Senators training camp at Oranjestad. . . The game for James Harry (Dixie) Dean's Christmas cards from Tule Marie and Joe Pinder reminds us that they, too, should be drifting this way in less than two months. . . Ocala seems due to lose the tennis matches here Sunday. . . With the addition of Billy Zeedy, the already strong Sanford team will be more than hard to beat. . . The public will be welcome to watch the matches—from the outside of the courts, as those who not enough room inside to permit putting up any kind of seats. . . We still can't figure how so many people pick Tech to beat Missouri. . . Maybe Tech will win but we'll believe it when we see it. . .

GOP Leaders To Be Invited To Demo Feast

Precedent For Traditional Democratic Lovefeast Broken With FDR's Okey Committee Meet Called By Farley President May Urge Unity In Solving Nation's Problems

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(AP)—With the approval of President Roosevelt, the Jackson Day Dinner committee has broken its precedent to invite Republican congressional leaders as honor guests to the traditional Democratic political lovefeast on Jan. 8. Added to the invitation, invitations declared the President's speech at the dinner to be "non-partisan" in character. These disclosures came soon after Postmaster Farley had called a Democratic national committee meeting on Feb. 8 to fix the time and place of the party's nomination convention. The invitations of Republicans provoked speculation over whether the President would devote his address to a call for national unity in solving internal and foreign problems. Some said it might mean he would not disclose his intentions regarding a third term at that time. Republicans get free tickets to the dinner, which will cost Democrats $100 a plate. There was no immediate indication whether the Republicans would attend.

Government To Begin Census Of 1940 On Tuesday

Enumerators especially qualified for the position through examination and tests conducted by special representatives of the Bureau of the Census will begin work Jan. 2 compiling data for the 1940 decennial census. It was announced today by government authorities. The census will give a new, accurate, up-to-date balance sheet of the people, industries, and resources—broader in scope than ever attempted before, covering not only population, but also agriculture, housing, manufacturing, business, employment, occupation, mines, drainage and irrigation. The business and manufacturing census will start Jan. 2 and will be completed in any way with the population, housing and agriculture census which will not begin until April 1. In Florida, eight separate districts have been set up for carrying on the work, the Fifth District comprising Bayard, Citrus, Flagler, Lake, Marion, Orange, Osceola, Putnam, Seminole, St. Johns, Sumner and Volusia counties with headquarters at Orlando. Dick Bell, of Deland, is the supervisor of the district, and John C. Lochner, of Clermont, is the assistant. Mr. Bell and Mr. Lochner, as well as the enumerators, are facing a big job. It was pointed out in order that the work might be completed in the allotted time and be as accurate as is humanly possible, the greatest cooperation from those carrying on business and manufacturing is necessary. The census enumerators will be easily recognized when they call, as each must present an identification card bearing the signature of the district supervisor and a picture of the enumerator. Enumerators, it was explained, are forbidden to solicit schedules or give any information of any kind to any person who is not a sworn employee of the Bureau of the Census. The data secured cannot be used for the purpose of taxation, regulation or investigation.

E. F. Housholder Is Candidate For State Senator From 37th District

E. F. Housholder, local attorney, has announced his candidacy for state senator from the 37th district, consisting of Seminole and Volusia counties, subject to the Democratic primary election in 1942. Housholder is the incumbent. In making the announcement, Mr. Housholder stated that he feels he is well acquainted with the needs and problems of the district and is not a stranger in Florida Legislature, having served as Seminole County representative in 1927 and 1928 and every session since at various times during the session. Seminole County has never supplied a senator for the Legislature during the session. It is expected a senator from this county to be elected. Mr. Housholder first engaged in politics in 1911 when he was elected as Seminole County judge. He was at that time the youngest man ever to serve in that capacity in Florida. In 1920 he was elected as the county clerk. In 1924 he was elected prosecuting attorney for Seminole County and in 1928 he was elected as representative in the Legislature, serving during the 1927 session. In the same year he was elected city commission for a three-year term and served part of his term as Sanford's mayor. For the past seven years he has served as attorney for the Board of County Commissioners. He was born in Hartow, Polk County, in 1891. He is a graduate of Sanford High School and the University of Florida. After receiving a degree from the law school of the State university, Mr. Housholder chose Sanford as his permanent home and began his law practice here in 1913. Throughout his professional career, Mr. Housholder has been active in the civic, fraternal and recreational affairs of this county.

