

Senator Green Gets Third Term

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—Rhode Island's 87-year-old Sen. Theodore Francis Green, newly re-elected to his fourth consecutive term, likes to think about becoming the first man to serve in the United States Senate at the age of 100.

"But there are plenty of other jobs to do," he says cheerfully.

R. W. Ware, Atty. in Law,
Sanford, Florida.

"If the voters ever decide I'm too old," he blinched, momentarily taken aback. Then he wowed the ladies by reciting this jingle: "There was a young man so bright, He never knew when he was slighted."

He would go to a party and eat just as heartily. As though he were really invited.

Awarded by his undeniable vigor and bounce, Rhode Island voters ignore the opposition plea that Green was too old and ought to be retired for his own good.

On Nov. 2, they swept him back into office by a thumping majority over his Republican rival, Walter Sweeney, a mere youngster of 64. Shortly before the election, in an interview at his 150-year-old home in Providence, Green was asked about rumors of a purported "deal" whereby, if re-elected, he would soon retire and Gov. Dennis Roberts of Rhode Island would take over his Senate seat.

"No, no. It's an old man's game," he said. "Since the days of the Continental Congress, only two U. S. senators have attained a greater age than I. I am 87 years old. I was born in Vermont (1867) and I Carter Glass of Virginia (1824-1906)."

Morrill lived a little more than eight months after his 88th birthday. Green was 88 years and some months old when he died. Green is out to beat both those marks and then some. On completing his new six-year term, he will be 93.

The Rhode Island senator celebrated his 87th birthday last Oct. 2 in the midst of a whirlwind political campaign that saw him make as many as six or seven speeches in a single evening of stumping the state.

One of them, asked to comment on the senator's extraordinary vitality, inquired with gloomy sarcasm: "What are you trying to do—prove the old boy is still alive?"

A life-long Democrat, bachelor and millionaire, Green closely resembles the late actor Roland Young in the role of "Topper." He has twinkling blue eyes and a broad Boston accent and wears gold-rimmed pince nez clipped to the bridge of a strong Roman nose. His mustache is a puff of white festooning a long upper lip.

Green is proud of his physical and mental vigor. Friends recall that a few years ago, when opera singer Rosa Ponselle asked how he kept so trim, Green astonished her with: "Until recently, madam, I wrestled."

At home in Providence, Green lives in a huge three-story brick house, shaded by ancient elms. The house, high on a hill overlooking Narragansett Bay, has been in the Green family for five generations.

Except for a handyman-biller, caretaker, Green lives alone in the old house during his infrequent visits away from Washington. He prepares his own breakfast—usually a slice of orange, two pieces of whole-wheat toast and a glass of milk—in the old-fashioned kitchen.

Nimble at climbing stairs, Green scours long-empty bedrooms on the lower floors and climbs to his own room at the top of the house. He sleeps in an 18th Century four-poster bed topped by a yellow canopy.

By way of accounting for his long life, Green said: "I'm not a vegetarian. I eat anything anytime. I'm not a teetotaler either. At cocktail parties, I'll take a glass or two. It's pleasant."

He's even taken precautions against that possibility. He had a bomb-proof shelter constructed beneath his 100-year-old carriage house a few years ago, but he doesn't like to say much about it.

"If the neighbors heard about it and bombs began to fall, they'd crowd me out," he said.

One of the richest men in the Senate, Green reputedly owns seats of real estate in Providence, Woonsocket and other Rhode Island towns. In addition to his law practice, he was president for 10 years of the Big J. & P. Coats Thread Co. with 5,000 employees at Pawtucket, R. I., and organized the Morris (loan) Plan in his state.

Twice governor of Rhode Island (1932-36), Green likes to recall how, in a single afternoon of "bloodless revolution," he swept out his long-entrenched Republican foes and cleared the way for his own program to reorganize the state government. Among other things, he fired the entire Republican-managed state Supreme Court.

Green won his first political spurs at 40 when he was elected to the Rhode Island Legislature in 1907. A quarter of a century later, after repeated failures, he was elected to his first term as governor at the age of 61—a time when most men are ready to retire.

A native of Providence, Green was only 15 when he entered Brown University, a few blocks from his home on College Hill in Providence. He won a Phi Beta Kappa key at Brown, majoring in mathematics and Greek and went on to take his law degree at Harvard Law School.

known cancer specialist, Dr. Alton Ochsner: "It is frightening to speculate on the possible number of lung cancers that will develop as a result of the tremendous number of cigarettes smoked in the past two decades."

Ostman said that the cigarette-cancer scare has caused tobacco sales to dip for the first time in 21 years. The advertising account now is on the filtered cigarette, he said—"frank admission of the poison that waits within each 'kulleless' white cylinder."

"As Seventh-day Adventists," Pastor Ostman added, "we abstain from tobacco in any form as well as liquor, but we owe it to our fellowmen to tell them why."

Card of thanks: We wish to take this means to thank our many friends for their kindness and for the beautiful floral offerings, at the funeral home of Mrs. Augusta Fry, mother and relatives.

Fissionable Substance Offered

Lodge Informs UN Committee

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Western diplomats today hailed the dramatic U.S. offer of 220 pounds of fissionable material for atomic reactors around the world as the biggest step forward since President Eisenhower's first foray into the atomic bomb. Delegates viewed the unprecedented offer, which would virtually double the number of reactors this side of the Iron Curtain, as a momentous step toward placing atomic discoveries at the service of man.

U.S. Chief Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. made the announcement and urged the U.N.'s International Atomic Energy Commission to accept the offer. Lodge said the offer would provide enough fuel to run 30 or 40 new reactors. France's atomic spokesman, Jules Marchal, said there now are 30 reactors in existence outside Russia and her satellite nations.

Lodge announced that the United States is ready to conclude bilateral agreements with other nations to furnish fissionable materials for atomic reactors. But he said the U.S. offer would be a horse aside to Russia's Atomic Energy Commission, which had charged that the United States had "narrowed down" the scope of Eisenhower's original plan. Lodge voiced hope that the U.S. offer would "take care of all our confusion as to how the United States should proceed in its position really in the U.S. sources indicated the fissionable materials would be earmarked by the proposed international atomic agency for participating nations for building reactors or peaceful purposes.

The United States and six other Western atomic powers have sponsored a resolution designed to set up an international atomic agency along the lines of an autonomous specialized U.N. agency.

The Russians have submitted a series of still-secret amendments to the resolution. Reliable sources say the Soviet changes would place the proposed agency under the U.N. Security Council, in which the Russians have a veto, and would give Red China a say in the negotiations on the agency. The West already has made it clear it will accept no such conditions.

ILLINOIS COURT—BENJAMIN H. HARRIS, 48, of the Illinois Supreme Court has refused to reconsider its denial of a new trial for William C. Harris, 28, accused of a 1948 murder of a woman and two women in Chicago.

