

Uncle Sam Will Take Bigger Tax Bite This Year But . . .

(Editors Note: Ray De Crane is the nation's foremost newspaper authority on income tax matters. His book, "Cut Your Own Taxes" helped nearly a half million persons save last year.)

By Ray De Crane
NEA Special Writer

That tax man will be digging into your pocket deeper than usual after Jan. 1. No one will be spared. Shed a tear, too, for the bootblack, the barber, the matronist and the cab driver. Uncle Sam will be standing alongside him with his hand out whenever a tip is received.

The first blow will be struck on the first payday of the new year. Don't demand the paymaster correct his errors when you get your first check at the 1964 check. Cases are he hasn't made a mistake. The big deduction is due to the increased Social Security tax brought on by the adoption of Medicare in the last session of Congress.

Instead of a 3 1/2 per cent Social Security tax on the first $4,800 of earnings you will be taxed 4 1/2 per cent on the first $4,800.

Persons earning $6,000 or more in 1963 will pay a total of $277.30 in Social Security tax next year. That is an increase of $116.20 over the 1963 take or just about $2 more each week.

Beginning on Jan. 1 tips income will be subject to both withholding tax and Social Security taxes.

Whenever an employer receives $20 or more in tips in a month, he must account to his employer his total tip income by the 10th of the succeeding month.

The employer will then have to deduct the withholding tax and Social Security tax from the employer's earnings. The employer is not required, however, to match the Social Security tax on the tip income as he is required to do on regular wages and salaries.

More Yanks Join Vietnam War

PLEIKU, South Vietnam (UPI)—A new wave of U. S. Army infantrymen was flown directly from Hawaii to South Vietnam today, boosting American combat strength to 181,000 men. The reinforcements will be used to counter infiltration from the Communist North.

Troops and equipment of the 3rd Brigade of the U. S. Army's 25th Infantry Division were shuttled into a new jet airfield in the Central Highlands throughout the day.

The "Tropic Lightning" Division's motto is "Ready to Strike—Anywhere, Anytime."

Their arrival appeared to answer Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's statement on his last visit here that new combat measures would be required against the Communist North.

"Elements of the 3rd Brigade of the U. S. Army's 25th Infantry Division will be landing at several places in South Vietnam in the next few days," an American military spokesman said in Saigon. "Initial elements landed today at Pleiku."

American bombers continued the pace in raids against Communist North Vietnam, despite the heavy fighting in the South. The one-sided aerial cease fire was in its sixth day, matching the longest repeated period of air attacks—the lull which occurred last April.

A spokesman at Pleiku said the brigade would eventually consist of three infantry battalions plus artillerymen, engineers, motorized cavalry and a support battalion.

Communist guerrillas launched a savage series of attacks across the country. They overran a district capital, blew up three bridges, and hit a Mekong Delta outpost and two air bases simultaneously within 23 miles of Saigon.

Government sources in Saigon announced that the Vietnamese probably will accept a Communist offer of a four-day cease fire next month over the Christmas holidays.

They added it would be as a gesture toward the nation's Buddhists, not the Communists.

The Buddhists are extremely touchy about any hint of smacks of government favoritism toward the Catholics. A cease fire on the Buddhist New Year-Jan. 20-24 thus becomes a political necessity since the Christmas truce came after repeated pleas from Pope Paul VI.

Electricity Users To Save $$$

A rate reduction by Florida Power and Light Company, said today the reduction ordered by the Public Service Commission, will result in an average savings of about $15 per month to the power company's customers in the Sanford area.

Scott Burns, Sanford manager, said today the reduction ordered by the Public Service Commission, will result in an average savings of about $15 per month to the power company's customers in the Sanford area.

The more substantial reductions will be to commercial users, Burns said.

For example a business customer with a $400 light bill will pay $110.68, a savings of $10.32. A larger customer with a $400 light bill will pay $400.50 under the new rate.

Average residential users will pay about 20 cents less per month, Burns estimated.

Florida Power and Light has approximately 10,500 residential customers in the area. At an average savings of 30 cents per month, the overall reduction would amount to $3,150.

There are 1,270 commercial users.

County, State Ink 427 Pact

Plans for widening and improving State Road 547 were advanced Tuesday when the Board of County Commissioners advanced State Road Department contracts.

