HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

Nineteen persons were injured when Norfolk and Southern train No. 2, known as the Newbern Flyer was wrecked half a mile south of Hickory grounds Sunday afternoon, while en route to Norfolk. Two coaches and a parlor car were derailed and turned over.

Talladega, Alabama, was struck by a cyclone Sunday night at 8 o'clock, and property damaged approximately to the extent of $165,000. There was no loss of life. The storm struck the town from the southwest, going east, and when immediately over the business district the twin disturbances united, doing heavy damage.

Ignited by a lightning bolt coming seemingly from a clear sky, twenty acres of storage sheds at the Atlantic Coast Line railroad wharves at Savannah, were swept by fire on Sunday, causing loss estimated at $460,000. One fireman was severely and several slightly injured. In the sheds 7,695 bales of cotton were burned, including 500 bales of Sea Island cotton. Three tugs and the United States boat Tybee played streamers on the flames. A drenching downpour that lasted for an hour, rain mixed with large hail, made no impression on the fire.

Taft, Roosevelt, Harmon and La Follette will tour Ohio this week. All of them are Presidential possibilities and they consider Ohio debatable ground. There will be plenty of red fire and big meetings in the Buckeye State.

OFFICERS ASSASSINATED

Decoyed to a point where they were told a game of "skin" was being indulged in by a number of negroes near Archer, Marshal C. H. Slaughter of that town and Deputy Sheriff White were killed last Sunday morning, while J. A. Manning, who had been deputized to assist in making the arrests, barely escaped death by feigning that he was dead.

After the two men had been shot and killed volleys were directed at Manning, and when he fell the negroes, believing him dead, started to make a get-away, when they were arrested by Mr. Manning, who covered them with his gun, it is alleged.

Cain Perry, a well known character of the Archer section, who has been a terror to cattle owners by reason of theft, together with his three sons, were arrested, and are now in the Alachua county jail. Feeling is said to be intense in the vicinity of Archer, and were it not for the fact that the spring term of the circuit court will convene here tomorrow the men might be dealt with roughly.

Information concerning the tragedy at this time is very meagre, but the above facts are authentic.

About two months ago Marshall Slaughter was compelled to kill Bess Stokes, a notorious "blind tiger" operator, to protect his own life, and it is believed that the tragedy of this morning was a sequel to this. Cain Perry was shot by Manning and is said to be in a critical condition.

Maxwell Makes Improvements

At the rear of Maxwell's store he has fitted up a modern factory for the manufacture of ice cream and other frozen delicacies and the building is equipped with motors and other paraphernalia for the confectionery business. The building is of galvanized iron and has a concrete floor and the way the new machinery can freeze cream is a caution. The constantly increasing trade enjoyed by Maxwell forced this improvement over the old way of manufacturing cream and he is now equipped to take care of large and small orders—only he wants the patrons to order their Sunday cream on Saturday, as his trade is so large he is compelled to take orders one day ahead. If you order on Saturday he will deliver it on Sunday, and during the heated term this will be a great convenience to the tired housewife.

AID TO FLOOD SUFFERERS

The Southern Express Company will forward without cost, any shipments of clothing and supplies weighing not more than 150 pounds each, for the flood sufferers at Mississippi Valley points.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. of Sanford are now making up boxes to be forwarded to these unfortunate people, and the time for shipping these boxes has been changed to May 22nd. All who desire to contribute any articles of clothing, or supplies, will please deliver same to Mrs. G. B. Waldron as soon as possible so that the boxes will be ready for shipment promptly on the date set.

PROMINENT OFFICIALS HERE

Chairman Overstreet and J. L. Dillard, of the board of County Commissioners, Supt. Branham and Mr. Boyd accompanied by Commissioner Frank Woodruff, D. T. Thrasher and N. H. Gorner inspected the new steel drawbridge at Geneva Ferry today.

WOODLAND PARK NOTES

Miss Lillian Gibson leased the park for her pupils last Friday. They came in Wagons and automobiles. Mr. D. L. Thrasher brought quite a bunch in his auto. This was his first visit to the park and seeing signs of good fishing he went back after tackle, and landed a good string of perch.

Everybody enjoyed the swimming and many other amusements immensely. The children were well looked after by a number of ladies and all voted Woodland Park the ideal picnic ground and want to come again. Miss Gibson must have bribed the weather man, for a finer day could not have been had.

In spite of the rain Sunday, quite a number of people came. Capt. Paganhart brought two boats loads on the Muncie. A lot of boys came on wheels for their regular swim and other amusements, and several couples drove out in buggies. Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Thrasher and daughter May, and Dr. and Mrs. Puleston, accompanied by friends came in their autos. Those that do not care to swim enjoy looking at those in the pool and everybody feels repaid for the trip.

ETHEL ITEMS

Miss Sallie Lapford gave a dance at her home Saturday night in honor of her sister, Mrs. W. D. Oliver of Tampa. Mr. George Smith, Charlie Chisler, Harry and Charlie Raybourn and Harry Garwood were present from Paola. Refreshments were served at 10:30 o'clock. Every one seemed to enjoy the evening.

Mr. Ben Boyd and daughter of Lakeland are visiting relatives and friends at Ethel.

Miss Sallie Lapford and cousin, Mrs. Bessie Cline, accompanied Mrs. H. D. Oliver as far as Sanford Sunday on her return home to Tampa.

Mr. George Smith and Charlie Chisler of Paola were visiting friends at Ethel Sunday.

BOY SCOUT BALL GAME

The Sanford Boy Scouts will play a ball game at Holden Park next Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The First Troop will cross bats with the Second Troop and a good game will be played. Come and help the boys get their Summer camp equipment by putting in your quarter to see the game.

CREATURES OF IMITATION

Several mornings ago I met too little boys, real little tots, coming out of a gentleman's office with their hands full of letters. In response to my polite "Good morning little men" they replied "we got lots of letters." "I see you have. What are you going to do with them?" The larger boy holding up his hand full of letters said "this is a real good letter, we get them out of papa's waste basket." "What are you going to do with them?" I said. With promptness and pride they eagerly responded, "We're going to put them in the letter box." It was with some difficulty that I persuaded them that the letter box was not the place to put old letters. I think I only convinced the larger boy when I suggested that the policeman would not let them put their letters in the letter box; and that he might arrest them.—M. B.

COLD STORAGE HERE

Car Load of Celery Is Tried As An Experiment

KEPT WEEKS IN GOOD CONDITION

Cold Storage at This End of The Line Will Solve The Question for Sanford Growers

The experiment of the Florida Vegetable Growers' Association in putting a car of celery in cold storage at Sanford for three weeks and then shipping it to a northern market was a success.

The celery was cut and hauled from the field to a dry, cold room, prepared and cooled to 36 degrees by the Crystal Ice Plant. It remained in this cold room for three weeks and was then loaded in an ice car and sent to Chicago.

Part of the celery was bleached, part of it half bleached and part of it green. When loaded in the car for shipment it was as sound as when put in the cold room and it carried in that condition to Chicago and was readily sold.

All of the stock had more or less blight on the foliage and a crate containing "Black Heart" celery in different stages of development was put into the cold room for experiment at the same time. Neither the blight nor the "Black Heart" made any further progress after being put in the cold room.

It has been a much discussed question in the past as to whether celery could be put into cold storage in Florida and then shipped to the northern markets to arrive in good condition. That question is now settled.

After such celery arrives in market it must be handled as any cold storage celery is handled, whether it is from a cold storage house in the south or north.

There are several advantages to be derived from cold storage of celery in the south, first of which may be mentioned the absolute guarantee that the celery will carry to market in good condition.