Harris is serving three life sentences for the murder killings. The woman, Miss Florence Brown, 43, a former widow, and the two women, Miss Rose, 43, a widow.

The court yesterday gave no reason for rejecting Harris' plea for a new trial.

515,000 FLEE—SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—The head of the American aid mission here says more than 515,000 refugees have fled North Viet Nam since the Geneva conference awarded the area to the Communist-led Vietnam.

The refugees continue to move south at a steady rate. Leland Harrows reported last night, "How many more hundreds of thousands have chosen freedom, but have been unable to get out, perhaps will never be known."

Under the progressive schedule set up by the Geneva conference, the Vietnam is to take over the whole of North Viet Nam by May 1955.

Choice Of Manager Stalls Merger

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A disagreement over who will be the manager is holding up a merger of Philadelphia's two deficit-ridden grand opera companies.

The Philadelphia Civic Grand Opera Company and the Philadelphia La Scala Company admitted the difficulty yesterday at a meeting of City Council's Recreation Committee.

Both companies have asked the committee for $50,000 to meet deficits and finance new performances. Humbert A. Pelosi, general manager of La Scala, said both sides are convinced that Philadelphia needs one good, solvent opera company.

"My friends told me I ought to be the new manager," said Pelosi. "I listened to them. I think maybe they were right."

However, Pelosi nodded at Anthony Terracciano and said, "Some thought he ought to be manager." Pelosi said there was some talk of one man managing one season and the other the next.

VJ-62 Sailors Learn ABC's In Four Days

They're teaching the ABC's faster these days—now it takes four days.

Quartet of Photographic Sound on 62 sailors recently returned from Jacksonville Naval Air Station after a four-day course at ABC school. For these men it wasn't "A—your adorable," but A—atomic, biological and chemical warfare types of atomic bombs. They are training their men to combat.

W. G. Postel, aviation electronics technician section chief, H. H. Gibson, aviation ordnance section chief, G. R. Johnson, photographer's mate second class, and H. Burlin, photographer's mate first class, were the first group of 62 men to attend these classes along with other Navy men from the Sixth Naval District.

The four-day course is drilled on the section of a biological or chemical attack which might be the use of poisonous gases and distribution of harmful communicable agents. An attack of this nature could possibly go undetected until it damage was done unless persons with this training were available on the scene.

Other phases covered by the school were use of protective devices against biological or chemical warfare types of atomic bombs, and the use of protective devices against biological or chemical warfare types of atomic bombs.

Chemical Shines In Cancer Area

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Hunt for cancer is being made to shine with a bright red warning light for easy detection, a medical team announced today.

This may prove a great breakthrough in the fight against cancer. It could lead to a pretty sure way of telling whether a person has cancer, whether it has spread in his body, where all the cancer is located. It might also create a new way of carrying radioactive atoms to cancers to destroy them.

A chemical obtained from human blood is injected into a person's veins. This chemical, porphyrin, lodges in cancer

Curtain Rings Down For Barrymore

HOLLYWOOD — Grumpy, warm-hearted Lionel Barrymore, who had no stomach for the theater but was long one of the most illustrious of actors, died last night. He was 76.

Stricken at home Sunday night while reciting the "Tomorrow and Tomorrow and Tomorrow" soliloquy from Shakespeare's "Macbeth," the senior member of acting's "Royal Family" had been in a coma 19 hours at Valley Hospital. A complication of ailments included arthritis, which, after two hip fractures, had forced him to use a wheel chair and crutches the past 17 years. Dr. John Paul Ewing said heart congestion was the immediate cause of death.

Only Ethel Barrymore, a year younger, survives Lionel in the famed family of stage and screen. Their brother John died in 1942. Radio fans remember Lionel's portrayals for years as "Mayor of the Town," as narrator of the Sunday night Hall of Fame and his annual Christmas enactment of Dickens' crusty "Scrooge." His last movie was "Lone Star," in 1951, with Clark Gable and Ava Gardner.

Dore Schary, head of MGM, the studio where Barrymore has been under contract, said his death "is a loss to the entire world of the theater. He was a great actor and a wonderful man."

But of his own talents Lionel said: "I have managed to get along all these years through a series of undeserved promotions and by fraud."

This was in a book, "We Barrymores," as told to Cameron Shipp, in which the senior Barrymore observed also:

"I was born with a conviction, to which I still hold, that anything resembling work is a nauseating spectacle."

The Barrymore-Drew clan to which he belonged had first appeared on the stage in 1752. Lionel was born in Philadelphia to the celebrated theatrical team of Maurice and Georgia Drew Barrymores.

He made his debut on the New York stage at 15 in "The Rivals" in which his grandmother, Mrs. John Drew, played Mrs. Malaprop. "I stunk," he opined afterward, and he recalled that his grandmother sent him a note telling him regretfully he was "somewhat inadequate" and was no longer needed in the cast. Later she told him to continue on the stage.

He said in later years he had "no stomach" for the stage but became an actor because it seemed the easiest way to earn a living.

He studied art in Paris, returned who worked as an illustrator, and acted in silent movies in New York. His brother John lured him back to the stage in 1916 in "Peter Ibbetson."

Lionel became a star with his appearance in "The Cripplehead." He joined Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to star in "The Barrier" in 1921. He won an Academy Award for his performance in "A Free Soul," with Norma Shearer, in 1931.

His outstanding movies included "Grand Hotel," "Hush" and "The Empress," "Dinner at Eight," "David Copperfield," "Ah, Wilderness," "The Return of Peter Grimm" and "Captains Courageous." He was gruff Dr. Gillespie

Parents Are Held After Child Dies, Another Is Hurt

EBENSBURG, Pa. — The young parents of a family of five children were in jail today—the mother charged with murder in the rat poison death of a daughter and the father with assault and battery with intent to kill in the scalding and beating of a son.

Mrs. Eileen Heil, 25, is held without bond pending Grand Jury action. Also awaiting Grand Jury action, and unable to post $10,000 bonds, is her husband, William, 26, a Korean War veteran. Both pleaded innocent.

The five children range from five weeks to 10 1/2 years.

State Police Sgt. Matthew O'Brien said he entered the case last Wednesday night after a hospital reported the couple's 2-year-old daughter, Ruth Ann, had died of rat poison.

O'Brien said 3-year-old Robert Heil was being treated for serious wounds on his feet in the same hospital, reportedly suffered the day before his sister died.

The officer said Heil admitted holding the boy's feet in boiling water to chastise him for taking a piece of bread from the table and beating him while he hung from a door in a duffel bag.

Mrs. Heil was released after questioning but last night, O'Brien said, she broke down and admitted putting rat poison on bread, giving it to Robert and telling him to hand it to his little sister because "she's hungry."

O'Brien added that Mrs. Heil told him "Ruth Ann cried all the time," was crippled and that neither she nor her husband believed the youngster would live very long. The officer said Mrs. Heil declared she acted on her own free will and her husband did not cooperate with her in planning to poison the child.

