

Pilots Refuse To Take Tests

MIAMI (UPI) — Pilots of National Airlines, hit by two disastrous crashes in less than two months, charged Thursday night that the Federal Aviation Agency's proficiency tests damage the safety of commercial aviation.

He said the maneuvers include stalls, approaches to stalls and similar activities. He said the testing method had continued although ALPA protested when it was first begun.

Experts Checking Fingerprints Of Crash Victims

BOLIVIA, N. C. (UPI) — FBI fingerprint experts expected to identify today the last five bodies recovered from the crash of a national Air Lines plane and establish the identity of two victims still missing.

By late Thursday night, 17 of the 23 bodies had been positively identified by finger prints, by clothing and jewelry or by grieving relatives who stood in a tiny screened-in section of a high school gymnasium to look at the victims. A hospital screen separated them from the main room where rows of bodies lay on the floor.

Two days of searching through muddy farmland and damp forests at the crash site failed to turn up any trace of two other victims. Discovery of several plane pilings and two fragments of fuselage skin at Kuro Beach led to speculation that the two may have fallen from the wreckage DC-8 before it reached the Bolivia area.

Soviets Plan Tests Of New Space Rockets In Pacific

MOSCOW (UPI) — A Soviet scientist said today a new space rocket to be tested over the Central Pacific would be especially important for flights to other planets in the solar system.

rocket between Jan. 15 and Feb. 15 and asked foreign governments to keep ships and planes out of the designated test area.

The target area is in the general vicinity of the Marshall Islands, where the United States has an atomic testing ground.

Aaxoly Dorodnitsin, writing in Komsomolskaya Pravda, said "the achievements of Soviet rocketry already enable extensive scientific experiments in space."

"It is perfectly clear, however, that an increase in the weight of Sputniks, for instance, will make it possible considerably to increase their instrumentation and thus carry out more detailed and comprehensive studies in the space around the earth," he said.

The new Soviet rocket, he said, "will be especially important in the light of flights to other planets of the solar system."

"Here again," he added, "the problem of payloads is of paramount interest to scientists. And payloads depend on the power of the rocket's engines."

All Moscow newspapers carried the news of the projected Pacific tests on their front pages.

GENEVA (UPI) — Bats were responsible for three of the 11 fatal cases of rabies in the United States in the past two years, the World Health Organization reported Thursday.

"RIGHT YOU ARE!" says Quizmaster Charlie Morrison to Jaycee Don Hartley as Hartley wins a prize at the Jaycee luncheon. The Chamber of Commerce "greeter" gave prizes valued up to $11 to Jaycees who answered the correct answers at the luncheon. The prizes were donated by members and friends of the junior chamber.

One Sentence In Ike's Message Improves School Aid Prospects

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A 22-word sentence that President Eisenhower inserted in his State of the Union Message has boosted prospects that Congress will go farther than he asked on a school aid bill.

Eisenhower didn't intend it that way. In his printed message, distributed to members of Congress, the President urged action on the 25-year installment plan for school aid.

But Eisenhower, in reading his address, tossed in the extra sentence stating that his budget for the next fiscal year would show a $1,200,000 surplus "to be applied against our national debt."

Liberal House Democrats seized this statement as justification for their pay-now program of bigger federal grants within the next few years for building schools.

Rep. Frank Thompson Jr. (D-N. J.) said Eisenhower's anticipated surplus "might better be used for our greatest natural resource — our children."

Thompson, who supported a larger program last year, said he was "willing to compromise and spend just as much as the President recommended in 1957." He recalled the President then recommended $25 million dollars annually for four years.

Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey (D-W. Va.), chairman of the House education subcommittee, said Eisenhower's message "opened the door a little" on school construction. But Bailey described as "so much political honey" the President's surplus.

None of the statements contained admissions that the authors had themselves gone to the jail to get Parker, a truck driver who was being held on a charge of having raped a white woman.

One of the three men was quoted as saying that, because of fear, he gave jail keys to four men who came to his home the night of April 24, a few hours before the lynching. The report said he told FBI agents he knew the men "wouldn't hesitate" to do him or his family bodily harm if they did not get the keys.

Student Held For Torturing Wife On Trip

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — A Mobile, Ala., engineering student was held in city prison today for allegedly torturing his pretty wife during a 500-mile auto trip that ended here.

Mrs. Patricia Joan Stanton, 24, a University of Virginia coed, escaped from a foreign sports car that had developed motor trouble here. She told police she was bound and tortured by her husband, Everett Dale Stanton, 27. Mrs. Stanton, daughter of Francis Hall, Federal Power Commission hearing examiner, told police she was made to lie under a pile of soiled clothing on the floor of the car during much of the journey.

Stanton was held for examination by a police surgeon and a psychiatrist.

Police said the wife escaped after Stanton drove his small auto into a garage for repairs. He left to purchase a pair of shoes for his wife.

Frank Ward, a mechanic, said he found the woman wrapped in a blanket and crying. "She said she was being held against her will," he said.

Police quoted Mrs. Stanton as saying the trip started from their Arlington, Va., home Tuesday, when her husband bound her hands and blindfolded her eyes.

Thursday morning, he tied her to a tree, she said, and drove back home for some soiled laundry. Stanton fainted when he was arrested. Authorities notified the girl's father, who flew here for his daughter.

Steelworkers' Boss Rides Out Steel Storm But Is Caught In Political Fire

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A series of political brush fires touched off by the steel settlement blasted today hit as any blast furnace.

It all boils down to who did what, who promised what to whom and who's backing whom.

The furor started when the eight-month steel dispute was settled Monday, with part of the credit going to Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell. Nixon's presidential stock soared.

But Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler charged Thursday Nixon won a secret agreement from the steel companies to hold off any price hikes until after the 1960 election.

Stanton was held for examination by a police surgeon and a psychiatrist.

Police said the wife escaped after Stanton drove his small auto into a garage for repairs. He left to purchase a pair of shoes for his wife.

Frank Ward, a mechanic, said he found the woman wrapped in a blanket and crying. "She said she was being held against her will," he said.

Thursday morning, he tied her to a tree, she said, and drove back home for some soiled laundry. Stanton fainted when he was arrested. Authorities notified the girl's father, who flew here for his daughter.

If Republican Nixon is elected president, Butler said, "the steel limit" on any price increases. He predicted that Nixon would not win the presidency.

Steelworkers President David J. McDonald is the man who really jumped out of the frying pan of the labor dispute into the fire of politics.

Columnist Drew Pearson said Thursday that McDonald had told friends he would forsake his normal Democratic allegiance and aid Nixon's presidential campaign because of the "very generous" steel settlement.

McDonald promptly denied that he's committed to support Nixon or anybody else.

Pennsylvania Gov. David L. Lawrence then gave the union chief a chance to prove he's still a Democrat. Lawrence invited McDonald to be a Pennsylvania delegate-at-large at the Democratic convention in July.

"I will accept with pleasure, of course," McDonald replied.

McDonald started his day in the hot political waters by saying in a TV interview that Nixon should not get all the praise for the steel settlement.

He said just as much credit should go to the financier father of Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), Democratic presidential aspirant, for persuading his banker friends to support a steel settlement.

McDonald said that either Kennedy or Nixon would make a good president.

Lake Mary Church Gets New Pews

Members and friends attending the Lake Mary Community Presbyterian Church Sunday will be pleased to find the installation of new pews completed.

The pews have been purchased as a part of a project of refurbishing the sanctuary in order to enhance its dignity and appeal to the worshippers. New items of furniture have also been installed in the classrooms adjacent to the sanctuary. The pews were procured from Southern Oak Company. H. M. Gleason of Lake Mary has recently completely refinished the floors of the church.

After the morning service Sunday an honorary dinner will be held on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Pat McCarthy. The McCarthys have been valuable and faithful workers in several departments of the church for the past three years. They have been much help in the Sunday school, the Junior Choir, and other youth work. They are a Navy family and will be transferred within a few days to Memphis, Tenn. Dinner will be served in the educational building.

Photo Finish

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The 1959 steel-labor dispute, which included a record-smashing 116-day strike, ended in a photo finish.

Both the steel companies' stockholders and the 500,000 United Steelworkers members could claim victory — or prove loss. It will take months to develop the picture.

No major steel company requested dividends to its shareholders. Pittsburgh area steel workers generally agreed that the strike wage loss — roughly $2,000 per man — was worth the just. Most ended up with an annual income as good or better than their take home pay in recession-ridden 1958.

"I lost more time in 1958 than I ever spent on strike this year," said Ernest Lewis, a crane operator in the open hearth department at Jones & Laughlin Steel's Pittsburgh works.

Lewis, a veteran of 18 years in the steel mill, went on: "I got nothing but unemployment compensation and Supplemental Unemployment Benefits for sitting out the recession in 1958."

National Hate Group Suspected

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—Evidence of the existence of a national hate organization, headed by a "fanatical fascist" has been turned over to the FBI.

The disclosure was made Sunday by Lt. J. O. Crews, head of the Jacksonville police department's intelligence division.

Crews said an admirer of Nazi doctrines had been arrested in connection with swastikas painted on the Jacksonville Jewish Center.

"The suspect may be the local leader of a national anti-Jewish, anti-Negro underground organization under the direction of a fanatical fascist operating out of a northern city," he said.

Crews said the 25-year-old suspect, whose he declined to identify, had been released pending an FBI report on evidence.

"We turned over all evidence and findings of local intelligence to the FBI in Washington," Crews said. "It should receive priority attention and we should have a report back by mid-week."

Crews revealed that phrases used in two warning letters to Jewish congregations here are similar to those found in material from a well known anti-Semitic writer in Virginia. He said the Virginia supplied material to members of a group arrested for the 1958 bombing of the Atlanta Jewish Temple.

Crews said the suspect is known to have received literature and Nazi decorations by mail from a northern city. He was carrying neo-Nazi literature when arrested, Crews said.

In Berlin, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer arrived today from Bonn on his annual visit and was expected to make his first public statement on the wave of anti-Semitism that has swept West Germany.

Adenauer is keeping a promise he made when he became chancellor in 1960 — to visit West Berlin at least once each year. During a three-day stay he will address the Berlin senate, tour the city and hold a reception.

He already has privately denounced the wave of anti-Semitism and the government is an official statement. Interned sources believed he would issue this visit to speak out officially.

Mikler Boy Critical After Truck Fall

An 11-year-old Slavia boy was reported in "critical" condition today at the Florida Sanitarium at Orlando after he slipped and fell off a pick-up truck yesterday afternoon.

Andy Mikler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mikler, was sitting in the back end of the truck and apparently fell off, hitting his head on the pavement as the truck was moving.

An official at the hospital reported that the boy may have a fractured skull and is in a semi-conscious state.