Celery cooled to 36 degrees will remain at a low temperature throughout its journey, whereas celery direct from the fields loaded into an ice car will not under the best conditions get cooled off for 48 hours, and it is then passing through all of the dangerous part of its haul through the hot south, where any neglect in rearing the car will be greatly to the detriment of the celery.

It is claimed by those who have had wide experience in refrigerating that it is a physical impossibility to put celery direct from the field into an ice car with weather conditions such as they usually are in the month of March, in Florida, with any certainty of its carrying well, for the warm fog caused by the sweating of the warm celery in a closed car will prevent the cold from penetrating and cooling the celery. The Florida Celery Growers' Association had one car that arrived in an eastern market this season in which case the inside temperature of the car upon arrival was 60 degrees, when the outside temperature was 40 degrees in the city to which it was shipped. In other words, the car acted as a thermos bottle and carried warm air along with the celery clear up to the eastern part of the United States.

There have no doubt been thousands of dollars lost to the grower in this manner during this and past seasons, and the Florida Vegetable Growers' Association has taken up with the Interstate Commerce Commission the matter of having all refrigerator cars equipped with registering thermometers which will show at the end of the journey how high the temperature of the car has been allowed to go, and thus have a basis for claims in such cases as that above cited.

Of course in safe guarding the proper carrying of our celery to market it would only be necessary to put the celery in cold storage for forty-eight hours before shipping, or draw the latent heat out of it by a pre-cooling system such as is employed in California. But we might go further than this and say that by putting a part of our celery in cold storage when market conditions are not favorable we could avoid glut in the markets and hold our celery until it is wanted at a fair price.

It has been advanced by some that we can do this quite as well by putting it into cold storage upon arrival in the north and waiting for a favorable time to arrive to put it on the market. The difference is this: When it is shipped to

LETTER FROM GUNDY

Longs For Sanford While Living In His Northern Home

Mr. R. J. Holly, Lucky Sanford, Fla.

Dear Friend—Enclosed please find check for $2.00 for which please extend my subscription for another year. I just happened to notice today when I received the paper that my time had expired April 12th, and I do not want to miss a copy. Well we are having real weather here now but this last winter, well it would just freeze the whiskers off of a marble statue.

I tell you I thought of Sanford a great many times when the mercury was fooling around 10 to 20 below zero. I see by your paper that the growers received very good prices for their stuff this season. That is what I like to see. If they will only organize and then stick together there is no reason why they cannot get what their stuff is worth every year. When they were getting $2.00 f. o. b. we were paying 10 cents per stalk for Sanford celery. And when the market dropped down to $1.00 and $1.25 we still paid the same price, so you see the people in the northern markets pay just about the same price when it is cheap as when the grower gets what it is worth. Give my regards to all the fellows.

Yours Respectfully,

C. E. GUNDY,

Bowling Green, Ohio

Observance of Mercy Sunday

There is a well established practice in many sections of the United States and largely so in England of having one Sunday church service in the year devoted to a plea for mercy and kindness for the weak and helpless in the community, whether child or beast. President William O. Stillman of the American Humane Society suggests that all societies make a concerted effort to have "Mercy Sunday" generally observed through out the United States. His appeal for this observance, as published by "Our Dumb Animals" follows: "I earnestly appeal to all American humanitarians to make a special effort this year to have Mercy Sunday observed generally. Letters addressed to all clergymen should be sent out soon by local societies, supported by such literature as you may deem advisable. Do not let failure to succeed deter any local society from keeping up this agitation which seeks to enlist the intelligent cooperation and interest of Christian people everywhere. Let us speak for those who cannot speak for themselves. Let us not forget that the benediction: 'Blessed are the merciful' may well find expression and exemplification on one Sunday in the year, in view of the beneficent spirit which has caused an increase in humanity all over the world."

Pity The Poor Ticket Agent

There is one job in this city the Rambler never would qualify for and that is ticket agent. People often ask the questions of the postmaster and the editors of the daily paper which it would take weeks to figure out, but the ticket agent receives some which are utterly impossible, for instance: "Do you suppose 85 will be on time day after tomorrow? If not, why not?" "Can you tell me if a young lady in a blue dress got off the last train from the north, and where she went?" "What time does the 12:30 train leave, and is it going to leave on time?" "What made 85 so late a week ago last Saturday?" "How do I get to Kimmimm without changing cars?" "Can't you telephone and hold the boat at Sanford if the train arrives late?" "Will you watch for my friend and tell him how to find my home, for I do not like to wait for trams?" "I left a novel on the seat of a Tampa bound train about three weeks ago. Can you tell me where I can find it?" "Can you give me the exact time I will arrive in New York?" "This is about five minutes' exercise for the ticket agent, and that is why he doesn't always answer when spoken to.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

INFORMAL CARD PARTY

A small card party was charmingly entertained by Mrs. W. T. Johns, at which the game of Rook was enjoyed. When the games of cards were concluded delicious fruit sherbert, cake and candy were served. Mrs. Johns's guests were Mr. and Mrs. McGary, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Maples, Miss Herd, Miss Crux, Miss Brain, Messrs. O. E. Walker and Goodrich.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings In the State's Domain.

The Winter Haven district has voted to bond $130,000 for the construction of good roads.

Crops are unusually late along the line of the A. C. L. railway between Gainesville and Jacksonville. In some few instances corn is as high as 18 inches but in most fields it is not over six inches above ground.

The hotel at Davenport is to be enlarged and improved during the summer months. Several new residences are also going up in that progressive town and many improvements are being made on the streets.

The county commissioners of Dade county have ordered that Australian pines be planted along the main road from one end of the county to the other. The trees will be planted thirty feet apart on each side of the road and fourteen feet from the center of the road, making an avenue twenty-eight feet wide the entire length of the county.

The rapid development of melon growing and trucking in the Gainesville district of Florida, with the incidental heavy increase in refrigerator traffic over the West Coast branch of the Atlantic Coast Line and the Florida Southern railroads, has brought about the organization of a new railroad using station project at High Springs to succeed the present business there, which has been unable to meet the requirements of the Fruit Growers' Express since the first of March.

News comes from Ocala that a petition has been filed containing the requisite number of names for a seven-teen-mile F. F. D. route out from that city. Many farmers are along that route and this would be a great convenience to them.

From Frank Clark

Jacksonville, Fla., May 10, 1912

To My Orange County Friends:

Now that the official count of the vote in the primary election of April 30th has been ascertained and declared, I desire to tender my sincere thanks to the 852 Democratic friends who stood so loyally by me.

The official returns show that I received 3,048 more votes than did my nearest opponent, or nearly 45 per cent of the total vote. My opponent seems determined to burden you with another primary, which will be held on the 25th, and I sincerely trust that each of you will be active in my behalf until the victory is completely won.

Respectfully and gratefully yours,
FRANK CLARK.

LIKES OUR PARKS

While over in Sanford Saturday night we were impressed with the wisdom of that city having a public park, though it is not a large affair. However, with a band of music and a park full of happy people, sitting around under brilliant lights, and children eating ice cream and strawberries at the lupch stands, we, though a stranger, felt somewhat agreeably at ease. Then we said: "Why should not DeLand have a park—one not outside the center of population, as it is, but right in the center of population?"

And so we return home with the suggestion that the merchants, business men's league, bandmen, all get busy!

The lot opposite the Baptist Church, on the Boulevard would be admirably suited, as to location especially. With a pretty band stand, with lights and seats, the resort would be a most beautiful addition to the attractions of the city. As a matter of utility it would pay. Visitors are much impressed, as we were with Sanford Saturday and with St. Petersburg's park a year ago.—DeLand Register.

A Budget of Opinion "Just Between You and Me"

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chief is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, He'll Prent 'Em"— So Says Saunterer.