Two of the couple's children are under hospital treatment for malnutrition. The fifth is in a children's home.

Barrymore was gifted in other fields besides acting. His etchings and musical compositions brought him renown.

He was married twice. His 19-year marriage to Doris McKee Rankin ended in divorce in 1922. In July of the next year he married actress Irene Fenwick, who died on Christmas Eve, 1936.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Science Of Glamour Is Designer's Aim In New Car Styles

DETROIT, (AP)—The automobile industry is nearing the completion of another model changeover season, having spent hundreds of millions of dollars to enhance the sales of its product.

One of the things that stands out as the new models roll from the assembly line is the increasing importance the manufacturers are giving to eye-appeal.

Engineering, with half a dozen new V-8 engines, better brakes and improved transmission, still took the major share of close to a billion dollars spent on the model changeover, but styling has become so vital to sales volume that designers are beginning to talk about what they call the "science of glamour."

For years, whatever glamour there was in automobiles came mainly from their exterior contours. Now there is general agreement that glamorizing an automobile has many other factors, including interior styling, color and fabric selection.

Chrysler Corp., which has just spent 250 million dollars to bring out entirely new lines of cars in a comeback effort, is one of the major producers with a vast styling section in its engineering division. As an example of what is involved in glamorizing a new model, the Chrysler engineers point to the fact that more than 12,000 man-hours were devoted to developing the style and eye-appeal of the 1955 Plymouth model alone.

The group of "glamour scientists" working on the Plymouth made complete analyses of 90 different exterior colors, made and discarded more than 100 designs for new seats, arm rests and door panels. They conducted seven different tests on each of 233 kinds of fabric. Then they compared their findings with an imposing list of known facts on buyer likes and dislikes compiled from consumer studies.

Among the things the "glamour scientists" developed in their studies were: Two-tone paint jobs to not necessarily make a car look either longer or shorter; the more popular cars are those whose interior colors match those of the body; fewer women than men are color blind.

It all adds up to the fact that building an automobile to compete in a five-million-unit-a-year market is decidedly different from what it was in the 1920s. It probably also explains, in part why from 18 months to two years now are required to get a new automobile from the drafting board to the assembly line.

More and more states are switching to bright red highway stop signs, the AAA says. Oregon, Washington and Nevada are the latest to replace with the new signs.

Robert Young Is Family Man In Television As Well As Home

NEW YORK, (AP)—If ever there was a family man, Robert Young is that man—and then some.

The tall, graying movie veteran's own family consists of his wife of 22 years and their four daughters. And on his CBS television show, "Father Knows Best," he has a wife, a son and two daughters.

"My wife," he says, "often has kidded me, 'How can you put up with a family existence all day at the studio and come home at night and face another?'"

"The show is not patterned after my own family," he says, but youngsters on the program often come to him with their problems. "And whether I like it or not, I find myself involved to a certain extent in their personal lives."

"I find myself in the peculiar position of playing father to two families," he continued. "I feel a little like a bugapist—and I might add that from what little experience I've had, I don't envy one."

There's this bright note for Young—he finally has a son if only on television.

"I've often wished that the only way I could get a son was to write one into a TV serial," he observes.

The show, as its title implies, gently ribs the father of the house who may be a whiz at the office.

CONSTRUCTION BOOMING.
WASHINGTON, (AP)—Construction will keep right on booming in 1955, rising to a new record outlay of 39½ billion dollars, the Commerce and Labor departments predict.

This would be 2½ billion dollars or 7 per cent above the record construction which the government says is in prospect for this year.

The forecast was based on assumptions that construction costs will not rise next year, and that "the general level of economic activity will remain relatively stable."

Large Quantity Of Misfortune Strikes Family

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Things are looking up for the family of Kenneth R. Little—nothing had happened for the past two weeks. If you think you have troubles, consider the misfortunes which have hit the Lansing bank teller recently.

On July 13, acting as pallbearer at the funeral of his uncle, Little felt something snap in his back. Driving home, he tried to stop his car and found he couldn't move his legs. He spent three weeks paralyzed in a Flint hospital.

After he returned home, his wife Shirley drove their car into a tree. Their 5-month-old daughter was killed. Mrs. Little suffered torn shoulder ligaments after her teeth were knocked out.

In September, fire burned a barn on a neighbor's farm where Little stored his tractor. The tractor had to be rebuilt.

Oct. 7, attending a relative's birthday party at St. Johns, Little got word his home had burned down.

But some nice things have occurred to compensate.

Merchants, near Little's home, contributed $100.

A contractor has offered to rebuild his house foundation free.

Little Talbot Island State Park, near Jacksonville, was named in honor of Charles Baron Talbot, Lord High Chancellor of England, in 1736.

It was unanimously adopted at a meeting of the Florida Independent Citrus Growers Association at a meeting held at the San Juan Hotel at Orlando over the weekend that there should be a floor price of $1.25 a box on the tree for early oranges, $1.50 per box on the tree for mid-season, 75 cents per box for Duncan grapefruit and $1 per box for Marsh Seedless.

Another resolution was passed to investigate the sources which furnish the United States Department of Agriculture with information which was inaccurate, because the growers maintain that the estimate of 96 million boxes of oranges for 1954-1955 season was in excess from seven to 10 million boxes.

Harvey Cohen, president of the association, stated that the resolution requested that copies of the same be forwarded to State and Federal officials, because the estimate was unreasonably high.

Growers at this meeting claim that there was also an over estimate of eight to 10 million boxes of grapefruit.

Plans were formulated in preparation for a possible suit which may be filed by the USDA as a result of "The Cavalade of Freedom," initiated by the growers, who moved grapefruit and oranges by truck, to the State market in Thomasville, Ga. This action, according to the association, was taken as a token gesture in order to prove the validity of the regulations of the Federal marketing agreement at a time when growers in the citrus area were offered 10 to 15 cents a box on the tree for their grapefruit, while the independent growers sold grapefruit in the State market at Thomasville, Ga. at a price equivalent to 37 cents a box on the tree.

People Should Not Be Endangered By Automobiles With Unsafe Brakes

Yesterday, a woman was fined in City Court for failing to have proper brakes when she struck a child on a bicycle last week.

This is all well and good that the law was carried out—but there is one thing wrong with this method, and it seems to be the predominant method—it's like locking the barn door after the horse has been stolen. It's a bit late to take action in such a matter of faulty equipment after the accident has happened.

As it so happened in this case, the young cyclist was not injured seriously, but he underwent a certain amount of pain and missed his first day of school in three years. His mother was given a bad jolt. The driver probably didn't feel so well about the matter, either.

Probably all this pain and anxiety could have been avoided had only the car involved been equipped with good brakes.

Now, how many other cars are there running about with faulty brakes or poor equipment, endangering other motorists, passengers, cyclists and pedestrians? There must be plenty of this sort of thing.

