MOSCOW (UPI)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev today appeared to be reviving the Berlin and German issue with an "eye toward" the forthcoming East German Communist party congress.

Khrushchev, in a sharp letter to West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer released Thursday, accused the West of causing Berlin incidents and requested his demand for an East German peace treaty and the creation of a demilitarized "free city" of West Berlin.

Western diplomats said it is significant that Khrushchev not be dealing for a settlement. They said no indications were that an immediate Soviet move on Berlin were in the offing.

The diplomats said the aim of the letter appeared to be to bring the Berlin issue back into prominence in preparation for the East German party meeting in mid-January. They said Khrushchev could be securing East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht that the Cuban crisis has not caused Moscow to drop its position of obtaining a Berlin settlement.

The letter was a reply to one written by Adenauer last summer at the time of a series of ugly border incidents along the Berlin wall, including the shooting of a 16-year-old East German refugee who died by East German guards who ignored his condition.

Khrushchev ignored Adenauer's request to use his influence to stop such incidents. Instead, he made a bitter attack against the chancellor, accusing him of trying to "torpedo" every attempt of the Soviet Union and the United States to relax tensions.

He charged that Adenauer tried to force the United States into an armed clash with Russia during the Cuban crisis and of being disappointed at his peaceful settlement.

Business Briefs

The new 766-A Bell System dial communication service PBX put in service recently by the Sanford Atlantic Bank is billed as "compact, fast, efficient, modern and flexible."

"This new PBX certainly gives us all these things, making it much easier to transact the bank's business and increasing convenience and service for our customers," said President Howard Hodges.

The small pushbutton console, operated by switchboard receptionist Mrs. Esta Lou Pate has automatic connections to the trunk line by every line in the bank. It eliminates punching buttons and goes directly through to the person who is being called.

"Another unusual feature of the 'thinks-for-itself' switchboard is the 'camp-on' facility, which enables the operator to connect a caller to a busy phone, and as soon as the call receiver hangs up, the new call automatically rings," George Harnden, Bell communications consultant said.

The camp-on caller cannot overhear the call that is going on but will be automatically connected as soon as the phone is free.

The new system will handle as many as 10 outgoing calls at one time, eliminating the bottlenecks when "all the lines are tied up."

The switchboard can be set for after hours usage, and can also be easily expanded to take care of up to 60 inter-office phones.

Bear Lake Club Makes Costume Jewelry

The newly organized Bear Lake Home Demonstration Club named its first officers at a meeting held Dec. 18 at the home of Mrs. E. L. Hubbard.

Serving will be Mrs. Raymond Jackson, president; Mrs. Hubbard, vice president; Mrs. Alan Westworth, secretary; Mrs. James Wood, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Mathes, delegate and Mrs. Russell Loomis, alternate.

Mrs. Don Riley will act as food chairman and Mrs. William Carpenter as clothing chairman.

Tuesday night's meeting opened with discussion of the recent Open House held by the County Home Demonstration Clubs at the Center.

Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Mathes will represent the Bear Lake group at the Jan. 4 Council meeting also to be held in Sanford.

A workshop on making marbled costume jewelry was held after the business meeting. Glass marbles were first baked in a hot oven then quickly dipped in ice water to crackle them thus giving them their design.

After thorough drying the marbles are used for making attractive and different earrings, necklaces and bracelets.

Refreshments were served at the close of the work period.

The January meeting of the club will be held at Mrs. Westworth's home on Lake Asher Circle in Bear Lake.

Revenue Service Hikes Limit On Expense Account Records

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Internal Revenue Service has eased its expense account rules as they "won't hurt anybody who hasn't been trying to get away with something."

The Commissioner Northmer Caplin said Thursday night that after Jan. 1, taxpayers would need receipts to prove deductions of more than $25 a day for business travel, entertainment and gifts.

When the service first announced its controversial proposals last November, it set a $50 limit on the amount of expense account living that could be claimed daily without receipts. This raised a great protest from businessmen.

The limit was raised, Caplin said, "after listening to comments at public hearings and when our own agents agreed that up to $25 was more appropriate."

Planning Starts On Capital Center Reconstruction Projects

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The State Cabinet, Leon County officials, city officials and Gov. Farris Bryant put their heads together Wednesday and announced plans to clear the way for the expansion of the capitol complex here.

The cost of the reconstruction work on the capitol and new buildings will run $1,889,721 for the state.

Bryant said after the luncheon meeting that the improvements should take care of government expansion for the next 20 years. He added that representatives at the meeting agreed that federal funds should not be accepted for the project.

He personally felt, Bryant said, that the federal government should not have any claim on the buildings in the center.

Under the new requirements "a person would almost be inviting fraud charges if he made deliberate overstatements. It would be quite unwise for anyone to fabricate such records," he said.

Individuals would be allowed 30 days and companies up to three months to convert to the new record-keeping requirements, Caplin said.

Class Of 1947 Party Saturday

Mrs. Al Doudney, chairman of the 15th Year Reunion Committee of the Seminole High School graduating class of 1947 has announced that final plans are complete for the reunion dinner to be held at Spencers' Restaurant Saturday night at 7:30 p. m.

Simon Dingfelder, class president, who now lives in Tampa, will be present to emcee the program and other classmates will be coming from all over the country as far away as New York City, Mrs. Doudney said.

Special guests of the class will be the former principal, Herman Morris, and Mrs. Morris, Miss Rebecca Stevens and Mrs. Mae Fort, class sponsors.

Booklets containing the names, marital status, number of children, occupation and thumbnail biography of the class members have been prepared for those attending and copies will be mailed to those who are not able to be present, Mrs. Doudney said.