¶ Sometimes a candidate can be elected by his enemies and Frank Clark seems to be one of the sex. In the first primary the reports circulated about Frank by the opposition were enough to defeat any ordinary man, but Frank is an extraordinary man and he made good in spite of all that the opposition could do. They carried the mud slinging too far and the reaction elected Frank or will in the second primary. The people of the Second know Frank Clark and they resent the underhand methods employed to defeat him. He answered every charge to the entire satisfaction of the majority of the voters and the fine vote polled by him is proof that you can't elect or defeat a man any more in this state by a dirty campaign. Frank Clark made friends by his manly stand for the right and even the voters in the Everglades gave him their support. He is bound to win out and if the same tactics are pursued in the second primary he will get even a larger vote than ever before.

¶ Charlie Hand is not worrying any about the outcome of the Sheriff's race because his loyal friends all over the county will stand by him and he will be elected. He was the high man in the first and proved by this vote that a majority of the people of Orange county want him for Sheriff. Without any disparagement to Mr. Kirkwood I wish to rise and remark that Chas. Hand is the man for Sheriff and the people will so decide at the next election. The office does not belong to any one and no one man has any lease on it and if Hand wants it and the people want him to have it all well and good. Hand is not posing as the Sanford candidate and as such the people of the whole county will support him. We are not voting for him down here because he is from Sanford but because he is the best man for the place.

¶ Rev. Summers preached a fine sermon at the Methodist church last Sunday night, so I am told, on Sanford's Greatest Sin, and the gist of his talk was the indifference of Sanford people to church work and the chase after the pleasures of life in which all thought of church and God are forgotten. He also appealed to the people to forget the petty differences that separate so many good people and have a general getting together. But he stated that we would never have a change of heart unless more of us became church members and church goers and church workers. Amusements, card parties, and other diversions that were sapping the very vitality of the people and turning their thoughts from the spiritual to the material things of this life in which all thoughts of the hereafter were forgotten. It must have been a powerful plea and should have an effect. How often have I spoken about the chasm that seems to separate the people of this city and will separate until some great awakening brings them into closer communion not only with one another but with the church. I take his sermon to myself, for I am just as worldly as any one and a good sermon never goes over my shoulder. The churches of Sanford are all in the same rut and the people are content to drift with the tide, and seek the pleasure that promises for the time greater rewards in good times for the nonce than the future reward in heaven. We are not doing our duty to God or man in this city and Summers has brought it home to me and I want him and the other good ministers to bring it home to every man and woman in Sanford. We are not looking after the welfare of either ourselves or our children, and we are not going to prosper under the present mode of living for long. There is always a time when these truths are brought home to us and the manner is left to a higher power. His servants seek to bring these truths home to us from time to time, and if they are not heeded look out for the deluge.

Boy Killed by Snake Bite
At Leesburg Allery Morrison, the eight year old grandson of Bishop Morrison, of the Methodist Church, died last Sunday morning, as the result of a snake bite between 3 and 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The little boy was playing near a hammock with his brother, Robert, aged 5, when he stepped on the snake which is thought to have been a moccasin. The snake plunged his fangs into the boy's instep.
When little Allery Morrison screamed with the pain the other boy ran back to

CLARK AND HILBURN

Hon. Frank Clark deserves congratulations on the remarkable triumph he won in the primaries last week. He didn't get a majority over his two opponents, Hilburn and Burr, but he did not miss it very far, and he has a big lead of about 2,500 votes over Mr. Hilburn that will send him into the second primary with a strength and prestige which his opponent will find it very hard if not impossible to overcome.

There was much bitter and venomous war made on Mr. Clark during the closing weeks of the campaign and his opponents and their organs carried themselves with such an air of assured victory, that many of his friends felt blue over the prospect and were afraid that he was booked for defeat.

But to the people of the Second Congressional district it looked too much like a campaign of slander and persecution, and knowing Frank Clark as they did, and believing him to be their honest as well as their able representative in congress, they brushed all the Burr and Hilburn advertising aside as "campaign rot" and rallied to the defence of their congressman at the polls with a strength and vigor which meant his practical vindication of the charges made against him by his enemies.

Mr. Burr is down and out, and Mr. Hilburn, although facing Clark's magnificent plurality, professes to be not discouraged and insists that he will win in the second primary. It will be a hot fight between these two, and the question is where will Burr's vote go? There is no good reason for believing that Hilburn will get it all, or the bulk of it. Clark will hold his own vote, and he won't have to get very much of Burr's to elect him.—Live Oak Democrat.

PEOPLE WHOM WE ALL KNOW

The young person who plays the piano just beautifully but has to be teased. Along at first you are afraid she is going to stop playing and in about an hour you are afraid she isn't.

The old gentleman in the next block who remembers a spring that was colder than this one has been.

The woman who opens every conversation this way: "When I was in New York the last time—"

MORE ABOUT ROADS

Editor Codrington did not know the name of the commissioner from the Sanford district of Orange county. He did not care who was the commissioner. Editor Codrington simply stated a fact about the condition of the half mile or so of road on the south side of the Beck ferry. If Commissioner Woodruff will put that half mile of road in passable condition The News will take the greatest pleasure in telling about it, and in patting the back of Commissioner Woodruff or whoever else is responsible for the improvement—when it is done. Until something is done to improve the half mile of sand road south of the Beck ferry, The News will stand Pat, Brother Holly.

Orange has a splendid road reputation to maintain—and that half mile of road reminds one of a big black wart on the nose of a beautiful woman.

—DeLand News.
We thank you for your explanation and kind attention. You have demonstrated that you did not know what you were talking about and proved it by admitting the same. If our road looks like a wart on the nose of a woman your corkscraw trails look like a cross eyed woman trying to watch a three ring circus.

NEWSPAPER INFLUENCE

Several weeks ago Candidate Hilburn said that fifteen papers in the district were supporting him while only three were favorable to Congressman Clark. In view of the returns from the primary Mr. Hilburn and the other candidates in the second primary might learn a lesson and benefit themselves thereby during their second campaign. A word to the wise, etc.—Ft. Pierce News.

ACKNOWLEDGE THE CORN

The Hastings News and the Hastings Development Co., seem greatly peeved at The Herald because of a statement in this paper about a few cars going out of that place during the first of the season and the blight that had appeared and the News gets back at us with the statement that celery blight had knocked out the celery crop. When the article referred to by the News appeared there had been but a few cars of potatoes to leave Hastings and owing to the wet weather the potatoes were showing blight but the article also went on to state that in a few days shipments would begin in earnest and that the blight would not affect the potatoes enough to cut the sales. Also that Hastings was the real thing in the potato line, etc.

Now acknowledge the corn, Bro. Taylor, and fess up that you did have blight and that the first week in April your shipments had hardly started. We admit that celery will blight—in fact will blight every season if the celery is backward and the hot murky weather strikes it. In fact there are drawbacks to every crop that you plant not only in Florida but in every state in the Union.

The article referred to was taken from the Produce paper and was dated showing that the shipments at the time stated were only a few cars, that blight had appeared but in a few days the shipments would be on in earnest and that all was peace and potatoes at Hastings.

If you are not satisfied with this report please give us a better one and it will be printed for the benefit of those few readers who have not heard of Florida or the Everglades.

MORE ABOUT REFRIGERATION

In this issue of The Herald is an article about the refrigeration of a car of celery at Sanford, the manner of keeping, condition and a resume of what can be accomplished by the growers in refrigeration at this end of the line. There are arguments for and against refrigeration at this end but all will have to agree that if celery is raised here at a profit another year some plan for cold storage will have to be formulated and this experiment should be read by every one interested in the success of the growers. The Herald has long contended that cold storage was the salvation of the growers and yet every one seemed skeptical of the idea and continued to ship celery to a glutted market for the other fellow to store and make the profit. Now that the experiment has been tried it is hoped that the article in The Herald will start a movement for all the growers to get together on some good plan.