The contracts permit the SRD to obtain right-of-way for the road improvement project from Five Points to Ginderville.

The first phase of improving another section of 547 already has been completed. Rights-of-way have been obtained on the section from SR 424 in Longwood north to Gen. Joseph C. Hatcher Parkway.

Contracts for improving this section of 547 will be let in March, according to information received from the SRD.

County Engineer William Bush said the new contracts for obtaining right-of-way from Five Points to Ginderville comply with the approved alignment of the road.

Sharp curves in the Baker's Dairy and Elder Springs area will be eliminated under the new alignment.

Authorities Hit Use Of Students

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—State and Florida State University officials blasted plans for hiring college students to act as bait for former in a crackdown on homosexual.

University Dean of Students Harry Day said the use of students here as police informers in moral cases was "abhorrent wrong" and should be stopped.

Gov. Haydon Burns and University Board of Regents Chairman Chester Ferguson also expressed the practice.

Husband Slays Wife, Her Lover

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—A man confronted his wife and another man with a batch of love letters Tuesday night, shot them to death, and then critically wounded himself this morning, police said.

Killed were Dolores Ingo, 34, and state Atwood Mc-Clean, 48, the dead woman's husband. Frank Ingo, 64, was in critical condition at Memorial Hospital with four bullet wounds.

Humphrey Lands In Philippines

MANILA (UPI)—Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, carrying President Johnson's "search for peace" through the Far East, arrived in Manila tonight for the longest stop and perhaps most significant stop in his five-day Asian tour.

Humphrey, on his first major mission abroad for Johnson, will head the official U.S. delegation at the inauguration Thursday of President Ferdinand E. Marcos as sixth chief executive of the Philippines.

U. S. Probes For Peace In Secrecy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Johnson administration, behind a screen of secrecy, has been conducting a new probe into the possibilities for peace in Vietnam. So far there were no reports it would be a success.

Like an iceberg, only a small part of the new administration effort was visible on the surface. This was the pause in the resumption of U. S. bombing raids against North Vietnam following the Christmas truce.

It was presumed that along with this Hanoi has been told through diplomatic channels that the United States is looking for some corresponding step toward peace by the Communists.

A similar message was sent to Hanoi last May when the United States paused for five days in the bombing. The delivery channels then were the British government and the North Vietnamese embassy in Moscow.

The United States would regard as significant any halt in North Vietnamese infiltration into South Vietnam, or withdrawal of forces, but U. S. officials have never spelled out exactly what moves they are looking for.

The main reason for secrecy appeared to be that U. S. officials believe Hanoi would be more likely to respond to a peace initiative if it is conducted without publicity.

The Soviet delegation was invited to North Vietnam by the Central Committee of the Vietnamese Communist party and the Hanoi government. Diplomatic observers here said Shchepkin's forthcoming visit was regarded as further evidence of the Kremlin's hardline position in the Vietnam conflict. They said it could mean an increased Russian involvement in the war and noted that it follows the new aid agreement and renewed pledges of support for the North Vietnamese regime.

The fact Shchepkin was named to confirm signs that the secret police chief has moved into the No. 2 position in the party, next to first Secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev, following a recent reshuffle of top Kremlin posts.

Shchepkin, who was relieved of his duties as a government first deputy premier so that he could devote his time to party affairs, has had other foreign trouble-shooting missions for Russia recently, including one to Egypt and Mongolia.

Shchepkin's mission comes as Moscow and Peking are fighting to influence the Hanoi regime of Ho Chi Minh. Both have accused each other of allowing Communist North Vietnam.

South Viet Set Against Formal Talk

SAIGON (UPI)—The South Vietnamese government is opposed to a formal ceasefire or unconditional negotiations with the Communists.

Other government sources said at the same time the Saigon government probably will accept the Viet Cong offer of a truce for four days next month to mark the Vietnamese lunar new year. They added it would be as a gesture toward the nation's Buddhists, not the Communists.

Do said in an exclusive interview his government was not against informal discussions "in the corridor" with the Communists, but was dead set against official peace talks under present conditions.

The foreign minister said the Viet Cong would not negotiate in good faith unless they were first convinced they were not against informal discussions. At present, he said, they still hope to win by military force.

The probability of a truce, as proposed by the Communists, from Jan. 30-34, was also not against informal discussions, but was dead set against official peace talks under present conditions.

