OLD JAPANESE TREATIES MAY DISRUPT CONFERENCE CHINA'S DEMAND DISLIKED

By Jap Representatives When Cancellation of Proposal Appears

NAVAL RATIO O. K.

AND MAY BE BASIS FOR COM- PROMISE BY RE-ADJUST- MENTS

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Alternate proposals relating to the 5-5-3 ratio as worked out, apparently overnight by naval experts, was presented today to Hughes, Balfour and Kato which indicated according to delegation spokesman, no formal agreement had been reached by the big three.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The arms conference delegates have reached an agreement on all the major issues of the naval ratio, but are encountering new difficulties in their discussions on the Far East.

The American "5-5-3" ratio forms the basis of the naval settlement, but there are to be readjustments in the original American plan to permit
Japan to retain her new battleship Mutsu. The United States and Great Britain will be given a compensative quota of additional ships not yet determined in detail.

In the Far Eastern negotiations the latest element of controversy is a request by China for abrogation of the treaties resulting from Japan's famous "twenty-one demands." When the request was presented to the Far Eastern committee of the whole yesterday the Japanese promptly objected and the committee adjourned.

ORANGE COUNTY BONDS SELL ABOVE PAR ON THE FIRST $750,000

ORLANDO, Dec. 15.—Par plus was bid by each of the eleven bond buyers represented at the opening of the bids yesterday afternoon for the first allotment of $745,000 of the $2,500,000 road bond issue passed by Orange county last July, the county commissioners last night formally awarding the allotment to Sidney Spitzer & Co., of Toledo, O., on their bid of par, accrued interest to date of delivery and a premium of $15,937, their offer of 102.21 being considered the highest and best bid. The Spitzer offer was a flat proposal of purchase and without conditions of any sort. Following this action, the form of the bonds was approved and they were ordered printed.

On the first alignment of bids as they were opened, the bid of A. B.
Leach & Co., New York and Chicago, appeared to offer the highest premium of $24,212.50, but on analysis of the conditions attached, it was figured that the net premium was less than $10,000, as a governing condition of purchase by them was that the proceeds should remain in their hands without interest for an average period of four months, the earned interest thus diminishing this apparently large premium offered.

LABOR BOARD'S REDUCTION ORDER BRINGS ON STRIKE, TEN HOUR DAY SCHEDULE

Thirty Thousand Workers in New York Resent Application

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The action of the United States railroad labor board in Chicago, in setting up a schedule of ten hours a day as the regular hourly wage for common laborers in new rules replacing the national agreement made under government control yesterday brought to union officials appeals for strike orders from representatives of 30,000 workers in the New York district. This announcement was made last night by William D. Roberts, grand vice-president of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way employees and railway shop laborers. The first protest, he said, came from Pennsylvania railroad workers followed by appeals from workers on the Erie, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, Lehigh Valley, and the rest of the twelve lines operating within a seventy-five mile radius of New York.

Roberts said that the New York council had advised local chairmen to hold their members at work and await action by international officers.
He explained these orders had been hastened out to forestall sporadic strikes, and that a meeting of the district council would be held as soon as word was heard from the international officers.

Roberts asserted that the board's new rules, even while they retained the principle of eight consecutive hours constituting a day's work and granted time and a half pay after ten hours, carried maintenance of way employees back to conditions existing ten years ago. He added that, with regular assignment of Sunday and holiday work no longer drawing time and a half pay, the result would be that workers would be employed on the roadbeds on Sundays, when travel was lighter.

"The board has abolished the eight hour day in fact," declared Roberts.

ROADS SAY REDUCTION IN RATES BE NO HELP

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Sweeping reductions in transportation charges at present would not assist a full resumption of business activity and would be injurious to the railroads, Howard Elliott, chairman of the board of the Northern Pacific and director of the Haven, in an opening statement before the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday in its general investigation of railroad rates.

"Rates were too low before the war
if continuance of private ownership and operation of railroads under public control is the aim of our policy, and earnings were nearing the danger level," said Mr. Elliott.

Calling for Establish- ment of An Irish Free State

D'VALERA DIFFERS

WITH OTHER IRISH LEADERS AND SPLIT IN PARTY IS IMMINENT

(By The Associated Press)
DUBLIN, Dec. 15.—The Dail Eireann today resumed in private session its consideration of the treaty calling for the establishment of the Irish free state.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The House of Commons this afternoon resumed debate on the Anglo-Irish agreement, feature of early proceedings being an address by former Premier Asquith commending the treaty for acceptance of the House.

DUBLIN, Dec. 15.—The question of ratification or rejection of the agreement arrived at in London between the representatives of the British government and the plenipotentiaries of the Dail Eireann to settle the discord which for centuries has existed between Great Britain and Ireland was debated yesterday at a secret meeting of the Dail and later at two secret sessions. Another secret session is to be held today.

At the public meeting yesterday Eamon DeValera, the president, and Arthur Griffith, Michael Collins and other Dail deputies expressed their views as to whether the Irish delegation to London had exceeded its powers in signing the agreement with the British cabinet for a settlement of the Irish problem.

De Valera and the members of the delegation were sharply divided on the question at issue. DeValera contended that the treaty should not have been signed without its having first been referred to the Dublin parliament. Delegates Griffith and Collins insisted that they and their colleagues had the power invested in them to sign an agreement, but not the authority to conclude it. Mr. Griffith asserted that the representatives of the Dail Eireann and of the British cabinet in this respect were in identical positions, as each was obliged to refer the treaty to their respective legislatures for ratification.

Both Mr. Collins and Mr. Griffith during the discussion resented a statement of President DeValera that the delegation to London had not obeyed the instructions of the Dublin cabinet.

burgh, Pa., who was here in connection with arrangements for the meeting, states that Mr. Small is as vigaccount of his age this is probably

ers. Dr. Denise is assistant general superintendent of the National Reform Association under whose direction Mr. Small has been speaking for

LOCAL MERCHANT STEALS PURSE OF CUSTOMER

AND FOUND SOMETHING OF GREATER VALUE THAN MONEY

One of our local merchants found a lady's purse in his store and upon opening it found the following letter.

Dear Madge:

When your letter came urging me to do your Christmas shopping I confess I was overwhelmed with the suggestion. However, the fact that you are marooned out on the ranch with your hands full I determined I'd do the very best I could for my old college mate.

I went down early yesterday to browse among the stores and get ideas and I believe the problem is solved, and all in one store! Remembering Fred's newly acquired Masonic degrees I was attracted by a window display in McLaulin's Jewelry Store. There spread out was every type of emblem in pins, charms and rings. Particularly attractive were the belts with the silver buckles, and instead of the usual monogram were the emblems of the orders. The part that struck me was that this store had good looking articles priced for every one's pocket book. I was so interested in this display I asked Mr. McLaulin to show me other things a man might like. I explained to him my mission and never have I received more courteous treatment. There is one thing certain, he'll not only get your Christmas trade, but mine, too. I can't tell you of all the things, but among the line of goods dear to the smoker's heart there were smoking stands and cabinets in mahogany, brass and walnut. Particularly nice for the man who likes a place for his tobacco, cigars and things were the humidors. Especially nice were the cigarette holders and silver cigarette cases suitable for the most fastidious young man. Next came his line of watches he had everything from the smallest wrist watches to the high grade railroad watches. The military and traveling sets were very good in ivory and silver, some good looking ivory shaving sets were visible, too. I paused a minute or two looking at the Ever-sharp and Pal pencils which always come in handy for a man or boy, and besides there were his Sheaffer fountain pens from plainest to elaborate gold ones. For that bookish brother of yours I saw some new ideas in book ends and desk sets. If your men folks need bill folds, he has them in every desirable size in alligator leather. Before leaving the men's department I stopped to look at his rings, from plain but massive signet rings to more elaborate ones in gold and platinum with sparkling diamonds. I found the same rich variety in the cuff buttons and Waldemar chains and fobs. So you see you can find any thing you might want for the men of your family here in this store.