SPEAKING ABOUT SPEAKERS

In a few weeks the newly elected Legislature will be thinking about their work in the legislative halls and the question of the Speaker of the House will engross their attention. Orange county offers a good man this time in the person of Hon. Forrest Lake and among his colleagues that will again grace the halls at Tallahassee he stands high and among the new members who have recently been elected his name has already been favorably mentioned and meets with their approbation.

Forrest Lake is in every particular well fitted and qualified to preside over this great body of great men. He has a thorough knowledge of parliamentary law, is quick to grasp an idea, can rule with kindness, fairness and firmness and knows as much as any man of the prac-

THE REVIVAL SERVICES

For the past eleven days there has been in progress at the Methodist Church a series of revival meetings, conducted by Rev. J. M. Bass and O. W. Stapleton, his musical director. With each service, morning and evening, these meetings have grown in popularity and interest and the wonderful good that they are accomplishing is being everywhere manifested.

Forsyth needs a revival—needs an awakening—needs to be shown the light—needs to be told the truth and Mr. Bass is proceeding to do it, and in a style all his own. To use a Bromide, "Truth hurts," but as truthfully can it be said that it's the truth when told that causes us to "sit up and take notice," especially when it's the truth about ourselves. And it's the telling of the plain, old-fashioned, unvarnished truth that is causing the people of Forsyth to daily take a more intense interest in these meetings. Mr. Bass is exposing the hypocrisy of our people, is taking particular pains to expose those people who, ostrich-like have had their heads hidden in the sand, feeling that in this way they could cover up their evil doings; and, because he is no respecter of persons and is telling the straight-from-the-shoulder truth the people are giving heed.

Some there are who perhaps don't like his methods. Possibly not, but do you do right because it is right or because you like the person who told you to do right? Did you join the church because you liked the preacher? Mr. Bass is doing a wonderful work and, whatever his methods, they are only a means to an end—that end being the bringing of the people of this community to a realization of their sinfulness and the salvation of souls through the Lord Jesus Christ. He should be judged not by his methods, but by their results and the fact that the people are being made to understand their frailties and shortcomings, that they are being brought into more harmonious relations with their fellow men, that they are being taught the evils that follow the trail of a gossiping tongue, that they are being made to feel that in the past they have been too uncharitable towards and too outspoken in their hastily-formed criticisms of their neighbors and that our community is being bettered should cause these meetings to receive the hearty support of every loyal citizen of Forsyth, be he Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, or not even a church member.—Editorial from Monroe (Ga.) Advertiser.

The above serves to show what is being done in other cities—These gentlemen are coming to Sanford May 26th. Don't fail to hear them.

tical side of the house and of state politics, men and measures. Lake is pre-eminently fitted to take this important position and will receive the support of men prominent in Florida affairs. Mr. Lake has not started a campaign as yet, in fact The Herald is only suggesting his name as a possible candidate for Speaker. There will be plenty of time for argument before the Legislature meets again. But remember Hon. Forrest Lake when thinking about the Speakership and speak to your Legislators about him.

OUR WATER SYSTEM

There is considerable complaint about the water that is coming through the pipes at present and to some of the consumers it seems to have an outlet with the Mississippi river being rather dark brown in complexion and more of a solid than a liquid. We would impress upon the Sanford Water Co. the fact that the Herald expects to investigate the water supply thoroughly and will also expect a supply of pure water and plenty of it during the summer. The editor does not use city water and is not aware of the condition of same only through the complaints of the consumers, but it is our duty to the masses to see that they get a square deal and they will get just that in regard to water, light and other utilities.

Daytona has granted that franchise for a trolley road, and the company has already ordered a survey for a reinforced concrete bridge across the Halifax at that place. The company proposes to also come to Deland with the trolley, and afterwards to Sanford and Orlando, and it is said that the road is now a certainty, as the company has unlimited capital and a million dollars will at once go into the undertaking.—DeLand Record.

LEND-A-HAND CLUB

On Friday afternoon, at the Welaka Club rooms, the Lend-A-Hand Club held its last open meeting until the beginning of the fall season, in October. This organization is composed largely of young ladies, is entirely non-sectarian, and its objects as printed in its constitution is "mutual helpfulness and the promotion of a broad spirit of neighborliness." The Club was formed last October, and the secretary reports the winter's work as follows:

December—Teachers' Committee of Lend-A-Hand Club, through gifts of an apple each from the school children, sent a barrel of beautiful fruit to the Orphanage, at Enterprise.

Sunshine Committee sent a Christmas basket to an elderly couple and filled the stockings of four poor children.

January—Blankets and sheets were given to a sick woman.

February—The Lend-A-Hand girls conducted various booths for the Hospital Field Day with gross receipts of $239.00.

March—April—The Teachers' Committee again, through the school children, sent a basket of Easter Eggs to the Orphanage. The girls assisted in various Hospital benefits, and conducted cooked food sales making $20.00 for the treasury, this amount being at the disposal of the club.

The dues on hand amount to $13.10 and this is kept for purposes of relief only.

At the meeting Friday, the girls voted $10.00 to be paid toward the office expense of an Associated Charities.

The vacation work is to consist of story-telling in the park every Saturday afternoon through June, July, August and September.

One important action of the club at this last meeting was to join the National Lend-A-Hand Society—the Sanford organization being the farthest South of any.

Junior Baracas Entertain

The splendid organization of the young boys of the Baptist church, known as the Junior Baracas, enjoyed a very pleasant evening in the class rooms of the church Friday last. Each member of the class was requested to bring another boy with him. These welcome guests added much to the pleasure of the occasion. The entertainment of the boys consisted of suitable games and guessing contests. In the latter no prizes were given, but the boys had just as much pleasure and enthusiasm in competing with one another as if there had been. At the conclusion of the games delicious ice cream and cake were served.

the north for cold storage it may or it may not arrive in fit condition for storage for reasons above named. Also there is a large freight bill attached to the celery when it arrives in the north to add to the storage charge, which will prove a loss to some one in case the celery market does not respond as anticipated. This freight has to be paid by some one when the celery is taken from the railroad. If the owner of the celery pays it he has that much more money tied up, and if the cold storage company advances it they are pretty sure to some time want the celery sold before the best time to sell it arrives, if the market does not respond readily after a glut, and their influence can be used to induce the owner to sell to his disadvantage.

On the other hand, if the grower takes care of his product at home by putting it in cold storage, he cuts out the question of freight until he knows that the market will warrant the shipment. He can ship it when the time comes with the assurance that it will arrive in good condition, it being precooled, and he can avoid certain manipulations that might be practiced upon him when it is known that he has his celery in cold storage houses in the north and must sell it for enough to cover his freight and storage charges at least. And if the worst comes he can at least save his crates, which amount to about $40.00 a car, if the market does not respond and warrant the shipment of his celery.

If we are to continue to grow celery in as great quantity as we are now doing in the Sanford district it appears that putting a portion of it in cold storage at this end would be to the advantage of the grower, and it would certainly be of great advantage to precool all of our celery before it is shipped to market. What it would cost to equip for this is a matter which will have to be further considered.

It would require little or no re-icing of the car between here and the north if the celery at 36 degrees were put into an iced car here at Sanford. The writer is informed that California precooled products are not re-iced after leaving California in shipments to the east, and that cars precooled have been on the road as long as fourteen days and arrived in good condition. It might be, however, that Florida celery would require one re-icing while passing through the heat of the south before reaching a colder climate, but this being the case, at least two re-icings of the car would be saved as at present the cars are supposed to be re-iced three times between Sanford and New York, and this economy in ice should be applied as a credit to the cost of precooling the celery at this end for shipment.