Cut Rate Airline Fare Protested

NEW YORK (UPI)—Eastern Air Lines sought a federal court injunction Wednesday to stop one of its competitors and eight Miami Beach hotels from offering cut rate flights between New York and the Florida resort.

In the complaint, Eastern said it would sustain damages of more than $100,000 if group fares sold by Northeast Airlines through the hotels were allowed to stand.

Eastern charged that one-way group passages are being sold from December through March by Northeast and the hotels at $40 a person, compared to the lowest regular coach fare of $56.65 authorized by the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Special guests of the class will be the former principal, Herman Morris, and Mrs. Morris, Miss Rebecca Stevens and Mrs. Mae Fort, class sponsors.

Booklets containing the names, marital status, number of children, occupation and thumbnail biography of the class members have been prepared for those attending and copies will be mailed to those who are not able to be present, Mrs. Doudney said.

(Larry Verbal will be in New York for the holidays and Around The Clock will be written by members of the editorial department.)

In case you have to write any dates Tuesday — make them Jan. 1, 1963. And then December off the calendar — it's gone and you might as well forget it. Another new year, more taxes, and higher prices are upon you. But be cheerful — a lot of money, cars, reckless and/or drunk drivers and some of their victims didn't make it at all.

Automobile license plates are on sale at the tax collector's office. Avoid the rush — or you can get 'em by mail.

Millard Hopper, world champion checker player, will be at the USO in Sanford Jan. 3 to give a demonstration and play 30 to 40 opponents. The public is invited to join servicemen for the show.

A lot of joy around during the weekend among University of Florida football fans. All saying they knew all the time the Gators would whip Penn State. That was a great gridiron effort, though.

Chamber of Commerce manager John Krider and Doug Stromstrom of the chamber's long range planning committee will discuss the proposal for "future alignment of U. S. Hwy. 17-92 south of Orange City" at a meeting of the DeBary Chamber of Commerce Jan. 16. They were invited by the DeBary organization.

Big Bob Thompson of the Herald staff won't be calling on the news sources for a while. Bob became ill at noon Friday and the doc said he'd better rest for a few days at Semhol Memorial Hospital.

Initial response to the appeal for financial aid for Semhol Home was good, but more assistance is required if the home is to be able to help take care of the aged of our area. Get in touch with Leroy Burgess at the Florida State Bank and arrange to give something.

Sanford residents have been real helpful in the effort to clean up the fruit, foliage, etc. from the recent freeze. City Manager W. E. Knowles said today, "The men on the refuse trucks really appreciate the cooperation, especially the placing of fallen fruit in containers," he said. There's still a lot of hard work to be done before all the debris is picked up, but it's being done as rapidly as possible.

Bridge players and others who read the Jacoby column in the Herald are advised that the mixing on the illustrations accompanying the articles should end right away. We got two sets of the cuts mixed up, and they're easier mixed than unmixed. Keep reading it.

It's a pretty good trick to get up in front of a crowd and sing with a sextet that you haven't sung with in 15 years, but that's what a "bunch of the boys" did out at Spencer's Saturday when the Class of 1947 had their reunion.

Former principal Herman Morris said one of his fondest memories of school days was the group's singing of "Dry Bones." So the brave fellows, Houston Babcock, Harold Kasner, Jan Jenkins, Nollie Trapp, Spence Harden and Clarence Grantham obliged Mr. Morris with an impromptu rendition.

We heard about a very unusual under-the-tree decoration which B. F. Katz out on Sipes Ave. built and which neighbors and friends are looking and abating over. ## President's Talk Fans Hopes Of Castro Enemies

PALM BEACH (UPI) — President Kennedy and his staff had an opportunity today to sift through returns on his weekend speech to Cuban refugees in Miami where he seemed to promise new U. S. encouragement for the overthrow of Premier Fidel Castro.

From across the country and up from Latin America there were reports for the president's perusal, indicating a broad range of reaction to his Saturday speech.

The setting was conducive to emotion among the sterner faces of the men of Brigade 2506, the Cuban refugees outfit captured in the 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion. About 40,000 relatives, friends and well wishers filled half of the stadium behind the brigade.

The president said several things which fanned high hopes of Cuban refugees for a not-too-distant return to their homeland. These same passages were whipped Communist outlets in Russia and Cuba into new cries of "aggression" and "act of war" against this country.

Members of the brigade presented their beloved tattle flag to the president, and he told them in return, "I can assure you that this flag will be returned to this brigade in a free Cuba."

The official White House transcript showed that he said "a free Havana," but the State Department translator who interpreted at the Orange Bowl ceremony said in Spanish "a free Cuba."

This difference was minor. In any case, it was regarded widely, at least in Cuba refugee circles, as a rather strong indication of Kennedy's desire to keep alive the hopes of anti-Castro forces that their next invasion of Cuba will be powerful and successful.

Some of the President's associates thought he meant no such hard implication, but that he spoke in general terms. Other associates just as close to the chief executive were somewhat surprised by the vigor of his speech.

Fire Destroys Goldsboro House

An early morning fire totally destroyed a two-story frame home at 817 Avenida Ave. in Goldsboro, when a two-burner oil heater exploded downstairs, and caked apartment dwellers upstairs knocked over a second heater in their rush to get out of the building.

Fire trucks from both stations answered the call at 3:50 a. m. but Asst. Fire Chief Robert Thomas said that "the first explosion splattered burning kerosene all over the room, multiplying the blaze in the old wooden structure and making control almost impossible."