Runaway Debutante Ends Up In Europe With Fiance

ANTWERP, Belgium (UPI)—Runaway New York debutante Gable Benedict, 18, is somewhere in Europe trying to marry a 35-year-old unemployed Romanian "as quickly as possible before my family can stop in," a ship's officer said today.

But a New York attorney said the man, Andrei Forumbeanu, is not free to marry her. Forumbeanu is separated but not divorced from a former wife who is the mother of his seven-year-old daughter, according to Pamfil Riposanu, who said he had represented the wife, Maddy, in an unsuccessful reconciliation attempt more than a year ago.

Another friend of Forumbeanu, however, said he was sure the man must be free because he had told him of plans to marry again, and he is an honest man.

Miss Benedict, heiress to a Remington typewriter fortune, ran away from her grandmother's fashionable Manhattan home on Dec. 27, the day after her debut party.

She and Forumbeanu arrived here Saturday aboard the freighter Edna, traveling in separate cabins under their own names.

The ship's owner said they appeared very much in love and quoted the young society girl as telling him: "We intend to get married in Europe as quickly as possible before my family can stop in."

The couple left Antwerp for Paris Sunday afternoon, ship's officers said.

Forumbeanu, son of a Romanian army colonel and a one-time student in the nation's top military school, became an American citizen through service in the U. S. Army.

Miron Butariu, an old friend, said in New York that he had been best man at Forumbeanu's wedding in Germany in 1948 to Maddy Schneikert, daughter of a Stuttgart teacher.

Butariu said his friend and the wealthy young debutante met last summer while Forumbeanu was working as a chauffeur at South Hampton for Mrs. Arde Sulova, widow of the chairman of the Sulova Watch Co.

Butariu said he and other friends had tried to bring about a reconciliation between Forumbeanu and his wife but had failed and that he had "convinced" that they are divorced "for about two years."

Red Test Plan Protested

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield has urged a strong U. S. protest against Russia's plan to test a powerful new rocket in the Central Pacific.

"If the Soviet Union ignores such a protest, he said, the United States should seek a special session of the United Nations to 'consider and deal with this high-handed pronouncement.'"

The Montana senator, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, telegraphed his views Sunday night to Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

Mansfield described as "arrogant" the Soviet plan to send 37,000 square miles in the Pacific for the missile test. Russia announced last week it planned to conduct the test between Jan. 15 and Feb. 15, and warned ships and planes to stay out of the area.

There was no immediate reply to Mansfield's demand for a U. S. protest. But the State Department said last week it planned no protest. Officials said there was nothing illegal in the Russian warning for ships and planes to stay away.

The second session of the 86th Congress opened today into its first full working week with early skirmishing on two major legislative fronts — civil rights and missile-space spending.

Sen. Jacob Javits (R-N. Y.) announced he would introduce today a package of five civil rights bills, including one calling for appointment of federal registrars to assure voting rights.

Senate Republicans leader Everett M. Dirksen (Ill.) promptly predicted that the registrars proposal would become one of the "controversial" issues of the new session which convened Wednesday.

On the missile-space issue, Rep. Overton Brooks (D-La.) charged that the administration's program was clouded by "duplication, rivalry and indecision. He planned to announce today a witness list for House Space Committee investigation starting next Monday, Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.),

Steel Pact Fixed, Butler Charges

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler charged Sunday that the Eisenhower administration engineered the end of the steel dispute "to insure the election" of Vice President Richard M. Nixon as the next president.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton (R-Ky.), the Republican national chairman, immediately denied the accusation. He and Butler locked horns in a television debate.

Butler said "the most significant statement that was made about the steel settlement was made by the Wall Street Journal, which is certainly not a Democratic source."

He said the administration "allowed the strike to exist" and then made "a political fix" to end it.

"The Wall Street Journal claimed that Vice President Nixon made a deal with the steel companies whereby they would agree to a price increase until after 1960," Butler said, "until after the election."

Morton, who disagreed with Butler point-by-point in their debate over the steel strike and other issues, declared "I feel sure that the vice president made no deal with any company about when it would or would not raise prices."

Personal Tax Now Part Of Total Assessed

County taxpayers will pay their personal property tax on a percentage basis for the first time in the county's history.

Tax Assessor Richard McCanna said with the 11 mill rate, the amount of the tax is very small.

McCanna, sitting as assessor, said that for the average $10,000 assessed property, the personal property tax would be approximately $9.00 at the present 11 mill tax rate.

Personal property included a household furnishings and all personal effects.

The new method, according to McCanna, greatly facilitates work in the tax assessor's office and is an added convenience for taxpayers.

Jaycees To Make Award To Young Teacher Of Year

The Jaycees will pay tribute to the teaching profession during Jaycee Week next week when they honor a faculty member selected from Sanford, Lake Mary and Lake Monroe schools as Young Teacher of the Year.

Selection of the outstanding young teacher will be part of the week-long observance of Jaycee Week in which young people in several fields will be recognized. The Jaycees also have inaugurated a Young Sailor of the Year award for Navy cadets, a new feature this year.

The faculty of each school will be asked to nominate a representative teacher not more than 35 years old and five local citizens will judge the nominees and choose a winner. Nominees will be judged on professional training, experience, activities and personal characteristics, plus recommendations of school principals.

Chairman Vernon Mize of the young teacher committee has acknowledged all nominations for this award by Jan. 15, which will be presented, along with others, at the awards night Jan. 20 which will climax Jaycee Week.

The winner of the local award will be eligible for the Florida Young Teacher of the Year contest sponsored by the state Jaycee organization.

"By selecting a young teacher of the year, the Jaycees propose to acknowledge the contributions of teachers to the progress and welfare of the state and to encourage better qualified and larger numbers of students to enter the teaching field," Mize said.

Humane Society Schedules Meeting

The first public meeting of the newly formed Seminole County Humane Society will be held at 8 p. m. Thursday at the American Legion Hall on Hwy. 17-28.

Permanent officers will be named and membership dues for the organization will be discussed.

Temporary President Mrs. Harriet Cowley said today that tentative plans call for memberships to consist of Junior, $5.00; contributing, $10; annual, $5; supporting, $10 and lifetime, $100.

All interested persons are urged to attend the meeting.

Two Are Charged In Bolita Raid

Two County Negro women were charged with possession of bolita tickets by deputies during the weekend.

Deputies arrested Mrs. Viola Brown of Silver Ave., Midway, late Friday night and Wilhelmina James, of 801 W. 11th St., Saturday night.

Deputies also have arrested Jim Brown, Sanford Negro charged with forging three checks of L. A. Duke of Oviedo.

Oviedo Council Dinner Tonight

The Oviedo city council will hold a dinner for its incoming and outgoing members at the Oviedo City Hall tonight. Attending the 7 p. m. dinner will be re-elected Mayor M. L. Gary, Councilman W. New Meeting Place?

Florida State Bank's chairman of the board, F. H. McWhorter, told bank stockholders last week that he hopes next January's stockholders' meeting will be held in the new bank building across First St. The stockholders present recommended that the board proceed as fast as possible with the new building. About 30 stockholders attended the meeting.

Office Stays Open

The county school office will stay open continuously from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. starting today.

The school office joins the county clerk's office in staying open through the lunch hour.

Tax Payments Near Million

County and city officials said today nearly $1 million in taxes have been paid since the tax collections started this year.

County Tax Collector John Galloway reported that $475,088.18 has been collected by his office as of last Friday and 10,215 receipts issued.

City Clerk Henry Tamm Jr. reported that $308,406.81 has been collected through December and that figure has increased greatly over the past two weeks.

Galloway reported also that 2,782 new auto tags have been sold thus far for a total of $82,705.78.

Galloway said his office is trying to handle the tax workload as efficiently and speedily as possible. He pointed out that the office is now remaining open during noon hours to assist taxpayers.

Labor Threatens Congress At Polls

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The AFL-CIO, apparently angry with both Republicans and Democrats, demanded today that Congress approve a seven-point "must" program or face the consequences at the polls next November.

"Our warnings no longer can be taken lightly," said AFL-CIO President George Meany in opening a three-day legislative conference attended by 600 union leaders from throughout the nation.

Meany called upon Congress to overcome "financial timidity and political cowardice" to approve an increase in the federal minimum wage, higher jobless pay, bigger defense spending and other labor-backed measures.

"We are growing increasingly impatient with frustrating delays, with the lack of constructive achievement and with the unbroken record of broken promises," he said.

This was regarded as a rebuke to the Democratic majority in Congress for what the AFL-CIO terms a "mediocre record in the first session of the 86th Congress.

Meany also lashed out at the Republican administration's tight-money policy, its warnings about inflation and other signs of what he called "defeatism."

"There is an election coming up next November," he said. "If we get our people to register and vote, if we pinpoint the issues and the voting records objectively, we can get a government that places human needs above the demands of big business."

Meany listed the following measures as unfinished business which he said Congress could ignore no longer:

Regaining superiority in military weapons "whatever the cost."

Federal aid for school construction and improvement of teachers' salaries.

An increase in the minimum wage from $1 to $1.25 an hour and extension of coverage.

Federal standards to raise unemployment benefits and free medical insurance for social security recipients.

Adoption of civil rights legislation to end "second-class citizenship."

Federal aid to depressed areas.

Program to build homes, wipe out slums, rebuild cities and provide new roads and airports.

W. V. Biting Dies After Short Illness

Wilkinson Van Biting, 60, died early this morning after a short illness.

He had been a resident of Sanford for 30 years and was a native of Oviedo.

He was manager of Touchton Drug Co., a member of the First Methodist Church of Sanford, member of Mason Lodge 68 and of the Elks Club of Sanford.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ruth C. Biting; one daughter, Mrs. E. C. Waldheim; two brothers, Percy Biting and Fred Biting; and two sisters, Mrs. A. F. Last and Mrs. Walter Blanchard. The family requests that flowers be omitted.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Brisson Funeral Home.

Committee Of 100 To Meet Tuesday

The Committee of 100 will hold a meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the annex of the Sanford Civic Center. The primary purpose of this meeting is to elect officers and committee chairmen for the coming year.

Maurice Marshall, head of Entertainment Enterprises, will be present to give an up-to-date report on the progress of Circustand.

The public is invited to attend. Scott Burns, chairman of the committee, said.

Police Hunt Squirrel Thief

Police today are looking for a squirrel thief.

Lawyer Taylor of 200 E. 20th St. reported to police that sometime last night someone entered his yard and stole the squirrel and the cage.

Police found the cage 500 yards from the Taylor home but no squirrel.

Beard Appointed

GAINESVILLE (UPI) — Frank Coach Perry Beard today was named assistant director of athletics in the first official action by the University of Florida Athletic Director Ray Graves. Beard, who has been Florida track coach since 1950, also will continue to serve as business manager and track coach under Graves who was named athletic director and head football coach Saturday.