Claude L'Engle Turns
The Truth on Toomer

To the Democratic People of Florida:—

W. M. Toomer is flooding the State with his campaign literature which purports to contain his career as a citizen and Democrat. Mr. Toomer forgot to put in his eulogy of himself some things that Florida Democrats should know, and as his omissions are of public and official record it is my duty to the people to supply them.

Mr. Toomer forgot to tell that he was a PAID LOBBYIST of the Jacksonville race track during the last session of the Legislature. Ask your 1911 Legislative Representative to confirm this.

He forgot to tell the people that he was attorney of record for the WHOLESALE GROCERY TRUST in the John T. Hammond case. See United States Court Records in Jacksonville for proof of this.

He forgot to tell the people that, ON HIS OATH, before a Georgia Legislative Committee, he CONFESSED TO BRIBING A STATE WARDEN and said, that he saw no harm in it and that he, as a member of a pool of bidders, made $175,000 trafficking in Georgia convicts. The official records of the Georgia Legislature are proof of this.

He forgot to tell the people that the platform he issued last October when he entered the Second Congressional race said: "I FEAR THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IS IN DANGER OF BECOMING TOO PROGRESSIVE. I AM EXTREMELY CONSERVATIVE." In his big ads beginning the second primary race he says: "I am in favor of a progressive party." A COMPLETE REVERSAL OF HIS POLITICAL PRINCIPLES IN SIX MONTHS! See his two platforms for proof of this.

He forgot to tell the people that he has no money and cannot borrow from the banks because of judgements piled up against him, and that his campaign fund comes from the special interests with the full pocketbook. See records in Clerk's office in Jacksonville for proof of his insolvency.

He forgot to tell the people that he CONFESSED to dictating a letter in which he acknowledged that he was making his fight to get into Congress for the benefit of the turpentine industry and asking the boys in the woods to send him $80,000 for his campaign. I secured in a perfectly honest and legitimate way one of these letters and published it and he replied by general denials and attacks upon me, which I answered and proved to be false and ridiculous. See Times-Union of Sunday, May 5th; Monday, May 6th, and Tuesday, May 7th, for proof of this.

He forgot to tell the people why he was pulled out of the second Congressional race and put into the race for Congressman-at-Large in order to defeat the people's candidate.

He forgot to tell the people that a few days ago in answer to the questions from organized labor bodies, "Are you in favor of COMPULSORY arbitration?" he replied, "I CERTAINLY AM." When he discovered that organized labor opposed this, he wrote a letter to a prominent organized labor leader, in which he retracted, and said that he signed his answer in Tallahassee when HE WAS VERY TIRED AND WHEN THE LIGHTS IN THE HOTEL WERE VERY BAD. What would happen to such a man if the lights in Washington should go out? (I have the originals of both his answer and his letter which are in harmony with his inability as a man and a candidate. He thus proves himself all things to all men and adds further proof that he is conducting a campaign of misrepresentation.)

Mr. Toomer has not had the manhood to circulate his platform which he wrote last October and WHICH I EXPOSED AS A REPUBLICAN PLATFORM. Instead of this he now tries to fool the people with a declaration contrary to this.

The Democratic people of Florida will not be fooled by the full pocketbook. They will not be fooled by the enormous quantity of literature sent out by men for Toomer who have opposed and is opposing the forward, fighting movement of the Democratic Masses.

In the first primary I beat Toomer 12,374 votes and got 43 1/2 per cent. of all the votes cast, notwithstanding six candidates aspired to this office.

Martin men, Beacham men, O'Brien men and Williamson men, who believe in true Democratic principles, have assured me that they will aid in rebuking the corrupt use of money in Florida politics and are now working TO MAKE MY MAJORITY IN THE SECOND PRIMARY GREATER THAN MY PLURALITY IN THE FIRST.

I have challenged Mr. Toomer to meet me face to face with the people on the stump, where records can be honestly and truthfully discussed, but he prefers to let those putting him up and PUTTING UP FOR HIM, send out letters and literature slandering about me, and which are silent regarding his past bad record and absolutely untrue regarding his political principles.

The people need have no fear about my beating Toomer by an overwhelming majority. Democrats of Florida know what I have been fighting for years. They know that Toomer's financial backers hate me BECAUSE IN ACCORDANCE WITH MY DUTY AS EDITOR OF A FREE NEWSPAPER, I HAVE EXPOSED ALL OF THEIR CROOKEDNESS in politics and SOME of their raw business deals.

Mr. Toomer makes all kinds of promises to fool the turpentine operators in the woods. His backers, with himself, DID FOOL THEM ONCE, when they put money in the Export Company and LOST IT LARGELY THROUGH MR. TOOMER'S MANAGEMENT AS PRESIDENT.

Mr. Toomer can not legitimately promise turpentine men more than I can, as Congressman-at-Large. I will faithfully represent them just as I will the farmer, the business man, and men of every honest profession, trade or craft.

I again thank my thousands of friends in all parts of Florida for the expressions of confidence in me, and I urge them to renewed activity at once in order to give a crushing defeat to the full pocketbook in Florida politics and an overwhelming endorsement to true Democratic principles and of a man who professes them and who has done deeds for their spread and advancement.

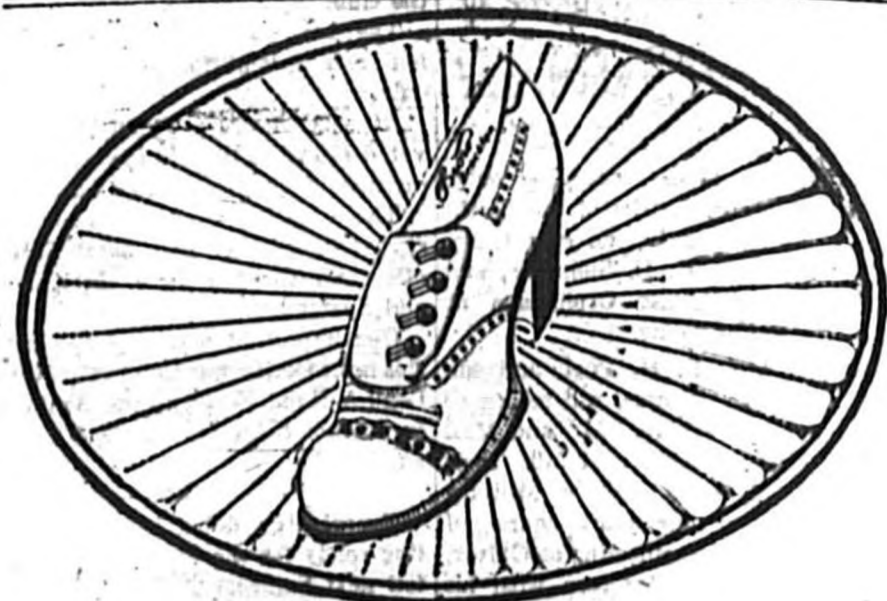

I have not and shall not make any charge against Mr. Toomer which I can not prove. I HAVE ALL FACTS IN MY POSSESSION.

Mr. Toomer has been given an enormous corruption fund and he will doubtless continue to spread his slanders and misrepresentations. So far I have proved the falsity of his charges as fast as he has manufactured them, but I may not be able to keep up with the output of his bureau of fabrication. I therefore warn the people not to believe Toomer's statements about himself or about me.

