Truman Seeks Investigation Of VA Claims

Probe Of Alleged Delays In Payment Of Death & Disability Benefits Is Asked

MIAMI, Nov. 12. (AP)—Mrs. Harry S. Truman and his daughter, Margaret, paused briefly here today on their way to join President Truman at Key West. A handful of onlookers cheered as they stepped down from a streamliner, the Silver Star. Secret service men quickly piloted them to two waiting cars, but not before Mrs. Truman waved her to well-wishers.

By ERNEST B. VACURO
KEY WEST, Nov. 12. (AP)—President Truman today directed defense and Veterans Administration authorities to make a full investigation into alleged delays in the payment of veterans disability and death benefits.

He asked Secretary of Defense Forrestal and Veterans Administrator Carl R. Gray to report specifically on reported delay in compensation the widow of an army civilian employee—a veteran—killed in a Paris plane crash last Jan. 6.

Eben Ayers, assistant presidential press secretary, said Mr. Truman ordered them to recommend steps to prevent other such delays. Meanwhile, three members of the President's top Democratic command interrupted their conferences with the chief executive to fly to Havana.

Senator Alben W. Barkley, vice-president-elect; Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath and Leslie L. Bluffe, director

Evarts, Ky., Looks For Fifth Police Chief In 3 Months

EVARTS, Ky., Nov. 12. (AP)—The city council of this Harlan County community is looking for a new police chief.

Whoever gets the job will be the fifth chief in a little more than three months. Chief No. 4 resigned yesterday. He announced his resignation from a jail cell at Harlan, where he was held for a short time on a charge of drunkenness.

George Sellers, who took the job Oct. 13, said he resigned, however, because a man he arrested had been released from jail without posting bond.

Sellers was arrested yesterday morning for the third time in a week on drunkenness charges. He was released later in the day and examining trial was set for next Wednesday.

The latest arrest was made here by county police. The second arrest was made by Harlan police Tuesday night at a Harlan bus

BUILDING BURNS
LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 12. (AP)—Fire early today destroyed University of Kentucky's 100-year-old, 55-year-old Norwood Hall, with a loss estimated at $200,000. Origin of the blaze has not been determined.

The building, housing the university's botany department, the state department of mines and minerals and the Kentucky geological survey, was declared a total loss.

KITTY HAWK ARRIVES
HALIFAX, N.S., Nov. 12. (AP)—The Wright brothers' Kitty Hawk first power-driven airplane to fly was transported today from the Royal Palm State Park—by the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs.

The government cannot begin development of the area until the U.S. east coast dock strike.

The park service expects little opposition in acquiring the needed land.

With a $2,000,000 donation by the state of Florida in hand, negotiations are in progress for purchase of approximately 400,000 acres of privately-owned land in the southwestern tip of the peninsula state.

Donald Lee, National Park Service attorney, said no opposition to values had appeared so far in buying land for the park.

Three tracts have been acquired from private owners, including 1,000 acres from the Model Land Company. The others are 140 acres of the Shark River Fishing

Rail Embargo Gallows Death On New York, Is Decreed For Boston Asked Premier Tojo

Railroads Fear Car Tie Up As Result Of Strike Of Dock Workers At 2 Ports

NEW YORK, Nov. 12. (AP)—An immediate embargo on all freight destined for export from strike bound New York and Boston harbors was recommended today by the regional office of the Association of American Railroads.

The recommendation was sent to the association's Washington office. George C. Randall, manager of traffic for the rail group here, said he was sure the proposal would be put into effect.

Meanwhile, delegates of the striking dock workers, whose dispute threatens to tie up the Atlantic and Gulf seaports, awaited a message from President Truman.

Joseph P. Ryan, president of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association, of which the dock workers are members, said the message would be read to the delegates later today.

He said he did not know if contracts had ended it was written to him. Mr. Truman went to Florida and before the walkout began.

It was proposed and given to Cyrus S. Ching, director of the Federal Mediation Services, for discussion of the standstill in the event of a collapse in negotiations.