I knew that next in importance to Fred was that precious baby of yours and so I asked to see baby things. He pulled out a drawer of sterling ware for "little men and women." There is the greatest variety of lockets and chains, tiny bracelets, tiny strings of gold beads and even tiny pearls. I've always found the bib clasps mighty useful and also pins and stud sets. For menial time some of his non-breakable plates would come in handy.

When I came to choosing for your sister and the girls I was bewildered of course, I looked at diamonds first. I was astonished at the line he brought out, the assortment would have reflected credit on some of our larger city stores. The solitaires and dinner rings were beautiful. He had some clusters that gave the impression of solitaires. The black onyx set with diamonds is good this year in either rings or lockets. The diamond and platinum bar pins were beautiful, but he also has a line of cheaper pins that are splendid values and while I am on pins, why now is your chance to get a good value in cameos. He is going to make a run on them during the holidays and you had better decide on one right away.

Then I was attracted by the toilet sets in Pyralin Ivory, some of them went up to seventy-five dollars, but oh they were beauties. He had manicure sets of this grade, too. Why not start the girls a set of this best grade ivory, beginning with the mirror of course! I could picture you and Fred in the silver and poly chrome frames that were displayed.

For Louise I chose an Ever-Sharp or Pal pencil to wear on a ribbon, or a fountain pen, for one of the other girls I suggest one of the butterfly lockets, or a coin purse, if you wished something a little more expensive, a silver vanity or mesh bag or a string of La Tosca pearls. I almost forgot the cut glass powder jars that appeal so much to girls. If you want a breath of Florida, get one of the hand painted pins with a Florida scene in miniature. Words fail to do them credit. The very latest thing in beads though are the genuine African Elephant ivory beads and they are not any more expensive than the pearls.

Then I turned to the things for the house and again it was hard to choose. Mr. McLaulin carries a complete line of sterling silver such as attractive trays, salad bowls, cream and sugar sets. Quite as attractive were the tea sets in Sheffield. Just across from the silver display was a show case full of Pickard's hand painted China, any piece of which would make an acceptable gift. In less expensive ware I saw three patterns in open stock, two very pretty border designs and the popular gold and white. Just across from the Pickard China was a display of Hawks Cut Glass, ranging from Cologne bottles to water sets. In less expensive glass ware I found so many desirable gifts, too, baskets, sherbet cups, jam jars, guest room sets. There were some such attractive pieces of stationery and pottery that would make an ideal gift. The tall floor lamps threw a glow over the entire store, and I tell you the atmosphere was such that you would want to visit McLaulin's store frequently.

I remembered your special note about your glasses needing mending and I was delighted to find optical parlors with a registered optician ready to make the changes you thought necessary in your glasses. Just across were two watch makers busy at their repair desks, so this store not only sells you gifts for this Christmas but also mends your old ones.

Feeling sure that you will find all you need for your long list of friends am eagerly waiting for your note to tell me to go ahead and buy them.

Sincerely yours,

MARY.

School Entertainment Was Well Attended And Well Received

Two Excellent Plays Were Staged Last Night for Athletic Ass'n.

(From Wednesday's Daily)
Two excellent plays were staged at the High School Auditorium last night for the benefit of the High School Athletic Association and the many who attended enjoyed the histrionic talent displayed by the pupils of the High School.

The first play was entitled "Two Old Maids and a Picture" and the characters were true to life and showed the careful training of the Expression teacher, Miss Williams. Jessie Wilson, a college girl, by Mildred Holly; Emily Day, her chum, by Kitle DuBose; Mohitabel Wilson by Mae Holly and Miss Sophie Smith by Miss Maude Lake were excellent and the play was thoroughly enjoyed.

"Caught Out, or Pete Boyd's Proposal" was the second play staged under the direction of Mrs. R. C. Maxwell and was a rollicking college play that caught the fancy of the audience and the characters were all well taken by the young folks who seemed to grasp the part and carry it out. The following were in the cast: Bill Randolph, Wm. Moye; Dick Rogers, Robert Thrasher; Jack Davis, Ed. Henderson; George Brown, Harold Christenson; Kenneth March, Jim Stone; Charlie King, Byron Stephens.

Playing on Carlton Springs Summer baseball team: DeWitt Boyd, manager of the team, Victor McLaulin; Harry Wilkes, formerly an Amherst pitcher, now wanted by Carlton team, Arthur Moore; Mr. Weaver, afflicted with sunstroke, at the Springs to take the cure, Robert Holly, Jr.; Bess Mason, a guest at the Hotel, Florence Henry; Christabel Lee, a guest at the Hotel, Margaret Zachary; Hotel waiter, Fred Pope; remainder of team and substitutes, Billy Fitts, W. A. Adams, Merton Aycock.

Peter Schaal and Jimmy Robson furnished the orchestra music for the interim between acts and the evening was greatly enjoyed. The plays showed that unusual talent in this line exists in the High School and the pupils will give several of these entertainments during the term. It is good training in expression and poise and give pupils and patrons a pleasant diversion from time to time.

A nice sum was realized last night for the athletic association. The stage at the auditorium was especially fine with the new settings and the big fine curtain donated by the class of 1921 and Byron Stephens had embellished the drop scenes with appropriate backgrounds. In fact the plays showed that the high school pupils have remarkable talent along many lines and pupils and teachers are to be commended upon their fine showing.

"Two Old Maids and a Picture" will be presented tonight at Monroe school for the benefit of the Red Cross seal sale.

Preserving peace will not be so difficult when we call in the women. Their experience in the kitchen will tell.—Asheville Times.

Of exceptional interest was the game of bridge played during the evening. High score being made by Mrs. B. W. Herndon, which was a silk vanity, which she presented to the maids to cut for, Miss Esther Miller being the lucky one. The men's prize a smoking tray, was won by B. W. Herndon, who presented it to the bride-groom. The honoree was presented a pair of candle sticks and candles.

Miss Dorothy May Lee captivated the crowd with a vocal solo, "I Love You Truly." The costumes made the little folks look quite grown-up, the little boys in their dress suits and the little girls in their picture hats and long dresses. Jack Varn as the minister read the amusing ceremony with as much dignity as if it had been real. The entertainment was gotten up by Mrs. T. W. Lawton's S. S. Class, for the benefit of the park fund. KILLED A BIG BUCK

W. C. Satcher whose stage name is "Bill" was in yesterday afternoon and told us about killing an eight prong buck between Longwood and the Wekiwa river yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Del Mason, Freeman Hunter and Lonnie Hartley were in the party but Bill was the only one who succeeded in bagging a deer and he was a beauty. Bill said he weighed about 150 pounds and was one of the biggest ones of the season. Aside from the deer he killed several turkeys and plenty of quail and we believe him although we have not seen any of the game. The woods are full of all kinds of game this year which proves the wisdom of having a good Protective Association to prevent the hunting out of season.

DeLand Bandit is Arrested Today at Jacksonville

Aubrey Nichols, of Greenwood, S. C., is the Man Wanted

(By The Associated Press)

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 14.—Aubrey Nichols, of Greenwood, S. C., alias James W. Tucker, of Savannah, 20-year-old, arrested here last night and according to police confessed to entering the home of a resident of DeLand last week posing as a plumber, attacking the resident's wife and after leaving her unconscious, escaping with the jewelry. Hundreds of citizens of DeLand combed the woods several days and nights in search of the man. The man was arrested on suspicion when he attempted to pawn a watch and when searched the police said they found engraved diamond ring stolen at time of the robbery in DeLand. Later officers said Nichols confessed.