I have proved all I have said about us both and I ask that Toomer and his backers be required to do the same. Ask any representative in the legislature of my work for measures of general good to the people.

My lead over Mr. Toomer was 128 PER CENT. of the entire vote received by Toomer. Park Trammell's lead over Milton for Governor was 117 PER CENT of the entire vote received by Mr. Milton yet, Mr. Milton gracefully withdraws, CONTENDING THAT A MAN WITH SUCH A LEAD SHOULD NOT BE FORCED INTO A SECOND PRIMARY. The enemies of mine decree otherwise, so let us get busy and show them that the Democratic Masses wish them eliminated from Florida politics.

Very respectfully,
CLAUDE L'ENGLE.

LAUNCH PARTY

A very delightful launch party was enjoyed by a number of young people Thursday evening. The dinner club were entertained by their young gentlemen friends on a delightful boat trip and chicken parleur, at Fort Florida, where the party landed and where the delicious parleur was prepared and enjoyed with rolls, pickles and chocolate. After the picnic supper had been partaken of, amidst the romantic surroundings, the party re-embarked for the homeward trip, arriving safely?

The guests and hosts of the party were: Misses: Emma and Estelle Beard, Madge and Veda Ward, Mabel and Charlotte Hand, Flora M. Johnson, Lillian Gibson, Leila Michaels, Belle Smith, Annie Lee Caldwell; Messrs: R. R. Deas, Roland Wildman, Billie Hill, Braxton Perkins, Archie Betts, Eugene Roumillat, David Caldwell, Mr. Wallace, Mr. Gibson Wideman Caldwell, Tenney Deane; Mesdames: J. W. Dickens and W. J. Perkins.

Editor Woods of the DeLand Register states that his paper is not large enough to hold all the matter as he has six columns of live matter left out every week. This seems to be proof sufficient that he should start a daily and he is seriously considering the same. Just how the six columns left-over will support a daily is not explained by Brq. Woods. Better make her a twice-a-week brother, until you are out of the woods.

OF

CANDIDATE FOR Congressman-at-Large from the State of Florida

PERSONAL HISTORY

He was born in Charleston, South Carolina, Sept. 14th, 1866. His parents died when he was an infant and he was adopted by his aunt, the wife of a farmer, and spent his boyhood in farm work and attending a country school.

With a scholarship gotten for him by a cousin, Rev. A. Toomer Porter, he was educated first at the Porter Military Academy and then at college. After graduation at college, he spent one year at work as a teacher and then upon a civil service examination was appointed a clerk in the Customs Service of the Government, where he worked for eighteen months.

He then moved to Waycross, Georgia, where his only sister lived, and went to work as seal clerk in the railroad yards, then as billing clerk in a warehouse of that company. After about seven months in this service, he was appointed official court reporter of the Brunswick Judicial Circuit, which position he held for five years, during which time he was frequently called to Florida to report important cases.

The second year after his appointment as court reporter, he married at Brunswick, Georgia, and four months thereafter was admitted to the bar. A few years later he was appointed Solicitor General, or Prosecuting Attorney, for the nine counties composing the Brunswick Judicial Circuit, and the duties of this office he discharged with distinction.

In 1890 he was elected to the Georgia Legislature and served two years in that capacity, as a member of the Committee on Judiciary, Ways and Means, and a number of other important committees, including the Steering Committee of seven, which regulated the order of business for the Legislature.

He made a vigorous fight for the reform of the assessment and tax-gathering laws of Georgia, was conspicuous in his opposition to freak legislation of all kinds, and was the author of a number of bills of general effect which are on the statute books of that State and have never been amended or repealed.

In 1896 he formed a law partnership with Mr. J. C. Reynolds, and the firm of Toomer & Reynolds has continued until the present.

He moved his home and business to Jacksonville, Florida, in 1905, and immediately became identified with her business interests, with the development of Florida, and the practice of law, with a limited general clientele which did not include the representation of any of the so-called special interests, but did include the representation of farmers, merchants, manufacturers, and some of the modest business interests of the city and State.

His family, of which he is very proud, consists of a wife and eight children, three girls and five boys.

He is the owner of a good farm in Duval County.

He is a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church and has done a great deal of active work in the building of churches and Young Men's, Christian Associations. He is a member of the Elks, the Odd Fellows and the Knights of Pythias.

He has twice been selected by the United States Government to act as Assistant Attorney General in the trial of important cases; first, in the preparation and trial of the case against the naval stores trust and again in the trial of a case instituted by the Government against the Merchants & Miners' Transportation Company (a steamship company) and two railroads, and a firm of grain shippers in Philadelphia. The Government won these cases.

He has acquired a comfortable home and a modest amount of means and is in every sense an AVERAGE man with some legal and business training; no alignments with large corporations, and thoroughly in touch and in sympathy with the great middle classes and masses of people.

While his name was mentioned by some of the press of the State in connection with the Governorship of this State four years ago, yet, until he sought membership in the United States Congress, he has never asked nor held public office in Florida. He is in no sense an office-seeker, but has the equipment, health, energy, and experience to make a capable representative of this State in the United States Congress.

POLITICAL PRINCIPLES

He favors: The immediate cooperation by the United States Government with the States in establishing and maintaining a system of national highways which shall bear mail, parcels-post, and interstate commerce from the ports into and between the States and interior counties. He is the author of the first published statement in Florida arguing in favor of the constitutional right of the general Government to aid in this work.

He favors: The platform and policy of the Democratic party in immediately revising the tariff DOWNWARD, and especially does he endorse the "farmers' free list" and the schedules now being advocated by the Democratic majority in the National Congress, including the removal of the duty from sugar, and from those manufactured articles which can be made here, shipped to foreign countries, stand the foreign freights, and be sold abroad for less than the domestic price. The Democratic party is committed to a reasonable tariff levied for the purposes of raising the Government's revenues, but there are certainly incidental benefits which flow to our people even from tariff for revenue only, and he favors a fair distribution of these reciprocal benefits so that manufacturing may be done as profitably in Florida as in Massachusetts.

He favors: A capable and vigorous enforcement of the anti-trust laws and demonstrated his position upon this question in the representation of the Government in the successful prosecution of what was perhaps the leading case under the Sherman Anti-Trust Act. Since the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Standard Oil and American Tobacco Government Cases, defining the restraint prohibited by the Act as "undue" or "unreasonable" restraint, the public and the press of the country unite in the statement that the Sherman Anti-Trust law needs amendment or further legislative definition. While this is true, he has been the only one in the public prints to point out the specific amendments required, which are these: first, the striking out of the present punishment prescribed by the Act which is merely as for a misdemeanor, and substitute therefor punishment by imprisonment up to ten years in the penitentiary; second, an amendment to the several provisions in the Act which shall, in terms, provide that the "undue" and "unreasonable" restraints prohibited by that Act are those restraints which accomplish the destruction of competition and the establishment of monopolies by means which violate other laws or which violate settled principles of business morals, and which are in themselves flagrantly dishonest.

He favors: A progressive and aggressive policy and party, but is opposed to ill-considered, experimental legislation which is revolutionary and incapable of being harmonized with our established form of National and State Government.

He believes that it is the public duty of every citizen to register and vote and to take not only an interest in the selection of officers who shall decide what the law is and of officers who shall execute the laws, but special interest in the selection of those men who participate in the making of the law itself. He maintains that great caution should be exercised in law-making, and particularly in the exercise of the Government's right to tax.

He favors: The administration of those national health laws like the national quarantine act by a Department of the Government having at its head a Cabinet Officer with final authority and jurisdiction co-ordinate with other departments of the National Government.