The sources said South Vietnamese officials probably would refrain from firing during the new year holiday but no official announcement will be made until or unless it is suggested by the Buddhist leadership.

The Buddhists are sensitive concerning anything which looks like government favoritism toward the Roman Catholic religion.

Since the government announced a 30-hour Christmas truce after repeated pleas from Pope Paul VI, a ceasefire on the Buddhist new year has become a political necessity.

Do said he did not think there was any contradiction between the government's stand on negotiations and President Johnson's frequently expressed desire for "conditional discussions" on the war.

The Vietnamese officials reiterated the government position that "discussions" are all right on an informal basis but that "negotiations" around a conference table are impossible at the present time.

As for a lengthy ceasefire, Do said, the Communists would only try to use it to send in more men and equipment for another crack at the government when they felt a favorable time had come.

Mild Weather Prevails In U. S.

Unlabeled Press International Plans mild weather prevailed over much of the nation today as warm easterly winds pushed temperatures well above freezing in most areas.

Temperatures in the upper 40s and 50s were common as far north as Montana.

Intermittent showers still prevailed over the Pacific Northwest, but the U.S. Weather Bureau said the danger of severe flooding from Christmas Eve snowmelt was almost over.

Biggest Craft Touches Monroe

Probably the biggest barge ever to enter Lake Monroe arrived here Tuesday and left this morning.

It was a 140-foot barge No. 3 which was loaded with 200 tons of liquid nitrogen mixture (half-million gallons).

The barge was loaded with the chemical to be used here for the manufacture of dry fertilizer.

"To my knowledge it was one of the biggest barges ever to dock here," Rankin said.

Other Sanford veterans said the tug-barge combination was the biggest craft ever to enter the lake.

Fog Blankets Main Highways

Fog settled over Seminole County again during the night Tuesday and early morning today, blanketing the main state highways and Interstate 4. There were no accidents, however.

All 14 aboard—mostly teenagers from Illinois—were rescued Tuesday after several hours in a life raft and skiffs 14 miles off the coast. They were spotted by a passing oil tanker, the Amoco Delaware.

Longwood Wins Rejection Of Zoning Request

A rezoning request, which turned into a controversy with Longwood carrying the ball for the opposition, was denied by the Board of County Commissioners Tuesday.

The decision, in fact, upset a recommendation by the Planning and Zoning Commission.

Reasoning of a 50-acre tract near Big Tree Park to permit construction of a party novelties factory had been requested by property owner Ralph T. Wall.

The zoning commission had recommended approval but that recommendation was taken directly to the Board of County Commissioners by the rezoning from A-1 agricultural to M-1 industrial as allowed.

At Tuesday's session, a resolution from the City of Longwood was presented objecting to the rezoning and a petition of some 20 names of Longwood area residents was given to the board voicing the same objections.

In another action, the commissioners upheld the Board of Adjustment on an appeal.

The County Commission delayed a decision until Tuesday.

At Tuesday's session, a resolution from the City of Longwood was presented objecting to the rezoning and a petition of some 20 names of Longwood area residents was given to the board voicing the same objections.

Aliens' Report Of Address Due At Post Office

Robert L. Woychik, district director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Miami, advised today that the annual address report program again is underway.

According to Woychik, 175,000 aliens reported their address last year in the States.

The Immigration official pointed out that the address reports are required by law and will fail to comply with these requirements may lead to serious consequences.

Woychik added that trained personnel are on hand in all offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service offices. It is an easy matter to fill out one of the cards and return it to the same office.

Forest Lake Academy Enjoys Annual Picnic

By Maryann Miles
Good weather, sportsman-ship, food and fun, all added to the festive occasion for the annual picnic for students at the Forest Lake Academy. The great '65 school picnic started off with a bang when Tom Barber and Jim Plesanta threw the shotput a mighty 25' which made the seniors very proud of their boys. In the standing broad jump, Lee Townsend hit 8'11" when he took a flying leap that really sent the juniors pulling. Next, in the boys hundred yard dash, Jim Plesanta came in with flying colors in only 11 seconds. In the girls dash, freshman Debbie McNeave swept over the finish line in 18 seconds. For the seniors, Roger Swanson cleared 8' in the high jump over class competition. In the 200 yard dash, Dale Erickson breezed in taking first place for the freshmen in 50 seconds. Jim Plesanta won the soft ball throw with a mighty heave of 240 feet and Randy Cavanaugh, a junior, broke her own record with 169' in the girls softball throw. Another record breaker was Steve Zorn, when he threw the discus a splendid 108 feet. When the running broad jump event came up, sophomore Kevin Gruesbeck took a gigantic leap in the air and came down 178' from where he started. Finishing up the day's events, Eddie Meek came in ahead of all his competitors in the 800 yard dash, and won for the freshmen in 2.8 minutes. The day ended with the seniors winning 80 points, freshmen 40 points, juniors 17 points and sophomores 18 points. The seniors also won the football game.