CONGRESS WORK IS DISCUSSED BY TRAMMELL

IN THE NEW SESSION FLORIDA SENATOR HAS MUCH FOR FLORIDA

(By W. M. Kennedy)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—In discussing the work awaiting the session of congress which convened on Monday last, Senator Park Trammell today made the following statement: "The Congressional mill grinds slow but I propose to urge with all my energy and ability, favorable action upon several measures I now have pending in the senate and I have hopes of success with several of them. "Beginning shortly after I entered the senate I have been endeavoring to have a bill passed that would extend to the Drainage projects in Florida federal aid the same as the government aids the irrigation projects of the west. I now have a bill on this subject pending before the committee and I was very much gratified on Tuesday when the president recommended federal assistance for the reclamation of the swamp and overflowed lands of the South."

"Florida has never received from the United States as liberal donation of lands for school purposes as was given to other public land states. In justice we are entitled to a further grant from the United States. I have pending a bill providing for a donation to the state of Florida for the benefit of the state school fund of approximately one hundred thousand acres of government land."

Some months ago I introduced in the senate a bill providing that railroads should pay claims for lost and damaged freight and overcharges within sixty days from presentation of claim and providing a penalty for failure to make such prompt settlement, legislation along this line is needed and will be urged by me."

"In my opinion the law should never have been enacted allowing the railroads to fix rates that would give them a guaranteed earning of 5-12 per cent with an option of six per cent. This is wrong in policy and it was known at the time the law was enacted that its purpose was to bring about a raise in rates. The Florida freight rates were increased about 67 per cent. These excess rates have worked great detriment to all farm, grove and commercial industries in my state. I shall push my bill to repeal this guarantee income feature of the present railroad law and thereby hope to accomplish further reduction in freight rates."

"The state of Florida has established an experimental farm in the Florida Everglades. This is in line with a policy I have advocated for years. The federal government should assist in financing this enterprise and I shall endeavor to have congress make an annual appropriation of $10,000 for such purpose."

The Smith-Eves Manufacturing Company is a new manufacturing industry which will be open up a little River in a short time. They will manufacture wicker and palmetto furniture.

COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS TREE WILL NOT BE PUT ON HERE THIS YEAR IS DECISION

(From Tuesday's Daily)

At the regular meeting of the Rotary Club today at the Valdez many matters of importance were discussed among the Community Christmas tree. Judge Housholder, the chairman of the Tree Committee, reported that at a meeting of the various organizations one night last week it was decided that the time was too short to do anything with the Community Tree this year as all the churches had planned their individual trees and charity propositions. Every club and organization in the city will look after the poor and in this work the Rotary Club will also take a part having already made a most substantial subscription to the Children's Home at Jacksonville and to other organizations.

It was also decided to have a ladies night and general Christmas celebration on the night of December 26th.

An athletic committee was also appointed to take care of the athletic side of Rotary life and a basket ball team, a bowling team and a base ball team will soon wear the Rotary colors and there will be some stiff and sore business men going down to their offices in a few weeks as the result but the Rotary boys are game and they say they will go through with the athletic stunt if it kills every member of the Men's Club, the Kiwanis Club, the Elks Club and every other club.

PIPE ORGAN CLUB

(From Wednesday's Daily)

The Pipe Organ Club held its regular meeting at the home of the President of the Club Mrs. C. J. Ryan Monday afternoon Dec. 12th.

Later Mrs. Ryan assisted by Mrs. A. F. McAllister served a dainty salad course with chocolates While refreshments were served amusing clippings were read by the guests.

Mrs. Ryan is a charming hostess and this meeting at her home was delightful.

NO "BLUFF" IN FIGHT AGAINST CAPITOL EXTENSIONS

Ocala, Fla., Dec. 14.—The announced intention of a firm of Ocala attorneys to seek by means of injunction to prevent the carrying out of proposed capitol extensions and improvements is no "bluff," according to H. M. Hampton, member of the legal firm, and the necessary steps toward obtaining immediately.

Contracts for the work were awarded at Tallahassee yesterday. The legal firm, H. H. Hampton, Anderson, on belief of "certain citizens," contend that the money for the project does not exist in the state treasury in accordance with provisions of the legislative enactment authorizing the extensions.

DEATH OF MRS. WALKER

(From Tuesday's Daily)

The many friends in this city of Mrs. C. R. Walker were shocked to learn of her death which occurred at the sanitarium several weeks ago in the hope that the treatment would be beneficial but she was called home after a long and useful life on this earth.

Mrs. Walker was the wife of the late C. R. Walker and resided in this city for many years living on Oak avenue for many years and before the death of Mr. Walker building a beautiful home on the lake front on Union avenue where the family resided until a few years ago at which time they sold the home and Mrs. Walker has been visiting friends and relatives in other states and lived at Washington during the war period where her son and daughter were employed.

Decensed leaves a son Clifford Walker, a student at Florida University and daughter Miss Claire who is teaching at Oakland, to mourn the loss of mother.

The funeral will occur from the Congregational church in this city tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock, interment to be made in Lakeview cemetery in the city.

DR. GEORGE HYMAN, ELECTED TO IMPOARTANT POSITION WITH STETSON UNIVERSITY

At the Florida Baptist Convention just held at Miami, there were resolutions adopted looking to the enlargement of Stetson University and a special University committee of thirty seven members was appointed to take charge of the work. The members of this committee are the representatives of the thirty seven associations of the state.

Dr. George Hyman, pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city was deemed the proper man to be the head of this committee and was so designated. Dr. Hyman has been an active worker in the convention for a number of years and is a strong Stetson University man.

At an early date Dr. Hyman will have conference with Dr. Lincoln Jolly, President of Stetson and perfect plans for this enlarged work. The possibilities of the University were clearly seen by the convention and within a year results in a large way are expected.

Some of Dr. Hyman's plans are as follows:

The Organization of the Stetson Alumni in each county.

The tabulation of possible students. The publicity of the Universities Doings.

Many other helpful features.

METHODISTS FAVOR FOUR YEAR TERMS FOR THEIR MINISTERS, WAS UP AT THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

ORLANDO, Dec. 13.—The Florida Conference went on record yesterday as favoring a return to the time limit of four years for pastors and presiding elders. This question came up in connection with a memorial to the general conference to remove the time limit. While the discussion was going on Mrs. P. N. King, of Williston, one of the lady delegates, offered a substitute proposing a return to the time limit as in effect years ago, and this memorial will be presented to the general conference.

Speaking of the episcopacy, after an effort made to get a memorial adopted requiring the Bishops of the church to live within the bounds of their territory, had failed, Bishop Candler said that there had been such criticism of the office of bishop in late years that many good men did not desire the high office. He said further that after an experience of 24 years with his grip not unpacked all those years, it would be a relief to lay aside the heavy responsibilities of the office. "But if you are going to have the episcopacy have it, and if not do away with it."

"Some say elect your bishops for four years. I'd make it four weeks," said the Bishop. "He could then hatch his chickens in that time."

A resolution of appreciation was introduced by Rev. Smith Hardin in which attention was called to the gift of John W. Veach and his wife, Mrs. Sarah Veach, of Orlando, some years ago, by which something like $10,000 came into the possession of the superannuate endowment fund and the mission board. The resolution was ordered spread upon the minutes of the conference.

At the afternoon session Frank W. Cramer was admitted on trial into the traveling connection.

Rev. B. K. Throver, agent of the Preachers' Relief Fund, in making his report said he had been in the ministry 40 years, having been a classmate of Rev. S. N. Burns, who was present and the late Sam Jones. He reported twelve superannuate homes, with prospects for two or three more.

A night session was held and after various reports had been made, Hyde Park Church, Tampa, was selected as the place for holding the conference next year, and a resolution of appreciation for the courtesies extended the body at this session by the people of Orlando, the appointments for next year were read by Bishop Candler.