He favors: The inauguration of an active movement to save the millions of money invested in machinery now digging the Panama Canal and utilizing it to cut a ship canal across the peninsula of Florida. He has demonstrated that this is a change which must ultimately be made in the map of the world, and which, upon the completion of the Panama Canal, would save approximately one-third of the commerce of the world a haul of eight hundred miles and enable it to avoid passing through the marine grave yard which lies to the south of the peninsula of Florida.

He favors: The administration of our National laws as applied to Florida by FLORIDIANS WHOSE VIEWPOINT AND TRAINING ARE IN HARMONY WITH OUR LOCAL CONDITIONS.

He favors: The absolute disqualification from participating in Democratic primaries of those candidates who base their claim to membership in the National Congress upon abuse and defamation of their competitors. He is opposed to demagoguery in or out of Congress.

He presents his candidacy to all the people of Florida upon his private and business life and the views which he entertains and has expressed upon questions of real interest to the people.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

Clarence V. T. Richeson's last hope of escaping the death chair next week for the murder of Avis Linnell, of Hyannis, expired when Governor Foss announced that he would not refer Richeson's petition for commutation of sentence to the Executive Council.

The Iowa State Democratic Convention today instructed the twenty-six delegates to the National Convention to vote for Champ Clark under the unit rule.

The jury deliberating the fate of the mountain clans that shot up the court of Carroll County, Virginia, was locked up at 9 o'clock tonight after six and a half hours of consideration of the case. If a verdict is reached tonight it will not be reported until court convenes tomorrow.

A rich haul estimated at from $150,000 to $200,000 was made by masked bandits who Wednesday held up the Quenn & Crescent New York Limited train No. 2, near Oklaola, a flag station eight miles south of Hattiesburg, and blew open the safe of the Southern Express car. Express officials deny tonight that the sum obtained is anything like the latter figure, but declined to make any estimate of the loss.

Charging the system of fixing reclamation in Bremen on cotton shipped from Savannah as "unfair" and unreasonable the Savannah Cotton Exchange has entered a vigorous protest with the Bremen Cotton Exchange by cable.

With approximately 75,000 square miles of Louisiana's farming country inundated by Mississippi River waters and over 5,000 people driven from their homes, the serious crevasse disaster at Hymelia promises to add another thousand square miles or more to the overflowed territory, make homeless thousands of people and add millions of dollars to the property damage done in the State.

After voting to send the State's 18 delegates to the Baltimore convention uninstructed, the South Carolina Democratic State Convention adopted by a vote of 241 to 91 a resolution endorsing Woodrow Wilson. It was remarkable for its brevity: "Resolved, that this convention endorses Woodrow Wilson without instruction." From the minute the convention formed its permanent organization it was apparent that the line of battle had been drawn between those advocating instructions for Wilson, and those favoring an uninstructed delegation. The fight lasted for three hours of five-minute oratory.

At The Methodist Church

The pastor of the Methodist church is delivering a series of Sunday night sermons on some live topics, interesting to the people of Sanford. The sermon last Sunday night was delivered to a large congregation and "Sanford's greatest sin" was dealt with in no uncertain language.

The subject for next Sunday night will be "Sanford's Greatest Needs." Every person in town should hear these discourses and are cordially invited to be present. Come early and secure a seat. Service begins promptly at 7:30.

Frank Miller Honored Again

Frank Miller has returned from Jacksonville, where he attended the annual meet of the Undertakers' and Embalmers' Association. Mr. Miller is a most enthusiastic member of the association and for several years has held the position of secretary. As proof of the assertion that he is the man for the position Mr. Miller was again honored by being elected for the third term. The members all enjoyed the meeting and were shown every courtesy by the Jacksonville people, several trips being planned for their entertainment.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK AT SANFORD HIGH SCHOOL

The commencement season at the Sanford High School is an event of so much importance that many people come to the city to attend all the exercises, and the commencement has assumed the importance of a college commencement.

The season of 1912 opened last Monday night with the recital given by Mrs. Munson's pupils, and will close tonight with the graduating exercises. Following are the events as they occurred, the Junior reception and graduation appear in Tuesday's issue.

Mrs. Munson's Recital

From past expectation and realization the Sanford people know that Mrs. Munson's recitals are always musical gems, and the recital of Monday evening in the auditorium of the Sanford High School given by Mrs. Munson's piano pupils, assisted by Mr. W. Clay Inman of Rollins College, Winter Park, was no exception to the established rule, but was fully up to the standard of excellence of selection and proficiency of execution by each and every one who assisted in making the splendid program such a delightful success. Sanford is very proud of her musical talent and is always pleased when the opportunity presents itself to render homage to the large number of musicians in her midst, whose genius and proficiency have so often contributed to their pleasure.

Mr. Inman is not unknown to Sanford music lovers, his enviable gift of song and grand voice having sung their way into their hearts and appreciation on other occasions as well as on Monday evening. His voice has been truly described as a beautifully rich, big baritone. With the oneness in harmony and sympathetic interpretation of the spirit of the songs by the accompanist, Miss Ward, the pleasure given by Mr. Inman's selections and generous encores, could not fail to be enjoyed by the large and appreciative audience which filled the auditorium. Space will not permit individual mention of each performer of the instrumental selections on the program, which is given in full, as each and every one have on several occasions filled the hearts of their listeners with pride and delight, and Monday evening's performance is but added leaves to their laurel wreath of success.

"The Time of His Life"

The very entertaining three act play, given by the Irving Literary and Debating Societies in the High School in the auditorium of the school Tuesday evening was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by the large audience who annually witness the histrionic efforts of the school literary societies.

The amusing domestic scene and problem was enacted in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grey, while Mr. Grey was away from home on a business trip. Grey's kind hearted, fun loving brother, Tom, is staying with his sister during her husband's absence. The servants have requested an evening off, which has been granted and Mrs. Grey and her brother are expecting to have a pick-up dinner. The house is in utter confusion, owing to the work of paper hangers and painters.

The evening's mail brings letters announcing the arrival of guests for dinner, and also the arrival of Mr. Grey later in the evening.

Act I Dining room in the Grey house about four o'clock p. m. Act II Same as first act one hour later Act III Library at two o'clock a. m. the same night.

Personnel of play: Mr. Robert Grey—Tenney Deane. Mrs. Bob Grey—Miss Ruth Stewart. Tom Carter, Mrs. Grey's brother—Clarence Mahoney. Mrs. Peter Wycomb, "a personage" Miss Hoskins Jones. Mr. Peter Wycomb, "a pessimist with a digestive" George McLaughlin. Dorothy Landon, secretly engaged to Tom Carter. Miss Lillian Higgins. Mr. James Landon, Dorothy's father of a peppery disposition. Wallace Crosby. Mr. James Landon, Dorothy's father of a peppery disposition. Wallace Crosby.

Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south. Robert McKim.

Officer Hogan, of the 22nd street police station.

Mrs. Grey is so distressed at the embarrassing dilemma in which she is placed that her kind hearted, fun loving brother suggests that they order the dinner from a restaurant and that he will disguise himself as Uncle Tom and serve the dinner, which could have probably been carried out as planned, but for the unexpected arrival of Dorothy Landon, who was an old schoolmate of Mrs. Grey's with her aunt, Mrs. Wycomb, and her husband, the unexpected guests for dinner. While the dinner was being served by Tom Carter, disguised as Uncle Tom, who looks upon the affair as a jolly lark and "The Time of His Life," the butler returns, and seeing as he thought, his double, leaves the house in a panic. The unexpected appearance and behavior of the two butlers is such a shock to Mr. Wycomb's weak heart that he has to be put to bed. Tom Carter vows that he will give up his job, but is persuaded by his sister to wait until the butler returns. She also promises to tell Dorothy the state of affairs, which in a rather strange way complicates the situation still further. Tom Carter asks the aid of the police to find Uncle Tom, and when they fail, starts out one in the morning to hunt for him, and is himself arrested, as he answers the description of the colored butler. Uncle Tom, who has a key, slips back to get his money and clothes. Mr. Wycomb thinking that he hears burglars investigates and finds the remainder of the dinner, which he makes preparations to enjoy in the library, where Uncle Tom has fallen asleep. While Mr. Wycomb is looking for more burglars, Mr. Grey, accompanied by Mr. Landon arrives and while he has gone to waken his wife Mr. Landon falls asleep in his chair. Mr. Wycomb returns to his lunch and finds as he supposes a burglar asleep. He makes Uncle Tom tie him in his chair.