Club Enjoys Pipe Organ Field Trip

By Maryann Miles
A "Pipe Organ Field Trip," made by 88 music club members of Forest Lake Academy and their instructor, Mrs. Billie Meyer, was enjoyed recently when the group visited the E. M. Skinner Pipe Organ Factory in Oakland. A medium-sized organ was set up in a large room for purposes of demonstration and students had an opportunity to play it. Steps and walkways are provided around and through the pipework and they could see how tones are produced. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bassett, owner-operators of the factory, are highly skilled in their field. He has been working with pipe organs for more than 40 years. The factory produces two to three instruments a year in addition to doing pipe work for other manufacturers.

Series Aids Taxpayer Avoid Cheating Self

More than two million taxpayers "cheated" themselves on Income Tax returns filed last year. This startling fact was revealed this week with the release of the "Cut Your Own Taxes" series and book. The 16-part series will be carried in The Sanford Herald starting Monday as a public service. The book is a 64-page step-by-step manual illustrated in three colors. It will be available in this area as an exclusive reader service of The Herald for 50 cents. The author, Ray De Crane, is a tax expert and an experienced journalist. The series and book are written in everyday, easy-to-understand terms and contain a complete file filled out 1040 return with notations explaining each entry. De Crane says: "Nearly three million incorrect income tax returns were filed last year. Of that number, 3 out of 4 taxpayers cheated themselves millions of dollars unnecessarily paid by taxpayers either because they did not know about, or failed to take advantage of, proper and legal deductions." There are many reasons why our readers will want to follow this series. For example: this is the year when we collect on the second stage of the tax cut passed by Congress in '64; some changes in the tax law were not applicable until January 1, 1965; this is the year when the total tax paid by the taxpayer should be close to the amount of withholding tax deducted; this is the year when investors will receive dividends for reporting of dividends; senior citizens will find new rules in claiming their retirement income credit. The "Cut Your Own Taxes" information will be up-to-the-minute with all the new changes in the law. Both the series and the book will give complete and valuable information for the salaried employe and the wage earner, the man who travels and uses his car in his employment, the investor who bought or sold or collected dividends, retired persons, and those who have income from rental property. The book also will carry all the new tax tables and charts. Even the person filing his first tax return should have no trouble following the simplified, down-to-earth explanation. The book is produced by Newspaper Enterprises Association and is one of the top tax books on the market. You'll want to keep a copy of this easy-to-understand book by your side as you fill in your 1965 tax return. To order your copy, send your name, address and 50 cents to: "Cut Your Own Taxes," c/o The Sanford Herald, P. O. Box 480, 32711, Radio City Station, New York New York 10019. Suppression Of Vietnam Policy Charged To LBJ

GARDEN CITY, N. Y. (UPI) — The Johnson administration has concealed South Viet Nam's flat refusal to participate in unconditional negotiations to end the Viet Nam war, a former special assistant to the late UN Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson charged. Clayton Fritchey, in a copyrighted column in Newsday, a Long Island newspaper, said South Vietnamese Premier Nguyen Cao Ky has privately, but officially, informed the United States that a peace conference is currently out of the question. The State Department has chosen to suppress Premier Ky's declaration, Fritchey, a regular columnist for Newsday, wrote. "It has neither informed the American public nor America's friendly allies of South Viet Nam's warning that it could not participate in the proposed peace conference." In Washington, State Department spokesman Robert J. McCloskey said that he could not confirm receipt of any "special notices or communication" to the effect Ky had flatly rejected Johnson's offer to North Viet Nam of unconditional negotiations.

