 hind public sentiment. . . In a speech at a forum sponsored by Ford Hall, Dr. Potter said: "We maintain that what is morally right, should be made legally right, or else all respect for law will be gone. . . Catholic priest, the Rev. Michael J. Ahern, S. J., science professor at Weston, Mass., college, is scheduled to speak against euthanasia from the same platform next Sunday. . . In London, the newspaper Empire News quoted an unnamed British doctor yesterday as saying he performed the "mercy killing" of three patients, whose cases he considered hopeless. . . The article, printed under the title: "Why I Let Three People Die," was one of the many examples of Britain's interest in the case of Dr. Hermann N. Sander of New Hampshire, accused of putting a cancer patient to death to end her suffering. . . The Empire News, Sunday publication of Lord Kemsley's newspaper chain, said it did not necessarily agree with the British doctor's opinions, but published them as a matter of vital public interest. . . The writer, whose name was not disclosed, said he deliberately had taken three human lives "in the ordinary course of my professional practice, twice with the approval of the nearest relative, and once on his own responsibility. . . I have never for one moment doubted the what I did was right," he said. He added that this was typical of what "many medical men in this country" think about euthanasia, or mercy killing. . . He cited the three cases as a 75-year-old man with incurable cancer, a woman in her sixties suffering a rare, incurable ailment and a newborn baby "so grotesquely malformed that its only life, if it survived infancy, would be in the seclusion of an institution."

City Commission To Hold Election On Stadium Issue

People To Vote On Whether To Build Stadium, And How To Finance Work

A referendum will be held, Tuesday, Feb. 21 to decide two issues upon which the fate of the proposed athletic stadium will hang, the City Commission decided last night following a two hour session in which many of the citizens who jammed the City Hall, voiced opinions regarding the project and its financing.

The two issues to be voted upon, said City Manager Clifford McKibbin this morning are: "Should the City enter into a 30 year franchise with the Florida Power and Light Co., which carries a six percent tax of gross revenues from residential and commercial users, less locally imposed taxes on the Company's property?" This should bring in $18,000 minus the $6,000 locally imposed tax, and should net the City $12,000 in annual revenue, he declared.

Responsibilities Are Outlined To Rotary Members

Mortimer MacDonald Ex-district Governor, Talks To Club

"Management's Responsibilities" were outlined to the Rotary club at its luncheon Monday by Mortimer MacDonald, former district governor of Rotary and resident of DeLand. He said that his talk, in substance, was a resume of the book, "Service Is My Business," which he recommended that all businessmen should read.

He was introduced by President George Truhy who welcomed the club to the club as a new member. Jack Ratigan reported that the Rotary Club had raised $107,211 for the Salvation Army on the day it operated the dime boards, and R. E. True reported that the Rotary Student Loan Fund had lent $12,926.23 to deserving students, and had been repaid $10,659.85 of this amount.

Mine Walkouts Reach 57,000; Lewis Scored

Increasing Number Of Miners Quit Work; Senators To Probe UMW 3-Day-Week

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10. — The Senate Banking Committee sharply denounced John L. Lewis' three-day mine week today and asked for a study to determine whether the anti-trust laws should be applied to labor unions. The committee approved, 10 to 9, a report charging that Lewis' United Mine Workers union "took it upon themselves to usurp the Congress' exclusive right to legislate on production and price controls." The report, covering an investigation of coal industry operations which the committee made last summer, also declared that the Lewis order imposing a three-day work week is "the very antithesis of collective bargaining."

Gay Reveals Tax Receipts Aren't Enough

Comptroller Finds Sales Tax Collectors Won't Cover Appropriations

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 10. — (AP) — Comptroller J. M. Gay said today the last month's state tax receipts indicate the state won't be able to meet more than 90 percent of the 1930 legislative appropriation.

He reported to the cabinet that November state tax collection totaled $20,000,000, almost exactly the $20,000,000 he had estimated in advance.

The end December collections were beginning to come in should amount to about $40,000,000. Expenditures for January, February and March would be even higher.