The indignation of Mr. Landon brings the awakened household on the scene and while explanations are being made the policeman arrives with Tom Carter, the other Uncle Tom. The entire play was a succession of amusing situations and startling climaxes. Each character was splendidly sustained throughout by the young actors, who are to be congratulated on their very great success and the entertainment afforded the audience.

To say that the very large and certainly appreciative audience who witnessed the very fine presentation of the play given by the Irving Literary and Debating Societies of the Sanford High School in the auditorium of the school Tuesday evening was pleased, is putting it mildly—they were highly entertained and thoroughly enjoyed the many dramatic situations and startling climaxes which seemed to be continually presenting themselves, to the utter confusion of the inmates of the Grey home, who certainly were the playmates of fate for one evening. The three acts of the play were replete with interest all the way through. Each actor sustained their roll most creditably and naturally.

As Mrs. Grey, mistress of the house, Miss Ruth Stewart, was the helpless, dependent and anxious housekeeper and wife to perfection, in her seeming inability to cope with the domestic problem presenting itself during a house repairing and renovating occasion; the absence of the servants, and unexpected arrival of guests, who were rather peculiar.

Clarence Mahoney, as Tom Carter, the fun loving brother of Mrs. Grey, whose foolishness nearly killed Uncle Tom, the colored butler from the south, was indeed an ideal brother, in his appreciation of the domestic dilemma, in which his sister found herself. He was willing to immolate himself on the altar of self sacrifice, while deluding himself with the thought that he was going to have in personating Uncle Tom, "The Time of His Life."

Miss Hoskins Jones, as Mrs. Wycomb, the traveled aristocrat from the south, and the patient, long suffering wife of Mr. Peter Wycombe, was most excellent in her interpretation of the character she personated.

George McLaughlin, as Mr. Peter Wycombe, was so perfectly true to the requirements of the role that he may perhaps have to remain a bachelor the remainder of his life if he continues to live in Sanford, where the girls have only to remember Mr. Peter Wycombe and how well George can be a pessimist with a digestion.

Dorothy Landon, as personated by Miss Lillian Higgins, was dainty, charming and lovable. The audience deeply sympathized with Tom Carter in the web which fate seemed to be weaving around him, in the unexpected presence of his fiancée, Dorothy Landon, when he was disguised as the colored butler.

Walter Crosby as Mr. Landon, Dorothy's father, had very pronounced views concerning the husband he would choose for his daughter, although he too has one amenable to reason and the exigencies of the situation.

Uncle Tom, the colored butler from the south was made to live again in the realistic presentation of Robert McKim; in fact both Uncle Toms were a credit to the genuine old time family servant.

Officer Hogan could not possibly have been more keenly "on his job" than the parlance of the day, than was Harold Long, who knew so well what to do with a dusky cop at 2 a. m. The amateurs who gave themselves to the pleasure and entertainment of others Tuesday evening are certainly to be congratulated on their very great success.

SANFORD'S NEW DEPOT

Work of Staking Out The New Structure Starts This Week.

Sanford's new depot is an assured fact and while it has been settled for some time that the new structure would be built, the actual work began this week when the staking out commenced. The surveyors have been busy for some time running lines and getting the preliminary work in shape. The new depot will be built about where the old hospital formerly stood on the main line and will cost about $28,000 or more. The new station will cause a building boom in that section and already activity in the real estate line has commenced, several new houses being contracted and many lots sold. A new hotel will be erected and also a fine railroad eating house and restaurant will be built.

Bitten By A Horse.

The young son of Will Humphreys was badly bitten by a horse yesterday. While riding after cattle a horse ridden by his brother reached over to bite the horse of young Humphreys and caught him by the leg taking out a large piece of flesh. He was hurried to the office of Dr. Robinson where he received medical attention but the lad is very badly injured and the physicians have grave doubts of his entire recovery from the injury.

OVIEDO BANK OPENED

Event Is Celebrated By Picnic And Barbecue

POLITICS IN CENTRE OF STAGE

Special Trains Carried Large Crowds And Most Enjoyable Day Was Spent By All

Wednesday was "Red Letter" day for Oveido and this beautiful little city drew one of the largest crowds to her friendly bosom that has ever congregated in any city in the county outside of the larger cities—drew them to her and treated them as a fond mother might treat them and all the good things that the full larder can supply for the delectation of the inner man were given with a lavish hospitality that is synonymous with the name of Oveido. We do not remember the interpretation of the name, Oveido, but it ought to mean, Lady Bountiful.

Despite the lowering clouds of the early hours the Sanford people chartered a special train and everybody went to Oveido that could get away. An invitation to come to Oveido is never turned down by anyone from Sanford because we know that next to Sanford we would rather be in Oveido.

The crowds came from everywhere, Orlando people coming by autos and by the Seaboard and all the country round about furnished a full quota.

The occasion was the opening of the Oveido bank, a beautiful structure of brick and marble and tiling consisting of the bank proper and a directors room and a vault equipped with all the latest improved safeguards against fire and burglars and presided over by Cashier Sessions, an affable gentleman who exuded the true Oveido spirit and made everybody welcome.

The bank opening was the real excuse for the large gathering but politics rather overshadowed the principal feature and captured the interest of the crowd. The morning was given over to the Sheriff's race and both Hand and Kirkwood gave the people a heart to heart talk the first explaining the need of the office on account of his large family and the latter on account of the fact that he wanted to get married and have a family. By the time the Sheriff candidates had wpt sufficiently the special trains had arrived and the object of every one present seemed to be a race for the tables to see who could eat the most. And it was there for them for seldom before has there been such a quantity of barbecued meat and fried chicken flanked by all the trimmings placed upon one table. It was there by the carload and a stranger to Orange county present must have thought he was in the "promised land." After everyone had sufficiently gorged, being attended by the good ladies who insisted on heaping up the plates, Hon. J. H. Lee called the crowd to order and introduced Hon. Forrest Lake who thanked the people for their support in his race for the Legislature. He was followed by Jos. H. Guernsey of Orlando who in his usual cheerful vein introduced Hon. Frank Clark, candidate for Congress.

Lack of space forbids a detailed report of Mr. Clark's speech as it does that of Hon. S. J. Hilburn who followed him and who is a candidate for Clark's job. Suffice to say that Clark made a fair-minded appeal to the voters and made votes while Hilburn's main talk was vituperation of Clark that reacted in Clark's favor. As the readers have already made up their minds and are heartily tired of politics the subject will be tabooed in this article.

The occasion of the barbecue at Oveido will long linger in the minds of the people who were present. It was one of the rays of sunshine that help to lighten our darkened way down the narrow path of life. To get out in the open and mingle with the big hearted people of East Orange always gives one the true conception of the biblical phrase, "love thy neighbor as thyself." One of the redeeming features of a political campaign is a barbecue and picnic and when dreading the approach of another spasm of the same we will be cheered by the thought that maybe Oveido will have another barbecue and bank opening and we will have an opportunity of being present.