At 9:30 p. m., last night, the doxology was sung and the benediction was pronounced by the Bishop. The appointments follow:

EAST SANFORD

Mrs. Avery Jane Elizabeth Raulerson passed away Monday at 2 o'clock P. M. She had been ill since August. She spent her last few years here with her daughter, Mrs. I. V. Bridges. Mrs. Raulerson was born in Cameron county, Georgia, 75 years ago but spent the most of her life near Lake City, this state. She had been the mother of 27 children only 6 of whom are living, having had three husbands. Mrs. Bridges is the only child of her 1st marriage her 2nd and last husbands were brothers. Mrs. George Mitchell and Mrs. Hagood Warren are also daughters, a son and daughter live also where. Mrs. Raulerson was well loved by her children and all that loving care could do was done for her. Rev. George Hyman preached a short sermon at the grave side saying many kind and loving words to help the family in the loss of their dear mother. Many beautiful flowers covered the casket and grave, the burial taking place at the Lakeview cemetery. The family have the sympathy of all the East Sanford in their bereavement.

The family wish to thank all friends and neighbors for the many kind words and help during the illness and death of their mother.

Mrs. J. M. Corley has as her guest Mrs. Mollie Wood of Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. Wood will go to Miami for the winter after completing her visit here.

C. C. Morris arrived here on Tuesday from West Palm Beach on a business trip. Mr. Morris resided here a number of years and is being welcomed by many friends.

The American Fruit Growers Inc., and some others who employ a good deal of help made another cut in wages for field hands beginning Monday $1.25 per day for the men and $1. for women. It seemed necessary as all growers have been having hard luck all this season so far.

Miss Alma Lohmas was given a big surprise party Saturday evening at her home on Celery ave., to help her celebrate her birthday. There was about 60 persons as guests, games, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed. Miss Lohmas received many pretty gifts.

The reason the optimist looks on the bright side is because he is seldom on the inside.

Sanford is to have a pre-cooling plant which can be used for home brew.—Daytona Journal.

France wants to have the third largest navy. Nix on that. We are in favor of Switzerland having the third largest navy.

We want to congratulate the Irish on getting together at last. May the peace be as lasting as the bickering has seemed to be.

An airplane landing in Pensacola harbor yesterday struck a porpoise. We saw an automobile strike a porpoise on the Sanford-Orlando road one day.

Somehow or other Sanford has seemed very quiet after the Ku Klux walked down our streets the other night. Of course no one was scared of them.

All those wings for the state capital liable to take wings and fly away? Ocala says they shall not pass, Palatka says they must not pass and Orlando has already passed.

A Sanford firm is now advertising in Orlando papers. We suppose Orlando merchants will reciprocate by advertising in the Sanford Herald. However, we always did think Orlando should do their trading in Sanford.

The starving heart of a child is more to be pitied than physical hunger says the Jacksonville Metropolis. Well said. Remember the Community Christmas Tree and prepare to help the children.

This will be one of the greatest holiday seasons in our history if we will but get the spirit and make it so. It is all in the spirit of the times. Whoop up business and you will have business. Do out and you will make it a dead town.

The meat packers of Chicago are getting real rough and they say that we shall not have any more western meats. We should worry. Florida has plenty of the home product and we can live several years without any more western meat.

Sanford has one of the finest bands in the state. All those who enjoyed the fine concert last night in the park said so. They also remarked that it was a fine thing to have the home band. We wonder if they will dig down to help support it if necessary.

Sanford merchants believe in advertising and Sanford merchants will be doing business right on regardless of fire and flood and warm weather and lettuce going to seed. Advertising does something besides bringing customers to a store. It builds up your town and makes it seem to outsiders as a live and growing city.

We see old friend Forest Lake is on top in the Sanford election and is now a commissioner. Forest, thou hast a tough job, but if you wanted it, you've got it, and you're welcome to it, knowing you will serve your constituents well.—Orlando Sentinel.

Slaughter, noted bandit, who escaped from many jails and killed many men, has made his last escape. He broke out of the state pen in Arkansas one day this week and terrorized the entire country but was finally shot in the back by one of the convicts who had escaped with him. He who lives by the pistol is generally shot by the pistol.

The Palatka News is pulling for a hospital for Palatka. They have to take their patients thirty miles to St. Augustine now. We had a taste of that years ago when all the Sanford patients had to be taken to Orlando. Every city the size of Sanford and Palatka should have their own hospital. Come over and inspect the Sanford hospital, Goode. It is one of the best in the state.

Mary Roberts Rinehart says that newspaper correspondents have a profound distrust of the Japanese. Newspaper correspondents usually get a profound distrust of everyone. Why shouldn't they? The work of newspaper men show them the follies, the fancies, the sham and hypocrisy of people more than any other line of work in the world. What we know about people would put a lot of them in jail or make them leave town if it was ever published.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP

Orlando can usually be depended upon to do the right thing at the right time and while they have labored down there for many years to get rid of the big expense trying out various ideas on the subject they have now decided to buy the plants or build new ones but THEY HAVE DECIDED. The appraisers yesterday appraised the plants at $607,514 the exact figures being $271, 919 for the water plant and $335,595 for the electric plant. The engineers said the electric plant profits for the past year were $60,000 on the new appraisal price or 18 per cent. Orlando will now proceed to an election and vote to own her plants and her prosperity will really date from that time. Only another one of the predictions made by the Herald editor coming true.

FINISH THE JOB

The City Commissioners have condemned certain buildings and made the owners tear them down. This was a move in the right direction but there are at least four more buildings on the principal corners of the city that are more of an eye sore than either of the buildings torn down and these four are left and the owners have not even been informed of the fact that they might at some future time have to come down. Owners of such buildings should not need to be told that their buildings are unsightly and are a menace to the city's growth. But as the case stands these owners evidently need to be told and the people are now wondering how soon the buildings will go the way of the others of will they go at all. The City Commissioners should treat all alike regardless of whom they may be and should not climb the non resident property owner and allow the resident property owner special privileges. How soon do they go?

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE BENEFIT

Some of the Sanford Club women and girls of the younger society set gave a very attractive program at Lake Monroe last night for the Seal Sale benefit.

Mrs. A. M. Phillips sang "In Her Garden" and gave as an encore one of the old fashioned favorites. When Mrs. Phillip sings here hearers are always prepared for something good and last night was no exception.

Miss Ora Williams gave a group of humorous readings which were enthusiastically received by her audience. Miss Williams read with much skill and finish and is quite an addition to the artistic circles of Sanford.

The playlet "Two Old Maids and A Picture" brought down the house. Miss Mildred Holly took the part of a college girl with a talent for collecting suitors and pictures.

Miss Kitty DuBose was her chum. The two old maiden aunts, Miss Mae Holly and Miss Maude Lake.

Miss Mildred Holly gave an Egyptian dance. It was a great pleasure to see this graceful young lady interpret this age long dance. She was given several encores.

Lake Monroe in addition to selling all her quota of stamps has also realized a neat profit on this performance. Much for the credit is due to Professor Jacobs and his corps of teachers. Lake Monroe is fortunate in having this progressive and public spirited man in their midst. Lake Monroe has raised $27.00.

Is Only One of Nature's Warnings of Weak or Disordered Kidneys

Have you a lame back, aching day and night? Do you feel sharp pains after stooping? Are the kidneys sore? Is their action irregular? Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the medicine recommended by so many Sanford people. Read this case:

Mrs. W. F. Leavitt, 317 West Third St., Sanford, says: "Some few years ago I was bad off with kidney trouble and knife-like pains shot up from my kidneys and there was a dull ache in my back all the time. I had to take to my bed as I couldn't be on my feet. I suffered from terrible headaches, too. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and one-half dozen boxes cured me in fine shape and made me feel like a different woman."