The comptroller said he is studying to be assured estimates that the state tax will produce $30,000,000 in 1930.

A 1929-30 report of the U. S. Treasury department shows that the state's total tax receipts for 1929 were $20,000,000, or 80 percent of the total cost of the state's operations.

He said the state's total tax receipts for 1930 will be about $20,000,000, or 80 percent of the total cost of the state's operations.

Military Action To Dominate Debate Hays Asks U. S. Ship

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10. — (AP) — Rep. Hays today called for military action to dominate the debate on the proposed shipping bill. He said the bill would be a "shameful surrender" to the Chinese Nationalist blockade of Formosa. Hays said that a shipping bill would be a "shameful surrender" to the Chinese Nationalist blockade of Formosa.

The second issue to be decided by the referendum is: "Should the City build a baseball-football stadium in accordance with the suggestions of the Stadium Authority, and finance it with the aid of the 6 percent tax on the Florida and Light Company franchise?"

Mr. McKibbin explained further that "although the company's present franchise has nine years to go, the 6 percent tax would go into effect immediately upon granting the 80 year franchise."

City Attorney A. Edwin Shibley, advised that a resolution could be adopted on the issue regardless of whether they own property or not. He also advised that the State would not allow use of city funds for the stadium financing.

The Commission also adopted the resolution previously passed by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, containing stipulations for RFC purchase of $500,000 in bonds for the proposed Lakefront Terminal Project.

No action was taken, said Mr. McKibbin, on a resolution introduced by Commissioner W. H. Stempier which would require contracts be secured from shippers for 50,000 tons a year, for five years, for slipping through the terminal.

Mayor Andrew Carraway pointed out that the City would not be liable for the cost of the stadium.

City Referendum

ed out that according to a survey by William C. Hutchinson traffic expert, much greater annual tonnage than 50,000 tons could be expected at the terminal if lower combined total freight rates for truck and water transportation are effected.

The Commission followed the similar action of the County Commission, in effect, that whereas numerous complaints had been received from Sanford citizens and customers of the Southern Bell Telephone Co. regarding the service, that the Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission be requested to hold a public hearing in Sanford to determine what improvements can be made in the service.

At the start of the meeting, before a group of citizens who jammed the room, Mayor Carroll pointed out that Mr. Shindler had advised that the anticipated $75,000 per year revenue from the State cigarette tax could not be considered as a possible revenue source for financing the stadium.

Mrs. Eleanor Ravenel protested carrying of a warrant by a policeman to have her sidewalk repaired, pointed out that when the trees in front of her home were trimmed, she was informed they were city property, and objected to sidewalk repairs due to raising of the walk by roots of city owned trees.

The City Charter states that property owners are responsible for condition of sidewalks, and that the Chief of Police serve notices to have them repaired, said Mr. McKibbin. In March a display order was run for a week in this regard, stating that the City contemplated a sidewalk repair program, and asking that citizens cooperate to avoid having notices served to them, he pointed out.

Among the citizens who voted against the plan and on the stadium project and financing were Frank Miller, William Kuder, Ernest Howholder, Karlisle Howholder, chairman of the Stadium Authority, Floyd Palmer, John Stenstrom, Sam Martin, G. Spooner and Alvin Odham.

Michigan Edges Indiana Cagers By 69-67 Score

Last Second Goal By Wolferine's Murray Is Decisive Score

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—(AP)—A tip-in goal by Michigan's Charles Murray as the gun bang dropped Indiana from the undefeated ranks in last night's college basketball thriller.

The 69-67 Hoosier led the game after 10 straight victories. Indiana is ranked fourth nationally in this week's Associated Press poll. Michigan (8-3) isn't rated among the top 20.

Murray tallied 17 points and his teammate, Mack Supunowicz, 18, to lead the scoring.

Indiana's loss leaves only fifth-ranked Holy Cross (11) and eighth-rated Georgetown (9) undefeated in the top 20.