The home was owned by Theodore Miller who lived downstairs and several tenants lived in two small upstairs apartments. Miller's wife and daughter are out of town.

Opposition Slated To Apportion Call

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — House Speaker Mallory Horns said today he is forging ahead with plans to get the legislature back into special session on reapportionment and states rights despite a surprise move among big county legislators to head off such a session.

Horns said he was "not surprised or shaken" by an announcement by State Rep. Woodie Liles of Hillsborough County that big county representatives will oppose such a session unless there is a guarantee of fair reapportionment. By fair reapportionment, Liles said, he means adoption of a plan whereby 50 per cent of the people will elect 50 per cent of the legislature, thus ending for all time rural majority control of both houses

Solons To Meet

SARASOTA (UPI) — About 25 Florida lawmakers are scheduled to attend the Jan. 11-12 gathering of the Legislature here, according to Chamber of Commerce officials.

The snow, whipped to a face-rubbing fury by winds up to 75 miles an hour, buried cars and buses and sealed off scores of communities.

Power was knocked out in many areas. Hundred of families were without heat for hours in 20-below zero temperatures. Snow drifts were 20 feet high.

At least two deaths were attributed to the storm, which caught householders, motorists and skiers unprepared. The Weather Bureau had predicted one foot of snow — and furies in some areas — before the blizzard hit.

Pope Hailed

NEW YORK (UPI) — Time magazine has named Pope John XXIII "Man of the Year" for 1962. Time said it was the first time a religious figure has been designated "Man of the Year" since the annual choice was begun in 1927.

Stocks Jump

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks jumped off to a mixed start in an active year-end opening today. Wall Streeters looked for heavy trading, reflecting last minute tax loss selling for 1962 returns and "window dressing" by mutual funds seeking to favorably adjust their portfolios in time for year-end statements.

More Foreigners

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — The State Chamber of Commerce says Florida has a higher percentage of foreign-born residents than the national average this year for the first time in recent history. The national average of foreign born residents is 3.4 per cent. According to the 1960 census, Florida recorded 3.3 per cent.

Britain Grim

LONDON (UPI) — Britain's worst winter storm in 15 years brought the nation to a New Year's Eve standstill today. More snow was expected today, although a slight thaw threatened floods in some areas. Highway officials, surveying drifts whipped up by 45-mile-per-hour winds, predicted, "It's going to be a grim New Year's Eve."

Talks Continue

NEW YORK (UPI) — Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz today prepared to spend New Year's Eve with dock strike negotiators, seeking an early solution to fringe issues blocking a return to work by 75,000 longshoremen.

The nine-day-old walkout at ports from Maine to Texas has cost the shipping industry over $200 million, according to figures given by an industry spokesman.

Cool New Year's Eve Predicted

LAKELAND (UPI) — The weather bureau predicted a nippy New Year's Eve tonight with temperatures expected to drop below freezing in parts of North Florida and scattered frost forecast for much of the state.

The cold front was from a chilly front which moved through the state Saturday, dropping the mercury about 10 degrees.

Early today temperatures were in the upper 30s in the extreme north, 40s in the center of the state and 50s in the extreme south.

Temperatures were expected to fall to 31-34 in pockets and mucklands around Orlando and the upper East Coast, with scattered frost.

Rescuers Find No Survivors

JACACIO, Corsica (UPI) — Rescue teams reached the wreckage of a French airliner in the blizzard-swept Corsican mountains today and found no survivors among the 26 persons aboard.

Blizzard Traps Thousands In Rooftop High Snows

BANGOR, Maine (UPI) — A surprise blizzard, the worst of the century in this section, trapped thousands of persons today in northern Maine and New Hampshire.

Most of the Northeast was gripped by temperatures near zero and raked by high winds. Up to eight inches of new snow blanketed northern Virginia.

There were at least 13 weather-related deaths in the East, including two in the New England blizzard, six in Virginia and five in Pennsylvania.

Scattered snow fell Sunday from Minnesota through the lower Great Lakes.

But the East was in for more numbing cold.

Maine Gov. John H. Reed described the blizzard as "an emergency situation." Reed asked civil defense aid for stricken families.

Listed as missing are Lt. Charles E. Andrews, U. S. Navy pilot of the aircraft; Ensign George S. Roberts, U. S. Naval Reserve, bombardier; and Chief Aviation Machinist Mate Harold R. Sundvall, U. S. Navy, third crewman.

Postal Machines Oust Odd Shapes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Postal mechanization caught up today with tiny birth announcements and odd-shaped letters or postcards in the U. S. mail.

Starting at midnight, the post office won't accept any letters or cards that aren't rectangular in shape and at least three inches high and four and one-quarter inches long.

The reason: "Extremely small and oddly shaped letters and postcards cause trouble in our modern canceling machines and in other mechanized equipment that is being used increasingly in our 33,000 post offices."

It's Time To File For Lots Of Things

The last day of 1962 closes with the last chance for recording deeds and agreements for deeds this year and a whole series of new tax requirements comes in with 1963.

New vehicle license tags are on sale in the office of Tax Collector John Galloway, who urges Seminole County Citizens to order their new tags by mail to save time and standing in line.

"All you have to do is to enclose the 1962 vehicle registration for your vehicle and the cost of each, with 50 cents for each one for mailing," he said.

Plain 17 tags without any letter suffix would cost $16 mailed; 17D tags will be $11 mailed and 17W tags, $21 mailed.

City and county occupational licenses also go on sale, homestead exemption is to be filed between Jan. 1 and April 1 and city and county taxes are also due by April 1.