It's a simple matter for a policeman to stop a vehicle having faulty headlights or taillights. The motorist is given a card giving him 48 hours in which to get the faulty light or lights in working order.

Here is one hazard which is eliminated, but action in this matter is easy because offenses are so easily spotted.

However, couldn't there be some means

HAL BOYLE

Boyle Re-Visits War Scenes

MALMEDY, Belgium (AP)—Nearly ten years after Adolf Hitler ripped the Allied western wall in the "Battle of the Bulge," a German war veteran now sells postcards at the site of the famous Malmédy massacre.

The scene is a junction of five roads about three miles south of here where on Dec. 17, 1944, breakthrough elements of the first SS Panzer Division surprised and captured lightly armed troops of an American field artillery observation battalion.

The Americans were disarmed and herded into a pasture a few feet from the road junction. As they stood there, defenseless hands overhead in the accepted posture of prisoners, the Nazi storm troopers opened fire on them.

Scores fell. The Hitler elite tankmen, blood-thirsty, drunk with Der Fuehrer's last impossible dream of victory against the West, strolled among the fallen. They kicked the bodies. Any that moved or showed signs of life they put a pistol to.

Some 15 escaped by playing dead. After the Nazi tanks rolled on south, they rose at a concerted whistled signal and ran for the trees. A single Nazi tank left to guard the crossroads machine gunned them as they fled.

A few moments later the survivors came into the outskirts of this town on an American patrol stant only by two trees toppled across the road by a few brave stubborn Belgians.

Jack Belden, then of Time Magazine, and I were the only newsmen who happened to be on this particular scene of the spreading, frightening battle of the Belgian Bulge. We got there not through insight, but because we woke up late that morning.

The other correspondents, who had arisen earlier, had taken round-about roads to where the Army reported the Germans were attacking. Having been through the battle of Kasserine Gap in Africa and knowing the speed of Nazi Panzers in attack, Belden and I looked at the map and drove from our headquarters in Spa to the nearest road network we figured the Germans would aim for—and they were there.

We got there just as the jeeps of surviving artillerymen came back into our lines. They were half-frozen, dazed, weeping with anger. At the first aid station, one boy shook out of his boot a bullet that had clipped off his toes.

"We didn't have a chance," he sobbed. "We didn't have a chance."

They didn't have a chance, and a revolted world soon knew the story.

Weeks later when the Nazi putch had failed, and the broken Panzer legions were being pushed back into the fatherland, we found at the crossroads still being blasted by enemy artillery fire, the frozen, snow-covered bodies that confirmed the full horror of the storm troopers' needless cruelty.

What is there left on that spot today?

The snows are gone, the men are gone. A monument topped by an American flag remains in memory.

It is an odd monument. At one end is a small stone crypt holding a wooden carving of Christ. The rest of the monument is merely a field stone wall in which are slabs of granite, each bearing the rankless name of an American soldier.

Across the road is a small cafe where wayfarers pause to take a cup of coffee and get out of the shivering cold. The proprietor is Louis Bodarwe, who has a wife and a small daughter. Louis sells postcards of photos of the frozen American victims in the snow.

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—In an initial study, a dental expert reports that daily brushings with a new compound show promise of removing tartar from teeth, or preventing it from forming. Tartar discolors teeth and can bring on gum irritation contributing to development of gum disease. Record Number Of Visitors Here Indicated For Next Few Months

It's anybody's guess how many winter visitors will come to Florida in the next few months, but barring an international catastrophe it's a sure bet to be a record number.

Every indication points that way. Indices show this summer was the most successful, touristwise, of any on record. All summer long the tourist areas buzzed with activity.

This meant money in state coffers as well as in the hands of hotel and tourist operators, restaurants and other businesses. The state director of the budget, Harry G. Smith, reported state revenues up 9 per cent in the July-September quarter and credited summer tourists for about half the increase.

The sales and use tax amounted to $14,700,000 for the period, an increase of 10.2 per cent over the like period last year.

There was a time in Florida when the summer was pretty dead. Now the summer season merges into the winter season with no heavy decline.

Construction has boomed all summer. Dozens of new tourist courts have gone up, and a few hotels. The 520-room Fontainebleau, being built on the former estate of Harvey Firestone at Miami Beach, will cost 15 million dollars.

All over the state tourist managers and hotels report a record number of inquiries and reservations for the winter.

Auldin Dugan, president of the St. Petersburg Hotel Assn., said his group was optimistic for an earlier and longer season than last year, with many already there.

Roland F. Hughes, president of the Apartment House Assn. at St. Petersburg reported October the best in years and said many members' buildings are filled for the winter.

St. Petersburg's city building director brought a new word into the picture—residentialism. As opposed to tourism, it represents the great number of persons who purchase homes while retaining residences elsewhere, with the idea of eventually retiring to the Florida home. He said there are at least 3,000 such "residentialism" homes in this city.

Optimism is high in the Miami-Miami Beach area. After a humming summer, winter arrivals already are appearing in volume.

Railroads and airlines have completed plans for additional facilities which begin operating in December. Airlines are running winter all-expense tours, summer fixtures which has proven enormously popular.

Eastern Air Lines reported it has chartered a number of airplanes from other companies "and the only thing that will limit our volume is lack of availability of flying equipment." The company says its planes will rack up a total of one million passengers in and out of Miami this year.

National and Delta and S reported "phenomenal" business with heavy bookings for future months.

Daytona Beach expects a new peak in winter visitors, while the many elites and towns in the beautiful ridge section already have many accommodations well booked for the season.

Way Down South In Sanford, Florida

WE SUPPOSE marriage lasted longer in the old days because a bride looked about the same after washing her face.

HOGS—Ham and eggs cater all know where they ham comes from and are glad to learn there is to be more of the same. Florida hog producers are expected to increase the number of hogs they produce this winter, according to the Florida Agricultural Outlook Committee. Well, prices for hogs have been quite high during the last six months, but have started to decline, but will still be favorable to producers and should encourage a further increase in hog numbers in 1955, though the increase will be governed by the amount of feed available.

BASEBALL—Yankees are jingling to have to scramble about without that World Series money this year.

FLOWERS—While you probably know that the common yellow jessamine is poisonous, you may not know just how poisonous. All parts of the vine, flower, stems, leaves and roots contain powerful and deadly alkaloids. This plant should never even be put into the mouth. There is a well substantiated case of a child being fatally poisoned by just chewing on the stem of yellow jessamine.

NOTHING is more powerful than hope. One little nibble will keep a person fishing all day.

Red Type Feeding Is Related By Jap
TOKYO, (AP)—What a Japanese politician saw on a Soviet collective chicken farm near Moscow last summer has convinced him he says that Communists "will stop at nothing to gain their ends."

Yasumu Imaizumi, right-wing Socialist, writes in a newspaper article he saw a food pipe thrust into a chicken's stomach.