Panama Wants Sailor-Suspect

MIAMI (UPI) — The Panamanian government asked the U. S. to extradite seaman Roberto Ramirez to stand trial on charges of murdering five crewmen last August on the coastal freighter Seven Seas. The Panamanian registrar of Seven Seas was towed into Key West two days after the murders and the lone survivor, 17-year-old seaman Burywaise Elwin, implicated Ramirez. Ramirez, a 25-year-old Cuban sailor, was charged by the U. S. with piracy and murdering the captain, first mate, second engineer, cook and another seaman. Maggie Brown Weds Joseph Steele

By Robert E. Thomas Jr.
Miss Maggie Wiletta Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wille Brown Sr., 611 Locust Avenue, and Joseph Steele, son of Rev. and Mrs. Archie Steele, of Eastia, were united in marriage Dec. 24, at Church of God at 6 p. m.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH STEELE

Rev. Leon Devenaux officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony. Organist was Earl E. Mitchell, who played the traditional wedding music. J. L. Hill sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." The altar was decorated with red and white mums and poinsettias. The setting was the epitome of Christmas.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was groomed in a formal white bridal satin princess line gown which ended in a chapel train. Her veil was attached to a headpiece of orange blossoms shaped in the form of a white poinsettia. She carried an all white bouquet of orchids.

Maid of honor was Miss Betty Brown, sister of the bride, who was groomed in a white velvet skirt and red velvet top, an empire style floor length dress. She carried a red candle mounted on a red velvet base. Her headpiece was of red velvet and in the shape of a poinsettia.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Christal Faust, sister of the groom, from Washington D. C. Her dress was identical to that of the maid of honor, only her skirt was red velvet and top of white velvet.

Bridesmaids were Patricia Merritt, Helen Stark, Barbara Deese, Betty Black, Dorothy Moore, Eula Harris, Elizabeth Hill all of Sanford, La. Flower girls were Jeanette Klittles, and Rose Marie Jones of Jacksonville, Gloria Moody, and Joyce Hillman of Altamonte. They were groomed in red velvet floor length empire dresses with matching veils. Bridesmaids carried a red and white poinsettia. Each carried a white candle on a red velvet base.

Best man was Ronald Russell from Mount Dora. Ushers were Willis Brown III, Bernard Brown, Scott Bookman, Melvin Abney, Moses Steele, Israel Black, Zannie Hill, Willie Faust, Charles Hudnell, Perman Johnson, Benjie Deese, Jerome Hill and Jimmie Shaw.

Flower girls were Julia Hunt, Jacquelin Dargan, Toni Moody, Nancy Henderson, Holly Blackshaw, Cynthia Brown. Each carried a bouquet of red poinsettias.

The bride's mother was Mrs. Maggie McCann, Syracuse, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. James Houey, Mrs. Millie B. Harris, with a white corsage of carriage. The groom's mother was groomed in a two piece Kelly green brocade formal gown with gold accessories and wore a red and white corsage.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting were Mrs. Maggie McCann, Mrs. Catherine Taylor, Mrs. Mary Hill, Mrs. Robert Brown, Velma Hayes, Louise Steele, Elizabeth Hill, Gloria Dixon and Pape Oliver.

For going away, Mrs. Steele chose a black and white suit with matching accessories.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will reside in Gainesville where both are employed in the public school system.

Out-of-town guests: Mrs. Marie McCann, Syracuse, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. James Houey, Mrs. Millie B. Harris, with a white corsage of car-

New Year Food Supplies Ample, Guide Reveals

The following shopping guide to the nation's food supply for this weekend was prepared by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and Interior for UPI.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Weekend shoppers will find ample New Year's supplies of food.

Recommended meats include beef roasts and ground beef. Ham and smoked picnic are reasonably priced, competing for popularity against turkey. Eggs in some areas are budget priced.

In the vegetable bins, beans, brussels sprouts, cabbage, broccoli, and celery are in good supply. Also check for plentiful amounts of lettuce, onions, mushrooms, potatoes, radishes, squash, sweet potatoes, and tomatoes.

On the full fruit stand, apples, oranges, and celery are in good supply. Also check for plentiful amounts of lettuce, onions, mushrooms, potatoes, radishes, squash, sweet potatoes, and tomatoes.

Nationally, fish stocks, canned tuna, and canned red snapper are the fish plentiful for this weekend.