Chinese Reds Take Issue With Soviets

TOKYO (UPI) — Communist China in its sharpest challenge yet to Soviet leadership of international communism today criticized Russia's handling of the Cuban crisis.

A 20,000-word editorial in the official Peking People's Daily said Communist China never has considered it a proper Communist attitude to brandish nuclear weapons.

The editorial added that the Red Chinese "will strongly oppose, and will strongly oppose in the future . . . the sacrifice of another country's sovereignty as a means of reaching a compromise with imperialism."

The editorial accused Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev and other Communist critics of China as being "timid as mice" when the American "paper tiger" bares its "nuclear teeth."

It defended the theory that war is "necessary," described Khrushchev's peaceful coexistence as "absurd" and said the Soviet backdown in Cuba "can only be regarded as 100 per cent appeasement, a 'Munich' pure and simple."

The reference to Khrushchev and the Soviet Union was indirect but unmistakable.

State Has Good Start On Holiday

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — "We're knocking on wood," said State Patrol Director H. N. Kirkman today as he reported only one highway fatality so far in the long New Year's holiday period.

"I just hope it can continue through heavy holiday traffic today and Tuesday," Kirkman added.

Based on previous New Year's holidays of shorter duration, the patrol had forecast a highway death toll of 28 between 8 p.m. Friday and midnight Tuesday.

Kirkman attributed the good record so far to stringent law enforcement, aided by two airplanes zigzagging above the traffic and outlying ground crews below of bad driving conditions, congested traffic and speedsters.

Castro Adds Air Flights To Release Price List

HAVANA (UPI) — The chance of more relatives of the released Pigs Bay invaders going to the United States in the immediate future was dimmed today by a new price set by Premier Fidel Castro. Castro issued a statement Sunday demanding that Pan American World Airways resume scheduled airline service to Cuba before he would permit regular departures from Cuba.

In Miami, a spokesman for Pan American said the airline had no immediate plans to resume regular flights to Havana. "Pan Am is unwilling to operate anywhere in the world where uncertainty leading to hazards exists," he said. Pan American suspended its Havana-Miami service Oct. 18 when the Cuban crisis began. The airline said at the time it was losing too much money on the flights because of currency restrictions imposed by the Castro government. The statement issued by Castro's office said prospective airlines can leave the country "whenever they want to once flights to Miami are resumed."

Traffic Deaths Rate Slows, But 245 Dead Already

The New Year's holiday traffic death rate slowed yesterday, but safety experts had no definite word to predict whether a safety record would be set. The National Safety Council said the toll appeared "leading toward the low end of advance estimate of 400 to 600 holiday traffic deaths" for the four-day holiday period. The death rate was a low one-per-hour the first day of the holiday, which began 9 p. m. Friday. Sunday it jumped to six an hour, then slumped to one per hour against all night.

A United Press International count showed 197 persons killed in traffic since the start of the holiday. The breakdown: Traffic, 197; fire, 89; planes, 4; miscellaneous, 65. Total, 345.

California led all states with 17 deaths and Texas followed with 16. Illinois had 10, New York and Pennsylvania nine each and Michigan and Virginia eight apiece.

UN Troops Take Katanga Capital

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, The Congo (UPI)—United Nations troops fanned out through Katanga Province today meeting little or no resistance in their drive to complete reunification of the Congo. The swift UN military victory did not dampen Katanga President Moise Tshombe, who vowed from nearby Southern Rhodesia to return and "lead resistance until the very end." Despite the warlike words, UN Secretary General Thant sent word from New York that no action was to be taken against Tshombe himself if he returned to Elisabethville. That sent warm congratulations to the fast action that gave UN troops control over key positions of the breakaway province after 43 hours of sharp fighting. Robert Gardiner, the UN civilian chief in the Congo, made it plain that the action would stop at nothing short of total pacification of the copper-rich province and its integration into the rest of the Congo. Tshombe's forces, reduced to a rabble by the UN onslaught, appeared to have lost the will to fight. They were reported dropping their weapons and fleeing into the bush. But Tshombe, who fled to Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia, where he has a sympathetic friend in Central African Federation Premier Sir Roy Welensky, said he would return to "a point in Katanga" today to lead counter-action. "In Algeria the war lasted several years," Tshombe told newsmen in Salisbury. "Ours might last longer." UN troops occupied Elisabethville over the weekend, took control of territory around the city and then swept southward to seize the strategic border town of Kipushi and the village of Kamina. UN spokesmen said there was little or no resistance. UN jet fighters destroyed at least five Katanga planes in 17 air strikes since the battle began Christmas Eve. Thant's statement reported four UN soldiers killed and 24 wounded. He did not mention opposition casualties.

Khrushchev Thinks 'Concession For Concession' Trade Helpful

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev appealed today for compromises as the only alternative to nuclear war to settle East-West problems. Citing the agreements reached in the Cuban crisis, the Communist leader said the "concession for concession" principle should be implemented in 1953 in efforts to solve such knotty issues as Berlin and disarmament. "The other alternative — which is thermonuclear war — must be ruled out," the premier said. Khrushchev made his statements in an interview with the London Daily Express released by the official Tass news agency. The interview, in question and answer form, comprised a message for the new year. The premier renewed his offer to stop Soviet nuclear testing, beginning Tuesday, if the West will do the same. But he made no new offer on the control issue. He also repeated his proposal to have United Nations troops replace Western garrisons in West Berlin as a compromise solution to the Berlin crisis. Calling for an improvement of relations between the Soviet Union and the United States, Khrushchev said the time of one state "dominating" other states has gone for good. Khrushchev said he is convinced the Cuban crisis will leave a deep imprint in international relations. "This was a moment when the sinister shadow of nuclear war raced over the world," he said. "People started looking at questions of war and peace in a new way." He said the crisis posed before nations in an acute form the crucial question of whether there is to be peaceful coexistence of the states with different social systems. "Or is the world to be plunged into the abyss of war as the result of insane attempts to impose the will of a handful of monopolies upon freedom-loving though small nations—in this case, heroic Cuba!"