Weight Control

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (UPI) — Mead Johnson & Co. announced today it has marketed a new weight control product which supplies a nutritionally balanced, hunger-satisfying, 800-calorie daily diet. The product, Metrolon, contains no drugs, the company said. It is a powder which, when dissolved in water, makes a beverage. Four glasses a day constitute a full diet.

SEMINOLE CITIZEN as a welcoming gift was given to Naval Inspector General Rear Admiral J. W. Allen III by Chamber of Commerce Armed Forces Committee Chairman Andrew Carraway. In a conference with city and county officials, Admiral Allen said that the Navy seems to get along the best "when it lives with the community rather than when we pull back into our shell."

New York Passenger Train Derailed; 4 Dead, 41 Hurt

WELLINGTON, Ohio (UPI)—A New York Central passenger train derailed Sunday night, killing four persons and injuring 41.

A baggage car burst into flame, but the fire did not spread.

Seven cars of the 10-car Southwestern Limited apparently were derailed on the track after a diesel engine unit and a baggage car derailed and knocked over the 40-foot wooden tower. The train was slowing down for a message pick-up.

Most of the cars remained standing at a 45-degree angle, a New York Central spokesman said. But a baggage car slammed into a combined passenger and baggage car and fell on top of it.

"Everyone was thrown from their seats," said M. E. Sobenier, 31, of Sandusky, Ohio, who was in the passenger-baggage car. "A child was hurt but I don't know how she did it, but they escaped without a scratch."

Sobenier, a postal clerk, was hospitalized with possible internal injuries. Twenty-six persons were admitted to hospitals, in Oberlin, Lodi, Medina and Elletts, but only one was listed in critical condition.

The New York Central spokesman in Indianapolis said the wrecked cars still were being searched for additional victims, but he said he believed all had been found.

The dead included the train's fireman, Philip J. Lehman, 46, of Cleveland; two Pennsylvania Railroad conductors, Kenneth V. Hale, 45, of Rosedale, Ind., and George F. Rummell, of Indianapolis, who were en route to a union convention in Cleveland, and an unidentified woman.

The St. Louis-Cleveland train carried about 110 passengers. "Glasses flew all over the place," said M. Sgt. Arthur W. Cyphers, 41, stationed at Griffiss Air Force Base, Rome, N. Y. "All the seats came loose and the luggage raised down."

Cyphers, who also was in the passenger-baggage car said "we were all trapped until someone got the door open with a sledge hammer."

A railroad employe stationed in the wooden tower escaped just before the train struck.

Ambulance driver Arthur Salo, of Oberlin, said the woman had been "squeezed to death."

"She was buried under seats and we had to pull two living passengers from atop her body," he said.

Marion Tudor, 30, of Wellington, said he saw the wreck and ran to the derailed cars to help rescue passengers.

Tudor said the engineer, A. Kerstein, was injured and dazed. "I have no brakes, no air, no horn, no speedometer and no nothing," Tudor quoted him as saying. Kerstein was hospitalized but was not reported in critical condition.

In addition to the baggage car and the passenger-baggage car the train had three passenger coaches, three sleeping cars and a mail car, and was hauled by three small diesel units.

Tight Governor's Race Shaping Up

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—One of the most closely contested elections for governor in Florida's history appeared to be shaping up today.

Two prominent political figures entered the race during the week-end and three more are expected to announce as candidates before this week is out.

Sen. Don J. Carlton Jr., of St. Petersburg, the son of a former governor and Jacksonville Mayor Gordon Burns, who runs the state's second largest city, launched his long-expected announcement Sunday evening.

Four other candidates already in the race were former circuit judge John McCarry of Fort Pierce, state Sen. Fred O. Dickinson of West Palm Beach, Harvie Hoover of Sebring, and the Rev. George A. Brown of Winter Park.

McCarry, a former Florida State University professor, announced his candidacy Sunday evening. He said he would like to see a "strong, honest, and efficient" government.

Carlton, 37, with a Republican record and a record of public service, announced his candidacy Sunday evening.

But he said Florida must have "sound preparation" for its "limitless" future. He said his only motivation in seeking the governorship was a "sincere desire to serve the people."

Burns, 47, mayor of Jacksonville for 11 years, said he would base his campaign on a platform of economy and development of rural areas.

He outlined broad programs on taxes, roads, education and waterways and port development. He said "only a sound and strong business drive for economy, elimination of duplication, casing aside of non-essentials and prudent and diligent administration" would enable Florida to adequately take care of its fast-growing population.

That roads should be built on a policy of need rather than politics, "it is ridiculous to even think we might be spending too much" in trying to solve congestion in the cities, said Carlton.

Appearing were Jacksonville Mayor Gordon Burns, Sen. Doyle E. Carlton Jr., of Wausatcha, Sen. Fred O. Dickinson of West Palm Beach and former Judge Dan McCarry of Fort Pierce—all formally announced candidates.

Each expressed the belief that Florida, despite its rapid growth, could live within its income during the next four years providing the new governor heaps a tight rein on the budget. And each insisted he was just the man to do it.

Dickinson said the state could accomplish more without raising taxes by streamlining its government. He said millions of dollars are wasted in duplication of state bureaus and commissions.

The candidate meeting for the first time since they announced for office, also were unanimous that roads should be built on a policy of need rather than politics, "it is ridiculous to even think we might be spending too much" in trying to solve congestion in the cities, said Carlton.

Lower tax rates were made possible by a jobless benefit trust fund total of $99,780,726 at the end of 1959. This amounted to more than 4 per cent of the taxable payrolls of all employers, automatically providing the lower rate.

In effect, the cut merely lowers an increase that went into effect at the start of 1958 when the trust fund stood below the 4 per cent level.

Carlton said a jobless benefit paid out in 1959 was the second highest in the 30-year history of Florida's unemployment compensation program. Payments totaled $2,304,307.

Circus Town Now Without A Circus

SARASOTA (UPI)—This world-famous circus town is going to have to find another "circus" almost as soon as the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus said it would move south of here to Venice.

Thursday, Christian Bros. Circus said it would move to a site near Venice—seven miles from the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus site in California.

Thus, about the only remains of the circus here will be museum pieces and memories.

The Ringling organization had made its winter home here since 1927 but decided to move to Venice to set up a one million dollar circus park tourist attraction. That was announced Dec. 15.

Christian Bros. later announced it would set up a tourist attraction and winter quarters here, but Thursday there was a conflicting announcement.

The circus said it would manage the show area at "Circusland" in the built near Sanford. The attraction, to be designed by the creators of Disneyland, has been in the planning stage for several years.

Four Leading Candidates Pledge To Oppose New Taxes

MIAMI (UPI)—The four leading candidates for governor pledged Sunday night to oppose new state taxes.

In fact, the candidates agreed on almost everything during a half-hour television forum here except who should be elected governor.

Appearing were Jacksonville Mayor Gordon Burns, Sen. Doyle E. Carlton Jr., of Wausatcha, Sen. Fred O. Dickinson of West Palm Beach and former Judge Dan McCarry of Fort Pierce—all formally announced candidates.

Each expressed the belief that Florida, despite its rapid growth, could live within its income during the next four years providing the new governor heaps a tight rein on the budget. And each insisted he was just the man to do it.

Highway Fund Probe Planned By Road Group

SARASOTA (UPI)—The legislature's interim committee on roads will investigate a charge that most of the state's highway funds will be tied up on big city projects for years to come.

The committee Saturday voted to summon the State Road Board to explain its present and future spending plans. Chairman Scott Kelly of Lakeland said the meeting would be scheduled in the near future.

Gov. LeRoy Collins defended the road board's spending policies in a sharp statement here Sunday. He said he had "no intention" of curtailing spending in Miami and other cities where he said the need is greatest.

Collins said he was "elected on a platform to build roads on a basis of need, not on a basis of miles."

The joint Senate-House interim committee on roads Saturday announced a three-pronged investigation of highway road building. In addition to looking into urban road building, the committee said it would investigate payments to private engineering firms employed for construction surveys and projects, and reports that similar highway projects in neighboring states cost less than in Florida.

The committee's concern over road building was prompted by an appearance of La Monte Green of Orlando. He charged that 75 per cent of federal highway funds are going into city road systems. He told the committee the road board was preparing contracts for big city expressways which would tie up Florida's road building revenue for years.

Collins answered that roads are built on the basis of need and not miles. He said it was no secret that the initial federal interstate highway money was being spent on expressways and other projects in Miami and other large population centers.

He said those projects use up millions of dollars over short distances whereas the same money would build many miles of roads in thinly populated areas.

Kennedy Gets New '60 Hair-Do

WASHINGTON (UPI)—There is a crop of contenders for the Democratic presidential nomination. But this is the side story: about one contender's crop of hair.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) who hopes to win the nomination and go on to victory at the polls in November, already has scored at another kind of pole—the barber's.

It's a long story cut short, a hair-raising yarn that may be denied as sheer nonsense.

There has been a definite change in Kennedy's appearance in recent weeks. Observers noted that he no longer does the 42-year-old senator have one of his old trademarks—a shock of hair jutting over his forehead with a somewhat wild mop of fluff on top.

Kennedy's shock of hair is gone. It's now combed back and looks somewhat thinner.

Insiders said that the decision to change the Kennedy hair-do was to give the senator a more mature, older appearance. The decision was not made at a rapid clip. Some sources said

It was a top policy decision by Kennedy's political generals at a "summit" conference.

The change in appearance is noticeable to nearly all who saw Kennedy "before" and "after." But Kennedy's aides refused to admit there has been a change.

His campaign headquarters press aide, Pierre Salinger, said "I haven't noticed a thing," he added, "this is not a policy question."

The one man who knows most about the secret clip isn't talking. He's Kennedy's barber who said, "I'm forbidden to give out any information on that."

Demo Committee Sets Meet Jan. 23

ORLANDO (UPI)—The Florida Democratic Executive Committee will hold its annual meeting here Jan. 23.

Executive Committee Chairman James Milligan announced the date here Sunday. He said the meeting would begin at 10:30 a. m. in the San Juan Hotel.

Milligan invited the chairman and members of standing committees to meet Friday preceding the annual full committee meeting to discuss resolutions and recommendations they desire to make or submit to the committee.

All public officials and candidates for statewide office subject to the May Democratic primary and those in attendance will be invited to attend this meeting and those in attendance will be allowed to speak," Milligan said.

Red Skaters Win

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (UPI)—Russia defeated Sweden, 4-0, Sunday to win the two-match international ice hockey series. The Soviet skaters, held to a 4-4 tie Friday, displayed a fast-breaking attack to outwit the Swedish defense in the finale.

Cadillac

Silence is the Voice of Quality

Get behind the wheel of a new Cadillac car some day soon—point its handsome hood down your favorite stretch of highway—and listen!

Except for the occasional tinkle of the passing leaves, there will be literally nothing but silence to greet your ears.