At Lexington, the Kentucky Wildcats triumphed North Carolina, 83-41, for their ninth victory against the Hoosiers. The second-ranked Wildcats had it easy all the way.

Oklahoma (6-7) reversed the result of the Big Seven conference tournament championship game in whipping Missouri, 41-36. It was the first "reversal" against two straight victories.

Bradley won its 12th game in 14 starts by whipping Georgetown of Kentucky, 79-79.

The Braves ran away from North Carolina (8-2) in a doubleheader at the Chicago Stadium.

Northwestern split 11th-ranked Minnesota, 60-61, and the Hoosiers defeated the Paul, 79-62. It was Minnesota's second loss against a top 20 foe and dropped the Paul below the 500 mark.

Wynning (13-1) defeated a rival for the first time in 10 games in taking Utah (10-7) by 27-19.

The trailing Loyola of Chicago (5-7) beat Syracuse (7-3) in a doubleheader at 7:09 p.m. Illinois (10-1) beat the Big Ten champion, 69-57. Last conference victory dropping Purdue (1-6) to 5-4.

Wake Forest upset Tennessee, 69-62. It was the Deacons' third victory in 12 starts. The Southeastern conference leader now has a 6-5 record.

Louisiana State (10-3) edged Loyola of New Orleans, 41-41.

Western Kentucky (8-3) continued its comeback against Xavier, 62-54.

Tournament fixtures include CONY vs. West Virginia and Long Island U. vs. St. Louis in Madison Square Garden, Cincinnati at Duquesne, North Carolina State at Davidson, Dayton at Ohio, Georgetown at Wake Forest, Kansas at Nebraska and Santa Clara at San Francisco.

Travelin' Travis Tidwell To Coach Auburn Backfield

Auburn's Great Backfield Star, Says He Has Accepted A Job As Assistant Backfield Coach At Auburn

AUBURN, Ala., Jan. 10.—(AP)—Travis Tidwell, Auburn's great backfield star, says he has accepted a job as assistant backfield coach at Auburn.

He told Touchdown Club at Madison, Ga., of his new assignment last night, after announcing earlier that he had decided against a career in professional football.

Tidwell, voted the Southeastern Conference's most valuable player this year, said he also is interested in continuing as a radio sports-caster.

He broadcast all of Auburn's basketball games and several freshman football contests for a local station the last three years.

In addition to the SEC award, Travelin' Travis was named the outstanding player of the post-season Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl games.

He has received trophies from quarterback clubs in Atlanta, Birmingham and Nashville.

Tidwell, a triple-threater, is from Birmingham.

He appeared as a special guest at the fourth annual banquet of the Maccu club, Edgar E. (Rip) Miller, assistant athletic director at the United States Naval Academy and former Notre Dame tackle, was the featured speaker.

Barber Retains 2-Stroke Lead Over Ben Hogan

Final Round Today In $15,000 Los Angeles Open Golf Tourney

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Ben Hogan, the erstwhile cripple, may be within a couple of short putts today of his greatest triumph.

If he makes it, a lot of fans will call it the No. 1 comeback of all time.

But if little Jerry Barber is his victim that rainstorm Sunday may prove the costliest of his or any other golf pro's careers.

As the field takes off in the final round of the $15,000 Los Angeles Open, the tendency is to assume that Hogan will win it.

His comeback has so far gone from that Texas highway crash, that nothing seems impossible.

But he, and his loudly loyal gallery, may be reckoning without a craftsman almost as cool as Ben Hogan himself.

Barber already has seen a rabbit in his richest of winter tournaments washed into the nearby Pacific, yet he has bounced back to shoot even better golf.

The 140-pound golf glove salesman from Pasadena put a one-over-par 72 with his previous 69-68 yesterday to take a two-stroke lead in the tourney at 209. Hogan, who was tied for 16th after the first round, carded his second successive 69 to wind up only two strokes back.

You could get all sorts of arguments in the locker room and grill at Riviera country club last night over whether Hogan, who was feared hopelessly crippled less than a year ago, can do it. Most of the players think he can. Fair weather is forecast and Hogan reports he's feeling good. He has carried him this far and there seems no reason why they can't go another 18 holes.