"An operator steps on a pedal and one portion of food is sent into the stomach of the bird. Suddenly the stomach swells up and the hen screams. This is indeed an outrage of chickens' rights, as it were," says Imaizumi.

"I asked the woman in charge, 'Why do you do such a mean thing?' She explained to me: 'Our primary objective is not to raise chickens, but to get eggs. We do not care about the will of hens.' 'We can never approve of such a way of thinking' in Japan, concludes Imaizumi.

JAMES MARLOW Senate GOP Leader Differs With Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland's job as Senate Republican leader is to steer President Eisenhower's program through that chamber but at times he seems at cross-purposes with the man in the White House.

In the midst of yesterday's Senate debate on censuring Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), Knowland, a Californian, delivered a speech denouncing the idea that there could be "peaceful coexistence" with the Communist world.

This was contrary to what Eisenhower himself told a news conference last June 30 after a White House visit by Sir Winston Churchill, Britain's prime minister, and Sir Anthony Eden, the British foreign minister.

Eisenhower said the hope of the world lay in peaceful coexistence, but he declared this must not mean appeasement and must not mean the subordination of any nation to an outside power.

This was pretty good evidence that the President, although he hoped for coexistence, wasn't betting it would work.

Churchill had said much the same thing two days before when, at a June 28 news conference, he urged a "real good try" at peaceful coexistence. It might not solve all problems, he said, but things might get better.

The President and the Prime Minister made their statements more than a year after the Russians began talking of coexistence.

Knowland's expression yesterday of his views on coexistence wasn't all new. Last Aug. 1 he said coexistence with Russia is as impossible as coexisting in a cage of tigers. Yesterday he said Russia is plugging "coexistence" to gain time to accumulate atomic power.

He said once there was such an atomic stalemate—perhaps between 1957 and 1960—Russia would begin nibbling away at small nations, with Communist victory the final result.

Although he doesn't like the coexistence theme, Knowland said he had no alternative. He said he doesn't want war of any kind.

He called for congressional investigations of the administration's foreign and defense policies. Yet only last March 17, while praising the administration's "new

Your System Can't Take An Overdose of Alcohol

By HERMAN M. BUNDSEN, M.D.

THAT occasional highball probably won't do you any harm. Nature has given us a wonderful body that will give us good service for years if you just remember to use it, not abuse it.

Although I seldom drink liquor, I don't think a highball once in a while will hurt you provided, of course, your doctor hasn't forbidden it and you are in general good health.

Unpleasant Results
Steady or repeated drinking, however, might have rather unpleasant results.

The stomach, liver and kidneys are normally trained to take care of alcohol just about like any other liquid. About 45 minutes or so after that single highball, the liquid is pretty well cleared of the kidneys and liver.

Too Many Drinks
If, however, you follow that first drink with another and then another, you don't give the liquor a chance to clear these vital organs. You clog up your filter system and that causes irritation.

Then, my friend, you're liable to have trouble.

Answer: Unless fortified with vitamins, skimmed milk will not supply the fat-soluble vitamins A and D. Skimmed milk fortified with vitamins is readily available in most areas.

Scoring Record Set As Crooms Panthers Drop Leesburg, 49-6

By ROSETTA DAVIS
Crooms Academy's Donnell "Bud" Burke led the Crooms Academy Panthers to a thrilling 49-6 victory over the Leesburg Trojans in the Memorial Stadium here Friday night. Burke scored five touchdowns to account for 30 of Crooms points. He is the leading Panther scorer with 34 points while Billy Gordon and Gee Knight are tied with 24 points each.

Burke set the pattern of the game for the Panthers in the first quarter when he broke away for a sensational 86 yard run for the first Panther score. He picked up a phenomenal 374 yards in 12 tries—an average of 32 yards per carry.

Stadwards in the Panther line were captain Joe Straws Freddie Washington, Ralph Thomas, John Simpson and center Gavin Collins. By halftime the Panthers led by a narrow 13-6 margin.

In the third quarter, Burke rammed two TD's across, while senior halfbacks Billy Gordon and Gee Knight both scored.

Friday night's victory was a particularly happy event for the Panthers because they racked up the highest score in the history of Crooms Academy breaking the record set by the 1946 team when coach L. A. Jones was captain. That game was played and won by a score of 48 in the old ball park against St. Augustine.

A particular highlight of the evening was the half-time performance of the Crooms and Leesburg bands.

The Panthers will journey to Cocoa Thursday night to play the Cocoa Tigers whom they defeated 19-0 last year.

Crooms now has a 3-3 season record, defeating Dale City, Leesburg and Eustis.

Sports Writers Vote Ohio State As Best

The Associated Press trouble with sitting one out is that some folks might get the idea you're a wallflower. That's what happened to the unbeaten Bruins of UCLA in the Associated Press college football poll this week as the unbeaten Buckeyes of Ohio State took over the No. 1 spot by a sevenpoint count.

UCLA held first place last week with an overpowering vote total, but was lilted last Saturday when Ohio State, edging closer to the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl, mauled Purdue 28-6.

The Bruins, with an 8-0 record identical to that of the Bucks, still managed to edge Ohio State in first place votes, 92-87, but on the usual basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second, etc., OSU polled 2,010 points to UCLA's 2,002.

All of which means this Saturday's contest probably will decide the running battle between Ohio State and UCLA — each having held the No. 1 position twice this season.

Both teams complete their regular season schedules — UCLA against Southern California in a game that could give the Bruins the Pacific Coast Conference championship, and Ohio State against Michigan, with the Bucks needing at least a tie to win the Big Ten crown and the Rose Bowl trip outright.

Oklahoma, the only other major unbeaten team (also 8-0), wound up in third place for the third straight week after beating Missouri. But Notre Dame, picked as the preseason champion, moved up a notch to fourth after whipping North Carolina. The Irish replaced Arkansas, which was knocked down to ninth after losing its first game of the season to Southern Methodist.

Army, once-beaten like Notre Dame, also moved up one to fifth. Mississippi rose to sixth. Navy and Southern Cal were dethroned at seventh.

Minnesota jumped from 18th to 10th after defeating Iowa. The Hawkeyes, ninth a week ago, settled at No. 19.

The leading teams with first-place votes in parentheses:

- 1. Ohio State (87)..... 2,010
- 2. UCLA (82)..... 2,002
- 3. Oklahoma (20)..... 1,941

- 5. Army (7-1)..... 1,107
- 6. Mississippi (7)..... 671

THE OHIO STATE BUCKEYES nailed down at least a tie for the Big Ten football championship and probably a Rose Bowl Trip when they beat Purdue 28 to 6 on the Lafayette, Ind., field. Here Purdue got a break early in the game when Phil Ehrman (32) made a first down on a pass, but was stopped by Ohio's Bob Watkins (15). Michigan, once beaten, remains a contender for Big Ten honors. Detroit Lions Seek Third League Title

By ORLO ROBERTSON
The Associated Press Detroit Lions, leading the Western Conference by two games, are safely on the way to their third straight National Football League playoff and a chance to win their third successive league title.