But, oh, how meaningful that silence is!

For it speaks, with irrefutable logic, of the ingenuity of Cadillac design—and of the soundness of Cadillac engineering—and of the excellence and solid integrity of Cadillac craftsmanship.

And just as silence is the voice of quality in a motor car—so quality is the product of experience.

For almost six decades, Cadillac has devoted itself exclusively to the creation of the finest motor cars that the current automotive science would permit.

So rigid, in fact, has been Cadillac's adherence to the principles of quality that the two have become virtually inseparable in the public mind.

Never before, however, has this quest for perfection been as fruitful as for 1960.

In its styling and design, in its construction and assembly, and in its attention to detail—it is, far and away, the finest Cadillac yet.

We suggest that you see this new Cadillac—and drive it—and listen to it—very soon.

You'll find, we're certain, that the quiet of a Cadillac is the most eloquent sound in motordom.

For almost six decades, Cadillac has devoted itself exclusively to the creation of the finest motor cars that the current automotive science would permit.

Hillbilly Singer Jimmie Davis Elected Governor Of Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—The twangy strains of "You Are My Sunshine" were heard as Jimmie Davis, the hillbilly singer, was elected governor of Louisiana today. He won the election with 73,000 votes in Saturday's Democratic primary. There will not be enough Republican opposition to worry him as he prepares to take over.

Davis made the song, "You Are My Sunshine" a hillbilly classic during the campaign that made him governor in 1944. The song echoed through the halls of the school to hotel celebrating his victory.

It was a record vote for Louisiana.

11 Sanford Navy Men Commissioned

Saturday morning at ceremonies here and at Newport, R. I., eleven Sanford Navy men turned in their enlisted uniforms and became commissioned officers in the U. S. Navy. Each of the new Ensigns was designated to serve in his specialty.

All eleven of the new officers were selected while serving as enlisted members of Heavy Attack Wing One, Captain James D. Ramage, Commander Heavy Attack Wing One, commented before the ceremony, "to my knowledge, this is the highest percentage of officer selection of any major operating command in the Navy. It shows what high quality personnel are assigned to our Heavy Attack Squadrons."

T. R. Walton, E. P. Szevler, H. R. Ferguson, and E. A. Zak; all formerly of VAH-5, and E. D. Spidell and D. W. Varner, formerly of VAH-3, were sworn in by Captain James D. Ramage in a ceremony in his office. A similar ceremony taking place at Newport commissioned A. M. Campbell (VAH-5), K. M. Tournay (VAH-11) and C. R. Bon and J. R. Hamilton, both formerly of VAH-3. Each of the new officers must complete the officer indoctrination course at Newport before going to his next duty station.

Area Toastmasters To Host Officers

The Seminole Toastmasters Club of Sanford will be host to officers and representatives from all Florida Toastmasters Clubs here Saturday.

The occasion will be a business and training meeting of District 47 of Toastmasters International. District 47 takes in the entire State of Florida. The business session will take place in the morning and afternoon at Mar Lou's Restaurant. Saturday evening, the Toastmasters and their wives will meet at Mar Lou's for a banquet and speaking program.

In Wednesday's regular meeting, which was a warm up after the holidays, the Florida School System was the subject of two speakers. Phil Harward spoke on the need for progressive education in the Sanford schools. Chet Guerry delivered an illuminating speech on integration in Florida schools.

ana — much more than the first primary turnout Dec. 5, which sent Gov. Earl K. Long to political oblivion on his "pea patch" farm.

Davis, 54, campaigned on a platform of "peace and harmony," aimed at the turbulent years of the Long regimes, and intoned that he believed in "live and let live" as the quartet swayed and sang "let there be peace in the valley . . ."

There will almost certainly be peace, Davis' previous term from 1944-48 was so uneventful that he was able to go to Hollywood and make records and B movies, something which incurred the wrath of his opponents in this race.

Morrison won the first primary but there were 11 candidates in the race to cut up the country vote then. In Saturday's election it was clear-cut between the city boy and the country boy and it was a bright sunny day—bringing out Davis' country backers in droves.

Brigitte Has Boy

PARIS (UPI)—Brigitte Bardot gave birth today to a seven-pound four ounce boy in an announcement so well publicized that crowds gathered outside her West End apartment to cheer.

The 25-year-old movie star who married 25-year-old matinee idol Jacques Charrier last June 18 named her firstborn Nicolas. The birth was reported to have been without difficulty and both mother and baby were "doing fine."

Brigitte, whose scantily-clad movie romps made her a symbol of sex in France, is the highest-paid movie actress in French history. In a few years her figure and the few wisps of cloth which usually covered it rocketed her from obscurity to such fame she is known merely as "BB."

Charrier himself attained notoriety last fall when he was drafted into the French army. The sight of his wife's scantily-clad pinups on the barracks walls and the vulgar remarks of his buddies shocked him into a case of nerves.

He was released from the army because of his nervousness and has spent the time since in the apartment of his wife while waiting for Nicolas to arrive. She refused to go to a hospital, preferring childbirth in a home fitted with the latest obstetrical devices.

And although the apartment was jammed and packed with such equipment no one had thought to provide a pair of scales and it was some time before Nicolas could be weighed. Scales were rushed in past a cheering crowd of newsmen, police, tourists and other curious.

The birth came around 2:20 a.m. in the luxurious apartment and Charrier telephoned the good news at once to his father, a retired colonel, who lives in the southern city of Montpellier. At the other end of France, the birth had not been expected for several days, but Brigitte's parents were informed in time and they managed to arrive for the birth.

Symington Admits Interest In Becoming Next President

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) says he would like to be president next year, even though he is not an avowed candidate for the Democratic nomination.

Symington, mentioned as a possible compromise selection by the Democrats, made it clear on a nationwide television program Sunday night that he is ready and willing to run if his party nominates him.

He said he did not plan "at least at this time" to enter any presidential preference primaries and was not actively seeking delegates to support him at the Democratic convention next July.

But asked if he would like to be president in 1960, Symington replied, "I certainly would." He added that anyone in politics would like to be promoted to the White House.

Symington's statement climaxed a series of weekend political developments starting with the disclosure that Vice President Richard M. Nixon had become an avowed candidate for the GOP nomination.

Nixon said into the presidential pool on Saturday, his 47th birthday, with scarcely a political splash. He left it up to his press secretary Herbert G. Klein, to announce that he would enter preference primaries in New Hampshire, Oregon and Ohio.

The next move in the Nixon campaign appeared to be up to President Eisenhower. At least the President was expected to be asked about the Nixon candidacy at his next news conference probably this week.

Eisenhower has not held a press conference since prior to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's withdrawal from the GOP race. With Rockefeller out, despite reports he would respond to a draft, the President might feel a Nixon

Board Approves Parking Spaces

The Sanford planning board has approved a San Sem Knolls plat and off-street parking spaces for five commercial firms.

The four lot plat is on the east side of Marshall Ave. just inside the city limits.

The board approved 27 spaces for the south Orlando Dr. laundry and for the adjacent Minit Market, and 16 spaces for the French Ave. Batt-Batt bathing range.

Off street parking plans for the Sinclair Service Station on French Ave. at 25th St. and the Wight Grocery Co. Warehouse at Fourth St. and Laurel Ave. were approved as submitted.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell received permission to get parking spaces by tearing down a small building next to their Laurel Ave. and Third St. boat manufacturing plant.

Demo Leader Outlines Goals Of New Group

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Liberals in the House have been long on political speeches and short on political power.

Speaking in Rep. Lee Metcalf (D-Mont.). His sentiments are shared by most northern Democratic Congressmen. Now they are finally doing something about it.

"In many cases we haven't had the votes," Metcalf said. "But in other cases we've been handicapped because we haven't been well organized as the conservatives."

A series of closed-door meetings last week completed establishment of a new organization called "The House Democratic Study Group." Metcalf, temporary chairman, apparently is slated to become the group's permanent leader.

The organization claims a membership of about 125 northern, midwestern and western Democrats. It is planning to push for an eight or nine point legislative program with top priority assigned to civil rights. A major objective, Metcalf told United Press International, is to weld the membership into an alert, well-disciplined force able to cope with maneuvers of conservatives.

Although it is operating independently, Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) does not regard the liberal group as a challenge to his leadership. Rayburn said last week they were "good boys" who probably would help him in his battle this year. Rayburn's legislative program embraces much of the group's major objectives.

The new liberal organization will operate its own "whip setup" to summon its members to the floor for crucial votes.

"It will be used sparingly—only on regional issues such as civil rights where we feel it would be improper to call on the regular party whip organization, which serves both northern and southern Democrats," Metcalf explained.

Asked why the study group's membership list was being kept secret, Metcalf explained that members' views would vary on certain issues.

Metcalf added, "we don't bind any member to comply with the decision of the group or to vote contrary to his convictions or the wishes of the districts he represents."

Monroe Marina Sounds Good

The city's resident planner, Mr. Gerald Dake, has recommended that the old bandshell at the Lake Monroe end of Park Ave. be torn down and a marina and yacht basin be built.

Now that is a real recommendation.

Cities the size of Sanford in Florida are having to compete with places which are larger and more picturesque and more likely to catch the eye of the families fleeing the cold of the north when they start looking for homes in the state.

There's proof aplenty that boats are pushing the automobiles out of the carports these days and the waterway traffic is near the point of flooding stops and go lights.

The city would do well to figure out a way to begin such a facility. Beautification of the lakefront has been neglected and could be a big attraction for those shivering tourists who travel the highway around its shores.

With waterway traffic and interest locally in boating growing the way they are, such a marina might even help pay for itself.

The United States Congress is in session. This is the second half of the 86th Congress. The party lineup at the start is in the House—100 Democrats, 100 Republicans and three vacancies; in the Senate, 60 Democrats, 39 Republicans. Legislative business should move more quickly than usual because 1959 is an election year. Both parties will be pushing to get their work done and out of the way in time for the National Conventions. The Democrats will meet in Los Angeles—July 11th. (Candidates still unpredictable). The Republicans will gather in Chicago—July 25th. (Candidate: Richard Nixon—running mate still undecided).

There will be an exciting political year. Everybody will be talking politics. To help you keep "tab" on the Florida members, here is our annual roll call. Keep it handy for your next reference.

Senator Howard H. Callahan (Sanford)—Former Governor of Florida. Chairman of the Appropriations Subcommittee on Commerce and Related Agencies, serves on Agriculture Committee and Joint Committee on Economic Affairs. Member of the Senate Committee on Governmental Organization.

Senator George B. Frankel (Fort Pierce)—Miami. Member of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee and the Finance Committee. Expert on Latin-American affairs. Member of the Senate Committee on Governmental Organization.

Senator Bill Jenner (Titusville)—St. Petersburg. Third term. Florida's only Republican senator. He is a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Operation of Submerged Lands and the Judiciary Subcommittee on Patents and Trademarks.