The H.A. president also told him he believed the union members had voted overwhelmingly against acceptance of a wage agreement worked out by union leaders with shipping operators.

Bidding was completed last night. The result will be announced later.

Under the embargo recommendation, Randall said, freight for the Army, Navy Marine Corps and Coast Guard will be exempt because the striking longshoremen are continuing to load and carry.

He said there was no jam in railcars in the New York and Boston ports and that freight movement is "completely free."

He said, however, the association did not want to let railroads break up.

FRIDAY NOV. 12, 1948

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

THERE IS NO SOUL SO DEPRAVED THAT HE CANNOT BE COMPLETELY CHANGED INTO SPOTLESS DECENCY. WE HAVE SLEN IT DONE. Wash me and I shall be whiter than snow.—Ps. 51:7.

Former Premier Tojo, who ordered the Jap sneak attack on Pearl Harbor, has been sentenced to hang by the neck until dead. That should be a warning to "Uncle Joe."

The highly inflated hen in the Heinz pickle fortune of some $23,000,000 beat up a 63-year-old negro waiting for a bus in New York City the other day and the headlines read: "Picked Pickle Hen Finds Self in Pickle."

It may be taken as an effort to woo the South back into the fold when the President, vacationing at Key West, southernmost city in the United States, grows a beard and insists, "No, it is not a Van Dyke. It is of all things—a Jefferson Davis beard." Well, we'll wait and see whether he shaves it off when he goes back to Washington.

There is no telling what our headline writers are going to say. Here's one we saw today: "China Throws 1,000,000 Men Against Reds." That's pretty good pitching on anybody's team. George Washington, they say, once threw a dollar across the Potomac, but he never equalled this Chinese record.

Airline planes returning from the Far East are booked solid for the next month. There is as much apprehension about what is going to happen out there as there was a few days before Pearl Harbor.

Perhaps more. These people didn't believe such a thing was possible. Today they know it is. And the other day a foreign submarine was reported sighted off the Hawaiian Islands. Meanwhile, there are rumors of peace talks. Truman may go to Moscow, so the rumors go, or Stalin may send an emissary to Washington. So did the Mikado.

We are glad to see the Congress of Parents and Teachers taking up the fight against over-stimulating motion pictures, hair-raising radio programs and corrupting comic books." If these ladies can't do anything about it, nobody can. Those who control these three mighty mediums of communications," they say, "have a responsibility toward the public greater than that of the ordinary profit-and-loss merchant." They must clean house themselves, or the public, through federal legislation, will do it for them.

High wages have their natural advantage, especially when they are earned, and ordinarily the more money the people have to spend the better business is for everyone. But when high wages result without increased productivity, prices rise and offset the benefits from high wages. Furthermore, high wages may cause unemployment. The U.S. Time Corporation of Waterbury, Conn. announces it is laying off one thousand of its 3,200 employees because it is unable to reduce wages and cannot meet its payroll. Such things are always unpleasant to contemplate, but they may be among the hard facts of life.

The threat of the atomic bomb in the next war may bring about a complete reversal of the century-old trend toward the metropolitan centers of population. Since 1940 over 50 percent of all new industries have been located in towns 10,000 population or less, as compared with very few prior to that time. Dispersal, say the experts, is the best defense against the atomic bomb. We would not like to see Sanford built up by new industries to the point where it becomes a target of major importance when hostilities break out. A few more large factories right here wouldn't hurt any.

Knowledge Of Strength

It would be a distasteful job for Americans and Britons to go about the world proclaiming the part we had in the winning of the late war. Yet that is one of the things we may have to do toward prevention of another war.

An article written by Mao Tse-tung, chairman of the Chinese Communists, for the official magazine of the Cominform, contains some interesting statements. Mao wrote that "The world revolutionary united front headed by the Soviet Union has defeated Fascist Germany, Italy and Japan." Later, on the familiar theme of American imperialism he said the capitalist world is suffering "panic in the face of impending extinction."