Adventists Aid Needy Families At Christmas

By Julia Bartos
The Christmas project of the Altamonte Springs Seventh Day Adventist Health and Welfare Center was in full swing when food, clothing, and toys, were distributed to 30 needy families in the Longwood, Casselberry, and Altamonte areas.

Fifteen hundred cans of food were contributed to the center by the South Seminole Jews from their recent State-A-Thon along with a cash donation which was used to purchase fresh vegetables and bread.

In addition to the food baskets, the center provided Sunshine Baskets for 25 patients, 19 at the Haven Rest Home in Winter Park and nine at the Casselberry Rest Home. Four members of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church, all in their 80's, and two of them confined to wheel chairs, were given gifts.

Legionnaires Bestow Honor On Sen. Dirksen

By Mrs. John Leone
An award for meritorious service has been presented to Sen. Everett M. Dirksen by the American Legion Post 239 of DeLair.

In the presentation, Commander Harry B. Lyons cited the senator's adherence to the principles of the Legion's Preamble to the Constitution which states, in part, "to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to community, state and nation."

In reply, Dirksen said, "I feel as you do about our individual obligation and have always thought that the first four words of the Preamble to the Constitution, 'For God and Country,' express all we need to make us real and loyal Americans."

The senator was an observation balloonist during the first World War with the rank of second lieutenant. He has been a member in good standing of the district commander of the American Legion in his home state of Illinois and is now a member in good standing of his home post in Pekin, Ill.

Local Legion officials making the presentation, which was accepted by Senator and Mrs. Dirksen at their DeLair home, were Commander Lyons; Fred McLaren, American chairman; Pat Commanders Fred Kammerer, Peter Koppensal, William G. Williams; Paul Clay, adjutant; and Ben A. Summers, chaplain.

In activities of the post's auxiliary unit, the annual Christmas party took place Dec. 15 at the Community Center where the auditorium was decorated in traditional theme. The buffet was centered with fancy tid-bits and cookies, flanked by twin crystal punch bowls. The program was directed by Mrs. Martha Newell.

The auxiliary distributed a Christmas basket to a needy family over the holidays.

EDDIE MILES, HIS RAILROADS AND HIS CITIES.

Sanford Man Is Rail 'Magnate'

By Della Austin and Bill Vincent, Jr.
Railroad magnates have nothing on Eddie Miles. He owns, not one, but several railroads and a couple of cities, too.

The only difference in Miles' railroads are his railroads and his cities are steel models, entirely made by hand.

Miles' eight railroads run between two cities, connected by 18 feet of track along the wall of his apartment on 1114 North Park Avenue. The built-up sections that hold his towns occupy a large area of floor space, one being about 10 feet wide and the other about six feet wide, as seen in the two accompanying photographs.

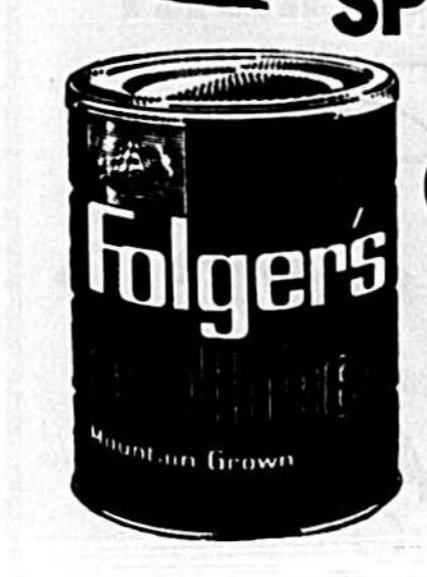

The scale model replicas of factories, stockyards, stores and other buildings are all made of paper, cloth, plastic and balsa wood and each city has street lights.

The cities sit on the sides of mountains made of old sheets, painted and stiffened, by Power is supplied by seven transformers and a power supply.

There are dozens of plastic toy cars and trucks in the cities. In addition to the trains, with streets laid out for them alongside the tracks where busy figures of men and animals hurry about the scene.

Approximately 10 miles of wire runs under the floors of the elevated platforms on which the cities are built, all connected to switches that work everything automatically.