Congressman Charles Bennett (2nd District)—Jacksonville. Sixth term. Member of the Armed Services Committee. Serves on the Real Estate and Construction, the CIA and the Personnel Subcommittee. Is the author of the Federal Code of Ethics for Government Employees.

Congressman Bob Sikes (2nd District)—Crestview. Tenth term. Dean of the Florida Congressional Delegation. He is a member of the Appropriations Subcommittee on Defense. Constantly (every four years) urged by his friends to run for Governor.

Congressman Dan Rostenkowski (4th District)—Miami. Third term. Is a member of the Foreign Affairs committee, serving on the Subcommittee on Inter-American Affairs. Also, Government Operations—serving on the Executive and Legislative Reorganization Subcommittee.

Congressman Syd Herlong (9th District)—Leesburg. Sixth term. Only member from Florida ever to serve Ways and Means Committee. Chief task during this session probably will be on his income tax reform bill (could develop into big campaign issue).

Congressman Paul Rogers (6th District)—St. Leonards. Third term. Occupies seat formerly held by his father. A member of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee (father was also a member). One of Washington's most eligible bachelors.

Congressman Jim Hanky (7th District)—Tampa. Fourth term. Is in chairman of the Indian Affairs Subcommittee of the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee. Also serves on the Veterans Affairs Committee. Former head of Ringling Brothers Circus.

Congressman Billy Matthews (8th District)—Gainesville. Fourth term. He is a member of the District of Columbia Committee (almost the same as a city commissioner). Also active on the Agriculture Committee; Subcommittee on Tobacco, Fur, and Family Farms, Livestock.

ON THE MARCH AGAIN!

Assignment Washington

BY ED KOTERBA

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Back in Washington in some dusty old census file Myrtle and John Holmes are just a couple of statistics.

In a trim brown and white house of low silhouette on a palm-tree-lined street north of this Sunshine City Myrtle and John Holmes are riding the buoyant crest of a fresh new life.

They're still statistics—two of the 15 million retired people getting a lot of attention from Washington these days. But you get a far different picture looking at them from inside the front door.

"I dropped in on a home at random in the 1,300-unit Skyview settlement off U. S. Route 19, and the Holmeses happened to be home. A couple of neighbors had dropped in and the four were sorting tomatoes they had just bought from a truck gardener.

The Holmeses came here on November 25, 1958, after John had put in 25 years as a sheet-metal worker for the W. F. Gammeter Company in Ohio. He had his wife's two interesting years' service, his Social Security, a few savings bonds, and a $10-a-month World War I pension. He and the Mrs.

also owned a $10,000, seven-room house in Cadiz, Ohio. They sold the house by mail and took with them only their fine dinnerware and bedding and came here house hunting.

On December 8, just two weeks before they arrived, they inspected a model house. "Before I went through the back door," Holmes said, "I bought it."

Now here they were a year later still in the same talk about life in retirement that I was almost wishing I were there already.

This is, of course, quite a contrast to the statistics uncovered by the Senate subcommittee on the aged and aging.

One of the visiting neighbors, Edna Seal, who had moved down here from Columbus, Ohio, said: "People back home often get the idea we come down to Florida to die. Well, some of us are just beginning to live."

Then all of them peppered me with stories about the fun things that surrounded them. They play pinole, fish in the gulf or go crabbing in the stocked lake in the settlement. They've got their TV, their lawn and flowers, or just plain talking.

Mrs. Holmes led me to their screened-in carport and pointed to a couple of inner tubes. "I still go swimming," she said, "even went in the water on Christmas Day, and those things keep me from drowning."

The Holmes house, a two-bedroom rambler, cost a fraction under $10,000. "It was like an even trade with our place up North," Mrs. Holmes said. Others here range from $1,500 to $14,000. They're bought up as soon as each is completed, mostly by retired couples from the North.

Looking around at well-manicured settlements like this one, which is typical of Florida's new developments, those cold statistics enumerating our nation's elderly take on a different picture.

Ghosts Haunt Senate Room

Letters To The Editor

Editor:

Last June we left Sanford and since September have been stationed here in Rochester.

Through The Sanford Herald we have kept in touch with the many changes taking place in Sanford and Seminole County. Although my husband is in the Navy, during our three years in Sanford we came to call it home, and as such, it has never been more appealing than now.

Sanford is truly the "City of Gracious Living." We miss it more each day, and are sympathetic with every project its residents undertake to make it more gracious than ever.

Right about now, Charlie Morrison must be launching another "Courtesy Week" with the Jaycees. If I had listened more to Charlie I would have thanked you many months ago for the thousands of kind words and actions extended to us during our Sanford stay.

We are having an ice storm here today, a slippery topping to the nine inches of snow already on the ground. The weather is as different from the gentle climate of Seminole County as the warmth of your courtesy to the harshness of indifference.

Your paper has given us many hours of pleasure during the past few months. I only wish we were in Sanford ourselves to pick it up from our own doorstep.

Black And White

NEW YORK (UPI)—Black absorbs all light rays; white reflects all light rays. This is why light colored clothing generally is cooler. It throws off more of the sun's heat than it takes in. Experiments have shown that a block of ice will melt more slowly when covered with a white sheet than with a black sheet.

Indonesian Security Boss Looms As Man Of Week

BY FRED NEWSON
 UPI Foreign Editor

The man-of-the-week, Lt. Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, Indonesian minister of security and defense. The place: Jakarta.

The quote: "The rights of your finger end where my nose begins."

Thus the Indonesian strongman ruled out eye-gouging or a punch in the nose as a democratic principle to be practiced either among nations or at home.

In an era when national leaders seek out the Madison Avenue-type phrase to punch home their idea, Nasution has not been noted as a public speaker. But in his appearance at a dinner given in his honor by foreign correspondents in Jakarta, he demonstrated that he is learning.

His theme was that while he still favors democracy, it also carries with it certain obligations. "Indonesia's mistake has been the fact that democracy is not observed from the standpoint of rights," he said, "and not considered from the standpoint of limitations and obligations."

In the last year in Indonesia, it has been President Sukarno who remained the popular leader and made the speeches, but Nasution has been making the decisions.

It was Nasution who in 1958, reportedly without consulting Sukarno, contracted for 10 million dollars in U. S. small arms.

Until that time, the United States had been unwilling to supply arms to a nation which appeared to be on the high road to Communist control. Nasution's firm belief against Indonesian communism and the Communist hatred for him convinced the U. S. otherwise.

The arms deal was but the forerunner of others to be concluded between the U. S. and Indonesia. One was a 70 million dollar U. S. loan for Indonesian economic development. Another was a credit for nearly 7 million dollars with which to buy U. S. machinery, equipment and services with which to expand the capacity of the Great Cement Corporation in East Java.

It seems probable that one of Khrushchev's roles will be to seek to act as peace-maker between Indonesia and Red China in their growing dispute over Indonesia's decision to freeze out alien Chinese merchants. One of the men with whom he must deal will be Nasution, the man who makes decisions.

Blessed event, for budgets.

FORD'S ECONOMY TWINS FOR 1960

The Economy Choice of a lifetime—Two new Fords... Two new low-price fields...

Two wonderful new ways to go The Finest!

THE 1960 FORD FAIRLARK 500
 Now consider the large economy-size Ford, the Fairlane 500. Here is the most car per dollar ever built. The Fairlane 500 brings you fast-car styling, luxury and comfort, yet it offers Falcon economy like regular gas, 4,000-mile oil changes, double-life aluminum wheels, and no more cranking. Like the Falcon, too, it brings you big value for your money. It's less than last year's popular Fairlane 500!

THE 1960 FORD FALCON
 Now there's both a new economy-size Ford and a large economy-size Ford.

The new economy-size is the Ford Falcon—America's lowest priced 4-passenger car. It's up to 91% less than a 4-door sedan in the compact field. It goes up to 30 miles on a gallon of regular gas. Servicing is easy and repair costs are low. You can own a new car for 1/10th of your investment.

And the Falcon is the one American compact car that is thoroughly proved by the American driving. That's more than 8 million people—today and all.

There's more to a car than a nameplate and all.

See your Ford Dealer for a complete list of accessories and special delivery plans.

See the 1960 Falcon, Fairlane 500, Mustang, and Mustang coupe in the new Ford World of '60.

H.D. Leaders Attend Frozen Foods School

Frozen Foods was the topic for the Leadership School given by Miss Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent, Jan. 5.

She discussed the site of the home freezer, where to locate the freezer in the home; advantages and disadvantages of the chest and upright freezers. She also demonstrated the preparation, cutting and wrapping of a chicken for the freezer; the wrapping of pork chops; a meat loaf, and the method of glazing fish for the freezer. The blanching and preparation of broccoli, corn on the cob and creamed corn for the freezer was demonstrated.

A meat loaf, frozen salad, cookies and a cake which had been frozen were sampled by the ladies. Recipes for frozen foods and their preparation can be secured at the Home Demonstration Agent's office.

The following were present and will give the demonstration in their clubs in January:

Geneva, Mrs. Daisy Rivers and Mrs. Hazel Prevatt; Lake Brantley, Mrs. Edward C. Nagel; Lake Mary, Mrs. T. A. Stiles; Lake Monroe, Mrs. Hilda Thompson and Mrs. J. C. Sapp; Longwood, Mrs. B. C. Newcomer, Mrs. W. E. Collingwood and Mrs. Edna Sheets; Sanford, Miss Eva Hunt and Mrs. Elsie M. Linz; Seminole Evening, Mrs. R. DeJong.

The clubs are open to all who would like to join. No year books will be given at the January club meetings. The schedule for the meetings is as follows: Longwood, Jan. 7; Lake Mary, Jan. 12; Geneva, Jan. 13; Sanford and Lake Monroe, Jan. 14; Oviedo, Jan. 15; Elder Springs, Jan. 19; Seminole Evening, Jan. 21 and Lake Brantley, Jan. 21.

Installation Set Thursday

New officers of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Lake Mary Volunteer Fire Department will be installed at a meeting which will be held at the Fire House, Thursday, Jan. 14 at 8 P. M.

Women of the community are urged to be present to help formulate plans for the activities of the coming year.

Covington Covers Sports

By JERRY COVINGTON

Friday night the Seminoles made it five in a row and with every victory we become a little more excited about the prospects for a great basketball season.

They completely caught a fine Wildwood team flat footed with a lightning fast attack and made their first impressive dent in the Orange Belt Conference schedule. It was little Ray Lundquist who was the big gun against Wildwood as he led the fast break with 25 points, 15 of which were in the first half. The Mitty Mitts completely stunned the opposition with his great speed and ball handling.