But the road is far from rosy for the New York Giants, who are atop the Eastern Conference today but only by the thin margin of half a game.

The Lions avenged their only defeat of the season yesterday when they whipped the San Francisco 49ers 48-7 for their sixth victory. They have five games remaining — two with the Green Bay Packers and one each against the Philadelphia Eagles, Chicago Bears and the Cleveland Browns. And only the Browns, pressing the Giants for the Eastern Conference lead, figure to cause the champions any serious trouble.

Meantime, the Giants, who took sole possession of their division yesterday by downing the Eagles 27-14, must face the always dangerous Los Angeles Rams Sunday and then take on the Browns in the game that could well decide the title. They also play Pittsburgh and Philadelphia again.

The Browns, who hold a 5-2 record compared to Philadelphia's 6-2 after walloping the Bears 35-10 yesterday, tangled with the Eagles Sunday, followed by the Giants whom they defeated earlier in the season, Washington, Pittsburgh and Detroit.

The 49ers' defeat yesterday coupled with Los Angeles' 28-17 conquest of the Chicago Cardinals tied the Rams with San Francisco for second place in the division. Pittsburgh's title hopes faded still more with a 17-14 defeat by Washington. On Saturday night, Green Bay defeated Baltimore 27-13.

Leading Golfer Dies In Augusta

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Fielding H. Wallace, 74, president of the United States Golf Association from 1948 to 1950 and widely known in golfing circles, died suddenly last night.

He was president of the Southern Press Cloth Co. in Augusta, secretary of the Augusta National Golf Club, and a former president of the Georgia State Golf Association.

He also was closely associated with the growth of the Augusta Country Club and was president from 1922 to 1936.

Seven Squads Drop From Ten Spot

NEW YORK (AP)—The ranks of collegiate football's unbeaten and untied teams listed 26 schools today as seven dropped from the select group over the weekend.

Only three major colleges—UCLA, Ohio State and Oklahoma—still boast unblemished records.

Both Arkansas and Cincinnati tasted defeat for the first time Saturday to fall by the wayside.

Other teams to tumble from the unbeaten-untied group were Michigan Normal, Montana State, Miami of Ohio, Carnegie Tech and Appalachian State.

General Manager Sought For Team

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Arnold Johnson today prepared to take a key move in the face-lifting job the plans on his newly acquired Kansas City Athletics—naming a general manager.

The Chicago millionaire who brought the American League's Athletics here from Philadelphia has given no inkling of his choice but speculation centered around Parks Carroll.

Carroll is general manager of the New York Yankees farm club, the American Aeon, Blues. The Blues have been Kansas City's Association entry since 1945.

Johnson described Carroll as "a fine man" and a good friend.

One of the general manager's first official jobs will be to attend the major league draft meeting in New York next week. He faces the momentous job of trying to guide the A's out of the league cellar.

Johnson also is expected to name a field manager for the Athletics.

Boudreau, former manager of the Boston Red Sox, said last week he had been in touch with Johnson but that "nothing is definite yet."

Johnson said he had received many applications for the field job.

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Having noted that one of our principal tennis heroes, Tony Trabert, had just taken a shellacking from a minor Australian player named Don Candy out in Sydney, we ran down that dozen of American tennis leaders, Mercer Beasley, and asked him what in the world he thought the game was coming to.

Beasley, who has devoted his last 32 years to showing our youth the proper end of a racket to grip, frankly was gloomy.

"Thinking has gone out of the game," he said. "I would have to say that that is the principal development I have seen in my time. If there is a man playing today who thinks on the court the way Bill Tilden did, I don't know who he is. Bill would have thought any of our present amateurs right off the court."

"All they know now is to hit the ball past them down the lines. Maybe this dates me, but that's the way I see it."

Beasley, who was instrumental in the development of two such stars as Ellsworth Vines and Frankie Parker, now travels around the country for a sporting goods firm, conducting tennis clinics and ever searching for talent.

He is convinced that if the United States ever is to reclaim its former place in the net world it must look to the public parks.

"Where do you think Don Hodge and Bobby Riggs and Parker and most of our other great players came from?" he demanded. "They didn't come from the colleges and country clubs. And neither did these Australian boys who have been taking us over the jumps for the past few years."

LAKE WALES.—A replica of Ft. Mifflin, a fort constructed near Fort Proctor between 1820 and 1850 to aid Florida settlers in deterring themselves from Indians, is being constructed on the grounds of the Great Masterpiece here. It was an oval of Indian, 1841. Students at Florida Southern College are donating their time to building the fort, which will be an exact reproduction of the Fort Mifflin structure. It was said, and the building will be dedicated to the college. The fort was one of 167 wooden structures built under the labor administration at the time, although none of them remain in existence today. Now under construction, the fort will be composed of a stockade 80 feet square, with two block houses and two central towers located at the corners. Plans for the building were drawn from rough sketches provided by old Fort Proctor residents who had seen the structure when it was still in use. The fort was located approximately one mile west of State Road 27, at the Fort Proctor site, on a military road to Fort Mifflin in the Kissimmee River that may still be used by the coastal observer. Work on the Great Masterpiece reproduction was launched on Tuesday and completion is expected on or about November 16, with dedication tentatively scheduled for the first week in December.

Lazy Thyroid Is Blamed For Colds

By ALTON J. BARNETT
AP Science Reporter
NEW YORK (AP)—Susceptible to colds?

A lazy thyroid gland apparently could be the reason, writes Dr. Marshall C. Cheney, University of California, in G.P. magazine of the American Academy of General Practice. Doses of thyroid tablets may make up for the gland's laziness, he says. The treatment is combined with measures such as eating dry, any chronic infection of nasal passages, and improving general health care.

Sticky, colds, coughs, and sore throats are common ailments, says Dr. Paul Williams, in a column in G.P. magazine. He says he has tried it on 100 patients, and a few needed it, but most needed it only a few times. He says he has seen many patients who had colds and sore throats, but who had never had their thyroid glands checked.

Hoboken, N.J.—The crests and frequency of ocean waves can be measured accurately and quickly with an electronic device using magnetic tape. It promises to be useful in studies of beach erosion, harbor protection and coastal engineering. It was developed by Drs. Sheldon S. Chown, electronic engineer, and Dr. Willard J. Parsons Jr., oceanographer, research division of New York University's College of Engineering, under contract with the U.S. Beach Erosion Board.

North Platte, Neb.—Push button railroad is coming in here with an electronic device which automatically switches and controls the coupling speeds of freight cars, to prevent or reduce impact damage to contents of box cars. It was developed jointly by the Union Pacific Railroad and Reeves Instrument Corp. of New York, and is being demonstrated in the railroad's yard here which handles up to 4,000 freight cars in 24 hours.