During the war the makers of Peter's Diamond Brand Shoes continued with their established policy of making shoes of solid leather, well put together. No paper is ever used in any of their shoes. The progressive store of Rivers Bros. on Sanford avenue sells Peter's Diamond Brand Shoes. 18-1tc

Early Christmas Morning

FOUR little feet patter on the floor,
Two tangle-cut heads peep in at the door,
Hear the merry laughter 't' the chimney's rear,
Early Christmas morning.

Two little stockings full of socks and lye,
Everything so charming for little girls and boys,
How could they help, then, making such a drowsy noise
Early Christmas morning!

Down beside the stockings many gifts were spread,
Dollies, drums, a cradle, and a brand new sled,
"Haven't we too many?" little Nellie said,
Early Christmas morning.

Four little feet on the sidewalk cold,
Two little faces with wet and lumpy hair,
Peeping through the window where those gifts were laid
Early Christmas morning.

"Yes," says John to Nellie, as he noted the two,
"We're no more presents—tell me what you'd do I'll give half of mine over. Now, dear Nell, will you?"
Early Christmas morning.

Two little berries come late the berries were called,
Favors heaped upon them till they stood under lid,
Was not this the apple's song, "Peace, goodwill to all!"
Early Christmas morning! — Mary A. Paul

Decorate the Christmas Package

EVERY one when sending a Christmas gift desires it to appear as attractive as possible. When we receive a gift nicely wrapped with tissue paper and decorated with pretty Christmas seals, there is an added pleasure. This is especially so when we realize that the sender has spent time and cleverness to give this little touch of personal thoughtfulness.

Many varieties of Christmas seals may be purchased, but a little originality will not come amiss even in these small details.

There are seals for the outside package and the heading to be used on the note paper, conveying the good wishes of the giver, or on the little card of greeting. These two in each set match. This gives another touch of the unusual, which is always sought after.

Have a piece of carbon paper, place it over the note paper, card or seal, and on top of this one of the designs. Carefully trace with a sharp pencil the entire outline. An exact duplicate of the design will be found on the note paper or seal ready for tinting. This may be easily done with water colors or wax crayons. Polychrome should be colored a warm, bright red, with yellow centers and dark green stems.

Holly, the special emblem of this season, has berries of vivid, fiery red and glossy leaves of dark green.

A dainty basket of forget-me-nots would be pretty colored yellow, the flowers a faint light blue and the bow-knot of pale pink. Now we have the mystic sign of the holidays, borrowed from the Druids, the mistletoe. The berries of this plant are a pearly white and the leaves a yellowish green.

Spend a little extra time giving the Christmas gift this novel decoration, and the pleasure it affords will never cause you to regret having done so.

Economy is to be considered at Christmas time. Our purse-strings have been stretched to the breaking point purchasing gifts for relatives and friends. To put this fascinating bit of handwork upon the Christmas package costs comparatively nothing, aside from the time you spend doing it. This fact counts very little when we add to the enjoyment of others.

These few suggestions will probably cause endless ideas for the Christmas package to present themselves to you. Make your gifts radiate the holiday spirit; give this little bit of personality and attractiveness to as small a thing as the Christmas seal.

HOW UNKIND
"Fred is getting nearsighted."
"It doesn't follow that there is anything the matter with his eyes because he can't see one under the mistletoe."

Christmas Packages.
A woman whose Christmas packages never fail to reach their destination in safety says she always writes the name and address of the recipient upon the inside wrapper of the box containing them. Packages sometimes lose their outside wrappings, but if the postal clerks can find the address on the inside wrapping all will be well. This woman also ties up the inside wrapping securely before putting on the outside cover.

THE YULETIDE FLAME

Spark in Hearts of People Cannot Be Quenched.

All Have Desire to Make Fellowmen Happy by Gift or Words of Greeting.

NEITHER hatred, nor envy, nor deceit, nor all the legions of ugly human passions that assail the heart, nor rancor between individuals, nor national lust for power, can extinguish it. They may dim but they can not quench the spark in the heart of man which impels him, as every waking year brings the Christmas, to try to make a few of his fellowmen a little happier. Often it is by the method of the gift, perhaps something that costs hundreds of dollars, maybe only a penny card bearing an inscription of good cheer. Frequently it is something intangible, the whole-souled word of greeting to the old lady in a shawl who sells you your paper, or the smile of comradeship which you give the conductor who punches your ticket, or the elevator man who takes you up to your office (fellow workers all). It is not giving that counts, not the bestowal of something valued in dollars and cents, the transference of something from your hand to another's. That is a purely mechanical process, which may or may not create happiness. No; it is the longing to give, the desire to be the cause of another's happiness.

To wish to help others is the oldest passion in the world—even a little older than the impulse to overcome others. And it is the deathless passion as well. It needs no Christmas day to keep it alight, but as long as Christmas continues to provide fuel to make the flame of good fellowship burn brighter, that day will continue to be the richest 24 hours in all the year.

Christmas To Come!
Now Christmas is come
Get us beat up the drum
And call all our neighbors together,
And when they appear
Let us make them such cheer
We will keep out the wind and the weather.

CHRISTMAS IN 1621

Rebuke Administered to New England Observers of Day.

Young Men Who Had Arrived on Little Ship Fortune Reprimanded for Festivities.

IT WAS IN 1621 that Governor Bradford was called upon to administer a rebuke to some of the young men of the New England colony who had just come over on the little ship Fortune, and who wanted to celebrate the holiday, the Detroit News recalls. Puritanism brought over with it in the May flower the anti-Christmas feeling, and when the group of lusty youngsters attempted to observe the day they were sharply criticized by the colony.

The men were called out to work that day as on other days, but the newcomers declared it against their consciences to work on Christmas day. The governor left them and led away the rest of the workers. But when he returned at noon the young men were in the street at play—some pitching the ball and some playing stool ball. He took away their implements and told them it was against his conscience that they should play while others worked, and that they could observe the day within doors, but there should be no reveling in the streets.

On the day in question a tree was chopped down and dragged into one of the rough cabins where it was trimmed with cranberries and popcorn, while the young people feasted their eyes on its beauties. These "revels" were frowned upon by the majority of the colonists and in 1650 the general court of Massachusetts enacted a law that made any person observing Christmas day liable to a fine of "five shillings." The law was repealed in 1801.

JOY OF CHRISTMAS

Season Proves That Men and Women Are Friendly Beings.

Desire to Make Presents and to Be Cheerful Shows People Wish to Be Congenial.

ONE of the finest things about Christmas is its truthness, the joyous reality of it. At Christmas time no exhortation is necessary to make it go; Christmas never has to be made a "success," as a parade or a pageant.

Christmas is in a certain sense an institution; it comes at a certain date each year; it always has its Christmas tree, its stocking, its poultry dinner colored with cranberries. But it is one of those institutions that has never been institutionalized; it exists in the nature of man.

Christmas proves to us that men, women and children are at heart friendly beings. The spontaneity of Christmas giving and Christmas cheer proves what people really want to be—good friends.

Wars go on at other times; men and women quarrel among themselves over property or over other men and women; artificial requirements are imposed that incite to greed, dishonesty and bitterness. But at Christmas time there comes over the broad surface of our western civilization, which is pretty much like other civilizations, a great reversion to type. Man wants most to be happy, he wants to dance and sing and to make other persons happy. At other times than Christmas something seems to be wrong, and man reasons that someone else is to blame.

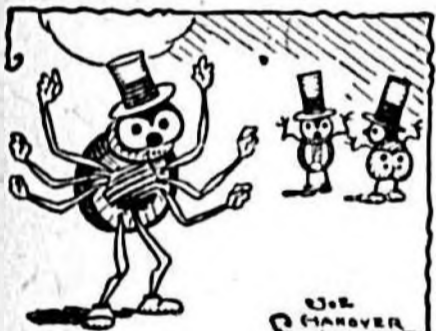

At Christmas time there is a general forgetting of everything but being natural. Christmas is the great annual armistice of that portion of humanity that has come to be segregated under the name of Christendom.