For Barber, the picture has changed a lot since Saturday. Then he was two strokes ahead, but his nearest competitor was Henry Hanson, another virtual unknown.

"Come Sunday, almost swimming, he shot a two-over-par 73 while the rest of the field floundered so badly that only one par was turned in. A lot of the entrants quit, but were given another chance when the rules committee, after long debate, ruled the course unplayable and sponged Barber's 210 off the scoreboard.

At that stage, his nearest competitor, fellow Pasadena resident Vines, was 10 strokes back. Hogan didn't finish, but he was trailing Barber by nine strokes when the cancellation came.

Put together Barber's first four rounds, including the one that does not count, and he has a 69-68-73-72-282. The open's winning average, in the eight of its 21 years that it has been played over the hilly Riviera course, has been 281.12. So you see how costly that rainstorm may be if he can't hold the pace today.

At 212, only a stroke back of Hogan, is young Jack Burke, of White Plains, N. Y., son of one of the pro masters of the twenties.

Vines, never as great a golfer as he was a tennis player, but always threatening, is alone at 213. At 214 are Sam Snead and Henry Hanson, who won the Seminoles, Fla., individual and Wilmington, Del., open tournaments last year.

Billiard Champion To Give Exhibition At Monk's Parlor

Jimmy Caras of Upper Darby, Pa., Three Times Champion of the World at Pocket Billiards, Will Give an Exhibition of His Cue Skill at Monk's Billiard Parlor, Wednesday Night at 8:00 P.M.

Caras will devote his show to a demonstration of pocket billiard fundamentals, designed to show the beginner how to approach the game, open his eye of trick shots, and amaze his audience with his feat of pocketing rolling balls.

His first broke into the sport, spotlight as a lad of 17, when he downed the mighty Ralph Greenleaf in an exhibition match, causing the nation's sportswriters to immediately dub him the "boy wonder."

He lived up to his advance press notices, too, by carrying on to win the world's title in tournament play in 1930, and downing the wily Edwin Randolph in a challenge match following the tournament.

Jimmy came back again in 1938 to blast his way to the title for the second time. He then beat back the challenge of Andrew Ponzl in a special match, at a time when Ponzl was at the top of his game. In 1949 he won the National and World Tourneys, the first player to perform this feat in the history of the game.

His appearance here will demonstrate the type of cue play that carried him to these crowns. In addition, his audience will discover that Jimmy is a likable chap, more than willing to help with tips to better pocket billiard performances.

Exterminator's Successor May Be 5-Year-Old Gelding

MIAMI, Jan. 10.—Another Exterminator? Will Knapp, who rode Old Bones and later owned a horse named Three Kings, says he has developed a keen admiration for the 5-year-old Blue Larkspur gelding, and it is not at all strange that he finds many points of comparison with Exterminator.

"I don't recall," explains Knapp, "Exterminator originally was a workhorse for Sun Brin. He was brought to Louisville in 1918 by his owner, Willie Sharp, Kilmor, who lives on that kind of farm." "Sun Brin didn't get to the post and Exterminator was sent in just so Kilmor could have his colors in the 1925. Exterminator, the longest price on the board, won the Derby."

"Three Kings is also a workhorse," continued Knapp. "He must be worked every day and goes about his training as though every exercise is an actual race. He thrives on that kind of treatment and I don't intend to change it."

AUBURN PICKS CAPTAINS
AUBURN, Ala., Jan. 10.—(AP)—Auburn's football squad has elected Jim McCowen, 187-pound back from Empire, Ala., as captain of the 1950 Tigers.

Virgil Willett, 188-pound end from Tallahassee, was chosen alternate captain at the meeting yesterday. Both will be seniors next season.

Jim is the second McCowen to captain in Auburn team. Brother Dick, now on the coaching staff here, former national champion punter and all-SEC performer, led the Plainsmen in 1940.