MOLLY REEDY BAKER, daughter of Admiral and Mrs. James "Sunshine" Reedy, former NAS Commander here, and her husband, James Baker, visited in Sanford just before the holidays, on their way from Whidby Island, Washington, to Kent University in Ohio.

The reason for the round-about trip by way of Florida was in order to have number two son, Patrick, now 10 months old, baptised at the First Presbyterian Church here, in the presence of godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bart Peterson Sr.

Following the ceremonies and church services, the Petersons were coffee hosts at their Hidden Lake Home. Chatting with Mary Peterson about the visit of Molly brought forth information on the rest of the Reedy family, and the other four children, all known to many former friends here, as they all attended Sanford schools while living here.

Adm. Reedy is now commander of Operation Deepfreeze in Antarctica, while Mrs. Reedy and youngest son, John, a senior in high school, live at Christ Church Naval Air Station, New Zealand, the nearest point where families of the men at the South Pole are allowed to go.

Daughter Mickey is now in nursing school at the University of N. C.; son Rob is studying at the Naval Academy in Annapolis and daughter Carlyle is studying music in Paris.

Molly's husband, Jim, just out of the Navy, is planning to start second semester classes at Kent University, majoring in medicine.

Our Right To Know

Overheadmen are still being left over the government's handling of the news in the Cuban crisis.

The news involves one of the basic tenets of a democratic system: the people's right to know what their government is doing and, ultimately, to approve or disapprove.

While no one demands the uncontrolled release of news — particularly military news during a national emergency — that might be of benefit to an enemy or cause a disastrous reaction among the public, there are those who believe that a new philosophy is developing in Washington that advocates not only withholding but manufacturing news to achieve desired results.

A Defense Department official, however, has stated that the government has the right not only to withhold information but even to release false information if it will aid the national security.

This question of "right" is a difficult one. A government probably has the "right" to do many things — even to sacrifice half the population to save the other half from destruction.

In dire emergency, there is no time to inform the public on matters that require top-level, split-second decisions; there is no time to debate and discuss and arrive at a national consensus.

Governments and government officials, however, are often wrong, and the label "emergency," like "secret" or "classified," has an insidious way of coming to be used as a screen to deflect the searchlight of legitimate public questioning.

In a democracy, the people's representatives or executives have a solemn duty to guard against any encroachment upon the people's right to know. That this is not always easy is no reason to slip into the opposite extreme of deciding it is better if the people know nothing or know only something that is not true.

World War II amply demonstrated that American news media were capable of voluntary censorship and co-operation with the government in information involving the national security. Certainly they are not now to be made into messenger boys of official propaganda.

A nation is most secure whose people are most fully informed and aware of the realities their leaders must deal with.

A nation ceases to be free when its people are considered by their leaders as untrustworthy, immature and something to be manipulated.

Peter Edson

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON — (NSA) — Nearly 100 of President Kennedy's legislative recommendations to the last Congress were debated outright or allowed to die on the vine by inaction or deferred action.

Just which of these proposals the President will try to revive for the new session commencing Jan. 9 will be disclosed only when the State of the Union, Budget, Economic and special messages are delivered. If many of these programs are abandoned, it will mean that the character of the whole New Frontier will be abandoned for the last half of this administration.

Final tabulations on the record of the last Congress show that of 103 separately identifiable, major presidential requests 67 were approved basically as submitted and 19 more were approved with considerable modification. The 97 recommendations not approved give the President a 47 per cent batting average for the session. This is the breakdown:

	Appr.	Not Appr.
National Security and Veterans Affairs	12	2
International Affairs and Finance	10	3
Commerce and

Housing	27	21
Agriculture	8	13
Natural Resources	5	20
Labor and Welfare	14	16
General Government	30	35
Totals	103	97

The interest in this classification is not in the legislation passed, but in the recommendations which Congress did not approve — the New Frontier's unfinished big business.

In national security affairs, a Defense Study Group appointed by the President is reviewing all military pay and pensions did not complete its work. It will report next year and the Congress will act on it. The bomb shelter and civil defense programs also will be before Congress again, as will the RS-70—authorized for $61 million by Congress but still under Air Force review.

Kennedy fared better with Congress on international affairs than in any other field. Remaining for action in 1960 is revision of the whole foreign aid program, possible amendment of the Battle Act controlling foreign military aid, immigration law amendments and a $27 million program for acquisition and maintenance of U. S. buildings overseas. In the field of commerce and housing, the principal carryover is transportation legislation. It involves some 20 major programs affecting all transport media. They must receive some attention next year. Also not acted on last session were presidential recommendations for amendments on Federal Reserve and Federal Trade Commission laws and a flood disaster study.

While Congress passed a so-called omnibus farm bill, there was no action on many parts of the Kennedy-Freeman program. This makes it almost mandatory on the next Congress to pass new cotton, dairy products and longer range feed grain legislation.

The score of presidential recommendations on natural resources legislation which Congress did not act on last session includes creation of a system, water resources planning authorization for the states and many facets of the administration's broad rural program to establish more rural and urban recreation areas, including seven specific national parks.