Christmas is the finest thing that has come out of Christianity, because it is the friendliest thing. Men and women are not naturally and healthily meddlers; the best part of their lives and the most of their happiness does not come from the tyranny they exercise or the repressions they set up or the reformatory cruelties they inflict on others.

At Christmas time men and women forget to be anything but children again.

Perhaps some day there will be a sort of Christmas every day of the year. Perhaps men and women will be able to forget more often and more completely, and thereby live more completely, the elimination of bitterness and artificial antagonisms being both the cause and the effect of this happy state.

Perhaps one of the lessons of Christmas is that we have more to forget than to learn.—Detroit News

VERY USEFUL

"Say, wouldn't Mr. Spider be useful to tie up bundles during the Christmas rush?"

HOLLY MAY SOON BE EXTINCT

Popular Christmas Decoration Is Growing Less Bountiful Each Year, According to Reports.

Christmas holly, that merriest and most beloved of all growing bushes, is threatened with extinction, according to a warning sounded by lovers of a red Christmas. Once growing profusely in southern New Jersey and Maryland, it has been swept from those states by the ruthless cutters for the city markets, and must now be sought in the swamps of Virginia and North Carolina, where already the supply is growing less bountiful each year. The Gulf states have been similarly shorn to make holiday for the large cities.

Within another generation, botanists say, holly will be as rare as mistletoe, which used to grow in abundance on the Atlantic seaboard, as far north as Raritan bay, but has now practically ceased to exist as a Christmas decoration. When will the American people learn that the bounty of their fields and woodlands is not limitless?

With sinking hearts nature lovers have long since recorded the disappearance of the delicate trailing arbutus, flower of the Pilgrim maidens, from all woods near large cities. The mountain laurel, which once swept the hills of June with pale pink drifts like naughty clouds running away from the sunset, has now retreated to the remote mountain sides.—New York Tribune.

AMERICAN LEGION ASSIST IN RESTORING ORDER
Pittsburg, Kansas, Dec. 15—Result reports that the mob of women headed toward Pittsburg and that the seizure of Van Bitner, representative Miners Union here planned, that American Legion Men Hastily formed for duty at the hotel which Bitner's headquarters. There were a stack of rifles in lobby.

CHRISTMAS TOKENS OF LOVE.

WHEN any uncertainty exists let us give a token of love, or friendship, or human kindness, something that, while expressing these things will, at least, be harmless. Let it be something that does not last—that brings the meaning and vanishes—something that never will know the indignity of the top shelf of the spare room closet!

A knock at a friend's door on Christmas morning and the clasp of a hand do this. A growing plant does it—but, most of all, thou bealdest me, singing in the wilderness—the personal revelation does it. Suppose a letter came on Christmas morning, to say—"you are perfectly dear to have sent me a spool box," but "I want you to know that your patience, or courage, or tenderness, during this last year, will help me to live more bravely and courageously and lovingly this next year!" What a Christmas present the receipt of such a letter would be to any one of us! What a Christmas present for any one of us to send to the human heart that has given us courage for the burden and heat of the day!—Indianapolis News.

AFRAID OF SANTA

Black Tots at African Mission Make for Place of Safety.

Presents of Apparel and Sweets Ering Confidence to the Men, Women and Kiddies.

AN AMUSING story of how Santa Claus frightened the black children at a mission station when he first appeared to them a few years ago, is told by the wife of a missionary stationed at Batunda, Africa. They had celebrated Christmas at Batunda before, but they never had had Santa Claus; so Mr. Stover, the missionary, dressed up as good Saint Nick.

"He had been padded and powdered and packed until his own mother would not have known him," Mrs. Stover afterward related. "Presently we gave the signal, the door flew open and in walked Santa Claus. But, dear me! What consternation! He was greeted with shrieks and groans and cries of 'Let me out! It is the evil one. It is the day of judgment!'"

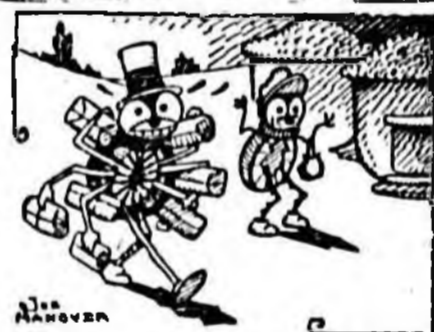

"The archins, catching the infection of terror from the older black people, fled to their bedrooms, fell down upon their faces, crept under chairs and tables—anywhere to hide themselves. Poor old Santa Claus never had such a greeting before. As soon as he realized the panic he had caused, he tore off his 'nail hat and white cotton beard. Then from the bags on his back he began to throw gifts right and left and to tell who he was.

"Reassured once more, everyone was soon laughing and chatting, munching the great 'red breads' (doughnuts), tasting their fruits or nibbling at the sweets from the familiar little bags. One man wondered which end up he was to hold the fork Santa Claus had given him. Another immediately tried on his new shirt. The girls arranged their bright-hued handkerchiefs into turbans, while others sought to find some place about their scanty clothing where they could stow away their bunch of bread, as well as the paper of needles and cake of soap given to each.

"It seemed as though everyone tried to talk louder than his neighbor as they examined the costume of Santa Claus, whom they now no longer feared. One man said that he thought it was John the Baptist; another that it was Elijah returned. Yet another thought it was Satan himself.

Hanging Pictures.

In hanging pictures don't "sky them." A picture should be hung so that its center comes just on a level with a person of average height.

The Rag Doll's Christmas

THERE was once a very, very old rag doll who lived in a nursery. She was so old that she had seen all the children grow up—the boy who wore trousers now the girl who had her hair done in braids, the middle sized child who had so often left the rag doll out in the garden at night. There was only the baby left—bless his pink toes!

But the rag doll was very, very old and one beautiful Christmas time she began to show her age.

Her hair had been combed so much that it had come out dreadfully, and her nose, from a great deal of kissing was entirely gone. Her pretty pink cheeks had been washed away when the boy tried to teach her to swim in the bath tub, and all her clothes were very untidy indeed.

The baby never noticed all these things, but the toys did; they all made the most unkind remarks to the rag doll the day before Christmas.

"Look at your dirty face," said the large French doll. "You'll be put in the attic to-night. That's where two old dolls go." "Look at your dress," said the jumping jack. "It is all torn. I wouldn't walk across the nursery floor with you."

"Did you ever see such thin hair?" asked the hobby horse. "I thought my tail was thin, but it isn't to be compared with that!"

But just then the nursery door opened, and the Christmas Angel came in. You could be perfectly sure that it was the Christmas Angel even if she did have on a gingham apron, because her face shone so through the dark.

"The French doll must go up to the attic," said the Christmas Angel. "There is a more beautiful new bear doll coming."

"Why, the Jack-in-the-box has forgotten how to jump."

You see the Jack-in-the-box had been so excited about the rag doll's dress that he had broken his spring.

"The Jack-in-the-box must go up to the attic, too," said the Christmas Angel.

Then she went over to the hobby horse.

"Poor, old hobby-horse!" she said. "Your leg is very badly broken. I will take you up to the attic until you can be mended."

"There," the Christmas Angel said at last, "the nursery is all tidy, and ready for new toys—but, dear me, what's this? Why, it is the little rag doll!"

"Oh, please, do I have to go to the attic, too?" said the rag doll. "It's very cold there, and I know the best doll will have the chimney corner for herself—and I don't want the mice to gnaw my toes!"

"Why, you dear old thing!" said the Christmas Angel. "You're the same rag doll that I used to play with when I was little. You go to the attic? Why, I just guess not! We couldn't get along without you in the nursery. You do need a little mending, but I am going to sew you, and then you shall sit on the very treetop of the Christmas tree."