But Cowboy Oravata continued to show great improvement in the rebounding department and this is another fellow who is giving Coach Laver visions of a trip to the state tournaments in March. He sat most of the second half out because of fouls called against him, but in the first half he cleared the boards. Doug Tammy also was a big help on the boards.

Senior forward Terry Christensen also found the range Friday night and hit for 16 points. This was his biggest night this year and from here on he should be ready to continue his point making. Terry is also a fine rebounder and is probably the most aggressive Seminole under the basket.

High scoring Jim Gracy was held to eight points, which is the first time this season that he has been under double figures but there was a reason. He also got four quick fouls called on him and sat out most of the second half. Nevertheless, he maintained a very fine 19 point per game average in five ball games.

Coach Laver was very impressed with the 78-69 victory and said that this was the best ball game that his speedy club has played this season. He also said that Wildwood was the finest ball club that his Seminoles have faced and, on this basis, he is more optimistic about his chances than before.

We traveled over to Orlando Saturday night to get a look at Apopka, which is next on the schedule. The Darters displayed a fine ball club as they pulled out a thriller against Edgewater, 66-55, and from the looks of things the Seminoles are going to have to have a good night to beat them. They travel to Apopka tomorrow for this important contest which gets underway at 7 p.m.

Graves May Perk Up Conservative Gators

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—Florida's often criticized conservative-style football will be scrapped for a crowd-pleasing multiple offense under new head coach Ray Graves.

Graves, himself one of the country's leading experts on defense, promised an exciting, offense-minded team as he signed a five-year contract Saturday as Florida head coach and athletic director.

Graves succeeds Bob Woodruff, who coached the Gators since 1946. Woodruff coached under five other coaches at Florida, which produced a winning record but no conference championships or high national ranking.

The university said Graves' salary would be $17,000 a year. Although his salary at Texas was not known, it was speculated that this was a salary cut considering his previous income in Atlanta.

Graves said he has learned it takes at least two touchdowns to win football games and he intends to have the offense to score them.

"I have my own ideas about offense," said Graves, who produced some of Texas' strongest defensive units. "After working with defense I think I have discovered what is the toughest to teach. We will use a slot, the wingback and the man in motion.

AFL Grabbing 'Cool' Passer In Jack Lee

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI)—The 25-man squad of southern all-star players who'll probably play you today that Houston, of the American Football League, is grabbing of the country's coolest passer in slim Jack Lee.

The six-foot, 175-pound quarterback from Cincinnati, bombed the Rebels through the air in the 11th annual Senior Bowl Saturday, setting up one touchdown and connecting for two others as the North routed the South, 26-7.

The coaches, sports writers and players agreed the difference between the two powerful squads was Lee's pinpoint passing. He completed 13 of 21 for 283 yards, breaking the record set by Auburn's Travis Tidwell in the first Senior Bowl game in Jacksonville, Fla., in 1950. For his efforts he was elected the game's most outstanding player.

At the awards banquet afterwards, Lee said he was going to Houston, although he has been drafted by the National Football League's Chicago Cardinals. The Senior Bowl game was his first pro appearance as it was for the other players. The winners got $500 each and expenses and the losers $100 each loss.

Charity Night

Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club's 7th Annual Charity Night competition Thursday will provide funds for more than a dozen humanitarian charitable organizations.

All profits from the 16-event card, will go to charity in what is expected to be the biggest charity night since the special event was inaugurated in 1952 by track operator Jerry Collins.

Some of the Seminole organizations which will receive a slice of the racing pie are United Animal, Elks Lodge, St. Crispian Children's Home, American Legion Post 25, St. Vincent's Home, Legion Post 185, Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, Post Club, 7th and Health Arm, American Veterans, Longwood Youth Center, Heart Fund and Cancer Society.

Many officials from the organizations will be on hand for the special program which will include the annual Charity Horse Race for St. Vincent's Home. The race, set for 8 p.m., will feature the unusually fast event

Stetson, Miami Tied For Lead

CORAL GABLES (UPI)—Miami and Stetson are tied for first place in the Florida Intercollegiate Conference football standings.

Both universities in conference play, the teams have won three games each. Miami's nationally ranked Hurricanes have scored 214 points against 209 by their opponents. Stetson has scored 270 against 219.

The Hurricanes play at Jacksonville Wednesday against the third place Green Dolphins. Stetson, which defeated Tampa last week, meets Florida Southern in DeLand Saturday.

Southern plays the University of Tampa today and Rollins Wednesday in other conference games this week.

'Hat Trick'

BREKIN, N. H. (UPI) Tom Williams of Duluth, Minn., turned in a three-goal "hat trick" Sunday to pace the U. S. Olympic hockey team to a 3-3 victory over the Soviet Russians. The victory was the second straight for the U. S. team on its national exhibition tour before the Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, Calif.

Cannon, Lucas Spark Hula Bowl Grid Action

HONOLULU, Hawaii (UPI)—The nation's top college backfield men proved themselves on the field as well as on paper here Sunday as they closed out the season's football schedule in the 14th annual Hula Bowl.

Billy Cannon, Richie Lucas, Charlie Flowers and Ron Burton—starting backfield for a victorious East team—sparked in a decisive 44-14 licking of Bud Wilkinson's West All-Stars.

Cannon, unanimous All-American choice and Heisman Trophy winner, scored three touchdowns to pace coach Paul Dietzel's aggregation, breaking the star-studded Hula wide open with a 50-yard return of the game's first punt in the opening minutes of play.

Penn State's Lucas, voted outstanding back of the annual attraction, clicked for two touchdown passes, captured individual half-carrying honors with 53 yards in 13 carries from scrimmage, and directed the Easterners flawlessly from the quarterback spot.

Mississippi's Larry Grantham shared the spotlight with his all-around play which won for him the game's outstanding lineman award.

Following Cannon's scoring punt return, the East added two touchdowns to open a 21-0 gap in the first quarter. Grantham took an 11-yard pass in the end zone from Lucas and Cannon followed minutes later with a 12-yard reception from Lucas.

Jack Spikes, Texas Christian fullback, smashed over from the four to put the West on the scoreboard in the second period. But, the Cannon's third touchdown came late in the third period on a four yard plunge, and end Dick Brooks of Purdue ended the scrapping in the closing minutes of play with a 25-yard pass interception.

SIU quarterback Don Meredith was contained effectively by the big fast East line which took charge early and maintained pressure throughout. The Mustang tosser, who stole the show in the recent Shrine East-West game in San Francisco, connected with six of 30 pass attempts and had two intercepted.

Dog Track Buys Park Advertising

Jerry Collins, owner of the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club, this morning authorized the purchase of $2,000 worth of advertising from the Sanford Greyhound track in the Florida State Baseball League.

The purchase, to be handled by Kennel Club Manager Jack Ledoux, will include fence signs, scoreboard coverage, PA system announcements during each game, insignia on the back of player uniforms, and imprint on the club station wagon transportation.

Collins' action brought quick reaction from W. Kenneth McRoberts, the sportsman who last year posted the all-important $1,000 needed in a hurry to insure Sanford a franchise in the 20-year-old league.

"This is a tremendous boost for it takes care of fully 20 percent of the sum we must have before opening day to insure a successful season," he said.

Two of the 24 available fence signs thus are reserved, he said, one for Florida State Bank and the second for Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club.

Oviedo Drops Two Cage Tilts

Oviedo lost its second double-header in a row when its varsity squad dropped a 62-45 game to Blabop Moore and the JV's were beaten, 28-11, by the Orlando juniors.

The Oviedo squads will attempt to get in the winning column again Tuesday when they travel to Ocoee.

Johany Tesinsky scored 15 and Mike Duda 12 points in the Oviedo loss to the Blabop Moore Hornets. In the JV contest, Tommy Estes sank 21 points and Jimmy Jones 11.

Weekend Leading College Quints Face Rough Week Ahead

By JOE SARGIS

United Press International

Cincinnati's top-ranked Bearcats, winners of 12 straight, could come a cropper right in their own conference this week when they take on a pair of tough nuts in fourth-ranked Bradley and ninth-ranked St. Louis.

And it won't exactly be easy sledding for some other ranked powers such as California, West Virginia, Ohio State and Texas A&M as play for the most part settles down to conference skirmishing.

But Cincinnati, which has beaten back every major threat thus far including scrappy Iowa and Dayton during the holiday interlude, faces the stiffest test of the season because both Bradley and St. Louis are beginning to roll after sluggish starts.

Nevertheless, the Bearcats rolled to victory No. 12 Saturday and conference victory No. 3 by invading Tulsa, Okla., and whipping the University of Tulsa, 83-50, even though All-American Oscar Robertson scored only 24 points.

Bradley, in the meantime, had all it could do to beat Wichita, 71-70, at Wichita, while St. Louis breezed over North Texas State, 76-63 on its home court.

Second-ranked California, which meets Washington State on Friday and Big Five rival Washington on Saturday, had little trouble beating Stanford, 52-43, for its 12th victory in 13 starts, and third-ranked West Virginia, which meets William and Mary tonight, Virginia Wednesday and unbeaten Villanova Saturday, struggled to a 75-73 victory over Penn State. West Virginia also has been beaten only once in 13 games.

Fifth-ranked Ohio State, a 99-85 winner over Big Ten rival Indiana at Columbus, Ohio, plays Delaware at home tonight and then tangles with Northwestern on Saturday. The Buckeyes are 9-3 and their win over Indiana virtually knocked the Hoosiers out of the Big Ten race.

Seventeenth-ranked Utah State upset sixth-ranked Utah, 72-41, and swung back into action against Skyline rivals Colorado State U. and Wyoming this week, while Utah meets conference rival New Mexico and Denver.

Eighth-ranked Georgia Tech ran its record to 10-1 by stultifying Mississippi State, 82-60, Saturday, but goes right back to work tonight against Southeastern Conference rival Mississippi and then takes on Georgia Wednesday and Vanderbilt on Saturday.

Texas A&M, ranked 10th, which had little trouble beating Texas Christian, 64-52, to remain unbeaten in 10 games, goes against Southwest Conference opponent Southern Methodist Tuesday before tangling with Texas on Friday. A&M, Texas and Arkansas are tied for the conference lead, each with 2-0 records.

Lombardi Named Top Pro Coach

NEW YORK (UPI)—Vince Lombardi, guiding force behind the best Green Bay Packer record in 15 years, has been named National Football League "Coach of the Year" for 1959 in the annual United Press International poll.

The Packers, representing the league's smallest but most football-conscious city, posted the worst record in their history last year. They hired Lombardi as head coach and general manager last January. He guided Green Bay to a 7-5 record and a tie for third in the Western Division in 1959.

This impressive showing by a team plagued by a weak defense and poor morale in 1959 earned Lombardi 18 of the 31 votes cast by sports writers who covered the 1959 games in the 11 league cities.

Lombardi was the second member of the Green Bay organization to win a UPI poll following the 1959 NFL season. Boyd Dwyer, Green Bay offensive end, was voted the league's outstanding rookie.