NCAA Meet Will See Fireworks Over Sanitary Code

Karl Leib Issues Orders Of 'Comply Or Leave The League'

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—(AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association opened its annual meeting here today, confronted with a "sanitary code" issue that threatened a major rift in the organization.

Karl E. Leib, president of the NCAA, issued a preliminary blast on the controversial question. He suggested that schools that can't comply with the code get out of big time football.

Several southern schools, including the University of Virginia, promise a battle to the finish on the two-year-old code which sharply restricts subsidization of athletes.

Leib, onetime faculty adviser on athletics at the University of Iowa, said more than 20 schools admitted last summer that they had failed to comply with the code. He said, however, that 14 of them promised to behave, and were put on probation.

"Seven schools have openly said they can't comply and don't intend to," Leib declared.

The NCAA never has disclosed the seven schools, but four are known. They are Virginia Tech, Virginia Military, The Citadel, and Virginia.

"Although the code is by no means perfect," Leib said, "I think it can be made to work. It's up to the various school executives to make their institutions obey."

"The failure of any school to meet the code's requirements can be laid directly at the university president's door because in reality he alone is responsible."

A special compliance committee which has investigated the schools is expected to bring its report before the NCAA executive committee tomorrow.

If the executive committee approves a motion to expel the colleges from the NCAA, it must be approved by a vote of two-thirds of the delegates at a general session Saturday. The NCAA constitution prohibits naming the seven culprits until Saturday.

Expulsion would mean the schools could not play NCAA members in any sport.

The NCAA is composed of 279

Veteran Sid Abel Leads Scoring Race In Hockey League

MONTREAL, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Veteran Sid Abel of the Detroit Red Wings has moved within two points of teammate Ted Lindsay, who leads the National Hockey League scoring race for the ninth consecutive week.

Official statistics released today disclosed the 32-year-old Abel, playing his 10th season in the NHL, scored four points during the week to bring his total to 40 in 26 games.

Playing the same number of contests, Lindsay has scored 17 goals and 25 assists for his leading 42 points.

Third place was split among four players, all with 34 markers. They were Roy Conacher and Doug Bentley of Chicago, Maurice Richard of Montreal and Paul Hootby of Boston.

Although he escaped serving time in the penalty box during last week, Gus Morison of Toronto still continued in the dubious role of the league's bad man with 30 minutes in the cooler.

Bill Duran of Montreal, five-time winner of the Vezina trophy, still led the goalenders with a 2.14 average on 79 goals allowed in 39 games.

St. John's Of Brooklyn Rated Tops In Cage League Despite Loss

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—(AP)—St. John's of Brooklyn, despite its two-point defeat by City College, continued to reign today as the top college basketball team in the nation in the Associated Press' weekly poll.

Their 12-game winning streak halted by their intricacy rivals, the Brooklyn Redmen bounced back to overwhelm St. Joseph's of Philadelphia last Saturday, 76-58, to gain the nod in a tight five-team race for top honors.

St. John's (13-1) received 20 first place votes from a nationwide panel of 122 sports writers and sports-casters to edge out Kentucky's once-beaten Wildcats for the second straight week. The Redmen's margin was a slim 68 points.

A first place vote was counted ten points, second place nine, third place, eight, and so on down the line.

Third place went to Long Island University despite the fact that the Blackbirds' 30 first place ballots, the most drawn by any team. The skyscraping Long Islanders (11-1) received 820 points to fall 51 points behind Kentucky. The Wildcats (8-1), with 21 first-place nominations, drew 29 second place votes to only 10 for Long Island to gain the runner-up position.

Indiana (10-0) rated the best in the Big Ten, and Holy Cross and other unbeaten outfit with 11 victories, took fourth and fifth positions, respectively. The Hoosiers received 18 first place votes to 19 for the Crusaders. Indiana picked up 765 points to 792 for Holy Cross.

Sixth place went to Bradley (11-2). The Bears received three first place votes to draw three notches from their position of a week ago. However, they had enough second, third and fourth place votes to accumulate 659 points.