A great danger to world peace lies in the possibility that the Communist leaders who keep repeating such statements may begin to believe them. They are based on the same wholly wrong idea which lured Hitler and the Japanese war lords to disaster for their nations. This is the idea that the Western democracies are decadent and weak, incapable of fighting for the principles they uphold. It would be tragic for all the world if that false idea again should be accepted by the leaders of a great nation with opposing interests.

Those who speak of the strength of America usually are accused of sabre-rattling and war-mongering. But it is not enough just to be strong; we must also make sure that we are not thought to be weak.

Shelving Churchill

"A grand man to have been our leader, but not to lead us now." This is coming to be the feeling of some leading British Tories about 74-year-old Winston Churchill. A Tory newspaper publisher, Viscount Kemsley, has recently proposed that the war-time premier share with others the responsibility for party leadership, and devote more time to writing memoirs and heading the movement for Western Union. Put less politely, this is an invitation for Churchill to go on the shelf.

What is the cause of this attitude? The Manchester Guardian, the chief newspaper of the liberal party, says that Churchill does not co-operate. "He insists on his own choice, chooses his own moments for intervention in Parliament, and in general, takes little notice of what his lieutenants or party organizers think or advise on policy and tactics." Some of those who feel like this would like to see Churchill turn over the party reins to Anthony Eden.

It may be doubted if Churchill will do this voluntarily. He felt keenly his defeat in 1945 and would like to be vindicated by a victory in 1950. He may also remember that Gladstone became premier for the fourth time at 83 and served for two more years. Churchill could equal that record if he kept his leadership for another decade.

The Inspired Touch

The name of the young man who figured in the following episode was not recorded—but it should have been, for it deserves to be known.

This young man popped up at the country residence of a certain well-known industrialist to apply for a much wanted position. "You have a good education and a pleasing personality," the industrialist grudgingly admitted, after he had questioned the applicant, "but how do I know you have sufficient initiative and ingenuity for this job? By the way, how did you find your way out here from the station?"

"It was quite a problem, sir," the young man replied, "I asked half a dozen people how to get out here, and every one of them gave me different directions. It was most confusing."

"What did you do?" the industrialist asked.

"Oh," replied the applicant, "I finally went to the post office and mailed you a special delivery letter. Then I just waited until the boy started out to deliver it and followed him here."

Needless to say, he got the job!

More than 250 people enjoyed the barbecue which was served at the race track grounds by Henry Lee, who with the assistance of Jesus Lee had spent the whole night barbecuing the tender pork and beef at the Lee and Sons Dairy Grounds near the Wekiva River. Mrs. Mary M. Lee handled the ticket sales.

Automobiles were parked the whole length of the race track an many out-of-town visitors were present among the spectators. Cowboy regalia of colorful design was worn by many men and women and by children.

Armistice Day was celebrated with parades: one at 10:30 A.M. on First Street by the Dusty Boots Riding Association which included a number of mounted veterans, augmented by a small group of local veterans on foot, and the other in the afternoon in Goldsboro and downtown Sanford by negro Legionnaires, Boy Scouts and Crooms Academy hand.

First Street was somewhat deserted in the morning until shortly before the parade of riders came into view at 10:30 o'clock, when a sizable crowd, including many Sanford school children, thronged the walk, especially at street intersections.

Horsemen were not as numerous in the parade as on previous occasions, probably due to the attention required because of the cattle tick infestation, but more than 60 of the colorfully attired Dusty Boots Riders were seen.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Williams of Lake Mary led the parade, and made a fine impression with their bright yellow shirts, decorated horses and cowboy regalia. Draped over the horses of each behind the saddles were brightly striped serapes of Mexican design. Sheriff P. A. Mero, in bright red shirt, was near the front of the parade. One rider was costumed as a clown.

Among the World War I veterans seen marching on foot were Chester Miller, C. J. Harrison, Brown Miller, Frank Takach, Ed Monforton, William F. Thorne and Sid Richard. In place of a band, J. E. McAlexander drove his sound truck.