Kader Tourney Set Wednesday

The Sanford Women's Golf Association will begin play Wednesday of the first 18 hole round of the Kader Tournament. This is an annual affair sponsored by Mr. John Kader of Kaders Jewelers. The 54 hole tournament will be played off on three consecutive Wednesdays, the 12th, 19th, and the 27th of January.

The tournament is medal play scores minus 2 1/2 handicap. Kader will award prizes to the winner and the runner-up.

The results of the January 6 Courtesy Tournament played by point system were as follows:

Team winners, Class A, Mrs. Koen Ivry, Class B, Mrs. Ruth Herron and Class C, Mrs. Donna Dondanville.

Egypt's Prosperity Dream Moves Closer To Reality

By PHIL NEWSON
UPI Foreign Editor

Egypt sees a dream on the way to reality this week.

President Gamal Abdel Nasser presided over ceremonies laying the foundation stone of the great Aswan Dam whose first phase is being built with the aid of Soviet money and technicians and which upon completion is to increase Egypt's cultivated land by one-third.

The year just past has been a good one for Nasser, and with the start of the huge dam holding back waters of the Nile he is able to present the Egyptian people with tangible evidence of a better future.

In the last year, friendship with the United States has been restored and Nasser's United Arab Republic embracing Syria and Egypt has been the recipient of $5 million dollars in various forms of American aid.

Diplomatic and business relations have been restored with Britain, and soon maybe with France.

Quarrels with Moscow and Peking arising from attempted Communist penetration of the U.A.R. have been healed over, at least on the surface. Nasser has been able to crush communism at home while at the same time retaining Russia as a market for Egyptian cotton.

Presumably, the Egyptian arms lost in the 1956 Suez crisis now have been replaced by the Russians and Nasser once again feels himself strong enough to challenge Israel's use of the canal—over objections of the United Nations.

Nasser's only real setback of the year came in Iraq where elements friendly to him lost out steadily.

In March, Iraqi Premier Abdel-Karim Kassem crushed a revolt in northern Iraq which the Iraqi government charged was fanned by the U.A.R.

In October, Kassem escaped an assassination attempt which nevertheless laid him up with wounds for most of the remainder of the year.

The struggle for leadership of Arab nationalism between Kassem and Nasser has been out in the open since last March.

Nasser still is the Middle East's popular symbol of revolt against colonialism but Kassem still has not given up the struggle.

One of the pawns in Syria, Syrian politicians persuaded Nasser to incorporate Syria into the U.A.R. in 1958 because they feared a Communist take-over.

But Syria has proved as much a problem to Nasser as it did to the French after World War I and to the Turks before that.

TV Growing Big In Middle East

BAHIGAD (UPI) — The Middle East's first television station is on its way to becoming the most far-reaching video enterprise in this part of the world.

Guidance Minister Faisal Camir said plans are underway for bringing TV to 70 per cent of Iraq's nearly seven million people.

The first major step in this direction was the recent switch from a 50-watt transmitter to a new 5,000-watt model by Baghdad Television. Programs which had been seen only in the Baghdad area since the station was inaugurated in May, 1956, can now be viewed more than 60 miles away.

Camir said booster stations to be constructed within the next year at Mosul and Kirkuk to the north and Samarra and Basrah to the south will bring TV to 70 per cent of the population.

Watching Candidates Interesting

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — While everyone else was watching the President deliver his State of the Union message to Congress, I was watching the presidential candidates.

In some respects, the sidishow was more entertaining than the main event.

There were at least five known or suspected presidential hopefuls in the House chamber during the speech. Nobody knows how many others were secretly picturing themselves in Eisenhower's place at the rostrum.

I wouldn't want to accuse anyone of politicking on the President's time, but a couple of Democrats sure made the most of the audience he had attracted after the speech was over.

First to check in was Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the leading Republican contender. As head of the visiting Senate delegation, he got his title mentioned orally — loudly, that is — by House doorkeeper William M. Fishback Miller.

Miller announced the entrance of each group of dignitaries in the staid and staid of a Mississippi state master calling trains. "Mistah speakah," he bawled, "the vice prezant and members of the Senate!"

Thus heralded, senators from both the South and North filed in two-by-two, like members of a wedding party or animals entering the ark. Up front was Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson ("Tex"), another of the hopeful five.

Johnson also got special mention — by Nixon, who, in a softer voice than Miller's, apostrophized possible future rival to the committee which escorted the President into the chamber.

Nobody individually mentioned Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.), but he made up for this by arriving conspicuously late and making a solo entrance. Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) distinguished himself by sliding apart from senators in the rear row. I was unable to detect anything exceptional about the actions of Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.). However, normal behavior in itself is unusual for someone said to be eyeballing the White House.

After the speech, Kennedy and Humphrey, the only announced candidates, lingered in the chamber, shaking hands and slapping backs of well-wishers. They appeared to be waiting each other out.

Slowly working their way toward the doors, Humphrey and his group and Kennedy and his group almost collided at one point. The two campaigners studiously ignored each other and headed up separate aisles.

For whatever significance it may have, Kennedy won this preliminary skirmish. He stayed in the chamber for 20 minutes after the President left, or eight minutes longer than Humphrey.

On his way out, Humphrey noticed that some of us newsmen were still in the press gallery enjoying the performance. Reaching into his coat pocket, he extracted a piece of cardboard and headed up separate aisles.

It was a sign he had snatched from one of the reserved seats and it had two words: "White House."

Dorcas Class Holds Meeting

Mrs. C. E. McCord was hostess at the January meeting of the Dorcas Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church.

An inspiring devotion entitled "Take Time" was given by Mrs. Virginia Toth and Mrs. W. O. Tanner led the group in prayer.

A social hour followed the brief business meeting. Several games were played with prizes awarded to Mrs. William Tripp and Mrs. Curtis Green.

Refreshments of cake and coffee were served to members present. They were Mrs. Calvin Jardine, Mrs. D. G. Walton, Mrs. N. C. Booth, Mrs. W. W. Horne, Mrs. J. A. Fuller, Mrs. Tanner, Mrs. Toth, Mrs. Green and Mrs. Tripp. The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Walton.

Develop Hybrid

LONDON (UPI) — Communist Chinese scientists in Tibet have successfully crossed a yak and a Holstein bull, according to Radio Peiping.

The broadcast said the resulting hybrid produced eight times as much milk as the yak and can stand the rugged Tibetan climate better than the Holstein.

Third Try

CHICAGO (UPI) — Charley Grimm is up for his third hitch as manager of the Chicago Cubs.

Grimm's previous tours at the Cub helm were 1937-38 and 1944-45.

Worry Clinic

Newspaper publishers like Phil Buchheit are really champions of tremendous "Universalism in Print". The newspaper is unique nowadays in being the major educational source for American adults. See how eagerly women want to make their homes happy and to good mothers, as well as successful wives. They look to newspapers for scientific help in "advice" columns must be authoritative.

BY — GEORGE W. CRANE
Ph. D., M. D.

CASE D — 422: Phil Buchheit, aged about 45, is a civic dynamo as well as publisher of the two newspapers at Spartanburg, South Carolina.

As Chairman of the YMCA campaign to raise $1,000,000 for a new building, he invited me to deliver the kickoff address.

It is typical of our newspaper publishers to be staunch rooters for all good civic and moral projects.

But not all of them have the vitality and personal energy to spearhead the actual campaigns in their cities the way Phil Buchheit does.

For example, while at Spartanburg, he introduced me to 1,200 high schoolers in the morning, plus 50 clergymen at a noon luncheon.

And there was a packed auditorium of 3,500 at the big evening affair.

But at 11 A. M., I spoke to 1,000 ladies at a "Women Only" clinic. I talked for 45 minutes; then answered questions which they had written, unsigned, on slips of paper. Here are a few:

TYPICAL DOMESTIC PROBLEMS

"Why do husbands fail to compliment their wives or praise them for their efforts to please their husbands?"

"Does it make a 6-year-old feel insecure because his mother has to work outside the home?"

"Should a younger child be told that his older brother is a child of the mother by a former husband?"

"How can eligible but unmarried people meet congenial members of the opposite sex?"

"Could there be a real disease called 'inertia'?"

"What are the pros and cons of social drinking?"

"My husband drinks though I do not, so how can I impress on my two boys that liquor is harmful?"

"How can I get my husband to quit smoking and become active in our local church?"

"What is meant by a schizophrenic personality?"

"My 15-year-old teases other children and acts like a 'Smart Alec'. Why does he do so and what can I do to correct him?"

"After 25 years of happy married life, my husband has suddenly grown cold toward me. He wants to go places alone. What can I do to restore our former happy relationship?"

"At 23, I want to get married, but my mother opposes the idea, saying I should stay home and look after her. But I have a wonderful boy friend whom I have dated steadily for over two years."

"We've been married 18 years and have 4 children, but my husband is running around with other women and says he wants a divorce. I have begged him to try to restore our happy home, but he refuses."

"For 14 years of our marriage, my husband has been a chronic phillanderer with no desire to change. For the sake of our children, aged 10 and 12, what should I do?"

"How can I get my husband out of bed and to church without nagging him?"

"What causes a husband of 25 to have no erotic desire?"

"I have two semi-invalid parents to look after, as well as my husband and three children. I am so upset for I can't do justice to all my obligations. Just where does my first responsibility lie?"

"How can a wife help an immature husband grow up?"

"How can I stop jealousy in my husband when he has no valid cause?"

See tomorrow's follow-up for additional questions, but please note how sincerely these women want to succeed as wives and homemakers.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long de stamped, addressed envelope and see to never trying and printing some when sent for one of his booklets.)

Mrs. Miniver Proves Disappointing TV Fare

BY FRED DANES

NEW YORK (UPI) — "Mrs. Miniver," a rhapsodic motion picture tribute to Britain's finest hour in World War II, made for an uneven, disappointing 30 minutes on the TV tube Thursday night.

The fourth in the season's "Special Tonight" series, "Mrs. Miniver" on CBS-TV starred Maureen O'Hara in the role which, as every schoolboy knows, won an Academy Award for Greer Garson in 1942.

Miss O'Hara looked lovely but, unfortunately, mistook euphoria for courage and tended to depict hard times with excessive hand-wringing and looting-away. The other leads — Cathleen Nesbitt, Juliet Mills, Paul Robling and Leo Genn — displayed backbone with more believability. This is ironic, of course, since the name, Mrs. Miniver, has become a synonym for imperiousness and the unwomanly human spirit. I'm afraid Miss O'Hara made her Mrs. Miniver a synonym for the Donna Reed show.

The TV adaptation by George Sarg reduced to flimsy out some of the grip but was not entirely successful, although some stirring, realistic scenes came along, namely:

—The church scene at which war was announced.