The biggest advance was made by City College. The Beavers (8-2), by virtue of impressive triumphs over St. John's and Loyola of Chicago, vaulted from 14th into seventh place. They received two first place votes and 392 points.

No other club received any first place nominations. Duquesne of Pittsburgh (9-0), another all-winning combination, ranked eighth with 238 points. North Carolina State, despite its 58-55 Boston Dodge Saturday night, attracted 208 points to gain ninth place. The Wolfpack owns a re-

ROSE BOWL PACT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson says he expects a new Rose Bowl football pact between the Big Ten and Pacific Coast Conference to be signed shortly.

Wilson, commissioner of athletics of the Big Ten, declined to name the date. He said, however, that the new agreement "may be for years to come, not just five."

Other Big Ten western conference officials who attended the U. S. Olympic Association meeting here told a reporter "the Big Ten would like to have the new pact drawn up for a ten year period or longer."

BING CROSBY HONORED

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—(AP)—The Golf Writers Association of America has honored Bing Crosby for the year's outstanding contribution to golf.

Charles Bartlett of the Chicago Tribune, secretary of the association, announced yesterday that Crosby will receive the William D. Richardson Memorial trophy.

Bartlett said that Crosby's annual pro-amateur tournament at Del Monte, Calif., where the crowd nears 100,000, has become the most popular charity, figured in the selection.

Others high in the voting were Ben Hogan and Bob Hope.

AMAZING FACTS REVEALED BY RESEARCH

- Average Vitamin C content of guavas is exceedingly high. Florida guavas could easily supply the entire world's needs of this vital vitamin. Florida guavas could supply enough vitamin-rich baby food for all the babies in the United States. Amazingly versatile as a food... delicious as a fresh fruit... guavas make fine jellies, canned fruit, beverages, frozen food, dried fruit, health food and flavoring. Easily processed... guavas freeze without loss of flavor or vitamins... can be preserved, canned, frozen or dehydrated. Good for man or beast, guavas are potential source of a commercial, feasible, vitamin-rich live-stock feed.

Guavas grow so easily in Florida that few actual groves exist. Most of the supply for Guava Jelly comes from wild trees. Yet under cultivation guavas will yield an amazing crop. Trees mature in 3 to 5 years, bear fruit year round, will grow in almost any kind of soil. Research at the University of Miami indicates the possibility that a great guava industry can be developed in Florida... facts are available for all who are interested. McCarran To Reveal All On DP Question

Senator Says He Will Prove Who Is Lying About Reds Entering U. S. As D.P.'s

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. — (AP) — Senator McCarran (D-Nev.) said today he will let the public judge whether he or Ugo Carusi, head of the Displaced Persons Commission, is lying about the operation of the DP program.

McCarran, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee and bitter foe of a House-passed bill to liberalize the DP act, told reporters that Carusi had publicly called him a liar.

He was referring to a statement issued by the Displaced Persons Commission last night. This denied testimony made public by McCarran that the commission ordered an army-labeled Communist and Communist suspects admitted to this country.

"When I set through releasing documents," said McCarran, "I'll let the public say who is a liar—Carusi or me."

McCarran talked with reporters in a subcommittee called to consider a closed meeting of a judicial house bill to broaden the present DP law and let a greater number of war refugees into this country.

At the same time, McCarran released a letter from an American consul official in Munich, Germany, to Secretary of State Acheson saying Dec. 29, 1948, and June 16, 1949, 10 visas were issued between displaced persons who were "apostrophized."

The building will house the state offices of the big farm organization.

Senator Taft Raps Truman's Point-4 Plan

Ohio Republican Not In Accord With Truman's Program To Develop Far East

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11. — (AP) — Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said today the cost of President Truman's expanded "point four" program for developing the world's backward areas "seems almost beyond calculation."

Taft told a reporter he thinks Mr. Truman took in a lot of territory when he promised in his state of the union message to help make scientific and economic advances available to backward peoples, particularly in the Far East, "in their lives."