The Christmas Angel lighted one of the Christmas candles so that she could see to sew. Then she took the rag doll in her lap and opened her workbag and set to work.

First she stuffed the rag doll's insides with plenty of cotton so she could sit up. Then she sewed her toes and put new little white stockings and black shoes on her feet. She took a piece of clean, white cloth and covered the rag doll's dirty face, and painted in blue eyes and a smiling red mouth and vermilion cheeks. She sewed on a new yellow wig; and then she made a pink and white checked gingham dress with puffed sleeves, and a white apron with strings to keep the dress clean, and a pink and white checked sunbonnet to fit under the rag doll's chin and keep her hair tidy.

"I think you will do now, you dear old thing," said the Christmas Angel. So it came Christmas morning, and there on the treetop of the tree sat the rag doll quite made over. The children thought her really the most beautiful of all the Christmas things. As for the rag doll herself—why, all the pleasure of her old days was no longer to the happiness that was here new. —Carolyn K. Bailey, in Kindergarten Review.

A CHRISTMAS LEGEND

Crowing of the Cock to Keep Away Evil Spirits.

Tale of Saint Stephen, the First Martyr, Whose Day is December Twenty-Six.

EVER since that first Christmas eve the cock has crowed all night long on the anniversary to keep away evil spirits; for the cock is a holy bird and a knowing one. There is a pleasant tale of him and Saint Stephen, the first martyr, whose day is December 26, close by his dear Lord's.

Saint Stephen was King Herod's steward, it seems, who served him in the kitchen and at table. One night as he was bringing in the board's head for his master's dinner he saw the Star shining over Bethlehem, immediately he set down the huge platter and exclaimed:

"No longer, Herod, will I be thy servant, for a greater King than thou is born."

"What alleth thee?" cried the King wrathfully. "Do you lack meat or drink that you would desert my service for another's?"

"Nay," answered Stephen. "I lack neither meat nor drink. But the Child that is born this night is greater than all of us; and Him only will I serve."

"That is as true," quoth Herod, smiling the table with his fist, "as that this roast cock on the platter shall crow before us."

Hardly were the words out of his mouth when the cock stretched his neck and crowed lustily. "Christus natus est!" At this proof that Stephen's words were true, Herod was so angry that he made his soldiers take Stephen outside the walls of Jerusalem and stone him to death. And this is the reason why, unto this day, Saint Stephen is the patron of stone-cutters. —Abbie Farwell Brown, in Lippincott's Magazine.

Cleaning the Saucepan.
Here is a simple but most successful method of cleaning a saucepan in which milk has been boiled. After pouring out the boiling milk, quickly replace the lid before the steam has time to escape, and allow the saucepan to cool before taking it off again. Then put the pan in cold water to soak. It can be cleaned quickly and easily.

THE HOLY MANGER

"Prespio," Instead of Christmas Tree, in Italy and Spain.

It is Representation of the Place Where Baby Christ Lay in Bethlehem.

GIrls and boys of Italy and Spain which are called the Latin countries, never hang up their stockings at Christmas time, nor do they have Christmas trees. Kris Kringle and Santa Claus are German saints and the Christmas tree came out of the German forests long, long ago, when the nations of northern Europe were forest tribes. It is the northern people—the Germans, Scandinavians and English, all of whom are descended from old Teutonic tribes—who keep Christmas as Americans do.

Instead of the Christmas tree, Italian and Spanish boys and girls have the prespio. "Prespio" means manger, and it is a representation of the manger where the baby Christ lay in Bethlehem. It is presented in different ways. Sometimes it shows only the inside of the barn where the Baby and His mother lay, with Joseph, the Three Wise Men and the animals about. Sometimes it shows a hillside, with the Wise Men coming on foot or horseback, or on donkeys, bringing their gifts to the stable. Some times the manger is small—not more than a foot square. Sometimes it is large enough to occupy the whole end of a room. It is built on a hard foundation and is made of wood, with earth, pebbles, dried grass and leaves for the outdoor scenes. The figures are carved of wood, or perhaps little dolls are used, all very carefully and elaborately dressed by the girls. Some times brooks and lakes are ingeniously represented with paper, glass or蚌壳. Sometimes the whole is rough and rude, but again it is very neatly and beautifully done, and is quaint and interesting when all complete.

The French, who are half Latin and half Teutonic in their makeup, mix the customs of both races in their Christmas keeping. They build the manger and they also give the children presents; only, instead of hanging her stocking, little French Babette puts out her shoes. The French call the manger "creche," and in country villages in France companies of children still go from house to house on Christmas eve, carrying the creche and singing Christmas carols. Sometimes they help to build a beautiful large creche in the village church, over which they are very proud and delighted.

A YULE MESSAGE

Christmas Spirit. Peace and Good Will Should Prevail.

Time to Be Happy and to Aid Others in the Enjoyment of the Season's Cheer.

On earth, peace, good will.—Luke 2:14.

SURELY there is a mystic tie between spirit and nature, between heaven and earth, between God and man. Not strange is it, then, that on the night of the most wondrous birth time has seen, the age sealed skies should part and song of angels entrance the watchers on Bethlehem's plains.

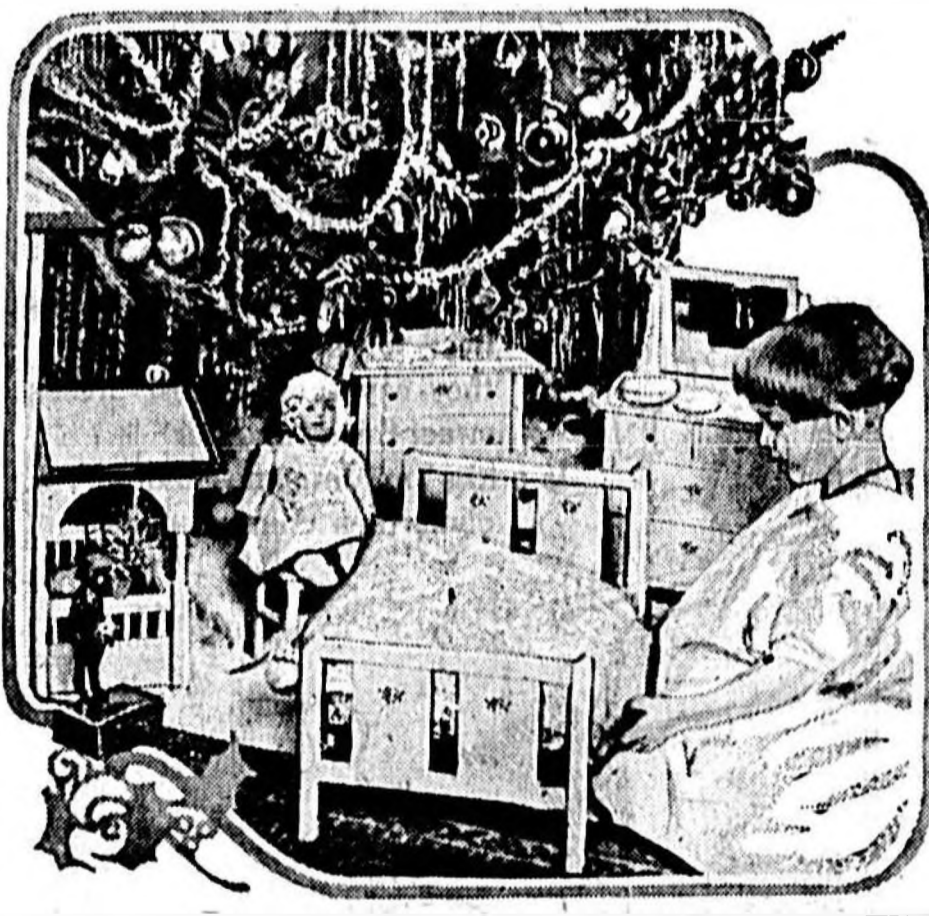

What is the secret of the unwonted charm brought by this brightest day in time's calendar? Why is the season charged with such gladness? Why do men and women feel that they can lay down their vexing burdens and their faces smile again with the faith and joy of childhood's care-free days?