—The table scene at which Vin,

McRoberts Takes First Round Play

The Recreation Department's City Basketball League ended its first round with McRoberts triumphing with a 4-0 record.

In second place are Go Devils of WAS with a 3-2 record. Robson's Sporting Goods holds a 5-1, Panat Drugs and Dynatronics tied for fourth place with 3-4 records. VAN-1 has 300 average with 2 wins and 1 loss. Evans Bowling has a 3 win and 4 loss record with National Guard and Walker Barber Shop tied for last place with 1-4 records.

Last week's results were Monday, Go Devils 88 - Panat 67; Walker Barber Shop 57, National Guard 55; Wednesday, Robson's Sporting Goods 61, Dynatronics 58; McRoberts 75 50 Walker Barber Shop 64, National Guard 52; Evans Bowling 55, Thursday, Robson's Sporting Goods 61, Panat 54; McRoberts 75 55, Dynatronics 55.

Industrial High

High labor and production indexes in December in the San Antonio area were reported by the Bureau of Economic Analysis. The San Antonio area had a 1.5 percent increase in production and a 1.2 percent increase in labor productivity.

Supreme Court Faces Busy Agenda This Week

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court reconvenes today after its holiday recess, with decisions awaited in some 30 cases involving espionage, race conflict, citizenship and other issues.

Later in the week, the nine justices will hear arguments on the constitutionality of the 1967 civil rights law, which permits the federal government to enforce Negro voting rights. Attorney General William P. Rogers will represent the government.

Federal Judge T. Hoyt Davis of America, Ga., ruled last April that the statute was unconstitutional.

Among the more important cases up for decision is the dispute between the United States and five Gulf Coast states over ownership of the rich offshore oil lands. The Government wants state ownership confined to a three-mile belt around the coastline. The states claim as far out to sea as three leagues, or 10 1/2 miles.

Decisions are due in race cases involving 1957 tax ordinances of Little Rock and North Little Rock, Ark., which require local NAACP groups to reveal their membership lists, and an attempt by Negroes to play on a Greensboro, N. C. golf course restricted to whites.

Arguments also have been heard on the appeal of Col. Rudolf

Ivanovich Abel, Soviet Agent convicted of espionage in New York in 1957. Abel argued that the government violated the constitution's guarantee against unreasonable searches and seizures.

A group of cases vitally important to the military services will determine whether the 480,000 dependents and other civilians living aboard with the armed forces are subject to trial by court-martial for non-capital offenses. The court previously has ruled that in cases involving the death penalty dependents must be given a civilian trial.

In another personal liberties case, the high court has been asked to decide whether Congress can take away the citizenship of a native-born American if he goes abroad to escape military service.

Quotable Quotes

By United Press International
WASHINGTON — The National Geographic Society, noting the recent quarrel between two chief-lains on Formosa's once-wild eastern frontier shows civilization is advancing there:

"Instead of reverting to the decapitation of each other — and their hapless subjects — the two rivals held press conferences to air their differences."

BERLIN — West Berlin student Klaus Grabert, after watching a French-made film on Nazi concentration camps:

"Now I know why our parents and teachers always tell us about the 'gay 30's' but never about the horrific 30's."

FAIRBANKS, Alaska — Air Force Capt. William A. Culling, reporting that morale is good among 30 men at the scientific station on the disintegrating ice floe Charlie:

"Everyone seems unconcerned."

WASHINGTON — Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.), stating that he considers the Wisconsin primary important in his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination:

"If I don't win in Wisconsin, then in the slogan of the current administration I'll have to make an agonizing reappraisal."

Monti Paces LA Open Play

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Home-town favorite Eric Montl, given a day of grace by the elements, carried a slim one stroke lead into the rain-delayed third round of the $7,500 Los Angeles Open today.

The postponement Sunday gave Montl a chance to nurse a perrier, out cold as well as his narrow advantage over second-place Dow Finsterwald, of Tuquesa, Fla. Montl's 71 Saturday provided him with a 36-hole score of 127, while Finsterwald gained ground with a 68. With his 70 Friday, it gave him a halfway score of 185.

Despite the forecast of more showers today — the weatherman said there was a 70 per cent probability there would be rain — morning officials were hopeful the field of 85 pros and 10 amateurs could resume play.

Jaycees Seek Outstanding Young Man

The public is being asked by the Jaycees to help select the county's outstanding young man of the year.

D. H. (Skip) Hartley, chairman of Jaycee Week which starts Monday, urged today that nomination blanks be obtained at the Jaycee Building on French Ave. Nominations must be entered not later than Monday, he said.

Selection of the outstanding young man will be one of the features of the Jaycee Week observance here in which the Junior Chamber of Commerce will pay tribute to the accomplishments of young people in the community.

Any young man under 35 years of age is eligible for nomination for this distinguished service award. He need not be a member of the Jaycees or any other organization.

Selection of the outstanding individual by a panel of judges consisting of prominent county residents will be based on contributions to community welfare or betterment; participation in all-around community activities and civic enterprises; evidence of leadership; evidence of personal and business progress, and cooperation with individuals and civic organizations.

The recipient of the award will be honored at the Jaycee Awards-Bosses Night Dinner Jan. 23. This is the highest tribute the Jaycees can give an individual.

Five Road Projects Selected

The County Commission today designated five major road projects to get funds out of the secondary gas tax funds.

The projects include purchase of a right of way for SR 44 from Mellonville to French Ave.;

right of way and construction of SR 427 from Altamonte Springs to Longwood, right of way on SR 436 from Altamonte Springs to the Turkey Farm, right of way and construction of Bear Lake Road to the Orange County line and realignment to eliminate curves on SR 426 from Goldenrod to Oviedo.

The board previously had agreed to extend its right to borrow on funds from the secondary tax money and singled out these five major projects because "they are the most travelled roads in the county."

In other action during the morning meeting, the board agreed to ask the state to purchase a signal light for the intersection of SR 436 and U. S. 17-92. The state would purchase the light and the county would install it. Cost of the project is estimated to be approximately $10,000.

Lake Mary Road Work Begins

Work started this week on paving Lake Mary Road from Country Club Road to SR 427, County Engineer Robert Davis informed the County Commission today.

Cost of the project is $30,000, Davis added, and includes a four-mile strip of road.

In other business concerning Lake Mary, the board upheld a zoning commission ruling to rezone four lots in the Crystal Lake Homes subdivision despite a disagreement on "just who owns the land."

The four lots were rezoned R2, which allows for multiple construction.

The board previously had held off any decision on the issue to allow Attorney Mack Cleveland to check into the claim that the property in question is designated as a park.

Cleveland said that evidence he has received indicated the plots were vacated 14 years ago.

Barry Sullivan Takes Role In Heart Fund Show

Barry Sullivan has been put into the co-starring billing with Betty Davis for the presentation of "The World of Carl Sandburg" Jan. 30 at the Civic Center.

Sullivan, a veteran star of stage, movies and television, will replace Cameron Mitchell in the show with Miss Davis.

The show, being brought here by the Seminole-DeBary Heart Council, has been getting unanimous praise in other cities. Mrs. Leonard Munson, chairman of the Heart Fund, has been notified.

One report said "it is an evening of song and shows—simple human emotions and big thought—pleasant to watch and hear." And another: "It is two hours of lively entertainment. Stimulating treatment that keeps the audience alert."

Patron seats for the show still are available and may be reserved by calling Mrs. John Morgan or Mrs. Munson.

Biting Funeral To Be Wednesday

Funeral services for W. V. Biting will be held at 10 a. m. Wednesday at the First Methodist Church, Sanford, with the Rev. T. O'Brien and the Rev. J. C. McKinley officiating. Burial will be in Oaklawn Memorial Park, with Erlson Funeral Home in charge.

Active pallbearers will be Harry Tenke, John Ivey, Albert Jarell, Dr. Henry Woodard, Tom Holt and W. A. Adams.

Honorary pallbearers will include Glen McCall, Alfred Chiles and all members of the Seminole County Medical Assn.

Air Safety Facilities

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Aviation Agency today outlined its plans for spending $115,200,000 on new air traffic and navigation facilities. The emphasis will be on radar.

Stork Leaves Gifts Along With Carrie Ann Foote

The stork also had a bag full of prizes in his beak when he delivered little Carrie Ann Foote at the Seminole Memorial Hospital Jan. 2.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Foote of 128 W. Woodland Dr., closed her tiny fist on $150 worth of prizes from Sanford merchants by becoming the first baby born in Seminole County in 1960.

The six-pound, 4 1/2 ounce arrival, first for the Footes, was born at 9:13 a. m. and hospital authorities told Mrs. Foote they thought Carrie Ann was the first county arrival for the new year.

Carrie Ann was named after her father's grandmother, Carrie Lorraine Foote. Lt. (j.g.) E. W. Foote and his wife, Laura, have lived in Sanford since March, 1954, when Foote came to Sanford NAS from flight training in Pensacola. The couple married after Foote's 1956 graduation from the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. The VAH-5 pilot expects to be in Sanford two more years. He hails from Akron, Ohio. Mrs. Foote is a former Washington, D. C. resident and a 1954 graduate of Mt. Vernon Jr. College.

"That's wonderful," Mrs. Foote exclaimed when she heard the list of prizes Carrie Ann and her family had won from 25 Sanford merchants.

Prizes include an auto seat, sweater set, a baby bath, baby foods, free laundry, baby lotions, the lot's first pair of shoes, a combination high chair-car seat, a family dinner, a $10 bank account, a free color portrait, a feeding spoon and rattle, birth announcements, and a department store gift certificate.

Caracas, Venezuela (UPI) — Jobless mobs ran riot in the streets here Monday night and early today, stoning public buildings, burning automobiles and trying to loot stores.

A Spanish immigrant was killed and at least 23 persons were wounded by troops and police battling the rioters. More than 200 persons were arrested.

Many men in the mobs were armed, and sporadic gunfire was heard through the night. The authorities mobilized about 2,000 troops and nearly 8,500 police to battle the mobs.

236 Homes Planned In North Orlando

North Orlando Mayor Roy Liddick today announced that engineering on 236 more homes for the community will start immediately. A contract has been signed with Miami and Ft. Lauderdale developer Perry Willets, for purchase of Willets of 500 lots and arranging for building the new houses, Liddick said. The homes in the $10,000 price range will be east of the North Orlando central office on the Longwood-Oviedo road.

Liddick said that the town's utility company is expanding its sewerage and water plant to meet the demand of the construction. The greatest problem with the new development will be the need for schools, the mayor explained. There are now 125 homes occupied in North Orlando and 25 under construction.

Parking Lot Paving Begins

City work crews today started paving the parking lot behind the civic center, City Manager Warren Knowles reported.

Knowles said when completed, the lot will have parking space for 121 cars. It will be the fourth municipal parking lot in the city.