Bridges Is No Communist, Report Says

Findings May Mean Cancellation Of Deportation Warrant Against CIO Leader

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(AP)—A finding that Harry Bridges is "merely radical" in times of peace, but not a member of the Communist Party, may mean the cancellation of a deportation warrant against the CIO leader in his native Australia. The finding was submitted to the Immigration Commission by James M. Ladd, Harvard law dean, appointed by President Roosevelt to determine whether Bridges is deportable. He made his recommendation that the finding was expected to carry in a month with the secretary. The Immigration Commission, which is the highest authority on the subject, has the deportation warrant issued in March, 1938. In the volume's report, Ladd said the testimony presented at the hearing failed to establish Communist Party affiliation. He said the evidence of some government witnesses who testified Bridges attended closed Communist meetings, contradicted by Ladd's findings. Civil Strife Feared Near Among Irish

France Sets Budget For Next Year At 5 Billion Dollars; Hitler Sees Victory Regulars Replace Red Conscripts

Problems of the home front of Britain, France and Germany today as they faced the new year sundered by war. Discussion in Ireland and India problems confronting Britain as well as how to keep the British workingman contented under wartime conditions. France set five billions as a budget for 1940 to be borrowed from the French people for new aviation and naval expenditures. Hitler in a new year's message predicted that 1940 will bring victory to Germany. The government of inexperienced Lord Chamberlain by German Soviet fighters led observers to believe that a major battle was imminent in England. Northern Ireland, a part of the United Kingdom, was disturbed by reports of extraordinary military precautions in neighboring Ireland, and feared civil strife was impending in the former Irish Free State. Leaders of all Irish forces were cancelled, and 6,000 soldiers were concentrated around Dublin where, indeed, described as the center of the extremist Irish republican army, stole a million rounds of ammunition Sunday. Northern Ireland feared the "extremist" advocating a violence strike on the British in near Ireland to unite the two parts of the island, might split the northern counties. Though war dulled the strife of capital and labor in Britain, the workingman was pictured as fighting to avoid rearmament without immediate efforts to win the war. The government added significance to independence day, a celebration planned in India for Jan. 26, saying that a pledge of civil disobedience, will be taken this time for a definite purpose. French reported a German submarine was sunk through combined efforts of a British plane and French warship. Minnesota reported on the Western Front.

Highlights Of 1939 In Sanford And Seminole County Outlined

As the year of our Lord 1939 rapidly draws to a close and the new year approaches, a backward glance at the events of the past year discloses some interesting developments. Mayor Edward W. Bridges, looking toward the future, has adopted as a New Year's resolution to support the Florida State League. An estimated 10,000 persons saw the game on July 21. In 1939, the city and county made a record in the World War II bond drive. The city and county through private building and WPA projects, the year was not devoid of new developments. The city and county have been successful in securing a federal grant of $100,000 for the construction of a road from Sanford to the Home River, and the Home River committee after the coming of Congress next week. Winter Continues Spirited Thrust With Snow Blanket

Florida's snow Friday proved a winter blizzard over Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio, and other sections of the country as winter continued its first spirited thrust. Bitter cold accompanied the snow in some sections, notably in the Dakotas and in Kansas, and below 30 temperatures prevailed in the middle west and east. During the day moderating temperatures were reported in New England but with a threat of more snow or rain in the east. Northfield, Vt., reported 7 below zero compared with 15 below the previous night. Plymouth harbor was ice-blocked and a coast guard patrol boat was dispatched to free fishing vessels caught in the ice. Parts of the south recorded the first snow of the year Friday also, notably northwest and middle Georgia. The fall in Atlanta was slight, however, although mountain tops 30 miles further north were white. Columbus, Ga., had some sleet and Macon, in middle Georgia, had both sleet and snow, but in small quantities. The snow flurries extended into eastern Tennessee and western North Carolina, but clouds were breaking and forecasters said the storm was about to move southward by Saturday morning.

Martian Canals Really Exist, Scientist Says

DELAWARE, Ohio, Dec. 30.—(AP)—Existence of canals on Mars is now definitely confirmed, Dr. Paul S. Healy of Lowell observatory, Flagstaff, Ariz., told members of the American Astronomical society yesterday. "We cannot say positively whether or not these canals are artificial, but there is no longer any doubt in my mind that they exist," he said. Dr. Sipher's belief was based on 8,000 photographs taken of Mars last summer at the Landon-Harvey observatory in South Africa where the odd planet was almost directly in the zenith, thus giving the best amounts of atmospheric through which to take pictures. The photos were taken when Mars was the closest to earth in recent years, a distance of approximately 35,000,000 miles. "Our photographs confirm what we thought before, but they are the most continuous series of large-scale and high quality pictures ever secured," he declared. The canals run in straight directions as if an engineer had laid them out, he said, and are geometric in pattern. Daily changes in the north polar cap consisting of clouds and haze beloken the existence of a Martian atmosphere, he explained. Scientists have long declared that there is vegetation on Mars and if there also is an atmosphere life can be supported.

Safety Patrols Are Begun For Churches

Safety patrols will be maintained at all of Sanford's churches on leading thoroughfares in the city during the months of heavy traffic, Deputy Sheriff Carl Williams, who organized the patrols, said today. Deputy Williams formed the patrols as chairman of a Junior Chamber of Commerce committee. They will assist pedestrians across the streets in the vicinity of the churches. Boy Scouts who attend the various churches have been asked to serve as members of the patrol.