The labor and welfare programs which Congress did not act on last session include strengthening of the unemployment insurance system, migratory labor legislation, equal pay for women, expanded youth employment opportunity. But the two biggest programs are medical care for the aged and aid to education at all levels. These are two goals New Frontiersmen can't give up.

In the field of general government there are a lot of leftovers on the back of the legislative stove which the administration probably will ask Congress to warm up next year: establishment of a Department of Urban Affairs and Housing, federal election law reform, further antitrust legislation, including a wiretapping authorization which has little chance.

The biggest bit of unfinished business of them all, however, is tax revision. There isn't a chance that Congress can avoid doing something about that next year, though it may not become fully operative until 1964.

FRIEND OR FOET

Dick West Says

An Ill Woodwind

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The clarinet, as the old saying goes, is an ill woodwind that nobody blows good.

Even under the best of conditions, its musical values are marginal. In the hands of a young boy who is trying out for the school band, it can reduce a normal, healthy adult to a pitiful, quivering mass of ectoplasm.

The main trouble is that clarinets are notoriously unreliable. At times, they can be downright treacherous.

I remember well the first clarinet I ever owned. I treated it as kindly as I could, shined it regularly, gave it a good home and all like that.

Yet every time that I took it out of its case in public, it would turn on me in a most vicious way.

I would be sailing along through "The Hail and Quarter Note March," not losing my place more than once or twice, when suddenly it would emit a piercing screech, known among members of our band as "the cry of the wounded banjo."

Friends, if you have never heard the noise that a clarinet produces when the young musician's lip slips then your flesh has never really crawled and your teeth have never really been set on edge.

It is like no other sound heard on this earth, although like its relative, the sea-horse, the male pipefish incubates the young in a brood pouch into which the female has deposited the eggs and, for many years, the males were thought to be females. The sexes were distinguished in 1831, but a controversy raged over the matter for decades.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Girls, be sure your frenzy for early marriage is not a selfish desire to gain social status through wearing a ring. True love is unselfish, so test yourself by the questions below. And be honest, for you cast the proxy votes of all your future unborn babies, so don't be careless about them.

CASE M-418: Leo Sullivan makes it a hobby to help counsel young folks at Perry, Indiana, both in the church, the YMCA and the Miami County Youth Council.

When he brought his delegation of 88 to visit my Bible Class in Chicago, we conversed during our dinner. "Dr. Crane," Leo began, "we find a large number of teenagers who start going steady and then develop an affair."

"Even at the age of only 15 or 16, they are forced to get married, for the girl is then pregnant."

"But they often don't even think of having a clergyman perform the ceremony."

"So I tactfully try to steer them toward a church of their choice for the wedding, hoping the clergyman will then follow up the couple and try to get them straightened in active church membership."

"But many of these young folks come from irreligious or broken homes. Within a few years they are thus divorced and back again seeking a marriage license to another person."

"What more can we do to teach young folks to wait till they are older before considering marriage?"

Even though you young folks are physically grown, you still can't vote in most states in the U. S. A. till you reach your 21st birthday.

By the same token, though you are as tall as your parents, you still should wait till you are 21 before you marry.

In George Washington's day, the average lifespan was only about 45 years, so a girl of 17 could not expect to have more than 25 years of marriage.

But now you modern girls can wait till you are 23 and still expect 50 years of marriage ahead, for the average lifespan of an adult now exceeds 72 years.

As an index on your maturity and likelihood of happy marriage, see how you rate on this brief test:

(1) Have you a high school diploma and at least one year of college or apprenticeship in a good trade?

(2) Do you now have a job that pays you enough to finance a home including (rent, insurance, groceries, clothes, furniture payments, car payments, etc., without falling back on "papa" for hand-outs)?

(3) Have you dated several others besides this special sweetheart? If not, you are likely infatuated, not really in love.

(4) Are you rushing into marriage primarily to get away from your present home because of a drunken father, lack of affection from parents, conflicts with parent or a desire just to lead your own life?

If so, get a job and stay single until you have proved yourself, but don't jeopardize a marriage by using it as an escape from home.

(5) Are you both active in the same church denomination? If not, you have a very great chance of divorce.

(6) Are you pushing for marriage just because many of your friends wear wedding rings or are already engaged? If that's your main reason, and you are not in love but are selfishly using a wedding for social status.

(7) Would your future children vote approvingly for your present choice? Remember, you now cast the proxy votes of all your future children, so keep them in mind when you pick their other parent.

For further advice, send for my 200-point "Rating Scale For Husbands & Wives," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents. Don't marry anybody who doesn't rate "Superior" on this marriage chart.

Enjoy family funtime after dark

Dressed up with light, your patio, pool, yard or terrace can be even more attractive at night than in the daytime. You can accent favorite beauty spots and add new nighttime charm, viewed from indoors or out. Outdoor lighting can transform even a tiny backyard into a big extra living room.

Inexpensive electric "lightscape" units are easily attached to house, garage, trees, or "planted" in the ground. A few fixtures and you're in business.

And lighting up your driveway, steps, walks and other outdoor areas helps prevent accidents... provides security and protection from unwelcome prowlers.

NEW! ELECTRIC POST LIGHTS
The lights turn ON at dusk; OFF at dawn—automatically!
They cost less to buy and less to operate than flame type—and supply much more light. Posts have extra outlet for plugging in radio, rotisserie, hedgecutter, or other electrical appliances and garden tools. See the display of outdoor lighting fixtures at your electrical contractor or favorite store.

Eight Finest Take Bowl Fields

By Marvin Lader
UPI Sports Writer

Eight of the nation's finest, including three schools with unbeaten records, will provide football fans with a natural climax to the college season and a thrilling start to the new year when they tangle in four bowl games Tuesday.