As the engineer of eight trains, Miles can work them all at the same time as he

NEW BADGE—Scouting long ago expanded its field of interest beyond the council fire and hiking trail. Now a new merit badge, 1966, in the long series, takes Boy Scouts into the space age. Requirements for the new badge, worked out in part by a group of Scouts themselves, include familiarity with space terms, objects and problems, a nonoperating model launch vehicle. The first 25 judges to boys from 12 cities in ceremonies at the Houston Tex. Manned Spacecraft Center.

Audubon Society Visits Garden, Planetarium

By Marjann Hill
Recently members of the Audubon Society of Forest Lake Academy enjoyed a field trip to Mad Botanical Garden in Winter Park and to the Planetarium of the Central Florida Museum in Orlando. Twenty-seven members participated. The Society has grown to a present membership of 40.

In the botanical garden the group enjoyed trails along a stream showing the way the land used to look. There were green houses where many varieties of orchids grow. It was refreshing for the group to find a wilderness in the center of such a populated area as Winter Park and Orlando.

The Planetarium was a real education for the students in the ways of stars and planets. They saw the sun, set, the stars "come out" and watched them begin to rotate on their axis. It was a beautiful stimulation of the actual sky, the accompanying lecture pointed out the various constellations that would be visible throughout the night at this time of year.

Planets and galaxies were discussed and seen on the sky dome. The half hour program covered the subject quite well and the group left with heads literally spinning with facts and figures which they had seen and heard.

Officers of the club are Lindsay Lilly, president; David Hoskins, first vice president; Frances O'Lea, second vice president; Jean Melster, James Tucker, teacher-advisor.

Seminole FHA Aids Family

The chimney was closed but the door was open when the Seminole High Future Homemakers of America played Santa to a needy family in Sanford Wednesday, Dec. 22. Wanda Nixon, chapter reporter.

The FHA secretary, Carolyn Walker, was in charge of planning the gifts which included a turkey, canned foods, fruit, and gifts for each of the children. These items were given by members of the chapter.

Since Santa himself was in downtown Sanford Wednesday, Wanda continues, he chose as his helpers to deliver the gifts Joyce Thomas, Brenda David, Carolyn Walker, Julie Hutchinson, Vicki Lewis, Sharlene Krayada, and Sandra Metzler.

Wanda is in the group making the visit.

Best Foreign Films Picked

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Film Critics named the English-made picture "Darling," as the best movie of 1965, and "Fanny Hill" as the best foreign film.

The best actress went to Julie Christie for her role in "Darling," and best actor to Omar Sharif, a German, for his performance in "Fanny Hill."

It All Makes Sense

Automobiles cost more this year than last. So they are cheaper. Many men are spending more time and money on their hair than most women are.

Football is, of course, a fun game to build character and demonstrate true sportsmanship. So young men fresh out of college are demanding—and getting—as much as $400,000 for consenting to play it.

Fuzzled? The explanations are simple:—It is true that the price tags on most of the 1966 dream cars are a little higher than last year. But the Bureau of Labor Statistics, in its Consumer Price Index, says they are actually cheaper by 0.5 per cent.

The reason is that the new cars include as standard equipment certain safety features which last year were optional. So you now pay more, but you get more than you pay more for.

While a plain old male haircut may be all right for a plain old male, the IN thing for the really sharp fellow is personalized hair styling and contour coiffuring to bring out the real him.

Under this method, the hair is styled not by shears but by razor, practically a hair at a time. It is then set with gentle sals and scented lotion that not only seals in the beauty but makes the hair smell good like coiffured hair should.

And as for the college football stars, their problem is not the graduate's usual scramble to land a job out of eager and persistent pro football recruiters who practically knock each other's brains out in their frantic efforts to induce Saturday's heroes to get rich by building their characters in fun games on Sunday television.

Fuzzled? Does that clear things up? Fine. Now we can concentrate on our current confusions, such as how come our enemy's flag don't fly openly and without penalty by American citizens in a parade past the nation's Capitol while American boys are dying in Viet Nam for the Stars and Stripes.

How about THAT?

Thought For Today

These all died in faith, not having received what was promised, but having seen it and greeted it from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and sojourners on the earth.—Hebrews 11:13.