Clark Cable Reflects Past; Will Take It Easy

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"After 25 years in the movie business, I'm not going to work my head off."
This was Clark Gable talking. He was reflecting on his past present and future in his usual offhanded manner. A big man with an easy grin, he lacks any pretense. He scoffs at the title of "king," which Hollywood pins on him despite the fact that films of other stars earn more money.

Although he has two or three pictures lined up and could name his deal at any studio in town, he indicated he will spare his world with plenty of time between films. Does this mean he is "loaded" financially?
"Let's say I'm in pretty good shape," said Gable, who is considered one of the most money-wise of stars. "I'm not rich by any means. But I'm comfortable. That's all I ask of life—to be warm, well fed and comfortable."

Among the comforts and diversions he enjoys in life are good female companionship, travel and fishing. He'll talk for hours about fishing about the only subject on which he is reliable. "I don't know why he liked it so much."
"Because fishing is a very manly sport," he said. "and that's me. A LAZY MAN. I like to hunt, but there's a lot of walking involved. Fishing is easy, you can just sit and wait."
He indulged in a recent trip to La Paz, Mexico. He has been marlin fishing ever since. "I was out of the country for a while, but I was in La Paz in two weeks. I want to do it again. I want to take about six weeks and really see Africa. I can't know many of the white people there. It was with my company. I'll get one of them to lead a safari and we'll just take off."

"Mostly I'll just travel. The big game don't interest me. I like the smaller game—sheep, deer, ducks, geese and so forth."
Reflecting on his career, Gable said that "Mogambo" was the only really good picture he has had in the last 10 years. He made a slight exception for "Samurai, December 1954," for which choice he was responsible. The play was originally sent to him. He turned it down but induced MGM to buy the film rights. He wasn't entirely happy with the result.

Y. Krupin, Russian commercial representative, reportedly made the offer to the Japan Locomotive and Rolling Stock Industry Association. The association instructed its members to submit quotations.
The order probably would top that of 1948 when Russia purchased 365 locomotives and rolling stock. It would be the first such order since the start of the Korean War.

Mrs. Martin, visiting her grand-daughter here, happened to glance through the telephone book and saw Prigmore listed.

Boat Inspections To Be Held Here Next Two Sundays

MIAMI—Capt. Stephen P. Swirego, USCG, commander, 7th Coast Guard District has announced that the period from Nov. 13 thru Nov. 30 has been designated "Courtesy Motorboat Examination Roundup Time" for the over 1800 members of the Coast Guard Auxiliary residing in Georgia, Florida, South Carolina and Puerto Rico. Capt. Swirego explained that the Coast Guard Auxiliary, the civilian right arm of the Coast Guard, has as its primary mission, the promotion of safe boating. To do this, the Auxiliary, under the direction of the Coast Guard, offers to the pleasure boatman a courtesy examination of his motorboat pointing out the requirements of law and good seamanship. If the motorboat passes the examination, a decalcomania is affixed thereto, attesting to the safe standards on board. Regular Coast Guard boarding parties do not board boats displaying this decal unless a violation is apparent. No penalty is imposed for failure to pass the Auxiliary's examination, nor is any report of the examination made to Coast Guard Authorities. "We wish to stress," said Capt. Swirego, "that the Auxiliary's watchword is 'courtesy' and his aim to spare you, his neighbor, from tragedy." Victor J. Conerly, commander of the Sanford Flotilla added that his unit will set up a courtesy motorboat examination station at Sanford Boat Works, which will be manned by Auxiliary from 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. on Nov. 21 and Nov. 28. He urged all owners of motorboats used for pleasure in this area to bring their boats around to the station. Further information may be had by calling John Brumley at 1132.

Warning Given By HD Agent On Electricity

Did you ever think how many things in your own home can shock you? Well, there are a lot of them when electric current is on and too many persons forget the danger of electricity, says Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration agent today. "When you fall victim of the old adage that familiarity breeds contempt," she said, "then remind these ways to safeguard electric service in your home: (1) Never touch an electric appliance or radio while you're in the shower. (2) Disconnect outlets, not lamp sockets, for electric appliances. (3) Disconnect electric iron and heating appliances when not in use. (4) Don't stand in a puddle when connecting laundry appliances. (5) Never touch any grounded metal such as a sink, water pipes when handling electrical appliances. (6) Inspect all flex-cords regularly for frayed or cracked insulation, and replace or repair these defective cords. (7) Never run flexible cords across a radiator, over pipes, or through windows. (8) Don't yank the cord when plugging or unplugging. (9) Insist on the Underwriters' Laboratories label on cord sets or power supply cords."

Too Liberal Trades Hurt Car Business Dealers Are Told

MIAMI BEACH—An Automobile dealer here told yesterday that over liberal trades were a hard and fast business. Paul H. Brown of Citicorp, vice president of the General Finance Corp. advised the National Used Car Dealers Assn. convention that the "tragedy" of 1938 might be repeated. In that year, he said, sales of new cars slumped 50 per cent because overly liberal trade-in values were being made to "clear last year's selling of this year's market," said Brown. "Installment selling is not a shot in the arm to be applied when sales slow down," he said. "It is a normal, basic part of the system of merchandising at all times."

American Fighters Are Transferred To New Command

SOESTERBERG AIR BASE, Netherlands—The 512th U.S. Fighter Squadron was transferred to Dutch operational command yesterday by U.S. Ambassador Lt. Freeman Matthews in a ceremony at this air base of the Dutch air force. "One more link is forged in the Allied Air Force's chain of command," Matthews said as he handed over control of the 550 American airmen and their 25 Sabrejets. Dutch War Minister Cornelis Staf described the ceremony, held on a parade ground lined by Dutch troops, as a "landmark in NATO history." Staf asked the chief of the Dutch air staff, Lt. Gen. A. Barilla, "to surround this squadron with such care as if it were a Netherlands squadron." He asked the Dutch population to treat the American airmen as competitors. "For they have come here for the protection and defense of our freedom." The outfit, commanded by Lt. Col. Frank M. Egan, of Clarkston, Ga., will remain assigned for administration to the 46th Fighter Interceptor Wing based at the British Air Force station at Manston, Kent.