The parade formed in front of the Tourist Center, proceeded east to Oak Avenue on First Street, looped around Second Street to Park Avenue and marched to the

THE WORLD TODAY

Speculation over the report of a possible meeting between President Truman and Marshal Stalin in Moscow has swept both hemispheres like prairie fire, demonstrating anew the intense parley of world-interest in any such meeting.

It is noted worth that the Moscow press has given heavy play to this report which was carried by Tass, the Soviet news agency. Tass attributed the information to a column by Iris Caffey.

The story has met with mixed reception. U. S. Undersecretary of State Lovett said yesterday he knew nothing to substantiate the idea of such a meeting. President's Press Secretary Eben Ayers, who is with the Chief Executive at Key West, offered no comment but recalled Mr. Truman's repeated assertion that he would be glad to talk with Stalin any time the Soviet chief wishes to come to America.

Of course, Mr. Truman did have a plan to end Chief Justice Vinson's visit to Russia recently, but Secretary of State Marshall persuaded the President not to do that. However, the President left the door open for possible consideration of a similar mission. In view of this it is interesting to see L'Observatore Romano, the Vatican organ which frequently reflects the views of Pope Pius, expressing hope that the American elections have paved the way for a Truman-Stalin meeting.

And from well-informed American sources in Paris comes the sidelight that Misses Truman and Marshall are expected to confer shortly over the whole field of America's relations with Russia.

Well, what of the advisability of a Truman-Stalin meeting assuming that it could be arranged?

Most observers appear to regard the proposition with much doubt as being a two-edged sword which might do some good but could do much harm.

On the Credit side one can satisfaction to those who feel we are missing far by not attempting such a direct approach. Furthermore it would put America on record as having gone the limit in trying to achieve peace, even though the effort failed.

On the other hand there would be the danger that the move would be interpreted as appeasement.

a term which forever will be associated with British Prime Minister Chamberlain's efforts to placate Hitler. Such an interpretation would give Moscow grand propaganda with which to convince their own people, and indeed foreign nations, of Red Russian supremacy.

Then there is the definite danger that the Muscovites, after smoking the pipe of peace, might employ the following period of relative tranquillity for the expansion of their 600 billion dollar project in foreign countries. That's a tough suggestion to have to make, but past experience shows that it is in the cards. Employment of the double-cross not only is one of the cardinal methods of Bolshevism, but is actually part of the written code.

But supposing Moscow made a pact of amity with the Western Nations, "calling off" the cold war? What then?

I think you will find the consensus of observers is that we might have a period of pseudopeace but that most assuredly this band shell.

Dancing was enjoyed in the evening at the Dusty Boots Club.

The star is brought to the table and talked to! Schary is worried. "He is told to straighten himself out, not only for his own good but for the good of the town and the industry."

Due to being jailed and other bad publicity hurt a star's popularity.

The history of the United States shows that the American public is essentially sympathetic.

When an American reads about a star being caught drunk, he figures, "That's all right, I've been drunk myself."

However, if the offenses are repeated, or the star is involved in an unsavory scandal, he will lose the public's sympathy and suffer a gradual decline in popularity.

Can a studio create stars?

No. The studio can provide many things for players, create a personality for them, give them leading roles and get them before the public by means of the columns and magazines. But only the public can make them stars.

It is illustrated with a top stage actress who made several striptease successes in Hollywood, but was never a box-office star. The public never went for her.

And name several who guess for the bigtime despite heavy bad-habits — Simon, Simon, Anna Sten, etc.

Is the star system a menace to good pictures, as some critics claim?

"There is no such thing as the star system. Stars are so much a part of the business that they can't be considered a system."

"Take any other field of endeavor—politics, business, sports. There are always certain persons who come to the fore because of their personalities. Take the New York Yankees. You always think of them first in baseball. Why? Because of the stars they've had Ruth, Gehrig, Mantle, etc."

"It is especially true of the movies," Schary said. "That's why only the people can make a star. And that, I hope, just about covers the star—ahem—system."