Let us have faith that right makes might; and in that faith, let us to the end, dare to do our duty as we understand it.—Abraham Lincoln, civil War president.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, Herald:
Your sour grapes editorial about the closing of the Naval Air Station seems to me to be a little off target. The Secretary of Defense makes the decision and I'm sure that he couldn't see less than a handful court down in Georgia and apparently carelessly about appealing. Consider the fact that the base has been closed for 50 years. If you could possibly get the dollar sign in your brain and look at the matter realistically, you would see that an installation devoted to carrier pilot training with its daily and nightly touch and go practice, the danger of falling aircraft and the maddening noise has no place in a highly populated area. A decision to place such an installation in an area as populated as central Florida borders on misfeasance.

The families who have lost relatives in past crashes in this area, the families who have been frightened by near misses, the families who have had their property depreciated, all agree that the base should just as well be served by an intelligent location of the air station. It would also appreciate, you would see that the Sanford Herald could better spend its brain-washing time by promoting the county rather than trying to pick it full of low income people in coming plants and government work. While your circulation may not make such spectacular gains, we'd all be better off in the long run.

C. R. Thomas

The flights east from here cover a low population area. You'll find young and gay and win far more friends. CASE: X-402; Martha B. aged 26, is the wife of a Judge. "Dr. Crane," she confessed to me at a dinner party in Ohio, "I want to thank you for Beacon, Journal for rejuvenating me."

"Earlier this year I ordered your newspaper kookies, 'The Compliment Club.'" "For it sounded like a fascinating experiment to put the Golden Rule into effective daily action."

"I faithfully paid my three commitments every day, or at least I did till the 17th day."

"The dinner that night I had paid only two commitments, so I lacked the third."

WASHINGTON (NEA) The projected springtime White House Conference on Civil Rights is seen by some observers on the racial front as providing a chance for sorely needed improvement in dangerously edgy white-Negro relationships.

The McCone report on the Watts riots in Los Angeles underlines the explosive peril churning near the surface among alienated lower class urban Negroes.

Further evidence comes continuously from the harsh utterances of frustrated militant Negro leaders, who have stepped up their hammer blows on the white community as if trying to find a voice suitable to the people of Watts.

For all their effort, they seem largely unaffordable to the Negroes of Watts and similar big city ghettos.

Comedian Dick Gregory, no quiet moderate, is contemptuously dismissed by ghetto residents as among those Negroes "you whines try to choose for as leaders. You think we ought to have."

Notwithstanding an expected affecting Negro prospects in spring, the prospects of proposals, jobs, housing, schooling, physical security and courtroom justice in springtime White House parley may find the frayed links between whites and Negroes in some danger of being repaired.

One civil rights observer says that a major move toward a better understanding, conference atmosphere should invite top spokesmen for such "white establishments" organizations as the National Association of Manufacturers, the American Bar Association, the American League of Women, a variety of other civic and professional groups.

White sympathizers with Negro aspirations, even as they realize they are increasingly suspected in today's strained situation, nevertheless insist that Negroes also must engage heavily in the repair process. While action alone, it is contended, will not give the Negro the place in society he seeks.

Sympathizers understand that this approach demands of Negroes a mature acceptance of criticism, a hard self-appraisal, and a new compassion for white Americans that cannot come easily to revolutionary spirits stirred after long decades of distress.

Negro for at least a century and that, therefore, virtually the entire history of white-Negro relationships has inevitably damaged both sides and that both in consequence must engage heavily in the repair process. The argument of one psychological specialist here is that the long history of warped white-Negro relationships has inevitably damaged both sides and that both in consequence must engage heavily in the repair process. While action alone, it is contended, will not give the Negro the place in society he seeks.

Sympathizers understand that this approach demands of Negroes a mature acceptance of criticism, a hard self-appraisal, and a new compassion for white Americans that cannot come easily to revolutionary spirits stirred after long decades of distress.

Lyle C. Wilson Says: Rising Above Principles

Recommended reading for all is the latest document from a solidly conservative organization called Americans for Constitutional Action (ACA). ACA rates congressmen as they vote on issues deemed to be important to the organization to preserve the Constitution as originally conceived. For guiding purposes, ACA rated Sen. Abraham Ribicoff (D-Conn.) at 12 per cent of a possible 100 on his voting record in the last session of Congress. Ribicoff is a left winger, a member of Americans for Democratic Action and a graduate of the Kennedy cabinet when he went to the U. S. Senate. In 1954, the Alabama election of 1954, the Alabama election may have been somewhat rigged against Johnson.