Marlon, Washington, D.C., is seeking to enjoin his neighbor, Mayor Earl Higginbotham, from keeping horses. The motion was filed by Higginbotham's attorney, Volie Williams Jr., and states the following: "Comes now the defendant, Earl Higginbotham, by his undersigned attorney, and moves the court to dismiss the complaint for that (1) The relation has an adequate remedy at law. (2) That said complaint is without equity. (3) That said complaint sets up no facts which entitle complainants to any relief in a court of equity. (4) That said complaint is not sworn to nor are affidavits filed therewith. Local Legion Post To Cooperate In Plan To Aid Highway Patrol

Campbell-Lovings Post No. 53 of the American Legion will participate in a plan to form an auxiliary of Legionnaires to aid the Florida Highway Patrol in times of emergency or disaster, according to R. Z. Johnson Jr., post commander. Florida is the latest state to announce plans for the organization of an auxiliary highway patrol composed wholly of Legionnaires who will perform in conjunction with the Florida Highway Patrol in such circumstances as: The Sunshine State's auxiliary is patterned after an Ohio unit which has some 7,000 volunteer Legionnaires in its ranks. Units will be started immediately in half a dozen major sections of the state, Comdr. H. N. Kirkman of the Department of Public Safety, a former departmental commander, said today. Units will be formed in Tallahassee, St. Petersburg, Miami, Jacksonville and Orlando. Others will come along as fast as organizational details can be worked out. At a recent meeting in Gainesville, Legion Department Comdr. Joe C. Jenkins announced that plans for the auxiliary had finally been formulated after several years' efforts and Lt. Jay L. Hall of the Florida Highway Patrol has been named the liaison officer between the State Patrol and its new auxiliary. Hall has already met with Legionnaires in some sections, including the St. Petersburg Post 14, to complete training plan talks. Group Will Aid Such an organization in any emergency, whether peacetime natural disaster or wartime enemy action will aid in protection of life, preservation of order, prevention of panic, maintenance of mobile communications and traffic control. The auxiliary would also relieve the patrol from desk, radio and typewriter jobs in case of serious riot. The auxiliary would not take part in polling labor disputes, political assemblies, protests, meetings and similar categories. Original authorization for the Florida American Legion to set up such a program was given during the 1954 Legion Convention in St. Petersburg. Ronald G. Johnson, St.

Checks totaling approximately $31,000 will be mailed out tomorrow by the Florida State Bank and the Sanford Atlantic National Bank to members of their Christmas savings clubs. Of this total, approximately $17,000 is going to about 850 members of the savings club at the Florida State Bank, and about $14,000 to approximately 300 members of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank's club. According to E. E. Tucker, president of the former bank, over $1 billion will be sent out this month in the United States to 12,000,000 Christmas club members by 6,000 banks. "In the state of Florida, an estimated $4,150,000 will be paid out," Robert Bauman, president of the second bank, said. "Joining a Christmas savings club gives the benefit to local merchants at this folks a prepaid Christmas. "Such a program proves to be a time of year by providing a considerable amount of money to be funneled into local channels at one time."

County Requests State Delegates Get New Survey

Among other business at their regular meeting yesterday morning in the Court House, the County Commissioners adopted a resolution favoring the employment of out of county appraisers to make an appraisal of all Seminole County property. The Commissioners requested state appraisers, Messrs. Tom and State Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. and Volie Williams, Jr. introduce a bill at the next session of the legislature to authorize the Board of County Commissioners to employ a firm of competent out of county appraisers for the purpose of reappraising the value of all Seminole county property. The Commissioners also deferred for further investigation a proposal by J. Bratley Odham to enter into a joint venture, paying several cents near the new elementary school on French Ave. and 25th St. Odham plans to build about 30 homes in the area, County Clerk O. P. Herndon said. A petition presented by 33 Lake Mary residents requesting the county to repair and maintain the intersection of Third St. and country club rd. in Lake Mary was received by the Commission, but action was deferred until the county commissioners have viewed the site following a protest by several persons present, Herndon said. Providing the property owners furnish rights of way, the commissioners agreed to build a road northwest of Longwood rd. to Lake Lake.

Entire Block Burns In Baltimore Fire

BALTIMORE, Md.—An entire square block of South Baltimore was burned out last night by an 11 alarm fire that swept through a lumberyard and spread to adjoining buildings. More than half of the city's first-line equipment, 64 pieces out of 140—were rushed to the scene. The lumberyard, two trucking firms, a garage, a tool company, numerous smaller firms and apartment houses were wiped out. Many other buildings were damaged. At least 150 persons were driven from their homes. Three explosions rocked the area but only one person was reported injured, a fireman hospitalized with burns on both feet. No official damage estimate was given immediately but one source estimated it would exceed one million dollars.

Starren Wants Eisenhower Drafted

HOUSTON—Harold Starren said yesterday President Eisenhower, regardless of whether he seeks re-election in 1956, should be drafted "for the good of the country." Starren, twice a candidate for the Republican nomination, said he will not announce again in 1956 because Eisenhower should be allowed to continue his program. "I am a firm believer in the draft," Starren said. "I believe that the country needs a strong leader at this time. Eisenhower is the only man who has the experience and the ability to lead the country through these difficult times. I believe that he should be drafted and that we should support him in every way possible."

Local Legion Post To Cooperate In Plan To Aid Highway Patrol

Campbell-Lovings Post No. 53 of the American Legion will participate in a plan to form an auxiliary of Legionnaires to aid the Florida Highway Patrol in times of emergency or disaster, according to R. Z. Johnson Jr., post commander. Florida is the latest state to announce plans for the organization of an auxiliary highway patrol composed wholly of Legionnaires who will perform in conjunction with the Florida Highway Patrol in such circumstances as: The Sunshine State's auxiliary is patterned after an Ohio unit which has some 7,000 volunteer Legionnaires in its ranks. Units will be started immediately in half a dozen major sections of the state, Comdr. H. N. Kirkman of the Department of Public Safety, a former departmental commander, said today. Units will be formed in Tallahassee, St. Petersburg, Miami, Jacksonville and Orlando. Others will come along as fast as organizational details can be worked out. At a recent meeting in Gainesville, Legion Department Comdr. Joe C. Jenkins announced that plans for the auxiliary had finally been formulated after several years' efforts and Lt. Jay L. Hall of the Florida Highway Patrol has been named the liaison officer between the State Patrol and its new auxiliary. Hall has already met with Legionnaires in some sections, including the St. Petersburg Post 14, to complete training plan talks. Group Will Aid Such an organization in any emergency, whether peacetime natural disaster or wartime enemy action will aid in protection of life, preservation of order, prevention of panic, maintenance of mobile communications and traffic control. The auxiliary would also relieve the patrol from desk, radio and typewriter jobs in case of serious riot. The auxiliary would not take part in polling labor disputes, political assemblies, protests, meetings and similar categories. Original authorization for the Florida American Legion to set up such a program was given during the 1954 Legion Convention in St. Petersburg. Ronald G. Johnson, St.

Starren Wants Eisenhower Drafted

HOUSTON—Harold Starren said yesterday President Eisenhower, regardless of whether he seeks re-election in 1956, should be drafted "for the good of the country." Starren, twice a candidate for the Republican nomination, said he will not announce again in 1956 because Eisenhower should be allowed to continue his program. "I am a firm believer in the draft," Starren said. "I believe that the country needs a strong leader at this time. Eisenhower is the only man who has the experience and the ability to lead the country through these difficult times. I believe that he should be drafted and that we should support him in every way possible."