All four contests will be televised nationally, assuring viewers a special holiday treat since the eight competing teams occupied the top eight spots in the final United Press International college football ratings. Crowds totaling about 235,000 persons including President Kennedy, are expected to attend the games.

Highlighting the festivities is an intercollegiate bowl game billed as the "game of the year," in which national champion Southern California will host second-ranked Wisconsin in the 48th annual

REVIEW OF THE YEAR—By Alan Mauer

Florida Was Ready To Play, Penn State Coach Decides

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — "We can do all the talking we want, but it all boils down to this—Florida was ready to play and we weren't."

Whether Penn State was ready to play or not is debatable, but not many national television fans or 50,000 football buffs in the Gator Bowl stadium could argue with Penn State Coach Rip Engle over Florida.

With razzle-dazzle offensive football and a rock-hard defense, the Gators soundly beat the best in the East 17-7. And the seven-point underdog played anything but conservative football.

With lefty sophomore quarterback Tom Shannon toiling for two touchdowns and the Florida defensive unit grabbing Penn State passes and bobbles right and left, the favorites never got started.

Penn State entered the game with three All-America team members, a 9-1 record and the Lambert trophy — significant of supremacy in Eastern collegiate football.

Kennel Star Sets Out For Third Schooling Win

Wade Tray, an almost sure pick for the inaugural Handicap issued classes at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club next Saturday, will try for his third schooling victory in tonight's 18th event of a 33-race pre-season program starting at 7 p.m.

Fred Whitehead's talented speedster won the King and Queen Championship last season and finished second or third in several other important stake races. In his two schooling wins he was clocked at 31.95 and 31.65.

Opposing Wade Tray tonight will be Belles, Flying Blower, Mrs. Mops and Truand.

Mrs. Mops starred here last season, winning eight races, five of them in Grade A contests.

The 21st event tonight is another race that boasts plenty of speed. It is a four-dog contest with Sawbuck's Choice, Party Cake, Bonnie Abbe and Lashes going to the post.

Each entry is an inaugural possibility. Lashes has a schooling first and second to her credit while Sawbuck's Choice and Bonnie Abbe have each scored once.

After tonight there will be just two more schooling sessions Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The track will be dark Thursday and Friday nights as final opening night preparations are completed.

Packers Champs Again

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Green Bay Packers are champs again and a good bet to achieve the greatest dynasty in professional football history by winning a record third consecutive National League crown in 1969.

They are young; they are deep in manpower; they have an indomitable college-type spirit, and they are driven by a brilliant and dedicated perfectionist in coach Vince Lombardi.

The consensus of best NFL brains following the Packers' 16-7 victory over the New York Giants in the brutally cold and windy weather that attended Sunday's championship game was "Who's going to stop them from becoming the Yankees of pro football?"

All the key players who earned a record $1,288,000 in salary last season are back in the lineup for the second year in a row should be as good, if not better, next season.

And if Paul Hornung can stay around and play a whole season like he did Sunday, this could be the greatest team of all time.

The victory gave Green Bay a record eighth NFL championship. The Packers' predecessors won three titles during the gaudiest era of the league and captured playoff championships in 1956; 1958; 1961 and 1962.

Jerry Kramer, the Green Bay offensive guard who took over the placement kicking after Hornung injured his knee Oct. 14, booted a play-off record-tying three field goals and fullback Jim Taylor bolted seven yards for a touchdown before a sellout crowd of 64,000 at Yankee Stadium. Kramer's kicks measured 38, 39 and 38 yards.

Essentially, the difference in the teams was that the Packers did everything they had to do on the frozen-hard windswept turf.

The Giants' defense was excellent, but their attack was sadly deficient under the adverse weather conditions, especially the passing of Y.A. Tittle.

Grumbled linebacker Sam Huff of the Giants after the game: "They can be beaten, but not when you score only one touchdown in a championship game."

It was small consolation to the Giant players that Sunday's score was far closer than the 37-0 count by which they were routed in Green Bay a year ago. Their $4,100 shares, an all-time high for losers, should offer some solace, however.

"The wind ruined the passing and the kicking game," Lombardi agreed. "But both teams had to play in the same wind and on the same field."

A cold front dropped the temperature to 17 degrees during the game, although this

Three Teams Tie For Top Honors In Bidy League

Standings for the Bidy Basketball League through Dec. 22 finds Day and Night Grill, Sanford Electric and Sanford Atlantic all tied for first place with five wins and one loss each.

WTRR and Standard Oil are tied for fourth with three wins and three losses each. Robinson's is next, followed by Strickland-Morrison and First Federal.

The first half play off which was scheduled to take place Saturday was cancelled because of the annual Tangerine Bowl Twirling Contest and will be held Jan. 18 in the SHS Gym, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The second half will get underway Saturday with play beginning at 9 a.m. for a total of four games to be played each Saturday.

Parents and friends are invited to attend the games.

The State Bidy Basketball Tournament will be held in Sanford Feb. 21, 22 and 23.

Two Gator Stars Sign With Pros

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Four key men in the Florida-Penn State Gator Bowl clash here Saturday have signed contracts to play professional football.

They are Penn State All-America choices Charles (Chuck) Stelmink and Roger Kochman, and Florida stars Floyd Dean and Anton Peters. Kochman, a 21-year-old, 200-pound halfback, signed with the American League Buffalo Bills. The Wilkesburg, Pa., native had a 6.3 yard rushing average during the regular season.