It is the rapt influence of the angelic song on the natal night, "Peace on Earth." To a humanity distracted, troubled by doubts and fears, wounded by sin and smitten by conscience, God sends a message: "Fear not, I am your Father. I give you a Savior from sin and misery. You are my children. My heavenly peace I breathe upon you." And in this sweet pledge of divine remembrance and Fatherly love—of God at peace with men—a wave of tranquil joy floods the world.

But, again, it is an evangel to man of peace with himself. Every man finds discord in his own being. His innermost personality is the seat of antagonisms. He is an instrument out of tune. The primal harmony of his spirit is broken. He is at war with himself. His baser strives with his higher nature. Soul and body war against each other. But "on earth peace," chants the seraphic choir. Regard the image of God stamped upon you. Put down the low and base. Let the spirit rule and the body serve.

Finally, the Christmistle should breathe the spirit of peace in our business and in all the relations of life. Especially in our homes we can cultivate the Christmas spirit, displacing their frequent discontents, fault findings and contentions with peace and good will.

For this glad time, at least, let us all be better men and women; less selfish, more kindly, easier to live with. And how much happier will we be if this Christmas spirit—its cheery glow and kindly warmth—stay with us all through the year!—Julius B. Remensnyder.

The DAY DREAMS of the OLD FOLKS AT CHRISTMAS

by Frank L. Stanton

Old folks, too, like Christmas; Grandfather, sitting there, Feels sad if he's forgotten 'cause he's in his chimney-chair; He says he's thinkin' of the days that he no more will see, When he was just a little boy—a Christmas boy—like me.

He listens to the fire—for it's always talkin' so, And then it is he calls to mind his good times long ago When the Christmas wind was whistlin' through the cold and frosty nights And children dreamed of Christmas bells and watched for Christmas lights.

He doesn't seem to hear at all the noise the children make, For when he sits the stillest there he's dreamin' wide awake! But mother—then she tells us to all run right out and play, For old folks hear sweet music when they're dreamin' day by day.

And then Grandmother—SHE comes in and sits beside him there, And puts her hand in his, and says sweet words he loves to hear; But what they are she'd never tell to mother or to you; She knows that he is dreamin', for she dreams the same dreams, too.

So Christmas comes to old folks, and it's then they love to know The children don't forget 'em, though they lived so long ago! An' they say the sweetest present of all sweet things and fair Is a kiss on Christmas mornin' when we climb their chimney chair.

THE FIRST CHRISTMAS

Birth of the Christ Child Announced by Angel.

Good Tidings of Great Joy to All the People in Coming of the Savior.

NOW it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be enrolled. This was the first enrollment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria. And all went to enroll themselves, every one to his own city. And Joseph also went up from Nazareth, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, to enroll himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him, being great with child. And it came to pass, while they were there, the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her first-born son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock. And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Be not afraid; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people; for there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this is the sign unto you: Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, And on earth peace among men in whom he is well pleased.

THE ROSE OF JERICHO

Pilgrims Told of Its Power to Bloom on Christmas Day.

Blossom Given the Name of Resurrection Flower; Also Called St. Mary's Rose.

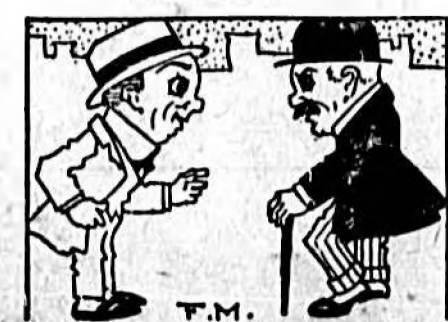

SEVERAL varieties of the so-called resurrection plant have appeared among the novelties offered by florists, but the original is the rose of Jericho. Along the shores of the Dead sea, far enough away to be out of reach of the death-dealing vapors and the salt spray, grows this rose, a little plant famed in many a legendary story, which, when ripened, rolls up its sprays and branches into a curious little brown ball.

The desert winds snap off its dry stem and whirl the seemingly dead little ball away over sandy plains, like a feather-weight. After it chances to reach some damp place, in about ten days, the moisture has wrought a miracle for the once dead is alive again, green and growing.

The old-time pilgrims who brought back this plant with them from the Holy Land, told the wondrous tale of its power to bloom out on Christmas day and gave it the name of resurrection flower. Another old legend names it from every spot where they halted to rest.

The dry ball when unfolding drops its seeds, and from these it may be cultivated as an annual. To resurrect these dry balls it is simply necessary to keep them standing in glasses of water, immersed about halfway to the top of their branches. The expansion is merely a mechanical spongelike process.

The botanical name of the rose of Jericho is anastasis, from anastasis, resurrection. There are other species of resurrection plants, but they are not so attractive as their dead and relative, which, although it has very little beauty, has an honored place among flowers because of the many fancies and associations it calls up and its peculiar development.—Argus

THAT PESTIFEROUS BOY. "A Merry Christmas, old man. But why are you limping?" "That pestiferous boy of mine set a trap for Santa Claus."

HAS TONIC EFFECT

Christmas Day Pleasures Are of Benefit to People.

Mental State Does Everybody Good and Festivity Equals Prescription of Physician.

CLARE observes in the ranks of the medical profession have noted one very interesting fact concerning the Christmas season—that it generally has a good tonic effect upon their patients. In explanation of this the London Lancet says that since Christmas has come to be regarded as a time for good cheer, a universal feeling of contentment and happiness is engendered at this time of joyousness, routine is for a while relieved, a certain freshness is given to the daily round, differences of opinion are sunk, and a charitable spirit prevails. Is it, by the way, hoping for too much, asks the Lancet, that the season of good fellowship should leave some lasting effect upon the manners and methods of life?

It may not be easy to trace exactly why the sense of exhilaration and well-being comes with the advent of Christmas, for the psychological factors concerned are not simple. But the main point is that the mental state does everybody good, and the annual festivity is just an excellent anodyne as the prescription of the physician which gives tone and vigor to the struggler in life's race. There is no need, nowadays, thanks to the good sense of the people and the common sense of their medical advisers, to over-analyze about the evils of a stupid indulgence in food, alcohol and tobacco on a festive occasion such as the present. Practically everybody realizes the great physiological advantages of being who on a merry occasion.

Many more persons than formerly feel when the cold and gloom of winter and they are sensibly discouraged; and so far from it being a crime to make the season festive by enjoying, on a little extended scale perhaps, the creature comforts of life, some decided good is done to both the mental and physical health of the individual.

The festive season may, therefore, be welcomed, with but slight cheer to thousands, which induces the generous and charitable to brace the mental and physical functions of the community at large, giving it the opportunity of relinquishing its business and its worries for a time, to start again refreshed and ready for "the trivial round, the common task." The prescription "A Merry Christmas" is sound so long as the "signature" of good sense is observed.

The Hard Times Bugaboo Scares Away Good Business During the Holiday Season

We should all have the Christmas Spirit at this time of the year and would have it with a Savings Account in the Bank. There would be no Hard Times if Everyone had a Bank Account

HOARDED MONEY TIES UP BUSINESS AND BRINGS NO HAPPINESS TO ANY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY

The Comptroller of the Currency estimates that there's now about $700,000,000 of hoarded money in this country which should be in the banks.

This holding money out of the banks is in part responsible for the shortage of credit from which all industries suffer at present. Idle money tends to make idle industries and idle men.