"It has taken us years and years to get where we are," Taft said. "If the President is going to make all of these scientific and economic advances available to them in this generation, it will take billions and billions of dollars to do it."

"Frankly, I don't know what he is talking about. Maybe it's all honey on his part. But if we are going to bring all of the underdeveloped areas of the world up to our standard of living, the cost seems beyond calculation."

Secretary of State Acheson's quoted statement to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that economic aid may be the best way of stopping the spread of Communism in southeast Asia added a new note of urgency yesterday to the President's proposal.

However, Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) said he doesn't think economic aid alone will do the job. He said this country must adopt an aggressive policy that will convince the people of Asia they ought to be on the Democratic side.

Taft said he has no objection to a "reasonable" program of aiding backward areas.

C Of C Directors Hold Meeting At Tourist Center

Value Of Farm Market To City Is Told By Patrick

Members of the Chamber of Commerce were invited to attend a hearing at the City Hall next Monday night on the R-I-A zoning rule when directors met at the Tourist Center last night. A Sanford delegation will also attend a State Road Department hearing in Tallahassee on Jan. 21.

The value of the State Farmers Market to Sanford was stressed by President W. A. Patrick who pointed out that it is one of the biggest assets Sanford has, and will have, and with proper support can be made two or three times larger than it is today. Last year it had a payroll of over $300,000, he added.

Manager Ed Higgins was instructed to write a letter to Market Manager Sandy Anderson expressing the appreciation of the Chamber of Commerce for the fine work which is being done at the market and offering to cooperate in any way possible toward its further development.

Mr. Higgins pointed out that the trade body's primary interest in the zoning regulations is in getting enough houses within reach of the average person's pocketbook built here to satisfy the demand. He urged as many as possible to attend the City Commission's hearing on the zoning committee's recommendation for an amendment to R-I-A on providing that there must be at least 720 square feet in house proper and not more than 280 feet in porch and carport under main roof.

Mr. Higgins said he is planning to attend the Road Department hearing in Tallahassee on Jan. 21 where the new zoning ordinance will be explained. Others planning to attend from Sanford will be Senator E. F. Boyle, County Commissioner H. B. Pope, Rep. M. B. Smith, and Harold Gray, county road superintendent.

NAM Director Talks To Lions On Free Enterprise

Better Co-operation Urged Between Employers, Employees

Better co-operation between employers and employees is a means of stimulating confidence in America's system of free enterprise was urged yesterday by Carroll E. French, director of the staff of the National Association of Manufacturers, in a talk to Lions yesterday.

He was introduced by King Lion Cliff Able.

"The job of selling free enterprise to our people for the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and the Association of Manufacturers, but it cannot be done unless we cooperate in our country as well as we can with the outcome of free enterprise," said Mr. French.

French has in Sanford a cross-section of American free enterprise, he told the Lions. "In the last analysis, business enterprise is the acceptance and approval of the free enterprise system by the American people."

"Among employers there is not the degree of understanding of business enterprise that there should be," he stated, and declared that business men should "sell" the free enterprise system to the public.

"Is business honest? Has it a heart? Is it concerned about employees?" he asked. He answered his own questions by pointing out that according to a recent survey only one in three employees believe that employers are interested in their welfare.

"How is the gross take divided?" was his second question. "Only one-half of the people questioned think employers are getting their fair share," he stated.

"Is there any basis for co-operation between employer and employee?" was his third question. "Only one out of two questioned think there is mutual interest," he reported.

One of the significant results of the survey, he declared, was that informed people were far more interested in business than the uninformed, but even in the latter group there was suspicion and distrust.

"Only the employer can explain to employees how income is divided among them of their common interest and that the American system works for and not against them," he stated.

"Formosa is a hundred miles from the mainland and there can be no crossing if our Navy makes it clear that ships carrying troops will not be allowed to cross. In fact, probably there would be no such attempt at all if the State Department made it perfectly clear that we do not intend to permit Communist occupation of Formosa."