Billiard Meet Winners Named

Fight Promoters To Get Happy New Year Start Of $1 Million

NEW YORK (UPI) — Uncle Sam will provide Championship Sports, Inc., with a happy new year by returning approximately $1 million in the settlement of a fight tax suit, attorney Tom Bolan announced today.

Bolan, president of CSI, said the return of this money — frozen by government tax liens after the so-called "Lion-Floyd Patterson heavyweight title fight at Chicago Sept. 25" — will pave the way for quickly settling the debt and aly of their return match.

On the night of the Chicago fight, Bolan explained, government agents swooped down on theaters from coast to coast and impounded approximately $3 million from the closed-circuit television receipts. Some of that money already has been released.

However, on Nov. 30, the government filed suit for $1,174,064 against CSI and associates. At that time $1,374,000 remained frozen.

"Now," Bolan explained, "I have been officially informed from Washington that Commissioner of Internal Revenue Mortimer M. Caplin has approved a settlement agreement under which all but $500,000 of the money will be released."

The CSI president said the government is retaining $400,000 pending a determination of the corporation's tax liability by the courts.

Bagnall's Five Strikes Tops

Linda Bagnall put together five strikes in a row to score a 201 high game, 4th series, in the Pine Crest Inv. Bowling League.

Dot Johnson downed the 3-10 and 5-7 splits for a 177 game, 4th high series.

The 8-10 split was converted by Flora Scholz, Gloria Summelford and Peggy Donley. Gladys Piloian picked up the 4-5.

The standings:

Platters, 38 wins, 22 losses.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: The wife who wrote that her 55-year-old husband wanted to paw all the young girls struck a familiar chord with me. I agree that some men who act like this are "sick." But I think there is another side. Don't you think if mothers taught their daughters not to encourage older men by flirting with them and sitting on their laps (all in fun, of course), we wouldn't have so much trouble of this kind?
FORT WORTH FAN

DEAR FAN: Not always. Sometimes you aren't even aware of the connection until you get the shock!

DEAR ABBY: Last night, while I was fixing supper, my husband came into the kitchen, put his arms around me and hugged and kissed me. I said, "What brought that on?" He replied, "I love you." Later, when the children were out, he said, "Honey, haven't I been treating you right?" I said, "You always treat me right — what is the matter?"

His reply: "Well, when I came home this evening I wanted to type up my speech for the Chamber of Commerce and found the typewriter out and a letter in it. It started, 'DEAR ABBY.'" I explained that I only wanted to write and tell you that I was one of those women who got up in the morning to make her husband's breakfast. Thanks, Abby. It gave me a thrill to know he loved me as much as I love him.
KY.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a mother who sleeps with her 12-year-old daughter when she could just as easily sleep with her own husband? The reason she sleeps with me is because my father snored. Well, Abby, SHE snored and keeps me awake. If I don't get my sleep at night, I can't keep my head up in school. What should I do?
ALWAYS TIRED

DEAR TIRED: If there is a couch in the living room, sleep on it. Or fix up a "bed" anywhere in the house, far away from both snoring parents. Good luck, and pleasant dreams.

DEAR ABBY: I work in a large office and every year have allowed the boys in our office to kiss me "movie style" on New Year's. There is a snob who came to work with us, who lets the boys kiss her on the cheek only. She contends that it is unethical and unsanitary otherwise. Who is right?
GEORGINA

DEAR GEORGINA: I'm with the "snob." A kiss on the cheek is adequate for a co-worker. If he comes back for "seconds" — turn the other cheek.

CONFIDENTIAL TO YOU: May you and yours have a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year.
ABBY

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

This week's column will discuss simple hands that can go wrong if declarer gets the least bit careless.

Playing at three no-trump, South should duck the first spade lead. Not that it makes any real difference this time but occasionally when you duck, the opponents will be nice enough to shift to another suit.

However, West continues with the queen and South must take his ace. A quick count of winners shows that he can take four diamonds, three hearts and one club in addition to the spade already in his possession. A further count shows that while he might set up some the club suit the opponents will get around to the rest of the spade suit first. Therefore South should settle for his contract.

He can still find a way to go wrong if he doesn't follow the principle of cashing his high cards in the short hand first. His next three plays must be dummy's queen and jack of hearts and king of hearts. Then he can enter his hand with the three of hearts and take the ace-queen of hearts and ace-king of diamonds.

Finally, he should cash the ace of club and give up.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

A beauty salon in Levittown N. Y., is open every Wednesday night to men only.

Since the idea seems to have caught on in Levittown that a man as well as a woman might look younger with a dye job or better groomed after a mud pack, facial and manicure, it just might spread to the rest of the country.

In that case, men ought to know a little about how to behave in the heretofore feminine world of the beauty shop.

They should know that women demand and get a lot of extra services when they get a hairdo or a facial.

Women customers expect the operators who work on them to be good listeners who will gasp, cluck, soothe or sympathize as the need requires, depending on whether the customer wants to pass on gossip, take her husband's relative apart, talk about her operation or her troubles.

Women expect to make and receive telephone calls at a beauty salon, so the shops are accustomed to having their receptionists serve as secretaries to their customers.

Women never miss a beauty appointment just because they haven't anyone to leave with junior. Junior is just turned loose in the shop while mom relaxes under the dryer unmindful that her little darling is taking the shop apart.

Women expect to be served coffee while they dry, or even to send out for a sandwich if they have skipped lunch.

Women expect to read the magazines they consider too expensive to subscribe to themselves, and they complain loudly if every slick magazine on the market isn't available in their beauty shops.

So just make yourselves at home, men, when it's your turn to take over the beauty shops. Women sure do.