Lambda Chi Alumni Have Florida Meet

The Central Florida alumni of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity gathered on Wednesday night at the Tourist Center for a meeting and dinner in honor of Howard N. Coleman, national alumnae secretary, who is making a tour of the southeast in behalf of the fraternity.

Mr. Coleman spoke on the development and growth of the fraternity which he said now has the largest number of chapters of any other national college fraternity.

Sanford members of the fraternity who attended were David Gatchel, Bobby Jones, Harold Hockenbach, Laurier Beard, George Spencer, Ralph Austin Smith and Fred C. Wright, formerly of Sanford now of Orlando.

Offices elected were Roger Giles of Umatilla, president; Sam Watkins of Orlando, vice-president; and Ray Miller of Winter Park, secretary-treasurer. A poll of the members present indicated that 10 colleges and universities were represented.

Toasted slices of leftover packaged pound cake and serve with sliced bananas and caramel sauce for a scrumptious dessert.

Michigan-Notre Dame Row May Be Settled In Irish-Wildcat Tilt

NEW YORK. Nov. 12. (AP)—The argument that has raged for two seasons over the relative merits of Michigan and Notre Dame will receive added fuel tomorrow when the all-conquering Irish smash against the once-beaten Northwestern Wildcats at South Bend in the week's big game.

Michigan holds the No. 1 spot in the Associated Press poll by a narrow margin. A week ago it was Notre Dame, and the week before that Michigan. It's a confused circle.

Northwestern, running secondly for the Rose Bowl assignment from the Big Nine, dropped its only decision to Michigan a month ago, 28 to 0. If the Irish hope to displace the Wolverines as the people's choice before the waning season ends, they will have to lambast the Wildcats by at least an equally impressive margin.

Further light also should be shed on the national championship picture in the meeting at Philadelphia between Army's undefeated Cadets, No. 3 in the current ranking, and Penn's Quakers. They will play before the day's largest crowd, close to 80,000.

This promises to be Army's big test.

Michigan, the leader, figures to breeze past Indiana at Ann Arbor, and California's Golden Bears, rated No. 4 nationally, are expected to skin the Washington State Cougars at Berkeley.

In general, the week's schedule is nothing to get excited over. Things will be especially quiet in the South, which bulges with football muscles. A collision between undefeated Clemson and Wake Forest at Winston-Salem appears to be the section's top attraction, opposed only by that between the two defensive stalwarts, North Carolina and Maryland, at Washington, D.C.

Tennessee, which upset Georgia Tech a week ago, tackles Mississippi at Memphis, and Tulane entertains Baylor of the Southwest Conference at New Orleans. The latter game bears importance. Tulane, by winning handily, could just about clinch a Sugar Bowl berth.

Southern Methodist, now top cow hand in the Southwest Conference and apparently bound for a repeat performance in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day, should subdue Arkansas at Fayetteville, while winning handsomely could just about clinch a Sugar Bowl berth.

Out of a powerful plebe squad, Ensign Bill Martin is fashioning the material that may give the Midshipmen something to cheer about.

Martin expects about 15 of his men will be "likely contenders" for spots on the 45-man varsity squad next year.

He specifies a pair of passing quarterbacks with "poise under fire" who may fill the hole left by the graduation of Navy's three top signal-callers next spring.

Two-hundred-pound Bob Zarrow, 19-year-old sidearm passer from Algoma, Wis., has been hurt, but few expect much thunder against the Commodores who have scored the most points within the conference—142.

Another national attraction will be played in New Orleans Saturday between Tulane and Baylor. The Green Wave came third in the SEC and nearly on a par with Vandy in improvements. Tulane will be a slight paw over the Baptists who until their defeat by Texas were racing to the Southwest championship.

After three weeks the Kentucky Wildcats get back into intrasquad play again Saturday. If the Gators play as they did against Georgia last week the game in Lexington should be a good one.

The over-educated teams play in Baton Rouge Saturday night but can disturb the tandems little. Mississippi State has slipped from near the top to seventh place while LSU has been in the bottom reaches all year.

