COSTE AND PAL ARE REPORTED FOUND IN CHINA

French Flyers Said
To Have Landed In
Manchurian Town;
May Have Set Record

PARIS, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Captain Deudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte, famous French airmen given up for lost in a sensational attempt to shatter all non-stop distance flight records, landed at Kowchinan, a tiny village near Taishai-Bar, Manchuria, a dispatch from Harbin revealed today.

If the dispatch is true and the fliers safe, it means that they have broken the existing distance record by more than 400 miles.

In addition to the dispatch from Taishai-Bar, the French ministry has received an unofficial communication in which the fliers were quoted as saying they landed at 3 P. M. yesterday.

There obviously is some miscalculation in time, or else the landing in Manchuria was not made after a direct non-stop flight from Paris. The return took off from Le Bourget on field a week ago yesterday and on the following Sunday were reported sighted some distance from Irkutsk, Siberia.

There is a possibility the message was sent by the fliers some days ago and was badly delayed in transmission. Their plane, the "Gustave Malib" was not equipped with a radio set.

The air ministry confessed it will unable to understand the message, and took immediate steps to verify it.

Coste and Bellonte failed in an attempt to fly the Atlantic several times, and finally turned back to Europe when caught in a violent storm over the Azores. Both are well-known war aces.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Dispatches from Osaka, Japan, to the evening newspaper here today state that the French fliers Coste and Bellonte have landed at the village of Kowchinan, near Taishai-Bar. There are no details.

Charge Of Drunken Driving Results In $100 Fine For Youth

HAROLD WHITE, prominent Sanford youth, yesterday drew a fine of $200 in Municipal Court on a charge of driving an automobile while in an intoxicated condition.

The fine was assessed by Judge James G. Sharpen, presiding because of the disqualification of Judge W. E. White, brother of the young man. Judge Sharpen suspended $100 of the fine upon the future good behavior of White.

In the regular session of court held yesterday morning, Brinston Hayes, also charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor, was fined $200, with $100 being knocked off for good behavior.

Several cases were docketed for violation of the city "stop" law. B. J. Overstreet, E. S. Higley, Charles Burke, A. B. Mahoney, A. C. Lamb, Mrs. P. L. Weber and Cleveland Alexander were each fined $10. The cases of Mrs. J. E. Taylor, Charles Burke and Mrs. W. J. Thigpen, were continued.

Cases against Wilbur Daniels, George Adams and Jessie Wilson for disorderly conduct were dismissed, while Lyle Daniel and Maggie Brown drew $10, fined on the same charge. Speeding charges cost Roy Coleman and H. W. Davis $7 each. A $10 bond was extracted by C. A. Donegan for drunkenness.

Mrs. Gene Tunney Submits To Appendicitis Operation In Sanitarium At Berlin

BERLIN, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Miss James J. (Gene) Tunney, wife of the former heavyweight champion of the world, underwent an operation for appendicitis here today. The operation was entirely successful.

The operation was performed at the clinic of Dr. Jason A. Meyer, the famous German surgeon who saved Mrs. Tunney's life when she was close to death from an abdominal abscess on Brienz Island in the Adirondack Spring.

"The operation lasted half an hour and was a full success," the physician said. "Mrs. Tunney's appendix was removed because of its condition due to the disease. The operation proceeded normally and there were no complications whatever."

Tunney left his wife at the clinic last night and returned to her home this morning.

11 TO 12 DEATHS IN PRISON REVOLT LAID TO LEADER

Four Separate Investigations Are Started In Daring Outbreak

CANON CITY, Colo., Oct. 5—(INS)—A roll of salutes and cyan traces of tear gas still hung over this city today with the passing excitement and horror over the brutal slaying of guards and inmates during an orgy of bloodshed unprecedented in the history of western penal institutions.

The death toll of the bloody state penitentiary now stood at 12—seven guards and five inmates. A score were suffering from wounds and injuries sustained during the 17 hour riot precipitated by Daryl Daniels, arch-slayer, in his desperate attempt to escape, along with four other companion.

It was definitely established today that Daniels caused 11 of the 12 deaths. Three guards were killed in the early rioting and Daniels, who had already slain two guards, shooting them down in cold blood within the prison walls, then at a "snare" shot his victim Jimmy Pardus, who had been injured, shot down three of his own followers, and committed suicide in the yard.

Changes of clothing and relatives against the inmates in connection with the riot are expected to be aired at the close of the present hearing. The second witness who had been injured, shot down three of his own followers, and committed suicide in the yard, signed on the front of his shirt.

The property damage from the machine gun and rifle bullets and dynamite was fixed at $600,000. One prisoner, unidentified, is said to have been trying to make his way out of the prison walls. John Jones was one of the five strikers killed.

Four separate investigations to the outside took place and resulted in great bloodshed.

Under cross examination the witness named a number of strikers he said were present at the plant when the fighting began.

Stewart said a Mr. Hunt, a mill foreman, came to the gate and asked workers to "come in and go to work."

Stewart was unable to say who killed Jones, but he declared he saw W. A. Fender, Robert Ward, R. L. Hodges, Bill Blaggs, staff, all deputies or agents of officers, and Sheriff Atkins shoot.

Stewart said he did not see or hear shots fired from the group of strikers.

Under cross examination the witness named a number of strikers he said were present at the plant when the fighting began.

Stewart admitted that he had been "picketed" from the plant on May 7, but declares he was called for picket duty on the night preceding the clash because he was a "union man."

"I was there on the picket lines to keep non-union workers out of the mill," he said.

The witness said he had been informed by union leaders that the strikers had a right to congregate, picket and keep workers from entering the mill.

"The union supports me," Stewart said, "and as soon as I am through testifying I am going back to the picket line."

The witness reluctantly admitted that a blood-stained stick introduced by the defense was his. He denied wielding it in the fight and claimed that he carried it to knock down weeds.

Explaining the "blood stains" Stewart said "I dropped the stick on the ground and a deputy sheriff picked it up."

Mrs. Leslie Hyatt was the first witness called today. She testified that she saw several officers at the plant shortly before the battle. She was unable to give any details of the clash, however, as she declared the flag at the first shot.