The pikes, used on defense in occasional scrimmages against the varsity, haven't had too much chance to show what they can do against an experienced team. It won't be until March that Sauer will have a chance to see just how well his new crop of youngsters can run with the ball.

JONES IS UP
ATLANTA, Nov. 12. (AP)—Famed golfer Bobby Jones is up and about his Emory hospital room after an operation to relieve pressure on his spinal cord.

Hospital authorities said the grand-slam champion's condition is "entirely satisfactory" and that he will be released within two weeks. The operation was performed Oct. 30.

MIAMI-NOVA CLASH
MIAMI, Nov. 12. (AP)—The University of Miami ruled a two-touchdown favorite over the University of Chattanooga in their annual clash at the Orange Bowl Stadium tonight. A crowd of 30,000 to 35,000 is anticipated.

SEC Leaders To Face Stiff Tiffs During Weekend

Georgia, Tech, Mississippi And Tulane Must Win Contests

By STERLING SLAPPY

ATLANTA, Nov. 12. (AP)—The Southern-Term Conference football sophomores were the only team to score more than once on the Irish. They punched over three touchdowns. They likely will do it again this time but Notre Dame will yet four, at least. Notre Dame's leaders have to win to remain on top.

The Georgia Bulldogs with four conference victories and no defeat meet with their two remaining games to clinch the championship unless Georgia Tech, Mississippi and Tulane lose Saturday.

Georgia meets an Auburn team Saturday in Columbus, Ga., which has given little trouble to any other SEC member. However, the Phenoms always have been hard on Georgia in their 56 years of football.

Following Auburn the Bulldogs meet Furman and then comes the game which may decide the championhip—Tech Georgia in Athens, Nov. 27.

The second ranking team in the conference—Georgia Tech—doesn't have to worry about its unbroken record any longer. Tennessee took care of its last week. Tech must play Alabama Saturday in Atlanta against Frank Zender, leading all Southern semi-fullback candidates.

Zender, whose fumble gave Tennessee its first touchdown, has had Wednesday in practice and may miss the remainder of the season.

Like their fellow Georgians, the Yellow Jackets are a strong pick to win the second of the football title between the states of Georgia and Mississippi.

Mississippi, defending champion and one-time leader this season, has the toughest job of all to remain in the top four. The biggest name in the conference will be in Memphis Saturday between the Rebels and Tennessee Vols. One man on the flip of a coin would be the best way to decide a favorite and then it wouldn't matter how much which came up, tide to tide, or even head to Mississippi.

After Tennessee the Rebels have a week off, and then play Mississippi State. The Rebels can't lose both and still tie for the championship. After Mississippi, the Vols take on Kentucky and then Vanderbilt in Nashville Nov. 27. Vandy has shown himself a good thrower and ball carrier too. Both are experienced in the T-formation taught by Coach George Bauer at Navy.

Graduation will hit Annapolis hard at center, and Martin thinks he has "two pretty big picks" who have a chance—Bill Bryson of Rome Ga., and Walt Schiffrin of Rutherford, N. J.

Among some fine ends, Martin lists 19-year-old Pat McDonald of Fort Collins, Colo., "a very able player on defense" who also owns a good pair of hands" for breaking touchdowm passes.

Building up strength for a variety which has suffered from a lack of reserves, Martin has used three full teams in play. He hopes to turn over a wealth of potential varsity starters to Bauer in spring practice. Lack of depth, says Martin, "shows up in the second half of the ball game," as undermined by the graduation of Navy's three top signal-callers next spring.

Two-hundred-pound Bob Zarrow, 19-year-old sidearm passer from Algoma, Wis., has been hurt, but few expect much thunder against the Commodores who have scored the most points within the conference—142.

Claasen Picks Kentucky To Trim Florida's Fighting Gators

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK, Nov. 12. (AP)—Sliding down from the top of the football peak with another hatful of forecasts.

Last week's 62 correct picks in 75 chances meant an average of .827. That brought the season's total to 451 and 101 incorrect for an average of .818.

This weekend's forecasts:

ICC Hears Testimony On Farm Products

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12. (AP)—Witnesses have told the Interstate Commerce Commission that cotton fibers, cottonseed and cottonseed hulls are exempt under the truck regulatory act.

Federal law provides that trucks hauling agricultural commodities are exempt from ICC regulation. ICC Examiner C. Evans Brooks is taking testimony to help the commission define what is an agricultural, and what is a manufactured product. One group of ICC members held that spinach which has been washed and packaged is a manufactured product.

But M. L. Culum of Sanford representing the Florida Farm Bureau, yesterday told the examiner that it would be "fantastic" to say that packaged fresh vegetables and fruits are anything but agricultural products.

Spokesmen for some railroads and various truck lines are urging the commission to approve the original spinach decision. The current hearing was set after farm groups and the Department of Agriculture protested the decision.

Greek Premier

Tsaldaris still is at the United Nations session in Paris. Sophoulis cabled him last night, asking him to return, but so far there have been no indication of when Tsaldaris would arrive.

The outgoing premier said the king's summons of Tsaldaris followed parliamentary procedure since he is leader of the largest party. Technically the king is free to call on anyone to form a cabinet, since the government did not fall on a vote of no confidence.

Political observers except the king also will call leaders of other parties for consultations. Sophoulis resigned under pressure from Sophocles Venizelos, deputy leader of his own Liberal Party.

Venizelos charged the government in 14 months had failed to support the Communists in their demands and lacked the confidence of the Greek people. He claimed enough support from his followers in the Liberal Party to combine with opposition parties and overthrow the government in parliament.

He held off action while the Greek case was before the U. N. Political Committee, reportedly at the request of King Paul.

Sophoulis met with his cabinet before handing his resignation to the king. He thanked the ministers for their services and told them every effort should be made to maintain a strong government for Greece.

The term "filibusters" was first applied to plotters and later to citizens of the United States who intervened without government sanction in favor of Latin American revolutions against Spain.

Supreme Court Drops Review On Portal Pay

Order Banning Ford

Financing Company
Is Lifted By Group

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. (P)—The Supreme Court in effect up held today the action of Congress in knocking out the claim by workers for some $6,000,000,000 in back "portal-to-portal" pay.

The high court refused in an order to review a lower court decision that the law Congress passed in 1947 retroactively canceled overtime pay claims made by a group of Maryland workers.

The refusal means the lower court decision stands.

In another major action, the high court lifted a lower court order banning the Ford Motor Company from owning an automobile financing company or from persuading its dealers and the public to use any particular company.

It was a 4-3 decision Justice Black, one of those disagreeing with it, said the decision means that hereafter dealers and auto buyers who use a finance company "can't depend on competition to keep interest rates at a fair level."

In a third action, the court refused a union request that it rule on whether the government was within its rights when it got a court order last July against a threatened nationwide strike of railroad workers. The government

Vegetable Demand Increase Expected At Florida Marts

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 16. (Special)—"With cooler weather generally over this country, the demand for fresh vegetables is expected to increase on the Florida State Farmers' Markets. Noticeable increased demand during the past week for cucumbers and tomatoes strengthens the belief that American demands its fresh vegetable salad regardless of the season," said William L. Wilson, Director of State Markets in his review of the vegetable situation today. "Though cucumbers and tomatoes are leading in volume just now, beans, squash, some peppers and eggplants are also moving."

"Fort Pierce State Farmers' Market reports that movement of a light volume of good smooth, high quality tomatoes began during the past week with a volume of 2,700 bushel crates selling from $3.50 to $4.00. The peak movement is expected around Dec. 10th if the growing conditions continue favorable. A volume of 2,453 bushel tubs of cucumbers moved from this market selling from $5.00 to $3.00."

Block Will Not End In '48, Clay Says

FRANKFURT, Germany Nov. 15. (P)—General Lucius D. Clay said today he does not believe the blockade of Berlin will be lifted this year. Clay, the U.S. military governor in Germany, was asked at a news conference if he foresees an end to the Russian siege of the former German capital by next Jan. 1. He replied: "I know of no reason to believe that access to Berlin by highway or rail will be restored by the end of the year." Clay said the new Tegel Airfield in the French sector will add several hundred tons a day to the airlift supplies reaching Berlin.

Negotiators Try To Settle Dock Strikes

Hundreds Of Ships

CIO Shoremen May Fight Europe And

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hundreds of ships were tied up at the nation's Atlantic and Pacific ports today as negotiators tried to make peace in strikes of some 93,000 dock workers.

On the East coast, a six-day strike of 65,000 members of the AFL International Longshoremen Association sealed up the big ports from Portland, Me., to Hampton Roads, Va. About 200 ships were docked.

Some shipping had leaked through Halifax, but that Nova Scotia port was plugged up today. Halifax AFL longshoremen stopped work on ships due to the blockade bound U.S. ports.

"Defined progress" was reported in contract talks on the West coast where 28,000 CIO longshoremen have been striking for 20 days. Negotiators said they had taken steps to make peace permanent once the strike is settled.

West coast ports were blocked from San Diego to Seattle, with 250 cargo ships tied up.

Meanwhile it was reported that continued CIO support of the Marshall Plan for European recovery may meet opposition from CIO longshore men at the union's national convention in Portland, Ore., next week.

As CIO chiefs began arriving yesterday for an executive board meeting prior to the convention, Secretary James E. Fane and he expects the stevedores to defect to support the union's Marshall Plan support.

He said "Harry Brothers" International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Fund had sent a four-man delegation to Europe.

Carey said the HWD group went there to "study" the official

Carey added that the last delegation, authorized by the CIO convention to study European labor conditions had visited Soviet Russia.

"We met with the Russian leaders and told them we were supporting the Marshall plan and why so there could be no strike," the CIO secretary added.

And in Cincinnati AFL President William Green said the new objective for organized labor was to defeat any member of Congress who voted against repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Florida C Of C Hears Governor Report On Office

Climb In Business In Florida In Re- cent Years Is Told

ORLANDO, Nov. 15. (P)—Governor Caldwell today reported on the activities of his administration and commended his appointive officials for their services.

In a speech prepared for delivery at the Florida State Chamber of Commerce conference here, the Governor briefly outlined the progress made during the past four years in road improvements, education welfare, water control and other public services.

However, he warned that "only the surface has been scratched, and in none of these fields have we finished the job."

"These problems are not for the mind well reasoned and clear cut action is necessary to our economic growth," he declared.

Caldwell said he campaign for governor involved no commitments and he was able to make his appointments of top officials "on the basis of qualification and fitness."

"I have nothing but confidence for those who have served the state in positions of responsibility," he said.

A report showed Florida's foreign trading steadily in excess of all business interests but one.

The loss was cut, however, to 1946 levels in 1947, which were 10 percent less than in 1946. The national figures were 14.9 percent and five percent less.

Rising Costs Cause
Merger Of 2 Dailies

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 15. (P)—Consolidation of production, printing and business management of two of Madison's two daily newspapers, the Capital Times and Wisconsin State Journal, was announced today.

To take effect soon after Jan. 1, 1949, the merger was brought about "because it is no longer economically feasible for two newspapers to operate in separate establishments," officers of the publications said.

The new arrangement, William T. Eyring, editor of the Capital Times, stated in an announcement, "will not affect editorial identity and independence of either newspaper."

The letters will be placed in the mail Nov. 22, and the mailing will be staggered in order to aid postmen in delivery. Each local chairman will handle her own letters in the individual community, said Mrs. Edward Kircher, executive secretary of the Tuberculosis Association.

Mrs. O. M. Harrison, president of the Woman's Club, speaking in behalf of the club members, stated, "It is our privilege to help so worth an organization and to take part in preparing the Seal for mailing. We trust that every individual receiving these happy looking little Christmas Seals, will use them and then give generously to this worthwhile and far-reaching work."
